HISTORY vs. MINNESOTA: The “Boys in Blue” will welcome Minnesota United FC to “The Mike” for the second time in 2015 on Saturday night, and while the “Loons” have already clinched a spot in The Championship, they still have plenty to play for with both the Fall Season and Combined Season titles on the line across the final three weeks of play.

Indy Eleven has struggled against Minnesota going 1W-0D-4L all-time, but that one win was indeed memorable – a 2-0 triumph almost a year ago this week last Oct. 11th counting as Indy's first home win in NASL play, snapping a 12-game winless streak to start its tenure in the league. Both meetings this season have resulted in losses for the “Boys in Blue,” a 1-3 defeat in the Circle City on May 16 and a narrow 0-1 setback the last time they faced each other on Sept. 2 at NSC Stadium.

LAST TIME OUT – SCORPIONS STRIKE LATE

FOR 2-1 WIN: San Antonio Scorpions midfielder Marvin Chavez created a pair of goals to lift the visitors to a 2-1 win over Indy Eleven in front of 10,090 fans at Carroll Stadium. Completing a quickly developing play, Scorpions striker Kris Tyrpak posted his second goal in as many games in the 79th minute to quickly change the momentum of the match and bury Indy just 10 minutes after the “Boys in Blue” had equalized. The beneficiary of Chavez’s second assist of the night, Tyrpak fired low and snuck the shot under Indy Eleven goalkeeper Keith Cardona and inside the right post for the decisive goal.

With his team-high fourth goal of the season, Indy Eleven midfielder Dylan Mares was the beneficiary of an excellent team play, posting the equalizing in the 69th minute. Wide open, Mares received a pass from Marvin Ceballos, who scrapped with four Scorpions inside the six-yard box, before settling and firing the equalizer into an open net.

The Indy Eleven goal neutralized San Antonio’s first counterattack goal in the 19th minute by Giuseppe Gentile, capitalizing on a few touches to move from the Eleven’s 18-yard box into the back of Cardona’s net..

Indy Eleven would be beset by injuries during a rough match, seeing Dane Richards leave early in the first half and Dragan Stojkov do the same in the second half after grinding out an extra half hour following a slight shoulder separation.

INJURIES MOUNTING DOWN THE STRETCH:

Indy Eleven’s Oct. 3rd game at Jacksonville was rough on the injury front, but it was trumped the last time out last Saturday against San Antonio. During the match, the “Boys in Blue” saw Dane Richards (L ankle sprain) and Dragan Stojkov (L shoulder subluxation) removed from the game in the 14th and 63rd minutes, respectively, after being injured by physical challenges by the Scorpions. Midfielder Victor Pineda would grind through to the end, but a reaggravation of a hairline fracture in a rib had him banged up as well. While Richards’ injury will rule him out of action for the remaining of the 2015 season, Stojkov and Pineda might still be able to return to the pitch before the end of the campaign. Defender Kyle Hyland saw his season end a week prior at Jacksonville after suffering an adductor injury in the 1-1 draw.

Defender Marco Franco, who was also injured in that road tie at Jacksonville (right 1st toe), is set to return after sitting out last Saturday against San Antonio. In addition, midfielder Brad Ring has been upgraded to probable from a left foot stress fracture that has sidelined him for the past three matches.

CUEVAS DONE FOR 2015:

Also on the injury front after making his debut with a 56-minute stint against Edmonton at Carroll Stadium on Sept. 19 – just nine days after his official signing with Indy Eleven – midfielder Daniel Cuevas suffering a fractured leg in training on Sep. 28 that ended his 2015 season early. Cuevas, who underwent successful surgery last Wednesday, had stepped into that Edmonton game for a hobbled Victor Pineda, who is off the injury list.

CARDONA COMMANDING THE POSTS:

With Kristian Nicht suffering from an ankle sprain in recent weeks, Keith Cardona stepped back between the posts for Indy Eleven’s last three contests. After those results, Cardona now owns a 1W-2D-6L record and a 1.44 goals against average that puts him squarely in the middle of the pack of NASL netminders with at least 500 minutes played in 2015 (10th out of 19).

Cardona has made six appearances in as many weeks, during which he recorded a 1W-2D-3L record, notched a 1.17 GAA and equaled his career-high of 4 saves four times:

- Sept. 2 @ MNU: 1 GA, 4 saves (0-1 L)
- Sept. 5 vs. JAX: 0 GA, 3 saves (3-0 W)
- Sept. 12 @ SAS: 2 GA, 4 saves (0-2 L)
- Sept. 30 @ TBR: 1 GA, 4 saves (1-1 D)
- Oct. 3 @ JAX: 1 GA, 4 saves (1-1 D)
- Oct. 10 v SAS: 2 GA, 2 saves (1-2 L)

The Sept. 5 win over Jacksonville marked the first professional win and shutout for the 22-year-old New Jersey native.

INDY ELEVEN VS. MINNESOTA UNITED FC – SATURDAY, OCTOBER 17, 2015

CHASE FOR THE CHAMPIONSHIP: The math is next to impossible for Indy Eleven to claim the fourth and final spot in The Championship alongside Ottawa, Minnesota and New York ... but the possibility does still remain. Rather than list the myriad results that need to occur, the “Cliffs Notes” version is simple – Indy Eleven has to win out and look to tie any number of squads that can land on 36 points AND enjoy the goal differential tiebreaker against said squad(s).

Here’s the Week 16 schedule that Indy Eleven fans will be following closely to see if their “Boys in Blue” can survive the long road to the postseason this weekend (home team listed first) ...

Indy Eleven vs. Minnesota United FC (Saturday, 7:30 pm)
 Atlanta vs. Tampa Bay (Saturday, 7:30 pm)
 Fort Lauderdale vs. Carolina (Saturday, 7:30 pm)
 Jacksonville vs. FC Edmonton (Saturday, 7:30 pm)
 Ottawa vs. San Antonio (Sunday, 3:00 pm)

THE FIRST CUT IS THE DEEPEST:

Throughout the 2015 combined season, Indy Eleven has allowed the first goal 19 times in 27 games (70%). The uphill climbs have been more frequent in the Fall Season, when the “Boys in Blue” have conceded first in 13 of 17 games (76%), including 7 out of the last 8 matches. While Indy Eleven fought back and equalized in each of the last three games, it has only been able to scratch out a pair of points from 1-1 draws at Tampa Bay and Jacksonville before falling last weekend 1-2 to San Antonio. All 12 of Indy’s losses have come after conceding first:

Record when scoring first: 3W-5D-0L (2-2-0 in Fall)
 Record when conceding first: 3W-4D-12L (1-3-9 in Fall)

RECORD REPEATS ITSELF: How’s this for consistency – through its first 27 games, Indy Eleven has compiled a 6W-9D-12L record – the exact same mark it registered during its 2014 inaugural season.

