IN THE COMMUNITY

THE SEATTLE MARINERS COMMITMENT TO THE COMMUNITY

The Seattle Mariners have long been dedicated to serving our communities.

In recent years, the Mariners have brought two campaigns to the forefront of the work we do in our community: preventing homelessness and making baseball and softball accessible to young players.

To address those issues, the Mariners have launched two community initiatives:

Home Base – To help tackle King County’s homelessness crisis by reducing the number of people who lose their homes due to eviction.

On BASE – To help make baseball and softball more accessible to kids across the Northwest by providing grants for teams, training opportunities for coaches and athletes and financial assistance for those who are not able to afford the cost to play.

HOME BASE

In 2019, the Mariners made a substantial commitment to our community’s response to the homelessness crisis.

Through a $3 million founding grant, the Mariners helped establish Home Base, an eviction prevention program through the United Way of King County and King County Bar Association.

During its first six months, Home Base provided legal or financial assistance to over 1,400 households to help avoid eviction.

Eviction is the leading cause of homelessness. The goal for Home Base is to help prevent up to 4,000 evictions each year.

- Providing legal representation through scaling up the King County Bar Association’s volunteer attorney program, the Housing Justice Project, which helps low-income clients facing eviction;
- Making flexible funds (provided by the Mariners and administered by United Way) available to clients to pay back-rent that is owed;
- Offering the guidance of a caseworker to prevent the person or family from facing eviction again.

“In a community as vibrant and successful as ours, it’s heartbreaking that so many people don’t have the most basic necessity of a warm, dry, safe place to live. Home Base can make an important and lasting difference in the lives of thousands of people, and the Seattle Mariners are proud to be a part of this innovative, collaborative solution.”

– John Stanton, Seattle Mariners Chairman & Managing Partner

“The crisis of homelessness is a regional problem that requires a community-wide solution. Home Base is a homeless prevention program that uses a collaborative approach to bring together legal services and flexible financial assistance to prevent evictions, the leading cause of homelessness. The Seattle Mariners are proud to help launch a program that is on track to help thousands of people each year stay in their homes.”

– Fred Rivera, Seattle Mariners Executive Vice President & General Counsel

Mariners Chairman and Managing Partner John Stanton speaks at the announcement of Home Base on Dec. 14, 2018.

1,465

In its first six months, Home Base helped 1,465 households in King County avoid homelessness caused by eviction.

$3 M

$12 M

Over the next three years, the goal is to increase funding for Home Base to $12 million.

IN THE COMMUNITY

ON BASE

In 2018, the Mariners unveiled an initiative designed to make baseball and softball more accessible to young players across the Pacific Northwest.

Through new and existing programs and partnerships, the Mariners launched On BASE – Baseball and Softball Everywhere.

On BASE supports a network of coaches, athletes, and community members who collaborate together to increase access to safe, competitive, and positive playing experiences for young athletes ages 5-18 across the Pacific Northwest.

In addition to existing youth baseball and softball programs, On BASE encompasses a variety of new efforts across the Northwest to address challenges young athletes face in their communities. On BASE provides grants for baseball and softball teams, training opportunities for youth coaches and young athletes and provides financial assistance to those who are not able to afford the cost to play.

ON BASE PROGRAMS

- PLAY BALL: The Mariners celebrated the fourth annual PLAY BALL Weekend at T-Mobile Park June 1-2, 2019 as part of Major League Baseball's league-wide effort to connect with young fans and support the growth of youth baseball and softball. Brandon Brennan, Mallex Smith and Dave Sims and the Mariner Moose also helped bring a Big League experience to a PLAY BALL event at Garfield Playfield for a group of young athletes from the Little League Challenger Division.
- Metro Parks Tacoma Elementary League: The Metro Parks Elementary Sports Program offers after-school sports at all Tacoma elementary schools. The Mariners provide team-branded jerseys and caps for all participants in T-Ball, Coach Pitch, Baseball, and Softball. The Mariners also provide financial support that help offset registration fees, offer On BASE Coaches Clinics to Metro Parks coaches, and On BASE Youth Clinics for participants.
- On BASE Youth Clinics: The Mariners host On BASE Youth Clinics to help young athletes gain exposure to bat-and-ball sports and encourage continued play in their local youth leagues.
- On BASE Coaches Clinics: The Mariners believe that a memorable and transformative playing experience start with a motivated and dedicated coach. The Mariners host multiple On BASE Coaches Clinics throughout the Pacific Northwest.
- Mariners Grand Slam Camps: The Mariners offer summer baseball and softball camps throughout the greater Puget Sound Area. Mariners Grand Slam Camps provide a unique experience and develop skills for players ages 7-14 of all skill levels, and feature instruction by professional educators, former pros, and current college players.
- On BASE Careers in Baseball Day: A goal of the On BASE initiative is to show young adults a variety of ways to continue to be involved with baseball and softball both on and off the field.
- Mariners Care Equipment Donation Grant presented by Nike: The Mariners Care Equipment Donation Grant program annually awards ten $5,000 grants to high school baseball and softball teams in Washington State to help pay for equipment, uniforms, field maintenance and other expenses associated with operating a successful program.

Marco Gonzales offers instruction to a young right-hander during the Mariners Care Community Tour on January 16, 2019 in Spokane.

MARINERS CARE

Mariners Care, the Seattle Mariners non-profit foundation, and its corporate partners, helped provide $1.5 million for a variety of charitable programs throughout the Northwest in 2019. Since 1991, when Mariners Care was established, the nonprofit has helped raise over $28 million to benefit primarily youth-oriented community service programs.

2019 HIGHLIGHTS

Through Mariners Care, the Seattle Mariners non-profit foundation, and its corporate partners, the team helped provide $1.5 million in 2019 for a variety of charitable programs throughout the Pacific Northwest. Here is a look at some of the highlights from 2019:

CYSTIC FIBROSIS MARINERS CARE GOLF TOURNAMENT

The Cystic Fibrosis Mariners Care Golf Tournament, held annually since 1986, has helped the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation in their continuing efforts to find a cure for CF, a fatal disease afflicting children and young adults. The 2019 tournament, held at the Broadmoor Golf Club on May 15, raised over $205,000 for CF research. Since 1986, the CF Mariners Care Golf Tournament has raised more than $6 million for the CF Foundation.

TOYS FOR KIDS WINTER GALA

The 19th annual Toys for Kids Winter Gala raised more than $700,000, which was used to buy Christmas presents for more than 11,000 homeless underserved kids in King County. Founded in 1995 by Mariners broadcaster Rick Rizzs and former Mariners outfielder Dave Henderson, Toys for Kids has raised more than $4 million to help make the holidays a little brighter for children in need throughout the Puget Sound area.

Among the more than 500 guests in attendance at the 19th Annual Toys for Kids Winter Gala on November 16, 2019, were Marco Gonzales, former Mariners Julio Cruz, Charlie Furbush and Bill Krueger, as well as Mariners front office and clubhouse staff, Mariners season ticket holders and fans.

In 2019, Toys for Kids also awarded six $5,000 Dave Henderson Education Scholarships to Puget Sound area high school students in honor of the late Dave Henderson. The funds raised by Toys for Kids in 2019 benefited approximately 30 organizations that serve disadvantaged children and women.

REFUSE TO ABUSE 5K

The 8th annual Refuse to Abuse 5K raised $225,000 for the Washington State Coalition Against Domestic Violence and the Refuse To Abuse campaign. More than 1,700 people participated in the event on July 20, 2019, at T-Mobile Park prior to the Mariners game against the Los Angeles Angels.

The Mariners and the Washington State Coalition Against Domestic Violence have teamed up since 1997 to support Refuse To Abuse, a season-long awareness campaign designed to promote healthy, respectful relationships. Scott Servais, Kyle Seager, Dee Gordon and Félix Hernández served as spokesmen for the 2019 campaign.

MARINERS CARE SILENT AUCTIONS

Silent auctions of autographed and game-used memorabilia during Saturday games at T-Mobile Park raised more than $124,000 for Mariners Care in 2019. Since 2000, the Mariners Care Silent Auctions have raised over $1.87 million.

IN THE COMMUNITY

PLAY CAMPAIGN

On July 23, 2019, the Mariners hosted the 11th annual PLAY Campaign event at T-Mobile Park for kids from the Boys & Girls Clubs and Seattle RBI League. PLAY – which stands for Promoting a Lifetime of Activity for Youth – is a public awareness campaign developed by the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS) to address children's health and fitness issues.

Mariners Athletic Trainers Rob Nodine, Matt Toth and Ryan Bitzel teamed up with Mariners players Dan Altavilla, Chasen Bradford, Sam Tuivailala, Daniel Vogelbach and Bullpen Coach Jim Brower to encourage youth to be active, eat right and sustain a healthy lifestyle.

MARINERS CARE CHARITY NIGHT

ROOT SPORTS and the Mariners teamed up to host an online auction during the June 4 telecast to raise funds for Mariners Care. The ninth-year event raised $78,350. Since 2010, the event has raised more than $370,000.

MARINERS WIVES CHARITIES

The Mariners Wives hosted two fundraisers at T-Mobile Park in 2019, totaling more than $35,000 in funds for Mariners Care. On June 21, they held their annual Mystery Bag fundraiser, where fans were able to purchase mystery bags featuring autographed baseballs from members of the 2019 team. On August 9, the Mariners Wives hosted their annual silent auction of baskets containing their husbands' favorite items, including music, food, clothing, movies, plus autographed and game-used items.

ALZHEIMER'S AWARENESS

Mariners outfielder Braden Bishop created the 4MOM Charity in honor of his mom, Suzy Bishop, to help raise awareness and funds for the fight against Alzheimer's. Joined by his Mariners teammates, Braden and the 4MOM Charity held two fundraising events in 2019 including TopGolf4MOM in Spring Training and TossItUp4MOM in Seattle.

On June 21, Braden, 4MOM, and the Seattle Mariners teamed up with the Alzheimer's Association for Alzheimer's Association Night at T-Mobile Park to continue the fight to #ENDALZ.

Suzy Bishop passed away on October 5, 2019. She was 59.

JOHN STANTON

Chairman & Managing Partner

John Stanton is the Mariners Chairman & Managing Partner. He was named Chairman on Aug. 19, 2016, and has served in that role since. Stanton joined the Mariners ownership group in December of 2000, and became a member of the Board of Directors in 2016.

Born in Seattle and raised in Bellevue, WA, Stanton is considered a wireless industry pioneer, co-founding three national wireless operators in the United States over the past four decades.

He is currently Chairman of the Trilogy Partnerships, a private investment firm, and also serves on the boards of the Microsoft Corporation and Costco Wholesale Corporation. He is Chairman of Year Up (a non-profit program for youth in Seattle), and a member of the board of the Institute for Health Metrics and Evaluation, after previously serving as chair (or co-chair) of the boards of Whitman College, the Business Partnership for Early Learning, the United Way of King County campaign, the Washington Roundtable and the Regional Transportation Commission.

John and his wife Terry Gillespie currently own interests in the Tacoma Rainiers (AAA Pacific Coast League) and in the Walla Walla Sweets and Yakima Pippins of the West Coast Collegiate Baseball League. He has been active in youth baseball in the area for over 15 years.

John earned a B.A. from Whitman College (Walla Walla, WA) and an MBA from Harvard Business School. John and Terry have two grown sons.

KEVIN MATHER

President & Chief Executive Officer

Kevin Mather was promoted to President & Chief Executive Officer of the Seattle Mariners on Nov. 9, 2017. He had served as the Mariners President and Chief Operating Officer since Feb. 1, 2014.

The Mariners Executive Vice Presidents and Sr. Vice Presidents report to Mather and form the senior leadership team for the organization.

Mather joined the Mariners in 1996 as the Vice President of Finance and Administration. He was promoted to Executive Vice President of Finance and Ballpark

Operations in 1999.

