GAME 30 - QUICK HITTERS

- Riverhounds SC (14-4-11) keeps busy with a two-game road swing this week, beginning in Harrisburg on Wednesday night for the Keystone Derby Cup finale against Penn FC (9-13-8) at FNB Field.
- The Hounds finish out the regular season playing four of their final five matches on the road.
- Wednesday's tilt brings a two-fer in expectations, as a win would certainly clinch a playoff spot, as well as the Keystone Derby title against Penn FC.
- The Hounds are the reigning champs of the Derby Cup and have not made the playoffs since 2015.
- Interestingly enough, the last time the Hounds clinched a playoff berth, they had to defeat the then-Harrisburg City Islanders in the final game of the 2015 season, also earning their first-ever Derby title in the process.
- With a game in-hand on Louisville and trailing the defending champs by a point for second in the standings, the Hounds control their own destiny in finishing the East runner-up for the regular season to FC Cincinnati.
- The Hounds defense has struggled as of late despite still leading the league in clean sheets with 15, allowing at least a goal in six straight matches.
- Pittsburgh's last clean sheet came on Aug. 18 in a nil-nil draw against Charlotte at home.
- Penn FC might be just what the unit needs though, as the Hounds have shut out their in-state foes in five straight matches dating back to the 2016 season.
- On the flip side, the attack has been rolling with nine goals in its past three matches - the most in any three-game stretch this season - including multiple goals in three straight.
- The recent hot play has accounted for a whopping 22 percent of the Hounds' scoring output for the entire season.
- Last time out marked the first time the Hounds have won when allowing two or more goals this season.
- Earning the victory last time out, goalkeeper Dan Lynd has totaled 10 wins this season. This mark places him fourth all-time in club history, joining former keepers Randy Dedin, Hunter Gilstrap and Chris Robinson as the only athletes with at least 10 career wins in Black and Gold.
- With his penalty kick goal last time out against Indy Eleven, Kenardo Forbes has now scored in three straight games for the Hounds. He joined Neco Brett as the only Pittsburgh players to have tallied in three straight matches this campaign.
- Forbes has set career highs in goals (4), assists (8) and points (16) this season.
- Speaking of Brett, the forward notched his team-leading 15th goal of the season last weekend, becoming only the fifth Hound to hit that mark in a single season and first since Rob Vincent (18) in 2015 - Thiago Martins (22 - '03), José Angulo (15 - '15) and Said Ali (15 - '04) the others.
