GOALKEEPER LUNDT RELISHES HIS ROLE AS LOUCITY'S 'FIRST ATTACKER'

By Maggie Wesley

Ben Lundt, a goalkeeper in title, has proven to be more than a top defensive piece for Louisville City FC.

The 24-year-old on loan from Major League Soccer's FC Cincinnati posted his second clean sheet of the season — and first since the USL Championship restarted play — last Saturday when LouCity defeated Loudoun United FC by a 2-0 score.

But with Lundt's responsibility to get LouCity's offense going from the back, coach John Hackworth also refers to the native of Germany as "the first attacker for us."

"We depend on him to be good in our buildout and distribution," Hackworth said.

While previewing Saturday's 8 p.m. visit from Sporting KC II, Hackworth looked back to a key sequence versus Loudoun. Lundt decided to distribute to outside back Jonathan Gomez, and three passes later forward Cameron Lancaster was blasting a shot just over the bar.

"That in my humble opinion is our best and most efficient buildout," Hackworth said. "He does a lot of things and he is doing them well."

Selected 37th in 2019's MLS SuperDraft out of the University of Akron, Lundt first went on loan to LouCity last year. He started 12 games with four shutouts before an ankle injury shut down his season mid-June.

Back between the posts in 2020, Lundt started his campaign with a 1-0 win on March 7 at North Carolina FC. The restart didn't treat him quite as well when LouCity dropped a 3-1 decision to Pittsburgh Riverhounds SC on July 12.

"If you think of our progress, we've made turnovers with Ben specifically," Hackworth said. But, the coach added, since then "there has only been one time I think we've made a bad decision and that was really just a technical execution from Ben that I would be critical of. Everything else is much better.

"There is risk in that, but there are also a lot of rewards. We can bring an opposition into that, and if we play through them, it gives us a lot of space to attack."

Lundt, comparing his role in LouCity's offense to the defense, noted that there's typically little to do with saves, which he posts at a 68.4% clip. The boys in purple have only had 19 shots taken on target taken against them through seven games this season.

"As a goalie, it's not always easy to play for a team like Louisville because sometimes you only get one or two shots on goal and you have to be there," said Lundt. "Sometimes, like early in the season, it bounced and didn't go my way. I get a touch on it, but it still goes in goal.

"That's kind of the life as a goalie here at Louisville City. You have to stay focused for 90-plus minutes and really wait for your chance to help your team."

That was the story of Lundt's time in goal Saturday. With his side up 1-0 late in the first half, Lundt turned away Loudoun's only shot on the frame just before the break. In the second half, Loudoun's other top look on a breakaway came in the 69th minute. Lundt came up with another save to preserve a 2-0 scoreline.

Beginning the offense from his side of the field, as opposed to playing long and hoping for the best, Lundt helped LouCity control 59.2% possession in its first multi-goal game of 2020.

"That's my playing style — playing off the back, finding the full backs or open men," Lundt said. "Of course, it's unusual as a goalkeeper playing off the back as much as I do, but I know coach Hack and the rest of the coaching staff expect that from me.

"...I think the win was more important for the team than myself. We feel like things are clicking as a team. It gives the confidence to the other players in the final third so they can take more risks. Even if they give the ball up, they know the back line will do a good job.

"It comes down to confidence in your teammates and the ability to get some rhythm down and get used to your players."

WELCOME TO LYNN FAMILY STADIUM

The $65 million stadium sits on a 10-acre parcel in the Butchertown neighborhood east of downtown. Normal capacity is 15,304, and the venue could range up to 25,000 for concerts. Unique to Lynn is a 72-foot Modelo bar in the open end, believed to be the longest of its kind in Kentucky. The jumbotron ranks second in size behind only Churchill Downs' Big Board.

The natural surface is made up of Tahoma 31 Bermuda overseeded with rye, and it can remain green year round thanks to a sub-air system that removes excessive moisture, but can also blow hot or cold air to keep grass at an ideal temperature. The lines measure 120 feet by 80, a major upgrade from the 105 by 75 pitch at LouCity's former home, Louisville Slugger Field.

LouCity has ensured its late founder's legacy lives on within the club's new home. Architect and philanthropist Wayne Estopinal, who brought pro soccer to town, is the namesake behind the closed end of Lynn Family Stadium, the standing supporter zone. Estopinal, whose firm also designed the University of Louisville's similarly named Lynn Stadium, died in a November 2018 plane crash at age 63.

