The list above contains only those who appeared for Orioles in at least one regular season game.

Larry Doby, for example, was on roster during winter of '57-'58 but was traded before season started.

Bruce Swango and Larry Haney (and possibly others) were with club during a season but did not appear in any games.

RULES OF INTEREST

FREE AGENT DRAFT RULE—A BRIEF SUMMARY: Major League and National Association clubs meet twice a year for the purpose of drafting free agent player talent . . . Selection of a free agent entitles the club to the exclusive right of negotiation with that player for a specified period (from date of selection until 15 days prior to next draft meeting).

Approximate dates of draft meetings: Summer (June 10) and Winter (last Saturday of January) . . .

There are two phases to each draft meeting:

(1) Regular Phase—selection of free agents in inverse order of major league standings . . . Limitations on number of selections by each organization at each level: Major League (1), "AAA" (1), "AA" (1), "A" (unlimited) . . . Minor league clubs select in the same relative order as their parent clubs.

(2) Special Phase—selection of free agents who had been drafted at a previous meeting, but who were not subsequently signed before the negotiation right expired . . . It is possible for a club to redraft a player whom it had been unable to sign after the original selection, but only with express written consent of that player . . . Order of selection in the special phase is determined by lot.

SUSPENDED GAME RULE: A game terminated by curfew or by a pre-arranged time limit is a suspended game if it has progressed far enough to be an official game (i.e. 4½ or 5 innings) . . .

A game terminated by light failure is a suspended game anytime after it begins.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding the next scheduled single game between the two clubs on the same ground . . . If this is not possible, other provisions for resumption are specified in American League Regulation 3.8 . . .

A game called at the END of a completed inning AFTER NINE INNINGS for any reason shall be a TIE game and NOT a SUSPENDED game, and must be replayed in its entirety.

MINIMUM MAJOR LEAGUE SALARY: A player is entitled to a minimum rate of $7000 per year if he is on the roster during the period June 15 thru August 31 . . . If such a player was on the roster before June 15 he is also entitled to the $7000 rate retroactive to the date he joined the club during that season.

A player who is on the roster before June 15, but who is no longer with the parent club on that date, as well as a player who joins the club after August 31 will be paid at the rate of at least $6000 per year for each day of service.

TRADING REGULATIONS:

Waiver Requirements	From Midnight—	In Effect: To Midnight—
(Within Own League)
No Waivers Necessary.....	Last Day of Season	June 15
League Waivers.....	June 15	Last Day of Season
(Inter-League)
No Waivers (inter-league trading period).....	November 20	December 15
League Waivers (assignor's league).....	December 15	June 15
Major League Waivers.....	June 15	Last Day of Season
League Waivers (assignor's league).....	Last Day of Season	November 20

BATTING/PITCHING (ERA) CHAMPION QUALIFICATION: 502 or more plate appearances. 162 or more innings.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS: To qualify as a Rookie a player may not have spent more than 45 days on a big league roster between cut-down dates (the 31st day of season and Sept. 1), AND may not have exceeded 90 official at bats or 45 innings pitched at major league level.

"SAVE" RULE (as formulated by Sporting News)—Credit a save if a relief pitcher: (1) faces the tying or winning run at any time and finishes the game while preserving a lead . . . (2) enters the game in the final inning with a two-run lead and finishes the game while preserving a lead . . . (3) enters with a three-run lead and pitches two or more innings while preserving a lead . . . Ordinarily a pitcher must finish a game to be credited with a save, except in a case when a pitcher faces the tying or winning and then is removed for a pinch-hitter, and the subsequent pitcher(s) does not face the tying or winning run while finishing the game.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

FRED HOFFMAN AWARD: Named in honor of the late Orioles scout, it was instituted in 1965 to honor a member of the Orioles scouting staff for his "service and dedication to his profession" . . . Barney Lutz who died last summer was the first winner.

The 1966 award was presented to Walter Youse who covers the Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia and Delaware areas.

TRIPLE CROWN AWARD: This trophy, presented by the National Brewing Company, was created last winter to honor major league players who lead their league in batting, home runs and runs batted in one season, an accomplishment achieved only 12 times in major league history. . . .

The first recipient was Frank Robinson who paced the American League last season with a .316 average, 49 home runs and 122 runs batted in. . . . The trophy will be given to each winner for his permanent possession while a duplicate which will bear the names of all winners has been donated to the Baseball Museum in Cooperstown.

Actually only ten ballplayers have won the "Triple Crown" for which heretofore there has been no specific award given. . . . Rogers Hornsby (Cardinals, '22 and '25) and Ted Williams (Red Sox, '42 and '47) have both won it twice.

