PETER MAGOWAN

— FOREVER GIANT —

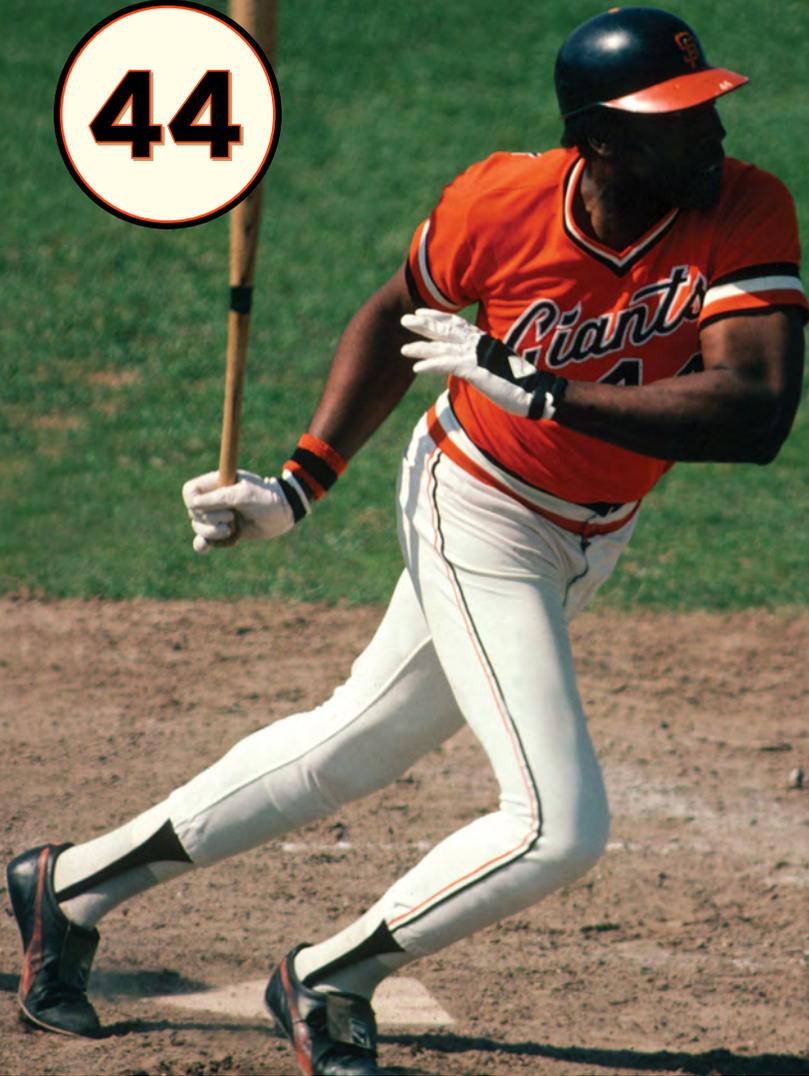

1942 - 2019

Recognized as one of Major League Baseball's most innovative and progressive leaders during his tenure, Peter Magowan served 16 seasons as the Giants' president and managing general partner. He orchestrated two major events that kept the Giants in Northern California forever. In an 11th-hour effort, he and a group of civic-minded San Franciscans saved the Giants from relocating to Tampa Bay in December of 1992 by forming an ownership group to purchase the team.

In December of 1995, Peter and the ownership group unveiled a revolutionary plan to build a new, privately-funded ballpark at China Basin to serve as the permanent home of the Giants. The ballpark opened to rave reviews in 2000. He received numerous awards for the organization's innovative community work, including becoming the first professional sports team to dedicate an annual game to the fight against AIDS/HIV with the creation of "Until There's A Cure Day" in 1994. Peter set forth a Giants vision to create a winning culture and to serve our community. His impact on the Giants and our community will be felt for decades to come.

WILLIE MCCOVEY

McCovey was a six-time All-Star, a National League MVP (1969) and National League Rookie of the Year (1959) winner. He was a three-time NL home run leader (1963, 1968, 1969) and twice led the league in RBI (1968, 1969). "Stretch" also established a Major League record for most seasons played (22) as a first baseman. After four decades in baseball, McCovey retired following the 1980 season after a 22-year big league career (18 with the Giants). He ended his playing career with a batting average of .270 along with 1,229 runs scored, 353 doubles, 46 triples, 521 home runs and 1,555 RBI for the Giants (1959-1973, 1977-80), San Diego Padres (1974-76) and Oakland Athletics (1976).

He was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1986. In honor of the Hall of Fame great, the portion of San Francisco Bay behind right field at Oracle Park is named "McCovey Cove." Since 1980, the Giants have awarded the Willie Mac Award, which is given to a Giants player who best exemplifies the spirit and leadership consistently shown by McCovey throughout his career.

FRANK ROBINSON

— FOREVER GIANT —

1935 - 2019

Frank Robinson, who grew up in Oakland, enjoyed a Hall of Fame playing career and reached another milestone when he was named the skipper of the Giants in 1981 - making him the first African American to manage in both the National and American Leagues. Robinson, who guided the Giants into playoff contention in 1982, managed four seasons in San Francisco (1981-84) and 16 overall, posting a record of 1,065-1,176.

HANK GREENWALD

1935 - 2018

Hank spent 16 seasons overall as the play-by-play voice of the Giants on KNBR (680 AM). He was the voice of the Giants from 1979-86 before departing for a two-year stint with the New York Yankees radio team. He returned to the Giants in 1987 until his retirement from the club in 1996. A 1957 graduate of Syracuse University, Hank did radio play-by-play for the University of San Francisco Dons basketball, Syracuse football, Hawaii Islanders of the Pacific Coast League and the Golden State Warriors. Hank also served as the press box public address announcer for the Super Bowl. Following his retirement from the Giants in 1996, Hank did some broadcasting for CBS radio and served as a part-time television broadcaster for the A's during the 2004 and 2005 seasons.

EXECUTIVE BIOS

Laurence M. Baer

President & Chief Executive Officer

A fourth generation San Franciscan, Larry Baer has gained a national reputation as one of professional sports' leading visionaries. Baer joined the team in 1992 as the executive vice president after he and Peter Magowan led the effort to assemble a new ownership group and negotiate the sale that kept the Giants in San Francisco. A limited partner of the ownership group, Baer was named chief operating officer in May 1996, team president in October 2008 and CEO on January 1, 2012. In his first year as president and CEO, the Giants won their second World Series Championship in three years. In 2014, the Giants won their third World Series title in five years.

As president and CEO, Baer serves as the club's "control" person on all Giants, Major League Baseball and industry issues. Baer is responsible for the overall day-to-day functioning of the organization. Under his direction the Giants developed and constructed Oracle Park -- the first privately-financed Major League ballpark. Since opening in 2000, Oracle Park has been widely praised as one of the "best ballparks ever built." The club has received unprecedented fan support -- becoming one of only four teams to exceed three million in attendance eight consecutive years (2000-2007).

With the support of 30,000 full season ticket members, the Giants posted the longest sellout streak in National League history with 530 consecutive sellouts spanning the 2010-2017 seasons. In 2018, the Giants again welcomed more than 3 million fans.

The Giants have been the standard bearer in all of baseball for sponsorship revenue, and the ballpark continues to be one of the most popular venues in the country for special events. In 2008, Oracle Park was named Sports Business Journal's Sports Facility of the Year, and in 2011 the Giants received Sports Business Journal's Professional Sports Organization of the Year award.

Baer also serves as a key strategist and negotiator of the club's major business and baseball transactions. This includes the Barry Bonds signing in November 1992, the naming rights agreement with AT&T (then Pacific Bell) in 1996, the naming rights agreement with Oracle in 2019 as well as other strategic business partnerships. He led the effort to host the 2007 All-Star Game in San Francisco and was the driving force behind the Giants partnership with Comcast to create a regional sports network for the Bay Area.

Baer worked closely with the Giants Baseball department on strategic signings that kept several key players in Giants uniforms during the Championship years, including Buster Posey, Madison Bumgarner and Hunter Pence.

Baer also serves as Chairman and CEO of Giants Development Services, which is currently developing Mission Rock -- a new, mixed use urban neighborhood located on a 28-acre site across McCovey Cove from Oracle Park. In 2015, the Mission Rock Project was overwhelmingly approved by San Francisco voters, garnering 74% of the vote. Once completed, Mission Rock will include more than eight acres of parks and open space, 1,500 residential units, approximately 1.3 million square feet of office space, a parking structure to serve ballpark and Mission Rock patrons, and 250,000 square feet of retail, restaurants, and public amenities. The project is currently entitled with groundbreaking projected for the end of 2019.

After earning Phi Beta Kappa honors at the University of California in 1980, Baer joined the Giants as the club's marketing director. In 1983, he left the Giants to attend Harvard Business School, followed by positions at Westinghouse Broadcasting in San Francisco and New York. He next moved to CBS, Inc. in New York serving as special assistant to the network Chairman and CEO, Laurence Tisch. Baer returned to the Giants in 1992 after he and Magowan successfully concluded the purchase of the franchise.

Baer has been the recipient of a number of prestigious awards throughout his career with the Giants. This includes the San Francisco Distinguished Leadership Award for civic leadership (1996), "Sports Torch of Learning Award" by the Scopus Society of the American Friends of The Hebrew University (1995), and the Anti-Defamation League's Torch of Liberty Award (2001). In 2010, Baer was named the "Person of the Year" by San Francisco Boys and Girls Clubs, and in 2012 he was honored as the Harvard Business School's "Alumnus of the Year." In 2014, Baer was honored by the University of California Berkeley with its "Excellence in Achievement" award and received the Civic Leadership Award from the American Jewish Committee. In 2019, Baer was recognized by the University of California Berkeley's Baseball Foundation with its Excellence in Leadership Award.

Baer serves on Major League Baseball's Business and Media Board of Directors and serves on MLB's Strategic Planning and Constitution Committees.

Brian R. Sabean

Executive Vice President

Brian Sabean begins his 27th season with the San Francisco Giants. He has transitioned into a new role as Executive Vice President, working with the CEO and President of Baseball Operations strategic initiatives as a senior advisor and evaluator. Sabean transitions into this new role after spending 22 seasons at the helm of the Giants Baseball division overseeing the most successful era in the club's history.

Under Sabean's leadership as GM for 18 years, the club captured seven post-season berths (including four World Series appearances and three Championships), with the club having earned more than half of its 11 overall playoff appearances since moving West.

The Giants won three World Championships (2010, 2012, 2014), four National League pennants (2002, 2010, 2012, 2014), five NL West Division flags (1997, 2000, 2003, 2010 and 2012), two Wild Card entries (2002, 2014) and forced a Wild Card tie-breaker game with Chicago in 1998, while posting a 1,556-1,358-1 (.534) mark during that 18-year span. During this stretch, the Giants were one of only three teams in the Major Leagues to have been to the World Series four-or-more times (also: Cardinals, four times and Yankees, six times).

In his 34th season as a front office executive, the 62-year-old Sabean was honored as the 2010 Major League Baseball Executive of the Year by the Boston Chapter of the BBWAA. He was tabbed with the same honor by both The Sporting News and Baseball America in 2003. In 2012, he was named Baseball America's Executive of the Year as he stewarded the Giants to their second World Series Championship in his tenure as General Manager. Sabean was honored at the 2018 GM Meetings with the John Schuerholz Longevity Achievement Award for 20 seasons in Baseball Operations as a President or General Manager.

Under Sabean, the Giants' organization also received prestigious awards, being named the Topps Organization of the Year in both 2009 and 2011 and the Baseball America Organization of the Year in 2010. These awards are given to Major League teams that show outstanding performance, depth and talent throughout their Major and Minor league teams.

In his first year as the Giants' GM, the Concord, NH native finished second in The Sporting News's 1997 Executive of the Year balloting. He seized national headlines for his bold player moves that season, engineering some of baseball's most successful blockbuster trades, which catapulted San Francisco to its first divisional championship in eight years.

During his tenure as GM, Sabean acquired some of the game's best players via trades. They included Giants' All-Stars Jeff Kent, Jason Schmidt, Marco Scutaro and Robb Nen, as well as standout performers Ellis Burks, Joe Carter, Andres Galarraga, Kenny Lofton, Jose Mesa and J.T. Snow. Sabean had been known to bring reinforcements during the July 31 trading deadline, acquiring the likes of Carlos Beltran, Javier Lopez, Jake Peavy, Hunter Pence, Freddy Sanchez and Randy Winn.

Prior to being named GM at the end of 1996, Sabean served one season as the club's Senior Vice President, Player Personnel in 1995 and enjoyed a three-year stint as Assistant to the General Manager and Vice President of Scouting/Player Personnel. Prior to joining the Giants, Sabean played a vital role in developing the Yankees' farm system into one of baseball's finest. During his eight-year tenure with the Yankees, he held several positions of increasing responsibility, including Director of Scouting from 1986-90 and Vice President of Player Development/Scouting from 1990-92.

Sabean, who graduated from Concord (NH) High School in 1974 and Eckerd College (St. Petersburg, FL) in 1978, served as an assistant baseball coach at St. Leo (FL) College in 1979 and the University of Tampa from 1980-82. He was then promoted to head coach at Tampa in 1983, holding that post for two years, compiling a 61-36 record and making the school's first-ever appearance in an NCAA regional tournament in 1984.

As Executive Vice President & General Counsel, he is responsible for all of the team's legal matters and for managing the team's many and complex relations with the City & County of San Francisco and other governmental entities. In addition to the ballpark architectural style itself, Bair's creative suggestions led to several of Oracle Park's unique features, such as the public promenade behind the Right Field fence, the perched arcade seating area in Right Field and the Ferry Terminal at Seals Plaza. Bair planned and developed China Basin Park and its historical elements at McCovey Point. Bair is also credited with launching the Giants Community Fund field renovation program and suggesting one of the more clever baseball advertising programs in the 1990's, placing signage for the "GAP" clothing retailer on outfield fences in what in baseball parlance is referred to as "the Gap."

Tidrow came to the organization prior to the 1994 campaign, serving as the club's Major League scout for the American League. He was promoted to Special Assistant to the General Manager in 1996, and was elevated to Director of Player Personnel prior to the 1997 season.

His judgment for talent, whether acquired or developed through the farm system, can be seen throughout the roster of the Major League club, as he had a major hand in the teams drafting and development of their homegrown talent. Of the players on the 2014 World Series 25-man roster, 13 were either selected by San Francisco in the June draft or signed their first professional contract with the Giants.

In addition to the Giants capturing seven post-season berths (including four World Series appearances and three Championships) during Tidrow's tenure, San Francisco's farm system owns the highest winning percentage in baseball over the past 10 seasons with a .552 organizational mark, largely due to Tidrow's tutelage of the club's pitching prospects.

Prior to joining the Giants organization, Tidrow served as a special assignment scout with the New York Yankees from 1985 through 1993. The former right-handed pitcher, nicknamed "Dirt," enjoyed parts of 13 years in the Majors from 1972-84. He was honored as The Sporting News A.L. Rookie Pitcher of the Year as a starter with the Cleveland Indians in 1972, while also capturing pennant and World Series rings as a reliever with the Yankees in 1976 and '77, respectively. He later pitched for the Cubs, White Sox and Mets. His lifetime numbers show a 100-94 record with 55 saves and a 3.68 ERA.

The San Francisco native graduated from Mt. Eden High School in 1965 and Chabot Junior College in 1967, both located in Hayward. Dick and his wife, Mari Jo, have three children—Andy, Matt and Richelle—and make their home in Lee's Summit, MO.

John Barr Senior Advisor to the President of Baseball Operations

John Barr will begin his 35th season as a baseball executive and his 12th season with the Giants. Under Barr's guidance, the Giants have drafted players such as 2010 Rookie of the Year and 2012 National League MVP Buster Posey, All-Stars Brandon Crawford, Brandon Belt and Joe Panik; all of whom have contributed to the Giants' three World Series titles over the last eight seasons. In fact, seven of the 13 position players on San Francisco's 2014 World Series roster were all selected by Barr in the June draft.

The Audubon, NJ, native entered the front office ranks in 1984 with the New York Mets as Administrative Assistant to Minor Leagues and Scouting where he remained until becoming the East Coast Supervisor for the Minnesota Twins in 1988. As Scouting Director for the Baltimore Orioles, (1989-90), Barr was responsible for selecting first rounders Ben McDonald ('89) and Hall of Famer Mike Mussina ('90). He served as Assistant General Manager for the San Diego Padres (1991-93) before returning to the New York Mets (1994-97) as Scouting Director, where they added players such as AJ Burnett, Paul Wilson, Jay Payton, and Terrence Long to their system. Barr then spent ten years (1998- 2007) with the Los Angeles Dodgers as East Coast Supervisor where he was instrumental in the selection of All-Star catcher Russell Martin, starting pitcher Edwin Jackson and reliever Jonathan Broxton.

Barr was inducted into the Mid Atlantic Scouts Hall of Fame in November of 2008 and then inducted into the Professional Scouting Hall of Fame during the summer of 2009. John received the "Legends in Scouting Award" this past January at the Professional Baseball Scouts Foundation Awards Dinner. The Rider University graduate resides in Haddonfield, NJ, with his wife, Marianne, daughters Kate, Eileen, and Mary, and son, Blake.

The organization recently named their facility in the Dominican Republic after Alou - The Felipe Alou Baseball Academy, which serves as the headquarters of the Giants' Latin American operations and as the educational training and player development home for the team's international prospects.

The Dominican icon continues a long and storied career with the franchise, beginning with his playing days as a member of the original San Francisco Giants club in 1958.

The 2019 campaign will mark Alou's 64th season in professional baseball. Following a distinguished 17-year playing career that ended in 1974, he was appointed a minor league manager in 1976 and remained in uniform each year through the 2006 campaign. In 13 seasons as a Major League manager, the 1994 NL Manager of the Year posted a 1,033-1,021-1 ledger and became just the 53rd skipper since 1900 to register 1,000 wins. The Haina, Dominican Republic native is the first manager of Latin descent to win 1,000 games in the big leagues, and is only the third foreign-born skipper to reach the milestone (current Giants skipper Bruce Bochy, France, 1,926-1,944; and Harry Wright, England, 1,000-825).

Alou became the first Dominican-born manager in Major League history when he assumed control of the Montreal Expos on May 22, 1992. Prior to the 2015 season, Alou was elected into the Canadian Baseball Hall of Fame, acknowledging his work with the Expos.

Primarily an outfielder during his playing days, the second Dominican-born player to reach the Majors (following Ozzie Virgil with the 1956 New York Giants) was a three-time All-Star during a 17-year career with the Giants (1958-63), Milwaukee and Atlanta Braves (1964-69), Oakland Athletics (1970-71), New York Yankees (1971-73), Montreal Expos (1973) and Milwaukee Brewers (1974).

Born in Landes de Bussac, France on April 16, 1955, Bochy is just one of eight Major Leaguers to be born in France, where his father, Sgt. Major Gus Bochy, was stationed as a U.S. Army NCO at the time. He's the fourth Giants manager to be born outside of the United States, joining Jack Doyle (Ireland) in 1895, Arthur Irwin (Canada) in 1896 and Felipe Alou (Dominican Republic) in 2003.

Bruce Bochy was named the 38th manager in Giants franchise history, and 16th in San Francisco annals, on Oct. 27, 2006. Bochy, 63, is in his 25th season as a manager, and his 13th with the Giants. During his 24 seasons as a big league skipper, Bochy has compiled 1,926 managerial victories, which rank 11th on the all-time list. Each of the 10 managers ahead of him are in the National Baseball Hall of Fame. Bochy has managed 3,870 big league games, the ninth-most all-time, and his 24 years managed is tied for the 11th-most. Prior to joining the Giants' organization, Bochy was the manager of the San Diego Padres from 1995-2006, leading the Friars to a 951-975 (.494) record. To this day, Bochy's 951 victories with the Padres are the most in franchise history. During his tenure with San Diego he guided his Padres clubs to five winning campaigns, including 1996, 1998, 2005 and 2006 NL West titles. Prior to last season, the 58-year-old had been the pitching coach for the A's in 15 of the previous 16 seasons, with the only exception being 2011 when he worked for the Red Sox. He was the longest-serving employee in uniform in Oakland A's history; he played for the A's from 1983-91 and served two stints as pitching coach, from 2003-2010 and from 2012-2017. His 23 years in an Oakland uniform surpassed the tenures of Dave Duncan, Mike Gallego and Dave McKay, who each spent 15 years with Oakland as players and coaches. Young had spent 33 years in the Oakland organization, which included 12 years as a player, eight years as a minor league coach and 13 years as the Major League pitching coach.

Under Young's guidance, the A's finished second in the American League in ERA in three straight seasons from 2012-14. DOB: DECEMBER 12, 1964

BIRTHPLACE: SAN FRANCISCO, CA

2019 OPENING DAY AGE: 54

FIRST YEAR WITH SF: 2018

Alonzo Powell will begin his second season as the Giants' hitting coach. Powell worked the previous two seasons as the assistant hitting coach for the 2017 World Series champion Houston Astros. Powell, who was born in San Francisco, has been on a Major League staff every season dating back to 2012. The 2019 season marks his 37th in professional baseball, having coached for 18 years (2002-19) following a 19-year playing career (1983-2001). He's spent a total of nine seasons (2010, 2012-19) on a Major League coaching staff and saw big league action in two seasons as a player (1987, 1991).

In his brief stint with Houston, the 54-year-old Powell helped the Astros to be one of the top offensive teams in the big leagues. In 2017, the Astros led the Majors in runs scored (896), hits (1,581), doubles (346), batting average (.282), on-base pct. (.346), slugging pct. in various roles. He was hired as the club's minor league hitting coordinator in 2007 and spent parts of his next four seasons (2008-11) as the hitting coach at triple-A Tacoma. In May of 2010, Powell was named the interim hitting coach for the Mariners. Following the 2011 season, Powell was hired by the Padres as their assistant hitting coach.

Has played all over the infield in his professional career (365 minor league games at shortstop, 190 at second base and 36 at third), but shortstop is his favorite position to play. "I feel a lot of adrenaline over there. I can read every ground ball, and I can use my arm. Second base is good, and I like third, but for me, shortstop is my favorite position."

FAMILIAR FACE

He is from the same hometown as teammate Johnny Cueto - San Pedro de Macoris, Dominican Republic.

Avelino tried out three times for the Giants in the DR, but wasn't offered a contract. He was 16 years old when he signed with the Yankees in December, 2011.

PRE AT-BAT ROUTINE

Has a quirky routine before at-bats by moving his bat behind his head with both hands, then puts his hands on his knees, pushes the knees together and then rests the knees to the ground before popping up. He said the purpose is to stretch the groin and quads and create an "activation" with his legs that helps him be flexible.

"My trainer in low-A, he taught me the exercise," said Avelino, referring to his stint with the 2014 Charleston RiverDogs. "I felt really good at that moment. I felt the stress (relieved) and said 'OK.' Now I try to do it every at-bat, to help me be ready."

CATCH ME IF YOU CAN

Stole 54 bases in 72 attempts in 2015 and has stolen at least 20 bases in five of his seven professional seasons.

MINOR LEAGUE AWARDS AND HONORS

NL ALL-STAR

IT'S OUTTA HERE!

In Game 2 of the 2014 NLDS at Washington, Belt hit a solo home run in the top of the 18th inning to break a 1-1 tie, helping the Giants to an eventual, 3-1, series win.

TIP OF THE CAP

Belt and his wife, Haylee, welcomed their second son into the world last July and named the baby boy August Kyle Belt in honor of August "Augie" Garrido, who coached Belt at Texas. Garrido passed away in March 2018 after suffering a stroke in California.

In August 2011, Belt was given the nickname "The Baby Giraffe" by Giants announcer Duane Kuiper, who commented that Belt looked like the animal while tracking down a fly ball in left field. Six Flags Discovery Kingdom later named a real baby giraffe after Belt in 2011.

SHAKE AND BAKE On why he's into cars - "Maybe it's just the idea that there's so much power, and you control it. Maybe it's a subconscious thing, I don't know. The sound of it. The steering. How connected you feel to the road. It's a ton of different things. It's not just being in a sweet car and going fast. It's about experiencing a level of excitement you can't find anywhere else. I'm not going to do anything illegal, but if there's nobody around and I'm in safe place, I might step on the gas a little bit."

