FORWARD MADISON FC VS FC TUCSON

VS

SATURDAY, AUGUST 3

7:00 P.M. CT | ESPN+

BREESE STEVENS FIELD - MADISON, WI

#MADvTUC

Forward Madison FC is looking to keep the good times rolling this Saturday as it hosts FC Tucson at 7 p.m. at Breese Stevens Field. The Flamingos have won two straight games, have lost just once in their last eight and now find themselves occupying the fourth and final playoff spot in USL League One.

With the league standings nearly as tight as possible (there's just a two-point gap between fourth and eighth place), FMFC cannot afford to drop results in its home games. According to Head Coach Daryl Shore, his team needs to stick to its rhythm Saturday if it wants to keep its hot streak alive.

"It's important that we maximize our points at home," Shore said. "We've got to try and keep our momentum going."

Forward Madison walked away with a memorable victory the last time these two teams met, with Paulo Júnior scoring after 45 seconds - the fastest goal in USL League One history - en route to a 2-1 win at Breese Stevens Field.

This time around, though, the Flamingos will have to deal with much less time for rest. FMFC started the same lineups in wins against Orlando last Saturday and Toronto this Wednesday, and now Shore must make some tough decisions about which eleven players to lead off with. Aside from injured midfielder Brandon Eaton, however, there are no 'Min-gos ruled out from the match.

"We know we've got firepower, for us it's now about making sure defensively we're disciplined and we're organized," Shore said. "We know we're going to create chances and score goals."

On the other side, FC Tucson will be out to avenge its earlier loss. The Arizonans are currently sixth in League One, and would leapfrog FMFC with a win. Forward Devyn Jambga and defender Kyle Venter have both scored twice in the team's last three games, and Tucson could also be able to count on loan players from Phoenix Rising FC, its USL Championship affiliate.

"They've got some guys that are dangerous," Shore said. "Jordan Jones is a handful up top. You've got Jambga, you've got [Jamael] Cox, you've got [Zach] Wright, all those guys are dynamic, they've got good pace, they're able to make plays."

If Forward Madison wants to beat FC Tucson, the team will likely continue to count on its loan players from Minnesota United FC, whom Shore said have come into their own over the past few weeks. Right back Carter Manley, center back Wyatt Omsberg and goalkeeper Dayne St. Clair all played 90 minutes in the Flamingos' past two victories and put in performances that drew praise from fans.

"They've got the right attitude," Shore said. "They enjoy being around our group as much as they enjoy being around their group up in Minnesota. Sometimes those loans can be tricky, but these guys have bought into what we're trying to accomplish."

Following its match against FC Tucson, Forward Madison will return home on Aug. 10 to take on Richmond Kickers, the only League One team it has yet to play. Richmond currently sits in ninth place, far adrift from the League One playoffs.

TECHNICAL STAFF

DARYL SHORE - *Head Coach and Technical Director

Forward Madison FC announced that Daryl Shore would be the team's first head coach and technical director.

Shore, 48, has spent 25 years coaching throughout his career. He served as an assistant coach in Major League Soccer for the Chicago Fire and Real Salt Lake, as well as head coach positions in three lower division teams.

Shore coached teams have qualified for the playoffs in 17 of his 23 professional seasons, including nine of his ten seasons in Chicago. In Chicago, Shore and Wilt worked together with Wilt serving as the MLS team's President and General Manager. With the Fire, Shore earned three US Open Cup Championships, the 2003 MLS Supporters Shield and twice was an MLS Cup finalist.

After leaving RSL, Shore served this past season as an assistant coach of the 2018 NPSL Champion Miami FC 2. He has a long history and deep passion for the game. Attending college at Birmingham-Southern, Shore started on the men's soccer team from 1989-1993 as the goalkeeper. As a two-time NAIA All-American Shore was inducted into the Birmingham-Southern Athletic Hall of Fame. Following his collegiate career, Shore became an assistant at his alma mater for two years before signing on to play professionally with the Birmingham Grasshoppers. In 1994, he earned recognition for his play by being awarded Goalkeeper of the Year in the USISL.

Following his stint with the Grasshoppers, Shore signed with the New Orleans Riverboat Gamblers where he served as an assistant coach as well as goalkeeper in 1995. By 1998, he became head coach of New Orleans. Shore led both New Orleans and expansion Lehigh Valley Steam to USL playoff runs. He joined Bob Bradley's staff in Chicago as its goalkeeper coach in 2000. Just one year later Shore was promoted to assistant coach. By 2002, Shore had made a name for himself within the Fire organization and Wilt named him Director of Youth Development and Assistant Coaching Director of the Chicago Fire Juniors in addition to his first team coaching duties.
