ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims in Nicaragua. The award recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and the Commissioner, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pre-game ceremony at the World Series. Past winners include Jim Thome, Rod Carew (Twins - 1977), Dave Winfield (Twins - 1994), Kirby Puckett (Twins - 1996), Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Brooks Robinson, Al Kaline, Willie Stargell, Lou Brock, Phil Niekro, Gary Carter, Ozzie Smith, Derek Jeter, Albert Pujols, Edgar Martinez, John Smoltz, Craig Biggio, Cal Ripken, Jr., David Ortiz, Clayton Kershaw, Yadier Molina and many more.

The 2020 Minnesota Twins Roberto Clemente Award nominee was Nelson Cruz. The winner was Cardinals pitcher Adam Wainwright.

MISCELLANEOUS BASEBALL TERMINOLOGY

WHIP: Walks and hits per innings pitched = add a pitchers walk total with his hit total and divide by the amount of innings pitched.

QUALITY STARTS: A starting pitcher logs at least 6.0 innings and allows three-or-fewer earned runs in an outing.

TOTAL BASES: Number of bases a hitter gains via hits only...single = 1, double = 2, triple = 3, home run = 4.

AT-BAT vs. PLATE APPEARANCE: Plate appearance refers to any time a batter completes a turn batting. (NOTE: A plate appearance cannot be logged if a preceding runner was out on the base paths for a third out or the game ends with a runner scoring from third on a wild pitch or balk). At-bat refers to any turn batting that does not result in a walk, hit by pitch, sac-fly or sac-hit (bunt).

OPS: A player's on-base percentage plus his slugging percentage. MLB average in 2020 was .740. Major League Baseball's leader was Washington Nationals outfielder Juan Soto (1.185).

CLOSE AND LATE: A situation in which the game is in the seventh inning-or-later and the team batting is either leading by one run, tied, or has the potential tying run on base, at-bat, or on deck.

TIMES ON BASE: Includes the total number of times a hitter reaches base as result of a hit, walk, or hit by pitch...does not include times a hitter reaches via error or fielder's choice.

CATCHER'S ERA: The earned run average of a team's pitchers with a particular catcher behind the plate. To compute, multiply nine by the earned runs allowed by the pitchers for that specific catcher, then divide that figure by his innings caught.

HOLD: Credited to a relief pitcher who enters a game in a save situation, records at least one out and leaves the game never having surrendered the lead. NOTE: A pitcher cannot finish a game and earn a hold.

EARNED RUNS RULE

The determination of earned-runs is as follows:

An earned-run is a run for which the pitcher is held accountable. In determining earned-runs, the inning should be reconstructed without the errors and passed balls, and the benefit of the doubt should always be given to the pitcher in determining which bases would have been reached with errorless play.

Until 1969, a reliever could not be charged with an earned-run if he entered the game after the side could have been retired but for an error, no matter how many runs he subsequently gave up in that inning. Now, runs scored by batters who reach base off the reliever are charged as earned on that pitcher's record. They are not, however, charged as earned against the team as a whole. Therefore, a discrepancy may occur between the total earned-runs charged against a team and the sum total of the earned-runs charged against the individual pitchers of that team.

SAVES RULE

Credit a pitcher with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

- (1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club; and
- (2) He is not the winning pitcher; and
- (3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
 - (a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning; or
 - (b) He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck; or
 - (c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

No more than one save may be credited in each game.

It is considered a 'blown save' when a pitcher who has entered a game in a save situation departs with the save situation no longer in effect because he has given up the lead. If the save situation still exists when he leaves the game, he is not charged with a save opportunity. And, if he has not given up the lead when he leaves the game, even though the save situation may no longer exist, he is not charged with a save opportunity.

DID YOU Know?

...the longest home run ever hit by a Twin was estimated at 520 feet. Harmon Killebrew crushed the three-run blast off California righty Lew Burdette, which landed in the sixth row of the upper deck at Metropolitan Stadium on June 3, 1967. The ball cracked the seat, and was later painted orange to commemorate the event. The seat is now located in the Mall of America — the former site of "Met" Stadium — bolted to a wall in the amusement park, marking the height and position where the ball would have landed in the upper deck.

WASHINGTON / MINNESOTA FRANCHISE

The Minnesota Twins trace their roots as a major-league franchise to the 1901 Washington Senators, but they go back even farther as a minor-league team. The Western League began in 1894 with aspirations of becoming a major league, a status it achieved seven years later. Most of the Midwestern cities were left behind in the transition. For example, a St. Paul team owned by Charles Comiskey moved to Chicago, where it still exists as the White Sox. Several cities, including Minneapolis, had their teams disband and be replaced by ones in larger, eastern cities. However, the Kansas City team, owned and managed by Jimmy Manning, went to Washington and retained its minor-league connection. Manning was the first manager of the Senators (officially the Nationals for many years but more often referred to by fans and others as the Senators) and brought with him most of his players from Kansas City.

The major-league Senators established their destiny early, finishing no higher than sixth in an eight-team league in each of its first 11 seasons, four times finishing in the cellar. As early as 1904 came the quip, "Washington: First in War, First in Peace, Last in the American League."

Washington wallowed despite the addition in 1907 of Walter Johnson, considered by many to be the best pitcher in the history of baseball. Johnson struck out more than 3,500 batters in his career. Several pitchers later surpassed his strikeout record, but Johnson achieved his total mainly during the deadball era, a period that preceded the big swingers.

In 1912 Johnson was credited with 33 pitching victories and helped the Senators finish second, the first time the team placed higher than sixth. Leading the team was Clark Griffith, in his first year as Washington manager. Griffith had been an outstanding pitcher in the 1890s and was a leader getting the American League established, helping to convince more than 100 National League players to join the new league.

Griffith also began acquiring an ownership interest in the Senators, selling cattle from his Montana ranch and eventually mortgaging the ranch to raise the funds needed to purchase a controlling interest. He became the team's president in 1920.

Around this time Griffith took custody of two children of his wife's brother, James Robertson, who lived in Montreal and had health and money problems. Calvin and Thelma Robertson moved to Washington and, although never formally adopted, took the Griffith name. Clark Griffith ran the Senators as a family operation. Calvin and Thelma eventually worked for the team along with the siblings who had stayed with James Robertson. As a 12-year-old, Calvin Griffith was a bat boy for the Senators at the high point for the team in Washington.

The Senators were guided by a veteran and a relative youngster in 1924. Walter Johnson (shown below), in his 18th season, led the American League with 23 wins. The second baseman, 27-year-old Bucky Harris, was in his first year of managing Washington while acquiring the nickname, "Boy Wonder."

The Senators stopped a three-year pennant streak by the New York Yankees and went to the World Series, against the New York

Giants, who had won their fourth straight National League pennant. Those pulling for the Senators included President Calvin Coolidge, who attended the World Series games in the capital. Many fans were excited that the 36-year-old Johnson finally had made it to the World Series.

However, Johnson was the losing pitcher in the 12-inning opener as well as the fifth game, and it looked like he wouldn't get the World Series win that so many were hoping for.

The World Series went to a decisive seventh game, and though Johnson didn't start, he entered the game after the Senators scored two runs on Harris's bad-hop single to tie the score in the last of the eighth. The Big Train, as Johnson was known, again had a shot at a World Series win, one that would give him the championship. The victory, for Johnson and the Senators, came in the last of the 12th when Earl McNeely doubled home Muddy Ruel.

Another celebration came in 1925, although this time it was for only a league championship. Johnson won two games in the World Series against Pittsburgh. However, in the seventh game, he couldn't hold a four-run lead in the final game and lost to the Pirates.

As Clark Griffith worked his family members into the Senators organization, some worked their way into the family. Shortstop Joe Cronin came to Washington in 1928 and began courting Mildred Robertson, who was Griffith's secretary and his niece. Cronin became player-manager in 1933 as the Senators won 99 games to win the pennant although they lost to the Giants in the World Series. Cronin and Robertson got married near the end of the 1934 season. While they were on their honeymoon, Cronin got the word that he had been traded to the Boston Red Sox. The deal included $250,000 from the Red Sox, an indication of how Griffith was always in need of money, to the point that he would unload a family member.

Bucky Harris returned as manager, continuing a pattern under Clark Griffith of Washington managers who had played for the team. In the 1940s, Ossie Bluege took the helm for five years. Bluege was an organization lifer, having played for the Senators for 18 years before becoming a coach and then manager. Bluege became farm director — he is credited with discovering Harmon Killebrew — and then the team's comptroller, a role he kept in the 1960s after Washington moved to Minnesota.