Graduated from Hudson High School in Lufkin, Texas. As a senior, garnered district MVP, All-State and All-America honors. Was a standout pitcher and thought he'd make the Majors one day at that position.

Grew up in Lufkin, TX. Founded in 1882, the population is around 36,000. The city is 120 miles northeast of Houston. A little league team from Lufkin won the U.S. Championship at the 2017 Little League World Series in Williamsport, PA. The team finished as runners-up in the tournament. Belt sponsored the funding for the team's rings.

2 His first two Major League hits came off Dodgers' ace Clayton Kershaw in the same game on October 1, 2016. Blach became just the second Major League pitcher to have two hits off Kershaw in a game (the other was Washington's Craig Stammen in 2010).

The Colorado Native made his MLB debut on September 4, 2016 in Colorado tossing 3.0 scoreless innings of relief. Rockies Manager, Walt Weiss had been an assistant baseball coach at Regis while Ty was there. Ty had 100 friends and family members in attendance for his MLB debut.

Ty would watch Rockies games with the same focus he gave to school studies. His family often went to Coors Field, where Ty developed a routine. Before taking his seat he used the bathroom, got a hot dog and stopped by the speed pitch booth, where onlookers gaped at the little kid throwing over 55mph. Once he sat down, he didn't move.

6:33 Ty is a devout Catholic. His autobiography includes the notation Matthew 6:33. ("But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.") An autobiography he got from Rockies infielder Terry Shumpert as a kid included the Biblical reference and Ty never forgot. He later contacted Shumpert to let him know how much it meant to him.

Ty majored in finance at Creighton. He left school when he was drafted by the Giants in 2012 at the end of his junior year. He had just one semester left to earn the degree in finance. He completed it in 2013 and he graduated with honors that December.

GOOD COMPANY

Was the winning pitcher in Game 3 of the 2016 LDS against the Cubs. Prior to Blach, the last Creighton pitcher to win a MLB postseason game was Hall of Famer Bob Gibson in 1968 with the St. Louis Cardinals.

Attended Creighton University and finished his three-year collegiate career with a 2.76 ERA to rank second in school history.

SOUTHPAW His parents say Ty began throwing things before he could walk. A family friend always put the throwing object in Ty's left hand. "You're going to be a lefty pitcher someday kid," he'd say. Ty writes, eats and bats right-handed. He only throws left-handed.

Grew up in Denver, CO and went to Regis Jesuit High School in Aurora. The Denver metro area is the smallest metropolitan area to have a team in all four major sports.

100MPH

He has a fastball that regularly hits 100 mph and has gone as high as 104 mph.

2017

Considered quitting baseball in 2017 and returned to Pennsylvania to work on the family farm. Was assisting at a youth camp when he realized he was no longer feeling pain in his elbow.

Had Tommy John surgery during his senior year at Coughlin (PA) High School. He recovered from the surgery and played college baseball at the University of Pittsburgh for the Panthers from 2009 to 2011.

HITLESS Tossed 10.1-hitless innings from July 10 - August 5, 2018, covering 10 appearances with San Francisco. It marked the longest streak by a Giants pitcher since Yusmeiro Petit threw 12.1 consecutive hitless innings in 2014.

MINOR LEAGUE AWARDS AND HONORS

2015 AFL Rising Star (Scottsdale)

BOUNCING BACK

Black tore his right meniscus during an offseason workout before his sophomore season at the University of Pittsburgh. Soon afterward, he sustained a fractured right hand when he and a roommate were accosted in an attempted robbery. After being drafted by the Giants he missed his first two professional seasons (2012-13) after undergoing shoulder surgery to repair a torn labrum. Doctors said he had a seven percent chance of a full recovery. He also underwent an arthroscopic elbow cleanout in 2017.

PANTHERS

Attended the University of Pittsburgh from 2009-2011 where he played baseball for the panthers.

K Recorded 33 strikeouts in 23.1 innings of work for the Giants in 2018. (12.73 SO/9.0 IP)

17.2 Strikeouts per 9.0 innings in his five-year minor league career. Has struck out 248 batters in that time in 129.2 innings.

Grew up in Wilkes-Barre, PA, a town of approximately 40,000 people. David Evans, a hollywood filmmaker most known for the movie The Sandlot, is from the area.

MLB DEBUT: July 8, 2018 vs. STL
FIRST MLB WIN: August 5, 2018 at ARI
FIRST MLB SAVE: None
FIRST MLB HIT (as a batter): None

2018 SEASON

- Had his contract purchased from triple-A Sacramento on July 8 and made his Major League debut that day against the Cardinals...recorded just one out and allowed a pinch-hit, three-run homer to Matt Carpenter... had waited almost eight years since being drafted by the Giants in 2011 to make his big league debut.
- Tossed 10.1-consecutive hitless innings from July 10-August 5...prior to Black, the last Giants' reliever to toss 10.1-or-more consecutive innings without allowing a hit was RHP Yusmeiro Petit, who tossed 12.1-hitless innings from July 26-August 23, 2014.
- Earned his first career win on August 5 at Arizona, tossing 1.0-scoreless inning of relief in SF's 3-2 victory.
- Optioned to triple-A Sacramento following the game on August 19 and was recalled from triple-A for the second time when rosters expanded on September 1.
- Recorded 33 strikeouts in 23.1 innings of work for the Giants (12.73 SO/9.0ip).
- Went 3-0 with a 3.16 ERA (9er, 25.2ip) and a 0.90 WHIP in 26 games overall for the River Cats...recorded 46 strikeouts in just 25.2 innings of work.
- Started the season with double-A Richmond and allowed one earned run in 10.0 innings of work (0.90 ERA) with 20 strikeouts and four walks in 10 games.

CAREER NOTES

- 2017: Limited to three appearances after spending the majority of the year rehabbing an elbow injury.
- 2016: Deemed "the most explosive fastball" in the Minors according to MLB.com...Black and his 104-mph fastball entered the season ranked as the 16th-best prospect in the Giants' farm system.
- Missed two weeks in July while on the seven day injured list and missed nearly a month in August-September with a bone spur in his right elbow.
- 2015: Began the season on the injured list with a strained lat...was also on the injured list from May 22-June 13 (bicep).

- 2014: After missing his first two professional seasons due to injury, split the 2014 campaign between Class A Augusta and Class A Advanced San Jose.
- Working on a strict schedule in an effort to get him through the year without any significant injury setbacks (never pitching more than 1.0 inning plus multiple days off in between outings), he fanned 71 batters in 35.1 innings, mainly in Augusta, for an 18.1 strikeouts per 9.0 innings ratio.
- Was added to the Giants' 40-man roster in November 2014.
- 2012-2013: Missed the 2012 and 2013 seasons after undergoing shoulder surgery to repair a torn labrum... suffered a tear in his right labrum and underwent shoulder surgery before throwing his first professional pitch.
- Had impressed coaches and staff in his first spring training in 2012, however about 4.0-5.0 innings in and about a week before breaking for teams, he felt a sharp pain in his shoulder...had lost a lot of velocity and after four months of rehab it was decided that the best route was going to be labrum surgery.
- Following the surgery he was given a 33% chance of ever throwing again.
- His rehabilitation should have lasted 12-13 months, slating him for a return to action in 2013, however more setbacks moved his return to spring 2014, where he lit up 100 mph on radar guns...made it through camp healthy and was assigned to Augusta where he fired his first professional pitch April 3, 2014.

110

His 110 career wins are the third-most in SF-era history (since 1958) behind Juan Marichal (238) and Gaylord Perry (134).

33

Double-digit strikeout games are the second-most in Giants franchise history behind Tim Lincecum (38).

At age 17, he began competing with his wife Ali's father and brother in team-roping. In 2010, reliever Jeremy Affeldt invited Bumgarner and Ali to stay at his Alamo house during a homestand; Affeldt wanted company while his wife stayed in Spokane, Wash., after the birth of their second child. "He practiced roping cows by roping my lawn furniture," Affeldt said. "He's good at it. I'd come home and he'd be spinning this rope," Affeldt said. "He's lassoing all my furniture. Then he wants to make me walk this weird, funky walk while he's trying to lasso my foot."

17 Home runs lead all active pitchers and are tied for the third-most in Giants franchise history.

1,591 Strikeouts in his career...is 15 strikeouts shy of tying Gaylord Perry (1,606) for the fourth-most in SF era history.

Graduated from South Caldwell High School in Hudson, NC, a town of 2,800 people, 90 minutes northwest of Charlotte. "You wave at everybody you see, pretty much," he says.

Married high school sweetheart, Ali Saunders, on Valentine's Day 2010. The story of giving her a five-day-old bull calf as a wedding present has been exaggerated. He says Ali wanted a calf and he bought her one.

His father's family goes back 100 years in Caldwell County, NC. One area is called "Bumtown" for all the Bumgarner's living on both sides of Deal Mill Road. It's four miles southeast of Hudson and 10 miles northwest of Hickory.

2018 SEASON

- A displaced fracture of the fifth metacarpal on his left hand suffered in his final Spring Training start when a comebacker by the Royals' Whit Merrifield forced the left-hander to miss the first two months of the season...made 21 starts going 6-7 with a 3.26 ERA (47er, 129.2ip)...San Francisco went 9-12 in his 21 outings...overall, missed 60 games.

- Twirled 8.0 shutout innings and allowed three hits to earn his first win of the season in SF's 3-0 triumph on June 22 vs. San Diego...Bumgarner struck out eight and walked two...also drove in his first run of the season with sacrifice fly...marked the fourth time in his career that he made a scoreless start and had the game-winning RBI, tying Stephen Strasburg and Fernando Valenzuela for the most such games by any pitcher in the last 40 years (Stats, LLC).
- Lasted 4.0+ innings in his first second-half start on July 21 at Oakland, snapping his streak of 89 consecutive games completing at least 5.0 innings...the streak was the longest active streak in baseball and the longest by a Giants pitcher since the mound was moved in 1893 (Elias).

CAREER NOTES

- 2017: Made 17 starts with the Giants, going 4-9 with a 3.32 ERA and 101 K in 111.0 IP... a dirt bike accident in April caused the then 27-year-old left-hander to miss three months of the season with a left shoulder AC sprain.

- The medical process was led by Dr. Ken Akizuki, the team's orthopedist, but outside specialists were also consulted... Dr. Tim McAdams, the team doctor for the 49ers, saw Bumgarner, and his test results were sent to renowned orthopedists Dr. James Andrews and Dr. Neal ElAttrache... all four doctors agreed that Bumgarner did not need surgery.
- Was placed on the 10-day injured list for the first time in his career on April 21...was transferred to the 60-day injured list on June 6.

- Became the first Giants starting pitcher since 1900 to allow eight-or-more runs without getting out of the first inning.
- 2010: Earned his first Major League victory July 6 in Milwaukee after tossing 8.0-scoreless innings and allowing only three hits in SF's 6-1 win...according to Elias, only two other Giants rookies pitched a game like that: Noah Lowry in 2004 when he tossed 9.0-shutout frames against the Reds on August 3 and Matt Cain, who accomplished it twice in 2006, tossing 9.0-scoreless innings at Oakland on May 21 and blanking Colorado for 8.0 innings on September 14.
- At 20 years, 339 days, became the second-youngest Giants pitcher in the last 25 years to win his first Major League game and first since Matt Cain in 2005.
- 2009: Made his Major League debut Sept. 8 vs. San Diego, taking the place of RHP Tim Lincecum, who was scratched from his scheduled start due to back spasms.
- At 20 years and 38 days old became the fourth-youngest Giants pitcher to make his Major League debut...only Mike McCormick (17 years and 342 days), Nestor Chavez (19 years and 65 days) and Ron Bryant (19 years and 321 days) were younger (Sports Features Group)...in fact, became franchise's youngest pitcher to start a game in his Major League debut since the Giants moved west in 1958...Mike McCormick started for San Francisco as a 19-year-old, however made his ML debut two years earlier as member of the New York Giants.
- Was summoned from double-A, where he was originally scheduled to start an Eastern League playoff opener on September 9...learned that he was that night's starting pitcher roughly three hours prior to game time, and retired his first four batters faced before giving up a home run to Chase Headley in the 2nd inning...gave up another solo shot to Kevin Kouzmanoff in 4th frame... marked the first time in 2009 (minor leagues included) that he had surrendered a pair of HRs in a single contest.

- His HR allowed to Arrieta marked the first HR in his career he's ever allowed to an opposing pitcher.
- 2014: Had one of the greatest postseasons of all time, going 4-1 with a 1.03 ERA and one save in seven games (six starts)...he had two wins, a 5.0-inning save and an 0.43 ERA in the World Series...he won the wild-card game at Pittsburgh, and won the LCS and World Series MVP honors, clinching the World Series with 5.0-scoreless innings of relief in Game 7.
- Became the first pitcher with two wins, a shutout and a save in a World Series since the save rule became official in 1969.
- Logged 52.2 innings in the 2014 postseason, the most of any pitcher in a single postseason, surpassing Curt Schilling's 48.1ip.
- Tossed a complete-game shutout in Game 5 of the 2014 World Series, permitting just four hits with no walks and eight strikeouts...the performance was just the 16th shutout in World Series history in which no walks were allowed, and the first since Kansas City's Bret Saberhagen in Game 7 of the 1985 World Series...in Giants history, Christy Mathewson accomplished the feat in Games 1 and 5 of the 1905 Fall Classic, while Rube Benton did so in Game 3 of the 1917 World Series.
- In 52.2 innings in the 2014 postseason, he permitted just six earned runs (1.03 ERA) on 28 hits with six walks and 45 strikeouts...among pitchers with at least 30.0 innings pitched in a single postseason, his ERA of 1.03 ranks third behind Burt Hooton of the Dodgers (0.82 over 33.0ip in 1981) and Atlanta's John Smoltz (0.95 over 38.0ip in 1996).
- Pitched at least 7.0 innings in each of his six starts, becoming the second pitcher in history to do so, joining Arizona's Curt Schilling (six starts in 2001).
- Bumgarner's road scoreless streak in the postseason also ended at a record 32.2 innings.
- In the Wild Card game at Pittsburgh, he became the third pitcher to notch a shutout with at least 10 strikeouts in a winner-take-all postseason game, joining Sandy Koufax (for the Dodgers against the Twins in the 1965 World Series) and Justin Verlander (for the Tigers against the A's in the 2012 ALDS).
- 2012: Tossed consecutive World Series Games of at least 7.0-scoreless innings with at least six strikeouts in the postseason...the only pitchers in MLB history to accomplish that were Christy Mathewson of the Giants in Games 1 and 3 of the 1905 World Series; Bill Hallahan of the Cardinals in Game 3 in 1930 and Game 2 in 1931; Don Larsen of the Yankees in Game 5 in 1956 and Game 3 in 1958; and Sandy Koufax of the Dodgers in Games 5 and 7 in 1965.
- 2010: Had one of the most memorable postseasons of any 21-year-old, going 2-0 with a 2.18 ERA (5er, 20.2ip) in four games.
- Earned his first career postseason victory in Game 4 of the LDS vs. Atlanta on October 11, a contest that SF won 3-2 to advance to the LCS...tossed 6.0 innings and yielded two runs on six hits...became the youngest Giants pitcher in franchise history to win a postseason game at 21 years and 71 days old.
- Was the first rookie starting pitcher to win a clinching game on the road in the postseason since Dave Righetti (Yankees at A's, Game 3 of ALCS) and Fernando Valenzuela (Dodgers at Expos, Game 5 of NLCS) pitched their teams to World Series in 1981.
- In Game 4 of World Series on October 31, 2010, Bumgarner joined teammate Buster Posey as the first all-rookie starting battery in a World Series game since Spec Shea and Yogi Berra started for the Yankees in Game 1 of the 1947 World Series (Elias).
- At 21 years, 91 days old, was the fifth-youngest pitcher to start a World Series game.
- Became the fourth-youngest starter to win a World Series game as the Giants took a 3-1 series lead over the Rangers on October 31, 2010 with a 4-0 shutout victory...logged 8.0 innings and didn't allow an earned run becoming the youngest to ever accomplish that feat...Bumgarner's dominance gave the Giants their fourth shutout of the postseason, tying 1998 Yankees and 1905 New York Giants for the most in a single postseason in Major League history.

- Only three starting pitchers younger than Bumgarner (21 years, 91 days old) have ever won a game in World Series history – Bullet Joe Bush (20 years, 316 days) for 1913 Athletics, Jim Palmer (20 years, 356 days) for 1966 Orioles and Fernando Valenzuela (20 years, 356 days) for 1981 Dodgers.
- Only one starting pitcher younger than Bumgarner ever tossed at least 8.0-shutout innings in a WS game – Jim Palmer, who was 100 days younger when he blanked Dodgers in Game 2 of 1966 WS.

His Player's Weekend nickname was DJ BC Raw. Comes up with the BP music mixes that are played during Giants' batting practice at OraclePark.

Cheered on Giants teams led by Barry Bonds and Jeff Kent. His parents, Mike and Lynn, had season tickets and regularly took Brandon and his three younger sisters to games. Each spring the family headed to the Cactus League in Scottsdale, Arizona to soak in the sun and collect autographs. Come summer, the Crawfords spent nights at Candlestick Park.

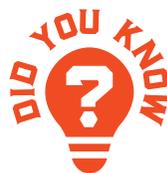

GOLD GLOVER

The three-time Gold Glove award winner devoted a lot of his time with defense at the expense of almost everything else in his career – from Foothill High School to UCLA to the stops in San Jose, Richmond, Norwich and Fresno.

From college coach Tom Savage: "We couldn't keep him off the field and we could barely get him in the batting cage. He wanted to play defense. That was his stage. It didn't matter what he did offensively. He'd run out there and make the routine play and the acrobatic play."

08/08/2016 At Marlins Park, Crawford became the first player in 41 years to record seven hits in a game, going 7-for-8 (five singles, double, triple, 10 total bases)...he tied the NL record for hits in one game, set by Baltimore's Wilbert Robinson in 1892 and tied by Pittsburgh's Rennie Stennett in 1975.

GRAND DEBUT Made his MLB debut on May 27, 2011 at Milwaukee. Hit a grand slam in the 7th inning to become only the sixth player in MLB history to hit a grand slam in his first big league game.

His sister Amy, a former softball player at UCLA, is married to another former Bruin, Gerrit Cole, who now pitches for Houston.

Attended UCLA, where he was a physiological sciences major. Played baseball for the Bruins from 2006 to 2008, and started 179 straight games where he helped lead the team to the NCAA Regionals in three consecutive seasons. Was named the team's MVP in 2006 and 2007.

Is a native of the San Francisco Bay Area and graduated from Foothill High School in Pleasanton, CA. He was born in Mountain View and lived in Menlo Park before moving to Pleasanton when he was in elementary school. Pro Football Hall of Famer John Madden and current Oakland A's outfielder Stephen Piscotty are also from the area.

WORLD BASEBALL CLASSIC

In 2009, he was a member of the Dominican Republic national baseball team. He missed the tournament in 2013 due to injury. Was scheduled to represent the Dominican Republic once again in the 2017 World Baseball Classic, but was unable to attend the opening rounds due to his father falling ill (the Dominican Republic was eliminated in the second round), thus Cueto missed the tournament again.

SOCIAL MEDIA MOGUL

Cueto has over 100,000 followers on his Twitter account and 225,000 on an Instagram account as of February 2019. Some of Cueto's most popular Instagram photos are him climbing Camelback Mountain in Scottsdale, AZ, exercise photos, shots of food and candid pictures of him at home in the Dominican Republic on his ranch with his horses.

FROM OUTFIELDER TO PITCHER

Growing up, Cueto was an outfielder. However, as he rose from Little League to higher levels of competition against hungry and talented Dominican players, he wasn't keeping up. He wasn't particularly fast and didn't have much of a bat. His talent was in his arm. He could nail a runner at home from the farthest depths of right field. One day, when he was about to turn 16, a coach told him that if he were going to make it in baseball, it would be from a pitcher's mound. So he learned to pitch.

Cueto does not miss being an outfielder. "Pitching is much easier," he says. "[As an outfielder,] you're hitting and running and throwing. You have to do too much. I say, 'No, I'll go on the mound.' I liked hitting when I was a kid. I hate it now. Too much running."

Cueto is the second of five children, four boys and a girl (his sister died several years ago of kidney failure). Says he never worked at anything except baseball. His mother encouraged him to focus on the game and would pull him out of bed in the morning to go workout. She made sure Cueto always had baseball equipment.

Underwent Tommy John surgery August 2, 2018. He missed 61 games trying to rehab the injury (a right elbow sprain), however after returning from the injured list his velocity was noticeably down. The surgery was performed by Dr. Neal ElAttrache in Los Angeles. Is expected to miss the majority of the 2019 season.

Was born in San Pedro de Macoris and still lives there in a house not far from his childhood home. He owns a farm outside the city where he has 15 horses, including two paso finos, the smooth-gaited trail horses imported to the Caribbean generations ago from Spain.

2018 SEASON

- Spent most of the season on the injured list and underwent season-ending Tommy John surgery on August 2.
- Made just nine starts overall for San Francisco, going 3-2 with a 3.23 ERA (19er, 53.0ip) and a .238 opponents average...his nine starts marked the fewest he's made in a single season over his career.

- Recorded his 16th career double-digit strikeout game on April 17 at Arizona, recording 11 strikeouts in 7.0-scoreless innings.
- Was placed on the injured list a second time on May 1 with right elbow inflammation...met with Dr. James Andrews on May 7 and was diagnosed with an elbow sprain not significant enough to warrant surgery and he recommended that Cueto strengthen the ligament through rehabilitation.
- Appeared in two rehab starts with triple-A (June 23 and 29) and tossed 7.2-scoreless innings.
- Missed 61 games trying to rehab the injury and was reinstated from the injured list July 5...however, after returning from the injured list he gave up 16 runs in 21 innings over four starts, and his velocity was noticeably down, with his fastball sitting in the 86-87 mph range.

- Underwent season-ending Tommy John surgery on August 2...the surgery was performed by Dr. Neal ElAttrache in Los Angeles...he missed the remainder of the 2018 season and will miss most of 2019.

MEDICAL NOTES

His 2018 season ended on August 29 when he was placed on the 10-day injured list with a torn labrum in his left shoulder, suffered while diving back into second base the night prior.

LONE MEMBER

Is the only Giant in the live-ball era (since 1920) to hit five-or-more doubles in his first five career games.

#2 Dugger was ranked the number two prospect in South Carolina by Baseball America. He followed his childhood friend, Daniel Gossett to Clemson. Gossett is a starting pitcher for the Oakland Athletics

Tried soccer when he was young but once he was introduced to baseball, he was hooked. His first position was first base. "Then a coach saw me run and said, 'This guy doesn't need to be playing first base,' Duggar said. He went to the outfield and never left. "I like to run", he says, "and take hits away. I really enjoy playing defense. It's always felt natural to me."

Because his middle school didn't have a baseball team, students were allowed to try out for the local high school team, James Byrnes High, in nearby Duncan, SC. Duggar made the junior varsity team as a seventh-grader. During practice one day, he was shagging flies and made a spectacular diving catch that drew a bunch of whoas and wows. Several weeks into the season, he was promoted to varsity. His coach, Chris Carter, was a big influence in his life by giving him a chance to play at the varsity level as a seventh grader.

Has a sister (Lauren Duggar) who plays softball at Furman University.

MINOR LEAGUE AWARDS AND HONORS

2016 MiLB.com Organizational All-Star (San Francisco), CAL Player of Week (May 22, San Jose), EAS Player of Week (July 24, Richmond), 2017 AFL All-Prospect Team (Scottsdale).

Attended James F. Byrnes High School in Duncan, SC and played college baseball at Clemson University. Was a starting outfielder in all three years of his collegiate career.

Was raised in Moore, SC, just south of Spartanburg. At one point, Moore was home to the studio of the Marshall Tucker band.

