GAME 22 - QUICK HITTERS

- Riverhounds SC (11-3-7) put its two-game winning streak on the line in its first meeting of the season against Bethlehem Steel FC (9-9-6) on Sunday evening at Goodman Stadium.
- The Hounds have faced their in-state foe a total of six times since Bethlehem joined in 2016, grinding to a deadlocked 2-2-2 head-to-head record, including 1-1-1 each of the past of the two seasons.
- Facing one another only twice this year, the Hounds will have some demons to exorcise when they take the Bethlehem pitch this weekend, as they are 0-2-2 all-time at Goodman Stadium.
- The hosts head into Sunday's match on a roll, winning three straight after suffering two straight defeats in mid-July.
   Steel FC's winning streak has seen the club outscore its opponents by a whopping 10-to-1 margin. Additionally, Bethlehem is 5-2-5 at home.
- Pittsburgh's homestand sweep has the club on a two-game clean sheet streak, as it leads the league with 14 total – only three away from officially registering clean sheets in half of its regular season contests this year.
- A trend worth monitoring on Sunday? How about the Hounds are an impressive 10-0-1 this season when scoring first and, furthermore, are unbeaten when leading at the half (6-0-2).
- A big part of the club's success has been the play of goalkeeper Dan Lynd, who leads the Golden Glove race with a paltry 0.56 GAA. Lynd's 11 clean sheets already are a club single-season record and the University of Pittsburgh product is only three off the pace of setting a league record for a single year at 14.
- Midfielder Kevin Kerr recorded his 150th appearance with the Hounds his last time out, becoming only the second player in franchise to reach that mark.
- Broadening the scope, Kerr is one of only three players to hit that number with one club in the current era of the USL (since 2011), joining William Yomby of the Richmond Kickers and Taylor Mueller of the Charleston Battery. He is also the 12th player overall to hit the mark in the current era.
- Forward Neco Brett will look to keep up his fiery pace, having recorded three goals in his past two matches. The Jamaican is one off the lead for the Golden Boot and most recently captured his second USL Player of the Week honor this season. Brett's 11 goals on the year marks the fourth straight season the Hounds have had a player reach double-digit goals scored.
- Only 22 games into the season, 15 individual players have already recorded at least a point on the offensive end. For comparison's sake, last season saw only 13 players tally at least one point in 32 matches.
