Mark R. Walter

Owner & Chairman

Mark Walter is the chairman and controlling owner of the Los Angeles Dodgers, and an investor, conservationist and social-justice advocate. He also leads the Los Angeles Dodgers Foundation.

Walter and his wife, Kimbra, invest the vast majority of their wealth in philanthropic causes, primarily those focused on social justice; closing the “opportunity gap” for low-income youth; and saving endangered species and preserving wild places.

Their sponsored education programs include: Chicago Beyond, OneGoal, and the Academy Group.

The Walters also own White Oak Conservation, a 17,000-acre animal refuge in Florida, and wildlife preserves in Africa, where they are funding global efforts to protect endangered species from poachers and habitat loss.

Walter is a trustee of the Solomon R. Guggenheim Foundation, Northwestern University, and the Field Museum of Natural History.

He leads businesses in areas that include sports, media and entertainment, financial services, insurance, franchises, energy, infrastructure, and real estate.

Earvin “Magic” Johnson

Owner

Earvin “Magic” Johnson is the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Magic Johnson Enterprises, an investment conglomerate valued at an estimated $1 billion dollars. Since retiring from the NBA over 20 years ago, the legendary basketball star has morphed into a business powerhouse who has dedicated his life to leaving a positive impact in underserved urban communities. Having left the basketball court for the boardroom, Johnson parlayed the skills and tenacity he acquired on the court into a winning formula for his successful business ventures.

For the last two decades Johnson has consistently turned heads with his unprecedented partnerships. In his early years as an entrepreneur, he forged an alliance with Sony Pictures to develop Magic Johnson Theatres. In 1998, he teamed with Starbucks to become the only franchisee in the history of the company, acquiring and eventually selling 125 stores in a lucrative move which further solidified his position in the business world. Both ventures served as catalysts for redevelopment in urban communities, and are widely recognized as the corporate blueprint for engagement and success with urban consumers across America.

Still a commanding presence in the sports world, he made history in 2012 when he became co-owner of the Los Angeles Dodgers. He also co-owns the Los Angeles Sparks of the WNBA and Major League Soccer’s Los Angeles Football Club.

Johnson continues to expand his influence through a number of other investments. He currently has controlling interests in EquiTrust, a $17 billion financial services company, ASPIRE, an African-American television network, and SodexoMAGIC, a food service and facilities management company.

The Lansing native is constantly evolving and remaining relevant in a dynamic digital age by broadening his scope into infrastructure and technology. Through a newly formed fund, Johnson is investing millions of dollars on infrastructure improvement in the United States. Operating under the philosophy that true success is making others successful, he is one of the leading investors in a number of minority-owned tech companies that include Uncharted Power, a company that uses their renewable kinetic energy solutions to generate clean, consistent, and cost-efficient power for communities, facilities, and the Internet of Things; ShotTracker, a company that makes wearable technology for basketball players that helps track player and ball movement; Jopwell, a diversity and hiring recruiting platform; Walker & Co Brands, a company that develops health and beauty products for people of color; and MiTú, the Latino-fueled media brand and digital network that connects thousands of Latin content creators with viewers around the world. He is deliberate in his investment strategy to bring positive impact to the community.

Johnson proudly serves as Chairman and Founder of the Magic Johnson Foundation, who has awarded over $21 million in grants – cash and technology hardware/software – and made a positive impact in the lives of over 500K individuals through various program and social efforts. The Taylor Michaels Scholarship Program has graduated over 435 students, the HIV/AIDS initiatives have tested over 40K individuals, and 15 Community Empowerment Centers have provided technology access to over 260K individuals. Remaining true to his humble Lansing beginnings, he is unwaveringly dedicated to working with major corporations and partners to bring jobs and high quality products and services to underserved communities.

Guber earned a B.A. degree from Syracuse University, and J.D. and LLM degrees from New York University.

Billie Jean King

Owner

Named one of the "100 Most Important Americans of the 20th Century" by Life magazine and a 2009 recipient of the Presidential Medal of Freedom, Billie Jean King is the founder of the Billie Jean King Leadership Initiative, founder of the Women's Tennis Association and the Women's Sports Foundation and part of the ownership group of the Los Angeles Dodgers, Los Angeles Sparks and Angel City FC. In September 2020, King became the first woman to have an annual global team sports event named in her honor when Fed Cup, the women's world cup of tennis, was rebranded as the Billie Jean King Cup. The National Tennis Center, home of the US Open, was renamed the USTA Billie Jean King National Tennis Center in 2006 in honor of her accomplishments on and off the court. In 2017, Fox Searchlight released the critically acclaimed film, Battle of the Sexes, which depicts the cultural and social impact of the groundbreaking match. In 2018 King received a Lifetime Achievement Award as part of the prestigious BBC Sports Personality of the Year Awards, in 2019 King's deep Southern California roots were recognized with the opening of the Billie Jean King Main Library in her hometown of Long Beach, California and in 2020 King was honored with the release of the Billie Jean King Barbie doll, part of Mattel's Inspiring Women Series. King serves on the board of the Women's Sports Foundation, is an adidas Global Ambassador and is a past member of the board of the Elton John AIDS Foundation and a past member of the President's Council on Fitness, Sports and Nutrition. Her forthcoming memoir, ALL IN: An Autobiography, will be published by Knopf in August 2021.

King's Los Angeles and baseball ties date to her childhood in Long Beach, where she grew up playing youth basketball and softball before taking up tennis at age 11. She graduated from Long Beach Polytechnic High School and also attended California State University, Los Angeles from 1961-64. King's younger brother, Randy Moffitt, pitched in 12 Major League seasons with the Giants, Astros and Blue Jays from 1972-83.

Stan Kasten

President & CEO

For four decades, Stan Kasten has been a highly respected sports figure and developed a reputation for creating winning franchises, relying on three pillars – scouting and player development, enhancing the fan experience and community outreach – to establish franchises built for long-term success on and off the field.

That track record has continued during his tenure with the Dodgers, where the club has had an unprecedented run of success. On the field, Los Angeles has clinched eight consecutive NL West division titles, won three of the past four National League pennants and was crowned as 2020 World Series champions. Since Kasten became the Dodgers' President and CEO, the team has topped the Majors in attendance each full season under his leadership while continuously making improvements to Dodger Stadium to keep the league's third-oldest stadium among the best facilities in baseball. The Dodgers were also named ESPN's 2020 Sports Humanitarian Team of the Year for the work and community impact of the Los Angeles Dodgers Foundation. These achievements led Major League Baseball to award the Dodgers the 2022 All-Star Game (rescheduled from 2020), bringing the league's jewel event back to Los Angeles for the first time since 1980.

Kasten has been a member of numerous MLB, NBA and NHL ownership committees during his professional career and is also a former trustee of the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame. In 1999, Kasten became the first sports figure to hold the title of president of three different teams in three different major sports simultaneously, doing so with MLB's Atlanta Braves, the NBA's Atlanta Hawks and the NHL's Atlanta Thrashers.

In 1979, at age 27, Kasten became the youngest general manager in NBA history with the Hawks, a position he held until 1990. Kasten became the Hawks' president in 1986. During his lengthy tenure in the Hawks' front office, Kasten built the Hawks into a perennial contender, including four consecutive 50-win seasons from 1986-89 and a stretch of seven consecutive playoff appearances in the 1990's, and became the first - and only - NBA executive to win back-to-back Executive of the Year awards in 1986-87.

Kasten also became president of the Braves in 1986. From 1987-2003, the Braves won more games than any other team in MLB and won 14 consecutive division titles (1991-2005), five National League pennants and the 1995 World Series.

In 1999, when the NHL awarded Atlanta an expansion team, Kasten added the title of president of the Thrashers, as well as chairman of the newly constructed Philips Arena (now State Farm Arena). Kasten held all three positions until 2003, when he stepped down.

Prior to joining the Dodgers, Kasten was president of the Washington Nationals from 2006-10, where he worked to re-energize a dormant baseball fan base and simultaneously established a crown jewel franchise in Washington, D.C.

Kasten, the Los Angeles Sports Council's 2013 Executive of the Year, is Emeritus Director of the Sports Lawyer Association and serves on the LA84 Foundation Board of Directors as well as the Rose Bowl Institute Advisory Board.

A native of Lakewood, N.J., Kasten is a graduate of New York University and Columbia University Law School. Kasten and his wife, Helen, have four children: Alana, Corey, Sherry and Jay.

Andrew Friedman

President, Baseball Operations

As the Dodgers’ President of Baseball Operations, Andrew Friedman has instilled a winning culture that has resulted in a division title in each of his six seasons, three National League pennants and the 2020 World Championship. Under Friedman’s leadership since 2015, the Dodgers lead MLB with a .606 winning percentage (528-343), including a franchise record 106 wins in 2019 and a club-best .717 winning percentage during the shortened 2020 season (43-17).

Entering his seventh season with the club after being named to the post on October 14, 2014, Friedman has overseen the development of one of baseball’s top-ranked farm systems, positioning the organization for the long-term success, and also reorganized and built out the team’s front office. Friedman was named Major League Baseball’s 2020 Executive of the Year and the Dodgers have twice (2017, ‘20) been recognized by Baseball America as its Organization of the Year, honoring the team for its success from top to bottom.

Friedman previously served as Executive Vice President of Baseball Operations of the Tampa Bay Rays where, despite overseeing one of the league’s lowest payrolls, he led the Rays to four postseason appearances, including two division titles (2008, 2010), in nine seasons from 2006-14. During Friedman’s time in Tampa Bay, the Rays posted the franchise’s first winning season and won the American League pennant in 2008, when he was named Sporting News’ Executive of the Year. After finishing below .500 in each of their first 10 years of existence, the Rays finished above the .500 mark in six consecutive seasons under Friedman from 2008-13. Friedman joined the Rays in 2004 and spent two years serving as director of baseball development.

Prior to his career in baseball, Friedman was an analyst for two years with New York City-based investment firm Bear, Stearns & Co., Inc., and spent three years as an associate for the private equity firm MidMark Capital.

Friedman received a baseball scholarship to Tulane University, where he played outfield for the Green Wave and graduated with a bachelor of science in management with a concentration in finance.

Friedman and his wife, Robin, have two sons, Ethan and Zachary, and a daughter, Sadie.

Bob Wolfe

Executive Vice President & Chief Operating Officer

Long-time baseball executive Bob Wolfe enters his 10th year with the Dodgers and third season as the club’s Chief Operating Officer after joining the club as executive vice president in 2012. In his role, Wolfe is responsible for carrying out the club’s day-to-day administrative operations and advising and executing on organization-wide operating strategies. He also serves as the team’s liaison to MLB on a variety of matters - including scheduling and planning for 2022 All-Star Week - and is board member of the Los Angeles Dodger Foundation.

In Los Angeles, Wolfe rejoined Dodger President and CEO Stan Kasten with whom he teamed with at the Atlanta Braves and Washington Nationals, where he served as executive vice president from 2006-11. Prior to that, he worked in various capacities with the Braves and NBA’s Atlanta Hawks for more than 20 years, including serving as Braves’ senior vice president of administration from 1992-2003. After working in the Braves’ accounting department from 1980-84, Wolfe accepted a position as Hawks business manager in 1985 and was promoted to the role of vice president in 1988.

Wolfe and his wife, Kelly Koelker, and their daughter, Ellery, live in Pasadena.

Tucker Kain

President, Dodgers Business Enterprise

Tucker Kain is in his 10th year with the Dodger organization and his third season as President of Business Enterprise. In his role, Kain is responsible for driving the growth of the Dodger organization's business enterprise, including strategic vision and planning, data-driven decision making, new business initiatives, and business extensions. Focusing on innovation, enhancing organizational fan engagement, and youth programs such as the Los Angeles Dodgers Training Academy launched in 2018, Kain continues to advance the development of the Dodger brand as a global entertainment property. Kain joined the Dodgers in 2012 as the club's Chief Financial Officer.

In addition, in 2014, Kain spearheaded the creation of Elysian Park Ventures, the investment vehicle of the Dodger ownership group, in an effort to leverage the Dodger brand in helping drive innovation. The flagship program of Elysian Park Ventures is the Global Sports Venture Studio, formerly the Dodger Accelerator, that brings together some of the world's biggest sports brands to collaborate around innovation in the sports and entertainment industry. This combination of brand partners and growth-stage start-ups lays the groundwork for continued innovation and business opportunity for the organization.

Previously, Kain was a Vice President at Guggenheim Partners in New York City, working in the corporate credit group overseeing an investment portfolio in excess of $2.0 billion. Kain, a two-time selection (2014, '19) of the Sports Business Journal's "Forty Under 40 Award", grew up in Cleveland and received his B.A. degree in Economics from Williams College. He and his wife, Ali, reside in Los Angeles with their daughter Palmer.

Lon Rosen

Executive Vice President & Chief Marketing Officer

Entering his 10th season, Lon Rosen has overseen the revitalization of the Dodger brand through landmark partnerships, global fan development and an aggressive digital growth strategy. One of the foremost executives in the sports and entertainment industry, Rosen has directed the Dodger organization's marketing, sales and broadcasting initiatives as their executive vice president and chief marketing officer since 2012.

Leading a historic brand in a tradition-bound sport, Rosen has constantly driven innovation in the club's marketing and content creation, seeking to connect with a new generation of fans and further develop a passionate worldwide following for the Dodgers and their players. These efforts have generated league-leading attendance at Dodger Stadium each year since 2013, ratings increases in all forms of media and exponential growth of the team's digital footprint.

With more than 25 years of experience in the field, Rosen was instrumental in assisting Magic Johnson and the club's owners in their acquisition of the Dodgers. Rosen previously served in the same role for the Dodgers for two years starting in 2004 before rejoining Magic Johnson Enterprises. Rosen focused his efforts for Magic Johnson on business development, television productions, sports consulting and new media ventures, in addition to his representations of broadcasters, coaches, hosts and other entertainment personalities.

Upon graduation from college, Rosen headed to the Forum, where he began his sports career with the NBA's Los Angeles Lakers and the NHL's Los Angeles Kings. He worked his way from an internship to the position of director of promotions for the Lakers, Kings and the Los Angeles Forum's Special Events, where he served seven years (1980-87). From there, he started his own sports marketing company, First Team Marketing, with Earvin "Magic" Johnson as his first client.

Rosen, a University of Southern California graduate, resides in Los Angeles with his wife, Laurie. They have two sons.

Sam Fernandez

Executive Vice President & General Counsel

As Executive Vice President and General Counsel, Sam Fernandez has been responsible for overseeing all of the Dodgers' legal affairs for over 38 years. His duties have included negotiating and drafting contracts with the team's broadcasting partners, concessionaires, sponsors, and players, licensing the team's marks and other intellectual property, leasing the stadium for concerts and films, and supervising all litigation. He has worked on matters ranging from the establishment of the Dodgers' training facility in the Dominican Republic in 1986 to serving on the Board of Directors of Major League Baseball Properties, Inc.

In 2009, Fernandez was awarded the Sports Counsel of the Year Award by the Association of Media and Entertainment Counsel. In 2012, the Daily Journal included Fernandez in the publication's annual selection of the Top 20 General Counsel in California. In 2013, the Los Angeles County Bar Association's Corporate Law Departments Section named Fernandez Outstanding Corporate Counsel of the Year, and the National Law Journal recognized Fernandez as one of America's 50 Outstanding General Counsel in 2014.

Fernandez graduated magna cum laude from UCLA in 1976 with a Bachelor of Arts degree. He received his Juris Doctor in 1980 from the University of California, Hastings College of Law and was inducted into the Order of the Coif.

Janet Marie Smith

Executive Vice President, Planning and Development

During her nine years in Los Angeles, Janet Marie Smith has overseen the large-scale improvement/expansion projects at Dodger Stadium and Campo Las Palmas (the club's home in the Dominican Republic). From modernizing the stadium to incorporating the club's rich history into the ballpark experience, Smith's fan-friendly touches have helped keep Dodger Stadium - the third-oldest ballpark in baseball - as one of the premier venues in all of sports. Her latest project, which includes a new Centerfield Plaza, renovations to the Right and Left Field Pavilions and new escalators and elevators, was completed in 2020 and will be formally unveiled this year. Smith initially joined the club as a senior vice president in 2012 and was promoted to her current role as executive vice president of planning and development in 2020.

