LOUCITY'S MCMAHON GIVES OFF THE RIGHT 'VIBES' FOR SKC II DOUBLEHEADER

By Ysabella Leon

His name's Pat McMahon on the team sheet, in the game program and on the official roster.

Around the locker room, though, you might hear the Louisville City FC defender referred to by his nickname: "Vibes."

"He just kind of exudes this coolness," said LouCity coach John Hackworth. "It's not with his words. He's certainly is a man of action. It's more about the feeling that he gives off to everybody, thus the nickname."

McMahon was inserted back into LouCity's lineup last Saturday against Saint Louis FC. Voted Man of the Match in the 1-0 loss, McMahon led his team with five tackles and three key passes in addition to an astonishing 10 repossessions, according to Opta statistics.

The 33-year-old — the eldest member of the roster — figures to put his leadership by example on display at 8 p.m. Saturday when LouCity hosts Sporting KC II at Lynn Family Stadium. The boys in purple are seeking to end an uncharacteristic two-game skid since the USL Championship restarted play earlier this month.

"Me being an older player on the team, I think talking to people, it's [about] keeping our confidence — enjoying it at training," McMahon said. "Sometimes we miss on that because we harp on needing a win and focusing on that, but I think we take care of the little things and get the enthusiasm and back to enjoying it, then we play better and obviously start winning games."

With age, McMahon has a resume to match. Before becoming an integral piece of the LouCity back line, he played against some of his current teammates as a member of the Rochester Rhinos, winning the 2015 USL title there. He then suited up for former USL rival FC Cincinnati.

McMahon signaled oncoming longevity as a professional during his collegiate career. He set a school record for 85 consecutive starts at his alma mater, the University of Illinois at Chicago.

"He's an older guy, but he doesn't act like an older guy," said LouCity midfielder Napo Matsoso. "He's one of the nicest people I've ever met and he's phenomenal. He's really good and works hard every day at training."

"He never gives up, and whatever you need, he's always there for you. Everyone on the team likes Pat, and I don't see why you wouldn't as a person."

McMahon pointed to mentorship of his younger teammates, particularly rookie defender Jonathan Gomez, who signed with the club in March.

"I talk to him a lot just because we play a similar position and obviously he's 16, so I think he can learn a lot," McMahon said.

Hackworth, also LouCity's sporting director, commended McMahon on his demeanor off the pitch. But Hackworth had this to say upon hearing Matsoso claimed the defender "never gets pissed off."

"No, but he's got a lot of fire in the belly," the coach said, "so you don't want to make him mad on the field. Away from the field, he's one of the nicest people I've ever been around."

McMahon expects results will change for the better with LouCity, which has a unique schedule ahead, also hosting Sporting KC II on Wednesday to make this a doubleheader of sorts.

"For me, as a defender, it comes on us," McMahon said. "Defense wins championships. And once we start getting goals and that confidence, it'll improve."

WELCOME TO LYNN FAMILY STADIUM

The $65 million stadium sits on a 10-acre parcel in the Butchertown neighborhood east of downtown. Normal capacity is 15,304, and the venue could range up to 25,000 for concerts. Unique to Lynn is a 72-foot Modelo bar in the open end, believed to be the longest of its kind in Kentucky. The jumbotron ranks second in size behind only Churchill Downs' Big Board.

The natural surface is made up of Tahoma 31 Bermuda overseeded with rye, and it can remain green year round thanks to a sub-air system that removes excessive moisture, but can also blow hot or cold air to keep grass at an ideal temperature. The lines measure 120 feet by 80, a major upgrade from the 105 by 75 pitch at LouCity's former home, Louisville Slugger Field.

LouCity has ensured its late founder's legacy lives on within the club's new home. Architect and philanthropist Wayne Estopinal, who brought pro soccer to town, is the namesake behind the closed end of Lynn Family Stadium, the standing supporter zone. Estopinal, whose firm also designed the University of Louisville's similarly named Lynn Stadium, died in a November 2018 plane crash at age 63.

JOHN HACKWORTH

Louisville City Football Club coach John Hackworth was hired in the middle of the 2018 season and promptly led the Club to its second USL Cup championship, completing the first back-to-back USL Cup titles in modern USL history.