JOHN HACKWORTH

Louisville City Football Club coach John Hackworth was hired in the middle of the 2018 season and promptly led the Club to its second USL Cup championship, completing the first back-to-back USL Cup titles in modern USL history.

Hackworth was hired on Aug. 2, 2018, taking over for previous coach James O'Connor who was hired with Orlando City of the MLS. After O'Connor left, Louisville City continued its season as a player-led team until Hackworth took over mid-August. Under Hackworth's direction, LouCity closed out the regular season well and then rolled through the 2018 USL playoffs with four impressive wins – outscoring the four playoff teams in their path 12-2.

“Hack came in with an impressive amount of experience and success throughout his career developing the abilities of some of our country's most exciting prospects,” Louisville City FC President Brad Estes said. “In addition, his sharp eye for talent and ability to develop elite players, we were impressed with his ability to successfully lead our Club with a remarkable humility and focus down the stretch of the 2018 season. He was able to quickly establish himself as the lead of the group that was already assembled and then add new players who complimented the team's tremendous talent.”

By the start of the 2018 Playoffs, Hackworth had molded the squad into a dominant force. Louisville City beat Indy Eleven 4-1, rolled over the Bethlehem Steel 2-0 and then crushed the New York Red Bulls 5-1 to make the USL Cup Final. Hackworth and Louisville City captured the club's second star with a 1-0 win over West Champion Phoenix Rising.

After the club conducted an international search for its next leader, Hackworth is Louisville City's second-ever head coach. The 48-year-old native of Dunedin, Fla., signed a contract spanning through the 2022 season.

“Those that know him have applauded his coaching acumen, but his character is what we are most excited about as we take Louisville City FC forward,” Estes said of Hackworth.

Prior to Louisville City, Hackworth had been in charge of the U.S. U-17 Men's National Team since 2015 and has served as an assistant to the U.S. Men's National Team since the beginning of this year. An experienced coach at the national level, Hackworth began with U.S. Soccer in 2002 when he first served as an assistant to then-U.S. U-17 Men's National Team head coach John Ellinger. Hackworth would go on to succeed Ellinger and lead the U-17's to finishes in the quarterfinals of the 2005 FIFA U-17 World Cup and Round of 16 in the 2007 FIFA U-17 World Cup. Following his time in charge of the U-17's, Hackworth also served as the inaugural Technical Director of the U.S. Soccer Development Academy.

Outside of his time with U.S. Soccer, Hackworth's experience extends to both the collegiate and professional levels of the game. He began as an assistant coach for the Wake Forest University women's and men's teams in 1993 and 1994. Hackworth was then named the head coach at the University of South Florida in 1998, where he led the Bulls to two NCAA Tournament Appearances.

In Major League Soccer, Hackworth spent five years with the Philadelphia Union, serving as the club's Youth Development Coordinator from 2009-12, and head coach from 2012-14 before returning to take charge of the U.S. U-17 Men's National Team.

DANNY CRUZ

ASSISTANT COACH | PETERSBURG, VA

10-year professional veteran Danny Cruz was John Hackworth's first coaching hire at Louisville City. Cruz has known Hackworth since Cruz was 16, playing for Hackworth as part of elite youth development teams. Cruz, a native of Petersburg, Va., was a successful pro, playing 137 career games at the MLS level. The former UNLV star was a third round draft pick in the 2009 MLS SuperDraft before playing with Houston Dynamo, D.C. United and Philadelphia Union. A fiery competitor, Cruz brings intensity, experience and tactical knowledge to bolster Hackworth's technical staff.

SCOTT BUDNICK

GOALKEEPER COACH | LOUISVILLE, KY

After John Hackworth brought in Budnick as interim goalkeeper coach in August 2018, the move went so well that he was offered the permanent position on Jan. 7, 2019. A wealth of goalkeeping knowledge, Budnick's tactical mind and steady demeanor imbues the goalkeepers union with confidence and courage. Budnick gained his knowledge through decades of experience at William and Mary, with the Richmond Kickers and Hampton Roads Hurricanes in the USISL and playing stints in English and German as well as time with three clubs in the MLS (Tampa Bay Mutiny, Miami Fusion and New England Revolution). Prior to LouCity, Budnick had a successful law while coaching locally.
