GROUP E UPDATE

Sporting KC II (0-3-0, 0 points) is the only team in this USL Championship pod without a point. If LouCity (2-2-0, 6 points) keeps it that way, there's an opportunity to hold the Indy Eleven (4-1-0, 12 points) in striking distance still with 12 regular-season games to go. Saint Louis FC (3-1-0, 9 points) is the other formidable member of the group having handed Indy its first loss of 2020 on Sunday.

ON THE REBOUND

Only twice since coach John Hackworth has led LouCity dating back to the middle of the 2018 season has the club lost back-to-back games as it did upon the USL Championship restart. The last time it happened, on July 20 and 28 of 2019, the boys in purple responded with a 10-game unbeaten streak setting them up for a postseason run to the league's championship game.

THE GOLDEN BOOT

Forward Cameron Lancaster, who set the USL's scoring record with 25 goals in 2018, is back with the boys in purple on loan from Major League Soccer's Nashville SC. And the impact has been noticed. Going back to LouCity's March 7 season opener, just before play was shut down, Lancaster has two of the club's three goals, including a 50th-minute header that beat Sporting KC II in the teams' first meeting on Saturday.

BETWEEN THE POSTS

LouCity has rotated from Ben Lundt to Chris Hubbard and back in three games this month. Lundt stated his case for a second straight start when saving both Sporting KC II shots on goal within 60 seconds of one another. The FC Cincinnati loaner first left his line to clear a breakaway, one-on-one dash by Jaret Townsend before staving off another try by Mushagalusa.

THE OTHER SIDE

Sporting KC II's goalkeeper, Brooks Thompson, is in the midst of a homecoming as a southern Indiana native climbing his way up the professional ladder. Thompson made nine saves July 18 against Indy Eleven and stopped another one Saturday against LouCity. He was part of a rather young lineup with the average age of Sporting's starters just 21.8 years old.

SQUAD ROTATION

Hackworth fears Group E members "might beat each other up along the way," making depth in short turnaround situations like Wednesday key. Hackworth made two changes in last Saturday's starting 11. He may be due another one after defender Wes Charpie left with a lower body injury after absorbing a tackle in the 59th minute. Aside from that, LouCity has a healthy roster.

JOGO SUBS IN

Youth international Jonathan Gomez, who has represented both the United States and Mexico, logged 26 minutes across his first two LouCity appearances since the USL's restart. The 16-year-old left back — in Louisville on a professional contract — is a player to watch bringing in some first team experience with FC Dallas system and with USL League One side North Texas SC.

LYNN FAMILY STADIUM

The $65 million stadium sits on a 10-acre parcel in the Butchertown neighborhood east of downtown. Normal capacity is 15,304, and the venue could range up to 25,000 for concerts. Unique to Lynn is a 72-foot Modelo bar in the open end, believed to be the longest of its kind in Kentucky. The jumbotron ranks second in size behind only Churchill Downs' Big Board.

ROSTER ADDITION

Forward Jason Johnson, a Jamaican international who most recently suited up for the Western Conference's Phoenix Rising, added to some firepower Monday when announced as LouCity's newest signing. Johnson missed most of 2019 with an injury. But two seasons ago, he tallied nine goals, including a soaring scissor kick that won USL Goal of the Month for June of 2018. Johnson is available for selection Wednesday.

ABOUT THE PITCH

The natural surface is made up of Tahoma 31 Bermuda overseeded with rye, and it can remain green year round thanks to a sub-air system that removes excessive moisture, but can also blow hot or cold air to keep grass at an ideal temperature. The lines measure 120 feet by 80, a major upgrade from the 105 by 75 pitch at LouCity's former home, Louisville Slugger Field.

IN THE STANDS

LouCity's attendance of 4,850 (about 30% of maximum capacity) in its first three games back have marked the highest number of people to attend team sporting events in the country since the COVID-19 pandemic put sports on pause. Club officials are following local government guidance and the Venue Shield plan devised by stadium operator ASM Global that calls for wearing masks in the building, physical distancing and temperature checks, among other measures to keep fans safe.

THE ESTOPINAL END

LouCity has ensured its late founder's legacy lives on within the club's new home. Architect and philanthropist Wayne Estopinal, who brought pro soccer to town, is the namesake behind the closed end of Lynn Family Stadium, the standing supporter zone. Estopinal, whose firm also designed the University of Louisville's similarly named Lynn Stadium, died in a November 2018 plane crash at age 63.

FAMILIAR FACES

Head coach John Hackworth kept the core of the roster, returning 17 players from the 2019 Louisville City team which won the Eastern Conference Title. Ten of the 11 starters from Louisville City's 2019 USL Championship Final team returned for the 2020 season.

HEAD COACH JOHN HACKWORTH

On Thursday, August 2, 2018, Louisville City Football Club announced the appointment of John Hackworth as the club's second-ever head coach. After an international search led to Hackworth, the 48-year-old native of Dunedin, Florida, signed a contract spanning through the 2022 season.

Hackworth had been in charge of the U.S. U-17 Men's National Team since 2015 and has served as an assistant to the U.S. Men's National Team since the beginning of this year. An experienced coach at the national level, Hackworth began with U.S. Soccer in 2002 when he first served as an assistant to then-U.S. U-17 Men's National Team head coach John Ellinger. Hackworth would go on to succeed Ellinger and lead the U-17's to finishes in the quarterfinals of the 2005 FIFA U-17 World Cup and Round of 16 in the 2007 FIFA U-17 World Cup. Following his time in charge of the U-17's, Hackworth also served as the inaugural Technical Director of the U.S. Soccer Development Academy.

Outside of his time with U.S. Soccer, Hackworth's experience extends to both the collegiate and professional levels of the game. He began as an assistant coach for the Wake Forest University women's and men's teams in 1993 and 1994. Hackworth was then named the head coach at the University of South Florida in 1998, where he led the Bulls to two NCAA Tournament Appearances.

In Major League Soccer, Hackworth spent five years with the Philadelphia Union, serving as the club's Youth Development Coordinator from 2009-12, and head coach from 2012-14 before returning to take charge of the U.S. U-17 Men's National Team.

ASSISTANT COACH DANNY CRUZ

On Thursday, September 27, 2018, Louisville City FC announced the addition of Danny Cruz as coach John Hackworth's first Assistant Coach.

A former assistant at Real Monarchs SLC, Cruz came on board after ending his playing career ahead of the 2018 USL regular season. Prior to taking on his role with the Monarchs, Cruz's extensive playing career saw him register 137 career Major League Soccer appearances in total.

A native of Petersburg, Virginia, Cruz's decade-long playing career began with the Des Moines Menace, where current LouCity players Richard Ballard and Tim Dobrowolski have spent time. After leaving the University of Nevada-Las Vegas, Cruz was drafted in the third round (41st overall) of the 2009 MLS SuperDraft by the Houston Dynamo. The former winger clocked time with the Dynamo, D.C. United, and Philadelphia Union in Major League Soccer before spending one year with Minnesota United and part of one year with the San Francisco Deltas in the NASL before leaving for Real Monarchs SLC in August 2017.
