GROUP E UPDATE

LouCity is effectively one victory away from a USL Championship playoff spot with games in hand over the clubs it's chasing. Indy Eleven (6-2-1, 19 points) and Saint Louis FC (4-3-1, 13 points) hold the postseason positions for now. They've also played nine and eight games, respectively. LouCity (3-3-1, 10 points) and Sporting KC II (2-4-1, 7 points) have played seven apiece. The 16-game regular season leads into a single-elimination tournament.

RESCHEDULED MEETING

LouCity and SKC II have met twice previously. They were supposed to make it a third last week, but a positive COVID-19 result by a member of the Sporting organization resulted in a postponement to Wednesday out of an abundance of caution. SKC II returned to the pitch over the weekend, falling by a 3-1 score at Saint Louis FC after entering the half 1-1.

MULTI-GOAL GAME

Finally. LouCity, which had scored five goals in six games entering last weekend, managed to pour in a pair of shots while defeating Loudoun United FC, 2-0, at Lynn Family Stadium. The result evened the club's goal differential, which will serve as a key tiebreaker should LouCity finish the season tied with another Group E rival. Indy Eleven is +8, Saint Louis FC +2 and SKC II -3.

HELPING HAND

Midfielder Paolo DelPiccolo and defender Alexis Souahy have missed the majority of minutes since the USL Championship restarted last month. Both notched assists in Saturday's victory over Loudoun. First, in the 39th minute Souahy played a long ball over the opposing back line finished at the near post by Cameron Lancaster. Later, in the 49th minute DelPiccolo flicked a pass out wide to Napo Matsoso, who scuffed in a goal as well.

THE RIGHT SIDE OF HISTORY

In 2019, coach John Hackworth's first full season leading LouCity, the boys in purple limped into August, fighting for a playoff spot off consecutive losses to end July. Now, will history repeat itself? August 2019 began a 10-game unbeaten streak for the club, which earned points in 12 of its final 13 games. That sparked a run back to LouCity's third straight USL Championship Final appearance. So far this month, LouCity is 1-0-1.

MATSOSO'S NEW ROLE

The captain Paolo DelPiccolo's return to the starting lineup necessitated a touch decision for LouCity coach John Hackworth. To keep his best players on the pitch, Napo Matsoso shifted from the central midfield to the right wing, almost immediately delivering a third-minute assist against Indy Eleven. Then versus Loudoun, the University of Kentucky product found the back of the net for the first time this season.

IF THE SHOE FITS

Cameron Lancaster, who won the 2018 Golden Boot award, is back with LouCity on loan from Major League Soccer's Nashville SC and may factor again in the race to lead the league in scoring. Indy Eleven's Tyler Pasher and Phoenix Rising FC's Junior Flemmings have tallied eight goals apiece, but Lancaster's four have him in contention. The Englishman is plenty dynamic, scoring in the run of play with his head and feet in addition to a free kick goal this season.

JOGO'S A REGULAR

Youth international Jonathan Gomez, who has represented both the U.S. and Mexico, has appeared in four games with a pair of starts in 2020. The 16-year-old outside back has signaled an especially bright future, leading LouCity with 11 crosses against Loudoun while completing 81.8% of his passes in the opponent's half of the field, close to a team high. Gomez is in Louisville on a professional contract after international appearances for the U.S. (U-16, U-17) and Mexico (U-17).

WYNDER SEES THE FIELD

Midfielder Elijah Wynder, a local 17-year-old star on an academy deal, made his USL debut a successful one Saturday. In 23 minutes on the pitch, the rising Louisville Collegiate senior had five touches on the ball. Three were completed passes, one a shot and another a key corner won late in the going that allowed LouCity to hold possession while nursing a lead.

EASING IN

Forward Jason Johnson, a Jamaican international who most recently suited up for the Western Conference's Phoenix Rising, has subbed in to finish LouCity's last two games, one at striker before moving out wide against Loudoun. Johnson hasn't hit the back of the net just yet, but it's only a matter of time.

Two seasons ago, he tallied nine goals with Phoenix, including a soaring scissor kick that won USL Goal of the Month for June of 2018.

