TOGETHER LET'S MAKE

MISSION ROCK

www.missionrock.com

ARTIST'S RENDERING DEPICTING THE FIRST OF FOUR MISSION ROCK PHASES

Located along the waterfront and just south of Oracle Park, Mission Rock at full completion will deliver approximately 1,200 housing units - 40 percent of which will be affordable for low-to-moderate-income families and individuals; 1.4 million square feet of high quality office and biotech research space, including long-time Giants' partner Visa's Global Headquarters; and 250,000 square feet of eclectic, neighborhood-serving retail and local manufacturing facilities. Thousands of construction and permanent jobs will be produced. Historic Pier 48 will be rehabilitated, and a new parking structure will be constructed to serve ballpark and neighborhood needs. Crowned with a greatly expanded China Basin Park on McCovey Cove, the Mission Rock project will enhance public waterfront access with a total of eight acres of open space, and link the neighborhood to the broader San Francisco shoreline and Bay Trail.

The Giants have partnered with the Port of San Francisco, the City of San Francisco, neighbors, and the community on the overall vision for the new neighborhood. In 2018, the Giants selected Tishman Speyer as a development partner on the project. Tishman Speyer is a leading owner, developer, operator and fund manager of first-class real estate around the world.

After a dozen years of community input and city planning, the first phase of Mission Rock construction is underway and on track to be completed in 2022/2023.

WELCOME TO THE CITY'S NEWEST WATERFRONT NEIGHBORHOOD

◀ China Basin Park

The park design offers a diverse array of experiences, employing different architectural treatments for each of its four edges. To the west, an entry plaza welcomes visitors from the urban edge of Third Street and the O'Doul Bridge. A raised grove of trees helps mitigate wind impacts and simultaneously serves as an intimate gathering place. To the south, an engaging promenade connects the park to restaurants, shops and cafes spilling out of office and residential buildings. To the east, a sweeping lawn stretches downwards towards the water capturing dramatic views of the San Francisco Bay and the Bay Bridge. To the north, the park interacts with the Bay in a creative fashion. In the center of it all, a generous Plaza captures the energy of the park and features a small restaurant for casual dining.

Visa's Global Headquarters ▼

The Visa building's design takes its cue from the scale and particularities of beloved San Francisco neighborhoods – the city's steep urban landscapes and the site's legacy of industrial architecture. The 300,000 square-foot 13-story building, with its 360-degree retail at ground floor, will be a coveted place to work and will possess a landmark identity within the new Mission Rock district.

The Beach / Waterfront Access ▶

China Basin Park meets the waters of the Bay in a creative manner with a series of sculpted tidal shelves. A beach and a series of accessible tidal shelves will cascade into the Bay, allowing direct access to the water for play, interaction with wildlife and for launching personal watercraft. Tidal pools will mark the shift of time and highlight the changing water levels, daily with the tides and over time with sea level rise. A beach sits at the top of the series of tidal shelves. The beach and extending tidal shelves are surrounded by a natural setting featuring wildlife habitat. A path to the water allows safe access for kayakers, including those who populate McCovey Cove during Giants games.

Marketplace ▶

Storefronts at Mission Rock will bring together the best San Francisco has to offer – smaller footprints, dynamic viewing patterns, a unique waterfront location, and small business programs to help meet the needs of today's local shops.

◀ The Plaza

A generous plaza sits in the heart of China Basin Park. The plaza will be a popular gathering place and incorporate a small casual restaurant, designed to be a distinctive architectural feature itself.

Greg Johnson ►► Chairman

Greg Johnson is Chairman of the Board of Directors and Control Person of the San Francisco Giants. A long-time Giants fan, Mr. Johnson's family has been part of the team's ownership group since 1993.

Apart from his responsibilities with the Giants, Mr. Johnson is the Chairman of the Board and Director of Franklin Resources, Inc. [NYSE:BEN], a global investment management company with offices in 35 countries managing $700 billion in assets, and serves as the Executive Chairman of the company. During his over three decades with Franklin Templeton, Mr. Johnson has been instrumental in developing the company's overall strategic direction, executing on its strategy, and advancing Franklin Templeton's client-centric culture. Mr. Johnson was elected co-CEO of Franklin Resources in 2004 and served as the company's CEO beginning in 2005 until February 2020. In 2020, Mr. Johnson became Executive Chairman.

Mr. Johnson earned a B.S. in Accounting and Business Administration in 1983 from Washington and Lee University, and his Certified Public Accountant (CPA) certificate in 1985. He is a board member and past Chairman of the Investment Company Institute's Board of Governors. Mr. Johnson is a past Vice Chairman of the Mutual Fund Forum and a past Chairman of the Western district of the Securities Industry Association. He is a current board member of Jumpstart, an early literacy and education organization, and the San Francisco Symphony, and chairs the symphony's investment committee.

He also serves on the board of the US Olympic and Paralympics Foundation (USOPF).

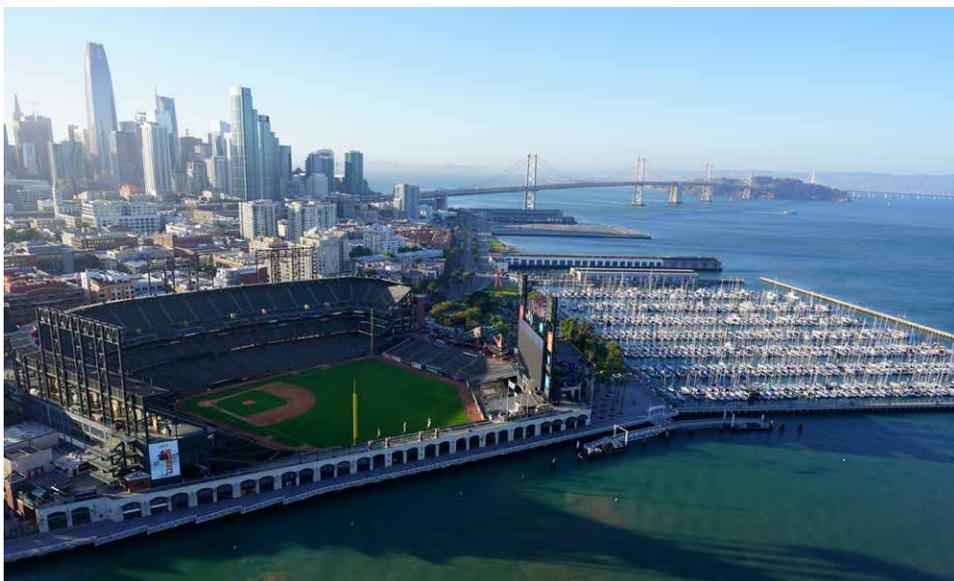

Rob Dean ►► Vice Chairman

Robert Dean, CFA, is the President and founder of Harmony Capital LLC, a private investment management company headquartered in Redwood City, CA. Harmony Capital, founded in 2007, provides investment advice, asset management, estate planning, and various other family office services to its clients, which include family limited partnerships, high net-worth individuals, and foundations. In addition to managing Harmony Capital, Dean is the managing member of Harmony Services LLC, which specializes in real estate development opportunities.

He serves on the Board of Trustees at the University of San Diego, in addition to serving on their Athletics Committee, Investment Committee and is the chair of the Finance Committee.

Dean is also a member of the San Francisco Baseball Associates LLC board of directors and serves on the MLB Pension Committee and the MLB Investment Committee.

Prior to starting Harmony Capital, Dean was a vice president and portfolio manager with Franklin Templeton Investments. He managed the Franklin Aggressive Growth Fund and specialized in equity research of the IT services, computer hardware, and data storage industries. He joined Franklin Templeton in 1995. Dean received his Bachelors of Business Administration from the University of San Diego in 1994.

Larry Baer ►► President & Chief Executive Officer

A fourth generation San Franciscan, Larry Baer has gained a national reputation as one of professional sports' leading visionaries. Baer joined the team in 1992 as the Executive Vice President after he and Peter Magowan led the effort to assemble a new ownership group that kept the Giants in San Francisco. A limited partner and board member of the ownership group, Baer was named CEO on January 1, 2012. In his first year as president and CEO, the Giants won their second World Series Championship in three years. In 2014, the Giants won their third World Series title in five years.

Baer is responsible for the overall day-to-day operations of the organization. Under his direction the Giants developed and constructed Oracle Park -- the first privately-financed Major League ballpark. Since opening in 2000, Oracle Park has been widely praised as one of the "best ballparks ever built." In 2008, Oracle Park was named Sports Business Journal's Sports Facility of the Year, and in 2011 the Giants received Sports Business Journal's Professional Sports Organization of the Year award. The Giants enjoyed a National League home record sellout streak of 530 games spanning six seasons from 2011 - 2016.

Baer also serves as a key strategist and negotiator of the club's major transactions. This includes the Barry Bonds signing in November 1992, the naming rights agreement with AT&T (then Pacific Bell) in 1996, the naming rights agreement with Oracle in 2019 and other strategic partnerships. He led the effort to host the 2007 All-Star Game in San Francisco and was the driving force behind the Giants partnership with Comcast to create the NBC Sports Bay Area regional sports network.

Baer also serves as Chairman and CEO of Giants Development Services, which currently has under construction Mission Rock - a new, mixed use urban neighborhood located on a 28-acre site across McCovey Cove from Oracle Park. Once completed, Mission Rock will include more than eight acres of parks and open space, 1,500 residential units, approximately 1.3 million square feet of office space (including the world headquarters of Visa, Inc.), a parking structure to serve ballpark and Mission Rock patrons, and 250,000 square feet of retail, restaurants, and public amenities.

Baer has served on numerous Major League Baseball Boards including Chairing the Strategic Planning Committee, the Business and Media Board and the International Committee. He is also a member of the Board of Directors of the San Francisco Committee on Jobs, the Bay Area Council, NBC Sports Bay Area and is a member of the Boys and Girls Clubs of America Pacific Region Board of Trustees. He is an immediate past governing board member of the United States Holocaust Memorial Council, appointed by President Barack Obama in 2016.

A graduate of UC Berkeley and Harvard Business School, Baer previously worked in the media industry for Westinghouse Broadcasting and CBS, Inc. At CBS, Baer was Special Assistant to Chairman Laurence Tisch. Baer has been the recipient of prestigious awards throughout his career with the Giants. In 2010, Baer was named the "Person of the Year" by San Francisco Boys and Girls Clubs, and in 2012 he was honored as the Harvard Business School's "Alumnus of the Year." In 2014, Baer was honored by the University of California, Berkeley with its "Excellence in Achievement" award and received the Civic Leadership Award from the American Jewish Committee. In 2019, Baer was recognized by the University of California Berkeley's Baseball Foundation with its Excellence in Leadership Award.

Baer and his wife, Pam, reside in San Francisco and have four children.

Farhan Zaidi ►► President of Baseball Operations

Farhan Zaidi enters his third season as the President of Baseball Operations for the Giants, joining the organization on November 6, 2018. In his second year at the helm, the team finished one win away from their first playoff berth since 2016. The Giants posted the sixth-best winning percentage among all big league teams from mid-August on and enjoyed strong campaigns from Zaidi acquisitions Alex Dickerson, Mauricio Dubón, Wilmer Flores, Darin Ruf, Donovan Solano, and Mike Yastrzemski on the offensive side and Jarlín García, Kevin Gausman, and Drew Smyly on the pitching staff. In 2019, San Francisco's farm system had an overall win-loss record of 415-401 (.509), the 11th-best winning percentage of all organizations, an improvement from 2018 when SF's minor league chain had the 26th-best winning percentage in baseball. Five of seven Giants' stateside affiliates reached the playoffs in 2019, with Sacramento winning the Triple-A National Championship. When the 2019 season began, the Giants had the 28th-best farm system according to Baseball America in preseason rankings. In their 2020 re-ranking, the Giants moved up to 14th. Entering the 2021 season, San Francisco has four players in MLB's top 100 ranking: IF Marco Luciano (16), C Joey Bart (23), OF Heliot Ramos (82) and OF Hunter Bishop (83).

Prior to joining the Giants, Zaidi spent four years as the Los Angeles Dodgers' General Manager, joining the club in November 2014. Working alongside President of Baseball Operations, Andrew Friedman, Zaidi helped pilot the Dodgers to four consecutive division titles while advancing to the National League Championship Series from 2016-18, and the World Series from 2017-18. The Dodgers posted one of the best seasons in club history in 2017, when the team established a Los Angeles record with a MLB-best 104 wins and won the National League pennant, earning recognition from Baseball America as its Organization of the Year.

During his time in Los Angeles, the Dodgers drafted and developed notable players such as Walker Buehler (2015), Tony Gonsolin, Gavin Lux, Dustin May and Will Smith (2016); traded for Kike Hernandez (2014), Chris Taylor, Rich Hill (2016), Tony Watson, Yu Darvish (2017), Manny Machado and David Freese (2018); and signed Kenta Maeda (2015) and Max Muncy (2017) as free agents. Los Angeles posted the second-best winning percentage in all of baseball (.584, 379-270) during Zaidi's four-year stint.

Prior to his work with the Dodgers, Zaidi spent 10 seasons with the Oakland A's. He started as a baseball operations analyst in 2005 before being promoted to Director of Baseball Operations in 2009 and Assistant General Manager/Director of Baseball Operations in 2014. A's General Manager Billy Beane credited Zaidi as playing a key role in the signing of Cuban outfielder and two-time All-Star Yoenis Céspedes in 2012. During Zaidi's tenure with the A's, the team reached the postseason four times, including three straight seasons from 2012-14.

Before entering baseball, Zaidi served as business development associate for Small World Media, the fantasy sports division of The Sporting News, and also worked as a management consultant for the Boston Consulting Group. Zaidi earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Economics from Massachusetts Institute of Technology in 1998. While at MIT, he was named a Burchard Scholar and elected to Phi Beta Kappa. He completed his Ph.D in Economics from the University of California, Berkeley in 2011.

Scott Harris ►► General Manager

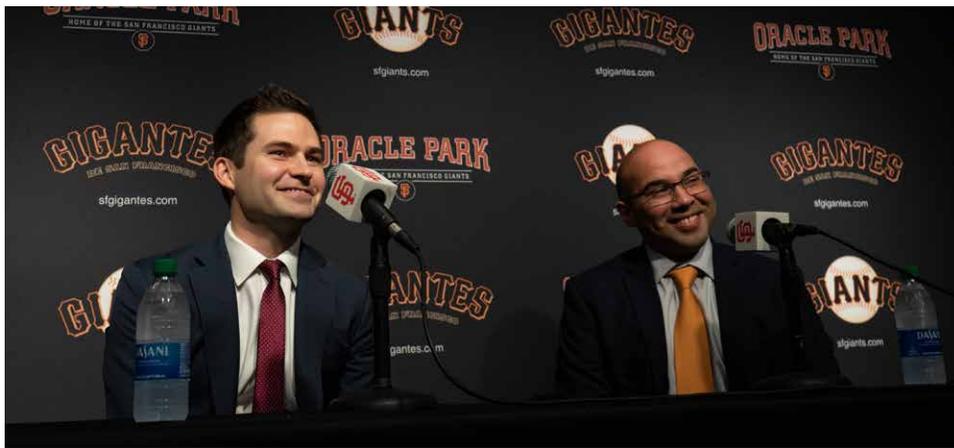

Scott Harris is in his second season as the General Manager for the Giants, joining the organization on November 10, 2019. Harris is the ninth person to hold the title of General Manager for the Giants since the team moved to San Francisco in 1958, joining Chub Feeney (1947-1969), Horace Stoneham (1970-1975), Spec Richardson (1976-1981), Tom Haller (1981-1985), Al Rosen (1986-1992), Bob Quinn (1993-1996), Brian Sabean (1996-2015) and Bobby Evans (2015-2018).

Prior to joining the Giants, Harris spent seven years working in the Chicago Cubs' Baseball Operations department, most recently serving as Assistant General Manager. Under Cubs President Theo Epstein and GM Jed Hoyer, he assisted in all potential player acquisitions, contract and trade negotiations, and player evaluations while overseeing several departments including research and development and high performance.

During his stint in Chicago, the Cubs reached the postseason in four consecutive seasons from 2015-2018 and ended a 108-year World Series drought by beating the Cleveland Indians in 2016.

Harris started with the Cubs in 2012 as Director of Baseball Operations after serving two years at Major League Baseball as the league's Coordinator of Major League Operations. With Major League Baseball, he provided transaction support and analysis to all 30 clubs and worked on the First-Year Player Draft, the Rule 5 Draft, the World Baseball Classic and various industry studies within the league office. Harris also worked for the Washington Nationals in 2008 and the Cincinnati Reds in 2010.

A native of Redwood City, California, Harris attended Columbia Business School while working at Major League Baseball and later transferred to Northwestern's Kellogg School of Management to complete his MBA in 2015. He also graduated from UCLA in 2009 with a Bachelor's Degree in Economics and studied at the London School of Economics in 2007.

President of Baseball Operations Farhan Zaidi introduces GM Scott Harris on November 11, 2019 at Oracle Park.

Administration

Mario Alioto ►► Executive Vice President, Business Operations

Mario Alioto, a member of the Giants Executive Committee, is responsible for key revenue areas of the organization and all marketing functions. This includes ticket sales, promotions, special events, branding and advertising, content and entertainment, and retail. He also oversees the relationship with the team's concessionaire Bon Appetit, and the organization's TV and radio partners NBC Sports Bay Area, NBC Bay Area and KNBR 680 AM and 104.5 FM.

When Oracle Park opened in 2000, Alioto was responsible for overseeing a record breaking sales strategy that continues to place the Giants as one of the top sponsorship generating teams in all of Major League Baseball. Over the past eight seasons, Alioto has also led the effort that has attracted more than 26 million fans through the turnstiles, and is a key member of the leadership team that is responsible for making the ballpark experience at Oracle Park one of the best in professional sports.

Alioto served as Vice President, Sales & Marketing during the Giants' final years at Candlestick Park. He oversaw a promotional lineup in 1999 that included the first ever bobblehead promotion, which has since become one of the most popular premium items in professional sports. Alioto also played an integral role in developing the Charter Seat program and Winner's Circle sponsorship program as the Giants prepared to build Oracle Park.

Alioto is a board member and Chairman Emeritus of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, the Chairman of the Board of the Bay Area Sports Hall of Fame, and a committee member of A Chance in Life.

The St. Mary's graduate lived out every youngster's dream by starting with the organization as a batboy in 1973 and later served as visiting clubhouse manager prior to moving to the front office in 1983.

Alioto and his wife, Kelly, live in the East Bay and have four children.

Jack F. Bair ►► Executive Vice President & Chief Legal Officer

Jack Bair has served as a trusted counselor and key strategist to the San Francisco Giants baseball team since January 1993. As he enters his 29th season with the Giants, Bair has made his mark on many aspects of the organization. He is responsible for all of the team's legal matters and for managing the team's many and complex relations with the City & County of San Francisco and other governmental entities. Bair also serves as President of Giants Development Services, the wholly-owned subsidiary of the San Francisco Giants responsible for real estate matters, including the planned Mission Rock Project currently under construction just south of Oracle Park. Bair also led the effort to develop the team's international headquarters and player development facility in the Dominican Republic.

Bair played a critical role in the Giants successful effort to develop a new ballpark in downtown San Francisco. Bair coordinated the effort to select the site for the new ballpark and contributed significantly to the ballpark's architectural design. Bair was the Giants liaison and chief spokesperson for the successful 1996 ballpark campaign. Bair also negotiated the business transaction with the City and coordinated the successful effort to gain all of the local, regional, state and federal governmental approvals necessary for the ballpark to meet its timetable for Opening Day in April of 2000.

Bair serves as an officer of the Giants Community Fund and co-founded the San Francisco Neighborhood Theater Foundation and continues to serve as an officer and member of the Board of Directors. Bair also co-founded and co-directs the Mostly British Film Festival in San Francisco. Throughout his tenure with the Giants, Bair has been very active in the community, serving as a volunteer on several non-profit boards, including the Bay Area Sports Organizing Committee, the San Francisco Planning & Urban Research Association, the Bayview Hunters Point YMCA, the Telegraph Hill Neighborhood Center and most recently, The Olympic Club. Bair is a graduate of the University of California, Davis and Yale Law School.

Alfonso Felder ►► Executive Vice President, Administration

Alfonso Felder, who enters his 26th season in the Giants front office, oversees the Ballpark Operations, Event Strategy and Services, Guest Services and Giants Enterprises departments. Felder is also responsible for the Giants' City of Scottsdale spring training operations in Arizona where he manages the Giants relationship with the City of Scottsdale and the development of the Giants new minor league training complex at Papago Park in Phoenix (scheduled to be complete in 2022). Felder works with the Giants' executive team to lead strategic organizational initiatives and is actively engaged in the Mission Rock development.

Felder began his front office career at Candlestick Park where he was a key player in the planning and construction of Oracle Park. Felder oversaw the development of the original transportation plan for the ballpark and is now responsible for assuring the continued operational success of Oracle Park. Felder manages the Giants capital improvements at the ballpark encompassing a wide range of projects including the new bleacher bullpens, the Gotham Club and the Garden at Oracle Park. Felder was the point person for hosting the Major League Baseball All-Star Game in 2007 and the World Baseball Classic in 2006 (Scottsdale) and in 2013 (San Francisco).

Felder's first job was as a 16-year-old Giants usher at Candlestick Park. He attended UC Berkeley and graduated from Harvard. Felder is also a graduate of the City Year national service program (Boston). He is the President and co-founder of the San Francisco Neighborhood Theater Foundation, the non-profit behind the Vogue Theatre, the Balboa Theatre and San Francisco's longest running outdoor film series. Felder resides in San Francisco with his wife Tara, and sons, Leo and Max.

Brian R. Sabean ►► Executive Vice President

Brian Sabean begins his 29th season with the San Francisco Giants. In 2019, he transitioned into a new role as Executive Vice President, working on strategic initiatives as a senior advisor and evaluator.

As head of the baseball division from 1997-2018, Sabean oversaw the most successful era in the club's history, including three World Championships (2010, 2012, 2014), four National League pennants (2002, 2010, 2012, 2014), five NL West Division flags (1997, 2000, 2003, 2010 and 2012) and three Wild Card entries (2002, 2014, 2016). During this stretch, the Giants joined the Cardinals and Yankees as one of only three teams in the Major Leagues to have been to the World Series four-or-more times.

Under Sabean, the organization was named the Topps Organization of the Year in both 2009 and 2011 and the Baseball America Organization of the Year in 2010 for outstanding performance, depth and talent throughout the Major and Minor league teams.

In 2003, Sabean was named MLB Executive of the Year by both The Sporting News and Baseball America. Baseball America named him Executive of the Year again in 2012 following the Giants' second World Series championship in three years. He also was awarded the 2010 Major League Baseball Executive of the Year by the Boston Chapter of the BBWAA. In 2018, Sabean received the John Schuerholz Longevity Achievement Award.

Prior to joining the Giants, Sabean played a vital role in developing the Yankees' farm system into one of baseball's finest. During his eight-year tenure with the Yankees, he held several positions, including Director of Scouting from 1986-90 and Vice President of Player Development/Scouting from 1990-92.

A graduate of Eckerd College, Sabean began his career in coaching at the collegiate level. From 1983-84, he served as the head coach at University of Tampa, compiling a 61-36 record and making the school's first-ever appearance in an NCAA regional tournament in 1984.

Sabean and his wife, Amanda, have two sons, Aidan and Declan. They are also the proud dad and stepmom to Colin, Sean, Brendan and Darren.

Staci A. Slaughter ▶▶ Executive Vice President, Communications & Senior Advisor to the CEO

Staci Slaughter serves as a member of the organization's executive committee and oversees media relations, public affairs, marketing communications programs, crisis communications and community outreach activities on behalf of the organization. In addition to overseeing the Club's communications strategy, Slaughter helps manage the organization's major public events, including the media operations for the 2007 All-Star Game, the public relations efforts surrounding the development and opening of Oracle Park and the 2010, 2012 and 2014 World Series games and parades. Slaughter is also responsible for the Giants' charitable endeavors including the 100% Player Participation program and the Giants Community Fund. Under her leadership, the Giants were named the 2016 Sports Humanitarian Team of the Year by ESPN.

In 2012, Slaughter received Major League Baseball's Robert O. Fishel Award for ethics, professionalism and humanitarianism and was named a Sports Business Journal Game Changer. In 2017, Slaughter received a Most Influential Women in Business award from the SF Business Times and was named a Sports Business Journal Power Player.

Prior to joining the Giants in 1996, Slaughter was press secretary to former San Francisco Mayor Frank Jordan, where she served as his primary spokesperson, media liaison and speechwriter.

Slaughter serves on the boards of trustees of the Golden Gate National Parks Conservancy, USA Gymnastics, Lick-Wilmerding High School and the Baseball Assistance Team (B.A.T.). Slaughter was recently appointed to the board of directors of JMP Group LLC, an investment banking and alternative asset management firm.

A University of California, Berkeley graduate, Slaughter lives in San Francisco with her husband, Jamie and their two sons, Jake and Ben.

Jorge Costa ▶▶ Senior Vice President & Chief Venue Officer, Oracle Park

Jorge Costa enters his 33rd year with the Giants. Costa oversees all operations staff and event personnel, which includes First Aid, security, guest services, groundskeepers, parking, janitorial and engineering. He also serves as the team's liaison to local, state, and federal law enforcement agencies.

Under Costa's direction, the Giants implemented the TEAM (Techniques for Effective Alcohol Management) program in 1989 and became pioneers in venue management by being the first professional sports team to create a Traffic Safety Day in 1990. Because of his continued growth of safety and alcohol awareness programs, Costa has been bestowed numerous awards such as the Superior Achievement Award from the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration and was named a charter member of the Designated Driver Advisory Committee.

Costa has been instrumental in Oracle Park's LEED Certification success. The park earned Silver Certification in 2010, Gold in 2015 and finally Platinum in 2019. Oracle Park is the only MLB Park to achieve this level of greening sustainability excellence. In addition, in 2019 MLB named the Giants as the recipient of the 2019 Green Glove Award securing the Club's 11th Green Glove Award in 12 seasons. During the COVID-19 pandemic Costa guided Oracle Park to become the first MLB stadium to receive ISSA's GBAC accreditation, certifying that the park is adhering to the gold standard for prepared facilities in cleaning, disinfecting and infectious disease prevention.

Prior to his tenure with the Giants, the St. Mary's College graduate served as Commissioner Peter Ueberroth's West Coast liaison for stadium operations and security, and was Director of Operations for eight years at the Oakland Coliseum. Costa has also worked dozens of world-class international events as a venue operator. These events include the Melbourne Cricket Grounds in 1988, baseball venues in Spain for the 1992 Olympics, Stanford Stadium for the 1994 FIFA World Cup, the first international regular season baseball game in Monterrey, Mexico in 1996, the Pan-American Games in Rio de Janeiro in 2007 and the Olympics in Beijing, China in 2008. In 2012, Costa operated the World Baseball Classic Qualifier in Regensburg, Germany followed by hosting the 2013 World Baseball Classic Finals at Oracle Park. Most recently, Costa worked the inaugural MLB London Series in 2019 at London Stadium.

Shana Daum ►► Senior Vice President, Public Affairs & Community Relations

Shana Daum is entering her 23rd season with the Giants. She initially joined the Giants in 1999 to assist with the public relations efforts during the final construction phase of Oracle Park as well as its opening celebrations. Since 2001, she has overseen public affairs and community relations, and is responsible for community outreach, partnerships and initiatives; business public relations, communications strategy and media activities; and player, alumni and family relations. She also works in collaboration with the Giants Community Fund to support the organization's flagship community program Junior Giants. Daum has played an integral role in many of the organization's ceremonies, celebrations and awareness events including Until There's A Cure Day, Strike Out Violence Day, Girls Day, Opening Day festivities, Wall of Fame inductions, World Series Trophy tours and Bochy's farewell. She has been a member of the Giants DE&I Council since 2017 and in June of 2020 became co-chair of a reconvened and reorganized Council of 26 members who have led the organization through some of its most challenging times in confronting social injustices and working to create a more diverse, equitable and inclusive workplace for Giants employees.

Daum's career in sports media and public relations spans three decades and includes stops with three professional Bay Area teams before joining the Giants, including the Golden State Warriors, San Francisco Spiders (International Hockey League) and San Jose Lasers (American Basketball League).

She is a graduate of the University of California, Davis and received her Master's in Sport Management from the University of San Francisco. Daum serves on the board of Bishop O'Dowd High School and is a member of Multiplying Good/Jefferson Awards Students In Action Bay Area Advisory Board.

Daum lives in Oakland with her husband, Rick, and their daughters, Eleanor and Grace.

Sara Grauf ►► Senior Vice President, Event Strategy & Services

Sara Grauf oversees event strategy and services for the Giants organization. She played an integral role in the production of the organization's three World Series celebrations and managed the first-ever commercial spectator program for the America's Cup. Grauf recently led the organization's effort to secure and produce the 2018 Rugby Sevens World Cup, which the Giants hosted at Oracle Park in July of 2018. In 2010, Grauf initiated the Giant Race, which has evolved into an annual health and wellness initiative for the club, operating in four cities and drawing 20,000 participants to the San Francisco events. In addition to her event responsibilities, Grauf oversees the club's spring training operations and is engaged in open space design and programming for the Mission Rock development.

Grauf began her career with the Giants 21 years ago, interning for the club's community relations department. She is a graduate of the University of California, Berkeley, Past International President of the International Live Events Association, a member of the Board of Directors for Leadership San Francisco and serves on the board of Experience Scottsdale and the marketing committee for San Francisco Travel.

Grauf lives in Walnut Creek with her husband, Dietmar, and their sons, Kyle and Brady.

Jose Martín ►► Senior Vice President & Chief People Officer

Jose Martín is entering his third season leading the club's global Human Resources function. He brings over 25 years of progressive human resources experience distinguishing himself as a global multifaceted executive who works in close partnership with Leadership teams to develop and operationalize creative people strategies and initiatives. He's held senior global roles at the United States Olympic Committee, Yelp, Electronic Arts (EA) and Adobe, where he was a principal architect in shaping global talent management systems and mission-driven cultures, and oversaw the integration of numerous company acquisitions.

A graduate from the School of Business at San Francisco State University, Martín lives in San Francisco with his wife, Nicole, daughter, Dahlia and son, Sebastian.

Lisa Pantages ▶▶ Senior Vice President & Chief Financial Officer

Lisa Pantages enters her 19th season with the Giants organization and currently serves as Senior Vice President & Chief Financial Officer overseeing the company's financial affairs. She joined the company in 2003 as the Vice President of Finance after 16 years at Deloitte & Touche in its San Francisco office serving such clients as the Giants, the San Francisco 49ers, and the MLB Authentication program. As a member of Deloitte's team, she worked with the Giants CFO in the efforts to secure financing to save the team from moving to Tampa in 1993. She spent her first 11 seasons overseeing the daily financial operations of the club and its affiliates, including all general accounting activities, financial reporting, budgets and payroll.

Pantages serves as the Treasurer of the Giants Community Fund and a member of the Board of Directors of The Marine Mammal Center in Sausalito.

The fourth generation San Franciscan is a graduate of San Francisco State University with both a Bachelors in Accounting and Masters in Business Administration - Finance.

Jason Pearl ▶▶ Senior Vice President & Chief Business Development Officer

Jason Pearl, in his 29th season with the Giants, oversees the organization's business development efforts. He works cross-departmentally to consider and pursue business opportunities with a specific focus on corporate marketing partnerships, the Mission Rock real estate development, the G-Tech investment portfolio and other non-traditional revenue generating programs.

The San Rafael, CA native started his career with the Giants in the ticket office in 1993, before moving his focus to corporate sponsorship within the marketing department in 1994. He played an integral role in developing the original naming rights agreement with Pacific Bell as well as the creation of the Winner's Circle sponsorship model as part of the funding strategy to build the privately financed ballpark. More recently, Pearl led the negotiations on the new 20-year naming rights agreement with Oracle that began in 2019. In addition to his business development responsibilities, he oversees the organization's Hispanic marketing, broadcast and outreach efforts, and the business relationship with the team's flagship radio station, KNBR.

Pearl has been a longtime supporter of the non-profit social enterprise, Juma Ventures, and currently serves as Vice Chairman of Juma's National Board of Directors.

A 1991 graduate of Cornell University, Pearl lives in San Francisco with his wife, Nikki, daughter, Ella, son, Ruben and their two dogs, Redmond and Juniper.

Stephen Revetria ▶▶ President, Giants Enterprises

Stephen Revetria oversees the strategy and vision for Giants Enterprises, dedicated to the curation and development of new ventures beyond the Major League Baseball franchise. Currently in his 22nd year, Revetria is focused on the creation of larger-than-life experiences for millions through increased visibility and use of Oracle Park, Pier 48, Lot A, The Gotham & Cloud Clubs, The Giant Race Series and Giants Maritime Services.

Revetria played an integral role in the development and creation of the first dedicated full-time events team at a Major League ballpark. Under his direction, Giants Enterprises has received international recognition for the execution of its events during the 2007 All-Star Game and the 2010, 2012 and 2014 World Series, including the Official World Series Galas and ticker-tape parades.

Revetria currently serves on a number of industry Boards including the Executive Committee of U.S. Travel Association; as Chairman of Meeting Professionals International; as a member of the U.S. Department of Commerce Travel and Tourism Advisory Board and a Trustee at the University of San Francisco.

In July 2018, Giants Enterprises hosted Rugby World Cup Sevens at Oracle Park, marking the first time this tournament was held on American soil. The tournament featured 40 teams from 28 countries, making it the largest rugby event ever to be held in the U.S. Over the course of the tournament, more than 100,000 fans poured into Oracle Park, making it the highest-attended rugby event in U.S. history.

In April of 2020 Revetria was appointed by Governor Newsom to serve on California's Task Force on Business and Jobs Recovery which focused on the long-term recovery of the state during COVID-19. A recipient of the distinguished Peter Goldman Award from the Hotel Council of San Francisco in 2018, Revetria is also a past-Chair of the San Francisco Travel Association as well as the Meeting Professionals International Foundation and past-President of the International Special Events Society of Northern California and The Guardsmen of San Francisco.

Bill Schlough ►► Senior Vice President & Chief Information Officer

Since Bill Schlough's arrival in 1999, the Giants have been recognized as one of the most innovative teams in sports, playing a pioneering role in the world of mobile connectivity, video, ticketing and payment systems. The Giants were the first team to provide free Wi-Fi to all fans beginning in 2004, and Oracle Park is currently the home of the third largest and first 4K-capable video board in MLB. Schlough's IT team has also supported the baseball operation in implementing an array of proprietary analytic tools that helped the team secure three World Series titles in recent years.

In addition to his technological oversight responsibilities in San Francisco, Schlough was previously named Interim President of the Giants' Class-A San Jose affiliate and has served as Board Chairman since 2012.

An Olympic enthusiast, Schlough assisted in crafting the technology vision and operations plans for San Francisco's bids to host the 2012, 2016 and 2024 Olympic Games. His event experience includes assignments at the 1994 World Cup along with Olympics in Atlanta, Salt Lake, Torino, and PyeongChang. Previously, he worked as a consultant with Booz-Allen & Hamilton and EDS.

Schlough serves on the board of Junior Achievement of Northern California and is an avid supporter of Junior Giants, raising over $150,000 through speaking appearances and other fundraisers. Schlough was inducted into CIO.com's CIO Hall of Fame in 2017, was named Trace3's 2016 CIO Outlier of the Year, InformationWeek's 2012 IT Chief of the Year, and is a Sports Business Journal's "Forty Under 40" alumnus.

A San Francisco native and Ironman triathlete, Schlough holds a Mechanical Engineering degree from Duke University and an MBA from the Wharton School. He resides in Los Altos with his wife, Erin, and sons, Xavier and Quinlan.

Russ Stanley ►► Senior Vice President, Ticket Sales & Services

Russ Stanley, who enters his 32nd season with the San Francisco Giants, is responsible for the ticket sales and fulfillment of all events at Oracle Park and Spring Training games at Scottsdale Stadium. Stanley and his All-Star ticketing team have been pioneers in sports ticketing. They were the first to develop and implement a team sponsored, online secondary market website called the Double Play Ticket Window. They also introduced a Dynamic Pricing model which is common place today in professional sports and other demand-based businesses. Russ' team also employed the first client retention team in 2000 and that group remains mostly intact providing stellar customer service for our best customers.

Stanley and his team of sales, operations, client relations, and luxury suites staff have implemented many progressive ideas that are designed to continually improve the fan experience at Oracle Park and Scottsdale Stadium. His team continues to stay focused on adapting to the latest mobile ticketing technology. Under Stanley's leadership, his team continues to set the bar for the sports ticketing industry.

In addition to his Giants duties, Stanley serves on the board of the American Heart Association, San Francisco State University, and San Mateo Police Activities League. The San Francisco State graduate spent eight years at Marine World Africa USA before embarking on his Giants career in 1989.

He is a native San Franciscan and currently resides in the city with his wife, Bridget, and their two daughters.

Willie Mays ►► Assistant to the President

Regarded by many as the best all-around player in baseball history, Willie Mays returned to San Francisco in 1986 and now enters his 35th season in the Giants' front office. In 1993, in one of his first public statements after assuming ownership of the team, former Giants President and Managing General Partner Peter Magowan announced that the franchise was signing Mays to a lifetime contract.

Magowan also announced in 1997 that the front entrance of the club's new ballpark would feature a world-class statue of Mays and the official address of the park would be 24 Willie Mays Plaza. The 89-year-old Mays serves as a Giant emissary. He visits the Giants' minor league teams, as well as Spring Training camp and attends nearly every single Giants home game during the season. The Westfield, AL native also makes appearances on behalf of the club at a variety of civic and charitable events throughout the Bay Area for the Giants Community Fund. He has also made generous contributions to needy children throughout the country through his own Say Hey Foundation charity.

During his 22-year Major League playing career, Mays was named Most Valuable Player twice, 11 years apart, first as a New York Giant and then as a San Francisco Giant. He holds the all-time record for putouts by an outfielder, with a career total of 7,095. He compiled 3,283 hits, won 12 Gold Gloves and appeared in 24 All-Star games. He was third on the all-time home run list with 660 until 2003 when his godson, Barry Bonds, passed him. His career batting average was .302 and for eight consecutive years, he drove in more than 100 runs a season. The "Say Hey Kid" was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1979, the first year of his eligibility (the ninth player to make it on his first try). Mays' uniform number, 24, has been retired by the Giants, as he remains the franchise leader in games played (2,857), at-bats (10,477), runs (2,011), hits (3,187), doubles (504), home runs (646), total bases (5,907) and extra base hits (1,289). He was named team captain of the Giants prior to the 1961 season by manager Alvin Dark.

Mays was presented with the Presidential Medal of Freedom by President Barack Obama in 2015. He joined fellow Hall of Famers Ernie Banks, Yogi Berra and Stan Musial as the only baseball players who have been awarded the Medal of Freedom. Mays has also received numerous honors as one of the premier athletes of the past 100 years. The Sporting News ranked him second only to Babe Ruth among the 100 greatest baseball players of the 20th century. ESPN listed him as eighth in their ranking of the top 50 athletes of the century. In 2003, former Governor Gray Davis appointed Willie Mays to the State Board of Directors of the California African American Museum. He spent part of his 85th birthday aboard cable car No. 24, which was dedicated to him.

He is the spokesperson for The Institute on Aging in San Francisco as well as the President and CEO of the Say Hey Foundation, supporting underprivileged youth. He is also a member of the Concordia Club and re-signed with The Topps Company, Inc., an association that began in 1952, that publishes baseball cards. Mays has received honorary degrees from Dartmouth, Miles College, Ohio State University, San Francisco State and Yale University.

Mays makes his home in Atherton.

Barry Bonds ►► Special Advisor

Barry Bonds serves as a Special Advisor to the CEO. Bonds represents the organization at various community and organizational events in San Francisco. He also attends the Giants' Spring Training Camp in Scottsdale, AZ and works with the organization's young players.

Bonds signed with the Giants in 1993 and spent his final 15 Major League seasons in a San Francisco uniform, compiling a .312 batting average with 381 doubles, 41 triples, 586 home runs and 1,440 RBI in 1,976 games. He can be found throughout the SF-era record books, ranking in the top 10 for batting average (first), games (third), at-bats (third - 6,263), runs (first - 1,555), hits (third - 1,951), doubles (first), triples (fourth), home runs (first), RBI (first), stolen bases (first - 263) and walks (first - 1,947).

Bonds won seven NL MVP awards, eight Gold Glove awards and received 14 All-Star selections during his storied 22-year Major League career with the Pittsburgh Pirates (1986-92) and San Francisco Giants (1993-2007). He was a two-time winner of the National League batting title and the lone member of baseball's 500 homer-500 steal club holds Major League Baseball's all-time records for home runs (762) and walks (2,558).

Bonds' impressive resume also includes baseball's single-season records for home runs (73 in 2001), walks (232 in 2004), intentional walks (120 in 2004), on-base percentage (.609 in 2004) and slugging percentage (.863 in 2001).

In 2018, the Giants retired Bonds' uniform number 25. Bonds joined an elite group of New York and San Francisco Giants players as the 12th player to receive this honor.

Bruce Bochy ►► Special Advisor

Bruce Bochy is in his second year as a Special Advisor after retiring from 25 seasons as a big league manager following the 2019 season. During his 25-year managerial career he compiled 2,003 victories, the 11th-most by any manager in MLB history, and his 4,032 games managed are the seventh-most in MLB. He's the only manager in MLB history to win 900-plus games with multiple franchises, winning 951 games with San Diego and 1,052 with San Francisco, the second-most managerial wins by a Giants manager behind Hall of Famer John McGraw. Bochy managed four All-Star teams (1999, 2011, 2013, 2015) and was a member of the All-Star coaching staff eight times: 1997, 1999, 2001, 2007, 2010, 2011, 2013, 2015. In 2011, he was the skipper for the MLB All-Stars in Taiwan and in 2020, he's slated to manage Team France in the 11-day WBC qualifying tournament.

Named the 38th manager in Giants franchise history, and 16th in San Francisco annals on October 27, 2006, Bochy guided the Giants to three World Series titles in 2010, 2012 and 2014. The Giants' championship in 2010 was their first in San Francisco history (since 1958) and their first overall since the New York Giants won in 1954. Overall, Bochy led his teams to four Pennants and three World Series championships with his teams posting a 44-33 (.571) record in postseason play.

Prior to joining the Giants' organization, Bochy was the manager of the San Diego Padres from 1995-2006. To this day, his 951 victories with the Padres are the most in franchise history. Bochy became the first Padres skipper to earn NL Manager of Year honors when he led the 1996 club to their first NL West title since 1984. Overall, Bochy logged a 24-year affiliation with the Padres organization from 1983-2006. He was named Padres manager on October 21, 1994.

The former catcher spent parts of nine Major League seasons with Houston (1978-80), New York-NL (1982) and San Diego (1983-87) and compiled a lifetime .239 batting average with 26 home runs and 93 RBI in 358 career games. He made his big league debut on July 18, 1978 in an Astros uniform, going 2-for-3 at Shea Stadium.

