GAME PREVIEW

As of Saturday morning, it will have been 1,120 days since Indy Eleven has defeated Louisville City FC.

The boys in purple will look to extend their ten-game unbeaten streak in Louisville Indiana Proximity Association Football Contest series at 7:30 pm ET inside Lynn Family Stadium.

LouCity enters Saturday's fresh off celebrating the club's first win under new head coach Danny Cruz's leadership over a Landon Donovan-led San Diego Loyal side. The club currently stands 2-0-1 on the season, also boasting a win over Atlanta United 2 and a draw with Birmingham Legion FC.

As with last week, LouCity will be without winger Brian Ownby, who currently has one game remaining in a two-game suspension. New, however, is the departure of left back Jonathan Gomez, who left this week for a call up to train with the Mexican National Team.

The boys in blue come to Louisville after a 2-1-0 start to the season. Indy is 1-0 on the road thanks to a season-opening victory over Birmingham Legion FC. The club fell in its return to Carroll Stadium, an 0-2 defeat to current Central Division leader FC Tulsa before bouncing back to defeat Sporting KC II last weekend.

Saturday's game will be the first of four LIPAFc matchups this season with Indy visiting Lynn Family Stadium again on June 26 before LouCity goes to Carroll Stadium on Sept. 18 and Oct. 16.

GIBSON'S NOW A GOOD GUY

Having signed with LouCity in the offseason, midfielder Tyler Gibson will look to make his second start in a row for his new club against his old side Saturday. The former Indy Eleven standout played every minute of the 2020 campaign. Here, he worked his way into Cruz's second lineup after coming off the bench in LouCity's previous games. Gibson, a holding midfielder, completed 50 passes with 94% accuracy.

INDY'S NEWCOMERS

Gibson was hardly the only member of the 2020 Indy Eleven roster to make an offseason move, as the club's leading scorer Tyler Pasher and goalkeeper Evan Newton were both sold to MLS sides during the break. A rebuilt Indy squad now features forwards Manuel Arteaga and Jordan Hamilton, who bring Copa Libertadores and MLS experience to the roster, along with midfielder Aboubacar Sissoko out of the Canadian Premiere League.

TO LOUCITY'S DEPTHS

A combination of injuries and a suspension will leave the boys in purple without two regular starters Saturday. Outside back Oscar Jimenez will sit due to a recent knee cartilage injury counting him out until the summer. Brian Ownby was handed a two-game suspension by the USL Championship exiting the Birmingham game earlier this month.

BACK IN BLACK

The boys in purple will don new shirts revealed just this week for the Indy game. As with the club's prior third kit iterations, this one features a black and gray color scheme. New this year is a polka-dotted front. The alternate jersey, as with LouCity's home purple and away hoops, is available for purchase at the club's Team Store or online at Shop.LouCity.com.

IN THE STANDS

In a final step toward 100% capacity, Lynn Family Stadium will increase to 75% of its 15,304 maximum Saturday. Also for now, the stadium continues to follow guidelines set by Centers for Disease Control and mirrored by the State of Kentucky allowing fully vaccinated persons to go mask-free in the venue. LouCity will then on June 12 host its official Grand Opening game at full capacity.

COUNT ON CAM

After two scoreless games, top LouCity striker Cameron Lancaster opened his account for the 2021 season last out against San Diego Loyal. A foul in the box earned by midfielder Napo Matsoso sent the Englishman to the penalty spot in the early seconds of first half stoppage time. Lancaster's initial strike was swatted away, but he struck the rebound into the back of net, giving the boys in purple their go-ahead goal.

WHIRLWIND DEBUT

Just announced as part of the roster last Thursday, forward Kyle Greig made the bench for the San Diego game and found himself on the pitch in the 80th minute as a sub for Lancaster. The forward nearly converted on his first touch as a cross bounced around the box. Not long after, an Antoine Hoppenot-led counter sent defender Akil Watts flying into the box, where Greig leaped to meet the ball mid-air. It somehow rolled off the back of his leg and into the net for his first LouCity goal.

TOP SCORERS

Greig made his goal his 59th in USL Championship play, while LouCity also features two others in the league's all-time Top 10 for scoring. George Davis IV has scored 56 goals and Lancaster 52, providing the boys in purple a potent threat up top. Lancaster figures to hold the starting role, with Greig — known for his physical play having spent the 2018-2020 seasons with now-defunct Saint Louis FC — providing a change of pace for Cruz's offense.