Smith is best known in baseball for her work on Oriole Park at Camden Yards, which set the standard for a new wave of ballparks after its opening in 1992. Smith worked for the Orioles from 1989-94 as vice president of planning and development during the design and construction of the park. She later re-joined the club from 2009-12 to direct renovations and expansion of the Orioles' spring training facility in Sarasota, FL, and upgrades to Camden Yards.

From 2002-2009, Smith served as senior vice president of planning and development for the Boston Red Sox, overseeing the preservation and expansion of Fenway Park. Smith was president of Turner Sports and Entertainment Development and vice president of planning and development for the Atlanta Braves from 1994-2000, when she helped transform the 1996 Olympic Stadium into Turner Field and she oversaw the development of the Philips Arena (now State Farm Arena), home to the NBA's Atlanta Hawks.

Outside of baseball, Smith has worked on development projects including Battery Park City in New York, unfulfilled plans for Pershing Square in LA, redevelopment of former industrial buildings on Baltimore's waterfront as well as renovation plans for the Rose Bowl stadium in Pasadena, CA.

Smith holds a bachelor of architecture degree from Mississippi State University and a masters' in urban planning from City College of New York. A native of Jackson, Miss., Smith resides in Baltimore with her husband, Bart Harvey, and has three children.

Erik Braverman

Senior Vice President, Marketing, Communications & Broadcasting

Erik Braverman is in his 13th year with the Dodgers and has had a major impact on the growth of the Dodger brand as it continues to expand beyond the world of baseball. In his role as Senior Vice President, Marketing, Communications and Broadcasting, Braverman manages the Dodgers’ local and national broadcast relationships and directs the club’s marketing and communications initiatives, helping drive ticket sales and place the club in a position to lead the Majors in attendance each of the last seven years. He also oversees the club’s internal productions, creative efforts and the Dodgers’ social media, which has set the standard for fan engagement and grown to become one of the most followed teams in baseball across all platforms. Braverman, an openly gay executive, oversees the Dodgers’ PRIDE Business Resource Group and launched the club’s first Pride Night in 2013, which has helped foster the team’s strong year-round relationship with the LGBTQ community and grown into the most well-attended annual event of its kind in all of sports.

Prior to joining the Dodgers, Braverman served as Vice President of Programming and Operations for ABC Radio stations, KABC, ESPN Radio and Radio Disney from 1996 – 2008. He was at the programming helm of the Disney-owned Los Angeles flagship when ESPN Radio was introduced to Los Angeles in 2000.

Braverman was the Director of Talk and Sports Programming at Westwood One Radio from 1994-1996 where he oversaw a number of nationally syndicated shows. He moved to Los Angeles in 1989 where he worked as Executive Producer at KFI & KOST Radio.

A native of Houston, Texas, Braverman now resides in West Hollywood.

Josh Byrnes

Senior Vice President, Baseball Operations

Josh Byrnes enters his seventh season as the Dodgers’ Senior Vice President, Baseball Operations, where he supervises the club’s scouting and player development. Since his first season in 2015, the Dodgers have posted the best record in baseball, winning six division titles, three National League pennants and the 2020 World Championship.

He previously served as executive vice president/general manager for two of the Dodgers’ NL West rivals, the Diamondbacks (Oct. 2005-July 2010) and Padres (Oct. 2011-June 2014). Byrnes began his baseball front office career in 1994 with the Indians, working as an advance scout in 1995 and 1996 before being promoted to director of scouting in June 1998. In fall 1999, Byrnes became assistant general manager of the Rockies and moved to the Red Sox in the same role for the 2003-05 seasons, helping Boston to the 2004 World Series title.

Originally from Washington, D.C., Byrnes attended Haverford (PA) College, where he established school career records in home runs and RBI. He has two daughters, Avery and Darby.

Joe Crowley

Senior Vice President, Stadium Operations

Joe Crowley enters his fourth season as the Dodgers’ Senior Vice President of Stadium Operations after joining the club in 2018.

Previously, Crowley worked at the United States Tennis Association for 10 years as the organization’s Senior Director of Stadium Operations, where he oversaw operations at the Billie Jean King National Tennis Center in Flushing, NY before helping with the planning, opening and operations at the USTA’s National Campus in Orlando, FL.

Prior to his time at the USTA, Crowley served as Senior Director of Stadium Operations for 10 years at what is now Hard Rock Stadium in Miami, heading operations for the multi-sport facility which hosted the Marlins, Dolphins, University of Miami football and special events. He also worked for 10 years in operations for UPS in his native Massachusetts.

A University of Massachusetts graduate, Crowley and his wife Kelly reside in Los Angeles, and have a son, Anthony.

Antonio Morici

Senior Vice President, Ticket and Premium Sales & Service

Antonio Morici is in his fourth season as Senior Vice President, Ticket and Premium Sales and Service and his 20th season overall with the Dodgers. After overseeing the club's Premium Sales and Service Department for 10 years, Morici's role was expanded in 2018 to include all ticketing functions, including premium seating, ticket sales, service and distribution.

The California native first joined the Dodgers in 2002 as part of the ticket sales staff, but briefly left the organization from 2005-2006 to work for Staples Center/AEG. Morici returned to the Dodgers for the 2006 season and assumed a leadership role with the team's premium sales department. He was then elevated in 2009 to oversee all facets of the premium seating business. Under his leadership, the team adopted a tech savvy approach to sales, and helped establish many practices that are now considered industry standards.

Originally from the Bay Area, Morici graduated from the University of Southern California and currently lives in Malibu, CA with his wife Caroline, son Charlie, and daughter Molly.

Ismael Cruz

Vice President, International Scouting

Ismael Cruz enters his sixth season as the Dodgers' Vice President of International Scouting.

Prior to his time with Los Angeles, Cruz was the Blue Jays' special assistant of Latin American operations for four years following a successful stint as the Mets' International Scouting Director from 2006-11. During his time with the Mets and Blue Jays, Cruz was instrumental in helping to sign Vladimir Guerrero Jr., Franklin Barreto, Richard Ureña, Miguel Castro, Jose Fernández, Jeurys Familia, Wilmer Flores and Juan Lagares. He began his front office career in 2002 as the Expos' Director of International Scouting and Development, where he served until 2005.

Cruz, an infielder, was selected by the Phillies in the 20th round of the 1989 draft out of Eckerd College (FL) and played professionally for two seasons before returning to school to complete his Bachelor's degree in International Business. He then scouted in Colombia for the Pirates and Reds before becoming a sports agent in 1998. In 2001, he managed the Dominican Summer League Padres to a 39-29 record.

A native of Santo Domingo in the Dominican Republic, Cruz is married to his wife, Peggy, and they have three sons, Brian, Jonathan and Anthony. His father, Pablo Cruz, was a longtime scout for the Pirates and continues to work in baseball for the Blue Jays in Dominican player development, while his sons Brian and Jonathan work as scouts for the Angels and Red Sox, respectively.

David Finley

Vice President, Amateur & International Scouting

David Finley is in his seventh season as the Dodgers' Vice President, Amateur & International Scouting. Prior to joining the Dodgers, he spent 13 seasons in the Red Sox organization and rose up the organizational ranks to become Boston's director, player personnel during his final three seasons with the club. Finley was also a special assistant to the general manager with Boston after joining the organization as its West Coast crosschecker prior to the 2002 season and then spending five years as the Red Sox's national crosschecker from 2005-09. He earned Red Sox Scout of the Year honors in 2007.

He previously worked as an area scout for the Padres (1991-94) and Marlins (1995-2001).

Finley played college baseball at UC Riverside, and was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in 2018. Drafted by Oakland in 1987, he played two seasons as an infielder in the A's system.

Finley resides in San Diego with his wife, Tricia, and is a proud father to two daughters, Brooke and Brittany, a son-in-law Alex and a son, Drew, who is a pitcher in the Dodgers' organization.

Billy Gasparino

Vice President, Amateur Scouting

Billy Gasparino is in his seventh season with the Dodgers and second as Vice President of Amateur Scouting. Gasparino joined the Dodgers prior to the 2015 season as director of amateur scouting and has overseen successful drafts that produced the Dodgers' young core, including 2019 All-Star Walker Buehler and 2019 Baseball America Minor League Player of the Year Gavin Lux – his top picks in his first two drafts with the club.

Previously, Gasparino worked for the Padres for four seasons as director of scouting (2012-14) and national crosschecker (2010-12). Prior to joining the Padres, he worked for the Blue Jays as an area scout covering Southern California from 2004-06 before being promoted to national crosschecker by the Blue Jays in 2007. He got his start working in the front office as an intern with the Cleveland Indians in 2003.

An infielder during his playing career, Gasparino was selected by the Rockies in the 17th round of the 1999 First-Year Player Draft from Oklahoma State University and spent one season in their minor league system with Single-A Portland.

He resides in Los Angeles with his wife, Jenna, and sons, Will and Lucca.

Brandon Gomes

Vice President & Assistant General Manager

Brandon Gomes enters his fifth season with the Dodger organization and third as Vice President & Assistant General Manager. Gomes, 36, originally joined the Dodgers prior to the 2017 season as the organization's Pitching Performance Coordinator before serving as the club's Director of Player Development in 2018.

Gomes enjoyed a five-year Major League career, all spent with the Tampa Bay Rays (2011-15), going 11-12 while posting one save and a 4.20 ERA in 173 games, all out of the bullpen. He was originally selected by the Padres in the 17th round of the 2007 First-Year Player draft out of Tulane University, where he double majored in finance and legal studies. A native of Fall River, Massachusetts, Gomes was a two-time All-State selection, the 2002 Massachusetts Gatorade High School Player of the Year and a member of the National Honor Society at Durfee High School.

Jeff Kingston

Vice President & Assistant General Manager

Jeff Kingston is in his third season as the Dodgers' Assistant General Manager & Vice President of Baseball Operations following nine seasons with the Seattle Mariners. Kingston originally joined the Mariners in September of 2009 as an Assistant GM and was subsequently promoted to be the club's Assistant GM & Vice President of Baseball Operations after the 2015 season. During his time with Seattle, Kingston assisted with player acquisitions and contract negotiations for the Major League club, while overseeing the Player Development and Baseball Analytics departments.

Prior to his time in Seattle, Kingston spent nine seasons (2001-09) with the San Diego Padres. After interning with the club in the corporate development department in the summer of 1999, Kingston rejoined the Padres full-time in 2001 as an Assistant to the Director of Player Development. He was promoted to Director of Baseball Operations in Nov. 2002, a position he held until being hired by the Mariners.

Kingston is a 1999 graduate of Dickinson College in Carlisle, PA, where he earned a degree in economics. He is married and has three children.

Managing and Coaching Career

- The 2016 NL Manager of the Year enters his sixth season at the helm of the Dodgers, after leading Los Angeles to the World Championship last season and first title since 1988. In five seasons with the club, he has won the division five straight seasons and has captured the NL pennant three times (2017, 2018 and 2020).
- Became the first manager in baseball history to lead the Dodgers to the Postseason in each of his first five years with the club. Roberts' 436 wins ranks seventh in franchise history and joins Walter Alston (4) and Tommy Lasorda (2) as the only Dodger Managers to win a World Series.
- Among current managers his 38 Postseason victories ranks second, trailing just Terry Francona (40)...he ranks seventh all-time in MLB history in Postseason victories, trailing Joe Torre (84), Tony La Russa (70), Bobby Cox (67), Jim Leyland (44), Bruce Bochy (44) and Francona (40).
- His .614 career winning percentage ranks third all-time, behind Joe McCarthy (.615) and Aaron Boone (.615).
- In 2017, led the club to the best record in the Majors for the first time since 1974 with a 104-58 mark and the National League's best record for the first time since 2009... was the runner-up in the 2017 NL Manager of the Year award, receiving five of 30 first place votes (55 total points)
- Managed his club to the best 50- game stretch in franchise history, as the Dodgers won 43 of 50 games from June 7, 2017 until August 5, 2017...it was the best stretch in the Majors since the 1912 New York Giants, who went 43-7 from May 6 until July 3 and according to Elias Sports Bureau, only four teams have put up a stretch of winning 43 of 50 games or better in baseball history; the 2017 Dodgers, the 1912 Giants, the 1906 Cubs and the 1884 St. Louis Maroons

- In his first season as Dodger manager in 2016, he was named NL Manager of the Year on Nov. 15, 2016, receiving 16 of 30 first-place votes, to join Hall of Famer Tommy Lasorda (1983, '88) as the only managers in Dodger history to win the award since its inception in 1983...it was just the sixth time the award went to someone who was in his first full season as a manager...also became the first manager of Asian descent to win the award
- In his first season as the club's manager, he led the Dodgers to a NL West title, becoming just the second rookie manager ever to lead Los Angeles to a division title, joining Tommy Lasorda (1977)
- Honored as the Sporting News' 2016 NL Manager of the Year, becoming just the third Dodger manager to receive the award by the publication, joining Hall of Famers Leo Durocher (1939) and Walter Alston (1955, '59, '63)
- Made his Dodger managerial debut on April 4, 2016 in San Diego with a 15-0 victory over the Padres, the largest margin of victory in a shutout win on Opening Day in MLB history
- Named the 28th manager in Dodger franchise history on Nov. 23, 2015...is the 10th skipper in Los Angeles Dodger history and the fourth to both play and manage for the team (15th overall)
- Became the first minority manager in Dodger franchise history
- Following the conclusion of his playing career, spent the 2010 season in San Diego's front office, before becoming the Padres' first base coach from 2011-13...served as San Diego's bench coach for the 2014 and 2015 campaigns...managed the Padres for one game on June 15, 2015, following the departure of Bud Black

Playing Career

- Played in the Majors for 10 seasons, debuting with the Cleveland Indians on Aug. 7, 1999...played for the Indians (1999-2001), Dodgers (2002-04), Red Sox (2004), Padres (2005-06) and Giants (2007-08)
- In 832 career games, batted .266 with 243 stolen bases, including a career high 49 in 2006...also hit a career-best .293 with San Diego in 2006
- Was the Dodgers' starting center fielder from 2002-04, hitting .262 in 302 games and stealing 118 bases in 143 attempts (82.5%)...is the fourth L.A. Dodger manager to also play for the franchise, joining Tommy Lasorda, Bill Russell and Glenn Hoffman
- Was traded by the Dodgers to the Red Sox at the 2004 trade deadline and then famously stole second base off the Yankees' Mariano Rivera in the ninth inning of Game 4 of the 2004 ALCS...the steal put him in position to score the tying run later in the frame as Boston became the first team in MLB history to rally from a 3-0 series deficit in the postseason

* Established modern club records for strikeouts through the first 3 (32), 4 (41), 5 (49), 6 (54), 7 (61), 8 (71), 9 (83), 10 (88) and 11 starts (100) of a season...his 100 strikeouts through 11 starts also is a modern franchise record for strikeouts through the first 12 starts of a season.

* In his 5 scheduled 7-inning starts went 2-2, 1.42 (31.2 IP, 5 ER) with 2 shutouts, including a 2-hitter in 4-0 win on 8/2 at Det and a 1-hitter in the 5-0 win on 8/19 at KC...in the 1-hitter at Kauffman Stadium allowed only Adalberto Mondesi's single with 2 outs in the fifth inning.

* In his first 4 starts of the season allowed just 8 hits while recording 41 strikeouts...according to @EliasSports, became only the fourth pitcher since 1900, within a single season, to record at least 40 strikeouts while allowing fewer than 10 hits in any span of 4 starts...he joined LHP Randy Johnson (May/June 1997), LHP Johan Santana (July 2004) and RHP Patrick Corbin (April 2018).

* Of his 17 runs allowed during the regular season, 10 scored on home runs (8 solo, Justin Smoak 2-run)...Tim Anderson's fifth-inning homer on 9/9 vs CWS is the only HR Bauer has allowed to a righthanded batter since 9/22/19 (NYM's J.D. Davis).

* Didn't pitch for 11 days between his 8-3 win on 8/7 at Mil and his 5-0 shutout on 8/19 at KC...was scheduled to pitch on 8/15 vs Pit, but that game was postponed to allow for additional testing and to complete the contact tracing process following a positive test for COVID-19 by a Reds player.

