EDINBURG, Texas (March 22, 2019) – Rio Grande Valley FC (0-2-0) will travel to El Paso to take on the Locomotive FC (0-1-1) on Saturday, March 23 at Southwest University Park. This is the first Copa Tejas match of the 2019 season.

Texas now has four teams that compete in the USL Championship League. Copa Tejas was formed by supporter groups of San Antonio FC, El Paso, Austin Bold and RGV FC. The award will be given at the end of the 2019 USL Championship regular season to the Texas team with the best head-to-head record amongst the four clubs.

Rio Grande Valley suffered a tough loss, 0-2, on March 16 when they faced Fresno FC in the home opener. The kryptonite for the Toros in that match and the previous one as well, was finishing in the final third despite attacking well. El Paso earned their first point of the season after a scoreless draw with Real Monarchs, stepping in the right direction.

This is the first meeting for both clubs since El Paso Locomotive FC became a franchise and joined the USL Championship league. Earning points is of utmost importance for both sides as they find themselves in the lower ranks of the USL Championship standings early. RGV FC midfielder Brad Dunwell is also a newcomer to the Texas rivalry series and offered his thoughts on the derby match preparation, “To be honest, we try and keep the intensity the same for any opponent, but I don’t know too much about the Texas rivalry, hopefully I get a good start coming this Saturday.”

Despite the fact that they are a newly formed franchise, El Paso offers challenges on the pitch with their experienced core and ball movement. RGV FC head coach Gerson Echeverry elaborated on the topic; “I felt that they move the ball extremely well, they’re very organized defensively, they press high. In Utah, which is not an easy place to play because of the altitude, they went up there and pressed them, so they were forcing them into mistakes and when they had possession of the ball they were very composed. It is a veteran team, it is a team that has a lot of experience with some players who have been around for a while. Even though it is a first-year franchise it is not like a bunch of kids playing, it’s a quite experienced team.”

Kickoff is at 8:30 p.m. CST and will be available on ESPN+. Updates on the match will be provided via Twitter at @RGVFC or by following #SomosToros. To see more matchday information, visit www.rgvfc.com.

EDINBURG, Texas (March 16, 2019) – Rio Grande Valley (0-2-0) fall to Fresno FC (1-0-1) in home opener 0-2.

The Foxes struck very early with a goal in the 2nd minute. Jackson gave a pass to Arun Basuljevic. Basuljevic took a right footed shot from the center of the box to the bottom left corner marking the quickest goal at home from an opponent. Although Fresno had the lead, RGV FC had three consecutive shots that weren't able to hit the back of the net.

In the 18th minute, forward Carlos Small had an attempt from the left side of the box but missed up high and wide. Defender Robert Castellanos received a ball from Maalique Foster following a set piece in the 23rd minute. Castellanos header was missed on the right side of the goal.

RGV FC didn't give up however; Foster had two dangerous attempts that were missed towards the end of the first half. Andres Cabrera had a header in the center of the box but was too high. Fresno attacked the last minutes of the half with three back-to-back shots that were blocked by the Toros defending line.

Fresno once again began the second half attacking with a header from Jemal Johnson in the 52nd minute that was saved by RGV FC goalkeeper Nico Corti. Jaime Chavez had a right footed shot from the right side of the box that was saved by Corti. Camilo Monroy attacked Fresno's goal with a right footed shot from outside the box but unfortunately, it went up high and wide.

In the 60th minute, Basuljevic put away his second goal of the match for the Foxes. Basuljevic received a ball from Juan Pablo Caffa, controlled the ball and hit a right footed shot to the bottom left corner going passed Corti. Ramon del Campo conceded a foul in the penalty area in the 66th minute. Foster took the penalty but hit the right post.

In the 68th minute, Chavez heads the ball but the Toros defending line rejected. Two minutes later, Johnson received a headed pass and shot but hit the cross bar. Toros Chris Duvall received a pass from Isidro Martinez and took a right footed shot from outside the box but unfortunately, it went up too high. The last attempt of the match was by Martinez who shot from outside the box but was blocked.

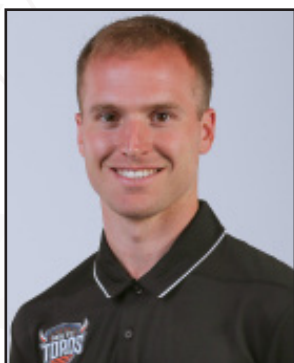

The Toros ended the night with a total of 15 shots, five blocked shots, and an 85.7% passing accuracy. Fresno totaled 11 shots, four shots on target and four blocked shots. Foster led the Toros with four total shots, one on target and three chances created. Cabrera also had three chances created. Defender Kyle Adams had a total of 91 passes with an 89.7% passing accuracy.
