STRIKERS STORYLINES

POSTSEASON PURSUIT TAKES TO ROAD

Fort Lauderdale will try to secure the fourth and final spot in The Championship, NASL's four-team postseason tournament, on Saturday night at Indy Eleven. The Strikers possess a two-point lead over Tampa Bay (38 points to 36) for the No. 4 seed with two games to play for each team. A Red & Gold win coupled with a Rowdies loss at home against the Carolina RailHawks would wrap-up Fort Lauderdale's fourth postseason appearance in the five years of the Modern NASL. The previous appearances came in 2011, 2012 and 2014. Only Minnesota United FC has made the postseason four times in the five year history of the NASL.

PRIDE OF SOUTH FLORIDA

Since the rebirth of the NASL in 2011, the Strikers stack up well against the other South Florida professional sports teams in terms of postseason appearances. An appearance in 2015 would equal the four of the Miami Heat in that same timeframe. Since the NASL Strikers resumed play, only the Heat and Florida Panthers (2011-12) have appeared in the postseason, while the Miami Dolphins and Miami Marlins have been on the outside looking in.

DAVID STAYS CLEAN (AGAIN)

Goalkeeper David Meves recorded his second consecutive clean sheet in Wednesday's scoreless draw versus the San Antonio Scorpions. His previous shutout came in last Saturday's 4-0 win over the Carolina RailHawks, while his first came May 2, a scoreless draw versus Atlanta. The 25-year-old netminder returned to game action on Saturday, October 10, his first match since suffering a fractured jaw in the Strikers' U.S. Open Cup match at the Charleston Battery on May 27. Meves started five of six games prior to the injury. Josh Ford started 16 straight games for the Strikers before being recalled in early October from his loan by Major League Soccer (MLS) club Orlando City SC. Lionel Brown has four starts in 2015 for Fort Lauderdale. Meanwhile, Joe Nasco continues to mend from a fractured leg that occurred in the early minutes of his lone start, April 25 at Ottawa.

RECORD-SETTING ATTENDANCE

Under the stewardship of a new ownership group, Fort Lauderdale achieved the following home game attendance records in 15 NASL games and one international friendly (July 1 versus Argentine side Boca Juniors):

- + Highest average attendance for the NASL regular-season: 4,471 per game (Previous high: 4,265 in 2013)
- + Highest average attendance (including postseason and friendlies): 4,681 per game
- + Highest cumulative total attendance (regular season): 67,067
- + Highest total attendance (including postseason and friendlies): 73,894
- + Highest single game attendance, 11,691 - April 4 versus New York Cosmos (Previous high: 7,653 September 21, 2013 vs. New York Cosmos)

The Strikers were acquired last fall by an ownership group led by Paulo Cesso, Ricardo Stanford-Geromel and Rafael Bertani. Brazilian soccer icon Ronaldo Luís Nazário de Lima, commonly known as Ronaldo, joined the ownership in December.

FULL-SERVICE FORWARD

In addition to his league-leading 16 goals, Stefano is also the Strikers leading assist man. Stefano's two assists Saturday give him seven on the year, good for third place in the NASL (along with four other players). Stefano's compatriot Marlon Freitas has five assists, while fellow Brazilian PC has four. In total, Brazilian-born players have 19 of the Strikers 28 assists in NASL matches. This includes assists by Bruno Nunes, Gabriel, and Léo Moura.

RED & GOLDEN

Three Strikers players have been nominated for the NASL's end-of-season awards: Marlon Freitas, PC, and Stefano Pinho. Stefano is on track to win the Golden Boot, awarded to the player who scores the most goals. Stefano is also a candidate for the Golden Ball, given to the league's most valuable player (MVP). Marlon Freitas is one of 12 Young Player of the Year candidates, given to the top player aged 23 years and under, while PC is up for both the Golden Ball and Young Player of the Year awards.

BRAZILIANS = VICTORY

In each of Fort Lauderdale's 10 NASL wins this year, a player from Brazil has scored. The following Brazilians have entered the scoring column this season (in order of their first goal with the Strikers): Léo Moura; PC; Marlon Freitas; Stefano Pinho; Bruno Nunes. Additionally, Gabriel found the net in a draw.

27 FOR 28

Fort Lauderdale has used 27 different lineup combinations in 28 NASL contests this year. The Strikers fielded the same starting XI in consecutive matches only once in league play -- September 16 and 19 when they faced Jacksonville and Ottawa at home.

Recap: The Fort Lauderdale Strikers played the San Antonio Scorpions to a scoreless tie Wednesday night at Lockhart Stadium to open a two-point advantage in the race for the North American Soccer League (NASL) postseason. In front of 2,632 fans in attendance in Fort Lauderdale's home finale, the point gives the Strikers 38 in the Combined Standings, two ahead of the Tampa Bay Rowdies with two games to play. The Rowdies were idle on Wednesday night and will host the Carolina RailHawks on Saturday. "I really wanted to make everything clear (with a win)," said Head Coach Günter Kronsteiner. "Tonight was not a bad thing. We need to go do it now in Indianapolis on Saturday." Despite picking up a point, defending NASL champion San Antonio is eliminated from postseason play. FC Edmonton was also eliminated as a result of Wednesday's match. Goalkeeper David Meves stopped three shots to record his second consecutive shutout, and third of the year. After a lackluster first half, the Strikers forced the issue after the break in search of the victory. Marlon Freitas had successive shots in the 63rd and 64th minutes, the first from the edge of the box went wide and the second was blocked by goalkeeper Daniel Fernandes, who impressed with eight saves on the night. NASL leading scorer Stefano Pinho had the best scoring chance for the Strikers in the 72nd minute. He took possession of the ball right at the edge of the penalty area, turned toward the goal and tried to lift the ball over the extended arms of Fernandes, who managed to stop the shot with a firm arm. Jose Angulo, who replaced captain James Marcelin in the 69th minute, also came close to finding the target with several attempts. The 27 year-old tested Fernandes with his first touch of the ball after coming on, but the keeper made the save. Angulo created a quality shot in the 82nd minute along with two more in stoppage time. Fernandes denied the first two while the last effort was blocked by a defender. Veteran defender Iván Guerrero made his 75th appearance in a Strikers uniform. Instrumental playmaker PC missed the match due to a head injury. With one win and two draws on the year, Fort Lauderdale claims the 2015 series between the sides. The all-time series between the clubs is now 4-6-5 (W-T-L). The Strikers take to the road for the final two regular-season matches. Fort Lauderdale will travel to face Indy Eleven on Saturday, October 24, followed by the final regular-season match at Florida rivals Jacksonville Armada FC on Sunday, November 1.