GETTING OFFENSIVE: The Indy Eleven attack had been respectable across the first four months of the season, but the scoring well has dried up a bit since ...

April – July: 19 goals in 14 games = 1.36 goals/gm
 Aug. – Oct.: 11 goals in 13 games = 0.85 goals/gm

The “Boys in Blue” have been putting pressure on its defense across most of the Fall Season, having scored multiple goals just twice in its last 14 games. Indy Eleven’s 30 goals scored during the Combined Season places it tie for 9th place alongside Atlanta, two tallies in front of last-place Jacksonville’s 28.

MARES GOES SOLO ATOP THE CHART: While Indy Eleven has had some troubles scoring in 2015, the goals it has tallied have been distributed quite evenly. With his return to the scoresheet last Saturday against San Antonio, midfielder Dylan Mares moved past the troika of Brian Brown, Dane Richards and Erick Norales atop the team’s scoring chart on four goals. The goal for Mares was his first since July 25 against New York, which came just days before he went under the knife to repair a torn meniscus in his right knee.

Another six other players – Wojciech Wojcik, Victor Pineda, Sergio Peña, Don Smart, Duke Lacroix and Zach Steinberger – have registered two goals on the season. Defender Jaime Frias was the 14th player to add his name to Indy’s scoresheet with his traffic-busting blast that brought Indy Eleven’s Sept. 30 game at Tampa Bay to another 1-1 draw. Indy Eleven’s 14 goal-scorers are the most for an NASL team in 2015.

THE WITCHING HALF-HOUR: The oft-occurring theme of allowing late game goals bit Indy Eleven once again last weekend, as Dylan Mares’ 69th minute equalizer was overruled by Kris Tyrpak’s 79th minute game-winner in a 1-2 defeat to San Antonio. Tyrpak’s tally was the 21st allowed by Indy after the hour mark in its 27 games – just one less than the amount it has allowed in the first hour combined:

First 60 minutes: -5 (17 GF / 22 GA)
Last 30 minutes: -8 GD (13 GF / 21 GA)

60’-90+’ goals allowed:
 Spring Season: 6 GA (5 games) = -6 standings points
 Fall Season: 16 GA (11 games) = -6 standings points

60’-90+’ goals for:
 Spring Season: 6 GF (5 games) = +7 standings points
 Fall Season: 7 GF (6 games) = +4 standings points

INDY ELEVEN VS. MINNESOTA UNITED FC – SATURDAY, OCTOBER 17, 2015

FOUR PLAYERS UP FOR NASL AWARDS: Fans will be able to vote for a quartet of “Boys in Blue” during the NASL’s season-ending awards season, as defender Erick Norales and Dane Richards are up for the league’s Golden Ball (MVP) honor, while Dylan Mares and Brian Brown are among the 12 nominees for the Young Player of the Year award (for players 23 and under). Fans can vote for each award through Oct. 27th at NASL.com.

MIDLING AT “THE MIKE”: After going winless in its first 12 home games at Carroll Stadium in 2014, Indy Eleven has since gone 6W-4D-5L in its last 15 outings at “The Mike” – starting with last year’s two wins to close out the home slate (which started with a shock win against Minnesota). After dropping its last two games at “The Mike,” Indy Eleven now has a losing record at home throughout the 2015 season at 4W-4D-5L.

Prior to its two-game losing streak at home, Indy Eleven recorded two of its three shutouts on the season in back-to-back home wins over Jacksonville (Sept. 5) and Tampa Bay (Aug. 19), which contributed to a 259-minute home shutout streak snapped by FC Edmonton on Sept. 19.

Indy Eleven is in the middle of its only three-game homestand of 2015, which continues Saturday against Minnesota and ends next weekend against Fort Lauderdale.

2015 Overall home record: 4W-4D-5L (18 GF / 18 GA)
2015 Fall Season home record: 3W-1D-4L (10 GF / 11 GA)
2015 Spring Season home record: 1W-3D-1L (8 GF / 5 GA)
All-time home record (2014-15): 6W-9D-12L (34 GF / 40 GA)

DRAWS HALT ROAD WOES: After going a respectable 2W-1D-2L on the road with an even goal differential during the Spring Season, the grueling NASL road trips have started to take their toll on Indy Eleven, which has gone winless in nine away affairs (0W-4D-5L) to start the Fall Season – although a pair of comeback 1-1 draws in Florida last week at Tampa Bay and Jacksonville helped stop the bleeding of a three-game road losing streak. Indy Eleven has one “roadie” remaining, its season-ending jaunt to Carolina on Friday, Oct. 30.

Prior to its May 9 loss at Jacksonville, Indy was actually on the cusp of a record-setting performance on the road, a 0-1 defeat derailing a five-game away undefeated streak – which was just one off the NASL’s modern era record.

2015 Overall road record: 2W-5D-7L (12 GF / 25 GA)
2015 Fall Season road record: 0W-4D-5L (7 GF / 20 GA)
2015 Spring Season road record: 2W-1D-2L (5 GF / 5 GA)
All-time road record (2014-15): 6W-9D-12L (31 GF / 49 GA)

2015 TEAM OF THE WEEK HONOREES:

Indy Eleven defender Cory Miller became the 13th different player to be named to the league’s Best XI following Week 14 play. Fellow center back Erick Norales leads the “Boys in Blue” with 6 appearances in 2015:

6 – Erick Norales (Spr 3, 4, 10 & 11; Fall 1 & 2)
2 – Dylan Mares (Spr 11 & Fall 4)
1 – Brian Brown (Spr 2)
1 – Jaime Frias (Spr 1)
1 – Kyle Hyland (Spr 9)
1 – Kristian Nicht (Spr 4)
1 – Sergio Pena (Spr 3)
1 – Victor Pineda (Spr 10)
1 – Wojciech Wojcik (Fall 2)
1 – Dane Richards (Fall 8)
1 – Daniel Keller (Fall 8)
1 – Zach Steinberger (Fall 10)
1 – Cory Miller (Fall 14)

2015 NASL PLAYER OF THE WEEK WINNERS:

Kyle Hyland – Spring Week 9: Notched dramatic game-tying goal and helped set up Indy’s first tally in 2-2 draw vs. TBR at Carroll Stadium

Victor Pineda – Spring Week 10: Tallied a goal late in each half, including a 2nd half stoppage time blast two give Indy a 2-1 win at FTL in Regan’s head coaching debut.

