Minnesota United FC

2015 NASL Spring Record (W-T-L)

0-0-0, 0 points
T-7th place

Series History

Tampa Bay is 7-6-9 (W-T-L) against Minnesota United FC, including a 2012 Soccer Bowl victory over the Loons, then known as the NSC Minnesota Stars. After losing 2-0 in the first leg of that series in Minnesota, the Rowdies won the second leg 3-1 to force extra time, and, eventually a win in penalty kicks. The Rowdies went 0-2-1 last year against Minnesota and are 4-2-5 all-time at home against the Loons.

Scouting Minnesota

With 11 teams now competing in the NASL following the addition of Jacksonville this season, one team will have a bye each week. As the rest of the league kicked off last Saturday, Minnesota United FC was the team sitting at home on a bye. Accordingly, tonight marks Minnesota's 2015 season opener.

The Loons were the class of the league in 2014, winning the Spring Season and sitting atop the Combined Standings after the regular season, entering the Championship as the No. 1 seed. Minnesota was knocked out in the semifinals on penalty kicks by the fourth-seeded Fort Lauderdale Strikers.

Minnesota kept its 2014 squad mostly intact this offseason, but additions include GK Sammy Ndjock and MFs Jonny Steele, Ibson & Kalif Alhassan.

Connecting the Squads

Rowdies midfielder Martin Nunez played one season in Minnesota, making 28 appearances (16 starts) in 2012 and logging 1,606 minutes with five goals.

Minnesota GK Andrew Fontein and MF Jonny Steele have both spent time in Tampa Bay. Fontein played for the Rowdies from 2013-2014, making four appearances (three starts.) Steele made 10 appearances (nine starts) for the Rowdies in 2010, scoring one goal in 867 minutes.

Up Next

The Rowdies head to New York to renew their longstanding rivalry with the Cosmos. The match will be New York's 2015 home opener.

2015 NASL Game Recaps

Spring Season

April 4—at San Antonio, 3-1 W

The Rowdies scored the first three goals of the night, taking full control of the match and spoiling the Scorpions' championship celebration.

Head Coach Thomas Rongen gave starts to two first-time professionals in the season opener, left back Zac Portillos and forward Darwin Espinal. Defender Stefan Antonijevic (10th minute), Espinal (45+ minute) and Corey Hertzog (61st minute) all scored for the Rowdies before Omar Cummings' consolation goal for San Antonio. Antonijevic, Espinal and Georgi Hristov all earned a spot in the NASL Team of the Week and Antonijevic was named Player of the Week.

Thomas Rongen - Head Coach

The Tampa Bay Rowdies announced the hiring of Thomas Rongen as head coach on December 3, 2014. Rongen became the third head coach in modern Rowdies history, bringing nearly 30 years of experience, an MLS championship and player development expertise.

Born in Amsterdam, Netherlands, Rongen played for Ajax Amsterdam before moving to the US to play in the NASL where he won Rookie of the Year, Defender of the Year and other honors. Rongen was the original head coach of the Tampa Bay Mutiny, leading it to earn the Supporter's Shield in the league's inaugural 1996 season (awarded to the Major League Soccer team with the best regular season record). He was awarded the MLS Coach of the Year Award that season and was appointed coach of the Eastern Conference All-Star Team, which included six of his own Mutiny players. Rowdies President and General Manager Farrukh Quraishi served as President and GM of the Mutiny at that time.

Rongen's other MLS experience includes stints as head coach for D.C. United, where he won the 1999 MLS Cup, the New England Revolution and as the first head coach and sporting director for Chivas USA in Los Angeles, California.

Additionally, Rongen has extensive experience developing young players, serving as head coach of the United States Under-20 Men's National Team for nine years. He was recently the head coach for the long suffering Men's National Team in American Samoa, which lost 30 consecutive games in their 17 year existence prior to Rongen's appointment. Most recently the subject of an award winning documentary "Next Goal Wins," the feature-length film highlights his remarkable turnaround of the team in what Esquire magazine calls "the most rewarding, gutsy and rather magnificent sporting story in recent cinematic memory."

In addition to his coaching experience, Rongen also served as the Netherlands' team liaison at the 1994 World Cup in Orlando and most recently spent the last three seasons as Academy Director at Toronto FC. He has provided color commentary for Comcast, Fox Soccer and Sportsnet.

About the Rowdies

The Tampa Bay Rowdies are a professional soccer club and a member of the North American Soccer League (NASL). The Rowdies home stadium is Al Lang Stadium in downtown St. Petersburg, Fl. The Rowdies were reborn in 2010 and quickly reestablished themselves as a premier club in the United States, winning the NASL Soccer Bowl Championship in 2012.

The Rowdies attracted a sellout crowd to their first home game in May 2010, and has continued to boast strong local fan support. The team is led by former United States Under-20 Men's National Team Coach Thomas Rongen, who was hired as the third head coach in modern Rowdies history on December 3, 2014. Rongen's career highlights also include an MLS Cup and MLS Supporter's Shield.

The original Tampa Bay Rowdies were born in 1975 as an expansion team in the North American Soccer League (NASL). From 1975-1984, the Rowdies were one of the most successful teams in the NASL, winning the Soccer Bowl Championship in 1975 and reaching the finals in 1978 and 1979. The Rowdies featured iconic players such as Rodney Marsh, Derek Smethurst, and Steve Wegerle while winning over the hearts of the people of Tampa Bay and creating an internationally recognized brand.

North American Soccer League (NASL)

The new North American Soccer League (NASL) was officially founded in November 2009 when a group of second-division men's professional soccer team owners banded together to form North American Soccer League, LLC for the purpose of creating a team-owned and operated professional soccer league in the United States, Canada and Puerto Rico.

In February 2011, the NASL received provisional recognition from the United States Soccer Federation as the exclusive second division men's professional league (D-2) and the inaugural season kicked off on the evening of April 9, 2011. The team that emerges on top of the standings after 42 games played between April 6 and July 4 will earn the right to host the 2013 Soccer Bowl in November, to be joined by the Fall campaign champion as the NASL adopts a new split season format for the first time since returning to the American soccer scene in 2011.

The NASL member teams are: Atlanta Silverbacks, Carolina RailHawks, FC Edmonton, Fort Lauderdale Strikers, Indy Eleven, Jacksonville Armada FC, Minnesota United FC, New York Cosmos, San Antonio Scorpions FC, Ottawa Fury FC and Tampa Bay Rowdies.

Al Lang Stadium

Fully renovated this year and situated on the downtown St. Petersburg waterfront next to the Salvador Dali Museum and Mahaffey Theater, the iconic stadium used to be home to the Tampa Bay Rays for their spring training. Over the years, several other Major League Baseball teams, including the Baltimore Orioles, New York Mets, New York Yankees, St. Louis Cardinals, have used the stadium as their headquarters for spring training.

The St. Petersburg Athletic Park at the current site of Al Lang Stadium was the spring home for the Boston Braves and New York Yankees from 1923 until after World War II, hosting such greats such as Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig and Stan Musial. The first incarnation of the current field was built for the St. Louis Cardinals in 1947.
