OUR TIME

Since beginning play in 2015, LouCity's postseason success is unparalleled within the USL Championship. The boys in purple have reached a sixth straight trip to the Eastern Conference Final, having never fallen short of the league's national final four. Now they're bidding to play in a fourth straight USL Cup Final. In both 2017 and 2018, LouCity added stars above its crest as the league's champion.

HOSTING SCENARIOS

As of Tuesday, with Phoenix Rising FC relinquishing its right to host the USL Championship Final, the winner of Saturday's Eastern Conference Finals game will welcome the winner of the Western Conference Final between Phoenix-El Paso Locomotive FC Western Conference Finals showdown. LouCity has previously played at Louisville Slugger Field (2017) and the University of Louisville's Lynn Stadium (2018, 2019) in the final.

PLAYING PERCENTAGES

Still favoring the boys in purple, the computers at FiveThirtyEight.com give LouCity a 36 percent chance of hoisting its third USL Cup in four years. That number jumped from 26 percent following the club's 2-0 Eastern Conference Semifinal win over Saint Louis FC last weekend. It's close in determining a league favorite with Phoenix Rising checking in just one point behind at 35 percent.

'LUCKY' MOMENTS

Former LouCity forward Lucky Mkosana, traded to the Rowdies in 2019, has been incredibly efficient off the bench in the postseason. He bagged a 79th-minute, game-winning header for the Rowdies to defeat Charleston a week after also scoring in the Birmingham victory. Mkosana has scored four goals in all in his first full season for Tampa Bay.

THE STREAK(S) CONTINUE

As USL play-by-play announcer Mike Watts unearthed last week, LouCity's 13-game unbeaten and 8-game winning streaks are the longest of any professional soccer league in the United States in 2020. After going 1-3 upon the league's restart, LouCity hasn't lost since the calendar turned to August, rising from the bottom of its regular-season Group E table to earn a No. 1 playoff seed.

SCOUTING THE ROWDIES

Saturday will mark the first time LouCity and Tampa Bay have met in 2020 given the USL's regionalized scheduling. The Rowdies are expected to line up in a familiar 3-5-2 formation that has proved formidable defensively, conceding just 44 total shots on target. Tampa Bay, Group H's top seed, advanced after playoff wins over the Birmingham Legion (4-2) and Charleston Battery (1-0).

AN EVEN TRADE

The move that sent Mkosana to Florida has also paid off for LouCity, who received Antoine Hoppenot. The midfielder/forward scored a pivotal goal in last year's Eastern Conference Final, equalizing with the Indy Eleven late, and this season has gone on to lead the boys in purple with seven assists, good for fourth in the league. Just last week, his cross to Cameron Lancaster led to an 18th-minute game-winner over Saint Louis FC.

CAM'S STILL THE MAN

It seems Cameron Lancaster, the 2018 Golden Boot winner, just won't be stopped. His goal against Saint Louis FC marked the Englishman's seventh in as many games, boosting his season total to 12, just two off the league lead. Lancaster continues to be the most efficient scorer in the USL, getting a goal every 109.2 minutes he's on the pitch.

LUNDT COMES UP LARGE

LouCity goalkeeper Ben Lundt notched his league-leading ninth clean sheet overall — and third this season against Saint Louis — in last Saturday's victory. The FC Cincinnati loanee has consistently come up in clutch moments for the club but was called upon much more often in the conference semifinal, making a season-high nine saves, including when he smothered an early penalty kick to keep the game scoreless.

A HOME FORTRESS

Thirteen of LouCity's 18 games this season have been played on its home turf, Lynn Family Stadium, where the boys in purple currently boast an eight-game winning streak. Current capacity is in the range of 4,900 amid the COVID-19 pandemic, or roughly 30% of the facility's maximum capacity of 15,304, but coach John Hackworth has spoken frequently of the environment a dedicated group of supporters has created.

PESKY PENALTY

Defender Sean Totsch's 11th-minute foul, plus subsequent yellow card, marked the first penalty kick LouCity has either been awarded or conceded in the club's 18 games this season — a statistical anomaly in a crazy year. Ben Lundt could partially thank timing for saving it. In the playoffs, goalkeepers are already preparing to face penalties in the event of a draw after regulation and a pair of 15-minute extra time periods.

FAMILIAR FACES

Head coach John Hackworth kept the core of the roster, returning 16 players from the 2019 LouCity team which won the Eastern Conference Title. Ten of the 11 starters from LouCity's 2019 USL Championship Final team returned for the 2020 season.

HEAD COACH JOHN HACKWORTH

On Thursday, August 2, 2018, Louisville City Football Club announced the appointment of John Hackworth as the club's second-ever head coach. After an international search led to Hackworth, the 48-year-old native of Dunedin, Florida, signed a contract spanning through the 2022 season.

Hackworth had been in charge of the U.S. U-17 Men's National Team since 2015 and has served as an assistant to the U.S. Men's National Team since the beginning of this year. An experienced coach at the national level, Hackworth began with U.S. Soccer in 2002 when he first served as an assistant to then-U.S. U-17 Men's National Team head coach John Ellinger. Hackworth would go on to succeed Ellinger and lead the U-17's to finishes in the quarterfinals of the 2005 FIFA U-17 World Cup and Round of 16 in the 2007 FIFA U-17 World Cup. Following his time in charge of the U-17's, Hackworth also served as the inaugural Technical Director of the U.S. Soccer Development Academy.

Outside of his time with U.S. Soccer, Hackworth's experience extends to both the collegiate and professional levels of the game. He began as an assistant coach for the Wake Forest University women's and men's teams in 1993 and 1994. Hackworth was then named the head coach at the University of South Florida in 1998, where he led the Bulls to two NCAA Tournament Appearances.

In Major League Soccer, Hackworth spent five years with the Philadelphia Union, serving as the club's Youth Development Coordinator from 2009-12, and head coach from 2012-14 before returning to take charge of the U.S. U-17 Men's National Team.

ASSISTANT COACH DANNY CRUZ

On Thursday, September 27, 2018, Louisville City FC announced the addition of Danny Cruz as coach John Hackworth's first Assistant Coach.

A former assistant at Real Monarchs SLC, Cruz came on board after ending his playing career ahead of the 2018 USL regular season. Prior to taking on his role with the Monarchs, Cruz's extensive playing career saw him register 137 career Major League Soccer appearances in total.

A native of Petersburg, Virginia, Cruz's decade-long playing career began with the Des Moines Menace, where current LouCity players Richard Ballard and Tim Dobrowolski have spent time. After leaving the University of Nevada-Las Vegas, Cruz was drafted in the third round (41st overall) of the 2009 MLS SuperDraft by the Houston Dynamo. The former winger clocked time with the Dynamo, D.C. United, and Philadelphia Union in Major League Soccer before spending one year with Minnesota United and part of one year with the San Francisco Deltas in the NASL before leaving for Real Monarchs SLC in August 2017.