* In a 6-1 win on 9/23 vs MIL made his only start of the season on 3 days' rest (8 IP, 4 H, 1 ER, 1 BB, 12 K)...that victory gave the Reds a 1.0-game lead in the Wild Card race with 3 games remaining...with a 7-2 win at MIN in their next game, 2 days later, they clinched their first Postseason berth since 2013.

2019

* At the July 31 deadline was acquired from CLE as part of a 3-team trade in which the Indians received from the Reds OF Yasiel Puig and LHP Scott Moss and from the Padres OF Franmil Reyes, LHP Logan Allen and IF Victor Nova, while SD received from the Reds OF Taylor Trammell.

* Ranked among the Major League leaders in batters faced (911, 1st), starts (T-1st), innings pitched (3rd) and strikeouts (5th), all career highs...was 1 of only 7 pitchers to make 34 starts.

* Recorded at least 200 strikeouts for the second straight season and at least 30 starts for third time in 5 years.

* Was named the American League's Player of the Week following his complete game in an 8-0 Indians win on 6/16 at Det (4 H, 0 BB, 8 K)...was his first career shutout.

* Became the first pitcher to start for both Ohio teams in the same season since Rick Krivda did it in 1998.

* In his 5-2 win on 8/9 vs Cubs, in his second start for the Reds and his Great American Ball Park home debut, recorded 11 strikeouts.

* On 8/19 and 8/20 vs SD, Bauer (11) and Sonny Gray (10) became the first Reds pitchers to record at least 10 strikeouts in consecutive starts since Gary Nolan (10) and Jim Maloney (10) did it on 9/20 and 9/21, 1968 at HOU...since 1900, Reds pitchers never have recorded at least 10 strikeouts in 3 consecutive starts.

* On 9/4 vs Phi made his third career regular season start on short rest...was the victim of a blown save in the 8-5 win (5 IP, 6 H, 4 ER, 2 BB, 6 K, 2 HR...went 4.0 innings (84 pitches) in his previous start, a 10-6 loss on 8/31/day at StL.

2018

Was an American League All-Star and finished sixth in the BBWAA's Cy Young Award voting...ranked among the American League leaders in ERA (2nd, 2.21), opponents' SLG (.302, 2nd), strikeouts per 9 innings (11.3, 3rd), opponents' BA (.208, 4th), quality starts (20, T4th), opponents' OBP (.280, 5th), 10-strikeout games (10, 5th) and strikeouts (T6th)...his 2.21 ERA was the lowest by an Indians pitcher in 46 years, dating back to Gaylord Perry's 1.92 ERA during his Cy Young season of 1972, was the third-best of any pitcher in the Major Leagues in 2018 (Jacob deGrom 1.70, Blake Snell 1.89) and ranked sixth-best of any AL pitcher since 2000...his 2.21 ERA was the sixth-lowest single-season mark by a qualifying Indians pitcher since 1919 and the second-lowest ERA by a Tribe hurler since the pitching mound was lowered to its current height in 1969...was named to the All-Star team after starting the season 8-6, 2.24 in 20 starts...in 13 starts from 6/8-8/11 went 8-2, 1.74...in the last start of that streak, on 8/11 at WSox, suffered a stress fracture in his right fibula after he was struck by a Jose Abreu line drive...was disabled for the first time in his career...went 12-6, 2.22 in 25 starts prior to the injury and 0-0, 1.93 in 3 starts after he returned...on the final day of the season, in a 2-1 win on 9/30 at KC, threw 4.0 scoreless innings for his only professional save...recorded his 200th strikeout on 8/6 vs Min in his 156th inning, the second-fastest to that milestone by any pitcher in franchise history (Corey Kluber, 2017, 147ip)...threw at least 100 pitches in each of his first 25 starts, the longest streak of his career and the longest by an Indians pitcher since accurate pitch count data has been tracked beginning in 1988... from 6/8-7/0 went 4-2, 1.40 over 7 consecutive quality starts in which he recorded at least 8 strikeouts without allowing a home run, the second-longest such streak in the live ball ERA (1920-) behind Pedro Martinez' 8 straight starts in 2002...from 5/27-6/13 recorded at least 11 strikeouts over 4 straight starts to become only the third Indians pitcher with 4 consecutive double-digit strikeout games, joining Corey Kluber (2 streaks of 5 starts in 2017) and Bob Feller (4 starts in 1938-1939).

2017

With a career-high 17 wins teamed with Corey Kluber (18) and Carlos Carrasco (18) to become the first Indians trio with at least 17 victories each since 1956, the first Major League trio to do it since the 2003 Yankees and the only trio in Major League history with at least 17 wins and 190 strikeouts each...ranked among the American League leaders in wins (T4th), strikeouts per 9 innings (10.0, 6th) and strikeouts (196, 7th)...in his last 14 apps and 13 starts of the season beginning 7/21 went 10-1, 2.60...his 10 second-half wins tied for second-most in the AL, and his 2.42 ERA beginning 7/27 was third-lowest in the league... Roberto Pérez caught all 31 of his starts.

2016

Finished second on the Tribe's staff in starts, innings pitched and strikeouts...in the Postseason went 0-2, 5.27 in 4 starts and 1 relief appearance...prior to Game 1 of the American League Championship Series vs the Blue Jays suffered a lacerated right pinky finger that 3 days later forced him from his Game 3 start after recording just 2 outs...made 2 starts in the World Series vs the Cubs but appeared in relief in Game 7 and recorded the last 2 outs of the top of the 10th inning of that 8-7 loss to the Cubs... began the season in the bullpen when Cody Anderson and Josh Tomlin were named the club's fourth and fifth starters out of spring training...made his first 6 apps in relief (1-0, 4.76) before he moved into the rotation on 4/30, when Carlos Carrasco was placed on the disabled list with a hamstring injury... made 28 of his last 29 apps in the rotation.

2015

Led the American League in walks (79) but ranked seventh in strikeouts per 9 innings (8.69) and 12th in strikeouts (170)...was the first Indians pitcher to lead the league in walks since Sam McDowell in 1971... threw 6.0 hitless innings in his season debut, on 4/9 at Hou, and recorded 11 strikeouts...in his next start, on 4/16 at WSox, had his hitless streak snapped at 9 innings and his scoreless streak snapped at 11.0 innings...his 9-inning hitless streak was the longest to start a season by an Indians pitcher since Bob Feller in 1940 (9ip) and the longest to start a season by an American League pitcher since Tor's Shaun Marcum began the 2007 season with 10 hitless innings...Bauer faced 34 batters before allowing a hit, the most by any starter since Bos' Hideo Nomo faced 37 without allowing a hit in 2001.

2014

Recorded 8.41 strikeouts per 9 innings, the third-best ratio by any rookie pitcher in Indians history with a minimum of 150 innings (Herb Score, 9.70 in 1955 & CC Sabathia, 8.50 in 2001)...made 26 starts for the Tribe after entering the season with 8 career starts total...finished second on the Indians' staff in innings pitched (153.0)...among American League rookie pitchers ranked fourth in starts and strikeouts (T4th, 143), fifth in innings pitched (153.0) and 11th in ERA (4.18)...won the Indians' last game prior to the All-Star break and their first game of the second half...became the fourth Indians pitcher to start consecutive team victories and the first to do it since Bert Blyleven in 1981.

2013

All 4 of his starts for the Indians were 1-day stints with the club...made his first start in a 6-0 loss at TB on 4/6, when Scott Kazmir was disabled...made 2 other starts during doubleheaders...entered the season as the organization's top prospect according to Baseball America, was rated the 17th-best overall prospect by MLB.com and 25th by ESPN.

2012

Made 4 starts in his Major League debut...was the Diamondbacks' Minor League Player of the Year and was selected to play in the prestigious Arizona Fall League's All-Star Futures Game...with a start on 6/28 at Atl became the first player from the 2011 June first-year player draft to reach the Major Leagues...earned his first career win in his third start, on 7/8 vs LAD (7-1 win)...finished the season rated by MLB.com the Diamondbacks' No. 1 Prospect, the minor leagues' No. 5 overall, and by Baseball America the best pitching prospect in the Pacific Coast League.

2011

Entered his first professional season rated by Baseball America the No. 1 prospect in the Diamondbacks' organization...helped Class AA Mobile to the Southern League championship by winning the clinching game vs Tennessee...average 15.1 strikeouts per 9 innings...in his final start of the regular season for Mobile allowed 10 earned runs in 1.2 innings, raising his season ERA from 2.63 to season-ending 7.56.

Career Highlights

- * Two-time All-Star enters his fifth Major League season after posting a .239/.333/.455 slashline with 10 doubles and 12 homers...has recorded double-digit homer efforts in all four professional seasons
- * Became the 12th Dodger to garner MVP honors in 2019 and joined Jackie Robinson and Don Newcombe as the only Dodgers to earn both Rookie of the Year and MVP honors...is the only Dodger to collect MVP, Gold Glove and Silver Slugger accolades in the same season (2019)
- * His 47 home runs during the 2019 season rank as the third highest single-season total in franchise history, trailing just Shawn Green (49, 2001) and Adrian Beltre (48, 2004)
- * Launched his 100th career home run on Aug. 2, 2019...according to Baseball Reference, he is the fastest player in Dodger franchise history to reach 100 career homers, taking just 401 games to surpass Mike Piazza's 422-game mark... over the past 10 seasons only Joey Gallo (377G) and Giancarlo Stanton (400G) have reached the milestone quicker
- * His 123 home runs are tied for 24th all-time in franchise history and are third in the National League and sixth in the Major Leagues since 2017
- * Was named 2018 NLCS MVP after leading the Dodgers to victories with game-winning RBI in Game 4 (walk-off single in 13th) and Game 7 (two-run home run)
- * Honored with the 2017 Players Choice Award for Outstanding NL Rookie and recognized by the Sporting News as the publications' NL Rookie of the Year...finished ninth place in the NL MVP voting in 2017, when he completed the season ranked among the NL leaders in home runs (2nd), home runs per at-bat (12.31, 2nd), game-winning RBI (17, 4th), slugging percentage (5th), extra-base hits (69, 8th), OPS (10th) and RBI (T-13th)
- * His 39 home runs in 2017 established a National League rookie home run record, surpassing previous record holders Wally Berger (1930) and Frank Robinson (1956), who each belted 38 homers...also recorded six multi-home run games, which according to Stats, LLC, were the most ever by a rookie in Dodger history and the third most all-time, trailing just Mark McGwire (1987) and AL Rookie of the Year winner Aaron Judge (2017), who each collected seven multi-homer contests
- * Had his contract selected on April 25, 2017 and made his Major League debut that day as the starting left fielder at San Francisco...picked up his first career hit in his fourth plate appearance of that game with an infield single off of Neil Ramirez
- * Belted his first two career home runs on April 29, 2017 against the Phillies, slugging a solo shot off of Zach Eflin in the seventh inning for his first big league homer...became the first Dodger since Yasiel Puig (2 HR, June 4, 2013 vs. SD) to hit multiple home runs in the first game in which he ever hit a homer
- * Entered the 2017 season rated as the Dodgers' No. 1 prospect and 32nd best overall prospect by MLB.com, and rated by Baseball America as the seventh-best overall prospect in baseball...selected as 2016 Baseball America's Double-A All-Star and MiLB.com Organizational All-Star...selected as a 2015 mid- and post-season California League All-Star, and was also honored as the MVP of the league championship series for the title-winning Quakes...posted a .271/.352/.503 slashline with 66 homers and 257 RBI in 132 career minor league games from 2013-17

Career Summary

* Power-hitting outfielder enters his eighth Major League season with a .301/.373/.522 career slash line with 238 doubles, 27 triples, 155 home runs, 509 RBI and 136 stolen bases...owns a .989 fielding percentage over 833 games at the big league level

* On Aug. 13, 2020, he homered three times against the Padres, joining Hall-of-Famer Johnny Mize and Sammy Sosa as the only players in MLB history with six career three-homer games

* In Game 1 of the World Series against Tampa Bay, Betts went 2-for-4 with a homer, two runs scored and two stolen bases and became the first player in MLB history with two runs, two stolen bases and a homer in a World Series game

* With the Game 6 homerun, he became the ninth player in MLB history to homer in multiple World Series-clinching games...he is the second player to do it with two different teams (other: Reggie Jackson)

* Since his MLB debut, he ranks amongst the best in the MLB in runs (660, 3rd), doubles (238, 3rd), and hits (1029, T-9th)

* Has earned several accolades throughout his big league time – All-Star (2016-19), Silver Slugger (2016, 2018-20), Gold Glove (2016-20), American League MVP (2018), and Wilson Defensive Player of the Year (2016, 2018)...is the only AL player to ever win the World Series and earn MVP, Gold Glove and Silver Slugger awards in a single season

* Hit for the cycle on August 9 at Toronto, the only MLB player to do so in 2018...singled in the 1st inning, tripled in the 2nd, doubled in the 4th and homered in the 9th to become the 21st player in Red Sox history to accomplish the feat

* Slugged his first big league home run on July 2, 2014 against Chicago (NL) off RHP Carlos Villanueva...later belted his first career grand slam on August 29, 2014 at Tampa Bay against RHP Chris Archer

* Only player in MLB history to steal 20+ bases and hit 40+ doubles in four consecutive seasons (2016-19)

* Made his Major League debut on June 29, 2014 at New York (AL) and recorded his first major league hit that same night with a single off Chase Whitley in the fourth inning

* Drafted by the Boston Red Sox in the 5th round of the 2011 MLB June Amateur Draft...signed by Danny Watkins

Year-By-Year

2020

* Had another Gold Glove and Silver Slugger performance in his first season with the Dodgers, while leading the team in runs and home runs (tied with AJ Pollock)...finished second on the team in hits (64) and RBI (39)

* On August 23 against Colorado, became the 19th player to have a multi-homer (two), multi-stolen base (two) game...becoming the first Dodger to accomplish the feat

* Ranked among the NL leaders in hits (64, T-10th), runs (47, 4th), batting average (.292, 16th), OBP (.366, 17th), SLG (.562, 13th), steals (10, T-5th) and homers (16, T-3rd). Betts went 18-for-41 (.439) with runners in scoring position, the third best mark in the Majors, and was at his best late in games, posting a .343 (24-for-70)/.370/.643 slashline from the seventh inning and later

- * Singled off San Francisco LHP Andrew Suarez in the 6th inning on August 27 for his 1000th career hit
- * Batted .296 (21-for-71) in the postseason with eight doubles and two home runs...in the clinching Game 6 of the World Series, went 2-for-4 with a double and a home run
- * Homered in Game 6, becoming the ninth player in MLB history to homer in multiple World Series-clinching games...he is the second player to do it with two different teams (other: Reggie Jackson)
- * His eight doubles tied a Major League record for most doubles in a single postseason (David Freese – 2011, Albert Pujols – 2011, Ben Zobrist – 2015)
- * On Aug. 13, he homered three times against the Padres, joining Hall-of-Famer Johnny Mize and Sammy Sosa as the only players in MLB history with six career three-homer games

2019

Career Highlights

- * The 2019 All-Star enters his fifth MLB season after posting a 24-9 record with a 3.15 ERA and a 1.03 WHIP in 70 career games (61 starts)
- * Has held opponents to a .210/.266/.345 career slashline with a 1.03 WHIP...since 2017, ranks fourth among pitchers (min. 350.0 IP) with a .612 opponents' OPS, behind only Jacob deGrom (.591), Chris Sale (.609) and Max Scherzer (.609)
- * Helped lead the Dodgers to their 2020 World Championship, going 2-0 with a 1.80 ERA (5 ER/25.0 IP) in five Postseason starts...limited opponents to a .196 batting average (18-for-92) with 39 strikeouts in 25.0 innings
- * Has solidified his reputation as a big game pitcher with a 3-1 record and a 2.35 ERA (16 ER/61.1 IP) in 11 postseason starts, limiting hitters to a .177 batting average, posting a 0.99 WHIP and averaging 12.18 strikeouts per 9.0 innings...has allowed just one run in 13.0 innings in two World Series starts (0.69 ERA)...all time among pitchers with 60.0 or more Postseason innings, ranks 12th in ERA, fourth in opponents' average and 10th in WHIP
- * Threw his first career complete-game against the Rockies on June 21, 2019, allowing only two earned runs on three hits, while establishing career highs in strikeouts (16) and total pitches (111)... tossed his second complete game on August 3, 2019 against San Diego, allowing one run on five hits while striking out 15 batters without issuing a walk on 110 pitches
- * Started the first combined no-hitter in Dodger history, walking three and striking out eight in 6.0 innings (93 pitches) in a 4-0 win over the Padres on May 4, 2018 in Monterrey, Mexico...Tony Cingrani, Yimi Garcia and Adam Liberatore fired the final 3.0 innings...it was the 23rd no-hitter in Dodger franchise history and the 13th since moving to Los Angeles
- * Made his first career big league start on April 23, 2018 against Miami at Dodger Stadium and did not factor into the decision after throwing 5.0 scoreless innings and striking out five batters
- * Recorded his first Major League win on Sept. 21, 2017 at Philadelphia, tossing a scoreless inning of relief with two strikeouts
- * Selected as the 2017 Dodgers Branch Rickey Minor League Pitcher of the Year after going 3-3 with one save and posting a 3.35 ERA in 28 combined games (19 starts) with Single-A Rancho Cucamonga, Double-A Tulsa and Triple-A Oklahoma City
- * Selected by the Dodgers in the first round (24th overall) of the 2015 First-Year Player Draft out of Vanderbilt University