Born in Landes de Bussac, France on April 16, 1955, Bochy is one of eight Major Leaguers to be born in France, where his father, Sgt. Major Gus Bochy, was stationed as a U.S. Army NCO at the time. He graduated from Melbourne (FL) High School and attended Brevard Community College for two years on a partial scholarship, winning a state championship in 1975. He decided to turn pro when he was drafted in the first round (24th overall) by the Astros in 1975.

Bochy and his wife, Kim, reside in San Diego and have two sons, Greg and Brett, and three grandchildren, Braxton Douglas, born Jan. 24, 2018 and Maddox Melrose born Feb. 25, 2020 to Greg and McKenna and Blakely Grace, born Aug. 4, 2018 to Brett and Kelsey.

Greg spent several seasons playing minor league baseball in the Padres system. Brett was drafted by the Giants in 2010 and was called up to the Majors on Sept. 2, 2014, making Bruce the eighth manager in MLB history to manage his own son. On Sept. 13, 2014, Bruce became the first manager to give the ball to his son coming out of the bullpen.

Will Clark ►► Special Assistant

Longtime Giants icon Will Clark joined the Giants front office in January 2009. In his role, the six-time All-Star first baseman represents the organization at various in-season and off-season community events in San Francisco. He also attends the Giants Spring Training Camp in Scottsdale, AZ and visits several of the Giants' minor league teams each year. Clark, who brings the experience of a 15-year Major League playing career to the Giants, previously worked as an advisor to the Arizona Diamondbacks' coaching staff in spring training from 2004-2008.

Drafted by the Giants in the first round (second overall pick) of the 1985 June draft, Clark spent his first eight big league seasons in a San Francisco uniform, compiling a .299 batting average with 176 home runs and 709 RBI in 1,160 games. One of the best clutch hitters of his time, Clark hit over .300 on 10 occasions. In 1988, he became the first Giants player to drive in 90 or more runs in consecutive seasons since Bobby Murcer in 1975-76. He had one of his finest seasons in 1989, when he batted .333 with 111 RBI, and finished second in the NL Most Valuable Player voting to Giants teammate Kevin Mitchell. He was, however, named MVP of the '89 NLCS, after batting .650 with a pair of homers and eight RBI, helping San Francisco defeat Chicago four-games-to-one.

One of the premier first basemen in the National League during his time with San Francisco, Clark was also an outstanding defensive player, winning a Rawlings Gold Glove in 1991. The New Orleans, LA native owned a .303 lifetime average with 284 home runs and 1,205 RBI over 1,976 career games for the Giants (1986-1993), Rangers (1994-98), Orioles (1999-2000) and Cardinals (2000).

Clark, who was a two-time All American at Mississippi State University, was the winner of the Golden Spikes Award as the country's top collegiate player in 1985, hitting .420 with 25 home runs and 77 RBI in 65 games. He was inducted into the inaugural class of the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2006 and was inducted into the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame in 2008.

He resides in Prairieville, LA with his wife, Lisa, and their son, Trey, and daughter, Ella.

Orlando Cepeda ►► Community Ambassador

Orlando Cepeda, who was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1999, is recognized nationally for his humanitarian efforts as an ambassador for baseball and the San Francisco Giants. He begins his 26th season as a community representative for the team and is a member of the Giants Community Fund Advisory Board.

In his current role, the "Baby Bull" visits hospitals, senior centers and inner-city schools in the Bay Area and throughout the United States, speaking to "at-risk" children about the dangers of drugs and alcohol. The 83-year-old Ponce, P.R. native also serves as the honorary spokesman for the Crohn's & Colitis Foundation of America, Meals on Wheels San Francisco and the Curry Senior Center.

A lifetime .297 hitter with 379 home runs and 1,364 RBI during his 17-year playing career with the Giants, Cardinals, Braves, A's, Red Sox and Royals, Cepeda hit a home run against the Dodgers in his very first Major League game April 15, 1958. He went on to win 1958 Rookie of the Year honors, the 1966 Comeback Player of the Year award, the 1967 NL Most Valuable Player trophy and 1973 Designated Hitter of the Year laurels. He appeared in three World Series, was a six-time All-Star and hit over .300 nine times in his career.

On July 25, 1999, Cepeda was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame during ceremonies in Cooperstown, NY. He became only the second Puerto Rico native to enter the Hall, joining Roberto Clemente. Two weeks earlier on July 11, 1999, Cepeda had his uniform No. 30 retired by the Giants during ceremonies at Candlestick Park. As one of the 12 players in the Giants' 136-year history to have their jersey number retired, he joins Willie Mays, Willie McCovey, Juan Marichal, Gaylord Perry and Barry Bonds as the only six San Francisco players to receive such an honor.

In 1993, the Baby Bull was also inducted into the Puerto Rico Sports Hall of Fame, while in 1999, he was elected to the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame for his great years with the St. Louis Cardinals which followed his tenure with the Giants. In 2004, he was one of four men to receive the Major League Baseball Players Alumni Association's Achievement Awards, the MLBPA's highest alumni honor. He was joined by Jim Bunning, Al Kaline and Roger Maris.

Orlando and his wife, Nydia, reside in Concord, CA. He has four sons – Orlando Jr., Carl, Malcolm and Ali Manuel, and several grandchildren.

Dave Dravecky ►► Community Ambassador

Former San Francisco Giant pitcher Dave Dravecky currently serves as a community ambassador for the team. In his role, Dave represents the organization at a number of community and sponsor events in San Francisco and the Bay Area. He also attends Giants Spring Training Camp in Scottsdale, AZ, and enjoys representing the organization all over Northern California at various speaking engagements and alumni appearances.

Dravecky was an All-Star with the San Diego Padres in 1983, and was traded to the Giants in 1987. Winner of the 1989 Willie Mac Award, Dravecky's story is both touching and inspiring. After discovering a cancerous tumor in his pitching arm in October of 1988, Dave battled back and returned to the majors in August of 1989. After winning his first start, his humerus bone snapped just five days later while throwing a pitch in the 6th inning. The doctors discovered another mass in his left arm, and Dravecky was forced to retire from baseball. After two more surgeries in the next two years, Dravecky's left arm and shoulder were amputated.

Dravecky is currently a motivational and inspirational speaker, author, and proud grandfather. He and his wife, Jan, recently moved to Arizona to be closer to their family as well as the spring training home of the Giants.

Jeffrey Leonard ►► Community Ambassador

Jeffrey Leonard joined the San Francisco Giants front office as a Community Ambassador, prior to the 2014 season. In his role, the two-time All-Star outfielder represents the organization at various in-season and offseason community events in San Francisco. He also attends the Giants Spring Training Camp in Scottsdale, AZ to attend several organizational events.

Leonard, a 14-year Major League veteran played for the Giants from 1981-88, compiling a .275 batting average with 139 doubles, 24 triples, 99 home runs and 435 RBI in 789 games. His .275 average as a Giant ranks ninth in the SF-era record books and his 115 stolen bases rank seventh.

Nicknamed "HacMan" after the popular video game PacMan, Leonard was known for his "one flap down" routine, running around the bases after hitting a home run with one arm hanging motionless at his side. He had one of his finest seasons in 1987, when he batted .280 with 19 home runs and was named to the National League All Star team. He was named MVP of the '87 NLCS, after batting .417 with four homers and five RBI, despite San Francisco losing the series to St. Louis four-games-to-three.

The Philadelphia, PA native owned a .266 lifetime average with 144 home runs, 614 runs scored and 723 RBI over 1,415 career games for the Dodgers (1977), Astros (1978-81), Giants (1981-1988), Brewers (1988) and Mariners (1989-90).

Leonard, who currently lives in the Greater Bay Area, is heavily involved in youth sports. He has his own organization, "Hac-Man Baseball," centered around youth baseball but supporting kids of all ages.

Baseball Operations

Farhan Zaidi

President, Baseball Operations

Scott Harris

General Manager

J.P. Ricciardi ►► Senior Advisor to the President of Baseball Operations

Ricciardi enters his third season with the Giants as Senior Advisor to the President of Baseball Operations. Prior to his current role, Ricciardi spent eight seasons as a Special Assistant to then General Manager Sandy Alderson in the New York Mets front office after being appointed to the position on November 2, 2010. From November 14, 2001 through the end of the 2009 season, Ricciardi served as the fourth General Manager in Toronto Blue Jays history.

Ricciardi began the first of his 16 years in the Oakland Athletics organization in 1986, working as a New England Area Scout with the A's while also serving as a minor league instructor. He held that role until he became the A's East Coast Scouting Supervisor following the 1992 season. Ricciardi was named the club's National Crosschecker in 1994.

He became a Special Assistant to the General Manager for the A's in 1996, working under two General Managers in Alderson and Billy Beane. In 1999, Ricciardi was appointed the Director of Player Personnel for Oakland and remained in that role until being named the Blue Jays GM in 2001.

In 2000, Ricciardi was a member of the selection committee for the gold-medal winning 2000 United States Olympic Baseball team and was also part of the 1999 Pan American Baseball selection committee.

The Massachusetts native began his post-baseball playing career as a coach for Short-eason Oneonta of the New York-Penn League in the Yankees organization from 1982-1984 before working as a coach for rookie-level Helena of the Pioneer League in the Brewers organization in 1985. He spent two seasons as an infielder in the New York Mets' organization after signing as a non-drafted free agent, playing for Little Falls (A) of the New York-Penn League in 1980 and Shelby (A) of the South Atlantic League in 1981.

Ricciardi attended St. Leo University where he played baseball and was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2003. He played baseball for St. Peter-Marian High School and was part of the 1977 High School State Championship team. In 2008, he was inducted into the St. Peter Marian's High School Hall of Fame. Ricciardi also coached boy High School basketball for 11 years at Holy Name High School in Worcester, MA, advancing to the State Finals in Division 1 three times.

Ricciardi and his wife, Diane, have been married for 37 years and have two sons, Dante (24), and Mariano (22). His son, Dante, is currently a scout with the Boston Red Sox.

Dick Tidrow ►► Senior Advisor to the President of Baseball Operations

A former American League Rookie Pitcher of the Year and 13-year Major League veteran, Dick Tidrow embarks on his 28th year overall with the club. Tidrow came to the organization prior to the 1994 campaign, serving as the club's Major League scout for the American League. He was promoted to Special Assistant to the General Manager in 1996, and was elevated to Director of Player Personnel prior to the 1997 season.

Prior to joining the Giants organization, Tidrow served as a special assignment scout with the New York Yankees from 1985 through 1993. The former right-handed pitcher, nicknamed "Dirt," enjoyed parts of 13 years in the Majors from 1972-84. He was honored as The Sporting News A.L. Rookie Pitcher of the Year as a starter with the Cleveland Indians in 1972, while also capturing pennant and World Series rings as a reliever with the Yankees in 1976 and '77, respectively. He later pitched for the Cubs, White Sox and Mets. His lifetime numbers show a 100-94 record with 55 saves and a 3.68 ERA.

The San Francisco native graduated from Mt. Eden High School in 1965 and Chabot Junior College in 1967, both located in Hayward. Tidrow and his wife, Mari Jo, have three children—Andy, Matt and Richelle—and make their home in Lee's Summit, MO.

John Barr >>> Senior Advisor to the President of Baseball Operations

John Barr will begin his 37th season as a baseball executive and his 14th season with the Giants. In December of 2019, Barr was honored as the Scout of the Year for the East Coast region, an award voted on by his peers. Under Barr’s guidance, the Giants have drafted players such as 2010 Rookie of the Year and 2012 National League MVP Buster Posey and All-Stars Brandon Crawford and Brandon Belt among many others; all of whom contributed to the Giants’ three World Series titles the last decade.

The Audubon, NJ, native entered the front office ranks in 1984 with the New York Mets as Administrative Assistant to Minor Leagues and Scouting where he remained until becoming the East Coast Supervisor for the Minnesota Twins in 1988. As Scouting Director for the Baltimore Orioles, (1989-90), Barr was responsible for selecting first rounders Ben McDonald (’89) and Hall of Famer Mike Mussina (’90). He served as Assistant General Manager for the San Diego Padres (1991-93) before returning to the New York Mets (1994-97) as Scouting Director. Barr then spent ten years (1998- 2007) with the Los Angeles Dodgers as East Coast Supervisor.

Barr was inducted into the Mid Atlantic Scouts Hall of Fame in November of 2008 and then inducted into the Professional Scouting Hall of Fame during the summer of 2009. He received the “Legends in Scouting Award” in January 2019 at the Professional Baseball Scouts Foundation Awards Dinner. The Rider University graduate resides in Haddonfield, NJ, with his wife, Marianne, daughters Kate, Eileen, and Mary, and son, Blake.

Jeremy Shelley >>> Vice President & Assistant General Manager

Jeremy Shelley enters his 28th season in San Francisco’s baseball operations department, currently serving as Vice President and Assistant General Manager. He assists President of Baseball Operations Farhan Zaidi and General Manager Scott Harris with the day-to day operations of the baseball department including roster management, player acquisitions, player evaluations, Major League rules administration and interpretation, contract negotiations and salary arbitration.

During his time with the Giants he has been a part of eight postseason berths, including four World Series appearances and three Championships.

The Concord, CA native began his career for the Giants as a baseball operations intern in 1994. He was hired full-time as Administrative Assistant, Baseball Operations in 1996. Shelley was later promoted to Director, Baseball Operations in 2006, Senior Director, Baseball Operations/Pro Scouting in 2009 and Vice President, Pro Scouting and Player Evaluation in 2013.

He earned a BS in finance from Santa Clara University in 1995. Shelley and his wife, Suzanne, live in San Mateo with their two daughters.

Yeshayah Goldfarb >>> Vice President of Baseball Resources & Development

Yeshayah Goldfarb enters his 21st season with the Giants. During his tenure he has become an integral part of a baseball operations team and decision making process that has led to six playoff seasons, four World Series appearances, and three World Series championships. Goldfarb's daily focus is to strategically ensure our baseball staff and players have the resources and support needed to reach their potential. Additionally, he remains engaged in player acquisition, roster construction and player instruction.

Goldfarb graduated Cum Laude from the University of California, San Diego. A former pitcher and team captain, he played four seasons with the Tritons and was elected most inspirational Player by his teammates and also presented with the John Roth Memorial Award (Charlie Hustle) by the coaching staff in 2000.

The Berkeley, CA native began his career with the Giants as a scouting intern and video assistant in 2001 and was hired full time after the season as Assistant, Baseball Operations. Entering the 2016 season Goldfarb was promoted from Senior Director, Minor League Operations and Quantitative Analysis to Vice President of Baseball Operations and has now slid over to the new position of Vice President of Baseball Resources and Development. Goldfarb and his wife, Miranda, have a daughter, Eliana, and a son, Ezra, and reside in Oakland, CA.

Colin Cahill >>> Vice President of Player Performance & Wellness

Colin Cahill embarks on his second season with the Giants in 2021 after joining the club in October of 2019 as the VP of Player Performance and Wellness. In his role with the Giants, Cahill works across Baseball Operations to help drive the organization's efforts to capitalize on advances in medicine, sports science, and technology. Prior to the Giants, Cahill spent 20 years working at the intersection of healthcare and technology in the Bay Area and Boston.

Cahill double-majored while attending Stanford University, earning Bachelor's degrees in both Economics and Biological Sciences. He received his Master's in Biological Sciences from Stanford in 2004 and received his MBA from Stanford Business in 2006.

He lives on the Peninsula with his wife and three kids.

Zack Minasian >>> Director of Pro Scouting

Zack Minasian begins his third season with the Giants organization after spending the previous 14 seasons in the Milwaukee Brewers organization, most recently holding the position of Special Advisor – Baseball Operations. For six years he was the Club's Director – Professional Scouting and also worked for the Brewers organization as Manager of Minor League Scouting, Personnel/Coordinator of Pro Scouting and as Baseball Operations Assistant. At 27, Minasian took over as the Brewers' Professional Scouting Director, becoming the youngest Scouting Director in baseball. While with the Brewers, Minasian assisted in the Brewers three playoff appearances, most notably ending a 26-year playoff drought in 2008 and a franchise best 96 wins in 2011. While with Milwaukee, Minasian was a part of acquiring players such as: CC Sabathia, Zack Greinke, Carlos Gomez, Josh Hader, Corey Knebel, Jean Segura and Will Smith among others.

Minasian grew up in a Major League clubhouse beginning at age five and worked as a batboy/clubhouse attendant for his father, Zack Sr., who is the longtime clubhouse manager with the Texas Rangers. Minasian's brother, Perry, is the General Manager for the Los Angeles Angels and his brother, Calvin, is the Director of Equipment & Clubhouse Services for the Atlanta Braves. Minasian is godson to Hall of Fame manager Tommy Lasorda and his wife, Jo.

Michael Holmes >>> Director of Amateur Scouting

Michael Holmes enters his third season with the Giants. He most recently held the title of Assistant Scouting Director for the Oakland Athletics. While with the A's, Holmes and Farhan Zaidi worked together for 10 years.

Holmes began his professional baseball career in 1997, when he was selected by the A's in the 18th round of the draft out of Wake Forest. With the Demon Deacons, Holmes was a four-year standout from 1994-97 and was named the team's MVP in 1996. After spending four seasons pitching in the lower levels of the A's system, Holmes joined the Wake Forest coaching staff in January, 2001. In addition to coaching at Wake Forest, Holmes spent his summer in 2001 as a Pitching Coach for Brewster in the Cape Cod League.

Holmes started his career as the A's Area Scout in the Carolinas and later served as the A's East Coast Cross-Checker before being named Assistant Scouting Director, a position he held since 2009.

Joe Salermo >>> Director of International Scouting

Joe Salermo enters his 25th season in professional baseball and his 13th full season with the San Francisco Giants, currently serving as the Director of International Scouting. In his role he oversees the scouting and acquisition of International amateur players as well as Cuban amateur and professional players, while also providing coverage with Asian professional baseball leagues and International professional winter leagues.

Salermo's first year as a scout was with the Mets in 1997, working as an associate scout before becoming the South Florida Area Supervisor with the Mets in 1999. Salermo later won the South Florida Scout of the Year award (2007). He first came to the Giants in 2009 as the Latin American Crosschecker, then became International Crosschecker in 2013, and finally in 2015 became Director of International Scouting.

He was born in Manzanillo, Cuba and came to the United States with his family when he was 10 years old. Salermo played baseball at Monmouth University in New Jersey, and graduated from Kean University with a Bachelor's Degree in Education. He now makes his home in Hallandale Beach, FL.

Craig Weissmann ►► Special Assistant, Scouting

Craig Weissmann enters his third season with the Giants as a Special Assistant to Scouting. He has 29 years of Scouting experience and pitched professionally for 11 seasons.

Most recently he was VP of Player Personnel for the Miami Marlins before moving on to the Dodgers for two years as a Special Assignment Scout.

Weissmann attended USIU in San Diego where he received a Bachelor's Degree in International Relations. He and his wife, Katharine, reside in La Costa, CA.

Kyle Haines ►► Director of Player Development

Kyle Haines will embark on his third season as Director of Player Development after spending the 2018 season as Assistant Director Player Development of Instruction. In 2017, he served as the manager for the Richmond Flying Squirrels and was named "Best Manager Prospect" in the Eastern League by Baseball America. Haines also managed Salem-Keizer for two seasons (2015-2016).

Haines was selected by the Giants in the 31st round of the 2004 draft. He was a member of four championship teams in the minor leagues (2004 Arizona Rookie League Giants, 2005 & 2007 San Jose Giants, 2009 Akron Aeros). He was also named to the Double A Eastern League All-Star team in 2008.

Haines was selected by the Phillies in the Minor League Phase of the 2008 Rule Five Draft. He graduated from Eastern Illinois University with a Bachelor's Degree in Kinesiology and Sports Management and also has an Associate's Degree from Olney Central College. He played baseball for two years at Olney Central and two years at EIU.

Felipe Alou ►► Special Assistant to Baseball Operations

Felipe Alou, a man whose name is synonymous with the Giants, returns for his 14th season as a Special Assistant to Baseball Operations after serving as the club's field manager from 2003-06.

The organization named their facility in the Dominican Republic after Alou - The Felipe Alou Baseball Academy, which serves as the headquarters of the Giants' Latin American operations and as the educational training and player development home for the team's international prospects.

The Dominican icon continues a long and storied career with the franchise, beginning with his playing days as a member of the original San Francisco Giants club in 1958.

The 2021 campaign will mark Alou's 66th season in professional baseball. Following a distinguished 17-year playing career that ended in 1974, he was appointed a minor league manager in 1976 and remained in uniform each year through the 2006 campaign. In 13 seasons as a Major League manager, the 1994 NL Manager of the Year posted a 1,033-1,021-1 ledger and became just the 53rd skipper since 1900 to register 1,000 wins. The Haina, Dominican Republic native is the first manager of Latin descent to win 1,000 games in the big leagues, and is only the third foreign-born skipper to reach the milestone (Bruce Bochy, France, 1,926-1,944; and Harry Wright, England, 1,000-825).

Alou became the first Dominican-born manager in Major League history when he assumed control of the Montreal Expos on May 22, 1992. Prior to the 2015 season, Alou was elected into the Canadian Baseball Hall of Fame, acknowledging his work with the Expos.

Primarily an outfielder during his playing days, the second Dominican-born player to reach the Majors (following Ozzie Virgil with the 1956 New York Giants) was a three-time All-Star during a 17-year career with the Giants (1958-63), Milwaukee and Atlanta Braves (1964-69), Oakland Athletics (1970-71), New York Yankees (1971-73), Montreal Expos (1973) and Milwaukee Brewers (1974).

Alou, and his wife Lucie, have two children, Valerie and Felipe, Jr. and make their home in Boynton Beach, FL. He's also the father of daughters Maria, Christia, Cheri and Jennifer, along with sons Jose, Moises, Felipe Jose and Luis.

Gabe Kapler was named the 39th manager in Giants history on November 12, 2019. He was introduced to the media a day later at Oracle Park.

In his first year as the Giants manager, Kapler guided the club to a 29-31 (.483) record over the 60-game season that was shortened due to COVID-19. San Francisco finished in third place in the NL West and fell one win shy of making the expanded postseason. It was the team's best winning percentage since finishing 87-75 (.537) in 2016.

Kapler, 45, spent the 2018 and 2019 seasons as the manager of the Philadelphia Phillies where he guided them to a 161-163 (.497) combined record. In his first season, 2018, Kapler's Phillies finished 80-82, a 14-win improvement from 2017. The 2019 Phillies finished 81-81, reaching the .500 mark for the first time since 2012.

Prior to joining Philadelphia, Kapler was the Director of Player Development for the Los Angeles Dodgers from November 2014 until he was named the Phillies manager in October 2017. During those three seasons overseeing the Dodgers minor league system (2015-2017), their minor league clubs went a combined 1,299-1,128 (.535) that included eight first-place finishes. The .535 winning percentage over that span was the fourth-best among all Major League teams and the second-best among National League clubs, trailing the Phillies .548 mark. In that span, the Dodgers system produced future Major Leaguers Cody Bellinger, Walker Buehler and Max Muncy along with one of the game's current top prospects in Gavin Lux.

In 2013, Kapler served as a Coach for Team Israel during the World Baseball Classic qualifiers. From 2011-2013, he served as a Special Assignment Scout for the Tampa Bay Rays. He began his coaching career in 2007, taking a season out of his playing career to serve as the Manager of Class-A Greenville of the South Atlantic League in Boston's minor league system.

As a player, Kapler played in parts of 12 seasons in the Majors from 1998-2010 with Detroit (1998-1999), Texas (2000-2002), Colorado (2002), Boston (2003-2006), Milwaukee (2008) and Tampa Bay (2009-2010). A former 57th-round pick by Detroit in 1995, Kapler batted .268 over 1,104 career games with 176 doubles, 82 home runs and 386 RBI.

He made his Major League debut on September 20, 1998 for Detroit vs. Minnesota, going 1-for-4 with a stolen base. In the minors that season, Kapler was named the Southern League MVP after leading the league in runs (113), hits (176), doubles (47), home runs (28), RBI (146), extra-base hits (81) and total bases (319). USA Today Baseball Weekly and The Sporting News tabbed him as the Minor League Player of the Year for 1998.

In 1999, Kapler established his career high in homers (18), playing in 130 games for the Tigers. Following the 1999 season he was traded to Texas along with LHP Alan Webb, IF Frank Catalanotto, RHP Francisco Cordero, C Bill Haselman and LHP Justin Thompson in exchange for OF Juan Gonzalez, RHP Danny Patterson and C Gregg Zaun.

In 322 career games with Texas from 2000-2002, Kapler batted .280 with 73 doubles, 31 homers and 155 RBI. In his first game with Texas, Opening Day (April 3, 2000), Kapler homered in each of his first two at-bats, becoming the first Ranger in franchise history to homer in each of his first two at-bats with the team. Later that season, he established a Rangers franchise record that still stands today with a 28-game hitting streak from July 17-August 15.

On July 31, 2002, Kapler was traded to Colorado along with OF Jason Romano and cash considerations in exchange for OF Todd Hollandsworth and RHP Dennys Reyes.

In 2004, Kapler played in a career-best 136 games while hitting .272 for the eventual World Champion Boston Red Sox. His playing career also included a 38-game stint for the Yomiuri Giants of the Nippon Professional League in 2005 before returning to Boston later that season.

Outside of coaching and playing, Kapler spent the 2013 season working as an analyst for FS1.

Collegiately, Kapler attended Cal State Fullerton before attending Moorpark College in Moorpark, CA. In 1995, Kapler led Moorpark in home runs and RBI while batting .337 in his one season there. He was later inducted into the Moorpark College Athletic Hall of Fame in 2008.

Kapler makes his offseason home in San Francisco and has two sons, Chase and Dane.

Craig Albernaz embarks on his second season with San Francisco as the club's Bullpen and Catching Coach on Gabe Kapler's staff. Albernaz guided the bullpen to a 4.24 ERA in 2020, the fifth-best figure in the National League, including a Major League-best 2.60 ERA and a .206 opponents average over SF's final 36 games of the season.

In 2019, Albernaz served as one of the Minor League Field Coordinators for the Tampa Bay Rays, a club he's spent a majority of his professional career with in both a playing and coaching capacity.

His coaching career began with the Rays in 2015 when he was a Hitting Coach at Rookie-level Princeton before holding the same role with Hudson Valley in 2016. In 2017, he began the season with Triple-A Durham as their Third Base and Catching Coach before managing Short-Season Hudson Valley when their season began. He guided the Renegades to a New York-Penn League championship after finishing the regular season 44-32 and defeating Staten Island in the semifinals two games to one in the best-of-three series. They swept a best-of-three Championship Series with Vermont to claim the crown. The Durham team that he began the 2017 season coaching with also won its championship that season.

In 2018, Albernaz was promoted to Class-A Bowling Green and repeated the feat, guiding the Hot Rods to a Midwest League championship. Bowling Green won a minor-league best 90 games in a campaign that earned him Midwest League Manager of the Year honors. Overall, his club went 90-49 during the regular season before nearly sweeping their way through the playoffs. They went a combined 5-1 in the playoffs, only dropping Game 2 of the Midwest League finals.

As a player, Albernaz spent eight of his nine minor league seasons in the Rays organization as a catcher, reaching as high as Triple-A Durham. He spent one season in the Tigers organization (2014) before moving to the coaching ranks. Over his nine minor league seasons he played in 371 career games and threw out 44 percent of would-be basestealers (145-of-329).

Albernaz was originally signed by the Rays as a minor league free agent on March 15, 2006. He graduated from Eckerd College in St. Petersburg, FL in 2005 where he was a three-year letterwinner for the Tritons.

Andrew Bailey enters his second season with the Giants organization as the pitching coach on Gabe Kapler's staff.

Bailey, 36, served as the Bullpen Coach for the Los Angeles Angels in 2019, his first and only year in the role. In 2019, the Angels bullpen had the second-most wins of any bullpen in the American League (44) while also pitching the second-most innings of any AL bullpen. The bullpen group finished the year with a 4.64 ERA.

In 2018, his first year as a coach after retiring from playing in February, he joined the Angels coaching staff as a Coaching Assistant and Video Replay Coordinator.

As a player, Bailey was a two-time American League All-Star as well as the 2009 American League Rookie of the Year. In his first Major League season, Bailey went 6-3 with a 1.84 ERA for the Oakland A's while posting 26 saves en route to being named the AL Rookie of the Year as well as the first of his two All-Star selections. He struck out 91 batters over 83.1 innings for the A's in 2009.

His second All-Star selection came in 2010, when the right-hander posted a 1.47 ERA and 25 saves in 42 games for the Athletics. In 2011, his final season in Oakland, he saved 24 games to become one of three players in Major League history to record 24 or more saves in each of his first three Major League seasons. The other two to accomplish the feat were Kazuhiro Sasaki from 2000-2002 and Billy Koch from 1999-2001.

From 2012-2017, Bailey played with the Red Sox (2012-2013), Yankees (2015), Phillies (2016) and Angels (2016-2017) before retiring in 2018. In 265 career Major League games, Bailey was 16-14 with a 3.12 ERA and 95 saves. He missed the entire 2014 season after recovering from right shoulder surgery.

He graduated from Wagner College (NY) in 2006 and set a school record with his 237 career strikeouts. In his time there, he led the team to three consecutive NEC tournament appearances. He had his number (17) retired by the school on January 28, 2010.

Bailey was selected by Oakland in the sixth round of the 2006 First-Year Player Draft when current Giants President of Baseball Operations Farhan Zaidi was in Oakland.

He and his wife, Amanda, have three children, Theodora, Matthew and Vivienne.

Brian Bannister enters his second season in San Francisco in 2021 and will continue to focus on pitching analysis and ongoing pitcher development as the Director of Pitching for Gabe Kapler's staff.

Prior to 2020, Bannister spent five seasons working in the Boston Red Sox organization, originally being hired as a Professional Scout and Analyst in January 2015 before being named the Director of Pitching Analysis and Development on September 9, 2015.

The following year, Bannister was added to Boston's Major League coaching staff as an Assistant Pitching Coach on July 5, 2016. On November 3, 2016, he was named Vice President, Pitching Development and Assistant Pitching Coach.

After Bannister was added to the Major League coaching staff on July 5, 2016, the Red Sox pitching staff ranked among AL clubs in ERA (3.98, fifth), SO/9ip (9.56, fourth), strikeout-to-walk ratio (3.02, fourth) and opponent's OPS (.712, fifth).

As a player, Bannister played five Major League seasons between the New York Mets (2006) and Kansas City Royals (2007-2010) and went 37-50 with a 5.08 ERA in 117 career games (114 career starts). He won a career-best 12 games for the Royals in 2007, going 12-9 with a 3.87 ERA in 27 starts to finished third in the 2007 AL Rookie of the Year voting behind Dustin Pedroia and Delmon Young. He was tabbed the AL Rookie of the Month for June and August in 2007.

He made at least 26 starts and threw at least 150.0 innings in each season from 2007-2009. From 2007-2010, Bannister ranked second on the Royals in starts (108), wins (35) and innings (629.1) behind Zack Greinke.

In 2011, Bannister signed a contract to play for Yomiuri Giants of the Nippon Professional Baseball league but retired in March 2011.

Bannister played collegiately at the University of Southern California, where he was drafted by the Red Sox in the 45th round of the 2002 First Year Player Draft (did not sign) and the Mets in the seventh round of the 2003 First-Year Player Draft.

He graduated cum laude in 2003 from USC with a Bachelor of Arts degree from the School of Fine Arts.

Bannister and his wife, Megan, have one daughter, Brynn, and one son, Atley.

BANNISTER NOTES

Father, Floyd Bannister, was the first overall pick of the 1976 draft and won 134 games over 15 Major League seasons with Houston (1977-78), Seattle (1979-82), Chicago-AL (1983-1987), Kansas City (1988-1989), California (1991) and Texas (1992).

Uncle, Greg Cochran, played in the Yankees and A's minor league systems while his brother, Brett, pitched in Seattle's organization...his other brother, Cory, pitched collegiately at Stanford.

Had his number retired by Chaparral High School (#15, 2007) and by the Brooklyn Cyclones (#19, 2006)...Bannister won a state title with Chaparral (AZ) HS in 1999, striking out seven of the nine batters he faced in the championship game.

Was the first member of the Brooklyn Cyclones to appear in the Majors.

Is an avid photographer and is the founder of Loft 19 Studios in Phoenix, AZ...they are a full-service photography studio complex and equipment rental house...his work has been featured in the New York Times, New York Daily News and American Photo.

Kai Correa begins his second season in the Giants organization as the Bench Coach and Infield Coach in 2021.

Prior to joining the Giants, Correa spent the previous two seasons working in the Cleveland Indians organization. In 2018, Correa worked as the Arizona Infield Coordinator before being elevated to the organization's Lower Level Defensive Coordinator in 2018 and then to overall Defensive Coordinator in 2019.

His coaching career began at his alma mater, the University of Puget Sound, where he spent three seasons as an assistant beginning in 2011. In 2014, the team's defense set a program fielding percentage record.

From 2015-2017, Correa worked at the University of Northern Colorado, helping the Bears reach their first WAC tournament appearance in 2015. The following year, 2016, he helped guide the Bears to a program-record fielding percentage.

Correa has also worked for USA Baseball in various capacities over the past five years, serving as the Infield Coach for the 17U National Team Development Program and as an Infield Instructor and Evaluator at USA National Team Identification Series.

As a player, he was an All-Conference Infielder at Waiakea High School in Hilo, HI, helping to lead Waiakea to back-to-back top three state finishes. Collegiately at Puget Sound, he played second base, third base, and shortstop from 2007-2011. As a senior captain, he was a key contributor in Puget Sound's 2011-second place conference finish, the school's best finish since joining the Northwest Conference in 2000.

He received his degree in History from University of Puget Sound in 2011.

Correa was born and raised in Hilo and comes from a long lineage of Hawaiian baseball coaches. His grandfather, Jimmy Correa, was a legendary, local high school and youth coach for 70 years from 1946 to his passing in 2016. His father, Tom, was a high school coach for 15 years from 1991 to 2006.

Correa, his wife, Brittany, and their daughter, Avery, make their offseason home in Verrado, AZ.

Donnie Ecker embarks on his second season with San Francisco after being named to Gabe Kapler's coaching staff as a Hitting Coach in 2020. Ecker helped guide Giants hitters to a .263 batting average in 2020, which ranked as the fifth-highest figure in the Majors.

In 2019, Ecker served as the Assistant Hitting Coach with the Cincinnati Reds working on David Bell's staff after being named to the position on November 19, 2018.

Prior to working in Cincinnati, Ecker spent one season in the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim system, serving as the Hitting Coach at Triple-A Salt Lake of the Pacific Coast League in 2018. That season, the Bees led the PCL in batting average (.290), runs scored (824), home runs (173), RBI (783), slugging percentage (.480), OPS (.841) and finished second among PCL teams in doubles (291) and OBP (.361).

As a hitting coach, Ecker's teaching methods incorporate human movement research and technology-based applications to the body and swing. He is an Integrated Movement Specialist and certified under the IFPA Biomechanics of Sports.

From 2015-2017, Ecker worked in the St. Louis Cardinals minor league system, serving as a Hitting Coach at Class-A Advanced Palm Beach in 2015-2016 and Class-A Peoria in 2017. In 2017, the Chiefs hit the fourth-most homers in the 16-team Midwest League.

His coaching career began in 2011 at Los Altos (CA) High School, his alma mater, as he was hired on to be the team's Head Assistant Coach. In 2013, Ecker took over as the Varsity Head Coach and held that role through the 2014 season before being hired to work for the St. Louis Cardinals organization.

Ecker was drafted in the 28th round of the 2004 First-Year Player Draft by the Reds but decided to attend Long Beach State on a baseball scholarship. He also had a football scholarship to the University of Nevada to play quarterback that was eventually turned down to pursue baseball. He was later drafted in 2007, this time by the Texas Rangers in the 22nd round of the First-Year Player Draft out of Lewis & Clark State College.

He played two seasons in the Rangers system (2007-2008) before starting his coaching career. Off the field, Ecker has spent the last decade studying under top experts across the world in the fields of golf, skill acquisition, cricket, human performance, and analytical driven systems that correlate to the baseball swing. Ecker double majored in Communications and Business Leadership at Lewis & Clark and Ashford University.

Nick Ortiz enters his second season on Gabe Kapler's staff as the Quality Assurance Coach.

In 2019, Ortiz served a dual role within the New York Yankees organization by serving as an Amateur Scout covering his native Puerto Rico prior to the start of the rookie-level Gulf Coast League season as well as the Manager for the GCL Yankees West club. The 2019 campaign was his third as a manger and his second managing the GCL Yankees West club after also serving the same role in 2017.

His other managerial stint came in 2018 when he managed rookie-level Pulaski, the same club he made his professional coaching debut with in 2016 .

An infielder, Ortiz was originally drafted by Boston in the 34th round of the 1990 First-Year Player draft. He played a total of 15 seasons in the minors with 12 of those coming in affiliated ball with Boston (1991-1998), Montreal (1998), Cleveland (1999), Los Angeles-NL (1999), Kansas City (2000-2001, 2003), New York-AL (2000) and Chicago-NL (2003). He appeared in games at the Triple-A level in 1998 with Ottawa, 1999 with Buffalo and 2001 with Omaha.

Over his 12 seasons of affiliated baseball, Ortiz batted .260 with 202 doubles, 23 triples, 52 homers and 414 RBI in 1,060 career games. In 2000, he was a Texas League Mid-Season All-Star with Wichita.

He also played three seasons in the Independent Leagues (2004, 2006-2007) in the Atlantic League where he hit a combined .281 with 23 homers in 333 combined games with Bridgeport, Long Island, and Somerset. His stats from the Atlantic League also include a 78-game stint in 2006 where he played on a club designated the Atlantic League Road Warriors, which was a team that did not have a home stadium and played the season entirely on the road.

In addition to his baseball during the summer, Ortiz suited up in the Puerto Rican Winter League for 16 seasons (1991-93, 1996-2007 and 2012) where he was named an All-Star six times. In 2010, he was a member of the Puerto Rico National Team in the 2010 Central American and Caribbean Games.

Ortiz an his wife, Rosalie Hernández, have two children, Christian and Alexandra. Ortiz also has a daughter, Gabriella. A native of Puerto Rico, Ortiz and his family make their offseason home in Caguas, PR.

Antoan Richardson begins his second season as the First Base Coach on Gabe Kapler's staff in 2021. Richardson will also continue to oversee baserunning and outfield instruction.

In 2019, Richardson was the Giants Minor League Field Coordinator in what was his first season in the Giants organization as a coach. Prior to joining the Giants, Richardson worked as a fellow in the Toronto Blue Jays baseball operations department from late 2017 to October 2018 when he was promoted to minor league Outfield Coordinator. He joined the Giants organization three months later.

Prior to his coaching career, Richardson played professionally from 2005-2016 in a career that spanned 12 seasons that included 22 games at the Major League level (nine with the Braves in 2011 and 13 with the Yankees in 2014).

After being named class salutatorian at the end of his senior year at American Heritage High School, he was drafted by the Baltimore Orioles in the 27th round of the 2001 First-Year Player Draft. Richardson also had a full ride to Brown University but passed on that opportunity, as well as the Orioles opportunity, and decided to attend Palm Beach Community College to play baseball.

The Orioles took him again in the 2002 draft (also in the 27th round) but he returned to Palm Beach CC for a second season. The following year, he transferred to Vanderbilt for the 2004 season. He was selected again in the '04 draft, this time in the 13th round by Arizona, but once again returned to school. He was drafted a fourth and final time by the Giants in the 35th round of the 2005 draft.

Richardson was a member of the Giants organization as a player from 2005-2009, reaching Double-A Connecticut. He made his Major League debut for Atlanta on September 4, 2011, recording his first career hit off Los Angeles' Clayton Kershaw.

Three years later, Richardson scored the game-winning run for the Yankees in Derek Jeter's final game at Yankee Stadium on September 25, 2014. He scored on a walk-off single from Jeter himself as the Yankees beat the Orioles 6-5 with Richardson sliding headfirst into home plate ahead of the tag to win the game.

RICHARDSON NOTES

Retired from baseball in March of 2017 to found Project Limestone in the Bahamas, a nonprofit organization with the objective of creating environments, through academics and athletics, that cultivate a curiosity for learning, and respect for self and others. Ultimately, inspiring the hope that encourages the pursuit of their passions.

The name of the organization comes from the fact that the islands of The Bahamas rests on a plateau of limestone and limestone rock is made of diverse elements, that together are strong and resilient.

Their programs include an after-school baseball program, focused on player and team development, which is accomplished through teaching the fundamentals of baseball and team work, and a Science, Technology, Engineering and Math (STEM) program where students will be challenged to be innovative and see solutions through the use of industry leading software and hardware.

Justin Viele begins his second season in the Giants organization as a Hitting Coach. Last season, Viele helped guide Giants hitters to a .263 batting average in 2020, which ranked as the fifth-highest figure in the Majors.

Prior to joining the Giants, Viele spent three seasons working in the Dodgers minor league system as the hitting coach at three different levels. Last season, Viele was the Hitting Coach at Class-A Great Lakes in the Midwest League where the Loons led the 16-team Midwest League in home runs (113), RBI (638), walks (597), runs scored (712), on-base percentage (.339) and OPS (.729) while finishing second in doubles and slugging percentage. The Loons' 712 runs scored were 71 runs more than the club with the second-most runs in the circuit.

In addition to his role in Great Lakes, Viele was also the Dodgers' Assistant Minor League Hitting Coordinator throughout the entire 2019 campaign. Following the end of last season, he was elevated to the club's overall minor league Hitting Coordinator before joining the Giants Major League staff.

In 2018, Viele was the Hitting Coach at Class-A Advanced Rancho Cucamonga where that club led the eight-team league in runs scored, doubles, home runs, RBI, on-base percentage, slugging percentage and OPS while finishing second in walks and hits. The Quakes hit a total of 202 homers in 2018, 52 more than the next-best club in the league that year. The club also scored 50 more runs than the next closest club after scoring 841 runs that season. The 202 homers and 841 runs were both the most by any minor league team at any level in 2018.

Following the 2018 season, Viele went to Arizona and served as the Hitting Coach for Glendale during the Arizona Fall League.

In his first year in the Dodgers system (2017), Viele coached at Advanced Rookie Ogden of the Pioneer league. That club led the eight-team league in average (.319), total bases, slugging percentage and OPS while finishing second in runs scored, hits, home runs, RBI, stolen bases and on-base percentage.

Viele's coaching career began in the late summer of 2015 when he was hired by his alma mater, Santa Clara University, to be the team's Assistant Hitting Coach for the 2015-2016 season.

He also served as a Coach with Class-A Frederick of the Carolina League in 2015.

As a player, Viele was drafted out of Santa Clara in 2013 by the Baltimore Orioles in the 37th round of the 2013 First-Year Player Draft. A starting shortstop all four years at Santa Clara, Viele finished his career with the Broncos having started 161 consecutive games dating back to his freshman year. Viele graduated in 2013 with a Bachelor's Degree in Sociology.

In the minors, Viele played a total of three seasons in the Orioles organization from 2013-2014, reaching as high as Class A Delmarva of the South Atlantic League in 2014. In his minor league career, Viele hit .211 in 126 career games.

Wotus will handle the third base coaching duties for the fourth consecutive season after having been the team's Bench Coach for the previous 19 seasons.