Zach Steinberger – Fall Week 10: First two goals in checkers lifted Eleven to a runaway 3-0 win over JAX

RICHARDS’ SCORING STREAK ENDS AT

THREE: Dane Richards found his scoring touch in late August, when the Jamaican veteran became just the second player in club history to score in three consecutive games. The 31-year-old capped his streak when he finished from 20 yards out in the 16th minute of Indy’s 1-7 loss at Fort Lauderdale on Aug. 29, joining a similar run from Kleberson during the team’s inaugural season last July/August. Richards also scored Indy’s lone tally – a 6th minute penalty kick – during its 1-1 draw at Atlanta on Aug. 22, three days after he notched his first goal in checkers against Tampa Bay, the GWG in a 2-0 home victory.

BRACE YOURSELF: Zach Steinberger made a good first impression in his first start as a forward alongside Dane Richards on Sept. 5, opening his scoring account in checkers with a brace in the 3-0 win over Jacksonville. Steinberger joined a shortlist of Indy Eleven players with a brace, marking just the fourth such effort in the team’s now 52 regular season contests – and second in 2015:

Mike Ambersley: 6/07/14 @ ATL (3-3 D)
Kleberson: 8/02/14 vs. ATL (2-4 L)
Victor Pineda: 6/06/15 @ FTL (2-1 W)
Zach Steinberger: 9/05 vs. JAX (3-0 W)

INDY ELEVEN VS. MINNESOTA UNITED FC – SATURDAY, OCTOBER 17, 2015

ELEVEN SHUFFLING BACKLINE: Indy Eleven interim head coach Tim Regan has been able to start his first-choice back four of Kyle Hyland, Erick Norales, Cory Miller & Marco Franco just seven times in 17 contests during the Fall Season due to injury, suspensions and schedule congestion. That line-up across the back will be impossible to recreate after Hyland suffered a season-ending adductor injury on Oct. 3 at Jacksonville.

PENALTY PHASE CATCHES UP WITH INDY: Dane Richards' 6th minute conversion from the penalty spot on Aug. 22 vs. Atlanta marked Indy Eleven's third goal from the spot in 2015 in four tries across its first 19 games. On the flip side, Indy hadn't conceded a spot kick for 15 games to start 2015, which ended on Aug. 5 in Edmonton when Tomi Amoebi beat Keith Cardona for the Eddie's insurance goal in a 2-0 FCE win.

After conceding PK's on Aug. 29 at Fort Lauderdale (7' to PC) and Sept. 12 at San Antonio (45+, Castillo), Indy Eleven has now seen three PK calls go against it in its last nine games, proving that the law of averages indeed exists in the beautiful game. Indy Eleven had some beginner's luck in this category in 2014, when it attempted eight PKs (7 goals), twice as many as its opposition (converted 3 of 4 attempts).

REGAN REGIME ROLLS ON: Since taking control of the Indy Eleven sideline, interim head coach and director of soccer operations Tim Regan has steered the "Boys in Blue" to a 5W-5D-9L record, this after a sluggish 1W-4D-3L start to the team's 2015 NASL campaign and an early exit in Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup play. Indy Eleven President/GM Peter Wilt shook up the team side leadership June 2, relieving Juergen Sommer of his dual roles atop the technical staff, removing assistant coach Paul Telfer from his role and giving Kleberson assistant coach duties while recovering from an Achilles injury.

Regan enjoyed a decorated career at Bradley University before being selected in the 2nd round of the 2003 MLS SuperDraft by the MetroStars, led by future U.S. and Egyptian National Team coach Bob Bradley – the first coach hired by Wilt with MLS' Chicago Fire. Regan appeared in 81 regular season games in North America's top flight with MetroStars (2003-05), Chivas USA (2006), NY Red Bulls (2007) and Toronto FC (2008).

Regan's primary role with Toronto FC in 2008 was as the team's Chief Scout, a role he kept until 2011. Regan also worked with U.S. Soccer as an assistant coach for the U.S. Under-17, U-18 & U-20 National Teams and a Technical Advisor in 2011. Prior to joining Indy Eleven on Nov. 11, 2013, Regan's most recent role was with St. Louis Scott Gallagher, where he served as the club's Development Academy Director, with duties including coaching the U.S. Soccer Development Academy program's U-17/18 squad.

INTERNATIONALLY KNOWN: Indiana's Team in "The World's Game" saw a slight re-stock in regards to international talent during the offseason, with midfield newcomers Osman Melgares (Honduras) and Dragan Stojkov (Macedonia) taking the international roster slots previously held by Jermaine Johnson and Corby Moore.

One thing that hasn't changed is Indy Eleven's international feel, as now close to half – 12 of 26 – of the team's players following the recent additions of midfielders Dane Richards and Marvin Ceballos were either born outside the United States or carry dual-citizenship:

- * MID Brian Brown - Jamaica
- * MID Marvin Ceballos – Guatemala
- DEF Jaime Frias – USA/Mexico
- * MID Kleberson – Brazil
- DEF Judson McKinney – Ivory Coast

- MID Dane Richards – Jamaica
- MID Don Smart – Jamaica/USA
- * MID Dragan Stojkov – Macedonia
- FWD Wojciech Wojcik – Poland

* Designated as international players on roster

EVERYTHING OLD IS NEW AGAIN: The biggest question during Indy Eleven's offseason was if the squad would be able to keep the pieces of the roster it wanted into season two, especially after the promising end to the club's inaugural campaign. The team's technical staff went to work immediately in November and went deep into the preseason to secure its returning core, their efforts ending with 14 of the 21 players on the opening day roster having spent at least five games with Indy last season.

But the search for new blood has ramped up since the season began, yielding rookies Daniel Keller and Duke Lacroix in May, Dane Richards and Zach Steinberger in July, Marvin Ceballos in August and Daniel Cuevas earlier this month.

INDY ELEVEN VS. MINNESOTA UNITED FC – SATURDAY, OCTOBER 17, 2015

JAX 1 : 1 IND – OCT. 3: Brian Brown's 83rd minute strike pushed Indy Eleven to a 1-1 draw against Jacksonville Armada FC last Saturday at Community First Park. Rushing behind the Armada back line, Brown deposited a long chip that sailed over the defense from Wojciech Wojcik to even the match deep into regulation time.

The goal capped off 20 minutes of offense that rained down on the Armada after Jacksonville defender Mechack Jérôme was sent off with a 63rd minute red card.

Jacksonville opened the scoring just before the half hour mark when midfielder Jaime Castrillón pushed up the middle of the field and played a 1-2 with Pascal Millien, who chipped Castrillón into the box for a header that beat Keith Cardona.