Year-By-Year

2020

* Went 1-0 with a 3.44 ERA in eight starts during the 60-game season, holding opponents to a .178 batting average with a 0.95 WHIP...struck out 42 against 11 walks in 36.2 innings

* Limited to just 36.2 innings in the regular season due to two IL stints caused by blisters (Aug. 26-Sept. 2; Sept. 10-24)

* Helped lead the Dodgers to their 2020 World Championship, going 2-0 with a 1.80 ERA (5 ER/25.0 IP) in five Postseason starts...limited opponents to a .196 batting average (18-for-92) with 39 strikeouts in 25.0 Postseason innings

* Tossed 6.0 innings of one-run ball to pick up the win in World Series Game 3 over the Rays (Dodgers 6-2 win), striking out 10, allowing just three hits and walking one...became the first pitcher in World Series history to strike out 10 while not pitching more than 6.0 innings

2019

* Finished the season going 13-4 with a 3.24 ERA (64 ER/177.1 IP) in a career-high 30 starts, limiting opponents to a .223 average while posting a 1.04 WHIP

* Led the National League in winning percentage (.778) and complete games (2) and ranked among leaders in wins (T-6th), WHIP (6th, 1.04), strikeout-to-walk ratio (3rd, 5.81), walks per 9.0 innings (6th, 1.83), ERA (9th) and strikeouts per 9.0 innings (7th, 10.51)

* Struck out 200 batters for the first time in his career, leading Dodger pitchers with 215 strikeouts and ranking 10th in the NL in that category

Buehler's five games with double-digit strikeouts and no walks were the most in the National League and only second to Justin Verlander (6) and Gerritt Cole (7) in the Major Leagues... according to STATS, his five such games are the most by any MLB pitcher 25 or younger in a season in the live-ball era (since 1920)...joined Pedro Martinez and Doc Gooden as the only MLB pitchers with multiple starts of 15 strikeouts and no walks in the same season (June 21 vs. Colorado and August 3 vs. San Diego)...had success against batters on both sides of the plate, holding left-handed hitters to a .218 average (74-for-339) and righties to a .226 mark (74-for-327)...was selected to his first All-Star Game after going 8-1 with a 3.46 ERA while posting a 0.99 WHIP in 17 first half starts...made two NLDS starts against the Nationals, allowing only one earned run in 12.2 innings of work, striking out 15 batters against six walks while posting a 0.87 WHIP

2018

* Finished third in the Rookie of Year voting, going 8-5 with a 2.62 ERA (40 ER/137.1 IP) in 24 games (23 starts)...struck out 151 batters against just 37 walks and limited hitters to a .193 average

* Made his first career big league start on April 23 against Miami at Dodger Stadium after being recalled from Triple-A Oklahoma City

* Pitched in Game 163 against the Rockies and recorded the win to help the Dodgers secure their sixth straight NL West Title, after allowing just one hit and striking out three over 6.2 scoreless innings

* Made four Postseason starts (0-1), posting a 3.80 ERA (10 ER/23.2 IP), while limiting opponents to a .190 average and posting a 0.85 WHIP...struck out 29 batters against only four walks

* His eight strikeouts in 7.0 innings of Game 3 of the NLCS against the Brewers were the second-most in an NLCS start by a rookie in Dodger history, trailing just Tim Belcher, who struck out 10 in Game 2 of the 1988 NLCS vs. the Mets...his 7.0 innings pitched tied Belcher (1988 Game 5) and teammate Hyun-Jin Ryu (2013 Game 3) for the third-longest LCS start by a Dodger rookie, behind Fernando Valenzuela (8.2 IP, 1981 Game 5) and Belcher (8.1 IP, 1988 Game 2)

* Became just the second rookie in MLB history to start Game 7 of an LCS (Oct. 20 at MIL), joining Boston's Daisuke Matsuzaka (2007 ALCS against Cleveland)

* Started Game 3 of the World Series for the Dodgers, logging 7.0 shutout innings while allowing two hits and striking out seven batters without issuing a walk in a no-decision...became the third pitcher in World Series history to log those numbers or better in a Fall Classic contest, joining Roger Clemens (2000) and Don Larsen (1956)...Buehler is the first pitcher younger than 25 years old to accomplish the feat in any Postseason game

As a starter, went 8-4 with a 2.31 ERA (35 ER/136.1 IP), a .185 opponents' batting average and a 0.92 WHIP...ranked among the best starters in the big leagues (min. 125 IP) in ERA (5th), opponents' batting average (3rd), opponents' OBP (.249, 5th), opponents' SLG (.282, 2nd), opponents' OPS (.531, 2nd), WHIP (5th), hits per nine innings (5.94, 3rd) and home runs per nine innings (0.73, 9th)...also ranked among NL starters in strikeout-to-walk ratio (4.08, 8th) and strikeouts per nine innings (9.90, 12th)...finished the season with the lowest WHIP (0.92) among rookie pitchers with 20 or more starts since 1913, and the second lowest opponents' OBP (.249), behind just Dick Hughes' .248 mark in 1967 with the Cardinals...his .185 opponents' batting average also ranked the fourth lowest, while his .531 opponents' OPS was the fifth lowest...was dominant in the second half of the season, going 4-3 with a 2.03 ERA (18 ER/80.0 IP) and holding opposing hitters to a .165/.242/.266 slashline, while striking out 92 batters against just 24 walks in 13 starts...among starters with 10 or more starts since the All-Star break, he finished with the second best opponent's batting average in the big leagues, while ranking among the best in WHIP (0.88, 4th), ERA (5th) and strikeouts (T-10th)...in 13 games (12 starts) at home, he put up a 4-3 record with a 1.93 ERA (16 ER/74.2 IP) and held hitters to a .174 average...among starters with 10 or more starts at home, his 0.83 WHIP was the best in the Majors, while his ERA (1.93 ERA, 8th) and opponents' batting average (.174, 3rd) ranked among the best in the big leagues...was named to Baseball America's 2018 All-Rookie Team

2017

* Saw his first big league action in just his second professional season and made eight relief appearances going 1-0 with a 7.71 ERA (8 ER/9.1 IP)

* In the Majors, he struck out 12 against eight walks in 9.1 innings...held left-handed hitters to a .188 average and limited the opposition to a .182 mark with runners in scoring position

* Had his contract selected from Triple-A Oklahoma City on Sept. 6 and made his big league debut the next day (Sept. 7), tossing 2.0 scoreless innings of relief with two strikeouts against the Rockies

Recorded his first Major League win on Sept. 21, 2017 at Philadelphia, tossing a scoreless inning of relief with two strikeouts in the Dodgers' 5-4 victory...selected as the Dodgers Branch Rickey Minor League Pitcher of the Year after going 3-3 with one save and posting a 3.35 ERA (33 ER/88.2 IP) in 28 combined games (19 starts) with Advanced-A Rancho Cucamonga, Double-A Tulsa and Triple-A Oklahoma City...rated by MLB.com as the Dodgers' No. 1 prospect and was rated by Baseball America as the 17th best overall prospect in baseball...in the minors, held hitters to a combined .208 average, while striking out 125 batters against just 31 walks in 88.2 innings...named Texas League Pitcher of the Week in the week ending July 2 and was selected as MiLB.com Organizational All-Star

2016

Spent his first professional season with Rookie-Level AZL Dodgers, where he appeared in one game... he threw 2.0 scoreless innings with three punchouts, recording one win....graduated to Single-A Great Lakes on August 28, pitching in two games (one start) over 3.0 innings, striking out three batters against three walks.

PERSONAL

Walker Anthony Buehler...played college ball at Vanderbilt University and was a member of the 2014 College World Series championship team...pitched against UC Irvine in the College World Series where he tossed 5.1 hitless innings with seven strikeouts to earn the win...as a freshman in 2013 he earned a spot on the SEC First-Year Academic Honor Roll...graduated from Henry Clay (KY) High School...was named a two-time Kentucky All-State and two-time All-City team member and had his jersey retired at the high school...owns the single-season strikeout record at Henry Clay HS with 98 strikeouts over 66.0 innings...hosted a charity golf tournament in Lexington, KY in November 2018 to benefit the Kids Cancer Alliance...drafted by the Pirates in the 14th round of the 2012 First-Year Player Draft out of Henry Clay HS but did not sign...selected by the Dodgers in the first round (24th overall pick) of the 2015 First-Year Player Draft from Vanderbilt University and was signed by scout Marty Lamb

Career Highlights

- * The 2014 National League Most Valuable Player, three-time Cy Young Award winner (2011, 2013-14) and seven-time All-Star (2011-17) enters his 14th big league season with a 175-76 record and a 2.43 ERA in 357 career games (354 starts)
- * Since the start of the live-ball era in 1920, has the lowest all-time career ERA (2.43) and WHIP (1.00) among starting pitchers with at least 1,500.0 innings pitched...his .208 opponents' average ranks third among pitchers with that qualifier, behind only Nolan Ryan (.204) and Sandy Koufax (.205) and his strikeout-per-nine mark of 9.74 ranks 5th
- * Became the ninth all-time pitcher to win three or more Cy Youngs after the 2014 season since the award was instituted in 1956...became the 14th NL pitcher to win the award via a unanimous vote in 2014...by winning the award in 2013-14, he became the ninth pitcher in either league to win the award in consecutive seasons...finished second in the 2012 and 2017 Cy Young voting, third in 2015 and fifth in 2016
- * Became the all-time leader in postseason strikeouts with 207 after striking out six batters in Game 5 of the 2020 World Series...passed Justin Verlander (205) to earn the distinction
- * In 2014, became the 11th Dodger player to win the MVP award and the 11th pitcher to win both the MVP and Cy Young Award in the same season
- * Won the MLB ERA title in four consecutive seasons from 2011-14, becoming the first-ever pitcher to do so...also led the Majors with a career-high 21 wins in both 2011 and 2014
- * Topped the Majors with 301 strikeouts in 2015 and led the NL in Ks in 2011 and 2013...has collected 200-plus strikeouts in seven of his 11 big league seasons, which is the most in franchise history and the fourth most in National League history
- * Leads the Majors in ERA (2.43), WHIP (1.00), complete games (25) and shutouts (15) since making his debut in 2008, while also ranking among the MLB leaders in strikeouts (2,526, 3rd), wins (175, T-4th), opponents' average (.208), and winning percentage (.697)
- * Passed Dodger-great Don Drysdale on the Dodgers' all-time strikeout list with his 11 strikeouts against Seattle on August 20, moving him into second place behind Don Sutton who leads with 2,696 punchouts...the southpaw's 2,526 career punchouts places him 36th on the all-time strikeouts list (next: Bartolo Colon, 2,535)
- * Obtained his 2,000th career strikeout in the second inning against Milwaukee on June 2, 2017, reaching the milestone in 1,837.2 innings, the fourth fastest all-time behind only Pedro Martinez (1715.1 IP), Randy Johnson (1734.0 IP) and Max Scherzer (1784.0)
- * Ranks among the all-time Los Angeles leaders in strikeouts (2nd), wins (5th), starts (3rd) and ERA (3rd)
- * His 13 career postseason victories are the most by a Dodger pitcher in franchise history and is fifth overall in MLB history...also holds the franchise lead in postseason starts (30), innings pitched (189.0), strikeouts (207), and losses (12)
- * Became the third different Dodger pitcher to win the pitching Triple Crown in 2011 (Dazzy Vance - 1924, Sandy Koufax - 1963, '65, '66), leading the Majors with a 2.28 ERA, tying the NL lead with 21 wins and ranking first in the league with 248 strikeouts
- * Won a Rawlings Gold Glove Award in 2011 and has made just eight errors in his Major League career (.977 fielding percentage)...leads active players with 62 career pickoffs
- * Strung together 41.0 consecutive scoreless innings from June 13-July 10, 2014 which tied with Luis Tiant (1968) for the sixth longest streak in the expansion era
- * Made his Major League debut on May 25, 2008, allowing just two runs in 6.0 innings against the Cardinals and fanned the first batter he faced (Skip Schumaker)...earned his first big league win on July 27, 2008 vs. Washington, tossing 6.0 scoreless innings in the Dodgers' 2-0 win
- * Honored with Major League Baseball's 2012 Roberto Clemente Award for his charitable endeavors...has been the Dodgers' nominee for the award in 2011, 2012 and 2014
- * Is a two-time recipient of the Dodgers' Roy Campanella Award, doing so in 2013-14
- * Selected by the Dodgers in the first round (seventh overall) in the 2006 First-Year Player Draft

Year-By-Year

2020

* Produced a 6-2 record over 10 starts with a 2.16 ERA (14 ER/58.1 IP), striking out 62 batters and walking just eight as he limited opposing batters to a .194 (41-for-211) average

* Led the Dodgers' pitching staff in wins (six), innings (58.1), quality starts (6) and strikeouts (62)... ranked among the NL leaders (min. 55 IP) in wins (6, T-4th), ERA (2.16, 5th), opponents' batting average (.194, 5th) and WHIP (0.84, 2nd)

* Recorded four straight wins from Aug. 14 to Sept. 3, compiling a 0.69 ERA (2 ER/26.0 IP) with 29 strikeouts...gave up just ten hits and five walks while limiting hitters to a .115/.172/.218 slashline during that span

* With his 11 strikeouts against Seattle on August 20, the southpaw passed Don Drysdale on the Dodgers' all-time strikeout list, moving him into second place behind Don Sutton who leads with 2,696 punchouts...Kershaw's 2,526 career punchouts places him 36th on the all-time strikeouts list (next: Bartolo Colon, 2,535)

* Was stellar in the postseason, compiling a 4-1 record over five games (three quality starts)...garnered a 2.93 ERA (10 ER/30.2 IP) with 37 strikeouts and a .211 opponents' average (23-for-109), leading to a 0.91 WHIP and 10.86 strikeout-per-nine mark...won both of his World Series starts

* Improved his postseason career strikeout mark to 207, passing Justin Verlander (205 Ks), to become the Major League leader in career postseason punchouts

Five of his six wins came away from Dodger Stadium (8/2 at ARI, 8/14 at LAA, 8/20 at SEA, 8/27 at SF, 9/19 at COL)...in those five wins, the lefty limited the opposition to a .163/.189/.275 slashline and struck out 45 of the 159 batters he faced... is one of three Dodgers to record 13+ strikeouts in a playoff game, alongside Sandy Koufax (15, 10/2/1963 vs. NYY) and Carl Erskine (14, 10/2/1953 vs. NYY)...was slated to make his ninth-career Opening Day start, but started the campaign on the Injured List after coming up with a stiff back after working out two days before Opening Day

2019

* In his 12th Major League season, went 16-5 with a 3.03 ERA (60 ER/178.1 IP) and a 1.04 WHIP in 29 games (28 starts)... the Dodgers went 22-7 in his starts...recorded 22 quality starts

* Ranked among NL leaders in ERA (7th), wins (T-3rd), winning percentage (.762, 3rd), quality starts (T-3rd), opponents' batting average (.222, 8th), opponents' OBP (.269, 6th), WHIP (7th), walks per 9.0 innings (2.07, 10th) and strikeout-to-walk ratio (4.61, 8th)

