Series History

Tampa Bay is 1-3-0 (W-T-L) against Indy all-time. Including tonight, four of the Rowdies' five matches against Indy have been played in Indianapolis. In their only meeting this season, a rain-interrupted 2-2 draw, the Rowdies earned a point despite having three players sent off. Tampa Bay led 2-1 in the second half after goals by Rich Balchan and Maicon Santos, but Indy's Kyle Hyland earned the Eleven a point with a stoppage time goal.

Scouting Tampa Bay

Tampa Bay is coming off a 2-1 loss to the Fort Lauderdale Strikers at Lockhart Stadium on Saturday night in Fort Lauderdale. The Rowdies fell behind to a fourth minute goal by Stefano Pinho before Maicon Santos pulled the score level with his team-high seventh goal of the season in the 19th minute. James Marcelin scored the winner in the 43rd minute.

The Rowdies fell just short of winning the Spring Season and have started the Fall Season poorly, but remain in position to qualify for The Championship with 13 matches remaining. Tampa Bay went more than a month between wins on July 4 and August 8, but remains in the playoff hunt.

Forward Darwin Espinal has returned from international duty with the Honduras Under-23 team and could play tonight. He missed three matches and last played for Tampa Bay on July 25.

Connecting the Squads

No player on either side has ever played for the other.

Up Next

Tampa Bay returns home for a huge match against Minnesota United FC on Saturday night at Al Lang. The Rowdies and Loons are tied on points in the Combined Standings, but the Rowdies have a game in hand, which will be played tonight.

2015 NASL Game Recaps

Spring Season

April 4 — at San Antonio Scorpions, 3-1 W

The Rowdies scored the first three goals of the night, taking full control of the match and spoiling the Scorpions' championship celebration.

Head Coach Thomas Rongen gave starts to two first-time professionals in the season opener, left back Zac Portillos and forward Darwin Espinal. Defender Stefan Antonijevic (10th minute), Espinal (45+ minute) and Corey Hertzog (61st minute) all scored for the Rowdies before Omar Cummings' consolation goal for San Antonio. Antonijevic, Espinal and Georgi Hristov all earned a spot in the NASL Team of the Week and Antonijevic was named Player of the Week.

April 11 — vs Minnesota United FC, 0-0 D

In front of a sold-out crowd of 7,010, the Rowdies and Minnesota United FC played an exciting scoreless draw. The Loons opened on the front foot, but after a shot on goal that forced Kamil Contofalsky to make a save in the fifth minute, couldn't muster any scoring chances. The Rowdies piled the pressure on in the second half, but couldn't find a game-winning goal.

April 18 — at New York Cosmos, 2-0 L

An early penalty kick scored by Marcos Senna in the 11th minute threw a wrench into the Rowdies' gameplan as Tampa Bay fell behind for the first time this season. New York scored again on a counterattack just three minutes after the halftime break, putting the Rowdies in a 2-0 hole that they were unable to climb out of despite a handful of late scoring chances.

April 25 — vs Jacksonville Armada FC, 3-2 W

The Rowdies won their Coastal Cup opener in dramatic fashion, overturning a 2-1 halftime deficit and surviving stoppage time on the heroics of goalkeeper Matt Pickens, who entered the match in stoppage time and made a handful of saves. Maicon Santos scored two goals (including the 78th minute match winner), bookending a blast by Martin Nunez. Marcos Flores and Jemal Johnson scored for Jacksonville.

May 2 — at Carolina RailHawks, 1-1 D

Carolina's Nacho Novo opened the scoring just six minutes in, but Martin Nunez would equalize for the Rowdies in the 19th minute with his second goal in as many weeks. Georgi Hristov provided the assist on Nunez's goal, his third of the season, but exited the match in the 76th minute after receiving a straight red card for a foul on RailHawks midfielder Wells Thompson. Neither side was able to score a winner.

May 9 — at Ottawa Fury FC, 0-0 D

The Rowdies kept a clean sheet and picked up a point on the road in Ottawa. It was goalkeeper Matt Pickens' first clean sheet of the season.

May 16 — vs Fort Lauderdale Strikers, 1-0 W

The Rowdies took early control of the Coastal Cup race with a 1-0 win over the Strikers, courtesy of Robert Hernandez's goal in the 55th minute. 6,851 fans sat through a rainstorm at Al Lang Stadium as the Rowdies beat the Strikers to pick up their second Coastal Cup win of the season.

