GAME 27 - QUICK HITTERS

- Riverhounds SC welcomes Bethlehem Steel FC to Highmark Stadium on Friday night for the first and only time this regular season.
- Kicking off a three-game homestand, the Hounds have been staunch at home, holding a 7-2-5 record, racking up 11 clean sheets and only three total goals allowed.
- This will be the second stretch that the Black and Gold will have three straight home matches this season.
- The last time Pittsburgh had three straight matches at Highmark Stadium occurred this past March/April, when the squad went 2-0-1.
- Success on the Mon will be put to a considerable test tonight, as Steel FC has won four straight on the road heading into the contest, outscoring its opponents 10-to-1 during this stretch.
- These two clubs have already met once this season, with the Hounds prevailing 2-1 at Goodman Stadium on Aug. 12 to halt a three-game winning streak for Steel FC.
- The victory was the first by the visiting side in head-to-head competition all-time – Pittsburgh holds a 3-2-2 edge in seven contests since 2016.
- Success against in-state foes has been uneven for the Hounds since Steel FC joined the league in 2016. The club has yet to register an unbeaten record against its Keystone counterparts, going 1-2-3 in 2016 and 3-1-2 in 2017.
- Currently 1-0-2 against Bethlehem and Penn FC, the Hounds have tonight's meeting with Steel FC then the Keystone Derby Cup finale on Sept. 26 in Harrisburg left to pull off this feat.
- The Hounds will look to avoid losing back-to-back matches for only the second time this season.
- Despite not having registered a win since its date with Bethlehem in August – a stretch of four games – Pittsburgh has held the lead in each of its past three matches, ceding the advantage in the second half of each.
- Last weekend's defeat to FC Cincinnati marked the first time all year the Hounds have lost when scoring first (11-1-2).
- Midfielder Kenardo Forbes recorded his team-leading eighth assist of the season last time out at Cincinnati. His assist total has easily eclipsed his previous career high of five and is the most by a Hounds player since Kevin Kerr recorded nine in 2015.
- With two more helpers, Forbes will become only the fourth player in club history to hit double-digits in a single season, joining Justin Evans (14 – 1999), Ricardo Villar (12 – 2003) and Matthew Dallman (12 – 2013).
