RGV FC vs Fresno FC March 14, 2019 RGV FC Pregame Quotes

Rio Grande Valley FC Head Coach Gerson Echeverry

RGV FC HC Gerson Echeverry

On thoughts on last match versus Tacoma and going into the home opener against Fresno FC...

"Obviously, we felt pretty good going into the preseason with some of the guys coming back and some of the additions we made. I think the preseason went quite well. The cohesion has been good, the attitude has been fantastic, and the work rate has been outstanding as the players have been fighting to be in the 18 or starting lineup. I felt pretty good coming into Tacoma and I think we did a lot of good things and created opportunities, but a lot of those chances were wasted, and we weren't able to capitalize on the chances we created. But, I did like the fact we created those chances and the movement off the ball that we had and so the next thing is that we make sure we put those in back of the net."

On what to expect from Fresno FC...

"Early in the season it is tough because even though all of us have been through a preseason, it is hard to say this is our identity. I think that is going to take about five or six games to finally get into a rhythm to play the next 30 games. I think with new acquisitions they are trying to find themselves. Obviously, we watched the games against New Mexico United and one of the things that you could see if their pace upfront and their crossing. They attack everything that comes, there were a lot of crosses in the box, so they are looking for those powerful, strong players. They are also very dangerous on the break, they counter pretty fast. They have a very special guy on the ball in (Juan Pablo) Caffa who can just find between scoring goals, crossing and setting guys up, so dangerous in set pieces that you have to constantly reference. Jackson was a handful just being a menace. (Alex) Cooper attacking, so it is a dangerous team and they like to cross. So, we need to make sure we need to reference that but with that in mind, they also need to have a concern with some of our guys, so I think it will be a good game."

TACOMA, Wash. (March 8, 2019) – Rio Grande Valley and Tacoma engaged in a tight battle on Opening Night of the 2019 USL Championship Season at Cheney Stadium which resulted in a 0-1 loss for the Toros. Tacoma's win marked their first ever win as a franchise.

Rio Grande Valley entered the game exhibiting a full press and managed to un-balance the Defiance defense on several occasions. Toros forward Carlos Small had the first chance in the 4th minute to test Tacoma's goalkeeper, Trey Muse. Small received a ball from midfielder Camilo Monroy and shot from the left side of the box. Defiance tested the Toros right after when Saad Abdul-Salaam headed the ball to the top center of the goal. The Toros had three back-to-back attempts starting with forward Maalique Foster, Robert Castellanos and Small. Although RGV FC had five shot-on-goal opportunities, they were unable to capitalize. Forward Wilmer A. Cabrera had three attempts on goal one that was missed the top bar in the 23rd minute.

An early attempt on goal resulted successful for Tacoma as forward Alec Diaz put the ball in the back of the net off a deflection from goalkeeper Ben Willis at the 49th minute. Two minutes later, Marlon Vargas had an attempt when he shot from the left side of the box but was too high. In the 53rd minute, Castellanos headed the ball from the center of the box but unfortunately, he missed the attempt to equalize. Seven minutes later, the Toros had four back-to-back attempts by Monroy (3) and Foster. Tacoma took over for the rest of the match as they kept testing the Toros arc but RGV FC did not give in. In the 86th minute, RGV FC Andres Arcila got a cross from Robert Coronado inside the box and shot to the top center of the goal.

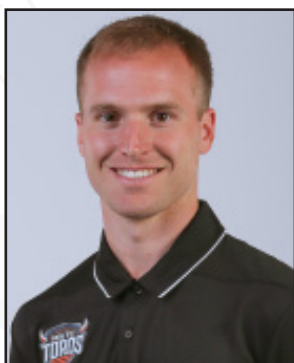

With this goal the Defiance was able to pick up their first three points in franchise history. The Toros had eight players debut tonight. Willis ended his first match as a professional with four saves. Small led the Toros with four total shots along with Foster. Kyle Adams ended the night with seven clearances. Rookie Coronado totaled five tackles, four clearances and five interceptions in the defending line.