Wotus is one of just six individuals since 1900 to serve as a Giants coach for at least 10 years, joining Mark Gardner (15 years, 2003-2017), Larry Jansen (12 years, 1954 and 1961-71), Bob Lillis (11 years, 1986-96), Dave Righetti (18 years, 2000-2017) and Wes Westrum (10 years, 1958-63 and 1968-71).

He has worked with four players that have won NL Gold Gloves under his watch: J.T. Snow (1999, 2000), Omar Vizquel (2005, 2006), Brandon Crawford (2015, 2016, 2017) and Joe Panik (2016).

Wotus coached at Class-A Clinton (Iowa) in 1990 before managing in San Francisco's minor league system for seven years from 1991-97. His clubs, ranging from Class-A to Triple-A, reached the playoffs in every year but one. He was twice named Manager of the Year, while posting an overall record of 554-412 (.574). Wotus was the manager of Class-A Advanced San Jose Giants (1991-92), Double-A Shreveport Captains (1993-95) and Triple-A Phoenix Firebirds (1996-97). He was named California League Manager of the Year in 1991 after leading San Jose to a 92-44 record. In 1997, he was named Pacific Coast League Manager of the Year after the Firebirds finished 88-55, winning 41 of their final 51 games. Wotus became the Giants Third Base Coach in 1998 under manager Dusty Baker and served as Bench Coach from 1999-2017 under Baker, Felipe Alou and Bruce Bochy.

The Connecticut native has been in professional baseball for just about his entire adult life. The Pirates selected him in the 16th round in 1979 and he enjoyed an 11-year professional career, including parts of the 1983 and 1984 seasons with Pittsburgh. A middle infielder, Wotus went 12-for-58 in parts of two seasons with the Pirates. He made his Major League debut on Sept. 3, 1983 in Atlanta and recorded his first big league hit, a single, off the Dodgers' Orel Hershiser at Los Angeles on July 4, 1984. His final two seasons as a player came with the Giants' Triple-A affiliate in Phoenix in 1988 and 1989.

Wotus graduated from Bacon (Colchester, CT) Academy in 1979. He and his wife, Laurie, reside in Pleasant Hill, CA.

WOTUS NOTES

Is the first Giants coach in franchise history to serve for 20+ years (1998-present).

He played baseball, soccer and basketball in high school and was named an All-New England center forward in soccer after scoring a then-record 89 career goals.

Born in Barquisimeto, one of Venezuela's oldest cities founded in 1552. The city is known for its modern cathedral and the Barquisimeto Museum.

Signed by the Giants as a minor league free agent last November, the right-hander spent six seasons in the Yankees' minor league system compiling a record of 26-12 with a 2.69 ERA in 124 games (35 starts).

MINOR LEAGUE ACCOLADES

2019 EAS Mid-Season All-Star (Trenton)

In 2019, Álvarez was the closer with the Yankees Double-A affiliate in Trenton. He finished second in the Eastern League with 21 saves, completed 58.1 innings, struck out 76 batters and posted a 2.31 ERA. He also recorded the final out of Trenton's Eastern League Championship Series-clinching win.

Pitched in the Venezuelan Winter League in three of the last four years, predominantly playing for the Cardenales de Lara.

Pitched for Team Spain in the WBC qualifier prior to the 2016 season.

2020 SEASON

- Did not play due to the COVID-19 pandemic...did participate at the Yankees' Alternate Training site in Scranton/Wilkes-Barre.

Was born in Greensboro, NC. Greensboro is the third-most populous city in North Carolina. Prior to 1895 it was spelled Greensborough. Fellow Giant Jaylin Davis was also born in Greensboro.

Attended Wesleyan Academy in High Point, NC where he led them to consecutive independent schools state championships as a junior and senior.

GOING PROSPECTING

Enters the 2021 season as the Giants seventh-best prospect according to Baseball America and their sixth-best according to MLB.com.

THE WOLFPACK

Bailey, Giants second-round pick LHP Nick Swiney and IF Will Wilson, whom the Giants welcomed from Los Angeles-AL, were all teammates at NC State.

AT NORTH CAROLINA STATE

Despite the shortened 2020 season, he ranked tied for second in RBI (20), third in walks (17) and tied for fourth in home runs (6) among all ACC players.

As a sophomore in 2019, Bailey was named First Team All-ACC, ABCA All-Region and Collegiate Baseball Third Team All-American after compiling a .288 clip with 68 hits, 17 doubles, 10 homers and a .513 slugging percentage.

Was one of 14 semifinalists for the Buster Posey Award in 2019, given to the nation's best catcher. He was named to USA Baseball's Collegiate National team roster.

In 2018, Bailey led all ACC freshmen in hitting (.321), total bases (113) and slugging (.604) while also setting a new NC State freshman home run record (13) on his way to being named the ACC Freshman of the Year.

Bailey and Padres outfielder Wil Myers are the only two players to be drafted out of Wesleyan High School

2020 SEASON

- Did not play due to the COVID-19 pandemic but did participate at the Giants Alternate Site and in the Giants Fall Instructional League.

Grew up in Corpus Christi, TX a coastal city in South Texas, about 130 miles southeast of San Antonio. Corpus Christi is where Whataburger opened its first burger stand on Ayers St. in 1950.

Acquired by the Giants last year from Tampa Bay in August, the four-year MLB veteran has posted a 5.96 ERA in 51.1 innings with Arizona (2017) and Tampa Bay (2018-2020).

Has a son, Ayden Bryce, who was born in December 2018.

Loves tattoos. Both arms are sleeved and he has a full chest piece. The design on his right arm took more than 19 hours, the left was 12 hours and his chest totaled 21 hours. He split the chest piece into two sessions and even had two artists working at the same time. Most of the art is faith or family related.

Anthony grew up a Rangers fan in Texas. His favorite pitcher was Nolan Ryan but he started leaning toward Randy Johnson because he was a fellow lefty and the first southpaw he saw pitch live at any level. Johnson visited Anthony's Double-A team during his time in the Diamondbacks farm system and the two sat in the stands and talked for an entire game. It remains his all-time favorite baseball moment.

Built his own gaming PC after teaching himself the basics of the process by watching YouTube videos.

Spent most of the 2019 season rehabbing from Tommy John surgery. Had the surgery June 14, 2018, performed by Dr. James Andrews in Pensacola, FL.

2020 SEASON

- Started the season at the Rays' Alternate Training Site and was recalled August 13.
- Appeared in just four games with the Rays, allowing nine runs on 10 hits in 7.0 innings before being designated for assignment on August 30.
- Traded to the Giants in exchange for cash considerations on August 31 and was sent to the Giants' Alternate Training Site in Sacramento.

Grew up in Grand Rapids, MI, the second-largest city in Michigan and is considered one of the fastest growing cities in the Midwest. It is home to five of the world's leading office furniture companies and is nicknamed "Furniture City".

Threw two no-hitters at Jenison High School, located just outside of Grand Rapids, and was honorable mention all-conference as a senior (5 wins, 66 strikeouts).

Played two seasons at Jackson Community College before transferring to Indiana University. Had a solid senior season, finishing fourth in the Big Ten in opposing batting average (.205) and tied for fifth in ERA (2.49). Is one of two current Giants to attend Indiana (Alex Dickerson is the other).

Caleb grew up a Cubs' fan like his dad and grandfather.

In the postseason for Sacramento in 2019, he went 2-0 with a 0.90 ERA (1er, 10.0ip) and a .118 opponent's average. Was named the MVP of the Triple-A National Championship Game in Sacramento's win over Columbus after holding them scoreless over 5.0 innings.

HOBBIES

Enjoys fishing with his brother Noah and is a big fan of video games.

When he was in Arizona for spring training in 2019, he met Bree Dendauw, a speech pathologist, and the two got engaged this past offseason.

Has a German shepherd named Haven.

FAVORITE OFF DAY ACTIVITY

Relax and enjoy down time from the busy schedule.

Caleb's bucket list item is to win a World Series.

MAKING AN IMPACT

Following the 2018 season, he worked with the Giants' pitching science coordinator, Matt Daniels, who had come from Driveline in Seattle with new analytical tools. Daniels told him he should throw his fastball up in the zone because it appears to rise. Caleb says, "Daniels has been one of the biggest influences on my career."

- Was not an invitee to San Francisco's original spring camp but made the Opening Day roster after being a late addition to the 60-man player pool on July 8.
- Made his Major League debut at Dodger Stadium on July 25 and received his first career win that day.
- Held left-handed hitters to a .161 average against (5-for-31).
- Did not allow a run over his final 16 appearances from August 16 through the end of the year (14.1ip)...struck out 14, walked four and held opposing hitters to a .143 clip in that span.
- Allowed just 3 of 22 (13.6%) inherited runners to score.
- Was used as the Giants "opener" on September 23 vs. Colorado, marking his first career start.

HOW OBTAINED: Selected by San Francisco in the first round (second overall) of the 2018 First-Year Player DraftCONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2021OPTIONS USED: 0/3

Born and raised in Buford, GA, roughly 50 miles northeast of Atlanta. Buford is a three-hour drive from Buster Posey's hometown.

Attended Buford High School in Buford, GA. Became the starting catcher for the school's baseball team his freshman year. Is Buford's all-time leader in hits, RBI and runs scored.

Became the second highest MLB Draft pick in Georgia Tech history when he was selected the No. 2 overall pick in the 2018 First-Year Player Draft by SF.

WHAT A THRILL

Is the Giants' highest draft selection since taking Will Clark out of Mississippi State with the second overall pick in 1985.

BARNEY NUGENT AWARD WINNER

Was a non-roster invitee to Giants spring camp and was elected the 2019 Barney Nugent Award winner in a vote by his teammates, coaches and training staff. The award is given out annually to the most impressive player in their first Spring Training camp.

His father, Thomas, played baseball at the University of Miami and Penn State University. Has two older brothers, Danny and Mikey. Brother, Mikey, played defensive end at the University of North Carolina and signed with the AZ Cardinals out of school.

109.5 MPH
HARDEST BATTED BALL

Bart has a pair of 109.5mph hits (a double off Julio Teheran on August 20, 2020 and a single off Brady Lail on September 8, 2020).

CATCH THE BUZZ

Was selected by Tampa Bay in the 27th round of the 2015 First-Year Player Draft, but did not sign. Enrolled at Georgia Institute of Technology to play baseball for the Yellow Jackets.

Played in 144 games, starting 143 of them at catcher or designated hitter. Hit .321 with 30 home runs, 35 doubles, 112 RBI and 115 runs scored over three years at Tech. Posted a .544 slugging pct. and .407 on-base pct. in his Tech career.

2018 Johnny Bench Award winner, the first in school history. Also named 2018 First-Team All-America selection by Baseball America, NCBWA, Perfect Game/Rawlings and Collegiate Baseball.

Was tabbed the 2018 Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) Player of the Year, ACC Defensive Player of the Year and first-team all-ACC selection. Led the conference in hitting with a .359 batting average. Led Georgia Tech and ranked second in the ACC in slugging pct. (.632), third in on-base pct. (.471), third in total bases (139), fourth in hits (79), and fifth with a team-high 16 home runs.

Born and raised El Vigía, Venezuela. It is located directly south of Lake Maracaibo. The city is known for producing agricultural needs like bananas, fruit trees and livestock.

His twin brother, Luis Alejandro, plays in the Arizona system. They both were originally signed by Boston in 2012.

Got to know current Giants teammate Mauricio Dubón in the Red Sox system after the two were signed within a year of one another (Basabe in 2012 and Dubón in 2013).

Participated in the 2018 SiriusXM All-Star Futures Game at Nationals Park. Basabe hit a two-run homer in the game on a 102.1 mph pitch according to Statcast.

GOING DEEP

Homered from both sides of the plate twice in a two-week span with Short-Season Lowell of the NYPL in 2015. Did so on June 30, 2015 at Vermont and again on July 8 vs. West Virginia.

100.2 MPH HARDEST BATTED BALL

Basabe's 100.2 mph single off Colorado's Carlos Estevez on September 21, 2020 is his hardest hit ball in the Statcast era (since 2015).

Signed by the Red Sox as an International free agent in 2012 and spent four years in their minor league system before being traded to the White Sox, along with Yoán Moncada, Michael Kopech and Victor Diaz, in exchange for Chris Sale in December of 2016.

Music that makes him want to get out on the dance floor: Salsa, Bachata, Merengue and Vallenato.

The phone apps he uses the most are WhatsApp and Instagram.

His hobbies include playing video games (PlayStation). He also enjoys horseback riding.

Was born in Corona, CA, a city in Riverside County in Southern California. The city is located 45 minutes southeast of Los Angeles and is known as the Circle City due to Grant Boulevard's three mile circular layout.

Came to the Giants organization in the Mark Melancon trade with Atlanta on July 31, 2019 with RHP Daniel Winkler.

Graduated from Corona High School where as a senior he was named the 2015 Corona High School Male Athlete of the Year and earned 2015 First-Team All-State and All-Section honors. He threw two no-hitters and a 10-inning one-hitter. Beck was also a two-year starting quarterback during high school. He was taken by Milwaukee in the 34th-round of the 2015 First-Year Player Draft but elected to attend Stanford.

DOWN ON THE FARM

In 2016 Beck became the third Stanford freshman to start Opening Day since 1988. He led Stanford starters in ERA (2.48) and strikeouts (76) and was top 10 in the Pac-12 in both categories. Was named a first-team Freshman All-American by Perfect Game/Rawlings and Baseball America.

Was drafted again, this time by the Yankees in the 29th round of the 2017 MLB Draft as a sophomore despite not playing all season due to a stress fracture in his back.

Was drafted by Atlanta in the fourth round of the 2018 First-Year Player Draft as a junior. Beck received All-Pac-12 honors that year, going 8-4 with a 2.98 ERA (30er, 90.2ip) over 15 starts.

2019 Struck out 90 in 81.1 minor league innings and was selected to participate in the AFL. In six starts with Scottsdale he went 1-2 with a 3.63 ERA (9er, 22.1ip) with 23 strikeouts.

12 Is the Giants' 12th-best prospect according to Baseball America entering 2021.

2020 SEASON

- Did not play due to the COVID-19 pandemic but did participate in the Fall Instructional League.

Grew up in Auburn, MA, a small town (16,000-ish people) outside Worcester. Auburn is just over a one hour drive to Boston.

14 Was drafted by San Francisco in the first round (14th overall) of the 2014 First-Year Player Draft. The Toronto Blue Jays selected him in the first round (21st overall pick) in 2011 but he did not sign. He was the only first round pick that year not to sign.

Missed the 2020 season as he was recovering from Tommy John surgery that was performed on March 20, 2020 by Dr. Keith Meister.

GIVING BACK

At the age of 19, Beede got the idea for a charity called More Than Me. He wanted to help athletes find ways to give back to their communities. He partnered with Make-A-Wish and with The Miracle League, which provides disabled children the opportunity to play baseball.

His wife, Allie DeBerry, is an American actress and model.

She is best known for her roles in A.N.T. Farm as Paisley Houndstooth, Shake It Up as Destiny, Lazer Team as Mindy, and True Jackson, VP as Cammy. The two were married on November 26, 2017.

After two years at Auburn High he accepted a scholarship to attend Lawrence Academy, a boarding school in Groton, MA.

Attended Vanderbilt University. During his sophomore season, he led NCAA Division

I with a school-record 14 wins and was one of three finalists for the Golden Spikes Award. Helped the Commodores win the 2014 College World Series. Received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Vandy on May 10, 2019.

Vandy Boys

Played with current Giants teammates Sam Selman and Mike Yastrzemski during his 2012 season at Vandy. Selman was drafted in 2012 and Yastrzemski in 2013.

He is known as "Young Beedah." Has a budding career as a rapper. Counts artists such as Cole and Mike Stud among his influences. Check out his songs on Spotify, including one called "Boston Strong," a tribute he wrote to the city in the aftermath of the marathon bombings.

Served as the officiant for fellow Giants teammate Tyler Rogers' wedding on November 14, 2020. Rogers and Beede have both been a part of the Giants organization since 2014 (Rogers was selected in 2013 and Beede in 2014).

NL ALL-STAR

Grew up in Lufkin, TX. Founded in 1882, the population is around 36,000. The city is 120 miles northeast of Houston.

Set MLB record for most pitches seen in a single at-bat with 21 against Angels' starting pitcher Jaime Barria on April 22, 2018. The at-bat lasted 12 minutes, 45 seconds, and ended with a fly out to right field.

GOOD GUY

In 2018, he received the Bill Rigney Good Guy Award, presented to the San Francisco Giant who has been the most cooperative with press throughout the season.

Attended the University of Texas and led the Longhorns to the College World Series in 2009.

Married Hudson High sweetheart Haylee Stephenson December 3, 2010, at Providence Baptist Church in Lufkin.

Graduated from Hudson High School in Lufkin, TX. Was a standout pitcher and thought he'd make the Majors one day at that position.

FIRST THINGS FIRST

Entering 2021, Belt has played 1,036 career games at first base for the Giants, the fourth-most in the SF-era (1958-present) behind Willie McCovey (1,775), J.T. Snow (1,137) and Will Clark (1,124).

37 His 37 career postseason games as a first baseman are the most in Giants franchise history.

- 2014 -

His solo HR in the 18th inning in Game 2 of the 2014 NLDS at Washington gave the Giants a 2-1 victory. Marked the third extra-inning HR in Giants postseason history, along with Dusty Rhodes in the 1954 World Series and Mel Ott in the 1933 Fall Classic.

Brandon and Haylee have two sons, Greyson Ellis (August 27, 2014) and August Kyle (July 20, 2018). August was named in honor of August "Augie" Garrido, who coached Belt at the University of Texas. Garrido passed away in March, 2018 after suffering a stroke in California.

109.4 MPH HARDEST BATTED BALL

Belt's 109.4 mph double off Los Angeles-NL's Brett Anderson on August 31, 2015 is his hardest hit ball in the Statcast era (since 2015).

109.1 MPH HARDEST HIT HOME RUN

His 109.1 mph homer off the Diamondbacks' Hector Rondon on September 4, 2020 vs. Arizona is his hardest-hit homer in the Statcast era (since 2015).

IN THE COMMUNITY

Involved with the following organizations: George Mark Children's House, Greater Bay Area Make-A-Wish Foundation, Take Me Out to the Ballgame Ticket Donation Program, Giants Community Fund - Junior Giants and Not For Sale and MLBPAA Buses for Baseball Program.

2020 SEASON

- Had one of his best years yet in the shortened season, as he hit a career-best .309 with 13 doubles, one triple, nine homers, 30 RBI and 30 walks in 51 games.
- Started 41 games, all at first base, and committed just two errors in 308 total chances.
- Hit .350/.456/.659 against righties, compared to .115/.281/.269 vs. southpaws.
- His 46.9% hard-hit rate was his highest in any season of his career tracked by Statcast since 2015...his 16.8 barrel percentage according to Statcast was 10th-best among qualified Major Leaguers.
- Started the season on the 10-day IL with right achilles tendinitis...was reinstated from the IL on July 30.
- Recorded a season-best four hits on August 25 vs. Los Angeles-NL while hitting two homers and driving in five runs...it marked his fifth career multi-HR game.
- His 9th-inning game-tying HR off Kenley Jansen on August 25 at Oracle Park was the first game-tying HR by a Giants player vs the Dodgers in the 9th inning or later since Mark Lewis on July 12, 1997 in LA...it was the first at home since Barry Bonds on June 20 that season, both off Todd Worrell.

- Became just the third Giants player since the team moved to SF in 1958 to reach base safely five times and hit two home runs in a game, along with Barry Bonds (2002) and J.T. Snow (2004) (Elias).
- Reached base safely in 11-consecutive plate appearances August 22-25...marked the longest such streak by a Giant since Barry Bonds did it in 11-straight from June 23-27, 2006 (Elias)...the MLB record is 17.
- Has played in 1,036 career game at first base...he's the seventh player in Giants franchise history to appear in 1,000+ games at first base with the team, joining Willie McCovey (1,775), Bill Terry (1,579), J.T. Snow (1,137), Will Clark (1,124), Fred Merkle (1,040) and Roger Connor (1,002).

Born in San Carlos, CA but grew up in San Mateo, which is located on the Peninsula, about 20 miles south of San Francisco, and 31 miles northwest of San Jose.

Attended Junipero Serra High School in San Mateo the same high school as Barry Bonds and Tom Brady. While on Serra High's baseball team he helped lead them to the 2016 WCAL Baseball Championship.

GOING PROSPECTING

Enters the 2021 season as the Giants sixth-best prospect according to Baseball America as well as the fourth-best prospect according to MLB.com. Bishop is ranked as the 83rd best prospect overall entering 2021 according to MLB.com.

He was a two-sport athlete at Serra and won state championships in both baseball and football in the West Catholic Athletic League. The star wide receiver originally committed to play football at Washington before deciding to play baseball at ASU.

I'M A SUN DEVIL, MAN!

Attended Arizona State and was named Perfect Game and D1Baseball's Midseason Player of the Year in 2019. He was ranked in the top five of the PAC-12 in average (.342), slugging (.742), on-base percentage (.479), runs (67), RBI (63), hits (76), homers (22), triples (four), total bases and walks.

Ranked fifth nationally in home runs and Top 30 in homers, slugging, runs, RBI and total bases in 2019. Bishop was the first Sun Devil to be taken in the first round since 2012 and the first Top-10 pick since Mike Leake went eighth overall in 2009.

Was originally drafted by San Diego in the 24th round of the First-Year Player Draft but chose to attend ASU

Was a part of two state championship teams, the 2015 WCAL Football Champions and the 2016 WCAL Baseball Champions. Bishop was tabbed as the WCAL Player of the Year in 2016 and was also first-team All-WCAL as a wide receiver as a senior.

FAMILY BUSINESS

His brother, Braden, was drafted in the third round by Seattle of the 2015 First-Year Player Draft out of the University of Washington and currently plays in their minor league system. The two played against each other for the first time in their professional careers last spring when the Giants and Mariners met in Peoria.

4MOM

Hunter and his brother, Braden, started the 4MOM foundation when their mother, Suzy, was diagnosed with early-onset Alzheimer's. It has since partnered with Alzheimer's Greater Los Angeles in the hope of helping to find a cure. Their mother passed away on October 5, 2019.

Told MLB.com that he has a passion for music and he says from a young age he's always had a side passion for creating music. A few years back he bought software to create music and learned slowly how to create his own stuff. Started taking it more seriously during the 2019-2020 offseason and during the COVID-19 pandemic shutdown. His favorite artist is Kygo, who is known for popularizing the tropical house genre. Bishop's stage name is simply "Bish" and he's released three songs (Erase Me, Found My Way and I'll Go) out of a collection of about 25 that he's created. The music can be found on Apple Music, Spotify and bishmusic.com.

2020 SEASON

- Did not play due to the COVID-19 pandemic but did participate at the Giants Alternate Site and in the Giants Fall Instructional League.

Born in Maracaibo, the second-largest city in Venezuela after the national capital, Caracas. Maracaibo is one of the hottest cities of Venezuela and all of South America with an average temperature of 84.2 degrees.

Underwent Tommy John surgery on March 13, 2019 by Dr. David Altcheck in New York and missed the entire season.

CALL IT A COMEBACK

Played for Zulia in the Venezuelan Winter League this past offseason and was named the league's Closer of the Year and its Comeback Player of the Year. He posted a 0.69 ERA (1er, 13.0ip), registered eight saves, walked three, stuck out 12 and held opposing hitters to a .116 average.

Owns a 2.62 ERA in 78 career games for the Aguilas del Zulia in the Venezuelan Winter League.

Played for Venezuela in the 2017 World Baseball Classic. Saw action in one game vs. Italy. Was forced to leave the tournament due to an injured right hamstring.

Was personally coached in Venezuela by Ricardo Linares, who molded current and former big league players Sandy Leon, Jhoulys Chacin, Rougned Odor, Ender Inciarte and Gerardo Parra.

Donated baseball equipment to his hometown of Maracaibo's La Limpia Little League in 2019.

HOBBIES

His hobbies include playing poker and basketball. He also loves to spend time with his family and daughter.

Married to Evenly. Has a daughter, Silvana. He and his wife are serving as guardians to his nephew after his sister, Yuneids, was killed in a car accident at the age of 30 in Venezuela.

Evenly skipped one of her college classes to watch Silvino's tryout with the Diamondbacks in 2011. Silvino signed with the D-Backs on August 9, 2011.

2020 SEASON

- Was reinstated from the 45-day injured list (recovery from Tommy John surgery) on September 25 and appeared in just one game for Arizona, throwing 1.0 inning on September 26 vs. Colorado, his first big league appearance since 2018.

PITCH REPERTOIRE: Four-seam FB, Slider and Changeup

Was born in Boston, MA. Boston has won 39 Championships between the four major professional sports leagues and has recently been referred to as "Title Town" since winning 12 Championships since 2001.

Underwent Tommy John surgery on June 1, 2020. The surgery was performed by Dr. George Paletta in St. Louis. Is not expected to return to game action until mid-summer.

Was a part of the 2018 Major League Baseball All-Star team that took part in the Japan All-Star Series in November, 2018. Made three relief appearances during the series and also kept a running blog during his stay.

John and his wife, Amanda, make their offseason home in Smyrna, GA and have one son, Henry, who was born in 2019.

INDY BALL

After being released by the Yankees minor league system in 2013, Brebbia spent the 2014 and 2015 seasons pitching in Independent ball for the Sioux Falls Canaries (2014) and Laredo Lemurs (2015). Arizona eventually purchased his contract from the American Association in September 2015.

2019 CAMPAIGN

Established career bests in appearances (66), strikeouts (87), innings pitched (72.2) and holds (12) while pitching for St. Louis. Also ranked among NL relievers in innings pitched (8th), strikeouts (11th) and inherited runners scored percentage (25.0, 10th)

ORDER OF THE PHOENIX

Attended Elon University in Elon, NC where he pitched for the baseball team. During his freshman year, Brebbia helped the Phoenix secure an at-large bid to the 2009 NCAA Division 1 Baseball Tournament. In 2011, he went 7-1 with a 1.76 ERA in 27 relief appearances.

2020 SEASON

- Was placed on the 45-day Injured List on Opening Day of the shortened 2020 season with a torn ulnar collateral ligament in his right elbow and missed the entire season due to Tommy John surgery, performed by Dr. George Paletta in St. Louis on June 1.

HOW OBTAINED: Signed by San Francisco to a Major League contract on January 4, 2021

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2021

OPTIONS USED: 3/3

Was born in Walnut Creek, CA, which is located 40 minutes east of San Francisco. However, he was raised in New Canaan, CT, which is slightly northeast from Stamford.

Graduated from New Canaan (CT) High School, where he played football, basketball and baseball. As a quarterback was All-State in football after leading his team to the state championship.

Had four surgeries by the age of 30 – Tommy John surgery in 2009 (right elbow), bone chip removal in his right elbow in 2013, right hip surgery in 2017 and left hip surgery in 2018.

Credits Giants hitting coach Donnie Ecker with challenging him to experiment with new hitting techniques while they were both with the Reds in 2019. Casali says Ecker was a big reason he signed with San Francisco.

VandyBoys

Attended Vanderbilt and hit .300 in all four seasons. Was teammates of Sonny Gray and Pedro Álvarez and was hosted on his campus visit by Álvarez and David Price. He later graduated from Vanderbilt with a degree in corporate communications. Casali, Tyler Beede, Sam Selman and Mike Yastrzemski are all current Giants that attended Vandy.

DID WE JUST BECOME BEST FRIENDS?

Is best friends with fellow Giant Mike Yastrzemski. Casali was two years ahead of Yaz at Vanderbilt and they met when Casali was Yastrzemski's host on his official visit. They both currently live in Nashville and have worked out together every offseason. He was also a groomsman in Yaz's wedding and vice versa. Casali is very close with the Yastrzemski family, as well as Mike's wife's family. The two also lived together in Scottsdale during Spring Training in 2020.

Homered twice on August 27 and August 28, 2015, becoming the first rookie catcher in Major League history to hit at least 2 homers in consecutive appearances (off David Price (2), Anibal Sánchez, Bruce Rondón).

Caught all nine innings of RHP Victor Mateo's no-hitter on August 24, 2013 while playing for Double-A Montgomery in the Rays organization.

Was a high school teammate of NHL player and U.S. Olympian Max Pacioretty.

His father, Lou, played quarterback at Columbia University in 1979 and 1980.

Played for the 2010 Cape Cod League champion Cotuit Kettleers with James McCann (NYM) and C.J. Cron.

Is married to the former Rene Sobolewski, whom he met while at Vanderbilt. Rene was on the women's golf team.

Casali's brother and sister-in-law live in Redwood City. His brother-in-law, Ted Sobolewski, is the head men's rowing coach at Stanford after being appointed to the role in July 2019.

Graduated from Vanderbilt with a degree in Corporate Communications.

Curt has two younger brothers, Andrew and Chase. Andrew played baseball collegiately at the University of Maryland, Baltimore County (UMBC) while Chase graduated from Vanderbilt in 2020 and was a student manager on the baseball team from 2018-2020.

Born in Maracay, VZ, the capital of the Aragua state. In Venezuela, the city is known as the Ciudad Jardín or "Garden City". Other notable baseball players born in Maracay include Jose Altuve, Elvis Andrus and Miguel Cabrera.

Signed with the Giants in July of 2015 as a 16-year-old.

A converted catcher, Castro overcame elbow surgery that cost him nearly all of the 2017 and 2018 seasons to emerge as a top prospect for the Giants. He fashioned a 2.66 ERA in 67.2 innings over 14 starts for short-season Salem-Keizer in 2019.

ON THE

Added to the Giants' 40-man roster this past offseason. Castro has very good command and a fastball that has reached 100 mph.

After an overflow of the El Limón River in La Candelaria, a community in Venezuela, last September, Castro helped organize some monetary relief to aid families who had been impacted. With the funds, Castro's wife, mom and brothers were able to distribute simple items like salt, sugar, flour, feminine products, soap and other toiletries to distribute to those in need.

2020 SEASON

- Did not play due to the COVID-19 pandemic but did participate in the Fall Instructional League in Arizona.

LONGEST HR DISTANCE

Crawford's 443' home run on July 15, 2019 off the Rockies' Jesus Tinoco at Colorado is his longest home run in the Statcast era (since 2015).

HARDEST BATTED BALL

Crawford's 110.6 mph double off San Diego's Kevin Quackenbush on May 5, 2015 is his hardest hit ball in the Statcast era (since 2015).

HARDEST HIT HOME RUN

His 108.1 mph homer off the Padres' Ian Kennedy on September 24, 2015 at San Diego is his hardest-hit homer in the Statcast era (since 2015).

IN THE SF-ERA RECORD BOOKS

Entering the 2021 campaign, Crawford finds himself littered across the Giants regular season and postseason record books in the San Francisco era (1958-present)

Games - 5th (1,305)
Triples - 7th (38)
Doubles - 10th (234)
Hits - 12th (1,099)

RBI - 13th (564)
Walks - 13th (413)
Home Runs - 21st (106)
Batting Average - 24th (.250)

His 38 postseason games are tied with OF Hunter Pence for the third-most in SF-era history while his 17 postseason RBI are tied for the fifth-most and his 30 hits are the sixth-most.

Cheered on Giants teams led by Barry Bonds and Jeff Kent. His parents, Mike and Lynn, had season tickets and regularly took Brandon and his three younger sisters to games. Each spring the family headed to the Cactus League in Scottsdale, AZ to soak in the sun and collect autographs. Come summer, the Crawfords spent nights at Candlestick Park.

His Player's Weekend nickname is DJ BC Raw. Comes up with the BP music mixes that are played during Giants' batting practice at Oracle Park.

1st Giant to win a Gold Glove and Silver Slugger in the same season (2015) since Barry Bonds in 1997.

HOMEGROWN

Attended nearby Foothill High School where he was a three-sport athlete playing football, basketball and baseball. Was the starting quarterback for the Foothill Falcons and graduated in the class of 2005.

His sister Amy, a former softball player at UCLA, is married to another former Bruin, Gerrit Cole, who now pitches for the Yankees.

GRAND DEBUT

Made his MLB debut on May 27, 2011 at Milwaukee. Hit a grand slam in the 7th inning to become only the sixth player in MLB history to hit a grand slam in his first big league game.

Attended UCLA, where he was a physiological sciences major. Played baseball for the Bruins from 2006 to 2008, and started 179 straight games where he helped lead the team to the NCAA Regionals in three consecutive seasons. Was named the team's MVP in 2006 and 2007.

IN THE COMMUNITY

The three-time MLBPAA Giants Heart & Hustle Award winner (2015-2016, 2018) is involved with the following organizations: Guide Dogs for the Blind, Greater Bay Area Make-A-Wish Foundation, Take Me Out to the Ballgame Ticket Donation Program, Giants Community Fund - Junior Giants, Big League Impact and Casa Colina (Craw Crawford proceeds) and Nancy & Stephen Grand Family House.

Married to Jalyne Dantzcher on November 26, 2011. They have two daughters named Bralyn Ann (December 18, 2012) and Jaydyn April (March 8, 2014), and two sons named Braxton Michael (January 15, 2016) and Bryson Ryder (June 18, 2018).

2020 SEASON

- Hit .256 with 26 runs scored, 12 doubles, eight homers and 28 RBI in 54 games.
- Started 47 games all at shortstop and committed eight errors in 201 total chances.
- Majority of his starts came against right-handed starters as he was 37-for-141 (.262) against righties...was just 7-for-31 (.226) against left-handed pitchers.
- Hit the 100th home run of his career on August 20 vs. Los Angeles-AL.
- Had a six-RBI game on September 1 at Colorado, matching the second-most RBI in his career (also 2015).
- Hit his fifth career grand slam (fourth in regular season, one in postseason) September 20 at Oakland.

NL STRIKEOUT LEADER

Was born in San Pedro de Macoris and still lives there in a house not far from his childhood home. He owns a farm outside the city where he has 15 horses, including two paso finos, the smooth-gaited trail horses imported to the Caribbean generations ago from Spain.

Underwent Tommy John surgery August 2, 2018. He missed 61 games in 2018 trying to rehab the injury (a right elbow sprain), however after returning from the injured list his velocity was noticeably down. The surgery was performed by Dr. Neal ElAttrache in Los Angeles.

128 Entering 2021, Cueto's 128 career wins are the 13th-most among active pitchers. Also ranks 15th for games started (308) and innings pitched (1,919.7).

FROM OUTFIELDER TO PITCHER

Growing up, Cueto was an outfielder. However, as he rose from Little League to higher levels of competition against hungry and talented Dominican players, he wasn't keeping up. He wasn't particularly fast and didn't have much of a bat. His talent was in his arm. He could nail a runner at home from the farthest depths of right field. One day, when he was about to turn 16, a coach told him that if he were going to make it in baseball, it would be from a pitcher's mound. So he learned to pitch.

Cueto does not miss being an outfielder. "Pitching is much easier," he says. "[As an outfielder,] you're hitting and running and throwing. You have to do too much. I say, 'No, I'll go on the mound.' I liked hitting when I was a kid. I hate it now. Too much running."

Cueto is the second of five children, four boys and a girl (his sister died several years ago of kidney failure). Says he never worked at anything except baseball. His mother encouraged him to focus on the game and would pull him out of bed in the morning to go workout. She made sure Cueto always had baseball equipment.

Cueto has nearly 100,000 followers on his Twitter account and 273,000 on his Instagram account as of February 2021. Some of Cueto's most popular Instagram photos are him climbing Camelback Mountain in Scottsdale, AZ, exercise photos, shots of food and candid pictures of him at home in the D.R. on his ranch with his horses.

In 2009, he was a member of the Dominican Republic national baseball team. He missed the tournament in 2013 due to injury. Was scheduled to represent the Dominican Republic once again in the 2017 World Baseball Classic, but was unable to attend the opening rounds due to his father falling ill (the Dominican Republic was eliminated in the second round), thus Cueto missed the tournament again.

Throughout most of his career, Cueto has used his pitches from four different windups: the traditional windup, the 'Tiant', the quick pitch and the 'rocking chair', which have contributed to his big league success.

Received the Wilson Defensive Player of the Year Award for his position in 2014.

Involved with the following organizations: Giants Community Fund, Take Me Out to the Ballgame Ticket Donation Program and Greater Bay Area Make-A-Wish Foundation.

IN THE POSTSEASON

Has made five postseason rosters in his career (three with Cincinnati, one with Kansas City and one with San Francisco). Has been to the postseason five times in the last 10 seasons.. Is 2-4 with a 4.54 ERA (21er, 41.2ip) and two complete games in eight career postseason starts.

LA FAMILIA

Has three children named Johnny Jr., Yeiliani and Joander.

CUETO AMONG DOMINICAN-BORN PITCHERS

Entering 2021, his 128 career victories are the seventh-most by a Dominican-born pitcher, trailing Bartolo Colon (247), Juan Marichal (243), Pedro Martinez (219), Ervin Santana (149), Ramon Martinez (135) and Pedro Astacio (129).

Cueto has made 308 career starts entering 2021, seventh-most all-time by a pitcher born in the Dominican Republic. Ubaldo Jimenez (315) is sixth while Pedro Astacio is fifth with 343 career starts.

2020 SEASON

- Completed his fifth season with San Francisco in 2020, making a team-best 12 starts while leading the team in innings pitched (63.1ip).
- His 5.40 ERA was the highest ERA among qualified NL pitchers and the second highest in the Majors overall behind Detroit's Matt Boyd (6.71 ERA).
- Over his final six starts, he went 0-3 and posted a 6.40 ERA (23er, 32.1ip) with the Giants going 3-3 in those games...he allowed at least six runs three times but did not permit more than three runs in any of the other three starts.
- Dealt with a sore left hip after his September 13 start at San Diego.
- Struggled to get the first pitch over to a strike compared to his previous seasons with SF, getting a first-pitch strike on 55.6 percent of his first-pitches... his 55.6 first-pitch strike percentage was the second-lowest among qualified pitchers this year behind the White Sox Dallas Keuchel 54.7.
- Opponents went 10-for-80 (.125) with six singles, two doubles and two homers on Cueto's changeup this year...he's used the pitch to account for 27 of his 56 strikeouts in 2020...the .125 clip was the fourth-lowest among pitchers with at least 50 PA on changeups.

Grew up in Fremont, CA, the fourth most populous city in the San Francisco Bay Area, behind San Jose, San Francisco, and Oakland.

Attended John F. Kennedy High School in Fremont, CA. Played one year at Skyline College before committing to Embry-Riddle University. Majored in security and counter-terrorism at Embry Riddle.

Underwent Tommy John surgery on June 1, 2018 and missed the rest of the 2018 season. Returned to action with Double-A Richmond in mid-April of 2019.

Was a huge Tim Lincecum fan and waited in line to see him at Fan Fest when he was in high school. He asked Lincecum "I just want to know how you hold your changeup." After a long mastering process, Cyr now uses a split-finger changeup grip similar to Lincecum's.

Was involved with fundraising for Northern CA wildfire victims. On Jan. 5, 2018, he helped organize a benefit for Sonoma County fire victims who lost their baseball equipment in the fires, by putting on a baseball clinic and donating all of the proceeds to the cause. Cyr joined Marcus Semien and several other pro baseball players, past and present as instructors.

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired by San Francisco from Minnesota on July 31, 2019 along with RHP Prelander Berroa and RHP Kai-Wei Teng in exchange for RHP Sam Dyson.

OPTIONS USED: 1/3

Was born in Greensboro, NC, the third-most populous city in North Carolina. The city is home to the Greensboro Grasshoppers, High-A affiliate of the Pittsburgh Pirates in the South Atlantic League. It also serves as home base for the headquarters of the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Davis attended Northeast Guilford High School in McLeansville, NC. He played college baseball at Appalachian State University. Missed most of his junior season after surgery for a torn right labrum. The injury diminished his value in the 2015 June draft. The Twins selected him in the 24th round. He rehabbed the torn labrum with the Twins through 2016.

GATORADE SHOWER

On September 25, 2019, Davis hit his first Major League home run, a walk-off blast off Rockies' RHP DJ Johnson. He became just the second Giants player in the SF-era (since 1958) to log his first career homer with a walk-off winner with the only other being Fran Healy who did it in 1971.

On July 31, 2019, Davis (along with Prelander Berroa and Kai-Wei Teng) was traded to the Giants in exchange for Sam Dyson. Following the trade, he was assigned to the Sacramento River Cats. Playing for the three minor league teams in 2019 he hit a combined .306/.397/.590 with 35 home runs, 10 stolen bases, and 94 RBI.

Jaylin was named after basketball player Jalen Rose. When his little brother came along twelve years later, his parents let Jaylin name the new baby. He chose Amari, after Amari Cooper.

HOW OBTAINED: Signed by San Francisco to a Major League contract on December 16, 2020

PITCH REPERTOIRE: Four-seam FB, Changeup, Curveball, Slider, Sinker

Was born in Freehold, NJ, which is located within the Raritan Valley region and is a suburb for New York City commuters and a regional commercial hub for Central New Jersey.

Graduated from Colts Neck High School in Colts Neck, NJ in 2008. Following his senior year, he was selected by Boston in the 22nd round of the First-Year Player Draft but elected to attend college.

A CAREER YEAR IN 2019

Established a career high in strikeouts (167) and tied his career highs in wins (nine) and starts (31).

On June 23, 2019 at Milwaukee, he became the second Major League pitcher in 2019 to record nine strikeouts through the first 3.0 innings of a game.

Had a streak of five starts with at least 6.0 innings and three hits or fewer from Aug. 28-Sept. 2, tied for the second-longest such streak in MLB history (since 1893).

On June 23, 2018 vs. Chicago-NL, he recorded his first career home run, a grand slam off Brian Duensing.

Missed the entire 2017 season with a sprained ulnar collateral ligament in his right elbow and the first two months of the 2018 campaign with a left oblique strain suffered in his third spring training appearance.

In his Major League debut on May 14, 2014 at Los Angeles-NL he earned the win and recorded two RBI, becoming the sixth starting pitcher since 1914 to produce a win and two RBI in his big league debut. That start was made in place of an injured José Fernández.

ROOKIE LEADER

In 2015, DeSclafani led all National League rookies in starts (31) and innings pitched (184.2ip).

Attended the University of Florida where he played three seasons in Gainesville. Helped lead the Gators to a College World Series appearance during his final season in 2011 before they lost to South Carolina in the finals.

Anthony and his wife, Lauren, welcomed their first child, a boy named Cru James, on August 25, 2020.

Hobbies include cooking, being a foodie, playing the guitar and enjoying the outdoors. His favorite ways to spend an off day are: spending time with family, exploring different towns and cities and trying new restaurants.

His nickname is Disco, which he received during his freshman year at Florida when a senior teammate couldn't pronounce his last name so he called him Disco instead.

2020 SEASON

- Made nine appearances (seven starts) in 2020, going 1-2 with a 7.22 ERA.
- Began the season on the 10-day injured list with a mild right teres major strain.
- His two relief appearances in 2020 marked his first since the 2014 season and snapped his streak of consecutive appearances as a starter at 110.
- Produced a career-worst 10.1% walk-rate and his 15.8% strikeout-rate was among the bottom 9% in the league, according to Baseball Savant.
- Traveled to the Wild Card Series at ATL as part of the Reds' 40-player postseason pool but was not on the 28-man active roster.

