Charlotte Independence (1-1-2) vs. Rochester Rhinos (1-1-2)

Charlotte (NC) — The Charlotte Independence (1-1-2) travel to take on the Rochester Rhinos (1-1-2) this Saturday, April 29th at Capelli Sports Stadium with a 6:05 PM ET kickoff. The Independence head into Saturday's game coming off their first win of the season in Saint Louis and a two-goal, United Soccer League (USL) Player of the Week performance from 2016 MVP Finalist Enzo Martinez.

Last Saturday's victory was not only the first win of the season for the Independence, but the first time in franchise history that the team beat Saint Louis. The Independence fell behind early on a José Angulo goal for Saint Louis in the fourth minute. Later in the first half, Enzo Martinez would add an unassisted goal in the eighth minute and the game-winner in the 29th minute assisted by Yann Ekra.

With the Independence playing four of the next six home games away and only two league games in the month of May, it will be important for the club to get points early in the season. The next test for the Independence comes against the Rochester Rhinos, who ended the Independence's season in the first round of the 2016 USL Playoffs. Head Coach Jeffries understands that there will be some emotions carried over from an emotional 3-1 loss that included three red cards for the Charlotte side.

Rochester comes into Saturday's game on a 2-2 draw with New York Red Bulls II, the reigning USL Champions, in their 2017 home opener. The Rhinos sit at five points in the table in four games, which is even with Charlotte in the respective categories. In 2016, Rochester gave up the third-least goals allowed (25) in the league.

The Saturday, April 29th game will be broadcast on WCCB's Antenna TV (Spectrum channel 1261, OTA 18.2) and on the USL's Match Center via YouTube. Kickoff is set for 6:05 PM ET.

Game 3 Storylines

Rhino Revenge

The last time Rochester and Charlotte squared off was in the first round of the 2016 USL Playoffs, which was the inaugural playoff appearance for the Independence. Charlotte, the away side, fell behind early and ultimately faced a 2-0 deficit going into the second half. Aly Hassan scored the first goal in Independence playoff history in the 70th minute, but Charlotte would fall to Rochester 3-1. By the conclusion of the game, three Charlotte players were issued red cards; Jun Marques-Davidson, Enzo Martinez, and Jack Metcalf.

MVP Gets POTW

2016 USL First-Teamer and League MVP Finalist, Enzo Martinez was named USL Player of the Week on Tuesday for his two-goal, game winning performance in Saint Louis. Martinez made his first start in 2017 last game as he has been hampered by an ankle injury suffered in preseason. This is the first accolade for any Independence player this season.

Hitting the Mark

The Independence boast the third-best pass completion percentage (80%) in the league. Ten Independence players have passing accuracies above 80%. Through four games, Lewis Hilton, Luke Waechter and Joel Johnson all have more than 200 passes completed. Six Independence players have a passes per ninety average above 50.

Finding Consistency

Through the first four games of the season, the Independence have started three combinations of center back pairings; game one - Kalungi, Duckett | game two - Kalungi, Waechter | game three and four - Duckett, Waechter. Henry Kalungi has been hampered by a groin injury and Bilal Duckett was pulled from the season opener with an ankle injury. Coach Jeffries started the Kalungi-Duckett center back pairing for all but four games last season.

Road Warriors

Starting April 22nd, five of seven games for the Independence will be on the road. The Independence captured all three points in Saint Louis last week. The Independence boasted a 6-2-7 road record last season.

Rookie Regime

In the first four games of the USL season, Charlotte started two rookie midfielder, Callum Ross twice (three appearances) and defender, Luke Waechter four times. Ross helped Wingate University win the 2016 DII NCAA Men's National Championship and Waechter was named Conference USA Defender of the Year in 2016.

Colorado Connection

This offseason, the Charlotte Independence renewed their affiliation with the MLS' Colorado Rapids. Current loaned Rapids players include; Goalkeeper Goalkeeper Cody Mizell and Defender Dennis Castillo.

Mile Marker 25

Versus Saint Louis last week, Independence Head Coach Mike Jeffries recorded his 25th victory for the club.

