ORIOLES TO HOST ALL-STAR WEEK

Baseball's 64th All-Star Game comes to Oriole Park at Camden Yards on July 13, 1993. It will be the 2nd major league All-Star Game for the city, the first since 1958. In 35 years since then there have been 38 All-Star Games (2 games each in 1959-62). The 35-year hiatus between All-Star Games is the longest any major league city has gone without hosting a game.

"All-Star Week at Camden Yards" begins with a 4-game homestand against the Chicago White Sox, July 8-11, and leading up to the All-Star Game, the week will be filled with a series of special events and promotions surrounding the All-Star Game.

There are many other events planned for Orioles fans from the Gatorade All-Star Workout Day, to the Stars of Early Black Baseball Tribute, to the All-Star Concert, to the Upper Deck All-Star FanFest, to much, much more.

Now in its 3rd year, FanFest is an unparalleled baseball theme park, providing families a once-in-a-lifetime, affordable opportunity to experience and participate in a celebration of Major League Baseball and the 1993 All-Star Game.

BROOKS... FRANK...JIM... AND NOW CHUCK GETS THE CALL

On February 9, '93, the world found out what Orioles fans have known for generations...Chuck Thompson is a Hall of Fame broadcaster. On that date Chuck became the 17th recipient of the Hall of Fame's Ford C. Frick Award which is presented to a broadcaster "for major contributions to the game of baseball."

A Baltimore resident for the past 44 years and an Orioles broadcaster for more than 30, Chuck Thompson has come to embody a team and a town in a way very few men have been able to do with a friendly, selfless, wonderfully engaging style.

"It's been a long time coming and he's certainly deserving," said broadcast partner and fellow Hall of Famer Brooks Robinson. "He's a guy who could have done anything he wanted in the business, but he decided to stay in Baltimore. And I respect him for that."

"The man has been an institution," said Orioles President Larry Lucchino. "He has been the personification of Orioles baseball for at least a few generations. I'm glad to see baseball give him the recognition he deserves."

Baltimore Sun columnist Michael Olesker, describing a young boy in uniform doing play-by-play during his Little League game, recently wrote, "Around here the announcer's role was a given: Like thousands of other kids over the last four decades who learned the game through someone else's telling, he wanted to be Chuck Thompson as much as he wanted to be that guy on the field."

Chuck will be back for his 33rd season with the Orioles in '93...Ain't the beer cold. For more on Chuck see page 307.

TWO ORIGINAL JOES

Two Orioles staffers, Joe Hamper and Joe Codd, have worked in the front office continuously through every one of the team's 39 seasons. Hamper officially retired 2 years ago as vice president/finance, but continues to serve the ballclub in an advisory capacity, while Codd still works regularly in the ticket office.

OWNERSHIP OF THE ORIOLES

ELI JACOBS

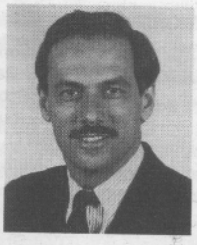

Mr. Jacobs, 55, the club's principal owner and chairman, has overseen a period of unprecedented growth and change for the Orioles organization. During the four years since he purchased the club, the Orioles have set three season attendance records and launched an exciting new chapter in Orioles' history - the birth of Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

It was Mr. Jacobs who took the lead role in the design and planning of the park, considered by many as baseball's "field of dreams". The right field flag court is named after the Orioles chairman acknowledging his advocacy of traditional baseball values in the ballpark's design. The 25-foot tall wall in right field was specifically Jacobs' idea.

Mr. Jacobs was born in Cambridge, Massachusetts, grew up in Newton, and was, of course, an ardent Red Sox fan. One of his biggest disappointments came as a nine-year-old when the Cardinals defeated the Red Sox in the 7th game of the '46 World Series.

He is a graduate of Phillips Academy, Andover, and Yale College ('59) as well as Yale Law School ('64). As an undergraduate he served as the managing editor of the Yale Daily News.

LARRY LUCCHINO

Larry Lucchino, 47, has been president and chief executive officer of the Orioles for five years. He was appointed acting president of the Orioles by Edward Bennett Williams in May, '88, succeeded him as the club's chief executive officer following Mr. Williams' death on Aug 13, '88, and continued in his role following the team's sale in '89. Prior to becoming president, he had been vice-president/general counsel and a member of the club's board of directors, beginning in '79 when Mr. Williams purchased the ballclub.

In his 14th year as an Orioles officer, he has had wide-ranging responsibilities covering all aspects of the club's operations both on the baseball and the business side of the organization. In addition, he served as the Orioles' principal representative in negotiations with the Maryland Stadium Authority in connection with the construction of Oriole Park at Camden Yards, and he represents the club at all American League and Major League Baseball meetings.

He serves on Major League Baseball's Baseball Operations Committee and on the Player Development Contract Negotiation Committee, as well as on the American League's Cable Television Committee. He was named in '92 to the newly created Restructuring Committee, examining the structure and governance of Major League Baseball.

He is a partner at Williams & Connolly, the firm founded by Mr. Williams, where he specialized in sports law and litigation. He was also an officer and a member of the board of directors of the Washington Redskins from '78 through '85.

Born and raised in Pittsburgh, PA, he was named to the All-City team in basketball and was a second baseman on the city championship baseball team at Taylor Allderdice High School. He graduated with honors from Princeton University in '67, and was a '72 graduate of the Yale Law School.

While at Princeton, he was a varsity basketball letterman. He was a member of two Ivy League championship teams coached by Butch Van Breda Kolff; and, as a sophomore, he was a teammate of US Senator Bill Bradley, who led the team to the Final Four in the NCAA tournament. In his senior year, the Tigers were 25-3, the best record in Princeton's illustrious basketball history. He has had the unique sports distinction of receiving a World Series ring (Orioles '83), a Super Bowl ring (Redskins '83), and an NCAA "Final Four" watch (Princeton '65).

He has been involved in various civic and charitable institutions in Baltimore. Under his direction, the club has revitalized its philanthropic arm, The Orioles Foundation, and established the Orioles Children's Charities. He currently serves on the boards of the Greater Baltimore Committee, the National Aquarium in Baltimore and the Preakness Celebration. In '93, he will be serving on the board of directors for the Baltimore Symphony.

SARGENT SHRIVER

Sargent Shriver, a third member of the ownership group, is a native of Westminster.

He originated and directed the Peace Corps from its inception in '61 during the administration of his brother-in-law, President John F. Kennedy, until '66.
Subsequently, he created the Office of Economic Opportunity (OEO) and originated government programs such as Head Start, Job Corps, VISTA Volunteers, Foster Grandparents and other government initiatives.

He served as ambassador to France from '68 to '70, and in '72 ran as the Democratic Party's nominee for vice-president. Today Sargent Shriver is chairman of the board of Special Olympics International.

SENIOR EXECUTIVES

ROLAND HEMOND

Roland, 63, begins his 6th season as executive vice president/general manager. Certainly one of the more active participants in baseball's trade market, Hemond has negotiated 128 trades involving 412 players during his baseball career...He concluded 17 trades in his first 17 months with the Orioles and is now up to 33 (thru Feb '93) since he was named to succeed Hank Peters as Orioles VP/GM on Nov 10, '87.

A 3-time winner of Major League Baseball's Executive of the Year award ('72, '83, '89), he has engineered 4 of the greatest turnarounds in big league history, including last year's 22-game improvement over '91.

He, club President Larry Lucchino, and Assistant General Manager Doug Melvin were the principal architects of the Orioles' 32 1/2 game improvement in '89, the 3rd greatest jump in major league history.

Hemond's '71 White Sox improved 23 games over the previous year, and his '77 team climbed 26 games above the '76 White Sox.

Roland's career dates back some 42 years to '51, when he joined the front office of the Eastern League's Hartford Chiefs following a 4-year tour of duty in the U.S. Coast Guard. At the end of that season he was promoted to the parent Boston Braves where he worked for the late John Mullen...In '53, Roland accompanied the Braves' franchise to Milwaukee.

In December, '60, former Braves Manager Fred Haney became the first California Angels' general manager and less than a month later Roland joined him as scouting and farm director.

On Sep 14, '70, he was appointed director of (major league) player personnel for the White Sox who were well on their way to a 56-106 final season record. At the same time, the Sox hired, at his urging, his former Angels' organization colleague, Chuck Tanner, as manager. At their first winter meeting, the 2 newcomers moved 16 players in the first 18 hours of the convention in Los Angeles.

In their first 2 full seasons, the Hemond/Tanner combine brought the Sox in third ('71) and second ('72). The Sox went 87-67 in '72, and Roland won his first executive of the year award.

He became a vice-president in July, '73 in the John Allyn administration, then worked with Bill Veeck from December, '75, when the latter bought the club, until January '81. After Jerry Reinsdorf and Eddie Einhorn purchased the franchise from Veeck, they promoted him to executive vice president for baseball operations.

Roland earned his second top executive trophy in '83 after his White Sox won the Western Division by a record 20 games (biggest winning margin in either league since the divisional system was adopted in '69).

He was replaced in October, '85 by Ken Harrelson, but remained with the Sox in a consulting capacity...Seven months later, in May '86, he joined the commissioner's office and remained there through two baseball seasons before joining the Orioles.

Roland was born in Central Falls, Rhode Island...His mother was French-Canadian and his father's family is of French descent.In October '91, he was inducted into the Central Falls Hall of Fame...As part of the ceremony, city officials honored him by naming the city's largest athletic complex, Roland Hemond Park.

He and his wife, the former Margo Quinn, were married on Nov 8, '58...They have 5 children: Susan (1/3/60), Tere (12/27/61), Robert (4/20/64), Jay (12/11/65), and Ryan (12/11/72)...The Hemonds are truly a baseball family: Margo's father was John Quinn, a major league GM for 28 seasons.

In addition to Margo, John Quinn's children include: Susan, who worked for the Angels and was Roland's secretary for a number of years; Bob, the San Francisco Giants' general manager; and Jack, president of the St. Louis Blues hockey team and former baseball general manager of the Hawaii Islanders and Vancouver Mounties of the Pacific Coast League.

Three of Roland's children, Susan, Bob and Jay are also associated with professional baseball...Susan is an associate director for some ESPN baseball telecasts and also freelances on other major TV sports events...Bob worked for the Witchita Wranglers in the Texas League in '89 & '90, and is now a commissioner in Babe Ruth League Baseball located in Vallejo, CA...Jay was with the Frederick Keys as director of special projects in '91 and '92 and is now a member of the Florida Marlins' front office in the Scouting Department.

TOM DAFFRON

Tom was named senior vice-president/assistant to the chairman in January '90 and was appointed chief operating officer/business in April '92. He came to the Orioles after 16 years as chief-of-staff to U.S. Senator William Cohen, R-Maine.

Daffron's Capitol Hill career began in 1969 when he left his position as associate editor of the editorial page at the Wilmington (DE) News-Journal to accept a nine-month fellowship from the American Political Science Association.

Following the fellowship, he spent three years on the staff of Senator Charles Percy, R-Illinois, before joining Cohen, then a member of the House of Representatives, in 1973.

Tom, who earned degrees from Brown University and Columbia University's Graduate School of Journalism, has had a broad and varied work experience. In addition to his extensive background in federal government and service as both a reporter and editorial writer with the Wilmington News-Journal, he has been a reporter at the Miami Herald, associate director of public relations at The University of Chicago, and director of government and public relations for the International Paper Company in Maine. He was also a Peace Corps volunteer in Thailand.

A native of New York City, Tom and his wife, Margot, have three children: Thomas, Susan, and Cynthia.

DOUG MELVIN

Doug, 40, (8/8/52) is a native of Chatham, Ontario (which also produced Hall of Famer and 284-game winner Fergie Jenkins). This is his 22nd year in professional baseball, his 8th with the Orioles.

He was named special assistant to Orioles President Edward Bennett Williams and Executive Vice President Hank Peters on Feb 11, '86. A year and a half later, he became director of player personnel in charge of minor league operations and for the past 5 seasons has served as assistant general manager/director of player personnel.

His pro playing career began in '72 when he was signed by the Pittsburgh Pirates as a righthanded pitcher. Doug pitched in the Bucs' system for 2 years ('72-'73) and spent 4 more in the Yankees' chain ('75-'78) after sitting out 1974 with a leg injury. The Pirates released him after the '73 season, but he was re-signed by then Yankees Scouting Director Pat Gillick (a former Orioles system pitcher and currently gm at Toronto).

In 6 pro seasons, Melvin was 29-19 with a 3.43 ERA (IP-520, ER-198). He was 16-4 combined over his last 2 seasons ('77-'78) at West Haven (Class A Eastern). In '76 at Ft Lauderdale (Class A Florida State), he was 5th in the league in ERA (2.41) despite a losing record (6-7).

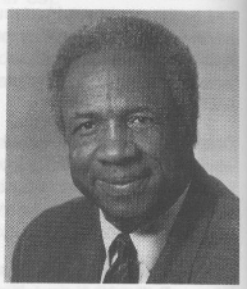

After his playing career ended, he pitched batting practice with the Yankees and coordinated advance scouting reports for the major league coaching staff, then spent the next 6 years building a solid reputation in the Yankees baseball organization. He served as scouting director in '85.

There was no baseball at Ontario's Chatham Kent Secondary School, but Doug played football, basketball and hockey, and was subsequently elected to the school's athletic hall of fame. He still holds the school's basketball record of 55 points in a single game. Among his high school opponents were Mark and Marty Howe, sons of Hockey Hall of Famer Gordie Howe.

He and his wife, Ellen, live in Columbia, MD, and have 2 children: Ashley (4/18/83) and Cory (7/9/86).

MANAGER OF THE YEAR '89: After directing his team to a 32-1/2 game improvement over '88 and matching the '36 Boston Braves for the 3rd biggest one year improvement in modern history, Frank enjoyed a rare distinction... He won all 4 of the major American League Manager of the Year awards: BBWAA, The Sporting News, AP and UPI...He was the 5th Orioles skipper to have won at least one of the above, but the first to capture the BBWAA trophy which was initiated only in '85.

Other Orioles managers to be honored: Joe Altobelli, Hank Bauer, Paul Richards, and Earl Weaver...See "Orioles Award Winners."

ORIOLES: Frank replaced Cal Ripken on Apr 12 , '88 becoming the Orioles' 8th manager (excluding interim managers Luman Harris in '61 and Ripken-1 game-in '85)...He took over with the club at 0-6 and lost his first 15 games until the O's snapped their record start-of-the-season losing streak at 21 (Apr 29)...Frank's overall record that year was 54-101.

This is Frank's 3rd tour of duty with the O's, his 2nd since he played here ('66 thru '71)...He returned as a coach in '78, but spent most of that season managing in Rochester before moving back to Baltimore again as a coach in '79 and '80...During the pennant winning year ('79), he was credited with helping to improve substantially the quality of the club's defense...In '80, he replaced Jim Frey (who left to manage the KC Royals) as the O's batting and first base coach...Frank himself departed in '80 to manage the San Francisco Giants.

Five years later ('85), he came back to Baltimore after 4 seasons in San Francisco and a short stint ('84) as a coach with the Milwaukee Brewers (Harry Dalton hired him for Milwaukee the day after he was let go by the Giants...Frank had also worked with Dalton in Baltimore and Anaheim).

For the next 3 seasons he was a bench/outfield coach under 3 managers: Joe Altobelli ('85), Earl Weaver ('85-'86) and Cal Ripken ('87) before his appointment as special assistant to the president in October '87.

SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS: Named manager Jan 14, '81 replacing Dave Bristol (who in turn had followed Joe Altobelli) and led the club to its first winning season since Altobelli did it in '78...The years '81 & '82 were the Giants' first consecutive winning seasons in a decade... In '83 and '84 however, the club dipped below .500 and on Aug 4, '84 Frank was dismissed in favor of interim skipper Danny Ozark.

CLEVELAND INDIANS ('74-'77): Frank joined the Indians as a player on Sep 12, '74 from California in a trade...Then, 3 weeks later on Oct 4, the day after the season ended, he was named the first black major league manager in baseball history replacing Ken Aspromonte.

He made a dramatic debut as playing manager on Apr 8, '75 before some 55,000 Opening Day fans at Cleveland Stadium...In his first at bat of that first game (he was DH batting 2nd). Frank homered off Doc Medich (later that inning ex-Oriole teammate Boog Powell also homered).

The Indians won the game, 5-3, and Frank's effort was voted most memorable moment in Tribe history by Cleveland fans during baseball's observance of the US bicentennial celebration.

In that first year, the Indians fell to 15 games below .500 by late June but rallied and wound up 4th, just one game under...The next season '76, they finished 3 games over...However, after a slow '77 start, Frank was released on June 19 and was succeeded by Jeff Torborg...For the rest of that year he coached with the Angels under Manager Dave Garcia who had been his 3rd base coach in Cleveland in '75-'76.

TRIPLE CROWN: Is one of only 11 players to have won the Triple Crown (accomplished 13 times, 2 each by Ted Williams and Rogers Hornsby)...Frank did it in '66 with the O's...He, Mantle ('56) and Carl Yastrzemski ('67) are the only players to have captured the Triple Crown in the past 43 years (since Williams' 2nd in '47).

After leaving Baltimore, Frank moved past Killebrew, Mel Ott, Ernie Banks, Eddie Mathews, Ted Williams, Jimmie Foxx, and Mickey Mantle.

He set a major league record by hitting 10 home runs in the month of Apr '69 but that mark has since been extended to 11 by Willie Stargell, Mike Schmidt, and Graig Nettles...Set a club record with 49 homers in '66...Also set marks that year for most homers by an Oriole against one opponent (11 vs. Det) and most home runs Memorial Stadium (27).

ORIOLE PARK AT CAMDEN YARDS: ROOKIE OF THE YEAR

"Oriole Park at Camden Yards...the Rookie of the Year."
- Dave Anderson, The New York Times

"They've always done things right in Baltimore, and they've always done them a little different than anyone else. It's a great place to be from, a marvelous place to visit. And right now it symbolizes a glorious new trend in baseball, one that just might save the game from its many problems."
- Bruce Jenkins, The San Francisco Chronicle

From coast to coast, the reviews were the same. Oriole Park at Camden Yards was a hit. Visitors to the park literally ran out of superlatives describing their Camden Yards experiences. Boog Powell's Barbecue Stand beyond the right field fence became Baltimore's most talked about eatery. The 1890's Baltimore Orioles logo enjoyed a revival decorating the ballpark seats. The view of the bullpens became a favorite of standing room only fans. And the statistics, baseball's omnipresent statistics....no rookie has put up these kind of eye-popping numbers.

More than 3.5 million fans attended Orioles home games in 1992, and an additional 14,200 took tours of the park during the season's off-hours. Through a heavy schedule of nationally televised games, millions of others across the nation fell in love with Camden Yards' asymmetrical contour, the vista of the downtown Baltimore skyline, and the park's signature piece- the restored B&O Warehouse in right field.

Every pre-season projection of the ballpark's economic impact on the City of Baltimore was exceeded by a substantial margin. A 1985 report projected total out-of-ballpark spending of $23.1 million (1992 dollars). The actual was $52.8 million, more than twice the original projection.

Approximately 1.6 million out-of-town fans (46 percent of all fans) were attracted to Baltimore to see a game. Approximately 26 percent of out-of-town fans (or 12 percent of all fans) stayed overnight in the Baltimore area, spending $26.8 million in the City of Baltimore.

Almost 500,000 of these out-of-town fans were new tourists to downtown Baltimore, constituting a 12 percent increase in the volume of downtown tourism. Including both pre- and post-game spending and overnight spending, out-of-towners spent $46 million in the Baltimore area. This is regarded as "new money" to the local economy, a source of real economic growth.

Each of the 67 sellouts at Oriole Park meant that more than 15,000 fans patronized downtown restaurants, bars, attractions and retail establishments, spending more than $160,000 and that about 660 downtown hotel rooms were occupied by ticket holders.

The future looks bright. On September 2, 1992 the Orioles and the Maryland Stadium Authority agreed on a lease that will make Oriole Park at Camden Yards the Orioles' home for the next 30 years doubling the term of the original agreement. The Park has already had a dramatic affect on the future of ballpark architecture.

Stadia are springing up in Cleveland, Texas, Atlanta and Denver with the same concept- building parks that are unique to their city and user friendly.

EBBETS FIELD MEMORIES

It's been written that Oriole Park at Camden Yards rekindles memories of many of the old ballparks. Well, here's another link: the first 3 games at Camden Yards were shutouts. There has been only one other major league park to open with 3 shutouts in its first 3 games—EBBETS FIELD. Brooklyn was beaten 1-0 in each of the first 3 games in that park in 1913, all losses to Philadelphia (April 9-19-19)

ORIOLE PARK AT CAMDEN YARDS...

From A Player's Perspective

"This place (Oriole Park at Camden Yards) is still pretty amazing to me. The more time you spend here, the more you realize how special it is. So much thought went into putting this place together. This was not just a bunch of architects sitting down and making a blueprint. To me this was people who know the game and know the history of the game somehow putting tradition into a brand new ballpark. I love it here and anyone who knows baseball will tell you the same thing."

- Rick Sutcliffe, Orioles Pitcher

From The Dugout

"It's a combination of 100 years of baseball and it's baseball in the '90s. This is the whole ball of wax right here. I've never seen a nicer park."

- Tony LaRussa, Oakland Manager

From The Press Box

"It is wonderful, this new 48,000-seat home of the Baltimore Orioles, not only as a baseball landmark but as a monument to good sense. With all of the agonizing about the decline in American ingenuity and workmanship, about Americans growing lazy and perhaps dumb, Oriole Park at Camden Yards is verification people in this country can do something the way it should be done."

- Art Spander, The San Francisco Examiner

From A Visiting Dignitary

"It's the most user friendly stadium I've ever seen. It's a carnival atmosphere there. Baltimore has made it a total entertainment experience." .. - Philadelphia Mayor Ed Rendell

From A Major League Owner

"It's everything a baseball park should be, and it's exactly what we're trying to do here." - Milwaukee Brewers Owner Bud Selig

From A Fan

"You sit here and feel like you're in the movie "The Natural " with Robert Redford about to step to the plate."

-J.D. Parsons, Elkridge, MD

From The Disabled Community

"This a place that's friendly to me and to so many of my friends who are fans with disabilities. This ballpark welcomes us."

-James Brady, former White House press secretary

From An Entirely Different Perspective

"I'm waiting for Babe Ruth to step to the plate."

-Charles Barkley, Phoenix Suns Forward

TIME Magazine Salutes Oriole Park at Camden Yards

"In the January 4, '93 issue of Time Magazine, Oriole Park at Camden Yards was named among the Top 10 Best Designs of '92. Also included in the list were the Lied Jungle at the Henry Doorly Zoo in Omaha, Nebraska, the design of the packages used by Armani products, the Bryant Park restoration in New York City, the work of architect Frank Gehry, which includes everything from a furniture line to the American Center Building in Paris, something known as BeeperKid, a parents' aid to locate wandering children, and the BCE Place Galleria Building in Toronto.

ORIOLE PARK AT CAMDEN YARDS

Oriole Park at Camden Yards, the beautiful new baseball-only facility in downtown Baltimore, became the official home of the Orioles on April 6, 1992. The construction of the park was completed in essentially 33 months from the time the process of razing previous structures on the 85-acre parcel began June 28, '89 in the area known as Camden Yards.

The one-time railroad center is 12 minutes west by foot from the City's Inner Harbor and only 2 blocks from the birthplace of baseball's most legendary hero George Herman "Babe" Ruth. Ruth's father operated Ruth's Cafe on the ground floor of the family residence located at Conway Street & Little Paca, now center field at Oriole Park. The ballpark seats 48,079 (not including standing room) and the project cost was approximately $105 million. It was designed by the Kansas City architectural firm of Helmuth, Obata & Kassabaum (HOK) with direction and input from the Orioles and the State of Maryland which owns and operates the facility through its agency, the Maryland Stadium Authority (MSA).

Working under contract to HOK were the urban design firm of RTKL, the landscape architecture firm of Wallace, Roberts and Todd, and the engineering firms of Bliss and Nyitray, Rummel, Klepper and Kahl, and Kidde Consultants, Inc. Working under contract to the Orioles were the interior design of Forte Design and the graphic design firm of David Ashton and Associates.

Oriole Park is state-of-the-art yet unique, traditional and intimate in design. It blends with the urban context of downtown Baltimore while taking its image from baseball parks built in the early 20th century. Steel, rather than concrete trusses, an arched brick facade, a sun roof over the gentle slope of the upper deck, an asymmetrical playing field, and natural grass turf are just some of the features that tie it to those magnificent big league ballparks built in the early 1900s. Ebbets Field (Brooklyn), Shibe Park (Philadelphia), Fenway Park (Boston), Crosley Field (Cincinnati), Forbes Field (Pittsburgh), Wrigley Field (Chicago), and The Polo Grounds (New York) were among the ballparks that served as powerful influences in the design of Oriole Park.

PLAYING FIELD

The field is 16' below street level and is made up of Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT), a sophisticated irrigation and drainage system below a natural grass turf. It is designed to reduce the frequency of rainouts while shortening the length of baseball's most exasperating feature, the rain delay. The PAT system makes it possible to get the field ready for play within half an hour after the end of a heavy rain storm. It automatically removes as many as 75,000 gallons of rainwater from the field in an hour.

Camden Yards is one of only 8 asymmetrical parks in the major leagues. The park's deepest point is left of dead center (410') just as Fenway Park's (420') is to the right of the center line. Though it is 15 feet shorter from home plate to the right field corner than down the left field line, that difference is compensated by a 25' high wall which extends 100' from the right field line toward center. The fence in the rest of the park is only 7' high.

THE WAREHOUSE

Located beyond right field, the B&O Warehouse is 432 feet from homeplate. Detroit catcher Mickey Tettleton came closest to hitting the building on the fly (his homer, Apr 20, directly down the RF line off Ben McDonald, landed 26 feet short of the Warehouse).

The 94-year-old landmark is the longest building on the East Coast at 1016' (but only 51' wide). It has been preserved and now provides unique office space for the Orioles as well as home for the banquet facilities, the ballpark's central kitchen and space for ballpark operations.
The Orioles' main ticket office operates out of the north end of the Warehouse (Camden and Eutaw Streets).

Two public facilities- a cafeteria (Pastimes) and a bar/lounge (Bambino's)- are located on the ground floor of the Warehouse and on the 7th floor is the exclusive members-only Camden Club. The ballpark and Warehouse are separated by a 60' wide promenade, an extension of Eutaw Street. Three balls were hit out of the park and onto Eutaw Street last year, all by the opposition. In addition to Tettleton's blast described above, Kevin Reimer, while with Texas, hit one on May 5 off Jose Mesa that was 28 feet shy of hitting the building and California's Lee Stevens' drive to right-center off Rick Sutcliffe on May 23 was 33 feet short.

SCOREBOARDS

There are 2 major electronic information centers in the ballpark to enhance enjoyment of the game. Two big boards are located on the main scoreboard in center field: The Sony JumboTRON video board (22'9" by 31'4") and an equally innovative incandescent lamp matrix game in progress board (96' by 272') built by Daktronics, Inc. (Brookings, SD) which is located on top of the JumboTRON.

Mounted on top of the 2 boards is a large double-faced clock built in Maryland by Triangle Signs that can be read from both inside the ballpark and in downtown Baltimore. That main scoreboard system also supports 2 weather vane Oriole birds to show players and fans alike the direction of wind flow.

Embedded in the tall right field wall is another electronic board (also built by Daktronics) that provides a good-old-days feature missing from most current major league ballparks- continuously posted out-of-town scores. It accommodates 16 games at one time posting up-to-the-minute scores via a direct connection with SportsTicker the computerized service that tracks all big league games inning-by-inning. There are additionally 2 auxiliary boards for the convenience of those who do not face the 2 big boards in center field.

SEATING

Every aisle seat in the park bears an extra feature: a reproduction of the 100-year old logo used by the Baltimore Orioles of the 1890s, a National League team that won consecutive pennants in 1894-95-96.

Lower Stand: The lower deck comprises some 18,000 box seats between the foul poles. Behind the lower boxes are some 6,800 terrace box seats. Seats in the lower stand are generally closer to the field. From the front row of seats to first and 3rd bases, for example, the distance is 45'. From home plate to the screen measures 57'.

The Club Level (mezzanine) stretches from the right field foul pole to just beyond the left field foul pole and is accessible by escalators, elevators, stairs, and ramps. There is waiter service available at the seats and behind the seating area on the club level concourse is a climate controlled lounge with private dining and bar areas plus many other amenities including the Diamond Club buffet.

At Club Level also are 72 luxury suites each containing 10 to 14 seats. These suites can be leased on a yearly basis for between $55,000 to $95,000. In addition, there are a number of suites that are available for rent on an individual game basis, several which hold 10-18 people, and 3 larger party suites which can accommodate groups of up to 60 people.

The Upper Deck contains 25 rows of seats (the first 12 are boxes, the last 13 reserved seats) and has a slope of 31 degrees (Memorial Stadium was 33 degrees). A sun roof was constructed to cover half of the upper deck seating area.

More than 400 seats are available to fans with disabilities in the equal access areas (EA) which are located in all price categories throughout the ballpark.

ACCESSIBILITY/PARKING

It is easily reached via rail, bus and subway lines as well as 4 major highways (Rt 95, I-83, I-70 and the Baltimore-Washington Parkway). The MARC train and light rail trains both have stops directly on site. Over 5,000 parking spaces are located on-site and over 30,000 spaces are located in garages and lots throughout downtown, all within one mile of the park.

