OUR TIME

You may hear those words thrown around a bit leading up to Saturday night. They certainly fit. In LouCity's five-year playoff history, the boys in purple have each season advanced as far as the Eastern Conference Final. The last three years, they've played for the title. In 2017 and 2018, they won it. This go around, FiveThirtyEight.com rates LouCity with a 57 percent chance of advancing Saturday, a 44 percent chance to play for another Eastern Conference Final and a 29 percent chance of making the championship game again.

CAM'S THE MAN

Cameron Lancaster, the USL's 2018 Golden Boot winner, has returned to that type of form toward the end of this season. The loanee from Major League Soccer's Nashville SC accounted for five goals and an assist over LouCity's final five games. On the year, Lancaster ranks fifth in the USL championship with 10 goals scored and leads the league in shots taken at 52. Going back two seasons, Lancaster earned an MLS contract by scoring once every 80.8 minutes, hitting the back 25 times during the 2018 regular season.

HISTORY WITH THE 'HOUNDS

What's alarming is that Pittsburgh Riverhounds SC ranks second among Eastern Conference squads in FiveThirtyEight.com's projections. The Riverhounds have won six of their last seven games, just missing out on the No. 1 seed from their own group behind a surging Hartford Athletic side. LouCity and Pittsburgh met in the 2019 playoffs with the boys in purple prevailing. The 'Hounds exacted revenge July 12 upon the USL's restart, spoiling Lynn Family Stadium's debut game by a 3-1 score.

A STREAKING SIDE

Each season in LouCity's John Hackworth era, the coach has led his squad through a 10-game unbeaten streak. This year's run extended to 11 games without a loss as the boys in purple concluded the regular season last weekend with a 2-1 win over Sporting KC II. The only longer undefeated streak in club history was a streak of 17 games in 2016. Throughout this current run of form, LouCity hasn't allowed more than a goal in a game while outscoring opponents by a combined 23-6.

PLAYOFF PICTURE

LouCity, which won the USL's Group E, is hosting Pittsburgh, the 2 seed from Group F. The winner sees the advancing team from the corresponding Group F No. 1 (Hartford Athletic) vs. Group E No. 2 (Saint Louis FC) game kicking off at 7 p.m. Saturday. From there, the winner of this regional pod matches up with the top side out of Group G/H for the Eastern Conference Final. The USL Cup Final pits the top team from the East against the West's winner.

NATIONAL SPOTLIGHT

For the first time, it was announced this month, the USL Championship Final will get the ESPN treatment. The game will air at 8:30 p.m. on Nov. 1 after a trio of preceding playoff rounds. LouCity's on Saturday looking to advance to the conference semifinals (Oct. 16-18) and conference finals (Oct. 23-25). The boys in purple have appeared in three straight USL finals, winning titles in 2017 and 2018.

PRODUCTIVE PAOLO

Team captain Paolo DelPiccolo has moved up within LouCity's offense since the USL restart, moving from the central to attacking midfield. The shift has led to two goals for the veteran out of the University of Louisville, including the game-winner in last weekend's regular-season finale when DelPiccolo directed a header toward the back post against Sporting KC II. DelPiccolo also won three of his five aerial duels last weekend to lead LouCity.

OWN-ING THE SPOTLIGHT

An ankle sprain has slowed winger Napo Matsoso in recent games, making way for Brian Ownby's return to the starting 11. Ownby, known for his pace on the right side, is filling in well. In addition to looping a cross into DelPiccolo for an assist against SKC II, the Virginia product curled in a beauty of a goal to go with an assist Sept. 19 against Memphis 901 FC. Matsoso is expected to be available Saturday, making for a tough decision on who to play.

GETTING HIS GOALS

Devon "Speedy" Williams has defined himself professionally with swift feet and accurate passing out of the central midfield. He's added himself as a goal scoring threat in 2020, too, by hitting the back of the net four times, including the game-winning header against Saint Louis FC off an Oscar Jimenez corner kick. In previous seasons, both with New York Red Bulls II and LouCity, Williams tallied one goal each regular season.

STAT STUFFERS

Exiting the 16-game regular season, a number of LouCity standouts rank high in the league stats column. Among them: Cameron Lancaster's first in shots taken (52) and fifth in goals (10); goalkeeper Ben Lundt sits second in shutouts (7); Devon "Speedy" Williams also ranks second in passes (962); forward Antoine Hoppenot's fifth in assists (6); and midfielder Corben Bone's fifth in chances created (36).

FAMILIAR FACES

Head coach John Hackworth kept the core of the roster, returning 16 players from the 2019 LouCity team which won the Eastern Conference Title. Ten of the 11 starters from LouCity's 2019 USL Championship Final team returned for the 2020 season.

HEAD COACH JOHN HACKWORTH

On Thursday, August 2, 2018, Louisville City Football Club announced the appointment of John Hackworth as the club's second-ever head coach. After an international search led to Hackworth, the 48-year-old native of Dunedin, Florida, signed a contract spanning through the 2022 season.

Hackworth had been in charge of the U.S. U-17 Men's National Team since 2015 and has served as an assistant to the U.S. Men's National Team since the beginning of this year. An experienced coach at the national level, Hackworth began with U.S. Soccer in 2002 when he first served as an assistant to then-U.S. U-17 Men's National Team head coach John Ellinger. Hackworth would go on to succeed Ellinger and lead the U-17's to finishes in the quarterfinals of the 2005 FIFA U-17 World Cup and Round of 16 in the 2007 FIFA U-17 World Cup. Following his time in charge of the U-17's, Hackworth also served as the inaugural Technical Director of the U.S. Soccer Development Academy.

Outside of his time with U.S. Soccer, Hackworth's experience extends to both the collegiate and professional levels of the game. He began as an assistant coach for the Wake Forest University women's and men's teams in 1993 and 1994. Hackworth was then named the head coach at the University of South Florida in 1998, where he led the Bulls to two NCAA Tournament Appearances.

In Major League Soccer, Hackworth spent five years with the Philadelphia Union, serving as the club's Youth Development Coordinator from 2009-12, and head coach from 2012-14 before returning to take charge of the U.S. U-17 Men's National Team.

ASSISTANT COACH DANNY CRUZ

On Thursday, September 27, 2018, Louisville City FC announced the addition of Danny Cruz as coach John Hackworth's first Assistant Coach.

A former assistant at Real Monarchs SLC, Cruz came on board after ending his playing career ahead of the 2018 USL regular season. Prior to taking on his role with the Monarchs, Cruz's extensive playing career saw him register 137 career Major League Soccer appearances in total.

A native of Petersburg, Virginia, Cruz's decade-long playing career began with the Des Moines Menace, where current LouCity players Richard Ballard and Tim Dobrowolski have spent time. After leaving the University of Nevada-Las Vegas, Cruz was drafted in the third round (41st overall) of the 2009 MLS SuperDraft by the Houston Dynamo. The former winger clocked time with the Dynamo, D.C. United, and Philadelphia Union in Major League Soccer before spending one year with Minnesota United and part of one year with the San Francisco Deltas in the NASL before leaving for Real Monarchs SLC in August 2017.
