GAME 4 - QUICK HITTERS

- Riverhounds SC (1-0-2) welcomes Ottawa Fury FC (0-2-0) to Highmark Stadium this Saturday on a three-game unbeaten streak – the longest such streak to open the season by the club in the current era of the USL (since 2011).
- Currently, the Hounds are one of only six teams in the league – and one of three in the Eastern Conference – yet to suffer a defeat so far this year.
- Hosting a Canadian counterpart for the second straight week, the Hounds have fared well against their foes north of the border. Between Ottawa and Toronto FC II – who Pittsburgh defeated 4-0 last Saturday – the Hounds are unbeaten at 7-0-3, including a 1-0-1 record against Fury FC.
- While the numbers do appear favorable, history has shown these matches to be competitive as the 4-nil defeat of Toronto last weekend was the first time the Hounds had defeated either by more than a goal since Aug. 8, 2015.
- The hot start for the Hounds has a lot to do with a defensive unit that has frankly been impenetrable through the first three matches of the season. Yet to concede a goal, the Hounds are one of only two teams in the entire league to still hold that honor, while a shutout tonight would set the longest streak in the current USL era for the club.
- Pittsburgh has allowed only four shots on goal through three games and the combined saves total of Dan Lynd and Kyle Morton (3) match the club's shutout total (3) on the season.
- Last week's scoring outbreak was long overdue for Pittsburgh, as the club saw its goal differential jump from even to plus-4 after last Saturday. The differential ranks tied for second-best in the East.
- Meanwhile, Ottawa comes to town with the worst +/- in the conference at minus-8 having allowed the most goals in the East (9) despite playing the least amount of games to date (2).
- On an individual note, USL Player of the Week Neco Brett starred in the absence of Romeo Parkes against Toronto, recording his first career professional hat trick and also adding an assist for good measure.
- The hat trick, coming in the span of 31 minutes – the fastest in club history eclipsing José Angulo's 39-minute effort – marked the fourth ever by a Hounds player in the current era of the USL (since 2011) and the first since Rob Vincent against Wilmington on Aug. 1, 2015.
- Another milestone of note was Kevin Kerr making his 134th appearance to move into third all-time in club history. Currently the longest-tenured Hound on the club, Kerr is only 11 games played away from tying Gary DePalma at No. 2 (145).

Last Game Summary

Riverhounds SC 4, Toronto FC II 0

Game 3 • Highmark Stadium • April 7, 2018

Pittsburgh Riverhounds SC (1-0-2) captured its first victory of the season off a four-goal explosion in the second half, including three from forward Neco Brett, to defeat Toronto FC II, 4-0, at Highmark Stadium. Blanking their opposition for a third consecutive match, the Hounds finally broke their own goalless streak with Brett finding the frame in the 52nd minute off a spectacular feed from rookie midfielder Thomas Vancaeyezeele.