The most recent winner before Robinson was Mickey Mantle in 1956. . . . Other Triple Crown titlists: Ty Cobb (Tigers, '09), Heinie Zimmerman (Cubs, '12), Jimmy Foxx (A's, '33), Chuck Klein (Phillies, '33), Lou Gehrig (Yankees, '34) and Joe Medwick (Cardinals, '37).

LONG HOME RUNS/MEMORIAL STADIUM: The longest "measured" home run ever hit in Memorial Stadium was a 471' drive by Harmon Killebrew on May 24, 1964 off Milt Pappas over the hedge in left center field . . . This exceeded by two feet the only other blast that has ever cleared the hedge . . . That one was by "Boog" Powell 469' to the same area off Boston's Don Schwall on June 22, 1962 . . .

Aside from these there have been two balls hit into the hedge (approximately 450'), one by Mickey Mantle in 1954 and the other by Powell in 1965 . . .

Until last May 8, no one had ever hit a ball completely out of the Stadium. In the second game of a doubleheader with Cleveland on that date, however, Frank Robinson hit a Luis Tiant offering over the leftfield stands and into the parking lot beyond, a drive that measured 451' on the fly and rolled to a stop 540' away from home plate . . .

O'S BIGGEST WINNERS IN MAJORS: Over the last three years the Orioles have won more games than any other club in the majors with a total of 288 victories (though they have finished third twice in that period) . . . The Dodgers, on the other hand, who have won two pennants in that span rank no better than fourth with 272 wins . . . In between are the Giants with 278 and the White Sox with 276 . . .

1960 TO PRESENT: The Orioles never finished over .500 in their first six years of operation (1954 thru 1959) . . . Since then however they have finished well over the even mark in six of seven seasons, finished in the first division six times, compiled a record of 635-489 (.565), and have built up a winning record against every opponent but the Minnesota Twins (nee Senators) with whom they are even at 65-65 . . . Against other clubs from 1960 to present: Boston (76-54), California (61-47), Chicago (68-62), Cleveland (70-60), Detroit (68-62), Kansas City (80-48), New York (74-56), and Washington (73-35) . . .

SHRINE OF IMMORTALS: The Shrine was created jointly in 1960 by the Orioles and the Maryland Professional Baseball Players Association (MPBPA) to recognize men with Maryland backgrounds who have distinguished themselves in professional baseball over long periods . . . Membership is limited to those who have been natives of the state of Maryland or who have played for the Orioles, International and American League, for a minimum of three years . . . Each year two new names are added to the Shrine Membership . . . One is selected by vote of Orioles fans at Memorial Stadium while the other is chosen by the MPBPA . . .

There are presently 14 members: Frank "Home Run" Baker, Jack Bentley, Max Bishop, Joe Boley, Jack Dunn, Sr., Jimmy Foxx, Lefty Grove, Charlie Keller, Fritz Maisel, Bill Nicholson, Johnny Neun, Eddie Rommell, Babe Ruth and Tommy Thomas . . .

1966 WORLD SERIES

GENERAL NOTES

ORIOLES USE ONLY 13 PLAYERS: Only 13 of the 25 eligible Orioles saw action in the series . . . Those who did not get into a single game were: Bertina, Bowens, Brabender, Fisher, Hall, Haney, Held, B. Johnson, J. Miller, S. Miller, Roznovsky and Watt.

FLAWLESS DEFENSE: The Orioles who led the American League in fielding percentage for the third time in the last four years handled 141 chances during the series without error . . . The only other club to have played errorless ball was the 1937 Yankees in five games.

The Dodgers on the other hand who tied a series mark by committing six errors in one game (Game No. 2), didn't make any boots in the other three games.

SHUTOUTS/COMPLETE GAMES: Neither Palmer nor Bunker had pitched shutouts during the regular season and McNally had only one . . . The three straight shutouts put together by the Orioles were all the more noteworthy when it is considered that the Baltimore staff went the route only 23 times in 160 regular season games . . . In a one month stretch from August 6 to September 6, the Birds went 29 straight games without a route-going effort.

1-0 GAMES/HOME RUNS: In the entire history of the world series only two 1-0 games had ever been decided by home runs before 1966 . . . Casey Stengel's homer in a 1923 game for the Giants and Tommy Henrich's blast for the Yankees in 1949 . . . In successive days with Paul Blair and Frank Robinson providing the muscle, the Orioles doubled that total.