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired by San Francisco from San Diego in exchange for RHP Franklin Van Gorp on June 10, 2019.

OPTIONS USED: 2/3

Was born and raised in Poway, CA. Poway is located in San Diego county and is roughly 22 miles north of downtown San Diego. Former Giants manager Bruce Bochy makes his offseason home in Poway. The city is also where the band Blink-182 formed in the early 1990s.

Dickerson attended Poway High School in the San Diego area and was two years behind former Giants manager Bruce Bochy's son, Brett (who appeared in seven games with the Giants from 2014-2015).

Dickerson didn't play in 2017 or 2018. A torn ulnar collateral ligament in his elbow in 2018 required Tommy John surgery.

A NIGHT TO REMEMBER

Had a historic night on September 1 at Colorado, matching Willie Mays (April 30, 1961) for the most total bases (16) in a game in Giants franchise history. Dickerson homered three times for the first time in his career while also hitting a pair of doubles. He had career-highs in hits (5), runs scored (5) and matched his career-best in RBI (6). His five extra-base hits tied the most in a single game in MLB history and set a franchise record.

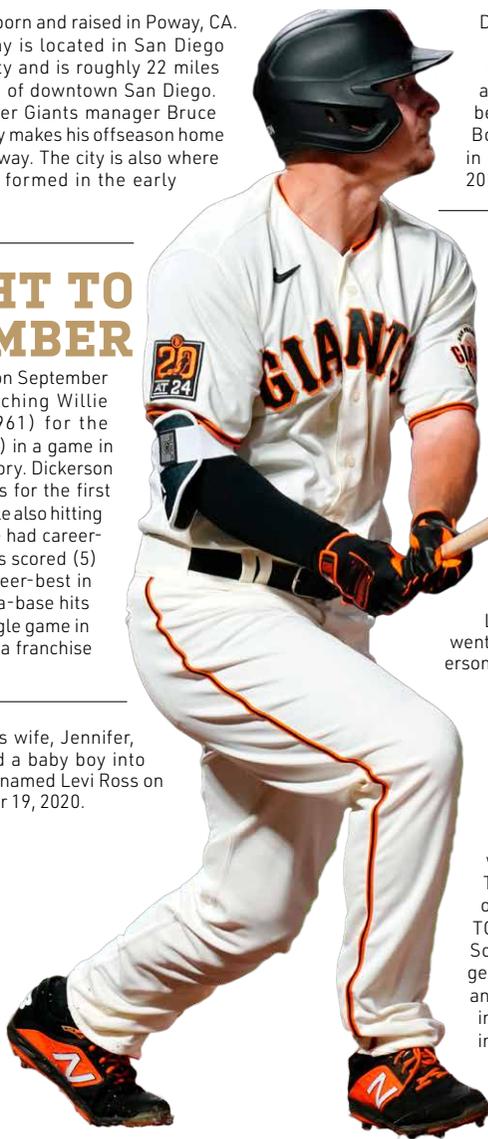

He and his wife, Jennifer, welcomed a baby boy into the world named Levi Ross on September 19, 2020.

Is one of two current Giants to attend Indiana University. LHP Caleb Baragar went to IU from 2015 to 2016 while Dickerson was on campus from 2009-2011.

TOP GUN

His father, Ross, was a career Naval Flight Officer who retired in 2002 when Alex was 12. He flew F-14 Tomcats from aircraft carriers all over the world and was a graduate of TOPGUN, the Naval Weapons Fighter School. He made seven deployments generally lasting eight months at a time and returned to the States permanently in 1999, when Alex was nine. He retired in 2002 at the rank of Commander.

114.6 MPH

HARDEST BATTED BALL

Dickerson's 114.6 mph single off the Angels' Griffin Canning on August 17, 2020 is his hardest hit ball in the Statcast era (since 2015).

HARDEST HIT HOME RUN

His 112.9 mph homer off the Cardinals' Dakota Hudson on July 5, 2019 at St. Louis is his hardest-hit homer in the Statcast era (since 2015).

2020 SEASON

- Hit .298 (45-for-151) with 10 doubles, one triple, 10 home runs and 27 RBI in 52 games.
- First 29 games from July 23-August 29: .207 batting average, three homers, 12 RBI, five extra-base hits.
- Last 18 games from August 30-September 27: .406 batting average, seven homers, 15 RBI, 16 extra-base hits.
- Batted .462 (18-for-39) with six homers and 10 RBI in 10 games against Colorado while hitting .241 (27-for-112) with four home runs and 17 RBI in 42 games against all other teams.
- Made 38 starts -- 33 in left field, three in right field and two as the DH.
- Started majority of his games against right-handed starters, going 42-for-140 (.300)...had just 11 at-bats against lefties, going 3-for-11 (.273).
- Made his first career Opening Day roster and was in the starting lineup that night at Los Angeles-NL, playing left field...Dickerson gave the Giants their 14th different Opening Day left fielder in 14 years.
- Had a historic night on September 1 at Colorado, matching Willie Mays (April 30, 1961) for the most total bases (16) in a game in Giants franchise history... Dickerson homered three times for the first time in his career while also hitting a pair of doubles...had career-highs in hits (five), runs scored (five) and matched his career-best in RBI (six)...his five extra-base hits tied the most in a single game in MLB history and set a franchise record.
- Became the first Giants player to score five runs and drive in at least five runs in a game since Phil Weintraub on June 12, 1944 against the Dodgers... Weintraub actually pulled that feat off twice during the summer of 1944, and both instances came against the Giants' Brooklyn rivals.

- No player had recorded three homers and two doubles in a Modern Era Major League game until Kris Bryant did so for the Cubs on June 27, 2016...then Matt Carpenter followed just over two years later in that 2018 game at Wrigley Field...now, Dickerson has grown that exclusive club to three players in the last five years -- when none had previously done so across the first 115 years of Modern Era baseball.
- Dickerson's first homer of the night flew a projected 480 feet into Coors Field's right field second deck, setting a new Giants Statcast record...Brandon Belt previously owned San Francisco's longest homer (475 on May 22, 2015)...Dickerson's drive also was the third-longest homer across MLB in 2020, trailing only a 495-foot blast by Atlanta's Ronald Acuna Jr and a 483-foot blast from the Yankees' Giancarlo Stanton.
- Was removed from the game on September 7 vs. Arizona after fouling a ball off his right knee...underwent X-rays, which came back negative...was diagnosed with a right knee contusion and was day-to-day.
- Placed on paternity list Sept. 19 as he and his wife, Jennifer, welcomed a baby boy into the world named Levi Ross.
- Hit his third career pinch-hit home run on September 22 vs. Colorado off RHP Jairo Diaz.

Was born in Yamasá, DR, which is just over an hour north of Santo Domingo. The primary crops grown in Yamasá are sugar cane, plantains and mangoes.

It took three international signing periods for Doval to catch on with a professional team, as he signed with the Giants as an 18-year-old in October 2015.

MINOR LEAGUE ACCOLADES

2018 MiLB.com Organizational All-Star (San Francisco)2019 CAL Mid-Season All-Star (San Jose)

Was a non-roster invitee to big league camp (Spring Training 2.0) for the first time in his career in 2020.

PROSPECTING

Entering the 2021 season, Doval is rated as the 20th-best prospect in the Giants' farm system according to Baseball America.

ON THE

Added to the Giants' 40-man roster this past offseason. Spent the 2020 season at the Giants' Alternate Training Site in Sacramento and was added to the team's taxi squad in late September.

His fastball gained about 10 mph in the three years between him joining the Giants and reaching a full-season affiliate in 2018. Pitching solely in relief, he averaged 12.8 strikeouts per 9.0 innings in his first four professional seasons. His fastball ranges from 93-98 mph and repeatedly reaches triple digits.

2020 SEASON

- Did not play due to the COVID-19 pandemic...was a part of the 60-man Player Pool from the beginning of the restart and spent the year at the Alternate Training Site.
- Was added to the Giants taxi squad in late September but was never activated.
- Participated in the Fall Instructional League.

Enjoys playing golf and video games.

Owns a pug named Chorizo.

Was born in San Pedro Sula, Honduras. It is the capital of the Cortés Department and is the primary industrial center and second largest city in the country. Is the only city in the country to hold two football stadiums, the Estadio Olímpico Metropolitano & the Estadio Francisco Morazán.

Dubón was born and grew up in Honduras, where he attended a bilingual school. His older brother, Danilo, happened to love baseball and turned him on to the game. Danilo now plays for the Honduran National team.

Dubón's first love was soccer. He spent much of his childhood playing it with his friends in the streets. His speed and athletic ability made him a nightmare to defend, and he quickly emerged as one of the best players among his peers.

Dubón will never forget this day when he arrived at a baseball clinic in San Pedro Sula. There he met Andy Rithey, who was running IMPACT, a Christian mission group from California that supplied baseball equipment to underprivileged children. Dubón expressed his desire to play in the U.S. and three days later he moved to Sacramento, CA to attend Capital Christian as a foreign exchange student and live with Rithey, his wife Sandy and their three kids.

On July 7, 2019 while playing for Milwaukee, he became the second Honduran-born player to reach the Majors, joining Gerald Young, but the first to be born-and-raised in Honduras.

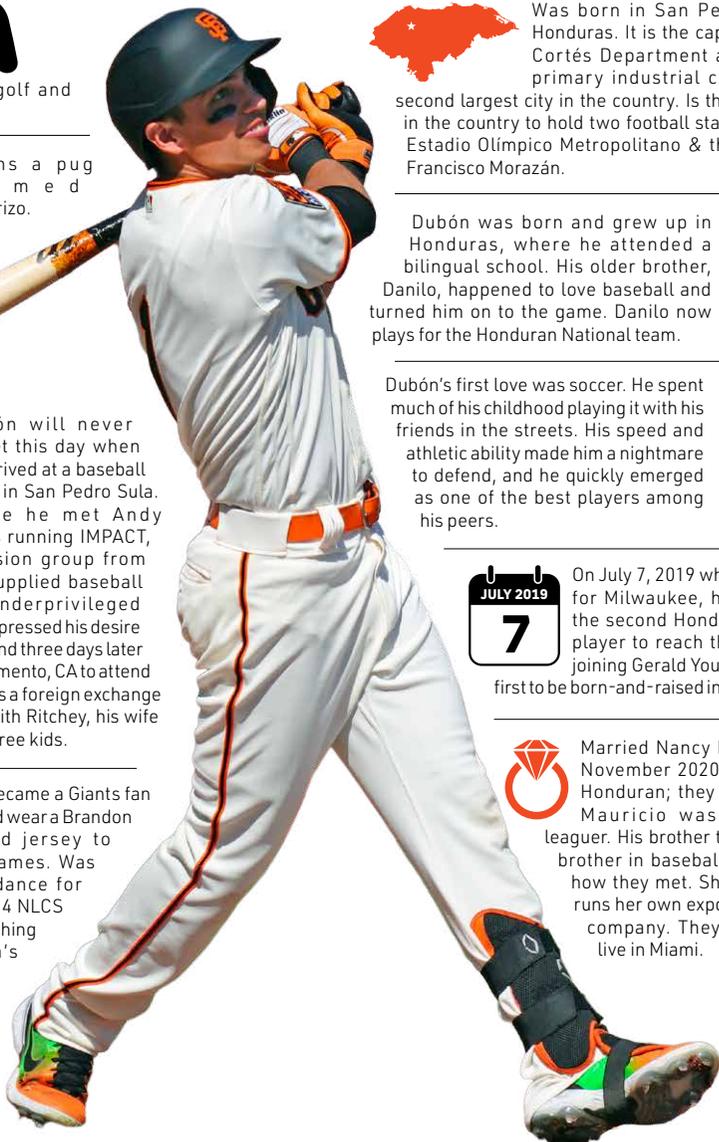

Married Nancy Herrera in November 2020. Nancy is Honduran; they met when Mauricio was a minor leaguer. His brother trained her brother in baseball, which is how they met. She's 24 and runs her own export training company. They currently live in Miami.

Quickly became a Giants fan and would wear a Brandon Crawford jersey to Giants games. Was in attendance for Game 5 of the 2014 NLCS vs. St. Louis, watching Travis Ishikawa's walk-off homer from the upper deck down the third base line.

HARDEST HIT HOME RUN

His 104.3 mph homer off Colorado's Yency Almonte on September 23, 2020 is his hardest-hit homer in the Statcast era (since 2015).

IN THE COMMUNITY

Provides baseball equipment to children in Honduras every year in December.

Raised close to $20,000 for Honduras this past offseason after Hurricane Eta struck the country... the money went to providing food, nonperishable items and bottled water among other things.

2020 SEASON

- Hit .274 (43-for-157) with 21 runs scored, four doubles, one triple, four homers and 19 RBI in 54 games.
- His .341 clip against left-handers ranked as the 11th-best batting average in the NL.
- An infielder for all of his minor league career (475 games at SS, 113 at 2B, 11 at 3B), Dubon played the majority of his games in 2020 in center field, making 33 starts at that position while also logging seven at second base and six at shortstop.
- Made his first career Opening Day roster & was in the starting lineup that night playing second at Dodger Stadium.
- Hit what he called his biggest home run of his young career on September 23 vs. Colorado, hitting a go-ahead, three-run shot off Yency Almonte in the 5th inning as the Giants were in the middle of a postseason race.

Was raised in Moore, SC, just south of Spartanburg. At one point, Moore was home to the studio of the Marshall Tucker band.

Tried soccer when he was young but once he was introduced to baseball, he was hooked. His first position was first base. "Then a coach saw me run and said, 'This guy doesn't need to be playing first base,' Duggar said. He went to the outfield and never left. "I like to run", he says, "and take hits away. I really enjoy playing defense. It's always felt natural to me."

HIGH FIVE

Is the only Giant in the live-ball era (since 1920) to hit five-or-more doubles in his first five career games.

Married to Brianna Blanton.

Duggar was ranked the number two prospect in South Carolina by Baseball America. He followed his childhood friend, Daniel Gossett, to Clemson. Gossett is now a pitcher in the Boston Red Sox organization.

Because his middle school didn't have a baseball team, students were allowed to try out for the local high school team,

James Byrnes High, in nearby Duncan, SC. Duggar made the junior varsity team as a seventh-grader. During practice one day, he was shagging flies and made a spectacular diving catch that drew a bunch of whoas and wows. Several weeks into the season, he was promoted to varsity. His coach, Chris Carter, was a big influence in his life by giving him a chance to play at the varsity level as a seventh grader.

His 2018 season ended on August 29 when he was placed on the 10-day injured list with a torn labrum in his left shoulder, suffered while diving back into second base the night prior. His 2019 season ended when he dove and sprained the same shoulder in early August.

Attended James F. Byrnes High School in Duncan, SC and played college baseball at Clemson University. Was a starting outfielder in all three years of his collegiate career.

HOW OBTAINED: Signed by San Francisco to a Major League contract on February 12, 2020.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2021 with a team option for 2022

OPTIONS USED: 3/3

Grew up in Valencia, VZ, which is the capital city in the Carabobo state and third-largest city in Venezuela. The city is home to the Venezuelan League's Navegantes del Magallanes, which plays during the winter.

Graduated from Inra High School in Valencia, VZ in 2007.

THE ONE WHERE...

His favorite TV show is Friends and has used the show's theme song "I'll Be There For You" as his at-bat music. One of the ways he improved his English was by watching all 236 episodes.

Received the Thurman Munson Award on February 7, 2017, given annually to New York City athletes for their work both on and off the field.

Made his Major League debut on his birthday (August 6, 2013). Was also signed by the Mets on his birthday in 2007 as a 16-year-old.

WILMERRRR!!

Grew up in a family of eight that included three brothers and two sisters. Of the five men in the family, four have the name Wilmer. His brother, Wilmer De Jesus Flores, was signed by the Detroit Tigers last year. Wilmer De Jesus is a pitcher.

CATIRE

With four of the five men in the Flores household carrying the name Wilmer, the Giants' Wilmer Flores was given the nickname catire (pronounced kah-tear-ay), which means blonde, fair-haired, fair-skinned person, shortly after being born.

I was blonde when I was born. So since the first day, they've just called me that in my family, and that's how it stayed.

- Was one of the Giants' best relievers, fashioning a 0.49 ERA (1er, 18.1ip) in 19 relief outings.
- Among MLB relievers w/15.0IP, only MIL's Devin Wil-liams (0.33 ERA) and OAK's Jake Diekman (0.42) had a lower ERA.
- Held opposition to a .180 (11-for-61) average against with just two extra-base hits allowed (two doubles).
- Right-handed batters hit just .188 (6-for-32) off him while lefties batted .172 (5-for-29).
- Three of his six runs allowed came in his final outing of the season on September 27 vs. San Diego.

Grew up in Honolulu, HI. Honolulu is the capital and largest city in Hawaii. The city is also a major hub for international business and military defense, as well as being host to a diverse variety of east-west and Pacific cultures, cuisine, and traditions.

Attended Saint Louis High School in Honolulu, Hawaii. Went to Hawaii Pacific University and studied advertising/public relations.

HERITAGE

Born in Honolulu, Hawaii and is half Puerto Rican and half Filipino. Resides in Kapolei, Hawaii during the offseason.

RICO SUAVE

Born as Joshua Rico Garcia. According to Garcia, "Growing up, there were always, two or three different Joshes. My dad [Eddie] was the coach and he just started calling me Rico and it just stuck with me in sports. Teammates knew me as Rico, but all my classmates knew me as Josh, so that was kind of funny." And the use of his middle name led to Garcia's nickname, Rico Suave.

Drafted by the Colorado Rockies in the 30th round of the 2016 MLB Draft and made his MLB debut with them in 2019. Prior to getting drafted by Colorado he had offers to continue his baseball career in Germany.

FOUR

Is one of four Giants players to be born in the state of Hawaii and appear in the big leagues, joining Jerome Williams (2003-05), Jessie Reid (1987-88) and Chad Santos (2006).

Selected by Colorado in the 30th round of the 2016 First-Year Player Draft; signed by Matt Hattabaugh.

Re-signed by San Francisco to a minor league contract on December 9, 2020.

Signed by San Francisco to a minor league contract on January 6, 2020.

Rico wore No. 21 on Roberto Clemente Day in 2020 to pay tribute to the native Puerto Rican. Garcia, who is part Puerto Rican, learned about Clemente from his father, Eddie, who was 12 when Clemente passed away.

When Rico was 12, his father brought him to Cooperstown in 2006 to look at the Hall of Fame's Clemente exhibits. They then drove from Upstate NY to Pittsburgh where they took in the 2006 Home Run Derby and All-Star festivities at PNC Park, which has homages to the late Clemente.

When Rico was in the minor leagues his brother worked at United Airlines. That connection allowed Eddie to travel across the US without charge and follow Rico's team around the country for a season.

In 2020, Garcia used the song Suave Like Rico by Suavency as his warm up song.

Situated in Arapahoe County, CO, Centennial, got its name from Colorado's nickname "Centennial State." The state was admitted to the union in 1876, the 100th year anniversary of the United States Declaration of Independence, hence the name Centennial.

Gausman also wears his home state pride on his left arm, where he has a sleeve tattoo that includes spot color of the red and gold "C" logo that is on the Colorado state flag.

Married his wife, Taylor, in December 2016. The couple have one daughter named Sadie.

Attended Grandview High School in Centennial, Colorado. Grew up a Rockies fan.

THANK U, NEXT

The Dodgers drafted him in the sixth round of the 2010 draft, but he did not sign and instead played college baseball for the LSU Tigers.

DOC HALLADAY

Before the 2018 season, Gausman changed from his old number of 39 to 34, in honor of the late former Toronto Blue Jays and Philadelphia Phillies pitcher Roy Halladay. Gausman said Halladay was his idol growing up because they both hailed from Colorado.

MR. PERFECT

Has two career immaculate innings (striking out three batters in one inning on just nine pitches) - first on April 23, 2018 against the Indians and August 18, 2019 against the Cardinals.

POSTSEASON

Has appeared in the postseason twice in his career, once in 2014 with Baltimore and once in 2018 with Atlanta.

Lexington, KY is known as the "Horse Capital of the World." The Kentucky Wildcats, the athletic program of the University of Kentucky, is Lexington's most popular sports entity.

Attended Tates Creek High School. In 2010, a writer with The State Journal referred to him as "one of the best pitchers in the state."

Gott played college baseball at the University of Kentucky from 2011 to 2013. After his freshman year, he pitched in the Cape Cod Baseball League, where he was the winner of the Russell Ford Award as the league's reliever of the year. As a sophomore in 2012, Gott set the Kentucky record for saves in a season with nine. Before the start of the 2013 season, he had recovered from a minor bout of bursitis and he was on the preseason watch list for the NCBWA Stopper of the Year Award. That year he broke his own single-season save record, finishing with 12, and he also set the school's all-time saves record with 20.

Sixth round pick by the Padres in 2013. Traded to Angels in 2014 and made MLB debut June 14, 2015, at age 22. Was traded before the 2016 season to the Nationals, who parked him in Triple-A. Spent 2017 bouncing between the Nats' minors and Majors - failing at times. He pitched in just four Major League games that season. Discovered he had been suffering from a bilateral sports hernia that needed surgery. Missed the rest of the 2017 season.

WITH SAN FRANCISCO...

Acquired by the Giants from the Nationals in 2019 and has spent the past two seasons in San Francisco, going 8-2 with a 5.46 ERA in 65 games. Has landed on the IL three different times with a strained right forearm, strained right elbow and right elbow inflammation.

FAMILY Has a daughter named Carson Olivia.

Was born in Fridley, MN. Fridley is a city in Anoka County, Minnesota. It is a first ring suburb in the northern part of the Twin Cities.

Attended Mahtomedi High School in Mahtomedi, MN where he played baseball and basketball.

At 6-foot-11 he would tie Jon Rauch as the tallest player in Major League history.

PRONUNCIATION GUIDE

Last name is pronounced "Jelly". Sean is Norwegian-German on his father's side and Italian-Polish on his mother's side.

In 2017, as a sophomore at Kentucky, was named the Southeastern Conference's Pitcher of the Year after logging a 9-2 record with a 3.17 ERA.

FAMILY HISTORY

Hjelle's great-great grandmother's family moved from Germany to Russia at the behest of the monarchy which needed labor. In return the czar promised the men they would not be required to serve in the Russian army, which was mandatory.

Won two tickets to Disney on Ice by winning a dance-off at a Phoenix Suns game during Spring Training last season.

Hjelle told the San Francisco Chronicle that his family went over there and were told they had to serve in the military, breaking the deal. So they instead came to America and got a farm in South Dakota before eventually settling in Minnesota.

2020 SEASON

- Did not play due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

HOW OBTAINED: Signed by San Francisco as a minor league free agent on February 9, 2021

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2021 OPTIONS USED: 2/3

PITCH REPERTOIRE: 4-Seam Fastball, Slider, Splitfing

Was born in Burlington, NC, which is located 30 minutes east of Greensboro. The city is home to the Burlington Sock Puppets, a member of the reformed Appalachian League that serves as a collegiate summer league.

Graduated from Eastern Alliance High School in Haw River, NC where he also was a tight end on the football team. He was committed to attending Appalachian State University before signing after being drafted in 2013.

Had a breakout 2019 with Minnesota, posting a 2.68 ERA in 29 games and going a perfect 6-0 across five different stints in the Majors. He held opponents scoreless in 247 of 27 appearances from June 18 to the end of the season, including 10 straight from June 18-July 19 (11.0 innings).

Earned his first Major League win on June 18, 2019 vs. Boston, twirling 2.0 scoreless innings.

Made his Major League debut as the starting pitcher for Game 2 of a doubleheader vs. Chicago-AL on June 5, 2018. Suffered the loss but did strike out the first batter he faced, Yoán Moncada.

Originally selected by Seattle in the 11th round of the 2013 First-Year Player Draft.

Has been traded twice in his career, first on November 18, 2016 from Seattle to New York-AL in exchange for LHP James Pazos. Was traded again on July 30, 2017, this time going to Minnesota along with LHP Dietrich Enns in exchange for LHP Jaime García.

Had a stellar year in 2017, going a combined 19-1 with a 2.12 ERA (37er, 157.0ip) in 27 games (25 starts) between Class-A Advanced Tampa, Double-A Trenton and Double-A Chattanooga. He was a Mid-Season All-Star with Tampa and was then voted MilB.com Fans' Choice Best Starting Pitcher while at Chattanooga after being traded in late July.

MINOR LEAGUE ACCOLADES

- 2016 MID Pitcher of the Week (June 12 w/Clinton)
 CAL Pitcher of the Week (August 21 w/Bakersfield)
 CAL Player of the Month (July w/Bakersfield)
- 2017 FSL Mid-Season All-Star (Tampa)
 MilB.com Fans' Choice for Best Starter (Chattanooga)

Favorite team growing up was the Braves because they were the closest team to his home. Favorite player was Chipper Jones.

He and his wife, Autumn, were married in 2019.

2020 SEASON

- Appeared in nine games for Minnesota and posted a 9.95 ERA (7er, 6.1ip) in six games.
- Made the Twins Opening Day roster but made two appearances before landing on the 10-day injured list with a left hamstring strain on August 1 (retro to July 31).
- Was activated off the injured list on August 13 and made two appearances before being optioned to the Alternate Training Site on August 19.
- Recalled the next day (August 20) and made two more appearances before going back on the 10-day injured list, this time with right elbow inflammation.
- Was activated off the IL on September 6 and optioned to the Alternate Training Site.
- Was outrighted to the Alternate Training Site on September 16.

Born in Clovis, CA, located 6.5 miles northeast of downtown Fresno. Situated midway between Los Angeles and San Francisco, Clovis is known as the "Gateway to the Sierras" as it lies at the foot of the Sierra Nevada Mountain Range.

Attended Sacramento State University and is a 2013 graduate of Del Campo High School in Fair Oaks, CA.

MiLB

In three minor league seasons, he's posted a 2.95 ERA, 1.169 WHIP and a 27.2% strikeout rate against an 8.5% walk rate in 61 games, 43 of which have come in a relief role.

Released by Tampa on the last day of Spring Training in 2018. Long made the decision to stop playing baseball and went back to school to take summer classes and get his EMT certification. Had an end goal of being a firefighter.

The time also allowed his back to fully heal (he'd suffered two herniated disks during his junior year at Sac State but pitched through it). In October 2018, he decided to give baseball another shot.

Trained at Optimum Athletics in Sacramento and had one of his posted bullpen videos picked up by @PitchingNinja (run by Rob Friedman) on Twitter. The White Sox saw the video and a few days later he signed there.

2020 SEASON

- Did not play due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Clubbed his 300th career homer on August 21, 2020 vs. Arizona. He is one only 151 players in Major League history to reach the 300 homer plateau.

Has made 11 consecutive Opening Day starts at third base, the longest active streak by any third baseman in MLB.

Grew up in Downey, CA, a suburb of Los Angeles. The city is the birthplace of the Apollo space program. Downey was founded by and named for the former and youngest ever governor of California, John Gately Downey, who was born in Ireland.

LONGEST HR DISTANCE

Longoria's 462' blast on July 19, 2016 off Tyler Chatwood at Colorado is his longest home run in the Statcast era (since 2015).

HARDEST BATTED BALL

Longoria's 111.5 mph single off the Dodgers' Julio Urias is the hardest-hit ball in the Statcast era (since 2015).

110.4 MPH

HARDEST HIT HOME RUN

His 110.4 mph two-run homer off Clayton Richard on April 14, 2018 at San Diego is his hardest-hit homer in the Statcast era (since 2015).

Graduated from Saint John Bosco High School in Bellflower, CA. Did not receive any scholarship offers to play college baseball. Attended Rio Hondo Community College during his freshman season before Long Beach State offered him a scholarship. Because Long Beach already had an established shortstop, Troy Tulowitzki, Longoria played third base.

Played one season of water polo at St. John Bosco High in Bellflower, CA. The water polo coach happened to see him swimming in P.E. class and was impressed so he asked him to join the team. Played one year of varsity his sophomore year.

Was the third overall pick by the Tampa Bay Devil Rays in the 2006 draft out of Long Beach State. He was the highest draft selection in school history.

Longoria shared Big West Player of the Year honors in 2006 with another infielder from Cal State Fullerton, infielder Justin Turner.

HOMERS AT THE HOT CORNER

His 304 career home runs as a third baseman are the most in the Majors since his first season in 2008. The top five are listed below:

	EVAN LONGORIA (304)
	ADRIÁN BELTRÉ (260)
	NOLAN ARENADO (235)
	JOSH DONALDSON (225)
	MANNY MACHADO (223)

READY, BREAK!

Has broken up four no-hitters in the 7th inning or later in his career, most recently on July 7, 2019 vs. St. Louis off RHP Jack Flaherty.

IRON MAN

Played in 160 games in four-straight seasons from 2013–2016. Is only the third player in baseball history to play 160-plus games in four consecutive seasons while playing a majority of games at third base each year, joining Hall of Famers CHC Ron Santo (1962–65) and BAL Brooks Robinson (1961–64).

Married to Jaime Edmondson. They have two children named Elle Leona and Nash Harrison.

During the early stages of the COVID-19 pandemic, Longoria worked with SFG Productions in creating Chef Longri-Yum, where he provided cooking videos and recipes starring himself and his son, Nash. You can check out Chef Longori-Yum's recipes and videos on youtube.com/giants.

- Completed his third season in a Giants uniform and his 13th overall in the big leagues.
- Started 50 games all at third base and hit .254 (49-for-193) with 10 doubles, seven HRs & 28 RBI in 53 games.
- His two defensive runs saved at third base were the fourth-most among NL third basemen behind COL's Nolan Arenado (15), SD's Manny Machado (7) and MIA's Brian Anderson (4).
- Hit much better at Oracle Park (.294 average, .856 OPS) than on the road (.202 average, .545 OPS).
- Missed the start of the season with a right oblique strain and was reinstated from the 10-day IL on July 30...missed just six regular-season games with the injury.
- Became the 150th player in Major League history to hit 300 home runs when he homered off Arizona's Robbie Ray on August 21 at Oracle Park...he's the 10th player to hit his 300th home run in a Giants uniform and the first since Carlos Beltrán on September 14, 2011...

the only other Giants players to hit their 300th career homer in a Giants uniform are Mel Ott, Johnny Mize, Willie Mays, Willie McCovey, Reggie Smith, Barry Bonds, Moises Alou, Steve Finley and Carlos Beltrán (Elias).

- Reached base safely via hit, walk or hit by pitch in 31 consecutive home games from August 10, 2019 - August 22, 2020...that tied for the eighth-longest consecutive game on-base streak at home by a Giants player since 1958...it's the longest such streak since C Buster Posey reached base in 32-straight home games from September 19, 2017-June 21, 2018.
- Was scratched from the lineup on September 7 vs. Arizona with a sore right glute.

LONGORIA IN THE COMMUNITY

Is a cook and a foodie. Fell in love with cooking when he was single and playing for the Rays in his mid-twenties. Enjoyed spending off-seasons having people over for dinner. His passion for food and cooking led him in 2013 to partner with friends in opening a restaurant in Tampa. They decided it had to have duckpin bowling, a game with shorter lanes and smaller balls and pins than regular bowling. They called it Ducky's.

Donated more than $1 million during the life of his contract with the Rays Baseball Foundation, which supports youth and education programs in the region.

Raised over $60,000 for the Pet Pal Animal Shelter in St. Pete, a result of pledged donations from Longoria, the Rays, Ducky's and Bright House Sports Network.

Involved with the following organizations: Muttville Senior Dog Rescue and Giants Community Fund.

A RAY OF LIGHT ▶▶

Had one of the biggest hits in Rays history when he hit a walk off home run in extra innings of the last game of the 2011 season, snapping a tie with the Red Sox in the race for the American League Wild Card spot and sending his team into the postseason. According to Elias, Longoria was only the second player in MLB history to hit a walk-off home run in his team's final game of the regular season to clinch a postseason berth (the other was the Giants' Bobby Thomson with his "Shot Heard Round the Word" against the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1951).

Twice was named the Rays nominee for the Roberto Clemente Award (2014 & 2018), given to the player who best exemplifies the game of baseball, sportsmanship, community involvement and the individual's contribution to his team.

Honored by the Tampa Bay Chapter of the BBWAA with the Don Zimmer Award (as the team's most valuable player) in 2013 & 2016.

IN THE RAYS RECORD BOOKS...

Longoria spent the first 10 years of his Major League career with Tampa Bay and still ranks as the organization's all-time leader in numerous categories

CHAMPIONWITH LOS ANGELES-NLSTRIKEOUT TO WALK

Struck out 33 batters and walked only three during the regular season for Los Angeles-NL in 2020 for an 11.0 strikeout-to-walk ratio. The ratio was third-best in the Majors among relievers with at least 18.0 innings pitched behind Oakland's Liam Hendriks (12.33) and LAD's Victor Gonzalez (11.50).

THE OLD #1

McGee threw his fastball a career-high 96.4 percent of the time in 2020 according to Baseball Savant. In 2019 with Colorado, McGee only used his fastball 80.4 percent of the time.

524

Since his first full season in 2011, McGee's 524 strikeouts are fifth-most in the Majors among left-handed relievers behind Aroldis Chapman (886), Andrew Miller (701), Brad Hand (624) and Tony Watson (526). His 538 appearances in that time are third-most among lefty relievers.

Won the 2017 World Baseball Classic with Team USA. Was on the team with current Giants Brandon Crawford and Buster Posey.

He and his wife have a Christmas Eve tradition, which also happens to be their wedding anniversary, of delivering gifts to local foster families. The two were married in 2009 and decided to start the new tradition the following year when they didn't know what to get each other for their anniversary. So they decided to help others.

Underwent Tommy John surgery in 2008 after making 15 starts for Double-A Montgomery that year. Returned to game action in June of 2009 as a starter but made his move to the bullpen the following year with Triple-A Durham.

Jake and his wife, Morgan, have one daughter, Rowen. They make their offseason home in Tampa.

2020 SEASON

- Won a World Series with the Dodgers.
- Missed most of the year with left shoulder inflammation...was reinstated from the injured list on Sept. 1.
- Went 0-1 with a 6.39 ERA (9er, 12.2ip) over nine appearances (two starts) for the Dodgers.
- Opponents hit .304 (17-for-56) off him with six extra-base hits.
- Recorded 15 strikeouts in 12.2 innings of work.
- Was added to the NLCS and WS Roster after being left off the roster for Wild Card and Divisional rounds... appeared in four postseason games overall, posting a 1.35 ERA (1er, 6.2ip) as a reliever.

Born and raised in Hollister, CA, about one hour south of San Jose. Hollister is a major agricultural producer for Central California, as well as the home of numerous wineries within the San Benito Valley.

As a pitcher, his role models were two-time World Series champion Ryan Vogelsong and World Series MVP and former teammate Madison Bumgarner.

DREAM ON!

Getting drafted by the team he grew up rooting for was a "dream come true" for Menez. He was with his parents as well as other family and friends when he learned his name was called by the Giants in the 14th round of the 2016 MLB Draft.

Married Breanna Danielle in Boise, ID on November 9, 2020.

FAVORITE OFF DAY ACTIVITY

Relax, kick back and spend time with his wife.

His Bucket items include: travel more, go to Fiji and experience one of the over water huts, go snowboarding and dirt biking (after baseball).

HIS HOBBIES INCLUDE

Outdoor activities such as hunting, fishing and camping.

AMATEUR CAREER

Menez attended San Benito High School in Hollister, CA. He then played college baseball at The Master's University from 2014 to 2016, where he had a 20-5 record and a 2.26 career ERA, the lowest in school history.

Has always been a San Francisco Giants fan. He was six years old when Bonds broke the single-season record for home runs with 73 in 2001 and 12 years old when Bonds hit his 756th to break the all-time record. When he was little he collected Bonds' baseball cards.

His grandfather is Bill Plummer, a former major league catcher. Plummer also was a backup catcher to Hall of Famer Johnny Bench.

Favorite types of exercise: Dead lifting and medicine ball slams.

Born and raised in a tiny town of 700 people called Quinigua in the Villa González district of the Santiago Province of the Dominican Republic.

Signed with the Giants as an international free agent in 2010.

He began playing organized baseball at 11, playing catcher and third base.

During a tryout with the Pirates at age 16, a 95-mph fastball hit him on the head when he was standing on the plate. It busted his helmet and knocked him unconscious. At practice the next day he found he no longer could hit because he had become afraid of the ball. So he switched to pitching (Reyes no longer has a fear at the plate).

In 2018, he set the Giants record for fewest hits allowed per 9.0 innings with a minimum of 50.0 innings.

Has a smiley face tattoo on his elbow where he has a scar from Tommy John surgery in 2013.

Nickname is "El Tibu," which is short for Tiburon, meaning Shark.

Underwent season-ending surgery on September 10, 2019 to address his injured labrum and capsule. The surgery was performed by Dr. Neal ElAttrache in Los Angeles. During surgery, it turned out the capsule did not need to be repaired. Tore his labrum while throwing a pitch against the Padres on August 31.

Married Ivelka Felin in January 2020.

HOBBIES

During off days he enjoys playing billiards, listening to music, playing dominos, spending time with family and he loves taking nature walks.

Born in Puerto Plata, DR, which is where tourism in Dominican Republic began. The area boasts beautiful landscapes, relaxed beaches, and lush mountains and valleys. It is home to the only aerial tramway in the Caribbean and some of Dominican Republic's first resorts.

Stands out most for his fastball, which he throws 92-96 mph with an elite spin rate. Saw an uptick in velocity during instructs in 2020 w/NYM.

Played some of his best ball in the first half of 2019 between Columbia and St. Lucie before getting shut down with a shoulder injury.

2020 SEASON

- Did not play due to the COVID-19 pandemic but did participate in the Mets' Fall Instructional League.
- Began the 2020 season as the No. 18 Mets prospect by MLB Pipeline, and 25th in Baseball America's mid-season ranking.

TRANSACTIONS & INJURED LIST

Selected by San Francisco in the first round (fifth overall) of the 2008 First-Year Player Draft; signed by Sean O'Connor.

Signed a nine-year contract extension through 2021 with an option for the 2022 season on March 29, 2013.

Placed on 60-day injured list from May 26-October 31, 2011 (broken left leg, strained ankle ligaments).

Placed on 7-day injured list from April 11-18, 2017 (concussion).

Placed on 10-day injured list from August 26-October 29, 2018 (right hip surgery)...transferred to 60-day injured list on August 29.

Placed on the 7-day injured list from May 9-17, 2019 (concussion).

Placed on the 10-day injured list from June 5 (retro to June 2) - June 12, 2019 (right hamstring strain).

Placed on the Restricted List on July 11, 2020 (opted out of the 2020 season).

LONGEST HR DISTANCE

Posey's 435' home run on July 12, 2019 off the Brewers' Matt Albers at Milwaukee is his longest home run in the Statcast era (since 2015).

HARDEST BATTED BALL

Posey's 110.3 mph single off the Diamondbacks' Rubby De La Rosa on April 7, 2015 is the hardest hit ball in the Statcast era (since 2015).

HARDEST HIT HOME RUN

His 108.1 mph two-run homer off the Cubs' Jon Lester on May 21, 2016 at Oracle Park is his hardest-hit homer in the Statcast era (since 2015).

IN THE SF-ERA RECORD BOOKS

Entering the 2021 campaign, Posey finds himself littered across the Giants regular season and postseason record books in the San Francisco era (1958-present)

Games - 8th (1,258)

Doubles - 4th (270)

Hits - 4th (1,380)

RBI - 8th (673)

Batting Average - 3rd (.302)

His 53 postseason games and 23 postseason RBI are both the highest totals in franchise history.

Graduated from Lee County (GA) High School and attended Florida State where he played baseball under coach Mike Martin. Played shortstop his freshman year then moved to catcher his sophomore year on the suggestion of assistant coach Mike Martin Jr.

SELECT COMPANY

Posey (2012), Yogi Berra (1951 Yankees) and Roy Campanella (1955 Dodgers) are the only catchers to win a World Series and MVP in the same season.

He's one of three catchers to catch three no hitters and win three World Series titles, joining Bill Carrigan (1911-1916) and Yogi Berra (1951-1956).

NO-NO

Is one of 17 catchers in MLB history to have caught three or more no-hitters.

Rattled off the longest hitting streak of his career from July 4-28, 2010. Posey batted .440 during the run with six home runs and 23 RBI.

Signed a franchise-record, nine-year, $167 million contract extension with the Giants in 2013. The deal included a club option for 2022.

NINE

Married (Kristen, January 2009). Kristen gave birth to twins, Lee Dempsey & Addison Lynn August 14, 2011. Buster and Kristen adopted identical-twin girls, Ada and Livvi, born July 3, 2020.

His full name is Gerald Dempsey Posey III. His father, known as DEMP, was nicknamed Buster as a kid and passed it on to his son.

2020 SEASON

- Opted out of the 2020 season out of health concerns for his newly adopted twin baby girls during the Coronavirus pandemic.

GOING PROSPECTING

Enters the 2021 season as the Giants' third-best prospect and the 83rd-best prospect in the minors according to Baseball America.

Represented the Giants in the SiriusXM Futures Game in 2018 and 2019.

Was the MVP of the 2016 Under Armour All-America Baseball Game, a showcase of high school juniors and seniors that was held at Wrigley Field on July 23, 2016

Was the highest drafted player out of Puerto Rico since Carlos Correa was the first overall pick in the 2012 draft.

WINTER BALL

Played for Santurce of the Puerto Rican Winter League in 2018 and hit .258 in 19 games with nine of his 17 hits going for extra-bases

Has two older brothers; Héctor Ramos, who is a professional soccer player and the all-time top scorer of the Puerto Rican national team. His other brother, Henry Ramos, is a minor league baseball player who has spent time with the Giants, Red Sox, Dodgers and Rangers organization. In 2019, Henry was an invite to Giants Spring Training and the two brothers played together in the same outfield for the first time.

KYLE HAINES

SF Dir. of Player Development on Ramos' 2019 season

“Heliot did an excellent job of swinging at pitches he could do damage with. He's got power to all fields and considering his age and relative inexperience, that speaks volumes. Defensively, he's played a strong center field and you can see his overall game coming together nicely. He's young, but we feel like we've given him what he can handle and he's passed each test so far.”

Born and raised in Littleton, CO, which is located nine miles south of Denver and 55 miles north of Colorado Springs. Littleton is the hometown of former San Francisco Giant Dave Dravecky.

Unlike his twin brother Taylor, who has a more traditional delivery for his pitches, Tyler is a submariner, with his knuckles barely staying off the ground as he delivers the ball to the plate. It was at Garden City Community College where he became a submarine pitcher. His coach at the time, Chris Finnegan, suggested Tyler try a submarine style motion.

Graduated from Chatfield High School in Littleton, CO.

2016: AFL Rising Star (Scottsdale), 2017: PCL Mid-Season All-Star (Sacramento), 2018: PCL Mid-Season All-Star (Sacramento).

Attended Garden City Community College (KS) for his freshman and sophomore seasons before transferring to Austin Peay for his final two seasons.

Both Rogers' brothers say they would have become firefighters had they not succeeded in baseball. There are four generations of firefighters in their family. Their father, Scott, a career firefighter, is currently an Operations Chief in Lakewood, CO.

The brothers started the Rogers Family Foundation, dedicated to the mental wellness of first responders.

