ABOUT THE COVER

Just as Maryland's watermen will tell you that odd-numbered years have brought the biggest commercial harvests of Cheapeake Bay's hard shell crabs, Orioles fans will tell you there is something special about years ending in four.

Consider that in 1894 the National League Orioles won Baltimore's first pennant; in 1914 Babe Ruth signed his first professional contract with Jack Dunn's International League Orioles; in 1924 Dunn's Orioles won their 6th straight IL pennant, a record in organized ball; in 1944 the IL Orioles won the pennant and Junior World Series; in 1954 Baltimore returned to the major leagues; in 1964 Brooks Robinson won the AL Most Valuable Player Award, first ever by an Oriole; in 1974 the Orioles staged one of the greatest comebacks in major league history when they won the AL East after trailing by 5 games on September 1; and 1994 already qualifies for this list since Managing Partner Peter Angelos' presence gives the Orioles their first season with local ownership in 15 years.

The cover of the 1994 media guide marks the celebrations of the events of two of the above- 1894 and 1954.

40th Anniversary of the Birth of the Current Orioles

It was forty years ago, 1954, that major league baseball returned to Baltimore after a 52-year absence as the St.Louis Browns moved to Baltimore and became the Orioles.

Since then, the Orioles have boasted a 3376-2962 (.533) record; won 3 World Series, 6 AL pennants, 7 AL East crowns; have boasted 24 20-game winners; won 50 Gold Gloves; 5 MVP Awards; 6 Cy Youngs; 14 AL team fielding crowns; and 12 AL team ERA titles.

Officially, the AL returned to Baltimore on Sep 29, 1953. That was the day league owners, meeting at the Hotel Commodore in New York, unanimously approved the purchase of a controlling interest in the St.Louis Browns from previous owner Bill Veeck by a group of Baltimore negotiators led by Mayor Tommy D'Alessandro Jr. and attorney Clarence Miles, who became the club's first president. The purchase price was $2,475,000.

The Orioles were back in the major leagues for the first time since a two-year stay in the AL ended in 1902. That team left Baltimore for New York and became the Highlanders, who in 1913 changed their name to the Yankees (yes, that's right, the New York Yankees). Between 1902 and 1954, the Orioles spent 12 years in the Eastern League (1903-14) and 37 years in the International League (1916-53).

While the Orioles were 54-100 that first season in '54, it wasn't bad enough to finish last. Happily, that dubious honor belonged to the Philadelphia A's with a record of 51-103.

The Orioles drew 1,060,910 that first year, more than AL teams in Washington, Philadelphia and St. Louis had ever attracted.

The Orioles opened that season on the road where they lost at Detroit, 3-0, as Don Larsen lost to Steve Gromek on Apr 13. Two days later, after breaking into the win column at Tiger Stadium in the 2nd game, the O's played the first major league game in Baltimore in 52 years and beat the White Sox, 3-1, at Memorial Stadium. The winning pitcher in that game, Bob Turley, went on to lead the AL in strikeouts, still the only Oriole to make that claim.

The Birds hit 2 home runs in that first win over Chicago, but connected for only 17 more at home the rest of the season. Miraculously no one broke the team's individual AL homer mark of 8 set in 1902 by infielder Jimmy Williams.

100th Anniversary of Our First Pennant

The 1894 National League Orioles won the first pennant in Baltimore's baseball history, the first of three straight won by Manager Ned Hanlon's crew. Though it was 100 years ago and in a different league, this team shared some

MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL'S 125th ANNIVERSARY

Speaking of anniversaries, Major League Baseball and its 28 clubs will celebrate the 125th anniversary of professional baseball this year. The first professional baseball team, the Cincinnati Red Stockings, was formed in 1869. Prior to that, the game was played on an amateur basis only.

As part of this year's festivities, MLB Properties has designed a special 125th Anniversary logo. The logo is a variation of the Major League Baseball logo created for baseball's centennial celebration in 1969.

Throughout the season, MLB and the clubs will celebrate the Anniversary through various events and ceremonies. Teams will wear a commemorative patch on their uniforms and specially licensed merchandise will be available at all major league ballparks and licensed retail outlets.

