EDINBURG, Texas (June 14, 2019) – Rio Grande Valley FC (4-6-4, 16 pts.) is set for a home matchup with Colorado Springs Switchbacks FC (4-8-2, 14 pts.) after a short road trip. Scheduled kickoff time at H-E-B Park is set for 7:30 P.M. CST. Tickets available for the match here, watch on ESPN+ and on Somos El Valle 5.2.

After a two-week road trip, the Toros are glad to be home for a match in front of the RGV faithful. Following a loss that left a bad taste in the mouths of many, RGV FC is eager to bounce back at home.

RGV FC has historically done well against the Switchbacks, owning a 5-1-1 record overall which includes an unblemished 3-0-0 home record at H-E-B Park, earning nine points as a host.

The Switchbacks are coming off of a positive streak with two straight wins and look to contend well in South Texas. Defensively, it has been a good season for Colorado Springs, earning three clean sheets, all collected by goalkeeper Andre Rawls. For the attacking end, the danger comes from defender Jordan Burt who has scored five total goals thus far.

As noted earlier in the week, RGV FC lost their strongest attacker to first team Houston Dynamo. As a member of the Toros, Salazar scored eight goals before leaving the USL Championship League to compete for the MLS side. Now the offense is relying on the other dynamic attackers such as Carlos Small who has made the starting eleven on four occasions this season, scoring five total goals so far.

“They like to play possession; they like to attack the flanks. I think playing home is a good advantage just because I feel like we have not been here in a while, so it is a great chance to show what we have, again. Especially what we can do at home.” Defender Robert Coronado mentioned with a positive outlook to this home match and understands that the opponents play hard and pressure up high, keeping defenses busy all match.

For head coach Gerson Echeverry, it has been clear that the defensive end has not been on point lately and he is anxious to return to the norm, which is earning clean sheets and limiting opponent attacks. He explains his frustration in the following way; “The unfortunate part is that our collective defensive effort has not been as good as it needs to be, we are giving up soft goals and that is something that we did not do last year.”

The Toros are hitting stride on offense which has kept them in games and earned them big home victories as well. This is something that the group will rely on to earn yet another good home victory against the Switchbacks and continue accumulating points in the standings.

HERRIMAN, Utah (June 8, 2019) – Rio Grande Valley FC (4-6-4, 16 pts.) fall to Real Monarchs SLC (4-6-3, 15 pts.), 3-5, on Saturday night at Zions Bank Stadium. Carlos Small earns his first brace with the Toros.

The Monarchs opened the match with a goal by Douglas Martinez in the 13th minute. Martinez received the ball doing a one-touch as he took on goalkeeper Michael Nelson and chipped it over to the back of the net. In the 21st minute, Martinez sent a corner kick shot over to Josh Heard where he then tapped it in going to the opposite side of Nelson marking the second goal of the match.

Immediately after, Maikel Chang sent a left footed shot from outside the box to the bottom right corner getting a 0-3 lead. The Toros squad attempted to adjust and connect leading to the half but Nico Lemoine and Wilmer Cabrera's attempts weren't enough to gain confidence.

RGV FC came into the half more confident looking to make some damage. In the 49th minute, Lemoine had an attempt from outside the box but missed out wide. Jesus Enriquez had a lethal attempt at goal when he drove into the box and shot but goalkeeper Andrew Putna managed to chest it out for a corner in the 57th minute.

The Toros didn't wait too long to score a goal. Following a corner in the 60th minute, Robert Coronado sent a cross to Michael Salazar where he head the ball to the top left corner marking the first goal for RGV FC, 1-3.

As the Toros gained momentum, Martinez gets a brace after receiving a through ball from Chang where he then sent it to the bottom right corner past Nelson, 1-4, in the 76th minute. In the 82nd minute, Nelson stopped a left footed shot by Mastanabal Kacher.

RGV FC answered back following a set piece from outside the box. Isidro Martinez sent the ball inside the box finding Carlos Small. Small then heads the ball to the bottom left corner marking the second goal for the Toros, 2-4.

The Monarchs stopped the momentum that the Toros had gained with both goals when Noah Powder took a left footed shot from a free kick sending it to the top right corner, not giving Nelson a chance to save, 2-5, in the 88th minute.

In stoppage time, Lionel Abate Etoundi conceded a foul outside the box. Following the set piece, the ball was played inside the box to Small where he sent a right footed shot to the bottom right corner past Putna, 3-5.

Although Nelson gave up five goals, he ended the night with four saves where he faced several attacking confrontations. Sergio Mena led the defensive side with five clearances including one tackle. Martinez totaled four tackles, three interceptions, one assist and an 80.8 percent in passing accuracy.

Small led the attacking Toros with four total shots and three on target which assisted in his brace. Salazar totaled two shots and a lone goal. Lemoine contributed with three total shots and a 90.9 percent in passing accuracy.

Overall, RGV FC totaled 13 shots and five on target. The Monarchs totaled 21 shots and nine on target. Despite the final score, the Toros held 63.8 percent of possession in the second half.

The Toros return to H-E-B Park on Saturday, June 15 as they host Colorado Springs Switchbacks FC. Kick off will be at 7:30 p.m. CT.
