GAME 10 - QUICK HITTERS

- The Riverhounds (4-3-2) look to bounce back after a disappointing defeat to Chicago FC United in the Second Round of the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup earlier this week. Pittsburgh has plenty to build upon though, as the club hopes to add to its three-game winning streak in league play in this weekend's tilt against Louisville City FC (3-1-3).
- Currently sitting third in the Eastern Conference, the Hounds' start to the 2017 campaign is unprecedented for the franchise, as they enter this weekend with a chance to capture a four-game winning streak for the first time since 2013. Additionally, their three-match shutout streak is the longest since 2011 and four would become the longest in franchise history since the current version of the USL began play in 2011.
- Club history is both a possibility on a team level, as well as individually. For Mike Green, his next appearance with the Hounds will put him into a tie for third all-time with Sterling Flunder at 123. In scoring, Kevin Kerr and Corey Hertzog both have the opportunity to move up to sixth and seventh all-time with their next goals, respectively.
- Louisville enters Saturday's match fourth in the East, but also coming off a 9-0 victory over Tartan Devils FC at Highmark Stadium in the Open Cup. The club has always provided a tough test for Pittsburgh, as the Hounds are 1-2-2 all-time head-to-head and have not won a match since Aug. 29, 2015.
- The Hounds have been involved in some tightly contested matches to say the least, as every game this season has been decided by a goal or less - a stretch of nine-straight. Such a stretch has happened only once since 2011, the 2013 season that saw the club finish seventh en route to a playoff berth.
- Strong defensive play has quickly vaulted two players into league prominence in goalkeeper Trey Mitchell and defender Joe Greenspan. For Mitchell, the former MLS pool keeper is tied for the league-lead in clean sheets and has conceded less goals (5) than number of starts on the season (7). Greenspan, meanwhile, earned Team of the Week honors for a second time this month after the win at Ottawa and ranks in the top-five on the club in blocks, clearances, interceptions and tackles since being received on loan in April.
- Pittsburgh hopes to have history repeat itself in 2017, as the club has reached the playoffs each of the past two seasons following no postseason play. Additionally, the club will look to eclipse .500 in league play at Highmark Stadium (23-23-16) after the match Saturday.