Kevin has participated on a variety of Major League Baseball committees over the years. His committee appointment currently involves the Revenue Sharing Definitions Committee.

Prior to the Mariners, Mather worked for the Minnesota Twins from 1989-1996 where he served as Director and then Vice President of Finance. Before his career in baseball, Mather was with the Certified Public Accounting firm of Deloitte, Haskins & Sells for four years, and The Pohlman Companies of Minneapolis for one year.

Mather grew up listening to Bob Uecker as a Milwaukee Brewers fan in Madison, Wisconsin. He is a 1984 graduate of the University of Wisconsin where he received his B.B.A. degree in accounting and risk/insurance.

He is on the Executive Board of Junior Achievement of Washington. He is also treasurer on the Seattle Children's Foundation Board of Trustees. His hobbies include his family, golf and his two dogs.

He and his wife Shannon live in Sammamish and have three grown sons: J.P. (wife: Christy), David and Steven and two dogs, Dutch and Augustus.

HOWARD LINCOLN

Chairman Emeritus

A key player in the formation of the ownership group that saved the Mariners for Seattle in 1992, Howard Lincoln served as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer from Sept. 27, 1999 to Aug. 19, 2016, when he was named Chairman Emeritus. His service was recognized with the Seattle Mariners Franchise Achievement Award in 2016. Lincoln continues as a member of the board of directors.

On Feb. 14, 2000 Lincoln retired from his position as chairman of Nintendo of America, Inc. to devote his full efforts to the Mariners. Lincoln joined Nintendo as its senior vice president and general counsel in January 1983. In February 1994, he was elected to the board of Nintendo of America, Inc. and appointed chairman of the company.

Philanthropy plays an important role in Lincoln's life. In addition to his strong support of the Mariners Care Foundation, he is a former chairman of the Children's Hospital Foundation. He was the Campaign Chair of United Way of King County's 2003/04 Annual Campaign. Lincoln is a board member of The Washington Roundtable.

Lincoln is a graduate of the University of California at Berkeley, and holds a law degree from Boalt Hall, the University of California School of Law. Following graduation from law school, Lincoln served as a Lieutenant in the U.S. Navy Judge Advocate General's Corps from 1966 to 1970. He practiced law in Seattle from 1970 to 1983. He and his wife, Grace, reside on Mercer Island. Their son, Brad, and his wife, Kim, have two children: Ethan and Benjamin.

JOHN ELLIS

Chairman Emeritus

A life-long resident of the Seattle area, John Ellis led the efforts to keep Major League Baseball in the Pacific Northwest. Upon transfer of the Mariners franchise to the new ownership group, Ellis became its first chairman and CEO, serving from June 29, 1992 until September 27, 1999, when he was named Chairman Emeritus. Ellis continues as a member of the Mariners Board of Directors.

During the seven full seasons of his tenure, the Mariners only finished below .500 once, while winning two Division titles and narrowly missing a third. Community and fan support improved enormously – attendance grew from 1,651,398 in 1992 to 3,507,975 in 2001. The greatest accomplishment under his leadership was the construction of our world-class ballpark, T-Mobile Park.

His service was recognized with the Seattle Mariners Franchise Achievement Award in 2016.

Ellis has served variously on the MLB Executive Council, the International, Ownership and Compensation & Finance Committee and he chaired the Baseball Endowment Limited Partnership (BELP) Committee.

John started his career as a lawyer with Perkins Coie in 1953 (where he is now of counsel). He then joined Puget Sound Power & Light Company (now Puget Sound Energy) in 1970, where he served variously as President, C.E.O. and Chairman until his retirement in 1993. During his utility career he served nationally as Chair of the Edison Electric Institute, and the Electric Power Research Institute.

Although a loyal Husky, he was also Chair of the Board of Regents of Washington State University and Seattle University, uniquely at the same time. He has 4 children and 8 grandchildren – all Mariners fans.

JERRY DIPOTO

Executive Vice President & General Manager, Baseball Operations

Jerry Dipoto (dih-POH-toe) was named as the ninth General Manager in Seattle Mariners history after being hired on Sept. 28, 2015.

In his first three seasons in charge (2016-18), the Mariners had the 5th-most wins in the American League, trailing only Boston, Houston, Cleveland and New York.

Prior to 2019, Dipoto led a re-imagining of the Mariners, making 8 trades in a 6-week period between Nov. 8-Dec. 21 to acquire 16 players and position a younger, more athletic, deeper, more controllable roster for greater success in the future. Beginning last season and accelerating in 2020 and 2021, that talent will populate the Mariners Major League roster.

In 2018, Seattle won 89 games, its highest total in 15 seasons, and the team's 253 wins over 2016-18 is its highest total in a three-year span since 2001-2003.

In 2017, Jerry and his staff managed through a flood of injuries (22 different injured list placements) and used 61 different players, including 40 pitchers (17 starters) while remaining relevant in the wild card race into the seasons final days despite having four of the projected five starting pitchers spend time on the IL.

In his first months on the job in 2016, Dipoto completely remade the Mariners Major League roster, as well as revamping the Mariners Major League staff, scouting and player development departments.

The reshaping of the roster and minor league system resulted in the 2016 Mariners organization playing 927 total games (at all levels) and only one -- the final regular season game for the big league club -- not having playoff implications. The Mariners were in the race through 161 games, and each of the seven minor league affiliates advanced to the postseason.

Prior to being hired by Seattle, Dipoto was working as a Special Assistant for the Boston Red Sox. He joined the Sox after resigning from his position as the Los Angeles Angels General Manager on July 1, 2015.

Dipoto was the Angels GM from Oct. 29, 2011-July 1, 2015, helping guide the club to the American League West title in 2014, finishing with the most wins (98) in the Majors. Notable acquisitions during his Angels tenure included trades for All-Stars Huston Street, Zack Greinke, David Freese and Héctor Santiago, and the free agent signings of Albert Pujols (2011) and C.J. Wilson (2011).

In his 19th season as a baseball executive, Jerry got his start immediately after retiring as a player in 2001. He was a special assistant for the Colorado Rockies (2001-02), followed by two seasons working in the scouting department for the Boston Red Sox (2003-04). He returned to the Rockies as the Director of Player Personnel (2005) and then moved to the Arizona organization as Vice President of Player Personnel (2006-10) and was appointed the Diamondbacks interim General Manager on July 1, 2010. He spent the 2011 season as the D-Backs Sr. VP of Scouting and Player Development.

Dipoto appeared in 390 Major League games, all in relief, with the Indians (1993-94), New York Mets (1995-96) and Colorado Rockies (1997-2000). A right-handed pitcher, he compiled a career 27-24 record with 49 saves and a 4.05 ERA prior to retiring during Spring Training in 2001 with a bulging disc in his neck.

He was originally selected by the Cleveland Indians in the 3rd round of the 1989 June Draft out of Virginia Commonwealth University (Richmond, VA). Dipoto led the Rams to their first appearance in the NCAA Tournament in 1988 and remains in the top 10 in VCU history in several pitching categories. Dipoto played high school baseball at Toms River High School North in New Jersey.

Jerry and his wife, Tamie, reside in Mercer Island, WA. They have two daughters: Taylor (husband Andrew) and Jordan, and one son, Jonah (wife Lauren).

Justin Hollander is in his fourth full year with the Mariners, his first since being promoted to Vice President on Jan. 30, 2020. He was hired as the team's Director of Baseball Operations on Sept. 23, 2016 and promoted to Assistant General Manager on Nov. 1, 2018.

In his current role, Justin assists Jerry Dipoto in all areas of Major League operations (travel, scheduling, budgeting, payroll, roster management, etc.) as well as player procurement, negotiations of Major League contracts and 40-man roster composition. He provides oversight for the Baseball Operations front office and analytics staff. He is also the primary liaison to Major League Baseball / Office of the Commissioner.

Prior to joining the Mariners, Justin spent the previous nine seasons in the Los Angeles Angels front office, serving several different roles in the Angels baseball operations department.

He began his career with the Angels in January, 2008, as a player development & scouting assistant. In that role, he worked closely with department heads in several different aspects of baseball operations, including arbitration, research and advance scouting. He was promoted to Director, Baseball Operations in 2012 and served as the Director, Player Personnel in 2016.

A native of Dayton, OH, Hollander is a 2001 graduate of Ohio State University (B.S., business administration and marketing) and received his law degree from the University of San Diego in 2004.

JOE BOHRINGER*Assistant General Manager, Baseball Operations

Joe Bohringer was named to his current position on Feb. 23, 2019. Joe originally joined the Mariners on Oct. 29, 2015 as a Special Assistant to the General Manager. This season will be his 31st year in professional baseball.

His main area of focus includes directing the Mariners High Performance department along with researching and vetting new technologies in baseball operations. He's responsible for overseeing, delegating, providing quality control and managing the budgets for these areas, as well as for Athlete Management and Research & Development. In addition, he will serve as the primary liaison from the front office to all Medical Doctors, Specialists and consultants.

He spent the previous four seasons (2012-2015) as the Chicago Cubs Director of Professional Scouting. Joe served as a pro scout for the Arizona Diamondbacks (2006-11) where he evaluated professional players at all levels and assisted with crosschecking amateur players for the Arizona drafts in 2009 & 2010. He previously spent five seasons as an area scouting supervisor for the Seattle Mariners from 2002-06, first in California and then in the upper Midwest. Before beginning his scouting career, he spent three seasons as Senior Manager of Player Development for the Los Angeles Dodgers (1998-2001). Prior to joining the Dodgers, Joe worked with minor league clubs in Buffalo, New York and Ottawa.

Joe graduated from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in 1993 with a business degree from MIT's Sloan School of Management and began his baseball career with internships with the New York Yankees and Pittsburgh Pirates while a student at MIT.

ROGER HANSEN*Special Assistant to the General Manager

Roger Hansen was named to his current position on Sept. 12, 2011. Prior to his promotion, he spent the previous 18 years working in Mariners player development, and an additional three seasons as a player in the Mariners minor league system.

Hansen spent nine seasons (2003-2011) as the Mariners Catching Coordinator, overseeing catching throughout the Seattle minor league system.

He was the Mariners bullpen coach in 1992, spending the season as the youngest coach in the Majors. Roger returned to the Major League coaching staff on Aug. 9, 2010 and remained through the end of the 2010 season as the interim bench coach. Roger spent the 1998-2001 seasons as the Major League catching instructor for the Orix Blue Wave organization in Japan.

Hansen originally signed as the Royals second-round selection in the 1980 June Draft, and spent the final three seasons of his professional career in the Mariners minor league system. In all, he played nearly 900 minor league games, and was a career .272 hitter.

Roger, his wife Lynn, and their two children reside in Stanwood, WA. He graduated from Rio Mesa High School in Camarillo, Calif., in 1980.

The 2020 season is Tom McNamara's fourth as a Special Assistant to the GM.

Tom was promoted to his new role on Sept. 2, 2016 and is responsible for continuing to scout amateur players in preparation for the June draft, but also evaluates professional players and scouts players around the globe.

McNamara spent eight seasons as the Mariners Director of Amateur Scouting after being named to the position on November 10, 2008. McNamara oversaw eight Mariners drafts (2009-2016) that have produced 40 Major League players including Kyle Seager (2009), James Paxton (2010), Mike Zunino & Edwin Diaz (2012) and Kyle Lewis (2016).

McNamara was the recipient of the 2015 A.B. "Turk" Karam Award, as voted by New York city area scouts.

McNamara was previously an Area Scout for the Mariners from 1994-2000, covering the Northeast. McNamara signed with the Mariners in 1988 as a non-drafted free agent and played one year in the Northwest League with the Bellingham Mariners.

Following his playing career, McNamara spent three years coaching baseball at Rockland Community College in Suffern, NY. McNamara has 26 years scouting experience. He spent three years working in Milwaukee – two years as an Area Scout (2001-02) and one year as the East Coast Supervisor (2008). McNamara also spent four years as a Professional Scout with the San Diego Padres. McNamara signed several Major League players including All-Star first baseman Prince Fielder.