MEMORIAL STADIUM ATTENDANCE RECORD: The Orioles finally broke the long standing one game attendance record at Memorial Stadium for a baseball game, and it took a "Big" world series to do it . . . The crowds at Game No. 3 (54,445) and No. 4 (54,458) both exceeded the old mark of 52,833 set on October 9, 1944 for a Little world series game between the International League Orioles and the American Association's Louisville Colonels.

AMERICAN LEAGUE JINX AT DODGER STADIUM: The Dodgers had never lost a series game in their home park . . . In 1963 they had won games No. 3 and No. 4 there to wrap up the Yankees in straight sets, then in 1965 won the middle three at Chavez Ravine as they came from 0-2 to win the series in seven games.

In those five previous series games played there, the American League representatives managed a total of only three runs, a figure the Orioles equalled in the first inning of the first 1966 game.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

NO. 1 . . . ORIOLES 5-9-0, DODGERS 2-3-0

Oct. 5 at Los Angeles . . . Attendance: 55,941

Home runs by Frank and Brooks Robinson in the very first inning off Don Drysdale staked the Orioles to a 3-0 lead and stunned the L.A. crowd and most of the nation's sportswriters . . . The Birds boosted their advantage to four with another run in the second, but then a Dodger rally and Dave McNally's loss of control cut the margin to 4-2 and threatened even more damage in the third inning.

At this point reliever Moe Drabowsky took complete control of the game, allowed no runs and just one hit in 6-2/3 innings, set a record for a relief pitcher by striking out 11 Dodgers and tied another series mark by fanning six straight in one stretch (Hod Eller of the 1919 Reds had set the mark originally).

The game was only a third of an inning old when Drysdale ran into trouble. After retiring leadoff man Luis Aparicio on a fly ball, he walked Russ Snyder . . . Then Frank Robinson picked on a 1-0 pitch and hit a home run into the left field seats . . . Brooks Robinson followed three pitches later with another smash deeper into the same area . . . McNally weathered a minor crisis in the bottom half by retiring three Dodgers in a row after Maury Wills had opened with a walk and stolen second on the first pitch to next hitter Willie Davis.

Snyder lined a single to left with two out in the second to score Andy Etchebarren from 2nd base in the second inning to build the lead to 4-0 . . . However, Dodger second baseman and leading home run hitter, Jim Lefebvre, opened the Dodgers' second with a long homer into the left field bleachers . . . Then Wes Parker followed with a hard ground smash into the right field corner but had to settle for a double instead of a probable triple when a fan leaned over the box seat railing and picked up the ball.

McNally next walked Gilliam, and then John Roseboro sent a sinking liner to right center . . . In one of the key plays of the series, Russ Snyder, after a long run, made a lunging catch of the drive after which McNally got pinch-hitter Dick Stuart on a long fly to Frank Robinson on the warning track in right center for the final out . . . Had Roseboro's smash dropped the Dodgers would have only been one run down with the tying run in scoring position . . .

With a 4-1 lead the Orioles faced their biggest crisis in the third . . . McNally with one out and none on suddenly lost his control . . . He walked Lou Johnson, passed Tommy Davis on 4 pitches, threw a strike to Lefebvre then threw 4 straight balls to him to load the bases . . . Hank Bauer then summoned Moe Drabowsky from the bullpen . . . The 31-year old righthander struck out Parker for the second out, but then lost Junior Gilliam on a 3-2 pitch to force in the Dodgers' second run.

Another big key to the O's victory occurred with the next hitter, Roseboro, at bat . . . Moe went behind 3-1 on the Dodger veteran then delivered what was an obvious ball 4 . . . However, as Roseboro ducked under the pitch the ball hit his bat for a foul strike 2 . . . Roseboro then fouled out to Etchebarren.

From then on the Dodgers did not threaten seriously and the O's scored once more, in the 4th on Dave Johnson's double and two ground balls . . . In the Dodger fourth, Drabowsky struck out pinch-hitter Jim Barbieri, Wills and Willie Davis, then completed his record tying string in the 5th when he fanned Tommy Davis, Lou Johnson and Jim Lefebvre . . . He was 0-2 on Wes Parker leading off the 6th when the L.A. first baseman flied to Blefary in left.

NO. 2 . . . ORIOLES 6-8-0, DODGERS 0-4-6

Oct. 6 at Los Angeles . . . Attendance: 55,947

Twenty-year old Jim Palmer, facing the incomparable Sandy Koufax in his final big league appearance, became the youngest pitcher ever to throw a shutout in a world series and Dodger centerfielder Willie Davis became the first ever to commit three errors in a single series inning . . . The Orioles scored four runs off the great Dodger lefthander though only one was earned as the Dodgers erred six times . . . In addition to Davis, Junior Gilliam, Ron Perranoski and Ron Fairly were also charged with miscues . . .