MINUS MAGNUS

LouCity and its leading scorer from last season, midfielder Magnus Rasmussen, agreed effective July 31 to terminate their contract. Rasmussen and his wife, Camilla, last month welcomed new daughter Olivia to their family in Denmark, where he will remain amid the COVID-19 pandemic. LouCity's technical staff plans to re-sign Rasmussen for 2021 after he poured in 13 regular-season goals and four more in the playoffs in 2019.

LYNN FAMILY STADIUM

The $65 million stadium sits on a 10-acre parcel in the Butchertown neighborhood east of downtown. Normal capacity is 15,304, and the venue could range up to 25,000 for concerts. Unique to Lynn is a 72-foot Modelo bar in the open end, believed to be the longest of its kind in Kentucky. The jumbotron ranks second in size behind only Churchill Downs' Big Board.

IN THE STANDS

LouCity's attendance of 4,850 (about 30% of maximum capacity) in its first five games back have marked the highest number of people to attend team sporting events in the country since the COVID-19 pandemic put sports on pause. Club officials are following local government guidance and the Venue Shield plan devised by stadium operator ASM Global that calls for wearing masks in the building, physical distancing and temperature checks, among other measures to keep fans safe.

ABOUT THE PITCH

The natural surface is made up of Tahoma 31 Bermuda overseeded with rye, and it can remain green year round thanks to a sub-air system that removes excessive moisture, but can also blow hot or cold air to keep grass at an ideal temperature. The lines measure 120 feet by 80, a major upgrade from the 105 by 75 pitch at LouCity's former home, Louisville Slugger Field.

HEAD COACH JOHN HACKWORTH

On Thursday, August 2, 2018, Louisville City Football Club announced the appointment of John Hackworth as the club's second-ever head coach. After an international search led to Hackworth, the 48-year-old native of Dunedin, Florida, signed a contract spanning through the 2022 season.

Hackworth had been in charge of the U.S. U-17 Men's National Team since 2015 and has served as an assistant to the U.S. Men's National Team since the beginning of this year. An experienced coach at the national level, Hackworth began with U.S. Soccer in 2002 when he first served as an assistant to then-U.S. U-17 Men's National Team head coach John Ellinger. Hackworth would go on to succeed Ellinger and lead the U-17's to finishes in the quarterfinals of the 2005 FIFA U-17 World Cup and Round of 16 in the 2007 FIFA U-17 World Cup. Following his time in charge of the U-17's, Hackworth also served as the inaugural Technical Director of the U.S. Soccer Development Academy.

Outside of his time with U.S. Soccer, Hackworth's experience extends to both the collegiate and professional levels of the game. He began as an assistant coach for the Wake Forest University women's and men's teams in 1993 and 1994. Hackworth was then named the head coach at the University of South Florida in 1998, where he led the Bulls to two NCAA Tournament Appearances.

In Major League Soccer, Hackworth spent five years with the Philadelphia Union, serving as the club's Youth Development Coordinator from 2009-12, and head coach from 2012-14 before returning to take charge of the U.S. U-17 Men's National Team.

ASSISTANT COACH DANNY CRUZ

On Thursday, September 27, 2018, Louisville City FC announced the addition of Danny Cruz as coach John Hackworth's first Assistant Coach.

A former assistant at Real Monarchs SLC, Cruz came on board after ending his playing career ahead of the 2018 USL regular season. Prior to taking on his role with the Monarchs, Cruz's extensive playing career saw him register 137 career Major League Soccer appearances in total.

A native of Petersburg, Virginia, Cruz's decade-long playing career began with the Des Moines Menace, where current LouCity players Richard Ballard and Tim Dobrowolski have spent time. After leaving the University of Nevada-Las Vegas, Cruz was drafted in the third round (41st overall) of the 2009 MLS SuperDraft by the Houston Dynamo. The former winger clocked time with the Dynamo, D.C. United, and Philadelphia Union in Major League Soccer before spending one year with Minnesota United and part of one year with the San Francisco Deltas in the NASL before leaving for Real Monarchs SLC in August 2017.