In 1988, McNamara graduated from Dominican College in Blauvelt, NY with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Humanities. As a center fielder he set the NY State College record for most stolen bases in a season with 71 in 1988. He is a member of the Rockland Community College and Dominican College Athletic Hall of Fame.

McNamara grew up in Pearl River, NY. He has one son, Martin, and currently resides in New York City.

TOM ALLISON*Vice President, Scouting

Tom Allison is in his eighth season with the Mariners, his fifth in his current role of overseeing all three branches of the Mariners scouting operation. Tom was originally hired as the Mariners Director of Professional Scouting on Sept. 26, 2012.

In his current role, Tom oversees all aspects of the Mariners scouting operation: Professional, Amateur and International. Allison enters his 30th year in Professional Baseball after signing with the New York Mets in 1990.

Before joining the Mariners, Allison served as a Regional Crosschecker for the Boston Red Sox amateur scouting department (2011-2012). Prior to that, he was the Director of Scouting for the Arizona Diamondbacks (2007-10), where he oversaw several top draft classes, including the 2009 draft that was tabbed by Baseball America and ESPN.com as the No. 1 draft in MLB.

Allison's extensive scouting background also includes seven seasons as a Regional Crosschecker for the Milwaukee Brewers (2000-06), and 10 years in the New York Mets organization as an Area Scouting Supervisor (1996-99) and Assistant Scouting Director (1995-96).

Allison graduated from Chapman University (Orange, CA) with a BA in Legal Studies. He played college baseball at Loyola Marymount University, and was a member of the Lions squad that advanced to the 1986 College World Series. A Northwest native, Allison grew up in the Vancouver (WA) area. He currently resides in Phoenix, Ariz., with his wife, Katie, and daughters Lyndi and Teagan.

SCOTT HUNTER*Director, Amateur Scouting

Scott Hunter was promoted to Director, Amateur Scouting for the Mariners on Sept. 26, 2016. He oversaw his first draft in 2017.

Scott spent the previous three seasons (2014-2016) as the Mariners international cross checker. Overall, Hunter has over 25 seasons in professional baseball.

Prior to joining the Mariners, Hunter spent 10 seasons as a coach or scout in the New York Mets organization, including four years as a northeast regional scouting supervisor and crosschecker from 2009 - 2013. Hunter was a coach with A Brooklyn in 2006 and rookie Gulf Coast League Mets in 2005. He also served as an area scout for the Mets in Delaware, Maryland, New Jersey, New York and Pennsylvania areas from 2004 - 2009.

After being named a USA Today All American as well as a Gatorade All American in 1993, Hunter was selected by the Los Angeles Dodgers in the 5th round of the 1993 MLB First-Year Player Draft out of Northeast High School (Philadelphia, PA). He played nine seasons in the minor leagues, primarily as an outfielder, from 1994 - 2002 in the Dodgers (1994-95), Mets (1995-99 & 2001-02), Expos (1999-2000), Indians (2000) and Orioles (2002) organizations.

Scott and his wife, Kari, have two sons, Cade and Grant.

ANDY MCKAY*Director, Player Development

Andy McKay was named Director of Player Development on Oct. 21, 2015.

He is responsible for overseeing all aspects of the Mariners minor league system, including roster management and skills development.

In 2016, his first season overseeing player development, the Mariners seven minor league affiliates combined for a 451-314 (.590) record, all seven advanced to the postseason and two (AA Jackson and AZL Mariners) claimed league titles.

McKay was the Peak Performance Coordinator for the Colorado Rockies minor league system from Sept. of 2012 until being hired by Seattle.

KEN GRIFFEY JR.

Special Consultant to the Franchise

Ken Griffey Jr., a 2016 inductee into the National Baseball Hall of Fame, was named Special Consultant to the Franchise in 2011. He assists in numerous areas of the Mariners operations including, but not limited to, Major League Baseball Operations, player development, minor league system, marketing, broadcasting and community relations.

Ken has always been active in the community. The Ken Griffey Jr. Family Foundation supports local, regional and national causes, including the Boys and Girls Clubs of America and the Children's Hospital in Seattle, Orlando, Cincinnati and elsewhere.

He's on the National Board of Directors for the Boys and Girls Clubs of America, and has been honored by a variety of causes for his personal support, including the Make-A-Wish Foundation and the Baseball Assistance Team (BAT).

"Junior" was named on a then-record 99.3% (437 of 440) of ballots cast in his first year of eligibility for the Hall of Fame. His election was announced on Jan. 6, 2016, and he was inducted on July 24, 2016. His No. 24 was retired at all levels of the Seattle organization in a pre-game ceremony on Aug. 8, 2016, the first number ever retired by the franchise. (Jackie Robinson's No. 42 has been retired by all of baseball).

Griffey was selected first overall in the June 1987 draft by the Mariners and less than two years later, at age 19, he was in center field on Opening Night in 1989. He had a 22-year MLB career with the Mariners (1989-1999, 2009-2010), Cincinnati (2000-2008) and Chicago-AL (2008).

Griffey was elected to the Mariners Hall of Fame in 2013, and to the Reds Hall of Fame in 2014.

Griffey retired from baseball on June 2, 2010. Among his achievements: 1997 American League MVP (unanimous selection) and RBI leader; 13-time All-Star; 10-time Gold Glove winner; 7-time Silver Slugger winner; 4-time AL home run leader; 3-time MLB All-Star Home Run Derby champ; 630 career home runs. Ken is near the top in every offensive category in the Mariners record book.

In 1999, he was one of 30 players named to the All-Century Team, a roster of the greatest players at each position in the history of MLB.

ICHIRO SUZUKI

Special Assistant to the Chairman

Ichiro was originally named Special Assistant to the Chairman on May, 3, 2018 but returned as an active player in 2019, playing his final two games in Japan prior to retiring from playing Major League Baseball on March 21, 2019.

He began his new role as an instructor with the Major League and AAA teams (reporting to GM Jerry Dipoto) on April 30, 2019. He focuses on outfield play, baserunning and, in conjunction with hitting coaches, batting.

Ichiro retired as the active Major League hits leader, ranking 21st all-time in MLB history with 3,089. He amassed 1,278 hits during a 9-year career (1992-2000) with the Orix Blue Wave of Japan's Pacific League. Ichiro totaled 4,367 hits between MLB and Japan. On Aug. 7, 2016, he recorded his 3,000th career hit in the Major Leagues – a triple – becoming one of 31 players to reach that milestone. Ichiro is one of seven players to collect at least 3,000 hits and 500 stolen bases in the Major Leagues.

After winning his first of two American League batting titles while also leading the league in hits and stolen bases in 2001, Ichiro was named the Most Valuable Player and Rookie of the Year while also earning a Gold Glove and a Silver Slugger. He joined Boston's Fred Lynn (1975) as the only players in either league to claim MVP and Rookie of the Year in the same season. The 2001 season marked Ichiro's first of 10 consecutive seasons with at least 200 hits – a Major League record – including a single-season Major League record 262 hits in 2004.

From 2001-2010, Ichiro won 10 consecutive Gold Glove Awards and made 10 straight trips to the All-Star Game. He is one of six outfielders in Major League history to earn at least 10 Gold Gloves, joining Roberto Clemente (12), Willie Mays (12), Ken Griffey Jr. (10), Andruw Jones (10) and Al Kaline (10). Ichiro's 10 All-Star Games appearances are tied with Ken Griffey Jr. for the most by a Mariner. In the 2007 All-Star Game in San Francisco, Ichiro was named Most Valuable Player after going 3-for-3 with the first inside-the-park home run in ASG history.

Among the Mariners all-time leaders in club history, Ichiro ranks 1st in hits (2,542), batting (.322), at-bats (7,907), triples (79) and stolen bases (438) while ranking 2nd in games (1,861) and runs (1,181), 3rd in doubles (295) and total bases (3,292), 4th in extra-base hits (473) and 5th in RBI (633) and walks (517).

HOW TO FIGURE

Batting Average — Divide the total number of hits collected by a player by the total number of at bats. Example: Player A is 12-of-40 or .300.

Slugging Percentage — Divide the number of total bases by the total number of at bats. Example: Player A's 12 hits include six singles (6), one double (2), two triples (6) and three home runs (12) for a total of 26 total bases in 40 at bats and a .650 slugging percentage.

On-Base Percentage — Divide the total of hits, walks and hit by pitch by the total of at bats, all bases on balls, hit by pitch and sacrifice flies.

Earned Run Average — The total number of earned runs allowed by a pitcher is divided by the total number of innings pitched and then multiplied by nine for his per-game average. Example: Pitcher B has allowed 12 earned runs in 45 innings of work for a 2.40 ERA.

Fielding Percentage — The sum of putouts and assists is divided by the sum of putouts, assists and errors. Example: Player C has made 16 putouts and 24 assists and two errors. That's 40 putouts and assists divided by 42 chances for a fielding average of .952.

Magic Number — Determine the number of games yet to be played by the division leader, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

Jeff Bopp is in his 13th year with the Mariners, his fifth since being named Visiting Clubhouse Manager in January, 2016.

Jeff spent the previous eight years working in the Mariners home clubhouse. He was the clubhouse manager for AAA Tacoma in 2002-08.

Bopp is a native of Longview, WA. He graduated from Mark Morris High School in 1982 and graduated from Washington State University with a degree in psychology. Jeff has one daughter (Chloe, 13) and resides in Longview.

MARINERS CLUBHOUSE STAFF

Both Chris and Joe began their careers as bat boys prior to being promoted.

They assist Ryan, Bill and Pete during all home games, as well as at Spring Training and selected periods during the off-season.

PATRICK HAFNER

Video Coordinator – Major Leagues

Patrick Hafner is in his first season with the Mariners in 2020.

He oversees all video operations for the organization, helps players and coaches with their day-to-day preparation, and works closely with the Mariners advance scouting staff throughout the season.

Patrick spent the previous seven seasons (2013-2019) with the New York Yankees, including spending the 2019 season as the Minor League Video Coordinator. He was Asst. Video Coordinator in player development with New York from April 2017-Jan. 2019 and was Affiliate Video Manager in player development from Jan. 2013 to Jan. 2017. He also spent time in Stadium Operations with Tampa Bay and in Florida Operations with Pittsburgh.

Hafner is a graduate of Florida State University, where he earned his bachelor's degree in business & marketing in 2011.

ANDY BISSELL

Major League Coaching Assistant

Andy Bissell is in his first season with the Mariners big league club after being promoted in Dec., 2019. He is responsible for coordinating the in-game replay process as well as assisting with pre-game work.

Bissell was a coach with the AA Arkansas Travelers in 2019.

Prior to joining the Mariners he spent a semester as the Player Development Coordinator at Sacramento City College. From 2016-18, he was hitting and catching instructor at Bardo's Diamond Sports in Parker, CO. Andy also spent two seasons as a coach at Valor Christian (CO) HS (2017-18) and was a counselor at Ridgeview Academy in 2016.

Andy played at Sacramento (2010-13) and received a B.A. in psychology (2015). He also played at Azusa Pacific University and has a B.A. in kinesiology and exercise physiology (2016) from there.

BOB CHRISTOFFERSON

Head Groundskeeper

In Dec., 2015, Bob was elected to the Tacoma Pierce County Hall of Fame. In Dec., 2008, Bob received the "Dedication to Baseball Award" from the Washington State Baseball Coaches Association. Following the 2005 season, Bob was honored with the Harry C. Gill Memorial Award by the Sports Turf Managers Association. The award honors an individual's long-term service and commitment as well as their professional excellence.