May 30 — at Indy Eleven, 2-2 D

Indy's Brian Brown scored in the 21st minute before a two hour and three minute rain delay took hold of the match. Tampa Bay lead 2-1 after goals by Rich Balchan (40th minute) and Maicon Santos (68th minute) before discipline got in the Rowdies' way. Santos was shown a red card in the 74th minute, Stefan Antonijevic received a second yellow in the 89th and Indy's Kyle Hyland equalized in the 98th minute, just before Georgi Hristov was also ejected from the match.

June 6 — vs FC Edmonton, 2-1 W

Tampa Bay picked up a win it needed to stay in contention for the Spring Season title with a 2-1 victory over FC Edmonton. With five new starters from the previous week against Indy due to red card suspensions, injury and international duty, Tampa Bay's revamped lineup scored the first two goals of the match via Darwin Espinal (37th minute) and Brian Shriver (60th minute) before Edmonton's Lance Laing cut the lead in half in the 65th minute. It was Shriver's first start of the season, as well as the first start for center back Gale Agbossoumonde, who left the match with a shoulder injury late in the second half.

June 13 — vs Atlanta Silverbacks, 3-0 W

The Rowdies closed the Spring Season in style, with their biggest win of the year. If the result in the Jacksonville-New York match had been different, the Rowdies could have won the Spring. Instead, Tampa Bay finished one point short. All three goals came after halftime, with Corey Hertzog scoring the first on the hour mark. Martin Nuñez scored a stunning free kick in the 75th minute and Georgi Hristov finished the match from the spot in the 89th minute.

Fall Season

July 4 — vs Atlanta Silverbacks, 2-1 W

Tampa Bay beat Atlanta for the second consecutive match and became the first team to six wins with a 2-1 victory over Atlanta at Al Lang. The win also lifted the Rowdies into first place in the NASL Combined Standings. Each team benefitted from an own goal (committed by Atlanta's Rauwshawn McKenzie and Tampa Bay's Stefan Antonijevic), but it was Darnell King's first goal of the season that earned all three points for the Rowdies.

July 11 — at San Antonio Scorpions, 3-0 L

The Rowdies were blown out in Texas, falling 3-0 to the Scorpions in the most lopsided match Tampa Bay has played this since. The Rowdies dominated possession, shots and corner kicks, but were unable to score. Defensively, Tampa Bay was caught on the counterattack for all three Scorpions goals.

July 18 — vs FC Edmonton, 1-0 L

The Rowdies lost their second consecutive match with a 1-0 loss to FC Edmonton, also their first loss of the season at Al Lang Stadium. Edmonton defender Mallan Roberts connected with a corner kick and put his header on frame, but Tampa Bay goalkeeper Matt Pickens made the save only to see the rebound carom off Rowdies defender Stefan Antonijevic's face and into the net for the decisive own goal.

July 25 — vs Fort Lauderdale Strikers, 3-1 L

A late comeback bid fell short as the Rowdies lost their third consecutive match. Goals by PC and Bruno Nunes in the 16th and 79th minutes, respectively, had the Strikers up 2-0 entering stoppage time. Second-half substitute Freddy Adu provided an assist for Maicon Santos to score in stoppage time. After a Rowdies corner, Fort Lauderdale's Stefano Pinho scored on a counterattack to make it 3-1.

August 1 — at Carolina RailHawks, 1-1 D

The Rowdies drew 1-1 in North Carolina for the second time in 2015, taking a brief lead before conceding a goal. Georgi Hristov finished a Darnell King cross in the 29th minute to put Tampa Bay ahead. Just three minutes later, Mark Anderson found a loose ball in the box and scored to even the match.

August 8 — vs Jacksonville Armada FC, 3-2 W

Maicon Santos starred as the Rowdies built a 3-0 lead before Jacksonville's Alhassane Keita scored two goals from dead ball situations to make the match interesting. Santos had two goals and assisted on the other, scored by Brian Shriver. Santos took the team lead with six goals, four of which have been scored against Jacksonville.

August 15 — at Fort Lauderdale Strikers, 2-1 L

Strikers goals by Stefano Pinho in the 4th minute and James Marcelin in the 43rd minute were too much to overcome. Maicon Santos scored in the 19th minute, his third match with a goal in four games. Santos' goal was his team-high seventh this season.

Thomas Rongen - Head Coach

The Tampa Bay Rowdies announced the hiring of Thomas Rongen as head coach on December 3, 2014. Rongen became the third head coach in modern Rowdies history, bringing nearly 30 years of experience, an MLS championship and player development expertise.