WHAT'S NEW AT ORIOLE PARK AT CAMDEN YARDS?

Oriole Park at Camden Yards is the major league's newest ballpark, yet more improvements were installed in 1993... The changes further enhance the park's atmosphere as the most "fan-friendly" in the game.

Marking the spot where 3 home runs cleared the right field fence and landed on Eutaw Street are brass plates embedded into the sidewalk... They contain the home run hitter's name, his team's logo, the distance and the date the homer was hit.

At the north end of Eutaw Street, on the wall at the base of the scoreboard, is the Orioles Hall of Fame... The wall holds plaques, similar in appearance to those enshrined in Cooperstown... The plaques feature the Hall of Famer's likeness and a brief description of his accomplishments... This attraction was unveiled Dec. 4, '92 at the club's first-ever "Moonlight Madness" festivities.

A new auxiliary scoreboard has been added on the facade of the club level near 3rd base to allow more fans access to baseball information... And, television monitors are being installed for the fans in lower deck reserved seats to give them a better overall view.

Prominent in front of the ticket windows in the north end of the Warehouse are 4-foot aluminum monuments depicting retired Orioles uniform numbers.

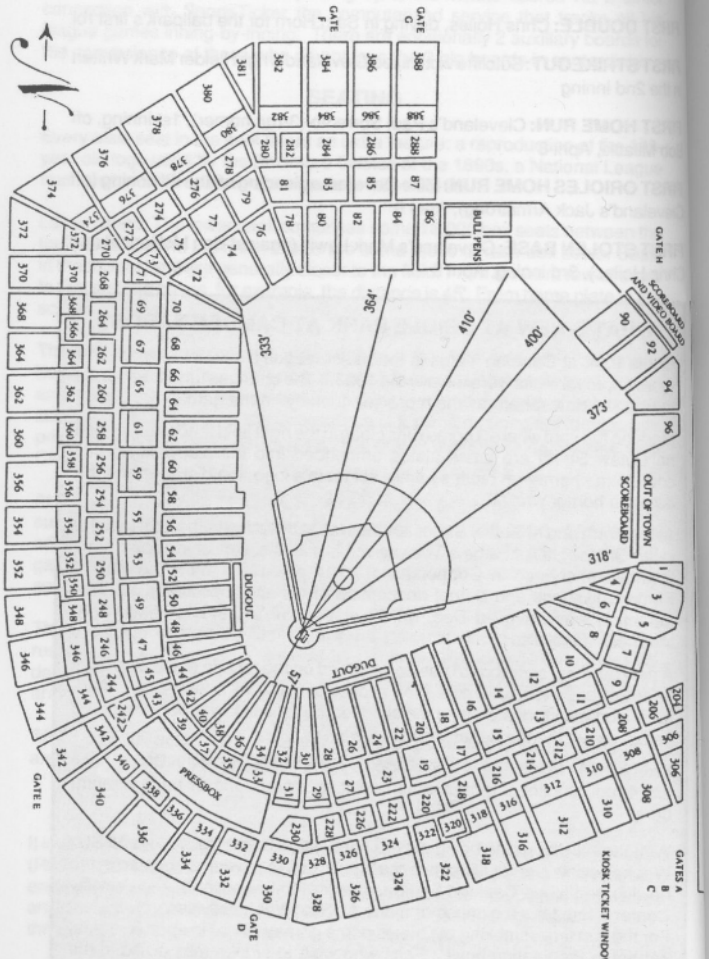

With the All-Star game being played here, July 13, the Coca-Cola All Star Week Preview Center is open to the public 7 days a week... Located in the newly refurbished Camden Station, adjacent to the ballpark, the Preview Center offers fans a glimpse of many All-Star Week activities.
For the first time, smoking at Orioles home games will be in specific areas, but not in the seating bowl... Fans who wish to smoke may do so in the concourses on all levels.

PRESIDENTIAL VISITS

The Orioles were 5-2 with President George Bush on hand (4-2 at home). Last year the President and his grandson, George P. Bush, both threw out ceremonial first balls on Opening Day. On May 15, '91, the President and Mrs. Bush brought with them Queen Elizabeth II of England and her husband, Prince Philip, the Duke of Edinburgh. Unfortunately, the O's lost to the Oakland A's, 6-3. The distinguished party met the uniformed personnel from both clubs, waved to the crowd, and watched a few innings of the game.
Before President Bush, the Orioles' luck in front of chief executives was all bad, 0-4 (0-3 for Mr. Reagan and 0-1 for Mr. Carter).
On opening day '89, the O's set what is believed to be a major league record when they hosted, not one, but two incumbent presidents, each from a different part of the world—Mr. Bush and Hosni Mubarak of Egypt.

In addition, the Babe Ruth Birthplace and Museum will unveil an exhibit featuring Baltimore's first All-Star Game in 1958 and Baltimoreans in the All-Star Game.

Baltimore's First All-Star Game

On July 8, 1958, Orioles southpaw Billy O'Dell earned a save and game MVP honors as the AL overcame an early 3-1 deficit to post a 4-3 victory in the 25th All-Star Game before 48,829 fans.

The game produced 13 hits, none for extra bases, the only All-Star game without an extra-base hit.

Beloved Morning Sun baseball writer Lou Hatter described the game this way in his story the next day: "Baltimore's largest big league audience may have been disappointed in the overall calibre of yesterday's play. The hurling wasn't exactly top calibre, just as the defensive play was ordinary and the hitting somewhat below All-Star specifications."

Still, the game featured 14 future Hall of Famers.

Just how long ago was it?

A three-bedroom house cost $11,975. Hula Hoops were the latest fad. The Kingston Trio was topping the music charts. A first class postage stamp was .04 cents. Elvis was inducted into the Army. There were just 2 $100,000 ballplayers (Ted Williams and Stan Musial). Only one current Oriole, pitcher Rick Sutcliffe, was alive.

Played on the same day President Dwight Eisenhower signed the Statehood bill making Alaska the 49th state, the game turned a cold shoulder on the NL hitters, who managed only 4 singles all day.

After the NL took a 3-1 lead in the 2nd inning off the Yankees' Bob Turley, 3 AL hurlers- Ray Narleski, Early Wynn and O'Dell- allowed only one hit over the last 7.1 innings, (a single by Pittsburgh's Frank Thomas in the 3rd inning). Nineteen of the last 20 Nationals to come to the plate were retired with the lone exception occurring when the Pirates' Bob Skinner reached on 2B Nellie Fox's fielding error in the 5th inning.

The 25-year-old O'Dell retired all 9 batters he faced on 27 pitches mowing down the NL over the final 3 frames.

The AL trailed 2-0 before coming to bat. Willie Mays led off the game by hitting Turley's first pitch off the 3rd base bag for a single. One out later, Stan Musial singled on a hit-and-run play sending Mays to 3rd base. Hank Aaron hit a sacrifice fly to score Mays. Ernie Banks was hit by a pitch, the Bucs' Thomas walked to load the bases and Musial scored on a wild pitch.

In the AL first, Fox reached on a throwing error by Banks, went to 3rd on a single by Mantle and scored when Jackie Jensen hit into a double play.

The NL made it 3-1 in the 2nd when Mays reached on a fielder's choice, stole 2nd base, went to 3rd when Orioles catcher Gus Triandos' throw went into center field, and scored on a single by Skinner.

In the 6th, the AL got the winning run. NY's Gil McDougald, batting for Wynn, then singled home Malzone with what proved to be the deciding run.

History of the All-Star Game

The architect of the first All-Star Game was Arch Ward, former sports editor of the Chicago Tribune. In 1933, Ward convinced his publisher and baseball's leadership that a Dream Game matching the best players from the American and National Leagues would be a fitting attraction for that year's World's Fair in Chicago. "The Game of the Century" was set for July 6, with Comiskey Park chosen over Wrigley Field by a coin flip. When the first game was played, media coverage was very limited. Some major league teams didn't even have one newspaper reporter from their home city in attendance. The 1993 game at Oriole Park at Camden Yards will be very different. More than 700 writers, photographers and broadcasters will cover the action and more than 100 million fans will be watching via television in over 70 countries.

Twenty-four future Hall of Famers were on the first All-Star Game's rosters. But few, if anyone, grasped the magnitude of the event. Joe Cronin, a Hall of Famer and the AL's starting shortstop, said 50 years later," Although much is being made today of the fact that we played in the 1933 All-Star Game, we also considered it a great honor because we thought it would be the one and only All-Star Game."

But even before the end of the AL's 4-2 victory, sentiment was strong to continue the game on at least a year-to-year basis. Since 1933, the All-Star Game has been an annual event with 2 exceptions: wartime travel restrictions forced cancellation in 1945 and for a 4-year period beginning in 1959, 2 games were played each summer. Through 1992, the National League holds the lead in the series 37 games to 25 with one game tied.

Selecting the Players

Ballots were inserted in newspapers for the first 2 All-Star Games in 1933 and 1934. From 1935 to 1946, the managers of the 8 teams in each league selected the participants with the All-Star Game managers choosing the starters. Balloting for the starting lineups, with tabulation by the Associated Press, was returned to the fans from 1947 to 1957, but a case of ballot stuffing by Cincinnati fans prompted Commissioner Ford Frick to leave the player selection to managers, players and coaches from 1958 to 1969. In the Cincinnati incident in 1957, seven Reds were selected to the National League starting lineup. Commissioner Frick arbitrarily replaced two of those selections, outfielders Gus Bell and Wally Post, with Hank Aaron and Willie Mays. Fan balloting was restored in 1970.

Each team had 18 players for the first game in 1933, and 30 of them played, although the AL stayed with its starting lineup - except for pitching changes- until Sam West replaced Babe Ruth defensively in the 9th inning. The standard roster limit has been 28 since 1969.

Orioles All-Star Notes

RIPKEN LEADING VOTE GETTER IN 1992: Cal Ripken was the leading vote getter in the 1992 ML All-Star balloting (2,699,773), the most votes for a ML player since Gary Carter then with Montreal in 1982 (2,785,407)...It was also 265,113 more votes than any other player received last season (Cubs' Ryne Sandberg was next).

ALL-STAR STARTS/APPEARANCES: In 1992, Cal became the first American League shortstop to start in 9 All -Star games breaking the mark by Luis Aparicio who started 8 games (1958-63, plus 2 games in 1959 and 1962)...Cal is the only player to start for the AL each of the last 9 years...He extended his club record for most consecutive starts in an All-Star game (9); Brooks Robinson is 2nd with 5 consecutive starts, 1964-68 and still holds the club record for most starts (10 years, 11 games; 2 in 1961).

Cal played in his 10th All-Star game, tying Aparicio for most All-Star games by an AL shortstop...Ozzie Smith is the only shortstop in ML history to play or start in more All-Star games (he started his 10th All-Star game in 1992, his 12th All-Star appearance)...Cal's 10 All-Star appearances are 2nd in Orioles history behind Brooks' 15 (in consecutive years)... Eddie Murray ranks behind Cal with 7 appearances.

Cal has been the elected starter in 8 of his 9 starts (1984-87, 1989-92)...In 1988, Cal finished 2nd in the voting to the Tigers' Alan Trammell, but started anyway when the Detroit star had to withdraw because of injury.

Eight different Orioles have been selected starters in 23 years of fan voting. In addition to Cal and Brooks, Orioles who have been chosen to starting berths are Boog Powell and Frank Robinson (2 each), and Bobby Grich, Ken Singleton, Eddie Murray and Terry Kennedy (once each).

ORIOLES ALL STAR MVPs: The Orioles have had 4 All-Star MVPs, with Cal Ripken in 1991 the most recent...In that game, played at Toronto's SkyDome, he was 2-for-3 with a 3-run homer off former teammate Dennis Martinez and a single off Cy Young-winner Tom Glavine to lead the AL to a 4-2 win...Cal became only the 3rd shortstop to hit a home run in an All-Star Game joining Dick McAuliffe ('65) and Lou Boudreau ('42)...In the home run hitting contest the day before the All-Star game, Cal hit an incredible 12 home runs in 22 swings to help the AL to a 20-7 pasting of the NL.

Billy O'Dell, as noted earlier, hurled 3 perfect innings to save the AL's 4-3 win in Baltimore in 1958.

Brooks Robinson won the trophy in St. Louis in 1966 on the strength of a 3-for-4 effort including a triple and an 8-for-8 performance afield...He was the first player from a losing team to be so honored.

Frank Robinson's 4th-inning homer at Detroit in the 1971 game put the AL ahead to stay and earned him MVP honors...It was the AL's first All-Star victory since 1962 and its last until 1983.

ORIOLES ALL-STAR HOMERS: In 1991, Cal became the 4th and most recent Oriole to homer in All-Star play joining Brooks (July 11, '67 at Anaheim off Fergie Jenkins, none on); Frank (July 13, '71 at Detroit off Dock Ellis, one on) and Ken Singleton (Aug 9, '81 at Cleveland off Tom Seaver, solo).

ORIOLES HAD 3 ALL-STARS IN '92

Cal Ripken, Brady Anderson, and Mike Mussina were all on the AL All-Star team in '92. It was the first time since '86 that the O's had 3 on the team, and the first time since '72 that 3 Orioles played in the game. In the AL's 13-6 win at San Diego's Jack Murphy Stadium, Cal was 1-for-3 with an rbi single off Tom Glavine, Mussina worked one scoreless inning and Brady was 0-for-3 during his 6 innings in left field.

AL HAS WON 5 STRAIGHT

The AL All-Stars have won 5 straight games, one more than they had earned in the previous 31 All-Star games (4-26-1). The NL leads 37-25-1.

BASEBALL FIRST

Baseball's inaugural All-Star Game in '33 was the first held in any major sport. In '34, Arch Ward, former sports editor of the Chicago Tribune and the force behind baseball's first All-Star Game, helped kick off the College All-Star game which pitted the top college seniors against the defending National Football League champions. That game was last played in '76. The NFL's first version of the Pro Bowl was held in '39. The National Hockey league was next to adopt an all-star event in '47 and the National Basketball League held their first one in '51.

ALL-STAR GAME AND WORLD SERIES

The Orioles are trying to become the 8th team to host an All-Star Game and World Series in the same year. It hasn't been done since '77 when the Yankees hosted both events. In fact, Yankee Stadium has held both events in two other years as well: '39 and '60. The other occasions: Cincinnati-Riverfront Stadium ('70), Minnesota-Metropolitan Stadium ('65), Los Angeles-Memorial Coliseum ('59), Cleveland-Municipal Stadium ('54), Brooklyn-Ebbets Field ('49), and Boston-Fenway Park, ('46).

NBA WAS HERE IN '69

In addition to the '58 all-star game, Baltimore has hosted only one other major all-star event - the 1969 NBA All-Star Game at the Baltimore Civic Center. Oscar Robertson was the game MVP that year.

Johnny Oates begins his 2nd full season (and 3rd overall) as manager of the Orioles with a 143-144 career record since he was named to his post, May 23, 1991...Last season, the O's showed the major league's best improvement (22 games) over the year before, finishing in 3rd place at 89-73...It was the team's best record since the 1983 squad went 98-64 and won the World Series.

Oates received praise and recognition for the O's successful season, placing 3rd in AL Manager of the Year voting behind Oakland's Tony LaRussa and Milwaukee's Phil Garner...Even though his ML tenure is 287 games, he already ranks 5th in the league in seniority, trailing only Detroit's Sparky Anderson ('79), LaRussa ('86), Minnesota's Tom Kelly ('86) and Toronto's Cito Gaston ('89).

Known for his organization and thoroughness, Sparky Anderson called him one of the best young managers in the game...Oates admitted beginning preparation for a managerial career while still an active player, serving his apprenticeship by sitting near Tommy Lasorda of the Dodgers and constantly asking questions.

PLAYER/COACH/MANAGER: Oates is the 2nd person ever to play for, coach and manage the Orioles (Frank Robinson was the first)...He is the only one to play in the O's farm system ('67-'71) and with the O's ('70 and '72), then coach the Birds ('89-'91) and manage them in the minors ('88) and in the major leagues ('91-present).

MANAGING/COACHING

1991 ORIOLES: Upon assuming the post of manager, the O's promptly lost 4 consecutive games (3 games each by a single run) and Oates lost 16 pounds...But, the team rebounded to win 5 of the next 6 games and went 20-19 heading into the All-Star break...That season, the Birds gave valuable major league experience to 14 rookies...The day after the season ended, October 7, he signed a 2-year contract to manage the club through the 1993 season (with an option for 1994).

MGR IN MINORS: Oates began his managerial career in the Yankees' farm system, and following a stint as a coach for the Chicago Cubs, he piloted Rochester (AAA) in 1988...He owns a 237-188 (.558) record in 3 seasons as manager in the minor leagues. In the Yankees' system, he guided Nashville (AA) to the Southern League championship in 1982 with 4-game series wins over Knoxville and Jacksonville...The following season, with Columbus (AAA) in 1983, Oates led the team to a regular-season crown, but lost in the playoffs to Tidewater.

EARLY ML DEBUT: His first experience as a major league manager came June 1-3, '90, when he substituted for Frank Robinson who had been suspended for 3 games...The O's played those 3 games at New York and beat the Yankees twice.

MANAGED MANAGERS: Two men who played for Oates on the 1983 Columbus Clippers made their major league managerial debuts in 1992: Buck Showalter of the New York Yankees and Butch Hobson of the Boston Red Sox.

'88 IL MANAGER OF THE YEAR: After a 16-year absence, Oates returned to the Orioles' organization and was named 1988 International League Manager of the Year after the Red Wings captured the Western Division crown, Rochester's first title since 1974...The Wings defeated Tidewater to advance to the Triple A Alliance Series...Although Rochester won the first 2 games, they dropped the next 4.

COACHING: From 1989 until his promotion to manager, he was the Birds' first base coach...His first coaching experience in the major leagues came with the Cubs, 1984-87, where he served at various times as dugout, bullpen and 3rd base coach.

PLAYING CAREER

MAJOR LEAGUES: Played with 5 teams during 11 seasons in his major league career...In his first ML at bat, he singled, Sep 17, '70, at RFK Stadium off Washington's Dick Bosman, now the Orioles' pitching coach...He led all AL catchers with a .995 fielding percentage as a rookie with the O's in '72 and had a .992 fielding average for Atlanta in '74.

Had his best season in '75 when he was traded from Atlanta to Philadelphia early in the season...Became a starter for the Phillies, batting .286 in 90 games and was the team's Opening Day catcher in '76...But, on that day, he broke his collarbone in a 9th-inning home-plate collision with Pittsburgh's Dave Parker...Was sidelined until mid-June, long enough for Bob Boone to earn full-time status...Went to the Dodgers for 3 season ('77-'79) and played for the '77 and '78 NL Champions...It was there he planted the seeds to become a manager and where Tommy Lasorda called him "one of the most intelligent catchers in the game."

POST SEASON: Was on Phillies team which won NL East in '76 and lost to Cincinnati in the NLCS...Played on Dodgers' pennant-winning teams in '77 and '78 (although he did not appear in either NLCS against his former Philadelphia teammates)...In '78 Series against the Yankees, he appeared only in Game 5 and in 2 plate appearances off Jim Beattie, he walked as a pinch hitter and singled up the middle through Beattie's legs.

Championship Streak: In a 7-season stretch in the majors (his final 6 years as an ML player and his first as an ML coach), he was on 6 title-winning teams: '76 Phillies; '77 and '78 Dodgers; '80 and '81 Yankees and as a coach with the '84 Cubs.

MINOR LEAGUES: Was originally drafted by the White Sox in '66, but he did not sign...Was drafted by the Orioles in '67 and played most of his minor league career under Joe Altobelli and Cal Ripken Sr, except for one season under Harry Malmberg...He credits Ripken's influence for teaching him everything he knows about catching.

PERSONAL: He and his wife, Gloria, have 3 children: Lori (6/25/71), Andy (3/5/76) and Jenny (11/14/78)...Was graduated from Virginia Tech with a degree in health and physical education in '68...Played 2 years of college baseball there...Is in 3 Halls of Fame: elected to Virginia Tech's Sports Hall of Fame in '83, inducted into the Virginia High School Sports Hall of Fame in Dec, '92 and the Roanoke/Salem, VA Baseball Hall of Fame in Feb, '93...Currently involved with the Richmond, VA office of HA-LO Advertising Specialties (home office: Chicago), one of the largest advertising specialty companies in the nation.

KELLY WAS SECOND WOMAN

On June 20, WJZ-TV reporter Kelly Saunders, 42, became the 2nd woman to ever handle the public address duties at a major league game, first since Joy Hawkins McCabe did it for a Washington Senators-White Sox game in September of 1966 at DC Stadium...She was the 24-year old daughter of Senators' PR man Burt Hawkins.

ELROD (ELLIE) JEROME HENDRICKS (44)

Born: Dec 22, 1940
Height: 6'1"' Weight: 185
Batted, L; Threw, R
Position: Catcher
Birthplace/Residence: Born and raised in St. Thomas, V.I. . . . Has lived in Baltimore area (Randallstown) since '70.
Tenure: Has spent 33 years in professional baseball (thru '92) . . . Had 10 years, 89 days service as a major league player.
Signed originally with: Milwaukee (Atlanta) Braves

MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

BALTIMORE ORGANIZATION: This year Ellie will celebrate his 25th season opener in an Orioles uniform, most in club history (Brooks Robinson spent 21)...Since '68, Elrod has been with the O's for all but 1-1/2 of 25 seasons.

He played for the Cubs during the last 6 weeks of '72 (Tommy Davis deal) before returning to the O's over the winter...Then he logged 1-1/2 years in the Yankees' organization from June '76 thru the '77 season, before rejoining the Orioles again...Posted a .990 career fielding average.

MANAGERIAL DEBUT '88: Ellie twice substituted for Frank Robinson as manager in '88 when the latter was hospitalized with a bad back...Ellie managed 4 games from May 18-20 (1-3), then took over again for 2 weeks from July 15 thru 28 (3-8)...His cumulative record during Frank's 2 absences was 4-11.

COACHING: This is Ellie's 17th season as the O's bullpen coach since his appointment to that position in '77 during Earl Weaver's first tour of duty.

PLAYER-COACH: Twice during this span he's served as player-coach...In '78 he was activated on May 18, replacing Gary Roenicke who had been sent down and remained on the roster for the balance of the year in the dual capacity.

In 13 games that year he hit .333 (18-6), and, in his one career pitching stint compiled an 0.00 ERA, thus leading the club, in a sense, in both categories (to be fair he was tied in ERA with Dave Ford who pitched 15 scoreless innings). His pitching career took place on June 26 in Toronto, where the O's were absorbing a 24-10 pasting...He worked 2.1 innings, allowed no runs, one hit and one walk while putting an end to the carnage inflicted upon 4 predecessors (Mike Flanagan, Joe Kerrigan, Tippy Martinez, and outfielder Larry Harlow). Don Stanhouse then pitched the 9th and also held the Jays scoreless.

In '79 he coached exclusively all year until Sep 1 when the roster expanded to 40 players...He made only one appearance, his last in the major leagues at Detroit on Sep 19 and went 0-for-1...He was not eligible for post-season play.

ALL-STAR: He was the AL's batting practice catcher and bullpen coach for the '82 All-Star game in Montreal.

YANKEES '76-'77: In '76, he played in 26 games for the Yankees after the June 15 trade from Baltimore and batted .210 (57-12). Spent '77 shuttling between New York and Syracuse. He played in only 10 games for the Yankees and was not eligible for post-season play.

ORIOLES '68-'76: Ellie had been with the O's for nearly 9 full years when he was traded to the Cubs for Tommy Davis in Aug. '72...However, when the season ended he was reacquired by Baltimore.

100 GAMES/YEAR: Played in more than 100 games in each of the O's 3 pennant-winning seasons of '69, '70, '71...He and Andy Etchebarren more or less split the regular catching job from '68 thru '71.

Weaver/Lane: Earl Weaver and Frank Lane were instrumental in convincing the O's to draft him from the Angels' AAA Seattle affiliate in Nov. '67...Played for Weaver in Puerto Rico previously and Lane had scouted him in Mexico.

ALCS/WS: He compiled a .273 (66-18) average in 23 post-season games for the O's and Yankees (comprising five league championship series and four World Series).

'70 WS: Hit .364 (11-4) against the Reds with a home run and double and contributed significantly to the O's wins at Cincinnati in Games 1 and 2. In the opener, the Reds jumped out 3-0 but Ellie tied it in the 5th with a home run off Gary Nolan and the O's went on to win on Brooks' homer in the 7th...There was a play in the Cincinnati 6th in which Ellie was involved and that was as important as the home run.

Carbo-Burkhart Incident: One inning after Ellie had tied the game with his home run, the Reds had Bernie Carbo on 3rd representing the lead run, and only one out (Brooks had retired Lee May leading off the inning on a sensational play).

Pinch-Hitter Ty Cline then chopped a high bouncer in front of the plate...As Ellie went out and grabbed it, Carbo headed home. Ellie dove and tagged Carbo a few feet up the line and umpire Ken Burkhart, who had been spun around by the players as they converged so that his back was to the play, called Carbo out. Films later revealed that Ellie had tagged Carbo with one hand while holding the ball in the other, and that Carbo had missed the plate.

EARLY CAREER

PUERTO RICO: Ellie played for Santurce in the Puerto Rican Winter League each year from '60-'77, except in '71 when the O's went to Japan...His 112 homers in that loop rank him 2nd on the all-time list to former St. Louis Browns outfielder Willard Brown (120).

MINORS: He enjoyed his best minor league seasons in Jalisco in the Mexican League (AAA) where he hit 109 homers in 4 years and was known as the Babe Ruth of Mexico...In last season there ('67), he led the league in homers (41) and was 2nd in RBI (112).

He started his career in the Milwaukee Braves' organization ('59-'60), then spent 2 years at Winnipeg in the Cardinals' system ('62-'63) before going to Mexico.

COMMUNITY SERVICE: Was honored at special ceremonies prior to the final game at Memorial Stadium (10/6/91) for all he has done to benefit of both the Orioles and the community.

Chosen Man of the Year by the Oriole Advocates in '89...Received the first Jack Dunn Memorial Service Award, named after the late Orioles executive and presented by the Maryland Professional Baseball Players Association in January '88 at the 35th Annual Tops in Sports Banquet...The award was presented to him for his many selfless years of service to the community.

He was also selected the first Man of the Year by the Baltimore chapter of the National Conference of Christians and Jews in February '83 and the Special Olympics Man of the Year in '87.

Ellie received Towson State University's Distinguished Black Marylander Award in a ceremony sponsored by the university's Office of Minority Affairs.

PERSONAL: One of the most popular personalities ever to wear an Orioles uniform.....Speaks fluent Spanish...Plays the flute. Has operated two 3-week baseball camps for youngsters the past 11 summers at McDonogh School in Owings Mills.

During the off-season, just after the '92 season, Ellie and former Oriole Lee May, supervised a Little League for 8-12 year-olds in the Virgin Islands.

He and his wife, Merle, were married Jan. 14, '70 and are the parents of two sons: Ryan (8/3/72) and Ian Christopher (11/28/76). They have lived in the Randallstown area, near Baltimore, since the early '70s. Ellie has 4 children by a previous marriage: Abegail (7/13/62) Elrod Jr. (4/7/64) Elroy (10/1/65) and Berecia (8/25/67).

On June 23 vs. Seattle at Oakland, he tied his career high with 7 RBI in a 12-7 win...Saved the seemingly invincible Dennis Eckersley from a loss to KC on Aug 8 when, after Eck had blown his first save of the year in the top of the 9th, Baines followed with a game-winning 3-run homer in the bottom of the 9th.

Led the A's with nine 3-hit games...Batted 3rd thru 7th in Oakland's lineup, primarily 4th...Including the regular season and post-season, Baines batted .379 (66-25) against the World Champion Blue Jays.

ASTRO POWER: Led Houston in homers, '85 thru '89, and RBI, '86 thru '89...Left as Houston's 2nd leading home run hitter of all-time (166) behind Jimmy Wynn (223)...Became the first Astro to string 6 straight 20+ homer seasons...His .482 slugging mark as an Astro is the highest in that club's history.

FAVORITE AL PARKS: Has a .440 (25-11) average at New Comiskey with 3 homers and 10 RBI in 7 games...Is over .300 in one other AL park (Fenway, .308, 26-7).

DEFENSE: Played only 2 games at first base (TC-20, E-0) in '92...His current career fielding average is .992 (TC-7913, E-67) at first base...On Apr 18, '91 at Milwaukee, he tied an AL record when he committed 4 errors...It was the 4th time it has happened in the AL, but the first time since Jimmy Wasdell of the Senators, May 3, '39.

All 153 of his starts were in center field.

RUNS BATTED IN: Finished with 107 RBI, the 9th Oriole to drive in 100 or more runs...Ken Singleton and Frank Robinson are the only other Oriole outfielders to do it...The previous high by an Oriole center fielder was 76 by Paul Blair in '69.

Had an RBI in 8 straight games, Aug 29-Sep 6, the 3rd longest streak in club history behind Doug DeCinces (11 over 1978-79) and Reggie Jackson (10 in 1976)

Drove in 37 game-tying or go-ahead runs, tops on the club.

HOME RUNS: Improved his home run total for the 4th straight year going from 0 to 8 to 12 to 19 to 24...The longest such streak in ML history is 6 straight years of improvement accomplished by 5 players including former Oriole John Shelby (1982-87)...Was the first Oriole to hit a home run at Oriole Park at Camden Yards, Apr 9 off Cleveland's Jack Armstrong.