JOE CODD: THE ONE AND ONLY

In this, the Orioles 40th Anniversary Season in Baltimore, one member of the front office has been here since the very beginning. He is Joe Codd, who works in the Ticket Office.

OWNERSHIP OF THE ORIOLES

On October 4, '93, American League owners unanimously approved the sale of ownership of the Orioles from principal shareholder Eli S. Jacobs to a group of investors led by Baltimore native Peter G. Angelos officially placing the Orioles in local hands for the first time since 1979, when Jerry Hoffberger, the owner of Baltimore's National Brewing Company, sold the club to prominent Washington attorney Edward Bennett Williams.

PETER ANGELOS
MANAGING PARTNER

Peter Angelos is the Principal Owner and Managing Partner of the Baltimore Orioles, the baseball team he considers to be one of Maryland's most important assets. Mr. Angelos has restored the team to local ownership and is credited with taking swift and bold initiatives toward realizing the objectives of the new owners to satisfy community needs. As Mr. Angelos explains, "From the outset, the members of our ownership group wanted to be certain that the Orioles identify and help to fulfill the needs of the community. Our foremost objective is to ensure that the team plays a constructive role in the affairs of Marylanders."

Since taking control of the Orioles, Mr. Angelos has demonstrated a serious commitment to meeting the needs of the fans. There will be a new look for the team on opening day 1994. Changes will also come in the stands, as over 3,000 incorrectly positioned seats in Oriole Park at Camden Yards will be replaced to give the fans improved views and comfort. Plans are underway for construction of a pavilion to be used exclusively by 100,000 students annually who will be invited to Oriole's games without charge beginning in 1995. Other ideas under consideration include providing greater access to the ballpark for senior citizens.

Mr. Angelos believes that major league sports franchises such as the Orioles can and should play a positive role in teaching the values of good sportsmanship and in developing positive competitive attitudes in young people. Thus, Mr. Angelos promotes extensive interaction between the Orioles and the community.

Mr. Angelos was raised in the Baltimore industrial neighborhood of Highlandtown. He graduated from Patterson Park High School and from the University of Baltimore where he had the distinction of valedictorian for his class at the School of Law. A practicing attorney in Maryland since 1961, Mr. Angelos is the principal of the Law Offices of Peter G. Angelos. He has represented local labor unions for over thirty years and is recognized nationally for his success as a plaintiff's attorney in major projects liability cases. Mr. Angelos is admitted to practice by the Court of Appeals of Maryland, as well as the highest courts in the District of Columbia and Tennessee, the United States Supreme Court, the United States Tax court, and the United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit.

Mr. Angelos once served on the Baltimore City Council. His civic involvements today include being a member of the University of Baltimore Law School Advisory Committee, the University of Maryland Foundation, the Board of Trustees of Loyola College, the Grant-A-Wish Foundation, and the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra.

Peter Angelos and his wife, Georgia Kousouris Angelos, reside in Baltimore City with their two sons, John and Louis.

TOM CLANCY
VICE CHAIRMAN OF COMMUNITY PROJECTS AND PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Tom Clancy's story is a publishing fairy tale come true. His first novel, The Hunt For Red October, published by the Naval Institute Press in hardcover in 1984 (which had never before published a work of fiction) sold briskly as a result of rave reviews, then catapulted onto The New York Times bestseller list. The Hunt for Red October ended up selling over 500,000 copies in hardcover and two million paperbacks (Berkley Books, 1985). The book has been translated into a number of foreign languages, including French, German, Spanish, Italian, Japanese and Chinese.

Mr. Clancy has also written Red Storm Rising, Patriot Games, The Cardinal of the Kremlin, Clear and Present Danger, The Sum of All Fears and most recently Without Remorse. All of Mr. Clancy's books have sold millions and ranked No. 1 on The New York Times bestseller list for both paperback and hardcover novels.

Prior to writing The Hunt for Red October, Clancy's only literary effort was an article on the MX missile published in the Naval Journal Proceedings. Although he had dreamed of writing a novel since college, Clancy, who majored in English at Baltimore's Loyola College, had always made his living as an insurance agent.