During World War II, the Senators were among teams who cut expenses with Griffith relying on an inexpensive and untapped pool of talent in Latin America. While the Senators scaled back on scouts, one man, Joe Cambria, stood out as Griffith's Caribbean connection, particularly in Cuba and especially after skin color no longer disqualified a player from organized baseball.

Clark Griffith died in 1955, and nephew Calvin took over as president. The Senators were as dismal as ever, and the usual low finish in the standings was commensurate with the small number of fans who attended games at Griffith Stadium.

The Senators had played on the same site since 1904, in a park that had been used by a Washington team in the National League in the 1890s. In March of 1911, the park's wooden stands burned. The grandstand was quickly rebuilt with steel and concrete and expanded over the years. It took the name Griffith Stadium in the 1920s and was notable for a quirky right-angle detour of the fence in center field to avoid several houses behind it as well as for its long distances to left field. Two players — Mickey Mantle and Josh Gibson — hit blasts long enough to clear the grandstand beyond the left-field fence, but it was a graveyard for right-handed hitters. For years, the distance down the line was more than 400 feet. The distance was reduced in the 1950s, eventually to 350 feet, making it more inviting for up-and-coming sluggers such as Bob Allison and Harmon Killebrew.

Even with an improving farm system and the arrival of young talent, Washington continued to lose more than 90 games a season. As season attendance stayed consistently below 500,000, and as other major-league teams were relocating, Calvin Griffith explored a new home for the Senators and finally, after the 1960 season, got permission to move to Minnesota.

The players the Senators developed and acquired — besides Allison and Killebrew, there were Camilo Pascual, Jim Kaat, and Earl Battey — became the All-Stars of the 1960s. Unfortunately for Washington, and fortunately for Minnesota, they did so as Twins rather than as Senators.

DID YOU Know?

...that in 1976, Twins pitcher Bill Campbell went 17-5 with a 3.00 ERA and 20 saves in 78 relief appearances. He became the second player in major league history to win and save at least 15 games in a season since Gagne became an official statistic in 1969 (Dodgers' Mike Marshall won 15 and saved 21 in 1974). Campbell's 17 victories tied the American League record for wins in relief. In 1977, Twins reliever Tom Johnson became the third player in major league history to win and save at least 15 games. He finished the season 16-7 with a 3.12 ERA and 15 saves in 71 relief appearances.

DID YOU Know?

...that only once in their 60 seasons have the Twins won three games in a row by the same score. They beat Boston on September 3, 1987, 2-1, and followed with 2-1 victories over Milwaukee the next two days, all three of which took place in the Metrodome. The Twins have twice lost three games in a row by the same score. They were 2-1 games, July 21-23, 1967, at California, and 4-3 decisions, May 2-4, 1988, the first two coming at Milwaukee and the third at Baltimore.

DID YOU Know?

...that on 22 occasions, Twins catchers and pitchers have combined to nab three would-be base stealers in a game, but only once, on May 29, 1982, have they ever nailed four runners in one game. Ken Griffey, Craig Nettles, Bobby Murcer and Willie Randolph were caught by Twins catcher Sal Butera that day; Nettles and Murcer as part of a Twins triple play.

2021 TWINS MINOR LEAGUE AFFILIATES

"I could not envision a better setup for our club. The tremendous resources and proximity afforded by St. Paul and CHS Field gives us a chance to link our two highest levels of play. The brand new facility in Wichita and what we've learned about the rich history and passionate baseball fanbase there creates fantastic new possibilities in Double-A. The ability to continue relationships with the great organizations in both Cedar Rapids and Fort Myers will help to set the foundation for future big leaguers at the early stages of their journeys."

President of Baseball Operations Derek Falvey

Joining Major League Baseball in modernizing and enhancing its player development system, the Twins this past offseason partnered with four organizations and their respective communities in a new affiliate model. On February 12, it was announced that the St. Paul Saints (Triple-A), Wichita Wind Surge (Double-A), Cedar Rapids KERNELS (High-A) and Fort Myers Mighty Mussels (Low-A) have officially accepted their invitations to become Professional Development League (PDL) license holders. More on the Twins' new affiliates:

ST. PAUL (Triple-A) — After a successful run in the independent ranks, including winning the 2019 American Association title, the Saints will become the 13th all-time Triple-A affiliate of the Minnesota Twins. Since their inception in 1993, the Saints have played 28 seasons of Independent Professional Baseball, while becoming a model organization both on and off the field. Now, the Twins and Saints will enjoy the closest geographic relationship between parent club and Triple-A affiliate in Major League Baseball, as CHS Field is located just 10.6 miles east of Target Field, in the historic Lowertown District of St. Paul. CHS Field was also successfully used as the Twins' alternate training site in the shortened 2020 major league season. Notable current and former Twins to have played for the Saints include current left-handed pitcher Caleb Thielbar (2011, 2016-17), 2017 American League All-Star reliever Brandon Kintzler (2009), and St. Paul native Jack Morris, who finished his Hall of Fame career making 10 starts for the club in 1996.

WICHITA (Double-A) — The Wichita Wind Surge, boasting a new, state-of-the-art facility and a proud history of professional baseball dating back more than 130 years, will become the Twins' eighth different affiliate at the Double-A level and first-ever at that level located west of the Mississippi River. Wichita has been home to baseball since 1887 and has been the affiliate of several major league clubs, most recently the Marlins (2020), Kansas City Royals (1995-2007) and San Diego Padres (1987-1994). Wichita was scheduled to make its franchise debut as Miami's Triple-A affiliate prior to the cancellation of the 2020 minor league season. The Wind Surge are slated to play their home games at the new Riverfront Stadium in downtown Wichita, which broke ground in February of 2019 and features 7,545 seats and an overall capacity of 10,000-plus.

CEDAR RAPIDS (High-A) — A Twins partner for seven successful seasons (2013-19) at the Low-A level, the Cedar Rapids KERNELS will become the club's High-A affiliate in 2021, Minnesota's eighth all-time. "From top to bottom, the Cedar Rapids KERNELS are a first-class organization," Twins Director of Player Development Alex Hassan said. "Over the years, they've been tremendous partners to the Minnesota Twins and an integral part of our player development process. We are thrilled to see that partnership continue for many years to come." Current homegrown Twins including Byron Buxton and Max Kepler, as well as top prospects like Ryan Jeffers and Alex Kirilloff, have traversed through Cedar Rapids on their way to The Show. Professional baseball itself in Cedar Rapids has a long and storied history, tracing its roots back to 1890 with a team called the Canaries.

FORT MYERS (Low-A) — A member of the Twins organization since the franchise relocated to Fort Myers in 1992, the Mighty Mussels will become Minnesota's Low-A affiliate in 2021. Since 1992, the Fort Myers franchise has won two Florida State League Championships, in 2014 and 2018, and has had numerous notable Twins players suit up for the club during their time in the Minor Leagues including Torii Hunter, Joe Mauer, Justin Morneau, Miguel Sanó, Max Kepler, José Berrios, Byron Buxton and many others. "The Minnesota Twins are ecstatic about the prospect of continuing our long-standing partnership with the Fort Myers Mighty Mussels," Twins President & CEO Dave St.

Peter said. "We applaud Mighty Mussels owner Andy Kaufmann and the entire organization for their collaboration on player development and ongoing commitment to baseball fans across Lee County and Southwest Florida."

GCL TWINS (Rookie, CenturyLink Sports Complex) & DSL TWINS (Rookie, Dominican Republic Development Academy)

Under the new minor league alignment, the Twins will retain two Rookie level affiliates, one each based out of CenturyLink Sports Complex in Fort Myers, Florida and out of the Dominican Republic Development Academy in Boca Chica, Dominican Republic. Both locations will continue to serve as development hubs for the organization, with Fort Myers hosting Twins minor league baseball since 1992 and spring training since 1991, and the Dominican Academy site entering its sixth year in its current location.

During the 2020 season's pause due to the pandemic, several coaches from across the country joined forces to raise money for the Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Center's COVID-19 efforts. The plan was led by Tanner Swanson, former Twins catching coordinator currently working for the New York Yankees, and Twins coordinators Billy Boyer and Donegal Fergus. The concept was simple — coaches, tired of sitting at home and waiting for baseball to restart, would jump on Zoom and share their expertise with the general public via a series of Q&A sessions. The sessions were free, with a recommended donation, and the group soon grew beyond the original trio to almost a dozen coaches from multiple MLB organizations, along with additional coaches from all levels of baseball from Little League to MLB. Topics ranged from hitting and pitching to catching and baserunning, and each session lasted anywhere from 60-90 minutes. The movement gained momentum, and as of February 17, 2021, less than a year after the campaign started, it had raised over $26,000 on the official donation website.