2018 SEASON

- Split his fourth professional season between triple-A Sacramento and the big league club in San Francisco.
- Had his contract purchased from triple-A July 8 and made his Major League debut that night vs. St. Louis.
- Recorded his first big league hit with a double off RHP Greg Holland...began his ML career with a five-game hitting streak, recording at least one double in three of the five games...became the only Giant in the live-ball era (since 1920) to hit five-or-more doubles in his first five career games (Stats, LLC).
- Hit .272 with 27 doubles, 39 walks, four triples, four home runs and 21 RBI in 78 games for triple-A.
- At the time of his call-up, his 27 doubles were the most in the Pacific Coast League.
- Scored the game-winning run in the Giants' 1-0, walk-off win on August 28 on a pinch-hit, RBI single by Gorkys Hernández.
- Season ended on August 29 when he was placed on the 10-day injured list with a torn labrum in his left shoulder suffered while diving back into second base a night earlier...had surgery on September 4 in Arizona performed by Dr. Gary Waslewski.
- Missed the first seven weeks of the season with a right flexor strain in his elbow and instead of heading back to double-A, where he finished the 2016 season, he was eased back into things in the California League...just days after being activated on June 28, Duggar returned to the injured list with a left hamstring strain on June 30.
- Promoted to triple-A in August where he appeared in just 13 games.
- Combined for a .262 batting average, 12 doubles, six homers and 26 RBI in 44 games.
- Played in the Arizona Fall League after the season, hitting .263 in 20 games and was named to the All-Prospect Team.
- Was a non-roster invitee to Giants camp for the first time in his career.
- 2016: Established a Flying Squirrels record with a 19-game hitting streak July 18-August 6.
- Named Player of the Week May 22 with San Jose (A) and July 24 with Richmond (AA).
- Tabbed the 25th-best prospect in the Giants' farm system according to Baseball America.
- 2015: Played for Salem-Keizer before joining the San Jose Giants during the California League Championship Series...batted .293 with a homer and 27 RBI in 58 games for SK.
- Ranked seventh in the Northwest League in batting average...led Volcanoes with 35 walks.

CAREER NOTES

- 2017: Injury knocked him out of most of his 2017 campaign as he was limited to just 44 games.

MINOR LEAGUE AWARDS AND HONORS

2015 SAL Player of Week (July 20 w/Augusta), SAL Mid-Season All-Star (Augusta), MiLB.com Organizational All-Star (San Francisco), 2017 MiLB.com Organizational All-Star (San Francisco), AFL Rising Star (Scottsdale), CAL Mid & Post Season All-Star (San Jose), CAL Player of Week (April 16, San Jose).

Both of his parents are from Cuba.

Attended Florida International University where he majored in sports and fitness. Was named FIU's Male Student Athlete of the Year and was named to the Conference USA All-Academic team in 2014. Was a two-time Johnny Bench Award semifinalist (top collegiate catcher) in 2013-14. Was the second-highest drafted player in Florida International history (Josh Banks, 50th overall in 2003 to TOR).

FAMILIAR FACES

Played with fellow South Floridians Derek Rodríguez and Andrew Suarez in high school and on travel ball teams. He and Suarez roomed together in 2017.

His first two career hits came in the 8th inning of his first MLB game on August 31, 2018. According to Elias, it marked the first time a Giants player had his first two Major League hits come in the same inning in the modern era (since 1900).

1ST

Made his Major League debut on August 31, 2018 vs. New York-NL and hit a solo home run for his first career hit. Became the 18th Giant since 1919 to hit a homer for his first MLB hit in his first career game.

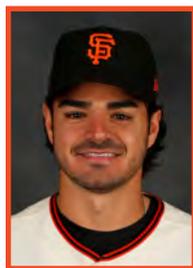

RED/WHITE Set his sights on becoming a pro baseball player when he was a child, despite showing little talent for the job. "He stunk," says his father, Aramis Sr., who coached him. "He just worked his butt off." He'd tell anyone who listened, "I'm going to be the best player." He painted his bedroom half red and half white, the St. Louis Cardinals colors because his favorite players were Yadier Molina for catching and Albert Pujols for hitting. He also had a street sign in his room that said "Pujols Avenue," a gift from his parents during a trip to Cooperstown.

SCARY MOMENT At San Jose in 2016, Aramis missed two and a half months due to multiple facial fractures around his eye and cheek bone. He says he made a late decision to slide into second and caught a knee to the face. "I can't see," he said when he was laying on the field. He was rushed to the local hospital then transported to St. Mary's in San Francisco for surgery, where three surgeons worked on him.

"They made an incision above my eye, under my eye, and then they went up through my mouth to get my cheek bone. They put a few plates in there to keep it steady," Garcia said. Because the side of his face was numb for weeks, he had a hard time eating and lost 25 pounds. When he came back, he switched from a two-piece catcher's mask to the hockey mask.

Graduated from Pines Charter High School. His baseball team in HS wasn't exactly a powerhouse. He's the only player ever to be drafted from the school. Was drafted by the St. Louis Cardinals in the 20th round in 2011 out of high school, but did not sign.

Grew up in Pembroke Pines, FL, west of Ft. Lauderdale. Notable athletes from the area include pro football player Frank Gore and former MLB players Mike Napoli and Manny Ramirez.

MLB DEBUT: August 31, 2018 vs. NYM
FIRST MLB HIT: August 31, 2018 vs. NYM (home run)

- Recorded a career-best four hits on September 22 at STL, a day after he had four strikeouts, to become just the second Giants player since 1913 to have at least four strikeouts one game and at least four hits in the next game (Hunter Pence also did it from July 22-24, 2015...the last rookie to do it was LAD's Andre Ethier in 2006) (Stats, LLC).

Has accumulated over 200 stolen bases in his minor league career, totaling 211 in nine seasons - that's roughly 22 per season. Stole a career-best 36 bases in 2016 with triple-A Indianapolis.

Allen's father, David De La Rosa Hanson, was signed by the Pirates as a pitcher but rose no higher than A-ball. Says his father influenced him in baseball but never coached him.

WHO WAS YOUR FAVORITE

His favorite baseball players and role models were Omar Vizquel, Cal Ripken Jr., José Reyes and Robinson Canó.

A PIRATE

In 2009, when he was 16, the Pittsburgh Pirates plucked him from a group tryout of around 60 kids on a rainy morning on a soggy field. He borrowed spikes, pants and a glove from a friend; his own were old and battered. Only four players were chosen from the tryout to train at the Pirates' DR academy - though Hanson had to wait two months to sign. Players needed to be 16 years and six months and he was 16 and four months.

BEST BUDS

Signed his first professional contract with the Pirates on July 14, 2009 on the same day an outfielder by the name of Gregory Polanco, who also hailed from the D.R. The two became fast friends at the academy and spent four years in the minors together. Polanco was called up in 2014 and became the Pirates' regular right fielder. The two of them are still best friends.

.379

His 2018 batting average as a pinch-hitter, ranked as the fourth-best clip in the National League.

MINOR LEAGUE AWARDS AND HONORS

David Hanson, Allen's father, was a huge basketball fan so Allen is named after Ray Allen. His middle name was supposed to be Ricky after Rick Barry but it was recorded on the birth certificate as Rery.

Was born and raised in La Romana, DR. The city is a popular tourist destination. Off the coast is Catalina Island, with beaches and coral reefs. It got its name from the Italian family that founded a large sugar-mill in the early 1900s that shifted the city's major export from oil to sugar. It is now driven by tourism with most of the population employed by the Central Romana Corporation.

ACQUIRED: Signed by San Francisco to a one-year contract with a club option for 2020 on January 11, 2019CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2019 with a club option for 2020SOCIAL MEDIA: @Dutch_Oven45 on Twitter; @dutchoven45 on Instagram

Holland is known for doing impressions of former broadcaster Harry Caray, actor Arnold Schwarzenegger and Kermit the Frog. He's working on Cleveland from "Family Guy."

LEADING THE WAY

Led the Giants in starts (30), innings pitched (171.1) and strikeouts (169) last season.

.168 His opponents batting average against lefties last season was the sixth-lowest among all MLB pitchers and the third lowest in the NL, behind Colorado's Wade Davis (.140) and Pittsburgh's Richard Rodriguez (.155).

3.57 Improved his ERA from 6.20 in 2017 to 3.57 in 2018, marking the second largest improvement among Major League pitchers.

NICKNAME Is the 'Dutch Oven.' It's a nickname inspired by a Texas Rangers fan's sign he spotted in the stands back in 2009, his first year up in the Majors, that read "Dutch Oven bringing the heat."

GO BLUE! Is a rabid Michigan fan. Grew up rooting for Desmond Howard and Charles Woodson. Ironically, his brother is an Ohio State fan.

Drafted by the Texas Rangers in the 25th round in 2006 out of Wallace State Community College in Hanceville, AL. Never distinguished himself in high school.

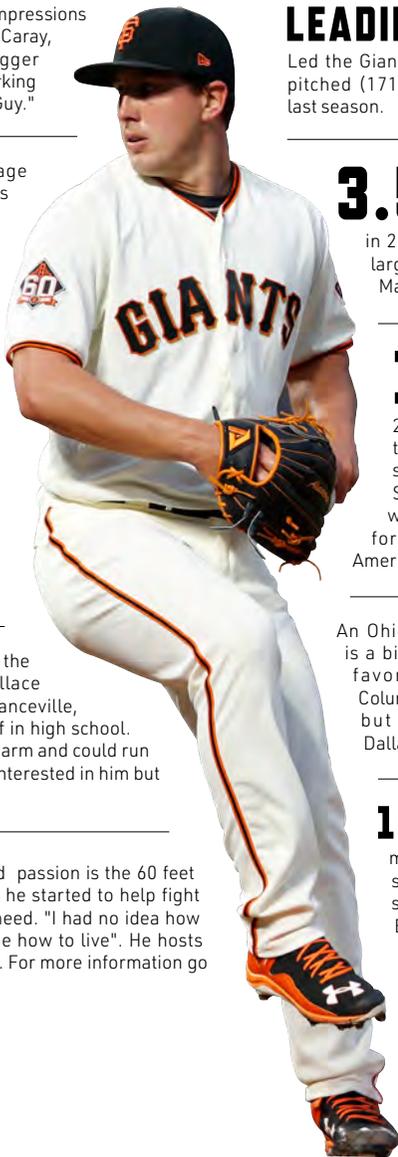

Was a part-time outfielder that had a good arm and could run fast. Kent State and Ohio State were both interested in him but opted to sign with Wallace State.

An Ohio native, Holland is a big hockey fan. His favorite team is the Columbus Blue Jackets, but he's also a Dallas Stars fan.

60 FEET 6 Derek's off-the-field passion is the 60 feet 6 foundation, which he started to help fight leukemia and make an impact on kids in need. "I had no idea how it would change me. These kids taught me how to live". He hosts events to raise money throughout the year. For more information go to 60feet6.org.

169 strikeouts last season, the fourth-most by a player in his first season with the Giants since 1900, behind Vida Blue (1978: 171), Johnny Cueto (2016: 198), and Sam Jones (1959: 209).

Grew up in Newark, OH, 33 miles east of Columbus. Newark is probably best known for the Newark Earthworks, a series of mounds built by the Hopewell Indians. Remnants of the earthworks still exist today in sites owned by the Ohio History Connection. December 21, 2009 was proclaimed "Derek Holland Day" in Newark.

Dad, Billy Jones, coached college baseball for all of Ryder's life, moving the family from Green River to Oregon State, Arizona State, Oklahoma State, North Carolina State to Appalachian State. Mother, Tiffani, grew up in the Bay Area - south of San Francisco in Redwood City.

MEMORABLE DAY

Jordy Mercer was Billy's most talented player at Oklahoma State and the guy that Ryder latched onto. "I always took ground balls with him at shortstop," Ryder said. "He was the kind of player I wanted to be. He had a great arm and was the closer on the team, too. We got along really well. I basically just stalked him and followed him around. It was probably annoying for him, but it was great for me." Ryder recorded his first big league hit June 30, 2017 at Pittsburgh, and the shortstop, Mercer, took the throw from left field and pretended to tuck the ball in his back pocket as a joke.

LEANING LEFT

A natural righty, Ryder's father believed he'd be better off hitting left-handed. Ryder didn't take immediately to the new grip. During a practice one day, Billy duct taped his son's hands to the big red whiffle-ball bat to allow him to get accustomed to the feel of the new grip. Soon Ryder was batting left-handed.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

Has a brother two years younger named Utah. The boys were given unusual names because their parents felt they needed something distinctive to go with their common last name.

Grew up in Stillwater, OK. Was born in Seattle, WA but raised in Stillwater, which is home to the Oklahoma State Cowboys and Cowgirls. Garth Brooks and Matt Holliday are a few notable people from the town.

FUN FACT

Played one season of water polo at St. John Bosco High in Bellflower, CA. The water polo coach happened to see him swimming in P.E. class and was impressed so he asked him to join the team. Played one year of varsity his sophomore year.

MILESTONES

Recorded his 1,000th career hit on May 5, 2015 at Boston. Played in the 1,000th career game on May 21, 2015 vs. Oakland. Collected career hit 1,500 on May 5, 2018 at Atlanta.

NO NOT THAT LONGORIA

Evan is not related to Eva Longoria, but was heckled a lot about the nomenclature similarities; after his first All-Star appearance, the actress sent him a bottle of Champagne for doing the name proud and he responded by sending her several signed jerseys.

261

Career home runs as a third baseman are the most in the Majors since his first season in 2008.

3RD

Overall pick by the Tampa Bay Devil Rays in the 2006 draft out of Long Beach State. He was the highest draft selection in school history.

Longoria shared Big West Player of the Year honors in 2006 with another infielder from Cal State Fullerton – the Dodgers' Justin Turner.

CHARITY Is a cook and a foodie. Fell in love with cooking when he was single and playing for the Rays in his mid-twenties. Enjoyed spending off-seasons having people over for dinner. His passion for food and cooking led him in 2013 to partner with friends in opening a restaurant in Tampa. They decided it had to have duckpin bowling, a game with shorter lanes and smaller balls and pins than regular bowling. They called it Ducky's.

BIG HIT Had one of the biggest hits in Rays history when he hit a walk off home run in extra innings of the last game of the 2011 season, snapping a tie with the Red Sox in the race for the American League Wild Card spot and sending his team into the postseason. According to Elías, Longoria was only the second player in MLB history to hit a walk-off home run in his team's final game of the regular season to clinch a postseason berth (the other was the Giants' Bobby Thomson with his "Shot Heard Round the World" against the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1951).

1 OF 3 Active players to hit at least 15 home runs in each of the last 11 seasons (also Justin Upton and Albert Pujols).

LEADER Is the Rays' all-time leader in games played (1,435), runs scored (780), doubles (338), home runs (261), RBI (892) and walks (569).

Graduated from Saint John Bosco High School in Bellflower, CA. Did not receive any scholarship offers to play college baseball. Attended Rio Hondo Community College during his freshman season before Long Beach State offered him a scholarship. Because Long Beach already had an established shortstop, Troy Tulowitzki, Longoria played third base.

Grew up in Downey, CA, a suburb of Los Angeles. The city is the birthplace of the Apollo space program. Downey was founded by and named for the former and youngest ever governor of California, John Gately Downey, who was born in Ireland.

2018 SEASON

- Completed his first season in a Giants uniform by batting .244 with 25 doubles, 16 home runs and 54 RBI in 125 games.
- Finished the year with six defensive runs saved, tied for third-most by an NL third baseman...his nine defensive runs saved in September were an MLB-best (Baseball Info Solutions).
- Ended the year with a 1.9 WAR, the lowest figure of his career and first time it was below 2.5 since 2012 when he only played in 74 games (Baseball-Reference).
- Was also the first time in his career he finished with an OPS below .700...previous low was .724 in 2014.
- His seven game-winning RBI were tied for the most on the team with Brandon Crawford and Andrew McCutchen.
- Recorded his first hit in a Giants' uniform in the home opener on April 3 vs. SEA, hitting a two-run homer off Marco Gonzalez in the 7th inning...the homer snapped a 17 at-bat hitless streak to start the year.
- Recorded his 1,500th career hit with a double on May 5 at Atlanta, becoming the 42nd player to reach that milestone in a Giants uniform (the most of any franchise).
- Turned in his 18th career multi-homer game with his two-homer performance on May 29 at Colorado.
- Suffered a left hand fracture (broken fifth metacarpal) on June 14 at Miami after getting hit by a pitch...placed on the 10-Day injured list on June 15 and underwent surgery in Los Angeles on June 19 performed by Dr. Shin...missed 34 games before being reinstated on July 26.

MINOR LEAGUE AWARDS AND HONORS

2016 MiLB.com Organizational All-Star (Giants), CAL Mid-Season All-Star (San Jose).

ROOKIE

His 69 appearances in 2018 ranked as the second-most by a Giants rookie pitcher in SF-era history (Elias Sosa, 1973, 71 games).

11

He began playing organized baseball at 11, playing catcher and third base. During a tryout with the Pirates at age 16, a 95-mph fastball hit him on the head when he was standing on the plate. It busted his helmet and knocked him unconscious. At practice the next day he found he no longer could hit because he had become afraid of the ball. So he switched to pitching (Reyes no longer has a fear at the plate).

OPENING DAY

Made his first opening day roster in 2018.

His opponents average against last season was the third-lowest among NL relievers behind Milwaukee's Josh Hader (.132) and Washington's Sean Doolittle (.135).

Has a smiley face tattoo on his elbow where he has a scar from Tommy John surgery.

4.71

Last season he set the Giants record for fewest hits allowed per 9.0 innings with a minimum of 50.0 innings.

Signed with the Giants as an international free agent in 2010.

strikeouts per 9.0 innings throughout his minor league career (245.2ip).

Nickname is "El Tibu," which is short for Tiburon, meaning Shark.

Born and raised in a tiny town of 700 people called Quinigua in the Villa Gonzales district of the Santiago Province of the Dominican Republic.

Graduated from Lee County (GA) High School and attended Florida State where he played baseball under coach Mike Martin. Played shortstop his freshman year then moved to catcher his sophomore year on the suggestion of assistant coach Mike Martin Jr.

He's one of three catchers to catch three no hitters and win three World Series titles, joining Bill Carrigan (1911-1916) and Yogi Berra (1951-1956).

SELECT COMPANY

Posey (2012), Yogi Berra (1951 Yankees) and Roy Campanella (1955 Dodgers) are the only catchers to win a World Series and MVP in the same season.

53/23

His 53 postseason games and 23 postseason RBI are both the highest totals in franchise history.

Created the Buster and Kristen Posey Fund for Pediatric Cancer Awareness, which has raised $2.6 million since its inception three years ago. 100 percent of the profits from the Fund benefits research and less toxic treatment protocols at UCSF Benioff Children's Hospitals, Stanford University's Lucile Packard Children's Hospital and John Muir Hospital.

Played all nine positions during one game vs. Savannah State while playing for Florida State. Posey also hit a grand slam in the game while using four different gloves in the field.

His full name is Gerald Dempsey Posey III. His father, known as Demp, was nicknamed Buster as a kid and passed it on to his son.

Grew up on a 50-acre plot of land in Leesburg, GA, a town of about 3,000 residents. The Posey's front yard was so big it became a makeshift ball field. His father created a backstop and occasionally used the yard for Little League practice when no other fields were available.

- Was selected to his third All-Star Game and second as a starter...received more than 9.9 million votes.
- Became the Giants' first three-time All-Star catcher since Walker Cooper in 1946-48...the only other Giants catcher with three All-Star nods in a Giants uniform was Harry Danning (1939, 1940, 1941).
- Among NL leaders he finished fourth in batting avg. (.318), tied for fifth in hits (177), sixth in on-base pct. (.379), ninth in RBI (95).
- Reached base safely via hit, walk or hit by pitch in a career-best 27 games from April 25-May 27.
- Caught Chris Heston's no-hitter on June 9 at New York-NL...according to Elias, he became one of three catchers

- Hit his 100th career home run September 6 at Colorado off LHP Yohan Flande...joined Tom Haller (107) as the only catchers in Giants franchise history to hit at least 100 home runs.
- 2014: Finished fourth in the NL in batting average behind COL's Justin Morneau (.319), PIT's Josh Harrison (.315) and Andrew McCutchen (.314)...also ranked fourth in batting average w/RISP (.346), eighth in slugging pct. (.490) and tied for ninth in RBI.

- 2013: Signed a nine-year contract (eight-year extension) through 2021 with an option for 2022 on March 29...marked the longest contract in Giants history.

- 2012: Was named NL Most Valuable player after batting .336 with 78 runs scored, 39 doubles, 24 home runs and 103 RBI while posting a .408 on-base pct., .549 slugging pct. and a .957 OPS.
- Was listed first on 27 ballots, second on four and third on one of the 32 ballots submitted by two writers representing each league city to score 422 points, based on a tabulation system rewarding 14 points for first place, nine for second, eight for third and on down to one for 10th.
- Became the fifth catcher to win the MVP award, joining Johnny Bench (1970, 1972), Roy Campanella (1951, 1953, 1955), Ernie Lombardi (1938) and Gabby Hartnett (1935).
- At 25 years old, was the youngest player to win an MVP award since Ryne Sandberg in 1984.
- Became the first player since Frank Robinson to win a league MVP award, batting title and World Series in the same season...Robinson accomplished the feat with the Orioles in 1966...five players registered that hat trick prior to Robinson: Dick Groat (1960 Pirates), Mickey Mantle (1956 Yankees), Willie Mays (1954 Giants), Stan Musial (1946 Cardinals) and Joe DiMaggio (1939 Yankees) (Elias).
- Posey, Yogi Berra (1951 Yankees) and Roy Campanella (1955 Dodgers) are the only catchers to win a World Series and MVP award in the same season (Elias).
- It was the 13th time a Giants player had been honored and the first since Barry Bonds in 2004.

CATCHERS TO WIN NL BATTING TITLE

Buster Posey became the fourth catcher since 1876 to win a National League Batting Title when he did so in 2012.

| Player | Year | Average |
|-------------------------|-------------|-------------|
| Bubbles Hargrave, CIN | 1926 | .353 |
| Ernie Lombardi, CIN | 1938 | .342 |
| Ernie Lombardi, BOS | 1942 | .330 |
| Buster Posey, SF | 2012 | .336 |

- Joined Willie Mays and Willie McCovey as the only Giants to win Rookie of the Year and a MVP award in franchise history.
- Is one of only three catchers to win Rookie of the Year, MVP and a World Series in their careers, joining Johnny Bench and Thurman Munson...Posey, Willie Mays and Willie McCovey are the only Giants to accomplish that trio of feats.
- Won Rookie of Year Award in 2010 & became the 14th former winner to be elected MVP.
- Became the 18th player to win both the NL batting title and NL MVP in the same season.
- Joined Mays (1954) and Barry Bonds (2002, 2004) as the only Giants players to win a NL batting title and a MVP award.
- Won the NL batting title, leading the league with a .336 avg. (also led Majors)...became the first catcher to win the NL batting title in 70 years, since Ernie Lombardi did so with the Boston Braves in 1942.
- Joined Lombardi and Eugene Franklin "Bubbles" Hargrave as the only catchers in the league's history to win a batting title.
- Became the first Giant to win the batting crown since Barry Bonds in 2004 (.362) & became the seventh player in Giants franchise history to lead the league in batting average.
- Won title after rule change making the final sentence of Rule 10.22(a) inapplicable to Melky Cabrera, who finished one plate appearance shy of qualifying due to his suspension (the stricken sentence would have allowed Cabrera, because of the size of his lead over his nearest competitor, to win the title though finishing with fewer than the requisite 502 PAs).
- His 103 RBI were the most driven in by a Giant since Jeff Kent had 108 RBI in 2002.
- Only players in Giants franchise history (since 1900) to drive in 100+ runs in a season with their primary position being catcher was Walker Cooper in 1947 (122 RBI) & Dick Dietz in 1970 (107).
- Joined Dick Dietz (22 HRs in 1970) and Tom Haller (26 in 1966) as the only Giants players with 20+ home runs "as a catcher" only since 1958.
- Was named an All-Star for the first time in his career, being named the starting catcher for the NL squad...registered 7,621,370 votes, setting the highest total by an NL player in ML history.
- 2011: In his second full big league season Posey was limited to 45 games after a devastating injury in May ended his season.
- Was placed on the injured list on May 26 with a fractured bone in his lower left leg...suffered the injury the night before in a collision at home plate with Florida's Scott Cousins, who crashed into Posey as he was trying to block the winning run in the 12th inning...Posey was receiving the throw from right fielder Nate Schierholtz on Emilio Bonifacio's sacrifice fly to medium right field when he had dropped the throw right before Cousins went shoulder-first into him and his left cleat appeared to stick in the infield dirt while the rest of his body was hurled sideways...Giants trainers Dave Groeschner and Mark Gruesbeck helped carry him off the field...the manner in which Cousins hit Posey sparked conversation about rule changes for months.
- Underwent three MRI's - first on his ankle, second on his lower leg & the third on his knee...results showed torn ligaments in his ankle, fractured fibula in his lower left leg & nothing on his knee.
- Underwent successful surgery May 29 to repair torn ligaments in his left ankle...had two screws inserted in his leg in a 90-minute procedure that was performed at a medical facility in Burlingame by team orthopedist Ken Akizuki and Giants podiatry specialist Larry Oloff, along with Michael Dillingham, a former 49ers physician who had extensive experience with traumatic injuries.
- Had successful surgery on July 22 to remove screws from his left ankle.
- Made first career Opening Day roster and became youngest Giants starting catcher at 24 years and four days old since Tom Haller was 23 years and 292 days old when he started for SF in 1961.
- 2010: Named National League winner of Jackie Robinson Rookie of Year Award, becoming sixth player to earn honor in Giants franchise history.
- Won the ROY Award with 129 points, receiving 20 first-place votes, nine second-place votes and two third-place votes.
- Became the sixth Giant and first in 35 years to win the award, which was established in 1947...joined Willie Mays (1951), Orlando Cepeda (1958), Willie McCovey (1959), Gary Matthews (1973) and John Montefusco (1975).
- Became the sixth NL catcher to be honored Rookie of Year, joining Johnny Bench (1968), Earl Williams (1971), Benito Santiago (1987), Mike Piazza (1993) and Geovanny Soto (2008).
- Became the first Rookie of the Year winner to also become World Series champion in same season since Boston's Dustin Pedroia in 2007...the last NL player to do it was Florida's Dontrelle Willis in 2003.
- With Posey winning ROY, it snapped a 35-year drought for the Giants organization, which had been the longest span without a rookie award for a NL team.

