STRIKERS STORYLINES

NO LOVE LOST

Minnesota United FC have it out for Fort Lauderdale after the Red & Gold prevailed on penalty kicks after a thrilling 1-1 draw to reach the 2014 Championship Final at the expense of the Loons. Before the semifinal, United won the previous six meetings against Fort Lauderdale. The sides have met once since the semifinal, in the final match of the 2015 Spring Season. Under interim head coach Iván Guerrero, Fort Lauderdale claimed a 3-2 road victory. Saturday's match is the 20th meeting in the NASL Modern Era (including three postseason encounters). The clubs will meet once more in 2015, on October 10 in Minnesota, in what could prove to be a pivotal match as both sides contest a spot in The Championship.

NO LONGER STREAKING

Saturday's 2-0 loss to Ottawa Fury FC ended three different unbeaten streaks for Fort Lauderdale. Notably, the defeat ended a six game unbeaten streak (4-2-0 WLT) in the league that dated back to a 3-3 draw with the New York Cosmos on August 8. Fort Lauderdale's undefeated home record under coach Günter Kronsteiner in 2015 (3-3-0) also came to an end. After five previous meetings, it was also the first time in series history that Ottawa got the better of Fort Lauderdale.

WITHOUT A PC

The Red & Gold will be without the inspirational PC for the first time this season after his red card in Saturday's 2-0 defeat to Ottawa. His ejection resulted from yellow cards in the 64th and 72nd minutes of the match. Along with Frankie Sanfilippo, PC has started and played all 24 competitive fixtures for the Strikers in 2015 (23 league, one Open Cup).

HAITIAN SENSATION

James Marcelin was named to the North American Soccer League (NASL) Team of the Week for a third time in 2015 after his performances in Week 12 against Jacksonville Armada FC (Sept. 16) and Ottawa Fury FC (Sept. 19). The Haitian international midfielder scored the second goal in a 2-0 win versus Jacksonville last Wednesday and followed up with a spirited performance in Fort Lauderdale's 2-0 defeat to Ottawa on Saturday. A tough-tackling, holding midfielder by trade, Marcelin has added a more polished attacking side to his game in 2015, chipping in with two goals and three assists in 14 competitive matches (league and Open Cup).

GRAYE AREA

The club has played to a 4-2-1 (W-T-L) record since Jordan Graye first stepped in at center back on August 8. First filling in for the then-suspended Karsten Smith, Graye has cemented his spot at the back. Graye's status for the match vs United is unclear after he suffered a broken nose in the Striker's 2-0 defeat to Ottawa on September 19. Graye made just one previous appearance prior to the streak, a start at right back in the Strikers' 1-0 defeat to the Rowdies on May 16.

MUSICAL LINEUPS

For the first time in 2015, the Strikers fielded the same starting XI in consecutive matches when the side that defeated Jacksonville Armada FC on Wednesday night suited up against the Ottawa Fury on Saturday. The Red & Gold will be forced to make at least one change for the match against Minnesota, as PC is serving a one-match suspension. Jordan Graye is doubtful after suffering a broken nose in the loss to Fury FC.

THREE-ENFORCEMENTS

Fort Lauderdale's three signings during the NASL Fall Season are paying dividends. The team has played to a 5-2-3 (W-T-L) record since midfielder Gabriel Rodrigues dos Santos debuted in the starting lineup on July 25. Meanwhile, the team is 4-2-1 since Hendry Thomas joined the XI on August 8, and 3-1-1 since Jonathan Borrajo debuted on August 23.

CHASING THE GOLDEN BOOT

With more than two thirds of the 2015 NASL season complete, Stefano has the inside track to the Golden Boot, awarded annually to the NASL's top scorer. Despite failing to find the back of the net in his last three matches, Stefano has 12 goals on the season, leading San Antonio forward Omar Cummings by two. Stefano's dozen goals have come in 21 games played and 19 starts.

BRAZILIANS = VICTORY

In each of Fort Lauderdale's eight NASL wins this year, a player from Brazil has scored. The Brazilians that have entered the scoring column (in order of their first goal with the Strikers): Léo Moura; PC; Marlon Freitas; Stefano; Bruno. Additionally, Gabriel found the net in a draw.

ON OUR BEST BEHAVIOR

Fort Lauderdale has committed the fewest fouls of any of the 11 NASL teams. With just 221 fouls in 23 league matches, the Strikers have 51 fewer fouls than the next closest team, Minnesota United FC, who has committed 272 fouls in 24 NASL contests. Fort Lauderdale has been issued the fewest yellow cards, 30, which is four fewer than Atlanta. Conversely, Fort Lauderdale has received six red cards, tied for fourth most in the NASL with the Carolina RailHawks. San Antonio has received the most reds with nine on the season, while the league's top three teams Minnesota United FC, Ottawa Fury FC and the New York Cosmos have received just one red card each in 2015.

CLOSING IN ON 50

Miami native Shawn Chin made his 48th appearance for the Strikers in the 2-0 defeat to Ottawa. He is currently 10th on the Strikers appearance leader chart in the modern era. Chin has played the second most games of active players (Guerrero has 71).

NEXT UP: SAN ANTONIO SCORPIONS

The Fort Lauderdale Strikers head to the Alamo City for a meeting with the San Antonio Scorpions at Toyota Field on Saturday, October 3. Kickoff is set for 8:30 p.m. ET (7:30 local). The sides played to a 1-1 draw in San Antonio on May 30, with Stefano Pinho scoring his first goal of a current league-leading 12.

Recap: The Fort Lauderdale Strikers six game unbeaten streak came to an end Saturday night in a 2-0 loss to the North American Soccer League (NASL) Fall Season leaders Ottawa Fury FC in front of 3,773 fans at Lockhart Stadium. Second-half strikes doomed Fort Lauderdale after a stout Fury defense blanked the hosts for the entire 90 minutes. The Strikers played a man short for the final 18 minutes of the match after PC was shown a second yellow card. While the Strikers had the better of possession in the first half, they were unable to capitalize. "I told them (players), if we can't score in the first half against this team, then it's going to be very tough for us," said Strikers Head Coach Günter Kronsteiner. "This is one of the best teams in the league right now." It was the third match for the Strikers in one week, and fatigue played a part in the second stanza of the loss. For the first time this year Fort Lauderdale fielded the same starting XI in consecutive matches. "For us, tiredness was an issue," Kronsteiner added. "Two games in one week is not really easy." Former Strikers forward Aly Alberto Hassan opened the scoring in the 52nd minute before Sinisa Ubiparipovic, who assisted on the opener, added an insurance goal for the visitors nine minutes from time. Goalkeeper Josh Ford kept the result at a minimum as he made a couple of good saves down the stretch as Fort Lauderdale threw numbers forward in search of a goal. The loss was the first for the Strikers in six matches against Ottawa. The sides played to a scoreless tie last Saturday. Fort Lauderdale slips to fifth place in the Combined Standings, with 31 points and an 8-7-8 (W-T-L) record. The Strikers will be at home for their third straight match next Saturday night against Minnesota United FC.