"We're trying to do our part and do something to feel like we're helping because it's sort of a helpless time. You feel like you're just sitting around." Fergus told the Pioneer Press in April 2020. "We like to work, and we're wired for the chaos, and so it's been a challenge for us to sit still a little bit more. So we wanted to feel like we were doing something to contribute, and this is our little way to do that."

Another group of Twins player development staffers, in conjunction with Play Ball! Minnesota, hosted a series of Virtual Academy webinars on twinsbaseball.com, aimed at helping young athletes, coaches, parents and administrators with proper fundamentals and form. Each webinar was catered to a different age group, depending on the personnel involved. The sessions covered a wide range of topics, from proper mechanics to drills to do at home and strategies to learn and grow. The sessions lasted just under an hour each, and allowed the coaches to share the spirit and passion for learning and development that permeates the Twins organization as a whole. Coaches and staffers who led these webinars included: Bryce Berg, Matt Borgschulte, Billy Boyer, Donegal Fergus, LaTroy Hawkins, Steve Rosen, Mike McCarthy, Nate Rasmussen, Shawn Schlechter and Ryan Smith.

HOW TO FIGURE...

BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of safe hits by the total number of at-bats (at-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitch, or times awarded first on obstruction or interference).

SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total number of at-bats.

ON-BASE PERCENTAGE: Add the total number of hits, walks and hit by pitch and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit-by-pitches and sacrifice flies.

EARNED RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the total number of earned runs by nine, then divide the result by the number of innings pitched.

FIELDING PERCENTAGE: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors (total chances).

CONSECUTIVE HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive hitting streak shall not be terminated if the plate appearance results in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference, or a sacrifice bunt. A sacrifice fly shall terminate the streak.

WON-LOST PERCENTAGE: Divide the number of games won by the total number of games played.

TARGET FIELD

TARGET FIELD®

The Minnesota Twins moved into their new home, Target Field, prior to the beginning of the 2010 season. The ballpark is a modern architectural expression, a dichotomy of Minnesotans' cosmopolitan lifestyle so rooted in nature and the outdoors. The stone and glass landmark, topped by a metal-clad, sculpted roof canopy, is chiseled into downtown Minneapolis on one of Major League Baseball's smallest sites. The ballpark's urban appeal is enhanced with immediate access to light rail and commuter rail, bridging the site to its urban surroundings and spurring development in the western corner of downtown.

Target Field has proved to be one of the premier sporting and entertainment venues in the Upper Midwest, and one of the most unique, spectacular parks in all of Major League Baseball. Here is a list of features that helped to make it unlike any other baseball experience in America.

MATERIALS

Native Minnesota limestone forms the mass of the ballpark's exterior façade. Glass and metal details punctuate the limestone surface, creating a sophisticated composition. In addition, whenever possible, the ballpark and surrounding areas incorporate Minnesota-native flowers, trees and shrubs.

SEATING

Target Field features one of the closest seating bowls to the playing field in all of Major League Baseball. Seats in Target Field feature more leg room and are articulated towards the field of play. The ballpark features more aisles with fewer seats per row.

CONCOURSE

The ballpark features a 360-degree open main concourse, giving fans an uninterrupted view of the playing field.

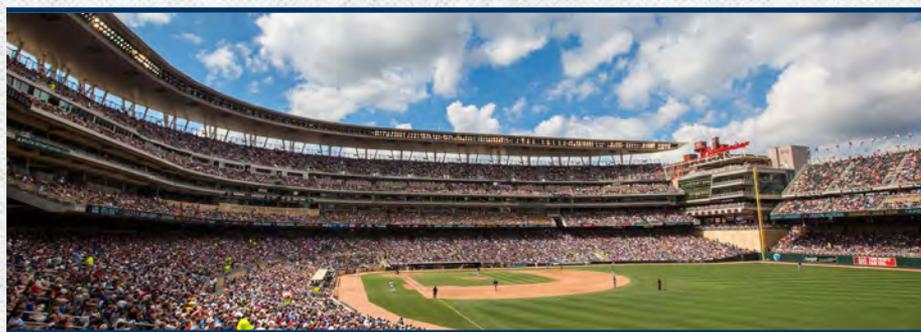

CLIMATE/SHELTER

The Twins are committed to providing a comfortable experience for the fans — even when our weather is less than perfect. Fans are able to take advantage of heated concessions, restrooms, and restaurant and lounge areas found on each ballpark level including the Terrace level. Target Field's roof canopy — one of the largest in baseball — provides added protection, while the revamped Gate 34 provides shelter for fans entering the ballpark's main gate.

CELEBRATING MINNESOTA'S RICH BASEBALL HERITAGE

Target Field celebrates the heritage and history of the game across the Upper Midwest. The ballpark includes tributes to the great Twins teams and players from the past, other Minnesota baseball icons and baseball players, and teams and ballparks of all levels.

Approximate Capacity	38,544

THE “GREENEST” BALLPARK IN AMERICA

In 2010, the U.S. Green Building Council awarded Target Field LEED (Leadership in Energy & Environmental Design) Silver Certification for New Construction, making it the second major league ballpark in the United States to achieve that status. Less than two years after earning LEED Silver certification for New Construction, the Minnesota Twins became the first professional sports franchise to also attain LEED Silver certification for Existing Buildings: Operation and Maintenance. In 2017, the Twins became the first to attain LEED Gold for operation and maintenance of their facility, an honor for which the club was recertified in 2019.

Target Field is also the nation's first sports venue to earn three levels of LEED certification through Arc, the state-of-the-art digital platform that uses real-time data to help benchmark, measure and improve sustainability performance. Arc is the first of its kind to track progress through a performance score, enabling projects to make more informed decisions when it comes to sustainability.

TWINS SUSTAINABILITY STATEMENT

The Minnesota Twins organization believes our future success — both on and off the field — is built on a business model that embraces operational efficiency, environmental stewardship and social responsibility. We honor the power of sport by leading through example, and we will continue to use sport to inspire, build the best fan experience and cause no unnecessary harm, working with our fans, community, suppliers, partners and employees to have a positive influence in the world.

CAPTURING AND REUSING RAINWATER

Through a custom-designed Rain Water Recycle System provided by Minneapolis-based Pentair, the Minnesota Twins have captured, purified and reused more than 19 million total gallons of rainwater, drastically reducing the use of municipal water at Target Field. The majority of the recycled rainwater was used to wash down the seating bowl attached to the main concourse.

RECYCLING AND CONVERTING WASTE TO ENERGY

Through aggressive recycling and waste-to-energy programs, and the assistance of fans at Target Field, the Twins kept more than 12,127 tons of waste out of local landfills from 2011 to 2019.

- 3,894 tons of trash have been sent to the Hennepin Energy Recovery Center.
- 4,592 tons of waste have been recycled from Target Field.
- 3,642 tons of organic materials have been composted and diverted from landfills.

DONATING UNUSED FOOD TO LOCAL CHARITIES

The Minnesota Twins and concession partner Delaware North Companies Sportservice donate more than 10 tons of food to local charities each season. Through a partnership with Rock and Wrap It Up! Inc., representatives from Joseph's Storehouse in Brooklyn Park box up all prepared but untouched meals at Target Field, donating the unused food from Target Field to local charities. Throughout the partnership, the Twins have donated:

- 345,950 hot dogs and brats
- 56,880 hamburgers
- 27,052 chicken breasts

To date, these efforts have kept more than 63 TONS of waste out of local landfills.

TARGET FIELD®

Target Field Station

Opened in spring of 2014, Target Field Station connects people and places, as this multi-modal transportation hub at 5th St. N and 5th Ave. N in downtown Minneapolis offers public green spaces, connections to 500 trains daily via the METRO Blue and Green lines, the Northstar Commuter Rail, as well as access to the North Loop neighborhood. Target Field Station's more than 104,000 square feet of space includes a public plaza for year-round special events and activities, green space, a 1,000-seat amphitheater, office space, retail shops and a 286-car underground parking garage. The Minnesota Twins, Target and Hennepin County offer programming and special events in the public space.

IT PROVIDES a connection for commuters, baseball fans, downtown visitors and riders connecting to other Metro Transit services — including Blue and Green Line Light Rail service to St. Paul, the airport and Mall of America, the Northstar Commuter Rail Line, as well as bus service from the nearby 5th Street Transit Center. Future transit lines and plans to develop a transportation hub will create additional regional connections for Target Field commuters.