PLAYERS TO WIN NL ROOKIE OF THE YEAR & THE MVP AWARD

Buster Posey is one of 14 players in National League history, and the most recent, to win both a Rookie of the Year award and an MVP award.

| Player | ROY | MVP | Player | ROY | MVP |
|----------------|------|------------|---------------------|-------------|------------------|
| Don Newcombe | 1949 | 1956 | Johnny Bench | 1968 | 1970, 1972 |
| Frank Robinson | 1956 | 1961 | Andre Dawson | 1977 | 1987 |
| Willie Mays | 1951 | 1954, 1965 | Jeff Bagwell | 1991 | 1994 |
| Orlando Cepeda | 1958 | 1967 | Albert Pujols | 2001 | 2005, 2008, 2009 |
| Willie McCovey | 1959 | 1969 | Ryan Howard | 2005 | 2006 |
| Pete Rose | 1963 | 1973 | Ryan Braun | 2007 | 2011 |
| Dick Allen | 1964 | 1972 | Buster Posey | 2010 | 2012 |

- Joined Texas' Neftali Feliz (AL Rookie of Year) as the third pair of players named ROY in their respective leagues after appearing in that year's World Series... previous pairs were Willie Mays and Gil McDougald in 1951 (Giants and Yankees) and Dave Righetti and Fernando Valenzuela in 1981 (Yankees and Dodgers).
- Named to Topps' ML Rookie AS team.
- Solidified his status as the Giants' most heralded position playing prospect since Matt Williams in 1987 after batting .305 with 23 doubles, 18 HRs and 67 RBI in 108 games for SF in 2010.
- His .305 batting avg. was third-highest for any player who started at least 50 games at catcher in his rookie season, behind Mike Piazza's .318 clip with Los Angeles-NL in 1993 and Ronny Paulino's .310 mark with Pittsburgh in 2006 (Elias).
- Missed the first two months in the big leagues as he was playing for triple-A Fresno, and wasn't the number one catcher until July 1, 2010.
- In his season debut on May 29 vs. Arizona, had three RBI singles in four at-bats to help the Giants earn a 12-1 victory.
- Earned NL Player of the Week honors from July 5-11, 2010, hitting .556 (15-for-27) with five HRs and 14 RBI.
- Posted a career-best 21-game hitting streak from July 4-28, batting .440 with six HRs and 23 RBI...in his first 10 games of the streak, Posey had 19 hits, six HRs and 13 RBI - no rookie in NL history ever had those numbers for any 10-game stretch.
- His 21-game hit streak marked the second-longest hit streak by a rookie in SF-era history, behind Hall of Famer Willie McCovey's 22-game hit streak in 1959.
- Became the seventh player in SF-era history to have a hit streak of 20-or-more games and his 21-gamer tied Robby Thompson for the fifth-longest in SF history... also became just the 21st Major League catcher to post a hit streak of 20+ and only the second to accomplish the feat as a rookie, joining Benito Santiago (34-straight games in 1987).
- Was named NL Player of the Month, NL Rookie of the Month and "Major League Baseball's Clutch Performer of the Month", all for July 2010...finished with a NL-leading 43 hits and ranked third with a .417 avg., tied for third with 24 RBI, fourth with a .466 on-base pct. and fifth in the league with a .699 slugging mark.
- Began the year at triple-A Fresno to catch more innings and get consistent at-bats...with injuries to Mark DeRosa and Edgar Renteria, a window of opportunity opened for Posey to get at-bats at the Major-League level and he was called up to the big leagues on May 29.
- Played the majority of his games at first base (23 starts at first in 26 games), pushing Aubrey Huff to outfield, however, the trade of Bengie Molina to Texas on July 1 cleared an everyday catching job...at time of trade, Molina was hitting just .257 with a .312 on-base pct. and had been battling a sore left elbow.
- Hit first big league homer off Reds pitcher Aaron Harang at Great American Ball Park June 9.
- Hit his first career grand slam and posted his first multi-homer contest on July 7 at Milwaukee.
- 2009: One of San Francisco's prized young players, Posey made quick strides in just his two minor league seasons, finishing the year with San Francisco.
- Had his contract purchased from triple-A Fresno on September 2 and appeared in seven games for the Giants, going 2-for-17 (.118)...made four starts, all at catcher and caught 40.0 innings overall.
- Upon hearing of his call-up to Majors, caught an early flight at dawn out of Las Vegas with teammate Dan Runzler and landed in Philadelphia at 3 p.m. local time Sept. 2...his call-up was somewhat of a surprise, however, with catcher Bengie Molina missing time with a strained upper right quad, the Giants had no choice but to add Posey to the big league roster as an insurance option.
- After hitting a combined .325 with 18 HRs and 80 RBI in his first full season between Class A Advanced San Jose and triple-A Fresno, Posey finally got his first Major League at-bat on September 11 in a 10-3 loss to the Dodgers in Los Angeles, when he entered the game as a late defensive insertion and struck out in his lone plate appearance against Hiroki Kuroda.
- Collected first ML hit in his third career at-bat on September 19 at Los Angeles-NL, with a bloop single to RF off Jeff Weaver.
- Caught Randy Johnson September 25, 2009 vs. Chicago-NL, which was largest age difference between a pitcher and catcher since Jesse Orosco and Rob Bowen threw together September 27, 2003 (23 years and 309 days)...the age difference between Posey and Johnson was 23 years and 198 days (Sports Features Group).
- Prior to his promotion to the big league club, split year between Class A Advanced San Jose and triple-A Fresno...began year at SJ, hitting .326 with 23 2Bs, 13 HRs and 58 RBI in 80 contests, helping the Giants win the first half title in the CAL North Division with a 42-28 (.600) record...the Giants later went on to win the California League Championship.
- After earning CAL mid-season All-Star honors, Posey skipped double-A and made the jump to triple-A, being promoted July 14.
- Was scheduled to be promoted, however was hit in the head with a pitch by Stockton's Craig Italiano on June 26, and missed five games.

POSTSEASON CAREER NOTES

- Won three titles in his first five big league seasons (2010, 2012, 2014).
- Became the first player to win the Rookie of the Year Award, MVP and three World Series titles prior to his 28th birthday (Elias).
- His 53 postseason games are the most in Giants franchise history.
- 2016: Recorded his 22nd postseason RBI in Game 3 of the NLDS, passing Barry Bonds for the highest total in franchise history.
- 2014: Went 17-for-69 (.246) in 17 postseason games... all 17 of his hits were singles.
- 2012: Helped lead the Giants to their second World Series title in three seasons.
- His biggest contribution came in Game 5 of the Division Series at Cincinnati in which he hit the 54th grand slam in postseason history and the third in Giants history to help SF become the first team in ML history to overcome a 2-0 deficit in the division series...his second career grand slam off Mat Latos put the Giants up 6-0 in the 5th and sparked the Giants dugout.
- Joined Will Clark (Game 1 of 1989 NLCS) and Chuck Hiller (Game 4 of 1962 WS) as only Giants with grand slams in the postseason (Brandon Crawford then hit one in the Wild-Card game at Pittsburgh on October 1, 2014).
- Became fourth player in ML history to hit a grand slam in a "winner-take-all" postseason game, joining Johnny Damon (2004 ALCS), Troy O'Leary (1999 ALDS) and Bill Skowron (1956 WS).

AWARD WINNER

Was elected the 2018 Barney Nugent Award winner in a vote by his teammates, coaches and training staff during spring training. The award is named in honor of the Giants' former athletic trainer who worked for the club from 1993 to 2003 and is given in recognition of the player in his first big league camp whose performance and dedication in Spring Training best exemplifies the Giants spirit, much like Nugent did in his time with San Francisco.

23 Number of collegiate home runs he hit, which ranks him ninth in the school's all-time record book.

Graduated from Lexington High School in Lexington, MA. Drafted by the New York Mets in the 26th round of the 2012 draft but did not sign. Instead he enrolled at Boston College where he played baseball for three seasons. Both of Shaw's parents and several relatives are BC alumni.

MOVING FROM RIGHT TO LEFT

Played outfield in high school and during his tenure at Boston College, but all of the reps he took were in right field. Transitioned to left field in 2017.

CAPE COD

Led the Cape Cod League in home runs (eight) in 2014 and won the John J. Claffey Award as the New England top prospect.

Was also a defenseman in hockey during high school.

1ST Hit a pinch-hit, go-ahead home run for his first career MLB hit on September 3, 2018 at Colorado. Became the fourth player in SF Giants history to have his first career hit come as a pinch-hit home run.

THE MAYOR

Raised in Jacksonville, FL, the grandson of former Jacksonville mayor Ed Austin, a gregarious politician and attorney. During his mayoral term from 1991-1995, the city was awarded the 30th NFL franchise (the Jaguars). He was also the state attorney for almost 20 years. There is Ed Austin Regional Park, a 144-acre park in Jacksonville. The Office of the State Attorney is housed in the Ed Austin Building. His portrait hangs in the Duval County Courthouse.

STANFORD Attended Stanford University and was an All-Pac-12 First Team outfielder in 2014. Studied Science, Technology and Society as an integrated-studies major. Hit .310 to go along with five homers and 72 RBI in 113 career games during three seasons at Stanford.

MINOR LEAGUE AWARDS AND HONORS

2013 SAL Mid-Season All-Star (Augusta),
2016 AFL Rising Star (Scottsdale).

Went undrafted out of high school, in part because he needed to add some bulk to his lanky frame – he was 6 feet 2 and 170 pounds – and in part because his educator-parents were adamant about their son attending college. His mother, brother and other relatives all attended Mississippi State so Chris committed to the school early in his junior year. His wife, Martha Kate, also went to Mississippi State and earned a degree in educational psychology.

SEPTEMBER 14, 2018

Recorded his first career shutout in a 2-0 win over the Rockies. Was one of just eight NL pitchers to throw a shutout last season.

279 Total number of strikeouts he recorded in three seasons at Mississippi State, which ranks third on the school's all-time list.

With his signing bonus, Chris surprised his parents with gifts. His mother wanted new furniture for the house, so he gave her gift certificates. For his dad, he got a new Toyota Tacoma truck with a big bow on it.

Chris' dad was the basketball coach at Tupelo High for 23 years. Chris and his brother grew up on the court, serving as ball boys for the team and keeping stats.

Graduated from Tupelo High School in Tupelo, MS and attended Mississippi State University. Was named SEC Pitcher of the Year as a junior in 2012 and was a consensus First Team All-American. He also won the C Spire Ferriss Trophy as Mississippi's top collegiate baseball player.

FUN FACT

In 2012, Stratton became the first player from Mississippi State to be named an All-American by a consensus of voters since 1985. The previous Bulldog to be a consensus All-American was the Giants' Will Clark. He was also named SEC Pitcher of the Year and Mississippi's top Collegiate baseball player, going 11-2 with a 2.38 ERA over 12 starts.

Grew up in Tupelo, MS and still makes it his home in the offseason. Tupelo is best known as the birthplace of Elvis Presley, who is commemorated with numerous statues. One of Chris' high school summer baseball coaches was Kirk Presley, a third cousin of Elvis, who was a first-round draft pick (eighth overall) by the Mets in 1993 out of Tupelo High School.

2018 SEASON

- Completed his first season with San Francisco, going 7-13 with a 4.49 ERA (80er, 160.1ip) in 29 starts.
- Among NL rookie qualifiers he ranked first in games started (29) and innings pitched (160.1ip), tied for fourth in wins (7), fifth in strikeouts (130), seventh in opponents' batting average (.269) and ninth in ERA (4.49).
- His 130 strikeouts were the seventh-most in SF-era history (since 1958) and the most by a Giants rookie pitcher since Tim Lincecum had 150 in 2007.
- Had his contract purchased from triple-A Sacramento on April 11 and made just one start before being optioned back to triple-A...placed on the taxi squad April 30 and recalled May 1...stuck on the Giants' roster as Johnny Cueto was lost to the injured list for an extended period of time with a right elbow sprain.
- Began his big league career by retiring 10 consecutive batters before Ketel Marte hit a single through the middle in the 4th inning...received a no decision after logging 5.1 innings and allowing four runs on four hits with seven strikeouts...was optioned back to triple-A after the game.
- Became the sixth pitcher to make his MLB debut in a start for the Giants over the last 10 seasons (2009-18).
- Earned his first Major League victory on May 6 at Atlanta...allowed one run (unearned) on seven hits over 5.1 innings.
- Received three or fewer runs of support in 22 of his 29 starts.
- Allowed two walks or fewer in each of his first 14 starts, the longest such streak by a Giants starting pitcher to begin his big league career since Hi Bell also did it in 14-straight starts from June 18, 1932 to July 4, 1933.
- Had a 1.95 ERA (16er, 73.2ip) in Giants wins and a 6.65 ERA (64er, 86.2ip) in Giants losses.
- In a four-start span from Aug. 14-31, he pitched 6.0+ innings while allowing three hits or fewer...the last NL rookie to do that three times in a four-start span in a single season was the Dodgers' Orel Hershiser in 1984.
- Had consecutive starts of 7.0-shutout innings on August 25 vs. Texas and August 31 vs. New York-NL.
- Threw a career-high 7.2 innings at SD on September 17...allowed two runs on four hits in a 4-2 victory.

IT'S ELEMENTARY, MY DEAR WATSON

Loves puzzling through murder mysteries as they unfold in modern media. Devoured Serial, a podcast produced by This American Life about a teenage murder near Baltimore; and Making a Murderer, a Netflix documentary series about a man who – upon his release after a wrongful conviction – was re-arrested on suspicion of committing a murder.

Attended the University of Nebraska.

He began college as a communications major and switched to sociology his junior year after a class called Sociology of Crime piqued his interest. His college baseball teammates included MLB players; Alex Gordon, Brian Duensing, Joba Chamberlain, and Steve Edlefsen.

2.67 His ERA over the last eight seasons is the sixth-lowest among all pitchers since 2011 with at least 500.0 innings pitched. The only pitchers with a lower ERA than Watson's 2.67 figure are Craig Kimbrel (1.97), Clayton Kershaw (2.16), Kenley Jansen (2.28), David Robertson (2.59) and Jacob deGrom (2.67).

Is a 2003 graduate of Dallas Center-Grimes High School in Grimes, IA, where he played baseball, football and basketball. Won the Bob Feller Award as the Iowa High School Pitcher of the Year in 2003 after throwing three no-hitters and compiling an Iowa state record 0.10 ERA.

2014 During his All-Star season with the Pirates, he led the NL in games (78) and picked up 10 relief wins, the most by a Pirates relief pitcher since 1988.

Watson's great-uncle, Tom Offenburger – brother to Watson's grandmother – served as an aide to Martin Luther King Jr. and worked 14 years as press secretary for Andrew Young, who was a congressman, U.S. ambassador to the United Nations and mayor of Atlanta.

GIVING BACK

20.2 Posted a 20.2 inning scoreless streak at Oracle Park in 2018, marking the second-longest home scoreless streak by a Giants' reliever (Felix Rodriguez, 21.0ip from 2001-02).

2018 IN REVIEW

2018 Year In Review

THE GIANTS: Finished the 2018 season (61st in San Francisco and 136th overall) with a record of 73-89 (.451), placing fourth in the National League West and 12th in the National League...SF did have a nine-win improvement from 2017 (64-98)...SF had back-to-back seasons of sub .500 records...this is the first time since 2005-08 that the Giants have had consecutive losing seasons.

AROUND .500: The Giants hovered around the .500 mark for the vast majority of the season, having a franchise record 82 days where they were one or fewer games from .500...they were exactly .500 24 different times.

THANK YOU FANS: The Giants topped three million in attendance for the ninth-straight season and for the 17th time in 19 years at Oracle Park...SF's overall attendance of 3,156,185 was the fifth-best in MLB...SF sold out 21 home games.

STARTING PITCHING: SF's starting pitching ERA of 4.06 was 10th in the NL and their 73 quality starts were tied for the seventh-most in the league...the biggest impact was that they reduced their HRs per 9.0 innings allowed from 1.3 to 1.0...they decreased homers allowed from 134 to 102 (in 68.0 fewer innings)...Giants starters struck out 7.1 batters per 9.0 innings, which ranked 27th in MLB...they allowed a HR every 8.8 fly balls, which ranked second-best.

ON THE MOUND: The Giants ranked last in the NL in starts made by the five pitchers who opened the season in the starting rotation with 78 (Marlins also had 78)...SF used 10 different starting pitchers, the most they've used in a season since 2013.

TOP THREE STARTERS: The Giants' top three starters - LHP Madison Bumgarner, RHP Johnny Cueto and RHP Jeff Samardzija - were in the same rotation at the same time for a total of just seven games and that came in mid-July.

PITCHING LAST FOUR MONTHS: With the return of Bumgarner, the Giants' pitching was one of the best in the league...beginning June 1, Giants pitchers posted a 3.61 ERA, the fourth-lowest figure in the Majors behind the Dodgers (3.28), Astros (3.36) and Indians (3.53).

WITH THE BATS: San Francisco ranked near the bottom of almost every offensive category...among the 15 NL teams, SF was 10th in team batting average (.239) and next-to-last in runs per game (3.72), on-base pct. (.300), slugging pct. (.368), OPS (.667), home runs (133) and extra-base hits (418)...they were third-to-last in batting average with RISP (.239) and batting average with RISP and two outs (.209).

BEFORE/AFTER: The Giants were 50-48 (.510) at the All-Star break and in fourth place in the NL West, just 4.0 games behind the leading Dodgers...following the break, SF posted a record of 23-41 (.359), tied with Detroit for the third-lowest winning pct. of any MLB team...only the Marlins (22-41, .349) and Orioles (19-46, .292) had a lower winning pct. following the break.

BEFORE/AFTER PART II: SF had a .711 OPS in the first half, which ranked 21st in MLB...however, in the second half, they were over 100 points worse, ranking last with a .598 OPS...SF averaged 4.07 runs per game in the first half but then fell to 3.19 after the break.

BETTER D: The Giants finished 12th in MLB with 32 Defensive Runs Saved...that was a 75-run improvement from last season, fifth-best in MLB (Diamondbacks had a 134-run improvement, which ranked No. 1) (Baseball Info Solutions).

HOME/ROAD: The Giants were 3.0 games over .500 at home at 42-39 (.519) but posted a record of 31-50 (.383) on the road...SF won a total of just seven road series and had one winning road trip...SF scored more runs at home (4.0) than on the road (3.5) and had a higher OPS at home (.681) than on the road (.654)...the Giants struggled in some hitters' parks, going 0-4 at Citizens Bank Park, 0-3 at Great American Ball Park, 0-3 at Miller Park and 1-8 at Coors Field.

2018 SEASON

The Giants had 1,101 total player days on the disabled list in 2018, 15th-most in MLB...over the past two seasons combined, the Giants have 2,122 total player days on the disabled list, 14th-most in MLB (Stats, LLC).

CLOSE GAMES: The Giants played 90 games that were decided by just two runs or fewer (42-48 record), the most such games of any MLB team...SF also had 56 games decided by just one run (26-30).

HOME RUNS: In a season where 100 players hit at least 20 home runs, none of them were Giants...IF Evan Longoria led the team with 16...SF's 133 home runs ranked 14th out of 15 NL teams...the Giants were the only team without a grand slam in 2018...in fact, it was just the third time in SF-era history that the Giants did not hit a grand slam (others: 1975 & 1979).

GIANTS ROOKIES: 14 different rookies appeared with the Giants this season, with nine making their MLB debuts: IF Abiatel Avelino, RHP Tyler Beede, RHP Ray Black, OF Steven Duggar, C Aramis Garcia, RHP Dereck Rodriguez, OF Chris Shaw, LHP D.J. Sneltzen, LHP Andrew Suárez...SF had 50 starts from rookie pitchers (Suárez - 29, Rodriguez - 19, Beede - 2), their most in a season since 2003 (60 starts from rookies).

MID-SEASON TRADES: The Giants made two mid-season trades: RHP Cory Gearrin, OF Austin Jackson and minor league RHP Jason Bahr traded to Texas in exchange for a player to be named later or cash considerations...OF Andrew McCutchen traded to New York-AL in exchange for minor league IF Abiatel Avelino and RHP Juan De Paula.

SCORING FOUR: When the Giants scored at least four runs they were 52-20 (.722) compared to a 21-69 (.233) record when they scored three runs or fewer.

ALL-STARS: IF Brandon Crawford earned his second All-Star selection and his first as a starter...C Buster Posey earned his sixth All-Star selection and his third as a reserve...Posey did not participate in the Midsummer Classic as he had been battling hip inflammation and he was scheduled to receive a cortisone shot during the break...IF Brandon Belt was one of five players selected for the Final Vote but he finished second to Milwaukee's Jesús Aguilar.

NUMBER 10 PICK: San Francisco will have the 10th overall selection in next year's 2019 First Year Player Draft...SF finished 2018 with the ninth-worst record, however Atlanta slipped ahead at nine because they did not sign this year's No. 1 pick.

MANAGER BRUCE BOCHY: Completed his 12th season at the helm of the Giants, the longest stint by a Giants manager in SF-era history and the second-longest in franchise history behind John McGraw (31 years)...overall, it was his 24th season as a big league skipper...Bochy's 1,926 career wins are the most among active managers and are the 11th-most all-time...the 10 managers ahead of Bochy are all in the Hall of Fame...Bochy won 951 games as manager of the Padres and has won 975 games as manager of the Giants...he's the only manager in MLB history to win 900+ games with multiple franchises...was ejected from a game just twice in 2018 and has 74 career ejections.

30th Major League Baseball All-Star Game

Tuesday, July 11, 1961 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

In just its second year of existence, Candlestick Park—the Majors' first all-concrete stadium—played host to the first of two Major League Baseball All-Star Games played in 1961. Long before the days of the Home Run Derby and All-Star Gala, the game itself provided plenty of excitement, with a quartet of Hall of Famers leading the National League to a come-from-behind, 5-4, victory in 10 innings. Trailing the American League, 4-3, entering the bottom of the 10th, the senior circuit received a single from Hank Aaron, a run-scoring double by Willie Mays, a walk by Orlando Cepeda and the game-winning single from Roberto Clemente – all off fellow Cooperstown resident Hoyt Wilhelm.

However, those last at-bat heroics were almost not needed, as they became necessitated by one of the more bizarre and memorable moments in All-Star Game history. With the National Leaguers clinging to a 3-2, ninth-inning lead and a runner on third, a gust of wind knocked Giants' pitcher Stu Miller from his set position on the mound, resulting in a balk that allowed the tying run to score.