Entering the second half with just 41% possession, Indy continued to battle back and seek out quality chances whenever possible. Wojcik finished the match with four credited shots including a header that nearly evened the match while Marvin Ceballos and Duke Lacroix added stout chances of their own but couldn't beat Armada goalkeeper Miguel Gallardo.

Tested early three times, Cardona made his final and most important save of the game in the 90th minute of the match, diving to stuff a Lucas Scaglia blast from the top of the box and salvaging a crucial standings point.

TBR 1 : 1 IND – SEP. 30: Countering a deficit and commandeering the tempo late, Indy Eleven opened a two-game run in the Sunshine State with a 1-1 draw with the Tampa Bay Rowdies at Al Lang Stadium.

Tampa Bay shot out of the gates and applied plenty of pressure in the opening, but the visitors would start to gain their footing and even out the remainder of the half, starting around the 13th minute when Dylan Mares saw a low strike ricochet off the left post. Midfielder Zach Steinberger appeared to find paydirt in the 38th minute after recovering his own deflected pass, but said pass was deemed offside.

Rowdies forward Long Tan opened the scoring in the 63rd minute prior, volleying Freddy Adu's corner past Keith Cardona from six yards out to put Indy in a 1-0 hole.

But things wouldn't stay that way for long, as just minutes later Indy midfielder Duke Lacroix approached drew a foul just outside the 18-yard box to set up a free kick. Capturing a bouncing ball that hit the defensive wall, Eleven defender Jaime Frias capitalized on the traffic in front of the net to tally his first strike of the season.

The best looks down the stretch went to the "Boys in Blue", but Matt Pickens was equal to the task on Sergio Peña's 35-yard blast in the 76th minute and Don Smart's low effort off a quick break in the 90th.

IND 0 : 2 FCE 0 – SEP. 19: Second half tallies by Daryl Fordyce and Sainey Nyassi propelled FC Edmonton to a 2-0 win in front of 9,840 fans at Carroll Stadium.

After Indy Eleven forward Dane Richards raced out of the gates with a shot that he pulled wide left 35 seconds in, the chances would dry up for both sides over the next half hour. The Eddies were unfortunate not to go up in the 32nd minute when Dustin Corea had trouble adjusting to a pass from Pablo Cruz in front of an open net, giving Kristian Nicht just enough time to recover and paw a weak shot away for a corner kick.

One minute after Wojciech Wojcik headed just high for Indy, Fordyce accepted midfielder Lance Laing's cross from the left flank with one touch at the top of the six before going five-hole on Nicht to give the Eddies the 1-0 advantage. The goal marked the first tally conceded by the "Boys in Blue" at Carroll Stadium in 259 minutes.

Edmonton absorbed pressure and held onto its slim advantage effectively from there on out, limiting Indy's best looks for the rest of the match to a pair of half chances off of corner kicks.

The Eddies would double their advantage in the 85th minute when Ritchie Jones nudged a square ball to the top of the arc for fellow substitute Sainey Nyassi, who finished hard and low past a stranded Nicht to put the score at its final 2-0 margin.

INDY ELEVEN VS. MINNESOTA UNITED FC – SATURDAY, OCTOBER 17, 2015

SAS 2 : 0 IND – SEP. 12: A goal in each half by San Antonio captain Rafael Castillo would be too much for Indy Eleven to overcome in a 2-0 loss at Toyota Field.

Making just one change from its lineup that won 3-0 over Jacksonville – left back Jaime Frias entering for flu-stricken Kyle Hyland – Indy Eleven would come out composed and carry the bulk of the possession in the first half as San Antonio looked content to absorb pressure.

The lone minute of stoppage time in the first half would prove vital for the home side, as Keith Cardona set up a penalty kick opportunity for San Antonio by cutting down Marvin Chavez inside the area after Omar Cummings chipped him behind the Indy backline. Castillo stepped up and finished the PK to give the Scorpions the lead heading into the halftime break.

Indy captain Erick Norales nearly capitalized at the end of an extended dead ball opportunity five minutes into the 2nd half, only to see his redirect of Don Smart's cross inside the six saved by Daniel Fernandes on his line.

It would be Castillo doubling the San Antonio lead in the 71st minute, as he flashed across the area to beat Frias to Billy Forbes' cross from the left flank and beat Cardona with a first-time shot from eight yards out.

IND 3 : 0 JAX – SEP. 5: Riding clinical counter-attacking offense and a third shutout of the 2015 season, Indy Eleven secured a dominant 3-0 victory over Jacksonville Armada FC in front of 9,078 fans at Carroll Stadium. Eleven striker Zach Steinberger paced the home side with his first two goals of the year – both set up by midfielder Don Smart – while Marvin Ceballos came off the bench to punctuate an offensive outburst that overwhelmed the visiting Armada.

Steinberger punched home just nine minutes into the contest, racing through the middle of the field and getting behind the defense.

Indy Eleven was able to absorb pressure and dominate the quality chances throughout the night, outshooting Jacksonville 17-6 despite holding just 41% of the possession on the night. Steinberger's second would come again up route 1 through Richards & Smart, the Houston Dynamo loanee chipping Sierra and following his effort to the goal line to double the Indy advantage.

Ceballos would close things out in stoppage time with a brilliant individual effort, his blast from outside the area giving Sierra no chance and wrapping up an evening that also included goalkeeper Keith Cardona's first win and clean sheet in the professional ranks.

MNU 1 : 0 IND – SEP. 2: Indy Eleven put itself in position to steal a point – or three – from the finale of its three-game road swing at the National Sports Center Stadium, but Minnesota United FC defender Justin Davis slotted home in the 77th minute to push the Loons to a 1-0 win.

Indy goalkeeper Keith Cardona came up big in the early going with some active forays off his line and a stop of Christian Ramirez's shot in the 13th minute. Cardona would also get some help from the woodwork later in the half, as Yago Silva flashed across the six in the 41st minute to poke on a cross, only to see the chance glance off the left post, keeping things scoreless heading into halftime.

Minnesota would come out the aggressors again in the opening of the second half, but it was Indy Eleven's Dane Richards who had the best chances to move the scoreboard around the hour mark, first seeing Sammy Ndjock go low in the 59th minute to save a 1-v-1 before having the Cameroonian 'keeper stop a counter-attack opportunity five minutes later.

Davis would be a menace in the left side of the area with increasing frequency as the second half wore on, and Indy's inability to keep track of him finally bit the visitors in the 77th minute. Kevin Venegas was able to get off a cross to the far side of the penalty area just as the ball neared the endline, and Davis took his chance calmly, slotting a perfectly-placed, left-footed volley across the face of goal and inside the far right post to put Minnesota up.