THE PURPOSE of Target Field Station is to provide high-quality transit service and efficient access to Minneapolis and surrounding communities. This hub encourages greater use of public transportation within the Twin Cities due to a centrally-located facility, and improved multi-modal and pedestrian connections.

LOCATED on the north side of the park, connecting Target Field Station to the North Loop neighborhood. The name refers to the trolley line that once ran through the area, which is part of Minneapolis' Warehouse District. It connects the North Loop neighborhood with its roots.

THE BLUE LINE runs from Target Field to the Mall of America. The Central Corridor — Green Line — runs down University Avenue to St. Paul's Union Depot.

Renovations

Since opening in 2010, Target Field has undergone several renovations and additions, all done to enhance the ballpark experience for fans, players, staff and neighbors. Below are some of the major renovations inside Target Field over its first decade:

RIGHT FIELD VIDEO BOARD AND TWINS TOWER - Both built between the 2010 and 2011 seasons. Located next to each other behind the right field grand stand. The video board is 28' high x 50' wide. The Twins Tower is 100' high x 5' wide x 11' deep.

RIGHT FIELD PORCH - Built between the 2012 and 2013 seasons, the Twins replaced regular seating in the right field corner and unveiled "porch seating" in an area designed to be an exciting destination for both group and single-game ticket purchasers, similar to the Roof Deck in left field.

GRAY DUCK DECK - Originally built between the 2014 and 2015 seasons, replacing a team store and adding more drink rails. Beginning in 2020, the Twins and Gray Duck Vodka announced a new partnership to bring the Minnesota brand into Target Field with an open-air bar featuring signature drinks, celebrity bartender events and a great view of the game. Located adjacent to the left-field foul pole (inside Gate 6).

DELTA SKY360° SUITE AND MINNIE & PAUL'S - Built between the 2015 and 2016 seasons, the Twins and Populous transformed the center field seating area into a multi-level fan gathering space. The upper level, called Minnie & Paul's, is a Twins-themed pub open to all fans that includes food from Minnesota's own Pizza Lucé and Red Cow. The lower tier houses the Delta SKY360° Suite, an all-inclusive club with access to approximately 120 season ticket holders.

LED LIGHTING - Installed between the 2016 and 2017 seasons, the field lighting was upgraded to LED technology reducing fixture count from 746 to approximately 512. Reduces energy use by approximately 55% for the field lighting and provides an improved look for not only fans at the ballpark, but also for television viewers. LED fixtures were also installed to illuminate the underside of the canopy, allowing for flexibility to change colors as desired.

Renovations, Continued...

BAT & BARREL - Renovated in 2018, the space formerly known as the “Metropolitan Club” was improved to accommodate any fan, making it open to all fans with a game-day ticket. The most expansive renovation to date includes operable glass windows opening the space to the Target Field experience. Additionally, the space features state-of-the-art video elements, Minnesota-based artist murals, and major award history on display.

“LIVING WALL” BATTER’S EYE - Reconstruction took place between the 2018 and 2019 seasons, replacing the previous black backdrop. The Target Field living wall system is the first of its kind for a Major League Baseball batter’s eye and, at 2,280 square feet, is among the largest in the continental United States. The living wall incorporates approximately 5,700 sea green juniper plants, individually installed and secured in a tiered, multiple-tray system. Together, the junipers create a consistent, stationary background without variations in color or texture.

GATE 34 AREA

Beginning in 2018, accelerating in 2019 and continuing through 2020 and into 2021, the Twins have added more than 9,300 square feet to the Gate 34 area, enhancing ingress and egress, while transforming Target Field’s “front door” into a dynamic, vibrant space for fans to gather, eat and drink, play lawn games, relax and enjoy the shared experience of Twins baseball.

EXPANDED CONCOURSE AND DRAFTS AT 34 - In 2018, the Twins expanded the main concourse at the intersection of Gates 29 and 34. This renovation expanded the concourse by as much as 40 feet creating enhanced ingress and egress for fans. It also cut down on congestion and provided fans with premium new drink rail standing-room locations. Also included in the concourse renovation was a tap wall known as DRAFTS at 34, which features up to 22 unique beers from across Twins Territory.

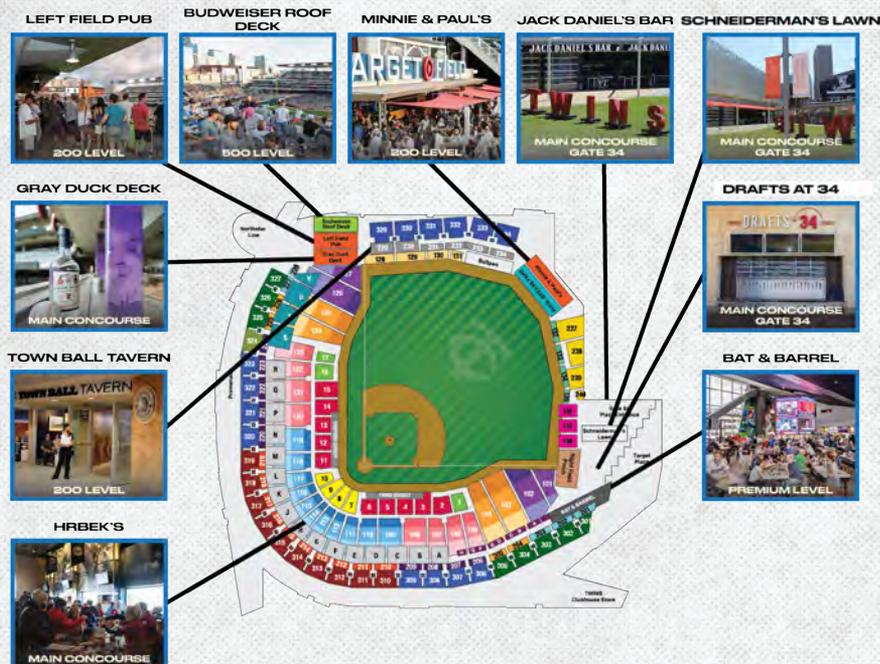

JACK DANIEL’S BAR AND SCHNEIDERMAN’S LAWN - Beginning in 2021, the main entrance to Target Field will be home to a pair of new gathering spots before or during the game. Jack Daniel’s and the Twins are making it count at the new Jack Daniel’s Bar, complete with signature cocktails featuring the world’s top-selling American whiskey. The 5,600-square-foot Schneiderman’s Lawn is an inviting place for kids, families and all fans to kick back and relax on weather-resistant furniture (such as Adirondack chairs, wooden tables and benches, high-top bar tables and swivel chairs); or, to enjoy a game of catch and a spirited round of favorite lawn games such as cornhole.

TARGET FIELD®

Social Spaces

Since its opening, Target Field has evolved with — and for — Twins fans. Centered on, and enhanced by, the action on the field, an afternoon or evening at the ballpark is ultimately about more than nine innings or your ticketed seat. Twins Baseball is a communal experience, meant to be shared with friends, family and other fans in inclusive and engaging areas. From behind home plate to centerfield, from foul pole to foul pole, across all levels of Target Field and open to any fan with a ticket, the Twins are proud to provide social places for our fans to gather and enjoy the game — together.

DID YOU Know?

...that Target Field will deploy WiFi 6 in 2021 after a complete high-tech overhaul. At nearly three times faster than the previous iteration, and with 670 hot spots throughout the ballpark, Target Field's new WiFi will energize a whole new level of digital engagement while enjoying the game.

Health and Safety

Baseball is back, and the Minnesota Twins are planning for the safe return of fans to Target Field during the 2021 season. The Twins and our stadium operation partners are committed to creating the safest environment possible at Target Field for our guests, partners, players, staff and employees. In collaboration with Major League Baseball (MLB), local and national public health officials, and 3M, the club's official science partner, the Twins have implemented enhanced health and safety policies and procedures adhering to requirements and guidelines established by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC). These include, but are not limited to, the following (please note these Policies and Procedures are subject to change, without advance notice, as necessary to comply with changes in CDC guidelines or MLB requirements):

FACE COVERINGS AND PPE - All guests ages two (2) and older, along with all Twins employees and Event Staff, will be required to wear a face covering over their nose and mouth to enter Target Field and at all times while in the ballpark, other than when actively eating or drinking in their ticketed seat or location. Twins employees and Event Staff will also wear gloves, gowns and/or face shields in all appropriate situations, while having health and temperature checks daily upon arrival.