Christofferson spent 20 years prior to being hired by the Mariners as the stadium manager and head groundskeeper of Cheney Stadium for the Triple-A Tacoma franchise of the Pacific Coast League. His father, Bob, joined the original Cheney Stadium grounds crew in 1960. Christofferson was a three-time winner of the PCL Groundskeeper of the Year Award, including the first-ever award in 1992 and back-to-back honors in 1998 & 1999, despite having to battle the Northwest's fickle weather. His tenure included overseeing the Goodwill Games competition when Cheney Stadium was host to 24 games in six days, the world fastpitch softball championship in 1980 and numerous state high school playoffs.

Bob graduated from Stadium HS in Tacoma and Central Washington University, where he played baseball. He was a social studies teacher and varsity baseball coach at Foss HS from 1976-80. Bob and his wife, Cyndy, reside in Puyallup. They have two children: Tyler and Lauren.

KEVIN ANDO Japanese Language Translator

Kevin Ando is in his first season with the Mariners working as a Japanese translator.

Kevin is a Huntington Beach (CA) native. He played baseball at Edison High School where he was a teammate of Tim Lopes.

Following his graduation from high school he played four years of baseball professionally in Japan.

KIKUCHI

2019:

- The Totals – Was 6-11 with a 5.46 ERA (98 ER, 161.2 IP) with 116 strikeouts and 50 walks in 32 starts with the Mariners.
- Reliable – His 32 starts tied for 4th-most by a rookie in single-season club history (also: Matt Young, 1983); trails only Mark Langston (33, 1984), Dave Fleming (33, 1992) and Freddy Garcia (33, 1999)...his 32 starts were tied for the Major League lead among rookies in 2019 (also: Sandy Alcantara-MIA, Dakota Hudson-STL and Merrill Kelly-ARI).
- Rookie Leader – Finished the season with 116 strikeouts, 6th-most in club history by a Mariners rookie...trails only Mark Langston (204, 1984), Michael Pineda (173, 2011), Freddy Garcia (170, 1999), Roenis Elías (143, 2014) and Matt Young (130, 1983)...ranked 10th in the Majors (4th in the AL) among rookies this season (most: Merrill Kelly-ARI, 158).
- You Complete Me – Recorded his first career complete game shutout on August 18 at Toronto, pitching 9.0 scoreless innings and allowing only 2 hits and 1 walk with 8 strikeouts...the shutout was the 2nd by a Mariners starter in 2019 (also: Mike Leake, July 19 vs. LAA)...became just the 13th pitcher (done 17x) in club history to throw a complete game shutout within his first 30 career appearances (last: Mike Montgomery, 6/30/15 at SD).
- Give Me Five – When tossing at least 5.0 innings, was 6-5 with a 3.84 ERA (53 ER, 124.1 IP) with 99 strikeouts and 33 walks in 21 starts...in 11 starts in which he did not complete 5.0 innings, went 0-6 with a 10.85 ERA (45 ER, 37.1 IP) with 17 strikeouts and 17 walks.
- Rise to the Occasion – In 15 starts against teams with a winning percentage of .500 or better, posted a 3.92 ERA (36 ER, 82.2 IP)...in 17 starts against teams with a losing record, posted a 7.06 ERA (62 ER, 79.0 IP).
- Historic Debut – Made his Major League debut on March 21 against Oakland at the Tokyo Dome in Japan...became the first Japanese-born player to make his Major League debut in Japan...worked into the 5th inning with a 3-1 lead but took a no decision.
- First – Earned his first Major League win on April 20 at Los Angeles-AL...worked 5.0 innings, allowing 4 runs on 10 hits and 2 walks while striking out 3.
- Abbreviation – On April 26 vs. Texas, made a planned start of just 1.0 inning in an effort to help adjust from the 7-day pitching rotation in Japan to the 5-day pitching rotation in the Majors...retired each of the 3 Rangers batters he faced, striking out 2.
- Rest Pays Off – Following his abbreviated outing on April 26 against the Rangers, worked at least 6.0 innings and allowed 3 or fewer runs in each of his next 4 starts...went 2-0 with a 2.03 ERA (6 ER, 26.2 IP) in those 4 starts, spanning May 3-19.
- Ring 'Em Up – Making his 8th career start, recorded 10 strikeouts on May 3 at Cleveland...took a no decision despite allowing just 1 run on 3 hits and 1 walk while striking out 10 in 7.0 innings...became the 7th pitcher in club history to have a double-digit strikeout game within his first 8 career starts with the Mariners, joining Byron McLaughlin (1978), Erik Hanson (1988), Félix Hernández (2005), James Paxton (2013), Roenis Elías (2014) and Mike Montgomery (2015).
- Rough Stretch – From May 25 – June 8, worked exactly 3.1 innings and allowed at least 5 runs in 3 straight starts...went 0-3 while allowing 18 runs (16 earned runs) over 10.0 innings for a 14.40 ERA...allowed 9 or more hits in each of those 3 outings.
- Mow 'Em Down – Retired 46 of 54 batters (6 H, 2 BB, GIDP) over 3 starts, April 26 – May 8, including 7.2 innings of 3-hit, 1-run ball on May 8 at New York-AL.

— Selected by Seattle in the 1st round (11th overall) of the 2016 MLB First-Year Player Draft...signed by Mariners scout John Wiedenbauer.

TIES

In the 38-year history of the franchise, the Mariners have ended two games in a tie: June 2, 1980 at Detroit (3-3 in 12 innings) and April 29, 1981 at Minnesota (7-7 in 8 innings). Both games ended prematurely due to rain.

NAMING THE MARINERS

The nickname "Mariners" was selected by the ownership of the Seattle franchise after a "Name the Team Contest" that resulted in over 15,000 entries and over 600 different names being submitted.

When the name "Mariners" was chosen, all the entries suggesting the name were reviewed for their reasons (in 25 words or less).

The winner was Roger Szmodis of Bellevue, WA. His entry read "I've selected Mariners because of the natural association between the sea and Seattle and her people, who have been challenged and rewarded by it."

THE MARINER MOOSE

On Opening Night, 1990, the Mariner Moose became the first mascot in team history. The Moose was selected from over 2,500 entries submitted by children 14 and under across the Pacific Northwest. It was the idea of Ammon Spiller, a fifth grader from Central Elementary School in Ferndale, WA. The Mariner Moose is available for some public appearances. Call the Mariners office at (206) 346-4000 for details.

MARINERS IN COOPERSTOWN

DAVE NIEHAUS

VOICE OF THE MARINERS

BORN: 2-19-35 in Princeton, IN DIED: 11-10-10 in Bellevue, WA
YEARS WITH MARINERS: 1977-2010

INDUCTED BASEBALL HALL OF FAME: July 27, 2008
INDUCTED MARINERS HALL OF FAME: June 2, 2007

PERSONAL: Dave was born and raised in Princeton, Ind., and was a graduate of Indiana University...he and his wife, Marilyn, had three children: Andy, Matt and Greta and six grandchildren, Zach, Steven, Madeline, Alexa, Audrey and Spencer.

HALL OF FAME: In 2008, Niehaus received the Ford C. Frick Award and was included into the broadcasters wing of the National Baseball Hall of Fame. He became the 32nd recipient of the award and was honored during Hall of Fame Weekend 2008. Niehaus was the top vote-getter in the fan balloting for the 2005 Ford C. Frick Award and was also nominated by national vote of the fans for the 2003, 2004, 2006, 2007 and 2008 awards.

BROADCASTING CAREER: Niehaus broadcast Mariners baseball from the club's inception in 1977 through the 2010 season. During his 34 seasons behind the microphone for the Mariners, the "Voice of the Mariners" missed only 101 games, including 21 in 1996 (17 due to medical reasons). From 1977 through the 2010 season, he witnessed 5,284 of the 5,385 games played by the Mariners. He was recognized as one of the best and most exciting broadcasters in the game. He received the 2008 Seattle P-I Publisher's Award. In 2007, Niehaus served as the Grand Marshall in the Seafair Parade. In 2004, he was named Washington State Broadcaster of the Year by the Washington State Association of Broadcasters. Niehaus was also inducted into the Puget Sound Sports Hall of Fame. The Washington Council of the Blind gave him the 2004 One World Award. Niehaus threw out the Ceremonial First Pitch for the Inaugural Game at T-Mobile Park (July 15, 1999). He was named one of Seattle Times' Top 10 Most Influential People of the Century and named the Entertainer of the Century by a local radio station. In 1997, Niehaus was honored by the Washington State House of Representatives for his "contributions to the quality of life in the Pacific Northwest." He was elected Sportscaster of the Year for the state of Washington in 1995, 1996 and 1997 by his contemporaries in the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association. Niehaus was elected to the Washington State Hall of Fame in 2004. His expressions like "My Oh My" and "It will fly away" (for home runs) were synonymous with Mariners baseball throughout the Northwest. When he was inducted on May 7, 2000, he joined Mariner first baseman Alvin Davis as the first two members of the the Mariners Hall of Fame. He began his career with Armed Forces radio and TV service, calling the action for Dodgers games before moving to New York to handle Yankees baseball as well as basketball and hockey. After leaving the Armed Forces Network, he returned to Los Angeles to broadcast the Dodgers, Rams and Lakers. From 1969-76, he teamed with Dick Enberg and Don Drysdale to call the action for Angels. Dave also broadcast UCLA football and basketball (1973-76).

Guidelines for Selection to the Mariners Hall of Fame and Retirement of Uniform Number

The Mariners Hall of Fame was established in 1997 to honor the great players and other individuals who make positive contributions to the history of the Mariners franchise.

I. Eligible Candidates - To be eligible for consideration, uniformed personnel (player, manager or coach) should meet the following requirements:

- A. Active in a Mariners' uniform for at least five seasons;
- B. Ceased to be active in the Major Leagues at least two seasons preceding the selection, but may be otherwise connected with baseball.

To be eligible for consideration, non-uniformed personnel should meet the following requirements:

- A. Full-time employee of the Mariners for at least five seasons.
- B. Made significant contributions to Mariners baseball and the franchise, either on or off the field.

II. Method of Selection - The Mariners governing board, the Board of Directors of Baseball of Seattle, Inc., makes the selections for the Mariners Hall of Fame. Such selections may be made at the initiative of the Board, or at the recommendation of the Chief Executive Officer and the President of the Mariners, the Mariners front office, Mariners players, members of the media or the fans.

III. Criteria for Selection - The primary criterion for inclusion in the Mariners Hall of Fame for players shall be the on-field impact a player had while in a Mariners' uniform. The measure of a player's impact shall primarily be the statistical record created by the player.

The Mariners will consider other factors, such as:

- 1. Statistical impact on the field while in a non-Mariners uniform, whether before or after his tenure with the Mariners;
- 2. A player's positive impact on the Northwest community outside the game of baseball; and
- 3. A player's positive impact in enhancing the image of the Seattle Mariners or Major League Baseball.

IV. Time of Selection - The Board will consider recommendations of eligible candidates at least once each year, typically at its annual business meeting each fall. There may be more than one selection in a given year, and there may be no selection at all.

V. Retirement of Uniform Number - The Mariners plan to retire uniform numbers only very selectively and subject to substantially higher expectations than those applied to the Mariners Hall of Fame. To be eligible to have one's number retired, in addition to the criteria outlined above, the former Mariners should have either a) been elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame and been in a Mariners uniform for at least five years, or b) come close to such election and spent his entire career or a substantial portion of his career with the Mariners. Eligibility shall not commence until after the former player has been voted on once for the National Baseball Hall of Fame, which for all practical purposes means six years after retirement. In this regard, the Mariners will take into consideration the policy of other American League clubs in retiring uniform numbers. This determination will also be made by the Board.

VI. Amendments - The Seattle Mariners reserve the right to alter and amend these guidelines at any time.

MARINERS RETIRED NUMBERS

KEN GRIFFEY JR.'s number 24 was retired by the Seattle Mariners on August 6, 2016 in a pre-game ceremony at T-Mobile Park...Griffey became the 1st Mariner to have his number retired by the club... Griffey's number 24 was retired at every level of the Mariners organization...prior to Griffey, only five Mariners had worn number 24; Griffey wore number 24 for 13 seasons with the Mariners, beginning with his debut in 1989 and culminating with his final season in 2010...his number 24 hangs on the facade of the 2nd deck in left-center field, immediately to the right of Jackie Robinson's number 42...Griffey was the first player to request to honor Jackie by wearing his number 42 on April 15, 1997 at Cleveland.