A capacity crowd of 44,115 filled the 'Stick for a contest that featured four San Francisco Giants (Mays, Cepeda, Miller and Mike McCormick) and a combined 18 players who would later be enshrined in the Hall of Fame.

55th Major League Baseball All-Star Game

Tuesday, July 10, 1984 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

After a 23-year absence, the Major League Baseball All-Star Game returned to the Bay Area with the 1984 Midsummer Classic at Candlestick Park. Proving well worth the wait, 57,756 fans were treated to fifteen future Hall of Famers.

Pitching dominated this contest, with the National League battersmates for the fourth and fifth innings stealing the headlines in a 3-1 senior circuit victory. On the 50th anniversary of the Giants' Carl Hubbell striking out five consecutive batters, the duo of Fernando Valenzuela and Dwight Gooden did "King Carl" one better. Valenzuela fanned all three American League hitters he faced in the fourth inning; then, the youngest player in All-Star Game history—a 19-year-old Gooden—whiffed all three batters in the fifth. Gary Carter, who caught both frames, also broke a 1-1 tie with a solo homer in the second en route to MVP honors.

Oakland's Bill Caudill, making his only All-Star appearance, also posted a perfect inning via strikeout, doing so in his lone frame (seventh). Fittingly, in a game that featured a combined 21 strikeouts, the tight contest ended when Goose Gossage fanned Henderson with a runner on base in the ninth.

78th Major League Baseball All-Star Game

Tuesday, July 10, 2007 at AT&T Park (San Francisco, CA)

The first All-Star Game at AT&T Park lived up to its billing, with the best of baseball turning in a thrilling contest in front of 43,965 fans. Most importantly, the game was San Francisco in all of its essence – beginning with an emotional pre-game tribute to Hall of Famer Willie Mays, the greatest Giant of them all.

True to Mays' greatness, the Midsummer Classic featured a little bit of everything – including the first inside-the-park home run in All-Star Game history, hit by Ichiro Suzuki en route to Most Valuable Player honors. In the end, the American League captured a 5-4 victory after withstanding the National League's furious two-out, ninth-inning rally.

Flexing its muscle and speed, the junior circuit jumped out to a 5-2 lead on the strength of three home runs.

The most memorable – and uniquely San Francisco – was Ichiro's two-run shot in the fifth that put the AL ahead 2-1. With a runner on first and one out, the Seattle star drove the first pitch he saw deep to right field – where it hit off the asymmetrical wall and caromed towards the 421-foot sign in right-center. By the time right fielder Ken Griffey, Jr. could relay the ball to the infield, Ichiro had scampered around the bases and set All-Star Game history.

Following Carl Crawford's solo home run in the sixth and Victor Martinez' two-run clout in the eighth, the AL gave a three-run lead to closer J.J. Putz in the ninth. After the first two National League hitters were retired, Dmitri Young singled and Alfonso Soriano hammered a two-run homer of his own to bring the senior circuit within 5-4. Three walks followed to load the bases – including two off new pitcher Francisco Rodriguez – but Rodriguez got Aaron Rowand to fly out and end the game.

Retired Uniform Numbers

In the storied 136-year history of Giants baseball, 12 former players or managers have enjoyed careers worthy of their jersey numbers being retired by the club. Only the New York Yankees (21) have retired more numbers. The 12 Giant greats are honored at Oracle Park with their names and retired uniform numbers displayed atop the Giants dugout and along the left field suite level facade.

Christy Mathewson and John McGraw, who both predated the use of numbers on jerseys, are recognized along with fellow New York Giants Bill Terry (#3), Mel Ott (#4), Carl Hubbell (#11) and Monte Irvin (#20). Willie Mays (#24), who played for the club on both coasts, joins former San Francisco stars Barry Bonds (#25), Juan Marichal (#27), Orlando Cepeda (#30), Gaylord Perry (#36) and Willie McCovey (#44) in this select group.

The Giants also honor Jackie Robinson, whose uniform number (42) was retired throughout Major League Baseball in 1997 to commemorate the 50th anniversary of his arrival in the big leagues.

In 2004, the Giants commemorated two of baseball's greatest broadcasters with disks honoring Russ Hodges and Lon Simmons.

The Giants recognize the following individuals, who have been honored by the National Baseball Hall of Fame for their contributions to the game: Lindsey Nelson (Ford C. Frick Award, 1988), Leonard Koppett (J.G. Taylor Spink Award, 1992), Bob Stevens (J.G. Taylor Spink Award, 1998), Nick Peters (J.G. Giants Wall of Fame

On September 23, 2008, the San Francisco Giants unveiled the team's Wall of Fame, which serves as a living tribute to the organization's greatest players. It recognizes retired players whose records stand highest among their teammates on the basis of longevity and achievements. Those honored have played a minimum of nine seasons for the San Francisco Giants, or five seasons with at least one All-Star selection as a Giant.

52 Giants legends have plaques on the wall in honor of their achievements. Bronze plaques honoring these players and their baseball contributions line the wall of Oracle Park along King Street for all baseball fans to enjoy. As present and future generations of Giants players meet the criteria, plaques celebrating their careers will join the Wall of Fame upon their retirement.

GIANTS POSTSEASON APPEARANCES

The Giants' 26 postseason appearances (since 1900) are the fourth-most all-time behind the New York Yankees (54), Brooklyn/Los Angeles Dodgers (32), St. Louis Cardinals (28) and Philadelphia/Kansas City/Oakland Athletics (27).

The Giants' eight championships are also the fourth-most in Major League history. Only the Yankees (27), Cardinals (11) Red Sox (9) and Athletics (9) have more.

The Giants are one of four major American professional sports franchise in this century (2000-present) with three titles during a five-year span. The others are the New England Patriots (2001, 2003, 2004, 2015, 2017, 2019), Los Angeles Lakers (2000, 2001, 2002) and San Antonio Spurs (2003, 2005, 2007).

Giants All-Time Postseason Results

National League Wild Card

2014 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. PITTSBURGH PIRATES

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 1 GAME TO 0)

The Giants defeated the Pirates, 8-0, in the National League Wild Card game backed by the arm of Madison Bumgarner and the bat of Brandon Crawford. Bumgarner threw a four-hitter while striking out 10 batters and Crawford hit a grand slam in the 4th inning off Edinson Volquez, sending the Giants from a winner-take-all wild-card game to a National League Division Series matchup with the Washington Nationals.

With the bases loaded in the 4th inning and nobody out in a scoreless game, Crawford turned on Volquez's hanging breaking ball and sent it to right field, landing a few rows deep and giving the Giants a 4-0 lead while silencing a PNC Park crowd of 40,629. Crawford became the first shortstop to hit a grand slam in postseason history and he joined Chuck Hiller (1962 World Series), Will Clark (1989 National League Championship Series) and Buster Posey (2012 NLDS) as the only Giants to hit a grand slam in postseason play.

Bumgarner, meanwhile, dominated one of the NL's best lineups, walking one and allowing just four singles on 109 pitches, 79 for strikes. Moments after finishing his shut-out, Bumgarner found himself surrounded by teammates in the middle of the diamond celebrating a playoff victory.

2016 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. NEW YORK METS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 1 GAME TO 0)

A game billed as a matchup between two of the Majors' most dominant pitchers proved exactly that as Noah Syndergaard and Madison Bumgarner matched zeroes for the first seven innings. Syndergaard held the Giants hitless through 5.2 innings until a Denard Span single ended the no-hit bid. Bumgarner went the distance, scattering just four hits and two walks to go with six strikeouts.

With Mets closer Jeurys Familia on the mound and the game still locked in a scoreless tie in the top of the ninth, Brandon Crawford ripped a double to the left-center on one of the few hard-hit balls of the night. Familia struck out Angel Pagan, then walked Joe Panik.

Next up, Conor Gillaspie, who crushed a three-run homer that accounted for all the game's runs. Gillaspie became the third player in Major League history whose first career postseason home run was a go-ahead homer in the ninth inning or later in a winner-take-all game.

Meanwhile, Bumgarner became the first pitcher in baseball history with multiple postseason winner-take-all complete game shutouts.

National League Division Series

1997 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. FLORIDA MARLINS
(MARLINS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 0)

San Francisco won its first National League West title since 1989 to become only the fourth team during the 20th century to win its division after finishing in last place the previous season.

The Giants outdueled the Dodgers in a classic pennant race for the N.L. West flag. Perhaps the crowning moment of San Francisco's magical ride came Sept. 18 when catcher Brian Johnson led off the 12th inning with a game-winning clout off Los Angeles' Mark Guthrie to put the Giants in a first place tie with nine games remaining.

New General Manager Brian Sabean revamped the Giants roster, bringing in 15 players who were not in the organization at the end of the 1996 campaign. He shocked the baseball world by acquiring All-Star pitchers Wilson Alvarez and Roberto Hernandez and 18-year Major League veteran pitcher Danny Darwin from the Chicago White Sox in exchange for six minor leaguers at the July 31 trading deadline.

The renewed Giants made their first post season appearance in eight years when they faced National League Wild Card entry Florida Marlins in the Division Series. Despite losing all three games of the series, San Francisco gave Florida its toughest test en route to its first World Championship.

Both Games #1 and #2 came down to the last at-bat, with Florida taking advantage of being the home club and posting 2-1 and 7-6 victories, respectively.

Despite two solo home runs by Giants' second baseman Jeff Kent in Game #3, the Marlins finished off the sweep on the strength of Devon White's sixth inning grand slam off Alvarez.

2000 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. NEW YORK METS
(METS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 1)

San Francisco won its second National League West title in four years as the club posted a Major League-best 97-65 mark, only to see its October run stopped short by the Wild Card New York Mets, a club that would eventually win the NL flag.

The Giants enjoyed a truly magical regular season, its first in its new jewel of a home, Pacific Bell Park. Playing in front of 81 straight sellouts that accounted for a franchise-record 3,244,320 fans, San Francisco rattled off a 55-26 ledger, matching the Mets for the best home mark in the majors.

Dusty Baker won his third NL Manager of the Year award after guiding his troops to a Major League-best 51-26 record after the All-Star Break, resulting in an 11-game cushion, the Giants' largest winning margin since 1913.

San Francisco produced its most prolific offensive attack in 70 years, led by National League Most Valuable Player Jeff Kent. Teammate Barry Bonds, who finished second in the MVP voting, clubbed 49 home runs.

The Giants jumped out to a 1-0 lead in the NLDS with a 5-1 victory in front of a raucous Game #1 crowd at Pacific Bell Park. Livan Hernandez held New York to one run over 7.2 innings while Ellis Burks clubbed a three-run, third-inning homer off the left field foul pole.

J.T. Snow's dramatic three-run, pinch-hit homer in the bottom of the ninth tied Game #2 4-4, but the Mets would rally to win 5-4 in 10 innings and even the series at a game apiece.

Unfortunately for San Francisco, its offense went south when the club went east, as the Giants could manage only two runs in 22 innings at Shea Stadium. New York's Benny Agbayani gave the Mets a 3-2 victory in Game #3 with a 13th inning solo home run, and Bobby Jones hurled a one-hit shutout for a 4-0 win in the Game #4 clincher.

2002 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. ATLANTA BRAVES

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 2)

Following a 3-0 loss at Florida on August 18, a stagnant San Francisco club stood at 66-56, four games behind Los Angeles in the NL Wild Card chase. From then on, the Giants would play like champions, going 29-10 down the stretch to capture the league's fourth playoff spot by three and a half contests over the Dodgers.

Despite a 95-win campaign that tied for the fourth-most victories in San Francisco history, the Giants entered the NLDS as heavy underdogs to the Atlanta Braves, who captured their 11th-consecutive division crown by an astounding 19.0-game margin.

Undaunted by their opponents and buoyed by the right arm of starter Russ Ortiz, the Giants stormed into Turner Field and won the series opener by an 8-5 count as Rich Aurilia, Benito Santiago and J.T. Snow all collected two RBI apiece.

Yet, the hope of Game #1 quickly turned into despair, as Atlanta backed the stout pitching of Kevin Millwood and Greg Maddux, respectively, with 17 combined runs in a pair of routs to take a 2-1 series lead.

2003 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. FLORIDA MARLINS

(MARLINS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 1)

For the first time since 1936-37, the Giants earned consecutive appearances in postseason play, as the club won its third National League West title in seven years and became only the second team in franchise history to go wire-to-wire with an overall finish of 100-61.

A flurry of offseason moves brought new faces to San Francisco as the team introduced first year manager Felipe Alou and four new starters to the lineup. The revamped club breezed by their opposition, ending their campaign 15.5 games ahead of the Dodgers for the Giants' largest advantage in 91 years.

General Manager Brian Sabean garnered Executive of the Year accolades for constructing the team with the third best record in baseball and Barry Bonds earned his unprecedented sixth National League Most Valuable Player Award.

Headed into Game #1 of the NLDS rested and primed for success, pitching ace Jason Schmidt thrived in the intense atmosphere at SBC Park, tossing a complete-game three-hitter as the Giants blanked the visiting Marlins 2-0.

Facing the prospect of a long winter, San Francisco turned to past playoff hero Livan Hernandez to work his magic once again in Game #4 at Pacific Bell Park. The big right-hander responded by hurling 8.1-strong innings, while Aurilia finished 3-for-4 with a homer and four RBI as the Giants won 8-3 to force a return trip to Atlanta.

In the decisive Game #5, Barry Bonds exorcised his demons of postseasons past, singling and scoring the Giants' first run in the second and clubbing an opposite-field, solo homer in the fourth that gave SF a 2-0 lead. Ortiz became the first Giants pitcher to win two games in the same post season series since Carl Hubbell went 2-0 in the 1933 World Series, yet San Francisco's 3-1 victory was in doubt until the end. With two men on and none out in the ninth, closer Robb Nen struck out Gary Sheffield then induced Chipper Jones to ground into a series-ending double play.

A sudden turn of events plagued the Giants in Game #2, as San Francisco saw their 4-1 lead quickly vanish as Gold Glovers made costly miscues and the Marlins escaped SBC Park with a 9-5 win.

Knotted up at 1-1, both teams headed to South Florida, but the Giants' run of bad luck seemed to follow. After taking a 3-2 advantage in the 11th inning of Game #3, SF let the Marlins slip back into the contest after a dropped fly ball by Jose Cruz, Jr. allowed the tying run on base. With two out, the bases loaded and a 1-2 count on Ivan Rodriguez, Tim Worrell's next pitch was drilled into right field for a game-winning, two-run single.

In Game #4, San Francisco's furious comeback in the 9th fell short as J.T. Snow was thrown out at the plate on Jeffrey Hammonds' two-out single to left, giving the Marlins a 7-6 victory and ending the Giants' hopes for another playoff run.

2010 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. ATLANTA BRAVES

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 1)

After clinching the 2010 NL West Crown in the final game of the regular season, the Giants entered the NL Division Series at home vs. the Atlanta Braves. In order to get there, Giants' General Manager Brian Sabean had built a pitching staff that led the Majors in ERA with a 3.36 figure, while also revamping his offense throughout the season by acquiring difference-making outfielders Pat Burrell and Cody Ross as well as bringing up eventual 2010 NL Rookie of the Year Buster Posey from the minor leagues in late May.

San Francisco made a push for the 2010 NL West title on August 27. Entering that day, SF was 6.0 games back of the San Diego Padres, however the Giants were red hot in the season's final month, posting an 18-8 record, which was the second-best winning percentage in baseball.

The Giants would win the NLDS over the Braves 3-games-to-1 behind their stalwart pitching as all four games in the series were decided by a one-run margin, which marked the first time in postseason history in which every game was decided by one run. The pitching staff posted a 1.66 ERA as Tim Lincecum was dominant in his postseason debut, tossing a two-hit, 14-strikeout shutout during the Giants' 1-0 win in Game #1.

San Francisco lost Game #2 as the Braves' Rick Ankiel hit a splash hit home run in the top of the 11th frame to help Atlanta pull ahead 5-4.

The next two games were won in dramatic fashion as SF rallied past the Braves 3-2 in Game #3, thanks in part to three fielding errors by Atlanta second baseman Brooks Conrad.

Madison Bumgarner came up aces in Game #4 as he held Atlanta to two runs in 6.0 innings in his postseason debut.

However, it was Cody Ross who played hero in the clinching game as he homered in the sixth inning to break up Derek Lowe's no-hit bid, while also driving in the go-ahead run in the seventh inning as SF won 3-2 and clinched their first division series since 2002.

2012 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. CINCINNATI REDS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 2)

The 2012 edition of the Giants won the division title despite crushing injuries and unexpected slumps. All-Star closer Brian Wilson was lost for the year after a second Tommy John surgery, Freddy Sanchez never returned after battling back and shoulder issues, Melky Cabrera, acquired in the offseason, was lost in mid-August after testing positive for testosterone and two-time Cy Young award winner Tim Lincecum was having the worst season of his career.

Meanwhile, the Dodgers, with an influx of cash, shook the baseball world with a nine player trade with the Red Sox, centered around slugger Adrian Gonzalez going back to the West Coast.

However, All-Star catcher and 2012 MVP Buster Posey, along with mid-season acquisitions Marco Scutaro and Hunter Pence, ignited the Giants and after trailing the Dodgers by 7.5 games as late as May 28, they slowly chipped away and ended up winning the West by a whopping 8.0 games, their second division title in the last three seasons.

Their first round opponent in the playoffs, the Cincinnati Reds, led by Joey Votto and Brandon Phillips, stormed into San Francisco and took the first two games from the Giants, winning by scores of 5-2 and 9-0. Facing the daunting task of being down 2-0 in the best-of-five division series, the Giants now had to win three consecutive games on the road, something that had never been accomplished in baseball postseason history.

With all the local and national media counting the Giants out, Pence stood up and fired up his teammates with a football-like huddle and rallying speech in the dugout prior to Game #3, a game in which SF won 2-1, avoiding a sweep.

In Game #4, Angel Pagan hit the first leadoff home run in Giants' postseason history, and Gregor Blanco and Pablo Sandoval connected later for an 8-3 victory that evened the series at 2-2.

Not just any comeback would get SF back to playing for a pennant. It would take one of Giant proportions and Posey helped make it happen as he hit the third grand slam in Giants' postseason history and San Francisco pulled off an unprecedented revival, moving to the LCS with a 6-4 victory over the Reds in the deciding Game #5.

2014 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS VS. WASHINGTON NATIONALS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 1)

San Francisco defeated the heavily favored Washington Nationals, three-games-to-one in the National League Division Series.

Jake Peavy pitched no-hit ball for 4.0 innings and didn't allow a run in his 5.2-inning outing in Game #1. Hunter Strickland bailed Peavy out of a bases-loaded jam in the sixth by striking out Ian Desmond. Bryce Harper and Asdrubal Cabrera each hit solo homers off Strickland in the seventh as the Nationals cut a 3-0 deficit to 3-2. Sergio Romo worked out of a jam in the eighth and Santiago Casilla retired all three hitters in the ninth for the save.

What became the longest-ever postseason game in terms of time (6:23) and tied for the longest in terms of innings had seemed headed for a conclusion in the ninth in Game #2. Washington's Jordan Zimmermann had a 1-0 lead, was working on a three-hitter and had retired 20 consecutive batters before walking Joe Panik with two outs in the final frame. Manager Matt Williams then brought in Drew Storen to face Buster Posey, who hit a first-pitch single, and then Pablo Sandoval tied the game by slicing a double into the left-field corner to bring home Panik. The Nats' relay was just in time to cut down Posey at the plate. The game soon spun into extra innings. Yusmeiro Petit threw 6.0-shutout innings, during which he allowed one hit and struck out seven. Leading off the 18th, Brandon Belt drove a Tanner Roark pitch over the right-field wall to put the Giants in front. Strickland preserved the edge in the bottom of the inning to pick up the save.

The Giants' 10-game postseason winning streak ended with an error in Game #3. Madison Bumgarner and Doug Fister were locked in a scoreless matchup in the seventh before the San Francisco ace inaccurately threw to 3rd after fielding Wilson Ramos' sacrifice bunt. Two runs scored on the errant throw.

A bases-loaded walk to Gregor Blanco and an RBI groundout by Panik gave the Giants a 2-0 lead in the second inning of Game #4. Hunter Pence made one of the Giants' top defensive plays of the postseason in the sixth when he banged into the right-field wall as he tracked down Jayson Werth's drive. However, Bryce Harper homered off Strickland in the following inning to tie the game at 2-2. The Giants regained the lead for good in the bottom of the inning on Aaron Barrett's wild pitch on which Panik came home. With two outs and the bases empty in the ninth, Casilla walked Harper before getting Wilson Ramos on a grounder to Panik at second. The Giants soon would spray champagne and prepare to meet the Cardinals in the NLCS.

2016 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS VS. CHICAGO CUBS

(CUBS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 1)

The heavily favored Cubs defeated the Giants three-games-to-one in the best-of-five division series. Jon Lester outdueled Johnny Cueto in Game #1, a 1-0 Giants loss. Both Lester and Cueto logged 8.0 innings each, with the difference, a solo home run off the bat of Javier Baez in the 8th inning off Cueto making the Cubs Game #1 winners.

Game #2 pitted Jeff Samardzija against Kyle Hendricks and both starters lasted less than four innings, with Hendricks being removed due to injury and Samardzija getting roughed up for four runs on six hits in just 2.0 innings of work. Cubs relief pitcher Travis Wood homered off George Kontos and the Giants could not overcome an early 4-0 deficit as they dropped a 5-2 decision to go down 0-2 in the series.

The Giants needed a win in Game #3 or they would find themselves packing their bags for the offseason. It took 13.0 innings, but the Giants outlasted the Cubs by a 6-5 score to get into the win column. The Giants rallied for three runs off LHP Aroldis Chapman in the 8th to go ahead 5-3, then the Cubs stormed back to tie the score at 5-5 in the 9th. Four innings later, Brandon Crawford led off the 13th with a double and Joe Panik followed with a double off the right field wall, giving San Francisco the walk-off win.

Game #4 will leave a sour taste in Giants' fans mouths for a while as the team led 5-2 in the 9th and were just three outs away from pushing the series back to Chicago for a deciding fifth and final game. However, the Giants' bullpen, a problem for SF the latter part of the season, unraveled by giving up four runs on four hits and an error in the final frame to allow the Cubs to take a 6-5 victory.

Giants starter Matt Moore had one of his best starts of the year, allowing just two runs on two hits with 10 strikeouts in 8.0 innings of work.

National League Championship Series

1971 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. PITTSBURGH PIRATES
(PIRATES WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 1)

After winning its first National League West crown, San Francisco entered the National League Championship Series as the favorite against Eastern Division titlists Pittsburgh. The Giants had posted nine wins in 12 contests vs. the Pirates during the regular season.

However, the Giants ran into the hot hitting of Pirates' first baseman Bob Robertson, who clubbed four home runs to lead Pittsburgh to a three games-to-one series victory.

Since staff ace Juan Marichal pitched San Francisco to the NL West flag in its season finale at San Diego, future Hall of Famer Gaylord Perry got the call in Game #1. The right-hander scattered four runs (three earned) and nine hits over his complete game effort as Willie McCovey and Tito Fuentes each delivered two-run home runs in the fourth inning to power SF to a 5-4 victory.

Then Robertson took over. He clubbed a NLCS record three home runs in Game #2 to lead the Pirates to a 9-4 triumph. The first baseman finished 4-for-4 with four runs scored and five RBI as Pittsburgh's victory ended a six-game losing streak at Candlestick Park.

Marichal pitched a four-hitter when the playoffs shifted to Three Rivers Stadium for Game #3, but home runs by Robertson and Richie Hebner gave the Pirates a 2-1 victory behind Bob Johnson and Dave Guisti. The Bucs advanced to the World Series when they tattooed Perry for seven runs and 10 hits over 5.2 innings in the fourth and final game of the series.

1987 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. ST. LOUIS CARDINALS

(CARDINALS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 3)

The Giants became only the fourth team in Major League history since 1900 to finish first within two years of a 100-loss disaster. SF rattled off a 90-72 mark to win the 1987 National League West crown after going 62-100 in 1985.

San Francisco battled back from a five-game deficit on Aug. 7 and went 37-17 the rest of the way to capture its first NL West title in 16 years.

