NEW YORK COSMOS vs INDY ELEVEN

DATE: 8/31/16 KICKOFF: 7:30PM VENUE: SHUART STADIUM

PREVIOUS MATCH REPORT

HEMPSTEAD, NY (August 27, 2016) - The New York Cosmos set a Modern Era club record Saturday night, scoring six times in a victory against the Carolina RailHawks at Hofstra's James M. Shuart Stadium.

The RailHawks opened the scoring through Matt Fondy in the sixth minute, but New York would go on to net six unanswered goals. Five of those goals came in the second half, another Modern Era club record.

"I think in the second half the team came with a different mentality," said Cosmos Head Coach Giovanni Savarese. "I'm very proud of the guys for the way they came to play. It was some quality play from the players and a good result for us."

Fondy's strike was the result of a turnover forced by Carolina midfielder Nazmi Albadawi. His through ball found the feet of Fondy, who finished low past Cosmos goalkeeper Jimmy Maurer to give the visitors an early lead.

But the Cosmos equalized two minutes later when Andrés Flores found Juan Arango unmarked at the top of the 18-yard box. The Venezuelan powered his effort past the outstretched hand of RailHawks goalkeeper Akira Fitzgerald, leveling the match. It would stay 1-1 until the halftime whistle, with both sides having goals nullified by the offside flag.

New York emerged from the locker room for the second half with intensity, building dangerous attacks that culminated in Arango's second goal of the evening in the 58th minute. Winger Sebastián Guenzatti cut into the box and fired a shot that forced Fitzgerald into action. Though he made the initial save, he couldn't stop Arango from chipping the rebound into the net.

Three minutes later Costa Rican forward Jairo Arrieta added a third for the Cosmos, his first of two goals in the game. This one was an inch-perfect blast from 25 yards, dinging the bottom of the crossbar and bouncing over the goal line.

"I was content with was the reaction of the team, making sure that we continued to play," Savarese said. "We didn't stop looking for another goal, and we kept confidence going forward."

Flores, who struck the match-winner for New York in Puerto Rico a weekend ago, was next to add to the tally. His effort from the top of the penalty area caromed off the leg of a defender and rolled in at the near post.

The Cosmos tacked on two more in the final minutes of the match, first through Arrieta again in the 82nd minute and finally Guenzatti seconds from the full time whistle.

This result places the Cosmos (7-2-2 Fall, 13-2-6 Overall) alone in first place for the Fall Season, a point clear of FC Edmonton, who plays on Sunday afternoon. New York is also now two points ahead of the Eddies in the Combined Season Standings.

It'll be a short turnaround for the Cosmos, who host Indy Eleven this Wednesday, August 31. Kickoff is set for 7:30 p.m. ET at Shuart Stadium.

NEW YORK COSMOS vs INDY ELEVEN

DATE: 8/31/16 KICKOFF: 7:30PM VENUE: SHUART STADIUM

WORTH A NOTE

CLASH OF CHAMPIONS

The New York Cosmos and Indy Eleven are the NASL's last two Spring Season champions. The Cosmos won the title in 2015, but Indy captured the first piece of hardware in club history by edging out New York on tiebreakers this past Spring Season.

HOME COOKING

Saturday's 6-1 triumph over the Carolina RailHawks was the Cosmos' 10th home win in 11 tries this NASL Season. New York has yet to lose at Shuart Stadium in 2016; only Rayo OKC held the Cosmos to a draw back on August 7.

ROLLING

The Cosmos are riding a three-match winning streak and are unbeaten in their last five matches. They've scored 15 goals in those five games.

NUMBER JUAN

Cosmos midfielder Juan Arango continues to spearhead the Cosmos attack. The Venezuela international leads the team in goals (9) and is second in assists (4). He is the third-highest goal scorer in the league, trailing only Indy Eleven forward Éamon Zayed and Minnesota United FC forward Christian Ramirez.

SETTLING THE SCORE

Indy and New York had tied all six of their previous encounters before this past April, when Indy scored twice in second half stoppage time to take all three points against the Cosmos at home. The Cosmos have an opportunity to even the all-time series Wednesday night on their home turf.

NEW YORK COSMOS vs INDY ELEVEN

DATE: 8/31/16 KICKOFF: 7:30PM VENUE: SHUART STADIUM

ABOUT THE COSMOS

The New York Cosmos are reigning champions of the North American Soccer League (NASL), having captured their second league title in three seasons and seventh overall on Nov. 15, 2015 with a 3-2 win over Ottawa Fury FC in The Championship Final at Hofstra University's James M. Shuart Stadium.

The Cosmos began play in 1971, spending 14 seasons in the NASL, winning five Soccer Bowl trophies and bringing some of the biggest names in world soccer to the USA. This included Pelé, Franz Beckenbauer, Giorgio Chinaglia and Carlos Alberto. It had been nearly 30 years since the Cosmos, an iconic global soccer club, played in a professional league. Yet throughout their absence, the club maintained a loyal and dedicated fan following.

On Aug. 3, 2013, the New York Cosmos returned to the NASL with a sellout win at Shuart Stadium, before embarking on a season that would see the Cosmos win the 2013 Soccer Bowl with a 1-0 victory against the Atlanta Silverbacks on Nov. 9, 2013 at Atlanta Silverbacks Park.

Raúl and Marcos Senna, legends at famed Spanish sides Real Madrid and Villarreal CF, each suited up in Cosmos colors for modern era championship runs, adding their names to the impressive list of global soccer stars to feature at the club.

The Cosmos submitted a privately-funded economic development proposal in 2013 to the State of New York to build a world-class 25,000-seat professional soccer stadium at Belmont Park. More information about the proposal and renderings can be found at newcosmosstadium.com.

ABOUT THE NASL

The new North American Soccer League (NASL) was officially founded in November 2009 when a group of 2nd division men's professional soccer team owners banded together to form North American Soccer League, LLC for the purpose of creating a team-owned and operated professional soccer league in the United States, Canada and Puerto Rico.

In February 2011, the NASL received provisional recognition from the United States Soccer Federation as the exclusive second division men's professional league (D-2) and the inaugural season kicked off on the evening of April 9, 2011.

The NASL member teams are:

- Carolina RailHawks
- FC Edmonton
- Fort Lauderdale Strikers
- Indy Eleven
- Jacksonville Armada FC
- Miami FC
- Minnesota United FC
- New York Cosmos
- Ottawa Fury FC
- Puerto Rico FC
- Rayo OKC
- San Francisco Deltas
- Tampa Bay Rowdies
