MATCH PREVIEW

FCC enters the weekend riding a nine-game unbeaten run during which time FCC is 6-0-3. During the run, FCC is 4-0-1 at home and 2-0-2 on the road. This is the second-longest undefeated run in club history. The club's longest undefeated run was 12 games in the first half of the 2016 season (7-0-5). FC Cincinnati faces one of the USL's most prolific offenses Saturday and are carrying a four-game shutout streak. FCC has yet to allow a goal in July. A record-setting 25,251 fans attended Wednesday's game against Charlotte, setting the USL attendance record for a midweek game and Cincinnati is averaging 25,029 fans per game which is an 18 percent increase over the team's 21,199 per game average in 2017. Evan Newton's 381 minutes of not allowing a goal against at home is on the line versus New York.

NEW YORK RED BULLS II

NYRB II enter Nippert Stadium carrying a three-game winning streak after closing out a three-game home stand at MSU Soccer Park with a 2-1 win over Bethlehem Steel FC on Wednesday. The victory propelled New York to fourth place in the Eastern Conference standings. Amando Moreno scored the game-winning goal of the match, bringing him to nine goals on the season. Moreno is tops on the squad and tied for third in the league. When on the road in 2018, NYRB II are 0-3-6. NYRB II will be looking to obtain their first road victory of the season, as well as payback for their first encounter of the season, which ended in a 2-1 victory for FC Cincinnati at Red Bull Arena.