PHYSICAL DISTANCING - All guests, Twins employees and Event Staff will be required to practice proper physical distancing when moving about the ballpark. Signage, messaging and Public Address announcements will help inform, direct and remind to keep six feet apart. When fans return to Target Field, they will do so initially in a physically-distanced seating plan, utilizing seating "pods" of exactly two (2) or four (4) contiguous seats to maximize guest comfort and safety.

HYGIENE - Hand sanitizer will be readily available throughout Target Field, and guests are encouraged to use it regularly.

CONTACTLESS TICKETING, ORDERING AND PAYMENTS - The MLB Ballpark app provides Twins fans with a contactless, single-app journey through key areas of the Target Field experience, from frictionless entry via digital tickets and touchless scanning at all gates, to a contactless process for ordering and purchasing food, beverage and merchandise via an in-app partnership with Venuetize.

ENHANCED CLEANING - In collaboration with 3M, the Twins have implemented a comprehensive system for cleaning, disinfecting and monitoring all common-touch surfaces and high-use areas throughout Target Field. This includes cleaning, disinfecting and sanitization of all in-use seats, railings, drink and food surfaces, elevators and escalators, and restrooms using EPA-approved COVID-19 cleaners and disinfectants, before, during and after each game.

One of the greatest home run hitters of all time, Harmon Killebrew will forever be remembered by Twins fans as the "Killer" for his prolific clouts. A member of the Twins from their inaugural Minnesota season in 1961, Killebrew hit 573 career home runs, 475 of them in his 14 seasons with the Twins, and ranks 12th on the all-time home run list and third (behind Babe Ruth and Alex Rodriguez) in American League history. He hit more than 40 home runs on eight occasions, and 30 or more 10 times, while driving in 100 or more runs nine times.

Killebrew was the American League's Most Valuable Player in 1969 when he hit 49 home runs with an amazing 140 RBI and 145 walks, all team records that still stand. He was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1984, becoming the first Twin to receive the honor. He had his number 3 formally retired on May 4, 1975, and was selected to the Twins 25th Anniversary Team in 1986 and 40th Season All-Time Team in 2000. He was inducted into the Twins Hall of Fame on August 12, 2000 and named one of the "50 Greatest Twins" in 2010.

Killebrew passed away on May 17, 2011.

ROD CAREW

No Twins fan will ever forget the graceful power of Rod Carew's hitting stroke. Nor will any baseball enthusiast ever forget the summer of 1977, when Carew made his determined run at the untouchable .400 mark, because, just as Killebrew embodied the power of the game, Carew represented its finesse.

He was a career .328 hitter over his 19 major league seasons and was the winner of seven American League batting titles, all during his 12 years with Minnesota. Carew hit .300 or better 15 consecutive seasons and finished his career with 3,053 hits, which places him 27th among the all-time hit leaders and makes him one of only 32 players to collect 3,000 or more career hits.

Carew, who won the American League Most Valuable Player award in 1977, was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame on the first ballot in 1991. He had his number 29 retired July 19, 1987, and was selected to the Twins 25th Anniversary Team in 1986 and the 40th Season Anniversary All-Time Team in 2000. He was inducted into the Twins Hall of Fame on August 12, 2000 and was named one of the "50 Greatest Twins" in 2010.

Pedro 'Tony' Oliva Jr., or 'Tony-O' to those who followed his 24-year career as a Twins player and coach, was a man who seemed to excel in all aspects of the game. He could hit for power and average, run, field and throw, and his versatility made him one of the most feared hitters of his day.

Tony-O collected 1,917 hits and retired with a .304 career average. He is the only player to win batting titles in his first two seasons and was the winner of three in his 15-year career. His prowess as a hitter was demonstrated by the fact that he led the league in hits five times and his 220 career home runs rank fourth all-time among Twins. If not for the knee problems that cut his career short, Oliva would have been a certain choice for the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

Oliva, the 1964 American League Rookie of the Year, began his coaching career in 1976. He now works as a Twins hitting instructor at the major league and minor league level and scouts for the club. He had his number 6 retired July 14, 1991, and was selected to the Twins 25th Anniversary Team in 1986 and the 40th Season Anniversary All-Time Team in 2000. He was inducted into the Twins Hall of Fame on August 12, 2000 and was named one of the "50 Greatest Twins" in 2010.

DID YOU Know?

...that Rod Carew (Twins and Angels - 29) is one of 11 players/managers in baseball with his number retired by multiple franchises, the others being Hank Aaron (Braves - 44, Brewers - 44), Sparky Anderson (Reds - 10, Tigers - 11), Wade Boggs (Rays - 12, Red Sox - 26), Rollie Fingers (As - 34, Brewers - 34), Carlton Fisk (Red Sox - 27, White Sox - 72), Reggie Jackson (As - 9, Yankees - 44), Greg Maddux (Braves - 31, Cubs - 31), Frank Robinson (Reds - 20, Orioles - 20, Indians - 20), Nolan Ryan (Angels - 30, Astros - 34, Rangers - 34) and Casey Stengel (Yankees - 37, Mets - 37)

TWINS RETIRED NUMBERS

Kent Hrbek grew up in the shadows of Metropolitan Stadium in Bloomington and was destined to become a Minnesota Twin. The big kid had more fun than most and treated Twins fans to much excitement from the day he donned a Twins uniform, homering in his major league debut in the 12th inning at Yankee Stadium to give the Twins a win on August 24, 1981. He finished his career with 293 home runs and 1,086 RBI, both good for second most in club history.

Hrbek, who was runner-up to Cal Ripken Jr. for American League Rookie of the Year in 1982, made his only All-Star appearance that season. He was most appreciated by his teammates and Twins fans for his upper-deck power, agility and for being one of the best ever to play first base. He is among club leaders in nearly every offensive category, but may be best remembered for his Game 6 grand slam in the 1987 World Series, or for his tag of Atlanta's Ron Gant in Game 2 of the 1991 World Series. He had his number 14 formally retired August 13, 1995 and was selected to the Twins 40th Season Anniversary All-Time Team in 2000. He was inducted into the Twins Hall of Fame on August 12, 2000, was selected to the All-Metrodome team in 2009 and was named one of the "50 Greatest Twins" in 2010.

KIRBY PUCKETT

Considered by most to be the greatest Twin, 'Puck' was baseball's jewel for 12 incredible seasons. He was a hero from day one, when he became the ninth player in history to collect four hits in his first game on May 8, 1984 at California. The dramatic entrance proved to be just the first of many heroic performances leading up to his shining moment on October 26, 1991, during Game 6 of the World Series against Atlanta. He went 3-for-4, robbed Ron Gant of an extra-base hit, and became the ninth player to end a World Series game with a home run on the final pitch with a drive off Charlie Leibrandt in the 11th inning to force a seventh game.

The 10-time All-Star, six-time Gold Glove Award winner and five-time Silver Slugger Award winner had his career cut short when he awoke with blurred vision caused by glaucoma on March 28, 1996. He was later forced to announce his retirement due to irreversible damage to the retina in his right eye on July 12. He retired as the Twins' all-time leader in hits (2,304), doubles (414), total bases

(3,453), at-bats (7,244) and runs (1,071).

Puckett was one of the game's greatest community leaders and was given Major League Baseball's Roberto Clemente Man of the Year Award in 1996. He was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame on the first ballot in 2001 and became the third-youngest living electee in baseball history (behind Sandy Koufax and Lou Gehrig). He had his number 34 formally retired May 25, 1997 and was selected to the Twins 40th Season Anniversary All-Time Team in 2000. He was inducted into the Twins Hall of Fame on August 12, 2000, was selected to the All-Metrodome Team in 2009 and named one of the "50 Greatest Twins" in 2010. Puckett passed away on March 6, 2006.

BERT BLYLEVEN

After breaking into the big leagues at the age of 19, Blyleven would go on to pitch 11 of his 22 major league seasons with the Twins (1970-76 and 1985-88). His knee-buckling curveball, competitive drive and his knack for being the clubhouse prankster are only a few reasons why Blyleven had a successful career.

Blyleven was named the 1970 American League Rookie Pitcher of the Year and was selected to the American League All-Star Team in 1973 and 1985. He finished his Twins career with a record of 149-138 and a 3.28 ERA. His 2,035 strikeouts are the most in Twins history, while his 149 wins rank second.

The winner of two World Series Championships (1979 with Pittsburgh and 1987 with Minnesota), Blyleven ranks fifth on Major League Baseball's all-time strikeouts list with 3,701.

His number 28 was formally retired July 16, 2011, becoming the first Twins pitcher to have his number retired. Blyleven was selected to the Twins 40th Season Anniversary All-Time Team in 2000.

