RIO GRANDE VALLEY FC TOROS

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

GREETINGS

RIO GRANDE VALLEY!

Your Rio Grande Valley FC Toros are back at H-E-B Park this Saturday as we play host to Tulsa Roughnecks FC. This is the second time we face Tulsa this season.

The first time we played the Roughnecks this season we lost 1-0, but we are seeking revenge and plan to keep the three points at home! The Toros want to keep momentum on their side as they come off a 3-1 win at home against Colorado Springs Switchbacks FC

Jose "Memo" Rodriguez scored a brace against the Switchbacks, scoring in the 18th minute and the 44th minute. Camilo Monroy scored his first goal of the season as well on the 64th minute off an Eric Bird assist.

We have one more game left in April after the game against Tulsa. OKC Energy will come into town on April 29. As always, the support from the community is an important part in the game. We hope to see you here at H-E-B Park supporting your RGV FC Toros. SOMOS TOROS!

Sincerely,

Bert Garcia (@BGVIPERS)

Team President