Palmer who was 9 days from his 21st birthday supplanted Waite Hoyt in the record books . . . Hoyt had been 22 when he shutout the Giants for the Yankees in 1921 . . . Jim struck out six, walked three and allowed just four hits . . . Koufax went six innings, yielded six hits, fanned two and walked the same number . . . Perranoski who came on in the seventh yielded the other two runs, both earned . . . Then Phil Regan and Tom Brewer finished up for the Dodgers.

Boog Powell violated the percentages against southpaw Koufax with two base hits and a long fly ball in three tries . . . Dave Johnson earned the distinction of getting the last base hit off the retiring Koufax.

The game was scoreless for the first four innings although the Dodgers staged what was to be their only major threat in the second when they moved runners to second and third with only one out.

In the fifth, the Birds scored three times . . . With Powell on 1st via a basehit and one out, Willie Davis apparently lost Paul Blair's fly ball in the sun and dropped it as Boog steamed in to third and Blair to second . . . Then Etchebarren hit another fly ball, to short center, and Davis loped in easily under it only to drop this one too after it bounced off his glove (the sun did not appear to be the problem in this instance). Powell scored on the error and when Davis after retrieving the ball threw wildly over third baseman Gilliam's head, Blair also countered and Andy went all the way to third . . . Later in the inning, Luis Aparicio doubled Etchebarren home with the final run of the inning.

The Dodger defense contributed to another run in the sixth when outfielders Fairly and Willie Davis allowed Frank Robinson's leadoff drive to right center to drop between them for a triple . . . Powell ultimately scored Frank with a single. The Birds loaded the bases on another hit by Dave Johnson and an intentional walk to Blair but Etchebarren ended Koufax's last inning by bouncing into a double play.

In the eighth, Frank walked, Brooks singled, Boog executed a perfect sacrifice, then Dave Johnson drove in one run with a smash back to the ground that bounced away from Perranoski for a base hit . . . However, the Dodger reliever after picking up the ball still attempted to get Johnson and his belated toss was also wild, allowing Brooks to cross with the Orioles' sixth run of the day.

Youth again captured the Orioles' spotlight in Game No. 3 . . . This time there were two young standouts: 21-year old Wally Bunker who shut out the Dodgers on six hits and 22-year old Paul Blair whose 430' blast into the left center field seats provided the game's only run in the 5th inning.

Bunker troubled most of the year with a sore elbow hadn't pitched a shutout all season, hadn't gone the route since early June, and had won just twice during the second half . . . On this day he scattered six hits and one walk while striking out six . . . He allowed only one runner as far as third and just two reached second base . . . From the fourth thru the eighth at least one Dodger reached safely, but he finished strong by downing the side in order in the 9th . . . He fanned Fairly, then got Lefebvre and Lou Johnson on grounders . . .

Except for Jim Palmer's performance two days earlier, Wally would have been the one to break Waite Hoyt's record as the youngest series hurler to pitch a shutout. "Bunk" was six months younger than Hoyt had been on his big day in 1921 (but some 7½ months older than Palmer).

A third standout in the game was Dodger lefty Claude Osteen who allowed only three hits and a single walk while striking out three in 7 innings.

Two fine defensive plays helped the Orioles immensely . . . In the first inning, Curt Blefary made a long running catch into the left field corner of Willie Davis's bid for a triple . . . In the fourth Luis Aparicio ranged far to his left to grab John Kennedy's hot ground smash, then threw the L.A. third baseman out at first.

NO. 4 . . . ORIOLES 1-4-0, DODGERS 0-4-0

Oct. 9 at Baltimore . . . Attendance: 54,458

Dave McNally and Don Drysdale who had both failed in starting roles in the first game of the series were re-matched in Game No. 4 and each responded with a tight four-hitter . . . In a game highlighted by fine defense, the ultimate difference was provided by Frank Robinson's 4th inning home run deep into the left field seats . . . It was his second big home run off Drysdale and earned him the series MVP award.

McNally, who was the only Oriole pitcher to yield a run to the Dodgers when wildness limited his opening game effort to 2-1/3 innings, retired the National League champions in order seven times, aided greatly by three Oriole double plays. He walked two and fanned four while extending the fantastic streak of scoreless Dodger innings to 33 . . . Only in the pressure packed ninth did he allow an enemy runner to reach scoring position . . . With one out Al Ferrara, batting for Drysdale, singled and Nate Oliver who ran for him moved to second after Wills walked. However, the 23-year old lefthander then got Willie Davis on a fly to right and the game ended when Lou Johnson hit an O-1 pitch to Paul Blair in center.

