TOP OF THE TABLE

LouCity's six-game unbeaten run — four wins, two draws — briefly vaulted the boys in purple from last of four in the USL Championship's Group E to the No. 1 spot. With 20 points, the club is two behind Indy Eleven, who rebounded from a loss to LouCity last Saturday to defeat Sporting KC II on Wednesday. Saint Louis FC has accumulated 18 points in an especially tight playoff race.

THE SEASON SERIES

Saint Louis FC is the only Group E member LouCity hasn't yet defeated. The Kings' Cup rival — in its last season before the franchise makes way for Major League Soccer begins play in St. Louis in 2023 — defeated LouCity by a 1-0 score on July 18 at Lynn Family Stadium before the clubs played to a 1-1 draw on Aug. 29 in Missouri.

WHAT THEY'RE CHASING

Five LouCity games remain in the regular season as clubs pursue a top-two finish within their respective groups to advance to the playoffs. According to the USL, LouCity has an 85 percent chance of making the postseason. Group E will match with Group F to open the postseason next month when respective No. 1 seeds play the 2s from both pods.

BACK HOME

The USL Board of Governors allowed unbalanced scheduling at the USL's restart, and by nature of LouCity's plan to host fans at Lynn Family Stadium, the club wound up opening the facility with eight straight home games. After two away dates, the boys are back Saturday. So far, the club is 4-3-1 in its new digs with attendance averaging 4,850, well short of its 15,304 capacity due to limits during the COVID-19 pandemic.

TRACKING GROUP F

So, who's on pace to be the playoff competition? If LouCity winds up with the No. 1 seed, that's Hartford Athletic (6-2-1, 19 points) who have claimed points in four of their last five games. Group E's No. 2 seed is on pace to match up with Pittsburgh Riverhounds SC (8-3-1, 25 points) — last year's regular-season Eastern Conference winner who defeated LouCity by a 3-1 score when play restarted in July. The Hounds have won four of their last five.

MATSOSO'S THE MAN

University of Kentucky product Napo Matsoso continues to be a revelation since switching from central midfield to the right wing coinciding with LouCity's winning streak. He's scored three goals and assisted two others, including a 44th-minute goal last Saturday that put LouCity up 3-0 on the road in an eventual 3-1 win over Indy Eleven.

SHUTOUT SPREE

LouCity goalkeeper Ben Lundt is tied for second in the USL with his four clean sheets, continuing to come up big in the select spots where he's called upon with 21 saves made. Two of those shutouts have come during LouCity's unbeaten run, with LouCity averaging .66 goals against per game. In the process, goal differential on the season — a potential tiebreaker at season's end — has climbed to +6, best in Group E.

MAGIC NUMBER

While forward Cameron Lancaster continues to pace LouCity's scoring with five goals on the season, a trio of midfielders have added depth to the attack. Each of Devon "Speedy" Williams, Corben Bone and Matsoso scored in the first half of the Indy Eleven victory, increasing their 2020 totals to three goals apiece. Midfielder Paolo DelPiccolo and defender Sean Totsch have also hit the back of the net once this year.

BONE'S UNBREAKABLE

Having moved to LouCity this season from MLS' FC Cincinnati, Bone, a 31-year-old veteran from Texas, began to find his groove when registering a brace in a 4-1 win Aug. 19 over Sporting KC II. He was back on the USL's Team of the Week this week. In addition to the goal, Bone tallied two key passes, completed 23 of 29 passes overall, won 5 of 7 duels and 4 of 5 tackles in the Indy win.

HEAD COACH JOHN HACKWORTH

On Thursday, August 2, 2018, Louisville City Football Club announced the appointment of John Hackworth as the club's second-ever head coach. After an international search led to Hackworth, the 48-year-old native of Dunedin, Florida, signed a contract spanning through the 2022 season.

Hackworth had been in charge of the U.S. U-17 Men's National Team since 2015 and has served as an assistant to the U.S. Men's National Team since the beginning of this year. An experienced coach at the national level, Hackworth began with U.S. Soccer in 2002 when he first served as an assistant to then-U.S. U-17 Men's National Team head coach John Ellinger. Hackworth would go on to succeed Ellinger and lead the U-17's to finishes in the quarterfinals of the 2005 FIFA U-17 World Cup and Round of 16 in the 2007 FIFA U-17 World Cup. Following his time in charge of the U-17's, Hackworth also served as the inaugural Technical Director of the U.S. Soccer Development Academy.

Outside of his time with U.S. Soccer, Hackworth's experience extends to both the collegiate and professional levels of the game. He began as an assistant coach for the Wake Forest University women's and men's teams in 1993 and 1994. Hackworth was then named the head coach at the University of South Florida in 1998, where he led the Bulls to two NCAA Tournament Appearances.

In Major League Soccer, Hackworth spent five years with the Philadelphia Union, serving as the club's Youth Development Coordinator from 2009-12, and head coach from 2012-14 before returning to take charge of the U.S. U-17 Men's National Team.

ASSISTANT COACH DANNY CRUZ

On Thursday, September 27, 2018, Louisville City FC announced the addition of Danny Cruz as coach John Hackworth's first Assistant Coach.

A former assistant at Real Monarchs SLC, Cruz came on board after ending his playing career ahead of the 2018 USL regular season. Prior to taking on his role with the Monarchs, Cruz's extensive playing career saw him register 137 career Major League Soccer appearances in total.

A native of Petersburg, Virginia, Cruz's decade-long playing career began with the Des Moines Menace, where current LouCity players Richard Ballard and Tim Dobrowolski have spent time. After leaving the University of Nevada-Las Vegas, Cruz was drafted in the third round (41st overall) of the 2009 MLS SuperDraft by the Houston Dynamo. The former winger clocked time with the Dynamo, D.C. United, and Philadelphia Union in Major League Soccer before spending one year with Minnesota United and part of one year with the San Francisco Deltas in the NASL before leaving for Real Monarchs SLC in August 2017.