EDGAR MARTINEZ's number 11 was retired by the Seattle Mariners on August 12, 2017 in a pre-game ceremony at T-Mobile Park...Martinez became the 2nd Mariner to have his number retired by the club, joining his former teammate Ken Griffey Jr. (number 24)...Martinez's number 11 hangs on the facade of the 2nd deck in left-center field, immediately to the right of Griffey's number 24...wore number 11 for 18 seasons as a player (1987-2004) and 4 seasons as a Major League hitting coach (2015-18), all with the Mariners...was the 8th and final player in club history to be issued number 11...became 7th player or manager to have number 11 retired by a Major League club...has appeared in more games than any pro athlete in Seattle sports history.

HISTORY

JACKIE ROBINSON's number 42 was retired universally throughout Major League Baseball on April 15, 1997, celebrating the 50th anniversary of his ground-breaking debut... in a ceremony prior to a game between the Los Angeles Dodgers and the New York Mets at Shea Stadium, Commissioner Bud Selig announced that Robinson's number 42 would be permanently retired across MLB...Robinson became the first African-American player in MLB in 1947 and was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1962.

MARINERS NO-HITTERS

RANDY JOHNSON

DATE: June 2, 1990    OPPONENT: Detroit    VENUE: Kingdome    CATCHER: Scott Bradley

Randy Johnson threw the first no-hitter in club history on June 2, 1990 vs. the Detroit Tigers at the Kingdome. Johnson's historic outing began with a strikeout of Tony Phillips and ended with a strikeout of Mike Heath. In between, he worked around 6 walks and a fielding error.

The defense behind Johnson that night was a who's who of Mariners legends: Harold Reynolds led off and started at 2nd base, while Alvin Davis manned 1st base, Ken Griffey Jr. patrolled center field, Edgar Martinez started at 3rd base and Jay Buhner roamed right field.

Randy Johnson being mobbed by Scott Bradley. Down to greet him is the entire Mariners team. Here on the 2nd of June, it ends at 9:51 Pacific Daylight Time. Randy Johnson with the first Mariner no-hitter in history, and they are going crazy."*
– DAVE NIEHAUS

CHRIS BOSIO

DATE: April 22, 1993    OPPONENT: Boston    VENUE: Kingdome    CATCHER: Dave Valle

Chris Bosio was working on only three days' rest when he walked the first two Red Sox batters he faced on April 22, 1993. But Bosio bounced back to get Mike Greenwell to hit into a double play on his way to retiring 26 consecutive batters.

Seattle's infield of Tino Martinez (1B), Bret Boone (2B), Omar Vizquel (SS) and Mike Blowers (3B) backed up Bosio by successfully converting 16 groundball outs.

The second no-hitter in Mariners club history ended when Vizquel barehanded Ernie Riles' chopper over second base and fired a strike to Martinez at first base.

COMBINED NO-HITTER

DATE: June 8, 2012 OPPONENT: Los Angeles-NL VENUE: T-Mobile Park CATCHER: Jesús Montero

Six Mariners combined to no-hit the Dodgers on June 8, 2012 at T-Mobile Park.

Kevin Millwood started and faced the minimum over 6.0 no-hit innings before leaving with a right groin strain. Charlie Furbush, Stephen Pryor, Lucas Luetge, Brandon League and Tom Wilhelmson combined to hold the Dodgers hitless over the final three innings.

It marked the 10th combined no-hitter in Major League history. Six pitchers tied the record for most in a combined no-no.

FÉLIX HERNÁNDEZ

DATE: August 15, 2012 OPPONENT: Tampa Bay VENUE: T-Mobile Park CATCHER: John Jaso

On August 15, 2012, Félix Hernández was perfect against the Tampa Bay Rays. He retired all 27 batters he faced, recording the first perfect game by a Mariner and the 23rd "perfecto" in Major League history, including the 7th 1-0 perfect game.

It remains the most recent perfect game in the Majors. Félix's 12 strikeouts are the 4th-most in a perfect game. Félix (26.129) became the youngest pitcher to throw a perfect game since Mike Witt (24.072) in 1984.

JAMES PAXTON

DATE: May 8, 2018 OPPONENT: Toronto VENUE: Rogers Centre CATCHER: Mike Zunino

James Paxton, a native of Ladner, British Columbia, no-hit the Toronto Blue Jays on May 8, 2018 at Rogers Centre...he joined Dick Fowler as the only Canadian-born pitchers in Major League history to toss a no-no.

Paxton allowed 3 walks while striking out 7 in tossing the Mariners first no-hitter on the road. Paxton needed only 99 pitches to keep the Blue Jays out of the hit column, becoming the 12th pitcher since 1988 to throw fewer than 100 pitches in a no-hitter. It was the 6th no-hitter in Canada.

ALL-STAR GAMES IN SEATTLE

July 17, 1979

National League 7, American League 6

MVP: Dave Parker (PIT)

Ceremonial First Pitch: Danny Kaye

Mariners All-Stars: Bruce Bochte (1B), Darrell Johnson (coach)

MLB's 50th All-Star Game was played at the Kingdome on July 17, 1979, in just the third season of the Mariners franchise.

The National League won 7-6, and the game featured 15 future Hall of Fame players. Both managers (Bob Lemon-AL and Tommy Lasorda-NL) have also been inducted in Cooperstown. The sellout crowd of 58,905 was a Seattle baseball record at the time. The Kingdome was considered a "home run paradise" but only two homers were hit in the game (Fred Lynn and Lee Mazzilli).

Mariners first baseman Bruce Bochte was greeted with a long standing ovation during pre-game introductions, and had the first hit and RBI by a Mariner in All-Star competition. Pittsburgh's Dave Parker, with a hit, an RBI and assists on two classic throws from right field to third base and home plate, was named the Game's MVP.

Mets center fielder Lee Mazzilli played a big role for the NL, belting a solo home run off Texas' Jim Kern in the 8th inning to even the score at 6-6. In the top of the 9th, Mazzilli drew a bases-loaded walk off the Yankees Ron Guidry to give the National League a 7-6 lead.

A pair of Hall of Famer pitchers got the starting assignments: Nolan Ryan for the American League and Steve Carlton for the National League.

ALL-STAR GAMES IN SEATTLE

July 10, 2001

American League 4, National League 1

MVP: Cal Ripken Jr. (BAL)    Ceremonial First Pitches: Luis Aparicio, Orlando Cepeda, Ferguson Jenkins, Juan Marichal, Tony Pérez

Mariners All-Stars: Bret Boone (2B), Mike Cameron (OF), John Olerud (1B), Edgar Martinez (DH), Ichiro Suzuki (OF), Freddy Garcia (RHP), Jeff Nelson (RHP), Kazuhiro Sasaki (RHP), Lou Piniella (Coach)

The 2001 All-Star Game was played at T-Mobile Park on July 10, just two years after the ballpark opened in July, 1999. The American League won 4-1, as several great moments were celebrated.

Cal Ripken Jr. and Tony Gwynn had already announced they would retire at the end of the season, and were presented with the Commissioner's Historic Achievement Award by Bud Selig. After a prolonged ovation from the crowd of 47,364 when he came to the plate in the third inning for the first time,

Cal homered on the first pitch he saw. He was later named the Game's MVP.

The Mariners, in the midst of a record-setting 116 wins, were represented by eight players. Freddy Garcia was the winning pitcher, Kazuhiro Sasaki earned the save, while Ichiro Suzuki and Mike Cameron hit safely.

Randy Johnson started the game for the National League, his final of 4 career All-Star Game starts, including 2 with the Mariners.

MARINERS ALL-STAR HISTORY

The Mariners have a rich All-Star Game history. The club has hosted two All-Star Games, sent 89 players, as well as six coaches, to the Midsummer Classic and boasts three Most Valuable Players and three starting pitchers.

In 1979, the All-Star Game was played in Seattle for the first time, as the Kingdome was the site of 7-6 National League victory. The Midsummer Classic returned to Seattle in 2001 for a 4-1 American League triumph at T-Mobile Park.

'07 ASG MVP Ichiro Suzuki

'92 ASG MVP Ken Griffey Jr.

The Mariners first All-Star representative was outfielder Ruppert Jones in 1977. Jones was just 22 years of age at the time, and he remained the club's youngest All-Star until a 20-year-old Ken Griffey Jr. in 1990.

Griffey and Ichiro Suzuki share the club record for most All-Star Game appearances with 10 apiece. Edgar Martinez earned 7 trips to the Midsummer Classic, while Félix Hernández had 6 and Randy Johnson had 5.

Five Mariners were selected to the 2003 All-Star Game in Chicago (AL), including 40-year-olds Martinez and Jamie Moyer. The Mariners became the first club in All-Star Game history to have a pair of 40-year-old players appear in the same Midsummer Classic.

In 2001, Freddy Garcia earned the win, while Kazuhiro Sasaki picked up the save in front of the hometown crowd. Edwin Diaz was credited with the win in the 2018 All-Star Game.

'17 ASG MVP Robinson Canó

MARINERS ALL-STAR HISTORY (continued)

This group combined for 28 All-Star Game appearances with the Mariners.

MOST VALUABLE PLAYERS

Three Mariners have been named Most Valuable Player of the Midsummer Classic: Ken Griffey Jr. in 1992 (at San Diego), Ichiro Suzuki in 2007 (at San Francisco) and Robinson Cano in 2017 (at Miami).

HOME RUNS AT THE ALL-STAR GAME

Griffey, Suzuki and Cano headline a list of six Mariners who have homered in the All-Star Game. They are joined by Edgar Martinez, who went deep of Greg Maddux at the 1997 summer showcase in Cleveland. One year later, Alex Rodriguez hit a solo home run off Andy Ashby in Denver. In 2018, Jean Segura pinch hit in the 8th inning and belted a go-ahead, three-run homer off Josh Hader in Washington, D.C.

STARTING PITCHERS

The two most successful pitchers in club history are also the only two Mariners pitchers to earn the starting nod in an All-Star Game.

Randy Johnson entered the 1991 All-Star Break with a record of 9-1, having struck out 152 batters in 109.1 innings of work. The Big Unit was on his way to his first career Cy Young Award when he was named the starting pitcher for the American League by manager Buck Showalter. Johnson worked 2.0 scoreless innings at The Ballpark in Arlington, fanning Barry Bonds, Fred McGriff and Ron Gant. Two years later, Johnson was again tabbed to start for the AL by manager Joe Torre. He tossed 2.0 scoreless innings in Cleveland, fanning Bonds and Craig Biggio.

In the first half of 2014, Félix Hernández ranked among the top-2 American League leaders in wins, ERA, innings and strikeouts, earning the start for the AL from manager John Farrell. Hernández struck out Yasiel Puig and Troy Tulowitzki in 1.0 scoreless inning in Minneapolis.

1995 AL DIVISION SERIES

Mariners defeat Yankees, 3-2

One of the greatest comebacks in MLB history sent the Mariners to the playoffs for the first time in club history. Seattle was 13 games behind the Angels on Aug. 13, and 7.5 back at the beginning of September, and prevailed in a one-game playoff to earn a trip to the ALDS. After losing the first two games of the ALDS vs. the Yankees at Yankee Stadium, the Mariners "Refused to Lose," winning the final three games at the Kingdome to advance to the ALCS. Edgar Martinez hit .571 (12x21) with 2 homers and 10 RBI in the 5-game series, including the game-winning double in the bottom of the 11th inning to score Ken Griffey Jr. in Game #5.