Drysdale whose two inning stint in the opener had netted the Orioles four runs walked just one and struck out five . . . Aside from Robinson's blast in the fourth inning, only one other Oriole, Brooks Robinson in the second, made it to second base.

There were two fine defensive plays by centerfielders Willie Davis and Paul Blair . . . In the fourth inning after Frank Robinson had homered, Brooks Robinson went out, then Boog Powell hit a long drive to deepest center field . . . Davis backed up to the fence, took five long strides to his right, leaped high in the air and caught the ball with his gloved hand hanging well over the top of the barrier . . .

For a moment it appeared that this play was to provide a turning point in the series, particularly after Jim Lefebvre led off the next half inning with a base hit . . . However, McNally forced Wes Parker to bounce into a double play and the comeback was nullified.

Manager Hank Bauer, with his club holding grimly to its 1-0 lead, went to defense in the top of the 8th . . . He moved Russ Snyder over to left replacing Curt Blefary and brought Blair into center . . . On the very first play of the inning, Lefebvre (the only Dodger to hit a homer in the series) blasted a long drive to center . . . It could have tied the game except that Blair leaped up against the fence to catch it. Then McNally retired the next two hitters to end the inning.

Born in Takoma Park, Maryland, but now makes home in Baltimore . . . Got off to great start in 1966, compiling 10-3 record at All-Star break, but tendonitis in left elbow sharply curtailed activity after that ... Appeared in only seven games, pitching 14 innings, while losing two decisions during second half of the season.

Split first four decisions, then was sidelined for 12 days with a strained left shoulder tendon ... from Memorial Day through July 6 he was one of the hottest pitchers in the league as he reeled off eight wins in succession ... His streak included four complete games and three shutouts ... Pain in elbow developed during his winning period but he continued to pitch effectively ... In start against Detroit July 15 he lasted just three and a third innings before pain forced him to leave game ... Was on disabled list from August 25 until September 13 ... Sore arm caused him to miss World Series ... Named to A.L. all-star team, but did not appear in game.

His five complete games included a 3-hitter, two 4-hitters and two 5-hitters ... Beat Athletics twice and now has 17-4 lifetime record against them, including seven shutouts ... Was 2-0 vs. Yankees to give him 15-9 record against New Yorkers during career ... His 15 wins represent more victories against Yankees than any other hurler in Oriole history ... In last three years he has won eight of nine decisions against Yankees.

Only modern Oriole to win 20 games in one year (1963) ... After three years at Class D level, he jumped directly to the majors in 1960 ... Served six months in army reserve program after rookie year with Orioles, then was recalled to active duty in October, 1961 and was not released until July, 1962 ... Combination of army duty and attack of mononucleosis limited him to just 140 innings in 1962.

Finnish ancestry ... He and his wife, the former Patricia Longworth, were married in January, 1965 ...

Born in San Francisco and still lives there ... Underwent surgery for removal of torn cartilage in left knee December 26, 1966 at Kernan's Children's Hospital (Baltimore) ... Operation termed success but caused him to miss early part of spring training ... Opened 1966 season with O's, was optioned to Rochester June 29 then recalled August 25 ... Was 9-2 with Red Wings and completed eight games in 11 starts with 2.33 earned run average.

In first start after recall he worked 4.2 innings against Boston before suffering knee injury which forced him to sidelines for 15 days ... Picked up first victory in relief against Cleveland on May 8 and earned other win, also in relief, against Twins on final day of season ... Was winless in nine starts ... While at Rochester fanned 17 hitters against Toledo on July 23.

Considered to have great potential ... Throws good fast ball, very good curve and excellent change-up ... First joined Orioles on July 28, 1964 after giving up five hits and one run in 9 innings during exhibition game against National League Phillies ... Was recalled from Elmira the following day ... His first major league win was one-hitter against Athletics, on September 12, 1964, in which opposing pitcher, Bob Meyers, also tossed one-hitter ... Graduate of Sacred Heart High School in San Francisco (Jim Gentile's alma mater) and was twice selected baseball player of the year in Bay area ... Has served six months in army reserve program ... Signed by Don McShane and the late Fred Hofmann ... Single.