Jeffrey Leonard, whose “one-flap-down” home run trot was the story of the series, became the first player on a losing team to capture the NLCS MVP honor when he hit .417 with four home runs and five RBI despite the Giants falling to the Cardinals in seven games. San Francisco split the first two games of the series in St. Louis, with Dave Dravecky, who was acquired from the San Diego

Padres in a seven-player deal on July 4, shutting out the Cardinals on two hits in Game #2. When the series moved to Candlestick Park, the Giants took a 4-0, fifth-inning advantage in Game #3 but the Cardinals roared back to post a 6-5 victory and take a 2-1 lead in the series.

Leonard responded by crushing a two-run clout in the fifth inning of the fourth game to push San Francisco to a series-evening 4-2 triumph. His four homers in four games tied the Championship Series record for a league playoff of any duration.

The Giants took a three games-to-two series advantage back to St. Louis after posting a 6-3 victory in the fifth contest. However, San Francisco didn't score a run in either of the last two games.

1989 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. CHICAGO CUBS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 1)

Will Clark carried the Giants to their first NL pennant in 27 years when San Francisco defeated the Chicago Cubs in five games.

Clark provided offensive bookends in the series, starting with six RBI in the opener and ending with a two-out, bases-loaded, series-winning two-run single in the eighth inning of Game #5. “Will the Thrill” established new NLCS standards for average (.650), hits (13), runs (eight), total bases (24) and slugging percentage (1.200).

Included in those opening-game six RBI for Clark was his fourth-inning grand slam off Cubs' starter Greg Maddux, which gave San Francisco an 8-3 lead. The Giants' first baseman finished the contest 4-for-4 with four runs scored, a double and two home runs.

The Cubs claimed victory in Game #2, so the series headed to San Francisco tied a game apiece. However, Robby Thompson clubbed a two-run, seventh-inning homer off Les Lancaster to give the Giants a 5-4 victory in the third game.

In one of the most intense at-bats in Giants' postseason history in Game #4, Matt Williams locked up with lefty Steve Wilson in a 12-pitch plate appearance that resulted in a two-run blast which propelled San Francisco to a 6-4 victory.

As broadcaster Hank Greenwald said, “27 years of waiting have come to an end” when the Giants posted a 3-2 come-from-behind victory in Game #5. Clark once again delivered the game-winner, a two-run single up the spine of the infield off Mitch “Wild Thing” Williams.

2002 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. ST. LOUIS CARDINALS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 1)

Following a furious late-season run to capture the Wild Card berth and a stirring five-game NLDS victory over Atlanta, the Giants provided the only truly fitting encore—they won the club's first NL pennant in 13 years by defeating the St. Louis Cardinals in a scintillating and highly competitive five-contest NLCS.

San Francisco began its run to the Fall Classic by winning each of the first two contests in St. Louis. The Giants pounded Cardinals ace Matt Morris early and often en route to a 9-6 victory in Game #1, while Jason Schmidt turned in a dominating Game #2 performance. The right-hander struck out eight and carried a shutout into the eighth inning, while Rich Aurilia's two-homer, three-RBI effort spurred a 4-1 triumph.

Despite Barry Bonds' dramatic three-run, fifth-inning homer into McCovey Cove that briefly tied Game #3 at Pacific Bell Park, a solo clout by St. Louis' Eli Marrero and stingy pitching by the Cardinal bullpen gave the visitors a 5-4 win and renewed hope.

St. Louis jumped out to a 2-0, first-inning lead in Game #4 and appeared on its way to evening the series until a pair of Giants veterans turned the tide. In the sixth, J.T. Snow delivered a two-out, two-run double that knotted the contest. Following a two-out intentional walk to Bonds in the eighth, Benito Santiago cemented his series MVP honors by clubbing a full-count offering from Rick White into the left field bleachers for a 4-2 lead. Robb Nen struck out the final two hitters in the ninth to strand the tying run at third and close out a 4-3 SF victory.

Giants' lefty Kirk Rueter and Morris engaged in a classic October pitchers' duel in a Game #5 that was scoreless until St. Louis broke through with a run in the seventh. Bonds tied the contest 1-1 with an eighth-inning sacrifice fly, thus setting the stage for one of the most dramatic moments in San Francisco history.

Morris retired the first two Giants hitters in the bottom of the ninth inning, but was chased by consecutive singles from David Bell and Shawon Dunston. St. Louis turned to reliever Steve Kline, and Kenny Lofton greeted the southpaw by lining his first pitch into right-center field for a single that scored a sliding Bell as the jubilant NL champion Giants poured onto the field.

2010 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. PHILADELPHIA PHILLIES

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 2)

The Giants again relied upon the strength of their pitching in the League Championship Series as they went on to win the best-of-seven LCS from the Phillies to clinch their 18th National League Pennant and fourth while in San Francisco.

Tim Lincecum outdueled Roy Halladay in Game #1 as Cody Ross hit a pair of solo home runs off of the eventual 2010 NL Cy Young award winner to help the Giants defeat the Phillies 4-3 in the opener.

Game #2 did not go as scripted for San Francisco as the Phillies' Roy Oswalt allowed just one run in 8.0 innings and Jimmy Rollins drove in four runs as the Phillies won 6-1. Ross was the lone bright spot for Giants' offense as he connected for his third home run of the series, which tied the game at one apiece in the fifth inning.

San Francisco grabbed a 2-1 edge in Game #3 with a 3-0 shutout behind Matt Cain, who stymied the Phillies in 7.0 innings, allowing just two hits. The Giants scored in the fourth as once again it was Ross who delivered a run-scoring single, which helped cement his status as the NLCS MVP.

Juan Uribe delivered a walk-off sacrifice fly off Roy Oswalt with one out in the ninth inning as SF took Game

#4 by a 6-5 count. Buster Posey also contributed offensively going 4-for-4 and becoming the first rookie in the San Francisco era and second in club history to record four hits in a postseason game.

The Giants entered Game #5 just one win away from clinching their 18th NL Pennant and had their ace on the mound with Lincecum. However, the Phillies countered with Roy Halladay, who was pitching with an injured right groin. The injury did not deter him as the Phillies won 4-2, which sent the series back to Philadelphia.

Early during Game #6 it appeared as if the series would go to seven games, as Giants' starter Jonathan Sanchez worked just 2.0 innings, allowing a pair of runs. However, the bullpen was stellar, combining for 7.0 scoreless innings to keep the Giants in the game. Juan Uribe hit an opposite-field home run that barely cleared the right-field wall in the eighth inning, sending the Giants' dugout into a frenzy. Brian Wilson was called upon after Lincecum, pitching in relief for the first time in his career, allowed consecutive one-out singles in the eighth. Wilson got Carlos Ruiz to lineout into a double-play to escape the frame. The Giants' closer then made things interesting in the ninth, issuing walks to Jimmy Rollins and Chase Utley, before striking out Ryan Howard looking to end the game.

2012 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. ST. LOUIS CARDINALS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 3)

After a historic win over the Cincinnati Reds in the Division Series, the Giants faced the St. Louis Cardinals in the League Championship Series for the third time in postseason history. It marked the first time in LCS history that the previous two World Series winners had met.

The clubs split the first two games in San Francisco, with Carlos Beltran and David Freese each hitting two-run home runs to lift the Cardinals to a 6-4 victory in Game #1. In Game #2, Marco Scutaro hit a two-run single in San Francisco's four run fourth inning before leaving with a hip injury and the Giants received their first home win in the postseason, with a 7-1 victory to even the LCS at one game apiece.

The series shifted to St. Louis and the Cards took advantage of the home field as Matt Carpenter hit a two-run home run after subbing for Carlos Beltran, and the Cardinals chased Matt Cain before a three and a half hour rain delay in the seventh inning of a 3-1 Red Bird Game #3 win.

The Giants were routed 8-3 in Game #4. Adam Wainwright threw 7.0 innings of four-hit ball and St. Louis' offense roughed up Tim Lincecum and the Giants' bullpen.

Facing elimination for the fourth time in the 2012 postseason, the Giants' sent Barry Zito to the mound in Game #5 and the soft-tossing lefty was at his best, pitching San Francisco back into the series with a 5-0 win that narrowed SF's deficit to 3-2. Zito resembled the same guy who won the 2002 AL Cy Young Award with the A's, as he retired 11 consecutive batters in one stretch while striking out six in 7.2 innings.

Back in San Francisco for a Game #6, the Giants chased opposing starter Chris Carpenter to an early exit in their 6-1 victory that forced the series to a decisive Game #7. Ryan Vogelsong finished with nine strikeouts, a career-high for any game.

Hunter Pence got the Giants going with a weird double, Cain pitched his second clincher of the postseason and the Giants closed out Game #7 of the LCS in a rainstorm, routing the Cardinals 9-0 to advance to the World Series for the 19th time in franchise history, the fifth time since moving to San Francisco and for the second time in the last three seasons.

San Francisco won its record-tying sixth elimination game of the postseason, completing a lopsided rally from a 3-1 deficit. Scutaro recorded his sixth multi-hit game of the series and matched an LCS record with 14 hits and Pablo Sandoval drove in a run for his fifth straight game. After falling behind in the series 3-games-to-1, the Giants outscored the Cardinals 20-1 over the final three games behind stellar pitching performances from Zito, Vogelsong and Cain.

2014 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS VS. ST. LOUIS CARDINALS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 1)

The underdog Giants beat the Cardinals four-games-to-one in the National League Championship Series.

In Game #1, Madison Bumgarner (named the NLCS MVP) threw 7.2 innings, extending his road postseason scoreless streak to a major-league-record 26.2 innings. He allowed four hits, struck out seven and walked one. Sergio Romo and Santiago Casilla retired the final four St. Louis hitters in order.

Game #2 was one of the Giants' best postseason games in 2014. St. Louis led 2-0 before the Giants scored single runs in the fifth, sixth and seventh innings to go in front 3-2. Cardinals rookie Oscar Taveras hit a pinch-hit homer off Jean Machi in the bottom of the seventh to tie the game. In the following frame, Matt Adams homered off Hunter Strickland to make it 4-3, Cardinals. With men at first and second and two outs in the ninth, Trevor Rosenthal uncorked a wild pitch on a 3-2 delivery to Joe Panik. Going on the pitch, pinch-runner Matt Duffy motored home for a 4-4 game. The tie didn't last long though, as Kolten Wong led off the bottom of the ninth inning by hitting an 0-1 pitch from Romo into the right field seats, giving the Cardinals a 5-4 win.

The Giants won Game #3, 5-4 in 10 innings. Tim Hudson had a 4-0 lead before the Cardinals would whittle the margin to 4-3 and tie the game on Hudson's final pitch. Brandon Crawford opened the bottom of the 10th inning by drawing a walk from lefty Randy Choate. Juan Perez then lined a single to left before Gregor Blanco followed by dropping down a bunt between the mound and the third-base line. Choate grabbed it and made an errant throw to first base allowing Crawford to score the winning run.

After St. Louis built a 4-1 lead in the third off Ryan Vogelsong in Game #4, the Giants answered with two in the bottom of the inning, getting two-out RBI singles from Buster Posey and Hunter Pence. Yusmeiro Petit blanked the Cardinals over the next three innings to pick up the win.

Game #5 was perhaps one of the most memorable postseason games in Giants history. Panik put SF up 2-1 in the third inning after hitting a two-run homer off Adam Wainwright. However, Matt Adams and Tony Cruz hit solo HRs off Bumgarner in the fourth, giving the Cards a 3-2 lead. Bumgarner did not allow a baserunner after Cruz's homer, setting down the final 13 men he faced. Wainwright had retired 10 straight through the seventh, but Pat Neshek replaced him to begin the eighth. Pinch-hitter Michael Morse greeted Neshek with a drive over the wall in left to tie the game and send the AT&T Park crowd into a frenzy. The Cardinals sent Michael Wacha to the mound in the 9th. Pablo Sandoval opened the inning with a single, and Joaquin Arias pinch-ran for him. With one out, Wacha lost all contact with the strike zone, throwing four consecutive balls to Brandon Belt and falling behind Travis Ishikawa 2-0. Ishikawa proceeded to etch his name next to Bobby Thomson's for hitting a home run that propelled the Giants to the World Series.

World Series

1905 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. PHILADELPHIA ATHLETICS
(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 1)

The Fall Classic returned after a year's hiatus and Hall of Famer Christy Mathewson made it his showcase, leading the Giants to their first World Championship with three shutout victories.

The 25-year-old right-hander, who had 32 victories in 1905 to register his third straight 30-win season, shut down the Philadelphia Athletics in New York's five-game victory. In the space of six days, he pitched three shutouts and permitted just 14 hits overall.

Mathewson even played a part in the Giants' offense during a 3-0 Game #1 victory in Philadelphia. He ignited a two-run rally in the fifth inning to break open a scoreless contest, then went on to shut out the Athletics on four hits.

New York skipper John McGraw, who boycotted the 1904 World Series vs. the Boston Red Sox, didn't have to rely solely on Mathewson to get him the title. He also had Red

Ames and Joe McGinnity, who won 22 and 21 games during the regular season, respectively, in his rotation.

Those two hurlers worked in Game #2, but McGinnity was ticketed with the defeat after surrendering three unearned runs in a 3-0 defeat.

Mathewson was staked to a 2-0, 1st inning lead in Game #3 and responded by blanking Philadelphia on four hits. First baseman Dan McGann was the Giants' big gun in the 9-0 romp, collecting two singles and a double while driving in four runs.

McGinnity rebounded from his Game #2 defeat to shut out Eddie Plank and Philadelphia in a classic 1-0 pitchers' duel in Game #4.

But it was Mathewson who got to finish off the job he started when he blanked the Athletics 2-0 in the fifth and deciding game.

1911 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. PHILADELPHIA ATHLETICS
(ATHLETICS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 2)

The "running" Giants, who established a league record with 347 stolen bases, persevered through the rebuilding of the Polo Grounds and posted 99 victories to capture the National League pennant. New York had to play its home games through early June at the park of the American League's New York Highlanders (later the Yankees) after the Polo Grounds burned to the ground in April.

However, New York's offense was limited to only four stolen bases in its six-game World Series defeat to the Philadelphia Athletics.

1905 Series hero Christy Mathewson still anchored John McGraw's pitching staff, going 26-13 during the regular season. The Hall of Famer got New York off to a great start vs. Philadelphia in Game #1 of the Fall Classic, tossing a six-hitter in the 2-1 triumph.

The Athletics rebounded to take Games #2 and #3 with Frank "Home Run" Baker clubbing dramatic home runs in both outings.

Then the rains came. The World Series was put on hold for six days due to Mother Nature.

When the Fall Classic resumed exactly a week after Game #3 had been played, Mathewson was outdueled by Chief Bender in a 4-2 decision that gave the Athletics a three-games-to-one advantage.

The Giants escaped the inevitable in Game #5 by scoring a 4-3 triumph in 10 innings before getting clobbered 13-2 in the series' sixth and final game.

(RED SOX WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 3 - 1 TIE)

The Giants, bolstered by lefty Rube Marquard's modern Major League record 19-game winning streak, lived a storybook 1912 campaign. That's until the 10th inning of the final game of the World Series, when usually-reliable center fielder Fred Snodgrass dropped a fly ball that opened the door for a two-run Boston rally that gave the Red Sox the title.

New York, which featured two 20-game winners in Marquard (26) and Christy Mathewson (23), posted 103 victories during the regular season and coasted to the pennant with a ten-game cushion.

Newcomer Jeff Tesreau, who won 17 games for the Giants, got the nod in Game #1 but suffered a 4-3 defeat to the Red Sox.

Despite a see-saw contest that saw four lead changes, Game #2 was a wash as it was called due to darkness, thus making the 1912 World Series an eight-game affair.

The Giants evened the score in Game #3, posting a 2-1 victory behind Marquard before the Red Sox got the better of Tesreau again in the fourth contest, this time by a 3-1 count.

Trailing two-games-to-one, the Giants posted 5-2 and 11-4 wins, respectively, in Games #6 and #7.

The Series came down to the 10th inning of the eighth and final game, as the Giants and Red Sox were deadlocked at 1-1 after nine innings. New York took a 2-1 lead in the top half of the 10th before the wheels fell off in the bottom half. Boston pinch hitter Clyde Engle opened the frame with a routine fly ball that Snodgrass was camped under and then dropped.

Boston eventually won the game 3-2 on a sacrifice fly in the 10th and ruined New York's magical season.

1913 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. PHILADELPHIA ATHLETICS

(ATHLETICS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 1)

New York won its third straight National League flag, but couldn't get over the hump in the World Series for the third consecutive year, falling four-games-to-one to the Philadelphia Athletics.

After winning the pennant with a twelve-game cushion, the Giants were beset by injuries during the Fall Classic. First baseman Fred Merkle was limited to 13 at-bats due to a bad leg. Center fielder Fred Snodgrass played in only two games and made three trips to the plate after suffering from a severe charley horse. Chief Meyers, the Giants' catcher, was shelved for the Series after suffering a fractured finger in practice preceding Game #2.

The Athletics jumped out to a 1-0 series advantage after shelling Rube Marquard for five runs and eight hits in five innings for a 6-4 victory in the opener.

Once again, Christy Mathewson provided New York with a fine postseason performance when he tossed a 3-0, 10-inning shutout in Game #2. He even drove in the game-winning run with his single in the 10th.

That was last highlight for the Giants as the Athletics rolled to the World Championship by posting victories in each of the last three contests.

Mathewson, pitching in what would be his final World Series, wound up with a 5-5 lifetime mark in the Fall Classic—he was 4-0 at one point—after splitting two decisions in 1913.

Skipper John McGraw was determined to restore his club to World Series glory. However, it would be another four years until the Giants would take the field again in the championship series.

1917 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. CHICAGO WHITE SOX

(WHITE SOX WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 2)

The Giants' run of bad luck continued in their fourth straight World Series defeat as they fell to the Chicago White Sox in six games.

In the sixth and deciding game, New York was in a scoreless deadlock with Chicago heading into the fourth inning. That's when the Giants' penchant for mistakes at inopportune times reared its ugly head once again. This time, Chicago second baseman Eddie Collins led off the frame with a grounder to New York third baseman Heinie Zimmerman, who made a two-base throwing error on the play. Joe Jackson's ensuing fly ball was dropped by right fielder Dave Robertson, positioning White Sox at the corners.

Chicago center fielder Happy Felsch then grounded back to the pitcher, Rube Benton, who saw Collins break from third and threw to Zimmerman in an attempt to get Collins hung up. Zimmerman ran Collins toward the plate, but the runner bounded past catcher Bill Rariden to make it a Zimmerman-Collins race to the plate. The White Sox second baseman won the footrace and distracted the Giants' defense enough to allow the baserunners to advance to second and third. Both Chicago runners would score on an ensuing base hit. That's all the White Sox would need to salt away the World Championship as they went on to win Game #6 by a 4-2 count.

Famed Olympian and footballer Jim Thorpe was on the 1917 Giants' club, but made only one "appearance" during the World Series in Game #5. He was slated to start in right field, but never took the field. The right-handed hitting Thorpe was removed for a left-handed pinch hitter after the White Sox lifted lefty hurler Reb Russell in favor of right-hander Eddie Cicotte.

1921 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 5 GAMES TO 3)

The Giants snapped a four-World Series losing streak when they outdueled the rival Yankees in a thrilling eight-game series. With both clubs playing their home contests at the Polo Grounds, it was the first Fall Classic to be played in its entirety at one stadium.

The National League champions were headlined by third baseman Frankie Frisch, right fielder Ross Youngs, first baseman George Kelly and left fielder Irish Meusel, while Babe Ruth and his 59 home runs were the sparkplug for the Yankees.

The American Leaguers jumped out to a two games-to-none lead after posting consecutive 3-0 victories. The Giants battled back from a 2-0, 2nd inning deficit in Game

#3 to post a 13-5 victory. John McGraw's club knotted the Fall Classic at two games apiece when it logged a 4-2 triumph in the fourth game, despite Ruth's first World Series home run.

Ruth, hobbled by knee and arm ailments, spirited the Yankees to a 3-1 victory in Game #5 when he started the go-ahead rally with a bunt base hit.

However, the Bambino couldn't continue and the Giants took advantage of the situation to run off three straight victories and give the franchise its first World Championship since 1905. Art Nehf got the National Leaguers over the top with his four-hit, 1-0 victory in Game #8.

1922 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 0 - 1 TIE)

The Giants, playing the second of four consecutive World Series, earned their berth by taking the National League pennant with a seven-game cushion.

John McGraw's club brought home its second straight title after defeating its fellow Polo Grounds tenants, the Yankees, in a four-victory sweep that actually took five games to complete due to a tie.

Third baseman Heinie Groh, who was acquired from Cincinnati the previous winter, led the Giants to a 3-2 triumph in the opener after logging a 3-for-3 showing. The National League entrant had been shut out by Joe Bush through seven innings, before it stormed back from a two-run deficit on Irish Meusel's two-run single and Ross Youngs' sacrifice fly.

Meusel got back in the act quickly in Game #2, drilling a three-run home run off Bob Shawkey in the first inning.

1923 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(YANKEES WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 2)

It was an all-New York World Series for the third straight year, but there were a few changes. First, the Yankees moved into their own ballpark, Yankee Stadium. Entrant and most importantly, the American League entrant ended the Giants' two-year reign as World Champions.

The man who proved to be a thorn in the side of the Yankees was a Giants' outfielder who would later become synonymous with the club from the Bronx—Casey Stengel.

The 34-year-old outfielder christened World Series play in Yankee Stadium when he lined a ninth inning Joe Bush offering into left-center field that got between the outfielders for an inside-the-park home run, breaking a 4-4 draw and giving the Giants a 5-4 triumph in Game #1.

The Yankees, who had not defeated the Giants in their last nine World Series meetings (eight defeats, one tie), finally broke through in Game #2 when Babe Ruth clubbed two home runs in the 4-2 victory.

However, the Yankees battled back to tie the contest at 3-3 and it was inexplicably called because of "darkness" after the 10th inning by umpire George Hildebrand, despite at least a half-hour of daylight remaining.

Jack Scott, who went 8-2 in just 17 games for the Giants, tossed a four-hitter at the Yankees in Game #3 and led the National Leaguers to a 3-0 victory.

The Giants managed to post 4-3 and 5-3 victories in the fourth and fifth games, respectively, to advance to their second straight title. It also helped that the Giants' pitchers shut down Babe Ruth over the final three outings, holding him 0-for-9.

The 1922 World Championship would prove to be the third and final one in the illustrious career of the Giants' winningest skipper, John McGraw.

When the Series returned to Yankee Stadium for Game #3, Stengel shared the stage with pitcher Art Nehf. The outfielder broke open a scoreless duel with a home run into the right field stands. Nehf finished off the American Leaguers after allowing five singles and a double in the 1-0 win.

That was all she wrote for the Giants as the Yankees rattled off three consecutive victories to win their first World Championship. The American Leaguers coasted to 8-4 and 8-1 victories in Games #4 and #5, respectively.

In the sixth and final contest, Ruth got the Yanks off to a great start with his first inning, upper deck blast. But the A.L. entrant would need a five-run eighth inning to post the 6-4 decider.

1924 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. WASHINGTON SENATORS

(SENATORS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 3)

The Giants made their fourth straight appearance in the Fall Classic, but they faced someone other than the Yankees for the first time during that span when they squared off with the Washington Senators.

New York was the National League representative in the World Series for the eighth time in 14 years, but it had to scramble to win the flag by one-and-a-half games over Brooklyn.

With the World Series tied at three games apiece, honored legacies of Merkle, Snodgrass and Zimmerman returned to longtime Giants' fans. Despite making three errors in the final contest, New York was done in twice by the infield at Washington's Griffith Stadium.

New York took a 3-1 advantage into the eighth inning of that final contest. With two outs and the bases-loaded, Senators' second baseman/manager Bucky Harris hit a grounder that skipped over the head of 18-year-old third baseman Freddie Lindstrom. Two runs scored on the bad-hop single to tie the game.

The contest remained deadlocked until the bottom of the 12th inning, when Giants' catcher Hank Gowdy tripped over his mask and dropped a Muddy Ruel pop. The Washington catcher responded with a double down the third base line. One batter later with runners on first and second, center fielder Earl McNeely grounded to third. But once again, the ball skipped over Lindstrom's head and Ruel came around to score the winning tally.

This would prove to be the final World Series appearance for Giants manager John McGraw. Although he owned a 3-6 lifetime mark in the Fall Classic, only one other manager appeared in more series – Casey Stengel with 10 trips.