He was inducted into the Twins Hall of Fame in 2002, was selected to the All-Metrodome Team in 2009 and named one of the "50 Greatest Twins" in 2010. Blyleven was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY on July 24, 2011, becoming the first Hall of Famer born in the Netherlands.

DID YOU Know?

...that with the retirement of Joe Mauer's number 7 in 2019, just 10 other MLB franchises will have more retired numbers than Minnesota: New York-AL - 22, St. Louis - 12, Chicago-AL - 11, Atlanta - 10, Boston - 10, Cincinnati - 10, San Francisco - 10, Houston - 9, Los Angeles-NL - 9, and Pittsburgh - 9 (list excluding Jackie Robinson's number 42)

TWINS RETIRED NUMBERS

'TK' took over the managerial duties for the Twins on September 12, 1986. In his first full season (1987) as the skipper, he led the Twins to their first World Series Championship. He led the club to their second World Series victory in 1991, which marked the first time in major league history that a team went from last place one season to World Champions the next.

The 1991 American League Manager of the Year had a managerial record of 1140-1244, which places him first on Minnesota's all-time list in wins and games managed. At the time of his retirement after the 2001 season, Kelly was the longest tenured manager/coach in all of major sports. His number 10 was formally retired September 8, 2012, becoming the first Twins manager to receive the honor. Kelly was selected manager on the Twins 40th Season Anniversary All-Time Team in 2000 and was named one of the "50 Greatest Twins" in 2010.

The hometown St. Paul kid and first overall pick in the 2001 First-Year Player Draft came out of Cretin-Derham Hall High School to play for the team he watched growing up on the other side of the Mississippi River. Mauer played 15 seasons in a Twins uniform from 2004-18, joining Tony Oliva as the only players in club history to reach that particular feat. During that time, the 2009 American League Most Valuable Player was named to six AL All-Star teams, earned five Louisville Slugger Silver Slugger Awards, three Rawlings Gold Glove Awards and became the only American League catcher to ever win a batting title, doing so three different times in 2006, 2008 and 2009.

The former catcher turned first baseman ranks first on the Twins all-time list in doubles (428) and times on base (3,087); second in games (1,858), hits (2,123) and walks (939); fifth in RBI (923) and 11th in home runs (143). He was selected to the All-Metrodome team in 2009 and was named one of the "50 Greatest Twins" in 2010. Mauer was a finalist for the Roberto Clemente Award for Outstanding Community service four times in his career, along with countless charitable endeavors from Joe and his family. Mauer's number was formally retired on June 15, 2019.

JACKIE ROBINSON

Jackie Robinson broke baseball's color barrier when Branch Rickey brought him up to the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1947. He brought a dynamic style of play to the game and terrorized the base paths. Robinson also proved to be an excellent hitter and a superb defensive infielder. He was voted the National League MVP in 1949 when he hit a league-leading .342 and drove in 124 runs. He batted .311 in his 10-year career and set several fielding records for second basemen.

In conjunction with the 50th anniversary celebration of Robinson breaking baseball's color barrier, Commissioner Bud Selig announced on April 15, 1997 at Shea Stadium that Major League Baseball would retire his uniform number 42 in perpetuity. The Minnesota Twins officially retired his number on May 23, 1997.

MINNESOTA TWINS HALL OF FAME

The Minnesota Twins Hall of Fame, which honors players, coaches and off-field personnel who have contributed to the organization's growth and success since the Twin Cities broke into the major leagues in 1961, was created as part of the club's 40th Season Celebration in 2000.

The inaugural class of Twins Hall of Famers, inducted on August 12, 2000, included Harmon Killebrew, Rod Carew, Tony Oliva, Kent Hrbek, Kirby Puckett and Calvin Griffith. The 2001 class included Herb Carneal and Jim Kaat while Bert Blyleven and Tom Kelly were inducted in 2002. Bob Allison and Bob Casey were inductees for 2003, Earl Battey was honored in 2004, Carl Pohlad and Frank Viola in 2005, Zoilo Versalles in 2006, Gary Gaetti and Jim Rantz in 2007, Rick Aguilera in 2008, Brad Radke and George Brophy in 2009, Greg Gagne in 2010, Jim Perry in 2011, Camilo Pascual in 2012, Eddie Guardado and Tom Mee in 2013, Chuck Knoblauch was elected in 2014, no player or non-player was elected in 2015, Torii Hunter and John Gordon were elected in 2016, Michael Cuddyer and Andy MacPhail in 2017, Johan Santana in 2018, Joe Nathan and Jerry Bell in 2019 and Justin Morneau was elected in 2020, but not inducted.

Below is the criteria for the Minnesota Twins Hall of Fame.

Player – Service time of three seasons with Twins and retirement from Major League Baseball. Voting is conducted by a 71-member fan vote as one “member.” All candidates with at least 60% of the vote are elected.

Non-Player – Are elected by a 28-member veterans committee consisting of all living Twins Hall of Fame members, Twins front office personnel and local Twins historians. Those eligible to be voted into the Twins Hall of Fame via the Veterans Committee balloting include owners, managers, coaches, scouts, broadcasters, media and front office personnel. All candidates with at least 60% of the vote are elected.

CALVIN GRIFFITH
PRESIDENT & PRINCIPAL OWNER, 1961-1983

Griffith was instrumental in bringing Major League Baseball to the state of Minnesota. He moved the Washington Senators to the Twin Cities for the 1961 season, providing Minnesota with its first Major League Baseball team.

In his 24 seasons as president and principal owner, the Twins were 1,930-1,887 with two American League West Division championships (1969 and 1970), one AL pennant (1965) and one All-Star Game (1965), while attracting 25,664,104 fans.

Griffith was involved in baseball for over 60 years and was known not only for his keen eye of baseball talent, but for his deep passion for the game. He was a member of the inaugural class of the Twins Hall of Fame, inducted on August 12, 2000. Griffith passed away from complications from a kidney infection on October 20, 1999. He was memorialized in the Metrodome with a row of seats from Metropolitan Stadium. “Calvin’s Seats” hosted underprivileged families at every Twins home game.

CARL R. POHLAD
OWNER, 1984-2009

With the franchise facing a possible move out of state, Pohlad purchased the Twins in 1984. He was motivated by a sense of community responsibility and a feeling that major league sports, particularly baseball, are important assets that contribute to the quality of life in the community.

JOE NATHAN
RIGHT-HANDED PITCHER, 2004-II

Nathan pitched 16 seasons in the major leagues, including seven with the Twins from 2004-11. He finished his Twins career with a record of 24-13, a 2.16 ERA (463.1 IP, 111 ER), 134 walks, 561 strikeouts and a club-record 260 saves in 460 games.

Nathan was named to the American League All-Star team four times for Minnesota and was the closer on three different American League Central Division championship teams. Regarded as one of baseball's best closers for his era, he saved 35-plus games in six different seasons in Minnesota and led all of baseball in saves over a six-season stretch from 2004-09, saving 246 games during that time. Nathan was named the co-winner of the American League Rolaids Relief Man of the Year Award with New York's Mariano Rivera in 2009 after saving a club-record 47 games. The former right-hander pitched for five different teams over his career (San Francisco, Minnesota, Texas, Detroit and Chicago-NL), compiling 377 saves, ranking him eighth on baseball's all-time list.

The Houston, Tex. native was originally drafted by San Francisco in the sixth round of the 1995 First-Year Player Draft and was acquired by the Twins as part of a four-player trade in exchange for catcher A.J. Pierzynski in November 2003. He was named one of the "50 Greatest Twins" in 2010 and was named to the "All-Metrodome" team in 2009.

JERRY BELL
PRESIDENT/FRONT OFFICE, 1987-2014

Bell was named the third president in Twins history in January 1987. He spent 16 years as Minnesota's Chief Executive, helping lead the team's business operations and he was instrumental in the 1987 and 1991 World Championship seasons.

During his tenure, Bell led the effort to ensure the long-term viability of the Minnesota Twins and specifically oversaw the development, design, construction and opening of Target Field in 2010. Other accomplishments include setting an American League attendance record in 1988, when the Twins became the first AL team to attract more than three million fans. He also led the development and construction of Minnesota's spring training facility, CenturyLink Sports Complex, located in Ft. Myers, Fla., which opened in 1991. In addition, Bell became the fourth recipient of the Herb Carneal Award in 2009 as presented by the Minnesota chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America.