INDY ELEVEN VS. MINNESOTA UNITED FC – SATURDAY, OCTOBER 17, 2015

FTL 7 : 1 IND – AUG. 29: Indy Eleven fell victim to the worst loss in its brief club history last Saturday night, when Fort Lauderdale scored early and kept its foot on the gas in a 7-1 victory over the visiting Eleven at Lockhart Stadium.

An acrobatic rebound blast by Stefano Pinho just 68 seconds in set the tone, while PC's PK conversion in the 7th minute gave the Strikers a lightning fast 2-0 cushion. However, Dane Richards' tally in the 16th minute gave the "Boys in Blue" a sliver of hope that a quick comeback could be in the cards, only to see Marlon Freitas' blast from distance four minutes later bring things to 3-1.

Things would go from bad to worse for Indy just five minutes after halftime when defender Marco Franco received a red card. The flood gates would open after the hour mark as Freitas bagged his second from outside the area in the 67th minute, followed by Stefano finishing of his hat trick and the closer five minutes from time by PC.

ATL 1 : 1 IND – AUG. 22: Indy Eleven would hold onto a slim lead for more than an hour, but the shorthanded "Boys in Blue" would eventually allow an equalizer and settle for a 1-1 draw at Silverbacks Park.

The visitors would catch some good fortune in the 5th minute, when a corner kick sent deep into the Atlanta area deflected off the arm of a Silverbacks defender, resulting in an early point to the spot. Forward Dane Richards would step up and fire his PK off the hands of an outstretch Steward Ceus and into the right side of goal to give the Jamaican his second goal of the week and Indy Eleven the early advantage.

Indy Eleven 'keeper Kristian Nicht was on the spot to make several big saves in the first half to keep the score at 1-0 headed into the break. The headline of the second half script would be written early in the 50th minute, when Eleven captain Erick Norales received a red card for allegedly dragging down Silverbacks striker Jaime Chavez as he broke in towards goal. It was Chavez that would create the equalizer in the 76th minute, when his near-angle chip looped over Nicht; while defender Marco Franco initially cleared the ball off the line, it fell right into fellow back-tracking defender Greg Janicki for an evening own goal.

IND 2 : 0 TBR – AUG. 19: Indy Eleven finally brought a month-long, five-game winless streak to an end on Wednesday night, using goals 10 minutes apart in the second half by Dane Richards and Erick Norales to post a 2-0 win over the visiting Tampa Bay Rowdies in front of 8,500 at Carroll Stadium.

Quality chances were few and far between in the first 45 minutes, with a Maicon Santos blast from distance that was punched away by Kristian Nicht in the 16th minute and Zach Steinberger's 33rd minute header that was grabbed by Matt Pickens marking the best chances of the first half.

Richards just missed picking out Duke Lacroix's back post run in the 57th minute, but the Jamaican would atone three minutes later with a low blast that beat Pickens inside the back left post to put the "Boys in Blue" ahead right on the stroke of the 60th minute.

Richards would also play a role in setting up Indy's second, as he was hauled down just four yards outside the Rowdies area after splitting two defenders. It was the captain Norales who would step up and take the free kick opportunity, guiding his 22-yard shot perfectly into the right upper 90 past a leaping Pickens to double the advantage.

INDY ELEVEN VS. MINNESOTA UNITED FC – SATURDAY, OCTOBER 17, 2015

IND 1 : 4 OTT – AUG. 8: Indiana's Team fell victim to a red hot Ottawa Fury FC side for the second time in three weekends, falling 1-4 in front of 9,866 at IUPUI's Carroll Stadium

A fairly open start to the match became even more so in the 9th minute, when Sinisa Ubiparipovic took Tom Heinemann's cutback pass towards the spot and finished first time into the right netting.

Both teams would have chances fail throughout the rest of the first half, but the second would go on much differently in terms of balls bracing the back of the net. Ottawa would double their lead in the 54th minute when Andrew Wiedeman collected Ryan Richter's cross from the right side and finished to the far left post on a tight angle.

Right on the hour mark Indy Eleven showed signs of life in attack with its first goal in over six halves of play, substitute forward Duke Lacroix finishing a 30-yard run with a low shot past Fury FC netminder Romuald Peiser to cut the advantage in half at 2-1. But it wouldn't take long for Ottawa to crush Indy's comeback dreams, as two goals in the resulting five minutes through Mauro Eustaquio (62') and Wiedeman (64') took the game out of reach, pushing Ottawa's unbeaten streak to 12 games.

FCE 2 : 0 IND – AUG. 5: In the second game of a three-day, eight-day span for the "Boys in Blue," Indy Eleven fell 0-2 to FC Edmonton after the home side notched goals on either side of the halftime break.

The home-standing Eddies would control the bulk of the first half, and they would be rewarded for their attacking forays in the 16th minute when defender Albert Watson rose at the back post to head home Lance Laing's corner kick, putting FC Edmonton up 1-0 early.

Forward Charlie Rugg would breathe some life into the Indy Eleven attack in the final minutes of the opening half, but a header off midfielder Don Smart's cross would be pushed just wide in the 44th minute while a shot a minute later was fired right into the chest of Eddies 'keeper Matt VanOekel.

The goal-scorer Watson would be at the heart of another big play in the 64th minute, when Rugg worked his way into the area and tried to chip-and-run his way past the FC Edmonton captain. While the ball appeared to deflect off the defender's arm, no whistle was blown, which made the visitors even more incredulous five minutes later when a similar play on the other end was whistled. Laing's attempted flick-on made contact with the arm of Eleven defender Judson McKinney, and Tomi Ameobi would atone for previous close calls during the first half from the spot, sending Keith Cardona the wrong way with a low, left finish to double the Edmonton lead, which they held without much resistance across the final 20 minutes.

IND 0 : 1 ATL – AUG. 1: Indy Eleven saw its four-game home unbeaten streak and nine-game home goal streak come to an end last Saturday as an early Pedro Mendes goal proved enough to down the home side in front of 9,632 fans at IUPUI's Carroll Stadium.

Though the "Boys in Blue" looked to control the game early on, Atlanta was the first to capitalize on their opportunity in the 15th minute when Jaime Chavez placed a ball in front of the former Indy Eleven attacker Mendes who buried the ball into the right side netting past Kristian Nicht to give the Silverbacks a 1-0 lead.

The home side dialed up multiple attacking numbers in the ensuing minutes, with a four-shot possession in the 17th minute through Dane Richards, Victor Pineda—who had two attempts on goal—and Kyle Hyland going for naught followed by a 19th minute set-piece opportunity which striker Brian Brown headed on frame. The Atlanta defense, anchored by goalkeeper Stewart Ceus who acrobatically made a diving stop of Brown's effort, would hold their own however, keeping a stronghold of the game and its score line as they took a 1-0 lead into halftime.