Injury Report

Kyle Renfro (knee) - Questionable

Jacob Bender - Out

Jared Odenbeck - Out

Zev Taublieb - Out

Last Game's Starting XI

Midfielders: Alex Martinez, Enzo Martinez, David Spies, Lewis Hilton, Jun Marques Davidson

Defenders: Dennis Castillo, Bilal Duckett, Luke Waechter, Joel Johnson

Goalkeeper: Cody Mizell

Weekly Quotes

Independence Head Coach Mike Jeffries

On Enzo Martinez's Player Of The Week Award....

We're happy for Enzo. It's obviously great for us to have him back in the lineup and playing. For someone who had played 15 minutes coming into that game, I thought he had a tremendous game and not only the two plays for goals, but there's a lot of other plays where he has good ideas and shows a lot of energy in trying to make plays. I think it's a nice honor for Enzo and it's a reflection of how hard he's worked to put himself in a spot. We're proud of Enzo.

On The Team's Current Mentality....

The first quarter of the season is still about getting better in our system and what we're trying to do. I still feel like we're in that mode. Saint Louis was a great result for us in a gritty performance and it's nice to get points on the road, especially on a night when your soccer is not at the level you would hope it would be. We're still a work in progress. Obviously, the important part is getting points early in the season. We don't want to be trying to catch up. This season is going to be a little strange just because the way the schedule is and the low number of games before we get to mid-June. It's going to be disjointed. Just now we're getting into a good rhythm where we're playing a guys are getting a little sharper and a little more match-fit. As we look forward, it's going to be important to maintain that through the light schedule through May.

On Kalungi Versus Waechter Starting At Center Back....

It's nice to have a little bit of depth at center back. Henry has so much experience and is such a strong, hard defender that reads the game well and can make plays. He's great back there. Luke's had a positive start to the season. He comes in everyday with really good concentration. His passing and play out of the back has been really clean. It's nice that he's a lefty. It gives us a different look as we play out of the back. I think he's been very solid defensively as well. He has good ability to read plays, to win plays, and athletically pretty strong.

On Managing Rolled Over Emotion From Playoff Loss....

Certainly it's in there some way, shape, or form, but the reality is this is a new season. It's probably more similar to the early season away game we had in Rochester last year that we played to 0-0. It's more similar in that both teams are still finding their way and figuring out what works. I think it's going to be more like that. I think our guys are experienced enough that they'll carry that mentality they'll have.

On Rochester Giving Different Looks This Season....

It's been a different year for them to this point. Coach Bob Lilley does a great job with them. They're always very organized. They're always very prepared with specific tactics for the opponent. I'm sure this game will be no different. How he sets up the group, in terms of their shape, he's played against us with different formations and tried to do different things. We'll go into it having a good idea what to expect, but they'll be organized, prepared and I'm sure given the last couple games, having they haven't defended at the level that is considered normal for Rochester, I'm sure it's been a main focus for their group. He'll do what he can to sure that up.

Charlotte Independence Head Coach

Mike Jeffries

Coaching Experience: 24 years

Independence: 3rd Season

Independence Record: (28-19-20)

Jeffries was named the first Head Coach in Independence history on Dec. 5, 2014. In two seasons, he has led Charlotte to a USL playoff game, a 5th place regular season finish, and a Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup victory over the MLS side New England Revolution. Jeffries' squad missed the playoffs in the inaugural season by just one point.

Before making the move to the USL, Jeffries spent two seasons with the Des Moines Menace of the Premier Development League, where he had a combined regular-season record of 18-7-3. He was named the 2014 PDL Coach of the Year after guiding the Menace to the league's regular-season championship. The Menace collected its first postseason win in five years and built an 11-match unbeaten streak before falling in the PDL quarterfinals to eventual champion the Michigan Bucks. Jeffries also led the Menace to a combined 3-2 record in the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup.

Jeffries, 54, is a former member of the U.S. Men's National Team and NCAA player of the year. Jeffries has ties to the game at the international and collegiate levels.

