GAME 14 - QUICK HITTERS

- Riverhounds SC (6-1-6) begins a two-game road swing in Charleston this weekend, taking on the Battery (5-3-6) at MUSC Health Stadium. Saturday's meeting marks the first between the two clubs this season – the Hounds won the 2017 head-to-head bout with a 1-0-1 record, including a 2-1 victory on the Battery's home turf.
- Last season's victory was more of an anomaly than anything though, as it marked only the second win against the Battery for the Hounds in the current era of the USL (since 2011). In addition, Charleston is a notoriously difficult place to play, with the Battery currently holding a 4-1-2 record at home. The Hounds are 3-7-5 all-time on the road against their Southern foes.
- Road success has been a staple for this year's Hounds team, as they have yet to taste defeat in five contests away from the Burgh (2-0-3). Competition has been stiff as well, with the Hounds capturing points on the road against top-four clubs in the conference in Nashville and Cincinnati.
- The Hounds enter Saturday on a two-game winning streak after dropping their first match of the season against Nashville on May 30. Charleston, meanwhile, has scrapped its way into playoff positioning in the conference, going 0-1-4 in its last five, but have not won since May 12.
- Pittsburgh's attack has been cooking as of late, with the winning streak coinciding with the first time the Hounds have scored two or more goals in back-to-back matches this season. Coupled with a stifling defense that leads the East with eight clean sheets, a continued presence for the Hounds in the top-four of the conference seems likely.
- Points are certainly at a premium so far this year, as only three points separate the second and eight spots in the conference. Tied with Louisville with 24 points in only 13 games, the Hounds are well on their way to reaching the 2017 squad's final point total of 36 in 32 matches.
- On the individual side, Saturday will see two of the top scorers in the East face off against each other. Neco Brett, coming off his second brace of the season against New York, leads the conference with eight goals, while Charleston's Ataulla Guerra is right on his heels with seven goals to date.
- Brett and fellow Jamaican forward Romeo Parkes have clicked as of late, combining for all five of Pittsburgh's goals during the win streak. More importantly, both players have been on the field for these scores, as the tandem up top has proved plenty fruitful for the Black and Gold.
- Kevin Kerr, who leads the club with four assists this season, will continue his ascent up the Hounds historical leaderboards with his next appearance. The Scottish midfielder will move into a tie with Gary DePalma for second all-time in appearances (145). Additionally, with his next helper, Kerr will tie David Flavius for first all-time with 25 assists.