Born in Cushing, Okla., has lived most of life in Los Angeles but now calls Baltimore home ... Got only one hit in World Series but it was 430' homer off Claude Osteen to give O's and Wally Bunker 1-0 victory over Dodgers in third game ... Game-winning drive came in fifth inning ... Started second and third games in centerfield and was defensive replacement in late innings of other two games ... Made dramatic catch in eighth frame of fourth game to deprive Jim Lefebvre of a home run and preserve O's eventual 1-0 triumph ... Leaped high against center field fence to grab drive.

Good spring training showing merited Opening Day start but spent most of season splitting centerfield chores with Russ Snyder ... Was batting only .232 as of August 11 but came on strong to raise final average .45 points ... During last seven weeks rapped ball at .362 pace (38-for-103) ... Loves to hit against Minnesota's Jim Kaat ... Reason: Collected 8-for-15 with 5 RBI last year and has .520 average (13-for-25) against him in two seasons ... Hit well against Angels last year, 15-for-44 (.344).

Spent winter playing for Earl Weaver and Santurce club in Puerto Rican League ... Turned out to be hero there by winning final play-off game against Ponce with home run in bottom of ninth inning, score tied 3-3 and full count on him ... Ended winter season hitting .303 ... Excellent defensive outfielder ...

Tabbed "Motormouth" by teammates because of incessant talking ... Opened 1965 campaign with O's but was sent to Rochester near mid-season and then recalled a month later ... Paced Eastern League hitters with .311 average in 1964 ... Served six month hitch in army after that season ... Was outstanding athlete at Manual Arts High School in Los Angeles ... He and his wife, Evelyn, have a son, Terrance Arnold (9/23/65).

*Contract drafted from Jacksonville roster (Cardinals) on 11/29/65.

Born in Ozanna, Poland . . . Now lives in Highland Park, Ill., just outside Chicago . . . Career took a new lease on life when he was drafted by O's in fall of 1965 from Cardinal organization . . . Brightest moment of his career came on October 5, 1966 when he won first game of World Series against Dodgers with spectacular relief effort . . . Went 6.2 innings and surrendered just one hit while setting Series record for relievers by striking out 11 . . . Fanned six in a row (Barbieri, Wills, W. Davis, T. Davis, Johnson and Lefebvre) to match record set by Cincinnati's Hod Eller on October 6, 1919 . . . Came in with bases loaded, one out . . . Struck out Parker, walked Gilliam to force run home and retired Roseboro to end inning.

Won all six regular season decisions . . . Credited with four saves . . . Against Tigers on July 20 he worked four perfect innings and struck out eight, including five straight . . . Used as starter on three occasions because regular rotation was hampered by injuries . . . In first start, vs. Senators, he gained credit for 2-1 victory and was reached for just four hits in 8.2 innings . . . His 2.81 earned run average was first time in major league career that he was under 3.00 for a full season . . . Broke into majors with Cubs in 1956 without benefit of minor league experience . . . Has been with five different big league teams . . . Was with Athletics for part of 1965 season, but finished year at Vancouver . . . His contract was purchased by Cardinals at conclusion of season and assigned to Jacksonville before O's picked him up.

Graduated in 1957 from Trinity College in Hartford, Conn. . . Majored in economics . . . Now spends off-seasons working as a stockbroker for Freehling & Company in Chicago . . . He and wife, Liz, were married June 28, 1958 . . . They are the parents of a daughter, Myra Beth (10/21/65).

Victorious in first three starts, lost two in a row and then reeled off nine wins in 10 decisions . . . Between May 20 and August 29 he lost just once, to Angels on July 9.

Fanned 11 Senators, high for the year for an Oriole hurler, in 7.1 frames June 9 while gaining 4-2 win . . . Did not figure in decision in his best effort, May 6 vs. Indians, when he went 10 innings and struck out nine while giving up just three hits . . . Was 4-2 against Tigers and 3-0 vs. Yankees . . . Swung hot bat from June 29 through July 27 when he went 9-for-17 and had six game hitting streak.

Signed by O's in 1960 for substantial bonus . . . Tossed two-hitter against A's in major league debut September 26, 1962 . . . Was All-State in basketball at Central Catholic High School in Billings but school did not field baseball team . . . Attracted attention as American Legion hurler, fanning 256 in 110 innings in last year of Legion ball . . . He and his wife, Jean, bought a home in Lutherville, a Baltimore suburb, last summer and sold other house to Curt Blefary . . . The McNallys have two children: Jeff (3/19/63) and Pamela Jean (6/15/64) . . . During the past winter Dave worked as a sales representative for the National Brewing Company and made personal appearances on behalf of the ball club.