Clancy's The Hunt for Red October and Patriot Games were made into movies and were blockbuster box office smashes.

The walls of Clancy's office are lined with war games, books on weapons and government-produced maps, all tribute to the author's lifelong fascination with technology. Although he devoured military books since childhood, severe myopia prevented Clancy from joining the service, although he did serve in the Army ROTC at Loyola.

Clancy's interest in writing fiction resurfaced in 1976 when he read of the attempt of a Soviet frigate's crew to defect to Sweden. The idea, he says, rattled around his head for years. Finally, he imagined the frigate as a submarine and a novel based on the incident began to take shape. The fledgling author completed his first draft in just over six months.

Although Clancy had never been on a submarine in his life, he boned up on technical knowledge with such books as Combat Fleets of the World and A Guide to the Soviet Navy. His grasp of the material was such that everyone from critics to military and intelligence experts hailed The Hunt For Red October for its uncanny verisimilitude.

Despite the astounding publicity surrounding all of his novels, Clancy insists the cocktail party circuit is not for him and that his life hasn't changed all that much. At age 46, Clancy, the father of four, is a full participant in his household's duties, which helps him to "keep perspective." He and his family make their home in rural Maryland.

MARYLAND ROOTS

In addition to Baltimoreans Peter Angelos and Tom Clancy, the Orioles' new ownership group includes many who grew up Orioles fans and who are living a dream as investors of their hometown team.

Included in those with Maryland ties are: award-winning ABC Sports Commentator Jim McKay, a resident of Monkton, MD; tennis great Pam Shriver, a native of Lutherville, MD; Oscar-winning director Barry Levinson, a Baltimore native; retired Major General Roger R. Blunt, one of baseball's first African American investors and the Vice Chairman of the University of Maryland Board of Regents; Stephen A. Geppi, a Baltimore native and President and CEO of Diamond Comics, the world's largest distributor of American comic books; Baltimorean George P. Stamas, a Partner with Piper Marbury, and General Counsel of the Orioles; and Jack B. Dunn IV, whose family tie with the Orioles extends back to his grandfather, an infielder and pitcher with the city's original AL franchise (1901-02) and who later owned and managed the International League Orioles for 22 successful seasons (1908-28).

On June 1, '93, he joined Peter Angelos' acquisition team and then supervised the transition between ownerships. Mr. Angelos named him Vice Chairman of Business and Finance on Dec 9, '93 to oversee all business activities of the Orioles organization.

Foss graduated from St. Thomas College in St. Paul Minnesota in 1970, where he received his BA in Business Administration. In 1972, he received his MBA in Marketing/Finance from the University of Minnesota at Mankato. His extensive educational background led to 17 successful years in the banking industry with the Norwest Corporation in Minneapolis where he held positions from Commercial Banking Officer to Senior Vice President.

Foss continued his career in banking when he relocated to the Washington metropolitan area and accepted the position of President and Chief Operating Officer of First America Bank, N.A., of Washington in December, '89. In April, 1991, he was elected Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer.

Community involvement is very important to Foss, as evidenced by his active membership as treasurer and trustee of The Green Door, an organization located in Washington, DC, that is dedicated to working with the mentally ill, helping them to obtain housing and job training.

He is a former board member of the Children's Theatre Company of Minneapolis and a former president of the Minnesota Aquatennial Association. In 1989, he served as president during the 50th anniversary of the Aquatennial, a 10-day summer festival which features water and land sports, attractions and parades, attracting millions of people.

In addition to his involvement in the community, Foss is a member of several professional and civic organizations that include the Economic Club of Washington and the Metropolitan Washington Board of Trade.

Born Dec 27, '48 in Minneapolis, Foss and his wife Dawn have 3 children, Katie (12), Annie (8) and Michael (6). They currently reside in Great Falls, VA but are in the process of relocating to Baltimore.

GEORGE STAMAS
GENERAL COUNSEL

George Stamas is the General Counsel of the Baltimore Orioles and is counsel to and a limited partner of the partnership controlled by Peter Angelos which owns the club.