BASES LOADED: Was 13-for-25 with the bases loaded (.520, HR-2, 2B-5, SF-4, RBI-38)...The 13 hits are the most in one season by a major leaguer since the Elias Sports Bureau began keeping such records in 1975...The previous high was 11 by Oakland's Terry Steinbach in '90, Los Angeles' Steve Garvey in '77, Minnesota's Larry Hisle in '77, the Yankees' Chris Chambliss in '78, St. Louis' Willie McGee in '82, Cleveland's Pat Tabler in '83, and Montreal's Hubie Brooks in '85.

1-Selected by Philadelphia in June '84 free agent draft (13th round)
2-Signed by Orioles as 6-year free agent on 12/12/90

CAREER HIGHS

Longest Outing: 6 innings, (July 26, '91 vs. Oak)
Strikeout High: 6, twice, (latest June 28, '91 vs. Bos)
Walk High: 3, 4 times, (latest July 19, '92 at Tex)
Winning Streak: 3, twice, (latest Apr 13-July 19, '92)
Losing Streak: 2, (July 21-31, '92)
Pitches: Fastball, slurve (slider-curve ball), change-up

His pitching style is reminiscent of former relievers like Dan Quisenberry, Kent Tekulve and Dick Hyde...He threw like Quisenberry when he first signed but after being influenced by Tekulve on television, he began to throw more submarine than sidearm...Ellie Hendricks, the O's veteran bullpen coach, says Todd reminds him mostly of Hyde.

1992 SEASON SUMMARY

In his first full season with the O's, led the AL in relief innings pitched (106) and the Birds in appearances (65)...Was the first Oriole to lead the AL in relief innings since Sammy Stewart in '81.

Surprisingly, was tougher on left-handed batters than on righties (lefties hit .246, righties .248)...First batters faced hit .328 (58-19) with 5 walks, and 2 sacrifices...The rest of the time opponents batted .234 (334-78) off him.

Was ejected by umpire Larry Barnett on Aug 19 after Seattle's Edgar Martinez hit a grand slam off him...Frohwirth thought the previous 1-2 pitch was a strike, Barnett didn't...Frohwirth then proceeded to throw the ball, his cap, and glove toward home plate on his way to the dugout in one of the more animated emotional displays of the major league season.

Following that game, he began a string of 17.2 scoreless innings over his next 10 appearances, Aug 21-Sep 15...Also had a stretch, June 26-July 11 in which he didn't allow an earned run over 20 innings.

From July 3-12, he pitched in 6 games in 10 days working 18.2 innings...Pitched a season-high 5 innings (ND, H-3, R-0) on July 4 at Minnesota, in O's 15-inning loss...Two days later, he worked 4.2 hitless (and scoreless) innings for a no- decision in O's 14-inning win over Chicago.

Worked 3 or more innings 14 times, 11 of those were scoreless...In one 10-day span, July 21-31, he allowed 10 hits, 10 runs (9 earned), 2 walks and 2 home runs in 2.2 innings...Take away that ugly stretch and his ERA for the season drops from 2.46 to 1.74.

Allowed 26 of 64 inherited runners to score (41 pct), 9th worst in the AL among the league's 52 relievers with 30 or more inherited runners...The AL average was 29.5 pct...He posted a 19.29 ERA in 5 games against the Red Sox, who scored more than 1/3 of the earned runs he allowed (10 of 29)...His ERA against the rest of the AL was 1.69.

IRON ARM: Over the past 2 seasons, has pitched 202.1 innings in relief; in AL only Toronto's Duane Ward has pitched more (208.2)...Averaged over 62 appearances per year since turning pro in '84 (562 games in 9 seasons).

MISCELLANEOUS: Since entering the league, California, Cleveland and Texas have yet to figure him out...Lifetime against the three, he is 5-0 with a 0.19 ERA (IP-48.0, ER-1).

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1991: Did not join the O's until May 28 but was 2nd on the club in wins (7) and finished 2nd to Cal Ripken in the Most Valuable Oriole vote...Held opponents to a .190 average (337-64) and despite his late arrival, ranked 2nd in the AL in relief innings pitched (96.1), to Toronto's Duane Ward (107.1)...Among AL relievers with 50 or more innings, his 1.87 ERA was runner-up to California's Bryan Harvey (1.60).

Allowed fewer than one base runner per inning with both Rochester (24 in 24.2 innings) and Baltimore (94 in 96.1 innings)...Pitched 3+ innings 9 times and didn't allow a run...Saved 3 wins in 5 opportunities...Inherited 18 leads and blew only 2.

O's Debut/Great Start: Made his O's debut the day he arrived (May 28)...Appeared in 8 games his first 12 days with the club...In his first 6 appearances thru June 5, only one of 24 batters faced (7.2 innings) reached base and that came by a strikeout-passed ball...The first legitimate base runner allowed was a walk to Toronto's Pat Tabler, the first man he faced in his next outing...Allowed only 7 of 51 first batters (.137) to reach safely, holding them to a .109 average (46-5)...From Aug 13 thru Sep 29, forged an 0.92 ERA in 39 innings over 19 appearances (ER-4).

PHILLIES ORGANIZATION

Spent his entire pro career (7 full seasons) in the Philadelphia organization until the Orioles signed him as a 6-year free agent...Led 4 leagues in saves: '84-Northwest League (11); '85-Carolina League (18); '87-Eastern League (19); and '90-International League (21).

1990: Started the season in Philadelphia, but was assigned to Scranton-Wilkes Barre before the end of April, and did not return to the big leagues...Lost his only decision, to Montreal on Apr 17, and made his final NL appearance on Apr 25 against Cincinnati...Appeared in more games (67) for Scranton than any other AAA pitcher...Won or saved 30 of the Barons' 68 victories (44 pct)...Was named to the IL All-Star team.

1989: Spent all but 6 weeks with the Phillies and put together a 16.1 consecutive scoreless innings streak, longest on the staff that year...Earned his last NL win over the Reds on July 18.

1988: Pitched for the Phillies for about 3 weeks (June 14-July 3) and, in his only decision, earned a win over the Cubs' (now the O's) Rick Sutcliffe June 22...Was 4th in the IL in saves (13).

ML Debut, 1987: Made his big league debut Aug 10 (the same day he reported) and won a 4-2 decision that night over the Cubs' Jamie Moyer, now in O's organization...Led the Eastern League in saves that year (19) though he didn't spend anything close to a whole year with Reading...He had a total of 29 saves with Reading and Maine...Won the Paul Owens Award as the Phils' minor league pitcher of the year.

1986: Led 2 different teams in saves: tied for Clearwater club lead (10) and led at Reading (12).

AMATEUR CAREER: Graduated from Messmer High School in Milwaukee ...Attended Waukesha Technical Institute for 2 years (played baseball and basketball) and Northwest Missouri State University (Maryville, MO) for 2 years...Played baseball and majored in Physical Education at the latter institution.

PERSONAL: Pronounced FRO-worth...Married Jacqueline Vincent (9/20/86)...In the off-season, coaches the Marquette High School junior varsity basketball team, and a team from the seventh and eighth grades of Mother of Good Counsel School in Milwaukee.

HR-2, (June 12, '92 at Det)
RBI-4, twice, (May 4, '92 vs. Tex and Jun 22, '90 at KC)
Hitting Streak: 7, (Apr 15-22, '92)

1992 SEASON SUMMARY

Became only the 2nd catcher in club history to hit 20 or more home runs (homers hit only while catching, for more, see below under "Home Runs")...Had the AL's 4th best home runs-per-at-bats ratio with a 15.1 mark, behind Oakland's Mark McGwire (11.1), Detroit's Rob Deer (12.3) and Texas' Juan Gonzales (13.6).

Finished 4th in homers among ML catchers behind Philadelphia's Darren Daulton (27), Detroit's Mickey Tettleton (23, he hit 9 others as a DH) and New York's Matt Nokes (22). Finished with the fewest RBI (40) in ML history for a player with 20 or more homers...That distinction previously belonged to Kevin Maas of the Yankees in 1990 (RBI-41, HR-21).

INJURY: Was 6th in the AL in home runs (14 in 62 games), and 5th in slugging (.539) and on base pct (.403) when he was struck by a pitch from NY's Tim Leary on June 21 and suffered a fractured right wrist (ulna bone)...Spent the next 2 months on the disabled list missing 51 games...O's played that game under protest after claiming Leary was doctoring the ball...ESPN's cameras appeared to have caught him in the act, and it looked as though it was an illegal pitch which hit Hoiles...However, no action was taken by AL President Dr. Bobby Brown.

Returned to the Orioles on Aug 18 and appeared in 34 games batting .265 (117-31) with 6 home runs and 12 RBI...Didn't play after Sep 26 due to soreness in right wrist...Underwent surgery on Oct 6.

HOME RUNS: Joined Gus Triandos as the only catchers in Orioles history to hit 20 homers in a season when he homered at Milwaukee on September 19 off Chris Bosio...Triandos hit 30 in '58 and 25 in '59...Mickey Tettleton hit 26 homers for the O's in 1989, but 7 were as a DH. Of Hoiles' 20 homers, 17 were solo...Hit 2 homers in a game for the first time on June 12 at Detroit in O's 6-0 win...Homer at the Metrodome on Apr 29 off John Smiley was measured at 445 feet.

Hit 2nd career grand slam May 4 off Texas' Todd Burns...Hit 7 homers in 16 games, Apr 15-May 4...Led the club with 12 road home runs.

His home run off Jeff Reardon on Apr 15 at Boston was the only home run the games' all-time save leader allowed to a right-handed hitter during the regular season...Reardon did allow one more to a righty, a game-winner to Toronto's Ed Sprague in Game 2 of the World Series.

BATTING: Batted 42 points higher than his ML career average prior to '92 (.274 to .232)...An 11-for-19 stretch, Apr 15-21, pushed him into the AL lead in hitting with .390 average...First Oriole other than Cal Ripken to be leading the league in hitting at any point of the season since Ray Knight in April, 1987.

Homered and tripled off Jack McDowell on May 16 at Chicago to help O's to a 7-2 win ending McDowell's season-opening 7-game win streak...Batted .209 (139-29) with men on base, 5th lowest in the AL...Batted .393 (28-11) during the O's 7-2 West Coast road trip that pushed them to 1-1/2 games behind Toronto on Sep 7.

Was one of the reasons O's No. 8 hitters batted a major league high .290...He batted .324 (111-36) in that spot, the highest any ML player hit as a No. 8 hitter in '92...He batted .198 (116-23) when he hit 4-5-6 in the order and .320 (194-62) in the bottom 3 spots in the order.

BEHIND THE PLATE: Ranked 2nd in the AL in fielding among catchers (.994 pct), behind Detroit's Mickey Tettleton (.996)...He finished first in '91 (.998)...Threw out only 15.5 pct (16 of 103) of those trying to steal against him, lowest in the AL, and a significant dropoff from 1991 when he erased 25 of 74 attempted base stealers (33.7 pct).

FAVORITE PARKS: Has batted .385 (26-10) lifetime at Royals Stadium with one homer and 7 RBI in 7 games...Has batted .333 (24-8) at Cleveland and .391 (23-9) at California.

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1991: Started 91 games behind the plate and led AL catchers in fielding percentage (.998, TC-477, E-1)...Was the O's leading hitter in July with a .319 average, but batted .224 (268-60) the rest of the season.

Beginning June 23, with his first career grand slam, a clutch, game-tying blow in the 9th inning off KC closer Jeff Montgomery, he went 38-for-111 (.342) over 31 games...Raised his average from .198 to season-high .272 on Aug 6...Batted .194 (124-24) the rest of the season including a season-ending 1-for-25 slump.

Caught the O's 4-man no-hitter on July 13 at Oakland and drove in the game-winning run in the O's 2-0 triumph with a 5th inning single.

Historic Homer: In an intrasquad game on March 6, he may have become the first player (excluding Senior League and Old Timers games) ever to hit a home run off a pitcher already in the Hall of Fame when he hit a towering, but perhaps wind-aided drive off Jim Palmer at the O's spring training complex at Twin Lakes Park.

1990: Recalled by the Orioles from Rochester on 3 occasions during the season...Started in AAA and was leading the International League in batting (.394, 127-50, G-32, HR-10, RBI-31) when the first recall came, June 3...He appeared in 10 games between June 5-July 5, then was optioned to the Red Wings, July 13.

Spent a month at Rochester, then was recalled, Aug 12...This time he appeared in 8 games prior to being sent back to AAA, Aug 28...When Rochester concluded post-season play, he was called up yet again, Sep 15.

After 3rd recall, started behind the plate in 5 straight games, but in the top of the first inning, Sep 23 vs. Milwaukee, he injured his right shoulder trying to throw out Paul Molitor at 2nd base...Suffered a tear in the muscle behind the shoulder. Hit his first ML home run June 27 vs. Cleveland in the botton of the 10th inning, a game-winning, 3-run shot off Sergio Valdez, giving the O's a 6-3 victory.

Rochester: His .348 average at Rochester was bettered by only one other Triple A player with 250 or more plate appearances: Albuquerque's Luis Lopez (.353)...Hit 18 homers in only 247 at bats, one every 13.7 ABs, 3rd best home run frequency in Triple A behind Pawtucket's Phil Plantier (1/13.0), and Las Vegas' Jerald Clark (1/13.4). Added 2 more homers in post-season, including game-winning, 3-run shot against Omaha in the opening game of the Triple A Alliance Championship...In 27 games at Rochester, between May 15-July 25, he hit 11 homers (26 RBI) in 27 games.

On May 19 he was hit in the face by a pitch from Indianapolis' Jim Davins and took 15 stitches above his left eye...Returned May 27...In 3 games before he was hit, and 2 games after, he went 13-for-18 with 4 homers and 8 RBI...Named the DH on Baseball America's Triple A All-Star team.

1989, ML DEBUT: Began season with Rochester, but recalled Apr 22 when Bob Melvin went on the disabled list...Made his ML debut Apr 25 at California in a pinch-hitting role (grounded out against Bob McClure)...Returned to Rochester May 7, but rejoined the Orioles in September... Started behind the plate in the season finale, Oct 1 at Toronto, and picked up his first ML hit, a run-scoring double, off Mauro Gozzo.

1988: Acquired Aug 31 from the Detroit organization along with pitchers Cesar Mejia and Robinson Garces for Fred Lynn...Began the season at Toledo, but was reassigned to Glens Falls on May 17 and remained there the rest of the season.

Topped all Tiger farmhands with 19 homers, including 17 at Glens Falls, tied for the most in the Eastern League...Also led the league in slugging (.500)...Threw out 38 of 105 attempted base stealers (.362).

1987: Moved from 1B back to catcher and threw out a league-high 53 attempted base stealers (53 of 140, .379; league average was .353)...Tied for the club lead in homers (13)...Played in Eastern League All-Star Game.

1986: Named to the Appalachian League All-Star team as a first baseman... Led the league in RBI (57), GWRBI (10), total bases (143), doubles (19) and games (68)...Also, 2nd in homers (13) and tied for 3rd in batting (.320)... Led league's first basemen in fielding (.996)...Caught in 6 games.

AMATEUR CAREER: Graduated from Elmwood (Wayne, OH) High School where he played football, basketball and baseball...Caught 3 years at Eastern Michigan University...Batted .340 in '84 as a freshman; .372 in '85, and .342 in '86 with a school record 19 homers and 70 RBI...Also set EMU career record with 34 home runs...Left with .352 career average...Named all-Mid-American Conference in '86.

PERSONAL: Majored in science at Eastern Michigan until he was drafted after his junior season...Single.

1992 SEASON SUMMARY

Made 35 starts, only 2 pitchers in the majors made more, including teammate Rick Sutcliffe (36)...His 35 starts were one less than he made with the Orioles in '90 and '91 combined due to injury...Threw 3632 pitches, 10th most in the AL...His 227 innings were 53.1 more innings than he had thrown in any of his other pro seasons.

Was 8th in the AL with a rate of 6.3 strikeouts per 9 innings...Became only the 3rd Oriole in the last 12 years to strike out 150 or more in a season (joining Mike Boddicker, 175 in 1986 and 152 in 1987, and Ken Dixon, 170 in 1987). Posted a 3.39 ERA in 16 starts after the All-Star break but was only 5-7...He had gone 8-6 the first half with a 5.00 ERA.

Was 7-2 on June 1, but won only 6 times in last 24 starts (6-11, 4.67, IP-156, ER-81).

Although he had only one win in his last 10 starts (1-6), he worked to a 3.94 ERA (IP-61.2, H-61, ER-27)...During that span he went 6 or more innings and allowed 3 runs or less 7 times, but the O's scored only 29 runs in those 10 starts...They had scored 148 runs in his first 25 starts, just under 6 per game. His only win during his last 10 starts came Sep 29 at Detroit in a 7-2 decision over Frank Tanana...Had a no-hitter for 5.1 innings before Dave Bergman singled...Left with a 7-1 lead after 8 innings, snapping his career-high 6-game losing streak. Had a 3.02 ERA (IP-44.2, ER-15) in his last 7 starts (1-3) and that included an 8-2 loss vs. Toronto Sep 24 (IP-1.2, H-5, ER-7).

Allowed 32 home runs, 2nd most in the majors behind Detroit's Bill Gullickson (35) and most by an Oriole since Eric Bell in 1987 (32)...He was 3 shy of the club record of 35 held by Robin Roberts in 1963 and Scott McGregor in 1986...Allowed 23 homers in his first 19 starts, but only 9 in his last 16...Yielded 4 homers against the Yankees on June 21, the first Oriole to throw 4 gopher balls in a game since Ken Dixon on Apr 14, 1987.

LOW HITTERS: Threw a pair of 2-hitters: 2-0 in his first start at home over Cleveland on Apr 9 and at Texas on July 18, the day after Mike Mussina pitched a one-hitter against the Rangers.

5-0 REPEAT: Started the season, 5-0, becoming the only Oriole starter to go 5-0 in 2 different seasons (also went 5-0 in '90)...The 5-0 start gave him a career-high 6-game win streak extending back to Sep 3, '91...Had his win streak snapped on May 17 at Chicago in a 14-10 loss.

MISCELLANEOUS: Despite throwing a 2-hit shutout vs. Cleveland on Apr 9 in his first start at Oriole Park at Camden Yards, his 4.90 ERA there was the 2nd highest home ERA in the AL behind NY's Scott Sanderson who posted a 5.47 ERA at Yankee Stadium. Before 1992, had hit only one batter in 252.1 ML innings, but he hit 9 last season, most by an Oriole since Mike Boddicker hit 11 in 1988.

FIELDING: Handled more chances without an error than any pitcher in the AL (51)...During his career, has handed 103 chances and made one error, a wild throw on July 31,'90 at Toronto.

VS. LEFT/RIGHT: During his career has held left-handed hitters to a .216 (890-192) batting mark...Righties have hit .266 (913-243) off him.

YOUNG GUNS: Ben, Mike Mussina and Arthur Rhodes, all 24 years of age or younger during last season, were a combined 38-23 (.623) with a 3.41 ERA (IP-562.1, ER-213) in 82 starts (14 complete games).

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1991: Originally scheduled to be the O's Opening Day starter, instead opened the season on the disabled list for the 2nd straight year and spent 48 of the season's first 83 days on the DL with a right elbow strain...Activated Apr 19 and made 7 starts (2-3, 6.95) before going on the DL again May 24 with a re-occurence of the same injury.

Made 2 rehab starts at Rochester in June... Returned to O's on July 1 with a 10-2 win over Detroit (IP-8, H-2, R-0) at home...Remained in the rotation until he was scratched from his last start on Sep 13 with soreness in right shoulder...Went 2-0 in his first 3 starts (3.00) after returning, then won only twice in his last 11 starts: 2-5, 4.42, IP-73.1, H-82, ER-36.

Left-handed batters hit only .215 (256-55); but righties hit nearly 100 points better (.313, 227-71)...Opposition batted .318 (88-28) with men in scoring position, 190 points higher than was hit off him the previous year in such situations (.128).

Didn't win back-to-starts all year and only once did he win 2 straight decisions...Lone CG was May 17 vs. California, a 6-hit, 5-1 win...Was winless in his last 7 home starts (0-4). He and 4 other Oriole pitchers combined on an 8-hit shutout and a 3-0 win at Chicago on Aug 2 setting an O's record for most pitchers used in a shutout...Ben went 5.2 innings and Mike Flanagan, Mark Williamson, Jim Poole and Gregg Olson did the rest.

1990, FIRST SINCE VALENZUELA: Joined the Orioles at mid-season, made 6 relief appearances before moving into the rotation and then became the only Oriole ever to win his first 5 ML starts and first 6 major league decisions...First major leaguer to win his first 5 ML starts since the Dodgers' Fernando Valenzuela, who won his first 8 in 1981.

Among AL pitchers with 100+ innings pitched, McDonald was:
-5th in the AL in ERA (2.43);
-First in fewest base runners per 9 innings (9.33);
-2nd in lowest batting average against (.205) behind Nolan Ryan (.188);
-Held lefthanders to a .181 (216-39) average, lowest in the AL;
-Led all AL rookies in ERA, tied for first in complete games (3, with KC's Kevin Appier) and 2nd in winning pct (.615, behind Chicago's Scott Radinsky, .857).

Slow Start: Suffered a pulled left lateral oblique muscle (muscle connecting ribs to pelvis) while trying to field a ground ball in an exhibition game on Apr 5 against Atlanta at Miami Stadium...Went on the disabled list the next day and didn't pitch again until Apr 24 on a rehabilitation assignment at Hagerstown...Continued pitching at Hagerstown and Rochester on his rehab assignment until he was activated and optioned to Rochester on May 22.

It Seems It Was The Seams: While pitching at Rochester, he developed a series of persistent blisters on the middle finger of his pitching hand...It was believed the higher seams on the International League ball led to the problem...Orioles General Manager Roland Hemond sent a dozen Major League balls to Rochester and McDonald pitched a simuluated game in the bullpen with them...The blister didn't appear and he was recalled by the O's, July 3.

First ML Start: Became the 4th Oriole ever to throw a shutout in his first ML start when on July 21 he pitched a 4-hitter at home beating Chicago, 2-0...Threw 85 pitches striking out 4 and walking one...Joined Tom Phoebus (Sep 15, '66); Dave McNally (Sep 26, '62) and Charlie Beamon (Sep 26, '56) as the only Orioles to throw shutout in first ML start...Was the youngest Oriole to throw a shutout since Storm Davis (21 years/6 months) in 1983.

1989, ML DEBUT: Was the first player selected in the baseball's free agent draft June 5...First time O's had the top pick...It marked the first time in the history of the draft (since 1965) that a team had the first selection while in first place...Ben received the highest rating ever for a pitcher by the MLB Scouting Bureau...Signed with the Orioles Aug 19.

Four days after signing with the Orioles, he made his pro debut with 3 innings on Aug 23 pitching for the Class A Frederick (MD) Keys at home against Winston-Salem (Cubs) in the Carolina League (IP-3, H-5, R-1, ER-1, BB-0, SO-2).

Approximately 6500 attended his debut at Frederick...His other minor league appearance came Aug 27 at Frederick against Durham (Braves) and he worked 6 innings...Threw 55 pitches (47 strikes/8 balls) including 34 straight strikes at one point.

Recalled by the Orioles on Sep 1...Made his ML debut at home vs. Cleveland on Sep 6 in relief, and on first pitch he got Cory Snyder to hit into a double play.

BALTIMORE BASEBALL LEAGUE EXPANDED

One of the Orioles' most exciting achievements in the community last season was the establishment of the Baltimore Baseball League. The goal of the league is to provide positive after-school activities to Baltimore City school children who would not otherwise play baseball or have structure to their after school hours. The program is funded through Major League Baseball, the Orioles, the Junior League of Baltimore, and the Parks and People Foundation.

In '93, the program will expand from 24 elementary schools and 480 fourth and fifth grade students to 52 schools and 1040 youngsters. The program also calls for revitalization of 10 recreation center baseball fields in the city.

O'S LOWEST ERA SINCE PALMER: His 2.54 ERA was 3rd best in the AL and the lowest by an Oriole (excluding 1981) since Jim Palmer in 1978 (2.46)...Only 5 pitchers (qualifiers for the ERA title) in club history have had a lower ERA: Palmer (6 times, 1969-72-73-75-76-78), Dave McNally (1968); Jim Hardin (1968); Mike Cuellar (1972) and Hoyt Wilhelm (1959)...None were as young as Mussina.

YOUNG GUN: The last time an AL pitcher Mike's age or younger posted an ERA that low was in 1976 when Mark Fidrych (2.34) and Frank Tanana (2.43) did it at 22 and 23 respectively.

1992 SEASON SUMMARY

Had his 3rd straight 30-save season, only one other in Orioles history has had 30 saves in a season (Don Aase-34 in 1986)...Is one of 14 in ML history with 3 or more 30 save seasons.

Became the club's all-time save leader on May 30 at Oakland with his 106th save...Also became the youngest in ML history to reach 100 saves.

Had only 3 saves in April, but overall finished 4th in the AL with 36, one short of his club record for most in a season. Missed a chance to tie the mark on the last day of the season, Oct 4, at Cleveland when he was charged with a blown save...That game ended a stretch of 15 straight scoreless appearances (IP-14) and 8 straight successful save conversions.

Converted 36 of 44 (82 pct) save opportunities...His 44 save opportunities were a career-high...Eight others in the AL had a better success rate.

Only 5 of 31 inherited runners scored against him, 5th best ratio in the AL (Oakland's Dennis Eckersley led the AL allowing only 2 of 31 to score)...Gregg stranded his last 17 inherited runners..Finished 56 of 60 appearances (93 pct)...Converted 19 straight save opportunities, longest streak of his career, after blowing his first chance Apr 10 at Toronto...During one stretch, May 30-June 19, he had 9 saves in 9 appearances (IP-10.2, H-3, R-0).

Streak ended June 22 at home vs. the Yankees starting him on a stretch in which he succeeded on only 9 of 15 save chances...Then, converted 8 straight before failing the final day of the season at Cleveland.

In his last 15 appearances beginning Aug 19, he retired 46 of 55 batters and allowed only 4 hits and one run (BB-5, SO-15) in 16 innings.

O'S ALL-TIME SAVE LEADER: Became the O's all-time save leader on May 30 when he struck out Oakland's Jose Canseco with a man on in the top of the 9th inning to preserve the O's 7-6 win for his 106th career save... It came in his 229th appearance...Tippy Martinez had held the record of 105 saves in 499 appearances, '76-'86.

YOUNGEST TO 100: With a save May 3 against Seattle he became the youngest in ML history to reach 100 career saves...At 25 years, 204 days succeeded Bruce Sutter (26 yrs, 224 days) who reached 100 in '79 with the Cubs.

JAPAN TRIP: Toured Japan last fall with the ML All-Stars...The ML'ers posted a 6-1-1 record, most wins for a ML team since the '86 club finished with a 6-1 record...Olson and Roger Clemens both posted perfect ERA's on the trip..Gregg was 0-0 with a save (IP-5, H-3, R-0, BB-4, SO-3) in 4 games...Combined with Chicago's Jack McDowell and Texas' Bob Patterson on a 2-hitter on November 1 over the Japanese All-Stars at Seibu Stadium.

BEST BREAKING BALL: Post-season poll of AL Managers by the Toronto Star selected his curveball as the best breaking ball...Poll of major league managers conducted at mid-season by Baseball America selected his curveball as the AL's best.

MISCELLANEOUS: Earned his 21st save of the season against Milwaukee at home on July 2 working one inning, but it took him more than an hour to get it...Entered the game in the 9th with the O's ahead 7-4 and got 2 quick outs before allowing a single...Then threw 2 pitches to Pat Listach, before heavy rains forced a delay (Olson slipped and fell on the last pitch before time was called)...After a 64-minute rain delay, Olson threw one pitch and got Listach on a fly to center field to end the game.

In the 9th inning on July 8 vs. Chicago, Olson left the game after throwing 5 pitches due to a strained left lateral oblique muscle (muscle connecting ribs to pelvis)...Didn't pitch again until 11 days later on July 19 at Texas...Came on to strike out Ruben Sierra to save the O's 3-2, 10-inning win.

Has a current string of 12 straight scoreless appearances against Boston (IP-14, SV-10)...Hasn't allowed a run against them since June 23, '90.

1992 AND MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

SUCCESS RATE: During his career, has made good on 131 of 158 (83 pct) save opportunities...For comparison's sake, the AL average in '92 was 71 percent...78 times he's entered a game with the winning or tying run at bat or on base and he's saved 55 of them (71 pct)...He's converted 76 of 80 saves (95 pct) opportunities in all other situations.

AMONG ACTIVES/ALL-TIME: With only 4 full seasons, is tied with San Diego's Randy Myers for 15th among active major leaguers with 131 saves...Is tied for 29th all-time.

YOUNGEST: His 131 saves are 47 more than anyone else has ever earned at his age (Gregg turned 26 last Oct 11)...Mitch Williams had 84 by age 26 with the Cubs in '90...The ML's all-time save leader, Jeff Reardon, didn't reach Olson's current total (131 saves) until he was 30.

1991: Finished with 72 appearances, tied for 2nd in the AL and 2nd most in club history behind Tippy Martinez' 76 in '82...Set a club record with 62 games finished, 2nd in the AL behind California's Bryan Harvey (63).

Converted 31 saves in 39 chances (.795), the lowest pct of his 4-year career and 9th among 14 AL pitchers with 20 or more save opportunities. Had only 9 save opportunities (7 saves) after Aug 3 (last 60 games)...His 31 saves were 7th in the AL.