Indiana's team would come out of the break desperately searching for an equalizer--and would nearly find it across multiple occasions in the second half, including a boost from Dane Richards in the 53rd minute and a Dragan Stojkov rip in the 67th minute among others—but Atlanta's defense would continuously hold strong and prevent Indy from drawing level en route to their 1-0 victory.

INDY ELEVEN VS. MINNESOTA UNITED FC – SATURDAY, OCTOBER 17, 2015

IND 1 : 1 NYC – JULY 25: Indy Eleven and the New York Cosmos had no luck in breaking their series deadlock, as last Saturday's 1-1 draw in front of 10,206 fans at Carroll Stadium marked the sixth tie in as many meetings in their all-time series.

The squads would trade control of the opening half throughout the first 45 minutes, but the breakthrough would finally come through the Cosmos in stoppage time. Just moments after Indy's Brian Brown rang a shot off the crossbar, New York raced back down the field and saw Walter Restrepo bury his shot between Kristian Nicht and the right post off a nice 1-2 sequence with Raul.

Indy Eleven would not hang their heads, though, as they raced back down the field on the ensuing kickoff. Dylan Mares latched onto a ball from Dragan Stojkov and sent it into the right side netting with his left boot to draw the game level moments before the break.

The second half was "pretty tame" as Indy Eleven interim Head Coach and Director of Soccer Operations Tim Regan said – with the notable exception of Erick Norales and Sebastian Guenzatti's simultaneous sending off in the 65th minute for an altercation at midfield. Without many dangerous opportunities in front of net, however, the game would go on to end in a 1-1 draw – their third such scoreline of the season.

OTT 4 : 2 IND – JULY 19: Ottawa Fury FC took advantage of several opportunities afforded to them by Indy Eleven in their latest "NASL Class of 2014" clash, capitalizing on three set pieces en route to a 4-2 victory at TD Place.

Fouls committed around the Indy Eleven penalty area would kill the visitors on the day, the first instance coming in the 13th minute when Sinisa Ubiparipovic's free kick to the far post was nodded home by Rafael Alves to put Ottawa on top early. A 25-yard blast by Eleven midfielder Don Smart would even things up in the 33rd minute, but Ottawa captain Richie Ryan would break the deadlock just two minutes later, converting on a free kick from 22 yards.

Tom Heinemann's counter-attack strike in the 56th minute would make life difficult for Indy Eleven, while Ryan's second free kick strike of the day – this time from 25 yards out – in the 65th would all but bury Indiana's Team, putting them down 4-1. Indy's frustrations continued down the stretch when defender Cory Miller saw his second yellow card in the 89th minute and Victor Pineda saw his PK attempt saved by Romulad Peiser two minutes later. However, a silver lining came in the 92nd minute when Judson McKinney scored his first goal in checkers during his Indy Eleven debut in league play.

IND 2 : 1 CAR – JULY 11: Indy Eleven pushed its undefeated streak to five games last Saturday via a 2-1 comeback win over the Carolina RailHawks, using goals just minutes apart by Wojciech Wojcik and Erick Norales early in the second half to overcome Austin Da Luz's tally towards the end of the first half.

Indy Eleven would force the issue by creating a handful of dangerous chances within the game's opening quarter-hour, but Indy's finishing touch could not be found. Key injuries to midfielders on both sides – Indy's Brad Ring and Carolina's Tiyi Shipalane – saw both removed in the 23rd minute and changed the dynamic of the match, with Carolina seeing more of the ball as the opening half progressed. It would be Shipalane's replacement, Da Luz, moving the scoreboard first with a splendid leaping header off of Nazmi Albadawi's free kick, the 42nd minute tally giving the visitors a 1-0 advantage going into the break.

But Indy Eleven would storm out of the gates again in the second half, and this time it wouldn't take long for the home side to hit paydirt. It was Wojcik tying things up in the 54th minute, notching his second goal in as many weeks by heading home Kyle Hyland's looping cross to the far right post. Then defender Erick Norales took his turn in the 56th minute, slipping past his mark on a dead ball opportunity swung in by Victor Pineda and finishing on the short-hop from the top of the six to put Indy up 2-1. Several squandered chances to boost the lead by the "Boys in Blue" would cause some nervy moments down the stretch, but Indy would hold on for the full three points.

INDY ELEVEN VS. MINNESOTA UNITED FC – SATURDAY, OCTOBER 17, 2015

NYC 1 : 1 IND – JULY 5: Indy Eleven and New York met for the fifth time last Sunday at James M. Shuart Stadium – and for the fifth time the two sides finished even, dueling to a 1-1 draw to start their respective NASL Fall Season slates.

It was the “Boys in Blue” cracking the score sheet first in the 26th minute via Wojciech Wojcik. The goal came when a hard-working Dragan Stojkov deflected a Jimmy Mulligan clearance into the air which Wojcik ran onto and volleyed past Cosmos ‘keeper Jimmy Maurer for his first goal in an Indy Eleven kit. Indiana’s Team would continue to press the action for the rest of the first half and entered the locker room with the 1-0 lead.

Duke Lacroix looked to be a man on a mission on the night, creating numerous scoring chances throughout, including a pair in the opening minutes of the second half – the first requiring a save from Maurer, the second thwarted when his rounding of Maurer on a breakaway went awry due to a heavy touch.

The Cosmos would capitalize on Indy Eleven’s inability to double the advantage in the 78th minute. Walter Restrepo danced between Indy defenders and put a shot that forced a Kristian Nicht save as his left post. The save deflected back off of Restrepo’s head and rolled into the back of the Indy net to level the game. NYC continued to attack, but an apparent 86th minute goal was wiped away due to a late offside call, negating the best chance for either side down the stretch.

IND 0 : 0 MORELIA (FRIENDLY) –

JUNE 28: Indy Eleven squared off with Mexican first division side Monarcas Morelia last Sunday in the club’s historic inaugural international friendly in front of 6,450 fans at Carroll Stadium. In the end, despite relentless attacking play from both teams up through the final whistle it wouldn’t prove enough to make a mark on the score sheet, the match ending in a scoreless draw.

Indy Eleven came out on the attack first in the 7th minute when a Jaime Frias cross found the head of attacker Wojciech Wojcik, but he could not keep it on frame and the ball sailed over the goal. The “Boys in Blue” would not be done there, though, as they notched threatening attacks through Brian Brown and Brad Ring in the 9th and 24th minutes respectively, but neither of those chances would find the back of the net.

