VIEW OF THE FLAMINGO

CHATTANOOGA RED WOLVES

Coming off a three-game road trip, Forward Madison FC is looking to reacclimate itself with the comforts of Breese Stevens Field with a win against Chattanooga Red Wolves SC on Saturday (7 p.m kickoff.; tickets here). To do it, though, the Flamingos will have to defeat an opponent they have failed to beat in two tries thus far. In this week's View of the Flamingo, we're giving you the keys to keep an eye on from our all-too-familiar opponents.

1. THE RED WOLVES ATTACK DOWN THE RIGHT SIDE

Chattanooga (the dark dots in this average position map) likes to play with an unbalanced formation, using its right-sided players to do the work on offense. Both #20 Tony Walls and #10 Steven Beattie (who is second in USL League One with seven goals) tend to play further up the field than their counterparts on the opposite flank. If FMFC can time its attacks correctly, it could take advantage of the space they leave behind.

2. POSSESSION!? WHO NEEDS POSSESSION?

More than perhaps any other team in USL League One, Chattanooga Red Wolves have made conceding possession their signature tactic. The Red Wolves are most content when giving up the ball, packing defenders in, and waiting for their chance to boot it long the other way. If the Flamingos force Chattanooga to have a lot of the ball, though, they might be able to put the visitors out of their comfort zone; the Red Wolves had a season-high 64.2 per cent possession against FC Tucson on May 18, and ended up losing 4-0.

3. PLAYER TO WATCH: AMIRGY PINEDA

More than perhaps any other team in USL League One, Chattanooga Red Wolves have made conceding possession their signature tactic. The Red Wolves are most content when giving up the ball, packing defenders in, and waiting for their chance to boot it long the other way. If the Flamingos force Chattanooga to have a lot of the ball, though, they might be able to put the visitors out of their comfort zone; the Red Wolves had a season-high 64.2 per cent possession against FC Tucson on May 18, and ended up losing 4-0.

TECHNICAL STAFF

DARYL SHORE - *Head Coach and Technical Director

Forward Madison FC announced that Daryl Shore would be the team's first head coach and technical director.

Shore, 48, has spent 25 years coaching throughout his career. He served as an assistant coach in Major League Soccer for the Chicago Fire and Real Salt Lake, as well as head coach positions in three lower division teams.

Shore coached teams have qualified for the playoffs in 17 of his 23 professional seasons, including nine of his ten seasons in Chicago. In Chicago, Shore and Wilt worked together with Wilt serving as the MLS team's President and General Manager. With the Fire, Shore earned three US Open Cup Championships, the 2003 MLS Supporters Shield and twice was an MLS Cup finalist.

After leaving RSL, Shore served this past season as an assistant coach of the 2018 NPSL Champion Miami FC 2. He has a long history and deep passion for the game. Attending college at Birmingham-Southern, Shore started on the men's soccer team from 1989-1993 as the goalkeeper. As a two-time NAIA All-American Shore was inducted into the Birmingham-Southern Athletic Hall of Fame. Following his collegiate career, Shore became an assistant at his alma mater for two years before signing on to play professionally with the Birmingham Grasshoppers. In 1994, he earned recognition for his play by being awarded Goalkeeper of the Year in the USISL.

Following his stint with the Grasshoppers, Shore signed with the New Orleans Riverboat Gamblers where he served as an assistant coach as well as goalkeeper in 1995. By 1998, he became head coach of New Orleans. Shore led both New Orleans and expansion Lehigh Valley Steam to USL playoff runs. He joined Bob Bradley's staff in Chicago as its goalkeeper coach in 2000. Just one year later Shore was promoted to assistant coach. By 2002, Shore had made a name for himself within the Fire organization and Wilt named him Director of Youth Development and Assistant Coaching Director of the Chicago Fire Juniors in addition to his first team coaching duties.