Opponents batted .262, 60 points higher than his first 2 years in the AL, but was the stingiest in the AL with home runs, allowing only one in 73.2 innings.

Started the season and closed it out on high notes...Allowed only one run in his first 10 games (0.96, IP-9.1, H-6, ER-1) thru May 8...Finished strong: 7 of his last 9 appearances were hitless and 10 of last 11 were scoreless.

In between, however, in 51 appearances between May 12 and Sep 2, he allowed 84 base runners (60 hits and 24 walks) and 22 earned runs in 53.1 innings (and suffered 7 blown saves)...Didn't have a 1-2-3 inning between July 25 and Sep 16.

Didn't walk a batter in his first 10 appearances (IP-9.1), but walked more than 4 batters per 9 innings the rest of the season (IP-64.1, BB-29).

Uncorked 3 wild pitches and a throwing error in one inning, June 19, in an 8-4 loss to Minnesota on "Turn Back the Clock Day"...That setback was the only one he suffered at Memorial Stadium (11-1).

No-Hitter: Became the 3rd pitcher in ML history to save a no-hitter (Atlanta's Alejandro Pena later that season became the 4th) when on July 13 at Oakland, he, Bob Milacki, Mark Williamson and Mike Flanagan became only the 2nd quartet to ever combine on a no-hitter...Olson worked one perfect inning, retiring Dave Henderson, Jose Canseco and Harold Baines, the last 2 via strikeouts.

1990: Set an Orioles' record with 37 saves becoming the youngest in ML history to get 30 or more saves...Was 4th in the majors, in saves and converted 88 pct of his save opportunities (37 of 42) also 4th best in the majors.

Set club record with 41 consecutive scoreless innings...Allowed only one run in his first 21 games (0.26, IP-34, H-15) thru June 7 while converting his first 14 saves...Continued strong thru Aug 18, (47 games) allowing only 34 hits and 7 earned runs in 59 innings (ERA-1.07) The next day, Aug 19, he yielded a homer to Oakland's Mark McGwire, first ever off Olson at Memorial Stadium after 52 games and 72.1 innings...That game began a month-long slump for Olson in which he appeared in only 9 games and allowed 16 hits and 11 earned runs in 9 innings thru Sep 14...Saw his ERA go from 1.07 to 2.38.

On Aug 28 at home, the Yankees struck for 5 runs off him in only one-third of an inning, his worst outing as a major leaguer...Take away that one game and his overall ERA drops from 2.42 to 1.82.

Scoreless Streak: Allowed his first run of the season, May 7 at California, in his 9th game breaking a streak of 41 scoreless innings in 29 appearances...His streak is believed to be the longest ever by a relief pitcher and matched the longest by an American League pitcher since Luis Tiant had a 41-inning scoreless streak for Cleveland in '68. ORIOLES WIVES HAD ANOTHER BANNER YEAR FOR LOCAL CHARITIES

During 1992, the Orioles wives collected 4 tons of food for the Maryland Food Bank, helped raise $60,000 for Action for the Homeless through the Hits for the Homeless campaign, raised over $88,000 for the Johns Hopkins Children's Center through the wives' auction, and raised more than $10,000 for the Sam Hulett Fund through the sale of a quilt made by the wives.

ORIOLES FAMILIES

There have been three families that have provided two players each to the Orioles. In addition to the Ripken family, there were the Browns and the Kennedys. Catcher Dick Brown ('63–'65) and his younger brother Larry ('73), an infielder, are the only brothers other than the Ripkens to have played for the Orioles. Third baseman Bob Kennedy ('54–'55) and his son Terry, who caught for the Orioles in '87 and '88, are the only father-son combination to have played for the O's. The Orioles, however, currently have two rookies whose fathers were Birds: pitcher John O'Donoghue and outfielder Damon Buford. John O'Donoghue, Sr. pitched for the Orioles in '68 and Don Buford, was one of the best leadoff hitters the Orioles have ever had from '68 thru '72.

BIRDS'S FIRST GAME IN BALTIMORE, '54

The Modern American League Orioles made their Baltimore debut in Memorial Stadium on Apr 15, '54 before a crowd of 46, 354, including Vice President Richard M. Nixon, who threw out the first ball.

Bob Turley pitched a 7-hitter and fanned 9 as the Orioles of Jimmy Dykes defeated the Paul Richards' Chicago White Sox, 3–1. It was Baltimore's first big league baseball game in 52 years. Chico Carrasquel, the White Sox' shortstop, was the first batter in the new stadium and he singled on the opening pitch.

Orioles' catcher, Clint Courtney, earned the distinction of hitting the first home run in the new ballpark, a bases empty blast in the 3rd inning off Virgil Trucks, the losing pitcher, who later also yielded a solo homer to Vern Stephens in the 4th.

The Orioles' starting lineup in that first Baltimore game: Bobby Young (2b), Eddie Waitkus (1b), Gil Coan (cf), Vic Wertz (rf), Sam Mele (lf), Billy Hunter (ss), Courtney (c) and Turley (p).

ORIOLES FIRST GAME ANYWHERE

The O's opened their first season, not in Baltimore, but in Detroit on Apr 13, '54 and lost to the Tigers, 3–0, Steve Gromek over Don Larsen. The following days, still in Detroit, the O's gained their first win as Duane Pillette went the route to beat Ray Herbert, 3–2 The distinction of driving in the O's first run ever went to outfielder Sam Mele with a single in the first inning.

In his 2nd start on July 19 at Texas, he took a no-hitter into the 6th, but left trailing 2-0 after 7 (O's rallied to win 3-2).

In his 3rd start, he pitched the first complete game of his career (a rain-shortened, 8-inning win over Texas on July 24 at home)...Was the first complete game by an O's lefty since Aug 21, '89, when Jeff Ballard beat Milwaukee.

On Aug 29, he pitched 7.2 innings and combined with Todd Frohwirth and Gregg Olson to shut out Seattle on 4 hits, ending a club record streak for the Mariners which had seen them get 10+ hits in 12 straight games...That game brought the Orioles to within 1-1/2 games of first-place Toronto.

On Sep 15, in a no decision against the Royals, he took a 1-0 lead into the 8th, but allowed a run-scoring triple to Mike Macfarlane and left with score at 1-1...O's won 2-1 in 14 innings...On Sep 23, he handed Toronto's Jack Morris one of his 6 losses, beating the Blue Jays at Baltimore, 4-1, with 9th inning relief help from Olson.

CAREER HIGHS

Game: Runs-3, 30 times, (latest June 23, '92 at Milw)
Hits-5, 3 times, all on road, (May 5, '85 at Min, Sep 3, '83 at Min, and Aug 22, '82 at Tex)
HR-2, 11 times, latest June 23, '92 at Milw)
RBI-7, (Apr 13, '91 at Tex) BB-4, (Apr 21, '92 at KC)
Grand Slams: 2, (see p. 201)

STREAK: Completed his 10th straight season without missing a game as his consecutive games streak reached 1735 games, all starts, 2nd in major league history to Lou Gehrig's 2130 (see "Iron Man," below for more details)...Was the only major leaguer in '92 to start all of his team's games...Three others did not miss a game, but did not start all of them in '92...They were all Houston Astros — Steve Finley, Craig Biggio and Jeff Bagwell...Those 3 Astros have the majors' 2nd longest current consecutive game streak — all with 162...On Sep 11, Cal suffered a twisted right ankle running out a double against the Brewers, and as a precaution the Orioles recalled shortstop Manny Alexander from AAA Rochester...Cal didn't miss so much as an inning for another week.

Cal hasn't been out of the starting lineup since the 2nd game of a doubleheader on May 29, '82.

TALLEST: Is the tallest ever to play shortstop regularly in the majors...Ray Busse (Houston, '71-'74), and former Orioles Enos Cabell and Jamie Quirk, are among 7 others 6'4" tall who have played some shortstop.

1992 SEASON SUMMARY

Went from career highs in homers, RBI and extra-base hits in 1991 to career lows in those categories in 1992.

Failed in his bid to become only the 6th player in ML history to hit 20+ homers in each of his first 11 full ML seasons...Still remains one of only 8 players in ML history to hit 20 homers in his first 10 full seasons.

Won his 2nd consecutive Rawlings Gold Glove...Led AL shortstops in double plays (119) and putouts (288) — the 6th time in his career he has led the league in each, tying a pair of ML records.

Became the O's all-time greatest right-handed home run hitter when he hit 2 at Milwaukee on June 23 (also came within 10 feet of another in his last at bat on fly to deep center)...Those blasts were career homers No's. 268 and 269 putting him ahead of Brooks Robinson (268) for the club home run record by a righty.

Following that game, he went a career-high 73 games (291 at bats) without a home run, June 24-Sep 13...Broke the drought with a homer off Kansas City's Rick Reed on Sep 14 in a 2-1 Oriole win...Also singled and doubled that night, not only ending his homer-less stretch, but also snapping a slump that had seen him go 49-for-266 (.181) in his previous 67 games since June 30.

Had 3 hits the next night as well to help the O's to another 2-1 win over the Royals and was named AL Player of the Week, Sep 13-20 (12-for-24)...It was the 7th time he has received the honor in his career.

That series started him on a 27-for-81 (.333, HR-4, RBI-12) streak in his last 20 games, raising his average from .239 to season-ending .251.

Didn't hit a home run in July, his first homerless month since the first 2 months of his career (Aug-Sep of '81) and batted .178, his worst month since those same 2 months in 1981.

Had 2 of the longest hitting streaks of his career — a 16-game (.355, 62-22) and a 17-game (.414, 70-29) streak just 4 days apart, between May 20 and June 29, but batted .216 (505-109) the rest of the season...Became only the 2nd Oriole to have 2 hitting streaks of 15 or more games in one season joining Luis Aparicio in '64 (15 and 17 games).

Had 7 RBI combined in back-to-back games at Cleveland Oct 2-3, one more RBI than he had in all of September (6).

Was moved from 3rd to the 5th spot in the lineup on Aug 21...It was the first time since Oct 2, '90 that Cal wasn't in the 3rd spot...It was the first time since Aug 7, '90 that he hit 5th.

Collected career RBI 1000 at Oakland on Aug 31 with a 2-run single off Kelly Downs...Became only the 4th to do it in an O's uniform joining: Brooks Robinson (1357), Eddie Murray (1190) and Boog Powell (1063).

Was named the smartest player in the AL in a Toronto Sun survey of AL managers.

AMONG SHORTSTOPS: This was only the 2nd time in the last 10 years he has not led all ML shortstops in home runs (exceptions: Alan Trammell in '87 and Travis Fryman in '92), and only the 3rd time he hasn't led the league's shortstops in RBI (exceptions: Trammell '87 & '90 and Fryman in '92).

Despite his career lows, his 44 extra-base hits, 14 homers, and 72 RBI were well above the average of the other AL shortstops: 30 extra base-hits, 4 homers, and 49 RBI.

CONTRACT: On Aug 24, his 32nd birthday, he signed a 5-year contract for $30.5 million, extending through the 1997 season...The signing was announced to a sellout crowd in a pre-game ceremony minutes before the Orioles-Angels game at Oriole Park that night.

CLEMENTE/GEHRIG AWARDS: At the All-Star break, was named the 22nd recipient of the Roberto Clemente Award, presented annually to the player who best exemplifies the game of baseball both on and off the field...Consideration is given to sportsmanship, community involvement and an individual's contribution to his team and baseball...Ripken is the third Oriole to win the award since its inception in 1971, joining Brooks Robinson (1972) and Ken Singleton (1982)...No other major league organization has had three Clemente Award recipients...Ripken contributes in many different areas, but he and his wife, Kelly, have directed much time and money on the fight against illiteracy.

Last December was named the 38th winner of the annual Lou Gehrig Memorial Award, given by the Phi Delta Theta national collegiate fraternity to the major leaguer who bests fits the image and character of the Hall of Fame first baseman...Gehrig was a member of the fraternity at Columbia University...For more on Cal's community involvement see section entitled "In the Community."

GOLD GLOVE: Won his 2nd consecutive Gold Glove becoming the 6th AL shortstop to win more than one Gold Glove since the award was initiated in '57...Three of the 6 are Orioles: Mark Belanger and Luis Aparicio are the others...It is the 50th Gold Glove won by the Orioles, most by an AL club...Michael Hirsch, a graduate of the Ripken Learning Center (where the focus is on adult illiteracy) presented Cal with his '92 Gold Glove at a press conference in the Camden Club at Oriole Park at Camden Yards in November.

IRON MAN

CONSECUTIVE GAMES: The 1735-game streak (all starts) began May 30, '82, the day after Floyd Rayford started at 3rd base in the 2nd game of a doubleheader vs. the Blue Jays at Baltimore...During the consecutive games streak, the Orioles have played 15,787 innings and Cal played in 15,659 of them (99.2 percent). A total of 2708 ML players have gone on the disabled list since Cal's streak began...He has left a game early 44 times (9 times in '92). As a comparison, Lou Gehrig came out early 69 times during his streak.

MOST AT ONE POSITION: For the first month of the streak, Cal was primarily a 3rd baseman...The first 27 games of the streak were at 3B...He made his last start there on June 30, '82...Beginning July 1, '82, Cal has played 1708 consecutive games at short, more than anyone has ever played at a single position...Lou Gehrig's longest streak at 1B was 885 straight games.

Everett Scott, also a shortstop who played most of his big league career ('14-'26) with the Red Sox and Yankees, held the previous record for most consecutive games at one position (1307)...Scott, incidentally, played 109 games for Jack Dunn's International League O's, and batted .335 with 11 home runs in '27...Note that Scott's streak, surpassed by Cal in '90, remains the 3rd longest all-time regardless of position.

During his Streak at Shortstop: While Cal has been starting at shortstop, the other 25 major league clubs have used a combined total of 418 starting shortstops (285 different players)...See the complete list below.

LONGEST O'S STREAKS: The 3 longest streaks previous to Cal's in Orioles history were by Brooks Robinson (463), Eddie Murray (444) and Billy Gardner (361)...Cal, who has played in every Orioles game in each of the last 10 years, is one of 5 Orioles to have played every game in a season at least once: Brooks and Murray-4 times, Gardner and Bobby Grich, once each.

CONSECUTIVE INNINGS RECORD: His streak of 8243 straight innings (spanning 904 games, '82-'87) is believed to be the longest of its kind in ML history...It began June 5, '82 (6 days and 5 games after the start of his consecutive games string) at Minnesota...The day before (June 4), Jim Dwyer had pinch-hit for him in the 9th inning, also at Minnesota...The 32 post-season innings he played in '83 are not included in these figures.

The innings streak ended Sep 14, '87 in Toronto when he didn't take the field for the bottom of the 8th in an 18-3 Toronto walkover (Ron Washington replaced him defensively)...That was the game in which the Jays hit a major league record 10 home runs.

Noted baseball researcher L. Robert Davids determined some years ago that the previous leaders in the consecutive innings category were a couple of former Red Sox who played in the Hub City during the early 1900's Buck Freeman and Candy LaChance...Freeman, a first baseman, played every inning over some 534 games (July 28, '01 - June 5, '05) and outfielder LaChance missed nary a canto over a span of 424 games (May 23, '02 - Apr 28, '05).

Rip, whose innings streak covered some 5 seasons, was the first to have played every inning for at least 2 straight years since Rudy York with the Tigers in '40-'41...In addition to Cal & Freeman only one other major leaguer has played every inning for at least 3 years (not necessarily consecutive)...That was Mickey Vernon in '42, '47, & '53 with those pesky Nats...The only other Oriole to play every inning in one season was Eddie Murray in '84 (including 3 games as DH).

1992 AND MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

ALL-TIME HIGHS BY A SHORTSTOP: Of his 273 home runs, 265 have come as a shortstop, most ever by an AL shortstop and 2nd in ML history behind Ernie Banks' all-time mark of 293...Of his 686 extra-base hits, 657 have come as a shortstop.

As near as we can tell, only 2 shortstops have ever had more extra-base hits in their career, Honus Wagner and Joe Cronin...Although not broken down officially, Wagner had 737 extra-base hits in the years he was primarily a shortstop (1901, 1903-16 with Pittsburgh) and Cronin had 765 in the years he was primarily at shortstop, 1928-41, with Washington and Boston).

During his 1708-consecutive game streak at shortstop, Cal has hit 265 home runs, driven in 976 and made 178 errors, while opposing shortstops have 63 homers and 622 RBI, and committed 255 errors...Is one of 4 shortstops in ML history to have hit 30 or more homers in a season, joining Banks, Vern Stephens and Rico Petrocelli.

His ML-high 85 extra-base hits in '91 have been bettered by only one shortstop in ML history, Robin Yount with 87 in '82...That same year his 368 total bases became the most ever in one season by an AL shortstop and 2nd best all-time behind Banks' 379 in '58...In '91, he also became only the 2nd shortstop in major league history to hit .300+ with 30+ homers and 100+ RBI...The only previous shortstop to accomplish that feat was Banks and he did it twice: in 1958 and 1959.

HOME RUNS: Although he hit a career-low 14 home runs in '92, he is one of only 8 players to hit 20 or more home runs in his first 10 full seasons joining 6 Hall of Famers: Eddie Matthews (first 14 years), Billy Williams (13), Reggie Jackson (13), Frank Robinson (12), Joe DiMaggio (10), Ted Williams (10), and the only other non-Hall of Famer in the bunch Rocky Colavito (10 yrs)...Is one of only 21 players to hit 20+ home runs in 10 straight seasons, joining 16 Hall of Famers.

Is 3rd all-time in O's history behind Boog Powell (333) and Eddie Murray (303)...Hit 129 homers at Memorial Stadium, 4th in club history behind Murray (160), Brooks (138) and Powell (133).

CLUB RECORDS: Holds or shares 16 club offensive records including most total bases in a season (368 in '91), most hits (211 in '83), most doubles (47 in '83), most sacrifice flies (11 in '87), most extra-base hits (85 in '91, tied with Frank Robinson), and most career home runs by a right-handed hitter (273).

AL LEADER THE LAST 10 YEARS: Is the AL leader in home runs, RBI and extra-base hits over the last 10 years while averaging 25 homers, 92 RBI and 61 extra-base hits.

Cal is the only player to start for the AL each of the last 9 years.

Cal has been the elected starter in 8 of his 9 starts ('84-'87, '89-'92)...In '88, Cal finished 2nd in the voting to the Tigers' Alan Trammell, but started anyway when the Detroit star had to withdraw because of injury.

In '92, had an RBI single off Atlanta's Tom Glavine in 3 trips to help the AL to a 13-6 win.

In '91, became the 4th Oriole to win the All-Star Game MVP award when, on July 9 at Toronto's SkyDome, he went 2-for-3 with a single off Glavine, the '91 Cy Young Award winner, and a 3-run homer off former teammate Dennis Martinez to lead the AL to a 4-2 win...Other Orioles who have been All-Star Game MVP's are: Billy O'Dell ('58), Brooks ('66) and Frank ('71)...Cal became only the 3rd AL shortstop to hit an All-Star Game home run, joining Dick McAuliffe ('65) and Lou Boudreau ('42).

GIDP: Bounced into 13 double plays in '92 to boost his career total to 206 still a long way from the club record of 297 held by Brooks Robinson...Cal does however hold the club mark for one season, 32 in '85.

1991 SEASON: Became the 2nd player in ML history to win a league MVP, Major League Player of the Year (The Sporting News, AP and Baseball Digest), All-Star Game MVP and a Gold Glove in the same season. The only other player to accomplish the feat was Dodgers' shortstop Maury Wills in '62.

Here are some of Cal's many accomplishments during his remarkable, record-breaking year:

-Finished 3rd in the AL in homers (34), most by a shortstop in 22 years (Boston's Rico Petrocelli, 40 in '69)...Most homers by an Oriole since Ken Singleton hit 35 in '79.

-Became only the 10th player in AL history to hit more than 30 homers and strike out less than 50 times...The others: Don Mattingly (1985-86); Ted Williams (1941-46-47-49-57); Joe DiMaggio (1937-38-40-48-50); Lou Gehrig (1932-33-34-36-37); Earl Averill (1931-32-34); Hal Trosky (1934); Al Rosen (1953); Al Simmons (1929-30) and Ken Williams (1922).

-Became the first righthanded hitter in the AL to hit more than 30 homers and strike out less than 50 times since Al Rosen in '53.

-Led the major leagues with 85 extra-base hits (tied club record) and became only the 9th American Leaguer in the past 51 years to get 85 or more extra-base hits...The others: Robin Yount (87 in 1982); Reggie Jackson (86 in 1969); Hal McRae (86 in 1977); Jim Rice (86 in 1978); Don Mattingly (86 in both 1985-86); Frank Robinson (85 in 1966), Ted Williams (85 in 1949) and George Brett (85 in 1979).

-Led the major leagues with club record 368 total bases...Only 6 other American Leaguers have had as many total bases in the last 51 years. They are Jim Rice (406 in 1978 and 369 in 1979); Don Mattingly (388 in 1986 and 370 in 1985); Mickey Mantle (376 in 1956); Tony Oliva (374 in 1964); George Bell (369 in 1987) and Ted Williams (368 in 1949).

-Became one of only 5 in Orioles' history to hit .300, with 30+ homers and 100+ RBI joining Jim Gentile, Frank Robinson, Boog Powell, and Eddie Murray.

-Hit a career-high .323, 2nd highest in club history behind Ken Singleton's .328 in 1977.

-Led the ML with career-high 73 multi-hit games (2-hit, 55; 3-hit, 15; 4-hit, 3).

-Led the majors in road batting average (.358, 335-120).

-Was 2nd in the majors in hits (210, one shy of tying his own club mark for hits in a season, 211 in 1983), doubles (46, one shy of tying his own club record, 47 in 1983) and slugging percentage (.566, 47 points higher than his previous high, .519 in 1983).

-Led the Orioles in 14 offensive categories, virtually everything except triples, sac bunts and stolen bases...Was the only player in the AL to finish in the top 10 in hits, homers, average and RBI.

-His average dipped below .320 only 3 days after the 2nd day of the season...Led the league in batting for 47 of 48 days, June 4-July 21.

-Finished with career-high 114 RBI, only one other Oriole has driven in more in the last 22 years (Eddie Murray, 124 in 1985 and 116 in 1980).

-Was AL Player of the Month in Sep (.349, HR-8, RBI-27)...Had batted a collective .209 in his previous 3 Sep: 1988 (.216); 1989 (.198) and 1990 (.215)...Also shared AL Player of the Week, Sep 23-30, with Rickey Henderson when he batted .467 (30-14, HR-3, RBI-13).

THE LAST OUT: Was the last player to bat in Memorial Stadium history when he bounced into a 5-4-3 double play off Frank Tanana of the Tigers at 5:07 pm on Oct 6, 1991.

1990 SEASON: Hit for his lowest average for a full season in the AL...Still led the Orioles in 9 offensive categories including runs (78), hits (150), doubles (28), triples (4), homers (21), RBI (84), walks (82), intentional walks (18), and game-tying or go-ahead RBI (39).

On Jun 13 after 59 games, Cal was dropped from 3rd to 6th in the lineup...Thru that date had been hitting only .209 (220-46) with 7 homers and 30 RBI...Over the rest of the season (102 games), he batted .274 (380-104) with 14 homers and 54 RBI.

Created an all-time standard for consistency at shortstop by committing only 3 errors in 161 games (681 total chances) for a percentage of .996...Also crafted streaks of 95 errorless games and 431 errorless chances, both all-time marks for a shortstop...See "Fielding" above.

On June 12, Cal played his 1308th consecutive game and moved into 2nd place on the all-time list ahead of Everett Scott (Yankees-Red Sox, '18-'25).

1989 SEASON: Was named the smartest player in the AL in a Toronto Sun survey of managers...He was last at or above .300 (.301) on Jun 5 (216-65), then batted .235 (430-101) the rest of the way...Went 40 games without a home run from Apr 10 (Frank Viola) until May 29 (Nolan Ryan)...That was the longest homerless streak of his career, until 1992.

Led the club in hits (166), doubles (30) and RBI (93) and was 2nd to Mickey Tettleton in homers (26 to 21)...Combined with brother Bill for 7 hits (Cal-3 and Bill-4) on Aug 2, the night the O's came from a 6-0 deficit at Boston to win after losing 13 of their last 14 games.

According to Al Kermisch, the only brother combo to surpass that combined total was the Waners (Paul and Lloyd) who had 3 and 5 respectively for the Bucs on June 25, '32.

1988 SEASON: Shared MVO honors with Eddie Murray for the 2nd time. Ranked 3rd in the league with a career-high 102 walks (Wade Boggs-125, Jack Clark-113)...His hit total declined for the 5th straight year and also had a career-low 49 extra-base hits.

Hit 7 homers in his first 17 games after agreeing to a 3-year contract on Jul 27...Was only 2-for-43 (.047) after the first 12 games of the season (thru Apr 17) including an 0-for-29, the longest hitless streak of his career...Starting Apr 19, however, he launched one of his hottest streaks...Hit safely in 16 of the next 17 games, and batted .527 (55-29) while raising his average from .047 to .316 on May 8.

1987 SEASON: Became the first Oriole other than Eddie Murray to lead the club in RBI during the 80s...Ken Singleton was the last in '79...Led club with 40 tying/lead runs driven in and batted .295 (149-44) with runners in scoring position despite a .252 average overall.

Was batting .326 (144-47) thru May 16 with 8 homers and 34 RBI in 36 games, but hit only .229 (480-110) the rest of the way with 16 homers and 64 RBI in his last 126 games...During 6-game stretch from Apr 29 thru May 6, Cal went 9-for-25 and all 9 hits were for extra bases (2B-4, 3B-1, HR-4).

1986 SEASON: Tied for league lead with Don Mattingly in GWRBI with 15...Led AL shortstops for 4th straight year in homers, RBI, runs and slugging (.461)...Was 2nd in fielding percentage to Tony Fernandez at shortstop, .982 to .983.

Was first other than Eddie Murray to lead club in homers (25) since Ken Singleton in '79...Eddie had led 6 straight years...Led club in runs, hits, doubles, homers, total bases (289) and in tying/go-ahead runs driven in (33).

1985 SEASON: Was 2nd in the AL to Rickey Henderson in runs scored (146 to 116)...It was 3rd straight year he'd scored over 100 runs...Hit .282 overall, but had a .321 (165-53) average with men in scoring position...Was first or 2nd on the club in 12 offensive categories, and tied Eddie Murray in GWRBI (15).

1984 SEASON: Batted over .300 for 2nd straight year...Set AL record for assists by a shortstop (583)...Went as long as 3 games without a hit only once...Batted .311 (148-46) with runners in scoring position to lead club...Hit .355 (242-86) over 60 games from June 27 thru Sep 1.

From Sep 1, '83 thru May 9, '84, Cal hit .372 (258-96) with 16 homers and 41 RBI over 63 games.

1983 SEASON: Was AL MVP and The Sporting News Player of the Year and shared MVO laurels with Eddie Murray...Played on AL's first winning All-Star team since '71, and also played on the winning team in both the ALCS & World Series.

Led majors in hits with a club record 211 and doubles (47); was 2nd with 76 extra-base hits to the Expos' Andre Dawson (78) and with 343 total bases was runner-up to major league leader Jim Rice (344)...Cal led the AL with 121 runs, just one off Frank Robinson's club record set in '66.

Stretch Run: During 44 games from Aug 13 thru Sep 25, a period in which the O's went 34-10 to win the Eastern Division Championship, Cal hit .391 (192-75) with 14 doubles, 9 homers, 30 RBI and 40 runs scored.

Post-Season: Batted a combined .273 (33-9) in 9 post-season games...Drove in O's only run in 9th inning of ALCS Game 1, won by LaMarr Hoyt, 2-1...Made final putout of WS when he caught Garry Maddox' line drive in bottom of 9th, Game 5.

1982 SEASON: Led all major league rookies in doubles, homers, RBI, total bases (284), GWRBI (11, tied with Von Hayes), games (160), at bats (663, led AL) and runs.

Missed only 3 games all year, none after May 29th (his games streak began the following day)...Played 44 straight errorless games at 3rd base from Apr 24 thru June 14...Stole his first big league base the hard way, stealing home on the front end of a double steal with Lenn

Sakata off the Rangers' Jon Matlack on May 31 in Baltimore.

Slow Start: After a glittering Opening Day on which he went 3-for-5 with his first big league double, homer (off KC's Dennis Leonard) and RBI, he plunged into a deep slump (55-4)...He was batting only .117 (60-7) on May 1 after 18 games...His career big league average over 2 seasons was at that point .121 (99-12) in 41 games.

Start of Something Big: The next day, May 2, he picked up a pair of scratch hits and was beaned by fellow rookie Mike Moore...He missed only one game after the beaning, however, and batted .281 (538-151) from May 2 to the end of the season.

1981 SEASON: Recalled from Rochester Aug 8 right after the major league player strike was settled...Made big league debut as pinch runner Aug 10 for Ken Singleton in Baltimore against the Royals...His first hit was a single off Chicago's Dennis Lamp on Aug 16, also at Memorial Stadium.

Played in 12 games at SS (9 starts) and 6 at 3B...After Sep 11, he didn't make a plate appearance, and appeared in only 2 games.

Rochester: Despite his early recall from Rochester, he was voted Rookie of the Year in the International League, and was named to the loop's All-Star team at 3rd base...In survey of IL's managers and coaches, Rip was picked as top major league prospect in the league (Von Hayes was 2nd)...Played in 85 games at 3B for Red Wings and 35 at SS (primarily when Bob Bonner was injured).