#2020

The Giants and Twins (Taylor's team) were supposed to play each other during Interleague play last season but were unable to do so due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Spent seven seasons in the Giants' minor league system before getting his first call to the big leagues. A 10th-round pick in 2013, Rogers moved steadily through the system before reaching Triple-A for the first time in 2016. It took parts of four seasons and 179 appearances at the highest level of the minors before he finally earned his first taste of big league action in 2019.

Married Jennifer Ryan on November 14, 2020. Teammate Tyler Beede was the officiant.

#TWINNING

Tyler and Taylor are what's known as "mirror image" twins, which Scientific American says is an "unofficial phenomenon" affecting one-quarter of identical twins. Only some traits are mirrored; one twin might have a freckle on one cheek, while it's on the opposite cheek on the other twin. In the case of the Rogers brothers, Taylor is left-handed and Tyler is right-handed.

With Tyler's Major League debut in 2019, he and Taylor became the 10th set of twin brothers to both play in the Major Leagues and the seventh set to do so in the same season. The full list is below:

- Jose Canseco (1985-2001) / Ozzie Canseco (1990-1993)
- Stan Cliburn (1980-1980) / Stu Cliburn (1984-1988)
- Marshall Edwards (1981-1983) / Mike Edwards (1977-1980)
- Ray Grimes (1920-1926) / Roy Grimes (1920-1920)
- George Hunter (1909-1910) / Bill Hunter (1912-1912)
- Bubber Jonnard (1920-1935) / Claude Jonnard (1921-1929)
- Damon Minor (2000-2004) / Ryan Minor (1998-2001)
- Eddie O'Brien (1953-1958) / Johnny O'Brien (1953-1959)
- Joe Shannon (1915-1915) / Red Shannon (1915-1926)

2020 SEASON

- Was one of the most used relievers in the bigs, appearing in 29 games, tied for third-most in MLB.
- In his second season he went 3-3 with a 4.50 ERA (14r, 28.0ip) along with 27 strikeouts and six walks.
- Allowed runs in six of his 29 appearances and had two outings where he combined to allow 10 of his 16 runs.
- On July 29, Rogers earned his first win of 2020 while his brother earned his first save for the Twins...according to Elias, the last time one player earned a win and his brother earned a save on the same day was Greg and Mike Maddux on July 16, 1998...Greg, pitching for the Braves, earned the win over Milwaukee while his brother, Mike, pitching for Montreal, picked up a save vs. Pittsburgh.
- On September 23, he and his brother each earned relief wins to become the first set of twin brothers in MLB history to record a win on the same day...the last brothers to record a win on the same day were Jeff and Jered Weaver on May 7, 2010 (Elias).

Omaha is the largest city in the state of Nebraska and is home to the College World Series as well as the Royals Triple-A affiliate, the Omaha Storm Chasers.

Played parts of five seasons with the Phillies, totaling 35 home runs, 96 RBI and posting a .747 OPS in 286 games.

Played in the KBO for three seasons from 2017-2019 after his contract was sold by the Dodgers to the Samsung Lions. Hit .313 with 105 doubles, 86 home runs and 350 RBI in 404 games over the three seasons. Led the KBO with 124 RBI in 2017.

He and his wife, Libby, have one son, Henry, and one daughter, Olive.

Graduated from Westside High School (NE) where he played baseball, football and basketball.

Attended Creighton University, where he spent all four years as a Bluejay. He finished his four-year career at Creighton with 2,251 career putouts, third-most in NCAA history and 38 shy of the all-time mark. He's also the school's all-time leader in sacrifice flies (22) and putouts while ranking second in RBI (201).

POWER UP

A 20th round draft pick in 2009 out of Creighton University, Ruf had beaten the odds and powered his way to the big leagues with the Phillies by setting a record at Double-A Reading with 38 home runs in 2012.

“RUF ON PLAYING IN KOREA

I was definitely extremely happy with the way I played there,” Ruf said. “But maybe the most memorable thing was that they let my son throw out the first pitch in my second game. We just saw so many great historical things and we were able to participate in their holidays. It’s something I’ll always remember.”

Grew up in Barstow, CA. The city is a major transportation hub for the Inland Empire. Several major highways, including Interstate 15, Interstate 40, and California State Route 58, converge in the city. It is also the site of a large rail classification yard, belonging to the BNSF Railway.

Graduated from Barstow High School where he was named to the AFLAC All-American team. Finished his high school career going 7-0 with a 0.73 ERA and 104 strikeouts in 57.2 innings. He also batted .403 with five home runs as a senior.

Was selected by AL All-Star Manager, Ned Yost, to replace Craig Kimbrel (15-day DL) of the Red Sox on the 2016 AL All-Star Roster. Sanchez worked the 4th inning as he allowed one run on two hits.

Finished the 2016 season first in the American League in ERA (3.00), opponents' OPS (.625) and SLG % (.335), and 4th in opponents' average (.224).

Posted a 15-2 record in 2016. His .882 winning percentage was the highest in all of baseball.

The last pitcher to lead his league in ERA at Sanchez's age or younger (24 years, 93 days at the end of the 2016 regular season) was Clayton Kershaw, who was 23 years, 193 days at the end of the 2011 regular season. The last AL pitcher was Roger Clemens, who was 24 years, 62 days old at the end of the 1986 regular season.

Allowed one earned run or less in 15 of his 30 starts in 2016. Those 15 starts with one earned run or less were tied for the most in the AL with J.A. Happ

IN THE POSTSEASON

Earned his first postseason victory in Game 5 vs. TEX in the 2015 ALDS, becoming the youngest pitcher in Blue Jays franchise history to record a playoff win.

His nine appearances through the ALDS and ALCS were most among all ML pitchers through the first two rounds of the 2015 playoffs.

Was the first rookie reliever to toss at least 7.1 innings in the playoffs without allowing an earned run in their postseason debut since Boston's Brandon Workman in 2013. Is one of 10 rookie relievers to post a 0.00 ERA in their postseason debut in MLB history (minimum 6.0 IP). (2015)

Sanchez is the first MLB player born in Barstow. After his debut and successful first season, Barstow City Council declared October 20, 2014, to be "Aaron Sanchez Day".

According to his mom, he came home when he was six and wanted to quit baseball because they made him roll the ball to other kids because he was throwing too hard and might hurt someone.

Aaron and his wife, Jessica, have one son, Ace.

Aaron's stepfather, Mike Shipley, was drafted in the fourth round of the 1976 MLB draft by the Angels. Shipley's pitching career ended when he suffered a left shoulder injury. He later took a coaching position at Barstow Community College.

2020 SEASON

- Missed all of the 2020 season recovering from a shoulder injury to repair a torn capsule in his throwing shoulder that he suffered in September of 2019.

2018 NWL Mid-Season All-Star (Salem-Keizer)

The right-hander has had a hard time staying healthy in his two seasons with the Giants as he was struck in the head by a line drive in 2018 while playing for Short-Season Salem-Keizer and his 2019 season with Class A Augusta was derailed by a shoulder injury.

2020 SEASON

- Did not play due to the COVID-19 pandemic but did participate in the Fall Instructional League in Arizona.

Was born in Austin TX, the state capital of Texas, home to the University of Texas and the fourth-most populous city in the state of Texas. It is home to the Triple-A affiliate of the Houston Astros, the Round Rock Express. Fortune 500 companies like Dell and Whole Foods Market are based in Austin.

Graduated from a small private K-12 school, St. Andrews Episcopal School in Austin, TX. Sam was the first graduate to play NCAA Division 1 sports. Played on the same team as Shelby Miller.

Served as an intern in the Nashville Predators (NHL) front office from 2012-2013 in order to finish his degree at Vanderbilt. He majored in human organizational development, which was the closest to Vanderbilt offered to a business degree.

After waiting eight years, he made his big league debut on August 1, 2019 at Philadelphia.

VandyBoys

Attended Vanderbilt University where he helped Vandy reach the 2011 College World Series. Was teammates with fellow

Giants Tyler Beede and Mike Yastrzemski on the Vandy baseball team in 2012.

DRIVELINE

Signed with the Giants after spending the 2018-2019 offseason working on pitching mechanics at Driveline Baseball in Seattle, WA. Worked with Matt Daniels at Driveline, whom the Giants later hired as their Coordinator of Pitching Analysis. His time at Driveline was his last-ditch effort in baseball before he would start applying for jobs outside of baseball in commercial real estate.

THE PROGRAM

Vanderbilt made it to the College World Series for the first time in 2011, led by future major leaguer Sonny Gray, but lost in the semifinals. Gray and six other Commodore pitchers were drafted that year, opening the door for Sam. (Vanderbilt is well-represented in the big leagues, with 16 alumni on 11 rosters at the start of the 2021 season, including Dansby Swanson, Walker Buehler and David Price.)

Enjoys playing golf in his spare time.

HOW OBTAINED: Selected by San Francisco in the eighth round of the 2014 First-Year Player DraftCONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2021OPTIONS USED: 2/3

Was born and raised in Jacksonville, FL. Jacksonville is home to one major sports team, the Jacksonville Jaguars of the NFL. The Jaguars joined the NFL as an expansion team in 1995.

THE MAYOR

Slater is the grandson of former Jacksonville mayor Ed Austin, a gregarious politician and attorney. During his mayoral term from 1991-1995, the city was awarded the 30th NFL franchise (the Jaguars). He was also the state attorney for almost 20 years. There is Ed Austin Regional Park, a 144-acre park in Jacksonville. The Office of the State Attorney is housed in the Ed Austin Building. His portrait hangs in the Duval County Courthouse.

Hit his first career grand slam on July 6, 2019 vs. St. Louis, a pinch-hit shot off RHP Miles Mikolas in the 4th inning. The homer was also his first career pinch-hit homer. He was the first Giant with a pinch-hit grand slam since Rich Aurilia did it June 12, 2003 at Chicago-AL. Slater's was the 22nd pinch-hit grand slam in SF-era history.

IN THE COMMUNITY

Involved with the following organizations: Giants Community Fund - Education Day, MLB Buses for Baseball and MLBPA Buses for Baseball.

His favorite pro team growing up was the Braves during their run of 14 consecutive division titles. His favorite player was Chipper Jones, a fellow Bolles alum.

Attended The Bolles School in Jacksonville, FL, where he was the shortstop and captain of the baseball team that won three straight state championships. Was originally picked as a high school shortstop by the Dodgers in the 44th round of the 2011 draft.

THE FARM

Attended Stanford University and studied Science, Technology and Society as an integrated-studies major. Was an All-Pac-12 First Team outfielder in 2014. Hit .310 to go along with five homers and 72 RBI in 113 career games during three seasons at Stanford.

In 2011, as a senior at The Bolles School, he was considered the top baseball prospect in Florida until he broke his ankle during a game of Frisbee with friends. The injury caused him to miss his senior season, and his draft stock plummeted. He considers his ankle injury a blessing in disguise because of how much he now values his college experience.

Slater's 461' solo home run on June 8, 2017 off Milwaukee's Paolo Espino in Milwaukee is his longest home run in the Statcast era (since 2015).

HARDEST BATTED BALL

Slater's 110.6 mph solo home run off Milwaukee's Paolo Espino on June 8, 2017 in Milwaukee is his hardest hit ball in the Statcast era (since 2015).

110.6 MPH

HARDEST HIT HOME RUN

Slater's 110.6 mph solo home run off Milwaukee's Paolo Espino on June 8, 2017 in Milwaukee is his hardest hit home run in the Statcast era (since 2015).

2020 SEASON

- Finished his fourth season in the big leagues.
- Batted .282 with five homers and seven RBI in 31 games.
- Started 23 games, making 13 starts as the DH, eight starts in right field and two starts in left field.
- Appeared as the DH in his final 13 games as a flexor strain in his right elbow prevented him from playing the OF.
- His .316 batting average against left-handed pitching was the 16th-highest mark in the NL.
- Left the game on July 25 at Dodger Stadium in the 8th inning after making a diving catch and crashing into the LF wall...suffered a right hip contusion.
- Recorded his first career multi-HR game on August 8 at Dodger Stadium, hitting both homers off LHP Clayton Kershaw...became just the seventh player to homer twice off Kershaw in the same game, joining WAS's Adam Dunn (08/06/2010), COL's Carlos Gonzalez (05/02/2012), WAS's Jayson Werth (07/21/2013), CIN's Jay Bruce (09/08/2013), NYM's Jose Reyes (06/19/2017) and TOR's Bo Bichette (08/20/2019).
- Scratched from the lineup August 12 at Houston with right elbow soreness...was diagnosed with a right elbow flexor strain...pinch ran in the 10th inning on August 14 vs. Oakland and was back in the starting lineup August 15, leading off as the DH.
- Left his start on August 21 vs. Arizona with a mild left groin strain...suffered the injury while running from second to third on a base hit...was placed on the 10-day IL the next day (August 22) with the injury and missed 11 games before being reinstated on September 5.
- Hit his first career leadoff home run on September 22 vs. Colorado.
- His five home runs matched his career-best from last season while his eight steals were a career-high.

Born and raised in Barranquilla, Colombia, a port on the Caribbean Sea that is Colombia's fourth largest city with more than 1 million people. It's also the birthplace of Edgar Renteria, the 2010 World Series MVP for the Giants.

SILVER SLUGGER

DONNIE BARRELS

Solano believes the nickname came from teammate Mike Yastrzemski who started calling him "Donnie Ballgame." Then, some teammates started asking how he got the barrel of the bat on the ball, and somehow the name became "Donnie Barrels."

.337

His batting average since the 2019 All-Star break ranks as the second-highest in MLB (min. 200 AB)

AGE IS BUT A NUMBER

Seized an opportunity with the Giants in 2019 at the age of 31, having not appeared in the Majors since 2016. In two seasons with SF, he has a slash line of .328/.362/.459 while hitting .391 with runners in scoring position.

SEVENTEEN

Had a career-best 17-game hit streak from July 25-August 15, 2020, the longest hit streak by a Giants player since Angel Pagan hit safely in 19-straight in 2016.

Q #FARHANFIND

In January of 2017 he was signed by Farhan Zaidi and the Dodgers and in 2018 he had one of his best seasons – batting over .300 for Los Angeles' Triple-A affiliate Oklahoma but was never called up to the Majors. Zaidi became the Giants' president of baseball operations in November 2018 and in January, he signed Solano again, this time for the Giants.

TRANSACTIONS & INJURED LIST

Signed by St. Louis as a non-drafted free agent on January 14, 2005.

Signed by Miami as a minor league free agent on November 22, 2011.

Placed on the 10-day injured list from May 7-June 9, 2013 (strained left intercostal muscle)

Placed on Paternity List from July 28-30, 2015.

Signed by New York-AL as a minor league free agent on January 8, 2016.

Signed by Los Angeles-NL as a minor league free agent on January 19, 2018.

Signed by San Francisco as a minor league free agent on December 17, 2018.

445' LONGEST HR DISTANCE

Solano's 445' solo-run home run on August 4, 2019 off the Rockies' Kyle Freeland at Coors Field is his longest home run in the Statcast era (since 2015).

109.6 MPH HARDEST BATTED BALL

Solano's 109.6 mph single off the Phillies' Jake Arrieta on August 1, 2019 at Citizens Bank Park is the hardest hit ball in the Statcast era (since 2015).

109.2 MPH HARDEST HIT HOME RUN

His 109.2 mph two-run home run off Tampa's Erasmo Ramirez on September 21, 2016 at Tropicana Field is the hardest hit ball in the Statcast era (since 2015).

In 2005, less than a month after turning 17, Donovan signed with the St. Louis Cardinals as an international free agent. He spent six years in the Cardinals' system without making the majors.

Donovan became the 12th Colombian to reach the major leagues. Brother Jhonatan, a catcher, became the 13th. His debut (with the Nationals) came eight days after Solano's. In fact, Jhonatan's debut (May 29, 2012) and his first start the following day came against Solano's Marlins with their parents watching from the stands. They played against each other several times in 2013 as well. In 2015, they played together on the Marlins, appearing in the same game five times and starting together twice.

Donovan is one of two sons of Luis Solano and Myriam Preciado. Luis, a retired electrician, was a pitcher in Colombia baseball leagues. His brother, Jhonatan was a catcher and played parts of three seasons in the Majors with Miami (2015) and Washington (2012-13).

Donovan himself is married (Laura Triana) and has two sons named Donovan and Enoc.

2020 SEASON

- Had one of the best seasons of his career hitting .326 (62-for-190) with 22 runs scored, 15 doubles, one triple, three homers and 29 RBI in 54 games.
- Earned his first career Silver Slugger Award.
- His .326 batting average was the fifth-best in the NL behind WAS's Juan Soto (.351), ATL's Freddie Freeman (.341), ATL's Marcell Ozuna (.338) and WAS's Trea Turner (.335).
- Also had a career-best .828 OPS.
- His 15 multi-hit games were tied with Wilmer Flores for the second-most on the team (Yastrzemski, 17).
- Started 46 games, making 39 starts at second base, five at third and two at shortstop.
- His 11 errors were the most of any NL player at any position and the second-most in MLB behind Boston's Rafael Devers (14)...Solano's 11 miscues were the most he's had in any season in his career.
- Ranked ninth in the NL with batting with runners in scoring position, hitting .380 (19-for-50).
- Hit .350 (21-for-60) against left-handed pitching, the eighth-best mark in the NL.
- His .434 (23-for-53) average with two outs was the second-best mark in MLB behind CWS's Eloy Jimenez (.438).
- Made his fourth career Opening Day roster (first with Giants) and first since making Miami's OD roster in 2015.
- Matched his career-high with four hits on July 30 vs. San Diego, with three of those four knocks being a career-best three doubles...became the first Giant to have three-or-more doubles in a game since Buster Posey had three on September 29, 2017.
- Recorded a career-best six RBI on September 1 at Colorado, going 4-for-6...joined teammates Alex Dickerson and Brandon Crawford to drive in six runs that night...according to Elias, the Giants were the first team since 1920 (the first season RBIs appeared on official scoresheets) to have three players with six-plus RBI in a game.
- Had a career-best 17-game hit streak from July 25-August 15, the longest by a Giants player since Angel Pagan hit safely in 19-straight games in 2016.

Oranjestad, pronounced or-AN-y-staht, means "Orange Town." It is the capital and largest city of Aruba.

Became the sixth player born in Aruba to make the big leagues, joining Xander Bogaerts (2013-present), Radhames Dykhoff (1998), Gene Kingslae (1996-2003), Calvin Maduro (1996-2002) and Sidney Ponson (1998-2009).

Played for Aruba's national team from 2003-2012.

SEVEN

Spent seven seasons in the Reds' farm system without reaching the Majors and was signed by the Giants over the 2019-20 winter for catching depth.

He restructured his swing after August 2018 shoulder surgery and started hitting more home runs. "A couple of years ago, I was a contact hitter and tried to put the ball in play," Tromp told the San Francisco Chronicle before the 2020 season.

“ TROMP ON HIS SWING ”

Now my mentality is to always do as much damage as I can. I pretty much drive the ball as far as possible, try to hit it 450 feet every time.

Was born in West Islip, NY, located an hour east of New York City out on Long Island. Actress Edie Falco, famous for her role on the Sopranos, was raised in West Islip.

Graduated from West Islip High School where he played both baseball and football (quarterback). He helped lead West Islip to a Suffolk Class AA championship in 2008.

Underwent Tommy John surgery in August of 2016 and missed the entire 2017 season recovering from the surgery.

Set career-highs in games, starts, wins and innings pitched in 2018 with Los Angeles-AL despite missing 87 games across three stints on the injured list.

THE BULLPEN

Pitched exclusively out of the bullpen for Pittsburgh last season for essentially the first time in the Majors. The last time he had seven or more appearances out of the bullpen was at Double-A Corpus Christi in 2013.

A TOUGH FEW YEARS

Only made 32 starts between the Majors and minors from 2016-2018 due to injury. Was on the injured list for right shoulder tightness (May 30-June 26, 2016), Tommy John surgery (July 19-end of 2017) and right shoulder inflammation three different times in 2018. Started Attended Stony Brook University and is one of three players who attended the college to play in the Majors (other two are former Giant Joe Nathan and Tom Koehler). Tropeano was the America East Conference Pitcher of the Year during his junior season at on campus in 2011 after setting school records for strikeouts (119) and wins (12).

2020 SEASON

- Signed a minor league contract with an invite to Major League Spring Training with the New York Yankees on February 3.
- New York-native was assigned to the Alternate Site before having his contract selected by the Yankees on August 6 but was designated for assignment by the Yankees two days later...did not pitch in a game for New York-AL.
- Claimed off waivers from the Yankees by Pittsburgh, where he eventually went 1-0 with a 1.15 ERA (2er, 15.2ip) in seven games with 19 strikeouts.
- Was claimed off waivers by New York-AL after the season on October 30 but elected free agency in early December.

Selected by the Cubs in the 16th round of the 2014 draft, Vosler got off to a slow start as a professional. However, since a swing adjustment prior to the 2017 season, his performance has greatly improved. In his three seasons since, splitting his time between Double-A and Triple-A, Vosler has hit at least 20 homers a year and batted .259/.345/.470. With the Padres Triple-A affiliate in 2019, he hit .291/.367/.532.

In 2019 with Triple-A El Paso he set career highs in batting average (.291), on-base percentage (.367), slugging percentage (.523) and OPS (.890).

Hit for the cycle on July 25, 2019 at Las Vegas, homering in the top of the 7th inning to complete the natural cycle. It was the third cycle in El Paso history, the first in a road game and the first completed by hitting a home run. Vosler didn't know he had accomplished the feat until Chihuahuas trainer Dan Turner told him when he returned to the dugout after rounding the bases.

ALL OVER THE DIAMOND

Before joining the Giants in 2020, Vosler spent his entire professional career between the Cubs and Padres organizations. A primary third baseman (470 minor league games) with the ability to play first (67 games), he was blocked by Kris Bryant and Anthony Rizzo in Chicago and Manny Machado and Eric Hosmer in San Diego. Also played 24 games at second base and 17 at short in his minor league career.

If he were not a professional baseball player, he would be pursuing a career in law enforcement.

2020 SEASON

- Did not record any statistics during the 2020 season due to COVID-19...was not included in the Padres' initial player pool in 2020, but spent the final two months of the season training at the team's alternate site.

Was born in Baltimore, MD, the most populous city in the state of Maryland. It is home to the National Aquarium, the Baltimore Orioles and the Baltimore Ravens.

Attended St. Paul's High School in Brooklandville, MD where he was a four-year letterwinner in baseball and basketball.

WALK IT OUT

In 480 career minor league games, Wade has walked more times than he's struck out (303 walks to 281 strikeouts). The only season at the minor league level where he struck out more than he walked was 2018 between Double-A and Triple-A (74 strikeouts to 64 walks).

YOU DOWN WITH OBP?

In those 480 minor league games, Wade has amassed a .389 on-base percentage. He's finished among the league leaders in OBP two times in his minor league career when he was eligible to qualify (third in 2015 with Rookie-level Elizabethton and third in 2017 with Double-A Chattanooga). In 77 games with Triple-A Rochester in 2019 he posted a .392 OBP.

Hit his first Major League homer off Cleveland's Shane Bieber, a two-run shot on September 15, 2019 at Progressive Field.

His first Major League hit and RBI came on September 8, 2019 vs. Cleveland on an infield single to second base.

Attended the University of Maryland where he hit .335 with a .453 OBP as a junior in 2015. In the NCAA Tournament that year, he was named the Louisiana Regional's Most Outstanding Player.

In 2017, Wade's Chattanooga Lookouts were Co-Champions of the Southern League. Their Championship series with Pensacola was called off due to the impending threat of Hurricane Irma.

In his spare time, Wade is an avid ping pong player and practices against a robot to improve his skills. His family is also into table tennis and he told the Chronicle his mom Emily "takes it seriously".

Was teammates with fellow Giants OF Jaylin Davis at Triple-A Rochester in 2019.

Grew up in Rocklin, CA, which is located in Placer County approximately 22 miles from Sacramento.

WINNER WINNER,
CHICKEN DINNER

Earned his first career win in his Major League debut on August 17, 2019 in Arizona, tossing 5.0 innings and allowing two runs (one earned) on five hits while striking out seven batters. In doing so, he became the first Giants rookie starter to earn a win in his Major League debut since Ryan Sadowski on June 28, 2009 at Milwaukee.

His dad Erik played one season on the Serra High baseball team in San Mateo with Barry Bonds.

Grew up going to both A's and Giants games but mostly A's because his father was a fan. Logan's favorite A's: Tim Hudson, Bobby Crosby and Stephen Vogt (who would catch him in his major league debut with the Giants).

He is considered legally blind because of astigmatism, which causes blurred vision. Diagnosed in 3rd or 4th grade when he was having a hard time seeing the ball. Wore glasses until age 11 or 12, which made football difficult, then switched to contacts. He still usually wears glasses when he's not playing ball but only at night.

1.85 Webb's ERA across four minor league stops in 2019 (Double-A Richmond, rookie-level AZL Giants Orange, Class A Augusta and Triple-A Sacramento).

MINOR LEAGUE AWARDS & ACCOLADES

Giants #29 prospect after the 2014 season according to Baseball America. 2018 - CAL Mid-Season All-Star (w/San Jose), California League's #17 prospect according to Baseball America 2019 - #5 prospect in Giants organization entering the season by Baseball America.

Threw for 3,767 yards with 47 touchdowns and 18 interceptions in his football career at Rocklin (CA) High School...was the starting quarterback his junior and senior seasons.

Underwent Tommy John surgery in June of 2016 and returned a season later in 2017.

2019 SEASON

2019 was a roller-coaster ride. It began with an 80-game suspension for PEDs while playing for Double-A Richmond. When he returned, he made stops at every level from Arizona rookie to low A, Double A, a single start in Triple A, then his major league debut on August 17 in Phoenix. He became the youngest Giants pitcher to make his debut as a starter since then-20-year-old Madison Bumgarner in September 2009.

Engaged to Sharidan Morales, who he met as a senior in high school.

Placed on the restricted list from May 1-July 28, 2019 (80-game suspension).

2020 SEASON

- Was with San Francisco for the duration of the 2020 campaign, making 13 appearances, 11 starts for the Giants in his first full season in the Majors...was named to his first career Opening Day roster.
- Turned in one of the better starts of his career on August 21 vs. Arizona, spinning a career-high 7.0 innings while fanning a career-best eight batters in the Giants 6-2 win over the Diamondbacks at Oracle Park.
- Webb threw an average of 4.06 pitches per batter faced in 2020...his 4.06 pitches per batter faced were ninth-highest among NL pitchers with at least 50.0ip in 2020...on the whole, Webb used an average of 18.4 pitches per inning, the sixth-highest amount of any MLB pitcher with at least 50.0ip.
- Permitted a .356 OBP to batters when leading off an inning, the fifth-highest mark among qualified NL pitchers.
- Tied with PHI's Zack Wheeler for league lead with seven hit batsmen and ranked ninth with 24 walks allowed.

Grew up in Kings Mountain, NC, a small city in the Charlotte metropolitan area. The city's name comes from the nearby site of the 1780 Battle of Kings Mountain, a turning point in the American Revolutionary War.

Attended Kings Mountain High School where he batted .535 (38-for-71) with five doubles, 14 home runs and 29 RBI in 26 games as a senior.

GOING PROSPECTING

Enters the 2021 season as the Giants 10th-best prospect according to Baseball America and their 12th-best according to MLB.com.

THE WOLFPACK

Wilson, catcher Patrick Bailey (SF's 1st-round pick in 2020) and LHP Nick Swiney (SF's 2nd-round pick in 2020) all played together at NC State.

Finished his junior season at NC State batting .335 with 16 home runs, 57 RBI and .661 slugging percentage. Wilson was named First Team All-ACC and tabbed as the ACC Defensive Player of the Year after making just six errors in the regular season.

As a junior, Wilson was one of five finalists for the Brooks Wallace Award, given to the nation's top shortstop

In three years on campus, he posted a .313 average with 39 home runs and 158 RBI with the Wolfpack.

He and his wife, Tori, were married in 2018.

Roots for the Washington football team because it's his father Brad's favorite team

2020 SEASON

- Did not play due to the COVID-19 pandemic but did participate at the Giants Alternate Site and in the Giants Fall Instructional League.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2021 OPTIONS USED: 3/3

PITCH REPERTOIRE: Slider, 4-seam Fastball

Was born in Bryan, OH, a city in Williams County, Ohio. It is nicknamed the Fountain City for its network of underground springs. The city is 53 miles southwest of Toledo.

Graduated from Bryan (OH) High School and was committed to attend Ohio State before signing with the Padres after being taken in the seventh round of the 2011 draft.

In 2013, he was named as a MiLB.com Padres organization All-Star and helped lead Double-A San Antonio to the Texas League championship.

In his Major League debut on June 19, 2015 vs. the Mets, he earned the win and threw 8.0 innings, allowing one run. It marked the first time a Braves pitcher had accomplished that in his debut since John Smoltz's debut performance on July 23, 1988 also against the Mets.

SLIDE TO THE LEFT

In 2020, he used his slider 83.4 percent of the time, more than any pitcher in the Major Leagues.

.146

Hitters had an expected batting average (xBA) of .146 vs. Wisler in 2020, fourth lowest in MLB (min. 100 PA).

Married his wife, Madie, in November 2019.

HOBBIES

Hobbies include golf, cooking, reading, trying to relearn some piano and hanging out with his wife, family and friends.

Told MLB.com that he spent Christmas in 2014 in the Netherlands. His grandfather was a supply guy outside one of the caves in the Netherlands during World War II when they helped free them from German control. His entire family (aunts, uncles and cousins) all went over to celebrate Christmas Eve mass at the cave.

"Ideal off day in San Francisco would be walking around the parks and grabbing sushi afterwards. "I'd also like to visit Napa again because we loved it."

2020 SEASON

- Made the Twins Opening Day roster, the third of career (also: San Diego in 2019 and Atlanta in 2016).
- Posted a 1.07 ERA (3er, 25.1ip) over 18 appearances.
- Had a career-best strikeout rate of 12.4 per 9.0 innings.
- Earned his second career save on September 1 vs. Chicago-AL, pitching a scoreless ninth inning with two strikeouts...his previous save was April 17, 2016 at Miami as a member of the Braves.
- Was the opener four times for the Twins: August 17 vs. Kansas City, August 23 at Kansas City, August 29 at Detroit and September 4 vs. Detroit...combined to go 0-0, 0.00 ERA (7.2 IP) with two hits allowed in those starts.
- 15 of 18 appearances were scoreless and never allowed more than one run in an outing.
- Held left-handed batters to a .121 average (4-for-33) with one extra-base hit (double) and right-handers to a .190 (11-for-58) average with four XBH (1 double, 1 triple, 2 homers).
- Threw his slider 83.4% of the time (tops in MLB), compared to his fastball 16.1%...had a BAA of .145 on his slider and struck out 31 batters on the pitch (39.4 whiff%).

Grew up in Charlotte, NC. Among Charlotte's many notable attractions, some of the most popular include the Carolina Panthers, the Charlotte Hornets, the NASCAR All-Star Race, the Wells Fargo Championship and the NASCAR Hall of Fame. The popular Chicken n' Biscuits fast food restaurant Bojangles was also founded in Charlotte in 1977.

Attended the University of Georgia where he was named second team All-SEC in 2012 after going 7-3 with a 2.73 ERA in 16 games (15 starts). The 2.73 ERA was the best by a Bulldog starter since 1989.

★ NL ALL-STAR
2017

Named the NL Pitcher of the Month for May 2017 after going 5-0 with a 1.27 ERA (4er, 28.1ip) in his five May starts, ending the month with a run of 25.1 scoreless innings.

MR. PERFECT

Started the 2017 season 11-0 (April 15-July 15), becoming just the 19th pitcher since 1913 to start a season 11-0 or better and the first since Stephen Strasburg in 2016 (13-0).

2017

Appeared in 27 games (25 starts) and collected a career-high 16 wins, while posted a career-low 2.72 ERA (46er, 152.1ip) with the Dodgers. Struck out 151 batters against 38 walks, while posting a 1.06 WHIP.

Finished ninth in the NL Cy Young voting in 2017.

JACK OF ALL TRADES

In eight seasons he is 48-42 with a 3.49 ERA in 138 starts while going 5-2 with a 2.81 ERA in 50 relief appearances.

3.21

Has a career 3.21 strikeout-to-walk ratio, striking out 783 against 244 walks in 851.2 innings.

IN THE POSTSEASON

Has appeared in the postseason six times: 2013 with Atlanta and 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2020 with the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Had a no-hit bid through 5.2 innings against the Astros in Game 4 of the World Series in 2018, which marked the longest no-hit bid in World Series history by a Dodger pitcher.

Has made two career postseason starts, both in 2017. He has appeared in 18 postseason games as a reliever, posting a 3.57 ERA (9er, 22.2ip).

Underwent Tommy John Surgery following his senior season of high school at Ardrey Kell in Charlotte, NC. He missed his freshman season at Georgia recovering.

In 2016, he missed 98 games after being placed on the disabled list from May 31-Sept. 19 with left elbow impingement that led to arthroscopic surgery on July 20.

He and his wife, Suzanna, make their offseason home in Miami, FL.

Was originally signed by Braves scout Brain Bridges. Bridges is now one of the Giants National Cross Checkers under Director of Amateur Scouting Michael Holmes.

Was born and grew up in Rapid City, SD, known as the gateway to the Mount Rushmore National Monument on the eastern side of the Black Hills National Forest. Mount Rushmore is roughly 25 miles from the city's center.

Attended Stevens HS in Rapid City, SD. Lettered in basketball, track and football in addition to baseball at Stevens.

In 2019, he pitched in three games during Sacramento's run to a PCL title and Triple-A National Championship.

Acquired by the Giants on December 15, 2017 along with RHP Israel Cruz in exchange for LHP Matt Moore and future considerations.

THE WHIFF

Has averaged better than one strikeout per inning in his minor league career, whiffing 323 batters in 322.0 innings pitched.

Missed part of the 2017 & 2018 seasons while recovering from right elbow surgery. Suffered a strained right flexor tendon in August 2017.

Missed the entire 2015 regular season after suffering a torn left Achilles tendon in Spring Training and missed most of 2016 with a right forearm strain.

DRAFT DAY PT. 1

Was drafted by Los Angeles-AL in the 42nd round of the 2009 First-Year Player Draft but did not sign and attended the University of San Diego. Transferred to the College of Southern Nevada for his sophomore season.

DRAFT DAY PT. 2

Was selected by Boston in the 47th round of the 2011 First-Year Player Draft. Did not sign and transferred to the University of New Mexico for his junior and senior seasons.

DRAFT DAY PT. 3

Selected by Texas in the sixth round of the 2013 First-Year Player Draft. Led the Lobos in strikeouts, innings pitched and starts during his senior season in Albuquerque. Went 7-3 with a 2.90 ERA and 75 strikeouts in 16 games.

Wolff's father, Steve, played three seasons in the San Diego Padres organization as an infielder after being drafted in the 13th round of the 1983 June draft out of Oral Roberts.

Sam made his professional debut with Short-Season Spokane in 2013, the same club his father made his professional debut with 31 years earlier in 1983.

Is married to wife, Lauren.

His favorite type of exercise is mountain biking.

HOBBIES

Golfing, fishing, boating, snowmobiling, and taking his dog to the dog park.

Three Bucket List items for Wolff are: go to the Olympics, golf at Augusta National and learn to fly a plane.

2020 SEASON

- Did not play due to COVID-19...did spend the entire season at the Giants Alternate Training Site in Sacramento.

Grew up in Louisville, KY, which hosts the Kentucky Derby, held annually during the first Saturday of May. The Derby is preceded by a two-week-long Kentucky Derby Festival, which starts with the annual Thunder Over Louisville, the largest annual fireworks display in North America.

Graduated from North Bullitt High School in Shepherdsville, KY. Was first-team All-State from 2014-16 and finished his career as the school's career HR and RBI leader.

GOING PROSPECTING

Enters the 2021 season as the Giants 15th-best prospect according to Baseball America and their 17th-best according to MLB.com.

WALK THIS WAY

Is known for his plate discipline. In 44 minor-league games in 2019, he walked 26 times compared to 29 strikeouts in 183 plate appearances.

Named All-ACC Second Team in 2019 and tied a university single-season record with 69 walks during his junior season at Louisville. He started all 69 games at 1st base and batted .283 with nine home runs and 53 RBI.

Was teammates with fellow Giants 2019 draft pick Tyler Fitzgerald at Louisville. Fitzgerald was picked in the fourth round.

Attended his first University of Louisville baseball game when he was 10 years old and ended up playing there collegiately.

When Logan was three, his dad, Craig, said he knew Logan was right-handed but he wanted him to hit lefty. He says the first time he gave him a bat he held it correctly for a lefty and never stopped.

2020 SEASON

- Did not play due to the COVID-19 pandemic but did participate in the Giants Fall Instructional League.

Was born in Nakatsu, Japan, which is a castle town centered on Nakatsu Castle. The modernized interior comprises a museum with samurai armor, old maps and information about Rangaku (Dutch studies), for which Nakatsu was an important center in the Edo period.

In 2019, Yamaguchi led the Japanese Central League in strikeouts (188) and wins (15) while pitching for the Yomiuri Giants. Both totals were career-highs for a single-season, which was his 14th in the Nippon Professional Baseball League.

Was drafted by the Yokohama BayStars in the 1st round of the 2005 high school draft. As an 18-year-old in 2016, he broke into Nippon Professional Baseball and posted a 6.43 ERA in five starts.

Pitched for 14 seasons in Japan, pitching in both the Central League and the Eastern League. In his 14 seasons in the Central League, he posted a 3.35 ERA in 427 games, 50 starts, and went 64-58 in that time.

NIPPON LEAGUE CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- In 2011, he collected a career-high 34 saves, 4th most in the Japanese Central League.
- Surrendered just one home run across 62.0 innings of work and boasted a 1.74 ERA while making a career-high 60 appearances in 2012.
- In 2014, he transitioned towards becoming a starter, stretching out to 124.0 innings pitched while making 17 starts and 16 relief appearances. He tossed three complete games, including two shutouts.
- Reached the 10-win mark in 2016 for the first time in his career as he went 11-5 with a 2.86 ERA over 19 starts, including a career-best three shutouts.
- In 2018, he went 9-9 with a 3.68 ERA while making 21 starts and nine relief appearances. His 144 strikeouts ranked fifth in the Japanese Central League while his 3.68 ERA was seventh best among qualified pitchers. He also threw a career-high six complete games.

His father, Hisashi, was a sumo wrestler in the upper-echelon Makuuchi division and ranked as high as Maegashira 4.

If available, he's chosen to wear No. 1 as it is the number usually given to the best high school pitchers in Japan.

Makes his offseason home in Tokyo and has two children, one boy and one girl, with another on the way.

2020 SEASON

- In his first Major League season, he appeared in 17 relief appearances with the Toronto Blue Jays, posting an 8.06 ERA (23er, 25.2ip).
- Earned his first Major League win on August 26, 2020 vs. Boston.
- Posted a 1.54 ERA (2er, 11.2ip) in six games during the month of August but had a 36.00 ERA in two July appearances and a 11.77 ERA in nine games during September.

Born in Andover, MA, located in Essex County, which is approximately 22 miles north of Boston. Bill Belichick, current head coach of the New England Patriots, resides in Andover while comedian and former host of the Tonight Show Jay Leno was raised in Andover while graduating from Andover High.

YAZ

Is the grandson of Hall of Famer Carl Yastrzemski, who played 23 seasons for the Boston Red Sox from 1961-1983 and was an 18-time All-Star, seven-time gold glove, three-time batting champion and also a triple crown and MVP winner.

His father, Carl Michael (who also went by Mike), was a third-round pick by the Braves in 1984 and played in the minors from 1984-88, reaching as high as Triple-A in the White Sox organization.

Became the fifth player in the live-ball era to make his Major League debut in May or later and end up leading his team in homers that season. Yaz was tied for the team lead in homers (21) with Kevin Pillar in 2019.

Hit 21 homers in 2019, becoming the first Giants rookie to hit 20 or more homers in a season since Dave Kingman hit 29 in 1972.

2020 WILLIE MAC AWARD

Number of home runs he's hit over the last two seasons, the most of any Giants player. On September 9, 2020, he hit his 30th home run in his 151st game, joining Bobby Thomson and Dave Kingman as the only other Giants to hit 30 home runs so quickly in their careers.

Posted an .852 OPS and hit 21 homers during his rookie season with SF in 2019. The only other Giant rookie in the SF era (1958-present) to post an .850 OPS and hit at least 20 homers was Orlando Cepeda in 1958.

Clubbed three homers on August 16, 2019 at Arizona, becoming the second Giants rookie in franchise history with a three-homer game. OF Jarrett Parker had the other on September 26, 2015 at Oakland. Yastrzemski's three-homer game came in his 70th career MLB game. His grandfather Carl had one three-homer game in his entire career (May 19, 1976 at Detroit).

WINS ABOVE REPLACEMENT

He had a 2.7 WAR in 2020. Only MVP candidates Freddie Freeman (3.4), Mookie Betts (3.0) and Fernando Tatis Jr. (2.9) were better in the NL. Yastrzemski also had a 165 OPS+, which ranked fifth. Yastrzemski finished eighth in the NL MVP voting with 81 points.

THERE WAS NEVER PRESSURE TO PLAY BASEBALL.

If I wanted to be an artist, I could have been an artist. If I wanted to go into business? Would have been great. There was just complete support on that side. So that's probably why I never felt the Yastrzemski pressure. People always ask about the name and the shadow, and I never felt like there was one because nobody ever cast one over me. Even when people on the outside will try to, the people on the inside defended and shielded me from it.

YAZ AND THE MLB DRAFT

Selected in the 36th round of the 2009 First-Year Player Draft by Boston but did not sign and elected to attend Vanderbilt...was also drafted after his junior season at Vanderbilt by Seattle (30th round, 2012) but returned to school.

Before the 2013 draft, a National League scout told the The New York Times that Yastrzemski "had outstanding makeup but would probably have to overachieve to reach the majors" because his power was limited.

Grandpa Carl, however, countered in the same story that he was 26 before he discovered his own power.

"HE'LL LEARN TO HIT WITH POWER," HE SAID. "RIGHT NOW, THE MAIN THING IS TO HIT FOR AVERAGE AND DRIVE IN RUNS.

His grandson proved him right.

Drafted by Baltimore in the 14th round in 2013 and signed. Didn't receive an invite to his first big league camp (with the Orioles) until 2019, when he was 28 years old. Traded to the Giants in March 2019 in exchange for minor league pitcher Tyler Herb.

IT'S ABOUT TIME... SINGLE DIGIT FUN

Made his Major League debut May 25, 2019 after 703 games and 2,600 at bats in the minors and riding more 200,000 miles on buses. He spent four long years in Triple A, always seemingly on the verge of making the big leagues.

He was offered No. 8 – his grandfather's number for 23 seasons with the Red Sox – but chose No. 5 instead when he was called up to San Francisco.

Won the 2020 Willie Mac Award, an annual honor bestowed upon the most inspirational player on the team, as voted upon by Giants players, coaches, training staff, clubhouse staff and the fans. The award was established in 1980 in honor of legend and Hall of Famer Willie McCovey.

