MATCH PREVIEW

FC Cincinnati and Pittsburgh Riverhounds SC enter Saturday's match both on unbeaten runs. Cincinnati is currently unbeaten in 15 matches (11-0-4), while Pittsburgh is unbeaten in six matches (3-0-3). Both teams went unbeaten in August. Cincinnati has scored the second-most goals in USL (53), while Pittsburgh has conceded the fewest goals in USL (14). FC Cincinnati claimed its fourth consecutive win -- most consecutive league wins in club history -- when the Orange and Blue defeated the Tampa Bay Rowdies, 2-1, on August 25. FC Cincinnati will be without center back Paddy Barrett and left back Blake Smith for this game. Paddy is serving a 1 game suspension on yellow card accumulation and Blake is serving a 1 game suspension after being shown a red card against the Rowdies in Tampa Bay.

PITTSBURGH RIVERHOUNDS

Pittsburgh Riverhounds SC (12-3-10) wraps up a two-game road swing with a visit to the top team in the Eastern Conference, FC Cincinnati (17-3-6), at Nippert Stadium. The Hounds come into the contest on a six-game unbeaten streak with draws in their last three matches played. Pittsburgh has allowed goals in back-to-back games for only the third time this season. For the second straight match, the Hounds will be without the services of one of their top defenders with Ray Lee expected to miss the match after registering a red card this past Wednesday at Indy Eleven. Thomas Vancaeyezeele, meanwhile, will return from his one-game suspension for yellow card accumulation. Pittsburgh has yet to defeat Cincinnati in six tries all-time in league play (0-3-3).