Winter Ball: Led Puerto Rican League in RBI (49) after '81 season, and was MVP on the Caguas club managed by then Orioles' pitching coach Ray Miller.

MINORS, '78-'80: Was Southern League's All-Star 3rd baseman in '80 and tied for league lead in games...One of 2 Charlotte players that year to break club's home run record...Rip had 25 and Drungo Hazewood had 28...Cal had homered only 8 times in his 2 previous pro seasons combined...He also led SL 3rd basemen in fielding (.933, TC-415, E-28).

Helped Caguas win Puerto Rican title after the '80 season (the first of his 2 seasons in Caribbean winter ball).

In '79, he was picked as shortstop on Topps' Class A All-Star team, though he played more games at 3rd (58) than at shortstop (52)...Led Florida State League in doubles that year.

Was signed by the late Dick Bowie in '78, and played mostly shortstop that summer in Bluefield...Played in Florida Instructional League after both '78 and '79 seasons.

AMATEUR BACKGROUND: Pitched and played short at Aberdeen (MD) High (graduated '78)...Was 7-2 with an 0.70 ERA as a senior with 100 strikeouts in 60 innings...He also won Harford County batting title (.492) and had 29 RBI in 20 games...Pitched a 2-hitter and fanned 17 to win '78 Maryland Class A baseball championship game.

Was voted American Amateur Baseball Congress (AABC) Graduate of the Year in '86, an honor won previously by Eddie Murray ('84) and many other prominent major leaguers.

Also earned 2 letters in soccer...Was team captain and both an all-county and all-metro selection...Played Little League, Babe Ruth and Mickey Mantle League baseball...Led Putty Hill, MD team to Mickey Mantle World Series in Sherman, TX (lost in a best-of-3 competition).

IN THE COMMUNITY: Cal supports the community actively and in a variety of ways...In '89, he and wife, Kelly, contributed $250,000 to the City of Baltimore to establish an adult literacy program facility...It opened at 2435 North Calvert Street in July, '90...The Cal Ripken Jr Learning Center annually serves 240 students within the City...The program fits nicely into Mayor Kurt Schmoke's The City that Reads campaign.

In '92, Cal and Kelly made a donation of $50,000 toward the establishment of the Sam Hulett Fund, in memory of the son of Orioles infielder Tim Hulett, who was struck by a car and killed last July.

Winterfest '91: The Ripkens continually provide funding for the Learning Center...In Nov '91, Cal and Kelly hosted a Winterfest for Literacy, a baseball memorablilia show in Baltimore featuring a number of past and present major leaguers including Kirby Puckett, Eddie Murray, Glenn Davis, Gregg Olson, brother Bill and Cal Sr, which raised more than $200,000 for the Learning Center.

Reading Runs, and Ripken: In '91, Cal established the Reading, Runs and Ripken Program, in conjunction with Baltimore Reads, Inc., and in 2 years since then more than $160,000 has been raised for literacy programs in Baltimore via donations based on the number of home runs Cal hit during the season.

Despite dropoff in homers in '92, he helped raise more than $60,000 for the Reading, Runs and Ripken program.

Cal is also active on behalf of the University of Maryland Hospital's Shock Trauma Center, the Johns Hopkins Hospital's Children's Center, and the Harford Center, a day-care facility for retarded citizens. The Ripkens also have given a substantial donation to the Baltimore School for the Performing Arts.

He continues to donate tickets for every Orioles' home game to Because We Care, a program he and Eddie Murray initiated in the mid-1980's.

In prior years, he has supported the Harford County Humane Society; has served as honorary chairman of the American Lung Association's anti-smoking drive; The Christmas Seal and March of Dimes campaigns, and the United Way Softball Marathon.

He has been the regional spokesman for the Middle Atlantic Milk Marketing Association, and Carefirst.

CANDY BAR: In January, the Cal Bar was introduced by Morley Candymakers East in Millersville, MD...The Cal Bar is a "double play of peanuts and caramel in milk chocolate." Royalties are going to the Cal and Kelly Ripken Foundation to benefit the numberous charities the Ripkens support.

PERSONAL: Cal and the former Kelly Geer were married Nov 13, '87...Kelly, from Cockeysville, MD is a graduate of Dulaney High School and the University of Maryland...The Ripkens have a daughter, Rachel Marie, born Nov 22, '89...Cal and Kelly visited Paris in the off-season.

THE RIPKEN FAMILY: Cal played with his brother, Bill, at 2nd baseman for 5-1/2 seasons (July 11, '87 thru '92)...Also played parts of 12 seasons with his father in an O's uniform as a coach and manager...In '87, Cal Sr became the first father ever to manage 2 sons simultaneously in major league baseball history (regular season).

In addition to younger brother, Bill (28), Cal has another brother, Fred (Nov, 25,'61) and a sister Ellen Leigh (Mar 22, '59).

THREE FROM THE SAME CLAN: Three members of the same family wearing the same uniform at the same time is a rarity matched only 3 times before in baseball history: 1973-Jose, Hector & Tommy Cruz for St. Louis; 1963-Felipe, Matty & Jesus Alou for San Francisco; 1876-George, Sam & Harry Wright for Boston in the National League (Harry, a Hall of Famer, was the manager and pitched briefly; George was an outfielder-70 games in '76; and Sam, a shortstop, appeared in only 2 games that year...We're assuming they were all in uniform together)...We count a total of 17 families with 3 or more representatives in majors.

FATHER: Cal Sr spent 15 years on the O's coaching staff, 13-1/2 as 3rd base coach...He joined the staff in '76...Has also managed for 14+ seasons in professional baseball, all in the Orioles' organization...His 13+ years as a manager in the Birds' farm system ('61-'74) represent the longest tenure of any minor league skipper in Orioles' history...During that span Cal managed at all levels except rookie league.

Following the '86 season he replaced Earl Weaver to become only the 7th non-interim manager in the club's history...Cal was replaced by Frank Robinson on Apr 12, '88 after the O's lost the first 6 games of the season (a streak that went to 21 before it ended)...His overall record as manager was 68-101, .402.

Rip was a catcher in the O's organization although he also played some 3rd base and outfield and even pitched...He enjoyed his best year under Weaver at Fox Cities (Appleton, WI) in '60... He became a player-manager the following year.

BILL AND CAL: Cal and Bill Ripken were the 5th set of brothers to form a 2nd base-shortstop combination in major league history: Granny and Garvin Hamner of the '45 Phillies; Lou and Dino Chiozza of the '35 Phillies; Milt and Frank Bolling of the '58 Tigers; and Eddie and Johnny O'Brien of the '53-'55-'56 Pirates.

The 2 Rips played in 663 games together; started 634 games and turned 287 double plays...Prior to the Ripkens, the most any brother double play combination had ever played side-by-side in the majors were approximately 100 games by Pittsburgh's O'Brien twins.

In '90, Cal and Bill accounted for a total of only 11 errors...That is the fewest errors in major league history by a qualifying (ie each playing 2/3rd's of their club's games at their respective positions) keystone combination...The next lowest total is 13 in 1990: Toronto's Tony Fernandez and Manny Lee.

On June 15, '89, vs New York, the 2 Rips teamed up on a triple play against the Yankees, the first by the Orioles in more than 10 years (see details on page 309).

On Sep 15, '90 at Toronto, Cal and Bill each homered, the only game in which that happened... They became the first pair of brothers to hit home runs in the same game since Graig (NY) and Jim Nettles (Det) did it Sep 14, '74...Both Bill and Cal homered in the 5th inning off David Wells...It was the 15th time brothers had homered in the same game and the 5th time it had been done in the same inning (first since Hank and Tommy Aaron for the Milwaukee Braves on July 12, '62).

The pair combined for 286 homers in the major leagues (13 by Bill)...That figure ranks 9th all-time among brother combinations.

BIRDS BIGGEST DEAL

In Nov–Dec 1954, the Orioles and Yankees engineered a 17-player deal, one of the largest in baseball history.

General Manager Paul Richards sent the following players to New York: pitchers Mike Blyzka, Don Larsen and Bob Turley; catcher Darrell Johnson, 1st baseman Dick Kryhoski, shortstop Billy Hunter and outfielders Ted del Guercio and Jim Fridley.

The Birds in turn acquired the contracts of pitchers Harry Byrd, Jim McDonald and Bill Miller; catchers Hal Smith and Gus Triandos, 2nd baseman Don Leppert, 3rd baseman Kal Segrist, shortstop Willy Miranda and outfielder Gene Woodling.

STARTS, FAST AND SLOW

The O's best start was 11–1 in 1966. . . They won a club record 5 consecutive games at the start of the '70 season. . . The major league record, incidentally, in that category is 13, shared by the '82 Atlanta Braves and '87 Milwaukee Brewers.

The worst start in Orioles and major league history occurred in '88 when they lost their first 21. That shattered the previous club record of 5, set in '78.

BALTIMORE'S OTHER IRONMAN

Orioles shortstop Cal Ripken may have the 2nd longest playing streak in major league history at 1,735 games, but unbeknownst to many there is an even longer game streak going on in Baltimore.

That streak belongs to field attendant Ernie Tyler, who has worked the last 2,732 Orioles' home games from his stool near home plate.

1993p134-135

SHORTSTOPS WHO HAVE STARTED FOR EVERY ML TEAM DURING CAL'S 1708 CONSECUTIVE GAME STREAK AT SHORTSTOP JULY 1, 1982-OCT 4, 1992

285 different shortstops have started for the other ML clubs since Cal Ripken began his streak of consecutive starts at shortstop on July 1, 1982. Including players who have started for more than one team, the number of shortstops is 418.

1992 SEASON SUMMARY

Thirty-six-year-old Sutcliffe tied for the major league lead with a career-high 36 starts, the first Oriole to lead the majors since Jim Palmer had 40 in 1976...The last pitcher to lead the majors in starts at Sutcliffe's age or older was Charlie Hough in 1987 at 39 years of age...Joe Niekro did it in 1983 and 1984 and Phil Niekro 4 times (1977-78-79-80)...All of course, were knuckleballers...According to our research, the last pitcher Sutcliffe's age or older to lead the majors that wasn't a knuckleballer was Walter Johnson in 1924 at age 36.

Led the club in innings pitched until final week of season...Reached 200 innings quicker than any Oriole since Mike Boddicker in 1984...Only 2 Orioles in club history pitched as many innings at an older age than Sutcliffe, Mike Cuellar (256 IP at 38 in 1975) and Robin Roberts (251 IP at 36 in 1964).

Became the O's oldest 16-game winner since 37-year-old Mike Cuellar won 22 games in 1974.

Named AL Comeback Player of the Year by The Sporting News.

Worked into the 7th or later in 28 of 36 starts...Allowed 2 runs or less in nearly half of his starts (17 of 36), but still permitted a ML high 123 runs.

The O's scored 3 runs or less in 20 of his starts, but won 9 (and he won 7).

SHUTOUTS/NEAR MISSES: Eleven times he didn't allow a run before the 7th inning...Pitched 2 complete game shutouts, combined on 2 others, and 7 other times he took a shutout into the 7th or later...Was within 3 outs of a CG shutout 4 times and didn't get it. Beat Toronto, 1-0, on June 5 (IP-8+, H-4, BB-1, SO-4), the first 1-0 win by the O's at home since July 19, '86 (Mike Flanagan over Minnesota)...Entered the 9th but allowed leadoff single to Roberto Alomar...Gregg Olson came on and earned the save. Was the first Oriole to post 3 complete games in April since Scott McGregor in 1983...Was the first Oriole to throw 2 shutouts in April since Jim Palmer in 1977.

BEATING THE BEST: Beat 4 of the AL's 10 toughest pitchers to beat (AL win pct leaders): KC's Kevin Appier twice, Texas' Kevin Brown, Cleveland's Charles Nagy and Seattle's Dave Fleming.

OPENING DAY AT CAMDEN YARDS: Started on Opening Day (Apr 6) at Oriole Park at Camden Yards and shut out the Indians, 2-0, on 5 singles, outdueling Charles Nagy...Was the oldest Opening Day starter in Orioles history and became only the 2nd Oriole to throw a shutout in a home opener, joining Dave McNally (1973)...It was his first complete game since July 31, '89 (over Philadelphia) and his first shutout since June 22, '89 (over Pittsburgh).

It was his 8th Opening Day start, 3rd among actives behind Nolan Ryan (13) and Jack Morris (9).

Also with that Opening Day win he became the 8th pitcher to beat the then-current 26 teams in the regular season...Also Doyle Alexander, Gaylord Perry, Nolan Ryan, Don Sutton, Mike Torrez, Rick Wise, Rich Gossage...Scott Sanderson subsequently became the 9th to do it.

Didn't allow a run in his first 23 innings at Oriole Park at Camden Yards...In his 2nd start, he shut out Detroit on 4 singles on April 17, 8-0...In his 3rd home start, a 4-2 win over Seattle on May 2, he allowed a 2-run homer to Ken Griffey in the 6th inning, the first runs he allowed at Oriole Park.

FIRST 2 MONTHS: Was tied for the major league lead in wins on June 10 at 9-4 (ERA 4.00) after 14 starts, then went 1-7 in his next 10 starts (5.32, IP-67.2, H-82, ER-40)...The bullpen blew a save opportunity for him on June 15 at Cleveland that would have made him the majors' first 10-game winner of the season...Left with a 5-2 lead in the 7th, but Cleveland tied it in the 8th before O's won 6-5 on a 9th inning homer by Randy Milligan.

AUGUST TURNAROUND: The O's lost all 6 of his starts in July and he was 0-5, the worst month of his career...Followed that up with one of his best months...O's went 6-0 in his 6 August starts and he was 4-0 while posting a 1.60 ERA (IP-45, ER-8), 3rd best in the majors for the month of August.

On Sunday, Aug 23, Rick's mother, Louise Bloss, 55, passed away after a long bout with cancer...Rick flew home that night to Kansas City, returned Monday to Baltimore and beat California on Tuesday (Aug 25) with 8 gritty innings in a 9-1 win...Returned the next day to Kansas City for the funeral.

Followed that start with a 2-0 win at Seattle on Aug 30...He worked 8.2 innings and Gregg Olson finished up...It was the 2nd straight shutout for the O's against the Mariners who had gone 12 straight previous games with 10 or more hits. Won his next start, 8-7 on Sep 4 at California giving him a 15-11 record and a 5-game win streak, but was 1-4 in his last 5 starts (6.41, IP-26.2, ER-19).

MISCELLANEOUS: Threw 3,802 pitches, 5th most in the majors...Made 4 starts with 3 or fewer days rest and was 1-3 (11.72, IP-17.2, H-28, ER-23)...Was 15-12 (3.89, IP-219.2, H-223, ER-95) in his other 32 starts...Was the first Oriole to get in 20 starts before the All-Star break since Mike Boddicker in '85.

1992 SEASON SUMMARY

Final Overall Record: 89-73
3rd in AL East, 7 GB

WINS AND LOSSES: A club record scoring slump put the Orioles' division title hopes to rest in mid-September...The O's were no more than 5 games out of first through the first 168 days of the season before falling to 5-1/2 GB and into 3rd place for good on Sep 19...The Orioles had been in either first or 2nd place every day since Apr 28.

In their first month at Oriole Park at Camden Yards, the Orioles enjoyed their best April (13-8) since 1979, and through May 16, their 24-11 record was 2nd best in club history trailing only the 1970 O's who were 25-10.

For 61 out of 64 days, May 1-July 3, the O's and the Blue Jays were no more than one game apart in the AL East's top 2 spots...That stretch ended when the Orioles lost back-to-back games at Minnesota in which they were leading in the 9th inning, and Toronto won both days at California sending the O's 3 games back.

The O's played .500 ball (24-24) over the next 8 weeks, while only Cleveland (26-21) and Milwaukee (26-23) were better in the division...As a result, the O's were only 2-1/2 games back on Aug 28...At that point the O's won 7 straight games on a West Coast swing and jumped to a season-high 19 games over .500 (77-58) on Sep 5, only 1/2 game out of first.

It was on that date, however, the O's started a club record streak of 21 straight games of not scoring more than 4 runs in any game (the O's also had 21 straight games with 4 runs or less in their first season, 1954)...During this stretch, the O's went 8-13 (scoring 52 runs) and tumbled to 7 games out and into 3rd place trailing Toronto and Milwaukee.

DAYS IN EACH POSITION: FIRST (23)...SECOND (119)...THIRD (30)...FOURTH (2)...FIFTH (3)...SIXTH (0)...SEVENTH (0)...During their 23 days in first place, the O's largest lead was 1/2 game.

BEST TURNAROUNDS: The O's 89-73 record was their best since 1983 (98-64) and a 22-game improvement over 1991 (67-95), the 11th best by an AL team since divisional play began in 1969...The Orioles finished with the 4th best record in major league history for a team coming off a 95+ loss season (see below)...The Orioles missed by one win becoming only the 10th team in ML history to win 90 or more games the year after losing 90 or more games.

ORIOLES 2nd ONLY TO ATLANTA ON THE ROAD: The Orioles finished with a 46-35 road record, best in the AL and 2nd in the majors to Atlanta's 47-34 mark...It was the O's first winning record on the road since 1984 (41-40) and their best road mark since 1983 (48-33)...In the last 5 years, only one team, Oakland, in 1988 and 1990, has had a better road record...Toronto (2-5) and Milwaukee (3-4) were the only 2 AL parks in which the O's had a losing record...Mike Mussina led the way for the Orioles with an 11-2 road record.

ORIOLES AT THE YARD: (for more information see separate section, "Oriole Park at Camden Yards")...The O's went 10-1 in their first 11 games at Oriole Park at Camden Yards, the best start ever by a team playing in a new park...But, after that, they went 33-37 to finish with a 43-38 home record, tied with Montreal and the Cubs for the 14th best in the ML...The previous best starts by a team playing in a new home park were the 1953 Milwaukee Braves who went 9-1 at County Stadium and Houston which also went 9-1 at the Astrodome in 1965.

JOHNNY OATES: Following the completion of the 1992 season, owned a 143-144 career record as manager of the Orioles since he took over on May 23, 1991.

ONE-RUN GAMES, FROM WORST TO FIRST: The O's posted a 23-13 record (.639) in one-run games, best record in the majors and best by an AL team since the 1986 Red Sox went 24-10...In 1991, the Orioles were 18-35 in one-run games, most such losses in the AL in 23 years.

ORIOLES ALSO BEST AT NIGHT: The O's also boasted the ML's best record at night (69-43), their best mark in night games since 1979 (73-42)...However, the O's 20-30 record in day games was 23rd out of the ML's 26 teams.

STREAKS: The O's were the only AL team not to lose more than 4 in a row...The O's lost 4 straight 4 times...The O's won a season-high 7 straight games, twice, the 2nd time came all on a West Coast road swing, Aug 29-Sep 5...It was their longest road win streak since Apr 30-May 27, 1989 when they also won 7 straight.

BY MONTH: April 13-8 (.619)...May 16-11 (.593)...June 15-13 (.536)...July 13-14 (.481)... August 16-12 (.571)...September 13-14 (.481)...October 3-1 (.750)

AL-HIGH 16 SHUTOUTS O'S MOST IN 13 YEARS: The Orioles improved pitching staff allowed the club to win 21 games in which they scored 3 runs or less, their most such wins since 1979 (21)...The O's staff led the AL in shutouts with 16, their most since 1978, and 3 more than O's pitchers had in 1990 and 1991 combined...Their 3.79 ERA was their lowest since 1984 (3.71) and 5th best in the AL...With Mike Mussina (241), Rick Sutcliffe (237.1) and Ben McDonald (227), the Orioles had 3 pitchers with 200+ innings for the first time since 1986 and 3 pitchers with more than 225 innings for the first time since 1982 (Mike Flanagan 236, Dennis Martinez 252, and Jim Palmer 227).

The O's allowed 2 runs or less 61 times, tied with Minnesota for the most in the AL. Mussina led the club with 20 such games.

Only one other ML team had 3 pitchers with more than 225 innings pitched: Milwaukee- Bill Wegman (261.2), Jaime Navarro (246) and Chris Bosio (231.1).

As a result, the O's bullpen pitched 430 innings, 127.2 innings less than the team's club record and ML high total of 557.2 innings pitched in 1991.

O's pitchers allowed their fewest runs (656) since 1983 (652), their fewest hits (1419) since 1984 (1393) and their fewest home runs (124) since 1978 (107).

O's 20 complete games were their best showing since 1985 (32)...25 other times O's starters pitched 8 or more innings...They went 6 or more innings 111 times (74-37), 26 more times than in 1991.

In the AL, only Oakland, Milwaukee and Toronto got more wins from their starting pitchers than the Orioles...O's starters were 66-59 (ERA-4.11, IP-1034, ER-472)...O's starters were 5th in the AL in innings pitched.

The bullpen posted a 3.30 ERA (IP-430, ER-145), the 2nd best in the AL and was 23-14 with 48 saves in 64 save opportunities...Relievers surrendered only 18 home runs, fewest in the majors...O's 16 blown saves were 2 below the league average of 18.

On Sep 1, the O's were within one out of becoming the first AL team to throw 4 straight shutouts since Texas in 1981...Their string of 37 scoreless innings was the 3rd longest in club history behind an ML-record 54 straight in 1974 and a 45-inning streak in 1957.

Orioles pitchers allowed 6 hits over 3 games, July 17-19 at Texas...A 1-hitter by Mussina, a 2-hitter by McDonald and a combined 3-hitter by Arthur Rhodes, Todd Frohwirth and Gregg Olson....It was the fewest hits over 3 games the O's have ever allowed, besting a 3-game stretch in 1974 when the O's allowed 9 hits over 3 games in Septemeber.

6-Lefferts/Olson

ORIOLES OFFENSE: On July 4 through 78 games, the Orioles were 2nd in the AL in hitting (.270, 2615-707)—highest in club history on that date—2nd in home runs (85) and were leading the majors in slugging (.432, 2615-1129)...HOWEVER, in their final 84 games, they batted .249 (2870-716) with 63 homers and a .367 slugging mark (2870-1053)...As a result, the O's finished 8th in the AL in hitting (.259), 6th in homers (148) and 5th in slugging (.398).

Much of the Orioles offense in 1992 came from unexpected sources...Orioles catchers hit 27 home runs (Chris Hoiles-20, Jeff Tackett-5, and Mark Parent-2), 17 more than in 1991 and the 2nd most ever by the O's catching corps behind 1958, when Gus Triandos (30) and Joe Ginsberg (3) combined for 33...Orioles leadoff and No. 2 hitters combined for a total of 194 RBI, 35 more than any other ML club (Detroit-159)...O's leadoff hitters (primarily Brady Anderson) drove in 84 runs, only one other team, Oakland (77), had more than 70 RBI from the leadoff spot...O's No. 2 hitters (primarily Mike Devereaux) drove in 110 runs, 18 more than any other club (Detroit-92)...O's No. 8 hitters batted .290 and drove in 75 runs, both tops in the majors...By mid-June, Orioles 2nd basemen (primarily Bill Ripken, Mark McLemore and Tim Hulett) had already driven in more runs than all of 1991 and by season's end combined for 57 RBI...In '91, that position drove in only 34 runs, 3rd fewest in the majors.

The Orioles led the majors with a .351 average (131-46) with the bases loaded...With runners in scoring position, the O's batted .259 (1376-356), one point below the AL average.

The Orioles had their most triples (36) since they led the AL with 48 in 1973...Their 58 sacrifice flies tied the club record first established in 1969...The Orioles' 647 walks were 3rd most in the majors and 5th highest in club history.

The Orioles also left their most men on base (1218) since 1973 and 2nd most in the majors behind Oakland's 1225.

HOME RUNS: The O's 148 homers were 22 fewer than in 1991 (170)...The Orioles hit 5 grand slams and 10 3-run homers in their first 93 games through July 21, but didn't hit a slam and hit only one 3-run homer the remainder of the season...O's 3-4-5 hitters combined for only 51 home runs; only 4 AL teams got less out of those 3 spots (Milwaukee, California, KC and Boston).

ORIOLES UNDER 100 ERRORS FOR 4TH STRAIGHT SEASON: The Orioles finished with less than 100 errors for the 4th straight season, no other club in ML history has done it more than 2 straight seasons...With a .9849 fielding pct, the O's were 3rd in the majors behind Milwaukee (.986) and St. Louis (.9851).

The O's allowed an ML-low 40 unearned runs...Although not an officially kept record, it is believed the fewest unearned runs ever allowed in a season was 39 by the 1982 O's.

TRIPLE PLAYS: There were 4 triple plays in the AL in 1992, and the Orioles were involved in 3 of them, 2 on the wrong end...It had been more than 13 years since the O's had hit into a triple play...On Aug 7 at home vs. Cleveland, Brady Anderson flied into an 8-2-4-5 triple play...With the bases loaded, Anderson flied to centerfielder Kenny Lofton who threw Leo Gomez out at the plate trying to score...Meanwhile, Tim Hulett tried to go from 2nd to 3rd base and was thrown out, 2-4-5 (Sandy Alomar to Carlos Baerga to Jim Thome).

On Aug 25, at home against California, the Orioles pulled the 11th triple play in club history...With runners on 1B and 3B, Gary Gaetti lined out to third baseman Leo Gomez, who stepped on the bag at 3B and threw to 1B to "triple up" Chad Curtis (L-5-5-3).

The 3rd triple play occurred at Seattle on Aug 30...With Randy Milligan on first and Brady Anderson at 2nd, Mike Devereaux lined out to right fielder Jay Buhner who made a great catch while hitting the wall in right-center field...Both runners didn't think the ball would be caught and were running...Buhner threw the ball to 2B Harold Reynolds who tossed the ball to SS Omar Vizquel who stepped on 2nd to get Anderson and then tagged Milligan...It was later determined that Milligan had passed Anderson on the base paths and was out at that point (Vizquel was still credited with the putout on Milligan because he was the closest Seattle player to the play, scored 9-4-6-6).

ORIOLES COMMUNITY SERVICES DEPARTMENT WORKS

The Orioles Community Services Department was a busy place in '92. In addition to the busy schedule, which included over 1000 appearances made by the Orioles mascot and players, there were several new programs launched and other significant contributions made by the club.

In '92, the Orioles raised and donated over $300,000 to foundations and charitable causes. The Orioles wives auction which raised $88,000 for the Johns Hopkins Children's Center highlighted these activities. In addition, the ballclub collected over 1000 books for the Baltimore City libraries and four tons of food for the Maryland Food Bank.

Aside from the major community service projects, the ballclub provided over 10,000 tickets to charitable organizations and donated items to over 12,000 charitable organizations.

Sam Horn, the Orioles designated hitter last season, was the recipient of the Orioles first Community Services Award. Horn devoted many, many hours to charitable work in the Baltimore Community and often did so with little or no notice.

ORIOLES HOME GAMES BROADCAST IN SPANISH

Orioles home games can be heard on WILC-AM, a 24-hour Spanish Language radio station in Washington DC.

For the 2nd straight season the O's went 8-5 against the Red Sox...It is the first time the O's have had back-to-back winning seasons vs. Boston since 1979-80-81...The Orioles are 18-10 since Sep 18, '90....The O's had gone 28-61 in the previous 89 games and 13-37 in the previous 50.

In '92, 8 different Orioles pitchers accounted for the O's 8 wins...While Todd Frohwirth sported a 19.29 ERA (IP-4.2, ER-10) vs. the Sox last season, the rest of the staff had a 2.83 ERA (IP-111.1, ER-35)...Offensively, Brady Anderson had 9 extra-base hits, 10 runs and 7 RBI in 12 games vs. Boston...Tim Hulett batted .538 (13-7).

Bob Zupcic of the Carmine Hose, batted .423 (26-11) against the O's, the 3rd highest among O's opponents last year trailing only Seattle's Edgar Martinez (.490) and Kansas City's Wally Joyner (.429)...The Red Sox were 0-for-4 in stolen base attempts against the O's last season and have been unsuccessful in their last 7 attempts...Their last successful steal against the O's was Sep 18, '91 by Steve Lyons.

Roger Clemens did not pitch against the O's in '92, although he was scheduled to start at Baltimore on Sep 27....After the game was delayed 99 minutes due to rain, he came out, warmed up, then left without throwing a pitch due to a muscle pull in his leg...Thinking they had caught a break, the O's instead faced Joe Hesketh...All Hesketh did was hurl a complete game 4-hitter that eliminated the O's from the division title race...Clemens, by the way, is 8-4 lifetime against the Orioles, but has dropped 3 of his last 5 decisions over 6 starts starting June 26, '88...The only AL team he has beaten fewer times is Oakland (5).

The O's are 8-5 in their last 13 games at Fenway, after going 4-22 there from late '86 thru '90...Although Cal Ripken struggled at Boston in '92, (5-for-24) he has a .335 (278-93) career mark there...Leo Gomez has a .387 (31-12) career average at Fenway with 5 homers and 9 RBI in 9 games.

The Orioles have had a losing season against the Angels only once since 1978 and that was in '88...During that 14-year period the O's have won 9 season series and tied 4...The last time the O's had a losing season at home against California was '78, one of only 4 in 31 years...The O's 240-188 (.561) all-time record against the Angels is the 3rd best against the Halos behind Detroit (237-185, .562) and New York (240-181, .570).

The biggest news involving the Orioles-Angels in '92 didn't occur in either city, but on the New Jersey Turnpike in the early hours of May 21...Heading for Baltimore after an 11-inning loss at Yankee Stadium, one of the Angels' buses went off the road and turned over inflicting serious injuries to Manager Buck Rodgers (elbow, rib, knee), and lesser ones to Alvin Davis (kidney) and Bobby Rose (ankle)...Fast reaction from those on the 2nd bus, prevented more injuries, and a tree that the bus hit, also prevented the vehicle from rolling down a hill by the side of the road...The next night, with neither team very focused on baseball, the O's won 6-4.

