MCMAHON'S 'WARRIOR MENTALITY' SHINES AMID LOUCITY UNBEATEN STREAK

By Jonathan Lintner

Just one player in Louisville City FC's lineup Wednesday night had fully fresh legs. Pat McMahon certainly made the most of them.

According to Opta statistics, the defender led LouCity in passes (50), completed passes (39) and passes in the opponent's half of the pitch (34) as the boys in purple defeated rival Indy Eleven by a 2-0 score at Lucas Oil Stadium.

"It's been crazy," said McMahon, who was away from the team last Saturday when LouCity beat Saint Louis FC by a 3-0 score — for good reason. The 33-year-old married his wife, Brianna.

"Obviously the weekend was amazing. It flew by quick," McMahon added. "I was so excited that we got the three points on the weekend and then being able to come back into the lineup when you miss a game is nice knowing the coaches have that confidence."

McMahon's return marked the only change on coach John Hackworth's lineup card from Saturday to Wednesday. Inserting the right back meant LouCity rolled out the same starting 11 as it used in a 3-1 rout of Indy Eleven back on Sept. 5.

McMahon registered 76 total touches, often pushing up to become part of his side's attack.

"Pat's such a good pro," Hackworth said, "and he has that warrior mentality that we look for. He's smart. He's intelligent. His soccer is good. Our guys joke about his quality often, but the reality is that he is a really good soccer player.

"He's a fantastic professional, and we need him. He provides a lot of composure in there for us, defends like a warrior and gets the mentality right, so I'm really proud of him tonight."

McMahon went 90 minutes before subbed off in favor of fellow defender Wes Charpie late in the going.

"He always puts in the work, and he's got a ton of fight in him," said midfielder Corben Bone, who also played with McMahon at FC Cincinnati. "He makes good decisions. It seems like he's always in the right place at the right time, and you want a guy like that on your team.

"He has a championship mentality, and you know he's going to get the job done. He puts in a shift every game — puts it all on the field — and that's all you can really ask."

McMahon has established himself since the USL Championship restarted play mid-July, working from reserve to regular starter. Despite missing a game for his wedding ceremony, his 808 minutes played rank seventh-most on LouCity's roster.

A USL Cup winner dating back to his 2015 season with the Rochester Rhinos, McMahon was already preaching recovery for his club's next outing minutes after the Indy win. LouCity faces another quick turnaround for a 7:30 p.m. kickoff Saturday against Memphis 901 FC at Lynn Family Stadium.

"Starting now, you just kind of prepare your body — do what you can to get your body right for (Thursday's) re-gen," McMahon said. "We'll go back to training, and the guys who have knocks maybe rotate. We'll get a fresh pair of legs in there. We'll prepare the best we can, and it's up to the coaches to make those hard decisions."

WELCOME TO LYNN FAMILY STADIUM

The $65 million stadium sits on a 10-acre parcel in the Butchertown neighborhood east of downtown. Normal capacity is 15,304, and the venue could range up to 25,000 for concerts. Unique to Lynn is a 72-foot Modelo bar in the open end, believed to be the longest of its kind in Kentucky. The jumbotron ranks second in size behind only Churchill Downs' Big Board.

The natural surface is made up of Tahoma 31 Bermuda overseeded with rye, and it can remain green year round thanks to a sub-air system that removes excessive moisture, but can also blow hot or cold air to keep grass at an ideal temperature. The lines measure 120 feet by 80, a major upgrade from the 105 by 75 pitch at LouCity's former home, Louisville Slugger Field.

LouCity has ensured its late founder's legacy lives on within the club's new home. Architect and philanthropist Wayne Estopinal, who brought pro soccer to town, is the namesake behind the closed end of Lynn Family Stadium, the standing supporter zone. Estopinal, whose firm also designed the University of Louisville's similarly named Lynn Stadium, died in a November 2018 plane crash at age 63.

JOHN HACKWORTH

Louisville City Football Club coach John Hackworth was hired in the middle of the 2018 season and promptly led the Club to its second USL Cup championship, completing the first back-to-back USL Cup titles in modern USL history.

