EDINBURG, Texas (April 22, 2019) – Rio Grande Valley FC (2-3-2) hits the road to take on LA Galaxy II (3-3-0) on Wednesday, April 24. Kickoff is scheduled at 9:30 p.m. CT.

There is no place like home, especially when you fight for seven points during a three-game homestand. The Toros clicked on offense in back-to-back wins, scoring a total of seven goals. The flood gates opened up at H-E-B Park on Saturday, April 20 as RGV FC flooded the Las Vegas goal. In the win, the Toros scored five total goals; four different players scored their first goal of the season, Wilmer A. Cabrera Jr. (PK) (15'), Isidro Martinez (19'), Maalique Foster (46'), and Carlos Small (85').

Jamaican national, Foster, commented on the confidence that the team gets following a great offensive performance; "Always, it is always a confidence booster for the attackers and to our defenders because we are giving them something to defend for. So, it is always a boost for our coaching staff, our players. Everyone is really excited, and we are going to keep on working and stay focused." The focus continues to make the Toros dangerous on both ends of the field as the combine a stout defense with a versatile offense.

Fresh legs might give the visiting RGV FC squad a bit of a disadvantage, but the players understand that a quick and efficient recovery is key to stay in the game. First year player, Isidro Martinez gave us his take on the mentality going into this quick turnaround; "You try to recover as quickly as possible. Obviously, it is a short week this coming week so we just try to get as healthy as we can before the match, but we should be good."

Head coach Gerson Echeverry provided his view on the upcoming match; "They are playing at home, so they haven't traveled. We just played, we have to travel, but that is what happens and no excuses. We need to make sure that we have a bench, we might have to go to it." Fatigue might play a role in the strategic layout but the confidence remains high as the Toros look to conquer their road task with prestige.

LA Galaxy II has fallen three times this season and has conceded 15 goals. The Toros scored one third of that mark in their last game so this might be another opportunity for Echeverry's offense to shine. Los Dos sits in the ninth spot of the Western Conference Standings while the Toros have quickly risen to the 12th spot, making this a key matchup for both sides in order to continue working toward the top of the ranks.

Wednesday's match will be available on ESPN+. Updates on the match will be provided via Twitter at @RGVFC or by following #SomosToros. To see more matchday information, visit www.rgvfc.com.

EDINBURG, Texas (April 20, 2019) –Rio Grande Valley (2-3-2) defeat Las Vegas Lights (2-4-1), 5-2, at H-E-B Park on Saturday night. Tonight marks the biggest win margin the Toros have had this season. The all-time biggest win margin was a 6-goal win at home versus Seattle Sounders FC 2 in 2016.

In the 12th minute, Kyle Adams had an attempt as he headed the ball from a difficult angle from a set piece but missed to the right of the goal. Three minutes later, Las Vegas conceded a penalty when Lucas Scaglia committed a hand ball in the penalty area. Wilmer A. Cabrera Jr. converted the penalty as he sent the ball to the bottom right corner of the goal marking his first career-goal as a 19-year old, 1-0. In the 19th minute, Foster sent a cutback pass to Isidro Martinez and he took a right footed shot from the center of the box sending it to the bottom right corner of the goal past Thomas Olsen, 2-0.

In the 25th minute, Irvin Parra sent a ball to Preston Tabort Etaka but missed to the left side of the goal. In the 34th minute, Junior Sandoval tested Michael Nelson as he headed from the center of the box to the top right corner, but Nelson saved the shot from going in. Nelson got tested once again when Parra headed the ball from the right side of the six-yard box to the bottom left corner in the 42nd minute. Nelson managed to save it with his right hand preventing it from going in.

The Toros entered the second half with confidence after leading 2-0 at the half. As soon as the second half kicked off, Gabe Robinson committed an own goal, 3-0, when Michael Salazar attempted a shot from the right side but missed. Parra fought back when he shot a left footed shot from outside the box, but Nelson saved the shot in the bottom right corner of the goal.

Robinson sent a throw in to Christian Torres where he sent the ball to the back of the top net over Nelson marking the first goal for Las Vegas, 3-1. The Lights gained some confidence with the lone goal. They had three attempts in the 75th minute but the Toros defensive line and Nelson, rejected their opportunities.

Carlos Small came off the bench and sent a through pass to Foster in the 79th minute. Foster took a right footed shot sending the ball to the bottom right corner past Las Vegas defenders and Olsen, 4-1.

The Toros did not stop there. In the 85th minute, Jesus Enriquez sent a through ball following a fast break to Small where he took on the defending line and Olsen then sent it to the bottom left corner marking the fifth goal for RGV FC, 5-1.

Las Vegas did not want to go home with a lone goal. Christian Hernandez sent a cross from a set piece to Samuel Ochoa where he then headed into the left side of the goal past Nelson, 5-2, in stoppage time.

The Toros capped off a great win at H-E-B Park with five goals. Cabrera Jr., Martinez and Foster scored for the first time tonight. Small scored his first goal of the season. RGV FC had a total of eight shots and four on target. Although, they did have a 37.6 possession throughout the match.

In the defensive side, Romilio Hernandez led the Toros with three tackles adding two interceptions. Robert Coronado had three interceptions, two tackles, two clearances and 10 possessions gained. Kyle Adams led the team with four clearances tonight. The Man of the Match tonight was Nelson with six saves tonight.