The O's out-hit the Angels, .293 to .241, and out-homered them 16-8...O's catchers Chris Hoiles and Jeff Tackett led the O's offensively against the Angels...Hoiles batted .467 (30-14, HR-3) and Tackett .500 (10-5, HR-2)...Mike Devereaux has batted .409 (93-38, HR-7) the last 2 seasons vs. the Angels...In '92, he had 11 runs, 11 RBI and 12 extra-base hits in 12 games against the Angels while hitting .412...He has a .333 (153-51) career average vs. the Angels, .333 at Anaheim (81-27) and .333 (72-24) in Baltimore.

The O's bullpen allowed only 4 runs in 31.2 innings vs. California, a 1.14 ERA...Gregg Olson retired 18 of 19 batters he faced and saved 5 of the O's 7 wins...The Angels were 1-for-19 off him and 3-for-28 off Todd Frohwirth who was 1-0 with a save and threw 9 shutout innings against them in 6 games.

Lee Stevens did most of the Angels' offensive damage to the Orioles, all of it coming off Rick Sutcliffe...Stevens hit a 3-run homer at Oriole Park on May 23, a ball that traveled 430 feet, 33 feet shy of the warehouse...Then on Sep 4, at Anaheim, Stevens hit a grand slam off Sutcliffe.

Between 1983 and 1987, the Orioles beat the White Sox more than any other team (they were 42-22), but in 5 years since then, the O's haven't had a winning season and have gone 26-33...Recently, it's been Frank Thomas inflicting the most pain on the Orioles...In '92, for the 2nd straight year, his 5 homers against the O's were the most by an opponent...Last season he hit as many or more than 3 teams had against the O's (Boston-5, Kansas City-5, and Milwaukee-2...Thomas is 10-for-16 (.625) lifetime off O's ace Mike Mussina with 3 homers and 5 rbi...Frank hit a 466' home run May 16 off Bob Milacki.

The White Sox have gone 33-25 against the Orioles since the O's snapped their major league record 21-game losing streak at Old Comiskey on Apr 29, '88.

For the 2nd straight year, the O's went 3-3 in New Comiskey Park...Glenn Davis has a .440 (25-11) lifetime average at New Comiskey with 3 homers and 10 RBI in 7 games.

Chris Hoiles homered and tripled off 20-game winner Jack McDowell on May 16 at Chicago to help the O's to a 7-2 win ending McDowell's season-opening 7-game win streak..The next day, May 17, the O's pounded out a season-high 17 hits, but lost 14-10, the most runs the Sox have scored against the O's since '81...Tim Hulett was 7-for-16 off Sox pitching and is now hitting .326 (46-15) lifetime against his former team.

Mussina has gone 5 or more innings in 42 of his 44 ML starts, both times he didn't do it were against the Sox...Wilson Alvarez, the last man to no-hit the O's (Aug 11, '91) got roughed up a bit (the O's hit .302, 53-16 off him), but he still managed to go 1-0 in '92, with an 8-4 win at Baltimore on July 7.

For the 4th straight season and the 5th time in the last 6 years, the season series in '92 was decided by one game...The O's prevailed in '92 and have won 3 of the last 4 season sets...The O's 2.76 team ERA against the Tribe in '92 was their lowest against an opponent and the lowest by the O's against an AL East team since the '80 O's posted a 2.35 ERA against Toronto...The Orioles went 3-1 in the final series of the year at Cleveland to give them their first winning season in Tribetown since '87...In 2 of their wins in the final series, the O's trailed 2-0 entering the 9th, but came back to win.

The Indians beat the Orioles 11 straight times between 1987-88, but since then the O's are 30-25...Cleveland is one of 3 teams with a winning all-time record vs. the O's, although that lead is now only one game (323-322)...The O's haven't been over .500 against the Tribe since '88...Thru the first 3 years (1954-56), the Indians led 55-11...From that kind of start, it took the O's a quarter of a century to draw even (in June '79).

Todd Frohwirth threw 6 scoreless innings against the Tribe and has yet to allow a run in 15.1 innings in his career against Cleveland, but has yet to get a win or save...Cal Ripken had 12 of the O's 40 RBI in '92.

Charles Nagy had 3 complete games against the Orioles, including the first 1-hitter thrown at Camden Yards, on Aug 8...Glenn Davis' infield single in the 7th was the O's lone hit...Nagy started the first and last game of the season against the O's, and the Birds won both games.

Cleveland's Paul Sorrento not only had the first hit at Oriole Park at Camden Yards, a single off Rick Sutcliffe on Opening Day (Apr 6), but also hit the first homer, a 3-run homer off Bob Milacki on Apr 8...Albert Belle now has 27 RBI in 24 career games against the Orioles...Carlos Baerga, the Indians' All-Star 2nd baseman struck out 14 times against the Orioles; only California's Junior Felix, who fanned 15 times, struck out more...Baerga still hit .293 against the O's.

While the Tigers won the final game played at Memorial Stadium on Oct 6, '91, the Orioles extracted a large measure of revenge by keeping Detroit winless at Oriole Park at Camden Yards...The O's went 7-0 at home against the Tigers, the 13th time in club history the O's have gone undefeated at home against a team...In only 5 of those sweeps did the O's go 7-0 or better...The Orioles swept a 4-game series in Detroit's first visit to the new park, the O's first 4-game sweep at home over the Tigers since July, '77. Overall, the Orioles went 10-3, only their 2nd winning season against Detroit in the last 8 years (also 10-3 in '89)...The O's dropped the season finale, 4-2, on Sep 30, missing a chance for their most wins against the Tigers in 15 years ('77).

The Orioles batted a season-high .303 against the Tigers, and held the Bengals to a .231 average...3 O's hit .400 or better, all catchers- Chris Hoiles (.455, 22-10, HR-4), Mark Parent (.429, 7-3) and Jeff Tackett (.400, 15-6, HR-1).

The O's hurled 3 shutouts, their most against one team since 1983 when they blanked the Twins 3 times...4 Tigers were held below .200: Mickey Tettleton (.195), Alan Trammell (.167), Lou Whitaker (.119), and Tony Phillips (.196)...The O's had a 3.55 team ERA which isn't bad when you consider Mike Flanagan was pummeled for 8 runs in one inning on June 13 in a 15-1 loss, matching ther 3rd worst beating in club history...The O's allowed only 30 runs in the other 12 games against Detroit...The heavy-hitting Tigers were the only team the Orioles did not issue an intentional walk to all of last year.

In '92, Mike Mussina held the majors' leading run-producing team to only one run in 26 innings and a .200 (90-18) team batting average while going 3-0...He allowed only 3 extra-base hits (all doubles)...He hasn't allowed a run in his last 21 innings vs. Detroit...In 5 career starts he is 3-0 with a 0.63 ERA (IP-43, H-26, ER-3)...Detroit has batted .181 (144-26) off him.

Although they were outscored by Kansas City, 45-44, the O's managed to win 8 of 12 games from the Royals in '92...The O's won three 2-1 games, including back-to-back, Sep 14-15, part of a 3-game sweep of the Royals in which the O's scored only 7 runs...It was the fewest runs the O's scored in a 3-game sweep since they scored 5 while winning 3 at Chicago, July 4-6, '72...Of the Royals' 45 runs, 15 came in one game, a 15-2 pounding of the O's at KC on Aug 16.

Since losing 15 straight games to the Royals, Aug 26, '87 thru Apr 11, '89, the O's are 26-19...Speaking of losing streaks, the O's set a ML record in 1969-70 for most consecutive wins against an opponent when they beat KC 23 straight times...That streak started immediately after the Royals had beaten the Birds in the first game ever played (5/9/69) between these 2 when Dick Drago downed Dick Hall...The O's are only 128-127 since the 23-game win streak.

During the O's 39 years in the AL there have been 4 sweeps of season series (excluding strike-torn '81). The O's have been involved in 3 of them:

1970: Baltimore-12, Kansas City-0
1978: Baltimore-11, Oakland-0
1988: Kansas City-12, Baltimore-0
1990: Oakland-12, New York-0

Rick Sutcliffe (3-0) became the first Oriole to beat the Royals 3 times in one season since Jim Palmer in '73....Rick, who grew up in the Kansas City area and lives about 15 minutes from Royals Stadium, is now 7-0 lifetime against KC and has a 1.63 ERA (IP-66.1, ER-12) against his hometown team. Cal Ripken batted .395 (43-14) against the Royals in '92 and reached base 26 times in 52 trips...He hit .189 against KC in '89, but has batted .372 (129-48) since then...Chris Hoiles has batted .385 (26-10) lifetime at Royals Stadium with one homer and 7 RBI in 7 games...Brady Anderson has a .318 (113-36) average at KC, his best in an enemy port...Harold Reynolds' .333 (165-55) career average is his best in an AL Park.

Wally Joyner, in his first year with the Royals, batted .429 (42-18) against the O's, 2nd highest by an opponent...George Brett entered '92 with a .307 career average against the O's, but hit only .167 (48-8) last year...Mike Macfarlane, who batted .385 (26-10) against the O's in '91, was even better in '92 with a .407 mark (27-11) and hit 3 of the Royals 5 homers off O's pitching...His .374 career average against the O's is the highest among active players.

The Orioles won 5 of the first 6 games in '92, including 5 straight, their longest win streak against the Twins since '83...The Twins reversed things the rest of the way and the 2 clubs wound up 6-6...4 of the 12 games were decided in the 9th inning or later, including back-to-back games, July 4-5, at the Metrodome in which the O's were within one out of winning each game only to lose both.

The O's were 3-3 in Minnesota and are now 26-40 (.393) in the Metrodome, their 2nd worst record in a current AL park, ahead of only their 10-16 (.385) mark at SkyDome...Since winning their first 2 games at HHH in '87, the O's have gone 9-25. Mike Devereaux enjoyed a 5-hit game on July 3 at Minnesota...It was the 6th time in the last 10 years that an Oriole has had 5 hits, and 4 of them have come in the Metrodome (also Cal Ripken on Sep 3, '83 and May 5, '85 and Joe Orsulak on Aug 30, '91)...Cal batted only .122 (49-6) against Minnesota after entering '92 with a .332 career mark against the Twins...Ripken was only 4-for-27 at the Metrodome in '92, but still has a .348 (267-93) average there...Overall in '92 the Orioles hit only .235 against the Twins, their 2nd lowest against an opponent ahead of only their .234 mark against Oakland...None of the O's regulars hit .300 vs. Minnesota.

Although Seattle out-hit the O's .292 to .266, (the .292 was the highest mark against the O's) the O's still won the season series, 7 games to 5, only the 2nd time in the last 8 years that they have posted a winning mark against the Mariners and their first since '88...Most of Seattle's offense came from the AL's leading hitter, Edgar Martinez, who did his best hitting against the O's.

Edgar's .490 average vs. the Birds was the best by an O's opponent in '92 and was 80 points higher than he hit against any other team...Martinez's 24 hits against the Birds were the most by an opponent since Boston's Marty Barrett had 27 in '87...Martinez had 12 extra-base hits against the O's, only 10 fewer than the entire Oakland A's team slugged off O's pitching...Edgar's 12 runs and 13 RBI were also the most against the O's last season...He scored or drove in 23 of Seattle's 56 runs off the O's.

The Orioles once led this series, 60-26 thru May 17, '85, but since then are 43-52...The Orioles won the last 2 games of '92 via shutouts, the first time the O's had thrown back-to-back shutouts indoors since the '83 season at Minnesota...The 2 shutouts, Aug 29-30, enabled the O's to take 2 games of that season-ending 3-game series, the first time in 3 years the O's had a winning trip into Seattle...The O's are 51-40 all-time at the Kingdome.

The O's had lost 8 straight series to Seattle (over '90 and '91) before sweeping a 3-game set from the Mariners at Oriole Park, May 1-3...It was the first time since Sep 1-3, '80 that the O's swept the Mariners in Baltimore. The Orioles had season-highs in extra-base hits (42) and home runs (16) against the Mariners...Mike Devereaux was the big gun for the O's with 17 RBI, the most RBI by an Oriole against one team since Eddie Murray had 19 against the Angels in '85.

Randy Johnson, the AL's strikeout leader, chalked up only 5 of his 241 K's against the O's, his fewest against one club (he walked 13 O's in 6.1 innings)...His last 4 starts against the O's: 0-3, ERA-13.19, IP-14.1, H-21, ER-21, BB-19...Gregg Olson worked 6 innings in '92 against Seattle and allowed one base runner (Seattle was 1-for-20 off him).

The O's 72 wins against Texas in the '80s were their most against one team and their 24 wins in the '90s are their most...The Orioles won the season series 7 games to 5 in '92, their 4th straight winning season vs. Texas and their 10th in the last 12 years...The O's are 35-15 since July 9, '88 and 83-52 since '81...The Orioles all-time record against Texas (148-92, .617) is their best against an active team, their 283-153 (.649) record against Washington-Texas is their best against one franchise, and their 79-42 (.653) record in Arlington Stadium is their best in a current AL park...The O's are 17-5 there the last 4 years.

Texas was one of 3 visiting teams to post a winning season at Oriole Park at Camden Yards (also Oakland and New York)...The Rangers' 4-2 mark was their first winning season in Baltimore since '80...In their last 10 years at Memorial Stadium, the Rangers were 17-44.

The O's held the Rangers to a .223 team average, their best against an opponent...On back-to-back nights at Texas, the Orioles hurled shutouts for the first time in nearly 7 years (Aug 29-30, '85 vs. Seattle)...In the first game, Mike Mussina threw the 29th one-hitter in club history, allowing only a 5th-inning single by Kevin Reimer...The next night, Ben McDonald tossed a 2-hitter as the O's established a club record for fewest hits allowed over 2 consecutive games.

Nolan Ryan was 2-0 in '92 and is 5-0 over the last 2 years, while the rest of the Rangers staff is 3-16...Over the last 2 years, he has held the O's to a .143 (119-17) average...Prior to '91, he had lost 9 straight decisions to the O's since winning in '76...He is now 10-16 lifetime against the O's.

Cal Ripken saw his career average against the Rangers drop to under .300 in '92, while going 11-for-48 (.229)...Texas' Juan Gonzales hit the longest ball at Oriole Park, a 450' blast off Mike Mussina on July 26...Gregg Olson has never allowed a run at Arlington Stadium (G-9, 2-0, SV-4, IP-10.1)...Overall against the Rangers he has allowed one run in 22 innings (0.41).

Toronto was 8-5 against the Orioles in '92, their 7th winning season in the last 9 years and 5th in the last 6 (exception: '89, 7-6)...It was also the 3rd straight year the O's have gone 5-8...The Orioles once led this series 62-27, but beginning in '84, they are 44-72, including 28-50 since '87.

The O's are 10-16 at SkyDome, 3-11 with the roof closed...Starting with the final series of '89, the O's are 8-15 and have lost 7 games in Toronto's last at bat...The O's went 1-12 in their last 2 seasons at Exhibition Stadium ('87 and '88)...All-time, the O's are 45-57 (.441), north of the border...Ben McDonald is 3-0 at SkyDome.

For 61 out of 64 days during '92, May 1-July 3, the O's and the Blue Jays were no more than one game apart in the AL East's top 2 spots...Although Toronto won 8 of 13 games, the stats were quite comparable...The Blue Jays scored 48 runs, the O's 46; Toronto hit .241 to the O's .236; and the Jays had a 3.63 ERA, the O's 3.67...O's relievers allowed only 5 earned runs in 36 innings (1.25).

The O's .236 average was one point less than they hit in '91...Chris Hoiles is 6-for-48 (.125) vs. the Jays the last 2 years, Brady Anderson has hit .210 (119-25), and Tim Hulett .107 (28-3),...The O's handed 20-game winner Jack Morris 2 of his 6 losses last year, the only team to beat him more than once...The O's also beat the AL's 2 other 20-game winners (Texas' Kevin Brown, twice, and Chicago's Jack McDowell, once)...Todd Stottlemyre was 2-0 in '92, and is now 7-0 (1.63, IP-55, ER-10) during his career against the Orioles.

Candy Maldonado (.364, 44-16) was the only Blue Jay regular to hit better than .280, although Joe Carter hit 4 home runs to lead the Jays...Carter has driven in 25 runs in 26 games against the O's in his 2 years with the Blue Jays...Roberto Alomar batted only .226 vs. the O's in '92, his 2nd lowest against an opponent (.222 vs. California).

EASY MAGIC NUMBER FORMULAS

This was suggested by veteran Baltimore EVENING SUN baseball writer, Jim Henneman: Add trailing club's losses to leading team's wins:

Subtract the sum from 162, then add one:

That is your magic number.

This one from a Baltimore baseball fan. Michael McCoy: Subtract the leader's wins and the trailing team's losses from 163, i.e.:

Magic Number = 163 - LW - TL.

GRAND SLAM NOTES

O's lead the Majors since '80: The Orioles have belted 63 grand slams starting with '80, 8 more than any other club (the Red Sox are next with 55).

Thru the Years: The O's have "outslammed" their opponents 147-92 over the last 39 years (including a 79-42 advantage at Baltimore, 4-1 at Oriole Park at Camden Yards).

Three in One Game: The Orioles and Texas set a major league record on Aug. 6, '86 when the two teams combined to hit three grand slams in Texas' 13-11 win at Memorial Stadium (the record was equalled on June 3, '87, Hou. vs. Chi). Jim Dwyer and Larry Sheets hit grand slams for the O's, both in the 4th inning. It marked only the 5th time in major league history that one club has hit 2 grand slams in a single inning. It was the 4th time the O's had hit 2 grand slams in the game. Toby Harrah hit Texas' slam.

Two in a Game: Only 7 players have hit two grand slams in one game in baseball history and only 3 have hit them on consecutive at-bats. In both situations, two of them were Orioles: Jim Gentile hit two in a row at Minnesota on May 9, '61 (Metropolitan Stadium off Pete Ramos and Paul Giel), and Frank Robinson did the same on June 26, '70 at RFK Stadium in Washington (off Joe Coleman, Jr. and Joe Grzenda).

Gentile Hit 5 in '61: Gentile set an American League record and tied the major league standard in '61 when he hit 5 bases loaded home runs. The only prior player to reach that total was the Cubs' Ernie Banks in '55. In '87, Don Mattingly of the Yankees broke that record by hitting 6 grand slams.

Post-Season Slams-Slugging Pitchers: Only two pitchers have ever hit grand slam home runs in post-season play. Both were Orioles at the time, and both did it in 1970. In game one of the '70 ALCS, Mike Cuellar hit one off the Twins' Jim Perry (at Minny) and in the 3rd game of the World Series vs. the Reds, Dave McNally found the range off Wayne Granger (at Baltimore).

The blast by Cuellar was the only ALCS grand slam ever until Don Baylor hit one for the Angels vs. Milwaukee in '82 (off Moose Haas) . . . Only two bases loaded homers have ever been hit in NLCS play: the Dodgers' Ron Cey and Dusty Baker in '77.

Opponents: Seven opponents have hit two career slams each against the O's. Nobody has hit more . . . Three have hit two at Memorial Stadium: Roy Sievers (Was.), Moose Skowron (N.Y.), Mike Epstein (Was.). There have been 13 alien pitchers to throw up two grand slams each to Baltimore batters.

Orioles "Gophers:" Among Orioles pitchers, Milt Pappas was the most generous. He gave up 6 bases loaded homers during his tenure in Baltimore and allowed 9 overall in his major league career, tying Jerry Reuss (1969–90) and Ned Garver (1948–61) for most career slams allowed in the majors. Dave McNally and Scott McGregor, are next in line with 4 apiece. On the other hand, Jim Palmer never allowed a slam in 558 games spanning nearly 4,000 innings.

Notes on 20-Game Winners

Although the Orioles have not had one in the past 8 years, Baltimore pitchers have produced 23 20-game seasons in the past 25 years (starting '68), substantially more than any other major league club (Oakland is next with 14).

From '68 thru '80, a span of 13 years, at least one Oriole pitcher accumulated 20 or more victories to set a major league record. The old standard was 12 by the New York Giants from '03 to '14, a mark single-handedly assured by Christy Mathewson who won 20+ in each of those years.

In 1971 four Baltimore pitchers reached the 20-win plateau. The only other foursome in the entire history of major league baseball to have achieved the feat was a quartet from the 1920 White Sox (51 years earlier): Urban "Red" Faber-23, Claude Williams-22, Dickie Kerr-21 and Ed Cicotte-21. Despite that achievement, the White Sox finished second that year, two games behind Cleveland.

The four Orioles all won their 20th games within 6 days: McNally was the first on 9/21; then in a series in Cleveland, the other three joined him: Cuellar (9/24—first game-clinched division title), Dobson (9/24—2nd game), and Palmer (9/26).

Stone was the earliest 20-game winner in club history, winning his 20th game on August 19 en route to a team record 25 victories in '80. Three other Orioles' hurlers have recorded their 20th wins in August: McNally (8/25) and Cuellar (8/27) in '71 and Palmer (8/30) in '75.

The first Oriole to win 20, and the only one in the club's first 14 seasons in Baltimore ('54 thru '67) was lefthander Steve Barber in '63.

BIGGEST LIFETIME WINNERS/LOSER VS. O's

WINNERS: Though he has been retired for 24 years ('67), Whitey Ford, the Yankee Hall of Famer, still holds the distinction of having beaten the Orioles more than anyone else. He was 30-16 against the Birds.

Ford was one of 13 pitchers to have posted 20 or more lifetime wins against the O's in 38 Baltimore seasons. The others: "Catfish" Hunter (26-24), Mickey Lolich (25-19), Billy Pierce (23-11), Early Wynn and Frank Sullivan (both 21-8), Jim Kaat (21-21), Earl Wilson (20-9), Luis Tiant (20-22), Jim Perry (20-22), Camilo Pascual (20-23), Bert Blyleven (20-14) and Frank Tanana (21-17).

LOSERS: Hunter, the 2nd biggest winner vs. Baltimore (26), is also the biggest lifetime loser (24) . . . At one time "Catfish" had a 23-16 lifetime record vs. the O's, but then lost 8 of his last 11 decisions against them from '76 thru '79.

There have been 4 other 20-game losers: Tiant and Jim Perry (22 each), Fritz Peterson (14-21), and Kaat (21) . . . Other big losers were Lolich (19), Gaylord Perry (12-19) and Sam McDowell (9-19) . . . From a percentage standpoint, Jim Colborn, formerly of Brewers, Royals and Mariners, with a .150 (3-17) and Rudy May at .167 (3-15) rank near the bottom of the list.

Others who've had little success against Baltimore include: Geoff Zahn (2-11), Matt Keough (1-8), Milt Wilcox (4-12), Jim Beattie (3-11) and Mike Caldwell (3-9).

Among actives, Tanana (19) and Nolan Ryan (16) are the biggest losers.

THREE STRAIGHT PENNANTS

The Orioles' 3 straight pennants '69–'70–'71 were not unprecedented in Baltimore baseball history. The National League Orioles won 3 straight pennants '94–'95–'96. Six of their number ultimately were elected to the Hall of Fame: John McGraw, Wilbert Robinson, Hughie Jennings, Willie Keeler, Dan Brouthers and Joe Kelley.

BEST LONG STRETCH

The best record the Orioles have ever compiled in a stretch of 25 or more games is 26-4, between Sep. 8 and Oct. 15, '70. It included a 19-3 run at the end of the regular season and 7-1 in post-season (3-0 in ALCS, and 4-1 in the World Series).

MOST VALUABLE ORIOLES, '54-'92

Mike Devereaux received 7-1/2 of a possible 11 first place votes to be named the winner of the '92 Louis M. Hatter Most Valuable Oriole Award, presented annually by the Sports Boosters of Maryland, Inc...Outfielders have won the award 14 times, more often than any other position, but this marked only the 2nd time since '80.

Devereaux earned the honor by winning the team Triple Crown (.276 average, 24 home runs and 107 runs batted in)...He also was superb on defense, scaling the outfield walls to rob opponents of potential homers.

The Sports Boosters initiated the MVO trophy in '54, when the O's returned to Baltimore. Several years ago, they renamed the award in memory of the late Lou Hatter, the distinguished and lovable "dean" of Baltimore baseball writers who spent 27 years writing Orioles baseball for the SUN.

The award-winner is selected in a vote of writers and broadcasters who cover the Orioles on a regular basis.

Winners by position: Outfielders-14; first basemen-11; pitchers-8; 3rd basemen-4; shortstops-3; catcher and 2nd baseman-once each.

Notes: In one area he has consistently excelled, Cal Ripken annually rates among the best defensive players in baseball, playing the toughest position on the field...For his outstanding '92 season at shortstop, he received his 2nd consecutive Rawlings Gold Glove Award.

The Orioles had gone 7 years between Gold Glove awards before Ripken won in 1991...It is the first time since 1982-83-84 the O's have won the award in consecutive seasons (Eddie Murray, first base)...Cal's award extended the Orioles' totals to 50 Gold Gloves.

Multiple Winners: A total of 9 Orioles have won multiple Gold Gloves. Leading the list is Brooks Robinson whose 16 awards are matched only by pitcher Jim Kaat for the most won by an individual (Roberto Clemente & Willie Mays are tied for 3rd with 12 each). Others: Paul Blair & Mark Belanger (8 each); Jim Palmer & Bobby Grich (4 each); Dave Johnson & Murray (3 each), Cal Ripken (2) and Luis Aparicio (2, total of 9 in his ML career).

* Keith Hernandez played for the Cardinals and Mets when chosen in '83.

* Though the O's had 2nd best full season record in A.L. East, they received only 3rd place money because New York and Milwaukee each won half-season championships.

 The O's voted 29 full shares in '83 . . . The Phillies' (losers) share in '83 was $44,473.31. They, too, voted 29 full shares.

Note: In '92, the Toronto Blue Jays earned $144,962.16 per full share, while the Atlanta Braves' full share came out to $84,259.13... Those are not record numbers, however, falling short to Minnesota's winner's share in '91 ($119,579.66 and Los Angeles' share for the losing team in '88 ($86,220.89).

4 ORIOLES HAVE HOMERED 1ST TIME UP IN WORLD SERIES

Among the 21 players who homered in their first lifetime World series plate appearances are the following four Orioles:

Brooks Robinson ('66 vs Dodgers), Don Buford ('69 vs Mets), Doug DeCinces ('79 vs Pirates), and Jim Dwyer ('83 vs Phillies).

THE ORIOLES--PAST AND PRESENT

Major League Baseball returned to the City of Baltimore in 1954 after an absence of more than half a century.

The transfer of the St Louis Browns to Baltimore represented the first inter-city shift of an American League club in 52 seasons. Ironically, it was Baltimore that had been victimized in the last previous move. The Orioles, a charter franchise in the league when it was founded in '01, moved to New York under shadowy circumstances for $18,000 after the '02 season. There they were renamed first the Highlanders, then later--gasp!--the "Yankees."

Some 38 seasons have elapsed since the Orioles set up shop at 33rd & Ellerslie. During that time, they have finished first 8 times, captured 6 American League pennants and won 3 World Series. They've also been runners-up 9 times and have placed in the first division 23 times (all in the last 33 years). During these last 33 seasons they have the best won-lost percentage in major league baseball (.548, see page 187 for more details). The Orioles have had 27 winning seasons, including, at one stretch, 18 in a row from '68 thru '85.

Though the O's have maintained the winningest record in the majors for the past 33 years, it was really from '60, when they nearly won their first pennant thru '83, when they captured their last, that they dominated major league baseball.

During that 24-year period, they were 612 games over .500 (2206-1594, .581) and held a 99 1/2 game edge over the majors' 2nd best club of that era, the Yankees.

IN THE BEGINNING

A winning tradition is not peculiar to the modern Orioles, however. It took root in Baltimore a long time ago. There are no fewer than 23 former Orioles players in the Baseball Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, and 15 of them played here before 1954 (see page 226).

The history of professional baseball in Baltimore dates back 121 years to 1872, when the city was represented in the National Association, an important forerunner of today's major leagues.

Baltimore's baseball heritage was richly embellished in the formative years by:

- A left-hander named Matt Kilroy, who won 46 games for the American Association O's in 1887;
- Three straight National League pennant winners ('94, '95, '96) a team that would ultimately produce 6 Hall of Famers;
- The manager of that championship team, an innovative man named Ned Hanlon, who with the help of his talented athletes did much to shape the future of baseball strategy;
- Legendary all-time greats Babe Ruth, Lefty Grove, and John McGraw to name a few;
- Jack Dunn, whose name has long been synonymous with baseball in Baltimore. An infielder and pitcher with the city's original AL franchise, Dunn subsequently owned and managed the International League Orioles for 22 eventful seasons from 1907 thru 1928.

Among his many achievements: signing Ruth to his first professional contract and winning 7 straight pennants from 1919 thru 1925. It was the Dunn family that kept professional baseball alive and well in Baltimore most of those 51 years between big league franchises;

- And by a crowd of 52,833 that attended a Little World Series game at Municipal Stadium (on the same site as Memorial Stadium) between the Orioles and Louisville Colonels on Oct. 9, 1944. That same afternoon in St. Louis the Cardinals and Browns played the decisive 6th game of the World Series before a crowd that was 20,203 smaller at Sportsman's Park (att: 31,630).

