Charlotte Independence (2-2-2) vs. Orlando City B (3-3-3)

Charlotte (N.C.) — The Charlotte Independence (2-2-2) travel to take on Orlando City B (3-3-3) this Saturday, May 27th at Orlando City Stadium. Kickoff is scheduled for 7:30 PM ET. With the Independence playing two league games in the month of May, the Jacks are searching for points early in the season.

The Independence's last league game was a Thursday night 5-1 victory over the defending 2016 USL Champion New York Red Bulls II. The five goal game tied a franchise record for most scored in a game, which rookies Callum Ross and Jaime Siaz got the first goals of their careers. The Independence now face an Orlando side who they squared off with earlier this season resulting in a point for both teams. Orlando, most recently claiming a 2-0 away victory over FC Cincinnati last Saturday, currently sits in sixth place in the USL Eastern Conference table.

The Independence head into Saturday's game coming off a 3-2 victory against the Charlotte Eagles in the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup, claiming the Charlotte Derby for a second consecutive season. The Independence took an early lead on the Eagles following a tenth minute goal by Casey Townsend, and carried the 1-0 lead into the half. However, the Eagles came roaring back in the second half with back-to-back goals by Ryan Williams and Kelvin Omondi in the 61st and 63rd minutes. Enzo Martinez converted an equalizing penalty kick in the 77th minute, and scored the game-winning goal in the 88th minute. Enzo Martinez's two-goal performance made him the first Independence player in franchise history to accomplish the feat three times.

The Saturday, May 27th game will be broadcast on WCCB's Antenna TV (Spectrum channel 1261, OTA 18.2) and on the USL's Match Center via YouTube. Kickoff is set for 7:30 PM ET. The Independence will move to their new, home stadium in the Sportsplex at Matthews on Saturday, June 17th. Tickets are on sale now.

Game 4 Storylines

Two Goals, Thrice

2016 USL First-Teamer and League MVP Finalist, Enzo Martinez scored two goals in the Independence's US Open Cup match versus the Charlotte Eagles. That is his second brace this season with the first coming on Saturday, April 22nd in Saint Louis. Only seven times has an Independence player scored two goals in the same game, and Enzo Martinez is now the only player in franchise history to have accomplished this feat three times.

Last week, Bilal Duckett underwent surgery for an ankle injury sustained in the 2017 season opener versus the Charleston Battery. Since then, Duckett has played three league games (only missing two starts). Duckett is estimated to miss 4-6 weeks. In 2016, the team captain, started in 29 regular season contests, logging a team-high 2,577 minutes played.

The Independence boast the fifth-best pass completion percentage (79%) in the league. Eight Independence players have passing accuracies above 80%. Weekly Quotes

Independence Head Coach Mike Jeffries

On This Match Up vs. Last Match Up...

I think we're both slightly different teams from the last time. They played a fairly young group against us, and I expect this group is going to be a little more of what they're going to play in the last couple weeks, which are some pretty experienced MLS guys. I think this is going to be a game that both teams are capable of keeping the ball and possessing. Both teams are capable of pressuring and pressing and making it difficult. So, I think this game is going to be played at a pretty good pace. Orlando City is very very good; they've got some clever 1v1 attacking players, and they've done a good job as far as their shape defensively, so for us, it's going to be a game that we have to manage their athletic skill. With the ball, we've got to be quick and switch play pretty quickly to get at them.

On Da Silva...

Da Silva is very good. I keep looking at his age and thinking no way. He is really dynamic left-footed, and certainly one of those one-on-one players I spoke about. I think at the USL level currently, he is one of those dynamic, hard to deal with players. He's definitely one of those guys we'll have to focus on. He's just a really good, young, attacking player.

On traveling to Orlando...

We walked away a little disappointed last time. It's the only game we've scored first all year, and we didn't manage to hold on to it and get a win. In that regard, it's always been a tough environment. Lucky for us, we've gotten there at the beginning of the season before the weather is brutal with humidity, so it's a pretty good time to play them. It is a tough road trip in that it's a long way to go.

On keeping the team in a game mindset...

Athletes thrive on the routine of having a game every week, and that's what everyone looks forward to. I do feel like the break between Rochester and New York gave us time to work on some of the things we haven't done well, so that's a plus. Following New York, we've gone back to some of the basics, but having such a long break gave us the opportunity to practice. It's a function of where we are in the season and what our schedule is. But, we head into this week with a full week.

Charlotte Independence Head Coach

Mike Jeffries

Coaching Experience: 24 years

Independence: 3rd Season

Independence Record: (28-19-20)

Jeffries was named the first Head Coach in Independence history on Dec. 5, 2014. In two seasons, he has led Charlotte to a USL playoff game, a 5th place regular season finish, and a Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup victory over the MLS side New England Revolution. Jeffries' squad missed the playoffs in the inaugural season by just one point.

