GAME 3 - QUICK HITTERS

- Hit with some unfortunate luck in last weekend's close 1-0 defeat to FC Cincinnati, the Pittsburgh Riverhounds (0-1-1) visit the Charleston Battery (2-0-0) still in search of their first win of the 2017 season. The Hounds are coming off a one-goal defeat that saw the club reduced to 10 men in the 42nd minute of play.
- Charleston has started the season hot, winning both of their matches so far by a combined 4-to-1 advantage. The undefeated start has the Battery tied in points with the Tampa Bay Rowdies and second in the Eastern Conference table.
- The city of Charleston, and the Battery in general, have not been kind to the Hounds, as Pittsburgh has won only one of the past 14 head-to-head meetings between the two clubs (1-7-6). A mark that includes dropping five of the last six matches on the road to the Battery, though last season's lone meeting at MUSC resulted in a 1-1 draw.
- The last time Pittsburgh defeated Charleston? 2011 at then Blackbaud Stadium. The 2-0 victory for the Hounds came thanks to tallies from Matt Tuttle and Shintaro Harada and a clean sheet effort spurred by current goalkeeping coach Hunter Gilstrap. 2011 is also the last season Pittsburgh won the head-to-head series against their Eastern Conference rivals.
- The Hounds enter Saturday's match shorthanded, most notably expected to be without the services of two center backs in Gale Agbossoumonde (suspension) and Ryan Adeleye (injury). While uncertainty lies in one of the CB spots, Jamal Jack has solidified the other side, playing a full 180 minutes so far this season, leading all defensemen in clearances (9) and ranking second in tackles (6).
- Finishing last in the east in goals scored in 2016, last weekend's shutout may portend to similar results, but the opportunities created so far to start the 2017 season say otherwise. The Hounds scored three goals in the season opener against the defending league champions before going on to tie FC Cincinnati in shots on goal (4) despite being a man down. Additionally, the club's 24 shots through two matches ranks tied for sixth in the Eastern Conference.
- Though past performance doesn't mark future success, the Hounds would be well-served to accumulate points against the "contenders" in the Eastern Conference. Last season, the club finished 1-14-3 against the top-eight finishers in the conference, including 0-13-3 against teams with winning records.

Last Game Summary

Hounds, 0, FC Cincinnati, 1

Game 2 • Highmark Stadium • April 1, 2017

The Pittsburgh Riverhounds (0-1-1) were unable to overcome a first-half red card, eventually falling 1-0 to FC Cincinnati (1-1-0) at Highmark Stadium. Netting the match's lone tally was forward Djiby Fall in the 55th minute. The Hounds went down a man 42 minutes into the match after defender Gale Agbossoumonde recorded his second yellow card in the first half. With the loss, the Hounds remain winless (0-3-1) against their Queen City rivals. Pittsburgh did match FC Cincinnati with four shots on goal though, despite a 60-40 split in possession and loss of a man.