Morelia had a dangerous chance of their own on a counter-attack in the 33rd minute. A ball was slotted by midfielder Mauro Cejas for Carlos Ochoa, but Ochoa’s shot was saved by the outstretched leg of Indy Eleven ‘keeper Kristian Nicht.

The teams would swap shots and possession back and forth over the course of the second half, but the most promising shot came through a free-kick for the ‘Monarchs’ in the 65th minute. Following a Daniel Keller takedown of a Morelia attacker just outside the box, the visitors set up for a threatening free kick. Dieter Villalpando stood over the ball and fired a low-driving attempt on goal, but luckily for Indy Eleven it hit off the post and was cleared out of the box.

Eventually, neither team would muster up enough attacking power to put the ball in the back of the net and the historic matchup would finish in a 0-0 draw.

IND 3 : 0 FCE – JUNE 13:

Indy Eleven closed out the Spring Season with the most dominating performance in its brief history on June 13, when it captured a thorough 3-0 win over FC Edmonton on goals from Brian Brown, Dylan Mares and Duke Lacroix.

Indy Eleven went on the attack early and often in the match, starting with Erick Norales in the 8th minute. Victor Pineda sent in a cross for the Honduran international, who hit the ball nicely with his head, but the ball deflected off the crossbar and caromed over the goal.

The breakthrough for Indy Eleven would come through Brown in the 39th minute when his shot from 25 yards out flew past Edmonton keeper Jon Smits and into the lower right corner of the goal to give the home side a 1-0 lead. Mares would convert on a PK just moments later in the 44th minute after Kyle Hyland was brought down in the box by Smits, allowing Indy Eleven some breathing room heading into the halftime break.

The defense held strong for the “Boys in Blue” in the second half – they wouldn’t allow a single shot on Kristian Nicht’s goal on the night – who tacked on one more goal through the rookie Lacroix, who notched his first professional goal in the 82nd minute off a nice pass from Charlie Rugg.

INDY ELEVEN VS. MINNESOTA UNITED FC – SATURDAY, OCTOBER 17, 2015

FTL 1 : 2 IND – JUNE 6: The “Tim Regan era” for Indy Eleven had a familiar tone – a result decided in the final minutes – but this time the drama resulted in the full three points as Victor Pineda’s 93rd minute strike gave Indy a 2-1 win at the Fort Lauderdale Strikers last Saturday at Lockhart Stadium.

After controlling possession for much of the first 20 minutes, it was the Strikers going up against the run of play in the 23rd minute. Stefano Pinho flicked on Dani Sanchez’s cross from the right flank with a header that barely beat an outstretched Kristian Nicht at his right post to give Fort Lauderdale a 1-0 advantage.

Indy Eleven would be rewarded for its efforts at the end of the first half, as Pineda finished his first goal of the evening in the 44th minute, a 20-yard curler inside the right post that ended a well-constructed build up through right back Marco Franco and midfielders Dragan Stojkov and Dylan Mares, the latter picking up the assist on the play.

A back-and-forth second half appeared to be a stalemate until the final seconds, when substitute forward Duke Lacroix’s lengthy run down the left flank ended with a cross that initially resulted in a scuffed shot by Don Smart. However, an unsuccessful clearance attempt landed in the path of Pineda, who first-timed a shot into the upper right corner for a dramatic game-winner, snapping the team’s five-game NASL winless streak.

IND 2 : 2 TBR – MAY 30: In one of the wildest games in Indy Eleven’s brief history, defender Kyle Hyland struck a 25-yard goal at the death to salvage a point from a 2-2 draw at Carroll Stadium.

The match got off to a great start for the home side, which got a goal from Dylan Mares in the 21st minute to reward its attacking energy, but any momentum from the strike would be halted immediately thereafter, as approaching storms would see the match delayed for just over two hours.

It was Tampa that would seize control after the break, as Carmel native Rich Balchan would even things up in the 40th minute to send the match into halftime at 1-1. The visitors would go up in the 68th minute on Maicon Santos’ header off a corner kick, which seemingly gave the Rowdies control heading down the stretch.

But things would start to unravel for the visitors, as Santos saw a red card just minutes after his goal for getting involved in an altercation, and Stefan Antonijevic would see red as well for a 2nd yellow card in the 89th minute. Indy would push hard with the 2-man advantage, which finally paid off in the 98th minute when Hyland carried for 25 yards before unleashing a blast that beat Matt Pickens and brushed the underside of the crossbar.

OTT 1 : 0 IND – MAY 23: Indy Eleven was primed to take a point back home from Ottawa last Saturday afternoon, but Fury FC midfielder Nicki Paterson had other ideas, as he slammed home a loose ball in the 88th minute to give the home side a 1-0 victory at TD Place in the Canadian capital.

There wasn’t much to write about when it came to attacking soccer last weekend, as the one-goal affair featured just 11 combined shots by the two squads. Indy Eleven didn’t go quietly, though, as midfielder Victor Pineda nearly scored with a poke from 12 yards out that missed the left post by mere inches.

While Indy Eleven seemed to have the better of the chances throughout, Ottawa picked up steam as the second half went on, eventually taking the possession battle by the scuff of the neck and putting the Eleven on their heels in the final 10 minutes.

The pressure nearly paid off in the 82nd minute when substitute Paulo Junior saw his blast from the edge of the area skip just wide. But it was Paterson providing the heroics late, as Brad Ring’s attempted clearance deep in the area hit off an Ottawa player and fell right to the veteran, who made no mistake with a finish into the right side netting.

IND 0 : 2 LOUISVILLE CITY FC (AET) – MAY 27 (US OPEN CUP):

Indy Eleven saw its Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup dreams dashed in added extra time for the second straight year, this time at home as USL side Louisville City FC scored twice in the final five minutes to collect a 2-0 win in their third round affair on Wednesday evening at "The Mike."

After waiting out a weather delay that pushed back kickoff an hour, the attack from both teams seemed to start late as well, as the fouls piled up during an increasingly physical first half.

Chances would remain few and far between until late in the match, and Indy Eleven felt it was robbed of a chance to win it from the spot late when Tarek Morad's takedown of Brian Brown in the 89th minute went uncalled. From there it was the home side that seemed to pick things up, but the "Boys in Blue" saw multiple quality chances go wanting as the match progressed into the second stanza of added extra time.

It was Louisville that would finally go in front in the 115th minute, when Nate Polak cutback to find space at the top of the area and sent a one-hopper skipping past a diving Kristian Nicht and inside the right post. The visitors would add an insurance tally four minutes later, when Sydney Rivera finished off a flurry of chances with a rebound tally off a shot of the post.