1933 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. WASHINGTON SENATORS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 1)

New York, in its first full season under new manager Bill Terry, won the National League pennant on the strong pitching of Carl Hubbell and Hal Schumacher.

The Giants entered the World Series as the underdog to the high-powered offense of the Washington Senators. However, the New Yorkers tacked up a 1.53 ERA (8er, 47.0ip) en route to their four games-to-one series victory.

Hubbell and Schumacher, who had combined for 17 shut-outs during the regular season, were selected to start the first two contests vs. the Senators.

Hubbell, the second winningest pitcher in Giants history, struck out 10 and didn't allow an earned run in the 4-2 victory. Outfielder Mel Ott accounted for three of New York's four runs, with his two-run home run and RBI single. Schumacher followed Hubbell's lead and allowed only a solo home run in the Giants' 6-1 Game #2 victory.

The good pitching turned on the Giants in Game #3 as Washington's Earl Whitehill tossed a five-hit shutout to give the Senators a 4-0 triumph.

Hubbell, who led the National League with 23 wins, carried a 1-1 game into the 10th inning in Game #4 when the Giants edged ahead on third baseman Travis Jackson's bunt single, a sacrifice and shortstop Blondy Ryan's single. King Carl escaped a one-out, bases-loaded jam in the bottom half of the inning with a double play to preserve New York's 2-1 victory.

Schumacher helped himself offensively in the decisive Game #5 with his two-run single in the second inning. Then 43-year-old reliever Dolph Luque took over a 3-3 game and worked the final four-and-one-third innings to get the Giants in position to win. Ott took care of the offense when he drilled a solo blast into the center field stands at Griffith Stadium in the top of the 10th inning to give New York a 4-3 victory.

1936 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(YANKEES WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 2)

The Giants locked horns with their cross-town rivals, the Yankees, in the Fall Classic for the fifth time after winning the National League flag by a five-game margin.

The Yankees, who were without Babe Ruth but had Joe DiMaggio, captured the Series in six games to start a run that saw them win 16 of the next 27 World Championships.

The National Leaguers rode the arm of Hall of Famer Carl Hubbell to their 11th World Series. The 33-year-old left-hander won his last 16 decisions of the regular season to finish with a 26-6 ledger that included a 2.31 ERA.

King Carl was on the mound for the Giants in Game #1 and got the National Leaguers a 6-1 victory after allowing just seven hits, including a third inning home run by George Selkirk. Trailing 1-0 in the fifth inning, shortstop Dick Bartell launched a solo blast of his own before the Giants added another run in the sixth and four more in the eighth.

The National Leaguers' victory in Game #1 snapped a 12-game winning streak owned by the Yankees in World Series action.

The Yankees went on to win each of the next three games, outscoring the Giants by a cumulative 25-7 count.

Staving off elimination, the Giants scored a 5-4, 10-inning victory in Game #5. Manager Bill Terry, playing in the next-to-last game of his playing career, drove in the game-winner with a sacrifice fly.

The American Leaguers finished off the Polo Grounds tenants in Game #6 as they pounded out 17 hits en route to their series-clinching 13-5 victory.

1937 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(YANKEES WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 1)

The two New York teams squared off once again in the Fall Classic, but the Yankees' offensive firepower proved to be too much for the Giants as the American League entrants took home the title in a five-game series.

The Giants, who boasted two 20-game winners in Carl Hubbell and rookie Cliff Melton, only had one big bat to combat the Yankee arsenal. Mel Ott clubbed 31 home runs and drove in 95 runs.

However, that was no match for the Yankees' lineup that had five different 100-RBI men in Lou Gehrig, Joe DiMaggio, Tony Lazzeri, Bill Dickey and George Selkirk.

Hubbell was once again the Giants' Game #1 starter and was coasting along with a 1-0 lead into the bottom of the sixth. Then the Yankees produced one of their vaunted big-run innings, posting a six-run frame. The American Leaguers went on to post the 8-1 victory.

It was much of the same in Games #2 and #3 as the Yankees posted 8-1 and 5-1 triumphs, respectively.

The Giants turned the tables in Game #4 as they plated six runs in the second inning, with the big blows coming from center fielder Hank Leiber. He opened the frame with a single and scored before capping off the rally with a two-run single. The National Leaguers had Hubbell on the hill and he shut down the Yankees on six hits for the 7-3 victory.

The Yankees captured their second straight title with a 4-2 win in the fifth contest.

1951 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES (YANKEES WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 2)

The 1951 World Series was overshadowed by an event that took place the day before it began – “The Shot Heard ‘Round the World.”

Bobby Thomson's three-run, ninth-inning homer off the Dodgers' Ralph Branca in the National League-deciding playoff game put an exclamation on one of the greatest stretch drives in the history of baseball.

Manager Leo Durocher's club trailed Brooklyn by 13-and-a-half games on Aug. 11. Then the Giants rattled off 16-straight victories and won 37 of their last 44 regular-season games to force a best-of-three playoff series with the Dodgers for the National League pennant.

The momentum seemed to carry over to the next day for the opener of the World Series as Monte Irvin stole home in the first inning to register the first swipe of home since the Yankees' Bob Meusel did it in 1928. The Giants' left fielder finished the contest 4-for-5 and spearheaded a 5-1 victory.

Irvin would once again lead the National Leaguers' offense in Game #2, but his three hits weren't enough to overcome the Yankees in a 3-1 defeat.

Shortstop Eddie Stanky inspired a five-run, fifth-inning rally in Game #3 when he kicked the ball out of Phil Rizzuto's glove on a failed stolen base attempt and scrambled to third. The Giants would move on to a 6-2 triumph at the Polo Grounds.

Despite holding a two-games-to-one series lead, the Giants couldn't finish off the Yankees as the American Leaguers ran off three straight victories to claim the title.

1954 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. CLEVELAND INDIANS (GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 0)

Willie Mays got the National League champion Giants off to a great start in the 1954 World Series when he made perhaps the greatest defensive play in baseball history.

With New York and Cleveland tied 2-2 in the eighth inning of Game #1 at the Polo Grounds and two Indian runners on base, the Hall of Fame center fielder made an over-the-shoulder catch of a 460-foot smash off the bat of the Indians' Vic Wertz.

The Giants went on to win 5-2 when pinch-hitter Dusty Rhodes hit a three-run, 10th-inning home run off Indians' starter Bob Lemon. Ironically, the game-winning clout went only 260 feet.

The Giants would go on to sweep the Indians in four games to register their last World Championship in an upset over the highly-touted American League champs.

Rhodes, who hit .341 in part-time duty and as a pinch-hitter deluxe during the regular season, also delivered the game-winning hits in both Games #2 and #3. However, his services weren't needed in the fourth and final contest as New York jumped out to a 7-0 advantage and coasted to the 7-4 championship-clinching victory.

New York was the surprise National League champion. After finishing fifth in 1953, the Giants were led by Mays, who won the N.L. batting title with a .345 mark that included 41 home runs and 110 RBI. The center fielder had returned to the Giants after missing the 1953 campaign due to military service.

Johnny Antonelli, another newcomer who was acquired from Milwaukee in exchange for Bobby Thomson in the off-season, won 21 games to help New York to the N.L. flag.

1962 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(YANKEES WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 3)

A matter of inches was the difference between the Giants bringing a World Championship to San Francisco for the first time or losing to the New York Yankees in the Fall Classic for the fifth time.

With the Giants trailing 1-0 with two outs and runners on second and third in the bottom of the ninth inning of Game #7, San Francisco's clean-up hitter Willie McCovey stepped in to face Ralph Terry. The Giants' Hall of Famer lined a one-ball, one-strike pitch toward right field, but Yankees' second baseman Bobby Richardson moved slightly to his left and threw up his glove to register the final out and the Yankees' 20th World Series crown.

San Francisco captured the National League flag by posting a late-season rally to catch Los Angeles and force a three-game playoff, which the Giants won 2-1.

The Giants carried a 2-2 tie into the seventh inning of Game #1 at Candlestick Park until Clete Boyer drilled a solo home run to spur the Yankees onto a 6-2 triumph.

Jack Sanford fired a three-hit shutout to even the Series at one-game apiece in San Francisco's 2-0 Game #2 victory. In a seesaw World Series, the Yankees would log a 3-2 Game #3 win before Giants' second baseman Chuck Hiller drilled a grand slam in the seventh inning of the fourth game to propel San Francisco to a 7-3 victory. It was the first bases-loaded clout by a National League player in World Series history.

Despite Sanford's 10-strikeout effort in seven-and-a-third innings, the Yankees posted a 5-3 win in Game #5.

As the Series moved back to San Francisco, there was a five-day delay due to a travel day and three rainouts. Once play resumed, Billy Pierce pitched a three-hitter and Orlando Cepeda posted three hits and two RBI to force a seventh game with a 5-2 Game #6 win.

1989 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. OAKLAND ATHLETICS

(ATHLETICS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 0)

The Bay Bridge Series, which pitted the Giants against their local rival, the Oakland Athletics, will always be remembered more for the Loma Prieta earthquake than the four-game brooming by the American Leaguers.

That might be a good thing for the Giants, as they were outclassed in almost every phase of the game by the Athletics, as was evidenced by the 32-14 cumulative run total.

A's Game #1 starter Dave Stewart set the tone for this Fall Classic when he hurled a five-hit shutout at the Giants. He was backed by solo home runs from Dave Parker and Walt Weiss off San Francisco starter Scott Garrelts.

In much the same fashion, Oakland rolled to a 5-1 victory in Game #2 behind the pitching of Mike Moore.

Then it happened. Something that would make this four-game Series sweep stand out in history. At 5:04 p.m. on Oct. 17, an earthquake with a 7.1-Richter scale reading rocked the Bay Area and the 60,000 fans at Candlestick Park. With reports of damage throughout the Bay Area, the ballpark was evacuated and the game was cancelled.

Finally, 10 days later, the Athletics picked up where they had left off, as they drilled five home runs on their way to a 13-7 rout in the rescheduled Game #3. The five-homer effort, two by Dave Henderson along with single clouts from Jose Canseco, Carney Lansford and Tony Phillips, tied a Series record set by the 1928 Yankees.

The A's never trailed in the series as Rickey Henderson opened Game #4 with a home run off Giants' starter Don Robinson. The Giants would close it to 8-6 in the seventh, but that was as close they would get in the 9-6 finale.

2002 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. ANAHEIM ANGELS

(ANGELS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 3)

In the first World Series between two Wild Card teams, the Giants and Anaheim Angels lived up to the moniker, combining to set numerous offensive records in a memorable seven-game Fall Classic.

Anaheim emerged from the fireworks with its first World Championship in franchise history, while San Francisco was saddled with heartbreak after seeing a title slip away just five outs from the pinnacle.

The clubs split the first two contests in Anaheim, with Barry Bonds grabbing the spotlight in his first appearance on the World Series stage. San Francisco's left fielder clubbed a solo homer in his first at-bat to spark a 4-3 Giants win in Game #1, then connected for a mammoth ninth-inning shot in Game #2. Not to be outdone, the Angels' Tim Salmon homered twice as Anaheim won an 11-10 slugfest to even the series.

When the scene shifted north, the Angels seemed to take control with a convincing 10-4 win in Game #3. As they had all season, the Giants battled back in Game #4, rallying from a 3-0 deficit to earn a 4-3 victory on David Bell's two-out, RBI-single in the eighth inning.

Game #5 belonged to San Francisco, as the home club delighted the 42,713 fans at Pacific Bell Park with a 16-4 rout. Jeff Kent tied Giants World Series records with four runs, two homers and four RBI, Rich Aurilia drove in three runs to establish a franchise playoff mark with 17 RBI overall, and J.T. Snow had two of his series-high 11 hits.

The Giants were eight outs from their first World Series title since 1954, as Shawon Dunston's two-run homer, Bonds' record eighth post season clout (fourth of Series), and Kent's RBI-single propelled SF to a 5-0 lead in Game #6. But the ultimate prize was wrested away as Scott Spezio's three-run, seventh-inning homer and series MVP Troy Glaus' two-run, eighth-inning double highlighted Anaheim's rally to a 6-5 victory.

San Francisco scored first in Game #7, but ultimately could not overcome the pitching of John Lackey and the bat of Garret Anderson, who delivered the deciding three-run, third-inning double in Anaheim's 4-1 triumph.

2010 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. TEXAS RANGERS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 1)

It was a different story for the San Francisco Giants during the World Series as the club was bolstered by their offense and pitching to win their sixth World Championship and first since they moved from New York to San Francisco in 1958 to capture the 106th Fall Classic, 4 games to 1 over the Texas Rangers. It marked the club's first World Series win since 1954, ending the Majors' 3rd-longest drought without a Championship at that time, behind the Cubs (102 years) and Indians (62 years) as the top 2 teams at the time.

The Giants' bats were on fire as they battered Cliff Lee and the Rangers' bullpen with an 11-7 victory in the opening game of the 2010 World Series. What was originally penned as a pitchers' duel between Lee and Tim Lincecum turned out to be an offensive outburst by both teams. Freddy Sanchez finished with four of the Giants' 14 hits as Aubrey Huff went 3-for-4 with an RBI and Juan Uribe capped a 6-run fifth inning with a 3-run home run which set off the fog horn and blasts from water cannons out in right field. San Francisco took a commanding two game lead after Matt Cain held the Rangers' bats at bay in a 9-0 shutout in Game #2. Cain tossed 7.2-scoreless frames to extend his postseason scoreless innings total to 21.1 frames, while Edgar Renteria led the offense as he homered and drove in three runs.

The only mishap for the Giants was during Game #3 as they fell to the Rangers 4-2 at Texas. However, the team resorted back to their pitching heavy strategy in Game #4 as rookie Madison Bumgarner took to the mound and fired off 8.0-shutout innings as the Giants shut out the Rangers 4-0 on Halloween night. Huff (two-run home run) and Buster Posey (solo home run) supplied the club with enough offense as the team was one game away from winning their first Championship in over 54 years.

Lincecum and World Series MVP Renteria helped deliver the title in Game #5 as Lincecum outdueled Cliff Lee in a game that was scoreless until Renteria hit a three-run home run with two outs in the seventh inning. Lincecum defeated Lee for the second time in a week, allowing just three hits over 8.0 innings while recording 10 strikeouts. The game was scoreless until Cody Ross and Juan Uribe both singled to open the seventh inning before Huff laid down the first sacrifice bunt of his career to move the runners. Renteria stepped to the plate and sent a 2-0 pitch over the left-center field wall silencing a sold out crowd of 52,045. Brian Wilson was summoned for the ninth and retired Josh Hamilton on a called 3rd strike, getting Vladimir Guerrero on a grounder to shortstop and then struck out Nelson Cruz to cap the best season in San Francisco Giants history.

2012 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. DETROIT TIGERS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 0)

Playing in the World Series for the 19th time in franchise history and the fifth time since moving to San Francisco in 1958, the Giants were set to face the Detroit Tigers, the first time these two storied franchises had ever met in a postseason series.

Pablo Sandoval and Barry Zito both shined for the Giants in Game #1 as Sandoval hit three home runs, and joined Reggie Jackson, Babe Ruth and Albert Pujols as the only players to accomplish that in the Fall Classic, and Zito outdueled Justin Verlander, the reigning Cy Young winner, as the Giants won 8-3. Sandoval homered in his first three at-bats, hitting a solo shot in the first inning, a two-run blast in the third that set off the fog horns and capped it with yet another solo shot to center that sent the festive AT&T Park crowd into a frenzy.

In Game #2, Madison Bumgarner tossed 7.0-scoreless innings, then the Giants took advantage of a bunt that stayed fair to scratch out the go-ahead run in a 2-0 win for a 2-0 advantage in the Series.

The Giants took a commanding 3-0 lead in the Fall Classic with a 2-0 win on a chilly night in Detroit in Game #3. SF won their franchise-record sixth straight postseason game as Ryan Vogelsong blanked the Tigers for 5.2 innings and Gregor Blanco hit an RBI triple and Brandon Crawford drove him home with a single in the second inning. The Giants became the eighth team to post consecutive World Series shutouts and the first to accomplish the feat since the 1966 Baltimore Orioles.

Nearly knocked out in the playoffs time and time again, the Giants completed a four game sweep of the Tigers to win their second title in three seasons. Marco Scutaro's go-ahead single with two outs in the 10th inning lifted the Giants to a 4-3, 10-inning victory. Sergio Romo got Triple Crown winner Miguel Cabrera to look at strike three for the final out and the Giants finished the month of October with seven straight wins and their seventh World Series championship.

2014 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS VS. KANSAS CITY ROYALS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 3)

Backed by the eventual World Series MVP Madison Bumgarner, the Giants beat the Kansas City Royals in 7 games to capture their third championship in five years.

Kansas City hadn't lost in this postseason before the Series, but the Giants ended that streak at eight games with a 7-1 win in Game #1. SF scored three times in the first inning off James Shields; Pablo Sandoval hit an RBI double and Hunter Pence crushed a two-run homer to right-center. Bumgarner carried a shutout into the seventh before Salvador Perez homered, ending Bumgarner's World Series scoreless-innings streak at 21 and his road postseason scoreless-innings streak at 32.2. His three-hit, seven-inning performance gave the Giants the jump in the Series.

Gregor Blanco opened Game #2 by jumping on a 3-2 pitch from Yordano Ventura and jolting it over the wall in right. That lead was short-lived as the Royals scored single runs in the first and second innings off Jake Peavy. The game was 2-2 in the sixth when the Royals put a five-spot on the board and finished it off with a 7-2 win.

Tim Hudson, made his first World Series appearance in Game #3 and retired 12 in a row in one stretch – but took the loss. The Royals scratched out a run in the first and added two in the sixth, the final run scoring on Eric Hosmer's single off Javier Lopez. Michael Morse's pinch-hit RBI double keyed the Giants' two-run sixth, but that would be the extent of SF's offense. Kansas City relievers Kelvin Herrera, Brandon Finnegan, Wade Davis and Greg Holland combined for four hitless innings.

Ineffective pitching by Ryan Vogelsong and bad defense by the Giants allowed the Royals to score four two-out runs in the third to grab a 4-1 edge in Game #4. However, another three shutout innings from Yusmeiro Petit, enabled the Giants to mount their comeback. The Giants scored one in the third and two in the fifth to tie the game. Joe Panik's two-run double highlighted a four-run seventh, and helped the Giants secure an 11-4 win.

The Giants' final home game of the postseason was highlighted by Bumgarner, who threw another four-hit shutout to become the Giants' first pitcher since 1962 to throw a complete game (Billy Pierce) and shutout (Jack Sanford) in the World Series.

In Game #6, the Royals scored seven runs in the second inning to put the game away early. Yordano Ventura held the Giants to three hits in seven innings, setting up Game 7.

Sandoval went 3-for-3 and scored twice, Morse drove in two runs and Jeremy Affeldt earned the win with 2.1 innings of shutout relief. However, it was Bumgarner who stole the show for the Giants and helped the team win its eighth championship. On just two days' rest, he entered the game in the fifth inning. After allowing a single to Omar Infante, the first batter he faced, Bumgarner retired the next 14 hitters. With two outs in the ninth, Alex Gordon lifted a single into left-center that Blanco misplayed. Gordon wound up at third, 90 feet from tying the game. On a 2-2 pitch, Bumgarner got Salvador Perez on a foul pop clutched by Sandoval, who then collapsed in joy. Bumgarner, who had been the NLCS MVP, was the only choice for Series MVP. He went 2-0 with a save and gave up all of one run and nine hits in 21 innings.

ORACLE PARK

Opening Date: April 11, 2000

Design: Classic urban ballpark with an old-time feel and all the amenities of modern ballparks. Inspired by Wrigley Field and Fenway Park and modeled after Oriole Park at Camden Yards, Jacobs Field and Coors Field.

Construction: Commenced on December 11, 1997. Construction lasted 28 months, with Opening Day on April 11, 2000.

Name Change: Ballpark originally opened as Pacific Bell Park; name was changed to SBC Park on January 1, 2004; changed to AT&T Park on March 1, 2006 and then the name was changed to Oracle Park on January 10, 2019.

Financing: Oracle Park, the first privately financed Major League ballpark to be built in 38 years, cost $357 million. The financing plan included $172 million from naming rights, other sponsorships, pouring rights, concession rights and the selling of charter seats; a $170 million bank loan; and $15 million in tax increment financing from the City's Redevelopment Agency.

LEED Certification: In 2019, Oracle Park achieved LEED Platinum Certification for Existing Building Operations and Management, making Oracle Park the first Major League Baseball stadium to achieve this honor. The certification was achieved through numerous greening and sustainability programs the park has implemented and refined throughout the years since its first LEED Silver Certification in 2010.

Green Glove: Major League Baseball named the San Francisco Giants as recipient of the 2018 Green Glove Award, which recognizes the MLB Club with the highest waste diversion rate, after diverting 94 percent of all waste at Oracle Park from local landfills. The Giants, who collected nine consecutive awards between 2008 and 2016, secured its 10th Green Glove Award in 11 seasons in 2018.

Location: The 13-acre site is bounded by King, Second and Third Streets, and by the China Basin Channel. The site is owned by the Port of San Francisco and is leased to the Giants at fair market value.

Field Measurements:

- Left Foul Line: 339 feet;
- Right Foul Line: 309 feet;
- Center Field: 399 feet;
- Left-center Field Alley: 382 feet;
- Right-center Field Alley: 421 feet

Stadium Operator: San Francisco Giants

Seating Capacity: 41,915

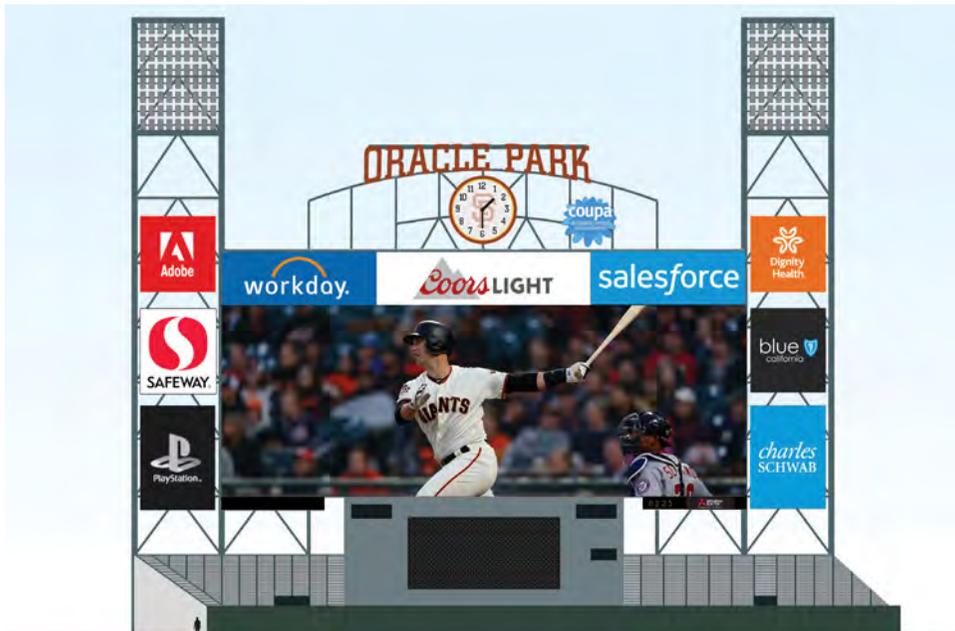

Surface: Overseeded Bermuda grass with a DuraEdge infield and crushed brick warning track.

Outfield Fences: 8 feet high from left field to center with 19-foot span that reaches 11 feet high at its peak in left field; 25 feet high in right field.

Distance from Stands to Home Plate: 48 feet from first row of seats behind home plate.

Lighting: In 2017, in partnership with PG&E, the ballpark upgraded more than 556 traditional light bulbs to new energy efficient LED lights. The switch resulted in an energy savings of 290,466 kilowatt hours during the regular baseball season, which is the same amount of energy it takes to power 30 homes.

Parking: Approximately 3,000 parking spaces in Giants lots.

A rendering of the new Mitsubishi Electronic Diamond Vision at Oracle Park

During the 2018-2019 offseason, the Giants embarked on a capital improvement project that will greatly enhance the fan experience at Oracle Park with the installation of a brand new videoboard in center field.