*Came to Baltimore with John Orsino and Mike McCormick from San Francisco in deal for Bill Hoelt, Jack Fisher and Dick Coker on 12/15/62.

Born in Northampton, Mass., but now makes home in San Carlos, Cal. . . . One of the all-time great relief pitchers . . . In four years with Orioles has compiled 35-26 record with 82 saves and 2.34 earned run average . . . Has worked in 254 games and been touched for only 19 earned runs in 420 innings (2.34) . . . Tied for third with Larry Sherry in last year's A.L. relief pitchers' ratings with 25 points (nine wins and 16 saves) to trail Jack Aker (34) and Ron Kline (26) . . . Picked up five saves in support of Dave McNally and three for Steve Barber . . . Credited with five saves and one win against Yankees . . . In last two years vs. Yanks he has given up one run in 29.1 innings and has won five, lost none and saved seven.

Was 7-1 with 11 saves in 33 showings during first half of season . . . Bothered by periodic tendonitis attacks in right shoulder after that and was 2-3 with five saves in 18 appearances after All-Star game break . . . Gave up just five home runs all year . . . Was selected "Most Valuable Oriole" in 1963 and 1965 by vote of traveling writers and announcers under sponsorship of Sports Boosters of Maryland . . . He is only pitcher ever chosen and ranks with Brooks Robinson (3-time winner) as only multiple winners in club's 13-year history . . . Winner of SPORTING NEWS "Fireman of the Year" award in 1961 (with Giants) and 1963 . . . Also led N.L. in era in 1961 . . . Pitched 1.1 innings in two Series games with Giants in 1962 but had no decisions.

Winning pitcher in first All-Star game in 1961 and stopped A.L. from breaking tie in second game . . . With none out and Kaline on with potential winning run in ninth, he fanned Mantle, Howard and Sievers . . . Game was called because of rain at that point.

Appears easy to hit but uses jerky head motion to offset hitter's timing . . . Insurance broker during off-season . . . Excellent bridge player . . . Served in U. S. Navy from December, 1945 to October, 1947 . . . Broke into pro ball with Salisbury, Md., in old Eastern Shore League . . . He and his wife, Jayne, were married in 1952 and have three children: Scott (10/15/54), Lori (7/6/56) and Kim (9/12/57).

Vs. each club lifetime (W-L, Saves): Bos. (2-4, 10); Calif. (5-3, 10); Chi. (2-1, 9); Cleve. (3-4, 9); Det. (4-3, 9); K. C. (6-0, 8); Minn. (5-4, 9); N. Y. (4-3, 10); Wash. (4-4, 8).

*Acquired from Cincinnati on 12/9/65 for Milt Pappas, Jack Baldschun and Dick Simpson.

Born in Beaumont, Tex., but now makes home in Los Angeles . . . Moved into new house after last season and needed it to store all the awards and honors he received over the winter . . . First Triple Crown winner in majors since Mickey Mantle in 1956 . . . Led American League in six major categories: Hitting (.316), home runs (49), runs batted in (122), total bases (367), runs (122) and slugging percentage (.637) . . . Tenth player to win Triple Crown (12th time it has been accomplished—Ted Williams and Rogers Hornsby did it twice) . . . See Triple Crown note elsewhere in Guide.

Other honors: American League MVP, SPORTING NEWS Major League Player of the Year, SPORTING NEWS American League Player of the Year, member of SPORTING NEWS, Associated Press and United Press International major league all-star teams, Associated Press Male Athlete of the Year, Most Valuable Player in 1966 World Series, Babe Ruth "Sultan of Swat" Crown (presented by Maryland Professional Baseball Players Association), Most Valuable Oriole and others.

Was unanimous selection for MVP award . . . Became first player in history to win award in both major leagues . . . Won it in 1961 after leading Reds to pennant . . . Selected by all 20 participating writers . . . Only third time in A.L. history that balloting was unanimous (Others were Al Rosen, Cleveland, 1953, and Mantle, New York, 1956).

World Series achievements vs. Dodgers: His home runs were vital factors in first and fourth game victories . . . Both came off Don Drysdale . . . First game blast came in first inning, giving O's 2-0 lead . . . Brooks Robinson followed with another and O's were never headed from that point . . . Other homer broke scoreless deadlock in fourth game and gave O's 1-0 victory and wrapped up Series . . . Drive went deep into left field seats . . . Hit .286 (4-for-14) in Series with one triple, two homers and 3 rbi . . . Received Corvette from SPORT MAGAZINE as MVP in Series.