HUBERT H. HUMPHREY METRODOME

- » Opened April 3, 1982, the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome was home to the Twins for 28 years. It was the third domed facility in baseball and remained the only air-supported structure of its kind until its demolition in January of 2014.

The fence from leftfield to centerfield was 7' high (plexiglass was above the left field wall from 1985-94, which made the wall 13' high) and the "baggie" in right field was 23' high, including 16' of plastic tarp installed in 1983.

- » October 2, 2004: The Twins and Indians were forced to suspend their game after the 11th inning due to a curfew rule in effect for an upcoming University of Minnesota football game.
- » October 2, 2005: Upon the conclusion of his 50th year of broadcasting baseball, the Twins re-named the baseball pressbox "The Herb Carneal Press Box" in honor of their long-time radio broadcaster. Carneal died on April 1, 2007.

25TH ANNIVERSARY TEAM

In 1986, the Minnesota Twins celebrated 25 years of baseball in Minnesota. As part of that celebration, the Twins held a 25th Anniversary Reunion from July 31 to August 3. The weekend began with a banquet in which the Silver Anniversary Team, voted by fans, was announced. The weekend concluded with an Old Timers game, featuring the 1965 World Series Twins against other former Twins, and a pre-game ceremony honoring the Silver Anniversary Team. Fans were treated to a Camera Night in which they were able to take pictures with their favorite former Twins and received a frameable team poster. Below is the 25th Anniversary Team.

40TH SEASON ANNIVERSARY ALL-TIME TEAM

In 2000, the Minnesota Twins celebrated 40 years of baseball in Minnesota. As part of that celebration, the Twins announced the Twins All-Time Team as part of the ballclub's 40th Season Celebration.

Voting for the Twins All-Time Team was split into three phases to include the fans, Upper Midwest media and former Twins players and coaches. Each group's vote counted one-third toward the final balloting results with the top vote recipients at each position automatically being named to the team. The All-Time Team selection committee reserved the right to name additional players to the final roster based upon overall vote totals.

The All-Time Team took part in an on-field pre-game ceremony on August 12, 2000 and a poster depicting the All-Time Team was given to the first 10,000 fans in attendance, courtesy of the Star Tribune.

The Minnesota Twins 40th Season All-Time Team is comprised of 22 members, including 10 members of the club's 25th Anniversary Team: catcher Earl Battey, first baseman Harmon Killebrew, second baseman Rod Carew, shortstop Zoilo Versalles, leftfielder Bob Allison, centerfielder Cesar Tovar, rightfielder Tony Oliva, right-handed pitcher Camilo Pascual, left-handed pitcher Jim Kaat and relief pitcher Al Worthington. TREASURE ISLAND BASEBALL NETWORK

2021 marks the 15th season that the Minnesota Twins control their radio broadcast rights. More than 90 stations in the five-state area carry Twins games and comprise the Treasure Island Baseball Network. In the Minneapolis-St. Paul market, the Twins can be heard on News Talk 830 WCCO, KMNB 102.9 FM The Wolf and streamed on the RADIO.COM app. The 2021 season will mark the first time that Twins Radio game broadcasts will be made available via a live stream which is geo-fenced to the metro area. The live stream is available for no charge through the RADIO.COM app, website and via smart speakers. Prior to the 2020 season, the Twins and Entercom added a FM simulcast of Twins Baseball on the 100,000 watt 102.9 The Wolf. The move back to 'CCO and Entercom in 2018 marked the return to their original broadcast partner, the Twins home for their first 46 years. The Twins were broadcasted on Go 96.3 for five seasons from 2013-17 and ESPN 1500 for six seasons from 2007-12.

The Twins employ an in-house production team that produces the game broadcasts including pre-game and post-game shows that air on network affiliates. In addition, the network team produces the "Hot Stove Show" that airs Wednesday nights throughout the off-season hosted by pre- and post-game host Kris Atteberry. During the season, fans across Twins Territory can listen to "Inside Twins" which airs prior to Sunday pre-game shows featuring Twins President of Baseball Operations Derek Falvey, General Manager Thad Levine, Twins Manager Rocco Baldelli and other front office staff. This show runs all season and gives fans access into the inner workings of Twins baseball as well as a glimpse through the eyes of the Manager.

In 2007 the Twins, in partnership with the Minnesota News Network, assumed control and development of the Twins Radio Network with Treasure Island Resort & Casino, becoming the first-ever naming rights partner for the network in 2010. Historically, the Treasure Island Baseball Network has been one of the largest in all of Major League Baseball with hometown radio partners bringing Twins baseball to fans across five states.

The Twins also broadcast 50 games in Spanish. Alfonso Fernandez begins his 15th season as play-by-play voice, with Tony Oliva as the analyst. Games in Spanish can be heard via a stream on twinsbeisbol.com and on the SAP channel during Bally's Sports North broadcasts.

John Gordon Award — Twins Radio Affiliate of the Year

Named after legendary Twins broadcaster, John Gordon, this honor is awarded annually to the Twins radio affiliate that demonstrates the best of Twins Territory in its commitment to the Minnesota Twins and its community.

He made his big league debut in 1983 with the San Francisco Giants, with whom he played for three seasons, and was named to both Topps and Baseball Digest All-Rookie teams in 1984. He was acquired along with pitcher David Blakely by Minnesota in exchange for pitchers Jose Dominguez, Bryan Hickerson and Ray Velasquez on March 31, 1987 and spent five years with the Twins before signing as a free agent with Detroit in 1992. He spent his last year in professional baseball playing for the Yomiuri Giants of the Japan Central League in 1994. From there, Gladden was a major league advance scout for the Colorado Rockies from 1996-98 and a minor league roving instructor for San Francisco in 1999.

Gladden was a key ingredient in the Twins 1987 and 1991 World Championship teams. His grand slam in Game 1 of the 1987 Series vs. St. Louis capped a seven-run fourth inning and he scored the game-winning run in the 10th inning in Game 7 of the 1991 Series vs. Atlanta.

SPANISH LANGUAGE RADIO BROADCAST

The Twins will broadcast 50 Spanish language games through a stream on the homepage of Twinsbeisbol.com. In addition to the stream, these broadcasts will be transmitted via SAP (secondary audio program) on the Twins television partner Bally's Sports North. The Twins, who were the first professional sports team in the Twin Cities market to broadcast games in Spanish, return Twins Hall of Famer and color analyst Tony Oliva, and play-by-play announcer Alfonso Fernandez, to the broadcast booth for their 16th season together. All 50 games will include a 15 minute pre- and post-game show.

ALFONSO FERNANDEZ SPANISH RADIO, PLAY-BY-PLAY

Fernandez begins his 16th season in 2021 with the Minnesota Twins serving as the Spanish play-by-play announcer.

Fernandez also served as the Spanish broadcast voice for the Minnesota Timberwolves from 2005-15.

Fernandez has called the action in Spanish for five other professional sports teams including the Minnesota Vikings (2005-09), the Los Angeles Clippers (1993-95), the Los Angeles Lakers (1988-90) and the Los Angeles Rams (1987-91).

He was the first to broadcast basketball in Spanish in the Los Angeles area and has spent 33 years behind the microphone. Fernandez and his wife, Rosalia, daughter, Angela, and son, Jared, make their home in Apple Valley, MN.

TONY OLIVA SPANISH RADIO, ANALYST

Pedro 'Tony' Oliva Jr., or 'Tony-O' to those who followed his 24-year career as a Twins player and coach, was a man who seemed to excel in all aspects of the game. He could hit for power and average, run, field and throw, and his versatility made him one of the most feared hitters of his day.

Tony-O collected 1,917 hits and retired with a .304 career average. He is the only player to win batting titles in his first two seasons and was the winner of three in his 15-year career. His prowess as a hitter was demonstrated in the fact that he led the league in hits five times, and his 220 career home runs rank fourth all-time among Twins. If not for knee problems which cut his career short, Oliva would have been a certain choice for the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

Oliva, the 1964 American League Rookie of the Year, began his coaching career in 1976. He also works as a hitting instructor in the Twins minor league system and scouts for the club. He had his number 6 retired July 14, 1991 and was selected to the Twins 25th Anniversary Team in 1986 and the 40th Season Anniversary All-Time Team in 2000. He was inducted into the Twins Hall of Fame on August 12, 2000, and was named one of the "50 Greatest Twins" in 2010. In 2013, he became the eighth ever recipient of the Herb Carneal Lifetime Achievement Award.

