GAME 4 - QUICK HITTERS

- Kicking off a brutal three-game stretch in seven days, the Pittsburgh Riverhounds opened it strong, winning their first match of the season at Charleston, 2-1. The decision was the Battery's first loss on the year, as Pittsburgh will look to do the same against unbeaten Saint Louis FC (2-0-1) on Wednesday night.
- Returning to the Eastern Conference this season, Saint Louis FC has gotten off to a hot start, opening the season unbeaten and winning two straight. Saint Louis is coming off a 3-2 win over defending league champion New York Red Bulls II that included two unanswered scores in the match's final 20 minutes.
- The two clubs have faced off only twice since Saint Louis joined the USL in 2015. Pittsburgh was part of Saint Louis' inaugural season home opener on April 11, 2015 that saw the clubs play to a 1-1 draw.
- Wednesday will see the return of one of the most prolific players in Hounds history in forward Jose Angulo. Named USL Pro MVP in 2013, Angulo scored 23 goals in 47 appearances during his time with Pittsburgh - tied for fourth all-time in club history.
- The midweek match also falls one day before the official five-year anniversary of Highmark Stadium opening on April 13, 2013. Angulo played a major role in that match as well, scoring the first-ever goal at the stadium in an eventual 2-1 loss to Harrisburg.
- Pittsburgh's victory this past weekend busted several less than positive streaks for the club. Not only was it the club's first victory against the Battery since 2011, but also the first win against a team with a winning record since the final game of the 2015 season. Additionally, the Hounds picked up their first win after trailing at the half since "The Miracle on the Mon" on May 30, 2015.
- Scoring first would be a welcomed change for the Hounds though, as they have yet to do so, and often have also found themselves down early, conceding goals within the first 10 minutes of the match twice so far this season. Conversely, Saint Louis has yet to concede the first goal in any of its three matches played to date.
- On an individual note, Corey Hertzog continues to be the Hounds offensive workhorse. The forward is tied for the league lead in goals with three and leads in shots with 13. The hot start for Hertzog is encouraging, as he finished last season with an impressive output of 13 goals, but didn't score his third tally until the 11th game of the 2016 season.