Also received the 2020 Bill Rigney "Good Guy" award from the Bay Area chapter of the Baseball Writers' Association of America. The "Good Guy" award is presented annually to A's and Giants players who show extraordinary cooperation with the media.

Married his college sweetheart Paige Cahill on November 10, 2018 in Nashville, TN.

Named to MLB's 2020 All-MLB team as a second team recipient. Like the 2019 team, the All-MLB Team is split into a First and Second Team, with one player from each position. Winners are voted upon from fans (50%) and a panel of experts (50%).

2020 SEASON

- In just his second career Major League season he established himself as one of the top players in baseball, hitting .297 (57-for-192) with 39 runs scored, 14 doubles, four triples, 10 home runs, 35 RBI and 30 walks in 54 games.
- His .968 OPS ranked as the seventh-highest figure among NL leaders.
- Appeared in 54 of SF's 60 games, making 52 starts (27 in right field, 24 in CF and one in left).
- Missed parts of the last week of the regular season (six games total) with a mild right calf strain.
- Reached base safely via hit, walk or hit by pitch 90 times (57 hits, 30 walks, 3 HBP), 13th-most in the NL.
- Hit .270 (31-for-115) with seven doubles, one triple, eight homers and 22 RBI with two strikes.
- Was 10-for-18 (.556) on the first pitch.
- 28 of 57 hits went for extra-bases (14 doubles, four triples, 10 home runs).
- His 10 go-ahead RBI led the team while his four game-winning RBI were tied for second-most.
- Made his first career Opening Day roster and was in the starting lineup that night at LAD, starting in center field.
- Registered his second career multi-homer game and his first of the 2020 season on July 29 vs. San Diego... homered off Chris Paddock in the 3rd inning then hit a game-winning, walk-off solo shot in the 9th off Matt Strahm, his second career walk-off home run...it also marked his first career "Splash Hit" home run and just the third walk-off "Splash Hit" homer by a Giants player (also: Barry Bonds, August 19, 2003 vs. Atlanta and Brandon Crawford, April 13, 2014 vs. Colorado).
- Became the second leadoff batter in Giants history to have a multi-homer game that included a walk-off HR...Larry Doyle also did so in the first game of a doubleheader against the Brooklyn Superbas on Sept. 8, 1909.
- Homered off Clayton Kershaw on August 8 at Dodger Stadium becoming just the second Giants left-handed hitter to homer off the Dodgers' ace (also: Joe Panik on on 3/29/18).
- Hit his first career leadoff home run on August 18 at Los Angeles-AL, hitting the solo homer off RHP Dylan Bundy.
- Left the game on September 18 vs. Seattle with a tight right calf...underwent an MRI the next day that revealed a mild strain...missed six games and was back in the starting lineup for a doubleheader vs. SD on September 25.

2020 Year In Review

THE GIANTS: Finished the 60-game 2020 season (63rd in San Francisco and 138th overall) with a record of 29-31 (.483), placing third in the National League West and tied with the Brewers for eighth overall in the NL.

IN IT UNTIL THE END: The Giants were not officially eliminated from the postseason until the final day of the regular season on September 27...it marked the 13th time in franchise history that the Giants' Postseason chances came down to the final day of the season and the first time since 2016.

FINISHING STRONG: The Giants posted a 21-15 record over their final 36 games after opening the year 8-16 in their first 24 contests...beginning August 18, the Giants .583 winning percentage was tied with the Atlanta Braves for the sixth-best figure in the Majors.

HOME VS. ROAD: The Giants finished their home slate with a record of 19-14 (.576), winning 10 of their final 15 games at Oracle Park...SF's .576 home winning percentage was tied with the Cubs for the fifth-best figure in the NL...San Francisco posted a 10-17 (.370) record on the road, the fourth-lowest road winning percentage in the National League...SF ended the season with three extra home games due to their two-game set with the Mariners being moved from Seattle to San Francisco due to poor air quality and one game versus the Padres being rescheduled for a doubleheader due to COVID-19 concerns.

THE STARTERS: Giants starting pitchers posted a 4.99 ERA and a .246 opponents average against...San Francisco finished the season with just 11 quality outings, the second-fewest in the National League ahead of only the Pittsburgh Pirates (9).

THE BULLPEN: Finished the season with a 4.24 ERA, the fifth-best figure in the National League...the 'pen was 13-for-23 in save chances with their 10 blown saves ranking as the fourth-most in the National League...beginning August 19, SF's 'pen posted a 2.55 ERA with a .207 opponents average and went 8-for-13 in save opportunities...their 2.55 ERA during that stretch was the best in the Majors.

GIANT OFFENSE: San Francisco finished the season with the eighth-most runs of any MLB team this year, plating 299 runs in 60 games (4.98 per game)...the Giants .263 batting average ranked as the fifth-highest figure in the Majors behind the Mets (.272), Braves (.268), Red Sox (.265) and Nationals (.264)...San Francisco batters hit 81 homers, tied for the 12th-most in the Majors...last season, the Giants recorded the fifth-fewest home runs of any team in the Majors.

WITH THE GLOVES: The Giants committed 21 errors in 155.0 innings in their first 18 games from July 23-August 10, the most miscues in MLB during that span...however, beginning August 11, SF made a total of just 21 errors over their last 42 games and 362.2 innings, the second-fewest errors in the National League.

WITH 2 STRIKES: Giants hitters finished the year with a .616 OPS with two strikes, the second-best figure in the Majors behind the Los Angeles Dodgers (.620)...SF also posted a .196 batting average with two-strikes, the best mark in the Majors.

JUST SCORE FOUR: The Giants were difficult to beat when scoring four-or-more runs in a game, posting a record of 28-14 (.667), compared to a 1-17 (.060) record when they scored three-or-fewer runs.

ABOVE AND BELOW .500: The Giants had a record of 7-19 (.226) against teams above .500 on the day they played them, compared to a 22-12 (.647) record against teams under .500 for that day.

MLB DEBUTS: The Giants had six players make their MLB debut in 2020, including top prospect C Joey Bart, LHP Caleb Baragar, OF Luis Basabe, OF Joe McCarthy, C Chadwick Tromp and RHP Dany Jimenez.

30th Major League Baseball All-Star Game

Tuesday, July 11, 1961 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

In just its second year of existence, Candlestick Park—the Majors' first all-concrete stadium—played host to the first of two Major League Baseball All-Star Games played in 1961. Long before the days of the Home Run Derby and All-Star Gala, the game itself provided plenty of excitement, with a quartet of Hall of Famers leading the National League to a come-from-behind, 5-4, victory in 10 innings. Trailing the American League, 4-3, entering the bottom of the 10th, the senior circuit received a single from Hank Aaron, a run-scoring double by Willie Mays, a walk by Orlando Cepeda and the game-winning single from Roberto Clemente — all off fellow Cooperstown resident Hoyt Wilhelm.

However, those last at-bat heroics were almost not needed, as they became necessitated by one of the more bizarre and memorable moments in All-Star Game history. With the National Leaguers clinging to a 3-2, ninth-inning lead and a runner on third, a gust of wind knocked Giants' pitcher Stu Miller from his set position on the mound, resulting in a balk that allowed the tying run to score.

A capacity crowd of 44,115 filled the 'Stick for a contest that featured four San Francisco Giants (Mays, Cepeda, Miller and Mike McCormick) and a combined 18 players who would later be enshrined in the Hall of Fame.

55th Major League Baseball All-Star Game

Tuesday, July 10, 1984 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

After a 23-year absence, the Major League Baseball All-Star Game returned to the Bay Area with the 1984 Midsummer Classic at Candlestick Park. Proving well worth the wait, 57,756 fans were treated to fifteen future Hall of Famers.

Pitching dominated this contest, with the National League battersmates for the fourth and fifth innings stealing the headlines in a 3-1 senior circuit victory. On the 50th anniversary of the Giants' Carl Hubbell striking out five consecutive batters, the duo of Fernando Valenzuela and Dwight Gooden did "King Carl" one better. Valenzuela fanned all three American League hitters he faced in the fourth inning; then, the youngest player in All-Star Game history—a 19-year-old Gooden—whiffed all three batters in the fifth. Gary Carter, who caught both frames, also broke a 1-1 tie with a solo homer in the second en route to MVP honors.

Oakland's Bill Caudill, making his only All-Star appearance, also posted a perfect inning via strikeout, doing so in his lone frame (seventh). Fittingly, in a game that featured a combined 21 strikeouts, the tight contest ended when Goose Gossage fanned Henderson with a runner on base in the ninth.

78th Major League Baseball All-Star Game

Tuesday, July 10, 2007 at AT&T Park (San Francisco, CA)

The first All-Star Game at AT&T Park lived up to its billing, with the best of baseball turning in a thrilling contest in front of 43,965 fans. Most importantly, the game was San Francisco in all of its essence – beginning with an emotional pre-game tribute to Hall of Famer Willie Mays, the greatest Giant of them all.

True to Mays' greatness, the Midsummer Classic featured a little bit of everything – including the first inside-the-park home run in All-Star Game history, hit by Ichiro Suzuki en route to Most Valuable Player honors. In the end, the American League captured a 5-4 victory after withstanding the National League's furious two-out, ninth-inning rally.

Flexing its muscle and speed, the junior circuit jumped out to a 5-2 lead on the strength of three home runs.

The most memorable – and uniquely San Francisco – was Ichiro's two-run shot in the fifth that put the AL ahead 2-1. With a runner on first and one out, the Seattle star drove the first pitch he saw deep to right field – where it hit off the asymmetrical wall and caromed towards the 421-foot sign in right-center. By the time right fielder Ken Griffey, Jr. could relay the ball to the infield, Ichiro had scampered around the bases and set All-Star Game history.

Following Carl Crawford's solo home run in the sixth and Victor Martinez' two-run clout in the eighth, the AL gave a three-run lead to closer J.J. Putz in the ninth. After the first two National League hitters were retired, Dmitri Young singled and Alfonso Soriano hammered a two-run homer of his own to bring the senior circuit within 5-4. Three walks followed to load the bases – including two off new pitcher Francisco Rodriguez – but Rodriguez got Aaron Rowand to fly out and end the game.

Giants Rainouts

Since moving to San Francisco in 1958, the Giants have had just 33 home games rained out, including six at Oracle Park. During one stretch, the team went 454 games (from April 10, 1976 through Oct. 2, 1981) without a cancellation. Oracle Park has the second-fewest rainouts among open-air stadiums (Petco Park has two). Here is a breakdown of the Giants' San Francisco rainouts:

Retired Uniform Numbers

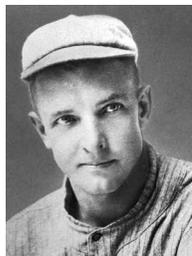

In the storied 138-year history of Giants baseball, 12 former players or managers have enjoyed careers worthy of their jersey numbers being retired by the club. Only the New York Yankees (21) have retired more numbers. The 12 Giant greats are honored at Oracle Park with their names and retired uniform numbers displayed atop the Giants dugout and along the left field suite level facade.

Christy Mathewson and John McGraw, who both predated the use of numbers on jerseys, are recognized along with fellow New York Giants Bill Terry (#3), Mel Ott (#4), Carl Hubbell (#11) and Monte Irvin (#20). Willie Mays (#24), who played for the club on both coasts, joins former San Francisco stars Barry Bonds (#25), Juan Marichal (#27), Orlando Cepeda (#30), Gaylord Perry (#36) and Willie McCovey (#44) in this select group.

The Giants also honor Jackie Robinson, whose uniform number (42) was retired throughout Major League Baseball in 1997 to commemorate the 50th anniversary of his arrival in the big leagues.

In 2004, the Giants commemorated two of baseball's greatest broadcasters with disks honoring Russ Hodges and Lon Simmons.

The Giants recognize the following individuals, who have been honored by the National Baseball Hall of Fame for their contributions to the game: Lindsey Nelson (Ford C. Frick Award, 1988), Leonard Koppett (J.G. Taylor Spink Award, 1992), Bob Stevens (J.G. Taylor Spink Award, 1998), Nick Peters (J.G. Taylor Spink Award, 2009) and Jon Miller (Ford C. Frick Award, 2010).

Frick Award winner in 1988.

Lon Simmons

BROADCASTERHOF Honoree: 2004

One of original voices of San Francisco Giants, teaming with fellow Hall-of-Famer Russ Hodges to form arguably finest broadcast team in sports history...brought trademark "Tell It Goodbye" home run call to Giants broadcast booth for 23 years over three different stints (1958-'73, '76-'78 and '96-2002)...is only man to broadcast debuts for each of club's three San Francisco ballparks—Seals Stadium in 1958, Candlestick Park in 1960 and Oracle Park in 2000...beloved for his wit and charm, Bay Area legend was inducted into Hall of Fame in 2004 as 29th winner of Ford C. Frick Award.

Jon Miller

BROADCASTERHOF Honoree: 2010

Miller, who has gained accolades for his attention to detail and his intellect, has spent four decades calling Major League Baseball games for the A's, Rangers, Red Sox, Orioles and his current team the Giants...was voice of ESPN's national Sunday Night Baseball telecasts for 21 years...broadcast 13 straight World Series on ESPN Radio and 16 overall...his energy, preparation and thoroughness has helped bring game to life in homes and hearts of so many listeners...Miller was honored as 35th Ford C. Frick Award recipient during Hall of Fame Weekend 2010.

Al Michaels

BROADCASTER

HOF Honoree: 2021

Al Michaels, whose passionate and authoritative voice was the nationwide soundtrack of the game for more than a decade, was the lead announcer for the Cincinnati Reds in 1971 and then the San Francisco Giants in 1974. Michaels joined ABC Sports in 1976, the beginning of a 30-year tenure with the network. He became lead announcer of Monday Night Baseball in 1983 while calling an array of other sports, including nearly two decades of Monday Night Football and calling the Miracle on Ice at the 1980 Winter Olympics. Michaels becomes the 45th winner of the Frick Award.

Giants Wall of Fame

On September 23, 2008, the San Francisco Giants unveiled the team's Wall of Fame, which serves as a living tribute to the organization's greatest players and executives. It recognizes retired players whose records stand highest among their teammates on the basis of longevity and achievements. Those honored have played a minimum of nine seasons for the San Francisco Giants, or five seasons with at least one All-Star selection as a Giant.

53 Giants legends have plaques on the wall in honor of their achievements. Bronze plaques honoring these players and their baseball contributions line the wall of Oracle Park along King Street for all baseball fans to enjoy. As present and future generations of Giants players meet the criteria, plaques celebrating their careers will join the Wall of Fame upon their retirement.

2012 Pablo Sandoval, 3B

GIANTS POSTSEASON APPEARANCES

The Giants' 26 postseason appearances (since 1900) are the fourth-most all-time behind the New York Yankees (54), Brooklyn/Los Angeles Dodgers (34), St. Louis Cardinals (30) and Philadelphia/Kansas City/Oakland Athletics (29).

The Giants' eight championships are also the the fourth-most in Major League history. Only the Yankees (27), Cardinals (11) Red Sox (9) and Athletics (9) have more.

The Giants are one of four major American professional sports franchise in this century (2000-present) with three titles during a five-year span. The others are the New England Patriots (2001, 2003, 2004, 2015, 2017, 2019), Los Angeles Lakers (2000, 2001, 2002) and San Antonio Spurs (2003, 2005, 2007).

Giants All-Time Postseason Results

National League Wild Card

2014 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. PITTSBURGH PIRATES

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 1 GAME TO 0)

The Giants defeated the Pirates, 8-0, in the National League Wild Card game backed by the arm of Madison Bumgarner and the bat of Brandon Crawford. Bumgarner threw a four-hitter while striking out 10 batters and Crawford hit a grand slam in the 4th inning off Edinson Volquez, sending the Giants from a winner-take-all wild-card game to a National League Division Series matchup with the Washington Nationals.

With the bases loaded in the 4th inning and nobody out in a scoreless game, Crawford turned on Volquez's hanging breaking ball and sent it to right field, landing a few rows deep and giving the Giants a 4-0 lead while silencing a PNC Park crowd of 40,629. Crawford became the first shortstop to hit a grand slam in postseason history and he joined Chuck Hiller (1962 World Series), Will Clark (1989 National League Championship Series) and Buster Posey (2012 NLDS) as the only Giants to hit a grand slam in postseason play.

Bumgarner, meanwhile, dominated one of the NL's best lineups, walking one and allowing just four singles on 109 pitches, 79 for strikes. Moments after finishing his shut-out, Bumgarner found himself surrounded by teammates in the middle of the diamond celebrating a playoff victory.

2016 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. NEW YORK METS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 1 GAME TO 0)

A game billed as a matchup between two of the Majors' most dominant pitchers proved exactly that as Noah Syndergaard and Madison Bumgarner matched zeroes for the first 7.0 innings. Syndergaard held the Giants hitless through 5.2 innings until a Denard Span single ended the no-hit bid. Bumgarner went the distance, scattering just four hits and two walks to go with six strikeouts.

With Mets closer Jeury's Familia on the mound and the game still locked in a scoreless tie in the top of the 9th, Brandon Crawford ripped a double to left-center on one of the few hard-hit balls of the night. Familia struck out Angel Pagan, then walked Joe Panik.

Next up, Conor Gillaspie, who crushed a three-run homer that accounted for all the game's runs. Gillaspie became the third player in Major League history whose first career postseason home run was a go-ahead homer in the 9th inning or later in a winner-take-all game.

Meanwhile, Bumgarner became the first pitcher in baseball history with multiple postseason winner-take-all complete game shutouts.

National League Division Series

1997 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. FLORIDA MARLINS
(MARLINS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 0)

San Francisco won its first National League West title since 1989 to become only the fourth team during the 20th century to win its division after finishing in last place the previous season.

The Giants outdueled the Dodgers in a classic pennant race for the N.L. West flag. Perhaps the crowning moment of San Francisco's magical ride came Sept. 18 when catcher Brian Johnson led off the 12th inning with a game-winning clout off Los Angeles' Mark Guthrie to put the Giants in a first place tie with nine games remaining.

New General Manager Brian Sabean revamped the Giants roster, bringing in 15 players who were not in the organization at the end of the 1996 campaign. He shocked the baseball world by acquiring All-Star pitchers Wilson Alvarez and Roberto Hernandez and 18-year Major League veteran pitcher Danny Darwin from the Chicago White Sox in exchange for six minor leaguers at the July 31 trading deadline.

The renewed Giants made their first post season appearance in eight years when they faced National League Wild Card entry Florida Marlins in the Division Series. Despite losing all three games of the series, San Francisco gave Florida its toughest test en route to its first World Championship.

Both Games #1 and #2 came down to the last at-bat, with Florida taking advantage of being the home club and posting 2-1 and 7-6 victories, respectively.

Despite two solo home runs by Giants' second baseman Jeff Kent in Game #3, the Marlins finished off the sweep on the strength of Devon White's 6th inning grand slam off Alvarez.

2000 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. NEW YORK METS
(METS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 1)

San Francisco won its second National League West title in four years as the club posted a Major League-best 97-65 mark, only to see its October run stopped short by the Wild Card New York Mets, a club that would eventually win the NL flag.

The Giants enjoyed a truly magical regular season, its first in its new jewel of a home, Pacific Bell Park. Playing in front of 81 straight sellouts that accounted for a franchise-record 3,244,320 fans, San Francisco rattled off a 55-26 ledger, matching the Mets for the best home mark in the majors.

Dusty Baker won his third NL Manager of the Year award after guiding his troops to a Major League-best 51-26 record after the All-Star Break, resulting in an 11-game cushion, the Giants' largest winning margin since 1913.

San Francisco produced its most prolific offensive attack in 70 years, led by National League Most Valuable Player Jeff Kent. Teammate Barry Bonds, who finished second in the MVP voting, clubbed 49 home runs.

The Giants jumped out to a 1-0 lead in the NLDS with a 5-1 victory in front of a raucous Game #1 crowd at Pacific Bell Park. Livan Hernandez held New York to one run over 7.2 innings while Ellis Burks clubbed a three-run, 3rd-inning homer off the left field foul pole.

J.T. Snow's dramatic three-run, pinch-hit homer in the bottom of the 9th tied Game #2 4-4, but the Mets would rally to win 5-4 in 10 innings and even the series at a game apiece.

Unfortunately for San Francisco, its offense went south when the club went East, as the Giants could manage only two runs in 22 innings at Shea Stadium. New York's Benny Agbayani gave the Mets a 3-2 victory in Game #3 with a 13th inning solo home run, and Bobby Jones hurled a one-hit shutout for a 4-0 win in the Game #4 clincher.

2002 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. ATLANTA BRAVES

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 2)

Following a 3-0 loss at Florida on August 18, a stagnant San Francisco club stood at 66-56, four games behind Los Angeles in the NL Wild Card chase. From then on, the Giants would play like champions, going 29-10 down the stretch to capture the league's fourth playoff spot by three and a half contests over the Dodgers.

Despite a 95-win campaign that tied for the fourth-most victories in San Francisco history, the Giants entered the NLDS as heavy underdogs to the Atlanta Braves, who captured their 11th-consecutive division crown by an astounding 19.0-game margin.

Undaunted by their opponents and buoyed by the right arm of starter Russ Ortiz, the Giants stormed into Turner Field and won the series opener by an 8-5 count as Rich Aurilia, Benito Santiago and J.T. Snow all collected two RBI apiece.

Yet, the hope of Game #1 quickly turned into despair, as Atlanta backed the stout pitching of Kevin Millwood and Greg Maddux, respectively, with 17 combined runs in a pair of routs to take a 2-1 series lead.

2003 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. FLORIDA MARLINS

(MARLINS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 1)

For the first time since 1936-37, the Giants earned consecutive appearances in postseason play, as the club won its third National League West title in seven years and became only the second team in franchise history to go wire-to-wire with an overall finish of 100-61.

A flurry of offseason moves brought new faces to San Francisco as the team introduced first year manager Felipe Alou and four new starters to the lineup. The revamped club breezed by their opposition, ending their campaign 15.5 games ahead of the Dodgers for the Giants' largest advantage in 91 years.

General Manager Brian Sabean garnered Executive of the Year accolades for constructing the team with the third best record in baseball and Barry Bonds earned his unprecedented sixth National League Most Valuable Player Award.

Headed into Game #1 of the NLDS rested and primed for success, pitching ace Jason Schmidt thrived in the intense atmosphere at SBC Park, tossing a complete-game three-hitter as the Giants blanked the visiting Marlins 2-0.

Facing the prospect of a long winter, San Francisco turned to past playoff hero Livan Hernandez to work his magic once again in Game #4 at Pacific Bell Park. The big right-hander responded by hurling 8.1-strong innings, while Aurilia finished 3-for-4 with a homer and four RBI as the Giants won 8-3 to force a return trip to Atlanta.

In the decisive Game #5, Barry Bonds exorcised his demons of postseasons past, singling and scoring the Giants' first run in the 2nd and clubbing an opposite-field, solo homer in the 4th that gave SF a 2-0 lead. Ortiz became the first Giants pitcher to win two games in the same post season series since Carl Hubbell went 2-0 in the 1933 World Series, yet San Francisco's 3-1 victory was in doubt until the end. With two men on and none out in the 9th, closer Robb Nen struck out Gary Sheffield then induced Chipper Jones to ground into a series-ending double play.

A sudden turn of events plagued the Giants in Game #2, as San Francisco saw their 4-1 lead quickly vanish as Gold Glovers made costly miscues and the Marlins escaped SBC Park with a 9-5 win.

Knotted up at 1-1, both teams headed to South Florida, but the Giants' run of bad luck seemed to follow. After taking a 3-2 advantage in the 11th inning of Game #3, SF let the Marlins slip back into the contest after a dropped fly ball by Jose Cruz, Jr. allowed the tying run on base. With two out, the bases loaded and a 1-2 count on Ivan Rodriguez, Tim Worrell's next pitch was drilled into right field for a game-winning, two-run single.

In Game #4, San Francisco's furious comeback in the 9th fell short as J.T. Snow was thrown out at the plate on Jeffrey Hammonds' two-out single to left, giving the Marlins a 7-6 victory and ending the Giants' hopes for another playoff run.

2010 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. ATLANTA BRAVES(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 1)

After clinching the 2010 NL West Crown in the final game of the regular season, the Giants entered the NL Division Series at home vs. the Atlanta Braves. In order to get there, Giants' General Manager Brian Sabean had built a pitching staff that led the Majors in ERA with a 3.36 figure, while also revamping his offense throughout the season by acquiring difference-making outfielders Pat Burrell and Cody Ross as well as bringing up eventual 2010 NL Rookie of the Year Buster Posey from the minor leagues in late May.

San Francisco made a push for the 2010 NL West title on August 27. Entering that day, SF was 6.0 games back of the San Diego Padres, however the Giants were red hot in the season's final month, posting an 18-8 record, which was the second-best winning percentage in baseball.

The Giants would win the NLDS over the Braves 3- games-to-1 behind their stalwart pitching as all four games in the series were decided by a one-run margin, which marked the first time in postseason history in which every game was decided by one run. The pitching staff posted a 1.66 ERA as Tim Lincecum was dominant in his postseason debut, tossing a two-hit, 14-strikeout shutout during the Giants' 1-0 win in Game #1.

San Francisco lost Game #2 as the Braves' Rick Ankiel hit a splash hit home run in the top of the 11th frame to help Atlanta pull ahead 5-4.

The next two games were won in dramatic fashion as SF rallied past the Braves 3-2 in Game #3, thanks in part to three fielding errors by Atlanta second baseman Brooks Conrad.

Madison Bumgarner came up aces in Game #4 as he held Atlanta to two runs in 6.0 innings in his postseason debut.

However, it was Cody Ross who played hero in the clinching game as he homered in the 6th inning to break up Derek Lowe's no-hit bid, while also driving in the go-ahead run in the 7th inning as SF won 3-2 and clinched their first division series since 2002.

2012 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. CINCINNATI REDS(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 2)

The 2012 edition of the Giants won the division title despite crushing injuries and unexpected slumps. All-Star closer Brian Wilson was lost for the year after a second Tommy John surgery, Freddy Sanchez never returned after battling back and shoulder issues, Melky Cabrera, acquired in the offseason, was lost in mid-August after testing positive for testosterone and two-time Cy Young award winner Tim Lincecum was having the worst season of his career.

Meanwhile, the Dodgers, with an influx of cash, shook the baseball world with a nine player trade with the Red Sox, centered around slugger Adrian Gonzalez going back to the West Coast.

However, All-Star catcher and 2012 MVP Buster Posey, along with mid-season acquisitions Marco Scutaro and Hunter Pence, ignited the Giants and after trailing the Dodgers by 7.5 games as late as May 28, they slowly chipped away and ended up winning the West by a whopping 8.0 games, their second division title in the last three seasons.

Their first round opponent in the playoffs, the Cincinnati Reds, led by Joey Votto and Brandon Phillips, stormed into San Francisco and took the first two games from the Giants, winning by scores of 5-2 and 9-0. Facing the daunting task of being down 2-0 in the best-of-five division series, the Giants now had to win three consecutive games on the road, something that had never been accomplished in baseball postseason history.

With all the local and national media counting the Giants out, Pence stood up and fired up his teammates with a football-like huddle and rallying speech in the dugout prior to Game #3, a game in which SF won 2-1, avoiding a sweep.

In Game #4, Angel Pagan hit the first leadoff home run in Giants' postseason history, and Gregor Blanco and Pablo Sandoval connected later for an 8-3 victory that evened the series at 2-2.

Not just any comeback would get SF back to playing for a pennant. It would take one of Giant proportions and Posey helped make it happen as he hit the third grand slam in Giants' postseason history and San Francisco pulled off an unprecedented revival, moving to the LCS with a 6-4 victory over the Reds in the deciding Game #5.

2014 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS VS. WASHINGTON NATIONALS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 1)

San Francisco defeated the heavily favored Washington Nationals, three-games-to-one in the National League Division Series.

Jake Peavy pitched no-hit ball for 4.0 innings and didn't allow a run in his 5.2-inning outing in Game #1. Hunter Strickland bailed Peavy out of a bases-loaded jam in the 6th by striking out Ian Desmond. Bryce Harper and Asdrubal Cabrera each hit solo homers off Strickland in the 7th as the Nationals cut a 3-0 deficit to 3-2. Sergio Romo worked out of a jam in the 8th and Santiago Casilla retired all three hitters in the 9th for the save.

What became the longest-ever postseason game in terms of time (6:23) and tied for the longest in terms of innings had seemed headed for a conclusion in the 9th in Game #2. Washington's Jordan Zimmermann had a 1-0 lead, was working on a three-hitter and had retired 20 consecutive batters before walking Joe Panik with two outs in the final frame. Manager Matt Williams then brought in Drew Storen to face Buster Posey, who hit a first-pitch single, and then Pablo Sandoval tied the game by slicing a double into the left-field corner to bring home Panik. The Nats' relay was just in time to cut down Posey at the plate. The game soon spun into extra innings. Yusmeiro Petit threw 6.0-shutout innings, during which he allowed one hit and struck out seven. Leading off the 18th, Brandon Belt drove a Tanner Roark pitch over the right-field wall to put the Giants in front. Strickland preserved the edge in the bottom of the inning to pick up the save.

The Giants' 10-game postseason winning streak ended with an error in Game #3. Madison Bumgarner and Doug Fister were locked in a scoreless matchup in the 7th before the San Francisco ace inaccurately threw to 3rd after fielding Wilson Ramos' sacrifice bunt. Two runs scored on the errant throw.

A bases-loaded walk to Gregor Blanco and an RBI groundout by Panik gave the Giants a 2-0 lead in the second inning of Game #4. Hunter Pence made one of the Giants' top defensive plays of the postseason in the 6th when he banged into the right-field wall as he tracked down Jayson Werth's drive. However, Bryce Harper homered off Strickland in the following inning to tie the game at 2-2. The Giants regained the lead for good in the bottom of the inning on Aaron Barrett's wild pitch on which Panik came home. With two outs and the bases empty in the 9th, Casilla walked Harper before getting Wilson Ramos on a grounder to Panik at second. The Giants soon would spray champagne and prepare to meet the Cardinals in the NLCS.

2016 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS VS. CHICAGO CUBS

(CUBS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 1)

The heavily favored Cubs defeated the Giants three-games-to-one in the best-of-five division series. Jon Lester outduelled Johnny Cueto in Game #1, a 1-0 Giants loss. Both Lester and Cueto logged 8.0 innings each, with the difference, a solo home run off the bat of Javier Baez in the 8th inning off Cueto making the Cubs Game #1 winners.

Game #2 pitted Jeff Samardzija against Kyle Hendricks and both starters lasted less than four innings, with Hendricks being removed due to injury and Samardzija getting roughed up for four runs on six hits in just 2.0 innings of work. Cubs relief pitcher Travis Wood homered off George Kontos and the Giants could not overcome an early 4-0 deficit as they dropped a 5-2 decision to go down 0-2 in the series.

The Giants needed a win in Game #3 or they would find themselves packing their bags for the offseason. It took 13.0 innings, but the Giants outlasted the Cubs by a 6-5 score to get into the win column. The Giants rallied for three runs off LHP Aroldis Chapman in the 8th to go ahead 5-3, then the Cubs stormed back to tie the score at 5-5 in the 9th. Four innings later, Brandon Crawford led off the 13th with a double and Joe Panik followed with a double off the right field wall, giving San Francisco the walk-off win.

Game #4 will leave a sour taste in Giants' fans mouths for a while as the team led 5-2 in the 9th and were just three outs away from pushing the series back to Chicago for a deciding fifth and final game. However, the Giants' bullpen, a problem for SF the latter part of the season, unraveled by giving up four runs on four hits and an error in the final frame to allow the Cubs to take a 6-5 victory.

Giants starter Matt Moore had one of his best starts of the year, allowing just two runs on two hits with 10 strikeouts in 8.0 innings of work.

National League Championship Series

1971 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. PITTSBURGH PIRATES
(PIRATES WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 1)

After winning its first National League West crown, San Francisco entered the National League Championship Series as the favorite against Eastern Division titlists Pittsburgh. The Giants had posted nine wins in 12 contests vs. the Pirates during the regular season.

However, the Giants ran into the hot hitting of Pirates' first baseman Bob Robertson, who clubbed four home runs to lead Pittsburgh to a three games-to-one series victory.

Since staff ace Juan Marichal pitched San Francisco to the NL West flag in its season finale at San Diego, future Hall of Famer Gaylord Perry got the call in Game #1. The right-hander scattered four runs (three earned) and nine hits over his complete game effort as Willie McCovey and Tito Fuentes each delivered two-run home runs in the fourth inning to power SF to a 5-4 victory.

Then Robertson took over. He clubbed a NLCS record three home runs in Game #2 to lead the Pirates to a 9-4 triumph. The first baseman finished 4-for-4 with four runs scored and five RBI as Pittsburgh's victory ended a six-game losing streak at Candlestick Park.

Marichal pitched a four-hitter when the playoffs shifted to Three Rivers Stadium for Game #3, but home runs by Robertson and Richie Hebner gave the Pirates a 2-1 victory behind Bob Johnson and Dave Giusti. The Bucs advanced to the World Series when they tattooed Perry for seven runs and 10 hits over 5.2 innings in the fourth and final game of the series.

1987 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. ST. LOUIS CARDINALS(CARDINALS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 3)

The Giants became only the fourth team in Major League history since 1900 to finish first within two years of a 100-loss disaster. SF rattled off a 90-72 mark to win the 1987 National League West crown after going 62-100 in 1985.

San Francisco battled back from a five-game deficit on Aug. 7 and went 37-17 the rest of the way to capture its first NL West title in 16 years.

Jeffrey Leonard, whose “one-flap-down” home run trot was the story of the series, became the first player on a losing team to capture the NLCS MVP honor when he hit .417 with four home runs and five RBI despite the Giants falling to the Cardinals in seven games. San Francisco split the first two games of the series in St. Louis, with Dave Dravecky, who was acquired from the San Diego

Padres in a seven-player deal on July 4, shutting out the Cardinals on two hits in Game #2. When the series moved to Candlestick Park, the Giants took a 4-0, fifth-inning advantage in Game #3 but the Cardinals roared back to post a 6-5 victory and take a 2-1 lead in the series.

Leonard responded by crushing a two-run clout in the fifth inning of the fourth game to push San Francisco to a series-evening 4-2 triumph. His four homers in four games tied the Championship Series record for a league playoff of any duration.

The Giants took a three games-to-two series advantage back to St. Louis after posting a 6-3 victory in the fifth contest. However, San Francisco didn't score a run in either of the last two games.

1989 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. CHICAGO CUBS(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 1)

Will Clark carried the Giants to their first NL pennant in 27 years when San Francisco defeated the Chicago Cubs in five games.

Clark provided offensive bookends in the series, starting with six RBI in the opener and ending with a two-out, bases-loaded, series-winning two-run single in the eighth inning of Game #5. “Will the Thrill” established new NLCS standards for average (.650), hits (13), runs (eight), total bases (24) and slugging percentage (1.200).

Included in those opening-game six RBI for Clark was his fourth-inning grand slam off Cubs' starter Greg Maddux, which gave San Francisco an 8-3 lead. The Giants' first baseman finished the contest 4-for-4 with four runs scored, a double and two home runs.

The Cubs claimed victory in Game #2, so the series headed to San Francisco tied a game apiece. However, Robby Thompson clubbed a two-run, 7th-inning homer off Les Lancaster to give the Giants a 5-4 victory in the third game.

In one of the most intense at-bats in Giants' postseason history in Game #4, Matt Williams locked up with lefty Steve Wilson in a 12-pitch plate appearance that resulted in a two-run blast which propelled San Francisco to a 6-4 victory.

As broadcaster Hank Greenwald said, “27 years of waiting have come to an end” when the Giants posted a 3-2 come-from-behind victory in Game #5. Clark once again delivered the game-winner, a two-run single up the spine of the infield off Mitch “Wild Thing” Williams.

2002 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. ST. LOUIS CARDINALS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 1)

Following a furious late-season run to capture the Wild Card berth and a stirring five-game NLDS victory over Atlanta, the Giants provided the only truly fitting encore—they won the club's first NL pennant in 13 years by defeating the St. Louis Cardinals in a scintillating and highly competitive five-contest NLCS.

San Francisco began its run to the Fall Classic by winning each of the first two contests in St. Louis. The Giants pounded Cardinals ace Matt Morris early and often en route to a 9-6 victory in Game #1, while Jason Schmidt turned in a dominating Game #2 performance. The right-hander struck out eight and carried a shutout into the eighth inning, while Rich Aurilia's two-homer, three-RBI effort spurred a 4-1 triumph.

Despite Barry Bonds' dramatic three-run, fifth-inning homer into McCovey Cove that briefly tied Game #3 at Pacific Bell Park, a solo clout by St. Louis' Eli Marrero and stingy pitching by the Cardinal bullpen gave the visitors a 5-4 win and renewed hope.

St. Louis jumped out to a 2-0, 1st-inning lead in Game #4 and appeared on its way to evening the series until a pair of Giants veterans turned the tide. In the 6th, J.T. Snow delivered a two-out, two-run double that knotted the contest. Following a two-out intentional walk to Bonds in the eighth, Benito Santiago cemented his series MVP honors by clubbing a full-count offering from Rick White into the left field bleachers for a 4-2 lead. Robb Nen struck out the final two hitters in the 9th to strand the tying run at third and close out a 4-3 SF victory.

Giants' lefty Kirk Rueter and Morris engaged in a classic October pitchers' duel in a Game #5 that was scoreless until St. Louis broke through with a run in the 7th. Bonds tied the contest 1-1 with an eighth-inning sacrifice fly, thus setting the stage for one of the most dramatic moments in San Francisco history.

Morris retired the first two Giants hitters in the bottom of the 9th inning, but was chased by consecutive singles from David Bell and Shawon Dunston. St. Louis turned to reliever Steve Kline, and Kenny Lofton greeted the southpaw by lining his first pitch into right-center field for a single that scored a sliding Bell as the jubilant NL champion Giants poured onto the field.

2010 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. PHILADELPHIA PHILLIES

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 2)

The Giants again relied upon the strength of their pitching in the League Championship Series as they went on to win the best-of-seven LCS from the Phillies to clinch their 18th National League Pennant and fourth while in San Francisco.

Tim Lincecum outdueled Roy Halladay in Game #1 as Cody Ross hit a pair of solo home runs off of the eventual 2010 NL Cy Young award winner to help the Giants defeat the Phillies 4-3 in the opener.

Game #2 did not go as scripted for San Francisco as the Phillies' Roy Oswalt allowed just one run in 8.0 innings and Jimmy Rollins drove in four runs as the Phillies won 6-1. Ross was the lone bright spot for Giants' offense as he connected for his third home run of the series, which tied the game at one apiece in the 5th inning.

San Francisco grabbed a 2-1 edge in Game #3 with a 3-0 shutout behind Matt Cain, who stymied the Phillies in 7.0 innings, allowing just two hits. The Giants scored in the 4th as once again it was Ross who delivered a run-scoring single, which helped cement his status as the NLCS MVP.

Juan Uribe delivered a walk-off sacrifice fly off Roy Oswalt with one out in the 9th inning as SF took Game #4 by a 6-5 count. Buster Posey also contributed offensively going 4-for-4 and becoming the first rookie in the San Francisco era and second in club history to record four hits in a postseason game.

The Giants entered Game #5 just one win away from clinching their 18th NL Pennant and had their ace on the mound with Lincecum. However, the Phillies countered with Roy Halladay, who was pitching with an injured right groin. The injury did not deter him as the Phillies won 4-2, which sent the series back to Philadelphia.

Early during Game #6 it appeared as if the series would go to seven games, as Giants' starter Jonathan Sanchez worked just 2.0 innings, allowing a pair of runs. However, the bullpen was stellar, combining for 7.0-scoreless innings to keep the Giants in the game. Juan Uribe hit an opposite-field home run that barely cleared the right-field wall in the 8th inning, sending the Giants' dugout into a frenzy. Brian Wilson was called upon after Lincecum, and, allowed consecutive one-out singles in the 8th. Wilson got Carlos Ruiz to lineout into a double-play to escape the frame. The Giants' closer then made things interesting in the 9th, issuing walks to Jimmy Rollins and Chase Utley, before striking out Ryan Howard looking to end the game.

2012 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. ST. LOUIS CARDINALS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 3)

After a historic win over the Cincinnati Reds in the Division Series, the Giants faced the St. Louis Cardinals in the League Championship Series for the third time in postseason history. It marked the first time in LCS history that the previous two World Series winners had met.

The clubs split the first two games in San Francisco, with Carlos Beltran and David Freese each hitting two-run home runs to lift the Cardinals to a 6-4 victory in Game #1. In Game #2, Marco Scutaro hit a two-run single in San Francisco's four run 4th inning before leaving with a hip injury and the Giants received their first home win in the postseason, with a 7-1 victory to even the LCS at one game apiece.

The series shifted to St. Louis and the Cards took advantage of the home field as Matt Carpenter hit a two-run home run after subbing for Beltran, and the Cardinals chased Matt Cain before a three and a half hour rain delay in the 7th inning of a 3-1 Red Bird Game #3 win.

The Giants were routed 8-3 in Game #4. Adam Wainwright threw 7.0 innings of four-hit ball and St. Louis' offense roughed up Tim Lincecum and the Giants' bullpen.

Facing elimination for the fourth time in the 2012 postseason, the Giants' sent Barry Zito to the mound in Game #5 and the soft-tossing lefty was at his best, pitching San Francisco back into the series with a 5-0 win that narrowed SF's deficit to 3-2. Zito resembled the same guy who won the 2002 AL Cy Young Award with the A's, as he retired 11 consecutive batters in one stretch while striking out six in 7.2 innings.

Back in San Francisco for a Game #6, the Giants chased opposing starter Chris Carpenter to an early exit in their 6-1 victory that forced the series to a decisive Game #7.

Ryan Vogelsong finished with nine strikeouts, a career-high for any game.

Hunter Pence got the Giants going with a weird double, Cain pitched his second clincher of the postseason and the Giants closed out Game #7 of the LCS in a rainstorm, routing the Cardinals 9-0 to advance to the World Series for the 19th time in franchise history, the fifth time since moving to San Francisco and for the second time in the last three seasons.

San Francisco won its record-tying sixth elimination game of the postseason, completing a lopsided rally from a 3-1 deficit. Scutaro recorded his sixth multi-hit game of the series and matched an LCS record with 14 hits and Pablo Sandoval drove in a run for his fifth straight game. After falling behind in the series 3-games-to-1, the Giants outscored the Cardinals 20-1 over the final three games behind stellar pitching performances from Zito, Vogelsong and Cain.

2014 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS VS. ST. LOUIS CARDINALS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 1)

The underdog Giants beat the Cardinals four-games-to-one in the National League Championship Series.

In Game #1, Madison Bumgarner (named the NLCS MVP) threw 7.2 innings, extending his road postseason scoreless streak to a major-league-record 26.2 innings. He allowed four hits, struck out seven and walked one. Sergio Romo and Santiago Casilla retired the final four St. Louis hitters in order.