Set Oriole club records for homers, total bases and runs . . . Also set mark for most home runs vs. one club, season (11 against Tigers) and most home runs at Memorial Stadium, season (27) . . . Hit two home runs in a game seven times . . . Became first player to ever hit a ball completely out of Memorial Stadium when he belted homer off Indians' Luis Tiant in second game of May 8 doubleheader . . . Ball cleared left field seats, landed in parking lot 451' from plate and rolled to a stop 540' away . . . Now ranks 13th on list of all time home run hitters with 373 . . . Started 1966 season in 20th place.

Hit by pitch 10 times to raise career total to 128 for 11 seasons . . . Reached base safely 279 times in 673 appearances to lead A.L. with .444 percentage . . . Hit .368 vs. Tigers (25-for-68) with 11 homers and 23 rbi . . . Rapped Indians' pitching at .403 pace (29-for-72), hit 10 homers and drove in 18 runs . . . Took rbi lead from Boog Powell for good on September 17 and then drove in 14 runs in next five games to wrap up title . . . Led in homers most of year, and pulled away from Tony Oliva in race for batting title on September 20 . . . Was hitting as high as .350 on June 15.

Made two breathtaking catches in Yankee Stadium to save Oriole wins . . . First came with two out in ninth inning on June 21 when he robbed Roy White of game-winning 3-run homer with catch that took him into rightfield seats as O's won, 7-5 . . . Other catch was in left field on August 11 when he rammed into fence to snare Clete Boyer's drive in ninth inning to preserve 6-5 win.

Played in All-Star game but went 0-for-4 . . . Member of N.L. All-Star teams in 1956, 1957, 1959 (both games), 1961 (both games), 1962 (second game) and 1965 . . . N.L. "Rookie of the Year" 1956 and "Sophomore of the Year" in 1957 . . . Winner of "Gold Glove" award as left fielder in 1958 . . . Led National League in slugging percentage three times . . . Holds Cincinnati career records in runs, homers, total bases, extra base hits and batting average . . . Paced N.L. in walks from 1961 through 1964 . . . Hit .200 (3-for-15) in 1961 World Series vs. Yankees . . . Despite great year last season, set most of personal highs in 1962: Average (.342), runs (134), hits (208), total bases (380), doubles (51) and rbi (136).

One of 11 children . . . Grew up in Oakland and went to McClymonds High School there . . . Played basketball with Bill Russell, Celtic coach . . . Married Barbara Ann Cole October 28, 1961 . . . They have two children: Frank Kevin (9/8/62) and Nichelle (8/24/65) . . . Suffered injury to right knee in game vs. Yankees June 13 but continued to play . . . Underwent surgery at Johns Hopkins Hospital (Baltimore) on November 22 for removal of medio cartilage from knee.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

MOST VALUABLE ORIOLES: Chuck Diering (1954), Dave Philley (1955), Bob Nieman (1956), Billy Gardner (1957), Gus Triandos (1958), Gene Woodling (1959), Brooks Robinson (1960), Jim Gentile (1961), Brooks Robinson (1962), Stu Miller (1963), Brooks Robinson (1964), Stu Miller (1965), Frank Robinson (1966) . . . The award is presented annually by the Maryland Sportsboosters Inc. after a vote of the writers and announcers who travel with the club.

SUMMARY OF 1966 SEASON: O's jumped off fast, led the league on May 1st with a 12-1 record, but lost their next game and fell into second place behind Cleveland . . . From May 3 thru June 14, they bounced around among the top three spots, leading by as much as 1½ and trailing as far as 4½ games back.

After beating the Yankees on June 14, 2-1, the Birds moved into first place to stay for the rest of the year . . . The drive that was to move them in front permanently began May 24 . . . From that point through July 3, the Orioles were 36-11 (.766) and in that span won 13 series, tied one and lost none . . . On the latter date their record stood at 55-25 . . .

The season's turning point, it is commonly agreed, occurred July 1, 2 and 3 when the Birds swept a 5 game set from the Twins, expanding their lead to 7½ full games over Detroit and pushing Minnesota, the hottest club in the loop during the second half, 19 full games back.

The Birds were 58-29 at the all-star break and led by 8 games . . . Immediately after the break, they lost twice to Detroit and the lead dropped to 6 games . . . It was never to be that short again.

As late as August 2, the Orioles were still at the .667 level (70-35), but from then on they played less than .500 ball (27-28) . . . Nevertheless, their lead ballooned to a high of 13½ games during this recession and was never lower than 8½ games . . .

The pennant was clinched on September 2 when Jim Palmer went the route to beat the A's in Kansas City, 6-1.