GOLD GLOVE LEGACY

The Mariners had at least one player win a Gold Glove winner in 24 consecutive seasons from 1987-2010. The streak started in 1987 when pitcher Mark Langston became the first Mariner ever to win a Gold Glove. Since 1998, the Mariners have captured 24 Gold Gloves (Ichiro - 10, Boone - 3, Olerud - 3, Griffey Jr. - 2, Cameron - 2, Beltre - 2, Gutierrez - 1, Seager - 1).

MINOR LEAGUES

MINOR LEAGUE STAFF

TONY ARNERICH

Field Coordinator

Tony Arnerich enters his fourth season in the Mariners organization, his first as Minor League Field Coordinator. He spent his first three seasons in the organization as Assistant Hitting Coordinator/Catching Coordinator. Prior to joining the Mariners organization he worked for The Catching Academy. Arnerich launched his coaching career after retiring as a player after the 2005 season. He spent seven years (2007-14) as an assistant coach at UC Berkeley and helped lead the Golden Bears to the 2011 College World Series. He was the head coach of the St. Cloud River Bats of the Northwoods League from 2005-08, leading his team to the first half title and the league championship in the summer of 2007. Arnerich also served as a part-time assistant coach in 2007 at Sonoma State, where he earned a degree in sociology in June of 2008. As a player, Arnerich attended Santa Rosa Junior College where he was a two-time, first-team all-league selection and a 2000 first-team Junior College All-American, helping guide his team to the 1999 California Junior College World Series. He then earned a scholarship to Texas Tech, where he was second-team All-Big 12 in 2001, leading the Red Raiders to an NCAA Regional berth. His number was retired following his 2001 season, and he is now a member of the Northwoods League All-Decade Team. Arnerich signed with the Kansas City Royals after his 2001 summer season and then played in the Florida organization from May 2004 through June 2005.

ADAM BERNERO

MANAGER

Austin Knight begins his fourth season in the Mariners organization, his second as manager of the Dominican Summer League Mariners. Opened the 2018 season as a volunteer coach at Dallas Baptist University and rejoined the Mariners as an assistant hitting coach with High-A Modesto. He spent the 2017 as the hitting coach for Short-A Everett. Prior to joining the Seattle organization, Knight spent one season as Head Coach of Northeast Texas Baseball. Knight was promoted in January of 2016 after serving one year as Recruiting Coordinator. Knight spent the prior two years as Volunteer Assistant at Texas A&M, and two years as a Volunteer Assistant at Dallas Baptist University. In 2015, the Eagles finished with a record of 30-21 and making it to the Semi-Finals of the Regional Tournament. In Knight's two years at Texas A&M, the Aggies competed in the SEC at a high level, making their 7th and 8th consecutive trips to the NCAA Regional Tournament. Knight was the infield coach for both seasons, as well as the first base coach in 2014. In his first two coaching years at Dallas Baptist, the Patriots made their first ever run to the NCAA Super Regional in 2011 and a NCAA Regional Championship game in 2012. Knight spent a summer coaching in the Texas Collegiate League for the Coppell Copperheads as well as the Northwoods League for the Lacrosse Loggers. As a player, Knight was a four-year starter at Dallas Baptist. He earned Freshman All-American honors his rookie season in 2007 after hitting .338 with 12 doubles and 43 RBI. He started every game at shortstop for the Patriots' 2008 squad that advanced to the College Station regional. Knight earned his Bachelor of Arts in Biblical Studies from Dallas Baptist in May 2010. He was awarded a Master of Education in Kinesiology from DBU in May 2012. His younger brother, Nash also played baseball at Dallas Baptist and currently plays in the Toronto Blue Jays organization.

BRETT SCHNEIDER

HITTING COACH

Brett Schneider begins his first season in the Mariners organization. Prior to joining the Mariners organization, he was a coach at Florida Atlantic University. He joined the FAU coaching staff in August of 2016, and was elevated to assistant coach following the season. He coached the outfielders, assisted with the hitters and served as first base coach. Additionally, he served as camp director for the Owl Baseball Academy, coordinating recruiting visits and organized opponent scouting reports. In 2016, Schneider was the team's director of baseball operations while completing his master's degree in educational leadership. He coordinated the team's travel and game day umpires, as well as the team's budgeting. An alumnus of North Florida, where he received his bachelor of education in sport management, Schneider served many roles as he earned his undergraduate degree. He was an assistant academic advisor and intern at the school, working with baseball, men's and women's golf, and softball. Prior to that, he was a three-year student assistant with the Ospreys' baseball team, serving as the visiting team liaison, ordering inventory and being in charge of on-campus visits for PSA's. Schneider has extensive baseball instruction experience as well. He has been a private hitting instructor at the Hard Knox Baseball Academy in Jacksonville and an offseason winter instructor in Delray Beach. For three years, he has worked with the Green Bay Bullfrogs of the Northwoods League. During 2016, he was named the summer league team's hitting coach as well as taking on third base coaching duties. During the 2017 offseason, Schneider was named as manager of the Richmond Jazz in the Great Lakes Summer Collegiate League. He took over a team that won 12 games in 2016, and led them to 29 overall wins and to the final game of the league championship series. For his efforts, he was selected 2017 Great Lakes League Manager of the Year.

JOSE AMANCIO VELOZ

PITCHING COACH

Jose Veloz begins his fourth season with the Mariners organization as Pitching Coach for the Dominican Summer League Mariners. Prior to joining the Mariners he spent three years with the MLB development program as a pitching coach for international talent development in the Dominican Republic, 2013-2016. After ending his playing career, he spent five years as a pitching coach in the San Diego Padres organization and was also pitching coach for the Oakland A's Dominican summer League affiliate 2006 and 2007. Veloz signed as a non-drafted free agent player with Oakland A's on August 27, 1998, playing three seasons in the minor leagues.

LUIS CABALLERO

COACH

Luis Caballero begins his fifth season in the Mariners organization, his fourth as a coach with the Dominican Summer League Mariners. After wrapping up his playing career, began his coaching career in 2016 with the A Clinton LumberKings. Signed out of Panama on January 10, 2010 by the Atlanta Braves, Caballero was acquired by the Mariners as the player to be named later in the trade that sent Jack Wilson to the Braves. Caballero played six total seasons in the minor leagues, four of them being with the Mariners.

GUADY JABALERA

COACH

Guady Jabalera begins his second season in the Mariners organization as a coach for the DSL Mariners. Jabalera started his playing career with the Gulf Coast League Astros, leading the league in fielding percentage by second basemen. The San Pedro de Macoris native began coaching in the Seattle Mariners system in 1991. From 1998-2000, he was the hitting coach for the DSL Red Sox, and took over as Manager in 2001. He became a hitting coach in 2002 with the Augusta Greenjackets, a class A affiliate of the Red Sox. From 2004-2008, he coached in the Mets organization in the DSL as well as with the Class A Brooklyn Cyclones who made it to the championship series. In 2009, Jabalera coached for the St. Lucie Mets of the Florida State League. He made a stop back in the DSL in 2010 with the Indians before spending 6 years in the Braves organization. Through the years Jabalera has made a big impact in the Dominican Winter League, most recently as the 3rd base coach for Las Estrellas of San Pedro De Macoris. He also won 5 championships with Licey of Santo Domingo, and one with Aguilas. Three of those teams went on to win Caribbean Series Championships. He lives with his wife Silvia Maria Montes de Oca in San Pedro de Macoris, and they have one son and two daughters.

LUIS MATIAS

Assistant, Dominican Republic Operations

Luis Matias begins his sixth season in the Seattle Mariners organization, his third as Assistant of Dominican Republic Operations. Prior to his new role, spent three seasons as the Video Coordinator for the DSL Mariners. Matias was originally signed by the Mariners as an International Free Agent on July 3, 2009. He spent four seasons with the DSL Mariners, batting .215 (109x507) in 183 career games.

T-MOBILE PARK

T-Mobile Park is the home of the Seattle Mariners. Since the Inaugural Game on July 15, 1999, more than 50,000,000 fans have passed through the gates of the ballpark.

The Mariners are truly a regional team, drawing from one of the largest geographic home territories in Major League Baseball – Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana, Alaska and parts of Western Canada. We have learned from surveys that over half our fans come from outside King County, and nearly half (48%) tell us they travel more than one hour to get to the ballpark on game days.

Once they arrive at T-Mobile Park, fans are treated to one of the best ballparks in baseball, with a combination of the charm of a classic ballpark and the modern touches that make a fan's game experience that much better, including free WiFi and one of the largest HD videoscreens in all of MLB.

Sightlines from all seating areas are designed for optimal viewing. There are plenty of places to gather and casually watch the game while enjoying the beauty of the natural surroundings of Puget Sound and the downtown Seattle skyline.

In addition to baseball, T-Mobile Park has hosted such events as varied as U.S. Men's soccer matches, Women's Gold Cup Soccer, the 2001 Seattle Bowl NCAA football game, WWE's Wrestlemania XIX, the WIAA State High School Baseball Championships, high school and collegiate baseball games, major concerts, numerous graduations, weddings, proms, trade shows, birthday parties and holiday celebrations.

Over the years, T-Mobile Park has received numerous honors and appeared on many Top 10 and "best" lists. The ballpark was one of only two Seattle buildings to be named in the American Institute of Architects poll of America's favorite buildings. Opposing players have named it their second favorite ballpark to play in, behind Wrigley Field (MLB.com players' survey). ESPN.com staff and readers named the ballpark among their Top 10 in separate surveys, and noted travel guidebook Zagat ranked T-Mobile Park one of the top family-friendly attractions in the nation.

T-Mobile Park has achieved something fans, public officials and the Mariners ownership craved for most of the franchise's history – stability for Major League Baseball in the Northwest. The public-private partnership that built the ballpark resulted in a beautiful facility for all to enjoy and a solid foundation for the Seattle Mariners. The Mariners 25-year lease agreement with the Washington State Major League Baseball Stadium Public Facilities District obligates the Mariners to pay over $600 million to maintain and improve T-Mobile Park to ensure that it remains in first-class condition and among the best ballparks in baseball.

RETRACTABLE ROOF

During the 2019 season, the T-Mobile Park retractable roof was closed (or moved during play) in 14 of 81 games (17%). Since T-Mobile Park opened in July 1999, the roof has been in use during 355 of 1,667 games (21%). The roof is necessary to guard against the risk of a rain out. With almost half of all fans reporting that they drive an hour or more to get to T-Mobile Park, fans are assured that if they make the trip, they'll see a ballgame.

T-Mobile Park's retractable roof covers but does not enclose the field and seating areas, thus preserving an open-air environment. The structure has a footprint of nearly nine acres, weighs 22 million pounds, and contains enough steel to build a 55-story skyscraper. The three movable panels glide on 128 steel wheels powered by 96 10-horsepower electric motors. The roof can extend or retract in 10-20 minutes, depending on weather conditions.

SCOREBOARD SYSTEM

T-Mobile Park is home to one of the largest HD videoscreens in all of MLB. The LED technology Sanyo system measures 56.7' high by 201.5' wide. The total viewing area, 11,425 square feet, is equal to about 2,182 42-inch flat screen TVs. The 1080p x 3840 screen resolution provides image quality that is superior to broadcast HD signals. The video screen can be programmed for live action or video replays, split into sectors for graphics and animation and statistical data. The videoscreen integrates seamlessly with the Out-of-Town LED board and the LED ribbon boards on the Terrace Club fascia.

PLAYING FIELD

T-Mobile Park's playing surface is designed for the Northwest climate and the retractable roof. The 100% Kentucky bluegrass turf provides a durable playing surface that grows well despite low levels of direct sunlight. The retractable roof can remain closed, if needed, for six consecutive days without harming the grass. The entire playing surface was rebuilt after the 2017 season and new sod was installed prior to the 2020 season.