* On Aug. 1, he passed Sandy Koufax with the 2,397th strikeout of his career to become the Dodgers' all-time strikeout leader as a left-handed pitcher. Kershaw finished the season with 2,464 career strikeouts, and sits in third place on the overall franchise list behind Don Sutton (2,696) and Don Drysdale (2,486)

* On August 14, he tossed 7.0 scoreless innings with 10 strikeouts and no walks against the Marlins, recording his 8th career start with 10+ strikeouts and zero walks or runs allowed...tied Pedro Martinez and Chris Sale for second most in the live-ball era, training only Randy Johnson (11) (source: STATS)

Posted a 10-2 record and a 2.89 ERA (33 ER/102.2 IP) in 16 starts at Dodger Stadium and a 6-3 record with a 3.21 ERA (27 ER/75.2 IP) in 13 road games (12 starts)...recorded 6.0 IP or more in 26 of his 28 starts, including his first 23 starts of the year which matched the longest run of his career in 2015... finished the season tied for most starts of at least 6.0 innings among National League hurlers (also Stephen Strasburg)...the Dodgers were victorious in each of Clayton Kershaw's first nine starts of the season, extending the win streak to 17 overall dating back to August 19, 2018... became the only pitcher since 1920 with three separate streaks of 13+ in his career, also reaching the feat in 2014 (13) and 2017 (16) (source: STATS)...held the opposition to a .222 batting average, limiting lefties to a .208 average and right handers to a .225 mark...had success at the plate, leading the Major Leagues with 15 sacrifice hits while also recording five hits including a double and an RBI...took the loss in Game 2 of the NLDS against Washington, allowing three earned runs on six hits in 6.0 innings of work... made a relief appearance in Game 5 of the NLDS, allowing two earned runs on two solo home runs while striking out a batter...started the season on the 10-Day IL with left shoulder inflammation and was activated on April 15, prior to his start against Cincinnati

2018

* Finished the regular season ranking among NL pitchers (min. 25 starts) in ERA (2.73, 4th), strikeout-to-walk ratio (5.34, 3rd), WHIP (1.04, 4th), opponents' on-base percentage (.264, 4th), opponents' OPS (.630, 8th) and opponents' batting average (.227, 11th)

* Was the Dodgers' Opening Day starter for the eighth consecutive year, tied with Don Drysdale for the most in franchise history, but took the loss after allowing one run in 6.0 innings on March 29 vs. SF

In 13 second half starts, he went 6-1 with a 2.73 ERA (26 ER/85.2 IP), striking out 77 batters against 12 walks, while posting a 1.00 WHIP and holding batters to a .227/.255/.365 slash line...since the All-Star break he ranked among NL pitchers (min. 75.0 IP) in fewest walks per nine innings (1.26, 2nd), strikeout to walk ratio (6.42, 5th), opponents' OBP (.255, 6th), innings pitched (85.2, 7th), WHIP (1.00, 8th), opponents' OPS (.620, 9th) and ERA (2.73, 10th)...held hitters to a .227 average, including a .223 mark against right-handed hitters... limited hitters to a .220 average with runners in scoring position...reached 2,000 career innings against the San Diego Padres on July 9, becoming just the 13th Dodger in franchise history to reach that mark and the 11th active pitcher in the league to toss 2000.0 or more innings...went 2-3 with a 4.20 ERA (14 ER/30.0 IP) in six postseason games for the Dodgers, while holding batters to a .229/.280/.367 slash line and posting a 1.07 WHIP...earned the win against the Brewers in Game 5 of the NLCS reaching nine career postseason wins, the most in Dodger history...had two DL stints: May 6-31 (left biceps tendinitis) and June 1-23 (low back strain)

2017

* Despite being limited to just 27 starts, he finished the season leading the National League in wins (18, T-1st ML), ERA (2.31, 2nd ML), strikeout-to-walk ratio (6.73, 3rd ML) and opponents' OBP (.246, 2nd ML)...also ranked among the best in the senior circuit in winning percentage (.818, 2nd), WHIP (0.95, 2nd), opponents' OPS (.604, 3rd), opponents' SLG (.357, 5th), strikeouts per nine innings (10.39, 5th) and strikeouts (202, 8th)...finished second in the National League Cy Young voting

* Held the opposition to a .212 average, which ranked fourth in the NL, including a .203 mark against right-handed hitters (5th, NL)...limited hitters to a .167 average with runners in scoring position, which ranked second best in the big leagues (min. 100 BFP), trailing just Chicago's Kyle Hendricks (154)

* Selected to his seventh consecutive All-Star team (2011-17), making him the first Dodger to be named to seven straight All-Star Games since Steve Garvey who made eight consecutive appearances in the Midsummer Classic...did not participate in the All-Star game

Recorded a 12-game winning streak from May 6-Sept. 1, which was the longest winning streak in the big leagues... during that span he posted a 1.70 ERA (20 ER/106.0 IP) and limited batters to a .185 average, while punching out 131 batters against just 21 walks...won eight consecutive games from June 7-July 18 during that stretch, which matched his career-high (also: June 2-July 10, 2014)...according to Stats LLC., became just the fourth Dodger pitcher since 1913 to win at least 16 of his first 18 decisions in one season (16-2, 1.95 ERA), joining Freddie Fitzsimmons (16-2, 1940), Preacher Roe (16-2, 1951), and Don Newcombe (17-1, 1955)...obtained his 2,000th career strikeout in the second inning against Milwaukee on June 2, reaching the milestone in 1,837.2 innings, the fourth fastest all-time behind only Pedro Martinez (1715.1 IP), Randy Johnson (1734.0 IP) and Max Scherzer (1784.0)...was placed on the DL from July 24-Sept. 1 with a lower back strain...prior to his stint on the DL, he went 15-2 with a 2.04 ERA in 21 starts and led the big leagues in wins, ERA and innings pitched (141.1 IP, T-1st)...returned from the DL on Sept. 1 and went 3-2 with a 3.48 ERA (13 ER/33.2 IP) in six starts...was named National League Pitcher of the Week ending in July 9...appeared in six games (five starts) in the postseason, going 3-0 with a 3.82 ERA (14 ER/33.0 IP) and held hitters to a .179 average...collected his seventh career postseason victory in Game 1 of the World Series against the Astros, collecting the most all-time postseason wins in Dodger history

2016

* Among pitchers with 140.0 or more innings, he led the Majors with a 1.69 ERA, a .184 opponents' batting average, a 0.72 WHIP and a 15.64 strikeout-to-walk ratio with 172 strikeouts against just 11 walks in 149.0 innings

* His 15.64 strikeout-to-walk ratio was the highest mark ever for any MLB pitcher with 125.0 or more innings pitched in a single season...made six consecutive starts with 10 or more strikeouts and one walk or less (April 21-May 17), a modern MLB record

Limited by a mid-season back injury to just 21 starts, but earned his sixth consecutive All-Star selection, going 12-4 with a 1.69 ERA...was placed on the DL from June 27-Sept. 9 with a mild herniated disc in his lower back...went 11-2 with a 1.79 ERA (24 ER/121.0 IP) in 16 starts prior to the injury, which caused him to miss the All-Star Game...after returning from the disabled list on Sept. 9, he went 1-2 with a 1.29 ERA (4 ER/28.0 IP) in five starts...was named the NL's May Pitcher of the Month...appeared in five games (four starts) in the postseason, going 2-1 with a 4.44 ERA (12 ER/24.1 IP) and picking up the save in the Dodgers' NLDS Game 5 win at Washington

2015

* Went 16-7 with a 2.13 ERA in a career high-tying 33 starts in his fifth consecutive All-Star season

* His 301 strikeouts ranking as the fourth highest single-season total in franchise history behind Sandy Koufax's 1965 (382 SO), 1966 (317 SO) and 1963 (306 SO) seasons...marked his first time leading the Majors in Ks...tied his single-game career high with 15 strikeouts in a complete-game victory over the Giants on Sept. 2

* Also ranked among the big league leaders in wins (16, 11th), ERA (2.13, 3rd), innings pitched (232.2, 1st), opponents' batting average (.194, 3rd), WHIP (0.88, 3rd), complete games (4, T-1st), pickoffs (10, 1st) and shutouts (3, T-1st)

* Was selected as the 2006 Topps Minor League Player of the Year for the Gulf Coast League

Community Spotlight

Kershaw was honored with the 2012 Roberto Clemente Award, which recognizes a MLB player who best represents the game of baseball through positive contributions on and off the field, including sportsmanship and community involvement, and with the MLB Players Association's 2014 Marvin Miller Man of the Year Award, given to the player whose excellence on and off the field most inspire others to higher levels of achievement. Along with his wife, Ellen, founded their non-profit, Kershaw's Challenge, in 2011, which works to transform at-risk communities and the lives of children by partnering with organizations both locally and abroad to renew hope, one life at a time. The foundation supports local charities in Los Angeles, partnering with The Dream Center, as well as charities in his hometown of Dallas (Mercy Street), Zambia, Africa (Arise Africa) and the Dominican Republic (Cure International). In addition to financial support, Kershaw has made numerous visits to each organization, where he's assisted with community outreach programs, run baseball clinics/camps and donated/distributed essential daily supplies like food and clothing. The Kershaws have hosted an annual charity fundraising event in Los Angeles for the past five years, with Clayton's Texas BBQ & Hoedown in 2012 and Ping Pong 4 Purpose in 2013-19, with proceeds benefitting Kershaw's Challenge and also hosted a charity event in Dallas the past five years, Kershaw's Challenge Live benefit concert. Kershaw has served as a charter member of the Taylor Hooton Foundation's "Advisory Board" of major-league players (since 2014). As an "Advisory Board" member, he has served as a role model for our nation's youth about the dangers of Appearance- and Performance-Enhancing Supplements

DODGER STADIUM

The Dodgers remembered Hall of Fame Manager Tommy Lasorda with his retired number and his name on the electronic banner in the new Center Field Plaza after he passed away on January 7

Dodger Stadium’s rich history began with club president Walter O’Malley’s foresight over six decades ago. In 1957, he lobbied for a new stadium to be built for his Brooklyn club, but when a deal could not be reached, the Dodgers made the unprecedented move to California. In September of that year, the city of Los Angeles agreed to give 300 acres of land to the Dodgers in exchange for the deed to Wrigley Field in Los Angeles and their commitment to construct a 50,000-seat stadium. While Dodger Stadium was being built, the Dodgers played at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum through 1961, before the true Opening Day — April 10, 1962 — when the Dodgers finally played in their new home before 52,564 fans.

The Dodgers enter their 60th season of play at Dodger Stadium (capacity: 56,000) in 2021 with a 2,699-1,966 (.579) record in 4,665 regular season games. The stadium has hosted 91 Postseason games with the Dodgers’ holding a 54-37 record (.593), including 27 games (17-10, .630) during 10 World Series (1963, ’65, ’66, ’74, ’77, ’78, ’81, ’88, 2017-18). Since Dodger Stadium’s opening in 1962, Los Angeles has the best home winning percentage in the National League and the second best regular season home record in the Majors, behind only the Yankees’ .603 (2,804-1,845).

History

Sandy Koufax celebrates recording the final out of the 1963 World Series.

- The first game in Dodger Stadium history was held on April 10, 1962. Left-hander Johnny Podres made the start against the Cincinnati Reds. Kay O’Malley, wife of Dodger President Walter O’Malley, threw out the ceremonial first pitch to catcher John Roseboro.
- Hall of Famer Willie Stargell is the only player to twice hit ball out of Dodger Stadium (Aug. 5, 1969 and May 8, 1973). Mike Piazza is the only Dodger to clear the roof (Sept. 21, 1997).
- Of the six Dodger World Series championships, the only title clinched on their home field was 1963 when Los Angeles swept the Yankees, capped by a 2-1 victory in Game 4.
- The only All-Star Game in Dodger Stadium history was the 1980 Mid-Summer Classic, won by the NL, 4-2. It was announced last year, that Dodger Stadium will also host the 2020 All-Game Game.
- The only perfect game in Dodger history was pitched by Sandy Koufax at Dodger Stadium in a 1-0 victory against the Chicago Cubs on Sept. 9, 1965.

International

- Dodger Stadium played host to the 1984 Olympic Baseball tournament, the opening ceremonies of the 1991 United States Olympic Festival and the finals of both the 2009 and 2017 World Baseball Classics.
- In 1966, the Dodgers received a 10-foot-tall stone lantern gift from Japanese Hall of Famer Sotaro Suzuki as a token of friendship between the Dodgers and Japan. The Dodgers rededicated the stone lantern in 2003 and maintain it and the surrounding Japanese garden, located in the hills above parking lot 6.

Dodger Stadium played host to the NHL's Stadium Series on January 25, 2014, as the Anaheim Ducks faced the Los Angeles Kings in a regular season game.

- The Harlem Globetrotters played an exhibition game at Dodger Stadium on Feb. 4, 1964. The basketball court was placed on the infield.
- Dodger Stadium has played host to a rugby match (2015), a soccer game (2013) and the National Hockey League's first regular-season outdoor game in California on Jan. 25, 2014 between the Los Angeles Kings and Anaheim Ducks.

Unique Events

- Dodger Stadium is part of the fabric of Los Angeles and during the Covid-19 pandemic, the Dodgers opened the stadium and its parking lots for communal benefit, including serving as a supersite where over a million tests were administered and one of the country's largest vaccination sites. Additionally, the stadium's Top Deck served as one of Los Angeles County's busiest Vote Centers for the 2020 Presidential Election.
- Pope John Paul II celebrated a Mass at Dodger Stadium on Sept. 16, 1987. The event drew a stadium-record crowd of 63,000.
- Entertainers to perform at Dodger Stadium include: AC/DC, Beyoncé, Billy Joel, Bruno Mars, Guns N' Roses, The Rolling Stones, The Beatles, KISS, Madonna, The Bee Gees, Elton John, Simon and Garfunkel, John Legend, Luke Bryan, Michael Jackson, David Bowie, Genesis, Eric Clapton, U2, the Dave Matthews Band, Bruce Springsteen, Paul McCartney and The Three Tenors.

Original Construction

- Elevations at "Chavez Ravine" ranged from 400 feet to 700 feet above sea level. More than eight million cubic yards of earth was moved to reshape the area.
- Dodger Stadium was designed by Emil Praeger and was the first privately financed stadium since Yankee Stadium, built by a brewery in 1923.
- The Dodgers played at the Los Angeles Coliseum from 1958-61 and groundbreaking ceremonies for the original Dodger Stadium construction were held on Sept. 17, 1959.
- There were more than 25,000 separate pieces of precast concrete used to build the original Dodger Stadium.
- The original dugout level seats at Dodger Stadium were inspired by a similar layout of dugout seats at Korakuen Stadium, where the Dodgers played during their 1956 Japan goodwill tour. Club seats have since been replaced by the Dugout Club Seats.
- Dodger Stadium was designed so that each of the nine levels of the park has entries at grade as the hillside rises around the structure. The engineers used the terrain of the site to allow access directly from each level without requiring fans to use stairs or an elevator.
- The original color scheme of Dodger Stadium, which is evident in the seats today, is a result of the study of popular colors in the 1960's, reflective of the California spirit.
- The distinctive inverted precast panels of the Top Deck and the zig-zag roof of the pavilions are unique architectural features.

Los Angeles Attendance Highlights

Record At The Turnstile: In 2019, the Dodgers set a single-season franchise attendance record with 3,974,309 (49,066 average) in 81 home dates, which included 28 sellouts. The attendance mark led Major League Baseball, the seventh consecutive year the Dodgers have done so, and represented the 10th largest single-season mark in Major League history (third largest in NL history). It marked the second consecutive year that the Dodgers established a single-season attendance record after drawing 3,857,500 in 82 home dates in 2018 (47,042 average). Los Angeles also led MLB in combined home/road attendance, drawing 6,681,929.

MLB Leaders: Since moving to Los Angeles in 1958, the Dodgers have led the National League in attendance 34 times, including posting the highest attendance in the Majors in 30 of those 34 years (see previous page for individual seasons). Los Angeles has led the Majors in attendance for the last seven seasons since 2013.