The $10 million project represents the largest single capital improvement the Giants have undertaken at the ballpark since it opened in 2000. It will replace the old Mitsubishi Diamond Vision board (fifth-smallest and second-oldest in the Majors) with the third-largest board in the Majors behind Cleveland and Seattle (and biggest in any sports venue in the state of California).

Fans will notice the difference as soon as they enter Oracle Park as the new board, also produced by Mitsubishi, will fill the entire width between the two outfield light standards. The new display will be 50% wider and more than twice as high as its predecessor

All told, the new board will cover 10,700 square feet, which is more than three times the surface area of the outgoing board. It will feature more pixels and less space between them, making the image much bolder.

In addition to higher-quality video, the board will now provide ample room to display an array of additional information never before available to fans in the ballpark. This will include more in-depth and advanced stats, such as launch angle, exit velocity and home run distance, along with split stats based on fielder shifts, pitch types and much more.

Giants Statue Dedications

Since the opening of Oracle Park in 2000, the San Francisco Giants have dedicated five statues of their greatest players donning a Giants uniform. Sculptures of Hall of Famers Willie Mays, Willie McCovey, Juan Marichal, Orlando Cepeda and Gaylord Perry were created by well-known American sculptor William Behrends and have been placed outside of Oracle Park for everyone to enjoy.

Behrends' portrait sculptures have been widely praised for their likeness, quality of detail and sensitive evocation of character. Unlike many other sculptors, Mr. Behrends was personally involved in every phase of the creation of the five bronze sculptures, including research, molding and bronzing.

Behrends divides his time between home and studio in Tyron, North Carolina, bronze foundries in Colorado and New York and a marble studio in Pietrasanta, Italy. He studied architecture at North Carolina State University and fine arts and sculpture at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, including anatomy training at the medical school. He has subsequently studied and worked in Italy, principally with Swietlan Kraczyzna and Enzo Pasquini. He is the twice recipient of the Richard Portrait Prize by the National Sculpture Society and is a fellow board member of the National Sculpture Society.

March 31, 2000 - The Giants unveiled a nine-foot bronze sculpture of Hall of Fame outfielder Willie Mays, located at the corner of Third and King Streets. The statue depicts Mays in the graceful conclusion of his powerful swing. The sculpture was developed over a 12-month period.

May 4, 2003 - A nine-foot tall bronze statue of Giants Hall of Fame first baseman Willie McCovey was unveiled. The statue is prominently featured at the northeast portion of Oracle Park, which was officially designated as McCovey Point by the San Francisco Port Commission. The statue of Willie McCovey pays tribute to a man who exemplifies the spirit and leadership shown by many of those who have worn the Giants uniform.

May 21, 2005 – Former Giants great and Hall of Fame pitcher Juan Marichal had his statue dedicated in 2005. The nine-foot bronze statue is located at Oracle Park's Lefty O'Doul Plaza and features Marichal's famous high-leg kick.

September 6, 2008 – The Giants dedicated a bronze statue in honor of Hall of Fame first baseman Orlando Cepeda. The statue, which stands at nine feet tall on a five foot base, is located at the Second Street entrance to Oracle Park. The sculpture portrays a youthful and smiling Cepeda.

August 13, 2016 – The Giants dedicated a bronze statue in honor of Hall of Fame pitcher Gaylord Perry. The statue, which stands at nine feet tall on a five foot base, is located at the Second and King Streets entrance to Oracle Park. The sculpture portrays Perry's intensity and focus on the mound at the point of his follow through.

SPLASH HIT NOTES:

- Of the 78 home runs hit into the Bay by Giants players; 35 of those were by Barry Bonds. The only Giants other than Bonds to have reached the Cove more than once are Pablo Sandoval and Brandon Belt with eight each, Denard Span with five, and six players with two each: Felipe Crespo, Michael Tucker, Ryan Klesko, Aubrey Huff, Andres Torres and Brandon Crawford.
- Carlos Beltran's "splash hit" on September 14, 2011 marked his 300th career home run.
- Ryan Klesko is the only player to have splash hits as both a Giant and as an opposing player.
- Tyler Colvin's "splash hit" on May 12, 2014 was also his first hit for the Giants and came on his first at-bat at Oracle Park since joining the team.
- No right-handed hitter has ever hit an opposite field home run into McCovey Cove.
- Of visiting players who have hit the cove, Carlos Delgado and Adam LaRoche have performed the feat the most, doing it three times each.
- David Ortiz, Mitch Moreland, Adam Dunn and Rougned Odor are the only American League players to hit the cove.

The Giants ranked #3 in average per date in 2017, #4 in 2016, #3 in 2015, #4 in 2014, #3 in 2013, and they were #4 in average per date in 2012.
- The Giants' National League record sellout streak ended on July 17, 2017. 530 consecutive regular season dates, plus 25 dates in the post-season, for a total of 555, were sold out. It is the second longest sellout streak in MLB history. The streak began with the last three regular season dates in 2010, starting on October 1, continued through the next six full seasons, through the game of July 9, 2017.
- The old National League sellout streak record was 257 regular season games, plus 16 in the post season, for a total of 273, by Philadelphia from 2009 to August, 2012. Boston holds the MLB record of 820 straight sellouts (794 regular season, 26 post-season) from 2003 through Opening Day 2013.
- Oracle Park (cost-$357 million) was the first privately financed MLB park since Dodger Stadium opened in 1962.
- Oracle Park opened on April 11, 2000. Its original name was Pacific Bell Park. The name was changed to SBC Park on January 1, 2004, changed to AT&T Park on March 1, 2006, and then changed to Oracle Park on January 10, 2019.
- 1,007 of the 1,539 (65.4%) regular season dates at Oracle Park have been sellouts.
- 1,522 of the 1,539 (98.9%) regular season dates have attracted at least 30,000.
- Of all teams that have moved into a new ballpark in the last 45 years, the Giants are the only team whose attendance has been higher every single year in their current park, than it ever was in their former park. Kansas City has drawn better at Kauffman Stadium each year than they ever did at Municipal Stadium. But the Royals only played four seasons (1969-1972) at Municipal Stadium before Kauffman Stadium opened in 1973.
- In 2015, the Giants surpassed 50 million in attendance at Oracle Park, reaching this level faster than at any ballpark in Major League history. This total was achieved in the park's 16th season, and on the 1,261st regular season date played there. The old record was held by Baltimore, who reached 50 million at Oriole Park at Camden Yards in 1,311 dates, and in that park's 17th season. San Francisco, Baltimore, Colorado, and Toronto are the only teams to reach 50 million in attendance at a ballpark in less than 1,500 regular season dates.
- Largest regular season crowd at Oracle Park was 43,503 vs. the Yankees on June 24, 2007. The biggest post-season crowd was 44,046 on October 8, 2010 for a National League Division Series game with Atlanta.
- The smallest crowd was 23,934 on May 11, 2009 vs. Washington. The only games that drew less than 30,000 at Oracle Park have been in 2009 (12 dates) and in 2010 (five dates).
- Highest season attendance at Oracle Park is 3,387,303 (41,819 per date - all sellouts) in 2011.
- Lowest total Oracle Park attendance is 2,862,111 (35,335 per date) in 2009. That Oracle Park low total is 255,757 higher than the best season attendance total at Candlestick Park, which was 2,606,354 in 1993.
- Attendance has topped three million in 17 of the 19 years at Oracle Park, including eight straight years from 2000 through 2007, and also in nine straight years from 2010 through 2018. The only teams with an equal or longer streak of three million seasons are the Dodgers (1996-2010), Yankees (2000-2018), Angels (2003-2018), Cardinals (2004-2018) and Rockies (1993-2001).
- The Giants have topped three million in 17 seasons. The only teams to draw three million more often than the Giants are the Dodgers (32 times), the Cardinals (22), and the Yankees (20). All these teams play in ballparks with a higher capacity than Oracle Park.
- The Giants have outdrawn the A's in 34 of the 51 years these teams have shared the Bay Area, including every year starting in 1993.

Jon Miller

Jon Miller, honored by the National Baseball Hall of Fame as the 2010 Ford C. Frick award winner for baseball broadcasting excellence, the "Voice of the Giants", enters his 23rd season in the broadcast booth on KNBR Radio, NBC Bay Area and NBC Sports Bay Area. Miller was thrilled to broadcast his 16th World Series in 2014 as the Giants won it all for the third time in five years. Miller was inducted into the National Radio Hall of Fame in 2014. In 1990 when ESPN TV first began its coverage of Major League Baseball, Miller was chosen as the first play-by-play commentator on the award-winning ESPN Sunday Night Baseball game of the week broadcast. Miller and his Hall of Fame partner, Joe Morgan, teamed up on the prime time telecast for 21 seasons. During his tenure at ESPN, he was nominated twice for a national Emmy Award, and broadcast 13 consecutive World Series on ESPN Radio. He has broadcast 16 World Series overall. He was also nominated six times for an "ACE" award, emblematic of cable television excellence, and won the award in 1991 - the first ESPN play-by-play announcer to win the award, and 1996. Miller was named National Sportscaster of the Year by the American Sportscasters Association (ASA) in 1998. That same year, Miller was inducted into the Hall of Fame of the National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association of America (NSSAA). In 2018, Miller received a Northern California Emmy Award, the fourth local Emmy for his Giants television work. Prior to his work on ESPN, Miller broadcast an occasional game on NBC-TV with either Tony Kubek or Joe Garagiola. Miller spent 14 years with the Baltimore Orioles before coming to the Giants. Prior to joining Baltimore in 1983, the talented broadcaster spent two seasons with the Texas Rangers (1978-79) and three seasons with the Boston Red Sox (1980-82). Miller got his first baseball play-by-play job in 1974 at age 22 calling radio and TV for that year's World Series Champion Oakland Athletics. The Bay Area native has also broadcast NHL hockey, NBA basketball and championship soccer games on national television in his distinguished career. In 2018, Miller was inducted into the College of San Mateo (CA) Hall of Fame. Miller began his broadcasting career as a student at CSM and broadcast baseball, football and basketball games on KCSM, the college's radio and TV stations. Jon and his wife, Janine, reside in Moss Beach. They are parents to three daughters, Misha, Holly (married to Paul Gallagher) and Emilee, and a son, Alexander.

Duane Kuiper

Duane Kuiper, an 11-time Emmy award-winning broadcaster, begins his 35th season as a Major League announcer. He embarks on his 26th consecutive year in the NBC Sports Bay Area, NBC Bay Area and KNBR Radio broadcast booths in 2019. Kuiper was one of 10 finalists for the 2014 Ford C. Frick Award for baseball broadcasting excellence. Kuiper emerged as one of the top three fan selections in online voting. The former 11-year big league infielder has received 11 local Emmy awards for his distinguished broadcasting career: On-Camera talent (7); Sports Live Broadcast (2); and Sporting Event/Game-Live (2). He provided commentary for the Giants from 1987-92 and served a one-year stint with the expansion Colorado Rockies in 1993. The former infielder spent the last four years of his career with the Giants, following seven campaigns with the Cleveland Indians. In 2004 he was voted by Cleveland fans as one of the 100 greatest players in Tribe history. After retiring in 1985, Kuiper provided commentary on Giants radio and TV broadcasts through the end of that season, and had his own radio show on KNBR from 1982-85. Kuiper's scorecards from Barry Bonds' historic 756th home run game, Randy Johnson's 300th career victory, Matt Cain's perfect game in 2012 and the scorecard from Gaylord Perry Day (August 13, 2016 - BAL @ SF) are displayed at the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown. The Wisconsin native serves as a board member of the Giants Community Fund and is a member of the Junior Giants Committee and the Chair of the Junior Giants Glove Drive. A graduate of Southern Illinois University in Carbondale, IL, Kuiper and his wife, Michelle, reside in Danville. They are parents to two children, Cole (married to Rachel Jensen) and Dannon (married to Zach Rease).

Mike Krukow

Mike Krukow enters his 29th season in the television booth, and his 25th full season on the radio side. A 12-time Emmy award winner, Krukow is the broadcast team's color analyst on NBC Sports Bay Area and NBC Bay Area telecasts, and on KNBR Radio broadcasts. Krukow was one of eight finalists for the 2017 Ford C. Frick Award for baseball broadcasting excellence. He was named California's 2015 and 2017 Sportscaster of the Year, as selected by the National Sports Media Association Hall of Fame. The former big league pitcher has received 12 local Emmy awards: On-Camera talent (7); Sports Live Broadcast (2); Sporting Event/Game-Live (2) and Arts/Entertainment-Program/Special (1). Krukow's playing career in the Major Leagues spanned 14 years and three teams: the Chicago Cubs (1976-81), Philadelphia Phillies (1982) and San Francisco Giants (1983-89), where his enthusiasm both on and off the field made him a fan favorite. "Kruk", named as the starting right-handed pitcher to the 1980's Giants All-Decade Team in a vote by Bay Area media in 1999, is noted for his deep knowledge of the game and tremendous sense of humor. A 20-game winner for the Giants in 1986, Krukow retired after the 1989 season with a 124-117 career record and a 3.90 ERA. In 2008, Kruk was honored as a member of the inaugural class of Giants alumni with a plaque in the Giants Wall of Fame which lines the wall outside of Oracle Park. Krukow's scorecard from Tim Lincecum's no hitter in 2014 is displayed at the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown. Krukow resides in Reno, NV with his wife, Jennifer. The couple has five children, Jarek, Baker (married to Celina Roberge), Tessa, Chase (married to Alix Roe) and Weston, one grandson, Coen, and one granddaughter, Reagan.

He has also served as a primary voice of the Little League World Series on ESPN since 2013. Flemming has previously called Major League Baseball on FOX, and for six years was the play-by-play voice of Stanford football and basketball. In 2008, named Flemming "the best of the new generation of baseball announcers". He has won three Northern California Area Emmy Awards for his Giants play-by-play work. The Alexandria, VA native received a Bachelor's and Master's degrees from Stanford, and a Master's degree in Broadcast Journalism from Syracuse University. For more than a decade, Flemming has served on the board of the Good Tidings Foundation, a Bay Area charity that has worked closely with the Giants in building and refurbishing baseball fields and other athletic facilities across Northern California. 2018 Community Relations Highlights

The San Francisco Giants are dedicated to enriching OUR COMMUNITY through innovation and excellence on and off the field.

In a collaborative effort, the Giants Community Fund, the club's 501(c)(3) non-profit, and the team's Community Relations Department, work to identify, develop, support and raise awareness for people, issues and programs that are important to our fans and communities throughout the Bay Area and Northern and Central California.

The Giants Community Fund's flagship program, Junior Giants, serves nearly 25,000 boys and girls in 90 underserved communities throughout California, Nevada and Oregon. It is a free and non-competitive baseball program that has served as a model for MLB youth initiatives. Using baseball as the hook, Junior Giants provides opportunities for children to learn the meaning of leadership, teamwork, confidence and integrity, as well as the importance of education, health and bullying prevention. Over 5,000 coaches, team parents and representatives of community organizations, generously dedicate their time and efforts to improve the lives of Junior Giants in their communities. For more information about Junior Giants, please visit jrgiants.org.

In 2018, the Giants Community Fund partnered with the Giants and the Until There's A Cure Foundation for the 25th Annual UTAC Day. UTAC received a $20,000 grant from the Giants Community Fund along with the proceeds from the 50/50 Raffle. A pre-game ceremony included a red ribbon spanning centerfield carried by UTAC representatives, Giants employees, and players and coaches from the Giants and the Philadelphia Phillies. All three Giants Managers who have been part of the UTAC initiative since its inception, Felipe Alou, Dusty Baker and Bruce Bochy, were photographed together "Wearing the Bracelet" in support of the 25th Anniversary.

The Giants continue to respond to and fulfill many special needs and requests in the community providing experiences to fans confronting illness, experiencing life's milestones and other special circumstances.

Giants employees, from the players to the front office staff are expected to give back to the community and our fans. Players and uniformed personnel do this through developing their own community programs or supporting existing programs in the form of visits and appearances, financial contributions and relaying important messages through videos, press conferences and media interviews. The front office staff supports many of the organization's community initiatives and actively volunteers their time throughout the year.

In 2018, nearly 45,000 game tickets were donated to more than 400 community groups through the Take Me Out to the Ballgame ticket donation program, which is funded by Giants players, MLB's Commissioner's Community Initiative and MLBPA's Players Give Back. Additionally, autographed items and special field experiences were donated to over 1,500 groups who used them for fundraising purposes.

All three Giants Managers who have been part of the UTAC initiative since its inception, Felipe Alou, Dusty Baker and Bruce Bochy, are shown "Wearing the Bracelet" in support of the 25th Anniversary of Until There's A Cure Day.

Giants fans are likely to recognize the work of the Giants Community Fund or the Giants Community Relations Department through a public awareness campaign, educational activity, fundraiser or grant giving program of either entity. These activities and programs focus on the following areas:

- Youth Recreation & Fitness
- Health
- Violence Prevention
- Education/Literacy

Each season, the Giants hold more than 375 community outreach and awareness programs and events, either at Oracle Park or throughout the community, which define the work they do in the aforementioned focus areas. THE GIANTS MEDIA RELATIONS OFFICE: Located on the second level at Oracle Park behind the press box, the Giants' media relations department can be reached via the media elevator or adjacent stairs from the Field Club (service) level walkway.

ENTRY TO ORACLE PARK: Credentialed media must enter the ballpark through the Media Entrance near O'Doul Gate (next to the Giants Dugout Store) off Third Street, or at the Command Center at 2nd and King Streets.

CREDENTIALS: Credentials will be issued only to legitimate media. Season credentials will be issued only to those news agencies that cover the Giants on a daily basis. All requests for regular season media and photo credentials must be submitted on Major League Baseball's online credential site: <https://credentials.mlb.com>. Media that do not receive full-season Giants credentials may apply for single game credentials. Media will need to apply on the website 48 hours in advance of each game requested. Daily media credentials are subject to availability. All daily media credentials can be picked up at the Credential Distribution Center located at the Lefty O'Doul ticket windows (adjacent to the Dignity Health Center on the Portwalk and adjacent to McCovey Cove). Credentials must be visibly worn at all times.

BOB STEVENS PRESS BOX: The Bob Stevens Press Box is located on the Lower Box level of Oracle Park, directly above Sections 113-117 of the lower bowl seating in the ballpark. The entrance to the press box, situated one level above street level, can be accessed via the media elevator or adjacent stairwell from the Field Club (service) level walkway. The press box is a working area for the news media and no cheering or other distracting noise is permitted at any time. Anyone violating this policy will be asked to leave the premises. Persons without credentials will not be admitted.

HODGES-SIMMONS BROADCAST CENTER: All broadcast booths for live game coverage are located at the Hodges-Simmons Broadcast Center on the Club Level of Oracle Park (one level above the Press Box). From the Field (service) level walkway, take the media elevator or adjacent stairwell to the Club Level to access the broadcast booths. Persons without credentials will not be admitted.

CLUBHOUSES: Both clubhouses are located on the Field Club (service) level of Oracle Park. The Giants' clubhouse is on the third base side, while the visitor's clubhouse is on the first base side. Only credentialed media with clubhouse access will be admitted. Still photographers are not allowed in the clubhouse at any time (pre-game or post-game). TV cameras are permitted in the clubhouse pre-game and post-game. Training and weight rooms, as well as the club dining areas, are closed to everyone except players and club officials. The Giants clubhouse is open beginning three-and-a-half hours prior to game time, and will re-open 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game. Media may NOT return to the home or visitors clubhouse once the Clubs have taken batting practice. Please do not lounge in the manager’s office or clubhouse during the pre-game period. If you have specific interview requests for a player or coach, we encourage you to contact a member of the Giants’ media relations staff, who will try to accommodate your needs.

FIELD ACCESS: Only credentialed media with field access will be allowed onto the field prior to the game. Due to Oracle Park having the smallest foul territory behind home plate in Major League Baseball, we kindly ask all video and still photographers to stay on the warning track when shooting. All media must clear the field 45 minutes prior to game time. Access to the field is available on the Field Club (service) level only by one of three tunnels: the Giants’ dugout, the visitors’ dugout, or the media tunnel directly behind home plate.

NICK PETERS MEDIA INTERVIEW ROOM: The Nick Peters Media Interview Room is located adjacent to the Giants clubhouse on the Field Club (service) level of the ballpark. The room will be used for media conferences and other special interviews.

POST-GAME PROCEDURES: Manager Bruce Bochy will be available to the media immediately after the game in the Nick Peters Media Interview Room. Please ask any questions of the manager related to the game during this post-game session. Post-game interviews with the manager and players are conducted by media with deadlines and should be limited to game comments. Please do not lounge in the manager’s office or clubhouse, or attempt to conduct feature-length interviews after a game.

SOCIAL MEDIA: In accordance with Major League Baseball guidelines, media are not permitted to use cellular phones, laptops, texting devices or similar portable equipment for Tweeting or transmitting via other social media networks in group settings in clubhouses, dugouts or manager’s office at any time. Digital photography, without the permission of the club media relations director, is prohibited in the clubhouse at all times.

MEDIA DRESS GUIDELINES: MLB and the BBWAA agreed to a set of dress guidelines for members of the media. The guidelines, which emphasize professionalism, will be in effect for the 2019 season. The guidelines will be posted in all media areas.

DARKROOMS, STILL PHOTO LOCATIONS: The photo darkrooms and the Giants’ team photographers’ office are located on the Field Club (service) level of the ballpark between both clubhouses. In addition, an auxiliary photographers’ work room for photo transmissions via telephone lines is available in the area adjacent to the umpires room on the service level. Limited photo locations are available at various field level areas, as well as in the TV basket situated on the third base side of the Club Level. All still photo locations are reserved by contacting Giants photography department. The Giants’ media relations department requests that all season credentialed photographers use discretion in using their season pass, and ask that you only utilize your credential on a legitimate assignment.

TV PHOTO LOCATIONS: Due to limited photo space, no TV cameras are guaranteed locations on the field level. All still photographers will have priority in these locations. However, TV cameras are welcome if space permits.

LIVE SHOTS: Due to our downtown location, we do not have any ENG truck parking. If your organization plans to transmit ANY live shots from inside Oracle Park, please contact MediaOne Services, which serves as the official broadcast services provider for the Giants and Oracle Park. Please direct your inquiry to Michael Ciabattari via e-mail at michael@mediaonestudios.com or via telephone at (415) 939-1572.

SAM SKINNER MEDIA LOUNGE: The Sam Skinner Media Lounge is located directly behind the broadcast booths on the Club Level. Those media members located in the press box that wish to dine can access the Sam Skinner Media Lounge by taking one flight of stairs up one level. The lounge is open for pre-game meal service beginning two hours prior to game time to accredited media members. Meal service concludes one hour after first pitch. There will be a nominal charge for meals.

LIVE GAME-IN-PROGRESS BROADCASTS: Please be advised that no radio entity is allowed to file live in-game reports from Oracle Park when the Giants host a game in which MLB’s national radio rightsholder, ESPN Radio, is broadcasting. The ESPN Radio window of exclusivity begins 15 minutes prior to first pitch and concludes 15 minutes after the game or when ESPN Radio completes its broadcast, whichever comes first. Live broadcasts by non-rights holders during a game are permitted for the purpose of non play-by-play reporting of scores and game highlights, under the following guidelines: Reports must be confined to between-innings only, limited to 60 seconds in length, and limited to six per game. Radio and TV stringers must notify the Giants media relations department of their plans for such reports. A violation of the above Major League Baseball guidelines may result in the revocation of media credentials.

TELEPHONES: Media wishing to order temporary telephone lines must contact Lena Boswell, Giants telecommunications administrator at (415) 972-1711 or via e-mail at lboswell@sfgiants.com.

BLOGGERS, FREELANCE WRITERS AND PHOTOGRAPHERS: Bloggers, freelance writers and photographers may not request their own credentials. The sports editor or managing editor of a publication employing the blogger or freelancer must apply for credentials on the MLB credential website (see credentials).

WEBSITES: Due to the growth of on-line services and our limited number of press box seats, the Giants will only issue daily credentials to those website personnel affiliated with a major news gathering organization.

MEDIA INFORMATION SITE: All Giants’ game day information (lineups, game notes, stats, releases, etc.) audio/video interviews (English and Spanish) and press box information will be available on GiantsPressbox.com

NO AUTOGRAPHS: Media are not allowed to ask for autographs of uniformed personnel at Oracle Park. Anyone violating this policy will be asked to leave the premises and will have their credential revoked.