CONCESSIONS AND RESTAURANTS

T-Mobile Park's concessions and catering services are provided by Centerplate, one of the nation's largest providers of food, catering, merchandise and facility management services for sports, convention and entertainment venues. Fans will find a variety of fresh, high-quality choices from the Northwest and around the world available at the ballpark including local favorites such as Ivar's and Kidd Valley. T-Mobile Park consulting chef Ethan Stowell has created a variety of menu items including grass-fed burgers, house-made BBQ beef and Dungeness crab sandwiches, all using fresh, local ingredients. Fans will also find sushi and other Asian delicacies, organic, gluten-free and vegetarian options, as well as classic ballpark fare. The Hit it Here Café and Edgar's Cantina provide seating before and during games, and the members-only Terrace Club, KeyBank Diamond Club, Emerald Queen All-Star Club, private and group suites offer a selection of creative and delicious food.

SPECIAL FEATURES

T-Mobile Park has a number of unique and interesting areas for fans to enjoy before and during games. The T-Mobile 'Pen is an event-within-an-event. Located behind left and center field, the area features premium concessions from chef Stowell including his brick oven Ballard Pizza, The Rail bar and Caught Looking Lounge, a Seattle Mariners Team Store, as well as the Fan Walk personalized bricks. The terraces behind the center field fence offer a lively atmosphere to meet and mingle with other fans and one of the best views of the game.

Newly remodeled (and renamed), Trident Deck is located at the end of the left field line on the 300 (View) Level. The full service bar with a casual backyard-like feel has bench seating and picnic tables. The space is available for sale to groups during games and open to all fans when not in use for group events.

The new Rooftop Boardwalk above the Home Plate Gate Rotunda on the View Level includes a raised walkway for enhanced views of Puget Sound, bench seating and tables, monitors, destination concession stands, a new bar area, and Kids Corner baseball themed activities. The space is available for sale to groups for pregame events and open to all fans at game time.

The Terrace Club has two new seating concepts for 2020 with the addition of 18 Terrace Club Tables that accommodate four people each as well as 10 Terrace Club Loge Boxes with padded sofa-style seats that accommodate up to four guests. Both concepts include video monitors, charging stations for mobile devices and in-seat wait staff service with exclusive menu options.

The Seattle Children's Playfield is located on the Main Concourse in center field. It lets kids work off excess energy on fun, baseball-themed playground equipment. Inside the Playfield is Moose's Munchies, a concession stand just for kids featuring menu items like peanut butter and jelly sandwiches, small hot dogs, Cracker Jack and soft drinks, all served in a souvenir plastic bucket.

Immediately outside the Playfield is the Seattle Children's Wishing Well. Coins tossed into the Wishing Well are donated to Seattle Children's to support patient care.

The Baseball Museum of the Pacific Northwest and Seattle Mariners Hall of Fame provide a connection to the region's rich baseball history. They are co-located on the Main Concourse along the third base line and are open to all fans during games.

The flagship Mariners Team Store is open year-round with one of the world's largest selections of Mariners apparel and merchandise for men, women and children. The Kid's Clubhouse, located next to the Children's Playfield, caters to children and youth.

Works by 11 Northwest artists are incorporated into the design of the ballpark and parking garage. The ambitious $1.3 million public art program includes a variety of installations that celebrate the game of baseball including a huge bronze mitt outside the Left Field Gate and a chandelier of 1,000 translucent, regulation-sized baseball bats above the Home Plate Gate grand staircase.

SUSTAINABILITY

The Seattle Mariners are committed to operating the franchise and T-Mobile Park in an environmentally responsible manner. In 2017, these efforts earned the Mariners the "Green Glove Award" for the highest recycling rate in Major League Baseball (96%). Every year since 2010, the Mariners have been named American League recycling champions.

In 2015, T-Mobile Park became the first MLB ballpark to illuminate the playing field with LED lights. The lights reduce glare and shadows on the field providing a better experience for players and fans (both at the ballpark and watching at home on HD TV). The lights use 60% less power and have a lifespan of 30-years (vs. three years for the old metal halide lights).

An array of solar panels on the roof of the skybridge to the Mariners parking garage generate 40,000-kilowatt hours of power annually and four electric vehicle charging stations are available to the public year round.

Through conservation and capital investments, the Mariners have made great strides in reducing consumption of electricity, water and natural gas, significantly reducing the team's impact on the environment. (More information is available at Mariners.com/Green.)

BALLPARK HISTORY

- March 30, 1994 – King County Executive Gary Locke appoints a 28-member task force to assess the need for cost, potential location and advisability of public investment in a new Major League Baseball stadium.
- January 11, 1995 – Stadium Alternative Task Force recommends public involvement in financing a new MLB stadium.
- September 19, 1995 – A proposal to increase the sales tax by .01% in King County to pay for construction of the ballpark is narrowly defeated by voters.
- October 14, 1995 – A special session of the Washington State Legislature authorizes a different funding package for a new stadium that includes a car rental surcharge, a ballpark admissions tax, a King County food and beverage tax in restaurants, a credit against the state sales tax and sale of special stadium-themed license plates.
- October 23, 1995 – King County Council approves the funding package and establishes the Washington State Major League Baseball Stadium Public Facilities District (PFD) to own the ballpark and oversee its design, construction and operation.
- January 29, 1996 – Seattle-based NBBJ is chosen by the PFD Board as the project architect.
- April 1996 – Hunt-Kiewit is chosen by the PFD Board as general contractor for construction of the ballpark.
- September 9, 1996 – The ballpark site is selected south of the Kingdome between Royal Brougham Way and South Atlantic Street.
- March 8, 1997 – 30,000 people turn out as Ken Griffey Jr. helps officially break ground for the new ballpark.
- June 4, 1998 – Naming rights for the ballpark are sold to Seattle-based Safeco Corporation, which signed a 20-year commitment.
- July 15, 1999 – A sellout crowd of 44,604 attends the Inaugural Game against San Diego.
- July 10, 2001 – The 72nd MLB All-Star Game is held at T-Mobile Park (then known as Safeco Field). The AL defeats the NL, 4-1. The Mariners are represented by eight players and manager Lou Piniella.
- April 2, 2007 – The Baseball Museum of the Pacific Northwest opens on the main concourse between sections 132-136.
- October 1, 2011 – The Limited Tax General Obligation bonds for the construction of T-Mobile Park are retired – five years ahead of schedule.
- August 6, 2016 – Ken Griffey Jr.'s number 24 is displayed in center field, the first retired number in franchise history.
- August 12, 2017 – Edgar Martinez's number 11 is retired, the second such honor in club history.
- December 19, 2018 – The Mariners and T-Mobile announce a 25-year partnership including naming rights to T-Mobile Park.

BASEBALL MUSEUM OF THE PACIFIC NORTHWEST

The Baseball Museum of the Pacific Northwest and the Seattle Mariners Hall of Fame is located on the Main Concourse (100-level) of T-Mobile Park, opposite sections 132-136. It is open to all fans during every Mariners home game.

With the assistance of noted local baseball historian Dave Eskenazi, the museum tells the story of the rich history of the game of baseball in the Pacific Northwest from the 1880's to today, and displays interesting artifacts, photos and exhibits. The museum space originally opened in 2007. Each year, elements of the displays are updated.

The Seattle Mariners Hall of Fame was established in 1997 to honor the best of Mariners Baseball. There are nine current inductees – Alvin Davis (inducted in 1997), Dave Niehaus (2000), Jay Buhner (2004), Edgar Martinez (2007), Randy Johnson (2012), Dan Wilson (2012), Ken Griffey Jr. (2013), Lou Piniella (2014) and Jamie Moyer (2015).

The Baseball Museum of the Pacific Northwest was funded through the proceeds of the sale of personalized brick pavers, which are located in The Pen. A total of 12,500 pavers were sold to fans by the Washington State Major League Baseball Public Facilities District (PFD).

PEORIA SPORTS COMPLEX

The City of Peoria, Seattle Mariners and San Diego Padres opened the Peoria Sports Complex in 1994, the first shared spring training facility in Arizona. Peoria Stadium is the centerpiece of the complex, which includes five and a half practice fields as well as headquarters for both teams on 145 acres.

- Peoria Stadium underwent extensive renovations in 2016 and 2017, adding seats, two fan pavilion areas and an expanded Team Store. The park seats 12,518 fans. The dimensions of the outfield are 340 ft. down each line, 385 ft. in the power alleys and 410 ft. to center.
- Complex is located 20 miles northwest of downtown Phoenix, just off Loop 101.
- The Mariners used the Padres facilities in the spring training of 1993, when the Seattle club played all its Cactus League games on the road.
- From the Mariners inception in 1977 through 1992, Tempe Diablo Stadium was the spring home of the Mariners.
- The Mariners facilities are used in the summer by their Peoria team (Arizona League), and in the fall for Arizona Fall League baseball.
- The Peoria Sports Complex is “green” and environmentally friendly, and promotes renewable, clean energy. The rooftop solar panels supply nearly half of the facility’s annual energy use.

The team Spring Training facilities are LEED Gold certified. LEED certified buildings save money and resources and have a positive impact on the health of occupants, while promoting renewable, clean energy. LEED, or Leadership in Energy & Environmental Design, is a green building certification program that recognizes best-in-class building strategies and practices.

DIRECTIONS: The Peoria Sports Complex is located east of West Loop 101 between Bell and Thunderbird. From I-10: Take Loop 101 North. Exit Bell Road (exit 14) and head east. Turn south on 83rd Avenue. Peoria Sports Complex is approximately one-quarter mile down on the east side of 83rd Avenue. From I-17: Take Loop 101 West and exit on Bell Road east (exit 14). From Bell Road, turn south on 83rd Avenue. Peoria Sports Complex is approximately one-quarter mile down on the east side of 83rd Avenue.

T-MOBILE PARK GROUND RULES

Photographer's Areas

The ball is "in play" if it hits any of the railings defining the photographer wells and bounces back onto the playing field.

Ball Hitting Roof Trusses

A batted ball hitting a roof truss in fair territory shall be judged fair or foul in relation to where it lands or is touched by a fielder. If a batted ball is caught by a fielder, the batter is out and base runners advance at their own risk.

A batted ball hitting a roof truss in foul territory is a dead ball, regardless of where it lands or is caught by a fielder.

Outfield Area

Netting in the right field corner in foul territory is above and beyond the wall. A batted ball that bounds into the netting is a dead ball whether or not it rebounds onto the playing field: Two Bases.

Dugouts

A ball must enter the dugout to be considered a dead ball.

Movement of Roof

If a game is started with the roof closed, it may be opened when, in the opinion of the home club, climactic conditions warrant such opening. However, roof may be opened only once during a game and shall commence only between innings after the umpire crew chief has been notified. Prior to opening of roof, the visiting club may challenge the opening if it feels a competitive imbalance will arise. The crew chief will make a final decision based on the merits of the challenge.

If a game is started with the roof open, it may be closed during the game. The decision to close the roof shall be made by the home club, and may be made solely for the comfort of its fans. Play will continue during roof closure if possible. However, the umpires have the right to stop play during this process if they determine it is necessary to do so.

KINGDOME FAREWELL

After 22-and-a-half years, the Seattle Mariners said farewell to the Kingdome on Sunday, June 27, 1999. A sold-out crowd of 56,530 fans watched the Mariners defeat the Texas Rangers 5-2. A post-game ceremony featured a ceremonial "final pitch" in the Kingdome, as Bob "Scrap Iron" Stinson caught a pitch tossed by Cory Segui, the grandson of Diego Segui. Segui and Stinson made up the starting battery of the Mariners inaugural game on April 6, 1977. Mariners Legends who participated in the post-game ceremony included Hall of Famer Gaylord Perry, Ruppert Jones, Alvin Davis, Julio Cruz and Harold Reynolds.

BROADCASTERS

RICK RIZZS, the Mariners primary voice on radio, is in his 35th season with the broadcast team in 2020. His 35 years with the Mariners surpass Dave Niehaus as the longest-tenured broadcaster in club history. Rick has been a part of the Mariners broadcast team continuously since 1995, following an original nine-year stint with the club from 1983-1991.

