TOP OF THE TABLE

An eight-game unbeaten streak — half of those against rival Indy Eleven — has vaulted the boys in purple from the bottom of the USL Championship's Group E standings to the top. Wednesday's 2-0 victory over the Eleven improved LouCity to 8-3-2, with its 26 points four better than Indy Eleven. Saint Louis FC, at 18 points, is in third and trying to work itself off the playoff bubble. The first two from each group advance to the postseason.

MAGIC NUMBER

It's time to do some scoreboard watching. As things stand, LouCity needs five points to mathematically separate itself from Saint Louis FC and clinch a playoff spot. Should the good guys prevail against Memphis 901 FC, paired with a Saint Louis FC loss Saturday against Sporting KC II, that would do the trick. Saint Louis FC kicks off at 8 p.m., 30 minutes after the boys in purple.

TRACKING GROUP F

No. 1 and No. 2 seeds from the USL's Group E and Group F will converge to open the single-elimination playoffs. Pittsburgh Riverhounds SC (9-3-1, 28 points) was the first USL Eastern Conference club to guarantee itself a postseason bid while trending toward top-seeded status. Hartford Athletic (7-3-1, 22 points) posted a midweek victory to move 10 points ahead of New York Red Bulls II in third.

BY THE NUMBERS

Exiting Wednesday's Indy win, a foursome of LouCity's 2020 statistical leaders continued moving up the ranks. Goalkeeper Ben Lundt posted his sixth shutout (tied for the USL lead); forward Antoine Hoppenot registered his fifth assist (tied for fourth in the league); midfielder Devon "Speedy" Williams ran his pass attempts total to 763 (fifth); and striker Cameron Lancaster netted his seventh goal (tied for ninth).

BONE'S BIG BIRTHDAY

Midfielder Corben Bone said Wednesday's exclamation point of a goal in the 76th minute at Indy wasn't the first time he's scored a goal as a professional on his birthday. But the newly turned 32-year-old did more than just hit the back of the net in a 2-0 rivalry win. According to Opta stats, Bone led LouCity with three key passes as he completed 71% of his 28 such chances in the opponent's half.

BACK IN THE TEAM

Just one player in LouCity's lineup Wednesday night had fully fresh legs. Pat McMahon certainly made the most of them. Away from the team last weekend to celebrate marriage with his wife, Brianna, McMahon hopped right back in to lead his side in passes (50), completed passes (39) and passes in the opponent's half of the pitch (34) as the boys in purple defeated rival Indy Eleven.

LEGEND IN THE LINEUP

Along with serving as Memphis 901 FC's minority owner and sporting director, goalkeeper Tim Howard also exited retirement earlier this year to join the club's roster. Howard has started six games this season, splitting time between the posts with Jimmy Hague. The former U.S. National Team star previously featured for the English Premier League's Everton, Manchester United and Major League Soccer's Colorado Rapids.

COACHING CAROUSEL

This week, Howard also took part in a tough decision for Memphis 901 FC, which dismissed its first-ever coach, Tim Mulqueen. The club went 11-11-24 during Mulqueen's tenure. Assistant coach Ben Pirmann will take charge in the interim after spending six seasons as head coach of Detroit City FC and eight years at his alma mater, Michigan State.

POSTSEASON OUTLOOK

There isn't much of one for Saturday's visitors with Memphis 901 FC at 2-6-4 on the season, good for 10 points. Group G's leaders, Birmingham Legion FC (22 points) and Charlotte Independence (21 points), are well ahead, giving Memphis less than 1 percent of a chance of qualifying for the postseason, according to FiveThirtyEight.com. Elimination could be official without a result at Lynn Family Stadium.

A STREAKING SIDE

LouCity's run of eight games without a loss is hardly unprecedented in club history. Last season, coach John Hackworth's team went from August to early October unbeaten, totaling 10 games. A 10-game unbeaten streak also closed out the 2018 championship run. And going back to 2016, then under James O'Connor, the club went 17 straight games undefeated from April to mid-July.

FAMILIAR FACES

Head coach John Hackworth kept the core of the roster, returning 16 players from the 2019 LouCity team which won the Eastern Conference Title. Ten of the 11 starters from LouCity's 2019 USL Championship Final team returned for the 2020 season.

HEAD COACH JOHN HACKWORTH

On Thursday, August 2, 2018, Louisville City Football Club announced the appointment of John Hackworth as the club's second-ever head coach. After an international search led to Hackworth, the 48-year-old native of Dunedin, Florida, signed a contract spanning through the 2022 season.

Hackworth had been in charge of the U.S. U-17 Men's National Team since 2015 and has served as an assistant to the U.S. Men's National Team since the beginning of this year. An experienced coach at the national level, Hackworth began with U.S. Soccer in 2002 when he first served as an assistant to then-U.S. U-17 Men's National Team head coach John Ellinger. Hackworth would go on to succeed Ellinger and lead the U-17's to finishes in the quarterfinals of the 2005 FIFA U-17 World Cup and Round of 16 in the 2007 FIFA U-17 World Cup. Following his time in charge of the U-17's, Hackworth also served as the inaugural Technical Director of the U.S. Soccer Development Academy.

Outside of his time with U.S. Soccer, Hackworth's experience extends to both the collegiate and professional levels of the game. He began as an assistant coach for the Wake Forest University women's and men's teams in 1993 and 1994. Hackworth was then named the head coach at the University of South Florida in 1998, where he led the Bulls to two NCAA Tournament Appearances.

In Major League Soccer, Hackworth spent five years with the Philadelphia Union, serving as the club's Youth Development Coordinator from 2009-12, and head coach from 2012-14 before returning to take charge of the U.S. U-17 Men's National Team.

ASSISTANT COACH DANNY CRUZ

On Thursday, September 27, 2018, Louisville City FC announced the addition of Danny Cruz as coach John Hackworth's first Assistant Coach.

A former assistant at Real Monarchs SLC, Cruz came on board after ending his playing career ahead of the 2018 USL regular season. Prior to taking on his role with the Monarchs, Cruz's extensive playing career saw him register 137 career Major League Soccer appearances in total.

A native of Petersburg, Virginia, Cruz's decade-long playing career began with the Des Moines Menace, where current LouCity players Richard Ballard and Tim Dobrowolski have spent time. After leaving the University of Nevada-Las Vegas, Cruz was drafted in the third round (41st overall) of the 2009 MLS SuperDraft by the Houston Dynamo. The former winger clocked time with the Dynamo, D.C. United, and Philadelphia Union in Major League Soccer before spending one year with Minnesota United and part of one year with the San Francisco Deltas in the NASL before leaving for Real Monarchs SLC in August 2017.
