PREVIEW

FORWARD MADISON FC VS RICHMOND KICKERS

SATURDAY, AUGUST 10

7:00 P.M. CT | ESPN+

BREESE STEVENS FIELD - MADISON, WI

#MADvRIC

Forward Madison FC is looking to make it a club record four wins in a row as it hosts Richmond Kickers on Saturday at 7 p.m. at Breese Stevens Field. The Flamingos are as hot as they've been all year, and with nine USL League One games left, can now aim up the table towards one of the top two places and a home playoff game.

Speaking on Let Me Be Forward, Head Coach Daryl Shore said the 'Mingos are ready to kick into high gear as they reach the final stretch of their inaugural season.

"This is the time of the season where it's not about our opponent, it's about us," Shore said. "If we play the way we're capable of playing, then we feel that it's going to be hard for teams to beat us, especially coming into our stadium and playing in front of our home fans."

The Flamingos are heading into the match with a good level of confidence, having rocketed up the League One standings - from eighth to fourth in two weeks - on the back of consecutive wins against Orlando, Toronto and Tucson. FMFC's defense has been particularly strong, earning two clean sheets in those games and tripling its regular season total.

Forward Madison hasn't played Richmond yet, but some players have been looking forward to the two teams' first meeting for the whole season. Assistant Coach Neil Hlavaty played for the Kickers last year, and helped bring teammates Brandon Barnes, Brandon Eaton and Shaun Russell to FMFC. Although Barnes has yet to make a regular season appearance and Eaton is still around two weeks away from returning from injury, Russell may be a prime candidate to see playing time against his former club.

PREVIEW CONT.

JULY 27

In the Richmond Kickers, the Flamingos have the honor of hosting one of the most historic professional teams currently active in American soccer. The Kickers have existed since 1993 - even before Major League Soccer formed - and won the U.S. Open Cup in 1995.

The current Kickers team, which played in the USL Championship last year, has not done well on the pitch this season. Richmond is just one place above bottom in USL League One, and has scored the fewest goals (14 in 17 matches) of any team.

Still, FMFC risk running into Richmond at the wrong time; the Kickers have won their last two games, and had the last weekend off to rest. Midfielder Joe Gallardo leads the team with four goals, and ex-New York City FC goalkeeper Akira Fitzgerald is returning from a red card suspension.

Shore, who USL League One named its Coach of the Month for July, said his team can't underestimate Richmond.

"They're capable of beating teams," he said. "The Richmond Kickers are a storied club, so they have a lot of pride and they play hard every game. This is a game where, if we don't come out and really set the tone from the opening whistle, this is a game that won't be easy for us.

Forward Madison is promoting the game with "Bowl Mingo" bowling shirts to celebrate National Bowling day. The Flamingos are on the road against Greenville Triumph next weekend, but return home on Aug. 24 to play Richmond a second time.

We want to be ascending in the right moments," Shore said. "Right now, we feel like we're going in the right direction."

TECHNICAL STAFF

DARYL SHORE - Head Coach and Technical Director

Forward Madison FC announced that Daryl Shore would be the team's first head coach and technical director.

Shore, 48, has spent 25 years coaching throughout his career. He served as an assistant coach in Major League Soccer for the Chicago Fire and Real Salt Lake, as well as head coach positions in three lower division teams.

Shore coached teams have qualified for the playoffs in 17 of his 23 professional seasons, including nine of his ten seasons in Chicago. In Chicago, Shore and Wilt worked together with Wilt serving as the MLS team's President and General Manager. With the Fire, Shore earned three US Open Cup Championships, the 2003 MLS Supporters Shield and twice was an MLS Cup finalist.

After leaving RSL, Shore served this past season as an assistant coach of the 2018 NPSL Champion Miami FC 2. He has a long history and deep passion for the game. Attending college at Birmingham-Southern, Shore started on the men's soccer team from 1989-1993 as the goalkeeper. As a two-time NAIA All-American Shore was inducted into the Birmingham-Southern Athletic Hall of Fame. Following his collegiate career, Shore became an assistant at his alma mater for two years before signing on to play professionally with the Birmingham Grasshoppers. In 1994, he earned recognition for his play by being awarded Goalkeeper of the Year in the USISL.

Following his stint with the Grasshoppers, Shore signed with the New Orleans Riverboat Gamblers where he served as an assistant coach as well as goalkeeper in 1995. By 1998, he became head coach of New Orleans. Shore led both New Orleans and expansion Lehigh Valley Steam to USL playoff runs. He joined Bob Bradley's staff in Chicago as its goalkeeper coach in 2000. Just one year later Shore was promoted to assistant coach. By 2002, Shore had made a name for himself within the Fire organization and Wilt named him Director of Youth Development and Assistant Coaching Director of the Chicago Fire Juniors in addition to his first team coaching duties.