Rick received the 2017 Keith Jackson Award from the Seattle Sports Commission for excellence in communicating the sports stories of our state.

Rick is a 1975 graduate of Southern Illinois University in Carbondale.

From 1975-80, he handled double-A baseball play-by-play duties for Alexandria, Amarillo and Memphis. He became the sports director at WBNS radio in Columbus, Ohio in 1981, where he called Ohio State football and Triple-A baseball for two seasons. He was named the Ohio "Sportscaster of the Year" in 1981 by the Ohio Sportscasters Association. Rick was originally hired to broadcast Mariners games in 1983 and spent nine seasons with the club. In 2000, Rick was named the Chicago-area sportscaster of the year by the Chicago Pitch and Hit Club. He also spent three seasons calling the play-by-play with Bob Rathbun on radio for the Detroit Tigers from 1992-94.

Throughout the year, Rick also heads Toys For Kids, a non-profit he co-founded in 1995. In 2019, Toys for Kids donated toys for more than 11,000 homeless and hospitalized children and presented six $5,000 educational scholarships. Rick resides in Issaquah. He has one son, Nick, two grandsons, Jaxon and Braedon, and one granddaughter, Ryan.

DAVE SIMS is in his 14th season with the Mariners broadcast team. He has won back-to-back Washington Sportscaster of the Year awards from the National Sports Media Association. Sims, who has play-by-play duties on Mariners television broadcasts, is familiar to sports fans for calling MLB and college basketball games on ESPN, as well as NCAA Basketball and NFL play-by-play on Westwood One.

He co-hosts "Basketball & Beyond with Coach K" for Sirius XM with Duke University coach Mike Krzyzewski, is a correspondent for MLB Network and calls Big East college basketball on FS1. The two-time Emmy Award winner also won the American Football Foundation's Outstanding Sportscaster Award in 2003 and the Big East Media Award in 2005. Sims began his career as a sportswriter for the New York Daily News prior to becoming a weekend sports anchor at WCBS-TV. In 1991, he joined ESPN as a play-by-play announcer for college basketball. From 1998-2014, he did NFL play-by-play, including Sunday Night and Monday Night Football, as well as the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, for Westwood One.

Sims grew up in Philadelphia and graduated from Bethany College in West Virginia. From 1998-2007, Sims and his wife Abby ran "AthletiSense," an athletes media coaching program that worked with football and basketball teams in the PAC-12, Big East, Big 12, Atlantic 10, and Mountain West. They have two sons, and two granddaughters.

MIKE BLOWERS, who enters his 14th season as the Mariners television analyst, is a long-time fan favorite who did three tours with the Mariners (1992-1995, 1997, 1999). Prior to joining the Mariners broadcast team in 2007, Blowers spent four years as the pre- and post-game analyst on KOMO 1000 News broadcasts of Mariners games. Blowers was a stand-out at Bethel High School in Spanaway, WA, and was a Pac-10 Triple Crown winner while with the University of Washington. During his 11-year MLB career, Blowers also played for the Yankees (1989-91), Dodgers (1996) and Athletics (1998). He played in the postseason with the Mariners in 1995 and 1997. During Seattle's memorable 1995 season, he set career highs in almost every statistical category, including 113 hits, 24 doubles, 23 homers and 96 RBI. He tied a Major League record with three grand slams in a single month in August of '95, when he hit .283 with nine homers and a club-record tying 33 RBI. Blowers received the first-ever "Unsung Hero" award from the Seattle chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America in 1993. He was originally selected by the Montreal Expos in the 10th round of the 1986 June draft. After being traded to the Yankees on Aug. 29, 1989, Blowers made his Major League debut with the Yankees on Sept. 1 vs. California. He made his first ML start against the Mariners on Sept. 5, 1989. Blowers lives in Graham, with his wife Nicole and their four children.

BROADCASTERS (continued)

AARON GOLDSMITH enters his eighth season with the Mariners broadcast team in 2020. Goldsmith calls Mariners baseball on radio and TV, and is actively involved in non-game related broadcasting, including the Mariners Hot Stove Show, Cactus League Report and Sunday Mariners Magazine. He also hosts The Wheelhouse with Jerry Dipoto, a podcast with the Mariners General Manager. Aaron broadcasts Major League Baseball, college football and college basketball on FOX, FS1 and Pac-12 Network.

A St. Louis, Mo., native, Aaron graduated from Principia College in Elsah, IL, with a BA in history. After college he attended the Broadcast Center in St. Louis, earning a certificate in Radio Broadcasting and Production. He spent the 2012 season as the lead announcer for the Triple-A Pawtucket Red Sox. Prior to joining Pawtucket, Goldsmith spent the 2010 and 2011 seasons as the radio broadcaster for the Frisco RoughRiders, the Double-A affiliate of the Texas Rangers. He also served as the team's Manager of Broadcasting/Media Development. In 2009, Aaron was the broadcaster/studio host for the Portland Sea Dogs, the Red Sox Double-A affiliate in the Eastern League. Goldsmith began his broadcast career in 2007 with the Gateway Grizzlies in the independent Frontier League, and called the Bourne Braves games in the Cape Cod Baseball League in 2008. Aaron lives in Seattle with his wife and three children.

GARY HILL JR. enters his third season as the Executive Producer/Engineer for all Mariners radio broadcasts in 2020. The Tacoma native joined the club full-time in 2018 after spending 8 seasons in a variety of roles with the Mariners Radio Network from 2010-2017.

Since 2010, Gary has hosted Mariners pre- and post-game shows, filled in on play-by-play duties, hosted the Mariners official daily podcast and contributed to the Sunday Mariners Magazine. In his new role, he will continue to have an on-air presence as a member of the Mariners broadcast team. After graduating from Washington State University in 2000, Gary has been a fixture on local sports radio, covering baseball, basketball and football. He is also currently the voice of University of Washington women's basketball. Gary resides in Burien, Wash., with his wife, Mary, son, Baker and daughter, Finley.

JIM ARMINTROUT is in his fourth full season with Mariners television in 2020. He serves as the director for telecasts on ROOT SPORTS™ Northwest.

Born and raised in Edmonds, Wash., Jim has been working in the television industry for more than 30 years, including the last 27 years as a producer or director with MLB, NBA, NFL and NHL clubs. He directed Mariners telecasts for NHK (Japan) from 2001-2003, and from 2013-2016 directed a partial schedule of Mariners telecasts. Most recently, he has directed Colorado Rockies telecasts on ROOT SPORTS™ Rocky Mountain and Los Angeles Lakers telecasts on Spectrum SportsNet.

SPANISH BROADCASTER

ALEX RIVERA is in his 14th season as Spanish play-by-play voice of the Mariners broadcast team in 2020. The former Latin and Reggae musician, brings flavor and soul to the Mariners Spanish Broadcast Team. Since making the cross-country move, the New York native has built up a wealth of experience in the Seattle area. In addition to collaborating on previous Spanish broadcasts with the Mariners, Alex has also worked for Spanish publications El Mundo and La Voz as well as Radio Sol during his career in print and on the airwaves. Alex lives in Edmonds with his wife Cindy and daughters, Gloria and Alexis.

RADIO/TELEVISION INFORMATION

710 ESPN Seattle (AM) is the flagship station for Mariners Baseball, broadcasting every Mariners regular season game and 30 spring training games (10 on a delayed basis) in 2020.

The Mariners have a year-round presence on 710 ESPN Seattle including play-by-play, as well as pre-game and post-game programming, a Sunday magazine feature program during the baseball season, the Hot Stove Show during the off-season and the Cactus League Report during Spring Training.

ROOT SPORTS Northwest is the television home of Mariners Baseball, carrying every Mariners regular season game (except games restricted by MLB national agreements) as well as 10 spring training games in 2020.

ROOT SPORTS Northwest is distributed to approximately 3.2 million homes through the states of Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana and Alaska. All games are produced in high definition. For seven consecutive years, the regional sports network has been the recipient of EMMY Awards for the quality of its production.

In addition to spring training and regular season games, Mariners programming includes pre and post-game shows, the Batting Practice Show before most Saturday home games, and the weekly Mariners All-Access, which includes behind-the-scenes features, instruction and other unique aspects of Mariners Baseball.

All games televised by ROOT SPORTS Northwest are available in high definition.

SPANISH AUDIO FEED: ROOT SPORTS Northwest provides a Spanish-language feed of all Mariners home games telecasts. The feed is available to all ROOT affiliates (cable, satellite, etc.) which provide Secondary Audio Programming (SAP) to their subscribers.

A CAPSULE HISTORY OF PROFESSIONAL BASEBALL IN SEATTLE

- 1890: The first professional baseball team in Seattle was organized. The Seattle Reds played in the Class-C Pacific Northwest League.
- 1892: The Reds (first-half champions) won the PNL Pennant when the Portland club declined to enter the playoffs because of financial problems.
- 1896: Club was re-named “Braves” and moved into its first stadium (Athletic Park – 14th and Yesler).
- 1903: The AAA Pacific Coast League was formed and Seattle was a charter member. Thus, Seattle had two professional baseball teams for one season (the Braves played in the Pacific National League and folded after one year).
- 1906-17: Seattle ended its membership in the PCL and joined the Class-B Northwestern League.
- 1919: Seattle re-joined the PCL. The club was named “Indians” and played a 225-game schedule (the extended season format continued through the 1957 PCL season).
- 1937: Emil Sick bought the Seattle franchise for $115,000 and immediately changed the nickname to “Rainiers” (Mr. Sick also owned and operated the Rainier Brewing Company).
- 1938: On June 15, the Rainiers moved into Sick’s Seattle Stadium (capacity of 11,500). Local sports hero Fred Hutchinson went 25-7 in his rookie season.
- 1939-41: The Rainiers won three consecutive PCL pennants.
- 1946: Seattle Steelheads of West Coast Negro Baseball League played the inaugural game of their only season on June 1 vs. San Diego Tigers at Sicks' Stadium.
- 1955: Hutchinson returned as manager of the Rainiers and led the club to another PCL crown. In addition, the first official proposal for a domed stadium in Seattle was made (bond issues for the project failed in 1960 and 1964).
- 1960: Sick sold the club to the Boston Red Sox. Seattle became the Red Sox AAA affiliate.
- 1965-68: The California Angels purchased the club and Bob Lemon managed Seattle to its last PCL baseball championship in 1966.
- 1967: Public approval was given for funds needed to build a domed stadium (completion was scheduled to be prior to the 1972 season).
- 1969: An expansion team, the Seattle Pilots came into existence and began play in the American League. Sicks Stadium was expanded to seat 28,500.
- 1970: On March 31, financial difficulties resulted in the Pilots moving to Milwaukee (club was re-named “Brewers”). Plans to build a domed stadium were temporarily interrupted.
- 1972-76: Seattle fielded a team in the Class-A Northwest League.
- 1977: On April 6, Major League Baseball returned to Seattle when the Mariners played the California Angels before a Kingdome crowd of 57,762. The Mariners starting pitcher that night was Diego Segui, a member of the 1969 Pilots.
- 1979: The 50th MLB All-Star Game was played at the Kingdome on July 17. The NL defeated the AL 7-6.
- 1995: On October 2, Seattle won its first American League West pennant.
- 1999: On June 27, Mariners played their last game in Kingdome, defeating Texas 5-2.
- 1999: On July 15, Seattle played its first game in the new outdoor ballpark, T-Mobile Park, against the San Diego Padres, losing 3-2.
- 2001: On October 6, Seattle tied a ML record by recording its 116th win of the season.
- 2012: On August 15 vs. Tampa Bay, Félix Hernández threw the first perfect game in club history.
- 2016: On July 24 in Cooperstown, NY, Ken Griffey Jr. became the first player inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame as a Mariner.
- 2019: On July 21 in Cooperstown, NY, Edgar Martínez became the second Mariner to be inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame.