RETURN TO THE MAJORS

Officially, the American League returned to Baltimore on Sep 29, 1953. That was the day American League owners, meeting in New York, unanimously approved the purchase of a controlling interest in the St Louis Browns from previous owner Bill Veeck by a group of Baltimore negotiators led by Mayor Tommy D'Alesandro Jr. (Old Tommy) and attorney Clarence Miles, who became the club's first president. The purchase price was $2,475,000.

The Birds, under the likable veteran manager Jimmy Dykes, lost 100 games that first season while winning only 54. But, as poor as that record was, it wasn't bad enough to finish last. Happily, that dubious honor belonged to the Philadelphia A's with a record of 51-103.

The Orioles' escape from the basement that year allowed them to maintain a notable distinction for 32 years. They had never finished last until the string finally ran out in 1986.

THE START OF SOMETHING BIG

The Orioles took the first big step in the right direction on Sep 14, 1954 when they hired White Sox Manager Paul Richards to come aboard as both manager and general manager, succeeding Dykes and Arthur Ehlers. Richards, a native of Waxahachie, Texas, and a catcher for the World Champion Detroit Tigers in '45, was a highly regarded strategist and a fine handler of pitchers. In Baltimore, he also became an aggressive administrator.

Not long after he arrived, Richards engineered a 17-player deal with the Yankees, probably the biggest in baseball history (see p 135 for details). The O's gave up Bob Turley, Don Larsen, shortstop Bill Hunter and 5 others. Among the 9 who came to Baltimore were 2 who proved to be very special: Gus Triandos the Orioles' first legitimate long ball threat, and a slick-fielding crowd-pleasing shortstop named Willy Miranda. Those 2 helped keep the fans happy during those early years while the club struggled toward legitimacy.

In '55, Richards kept the revolving door well greased. A total of 54 players wore the black and orange that year, including 23 pitchers. While Tall Paul was wheeling and dealing at all levels, his farm department (Jim McLaughlin and Harry Dalton) was also pursuing young amateur talent at a relentless pace all over the country.

Among those prospects was a kid from Little Rock named Brooks Robinson, who would develop into the best fielding 3rd baseman of all-time, and would spend 23 seasons in an Orioles uniform before moving up a level to the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown.

Gradually, the Orioles began to improve. In '57, Richards' 3rd season in Baltimore, the Birds finished at .500 (76-76) for the first time. In '60 with a club comprising 10 regulars in their 20's, 7 of them rookies, the Birds nearly won their first pennant.

Richards was particularly adept at reconstructing the careers of fading veterans and developing young pitchers. During his reign, the Orioles became famous for the Kiddie Korps, a passel of hard-throwing youngsters who pitched in Baltimore from the mid-50's to the early 60s.

THE NEXT STEP UP

In the fall of '58 the Orioles hired the Yankees' highly respected farm director Lee MacPhail as general manager, replacing Richards who nevertheless remained as field manager (until Sep '61). MacPhail improved the fiscal and administrative efficiency of the operation and increased the productivity of the club's minor league system. He also made some brilliant deals.

After the near miss of '60, the Orioles set a club record with 95 wins in '61 while Diamond Jim Gentile, acquired the year before from the Dodgers, gave Orioles fans an unprecedented show of power and production (46 home runs, including a major league record-tying 5 grand slams, and 141 RBI).

In '64, another near miss under the direction of "Manager of the Year" Hank Bauer who replaced Billy Hitchcock that season. The Birds finished 3rd, but only 2 games back of the pennant-winning Yankees and produced their first American League MVP - Brooks Robinson.

MacPhail left the Orioles after the '65 season to join Baseball Commissioner William D. "Spike" Eckert as his principal advisor but not before negotiating what was arguably the most important trade in the ballclub's history. It was the deal that brought National League superstar Frank Robinson from Cincinnati in exchange for the best pitcher the Orioles had ever had to that point, Milt Pappas.

THE LAND OF PLEASANT LIVING

Just before MacPhail departed, Jerry Hoffberger and his family acquired a controlling interest in the franchise. The Hoffbergers owned the Baltimore-based National Brewing Company, and their highly successful advertising theme for many years was based on the concept that the Chesapeake Bay area was "The Land of Pleasant Living."

That was surely true for the Orioles who went on to enjoy a golden age of on-the-field prosperity. Over the next 6 seasons, the Orioles would win four pennants and in a period of 9 years would finish first six times.

Hoffberger brought Frank Cashen from the brewery to serve as executive vice president, and promoted the club's talented farm director, Harry Dalton, to run the baseball program.

In '66, the Orioles not only won their first pennant, under Hank Bauer, they shocked the baseball world by sweeping the heavily favored Dodgers in 4 straight. Frank Robinson, in his first AL season, won the Triple Crown (.316, 49 HR, 122 RBI) and was MVP of both the American League and the World Series.

It had taken a player of Frank's stature to put the O's over the top, but the club was already blessed with considerable talent; players like Brooks Robinson, Luis Aparicio and Jim Palmer who would later join Frank in the Hall of Fame, long ball hitting first baseman Boog Powell, rookie 2nd baseman Dave Johnson, perennial Gold Glove center fielder Paul Blair, and a couple of pitchers named Jim Palmer and Dave McNally, still the top 2 winners in Orioles history. All but Frank and Aparicio were products of the O's fertile farm system.

The O's slumped badly in '67 and were going nowhere in '68 at the All-Star break when Dalton replaced Bauer with his longtime associate Earl Weaver. The feisty 5'8" St. Louisan had enjoyed a remarkable career as a manager in the O's farm system. Over the next 14 1/2 years he would experience even greater success at the major league level.

Having added the ultimate leadoff man (Don Buford), and a talented left handed pitcher (Mike Cuellar), and having replaced one Gold Glove for another at shortstop (Mark Belanger for Aparicio), the O's with Dalton at the controls of the baseball operation would reign over the American League for the next 3 years.

In '69, '70 & '71, they became only the 3rd club in history to win 100 or more games for 3 straight years. They won the division title by 19, 15, and 12 games, and swept the first 3 American League Championship Series, 3 games to none, over the Twins twice and A's once.

Following a humiliating loss to the New York Mets in the '69 World Series, the O's bounced back in '70 and took the Cincinnati Reds in a 5-game series that was thoroughly dominated by the brilliance of Brooks Robinson.

In '70, the O's had three 20-game winners (McNally, Palmer, & Mike Cuellar); the next year they had 4 (add Pat Dobson), a feat that had occurred only once before in major league history, and hasn't happened since.

THAT OLD GANG OF MINE

After the Orioles lost a heartbreaking 7-game World Series to the Pirates in '71, Dalton left the ballclub to run the California Angels and Executive VP Cashen added the responsibility for player personnel to his job description.

After their 4 pennants in 6 seasons, the O's began to perform some major surgery. Frank Robinson was traded and a year later, so were Dave Johnson, Buford and others.

The '72 season was grim but with youngsters like Bobby Grich, Don Baylor, Al Bumbry and Richie Coggins joining forces with Boog, Blair, Brooks and all those talented starters, the O's regained the division championship in '73, and defied the odds to win it again in '74.

On Aug 28, '74 the O's were in 4th place, 8 games behind the first-place Red Sox. When the smoke cleared 5 weeks later, the O's, who had gone 28-6 during that stretch, were on top of the heap, a shade ahead of the 2nd place Yankees, and a full 8 games up on the 3rd place Bosox.

THE PETERS PRINCIPLE

Cashen, who had acquired Ken Singleton, Mike Torrez and Lee May in a couple of glittering trades the previous winter, returned to the beer business after the '75 season. He was replaced by the widely respected & highly capable career baseball executive, Hank Peters, who had most recently served as president of the National Association (the minor leagues).

Not long after his arrival, Peters shook up the Orioles, trading for the flamboyant long-ball hitting Reggie Jackson. But of more long term significance was the 10-player deal he constructed with the Yankees in June '76. Three of the 5 players acquired in that transition contributed greatly to the Orioles many successes over the next decade: Rick Dempsey, Tippy Martinez and Scott McGregor.

The Orioles remained competitive well into the 80's despite serious losses from the new free agent re-entry system adopted in '76. Peters' Yankee deal, plus a fine farm system harvest in the early '70's which produced Eddie Murray, Mike Flanagan and Rich Dauer among others, helped the cause immeasurably (from '76 thru '83 the O's won 2 golds and 5 silvers in 8 years).

THE BALTIMORE-WASHINGTON CONNECTION

In '79, right after the O's had lost a second 7-game World Series to the Pirates, the internationally renowned Washington attorney, Edward Bennett Williams, completed the purchase of the ballclub in its entirety.

Williams brought with him a new regional marketing concept designed to expand the Orioles appeal over a wider geographic area. The plan was to add metropolitan Washington and states to the south to a drawing area that had been basically limited to Maryland and parts of Pennsylvania and Delaware. "Birdland" has been growing ever since.

In the first 4 years of the Williams-Peters administration, the O's nearly captured 3 pennants though they had to settle for one. They won 100 games in '80 and finished 2nd, 3 games back of the Yankees; played the Brewers for the division championship on the final day of the '82 season and lost; then won it all in '83.

There were some remarkable achievements during that period. In '80, for example, there was a 5-game series against the Yankees in Baltimore that drew 249,605, the largest turnout in history for a single series.

Then there was '82 when the O's went 33-10 (starting Aug 10) down the stretch to tie the Brewers on the next-to-last day of the season by beating them in 3 straight pressure-packed games at Memorial Stadium. On the climatic day, however, the Brewers won big, to clinch their first division championship.

Yet despite that crushing defeat most of more than over 51,000 fans remained in their seats for a full 45 minutes afterward. They stayed to applaud the players for their down-to-the-wire effort and to say goodbye to the manager Earl Weaver, whose retirement had officially begun at game's end.

The emotion expressed so warmly and spontaneously by those loyal Orioles fans made it difficult to tell, in the dusk of that autumn afternoon, who had won the game and who had lost.

It was in '82 also that the son of the Orioles 3rd base coach, Cal Ripken Jr took his place in the Orioles starting lineup, a position he has not relinquished since-even for one game, and joined with Eddie Murray, the Orioles all-time home run champion, to form an awesome 1-2 punch.

THE LAST HURRAH FOR AWHILE

Joe Altobelli, an old Orioles organization veteran who'd been on a 6-year sabbatical, replaced Earl Weaver in '83, and right off the bat led the club to that elusive 3rd world championship.

They won their division by 6 games, then defeated Roland Hemond's White Sox at Comiskey Park in a decisive Game #4 of the ALCS, breaking a scoreless tie on a dramatic 10th inning home run by the newest Oriole, Tito Landrum.

The Orioles, who had never lost the first game of a post-season event, dropped both of them in '83, and each time a gritty complete game effort by Mike Boddicker in game #2 restored the balance.

After splitting the first 2 World Series games in Baltimore, the action shifted 90 miles north to Veterans Stadium where the Phillies boasted the best home record in the National League. But, the Orioles swept the 3 Philadelphia games, then cruised happily home down 1-95 with their 3rd world title in hand.

In the 5th and final game, Rick Dempsey homered and doubled to clinch the World Series MVP award and Eddie Murray hit 2 electrifying home runs while Scott McGregor was blanking the Phillies on 5 hits.

The '83 champions boasted 2 dominating players in Murray and Ripken, and excellent pitching. But most observers credited the club's many role players with making the difference, for getting the most out of their abilities while submerging their own egos in the interest of winning.

RECONSTRUCTION

After that world championship, the Orioles' success on the field went into decline. The '84 and '85 seasons were modest, though winning ones, but from '86 thru '91, a 6-year span the O's lost more games than any club in the majors (194-291, .400). This unaccustomed series of setbacks climaxed in '88 when the Orioles went 0-21 at the start of the season, and ultimately lost a club record 107 games.

By then, however, the Orioles' reconstruction plan had already begun in earnest. Edward Bennett Williams had signaled the start of the massive rebuilding project with a series of personnel decisions during the fall of '87. He replaced Hank Peters and Farm Director Tom Giordano with Roland Hemond and Doug Melvin, and brought Frank Robinson into the policy making process. The following May he appointed as president Larry Lucchino, a long-time associate who had been a club vice president as well as the general counsel during most of Williams' tenure as club owner.

At the same time, Williams renewed his commitment to restore the club to its customary level of competitiveness by redeveloping the farm system, and returning to fundamentals. When he passed away in August '88, the pieces were in place for an orderly takeover by Eli Jacobs' new ownership group which is equally dedicated to a bright Orioles future.

It has been under Jacobs' regime that the Orioles pulled off 2 of the most remarkable turnarounds in AL history and engineered a thoroughly successful transition from one great era in Orioles history to another--the move from Memorial Stadium to Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

In '89, the O's improved 32 1/2 games from the previous season, but came up 2 games short after an unforgettable final weekend series in Toronto's SkyDome.

GOODBYE OLD FRIEND

For 38 years, Memorial Stadium hosted more than 3000 Orioles games (3036 to be exact, including 30 in post-season). They won some (1706- more than their share), lost some (1321- 385 fewer) and some ended in a tie (9).

The relationship between the Orioles and Memorial Stadium began officially on Apr 15, '54 and ended Oct 6, '91, when at 5:07 pm Cal Ripken bounced into a 5-4-3 double play, completing a 7-1 loss to Detroit.

On that final day, more than 100 past and present Orioles returned to the field in an emotional post-game tribute. Unbeknownst to the fans, Orioles management brought back scores of ex-Orioles, put them in their old uniforms and had them return to their positions on the field. There were no introductions (none were needed), just the public address system eerily playing the music from the movie "Field of Dreams".

The dream-like scene illicited the following response afterward from ex-Oriole Tom Shopay: "You simply can't do this today in baseball. No other organization has done it because none can. This is simply a class organization. I got tears in my eyes out there, but I don't feel bad because I saw a lot of guys with tears in their eyes." They weren't alone. Many in the crowd of 50,700 felt the same way.

The Orioles brought their magic with them in their first season at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. The O's 22-game improvement was the 2nd best in club history, bowing only to the miraculous '89 season.

THE ST LOUIS BROWNS

The St Louis Browns, the franchise from which the current Orioles descend originated in Milwaukee in '01, the American League's first season. Before the '02 season began, the franchise had moved to St Louis. It was after that same campaign that the original AL Orioles went to New York.

The Browns, who took the name that originated with St Louis teams in the late 1800s, played 52 seasons ('02-'53) in St Louis and were probably the most consistently bad club in major league history. They were 3,416-4,465, .433 (that's more than 1,000 games under .500); wound up in the 2nd division (5th thru 8th) 40 times; won just one pennant ('44, a war year) and finished 2nd only twice ('02 & '22).

George Sisler, one of 12 Hall of Famers who played and/or managed for the Browns was certainly the club's all-time best (and most significant) player. He would do credit to any franchise. In 13 seasons with the Brownies ('15 thru '27), he twice hit over .400 ('20-.407, '22-.420) and had a career average of .340.

Another outstanding contributor was outfielder Ken Williams. He is not in the Hall of Fame, but he hit over .300 nine times in 10 St Louis seasons and in '22 batted .332 with 34 doubles, 39 homers and 155 RBI. He was the home run champion that year with 4 more than Babe Ruth, and was the first ever to join the so-called "30-30" club-30 or more steals and 30 or more homers in the same year.

As you can see, '22 was a big year for both Sisler and Williams and the Browns set a club record for wins-93 (it was the only time in the history of the franchise that they reached the 90-victory level). They finished 2nd, one game back of the Yankees.

Despite the heroics of Sisler and Williams, however, when fans recall the Browns, they probably think first of a couple of guys named Gray and Gaedel.

Pete Gray, who had only one arm (his left), appeared in 77 games for the Browns in '45 (the last wartime season) at the age of 28. He batted .218 (234-51) with no homers and 13 RBI, and never returned to the big time.

The appearance of Eddie Gaedel, at 3'7" and 65 pounds, was a product of club owner Bill Veeck's creative genius. The 26-year old signed in '51 as a pinch hitter and, in his only plate appearance he did what he was paid for, he drew a walk.

As a surprise pinch hitter for leadoff batter Frank Saucier in the home half of the first inning, little Eddie was walked on 4 pitches by Detroit pitcher Bob Cain, then was promptly replaced by pinch runner Jim Delsing.

The '44 AL pennant winners went 89-65 to finish one game ahead of the Tigers. They lost the World Series in 6 games played entirely in one stadium (Sportsman's Park was also the regular season home of the Cardinals). The Browns won games No. 1 and No. 3 behind Denny Galehouse and Jack Kramer, respectively. The Browns' only home run in the series was hit by lst baseman George McQuinn.

In June '51, Bill DeWitt, who had been with the Browns since '16 (when Branch Rickey was GM), and his brother, Charles, sold their controlling interest to Bill Veeck. He operated the club for the next 2 1/2 seasons. Twice in '53, Veeck attempted to bring the franchise to Baltimore himself but could not get the necessary approval from American League owners. Subsequently (Sep 29, '53), he sold his holdings to a group of Baltimore businessmen and the transfer was approved unanimously.

ST LOUIS BROWNS HALL OF FAME

The Browns are gone, but not forgotten. The St Louis Browns Fan Club, organized by Maryville College Professor Bill Borst in '84, is alive and well.

In '85 the club even established a Browns Hall of Fame on the campus at Maryville (in St. Louis). The following 27 members have been elected since then (Baseball Hall of Famers in boldface):

ORIOLES ENSHRINED AT COOPERSTOWN

Reggie Jackson, who played with the Orioles for one year ('76, when he led the club in homers with 27), was selected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in January, the 8th modern Oriole to be chosen, the 7th in a 12-year period (starting '82).

He was also the 4th Oriole, along with Frank and Brooks Robinson and Jim Palmer, to be selected in his first year of eligibility. They are 4 of only 24 first ballot electees among the 212 Hall of Fame members.

Palmer polled 92.6% of the total vote (411 of 444 ballots cast) in '90, the highest percentage ever by an Oriole and 3rd among Hall of Fame pitchers behind Tom Seaver (98.8%, 425 of 430), and the legendary Bob Feller (93.75% in '62). Seaver's percentage was the highest ever recorded in a Baseball Hall of Fame election.

Jim, Frank and Brooks are the only three Hall of Famers wearing modern Orioles uniforms in their official busts/portraits.

Fifteen others who played and/or managed for the Orioles during the Orioles' early days of Baltimore's rich baseball heritage are also enshshrined in the Hall:

3 More: There are 3 additional Hall of Famers to have represented the Orioles, though not as players: George Weiss, who immortalized himself as a general manager of the Yankees, served part of his apprenticeship as an International League Orioles general manager; the late Luke Appling, a legendary hitter/ shortstop for the White Sox coached one year under Birds' Manager Billy Hitchcock and the late Burleigh Grimes, the famed spitball pitcher who won 270 games in the majors, scouted for the Orioles from '60 thru '71.

Notes: John McGraw had a .334 lifetime batting average in 16 big league seasons but was elected to the Hall of Fame primarily because of his achievements as a manager. The same is true of his buddy, Wilbert Robinson. Rube Marquard pitched only 30 innings for the Orioles, all in '27.

Baltimore-born Babe Ruth signed his first pro contract with Jack Dunn Sr in '14, and made his professional debut with the Orioles (IL) that year as a pitcher. Chief Bender was based in Baltimore twice. He pitched both for the '27 Orioles (G-18, W-6 L-3) and the '15 Baltimore Terrapins (W-4, L-16) in the ill-fated Federal League.

Other native Marylanders in the Hall of Fame include "Home Run Baker" (Trappe), Lefty Grove (Lonaconing), and 3 others who never played for the Orioles: Jimmie Foxx (Sudlersville), Judy Johnson (Snow Hill) and Al Kaline (Baltimore).

THE ORIOLES HALL OF FAME

The Orioles Hall of Fame was conceived in '77 by the Oriole Advocates at the suggestion of 2 former presidents, Allen Barrett and Jack Buckley, both of whom have since passed away. The Advocates continue to administer the annual elections, this year under the direction of Hall of Fame Committee chairman Bob Bates, DDS.

There are 2 ways a candidate can enter the Orioles Hall of Fame: the regular Orioles Hall of Fame vote, by a constituency of some 80 people comprising sports writers and announcers, Oriole Advocates and Orioles personnel; and by vote of the veterans committee, a group of 25 senior representatives from the sports media, the Oriole Advocates and the Orioles front office. To be eligible for veteran committee selection, the candidate must have ceased serving in the capacity of consideration for at least 20 years.

The veterans committee was formed in '89 in an effort to offset any injustices inflicted on those who might have been passed over unfairly by younger voters not familiar with the extent of their contributions to the Orioles. Five Orioles have gained admission to the O's Hall of Fame by veterans vote: Stu Miller, Jim Gentile, Hank Bauer and Hal Skinny Brown and Gene Woodling.

The procedures in both elections are based on those used by the National Baseball Hall of Fame, requiring mention on 75% of ballots cast. Candidates to be eligible for either selection process, must have served a minimum of 3 full years with the Orioles.

To be eligible for the regular election, a player manager or coach must have ceased serving in the position for which he was nominated for at least one year.

ORIOLE ADVOCATES

The Oriole Advocates, Inc is a unique non-profit organization, dedicated to promoting and stimulating interest in the game of baseball at both the amateur and professional levels. Founded in July 1960, the Advocates will celebrate their 33rd anniversary this summer.

Membership comprises some 75 men and women, drawn from a broad cross-section in the Baltimore area.

Through the years, the Advocates have made substantial financial donations to worthy causes, primarily to baseball-oriented youth organizations; have played a key role in the restoration of Babe Ruth's birthplace at 216 Emory Street and its conversion into the Babe Ruth/Orioles Museum; and in 1977, established the Orioles Hall of Fame.

The organization has also served as an essential right arm to the Orioles' Public Relations and Marketing Departments. In that connection, the Advocates initiated the popular Junior Orioles program (low cost tickets for kids) back in 1963, then administered it for 25 years. Membership in that program rose from 75 youngsters the first year to a record 20,000 in 1977.

The "Junior Orioles" Program over the years evolved into the "The Orioles Fantastic Fans Club". This year the "Junior Orioles" program has returned and the Advocates will be involved every step of the way. The Advocates also serve as distributors of Orioles souvenirs on giveaway days at the ballpark, assuring that all eligible fans get the items to which they are entitled.

The Oriole Advocates don't get paid for anything they do. They are all volunteers, constantly demonstrating the importance of competence and dedication whenever there is a job to be done.

ORIOLES "DESIGNATED HITTERS"

The Orioles "Designated Hitters", now into their 14th season, are a group of volunteers, business men and women from the Baltimore-Washington areas, who sell Orioles season tickets on the club's behalf.

The organization was created late in '79, and in its first 5 years of operation, the Orioles' season ticket sales ballooned by over 700% from 1,623 in '79 to 11,738 in '84. Last season, the Orioles' first at Oriole Park, season sales reached a record 25,000.

To qualify for membership in the "Designated Hitters", candidates must meet demanding sales minimums according to a formula based on a blend of new sales and renewals, and everyone must requalify each year.

For the last 3 years ('90-'92), the leading sales person has been Gordon Kennard. All qualifiers are eligible for the annual spring junket to Florida while the Orioles are training.

Patterned after the Kansas City Royals' highly successful "Royal Lancers", the "Designated Hitters" organization was actually founded in September, 1979 by then Baltimore City Mayor William Donald Schaefer and a select group of Baltimoreans working closely with the Orioles' front office.

The concept was to attract people from the business community to serve as the ballclub's principal season ticket sales representatives. The results have been dramatic.

Along with former Mayor (now Governor) Schaefer, the "founding fathers" of the "Designated Hitters" included: Owen Daly, Bill Beasman and Chris Hartman; the Orioles' Vice President for Business Affairs Bob Aylward; and former club Vice President Al Harazin, now executive vice president/general manager for the New York Mets.

The "DHs" have their own officers and board of directors , as well as an active social program. The DH Board: President--Jack Hughes; Steve Attman, Bill Michael, Jody Palmissano, Eamonn McGeady, Greg Diethorn, Howard Weinberg, Tim Redmond, and Hal Hackerman.

*Defeated Elizabethton 2 games to 1 to win Appalachian League championship

1992 SEASON SUMMARY

Bluefield won its' first Appalachian League championship in 10 years, Class A pitcher Rick Krivda became the Orioles' first minor league strikeout champion in 8 years and Frederick's Stanton Cameron hit more home runs than any Oriole minor leaguer in 5 years. Among the many bright spots of the Orioles' 1992 minor league season, those burned as radiantly as any.

The Orioles' 325-355 (.478) minor league record was buoyed by the play of the Rookie League Bluefield Orioles, an O's affiliate for the past 35 years. The Baby Birds won the regular season Northern Division title with a 37-25 record, then knocked off the Southern Division champion Elizabethton Twins, 2 games to 1, in the championship series.

Krivda was the Orioles Minor League Pitcher of the Year (Palmer Prize winner named for Hall-of-Famer Jim Palmer). He led the minor leagues with 188 strikeouts, edging out Yankee farmhand and number one pick Brien Taylor (187). The last Oriole to win a minor league strikeout crown was Ken Dixon in '84. Krivda's 17 wins, 5 with Frederick (A) and 12 with Kane County (A), were the most by an Oriole farmhand since Blaine Beatty won 17 games for Hagerstown (A) and Charlotte (AA) in '87.

Cameron, the O's Minor League Player of the Year, hit 29 home runs for Frederick, the most by an Oriole minor leaguer since Tom Dodd belted 37 at AA Charlotte in 1987. The last Class A Oriole to hit that many homers was Ken Gerhart who hit 31 with Hagerstown in 1983.

In addition, both of the O's Class A teams, Frederick and Kane County, finished 1-2 in attendance among all Class A teams. By season's end, Kane County had been replaced as an Oriole affiliate by Albany (GA) in the South Atlantic League. A brand new park - the Paul Eames Sports Complex - awaits the Polecat players next season.

ORIOLES ADD ANOTHER NEW PARK WITH AFFILIATION IN SOUTH ATLANTIC LEAGUE

The Orioles, proud inhabitants of the majors league's newest ballpark, Oriole Park at Camden Yards, will have 2 more brand new minor league facilities as well in 1993 giving the organization 4 of the newest parks in professional baseball.

The Orioles will have 2 new minor league affiliates this season and both will have new ballparks. The Albany Polecats, the O's new affiliate in the Class A South Atlantic League, will be playing in the Paul Eames Sports Complex, a 4,500-seat park currently under construction. In addition, there is a proposed park in Bowie, MD, home of the O's new Class AA Eastern League franchise.

The Frederick Keys in the Class A Carolina League already play in a beautiful park, Grove Stadium, completed in 1990.

Rochester Red Wings, Class AAA, International League
Final Record: W-70, L-74, Pct-.486, Mgr: Jerry Narron
Standing:3rd Place, 15 GB

Under first year Manager Jerry Narron, the Red Wings finished with only their 2nd losing season (70-74) in the last 7 years. At one point, the Red Wings lost 20 of 24, then came back to win 20 of the next 24. LHPs Arthur Rhodes and Brad Pennington were among Baseball America's Top 10 International League prospects. Pennington, who pitched at all 3 levels of the O's minor league system, held AAA hitters to a .101 (119-12) average. At Frederick, Hagerstown and Rochester combined, he fanned 104 batters in 76.1 innings (12.3 per 9 innings). With a .313 batting average, OF Luis Mercedes finished 2nd in the International League by .00005 behind Columbus' JT Snow. In his last 4 seasons, Mercedes has won 2 batting titles (Carolina and Eastern) and finished 2nd in the IL league the past 2 years. C Mark Parent, the only Red Wing chosen to the Triple A All-Star game, finished 5th in the IL in home runs (17) and was 2nd in the league with a .497 slugging mark.

LONGEST AFFILIATIONS

Only 3 minor league baseball teams have affiliations with the same parent club continuously since 1961, and 2 of them are part of the O's farm system. Bluefield, the O's rookie team in the Appalachian League since 1958, has baseball's longest current affiliation. Next is Lakeland (Class A, Florida State League), with Detroit since 1960 and Rochester, the Orioles AAA team in the International League since 1961.

ORIOLES FIRST ROUND PICKS

In the 10 years before Roland Hemond became GM of the Orioles ('78-'87), the club didn't have one 1st round pick make it to the ML. However, in the five years under Hemond, the club has reversed that trend: 1988, Gregg Olson; 1989, Ben McDonald; 1990, Mike Mussina; 1991, Mark Smith; and 1992, Jeffrey Hammonds.

OF Jim Wawruck was 3rd in the CL in batting (.309). LHP Terry Farrar led the league in innings (182.1) and complete games (5).

THE BABE RUTH MUSEUM

Located at 216 Emory Street, the Babe Ruth Birthplace and Baseball Center is just 6 blocks west of Baltimore's Inner Harbor and only 2 blocks from Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

The Birthplace was officially established in 1971 as an historic landmark and shrine to commemorate the birthplace of the most famous and popular American athlete of all time. It was expanded in 1983 to become the official museum of the Baltimore Orioles.

The Babe Ruth Birthplace is open daily: 10 to 5 (April through October) and 10 to 4 (November through March). On Orioles home game dates, the museum will remain open until 7 pm. The Birthplace is the second largest baseball museum in America, sporting over 26 exhibits on the Orioles, Babe Ruth and Maryland baseball history.

And there's more to come, too. Just in time for the 1993 All-Star Game scheduled at Oriole Park at Camden Yards, a second museum building will open at Emory and Portland Streets, cater-corner to the Birthplace. The new 25,000 sq. ft. facility will feature an expanded Orioles Museum, exhibits on Maryland's Negro Leagues and amateur baseball, plus a large replica of Memorial Stadium in the grand reception area.