Game #2 was one of the Giants' best postseason games in 2014. St. Louis led 2-0 before the Giants scored single runs in the 5th, 6th and 7th innings to go in front 3-2. Cardinals rookie Oscar Taveras hit a pinch-hit homer off Jean Machi in the bottom of the 7th to tie the game. In the following frame, Matt Adams homered off Hunter Strickland to make it 4-3, Cardinals. With men at first and second and two outs in the 9th, Trevor Rosenthal uncorked a wild pitch on a 3-2 delivery to Joe Panik. Going on the pitch, pinch-runner Matt Duffy motored home for a 4-4 game. The tie didn't last 9th inning by hitting an 0-1 pitch from Romo into the right field seats, giving the Cardinals a 5-4 win.

The Giants won Game #3, 5-4 in 10 innings. Tim Hudson had a 4-0 lead before the Cardinals would whittle the margin to 4-3 and tie the game on Hudson's final pitch. Brandon Crawford opened the bottom of the 10th inning by drawing a walk from lefty Randy Choate. Juan Perez then lined a single to left before Gregor Blanco followed by dropping down a bunt between the mound and the third-base line. Choate grabbed it and made an errant throw to first base allowing Crawford to score the winning run.

After St. Louis built a 4-1 lead in the 3rd off Ryan Vogelsong in Game #4, the Giants answered with two in the bottom of the inning, getting two-out RBI singles from Buster Posey and Hunter Pence. Yusmeiro Petit blanked the Cardinals over the next three innings to pick up the win.

Game #5 was perhaps one of the most memorable postseason games in Giants history. Panik put SF up 2-1 in the 3rd inning after hitting a two-run homer off Adam Wainwright. However, Matt Adams and Tony Cruz hit solo HRs off Bumgarner in the 4th, giving the Cards a 3-2 lead. Bumgarner did not allow a baserunner after Cruz's homer, setting down the final 13 men he faced. Wainwright had retired 10 straight through the 7th, but Pat Neshek replaced him to begin the 8th. Pinch-hitter Michael Morse greeted Neshek with a drive over the wall in left to tie the game and send the AT&T Park crowd into a frenzy. The Cardinals sent Michael Wacha to the mound in the 9th. Pablo Sandoval opened the inning with a single, and Joaquin Arias pinch-ran for him. With one out, Wacha lost all contact with the strike zone, throwing four consecutive balls to Brandon Belt and falling behind Travis Ishikawa 2-0. Ishikawa proceeded to etch his name next to Bobby Thomson's for hitting a home run that propelled the Giants to the World Series.

World Series

1905 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. PHILADELPHIA ATHLETICS
(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 1)

The Fall Classic returned after a year's hiatus and Hall of Famer Christy Mathewson made it his showcase, leading the Giants to their first World Championship with three shutout victories.

The 25-year-old right-hander, who had 32 victories in 1905 to register his third straight 30-win season, shut down the Philadelphia Athletics in New York's five-game victory. In the space of six days, he pitched three shutouts and permitted just 14 hits overall.

Mathewson even played a part in the Giants' offense during a 3-0 Game #1 victory in Philadelphia. He ignited a two-run rally in the fifth inning to break open a scoreless contest, then went on to shut out the Athletics on four hits.

New York skipper John McGraw, who boycotted the 1904 World Series vs. the Boston Red Sox, didn't have to rely solely on Mathewson to get him the title. He also had Red

Ames and Joe McGinnity, who won 22 and 21 games during the regular season, respectively, in his rotation.

Those two hurlers worked in Game #2, but McGinnity was ticketed with the defeat after surrendering three unearned runs in a 3-0 defeat.

Mathewson was staked to a 2-0, 1st inning lead in Game #3 and responded by blanking Philadelphia on four hits. First baseman Dan McGann was the Giants' big gun in the 9-0 romp, collecting two singles and a double while driving in four runs.

McGinnity rebounded from his Game #2 defeat to shut out Eddie Plank and Philadelphia in a classic 1-0 pitchers' duel in Game #4.

But it was Mathewson who got to finish off the job he started when he blanked the Athletics 2-0 in the fifth and deciding game.

1911 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. PHILADELPHIA ATHLETICS
(ATHLETICS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 2)

The "running" Giants, who established a league record with 347 stolen bases, persevered through the rebuilding of the Polo Grounds and posted 99 victories to capture the National League pennant. New York had to play its home games through early June at the park of the American League's New York Highlanders (later the Yankees) after the Polo Grounds burned to the ground in April.

However, New York's offense was limited to only four stolen bases in its six-game World Series defeat to the Philadelphia Athletics.

1905 Series hero Christy Mathewson still anchored John McGraw's pitching staff, going 26-13 during the regular season. The Hall of Famer got New York off to a great start vs. Philadelphia in Game #1 of the Fall Classic, tossing a six-hitter in the 2-1 triumph.

The Athletics rebounded to take Games #2 and #3 with Frank "Home Run" Baker clubbing dramatic home runs in both outings.

Then the rains came. The World Series was put on hold for six days due to Mother Nature.

When the Fall Classic resumed exactly a week after Game #3 had been played, Mathewson was outduelled by Chief Bender in a 4-2 decision that gave the Athletics a three-games-to-one advantage.

The Giants escaped the inevitable in Game #5 by scoring a 4-3 triumph in 10 innings before getting clobbered 13-2 in the series' sixth and final game.

1912 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. BOSTON RED SOX

(RED SOX WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 3 - 1 TIE)

The Giants, bolstered by lefty Rube Marquard's modern Major League record 19-game winning streak, lived a storybook 1912 campaign. That's until the 10th inning of the final game of the World Series, when usually-reliable center fielder Fred Snodgrass dropped a fly ball that opened the door for a two-run Boston rally that gave the Red Sox the title.

New York, which featured two 20-game winners in Marquard (26) and Christy Mathewson (23), posted 103 victories during the regular season and coasted to the pennant with a ten-game cushion.

Newcomer Jeff Tesreau, who won 17 games for the Giants, got the nod in Game #1 but suffered a 4-3 defeat to the Red Sox.

Despite a see-saw contest that saw four lead changes, Game #2 was a wash as it was called due to darkness, thus making the 1912 World Series an eight-game affair.

The Giants evened the score in Game #3, posting a 2-1 victory behind Marquard before the Red Sox got the better of Tesreau again in the fourth contest, this time by a 3-1 count.

Trailing two-games-to-one, the Giants posted 5-2 and 11-4 wins, respectively, in Games #6 and #7.

The Series came down to the 10th inning of the eighth and final game, as the Giants and Red Sox were deadlocked at 1-1 after nine innings. New York took a 2-1 lead in the top half of the 10th before the wheels fell off in the bottom half. Boston pinch hitter Clyde Engle opened the frame with a routine fly ball that Snodgrass was camped under and then dropped.

Boston eventually won the game 3-2 on a sacrifice fly in the 10th and ruined New York's magical season.

1913 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. PHILADELPHIA ATHLETICS

(ATHLETICS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 1)

New York won its third straight National League flag, but couldn't get over the hump in the World Series for the third consecutive year, falling four-games-to-one to the Philadelphia Athletics.

After winning the pennant with a twelve-game cushion, the Giants were beset by injuries during the Fall Classic. First baseman Fred Merkle was limited to 13 at-bats due to a bad leg. Center fielder Fred Snodgrass played in only two games and made three trips to the plate after suffering from a severe charley horse. Chief Meyers, the Giants' catcher, was shelved for the Series after suffering a fractured finger in practice preceding Game #2.

The Athletics jumped out to a 1-0 series advantage after shelling Rube Marquard for five runs and eight hits in five innings for a 6-4 victory in the opener.

Once again, Christy Mathewson provided New York with a fine postseason performance when he tossed a 3-0, 10-inning shutout in Game #2. He even drove in the game-winning run with his single in the 10th.

That was last highlight for the Giants as the Athletics rolled to the World Championship by posting victories in each of the last three contests.

Mathewson, pitching in what would be his final World Series, wound up with a 5-5 lifetime mark in the Fall Classic—he was 4-0 at one point—after splitting two decisions in 1913.

Skipper John McGraw was determined to restore his club to World Series glory. However, it would be another four years until the Giants would take the field again in the championship series.

1917 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. CHICAGO WHITE SOX

(WHITE SOX WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 2)

The Giants' run of bad luck continued in their fourth straight World Series defeat as they fell to the Chicago White Sox in six games.

In the sixth and deciding game, New York was in a scoreless deadlock with Chicago heading into the fourth inning. That's when the Giants' penchant for mistakes at inopportune times reared its ugly head once again. This time, Chicago second baseman Eddie Collins led off the frame with a grounder to New York third baseman Heinie Zimmerman, who made a two-base throwing error on the play. Joe Jackson's ensuing fly ball was dropped by right fielder Dave Robertson, positioning White Sox at the corners.

Chicago center fielder Happy Felsch then grounded back to the pitcher, Rube Benton, who saw Collins break from third and threw to Zimmerman in an attempt to get Collins hung up. Zimmerman ran Collins toward the plate, but the runner bounded past catcher Bill Rariden to make it a Zimmerman-Collins race to the plate. The White Sox second baseman won the footrace and distracted the Giants' defense enough to allow the baserunners to advance to second and third. Both Chicago runners would score on an ensuing base hit. That's all the White Sox would need to salt away the World Championship as they went on to win Game #6 by a 4-2 count.

Famed Olympian and footballer Jim Thorpe was on the 1917 Giants' club, but made only one "appearance" during the World Series in Game #5. He was slated to start in right field, but never took the field. The right-handed hitting Thorpe was removed for a left-handed pinch hitter after the White Sox lifted lefty hurler Reb Russell in favor of right-hander Eddie Cicotte.

1921 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 5 GAMES TO 3)

The Giants snapped a four-World Series losing streak when they outdueled the rival Yankees in a thrilling eight-game series. With both clubs playing their home contests at the Polo Grounds, it was the first Fall Classic to be played in its entirety at one stadium.

The National League champions were headlined by third baseman Frankie Frisch, right fielder Ross Youngs, first baseman George Kelly and left fielder Irish Meusel, while Babe Ruth and his 59 home runs was the sparkplug for the Yankees.

The American Leaguers jumped out to a two games-to-none lead after posting consecutive 3-0 victories. The Giants battled back from a 2-0, 2nd inning deficit in Game

#3 to post a 13-5 victory. John McGraw's club knotted the Fall Classic at two games apiece when it logged a 4-2 triumph in the fourth game, despite Ruth's first World Series home run.

Ruth, hobbled by knee and arm ailments, spirited the Yankees to a 3-1 victory in Game #5 when he started the go-ahead rally with a bunt base hit.

However, the Bambino couldn't continue and the Giants took advantage of the situation to run off three straight victories and give the franchise its first World Championship since 1905. Art Nehf got the National Leaguers over the top with his four-hit, 1-0 victory in Game #8.

1922 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 0 - 1 TIE)

The Giants, playing the second of four consecutive World Series, earned their berth by taking the National League pennant with a seven-game cushion.

John McGraw's club brought home its second straight title after defeating its fellow Polo Grounds tenants, the Yankees, in a four-victory sweep that actually took five games to complete due to a tie.

Third baseman Heinie Groh, who was acquired from Cincinnati the previous winter, led the Giants to a 3-2 triumph in the opener after logging a 3-for-3 showing. The National League entrant had been shut out by Joe Bush through seven innings, before it stormed back from a two-run deficit on Irish Meusel's two-run single and Ross Youngs's sacrifice fly.

Meusel got back in the act quickly in Game #2, drilling a three-run home run off Bob Shawkey in the 1st inning.

However, the Yankees battled back to tie the contest at 3-3 and it was inexplicably called because of "darkness" after the 10th inning by umpire George Hildebrand, despite at least a half-hour of daylight remaining.

Jack Scott, who went 8-2 in just 17 games for the Giants, tossed a four-hitter at the Yankees in Game #3 and led the National Leaguers to a 3-0 victory.

The Giants managed to post 4-3 and 5-3 victories in the fourth and fifth games, respectively, to advance to their second straight title. It also helped that the Giants' pitchers shut down Babe Ruth over the final three outings, holding him 0-for-9.

The 1922 World Championship would prove to be the third and final one in the illustrious career of the Giants' winningest skipper, John McGraw.

1923 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(YANKEES WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 2)

It was an all-New York World Series for the third straight year, but there were a few changes. First, the Yankees moved into their own ballpark, Yankee Stadium. Second and most importantly, the American League entrant ended the Giants' two-year reign as World Champions.

The man who proved to be a thorn in the side of the Yankees was a Giants' outfielder who would later become synonymous with the club from the Bronx—Casey Stengel.

The 34-year-old outfielder christened World Series play in Yankee Stadium when he lined a ninth inning Joe Bush offering into left-center field that got between the outfielders for an inside-the-park home run, breaking a 4-4 draw and giving the Giants a 5-4 triumph in Game #1.

The Yankees, who had not defeated the Giants in their last nine World Series meetings (eight defeats, one tie), finally broke through in Game #2 when Babe Ruth clubbed two home runs in the 4-2 victory.

When the Series returned to Yankee Stadium for Game #3, Stengel shared the stage with pitcher Art Nehf. The outfielder broke open a scoreless duel with a home run into the right field stands. Nehf finished off the American Leaguers after allowing five singles and a double in the 1-0 win.

That was all she wrote for the Giants as the Yankees rattled off three consecutive victories to win their first World Championship. The American Leaguers coasted to 8-4 and 8-1 victories in Games #4 and #5, respectively.

In the sixth and final contest, Ruth got the Yanks off to a great start with his first inning, upper deck blast. But the A.L. entrant would need a five-run 8th inning to post the 6-4 decider.

1924 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. WASHINGTON SENATORS

(SENATORS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 3)

The Giants made their fourth straight appearance in the Fall Classic, but they faced someone other than the Yankees for the first time during that span when they squared off with the Washington Senators.

New York was the National League representative in the World Series for the eighth time in 14 years, but it had to scramble to win the flag by one-and-a-half games over Brooklyn.

With the World Series tied at three games apiece, honored legacies of Merkle, Snodgrass and Zimmerman returned to longtime Giants' fans. Despite making three errors in the final contest, New York was done in twice by the infield at Washington's Griffith Stadium.

New York took a 3-1 advantage into the 8th inning of that final contest. With two outs and the bases-loaded, Senators' second baseman/manager Bucky Harris hit a grounder that skipped over the head of 18-year-old third baseman Freddie Lindstrom. Two runs scored on the bad-hop single to tie the game.

The contest remained deadlocked until the bottom of the 12th inning, when Giants' catcher Hank Gowdy tripped over his mask and dropped a Muddy Ruel pop. The Washington catcher responded with a double down the third base line. One batter later with runners on first and second, center fielder Earl McNeely grounded to third. But once again, the ball skipped over Lindstrom's head and Ruel came around to score the winning tally.

This would prove to be the final World Series appearance for Giants manager John McGraw. Although he owned a 3-6 lifetime mark in the Fall Classic, only one other manager appeared in more series – Casey Stengel with 10 trips.

1933 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. WASHINGTON SENATORS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 1)

New York, in its first full season under new manager Bill Terry, won the National League pennant on the strong pitching of Carl Hubbell and Hal Schumacher.

The Giants entered the World Series as the underdog to the high-powered offense of the Washington Senators. However, the New Yorkers tacked up a 1.53 ERA (8er, 47.0ip) en route to their four games-to-one series victory.

Hubbell and Schumacher, who had combined for 17 shut-outs during the regular season, were selected to start the first two contests vs. the Senators.

Hubbell, the second winningest pitcher in Giants history, struck out 10 and didn't allow an earned run in the 4-2 victory. Outfielder Mel Ott accounted for three of New York's four runs, with his two-run home run and RBI single. Schumacher followed Hubbell's lead and allowed only a solo home run in the Giants' 6-1 Game #2 victory.

The good pitching turned on the Giants in Game #3 as Washington's Earl Whitehill tossed a five-hit shutout to give the Senators a 4-0 triumph.

Hubbell, who led the National League with 23 wins, carried a 1-1 game into the 10th inning in Game #4 when the Giants edged ahead on third baseman Travis Jackson's bunt single, a sacrifice and shortstop Blondy Ryan's single. King Carl escaped a one-out, bases-loaded jam in the bottom half of the inning with a double play to preserve New York's 2-1 victory.

Schumacher helped himself offensively in the decisive Game #5 with his two-run single in the 2nd inning. Then 43-year-old reliever Dolf Luque took over a 3-3 game and worked the final four-and-one-third innings to get the Giants in position to win. Ott took care of the offense when he drilled a solo blast into the center field stands at Griffith Stadium in the top of the 10th inning to give New York a 4-3 victory.

1936 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(YANKEES WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 2)

The Giants locked horns with their cross-town rivals, the Yankees, in the Fall Classic for the fifth time after winning the National League flag by a five-game margin.

The Yankees, who were without Babe Ruth but had Joe DiMaggio, captured the Series in six games to start a run that saw them win 16 of the next 27 World Championships.

The National Leaguers rode the arm of Hall of Famer Carl Hubbell to their 11th World Series. The 33-year-old left-hander won his last 16 decisions of the regular season to finish with a 26-6 ledger that included a 2.31 ERA.

King Carl was on the mound for the Giants in Game #1 and got the National Leaguers a 6-1 victory after allowing just seven hits, including a third inning home run by George Selkirk. Trailing 1-0 in the 5th inning, shortstop Dick Bartell launched a solo blast of his own before the Giants added another run in the 6th and four more in the 8th.

The National Leaguers' victory in Game #1 snapped a 12-game winning streak owned by the Yankees in World Series action.

The Yankees went on to win each of the next three games, outscoring the Giants by a cumulative 25-7 count.

Staving off elimination, the Giants scored a 5-4, 10-inning victory in Game #5. Manager Bill Terry, playing in the next-to-last game of his playing career, drove in the game-winner with a sacrifice fly.

The American Leaguers finished off the Polo Grounds tenants in Game #6 as they pounded out 17 hits en route to their series-clinching 13-5 victory.

1937 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(YANKEES WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 1)

The two New York teams squared off once again in the Fall Classic, but the Yankees' offensive firepower proved to be too much for the Giants as the American League entrants took home the title in a five-game series.

The Giants, who boasted two 20-game winners in Carl Hubbell and rookie Cliff Melton, only had one big bat to combat the Yankee arsenal. Mel Ott clubbed 31 home runs and drove in 95 runs.

However, that was no match for the Yankees' lineup that had five different 100-RBI men in Lou Gehrig, Joe DiMaggio, Tony Lazzeri, Bill Dickey and George Selkirk.

Hubbell was once again the Giants' Game #1 starter and was coasting along with a 1-0 lead into the bottom of the 6th. Then the Yankees produced one of their vaunted big-run innings, posting a six-run frame. The American Leaguers went on to post the 8-1 victory.

It was much of the same in Games #2 and #3 as the Yankees posted 8-1 and 5-1 triumphs, respectively.

The Giants turned the tables in Game #4 as they plated six runs in the 2nd inning, with the big blows coming from center fielder Hank Leiber. He opened the frame with a single and scored before capping off the rally with a two-run single. The National Leaguers had Hubbell on the hill and he shut down the Yankees on six hits for the 7-3 victory.

The Yankees captured their second straight title with a 4-2 win in the fifth contest.

1951 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(YANKEES WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 2)

The 1951 World Series was overshadowed by an event that took place the day before it began – “The Shot Heard ‘Round the World.”

Bobby Thomson's three-run, 9th-inning homer off the Dodgers' Ralph Branca in the National League-deciding playoff game put an exclamation on one of the greatest stretch drives in the history of baseball.

Manager Leo Durocher's club trailed Brooklyn by 13-and-a-half games on Aug. 11. Then the Giants rattled off 16-straight victories and won 37 of their last 44 regular-season games to force a best-of-three playoff series with the Dodgers for the National League pennant.

The momentum seemed to carry over to the next day for the opener of the World Series as Monte Irvin stole home in the first inning to register the first swipe of home since the Yankees' Bob Meusel did it in 1928. The Giants' left fielder finished the contest 4-for-5 and spearheaded a 5-1 victory.

Irvin would once again lead the National Leaguers' offense in Game #2, but his three hits weren't enough to overcome the Yankees in a 3-1 defeat.

Shortstop Eddie Stanky inspired a five-run, fifth-inning rally in Game #3 when he kicked the ball out of Phil Rizzuto's glove on a failed stolen base attempt and scrambled to third. The Giants would move on to a 6-2 triumph at the Polo Grounds.

Despite holding a two-games-to-one series lead, the Giants couldn't finish off the Yankees as the American Leaguers ran off three straight victories to claim the title.

1954 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. CLEVELAND INDIANS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 0)

Willie Mays got the National League champion Giants off to a great start in the 1954 World Series when he made perhaps the greatest defensive play in baseball history.

With New York and Cleveland tied 2-2 in the 8th inning of Game #1 at the Polo Grounds and two Indian runners on base, the Hall of Fame center fielder made an over-the-shoulder catch of a 460-foot smash off the bat of the Indians' Vic Wertz.

The Giants went on to win 5-2 when pinch-hitter Dusty Rhodes hit a three-run, 10th-inning home run off Indians' starter Bob Lemon. Ironically, the game-winning clout went only 260 feet.

The Giants would go on to sweep the Indians in four games to register their last World Championship in an upset over the highly-touted American League champs.

Rhodes, who hit .341 in part-time duty and as a pinch-hitter deluxe during the regular season, also delivered the game-winning hits in both Games #2 and #3. However, his services weren't needed in the fourth and final contest as New York jumped out to a 7-0 advantage and coasted to the 7-4 championship-clinching victory.

New York was the surprise National League champion. After finishing fifth in 1953, the Giants were led by Mays, who won the N.L. batting title with a .345 mark that included 41 home runs and 110 RBI. The center fielder had returned to the Giants after missing the 1953 campaign due to military service.

Johnny Antonelli, another newcomer who was acquired from Milwaukee in exchange for Bobby Thomson in the off-season, won 21 games to help New York to the N.L. flag.

1962 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(YANKEES WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 3)

A matter of inches was the difference between the Giants bringing a World Championship to San Francisco for the first time or losing to the New York Yankees in the Fall Classic for the fifth time.

With the Giants trailing 1-0 with two outs and runners on second and third in the bottom of the ninth inning of Game #7, San Francisco's clean-up hitter Willie McCovey stepped in to face Ralph Terry. The Giants' Hall of Famer lined a one-ball, one-strike pitch toward right field, but Yankees' second baseman Bobby Richardson moved slightly to his left and threw up his glove to register the final out and the Yankees' 20th World Series crown.

San Francisco captured the National League flag by posting a late-season rally to catch Los Angeles and force a three-game playoff, which the Giants won 2-1.

The Giants carried a 2-2 tie into the 7th inning of Game #1 at Candlestick Park until Clete Boyer drilled a solo home run to spur the Yankees onto a 6-2 triumph.

Jack Sanford fired a three-hit shutout to even the Series at one-game apiece in San Francisco's 2-0 Game #2 victory. In a seesaw World Series, the Yankees would log a 3-2 Game #3 win before Giants' second baseman Chuck Hiller drilled a grand slam in the seventh inning of the fourth game to propel San Francisco to a 7-3 victory. It was the first bases-loaded clout by a National League player in World Series history.

Despite Sanford's 10-strikeout effort in seven-and-a-third innings, the Yankees posted a 5-3 win in Game #5.

As the Series moved back to San Francisco, there was a five-day delay due to a travel day and three rainouts. Once play resumed, Billy Pierce pitched a three-hitter and Orlando Cepeda posted three hits and two RBI to force a seventh game with a 5-2 Game #6 win.

1989 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. OAKLAND ATHLETICS

(ATHLETICS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 0)

The Bay Bridge Series, which pitted the Giants against their local rival, the Oakland Athletics, will always be remembered more for the Loma Prieta earthquake than the four-game brooming by the American Leaguers.

That might be a good thing for the Giants, as they were outclassed in almost every phase of the game by the Athletics, as was evidenced by the 32-14 cumulative run total.

A's Game #1 starter Dave Stewart set the tone for this Fall Classic when he hurled a five-hit shutout at the Giants. He was backed by solo home runs from Dave Parker and Walt Weiss off San Francisco starter Scott Garrelts.

In much the same fashion, Oakland rolled to a 5-1 victory in Game #2 behind the pitching of Mike Moore.

Then it happened. Something that would make this four-game Series sweep stand out in history. At 5:04 p.m. on Oct. 17, an earthquake with a 7.1-Richter scale reading rocked the Bay Area and the 60,000 fans at Candlestick Park. With reports of damage throughout the Bay Area, the ballpark was evacuated and the game was cancelled.

Finally, 10 days later, the Athletics picked up where they had left off, as they drilled five home runs on their way to a 13-7 rout in the rescheduled Game #3. The five-homer effort, two by Dave Henderson along with single clouts from Jose Canseco, Carney Lansford and Tony Phillips, tied a Series record set by the 1928 Yankees.

The A's never trailed in the series as Rickey Henderson opened Game #4 with a home run off Giants' starter Don Robinson. The Giants would close it to 8-6 in the seventh, but that was as close they would get in the 9-6 finale.

2002 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. ANAHEIM ANGELS

(ANGELS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 3)

In the first World Series between two Wild Card teams, the Giants and Anaheim Angels lived up to the moniker, combining to set numerous offensive records in a memorable seven-game Fall Classic.

Anaheim emerged from the fireworks with its first World Championship in franchise history, while San Francisco was saddled with heartbreak after seeing a title slip away just five outs from the pinnacle.

The clubs split the first two contests in Anaheim, with Barry Bonds grabbing the spotlight in his first appearance on the World Series stage. San Francisco's left fielder clubbed a solo homer in his first at-bat to spark a 4-3 Giants win in Game #1, then connected for a mammoth 9th-inning shot in Game #2. Not to be outdone, the Angels' Tim Salmon homered twice as Anaheim won an 11-10 slugfest to even the series.

When the scene shifted north, the Angels seemed to take control with a convincing 10-4 win in Game #3. As they had all season, the Giants battled back in Game #4, rallying from a 3-0 deficit to earn a 4-3 victory on David Bell's two-out, RBI-single in the 8th inning.

Game #5 belonged to San Francisco, as the home club delighted the 42,713 fans at Pacific Bell Park with a 16-4 rout. Jeff Kent tied Giants World Series records with four runs, two homers and four RBI, Rich Aurilia drove in three runs to establish a franchise playoff mark with 17 RBI overall, and J.T. Snow had two of his series-high 11 hits.

The Giants were eight outs from their first World Series title since 1954, as Shawon Dunston's two-run homer, Bonds' record eighth post season clout (fourth of Series), and Kent's RBI-single propelled SF to a 5-0 lead in Game #6. But the ultimate prize was wrested away as Scott Spezio's three-run, 7th-inning homer and series MVP Troy Glaus' two-run, 8th-inning double highlighted Anaheim's rally to a 6-5 victory.

San Francisco scored first in Game #7, but ultimately could not overcome the pitching of John Lackey and the bat of Garret Anderson, who delivered the deciding three-run, 3rd-inning double in Anaheim's 4-1 triumph.

2010 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. TEXAS RANGERS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 1)

It was a different story for the San Francisco Giants during the World Series as the club was bolstered by their offense and pitching to win their sixth World Championship and first since they moved from New York to San Francisco in 1958 to capture the 106th Fall Classic, 4 games to 1 over the Texas Rangers. It marked the club's first World Series win since 1954, ending the Majors' 3rd-longest drought without a Championship at that time, behind the Cubs (102 years) and Indians (62 years) as the top 2 teams at the time.

The Giants' bats were on fire as they battered Cliff Lee and the Rangers' bullpen with an 11-7 victory in the opening game of the 2010 World Series. What was originally penned as a pitchers' duel between Lee and Tim Lincecum turned out to be an offensive outburst by both teams. Freddy Sanchez finished with four of the Giants' 14 hits as Aubrey Huff went 3-for-4 with an RBI and Juan Uribe capped a six-run 5th inning with a three-run home run, which set off the fog horn and blasts from water cannons out in right field. San Francisco took a commanding two game lead after Matt Cain held the Rangers' bats at bay in a 9-0 shutout in Game #2. Cain tossed 7.2-scoreless frames to extend his postseason scoreless innings total to 21.1 frames, while Edgar Renteria led the offense as he homered and drove in three runs.

The only mishap for the Giants was during Game #3 as they fell to the Rangers 4-2 at Texas. However, the team resorted back to their pitching heavy strategy in Game #4 as rookie Madison Bumgarner took to the mound and fired off 8.0-shutout innings as the Giants shut out the Rangers 4-0 on Halloween night. Huff (two-run home run) and Buster Posey (solo home run) supplied the club with enough offense as the team was one game away from winning their first Championship in over 54 years.

Lincecum and World Series MVP Renteria helped deliver the title in Game #5 as Lincecum outdueled Cliff Lee in a game that was scoreless until Renteria hit a three-run home run with two outs in the 7th inning. Lincecum defeated Lee for the second time in a week, allowing just three hits over 8.0 innings while recording 10 strikeouts. The game was scoreless until Cody Ross and Juan Uribe both singled to open the seventh inning before Huff laid down the first sacrifice bunt of his career to move the runners. Renteria stepped to the plate and sent a 2-0 pitch over the left-center field wall silencing a sold out crowd of 52,045. Brian Wilson was summoned for the 9th and retired Josh Hamilton on a called 3rd strike, getting Vladimir Guerrero on a grounder to shortstop and then struck out Nelson Cruz to cap the best season in San Francisco Giants history.

2012 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. DETROIT TIGERS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 0)

Playing in the World Series for the 19th time in franchise history and the fifth time since moving to San Francisco in 1958, the Giants were set to face the Detroit Tigers, the first time these two storied franchises had ever met in a postseason series.

Pablo Sandoval and Barry Zito both shined for the Giants in Game #1 as Sandoval hit three home runs, and joined Reggie Jackson, Babe Ruth and Albert Pujols as the only players to accomplish that in the Fall Classic, and Zito outdueled Justin Verlander, the reigning Cy Young winner, as the Giants won 8-3. Sandoval homered in his first three at-bats, hitting a solo shot in the 1st inning, a two-run blast in the 3rd that set off the fog horns and capped it with yet another solo shot to center that sent the festive AT&T Park crowd into a frenzy.

In Game #2, Madison Bumgarner tossed 7.0-scoreless innings, then the Giants took advantage of a bunt that stayed fair to scratch out the go-ahead run in a 2-0 win for a 2-0 advantage in the Series.

The Giants took a commanding 3-0 lead in the Fall Classic with a 2-0 win on a chilly night in Detroit in Game #3. SF won their franchise-record sixth straight postseason game as Ryan Vogelsong blanked the Tigers for 5.2 innings and Gregor Blanco hit an RBI triple and Brandon Crawford drove him home with a single in the 2nd inning. The Giants became the eighth team to post consecutive World Series shutouts and the first to accomplish the feat since the 1966 Baltimore Orioles.

Nearly knocked out in the playoffs time and time again, the Giants completed a four game sweep of the Tigers to win their second title in three seasons. Marco Scutaro's go-ahead single with two outs in the 10th inning lifted the Giants to a 4-3, 10-inning victory. Sergio Romo got Triple Crown winner Miguel Cabrera to look at strike three for the final out and the Giants finished the month of October with seven straight wins and their seventh World Series championship.

2014 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS VS. KANSAS CITY ROYALS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 3)

Backed by the eventual World Series MVP Madison Bumgarner, the Giants beat the Kansas City Royals in seven games to capture their third championship in five years.

Kansas City hadn't lost in this postseason before the Series, but the Giants ended that streak at eight games with a 7-1 win in Game #1. SF scored three times in the 1st inning off James Shields; Pablo Sandoval hit an RBI double and Hunter Pence crushed a two-run homer to right-center. Bumgarner carried a shutout into the 7th before Salvador Perez homered, ending Bumgarner's World Series scoreless-innings streak at 21 and his road postseason scoreless-innings streak at 32.2. His three-hit, 7.0-inning performance gave the Giants the jump in the Series.

Gregor Blanco opened Game #2 by jumping on a 3-2 pitch from Yordano Ventura and jolting it over the wall in right. That lead was short-lived as the Royals scored single runs in the 1st and 2nd innings off Jake Peavy. The game was 2-2 in the 6th when the Royals put a five-spot on the board and finished it off with a 7-2 win.

Tim Hudson, made his first World Series appearance in Game #3 and retired 12 in a row in one stretch – but took the loss. The Royals scratched out a run in the 1st and added two in the 6th, the final run scoring on Eric Hosmer's single off Javier Lopez. Michael Morse's pinch-hit RBI double keyed the Giants' two-run 6th, but that would be the extent of SF's offense. Kansas City relievers Kelvin Herrera, Brandon Finnegan, Wade Davis and Greg Holland combined for four hitless innings.

Ineffective pitching by Ryan Vogelsong and bad defense by the Giants allowed the Royals to score four two-out runs in the third to grab a 4-1 edge in Game #4. However, another three shutout innings from Yusmeiro Petit, enabled the Giants to mount their comeback. The Giants scored one in the 3rd and two in the 5th to tie the game. Joe Panik's two-run double highlighted a four-run 7th, and helped the Giants secure an 11-4 win.

The Giants' final home game of the postseason was highlighted by Bumgarner, who threw another four-hit shutout to become the Giants' first pitcher since 1962 to throw a complete game (Billy Pierce) and shutout (Jack Sanford) in the World Series.

In Game #6, the Royals scored seven runs in the 2nd inning to put the game away early. Yordano Ventura held the Giants to three hits in seven innings, setting up Game 7.

Sandoval went 3-for-3 and scored twice, Morse drove in two runs and Jeremy Affeldt earned the win with 2.1 innings of shutout relief. However, it was Bumgarner who stole the show for the Giants and helped the team win its eighth championship. On just two days' rest, he entered the game in the 5th inning. After allowing a single to Omar Infante, the first batter he faced, Bumgarner retired the next 14 hitters. With two outs in the 9th, Alex Gordon lifted a single into left-center that Blanco misplayed. Gordon wound up at third, 90 feet from tying the game. On a 2-2 pitch, Bumgarner got Salvador Perez on a foul pop clutched by Sandoval, who then collapsed in joy. Bumgarner, who had been the NLCS MVP, was the only choice for Series MVP. He went 2-0 with a save and gave up all of one run and nine hits in 21 innings.

Opening Date: April 11, 2000

Design: Classic urban ballpark with an old-time feel and all the amenities of modern ballparks. Inspired by Wrigley Field and Fenway Park and modeled after Oriole Park at Camden Yards, Jacobs Field and Coors Field.

Construction: Commenced on December 11, 1997. Construction lasted 28 months, with Opening Day on April 11, 2000.

Name Change: Ballpark originally opened as Pacific Bell Park; name was changed to SBC Park on January 1, 2004; changed to AT&T Park on March 1, 2006 and then the name was changed to Oracle Park on January 10, 2019.

Financing: Oracle Park, the first privately financed Major League ballpark to be built in 38 years, cost $357 million. The financing plan included $172 million from naming rights, other sponsorships, pouring rights, concession rights and the selling of charter seats; a $170 million bank loan; and $15 million in tax increment financing from the City's Redevelopment Agency.

LEED Certification: In 2019, Oracle Park achieved LEED Platinum Certification for Existing Building Operations and Management, making Oracle Park the first Major League Baseball stadium to achieve this honor. The certification was achieved through numerous greening and sustainability programs the park has implemented and refined throughout the years since its first LEED Silver Certification in 2010.

Green Glove: Major League Baseball named the San Francisco Giants as recipient of the 2020 Green Glove Award, which recognizes the MLB Club with the highest waste diversion rate, after diverting 98 percent of all waste at Oracle Park from local landfills. The Giants, who collected nine consecutive awards between 2008 and 2016, secured their 12th Green Glove Award in 13 seasons in 2020.

Location: The 13-acre site is bounded by King, Second and Third Streets, and by the China Basin Channel. The site is owned by the Port of San Francisco and is leased to the Giants at fair market value.

Field Measurements:

- Left Foul Line: 339 feet;
- Right Foul Line: 309 feet;
- Center Field: 391 feet;
- Left-center Field Alley: 382 feet;
- Right-center Field Alley: 415 feet

Stadium Operator: San Francisco Giants

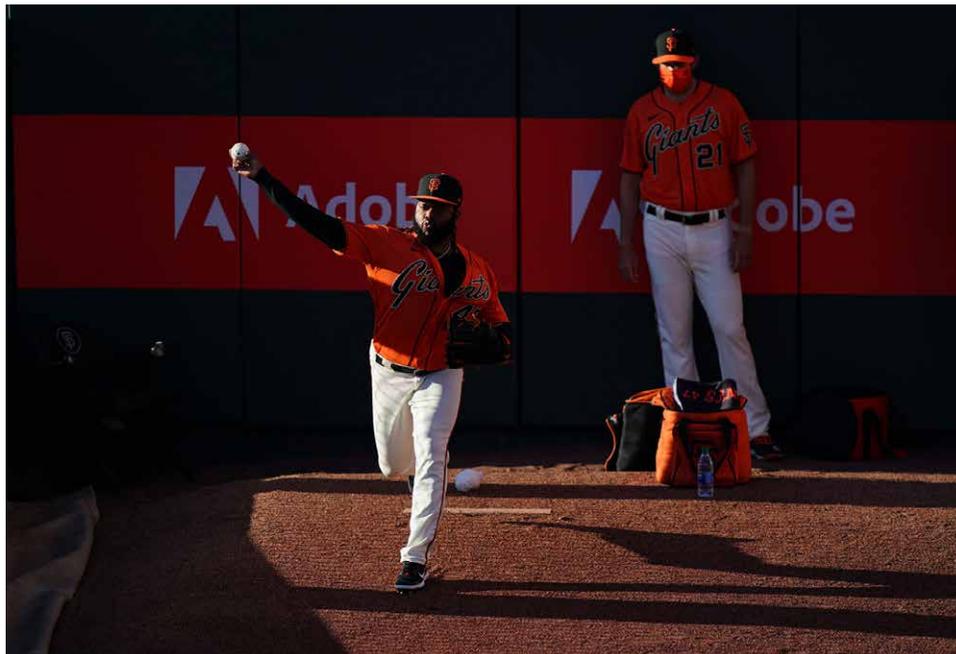

Seating Capacity: 41,331

Surface: Overseeded Bermuda grass with a DuraEdge infield and crushed brick warning track.

Distance from Stands to Home Plate: 48 feet from first row of seats behind home plate.

Lighting: In 2017, in partnership with PG&E, the ballpark upgraded more than 556 traditional light bulbs to new energy efficient LED lights. The switch resulted in an energy savings of 290,466 kilowatt hours during the regular baseball season, which is the same amount of energy it takes to power 30 homes.

RHP Johnny Cueto warms up in the new bullpen before a Friday night game at Oracle Park during the 2020 season.

For a second straight offseason, the Giants made some capital improvements to Oracle Park by moving the bullpens off of the playing surface and behind the centerfield wall.

The new bullpens were finished prior to the start of the 2020 season. The new Giants' and visitors' bullpens will now be located on either side of The Garden at Oracle Park, just below the left field and centerfield bleachers. A portion of the Giants' bullpen will be incorporated into the Garden at Oracle Park and fans will now have direct views from the Garden into the Giants bullpen.

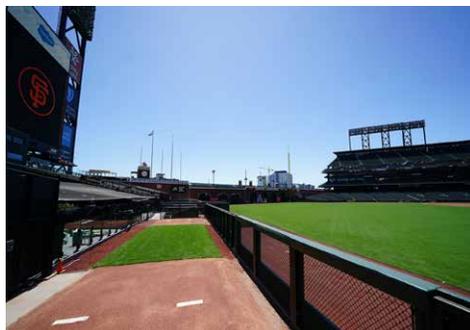

Construction for the bullpens began in December, 2019 but was halted in March when the Coronavirus pandemic shut down construction. Work resumed in late May of 2020 and the bullpens were completed ahead of the start of Spring Training 2.0 at Oracle Park in July of last year.

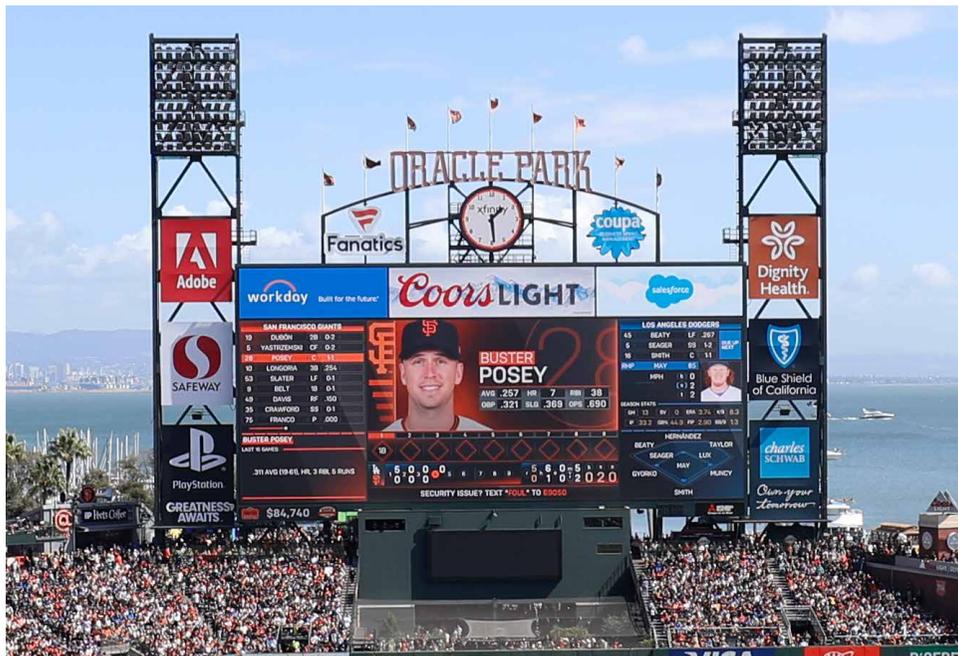

The placement of the new bullpens brought some dimension changes to Oracle Park ahead of last season. Triples Alley went from being 421' to 415' while the centerfield wall was brought in from 399' to 391'. The centerfield wall was also lowered a foot to 7'.

Several bleacher seats will directly overlook the bullpens and two new standing room terraces will be built into the bleachers to enhance fan engagement.

Terraces adjacent to the bullpens will be approximately three feet above the bullpens and will offer fans direct views into the bullpens and of the playing field beyond. The terraces will be cut into existing bleacher seating and will enable natural light to brighten fan areas under the bleachers which will feature new views into the ballpark.

The bullpen design was developed by the Giants with Hubbard Godfrey Architects.

Prior to the 2019, the Giants installed a brand new videoboard in center field, the third-largest videoboard in the Majors.

During the 2018-2019 offseason, the Giants embarked on a capital improvement project that greatly enhanced the fan experience at Oracle Park with the installation of a brand new videoboard in center field.

The $10 million project represented the largest single capital improvement the Giants have undertaken at the ballpark since it opened in 2000. It replaced the old Mitsubishi Diamond Vision board (fifth-smallest and second-oldest in the Majors at the time) with the third-largest board in the Majors behind Cleveland and Seattle (and biggest in any sports venue in the state of California).

Fans can notice the difference as soon as they enter Oracle Park as the new board, also produced by Mitsubishi, fills the entire width between the two outfield light standards. The new display is 50% wider and more than twice as high as its predecessor.

All told, the new board covers 10,700 square feet, which is more than three times the surface area of the previous board. It features more pixels and less space between them, making the image much bolder.

