- Of Cincinnati's 75 points on the season, 36 of them have come away from Nippert Stadium ... FCC has taken 36-of-45 available points away from home this season and has claimed points in 14-of-15 games on the road

... BUT HOMEBODIES OVER THE SUMMER

- While FCC has spent considerable time on the road so far this season, that changed over the summer
- Between mid-July through mid-August, Cincinnati played six straight USL games - from July 14 through August 18 - in front of the record-setting, raucous crowds at Nippert Stadium
- The Orange and Blue played their first road game since July 7 when they began a two-game road trip in Atlanta (Aug. 22) followed by Tampa Bay (Aug. 25)
- After an 0-1-1 start at home in 2018, FCC finished the USL regular-season with a record of 12-2-3 at Nippert Stadium this year with the two losses both coming to Louisville City FC (April 7 and May 26)

ROAD RUN IN PERSPECTIVE

- So far this season, Cincinnati has posted a 11-1-3 road record in USL play, collecting points in 14-of-15 games ... FCC has earned 36 points on the road so far
- In 2017, Cincinnati went 4-8-4 in the club's 16-game USL road schedule and collected points in half the team's games - 8-of-16 - for just 16 points on the road all season
- In 2016 - the club's first year - Cincinnati went 7-5-4 away from home, collecting points in 11-of-16 games for 25 points
- FCC is on pace to shatter its best road performance this year ... the club set a new club record for road wins in a season (11) and road points in a season (36) with still two of its 17 total USL road games left to play

TROUBLESOME TANDEM

- The front-running duo of Danni König and Emmanuel Ledesma has created havoc for opposing back lines since late-April
- Since uniting as a forward tandem at the start of the second half against Pittsburgh Riverhounds SC on April 21, the pair has combined for 26 goals and 15 assists in the 27 games since
- Additionally, three of König's goals have been set up Ledesma
- In fact, in those 26 games, both players have been kept off the scoresheet just five times since April 21: the 2-0 loss to Louisville on May 26, the 2-2 draw against Bethlehem Steel FC on June 13 (which Ledesma missed because of a yellow-card accumulation suspension), the 0-0 draw at Nashville SC on July 7, the 2-0 win over Charlotte on July 18 (which König did not see action in), and the 5-1 win at Atlanta on Aug. 22 (which König did not see action in and Ledesma missed because of a yellow-card accumulation suspension)

LEDESMA LEADING CHARGE IN GOALS AND ASSISTS

- Emmanuel "Manu" Ledesma has turned heads in his first USL season after a year of standout play in the NASL with the New York Cosmos in 2017 and is now having an impressive season for Cincinnati
- In 29 appearances for FC Cincinnati this year, Ledesma is tied for fifth in the USL in goals (16) and leads the USL in assists (15) - and leads both categories for all FC Cincinnati players
- With three assists against Toronto FC II on Sept. 16, Ledesma broke the USL single-season assist record of 12, which was met twice previously: Chris Wehan (Reno 1868 FC, 2017) and Matthew Dallman (Pittsburgh Riverhounds SC, 2013)
- He was the USL June Player of the Month after earning a runner-up finish in the May USL Player of the Month voting ... additionally, USL fans voted him the overwhelming USL Midseason Most Valuable Player
- In the last 26 games he's played, Ledesma has scored all 16 of his goals and recorded 14 assists overall as FCC went 20-2-4 in that run
- Ledesma has been voted to the USL Team of the Week six times this season (Weeks 7, 8, 10, 12 - bench, 14 and 27) and was the league's Player of the Week for Week 10 and June's Player of the Month

GOALKEEPER UNION SO FAR THIS SEASON

- Because of injury, FCC have used two different goalkeepers through the first 32 games of the season
- Evan Newton (12-2-6) started the first five games before a hip injury sidelined him for four games ... Newton returned to the field for the Orange and Blue's USOC Second-Round game against Detroit City FC on May 16, and then returned to the USL field against North Carolina FC on May 19, starting 12 of the next 16 league games
- In Newton's stead, Spencer Richey (11-1-0) stepped into goal for the four USL games in Newton's injury absence and started the Orange and Blue's match against New York Red Bulls II (July 21) ... Richey has started seven of FC Cincinnati's last 10 matches and served as Newton's backup at Tampa Bay on Aug. 25 and at Richmond on Sept. 26
- Between the two 'keepers, Cincinnati has posted 13 USL shutouts: nine by Newton and four by Richey ... FCC ranks sixth in the USL in shutouts, three back of league leader Pittsburgh (16)

- Newton ranks ninth in the USL in shutouts, and his 56 saves are tied for 20th in the league overall, despite not playing in 12 games

SMITH SURGING FORWARD

- Blake Smith is the squad's top-scoring defender this season, netting one goal and adding four assists in 28 USL appearances from his left back position
- Smith tallied the team's season-opening goal in FCC's 1-0 road win at Charleston on March 17 and then picked up his first assist on Emmanuel Ledesma's eventual game-winning goal against Atlanta
- At New York Red Bulls II on June 2, Smith set up Ledesma's game-tying goal in the second half and then put in the lofted cross against Bethlehem that Russell Cicerone headed home on June 13 ... on June 30, Danni König headed in his cross to put FCC up 1-0 early against Ottawa
- Smith has missed three games due to injury this season - two games in April and one in May - with separate ankle injuries
- His four assists this season are tied with Nazmi Albadawi, Corben Bone, Jimmy McLaughlin and Emery Welshman for second-most on the team, behind Ledesma's league-leading 15

