DEFENDER

Sounders FC (1-3-1, 4 points) returns to the Xbox Pitch at CenturyLink Field to take on the Philadelphia Union (3-2-0, 9 points) on Saturday evening. Last Sunday, the Rave Green escaped Houston's BBVA Compass Stadium with a point after scoring the equalizer four minutes into second-half stoppage time. Defender Chad Marshall recorded the score from close range after forward Oalex Anderson sent a dangerous ball into Houston's area in the match's final seconds.

Last week, the Union defeated Orlando City 2-1 to surge to a tie for first in the Eastern Conference. The week prior, Philadelphia fell 1-0 at Chicago after winning 2-1 at Columbus and 3-0 versus New England.

DID YOU KNOW???

After scoring the equalizing goal against the Dynamo on Sunday, Marshall now has three career goals across all competitions since joining Seattle prior to the 2014 season - all in the 84th minute or later - including a stoppage-time strike in the second leg of the Western Conference Semifinals against FC Dallas last season.

THROWBACK: 2014 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup Final – September 16, 2014

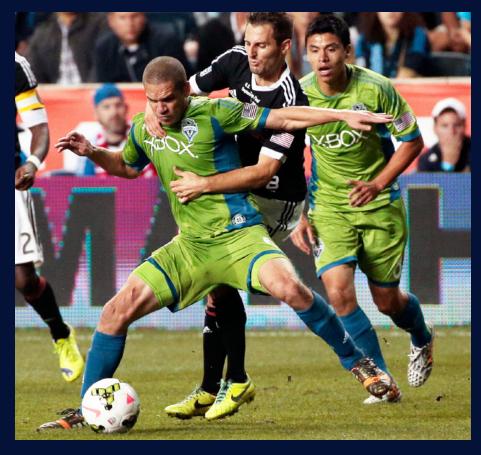

While every match between MLS sides is important, the biggest contest between the two sides came in September 2014. The stakes? The Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup trophy – and an opportunity for the Sounders to win its unprecedented fourth tournament title in six years.

Star forwards Clint Dempsey and Obafemi Martins scored in extra time as the Sounders captured the title against the Union at PPL Park. The win gave the Rave Green its fourth Open Cup title (2009, 2010, 2011), tying the Chicago Fire for the most among MLS teams. The Union got on the board first in the 38th minute when Cristian Maidana's free kick found Maurice Edu in the box for a header past Stefan Frei.

Sounders FC equalized just after the half when Chad Barrett knocked in a rebound attempt for his second goal of the tournament.

Vincent Nogueira nearly gave Philadelphia the winner in the 90th minute when he collected a ball over the top in the box and smashed a shot off the post, keeping the game at 1-1 and forcing extra time.

Seattle's stars took center stage in extra time, with the first goal coming in the 101st minute when Martins slid a pass into the box for Dempsey, who slotted a shot past Zac MacMath to break the tie. In the 114th minute, Martins put Seattle up 3-1 when he chipped the onrushing MacMath after getting behind the defense.

Sounders FC then celebrated its fourth trophy on the field in Chester, PA in front of a strong traveling contingent of Rave Green faithful.
