PREVIOUS MATCH REPORT

HEMPSTEAD, N.Y. (September 17, 2016) - The North American Soccer League's top two sides battled to a stalemate on Saturday night, as the first-place New York Cosmos extended their home unbeaten run to 17 straight matches with a 0-0 result against second-place FC Edmonton at Hofstra's Shuart Stadium.

"We may have deserved a little bit more from the match than what we got," said Cosmos Head Coach Giovanni Savarese. "But we have to stay positive. That's what I said to the players."

Captain Carlos Mendes made his 100th appearance for the Cosmos, becoming the first player to do so in the Modern Era. He played the full 90 minutes, garnering Emirates Cosmos Man of the Match honors.

"It's a special night for my family, my friends and the fans that have supported me from day one," Mendes said. "That's always great. Each and every day I still try to improve."

The Cosmos created a handful of scoring opportunities in the first half, the most dangerous of which came in the 20th minute when midfielder Juan Arango earned a free kick from 28 yards. The Venezuelan international hammered the crossbar with his curling shot, missing the top corner of the net by inches.

Arango nearly gave the home side a lead again in the 36th minute, this time by combining with Spanish fullback Ayoze on another set piece. Ayoze's service into the heart of Edmonton's 18-yard box found the head of Arango, whose effort snuck over the crossbar.

In the second half Ayoze showcased his defensive awareness, positioning himself well to send away a threatening low cross delivered by FC Edmonton's Tomi Ameobi in the 59th minute. Eddies midfielder Sainey Nyassi had broken free from his marker and was waiting at the far post.

Cosmos winger David Diosa, who netted the match-winner against Minnesota a week ago, entered this game as a substitute in the 80th minute and immediately found success going forward. Leading a counter attack, Diosa picked out Lucky Mkosana at the top of the penalty area in the 83rd minute. Mkosana's shot missed high, keeping the match even at 0-0.

New York stretched Edmonton's back line in the final minutes of the match, but the breakthrough never came thanks in large part to an excellent performance from Eddies goalkeeper Matt VanOekel. His save of Diosa's stinging shot toward the near post in the 93rd minute sealed the result.

The Cosmos (9-4-2 Fall, 15-4-6 Combined) remain on top of the NASL's Fall Season and Combined Season Standings. They'll travel to Michael A. Carroll Stadium for a matchup with Indy Eleven next Saturday, September 24. Kickoff is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. ET.

NEW YORK COSMOS vs INDY ELEVEN

DATE: 9/24/16 KICKOFF: 7:30PM VENUE: MICHAEL A. CARROLL STADIUM

WORTH A NOTE

UNBREAKABLE

The Cosmos defense hasn't allowed a goal in four consecutive matches. Carlos Mendes, Jimmy Maurer and co. last conceded back on August 27 against Carolina, storming back to win 6-1 after the RailHawks struck first in the sixth minute. That's 444 minutes without letting in a goal.

DECIDER

The Cosmos and Indy Eleven have split their season series so far, with the home side prevailing in both encounters. This will be their final regular season matchup of 2016. The all-time series is also even at 1-6-1 (W-D-L).

ROAD TO THE CHAMPIONSHIP

Beginning on Saturday, New York will play five of its final seven regular season fixtures away from Hofstra's Shuart Stadium. Sitting on top of the NASL's Fall Season and Combined Season Standings, the Cosmos took four points from their previous two road games.

SHOOTERS

No team in the league has taken more shots than the Cosmos this season. At 358 attempts, they're well ahead of second-place Indy Eleven (331). The Cosmos also boast the second-highest goal conversion rate in the NASL (16%).

GOING FOR ARANGOL

Midfielder Juan Arango continues to top the NASL in shot attempts, taking 67 in 24 appearances. The Cosmos attack filters through the Venezuelan; he leads the team in goals (11) and chances created (35).

NEW YORK COSMOS vs INDY ELEVEN

DATE: 9/24/16

KICKOFF: 7:30PM

VENUE: MICHAEL A. CARROLL STADIUM

ABOUT THE COSMOS

The New York Cosmos are reigning champions of the North American Soccer League (NASL), having captured their second league title in three seasons and seventh overall on Nov. 15, 2015 with a 3-2 win over Ottawa Fury FC in The Championship Final at Hofstra University's James M. Shuart Stadium.

The Cosmos began play in 1971, spending 14 seasons in the NASL, winning five Soccer Bowl trophies and bringing some of the biggest names in world soccer to the USA. This included Pelé, Franz Beckenbauer, Giorgio Chinaglia and Carlos Alberto. It had been nearly 30 years since the Cosmos, an iconic global soccer club, played in a professional league. Yet throughout their absence, the club maintained a loyal and dedicated fan following.

On Aug. 3, 2013, the New York Cosmos returned to the NASL with a sellout win at Shuart Stadium, before embarking on a season that would see the Cosmos win the 2013 Soccer Bowl with a 1-0 victory against the Atlanta Silverbacks on Nov. 9, 2013 at Atlanta Silverbacks Park.

Raúl and Marcos Senna, legends at famed Spanish sides Real Madrid and Villarreal CF, each suited up in Cosmos colors for modern era championship runs, adding their names to the impressive list of global soccer stars to feature at the club.

The Cosmos submitted a privately-funded economic development proposal in 2013 to the State of New York to build a world-class 25,000-seat professional soccer stadium at Belmont Park. More information about the proposal and renderings can be found at newcosmosstadium.com.

ABOUT THE NASL

The new North American Soccer League (NASL) was officially founded in November 2009 when a group of 2nd division men's professional soccer team owners banded together to form North American Soccer League, LLC for the purpose of creating a team-owned and operated professional soccer league in the United States, Canada and Puerto Rico.

In February 2011, the NASL received provisional recognition from the United States Soccer Federation as the exclusive second division men's professional league (D-2) and the inaugural season kicked off on the evening of April 9, 2011.

The NASL member teams are:

- Carolina RailHawks
- FC Edmonton
- Fort Lauderdale Strikers
- Indy Eleven
- Jacksonville Armada FC
- Miami FC
- Minnesota United FC
- New York Cosmos
- Ottawa Fury FC
- Puerto Rico FC
- Rayo OKC
- San Francisco Deltas
- Tampa Bay Rowdies

For more information about the NASL, visit www.NASL.com. Follow the NASL on Twitter @NASLOfficial or Facebook at <http://www.Facebook.com/NASL.fan>.