ONE FIRST AFTER ANOTHER FOR CICERONE

- After a trio of successful appearances in U.S. Open Cup play, right-sided midfielder Russell Cicerone made his debut in USL play for Cincinnati on June 9 at North Carolina ... he started and played 73 minutes in his league debut ... Cicerone finished the day with two shots - including one on target - and a team-best three crosses
- Four days later on June 13, he started his second straight game and added another first: his first USL goal ... against Bethlehem, he headed in a Blake Smith cross to then put FCC up 2-1, a lead which they surrendered a minute later
- It was his first professional goal after not seeing time with Timbers 2 in his first pro season in 2017
- Cicerone added the first ever goal scored by an FC Cincinnati player in an international friendly when he scored on July 28 against RCD Espanyol
- He notched his first FC Cincinnati assist on August 22 at Atlanta

WALKER HITS SCORING STRIDE EARLY ON

- Kenney Walker was a key factor in the FCC attack at the start of the season as the team's overhauled roster continued to gel ... in a four-game span, he registered three goals and one secondary assist
- After missing the team's third and fourth games after an in-game collision at Indy on March 31, he returned to the field on April 21 against Pittsburgh as a substitute and was integral to the team's success as the team headed in to May
- Against Pittsburgh, his second-half goal proved to be the game's equalizer in the 2-2 draw
- On April 28 at Ottawa, Walker had a wonder-strike from just in front of the midfield line that earned him SportsCenter's No. 1 Play of the Day honors and then ultimately USL's April Goal of the Month award
- At Indy on May 2, Walker's successful PK attempt seven minutes in put FCC ahead early
- On May 2 against Atlanta, his long, angled through ball to Emmanuel Ledesma set up Danni König's opening goal
- On the season, Walker has scored three goals and added two assists

RYAN HAS HIS TOUCH

- Richie Ryan dropped right into place in the Orange and Blue's central midfield after joining the club from Miami FC this winter
- The Irishman ranks second in passing percentage among regular players with an 87.7 percent mark, while his 854 passes rank eighth on the squad despite having missed 15 consecutive matches

- Additionally, his 62.7 passes per 90 minutes are tops among regular players in Cincy
- Overall, he has nine key passes so far this season from his deep-lying position
- However, after exiting the Orange and Blue's midweek game at Toronto on June 27, Ryan has missed the last 15 games with a lower-leg injury

CENTERS OF ATTENTION

- They have played in five different combinations so far this season: Keinan-Lasso ... Keinan-Barrett ... Lasso-Barrett ... Keinan-de Wit ... Lasso-de Wit
- The only combination that has yet to happen is Barrett-de Wit

LAHOUD GETTING IN HIS GROOVE

- Michael Lahoud, acquired on April 18 after two seasons at NASL club Miami FC, has gotten himself integrated into the squad quickly
- In USL play, he has made 22 appearances - including 16 starts ... overall, he has 25 appearances and 19 starts in all competitions ... he's collected two assists so far in USL action and his 88.5 passing percentage is the best on the team among all players regardless of playing time
- Lahoud made his Cincinnati debut at Indy on May 2 with a start in the midfield ... in his FCC debut, the Sierra Leone international played a full 90-minute shift against the Eleven, picking up an assist on Corben Bone's game-winning goal ... he finished the game with an 87 percent passing completion rate, converting 40-of-46 passes
- He came on as a substitute for Jimmy McLaughlin against Atlanta three nights later on May 5 - posting an 81.3 percent passing rate - before again starting at Charlotte on May 12, where he had a 92.5 percent passing mark in 90 minutes
- On June 30, when he slotted into the deep-lying midfield spot in place of Richie Ryan, he completed 97.1 percent of his passes (66-of-68) against Ottawa

HEAD COACH

Alan Koch is in his second season as the head coach at FC Cincinnati. In 2017 Koch led the Orange and Blue to semifinal game of the U.S. Open Cup, guiding the team to wins over MLS sides Columbus Crew and Chicago Fire - a thrilling win in penalty kicks - as well as a victory over NASL Fall Champions, Miami FC. In USL action, FCC advanced to playoffs for the second consecutive season.

Koch joined FCC as the Director of Scouting and Analytics and Assistant Coach in December of 2016, before being named the club's second head coach the following February.

Koch spent two seasons as the head coach of Vancouver Whitecaps FC 2, taking the team from eight wins in 2015 to 12 victories this season with a sixth-place finish in the standings. In 2016, WFC2 won their first-ever playoff match against Colorado Springs Switchbacks FC, logging a come-from-behind 2-1 decision before posting a 3-2 win over Oklahoma City Energy FC to advance to the Western Conference final. In the conference championship, WFC2 fell to USL Cup finalists, Swope Park Rangers.

Koch is originally from Durban, South Africa and matriculated from Westville Boys High School.

Prior to joining the Whitecaps he coached at Simon Fraser University (SFU) for seven seasons, compiling a record of 126-21-7 and becoming the quickest coach in program history to reach 100 victories.

During his tenure at SFU, his teams won four Great Northwest Athletic Conference (GNAC) championships, two Division II regional titles and advanced to the NCAA Division II Final Four twice. He was voted the Conference Coach of the Year six consecutive years and led his team to a NCAA Top 10 ranking every year.

An All-American at SFU, Koch played professionally in the South African first division with Reservoir Hills United. He also signed with Preussen Krefeld in the German fourth division, adding a stint with Limerick FC in Ireland's first division. Before beginning his professional career, Koch was a member of the South African Olympic Team and captained the South African Schoolboys team.

Koch graduated with his bachelor's degree from SFU in 2000 and completed his master's degree in human resources from Midwestern State University in 2005. Koch and his wife, Amy, and daughter, Aurora, currently reside in North Vancouver, British Columbia.

Koch holds an NSCAA Premier Diploma with distinction, a Canadian "A" license, various South African licenses, a UEFA "B" badge and has completed his UEFA "A" license through the Irish Football Association.