Hackworth was hired on Aug. 2, 2018, taking over for previous coach James O'Connor who was hired with Orlando City of the MLS. After O'Connor left, Louisville City continued its season as a player-led team until Hackworth took over mid-August. Under Hackworth's direction, LouCity closed out the regular season well and then rolled through the 2018 USL playoffs with four impressive wins – outscoring the four playoff teams in their path 12-2.

“Hack came in with an impressive amount of experience and success throughout his career developing the abilities of some of our country's most exciting prospects,” Louisville City FC President Brad Estes said. “In addition, his sharp eye for talent and ability to develop elite players, we were impressed with his ability to successfully lead our Club with a remarkable humility and focus down the stretch of the 2018 season. He was able to quickly establish himself as the lead of the group that was already assembled and then add new players who complimented the team's tremendous talent.”

By the start of the 2018 Playoffs, Hackworth had molded the squad into a dominant force. Louisville City beat Indy Eleven 4-1, rolled over the Bethlehem Steel 2-0 and then crushed the New York Red Bulls 5-1 to make the USL Cup Final. Hackworth and Louisville City captured the club's second star with a 1-0 win over West Champion Phoenix Rising.

After the club conducted an international search for its next leader, Hackworth is Louisville City's second-ever head coach. The 48-year-old native of Dunedin, Fla., signed a contract spanning through the 2022 season.

“Those that know him have applauded his coaching acumen, but his character is what we are most excited about as we take Louisville City FC forward,” Estes said of Hackworth.

Prior to Louisville City, Hackworth had been in charge of the U.S. U-17 Men's National Team since 2015 and has served as an assistant to the U.S. Men's National Team since the beginning of this year. An experienced coach at the national level, Hackworth began with U.S. Soccer in 2002 when he first served as an assistant to then-U.S. U-17 Men's National Team head coach John Ellinger. Hackworth would go on to succeed Ellinger and lead the U-17's to finishes in the quarterfinals of the 2005 FIFA U-17 World Cup and Round of 16 in the 2007 FIFA U-17 World Cup. Following his time in charge of the U-17's, Hackworth also served as the inaugural Technical Director of the U.S. Soccer Development Academy.

Outside of his time with U.S. Soccer, Hackworth's experience extends to both the collegiate and professional levels of the game. He began as an assistant coach for the Wake Forest University women's and men's teams in 1993 and 1994. Hackworth was then named the head coach at the University of South Florida in 1998, where he led the Bulls to two NCAA Tournament Appearances.

In Major League Soccer, Hackworth spent five years with the Philadelphia Union, serving as the club's Youth Development Coordinator from 2009-12, and head coach from 2012-14 before returning to take charge of the U.S. U-17 Men's National Team.

DANNY CRUZ

ASSISTANT COACH | PETERSBURG, VA

10-year professional veteran Danny Cruz was John Hackworth's first coaching hire at Louisville City. Cruz has known Hackworth since Cruz was 16, playing for Hackworth as part of elite youth development teams. Cruz, a native of Petersburg, Va., was a successful pro, playing 137 career games at the MLS level. The former UNLV star was a third round draft pick in the 2009 MLS SuperDraft before playing with Houston Dynamo, D.C. United and Philadelphia Union. A fiery competitor, Cruz brings intensity, experience and tactical knowledge to bolster Hackworth's technical staff.

SCOTT BUDNICK

GOALKEEPER COACH | LOUISVILLE, KY

After John Hackworth brought in Budnick as interim goalkeeper coach in August 2018, the move went so well that he was offered the permanent position on Jan. 7, 2019. A wealth of goalkeeping knowledge, Budnick's tactical mind and steady demeanor imbues the goalkeepers union with confidence and courage. Budnick gained his knowledge through decades of experience at William and Mary, with the Richmond Kickers and Hampton Roads Hurricanes in the USISL and playing stints in English and German as well as time with three clubs in the MLS (Tampa Bay Mutiny, Miami Fusion and New England Revolution). Prior to LouCity, Budnick had a successful law while coaching locally.