Hackworth was hired on Aug. 2, 2018, taking over for previous coach James O'Connor who was hired with Orlando City of the MLS. After O'Connor left, Louisville City continued its season as a player-led team until Hackworth took over mid-August. Under Hackworth's direction, LouCity closed out the regular season well and then rolled through the 2018 USL playoffs with four impressive wins – outscoring the four playoff teams in their path 12-2.

“Hack came in with an impressive amount of experience and success throughout his career developing the abilities of some of our country's most exciting prospects,” Louisville City FC President Brad Estes said. “In addition, his sharp eye for talent and ability to develop elite players, we were impressed with his ability to successfully lead our Club with a remarkable humility and focus down the stretch of the 2018 season. He was able to quickly establish himself as the lead of the group that was already assembled and then add new players who complimented the team's tremendous talent.”

By the start of the 2018 Playoffs, Hackworth had molded the squad into a dominant force. Louisville City beat Indy Eleven 4-1, rolled over the Bethlehem Steel 2-0 and then crushed the New York Red Bulls 5-1 to make the USL Cup Final. Hackworth and Louisville City captured the club's second star with a 1-0 win over West Champion Phoenix Rising.

After the club conducted an international search for its next leader, Hackworth is Louisville City's second-ever head coach. The 48-year-old native of Dunedin, Fla., signed a contract spanning through the 2022 season.

“Those that know him have applauded his coaching acumen, but his character is what we are most excited about as we take Louisville City FC forward,” Estes said of Hackworth.

Prior to Louisville City, Hackworth had been in charge of the U.S. U-17 Men's National Team since 2015 and has served as an assistant to the U.S. Men's National Team since the beginning of this year. An experienced coach at the national level, Hackworth began with U.S. Soccer in 2002 when he first served as an assistant to then-U.S. U-17 Men's National Team head coach John Ellinger. Hackworth would go on to succeed Ellinger and lead the U-17's to finishes in the quarterfinals of the 2005 FIFA U-17 World Cup and Round of 16 in the 2007 FIFA U-17 World Cup. Following his time in charge of the U-17's, Hackworth also served as the inaugural Technical Director of the U.S. Soccer Development Academy.

Outside of his time with U.S. Soccer, Hackworth's experience extends to both the collegiate and professional levels of the game. He began as an assistant coach for the Wake Forest University women's and men's teams in 1993 and 1994. Hackworth was then named the head coach at the University of South Florida in 1998, where he led the Bulls to two NCAA Tournament Appearances.

In Major League Soccer, Hackworth spent five years with the Philadelphia Union, serving as the club's Youth Development Coordinator from 2009-12, and head coach from 2012-14 before returning to take charge of the U.S. U-17 Men's National Team.

DANNY CRUZ

ASSISTANT COACH | PETERSBURG, VA

10-year professional veteran Danny Cruz was John Hackworth's first coaching hire at Louisville City. Cruz has known Hackworth since Cruz was 16, playing for Hackworth as part of elite youth development teams. Cruz, a native of Petersburg, Va., was a successful pro, playing 137 career games at the MLS level. The former UNLV star was a third round draft pick in the 2009 MLS SuperDraft before playing with Houston Dynamo, D.C. United and Philadelphia Union. A fiery competitor, Cruz brings intensity, experience and tactical knowledge to bolster Hackworth's technical staff.

SCOTT BUDNICK

GOALKEEPER COACH | LOUISVILLE, KY

After John Hackworth brought in Budnick as interim goalkeeper coach in August 2018, the move went so well that he was offered the permanent position on Jan. 7, 2019. A wealth of goalkeeping knowledge, Budnick's tactical mind and steady demeanor imbues the goalkeepers union with confidence and courage. Budnick gained his knowledge through decades of experience at William and Mary, with the Richmond Kickers and Hampton Roads Hurricanes in the USISL and playing stints in English and German as well as time with three clubs in the MLS (Tampa Bay Mutiny, Miami Fusion and New England Revolution). Prior to LouCity, Budnick had a successful law while coaching locally.