Born in Amsterdam, Netherlands, Rongen played for Ajax Amsterdam before moving to the US to play in the NASL where he won Rookie of the Year, Defender of the Year and other honors. Rongen was the original head coach of the Tampa Bay Mutiny, leading it to earn the Supporter's Shield in the league's inaugural 1996 season (awarded to the Major League Soccer team with the best regular season record). He was awarded the MLS Coach of the Year Award that season and was appointed coach of the Eastern Conference All-Star Team, which included six of his own Mutiny players. Rowdies President and General Manager Farrukh Quraishi served as President and GM of the Mutiny at that time.

Rongen's other MLS experience includes stints as head coach for D.C. United, where he won the 1999 MLS Cup, the New England Revolution and as the first head coach and sporting director for Chivas USA in Los Angeles, California.

Additionally, Rongen has extensive experience developing young players, serving as head coach of the United States Under-20 Men's National Team for nine years. He was recently the head coach for the long suffering Men's National Team in American Samoa, which lost 30 consecutive games in their 17 year existence prior to Rongen's appointment. Most recently the subject of an award winning documentary "Next Goal Wins," the feature-length film highlights his remarkable turnaround of the team in what Esquire magazine calls "the most rewarding, gutsy and rather magnificent sporting story in recent cinematic memory."

In addition to his coaching experience, Rongen also served as the Netherlands' team liaison at the 1994 World Cup in Orlando and most recently spent the last three seasons as Academy Director at Toronto FC. He has provided color commentary for Comcast, Fox Soccer and Sportsnet.

About the Rowdies

The Tampa Bay Rowdies are a professional soccer club and a member of the North American Soccer League (NASL). The Rowdies home stadium is Al Lang Stadium in downtown St. Petersburg, FL. The Rowdies were reborn in 2010 and quickly reestablished themselves as a premier club in the United States, winning the NASL Soccer Bowl Championship in 2012.

The Rowdies attracted a sellout crowd to their first home game in May 2010, and have continued to boast strong local fan support. The team is led by former United States Under-20 Men's National Team Coach Thomas Rongen, who was hired as the third head coach in modern Rowdies history on December 3, 2014. Rongen's career highlights also include an MLS Cup and MLS Supporter's Shield.

The original Tampa Bay Rowdies were born in 1975 as an expansion team in the North American Soccer League (NASL). From 1975-1984, the Rowdies were one of the most successful teams in the NASL, winning the Soccer Bowl Championship in 1975 and reaching the finals in 1978 and 1979. The Rowdies featured iconic players such as Rodney Marsh, Derek Smethurst, and Steve Wegerle while winning over the hearts of the people of Tampa Bay and creating an internationally recognized brand.

North American Soccer League (NASL)

The new North American Soccer League (NASL) was officially founded in November 2009 when a group of second-division men's professional soccer team owners banded together to form North American Soccer League, LLC for the purpose of creating a team-owned and operated professional soccer league in the United States, Canada and Puerto Rico.

In February 2011, the NASL received provisional recognition from the United States Soccer Federation as the exclusive second division men's professional league (D-2) and the inaugural season kicked off on the evening of April 9, 2011. The team that emerges on top of the standings after 42 games played between April 6 and July 4 will earn the right to host the 2013 Soccer Bowl in November, to be joined by the Fall campaign champion as the NASL adopts a new split season format for the first time since returning to the American soccer scene in 2011.

The NASL member teams are: Atlanta Silverbacks, Carolina RailHawks, FC Edmonton, Fort Lauderdale Strikers, Indy Eleven, Jacksonville Armada FC, Minnesota United FC, New York Cosmos, San Antonio Scorpions FC, Ottawa Fury FC and Tampa Bay Rowdies. Miami FC and Puerto Rico FC will begin play in 2016. For more information about the NASL, visit www.NASL.com. Al Lang Stadium

Fully renovated this year and situated on the downtown St. Petersburg waterfront next to the Salvador Dali Museum and Mahaffey Theater, the iconic stadium used to be home to the Tampa Bay Rays for their spring training. Over the years, several other Major League Baseball teams, including the Baltimore Orioles, New York Mets, New York Yankees, St. Louis Cardinals, have used the stadium as their headquarters for spring training.

The St. Petersburg Athletic Park at the current site of Al Lang Stadium was the spring home for the Boston Braves and New York Yankees from 1923 until after World War II, hosting such greats such as Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig and Stan Musial. The first incarnation of the current field was built for the St. Louis Cardinals in 1947.