INSIDE THE PARK HOME RUNS

The Orioles were not involved in any inside-the-park home runs in 1992, either at Oriole Park or on the road.

On June 8, '90, Phil Bradley became the most recent Bird to hit one...He hit the 11th (off Greg Cadaret of the Yankees) and last inside-the-park home run in Memorial Stadium history, the 10th by an Oriole, and the only inside-homer by anyone in the stadium's last 17 seasons as an AL ballpark...Bradley's drive was the first on 33rd Street since his childhood baby sitter, Al Bumbry, hit one off the Yankees' Steve Kline, Apr 19, '74.

In 38 seasons, only one visiting player hit an inside-the-park homer at Memorial Stadium...That was the Tigers' Bill Tuttle, on June 18, '55 off the O's Jim McDonald.

Bradley's remains the only inside-homer by an Oriole, home or away, since Bumbry connected in Chicago off Jesse Jefferson, Aug 21, '76.

REX BARNEY

The one-time Dodger righthander has worked with the Orioles in parts of 4 decades...He has served since the early '70s as the club's public address announcer, and in a variety of media and public relations capacities.

During the season, he does Orioles Talk, the daily Rex Barney Baseball Report on WBAL Radio, then fills in on that station's Sportsline show the rest of the year.

Rex pitched for the Dodgers in Brooklyn for 6 seasons ('43 '46-'50) before they moved west, and was inducted into the Brooklyn Dodgers Hall of Fame in June '89...He made his major league debut in '43 just before being called into military service...After 3 years in the US Army, much of it spent in the European theatre, he returned to the National League in '46 and went on to compile a 35-31 career record.

In '48, his best season, Rex went 15-13, pitched 246.2 innings, yielded only 193 hits, walked 122 and fanned 138. He had a 3.10 ERA that year, appeared in 44 games, started 34 and completed 12. The highlight of the season was a no-hitter against the hated Giants at the Polo Grounds on Sep 9.

He began his broadcasting career in '52 in New York, was a play-by-play announcer for Mutual Radio's Game of the Day from '55 to '57, and also did games in the New York area for WOR-TV. Rex was part of Home Team Sports' first Orioles crew that began doing games in '84 and remained with HTS until '90. A native of Omaha, Rex has lived in the Baltimore area since '64.

TOM DAVIS

Baltimore native Tom Davis has been with Home Team Sports since '84, the station's first season on the air...He hosts the Orioles pre- and post-game shows and provides in-game interviews and score updates as well as "The Orioles Report." When time permits, he munches on a hot dog or two, and any other goodies that friends and fans bring to this well-known gourmand at the ballpark.

Since '89, he has hosted Tom Davis' Sportsbeat on HTS, Fox 45, and other cable outlets and does a morning sports show on WQSR-FM (105.7) Radio. He also serves as a host on HTS talk & interview shows; has done play-by-play of O's games, and college basketball; and has covered hockey, boxing, and Redskins football.

He has gained national exposure doing NFL radio play-by-play and sideline reporting for NBC Radio and Television, ABC-TV and the Mutual Broadcasting System.

Tom, who has been a sportscaster in Baltimore for more than 20 years, is a 5-time winner of the Maryland Sportscaster of the Year Award ('78, '84, '85, '89 & '90). A Calvert Hall and University of Baltimore graduate, Tom lives in Baltimore County with his wife, Linda, and children Malinda and Tad.

SCOTT GARCEAU

For the 2nd straight season, Scott calls play-by-play on television when Jon Miller is on assignment...The award-winning sports anchor on WMAR-TV (the O's flagship station) continues his role as host of "Orioles on Deck," the pre-game show.

Actually, he's been connected with Orioles telecasts since the early '80s, in the capacity of pre-game host and, since '86, as a substitute announcer.

Part of the Baltimore sports scene since '80, he arrived at WMAR-TV following stops in Marquette, Michigan (WLUC-TV, '72-'76) and Albuquerque, New Mexico (KGGM-TV, '76-'80)...During his stay in out West, he did play-by-play on KOB radio of University of New Mexico football and basketball and was named the state's Sportscaster of the Year in both '77 and '78...He later won the same award for the state of Maryland in '86.

In addition to Orioles games and his position as sports anchor at Channel 2, he was the original host of WMAR-TV's Sunday Night Sports Extra and since 1988-89, broadcasts Loyola College basketball on radio.

Before that, he did pre-season Colts games play-by-play on television ('81-'83) and was the radio voice of the Baltimore Stars in the USFL during their championship '85 season. His break into the electronic media came as a 19-year old in '71 at WJPD-AM, a 1000 watt radio station in his hometown of Ishpeming, Michigan (located on Lake Michigan in the Upper Peninsula).

A frequent banquet MC and speaker, he has taken roots in the community with his charitable work with the Hopkins Children's Center, Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, Save-A-Heart and by hosting a golf tournament for the benefit of Facets Boys Home in Harford County (MD). He resides in Fallston, MD with his wife of 18 years, Georgeanna and daughters Kelly (3/18/81) and Danielle (11/19/82).

JOHN LOWENSTEIN

Former Orioles outfielder John Lowenstein has been doing color on Home Team Sports' baseball broadcasts for the last 9 years...He played his last game for the O's on May 4, '85 and before the month was out, began his television career in the HTS broadcast booth.

John's major league career--with the Indians, Rangers, and Orioles--began in '70 at Cleveland and spanned 16 seasons, the last 7 in Baltimore.

"Brother Lo," as he was known affectionately during his playing days, was a key member of the Orioles' left field combined in '82 and '83, along with Gary Roenicke and, to a lesser degree, Benny Ayala.

In '82, O's left fielders combined for a .283 average (608-172), 41 homers and 123 RBI and the following year, the world championship season, .292 (612-179), 35 homers and 131 RBI.

His most memorable hit in an Orioles uniform was a game-ending homer (10th inning) in the first game of the '79 ALCS off California's John Montague. John was born and grew up in Wolf Point, Montana (1/27/47), but he and his wife, Barbara, now make their permanent home in Las Vegas .

FRED MANFRA

The Orioles' newest radio voice is a longtime friend and Baltimore native, Fred Manfra...The award-winning sportscaster has been heard across the country since '81 doing 22 shows per weekend on over 500 ABC Radio Information Network stations.

Fred, 46, moves into the booth following the departure of Joe Angel who landed the job as the radio voice of the first-year Florida Marlins...This is not the first time Fred has been heard doing Orioles games, he called some play-by-play as recently as 2 seasons ago in a series at Memorial Stadium...Even before that, in the late '70s, he periodically did O's games on WBAL radio.

His baseball experience also included a stint with the Detroit Tigers on a cable station in '80...But, baseball is only one of the many sports Fred has announced...His resume includes some of the most prestigious events in the business such as:

- NBA Finals and NBA All-Star Games, 1985-91
- Olympic Games '84, US men's and women's basketball
- Horse Racing's Triple Crown (Kentucky Derby, Preakness at Pimlico and the Belmont Stakes), 1982-92
- NHL Stanley Cup Finals and All-Star Game, 1991
- Olympic Games '88, US hockey

In fact, his Olympics assignments have taken him to Sarajevo, Yugoslavia and Los Angeles (in '84); Calgary, Alberta and Seoul, South Korea (in '88) and Albertville, France and Barcelona, Spain (in '92) to do among other things, the Opening and Closing Ceremonies, anchoring, play-by-play and hourly updates.

Fred began his radio career in the early '70s with KREL in Corona, CA and moved eastward with stops in Ventura, CA (KBBQ-FM/KBBY-FM); Davenport, Iowa (KSTT-AM); Milwaukee, WI (WRIT-AM) and Detroit (WWJ-AM) in addition to AP Radio Network Sports in Washington, DC before settling in the New York area with ABC Network Radio.

Rounding out his repertiore, he has done college football and basketball for the University of Iowa ('75), the University of Michigan ('79-'80), Madison Square Garden Network ('87-present) as well as USFL and Arena football, New York Knicks basketball, boxing and wrestling.

Along the way, Fred received awards for his live action and studio reports...He has also done voicework for Madison Square Garden Network and for professional football team highlights films and the Sports Year in Review for ABC Radio Network ('83-present).

Fred and his wife, Marlene, are the parents of 2 daughters, both athletes: Michelle (5/2/78), who plays tennis, and Stephanie (11/20/81), who is a first baseman and the only female on her neighborhood Little League team...Currently residing in Middletown, NJ, Fred and his family plan on moving to Fallston for the baseball season.

It appears as though it was inevitable that Fred's career plans would eventually bring him home...One of his athletic highlights is a double he hit off the left field wall at Memorial Stadium in an American Legion game and under his photo in his high school yearbook (Patterson HS, Class of '64), it said: "Fred's...future plans are in...Radio-T.V. work."

JON MILLER

One of Baseball's finest announcers, Jon again does play-by-play for the Orioles on WMAR-TV and WBAL Radio, and will also describe the action for ESPN Sunday Night Baseball.

Jon's ability is hardly a secret around the country. This will be the 8th season of regular nationwide exposure (4 years with NBC-TV and the last 4 seasons including '93 on ESPN).

He further enhanced his national reputation by winning an ACE Award, emblematic of cable television excellence, in January, '91...He was chosen for his play-by-play work on ESPN in '90...Has been nominated for the award all 3 years he has been with ESPN.

This year Jon is teamed with Fred Manfra on WBAL Radio...On television he will be broadcasting with Hall-of-Famers Brooks Robinson on WMAR-TV, and Joe Morgan on ESPN.

His major league baseball career began at the age of 22 with the Oakland A's in '74...After that, he did radio and television for the Texas Rangers ('78-'79) before moving on to Boston where he spent 3 more years in the Red Sox radio booth ('80-'82)...He joined the Orioles broadcast team in '83.

Jon has had an extensive background in basketball, soccer and hockey during his 20 years in broadcasting. He did 10-15 games a season for the NBA's Golden State Warriors ('79-'82) and prior to that did University of San Francisco basketball for 5 seasons.

He has also done considerable soccer play-by-play for the San Jose Earthquakes and the Washington Diplomats in the North American Soccer League (NASL) for CBS TV ('77).

A renowned impressionist, Jon convincingly imitates such talented baseball announcers as Harry Caray, Vin Scully, and Chuck Thompson during breaks in the action and on the banquet circuit.

During the off-season Jon was busy working as a moderator in Washington, DC at the Smithsonian's "Campus on the Mall" program...He has been invited back this spring to participate in the "Voices of the Game" program at the Smithsonian, along with fellow announcers Vin Scully, Harry Caray, Mel Allen, Ernie Harwell, and the newest Hall-of-Famer Chuck Thompson.

Jon was honored in '86 as Baltimore's Best Radio Sportscaster by Baltimore Magazine and Best Play-by-Play Broadcaster by Washington Magazine. A native of the San Francisco Bay area, Jon now lives in Cockeysville, MD (northern Baltimore suburbs) with his wife, Janine, and their children Michelle, Holly, Emilie, and Alexander.

JIM PALMER

Jim reprises his role with the HTS Orioles broadcast crew in '93. He'll work up to 35 games, either play-by-play when Mel Proctor is away on other assignments, or as a 2nd analyst (and 3rd man) in the booth.

Broadcasting: Jim, who did some occasional play-by-play work with HTS in the 80s, had 13 years experience as an analyst on ABC-TV (ending '89) and ESPN ('90)...He was part of the WMAR-TV lineup for 3 seasons ('89-'91)...He was nominated for an ACE award, cable television's reward for excellence after his one season at ESPN.

Baseball Hall of Fame: Jim reached the pinnacle of his baseball career when he was elected to baseball's Hall of Fame on the first ballot in January, '90 and received a higher percentage of votes (411 out of 444 ballots cast or 92.5 per cent) than any pitcher except Bob Feller (93.75 per cent)....Last year, Tom Seaver surpassed them both with a 98.83 percentage (425 of 430) the highest ever recorded by a player regardless of position.

Pitching Distinctions: Unquestionably the finest pitcher in the Orioles' 39-year history, Jim is one of 5 whose uniform number (22) has been retired along with Brooks (5) and Frank (20) Robinson, Earl Weaver (4), and Eddie Murray (33). He holds many club records including most wins (268), losses (152), games (558), innings (3948), shutouts (53), complete games (211), strikeouts (2212), and walks (1311).

He won 20 games 8 times, earned 3 Cy Young Awards, started and went the route to win the pennant-clinching game 4 times ('66, '69, '70, '71), and was 8-3 in post-season play while pitching for the O's over a span of 20 years ('65 thru '84).

During his entire career, he never gave up a grand slam home run in regular or post-season play (little known fact: Johnny Bench hit one off him in the International League during Jim's brief stint with Rochester in '67).

Last Hurrah: Made his final start at Chicago, Apr 23, '84, but did not get a decision. Pitched in his last game as an Oriole in relief at Memorial Stadium on May 12, '84 against Oakland, but again was not a pitcher of record...His final career victory was in Game 3 of the '83 World Series at Philadelphia (see post-season below).

Earned his 268th and last regular season win on Sep 30, '83, a 3-2 win over the Yankees at Baltimore in the 2nd game of a doubleheader.

Lifetime Victories/20-Win Seasons: Jim ranks 29th on the all-time list in victories...He is one of only 3 pitchers in the 91-year history of the AL to have won 20 or more games in 8 or more seasons, along with Lefty Grove (8 last time in '35) and Walter Johnson (12, last time in '25)...The last major leaguer to do it was Warren Spahn (13 times the last in '63).

Only 6 who have worked exclusively in the 20th century have won 20 or more 8 times, and in the entire history of the major leagues, Jim is one of only 16. He put that string together over a 9-year period from '70 thru '78 (was 7-12 in '74)... He was 176-97 with a 2.54 ERA during that 9-season stretch.

Earned Run Average: His 2.8564 ERA is 4th on the all-time list, since ERA became an official statistic ('12 in NL and '13 in AL) among pitchers with 3,000 or more innings, behind: (1) Walter Johnson-2.37; (2) Grover C. Alexander-2.56; and (3) Whitey Ford-2.74. He ranks just ahead of No. 5 Tom Seaver (2.8626)...He twice led the league ('73 & '75) and was in the loop's "Top 5" 10 times.

Pennant Clinchers: Since Jim pitched the O's first 4 pennant clinchers, Scott McGregor ('79) and Tippy Martinez ('83) have added their names to the list.

Post-Season: His overall record in 17 post-season appearances, including 15 starts, was 8-3 with a 2.61 ERA (IP-124.1 ER-36). In '66, he became the youngest ever to pitch a World Series shutout when at the age of 20 years-11 months-21 days, he blanked the Dodgers' Sandy Koufax, 6-0 on 4 hits (LA made 6 errors) in Game 2 at Dodger Stadium...That was Koufax' final major league appearance.

In '83, Jim became the first (and remains the only) pitcher in history to have won a World Series game in each of 3 decades...In that Game 3 at Philadelphia, he bested Steve Carlton after hurling 2 scoreless innings in relief of Mike Flanagan.

He is tied for 2nd (with 6 others) with 4 LCS victories. Oakland's Dave Stewart took over the lead with his 5th win in '90 and now has 6...Jim holds the record by himself for most LCS complete games (5)...He and Nolan Ryan are tied for most career LCS strikeouts (46), while he and former teammate Mike Cuellar have walked the most in ALCS competition (19).

Cy Youngs: Jim is one of only 5 to have won as many as 3 Cy Youngs ('73 '75 '76)...Steve Carlton won 4, while Seaver, Koufax and Roger Clemens have earned 3 each...The award has been presented since '56 with individual league awards beginning in '67...Jim, Koufax, Denny, McLain and Clemens are the only ones to have earned the award in consecutive seasons.

Personal: He has been an activist on behalf of the Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation for 2 decades, serving much of that time as its national sports chairman...He has been the sports representative for Jockey Underwear since the spring of '80...In '83, he was the sports recipient of the American Image Award, sponsored by the Male Apparel Industry and the Men's Fashion Association of America. Jim and his wife, the former Joni Pearlstone, were married Apr 7, '90 and live in Brooklandville, MD. Born 10/15/45 in New York City, Jim attended both Arizona State and Towson State Universities...He has 2 daughters, Jamie Michelle (11/16/66) and Kelly Christina (6/5/69).

MEL PROCTOR

Mel is in his 21st year as an announcer, and his 10th as the Orioles' play-by-play voice for Home Team Sports...One of the busiest broadcasters in the business, he handles a variety of on-air assignments for HTS, including play-by-play for the NBA's Washington Bullets.

Mel has also done basketball and boxing for Turner Broadcasting (last 5 years); The Rose Bowl, Fiesta Bowl and NFL Football for NBC television and radio; college basketball for CBS-TV, (including the NCAA tournament '91, '92, and '93).

In '86, he took a short break from Orioles baseball to do men's basketball play-by-play for TBS from the Goodwill Games in Spain...Four years later, he was part of the crew that covered Goodwill Games boxing in Seattle.

He began his career as sports director at the CBS-TV affiliate in Hawaii (KGMB) from '73 until '78. While there, he worked the microphone for Hawaii Islanders (AAA) baseball, University of Hawaii football and basketball, and did one season for the Hawaiians of the World Football League.

He came to work in the Nation's Capital for the first time in '78 when he began a 5-year stint as play-by-play announcer for Washington Bullets basketball on flagship station WTOP-AM. During the Bullets' off-seasons, Mel worked in Arlington, Texas as the television and radio voice of the Texas Rangers...In '82 and '83, he supplemented his work with the Bullets by doing college basketball games for NBC-TV.

For two seasons ('83-'84 and '84-'85), Mel served as the play-by-play man for the NBA's New Jersey Nets. It was during that time that he also worked the NFL Game of the Week radio broadcasts for the Mutual Broadcasting System.

This off-season, Mel appeared in the new television show "Homicide" set in Baltimore...His recurring character is a newspaper reporter.

A native of Denver, CO, Mel resides in Ellicott City, MD with his wife, Julie, and their children, Bill and Maile.

BROOKS CALBERT ROBINSON JR.

HALL OF FAME: See page 226.

PERSONAL: Brooks is doing color commentary on the Orioles' television for the 16th straight year...He is also active as vice-president of Shapiro Robinson and Associates and as a special assistant with Crown Central Petroleum Company.

A native of Little Rock, AR, Brooks lives with his wife of 32 years, Connie, in Baltimore and Southern California. Brooks and Connie (nee Butcher), a former United Airlines flight attendant, met on an Orioles' charter flight (KC to Boston) in '59...They have four children: Brooks David, Chris, Michael, and Dianne.

BIG LEAGUE CAREER: Brooks officially spent 20 years and 72 days as a player in the American League, spanning 23 seasons.

He played in 2896 major league games, all of them with the Orioles, 8th on the all-time list (Pete Rose leads at 3562). Only Carl Yastrzemski (3308) and Ty Cobb (3033) have played more American League games, and only 3 others in big league history have played more with one franchise: Yastrzemski (3308), Hank Aaron (3076), and Stan Musial (3026).

Durability: Played in 97 pct of all Orioles games from July 9, '59 (when he returned from the minors for the last time) thru May 16, '76 a period of more than 16 -1/2 years...Played at least 153 games in 14 of 15 years from '60 thru '75.

In the Orioles' 39-year history, only 5 other 3rd basemen have played as many as 200 games at that position (Doug DeCinces-792, Craig Worthington-332, Leo Gomez-254, Rich Dauer-242, and Floyd Rayford-203).

Opening Days: Started 20 consecutive opening day games for the Orioles from '57 thru '76 and batted .316 (79-25) with 6 home runs and 17 RBI.

Home Runs/RBI: Led AL in RBI (118) in '64, and also achieved a career high of 28 home runs that year...Hit 17 or more homers nine times, 11 or more 11 times...His 139 homers at Memorial Stadium rank 2nd only to Eddie Murray's 160...Had 6 career grand slams, 4 of them in Baltimore.

Hitting: Hit most home runs (37) and drove in most runs (l67) against the Red Sox...Twice put together strings of 8 straight hits: July 10 thru 15, '60 and Aug 21 thru 23, '63.

Holds club records for games, at bats, runs, hits, doubles, triples, total bases, RBI, and extra-base hits...Has one-season mark for games (163, '61 & '64) and at bats (668, '61).

Fielding: Committed only 263 errors in 9,165 chances at 3rd base for a major league record lifetime fielding percentage of .971.

Appeared in a total of 29 games at 2nd base (24) and shortstop (5) and committed only one error in 31 chances...Played exclusively at 3rd base, '63-'77.

Gold Gloves: Brooks won Gold Gloves in 16 consecutive seasons, '60 through '75...The string was snapped by Detroit's Aurelio Rodriguez (who later played for the Orioles) in '76. While Brooks was active, the only other American Leaguers to win the award at the hot corner were Boston's Frank Malzone ('57 through '59) and New York's Graig Nettles ('77).

Brooks shares the record for most Gold Gloves with former pitcher Jim Kaat.

Believe it or Not: On July 28, '71 against Oakland, Brooks shocked everyone by making 3 errors, not only in the game, but in the same inning...Those miscues contributed to 2 unearned runs, and Oakland continued to lead 2-0 into the bottom of the 9th. However, all was quickly forgotten when Frank Robinson belted a 3-run homer off future Hall of Famer Rollie Fingers, lifting the O's to a 3-2 victory.

All-Star Games: Played in 18 consecutive All-Star games from '60 thru '74 (including two per year in '60, '61, '62)...Had lifetime average of .289 (13-for-45).

Selected MVP in '66 at St. Louis when he had 3 hits, including a home run while handling 8 chances in the field...Also homered in '67 game at Anaheim...Was a serious contender for the award in '64 (at Shea Stadium) and '70 (at Cincinnati), when he went 2-for-3, hit a triple, scored a run and drove in two others.

Hit 3 triples in All-Star play and didn't make an error in 43 fielding chances.

WS: Homered in his first WS at bat in first inning against Dodgers (at Dodger Stadium) in '66, immediately following Frank Robinson's 2-run homer (both off Don Drysdale).

Was landslide MVP in '70 vs. Reds...Hit .429 (9-for-21) and was brilliant on defense. His 9 hits tied record for most in 5-game series...He also contributed 6 RBI, 2 doubles, and 2 homers. Erred on first fielding chance, then handled 23 more flawlessly, many of them brilliantly. He stole at least 2 hits each from Johnny Bench and Lee May, and it was then that May gave him the nickname Hoover (as in vacuum cleaners).

ALCS: Had .486 average (18-for-37) after first 3 championship series (O's swept all in 3 straight games)...His lone hit in last LCS in '74 was a Game 1 homer off Oakland's Catfish Hunter.

Hatter Most Valuable Oriole: '60, '62, '64 and co-winner in '71 with Frank Robby...Commissioner's Trophy, now Roberto Clemente Award:(player best exemplifying the game of baseball) '72...Joe Cronin Award: (significant achievement by AL player) '77..."Most Memorable Personality" in Orioles history by vote of fans in '75.

Nothing is Forever: His 268th and last home run provided one of the most emotional experiences in Orioles' history. It was Apr 19, '77 at Memorial Stadium, the O's trailed the Indians, 5-3, in the 10th, with one out and 2 on. Brooks came to the plate as a pinch hitter for Larry Harlow...He ran the count to "3 & 2", fouled off a number of pitches, then hit a home run into the left field stands off reliever Dave LaRoche to win the game, 6-5...There were only 4,826 fans at the ballpark that night, but none of them will ever forget the moment.

Signed for '77 as player-coach, but became coach exclusively on Sunday, Aug 21, when he went on the voluntarily retired list (in Minnesota) to make room on the roster for catcher Rick Dempsey who was returning to duty after 6 weeks on the disabled list.

A crowd of 51,798, then an Orioles' record for a regular season game attended Thanks Brooks Day on Sunday, Sep 18, '77 against the Red Sox to pay tribute to the most important and beloved Oriole of modern times.

CHUCK THOMPSON

On Feb 9, the long overdue word came from Cooperstown that Chuck Thompson officially belonged in the Hall of Fame, an honor he so richly deserves...Chuck was named the '93 Ford C. Frick Award winner and with that distinction, takes his place in the broadasters wing along side the likes of former Orioles announcer Ernie Harwell, Harry Caray, Vin Scully, and Jack Buck (see complete list below)...He will be inducted into the Hall of Fame on Sunday, Aug 1.

1982	Vin Scully	1987	Jack Buck	1992	Milo Hamilton

Chuck, a long-time legend in our town, will again do roughly half of the Orioles games on radio in '93. He'll work with Fred Manfra in the WBAL booth when Jon Miller is doing television.

Chuck, who has been here for nearly 46 years, actually retired from the business back in '88, but fortunately it didn't last. He isn't full time (and doesn't want to be), but in this case a half a loaf is a thousand times better than none for those of us who have the pleasure of listening to him ply his craft.

Chuck was a veteran announcer before arriving in Baltimore, having started his career in '39 at WRAW in Reading, PA. From there, he went to Philadelphia's WIBG in '42 to do Temple University football.

During World War II, Chuck served in the Army and saw action in 3 major European campaigns. After the war he returned to Philadelphia, doing radio for the Phillies, Athletics, Warriors, Eagles and Rockets (hockey).

In '49, Chuck came to Baltimore, where he became the voice of the International League Orioles, the All-America Conference Colts, the Bullets, and Navy football.

In '55, he joined the National Brewing Company's team of announcers and during a 24-year association, he did American League Orioles games in '55-'56 and again from '62-'78. In between, he was the radio voice of the Washington

1993p306-307

Senators, '57-'61. For 2 seasons, '59-'60 he was on television doing NBC-TV's Game of the Week...Also in '60, he described the World Series between the Pirates and Yankees and is remembered for his call of Bill Mazeroski's famous Game 7, 9th-inning home run which won the championship for Pittsburgh.

He has been named the outstanding broadcaster in Maryland by the National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association on numerous occasions.

Chuck, equally acclaimed as the announcer for the Baltimore Colts, called the classic overtime playoff contest for the NFL title between the Colts and the New York Giants in December, '58; the Colts-Packers overtime playoff game for the NFL's Western Division championship in '65 (for CBS-TV) and the O's World Series games in '66, '69, '70, and '71.

He is a golfing and fishing enthusiast and his wife, Betty, is an outstanding cook. Chuck has 3 children and 6 grandchildren with a 7th due in July and one great grandchild expected around the same time.

TRIPLE PLAYS

The O's have executed 11 triple plays and hit into 15 in 39 seasons...There were 4 triple plays in the AL in 1992, and the Birds were involved in 3 of them, 2 on the wrong end...It had been more than 13 years since the O's had hit into a triple play...On Aug 7 at home vs. Cleveland, Brady Anderson flied into an 8-2-4-5 triple play...With the bases loaded, Anderson flied to center field (Kenny Lofton) who threw Leo Gomez out at the plate trying to score...Meanwhile, Tim Hulett tried to go from 2B to 3B and was thrown out, 2-5 (Sandy Alomar to Carlos Baerga to Jim Thome). On Aug 25, at home against California, the Orioles pulled the 11th triple play in club history...With runners on 1B and 3B, Gary Gaetti lined out to third baseman Leo Gomez, who stepped on the bag at 3B and threw to 1B to "triple up" Chad Curtis (L-5-5-3). The 3rd triple play the O's were involved in last season occurred at Seattle on Aug 30...With Randy Milligan at 1B and Brady Anderson at 2B, Mike Devereaux lined out to right fielder Jay Buhner who made a great catch while hitting the wall in right-center field...Both runners didn't think the ball would be caught and were running...Buhner threw the ball to 2B Harold Reynolds who tossed the ball to SS Omar Vizquel who stepped on second to get Anderson and then tagged Milligan...It was later determined that Milligan had passed Anderson on the base paths and was out at that point (Vizquel was still credited with the putout on Milligan because he was the closest Seattle player to the play, scored 9-4-6-6).

The other 10 triple plays excuted by the Orioles:

Aug 8, '90 at Oak: Line drive...Willie Randolph lined to Jeff Ballard...1-6-3 (Ballard, C.Ripken, Horn).

Jun 15, '89 vs. NY: Line drive...Steve Balboni lined to Cal Ripken...6-4-3 (C.Ripken, B.Ripken, Milligan).

Jun 10, '79 at Bal vs. Cle: "gitp" Buddy Bell...5-4-3 (DeCinces, Dauer, Murray).

Sep 9, '78 at Tor: "gitp" Rick Cerone... 5-4-3 (DeCindes, Dauer, Murray).

Jun 3, '77 at KC: Fly ball...John Wathan hit a sac fly to Pat Kelly in right. Fred Patek was caught off 1st and was out, Kelly to Mark Belanger to Billy Smith (2B), back to Belanger. Who then noticed Dave Nelson standing off 3rd base. He ran at him and tagged him out completing the rare (if not unique) game-ending triple play, giving the O's a 7-6 win. The play went 9-6-4-6-6.

Sep 29, '73 at Det: "gitp" Frank Howard... 5-4-3 (B.Robinson, Grich, and Crowley).

Jul 7, '73 at Bal vs Oak: gitp" Eliseo Rodriguez... 5-4-3 (B.Robinson, D.Johnson, Powell).

Apr 9, '59 at Was: Line drive...Ed Fitzgerald lined out to Bob Boyd... 3-6-3 (Boyd, Carrasquel, Boyd).

Aug 3, '55 at Bal vs KC: "gidp" Art Ceccarelli, then runner was thrown out at home...3-6-2 (Triandos, Miranda and H.Smith).
