GAME 2 - QUICK HITTERS

- Coming off a three-goal showing resulting in a draw against the defending league champion New York Red Bulls II, the Pittsburgh Riverhounds (0-0-1) will look keep up their strong offensive play against FC Cincinnati (0-1-0) at 5 p.m. this Saturday, April 1, at Highmark Stadium
- The visitors are coming off a 2-1 loss at Charleston Battery. Last year, in their inaugural season, Cincinnati lost only twice in their first 10 matches (6-2-2).
- The Hounds met with their Queen City rivals on three occasions in 2016, going 0-2-1, with all matches decided by a goal or less. Pittsburgh though failed to score in each match, averaging 6.67 shots per game.
- Hounds forward Corey Hertzog continues to find the back of the net, registering two goals in the season opener, including the late equalizer to secure a point for the Black and Gold. Hertzog's efforts netted him USL Player of the Week honors - a first for a Hounds players since Lebo Moloto in 2015 - and he currently sits in a four-way tie for the league lead in goals scored.
- Joining him on the score sheet was Kevin Kerr, who scored once to up his career club total to 20 goals. He currently sits a goal away from tying Mike Apple for sixth all-time in club history. Hertzog, meanwhile, jumped to 15 goals scored with Pittsburgh after last Saturday and is tied with Said Ali and Gary DePalma for eighth all-time.
- The three goals scored was a positive sign for Pittsburgh, as the club netted three or more goals only twice in 2016. Additionally, the output came against one of the best defenses in the league last season - NYRBII allowed a paltry 0.70 goals-per-game during their championship season.
- Pittsburgh saw seven players make their club debuts this past Saturday, including rookie debuts by Victor Souto and Kay Banjo. Souto, in particular, was excellent in his first pro experience, leading the Hounds with seven tackles in 90 minutes of the play.
- Though past performance doesn't mark future success, the Hounds would be well-served to accumulate points against the "contenders" in the Eastern Conference. Last season, the club finished 1-14-3 against the top-eight in the conference, including 0-13-3 against teams with winning records.
- Pittsburgh hopes to have history repeat itself in 2017, as the club has reached the playoffs each of the past two seasons following no postseason play. Additionally, the club will look to be on the positive side of its .500 record in league play at Highmark Stadium (21-21-16) after the match Saturday.

Last Game Summary

Hounds, 3, New York Red Bulls II, 3

Game 1 • Highmark Stadium • March 25, 2017

The Pittsburgh Riverhounds (0-0-1) and defending league champion New York Red Bulls II (0-0-1) battled to a 3-3 draw in a back-and-forth affair that saw the Hounds three times overcome one-goal deficits. Opening the 2017 season in front of 3,352 people at Highmark Stadium, the Hounds were buoyed by a two-goal performance from Corey Hertzog, as well as one goal from captain Kevin Kerr. Netting the tallies for New York was Vincent Bezecourt, also with two goals, and Florian Valot.