Before making the move to the USL, Jeffries spent two seasons with the Des Moines Menace of the Premier Development League, where he had a combined regular-season record of 18-7-3. He was named the 2014 PDL Coach of the Year after guiding the Menace to the league's regular-season championship. The Menace collected its first postseason win in five years and built an 11-match unbeaten streak before falling in the PDL quarterfinals to eventual champion the Michigan Bucks. Jeffries also led the Menace to a combined 3-2 record in the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup.

Jeffries, 54, is a former member of the U.S. Men's National Team and NCAA player of the year. Jeffries has ties to the game at the international and collegiate levels.

His first MLS gig was as an assistant to Bob Bradley during the Chicago Fire's first three seasons. The inaugural Fire team won the 1998 MLS Cup and U.S. Open Cup titles, repeating as Open Cup champion in 2000. Jeffries then served as head coach for the Dallas Burn (now FC Dallas) from 2001-03, reaching the MLS Playoffs in each of his first two seasons. He was nominated for MLS Coach of the Year in 2002. Jeffries spent the next four years coaching at the collegiate level, before returning to the Fire as an assistant coach from 2008-10, and as Director of Player Personnel from October 2010 through September 2011. He also served as a scout for the USMNT in the 2010 FIFA World Cup, assisting Bradley and his staff in South Africa.

The Bethesda, Md., native is a graduate of Duke University, where he earned the 1983 Hermann Trophy as a senior. Jeffries' junior season ended in an epic national title match, an eight-overtime 2-1 loss to Indiana. Between 1984-85, he earned three caps as a member of the USMNT. From 1984-88, Jeffries played professionally in the top U.S. indoor and outdoor leagues. In the final season of the original North American Soccer League he scored two goals in 10 matches for the 1984 Minnesota Strikers. Jeffries, the first pick of the 1983 Major Indoor Soccer League Draft, played for the reincarnated Minnesota Strikers from 1984-87 and for the Dallas Sidekicks in 1988 before a torn ACL ended his playing career.

The first stop in Jeffries' coaching career was with the New Orleans Riverboat Gamblers, a member of the former USL A-League. He served as an assistant coach from 1993-94 and as head coach from 1995-98.

Troy Lesesne
Assistant Coach

Lesesne spent the 2014 season with the Vancouver Whitecaps, serving as an assistant coach and liaison with the Charleston Battery as part of their MLS/USL affiliation. The Battery finished the 2014 campaign fifth in the regular season standings, which clinched a playoff spot for the club. Prior to joining the Battery, Lesesne spent 10 years as an assistant coach at the College of Charleston (2005-14). During that time, he helped the program compile an 82-76-14 record, along with a Southern Conference regular season championship and second round NCAA Tournament appearance in 2010. He was named one of the top-20 assistant coaches in the nation by CollegeSoccerNews.com in 2011 and 2013, and also was selected to the inaugural NSCAA "Top 30 Under 30" coaches program in 2013. Lesesne holds both a USSF "A" coaching license and NSCAA Premier Diploma.

Following a successful collegiate career at the College of Charleston (2001-04), Lesesne was drafted by the Battery in 2005 and played professionally for two years before accepting his first coaching job. The West Columbia, S.C. native is married to Amanda Andrews Lesesne, who is a Charlotte native and grew up playing for the Charlotte Soccer Academy.

Joel Tyson
Goalkeepers Coach

Assistant coach Joel Tyson begins his first season the Charlotte Independence. He comes to the team as the Goalkeepers coach for the University of Central Florida Golden Knights. Tyson brings seven years of coaching experience with stops at Wofford for four seasons and Hofstra University. The Irmo, South Carolina, native helped bring in a number of All-Southern Conference honorees including Connor Davis, Nestor Jaramillo, Matthew Aurednik, and Garrett Closs. Davis earned All-South Region selection. With Hofstra, he worked primarily with the goal keepers and assisted in all aspects of the program's day-to-day operations. In 2010, the team recorded nine shutouts with a 1.12 goals against average, while the Pride's goalkeepers blanked four opponents in his first campaign. For seven years, Tyson has served as the Director of Goalkeeping at the Ralph Lundy Soccer Academy. He also worked as the goalkeeper coach for the South Carolina Olympic Development Program (ODP), where he assisted Wofford head coach Ralph Polson. He has also worked independently with the goalkeepers for the Long Island Rough Riders of the Premier Development League (PDL). Tyson earned three soccer letters at Dutch Fork High School prior to attending Coker. He served as the goalkeeper coach at Dutch Fork for one season before joining the Hofstra program in 2009.