ON TO EL TRI

LouCity will be without rising star defender Jonathan Gomez for a couple of weeks, as the 17-year-old this week joined the Mexican National Team for training as it prepares for Concacaf Nations League games and a May 30 friendly against Iceland. Gomez started the first three games of Louisville City FC's season and earned Man of the Match honors after trying 14 crosses, winning eight duels and taking a shot on goal May 8 against Birmingham Legion FC.

A VICTORY CRUZ

Saturday night marked the beginning of the next winning era for LouCity when Cruz, the 31-year-old former assistant to John Hackworth, nabbed his first win as manager since taking over the role in late April following the departure of John Hackworth. The boy in purple drew with the Birmingham Legion in Cruz's first match as boss. After a two-week refresh, LouCity earned a 2-1 win over San Diego Loyal.

MILESTONES ON THE HORIZON

Niall McCabe is five appearances away from his 150th Louisville City FC appearance and two goals away from 20.

Cameron Lancaster is two appearances away from marking his 100th regular season appearance in purple.

Pat McMahon is three games away from his 50th Louisville City FC appearance.

Sean Totsch is two appearances away from his 120th Louisville City FC appearance.

MATCH QUOTES

"They're a good team. Every single one of those games are intense. Our guys are always up for the challenge. The expectation is that we continue to have success on the weekend. We know that it's going to be a tough game. They're a well coached team. They're an organized team. They've brought in some good pieces. The boys will be ready. They've had a good week of training and we're excited to get back at Lynn Family in front of our fans."

-Head coach and Danny Cruz on the rivalry between LouCity and Indy.

"I've done it in the past – for example, FC Cincinnati – but I'm excited. It's always exciting to play against friends and the old team that you played for... It's going to be fun to see them and play against them. The rivalry between the two teams is so fun, I always loved playing against Louisville when I was on Indy, and now vice versa."

- Midfielder Tyler Gibson on playing his former club for the first time.

"They're a good team. They're a strong team. Always have dangerous players. We've been fortunate to come out the good side of the results more so than not. We'll just do our best this week to keep it that way."

- Midfielder Niall McCabe on going ten-unbeaten against this weekend's opponents.

FAMILIAR FACES

A similar trend to years past, Louisville City FC once again returned the core of its roster, retaining 18 members off the 2020 LouCity roster. Of that 18 also includes nine of the 11 starters that led the boys in purple through streaks measured eight winning and 13 unbeaten into the club's sixth-straight Eastern Conference Finals appearance in as many years.

HEAD COACH DANNY CRUZ

After three years as the club's top assistant, Danny Cruz was given full reign of the boys in purple and appointed interim head coach on April 27, 2020.

Since joining the club as a full-time assistant in September of 2018, Cruz made an immediate impact, seeing LouCity win its second straight USL Championship Final, the first club in league history to accomplish such a feat.

In his time with LouCity, Cruz has gone on to further establish a challenging style of play for the boys in purple, playing out of the back with double-digit passing sequences known to confound opposing squads.

"We are excited for Danny to take the reins of LouCity — a well-earned opportunity," said LouCity president Brad Estes. "The momentum of this organization is unwavering, and we will continue to support our players and staff in their mission to fill the trophy case."

In January of 2020, the Petersburg, Va., native's title was updated to include the role of technical director. In addition to his role as a coach, Cruz works to retain and sign players, plus manages first team opportunities for members of the club's youth academy.

Cruz played professional soccer from his 2009 MLS SuperDraft selection until he joined the Real Monarch SLC in 2018 as an assistant coach. Over the course of his pro career, Cruz registered 137 Major League Soccer appearances including time with the Houston Dynamo, D.C. United and the Philadelphia Union. Cruz was a starter on the 2011 Houston Dynamo squad which squared off against the David Beckham and Landon Donovan-led L.A. Galaxy team in the 2011 MLS Cup. Cruz also trained under Hackworth in Philadelphia, registering 70 career appearances while scoring seven goals. Cruz also had experience playing with the Des Moines Menace, Minnesota United, San Francisco Deltas and Real Monarchs SLC before joining their coaching ranks.

Since moving to Louisville, Cruz and his wife, Brittney, have also welcomed a son, Santiago, into their family.

ASSISTANT COACH SIMON BIRD

The Lincoln, England, native was a star at the University of Louisville from 2001-04, earning Conference USA Player of the Year in 2003, and had a six-year professional career in England before returning as a University of Louisville Assistant Coach from 2009-12. A fixture on the local soccer scene, Bird has worked as Oldham Soccer Club's Director of Coaching and Kentucky Fire Juniors Boys Director. Bird holds an A License from the U.S. Soccer Federation and is a Qualified Teacher for High School Physical Education and Sports Science.