Sellouts: The Dodgers established a club record with 37 sellouts in 1983.

Largest Single-Game Crowd: The Dodgers drew 57,097 fans on April 13, 2009 for an 11-1 Opening Day victory over the Giants, the largest regular season crowd in Dodger Stadium history and one of three times that the club has drawn more than 56,000 at Chavez Ravine (also: March 31, 2011 vs. SF, Aug. 21, 2012 vs. SF).

Largest Single-Game Postseason Crowd: During the postseason, the largest Dodger Stadium crowd is 56,800 - done three times during the 2008 NLCS vs. Philadelphia - Oct. 12, 13, 15.

Over Three Million: The Dodgers hold the Major League record for drawing more than three million fans on 32 occasions, while also topping the big leagues in number of times topping 2.5 million (45). Los Angeles has surpassed 2 million fans for an MLB record 46 consecutive seasons.

Turnstiles: The Dodgers established a then-Major League record when they drew 3,608,881 fans in 1982. The NL implemented a new attendance counting system in 1993, and the Rockies recorded the largest single-season total in Major League history with 4,483,350 fans in their first Major League season. Through the 1992 season, attendance figures in the NL were counted by the number of fans in attendance and the AL counted total tickets sold. Both leagues - currently count total tickets sold.

For The Record Book: On May 7, 1959, the Dodgers and Yankees played before an exhibition crowd of 93,103 at the Los Angeles Coliseum in honor of Roy Campanella, the highest single-game attendance mark for a Major League game.

World's Greatest: The Dodgers in 2005 were honored by the Guinness Book of World Records as having the "Highest Cumulative Attendance for a Baseball Franchise" dating back to 1901.

Campo Las Palmas

The Dodgers were the first MLB club to establish a baseball academy in the Dominican Republic when they first opened the doors of Campo Las Palmas in 1987. Former Dodger President Peter O'Malley and former Dodger Scout and Vice President Ralph Avila arranged for the Dodgers to purchase land in San Antonio de Guerra on which Campo Las Palmas was constructed. The Dodgers, under ownership by Mark Walter and Guggenheim Baseball Management, expanded the campus with the purchase of a neighboring parcel and the total complex is now 70 acres.

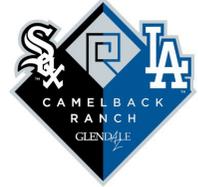

Campo Las Palmas celebrated its 30th anniversary in 2017 with extensive improvements and an expansion of the state-of-the-art facility. In 1987, the original facility consisted of four structures, which has now grown to 10 buildings of nearly 100,000 total square feet following the 2017 expansion. The newly renovated Campo Las Palmas houses 96 players, 19 coaches and support staff, while training facilities include three and one-half fields, a covered batting cage large enough to accommodate infield practice, a mile running track, conditioning and weight room and training areas within the clubhouse.

Designed to expand the campus qualities of the original complex and encourage continuing education during time in camp, new buildings at Campo Las Palmas feature four classrooms, a quiet room and a social area for players. Additional updates include the Jackie Robinson Hall which functions as a movie house that uses English-language films as part of language learning and is a place where players can spend time with their families when they visit Campo Las Palmas. A community field for little league play is near the entrance, and fruit trees and a vegetable garden near the new kitchen mark the team's commitment to nutrition.

Camelback Ranch-Glendale

Camelback Ranch-Glendale (CR-G) is in its 13th season (opened in 2009) as the Spring Training home of the Dodgers and White Sox this year. CR-G is one of the largest stadiums in the Cactus League and features unique grounds that include picturesque walking trails, a five-acre lake and an orange grove – a nod to the Dodgers’ previous spring home in Vero Beach, FL, where they trained for 61 years. The CR-G campus has become home for all Dodger minor league operations throughout the year, including the franchise’s teams in the Rookie-level Arizona League, Fall Instructional League and Arizona Fall League.

The award-winning stadium offers more than 10,300 fixed seats and grass seating for 3,000-plus fans. An orange grove – a touch of Dodgertown, Southern California and Arizona – is located beyond the left-field wall of replica Dodger Stadium.

The Dodgers set a CR-G total attendance record in 2017, with 165,911 in 17 home dates.

The club’s record for average attendance was set in 2016, when the club hosted 155,841 fans in 15 home dates (average of 10,389).

Dodgertown In Vero Beach

Dodgertown in Vero Beach was the Spring Training home of the Dodgers for 61 years from 1948-2008 and home to some of the most memorable players and personalities of both Brooklyn and Los Angeles lore. The personalized street signs within the complex honored such Hall of Famers as Jackie Robinson, Sandy Koufax, Roy Campanella, Duke Snider, Pee Wee Reese, Don Drysdale, Tommy Lasorda, Walter Alston, Don Sutton, Vin Scully and Jaime Jarrin.

The Dodgers first set up camp at the invitation of a local businessman, Bud Holman, after the city needed a tenant to occupy a former World War II Naval Air Station. The club brought its minor league operations to Vero Beach in 1948, and in 1952 Dodger President Walter O’Malley and New York-based architect Emil Praeger decided to build an intimate-style stadium with unobstructed views. “Holman Stadium,” named by O’Malley after Bud Holman, was officially dedicated on March 11, 1953. The camp became the most unique baseball training facility in the country, a destination for international baseball visitors. The complex also grew into six practice fields, four indoor batting and pitching tunnels, a pool, tennis court and more.

On March 17, 2008, the final Spring Training contest took place at Holman Stadium and at its conclusion, the Dodgers formed a “bat tunnel” for Hall of Famer Tommy Lasorda as he walked off the field for the final time in Vero Beach. In November 2014, Historic Dodgertown - Vero Beach was designated as a “Florida Heritage Landmark” and a Historical Marker was unveiled on the property.

PEE WEE REESE

IF   1

Uniform Number Retired July 1, 1984

Harold Pee Wee Reese played 16 seasons at shortstop for the Brooklyn and Los Angeles Dodgers (1940-42, 1946-58) and was a member of seven Brooklyn pennant-winning teams, including the World Championship club of 1955. A 10-time National League All-Star, Reese appeared in more games at shortstop (2,014) than any player in franchise history and is also the Dodgers' all-time leader in runs scored (1,338) and walks (1,210). His leadership qualities were recognized by Manager Walter Alston, who appointed "The Little Colonel" as team captain. Reese was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1984.

TOMMY LASORDA

MGR   2

Uniform Number Retired August 15, 1997

Tommy Lasorda had a tough act to follow when he succeeded future Hall of Famer Walter Alston as Dodger manager with four games left in the 1976 season. But like Alston, Lasorda went on to enjoy a lengthy and highly successful tenure at the helm. Piloting the Dodgers until the 1996 campaign, he racked up 1,599 victories to rank 13th on the all-time Major League managerial list, winning two World Series titles (1981 and 1988), four NL pennants and eight division titles. Prior to joining the big league staff as a coach in 1973, he had a successful eight-year stint as a minor league manager, helping the development of several future Dodger stars. The former Brooklyn Dodger pitcher was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1997.

DUKE SNIDER

OF   4

Uniform Number Retired July 6, 1980

The Duke of Flatbush was among the game's most feared hitters during his 16 seasons with the Brooklyn and Los Angeles Dodgers (1947-62), playing on a pair of World Championship teams (1955 and 1959) and in six World Series overall. The eight-time All-Star center fielder ranks as the franchise's career leader in home runs (389) and runs batted in (1,271) and during the 1950s he topped all Major Leaguers with 326 homers and 1,031 RBI. He slugged four home runs in both the 1952 and 1955 World Series and he holds the Brooklyn Dodger single-season mark of 43 homers, which led the National League in 1956. His 136 RBI in 1955 topped the NL. Snider was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1980.

JIM GILLIAM

OF/IF

Uniform Number Retired October 10, 1978

Junior Gilliam played his entire 14-year Major League career (1953-66) in a Dodger uniform, both in Brooklyn and Los Angeles, contributing to four World Championship clubs (1955, 1959, 1963 and 1965) and seven pennant winners overall. He appeared in 1,956 games to rank fifth on the franchise's all-time games played list, seeing action at second base, third base and in the outfield. In 1953, he was selected as the National League Rookie of the Year. Following his playing career, the two-time All-Star served as a Dodger coach until his untimely death at the age of 49 prior to the start of the 1978 World Series, at which time his number was retired and the Dodgers wore a commemorative patch on their sleeve in his honor.

DON SUTTON

Uniform Number Retired August 14, 1998

The durable right-hander spent 16 of his 23 Major League seasons with the Dodgers and more than made his mark in team history, ranking as the franchise's all-time leader in wins (233), games pitched (550), innings pitched (3,816.1), strikeouts (2,696) and shutouts (52). A four-time All-Star, he pitched in three World Series (1974, 1977 and 1978) with the Dodgers, led the National League in shutouts (9) in 1972, was the NL ERA leader (2.21) in 1980 and a 21-game winner in 1976. He made his big league debut with the Dodgers in 1966 and stayed with the team through 1980, before leaving and rejoining the club in 1988. Sutton finished his career with 324 wins and 3,574 strikeouts and was enshrined in the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1998.

WALTER ALSTON

Uniform Number Retired June 5, 1977

Walter Emmons Alston was a virtual unknown when he took over the helm of the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1954, but he became well-known in a hurry. The long-time minor league skipper guided his first Dodger team to 92 wins and followed that by piloting the 1955 Dodgers to 98 victories and their first World Championship in franchise history. He went on to lead the Dodgers to six more National League pennants and three more World Series titles (1959, 1963 and 1965) in a 23-year career in which he tallied 2,040 victories to place sixth on the all-time managerial wins list. His 3,658 total games managed rank eighth all time. Alston, who played in one Major League game, that with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1934, was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1983.

SANDY KOUFAX

Uniform Number Retired June 4, 1972

LHP 32

Among the most dominating pitchers in the game's history, the left-hander won 165 games and compiled 2,396 strikeouts in 2,324.1 innings with 40 shutouts in his 12-year Dodger career (1955-66). A three-time Cy Young Award winner and the National League MVP in 1963, Koufax was also World Series MVP in both 1963 and 1965, when he hurled a pair of shutouts. He led the NL in ERA five straight seasons from 1962-66, was the strikeouts leader four times and was tops in wins on three occasions with totals of 27, 26 and 25. In addition, Koufax pitched an NL-record four no-hitters, including a perfect game in 1965, and set the National League single-season mark with 382 strikeouts in 1965. He was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1972.

ROY CAMPANELLA

Uniform Number Retired June 4, 1972

C 39

In 10 seasons with the Brooklyn Dodgers (1948-57), Campy was a force both at the plate and behind the plate. The catcher played on five pennant-winning clubs, including the World Champions of 1955. That season, the eight-time All-Star became a three-time National League Most Valuable Player award winner after collecting 32 home runs and 107 RBI. He also garnered MVP honors in 1951 and 1953, when he led the league with a Brooklyn-record 142 RBI to go with a career-high 41 home runs. Campanella, whose career was cut short due to a tragic automobile accident that left him paralyzed, was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1969.

JACKIE ROBINSON OF/IF 42

Uniform Number Retired JUNE 4, 1972

Jack Roosevelt Robinson made a historic entrance into Major League Baseball in 1947 as the first African-American player in the history of the game. His outstanding debut season netted him the inaugural Rookie of the Year award, which now bears his name, and spring-boarded him to a stellar 10-season career in which he was part of six Brooklyn Dodger pennant-winners, among them the World Championship club of 1955. In 1949, the six-time all-star won the National League batting title (.342) en route to earning MVP honors. Robinson, a first baseman as a rookie, starred as a second baseman for the next five seasons, before moving on to play third base and the outfield. He was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1962.

DON DRYSDALE RHP 53

Uniform Number Retired July 1, 1984

One of the game's fiercest competitors, the hard-throwing right-hander pitched 14 seasons (1956-69) for the Brooklyn and Los Angeles Dodgers, ranking second on the franchise career list in wins (209), games pitched (518), strikeouts (2,486), innings pitched (3,432.1) and shutouts (49). The NL strikeout leader in 1959 and 1960, Big D earned the leagues' Cy Young Award in 1962, when he won 25 and topped the league in strikeouts for a third time. A member of three World Championship clubs (1959, 1963 and 1965) and two other pennant winners (1956 and 1966), he set a then-Major League record in 1968, tossing 58.2 consecutive scoreless innings, including a record six straight shutouts. Drysdale gained induction into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1984.

International Relations

Throughout their history, in both Brooklyn and Los Angeles, the Dodgers have played a major role in the development of international baseball and have been at the forefront of forging relationships with countries around the world:

Australia

- The Dodgers played in the historic Opening Series in Sydney in March of 2014 against the Diamondbacks in MLB's first regular season games in Australia. The Dodgers, who also played an exhibition game against Team Australia, swept the two-game series, which was held at the historic Sydney Cricket Ground. The series marked the Dodgers' first regular-season games outside of North America.
- In 1986, shortstop Craig Shipley became the first native-born Australian to play in the Majors

Canada

- The Brooklyn and Los Angeles Dodgers had a minor league affiliate in Montreal, Canada from 1939-60. Jackie Robinson made his professional baseball debut and won the International League batting title with the Triple-A Montreal Royals in 1946.

Jackie Robinson as a Montreal Royal in 1946.

China

- In the spring of 2008, a split-squad of Dodgers traveled to Beijing, China to play against the San Diego Padres at Beijing's Wukesong Stadium in an exhibition and the first-ever Major League games played in that country.
- In 1986, Peter O'Malley paid for construction of a baseball stadium in Tianjin. Named Dodger Stadium, it still exists and is home to the Tianjin Lions of the Chinese Professional Baseball League founded in 2002.

Cuba

- The Dodgers held Spring Training in Havana from 1941-42 and again in 1947.
- Clayton Kershaw and Yasiel Puig joined MLB and the Players' Association on a historic goodwill tour to Cuba in December 2015.

Dominican Republic

- The Los Angeles Dodgers' baseball academy in the Dominican Republic, Campo Las Palmas, underwent a major renovation and re-dedication in 2017 as it celebrated its 30th year in Dodger player development, having officially opened on March 27, 1987. It was the first-of-its kind facility and has since been replicated by numerous teams throughout baseball. Campo Las Palmas is located in the town of Guerra, just east of the Dominican Republic's capital city of Santo Domingo (more information on Campo Las Palmas can be found in the Dodger Stadium section)...the Dodgers currently have four Dominican-born players on their 40-man roster
- Fernando Valenzuela (2011) and Nomar Garciaparra (2015) have been inducted into the Latino Baseball Hall of Fame at Casa de Campo in La Romana, joining Tommy Lasorda who is a founding member and Goodwill Ambassador of the organization. Lasorda has a statue at the Paseo de los Inmortales, dedicated in 2012, and The Hall of Fame annually bestows an award in his name for a non-Latino who makes significant contributions to Latino baseball. Former Dodger President Peter O'Malley is a past recipient
- The Dodgers' history in the Dominican Republic began in 1948 when they held Spring Training in Ciudad Trujillo.

Japan

- The Dodgers have held three postseason tours of Japan by Brooklyn and Los Angeles teams following the 1956, 1966 and 1993 seasons. The Tokyo Giants visited Vero Beach during Spring Training five times (1961, 1967, 1971, 1975 and 1980).
- In 1966, the Dodgers received a two-ton, 10-foot tall, stone lantern gift from Japanese Hall of Famer Sotaro Suzuki as a token of friendship between the Dodgers and Japan and to commemorate the opening of Dodger Stadium in 1962.
- After the 1993 season, the Dodgers played five exhibition games in Asia as part of the Friendship Series tour, three in Taipei, Taiwan and two in the Fukuoka Dome in Fukuoka, Japan.
- In 1995, Hideo Nomo became only the second Japanese born player to appear in the Major Leagues. The Nomo signing and his success spawned Nomo-mania and opened the door for Japanese players in the United States.

Korea

- On Sept. 9, 1990, the Dodgers became the first Major League team to have a game broadcast in the Korean language in the United States.
- In 1994, pitcher Chan Ho Park became the first Korean to play in the Major Leagues.