TWINS 2021 TELEVISION BROADCASTERS

DICK BREMER TWINS TELEVISION, PLAY-BY-PLAY

The 2021 season will be Dick Bremer's 38th season as a broadcaster for the Twins. The Minnesota native graduated from St. Cloud State University in 1978. Following his graduation he worked for three years in Cedar Rapids, IA as a sportscaster for WMT-Radio and TV (now KGAN-TV). While there, he began his play-by-play career doing University of Iowa basketball for two years.

He was named weekend sportscaster at WTCN-TV (now KARE-11) in 1981. After two years, he left to begin his Twins play-by-play career with Spectrum Sports in 1983. He remained there until 1985, while also doing Minnesota North Stars games. He rejoined the Twins broadcast team in 1987 and has remained there working for Twinsvision, Midwest Sports Channel and Bally Sports North. In 2013, Dick was the recipient of the Silver Circle Emmy for Broadcast Excellence and inducted into the Minnesota Museum of Broadcasting Hall of Fame.

Throughout his career, he has also done Minnesota Vikings preseason football, University of Minnesota men's hockey, football and basketball, Big Ten basketball, and the Minnesota State High School League's football and girls' and boys' basketball tournaments.

Dick and his wife, Heidi, along with son Erik and daughter Hannah, make their home in St. Michael, MN.

MINNESOTA TWINS MEDIA POLICIES

Please note that these policies are subject to change at any time and without notice, based on constant evaluations of, and responses to, the COVID-19 pandemic by MLB, national/local government agencies, health officials and the Twins. For the most up-to-date information, visit the Twins' Club Content page on credentials.mlb.com. Failure to comply with any component of the policies and procedures will result in a loss of access to CenturyLink Sports Complex and/or Target Field.

HEALTH AND SAFETY

The Twins are cognizant of the health and safety of everyone in team facilities, whether it's Hammond Stadium at CenturyLink Sports Complex or Target Field. Due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, all media are required to bring their own face coverings and wear them at all times covering their nose and mouth while inside a Twins facility, except while actively eating or drinking. Members of the media are required to practice appropriate physical distancing and maintain good hygiene while in the facilities, including frequent handwashing and use of hand sanitizer. Media will also be subject to an entry protocol at both CenturyLink Sports Complex and Target Field, likely consisting of a questionnaire and temperature check. Please note: members of the media who have received any of the FDA-approved COVID-19 vaccines must still follow the Twins' health and safety procedures while at a Twins facility.

CREDENTIALS

All daily credential requests must be submitted online via credentials.mlb.com at least 24 hours in advance of the requested date. No other credential requests will be accepted under any circumstances, via email or otherwise. Season credentials will be issued sparingly for spring training and the regular season, and most media are encouraged to apply for daily credentials. Per MLB policy, BBWAA cards and Gold Cards will be accepted in both 2021 spring training and the regular season, provided cardholders notify the club at least 24 hours in advance of the game they wish to attend. The Twins ask that this communication come in the form of applying for a daily credential, to reserve a seat in the pressbox. Credentials are non-transferable and subject to terms and conditions. Please contact Nina Zimmerman (NinaZimmerman@twinsbaseball.com) with questions about the credential application process.

MEDIA ACCESS

As outlined in Major League Baseball's 2021 Operations Manual, members of the media are prohibited from accessing any area frequented by Tier 1 and Tier 2 personnel. This includes and is not limited to the home and visiting clubhouses, playing field, warning track and dugouts at Hammond Stadium/Target Field and certain backfield areas at CenturyLink Sports Complex. While in a Twins facility, media are required to obey all directional signage, abide by physical distancing rules and follow all instructions from Twins, Mighty Mussels and CenturyLink Sports Complex staff regarding areas they are permitted to access.

PRESSBOX ACCESS

Due to the need for physical distancing, pressbox capacity at Hammond Stadium and Target Field has been significantly reduced for 2021 spring training and the regular season. Media will be assigned seats in both pressboxes, as well as in the auxiliary press area at Hammond Stadium. Media are required to check the seating charts each day and work only from their assigned area. Priority seating access will be given to affiliates who routinely cover the Twins and the opposing team.

CENTURYLINK SPORTS COMPLEX

The Twins will spend their 31st spring training season in Lee County at the recently renovated CenturyLink Sports Complex in 2020. Spurred by their first year in the state-of-the-art facility, the Twins won the 1991 World Series after enjoying their most successful Spring Training camp in history as they posted a record-high 21 wins. In the 30 years, the Twins have drawn at total of 3,531,309 fans over 472 dates, (total does not include 17 replacement games in 1995 - 49,240 fans).

Located south of the city of Ft. Myers near Interstate 75, the CenturyLink Sports Complex is the spring training home to the Twins and their six minor league affiliates. The centerpiece of the facility is an 8,730-seat stadium in which the major league Twins play their exhibition games and conduct some of their daily workouts. The complex also features five full practice fields and two half-fields.

On August 3, 2004, the Twins signed an extension with Lee County for use of the complex through 2020, and on November 6, 2012 the Lee County Board of County Commissioners approved a $42.5 million renovation and a new 30-year lease. Also in 2012, the Twins named their infield drills field "Tom Kelly Field" in honor of their former manager. Combined with the Twins contribution, the total for the renovations increased to $48.5 million. The renovations prior to the 2015 season increased the seating capacity to 8,730 and include a new party deck, expanded gift shop and an outfield boardwalk around the playing field to create a 360-degree walk-around the stadium, similar to Target Field. The plan also renovated previously existing concession stands, restrooms, suites and press box areas. The project was designed by Populous out of Kansas City, MO, with designed assistance by Parker Mudgett Smith, based out of Ft. Myers, FL, and was constructed by Manhattan Construction.

A signature feature of the renovated facilities is the Twins Player Development Academy which includes a 58-room residence hall for players and staff, dining facilities, recreational spaces, meeting rooms, educational classrooms and Champions Hall, a 220-seat tiered theater used by players and staff for meetings, conferences and presentations throughout the year. The Academy contains state of the art technology, Wi-Fi throughout and high-tech video systems for player instruction for both major league and minor league players.

In addition to the Player Development Academy, the entire minor league building was renovated including expanded clubhouse with new lockers for players and staff, new 1,800 square foot training room, high tech video facilities, expanded office space and a new game field for the minor league teams.

The major league facility, team and player upgrades include new athletic training and strength and conditioning rooms, new lockers for players and staff, dedicated dining room space, state-of-the-art video facilities and complete renovation of all office and meeting rooms. The overall project earned the Twins the Ballpark Digest's Best Major Renovations of 2015.

CenturyLink® Sports Complex

Continuing the renovations at Hammond Stadium prior to the 2016 season, Lee County and the Twins added a shade structure along the LF line of the Boardwalk and a permanent serving area on the 4th floor Sky Deck.

Installed prior to 2017, the old scoreboard was replaced with a new full-feature LED video board. The screen measures 18' x 35' and was installed by Daktronics of Brookings, SD. Additionally, the GCL Twins home playing field was named "Bill Smith Field" in honor of the former Twins General Manager and in 2018 a practice field adjacent to the main stadium was named "Stelly Field" in honor of longtime Twins coach Rick Stelmazsek, who passed away the previous year.

The CLSC is home to two Twins minor league affiliates, housing both the Ft. Myers Miracle of the Single-A Florida State League and the Rookie Level Gulf Coast League Twins.

The main stadium was renamed Bill Hammond Stadium late in the 1994 spring season in honor of the longtime Deputy County Manager who was instrumental in getting the complex approved and bringing the Twins to Lee County.

Major league home and visiting clubhouses are included in the stadium proper, and complete facilities for the minor league teams are contained in a building adjacent to their playing fields. Prior to the start of the 2005 spring training, a 6,000 square foot state-of-the-art fitness training room and conference center was built next to the minor league facility.

The major league club's administrative offices are located in the stadium, with the minor league administrative offices in the building adjacent to its fields.

The facility also features a four-field softball complex and other athletic facilities for use by Lee County organizations and visiting amateur baseball and softball teams, plus an 11-acre water-management lake.

The Twins trained in Orlando, FL, from 1936 through 1990 (with the exception of the war years of 1943, 44 and 45, when they conditioned in College Park, MD) and their minor league clubs moved to Terry Park in Ft. Myers in 1990, after headquartering in Melbourne, FL, from 1964-89. The entire organization was united for the first time in Lee County in 1991.

The Sports Complex, an $18.2 million undertaking, was completed in February, 1991. Lescher and Mahoney, an architectural and engineering firm based in Tampa, FL, was the lead architect for the project, with design assistance from Ellerbe Becket of Kansas City, Missouri. Case Contracting Company of Plant City, FL, was the contractor.