His first MLS gig was as an assistant to Bob Bradley during the Chicago Fire's first three seasons. The inaugural Fire team won the 1998 MLS Cup and U.S. Open Cup titles, repeating as Open Cup champion in 2000. Jeffries then served as head coach for the Dallas Burn (now FC Dallas) from 2001-03, reaching the MLS Playoffs in each of his first two seasons. He was nominated for MLS Coach of the Year in 2002. Jeffries spent the next four years coaching at the collegiate level, before returning to the Fire as an assistant coach from 2008-10, and as Director of Player Personnel from October 2010 through September 2011. He also served as a scout for the USMNT in the 2010 FIFA World Cup, assisting Bradley and his staff in South Africa.

The Bethesda, Md., native is a graduate of Duke University, where he earned the 1983 Hermann Trophy as a senior. Jeffries' junior season ended in an epic national title match, an eight-overtime 2-1 loss to Indiana. Between 1984-85, he earned three caps as a member of the USMNT. From 1984-88, Jeffries played professionally in the top U.S. indoor and outdoor leagues. In the final season of the original North American Soccer League he scored two goals in 10 matches for the 1984 Minnesota Strikers. Jeffries, the first pick of the 1983 Major Indoor Soccer League Draft, played for the reincarnated Minnesota Strikers from 1984-87 and for the Dallas Sidekicks in 1988 before a torn ACL ended his playing career.

The first stop in Jeffries' coaching career was with the New Orleans Riverboat Gamblers, a member of the former USL A-League. He served as an assistant coach from 1993-94 and as head coach from 1995-98.

Charlotte Independence Coaching Staff

Troy Lesesne
Assistant Coach

Lesesne spent the 2014 season with the Vancouver Whitecaps, serving as an assistant coach and liaison with the Charleston Battery as part of their MLS/USL affiliation. The Battery finished the 2014 campaign fifth in the regular season standings, which clinched a playoff spot for the club. Prior to joining the Battery, Lesesne spent 10 years as an assistant coach at the College of Charleston (2005-14). During that time, he helped the program compile an 82-76-14 record, along with a Southern Conference regular season championship and second round NCAA Tournament appearance in 2010. He was named one of the top-20 assistant coaches in the nation by CollegeSoccerNews.com in 2011 and 2013, and also was selected to the inaugural NSCAA "Top 30 Under 30" coaches program in 2013. Lesesne holds both a USSF "A" coaching license and NSCAA Premier Diploma.

Following a successful collegiate career at the College of Charleston (2001-04), Lesesne was drafted by the Battery in 2005 and played professionally for two years before accepting his first coaching job. The West Columbia, S.C. native is married to Amanda Andrews Lesesne, who is a Charlotte native and grew up playing for the Charlotte Soccer Academy.

Joel Tyson
Goalkeepers Coach

Assistant coach Joel Tyson begins his first season the Charlotte Independence. He comes to the team as the Goalkeepers coach for the University of Central Florida Golden Knights. Tyson brings seven years of coaching experience with stops at Wofford for four seasons and Hofstra University. The Irmo, South Carolina, native helped bring in a number of All-Southern Conference honorees including Connor Davis, Nestor Jaramillo, Matthew Aurednik, and Garrett Closs. Davis earned All-South Region selection. With Hofstra, he worked primarily with the goal keepers and assisted in all aspects of the program's day-to-day operations. In 2010, the team recorded nine shutouts with a 1.12 goals against average, while the Pride's goalkeepers blanked four opponents in his first campaign. For seven years, Tyson has served as the Director of Goalkeeping at the Ralph Lundy Soccer Academy. He also worked as the goalkeeper coach for the South Carolina Olympic Development Program (ODP), where he assisted Wofford head coach Ralph Polson. He has also worked independently with the goalkeepers for the Long Island Rough Riders of the Premier Development League (PDL). Tyson earned three soccer letters at Dutch Fork High School prior to attending Coker. He served as the goalkeeper coach at Dutch Fork for one season before joining the Hofstra program in 2009.