Mexico

- Pitcher Fernando Valenzuela made his Major League debut in 1980. The native of Sonora, Mexico became an international sensation in 1981 and helped the Dodgers win the World Series.
- The Dodgers took a trip to Monterrey, Mexico during Spring Training in 1991 for a two-game exhibition against Industriales de Monterrey and the Milwaukee Brewers... in 2018, the club played three regular season games against the San Diego Padres in Monterrey from May 4-6 and tossed their very first no-hitter on international soil May 4... The Dodgers also played exhibition games in Mexico City prior to the 1964 season against the Red Devils and in 2003 against the New York Mets.

Kenley Jansen and the Dodgers exchange hats with CPBL All-Stars during the club's pre-season trip to Taiwan in 2010.

Taiwan

- Following the 1993 season, the Dodgers were the first Major League Baseball team to play in Taiwan when they competed against the Chinese Professional League (CPBL) All-Stars for three games as part of the Dodgers' Friendship Baseball Series. The Dodgers also took part in a three-game friendship series against CPBL All-Stars a 2010 Spring Training trip to Taiwan.
- Hong-Chih Kuo in 2000 became the first Taiwanese high school player to sign a professional baseball contract when he signed with the Dodgers.

World Baseball Classic

- In 2017, the Dodgers hosted the semi-finals and championship game of the World Baseball Classic, with the United States claiming their first WBC title in front of a sold-out Dodger Stadium crowd...in 2009, Dodger Stadium also hosted the semi-finals and final (won by Japan).
- Numerous Dodger players have appeared in the tournament, while Tommy Lasorda served as the event's Global Ambassador in both 2006 and 2009.

Miscellaneous

- Dodger Stadium played host to the 1984 exhibition baseball tournament at the Olympic Games in Los Angeles.
- On May 19, 1993, Dodger Stadium hosted the first baseball game to be broadcast in four languages – Chinese, English, Korean and Spanish.

OFFICIAL APP OF THE LOS ANGELES DODGERS

Get access to everything Dodgers everywhere you go. MLB is the #1 app for live Dodgers baseball. Delivering live audio broadcasts with your favorite announcers, customizable favorite team features, breaking news, video highlights and much more.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

Thank
You
Dodgers

In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Dodgers' Community Relations team partnered with the Los Angeles Dodgers Foundation to provide resources to the city's most vulnerable residents. Overall, Dodgers and Dodgers Foundation relief efforts have provided more than 470,000 meals and over $2.1 million worth of food, water, hygiene necessities, educational items and Dodger products to the most vulnerable Angelenos during this time of crisis and economic insecurity.

PLAY

In response to at-home learning and children in the community having limited access to play, the Dodgers donated 150 bat and ball sets along with four playhouses, constructed by Dodgers employees in January, to youth at the Dream Center during the 2020 World Series.

The Dodgers joined MLB to execute Camp MLB, a free, day-long virtual event for kids who were not able to play organized sports due to the Stay at Home order. Dodger players were included in the day's programming that included mini clinics, mindfulness and mental health discussions, and interactive games for both parents and children.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

On and off the field, the Dodgers are committed to serving the community of Los Angeles. With various events occurring throughout the year and across the Southland, the Dodgers' community outreach focuses on inspiring youth and adults throughout the region to PLAY, LIVE, LEARN and SERVE.

Through civic and corporate partnerships, events and community service, the Dodgers fulfill a multitude of community needs and wishes, bringing joy and respite to people of all ages, abilities, backgrounds and genders.

LIVE

During the 2020 season, Dodger players executed multiple virtual hospital visits including a special visit for patients at UCLA Mattel Children's Hospital in honor of MLB's Childhood Cancer Awareness game. Each patient received a Dodger-branded Starlight hospital gown along with a chance to interact with Cody Bellinger, Walker Buehler, AJ Pollock and Edwin Rios virtually.

The Dodgers and LADF partnered with California Pizza Kitchen and Dunkin' Brands of Southern California to provide meals, gift cards, and Dodger-themed items to support hundreds of health care workers at UCLA Health medical facilities.

LEARN

- Prior to LA County schools re-opening, the Dodgers and LADF partnered with Kershaw's Challenge to provide school supplies and meals to 3,700 students in need.

- In 2020, LA Reads went completely digital with over 8,000 registrants reading over 1.2 million minutes. The LA Reads program was created in 2017 in partnership with the Dodgers Foundation to help address the literacy crisis in Los Angeles and get children excited about reading.

SERVE

- The Dodgers and Dodgers Foundation partnered with Melissa's Produce to provide 250 boxes of produce to the Bob Hope USO to support 250 active military and veteran families who were experiencing economic and food insecurity. Dodger themed shirts and hats were also provided to the families as part of the team's ongoing COVID relief efforts.

- The Dodgers and Major League Baseball unveiled the renovated All-Star Veterans Courtyard at the Volunteers of America Ballington Plaza Apartments at the Veterans Service Center in the Downtown Skid Row section of Los Angeles. In collaboration with veteran-led organization The Mission Continues, this effort upgraded existing outdoor gathering for veterans receiving day services and those in long-term housing on site.

IN THE COMMUNITY

Throughout the past 16 seasons, the team has distributed over 20,000 Thanksgiving turkeys and dinners to low-income families at the annual Turkey Giveaway. In 2020, the team distributed over 2,000 meals to individuals impacted by the COVID pandemic.

The Dodgers became the first team in Major League Baseball to make their stadium available for voting. In addition to hosting a five day Vote Center, the Dodgers created an online voting resource guide at Dodgers.com/Vote. The team supported voter registration and get-out-the-vote efforts with drop-ins during game broadcasts and on Dodgers social media along with public service announcements to assist team partners, local and state agencies and non-profits with their voting initiatives.

More than $177,000 worth of food, water, hygiene necessities and Dodger products were deployed to support community organizations including Los Angeles Unified School District's Grab & Go Food Centers, converted homeless shelters at City of Los Angeles Department of Recreation and Parks locations, childcare centers at the City of Los Angeles Department of Recreation and Parks facilities providing childcare for parents who are essential workers, and healthcare workers at Ronald Reagan UCLA Medical Center, UCLA Santa Monica Medical Center, and affiliated UCLA Health medical facilities. The Community Relations department partnered with the Muslim Coalition for America to provide 100,000 face masks, valued at $500,000, with the goal of providing a face mask to every person experiencing homelessness in Los Angeles County.

Over 959,000 square feet of Dodgers parking areas have been dedicated to COVID-19 testing and public safety needs, making it the largest COVID testing site in the country.

The Dodgers, Dodgers Foundation, and Salvation Army distributed 40,000 meals to families in need via a drive-through food distribution at Dodger Stadium. 2,000 families in need received a "Family Food Box" containing enough groceries and canned goods for 20 meals. Families also received a $20 gift card to buy groceries.

2020 ESPN SPORTS HUMANITARIAN

The Los Angeles Dodgers Foundation envisions a city where everyone regardless of ZIP code has the opportunity to thrive. LADF is tackling the most pressing problems facing Los Angeles with a mission to improve education, health care, homelessness and social justice for all Angelenos.

OUR WORK

THROUGH A SOCIAL JUSTICE LENS, THE LOS ANGELES DODGERS FOUNDATION RUN AND FUND PROVEN PROGRAMS THAT LEVEL THE PLAYING FIELD AND INVEST IN SOLUTIONS DRIVEN BY THE COMMUNITIES THEY SERVE.

LADF's youth development program, Dodgers RBI, uses baseball and softball to provide kids life-changing social and emotional learning. As they develop self-confidence and empathy through sport, we unlock access to health care and educational opportunities —as well as provide a place where the kids can feel safe while they play and learn. Dodgers.com/DodgersRBI

To help address the literacy crisis in Los Angeles and get children excited about reading, LADF partners with the Los Angeles Dodgers to execute LA Reads, a literacy campaign that includes a literacy challenge, "Dodgers Reading Champions". LA Reads and the Dodgers Reading Champions are designed to motivate youth to read and help them build a lifelong love of reading. Dodgers.com/LAreads

LADF builds Dodgers Dreamfields to give families in neighborhoods across Los Angeles safe havens and points of pride. Dodgers Dreamfields are game-changers, because revitalized green spaces help revitalize communities, boosting the safety of local parks and providing a place where neighbors can gather, exercise and play. Dodgers.com/Dreamfields

LADF GIVES

LADF is focused on the most pressing problems facing underserved communities today and we invest in proven programs that improve education, health care, homelessness and social justice for all Angelenos. Grant applications are accepted two times a year and LADF takes applicants through a three-month review cycle. Dodgers.com/Grants

The College & Career Accelerator (CCA) is an initiative designed to expose high school students to college and career opportunities. The goal is to use the LADF brand to make college and career pathways exciting. Dodgers.com/Education

LADF's Science of Baseball curriculum provides hands-on Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) curriculum and programming to elementary and middle school teachers and students in Los Angeles. As part of LADF's continued commitment to STEM funding, this curriculum was developed through a grant to Science of Sport, to educate young people and spark curiosity in these subjects. 2021 Dodger Stadium Media Rules & Regulations

In conjunction with Major League Baseball, the Los Angeles Dodgers will adhere to the following media rules and regulations for all workouts and games at Dodger Stadium during the 2021 season. Please note that due to the unique circumstances surrounding the 2020 season, MLB has placed strict rules on access and limited the number of credentialed media for each workout/game. We thank you for your patience as we navigate these unprecedented times.

Health and Safety Screening/Protocols:

For the continued health and safety of all on-site at Dodger Stadium, please be aware of the following protocols:

- Upon arrival at Gate A (Stadium Way and Vin Scully Avenue), Dodger Stadium staff will check your identification, ask if you're feeling well or have come in contact with anyone who is sick, and take your temperature.
- A face covering will be required at all times while on site.

Only standard face coverings are acceptable. Bandanas, scarves, and other similar coverings are not acceptable.

The Dodgers reserve the right to approve all face coverings, and to prohibit or disallow any face covering that the Dodgers deem to be unacceptable or inappropriate.

- Please maintain distancing and avoid congregating.
- Hand sanitizers have been installed throughout the ballpark, and media is encouraged to please wash/sanitize hands frequently.
- Please restrict your movement to your assigned work location, and only use designated restrooms.

Access:

- Media access will begin four (4) hours prior to game time. Media must leave the ballpark no later than 90 minutes following the conclusion of postgame interviews.
- Per MLB rules, access to the clubhouses, field, warning track, dugouts and dugout photo wells is prohibited.
- Media will be assigned a workspace on the Loge Level or a Field Level photo location. Club Level/Level 5 access will be restricted to Club employees with a Tier 1, 2 or 3 designation.
- Per MLB, media will not have direct access to any player, coach, trainer or uniformed personnel. Photographers on the Field Level should also avoid coming in close proximity to any uniformed personnel that approach their location.
- Media is not permitted to roam the ballpark, and must remain in their assigned workspace for the duration of their time at the stadium.

Credentials:

- All media must apply for daily credentials for the 2021 season, previously issued BBWAA credentials and MLB credentials will not be honored.
- Media must apply for credentials at least 24 hours in advance at credentials.mlb.com, and include information on coverage plans in the notes section. Day of game changes will not be permitted. For any questions on the application process, please contact Ally Salvage (AllyS@ladodgers.com).
- Upon credential approval, media will be prompted to agree updated credentials terms and conditions for the 2020 season.
- When picking up their first daily credential of 2021, media will have to sign Attachment E of the 2020 Release of Liability. Please be prepared with your own pen.

Parking:

- Media parking is available in Lot F near the Dodger Executive Offices.
- All media must wear an appropriate face covering during the entrance screening process and while walking through the parking lot to the doors of the stadium.

Media Will Call/Entrance:

- Media Will Call will be located at a marked ticket window outside of the Dodgers' Executive Offices adjacent to Lot D.

• After credential pickup, media will enter the stadium through the Loge Terrace, adjacent to Lot D. From there, media can proceed directly to their assigned locations on the Loge Level and photographers can utilize the escalators behind home plate to reach the Field Level. Inside access beyond Levels 2 (Field) and Level 4 (Loge) is prohibited.

Media Materials:

- All media information will be available online at mlbpressbox.com/lad, and will also be emailed to credential holders.
- No printed information media materials will be available.

Media Availabilities & Player/Manager/Staff Interviews:

• Daily media availabilities and Zoom information will be sent daily. Media is encouraged to follow @DodgersPR on Twitter for last-minute changes/updates.

• Pregame

Dave Roberts will speak to the media after the Dodgers BP session

One Player will be made available via Zoom prior to Dodgers BP

• Postgame

Dave Roberts will speak to the media 10 minutes after the final out is recorded

The Dodgers' starting pitcher will be available after the game along with key contributors to the outcome

Zoom information:

- Media availabilities will be linked to Dodgers.com/PressConference. The password is LAD2020.
- Availabilities will be conducted via Webinar and media is encouraged to utilize the "raise your hand" feature in order to be called on to ask a question.
- Zooms will be recorded and available on mlbpressbox.com/lad as well as in the Dodgers ShareFile.
- Media sessions at Dodger Stadium will be available to Zoom interview sessions will be available live each day via the Switch. The connect port is TW Cable Sports-1 LA, and all networks to courtesy Spectrum SportsNet LA.

Writing Press Guidelines:

- Writing press will be assigned a location at the table top seats at Loge Level sections behind home plate, which include tv monitors, power and speakers for press box announcements.
- Wireless internet access is available via the Dodgers WiFi
- The Press Box will be restricted to only Club employees with Tier 1, 2 or 3 access.

Photography Guidelines:

- Photographers will be permitted on-site four (4) hours prior to first pitch and must leave the ballpark no later than one hour after the conclusion of the game.
- Dugout photo wells will not be accessible. Still photographers can shoot the workouts/game from any of the designated photo positions located on the Field Level, behind sections 23, 25 and 27 on the third base side and sections 20, 22, and 24 on the first base side. Seating assignments will be given upon arrival.
- Photographers must stay in their assigned location and may not roam without prior approval.
- Photographers will be able to transmit from workstation set up across the concourse from photo positions.
- Photographers must bring their own stools.
- Robotic and remote cameras are not allowed in the stadium at this time.
- At no point should a photographer enter the playing field, clubhouse, interview room or other restricted areas.
- Restrooms will be available across from sections 16 (first base side) and 17 (third base side).

Television Live Shots:

- Depending on credential availability, television stations will be permitted to do live shots from the Loge Level. Assignments will be given upon arrival. Credentialed media may remain for the game, and must relocate to ADA seats at the back of their assigned section.
- TV trucks will park in Lot F, pick up credentials at media will call and proceed to the Loge Level via the Loge Terrace.
- Loge Level restrooms are available behind section 119.

Media Dining:

- No meal service will be available. Media may bring their own meals or leave the premises prior to first pitch to pick up, but please note that you will be subject to entrance procedures again should you leave the property.
- Bottled water, canned soft drinks and coffee will be provided.
- Food deliveries will not be permitted onto the Dodger Stadium property.

Wireless Access Information:

- Network: MLB-Press Password: Hom3Run!
- The public Dodgers WiFi network is also accessible throughout the stadium.

Jaime Jarrin

Hall of Fame Broadcaster

Jaime Jarrin, “the Spanish voice of the Dodgers” and one of the most recognizable voices in all of sports broadcasting, has been calling Dodger games since 1959, entering his 63rd season with the club in 2021. In 2018, the Hall of Famer became just the 12th Dodger to be added to the club’s Ring of Honor, joining other franchise icons in having his name permanently affixed to Dodger Stadium.

Jarrin has called three perfect games (Sandy Koufax in 1965, Tom Browning in 1988 and Dennis Martinez in 1991) and 22 no-hitters, 30 World Series and 30 All-Star games during his decorated career. In 1998, he was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY as the recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award and became only the second Spanish-language announcer to achieve that honor, joining Buck Canel. In the 2005 book “Voices of Summer,” Jarrin was named as baseball’s all-time best Spanish-language broadcaster.

The Quito, Ecuador native began working for HCJB in his home country when he was 16 years old and went on to become the announcer for the National Congress of Ecuador, while studying philosophy, letters, journalism and broadcasting at Central University of Ecuador in Quito. Following his graduation, Jarrin hoped to continue his broadcasting career in the United States, arriving on June 24, 1955, and at the time, he had never seen a baseball game. His first experience with baseball was watching the Dodgers on a televised broadcast of the 1955 World Series against the Yankees, and he soon began attending minor league games in Los Angeles at Gilmore Field and Wrigley Field to learn the game. Jarrin was hired as an announcer at KWKW and soon after, the Dodgers moved to Los Angeles. Jarrin was given one year to prepare to become a baseball broadcaster by William Beaton, the station manager at KWKW.