IND 1 : 3 MNU – MAY 16: Minnesota United FC used second half goals from Justin Davis and Juliano Vicentini to break a deadlock with Indy Eleven in the standings and on the scoreboard in a 3-1 win last Saturday at a sold-out Carroll Stadium.

The Loons would break through first in the 22nd minute via a dead ball opportunity, as midfielder Kalif Alhassan sent a screaming 28-yard free kick past Indy 'keeper Keith Cardona and into the upper right 90 to put the visitors up.

Minnesota carried that lead into the halftime break, but it would not last for long as Indy Eleven capitalized on its own set piece in the 49th minute. Midfielder Dylan Mares sent a well-struck corner kick to the top of the six, from where midfielder Sergio Peña crushed it into the back of the net with a header to even the score 1-1.

From there, possession would go back-and-forth until Minnesota made the most out of an opportunity in the 63rd minute. Pablo Campos' initial effort was saved by a diving Cardona into the left side of the box, but Davis beat his mark to the rebound and finished into an open net to give Minnesota the lead once again at 2-1.

More and more, Indy would build up strength into the attacking third, but United FC would hold strong and eventually double its advantage. The dagger came in the 83rd minute when substitute forward Christian Ramirez played a through ball past Indy defenders to Vicentini, who slotted a low shot into the bottom right corner of goal to bring the score to its final 3-1 finish.

JAX 1 : 0 IND – MAY 9: Indy Eleven tasted defeat for the first time in nine games – and eight months dating back to last September – on May 9 in Jacksonville, as Bochy Hoyos' header in the 49th minute would mark the lone goal in Armada FC's 1-0 win at Community First Park.

The first half saw debutant goalkeeper Keith Cardona under fire for most of the opening half hour, but he and the Indy defense bent but didn't break under the barrage of dead ball opportunities created by the home side. The attack showed signs of life in the final 10 minutes of the stanza, but chances by Wojciech Wojcik and Victor Pineda went for naught and the sides entered the break still at 0-0.

The start of the second half saw Jacksonville nearly score off the whistle on a chance by defender Matt Bahner, who would end up playing provider on the goal four minutes later, as his whipped in cross from the right found the head of Hoyos inside the six. The 0-1 deficit woke up the Indy attack, as the "Boys in Blue" ended the match with an edge in shots (17-16) when it was all said and done, but couldn't take advantage of them as they piled up towards the final whistle.

INDY ELEVEN VS. MINNESOTA UNITED FC – SATURDAY, OCTOBER 17, 2015

IND 1 : 1 CAR – APRIL 25: Indy Eleven was five minutes away from sharing the top spot, but a late goal by Carolina RailHawks defender Blake Wagner helped the visitors claim a point from a 1-1 draw at a rainy IUPUI Carroll Stadium on April 25.

The sold out home crowd of 10,524 was encouraged by a 6th minute own goal off RailHawks defender Daniel Scott, but were deflated after Wagner's late heroics cost their Eleven two valuable points in the standings.

The home side was buzzing early, and Indy Eleven's high energy – and high pressure – paid off just six minutes in with an own goal off the foot of Carolina's Daniel Scott. With a perfectly timed through ball over the top, Indy forward Wojciech Wojcik found a streaking Charlie Rugg down the right side. The LA Galaxy loanee's cross into the six would be deflected in by Scott, who was sliding towards the Carolina goal as he tried to clear the ball away.

Indy Eleven's repeated failed chances to double the lead – most notably a trio of shots in quick succession in the 78th minute that were either saved by Carolina netminder Hunter Gilstrap or blocked by defenders – came back to haunt them in the 85th minute, when Tiyi Shipalane's cross from the right went to the opposite side of the area where it found a waiting Blake Wagner. The RailHawks defender gathered calmly and smashed a shot from 12 yards past Kristian Nicht and inside the right post to even the match at 1-1, which is how it would end.

SAS 1 : 2 IND – APRIL 18: Just when Indy Eleven looked destined to claim a third straight 1-1 draw to begin the season last Saturday at San Antonio, late substitute midfielder Sergio Pena came to the rescue, his 45-yard bomb in the 89th minute making the difference in a stunning 2-1 victory at Toyota Field over the defending NASL champion.

Indy's backline bent on a couple of occasions in the first half but did not break, as the squads entered the halftime break still locked at 0-0. San Antonio took advantage of an Indy defensive error in the 52nd minute, when Cesar Elizondo stole a poor pass 40 yards from goal, slalomed through three Indy defenders and played Omar Cummings into the area, where the Jamaican slotted low and to the left of Kristian Nicht to give the home side a 1-0 lead. That advantage would be short-lived however, as Erick Norales nodded home Dylan Mares' free kick at the far left post in the 64th minute, a goal that evened things up at 1-1 and brought considerable life back into the "Boys in Blue".

That would set up Pena's late heroics, as the Honduran midfielder, who entered in the 81st minute, accepted fellow substitute Wojciech Wojcik's laid-off header with his chest 10 yards inside midfield. One touch and one bounce later, Pena let rip one of his trademark long-distance shots, the 45-yard effort finding the space between the bottom of the crossbar and the hands of back-peddling goalkeeper Jon Kempin, allowing Indy to steal the full three points and leap into 2nd place in the NASL Spring Season standings.

Indy Eleven forward Brian Brown would give the Hoosier State side its first-ever lead against the Cosmos in the 12th minute, when he caught New York 'keeper Jimmy Maurer off his line and chipped home from 30 yards out. New York would gradually assert its will on the match, paying off in the 65th minute when superstar striker Raul gained some space at the top of the six and headed home Walter Restrepo's cross.

INDY ELEVEN VS. MINNESOTA UNITED FC – SATURDAY, OCTOBER 17, 2015

ATL 1 : 1 IND – APRIL 4: Indy Eleven fans got used to holding their breath last season ... and that carried over into its season opener April 4th in Atlanta, which Don Smart tied up in second half stoppage time to earn a 1-1 draw at Silverbacks Park.

Good chances were hard to come by in the first 45 minutes for both sides, but the game opened up shortly after the halftime whistle when Shaka Bangura's late run into the area after a failed Indy clearance allowed him to slot home and put Atlanta up 1-0.

The Silverbacks were content to absorb pressure and counter it out to the end, a plan that seemed destined to work until Greg Janicki picked out Jaime Frias' run down the left flank in the 92nd minute. After chesting down with his first touch his second took him into the penalty area, where he was hacked down to earn the late PK. Smart stutter-stepped and sent 'keeper C.J. Cochran diving the wrong way before coolly slotting inside the right post to even it up at the death.