In addition to higher-quality video, the board provides ample room to display an array of additional information never before available to fans in the ballpark. This includes more in-depth and advanced stats, such as launch angle, exit velocity and home run distance, along with split stats based on fielder shifts, pitch types and much more.

Giants Statue Dedications

Since the opening of Oracle Park in 2000, the San Francisco Giants have dedicated five statues of their greatest players donning a Giants uniform. Sculptures of Hall of Famers Willie Mays, Willie McCovey, Juan Marichal, Orlando Cepeda and Gaylord Perry were created by well-known American sculptor William Behrends and have been placed outside of Oracle Park for everyone to enjoy.

Behrends' portrait sculptures have been widely praised for their likeness, quality of detail and sensitive evocation of character. Unlike many other sculptors, Mr. Behrends was personally involved in every phase of the creation of the five bronze sculptures, including research, molding and bronzing.

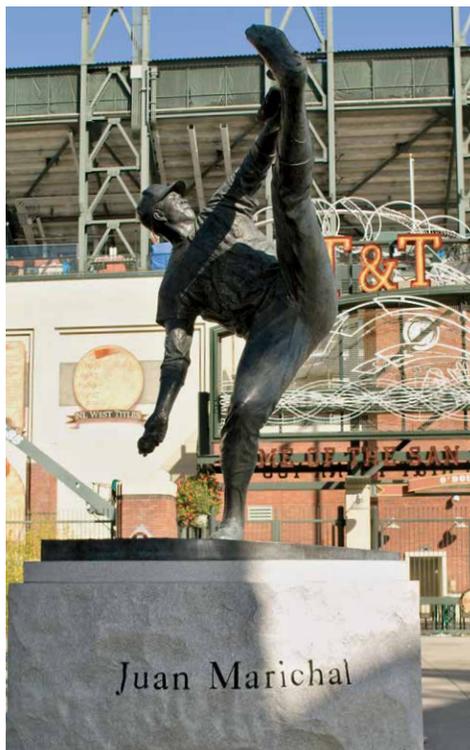

Behrends divides his time between home and studio in Tyron, NC, bronze foundries in Colorado and New York and a marble studio in Pietrasanta, Italy. He studied architecture at North Carolina State University and fine arts and sculpture at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, including anatomy training at the medical school. He has subsequently studied and worked in Italy, principally with Swietlan Kraczyna and Enzo Pasquini. He is the twice recipient of the Richard Portrait Prize by the National Sculpture Society and is a fellow board member of the National Sculpture Society.

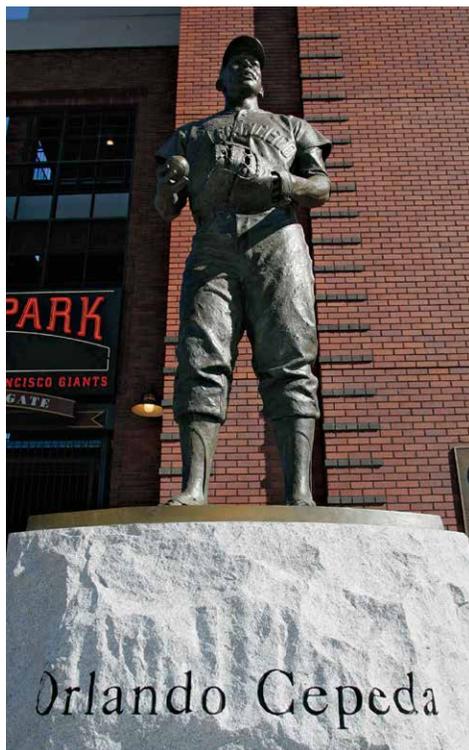

March 31, 2000 – The Giants unveiled a nine-foot bronze sculpture of Hall of Fame outfielder Willie Mays, located at the corner of Third and King Streets. The statue depicts Mays in the graceful conclusion of his powerful swing. The sculpture was developed over a 12-month period.

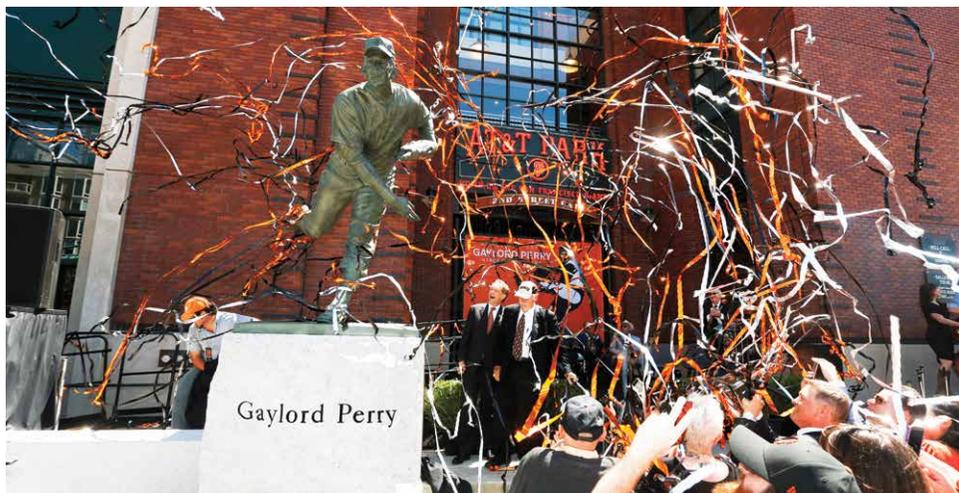

May 4, 2003 – A nine-foot tall bronze statue of Giants Hall of Fame first baseman Willie McCovey was unveiled. The statue is prominently featured at the northeast portion of Oracle Park, which was officially designated as McCovey Point by the San Francisco Port Commission. The statue of Willie McCovey pays tribute to a man who exemplifies the spirit and leadership shown by many of those who have worn the Giants uniform.

May 21, 2005 – Former Giants great and Hall of Fame pitcher Juan Marichal had his statue dedicated in 2005. The nine-foot bronze statue is located at Oracle Park's Lefty O'Doul Plaza and features Marichal's famous high-leg kick.

September 6, 2008 – The Giants dedicated a bronze statue in honor of Hall of Fame first baseman Orlando Cepeda. The statue, which stands at nine feet tall on a five foot base, is located at the Second Street entrance to Oracle Park. The sculpture portrays a youthful and smiling Cepeda.

August 13, 2016 – The Giants dedicated a bronze statue in honor of Hall of Fame pitcher Gaylord Perry. The statue, which stands at nine feet tall on a five foot base, is located at the Second and King Streets entrance to Oracle Park. The sculpture portrays Perry's intensity and focus on the mound at the point of his follow through.

Oracle Park Public Address Announcer

Dr. Renel Brooks-Moon

Renel is a Bay Area native, entering her 22nd season as P.A. Announcer. She is a graduate of Woodside High School, and received a B.A. in English Literature from Mills College. She spent 35 years as a local radio and television broadcaster, including stints at 106 KMEL, 98.1 KISS-FM and CBS-5, among others. Renel has been recognized by the Baseball Hall of Fame as the first woman to Public Address Announce a world championship game in any professional sport, following Game 3 of the 2002 World Series. Renel has received numerous awards, including honors from American Women in Radio and Television, Multi-Ethnic Sports Hall of Fame, 100 Black Women, Bay Area Black Journalists Association and Girls, Inc. Renel was a founding member of Friends of Faith, a non-profit that served low-income Bay Area breast cancer patients. March 18, 2005 was proclaimed "Renel Brooks-Moon Day" in San Francisco by Mayor Gavin Newsom, honoring her broadcasting career and community activism. Renel was profiled in O, The Oprah Winfrey Magazine, as "The Woman Who's Changing Baseball". In 2008, Renel received an honorary doctorate from her Alma Mater, Mills College, and in 2018 she received an honorary doctorate from the University of San Francisco and delivered the commencement address. In 2017, Renel was honored to MC the historic inauguration of San Francisco's first African-American Female Mayor, London Breed. Renel is an Emmy Award winner as host of the television series "Forever Giants" that airs on NBC Sports Bay Area, and is featured on a limited edition 2020 TOPPS baseball card.

SPLASH HIT NOTES:

- Of the 83 home runs hit into the Bay by Giants players; 35 of those were by Barry Bonds. The only Giants other than Bonds to have reached the Cove more than once are Brandon Belt with nine, Pablo Sandoval with eight, Denard Span with five, and seven players with two each: Felipe Crespo, Michael Tucker, Ryan Klesko, Aubry Huff, Andres Torres, Brandon Crawford and Mike Yastrzemski.
- Carlos Beltran's "splash hit" on September 14, 2011 marked his 300th career home run.
- Ryan Klesko is the only player to have splash hits as both a Giant and as an opposing player.
- Tyler Colvin's "splash hit" on May 12, 2014 was also his first hit for the Giants and came on his first at-bat at Oracle Park since joining the team.
- During the postseason, the Giants have one splash hit" (Barry Bonds) and opponents have recorded two postseason "splash hits" (Rick Ankiel & Bryce Harper).
- No right-handed hitter has ever hit an opposite field home run into McCovey Cove.
- Of visiting players who have hit the cove, Carlos Delgado and Adam LaRoche have performed the feat the most, doing it three times each.
- David Ortiz, Mitch Moreland, Adam Dunn, Rougned Odor and Shin-Soo Choo are the only American League players to hit the cove.
- Daulton Varsho became the first visiting player to hit his first career home run with a Splash Hit.

ORACLE PARK ATTENDANCE HIGHLIGHTS

- 2019 attendance - 2,707,760, an average of 33,429 per date. Average per date ranked #11 among all MLB teams in 2019. The Giants ranked #4 in average per date in 2018, #3 in 2017, #4 in 2016, #3 in 2015, #4 in 2014, #3 in 2013, and they were #4 in average per date in 2012. The 2019 season marked the lowest total attendance in Oracle Park history (2000-pres).
- The Giants' National League record sellout streak ended on July 17, 2017. 530 consecutive regular season dates, plus 25 dates in the post-season, for a total of 555, were sold out. It was the second longest sellout streak in MLB history. The streak began with the last three regular season dates in 2010, starting on October 1, continued through the next six full seasons, through the game of July 9, 2017.
- The old National League sellout streak record was 257 regular season games, plus 16 in the post season, for a total of 273, by Philadelphia from 2009 to August, 2012. Boston holds the MLB record of 820 straight sellouts (794 regular season, 26 post-season) from 2003 through Opening Day 2013.
- Oracle Park (cost-$357 million) was the first privately financed MLB park since Dodger Stadium opened in 1962.
- Oracle Park opened on April 11, 2000. Its original name was Pacific Bell Park. The name was changed to SBC Park on January 1, 2004, changed to AT&T Park on March 1, 2006, and then changed to Oracle Park on January 10, 2019.
- Of all teams that have moved into a new ballpark in the last 45 years, the Giants are the only team whose attendance has been higher every single year in their current park, than it ever was in their former park. Kansas City has drawn better at Kauffman Stadium each year than they ever did at Municipal Stadium. But the Royals only played four seasons (1969-1972) at Municipal Stadium before Kauffman Stadium opened in 1973.
- In 2015, the Giants surpassed 50 million in attendance at Oracle Park, reaching this level faster than at any ballpark in Major League history. This total was achieved in the park's 16th season, and on the 1,261st regular season date played there. The old record was held by Baltimore, who reached 50 million at Oriole Park at Camden Yards in 1,311 dates, and in that park's 17th season. San Francisco, Baltimore, Colorado, and Toronto are the only teams to reach 50 million in attendance at a ballpark in less than 1,500 regular season dates.
- Largest regular season crowd at Oracle Park was 43,503 vs. the Yankees on June 24, 2007. The biggest post-season crowd was 44,046 on October 8, 2010 for a National League Division Series game with Atlanta.
- The smallest crowd was 23,934 on May 11, 2009 vs. Washington. The only games that drew less than 30,000 at Oracle Park have been in 2009 (12 dates), in 2010 (five dates), and in 2019 (14 dates).
- Highest season attendance at Oracle Park is 3,387,303 (41,819 per date - all sellouts) in 2011.
- Attendance has topped three million in 17 of the 21 years at Oracle Park, including eight straight years from 2000 through 2007, and also in nine straight years from 2010 through 2018. The only teams with an equal or longer streak of three million seasons are the Dodgers (1996-2010), Yankees (2000-2018), Angels (2003-2018), Cardinals (2004-2018) and Rockies (1993-2001).
- The Giants have topped three million in 17 seasons. The only teams to draw three million more often than the Giants are the Dodgers (33 times), the Cardinals (23), and the Yankees (21). All these teams play in ballparks with a higher capacity than Oracle Park.
- The Giants have outdrawn the A's in 35 of the 53 years these teams have shared the Bay Area, including every year starting in 1993 when fans were allowed in stadiums.

CONGRATULATIONS HENRY

The Giants' organization congratulates San Francisco Chronicle reporter Henry Schulman on his retirement and wish him well. For the past three decades Henry covered the Giants' beat with professionalism and provided Giants' fans with in-depth coverage and reporting on a day-in, day-out basis. We will miss his fun and colorful personality around the ballpark.

Scottsdale Stadium

The 2020 campaign marked the opening of a new clubhouse and world class training facility at Scottsdale Stadium. Nestled in the heart of historic Old Town Scottsdale and surrounded by art galleries, restaurants and boutique shops, Scottsdale Stadium has become the home of not only the San Francisco Giants and the Arizona Fall League, but also of numerous special events, festivals, concerts, and parties. Designed by the architects of Camden Yards in Baltimore, the stadium is adorned with turn-of-the-century lamps, framed antique baseball gloves, and sidewalk bricks in the shape of home plate.

Headlining Phase 1 of the Scottsdale Stadium renovations is the new multi-story clubhouse and event center on the Osborn Road side of the ballpark. The 10,000 square-foot event facility is the largest in downtown Scottsdale and is used year-round by the Giants and the City of Scottsdale. The event space currently holds the team's dining room. The Giants also plan to utilize the space if rain keeps them from working out outside.

The new clubhouse sits at the base of the three-story, 40,000 square foot building and includes 10 televisions, plenty of comfortable seating, and mood lighting that can be changed with a flick of a switch. In the back of the building is the first floor of the two-story world-class weight room and training facility, which has views of the back field at Scottsdale Stadium, where the Giants do workouts in the spring and hold simulated games. The second floor includes a float tank for players to recover. The third floor has a lounge for players to hang out and includes two decks overlooking the stadium.

From the fan side, there is a new, expanded entrance to Scottsdale Stadium off Drinkwater Blvd that also includes a new box office. Fans also notice aesthetic changes to the ballpark in right field where there are new right field concourse bleachers with standing room decks as well as an expansion of the Charro Lodge in right field. The expanded Charro Lodge increases shade and capacity for Giants Spring Training games.

Lastly, there have been updates to the press and suite level at Scottsdale Stadium that include upgrades to the Giants administrative offices.

Phase Two of the project will bring further upgrades to fan amenities and the stadium concourses.

ENGLISH BROADCASTERS

Jon Miller

Jon Miller, honored by the National Baseball Hall of Fame as the 2010 Ford C. Frick award winner for baseball broadcasting excellence, the "Voice of the Giants", enters his 25th season in the broadcast booth on KNBR Radio, NBC Bay Area and NBC Sports Bay Area. Miller was thrilled to broadcast his 16th World Series in 2014 as the Giants won it all for the third time in five years. Miller was inducted into the National Radio Hall of Fame in 2014. In 1990 when ESPN TV first began its coverage of Major League Baseball, Miller was chosen as the first play-by-play commentator on the award-winning ESPN Sunday Night Baseball game of the week broadcast. Miller and his Hall of Fame partner, Joe Morgan, teamed up on the prime time telecast for 21 seasons. During his tenure at ESPN, he was nominated twice for a national Emmy Award, and broadcast 13 consecutive World Series on ESPN Radio. He has broadcast 16 World Series overall. In 2020 Miller was named "one of the 50 most significant off-field figures in baseball in the past 50 years" by the Society of American Baseball Research (SABR). It was one of a series of such lists published as part of the 50th Anniversary of SABR's founding. He was also nominated six times for an "ACE" award, emblematic of cable television excellence, and won the award in 1991 - the first ESPN play-by-play announcer to win the award, and 1996. Miller was named National Sportscaster of the Year by the American Sportscasters Association (ASA) in 1998. That same year, Miller was inducted into the Hall of Fame of the National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association of America (NSSAA). In 2018, Miller received a Northern California Emmy Award, the fourth local Emmy for his Giants television work. Prior to his work on ESPN, Miller broadcast an occasional game on NBC-TV with either Tony Kubek or Joe Garagiola. Miller spent 14 years with the Baltimore Orioles before coming to the Giants. Prior to joining Baltimore in 1983, the talented broadcaster spent two seasons with the Texas Rangers (1978-79) and three seasons with the Boston Red Sox (1980-82). Miller got his first baseball play-by-play job in 1974 at age 22 calling radio and TV for that year's World Series Champion Oakland Athletics. The Bay Area native has also broadcast NHL hockey, NBA basketball and championship soccer games on national television in his distinguished career. In 2018, Miller was inducted into the College of San Mateo (CA) Hall of Fame. Miller began his broadcasting career as a student at CSM and broadcast baseball, football and basketball games on KCSM, the college's radio and TV stations. Jon and his wife, Janine, reside in Moss Beach. They are parents to three daughters, Misha, Holly (married to Paul Gallagher) and Emilie, and a son, Alexander.

Duane Kuiper

Duane Kuiper, a 13-time Emmy award-winning broadcaster, begins his 37th season as a Major League announcer. He embarks on his 28th consecutive year in the NBC Sports Bay Area, NBC Bay Area and KNBR Radio broadcast booths in 2021. He was named California's 2020 Sportscaster of the Year as selected by the National Sports Media Association. Kuiper was one of 10 finalists for the 2014 Ford C. Frick Award for baseball broadcasting excellence. Kuiper emerged as one of the top three fan selections in online voting. The former 11-year big league infielder has received 13 local Emmy awards for his distinguished broadcasting career: On-Camera talent (9); Sports Live Broadcast (2); and Sporting Event/Game-Live (2). He provided commentary for the Giants from 1987-92 and served a one-year stint with the expansion Colorado Rockies in 1993. The former infielder spent the last four years of his career with the Giants, following seven campaigns with the Cleveland Indians. In 2004 he was voted by Cleveland fans as one of the 100 greatest players in Tribe history. After retiring in 1985, Kuiper provided commentary on Giants radio and TV broadcasts through the end of that season, and had his own radio show on KNBR from 1982-85. Kuiper's scorecards from Barry Bonds' historic 756th home run game, Randy Johnson's 300th career victory, Matt Cain's perfect game in 2012 and the scorecard from Gaylord Perry Day (August 13, 2016 - BAL @ SF) are displayed at the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown. The Wisconsin native previously served as a board member of the Giants Community Fund and was a member of the Junior Giants Committee and the former Chair of the Junior Giants Glove Drive. Kuiper lends his time and support to ARF (Animal Rescue Foundation, <http://www.arflife.org>). A graduate of Southern Illinois University in Carbondale, IL, Kuiper and his wife, Michelle, reside in Danville. They are parents to two children, Cole (married to Rachel Jensen) and Dannon (married to Zach Rease), and have one granddaughter (Andy).

Mike Krukow

Mike Krukow enters his 31st season in the television booth, and his 27th full season on the radio side. A 13-time Emmy award winner, Krukow is the broadcast team's color analyst on NBC Sports Bay Area and NBC Bay Area telecasts, and on KNBR Radio broadcasts. Krukow was one of eight finalists for the 2017 Ford C. Frick Award for baseball broadcasting excellence. He was named California's 2015 and 2017 Sportscaster of the Year, as selected by the National Sports Media Association. The former big league pitcher has received 13 local Emmy awards: On-Camera talent (7); Sports Live Broadcast (2); Sporting Event/Game-Live (2); Arts/Entertainment-Program/Special (1); and Executive Producer Baseball Ballet (1). Krukow's playing career in the Major Leagues spanned 14 years and three teams: the Chicago Cubs (1976-81), Philadelphia Phillies (1982) and San Francisco Giants (1983-89), where his enthusiasm both on and off the field made him a fan favorite. "Kruk", named as the starting right-handed pitcher to the 1980's Giants All-Decade Team in a vote by Bay Area media in 1999, is noted for his deep knowledge of the game and tremendous sense of humor. A 20-game winner for the Giants in 1986, Krukow retired after the 1989 season with a 124-117 career record and a 3.90 ERA. In 2008, Kruk was honored as a member of the inaugural class of Giants alumni with a plaque in the Giants Wall of Fame which lines the wall outside of Oracle Park. Krukow's scorecard from Tim Lincecum's no hitter in 2014 is displayed at the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown. Krukow supports Canine Guardians (www.canineguardians.org), a non-profit organization that provides trained service dogs to assist and enrich the daily lives of wounded veterans with PTSD, diabetics, children with cancer and others with disabilities. Krukow resides in Reno, NV with his wife, Jennifer. The couple has five children, Jarek, Baker (married to Celina Roberge), Tessa, Chase (married to Alix Roe) and Weston, one grandson, Coen, and two granddaughters, Reagan and Sailor Lucille.

Dave Flemming

Dave Flemming begins his 18th year of broadcasting for the Giants. The 44-year-old will join Jon Miller and Duane Kuiper on the team's KNBR radio broadcasts and is involved in select games on television. In addition to his work with the Giants, he serves as a lead play-by-play voice for ESPN television, working college football, Major League Baseball, basketball and golf, providing coverage of the PGA Championship and The Masters. Flemming also serves as a lead play-by-play analyst on MLB playoffs for ESPN Radio. He has served as a primary voice of the Little League World Series on ESPN since 2013. He was named California's 2019 Sportscaster of the Year, as selected by the National Sports Media Association. Flemming has previously called Major League Baseball on FOX, and for six years was the play-by-play voice of Stanford football and basketball. In 2008, Sports Business Journal named Flemming "the best of the new generation of baseball announcers". He has won three Northern California Area Emmy Awards for his Giants play-by-play work. The Alexandria, VA native received a Bachelor's and Master's degrees from Stanford, and a Master's degree in Broadcast Journalism from Syracuse University. For more than a decade, Flemming has served on the board of the Good Tidings Foundation, a Bay Area charity that has worked closely with the Giants in building and refurbishing baseball fields and other athletic facilities across Northern California. Good Tidings also grants college scholarships for economically disadvantaged students who have demonstrated extraordinary community service, and builds art studios in underserved schools and neighborhoods. In 2017, Good Tidings presented Flemming with the Nate Thurmond Medal, in recognition of lifetime contributions to community service. Since 2011, Dave has participated in the Giants Community Fund's annual Education Day pre-game program where 60 Harmon and Sue Burns scholars and their guests learn about the importance of higher education. Flemming has also participated in the Willie Mac Award Luncheon and the Junior Giants Commissioner's Meeting. Flemming and his wife, Jessica, reside in San Francisco with their twin daughters, Katie and Carter, and son, David Henry.

Javier Lopez

Javier Lopez enters his fourth season in the in the NBC Sports Bay Area TV booth and will broadcast select road games with Duane Kuiper. In addition to broadcasting games for the Giants, Lopez has broadcast college baseball for ESPN's ACC Network. The former left-hander pitched for Colorado (2003-05), Arizona (2005), Boston (2006-2009), Pittsburgh (2010), and San Francisco (2010-2016). He won three World Series rings (2010, 2012, 2014) as a member of the Giants and one World Series ring with the Red Sox in 2007. Lopez attended the University of Virginia and earned a degree in psychology despite leaving early to begin his baseball career. In 2011, Lopez was one of two major league relief pitchers to throw at least 50 innings without giving up a home run. In 2013, Lopez posted a career-best 1.83 ERA. A left-handed specialist known for his sidearm delivery, Lopez, along with teammate Brandon Crawford, won the Willie Mac Award in 2016. The award honors the Giants' most inspirational player. Lopez supports two charities: Word of Honor Fund (www.wordofhonorfund.com) and The Ribbon Classic (www.ribbonclassic.org). Lopez is married to Renee, and they reside in Suwanee, GA with their two children, Kylan and Cristian.

Shawn Estes

Shawn Estes begins his second year in the NBC Sports Bay Area TV booth and will work with Duane Kuiper on select road telecasts. Estes pitched for the Giants (1995-2001), Mets (2002), Reds (2002), Cubs (2003), Rockies (2004), Diamondbacks (2005), and Padres (2006, 2008). Estes had his best professional season in 1997, when he went 19-5 with a 3.18 ERA for the Giants. He was selected to the NL All-Star team in 1997. He also had four career home runs and 28 RBI, including a grand slam in 2000. Estes initially committed to play college baseball at Stanford, but instead signed with the Seattle Mariners after being selected in the first round of the 1991 MLB Draft. In 2010, he was honored with a plaque on the Giants Wall of Fame that lines the wall outside of Oracle Park. Estes began his broadcast career as a television color commentator for the Reno Aces of the Pacific Coast League in 2011. He has appeared as a pre and post-game show analyst on Giants telecasts on NBC Sports Bay Area since 2011. He supported the Multiple Sclerosis Read-A-Thon as a player, and continues his active support of charity work through his involvement with Challenged Athletes Foundation (www.challengedathletes.org). He and his wife, Nathalie, have four children and reside in Phoenix.

NBC Sports Bay Area

NBC Sports Bay Area, part of NBC Sports Regional Networks, has been the club's cable television rightsholder since 1990. In 2008, NBC Sports Bay Area (formerly CSN Bay Area) was formed as a partnership between NBC Sports Group and the San Francisco Giants and the network signed a 25-year agreement to broadcast Giants games through the 2033 baseball season. In 2021, the network will continue to present all Giants regular season games in HDTV and will feature Giants related programming all year long. NBC Sports Bay Area serves more than four million households in Northern California, Nevada, Southern Oregon and Hawaii. In addition to the Giants, NBC Sports Bay Area serves as the television home of the Golden State Warriors and is the official regional sports network of the San Francisco 49ers.

SPANISH BROADCASTERS

Erwin R. Higueros

Erwin Higueros, a 33-year veteran of Bay Area sports broadcasting, begins his 23rd full season, his 24th overall in the Giants' Spanish language radio booth. In addition to his broadcast responsibilities, Higueros is a member of the Giants front office, working in both the media relations and Hispanic marketing departments, and serves as the official Spanish language translator for the Club. In 2016, Higueros received a Northern California Area Emmy Award in the category of Outstanding Achievement Sporting Game Live for the first Giants game to be televised in Spanish on Telemundo/KSTS-Channel 48. In 2018, Higueros was awarded a second Emmy for Outstanding Achievement Sports-News Feature/Segment (Spanish). In 2019, he was awarded a third Emmy for Outstanding Achievement Commercial-Single Spot or Campaign (Spanish). A multi-talented announcer, Higueros hosts several programs in Spanish including: G-Cast En Español, an in-season program which features exclusive interviews with Giants uniformed personnel in Spanish and four 30-minute television shows on Telemundo; Gigantes Podcast, a weekly podcast with interviews featuring former Giants players, coaches and staff members discussing the difficulties and sacrifices each of them has faced throughout his professional baseball journey; and Conversación Gigante, a 30-minute show that airs on Telemundo with in-depth interviews with Giants Latin players that allows each individual to tell the story about his personal journey to the Majors. An active participant in community programs, last November Higueros was the host for the virtual walk experience for the National Kidney Foundation Walk that originated from Oracle Park. In addition, prior to the 2020 presidential election he was the MC for a special voter engagement Chalk Talk that featured California Secretary of State Alex Padilla. In 2019, Higueros was the Spanish play-by-play radio announcer for the Anaheim Ducks first-ever hockey game in Spanish. The Ducks hosted the Vancouver Canucks as part of the celebration of Día de los Muertos at the Honda Center. Higueros began his broadcasting career with the Oakland A's (1988-97), and was the play-by-play announcer for games that were televised on Telemundo-Channel 48 from 1995-97. A versatile broadcaster, Higueros was the Spanish play-by-play voice for a number of Bay Area professional sports teams including the San Francisco 49ers in 2000 and 2012-2013 seasons, the San Jose Sharks in 1995, and the Oakland Raiders in 1995-96 and 2002-06. He also handled the radio play-by-play duties on Spanish radio for the Fresno State Bulldogs football team (2009-14). Higueros broadcast the League Division Series for FOX Sports International in 2004-06. In 2013, Higueros was the recipient of the Community Service Award from the Hispanic Heritage Baseball Museum. Born in Guatemala, he moved to the United States when he was 12 years old. A graduate of Fremont High School in Oakland, he attended Cal State Hayward and the Columbia School of Broadcasting. Higueros resides in Brentwood with his wife, Maria. The couple has two grown children, Claudia and Erwin, Jr., and two grandchildren, Alison and Erwin, III.

Tito Fuentes

Tito Fuentes returns to the Giants' Spanish language broadcast booth for his 17th season. Fuentes previously served as a member of the Spanish language broadcast team from 1981-92, and in 1996-2004 he broadcast for FOX Sports International which is aired in Latin America. An active participant in the Giants' marketing efforts, he is a regular participant in the Giants Fantasy Camps. A former Major League second baseman who played for the Giants from 1965-74, Fuentes saw big league action with San Diego, Detroit and Oakland. The Havana, Cuba native was initially signed as an 18-year-old amateur before the start of the 1962 season and was the last baseball player signed directly out of Cuba before the United States embargo against Cuba. A .268 hitter over his 13-year career, he was voted the starting second baseman on the Dream Team for the Giants 25th Anniversary team by San Francisco fans in 1982. In 1997, "23" was inducted into the Cuban Baseball Hall of Fame. He and his wife, Maritza, reside in Reno, NV.

Ford C. Frick Award Winners

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually to a broadcaster for "major contributions to baseball." The award, named after the broadcaster, National League President, Commissioner, and Hall of Famer, has been presented annually since 1978. Frick was a driving force behind the creation of the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown and he helped foster the relationship between radio and the game of baseball.

Mel Allen and Red Barber were the first two recipients in 1978. A single winner has been selected in each year following.

The annual Frick Award ballot is created by a subcommittee of the voting electorate. A new election cycle has been established starting with the 2017 Award, rotating annually between Major League Markets (team-specific announcers); National Voices (broadcasters whose contributions were realized on a national level); and Broadcasting Beginnings (early team voices and pioneers of baseball broadcasting). This cycle will repeat every three years.

The Frick Award Committee casts ballots during November, and the results are announced during the Baseball Winter Meetings in December. The Frick Award electorate is comprised of the living Frick Award recipients and four broadcast historians/columnists.

Voters are asked to base their selections on "Commitment to excellence, quality of broadcasting abilities, reverence within the game, popularity with fans, and recognition by peers." To be considered, an active or retired broadcaster must have a minimum of 10 years of continuous major league broadcast service with a ball club, network, or a combination of the two.

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually during Hall of Fame Weekend. Each award recipient (not to be confused with an inductee) is presented with a calligraphy of the award and is recognized in the "Scribes & Mikemen" exhibit in the Library of the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

Below is a list of Giants broadcasters who have been recipients of the Ford C. Frick Award:

Russ Hodges

Frick Award Winner: 1980

"Voice of Giants" for 21-year run that spanned both coasts...began in New York Giants' radio booth in 1949, followed club west in 1958, and broadcast San Francisco Giants games through 1970...author of most famous call in franchise annals, and perhaps in baseball history, with his "Giants Win the Pennant!" description of Bobby Thomson's playoff-winning homer against Brooklyn Dodgers Oct. 3, 1951...his "Bye-Bye Baby" call became synonymous with Giants home runs...Ford C. Frick Award winner entered Hall of Fame in 1980.

Lindsey Nelson

Frick Award Winner: 1988

Nelson spent three seasons on the airwaves with the Giants from 1979-1981 after spending 17 seasons working in the New York Mets radio booth from 1962-1978...was nicknamed "Mr. New Year's Day" for calling the play-by-play of the Cotton Bowl Classic for 26 seasons on CBS...Nelson also called many Army-Navy games and was also the first announcer during the first NFL game on CBS that used instant replay where he had to remind viewers the programming wasn't live...was the Ford C. Frick Award winner in 1988.

Lon Simmons

Frick Award Winner: 2004

One of original voices of San Francisco Giants, teaming with fellow Hall of Famer Russ Hodges to form arguably finest broadcast team in sports history...brought trademark "Tell It Goodbye" home run call to Giants broadcast booth for 23 years over three different stints (1958-'73, '76-'78 and '96-2002)...is only man to broadcast debuts for each of club's three San Francisco ballparks—Seals Stadium in 1958, Candlestick Park in 1960 and Pacific Bell Park in 2000...beloved for his wit and charm, Bay Area legend was inducted into Hall of Fame in 2004 as 29th winner of Ford C. Frick Award.

Jon Miller

Frick Award Winner: 2010

Miller, who has gained accolades for his attention to detail and his intellect, has spent four decades calling Major League Baseball games for the A's, Rangers, Red Sox, Orioles and his current team the Giants...was voice of ESPN's national Sunday Night Baseball telecasts for 21 years...broadcast 13 straight World Series on ESPN Radio and 16 overall...his energy, preparation and thoroughness has helped bring game to life in homes and hearts of so many listeners...Miller was honored as 35th Ford C. Frick Award recipient during Hall of Fame Weekend 2010.

Al Michaels

Frick Award Winner: 2021

Al Michaels, whose passionate and authoritative voice was the nationwide soundtrack of the game for more than a decade, was the lead announcer for the Cincinnati Reds in 1971 and then the San Francisco Giants in 1974...Michaels joined ABC Sports in 1976, the beginning of a 30-year tenure with the network...he became lead announcer of Monday Night Baseball in 1983 while calling an array of other sports, including nearly two decades of Monday Night Football and calling the Miracle on Ice at the 1980 Winter Olympics...Michaels becomes the 45th winner of the Frick Award.

San Francisco Giants Hispanic Marketing

The San Francisco Giants continue to grow and extend their reach within the Hispanic community of the Bay Area. The goal is to engage and interact with the Hispanic community, while simultaneously creating an experience that will resonate with the fan and make them identifiable with Gigantes baseball.

Grassroots

Hispanic Heritage Events

The Giants continue to establish events throughout the season that tailor to the Hispanic community and their respective culture. The following Hispanic events will take place during the 2021 season:

Fiesta Gigantes - September 18, 2021

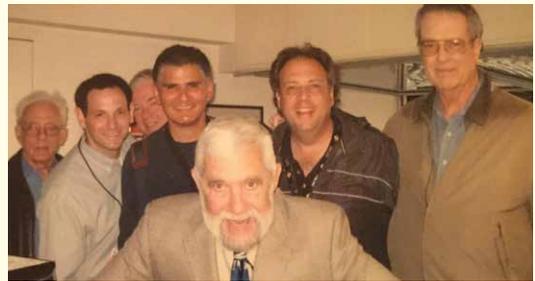

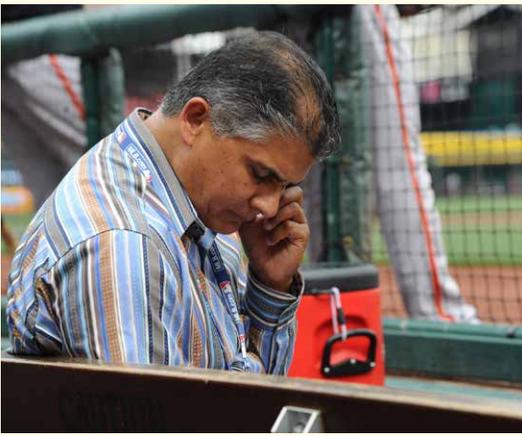

The San Francisco Giants host an annual Fiesta Gigantes event outside of Oracle Park. This popular event will be held on September 18, 2021 and celebrates the rich and diverse Hispanic culture in the Bay Area. The event features live music, entertainment, food and a children's area. In 14 seasons, Fiesta Gigantes has grown in popularity and continues to be one of the trademark community events of the season. For more information on the Giants Hispanic Marketing efforts, or for advertising opportunities, please call (415) 972-2028

SFG Productions

SFG Productions is the in-house video production team for the San Francisco Giants and part of the Content and Entertainment Department and staffed with a team of editors, producers, motion designers and cinematographers. SFG Productions content and personnel are integrated with the 4K centerfield scoreboard for live in-game entertainment and Giants Enterprises events as well as producing original content for television, web, social media, commercials, promotional items and corporate initiatives. Since 2010, SFG Productions has won 14 Northern California Emmy® Awards.

— CONGRATULATIONS CHRIS —

The Giants' organization congratulates Chris Haft for his extended run covering the team as a beat writer and wish him well. Chris has a rich history with the team, growing up in the Bay Area and covering the Giants' beat for the San Jose Mercury News in 2005 and 2006 and for MLB.com from 2007-2018. He previously covered the Astros for the Houston Post and Reds for the Cincinnati Enquirer.

2020 Community Relations Highlights

THE SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS ARE DEDICATED TO ENRICHING OUR COMMUNITY THROUGH INNOVATION AND EXCELLENCE ON AND OFF THE FIELD

In a collaborative effort, the Giants Community Fund, the club's 501(c)(3) non-profit, and the team's Community Relations Department, work to identify, develop, support and raise awareness for people, issues and programs that are important to our fans and communities throughout the Bay Area and Northern and Central California.

The 2020 baseball season will forever be remembered for the unique challenges we all confronted from the COVID-19 pandemic and racial injustices to economic uncertainty and each of us having to adjust to life's new "normals." The Giants understand the important role we play both on and off the field in responding to the needs facing our fans and community, especially those who are most vulnerable.

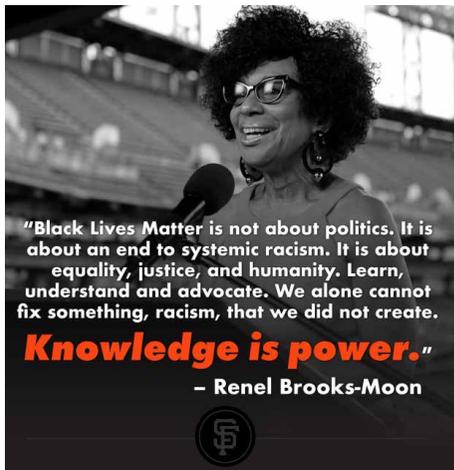

COVID-19 RESOURCES

The online COVID-19 Resource Center, found on sfgiants.com, provided up-to-date information about the baseball season, resources for those impacted by the pandemic, and connected fans with organizations in the Bay Area that are serving those in need during this time. To combat the shortage of PPE in our communities at the onset of the pandemic 200,000 cloth masks were distributed in Northern California communities through a unique public health initiative between Dignity Health, the San Francisco Giants, the San Francisco 49ers and KNBR.

POP-UP PANTRY

The Giants, Port of San Francisco and San Francisco-Marin Food Bank partnered early in the pandemic to establish a pop-up pantry in parking Lot A across from Oracle Park to address food insecurity in the community. The drive thru pantry has distributed over 2 million pounds of food and served over 60,000 individuals during the pandemic and continues to operate.

"Black Lives Matter is not about politics. It is about an end to systemic racism. It is about equality, justice, and humanity. Learn, understand and advocate. We alone cannot fix something, racism, that we did not create."

– Renel Brooks-Moon

BLACK LIVES MATTER

The Giants continued to encourage fans to reflect on where they personally stand on racism and what they choose to do to make our workplaces, our communities, and our world free of hatred and racial injustice. The Giants established a Black Lives Matter webpage on sfgiants.com to offer a variety of resources, curated in hope of provoking thoughts, encouraging conversations, and deepening our understanding of what social justice means to each of us.

COMMUNITY SPIRIT

Giants employees, from the players to the front office staff are expected to give back to the community and our fans. Players and uniformed personnel do this through developing their own community programs or supporting existing programs in the form of virtual appearances, financial contributions and relaying important messages through videos, press conferences and media interviews. The front office staff supports many of the organization's community initiatives and actively volunteers their time throughout the year. Additionally, autographed items were donated to over 500 community partners who used them for fundraising purposes.

JUNIOR GIANTS

BANK OF AMERICA

In an effort to keep youth connected and active while sheltering in place, the Giants Community Fund pivoted the annual Junior Giants program to a virtual setting with the launch of Junior Giants at Home. The online program offered youth ages 5-18 the opportunity to join live, Zoom practices hosted twice a week that featured skills and drills, important lessons in health, education and character development and home-produced training videos from Gabe Kapler and the San Francisco Giants coaching staff. Last year also marked the launch of the Giants Community Fund's partnership with AmeriCorps, which allowed the Fund to onboard a team of 90 Junior Giants AmeriCorps Ambassadors to serve as virtual coaches for the Junior Giants at Home season. With their help, the program was able to serve over 12,300 kids in 490 cities and 4 countries through 16 weeks of free programming.

JUNIOR GIANTS ON DEMAND

Following the conclusion of the virtual season, the Giants Community Fund launched Junior Giants on Demand to keep youth active during the offseason. The digital platform brings the spirit of the baseball season into any household year-round. With 150+ videos and downloadable activities, families have access to Giants-style, positive programming at their fingertips. Whether they hop on an on-demand Junior Giants at Home practice, or try out a new baseball drill from a Giants coach in their living rooms, the game is theirs. The platform can be accessed online at jrgiantsathome.org or through the free Junior Giants App in the App Store or Google Play.

VIRTUAL VISITS

The pandemic quickly changed the working environment to a virtual experience including the way our players, coaches, alumni, broadcasters, and mascot support the community. Video calls with local high school sports teams, PSA videos to help community groups spread awareness, messages of hope to those going through hardships, videos for local hospitals and frontline workers, and videos of celebration for graduations, fundraisers, birthdays, and retirements were created throughout the year. The Giants continue to respond to and fulfill many special needs and requests in the community providing care packages and in-kind donations to community partners and to fans confronting illness, experiencing life's milestones and other special circumstances.

BE GIANT.
VOTE

BE GIANT. VOTE

The Giants believe one of the more powerful actions we can take to affect the future of our democracy is exercising our right to vote. Leading up to the 2020 presidential election the "Be Giant. Vote" resource page, found on sfgiants.com, provided information and resources to help fans to participate in the voting process.

WHO WE SUPPORT

Each season, the Giants team up with community organizations to raise awareness for various causes. Without fans at Oracle Park in 2020, the Giants used TV and radio broadcast assets, social media posts and digital mediums to support these causes. Programs included: Alzheimer's Awareness, Salute to the Military, Pediatric Cancer Awareness, Until There's A Cure, Strike Out Violence Day, Mental Health Awareness, ALS Awareness, Junior Giants Stretch Drive, LGBTQ+ Night, Step Up to the Plate for Homelessness, and many others.

Pedro Gomez

Pedro Gomez, beloved friend, colleague, husband and father whose love of his family could only be matched by his love of baseball. He was a talented writer who covered baseball for multiple newspapers including the Sacramento Bee and the San Jose Mercury News. A gifted baseball reporter, he joined ESPN in 2003. As a baseball correspondent for ESPN, he documented Barry Bonds in his chase for the all-time MLB HR record every day for three seasons. In his career, Pedro covered more than 25 World Series and 22 Major League Baseball All-Star Games. A talented sports journalist who was dearly loved by everyone will be missed, but his laugh and wonderful smile will be remembered by the many friends he made at the baseball fields.