During his first six years with the Dodgers, Jarrin and his partner would recreate games in the studio while listening to the English radio broadcast. Starting in 1965, Jarrin took the Dodgers’ Spanish-language radio broadcast on the road, making every stop with the Dodgers, and rose to become the club’s No. 1 Spanish-language broadcaster in 1973. From 1962-84, Jarrin called nearly 4,000 games - spanning 22 seasons - without missing a contest, before the streak was broken in 1984, when he took charge of all the Spanish-language radio coverage and production for the Los Angeles Olympic Games. On August 23, 2009, Jarrin once again made history and served as the play-by-play announcer in the first-ever regular season, dedicated, Spanish-language telecast of a Dodger game. From 2015-2020, Jaime called games alongside his son Jorge, with the duo forming the only father-son broadcasting team in MLB Spanish-language radio.

Jarrin also worked on international news broadcasts including the funeral of President John F. Kennedy, Pope John Paul II’s visit to the U.S. and several meetings between foreign leaders and Presidents Richard Nixon and Lyndon B. Johnson. He has called more than 30 world championship boxing title bouts for radio and TV stations in Latin America including the Thrilla in Manila between Muhammad Ali and Joe Frazier.

Jarrin received a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame - dedicated in September 1998 - and is a member of both the California Broadcasters’ Association Halls of Fame and the Southern California Sports Broadcasters’ Association, which awarded him the organization’s Vin Scully Lifetime Achievement Award in 2019. His other major honors include La Gran Cruz al Merito en El Grado de Comendador received in Ecuador in January 1992, being honored by the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists (AFTRA) Foundation with an AFTRA Media and Entertainment Excellence Award in 2011 and earning Hall of Fame recognition by the Associated Press Television-Radio Association (APTRA) in 2011. This past January, Jarrin was featured in the 2020 Rose Parade as an honored guest of the Pasadena Tournament of Roses, embodying the theme of “The Power of Hope.”

Jarrin resides in San Marino and has two sons, Mauricio and Jorge. In memory of his late wife, Blanca, who passed away in 2019, the Jarrin Family launched The Jaime and Blanca Jarrin Foundation, which serves and supports charitable, educational and athletic programs in the Los Angeles area as well as internationally.

Joe Davis

Broadcaster

Joe Davis enters his sixth year as a member of the Dodger broadcast team on SportsNet LA. Davis, 33, has been calling play-by-play on Fox Sports’ national coverage of pro and college football, Major League Baseball and college basketball since 2014 and continues to do so while in his role with the Dodgers.

Davis attended Beloit (Wis.) College, where he was a four-year letter winner and two-time captain of the school’s football team, as well as earning a B.A. degree in communications with a minor in journalism. During the football off-seasons, Davis assumed play-by-play duties for the school’s athletic department, announcing baseball and men’s and women’s basketball games on local radio and television and served as the voice of Buccaneer spring sports for his final three years on campus before graduating in 2010.

Prior to his senior year of college, Davis secured a summer job with the Schaumburg Flyers baseball team of the independent Northern League, serving as the team’s play-by-play voice and media relations director. He then moved on to the Montgomery (Ala.) Biscuits, the Double-A affiliate of the Tampa Bay Rays, and was named Southern League Broadcaster of the Year in 2012. While in Montgomery, Davis also worked for the Baylor Independent Sports Properties Network and Comcast Sports Southeast, where he called play-by-play for college football, basketball and baseball.

In July 2012, Davis made the jump to national television at the age of 24, joining ESPN as an announcer for college baseball, basketball, football, hockey and softball and also appeared in spot duty for Major League Baseball on ESPN radio.

Davis resides in South Pasadena with his wife Libby, daughter Charlotte and son Blake.

Nomar Garciaparra

Broadcaster

Nomar Garciaparra begins his eighth season behind the microphone for the Dodgers, serving as an analyst for SportsNet LA's game broadcast and pre-and-post game telecasts.

A native of Whittier, CA, and a graduate of Bellflower's St. John Bosco High School, Garciaparra played 14 seasons in the Major Leagues with the Red Sox, Cubs, Dodgers and A's, posting a .313 batting average with 229 home runs and 936 RBI. He was the AL Rookie of the Year in 1997; American League batting champion in 1999 and 2000; National League Comeback Player of the Year with the Dodgers in 2006; a six-time MLB All-Star; and won a Silver Slugger Award.

Garciaparra attended Georgia Tech and was a first-round pick of the Red Sox in 1994. He made his MLB debut in 1996 and as a rookie with the Red Sox in 1997, Garciaparra hit 30 home runs and had 98 RBI, setting a MLB record for RBI by a leadoff hitter and most homers by a rookie shortstop.

Garciaparra played three seasons with the Dodgers in 2006-08, earning an All-Star selection at first base and helping the team reach the postseason in 2006. After playing with Oakland in 2009, Garciaparra signed a one-day contract with Boston in 2010 to retire as a member of the Red Sox. In 2014, Garciaparra was inducted into both the Boston Red Sox Hall of Fame and the Latino Baseball Hall of Fame in the Dominican Republic.

Following the end of his playing career, Garciaparra worked at ESPN, appearing on Baseball Tonight, MLB game telecasts as well as the network's coverage of the College World Series and the Little League World Series from 2011-13.

Garciaparra was a member of the 1992 U.S. Olympic baseball team and his wife, Olympian and World Cup soccer champion Mia Hamm, played on the 1996, 2000 and 2004 women's Olympic soccer team. The couple married in 2003, and have twin girls, Grace and Ava, and a son, Garrett. Both Garciaparra and Hamm are among the investors in Major League Soccer's Los Angeles FC.

Orel Hershiser

Broadcaster

Dodger great and Emmy Award-winning broadcaster Orel Hershiser enters his eighth season as a color commentator and analyst for the Dodgers on SportsNet LA.

Hershiser, who has been recognized by the Southern California Sports Broadcasters Association for his work as an analyst on both the game broadcast and the Dodgers' pre and post game telecasts, previously was behind the microphone at ESPN from 2006-13 as a color analyst for their Baseball Tonight, Sunday Night Baseball, College World Series and Little League World Series programming.

The three-time All-Star right-hander played 18 seasons in the Majors, including 13 with the Dodgers, who he helped lead to a 1988 World Championship. That year, Hershiser led the National League in wins (23), innings (267), shutouts (8) and complete games (15) en route to a Cy Young Award, and set the all-time mark with a record 59 consecutive scoreless innings (Aug. 30-Sept. 28). He established his place in Dodger lore with a dominant 1988 Postseason, when he earned both NLCS and World Series MVP honors, and became the only player in history to win those honors in addition to the Cy Young Award in the same season. He later received both The Sporting News Pitcher of the Year and Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year awards for his brilliant 1988 season.

Hershiser attended and played baseball at Bowling Green (OH) State University and was drafted in the 17th round by the Dodgers in the 1979 Major League First-Year Player Draft. It was during a game in his rookie year of 1984, that Hershiser was nicknamed "Bulldog" in an effort by Dodgers Hall of Fame manager Tommy Lasorda to get Hershiser to adopt a tougher attitude on the mound.

After finishing his playing career with the Dodgers in 2000 and briefly working for the team, he joined the Rangers as a special assistant to General Manager John Hart in the fall of 2001. He was named the Rangers' pitching coach in 2002 and after the 2005 season he became Executive Director of the Rangers.

He has co-authored or authored two books: Out of the Blue and Between the Lines: Nine Things Baseball Taught Me About Life. Hershiser has two sons, Quinton and Jordan, and two stepchildren, Spencer and Sloane. He and his wife Dana reside in Las Vegas.

Rick Monday

Broadcaster

Former Dodger outfielder and two-time Major League All-Star, Rick Monday is in his 28th season as a Dodger broadcaster and 36th season overall with the organization, including eight as a player.

Monday, who joined the Dodgers' broadcast team in 1993, began his broadcasting career as a sports anchor on KTTV in Los Angeles in 1985, while also calling play-by-play and hosting the pregame show for Dodger games on DodgerVision and Z Channel. He was nominated for an Emmy as host of the Dodgers' pregame show on KTTV's "Dodger Central" in 1988 and he earned an Emmy for Live Sports Coverage in 2001. Monday has also called games for the College World Series and the Padres.

A star at Arizona State University, Monday led the Sun Devils to the 1965 College World Series Championship and earned All-American and College Player of the Year honors before the Kansas City Athletics made him the first player ever selected in the Major League First-Year Player Draft in 1965. He was inducted into the ASU Hall of Fame in 1975 and the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2016.

Monday made his Major League debut in 1966 and, after spending six seasons with the Athletics and five seasons with the Cubs, Monday came to the Dodgers as part of a five-player trade in 1977. He played eight seasons in L.A., and propelled the Dodgers to the 1981 World Series with a dramatic, game-winning home run in the winner-take-all Game 5 of the NLCS at Montreal. Overall, Monday compiled a .264 career batting average with 241 home runs and 775 RBI in 19 big-league seasons, while helping the Dodgers win a World Championship in 1981 and three NL pennants (1977, 1978, 1981).

Monday and his wife, Barbaralee, who make regular visits to various veteran's hospitals throughout the year, reside in Vero Beach during the offseason.

Tim Neverett

Broadcaster

Tim Neverett enters his third season as a member of the Dodgers' broadcast team, and will continue to handle play-by-play duties for a select number of games on both television and radio.

Neverett previously served as the radio play-by-play voice of the Boston Red Sox for three seasons (2016-18) following a seven-year stint as the radio and television play-by-play announcer for the Pittsburgh Pirates. Before joining the Pirates, Neverett spent four years working for FSN Rocky Mountain, including as a studio host for Colorado Rockies games during the 2008 season. He also served the network as a play-by-play announcer for Rockies games, college football, basketball, hockey, lacrosse, arena football, and track and field. In addition, Neverett hosted talk shows for both the nationally syndicated Sporting News Radio Network and ESPN 560 in Denver, Colorado, where he was named the 2005 Best Radio Sports-Talk Host by Westword magazine. Prior to his time in Denver, Neverett lived in Las Vegas, calling games on radio and TV for the Padres' and Dodgers' Triple-A teams as well as Las Vegas' International Hockey League team and the UNLV baseball and football teams. Neverett, who began his broadcasting career in 1985 with Pittsburgh's Double-A affiliate Nashua, also called baseball, softball, basketball, and soccer as well as hockey and skiing during four Olympic Games from 2002-2008.

Neverett played college baseball at Emerson College in Boston, and he and his wife Jessica have three sons: Matthew, Kyle and Drew.

Charley Steiner

Broadcaster

Five-time Emmy Award-winner and National Radio Hall of Famer Charley Steiner enters his 17th season as an announcer for the Dodgers, handling play-by-play duties for the club's radio broadcast on AM 570.

Before joining the Dodgers, Steiner broadcast three years for the New York Yankees on WCBS Radio and the YES Network. Prior to his seasons with the Yankees, Steiner spent 14 years at ESPN, where his responsibilities ranged from anchoring SportsCenter to working play-by-play for Major League Baseball and Saturday Primetime Football. He served as SportsCenter's primary boxing reporter/analyst and also contributed to the Emmy and CableACE Award-winning Outside the Lines series. Steiner also called the 2006 and 2013 World Baseball Classics for XM Radio and MLB International, respectively, and broadcast MLB games live from seven different countries.

Steiner graduated from Bradley University, where the School of Sports Communication has been named in his honor. Currently there are 120 majors at the Steiner School, in radio and television broadcasting, journalism, production, direction, ethics, media relations, digital, and sales. Steiner, who was inducted into the Bradley's Sports Hall of Fame in 1995, also established the Charles H. Steiner Endowed Scholarship, which is given annually to Bradley broadcasting majors.

He began his professional broadcasting career in 1969 at WIRL Radio in Peoria, Illinois as a newscaster, and made career stops in Davenport, New Haven, Hartford and Cleveland before returning to his native New York, where he was the morning sportscaster on WOR radio, while serving as sports director for the RKO Radio Network. In addition, Steiner called the play-by-play for the USFL New Jersey Generals and, later, for the New York Jets on WABC radio.

KIRSTEN WATSON

Broadcaster

Kirsten Watson joins the Dodger broadcast team as a reporter and host, where she will contribute to SportsNet LA's game broadcasts and studio programming as well as pre- and postgame coverage on both television and radio.

Watson previously spent two years as a reporter and host with Spectrum SportsNet, appearing on pre-, post- and in-game broadcasts of the Los Angeles Lakers, Los Angeles Sparks and South Bay Lakers while also co-hosting the network's Lakeshow studio program. She also currently serves as a producer for the National Football League, creating localized content for international markets, hosting its Game Recognize Game series and organizing international trips for NFL players for content and media opportunities to help grow the game globally. Watson also hosted Monday Night Football on Channel 5 in the UK, an international broadcast in partnership with NFL Network.

Following the completion of her Master's degree in broadcast from Columbia Journalism School, Watson was awarded the Stuart Scott Internship-Scholarship from the National Association of Black Journalists and ESPN, where she produced video packages for SportsCenter and NFL Live. Watson also earned her Bachelor's degree from Columbia and was a member of the school's volleyball team.

Pepe Yñiguez

Broadcaster

Pepe Yñiguez will celebrate his 25th season as a Dodger broadcaster after joining the club in 1997, and be reunited with longtime boothmates Jaime Jarrin and Fernando Valenzuela on both Spanish radio and television.

Yñiguez also previously hosted the Dodgers' pre and post-game shows, "Hablando con los Dodgers," in 1993 and covered select Spanish-language broadcasting assignments for the club in 1997 before joining the team full-time in 1999. Additionally, Yñiguez contributes to the Dodgers' Latino marketing and radio sales efforts in recording promotional ads for Dodger sponsors that air on Univision America KTNQ 1020 AM.

Starting in 1992, Yñiguez broadcasted numerous events for FOX Sports International, including every World Series from 1997-2005. In 1997, he called the All-Star Game at Jacobs Field in Cleveland alongside Tito Fuentes and Dennis Martinez. He has also broadcasted the annual Caribbean Series.

From 1993-95, Yñiguez served as the color commentator for Los Angeles Raiders broadcasts. During past offseasons, he also hosted "Central Deportiva," a weekly sports talk show airing Sunday afternoons, on KWKW in Los Angeles.

Yñiguez resides with his wife Rafaela in La Habra, and has four kids, Edgar, Alenrry, Karissa and Jaquely.

Fernando Valenzuela

Broadcaster

Fernando Valenzuela, legendary Dodger and 17-year Major League veteran, enters his 19th season as a Dodger broadcaster and will join Jaime Jarrin and Pepe Yñiguez on the Spanish radio and television simulcast.

In 17 big league seasons, Valenzuela compiled a 173-153 record and a 3.54 ERA with the Dodgers, Angels, Orioles, Phillies, Padres and Cardinals, earning six All-Star selections and tossing a no-hitter on June 29, 1990 against the Cardinals. The Sonora, Mexico native has been inducted to numerous Hall of Fames, including the Hispanic Heritage Baseball Museum and Caribbean Baseball Hall of Fame.

Valenzuela was a late-season call-up in 1980, but his legend grew as the Dodgers' emergency starter on Opening Day, 1981, when he hurled a 2-0 shutout over the Houston Astros. Valenzuela won his first eight starts that season, including five shutouts and a rookie-record string of 35.0 consecutive scoreless innings, with his improbable success sparking "Fernandomania," as fans flocked to see him pitch – both home and road – and baffle hitters with his signature screwball. Valenzuela, who started the 1981 All-Star Game, became the first player in MLB history to be named Rookie of the Year and win a Cy Young Award in the same season, while leading the Dodgers to a World Championship.

Valenzuela supports the club's community and Latino initiatives, and as a result of his continued community involvement, the Reviving Baseball in Inncities Program (RBI) honored him with a Lifetime Achievement in 2007.

Valenzuela and his wife Linda reside in Los Angeles and have four children, Ricky, Fernando Jr., Linda and Maria Fernanda.