Stamas also is a partner with the law firm of Piper & Marbury, where he serves as chairman of the Corporate and Securities Department and as a member of the firm's Policy Committee. He is a director of Georgeson International, the New York-based proxy solicitation firm, and Forensic Technologies International, Inc. Stamas also serves on the Board of Trustees of the Walters Art Gallery as well as the Leadership Committee of the United Way of Central Maryland.

Stamas is a 1973 graduate of The Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania and graduated in 1976 from the University of Maryland Law School, where he was an editor of the International Trade Law Journal. Following graduation, Stamas joined the Enforcement Division of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission as a special counsel and has been with Piper & Marbury since 1979.

Stamas and his wife, Georgia, live in Baltimore with their 3 children, Paul, Stephanie and Gregory.

FRED ARSCOTT
CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER

Fred Arscott was named Chief Administrative Officer of the Orioles, Dec 9, '93 by Managing General Partner Peter Angelos. He is responsible for the club's human resources, computer services, ticket operations and treasury management.

Arscott came to the Orioles after 15 years as a senior consultant with CIGNA Financial Advisors. He has worked with the principals of a variety of prominent businesses in the Baltimore-Washington area on tax and investment issues. His client base included most notably author (and Orioles investor) Tom Clancy and his family since '79, as well as individuals up and down the Eastern Seaboard from Massachusetts to Florida.

Following graduation from Georgetown University (BS, Marketing, '76), Arscott first worked for Hechinger's Home Centers as a result of doing market research studies and eventually moved up to a position as assistant store manager.

From there he went to CIGNA, then joined forces with Mr. Angelos in the acquisition process of the Orioles and assisted Joe Foss in supervising the transition between ownerships.

Arscott, 40, is the President of the Howard (MD) County Pilot's Association and is an instrument rated pilot. At one time he estimated flying 150 hours per year and is interested in "...airplanes, collector's cars, computers and, of course, the Orioles."

Arscott was born March 3, '54 in the Boston area. He and his wife, Carol, are the parents of Leigh (10) and Dean (8).

ROLAND HEMOND
GENERAL MANAGER

Roland Hemond, 64, begins his 7th season as executive vice president/general manager. Certainly one of the more active participants in baseball's trade market, Hemond has negotiated 130 trades involving 417 players during his baseball career...He concluded 17 trades in his first 17 months with the Orioles and is now up to 35 (thru Feb '94) since he was named to succeed Hank Peters as Orioles VP/GM on Nov 10, '87.

A 3-time winner of Major League Baseball's Executive of the Year award ('72, '83, '89), he has engineered 4 of the greatest turnarounds in big league history, including the O's 22-game improvement in '92.

He was one of the principal architects of the Orioles 32 1/2 game improvement in '89, the 3rd greatest jump in major league history.

Hemond's '71 White Sox improved 23 games over the previous year, and his '77 team climbed 26 games above the '76 White Sox.

His career dates back some 43 years to '51 when he joined the front office of the Eastern League's Hartford Chiefs following a 4-year tour of duty in the US Coast Guard. At the end of that season he was promoted to the parent Boston Braves where he worked for the late John Mullen...In '53, Hemond accompanied the Braves' franchise to Milwaukee.

In December, '60, former Braves Manager Fred Haney became the first California Angels' general manager and less than a month later Hemond joined him as scouting and farm director.

On Sep 14, '70, he was appointed director of (major league) player personnel for the White Sox who were well on their way to a 56-106 final season record. At the same time, the Sox hired, at his urging, his former Angels' organization colleague, Chuck Tanner, as manager. At their first winter meeting, the 2 newcomers moved 16 players in the first 18 hours of the convention in Los Angeles.

In their first 2 full seasons, the Hemond/Tanner combine brought the Sox in third ('71) and second ('72). The Sox went 87-67 in '72, and Roland won his first executive of the year award.

He became a vice-president in July, '73 in the John Allyn administration, then worked with Bill Veeck from December, '75, when the latter bought the club, until January '81. After Jerry Reinsdorf and Eddie Einhorn purchased the franchise from Veeck, they promoted him to executive vice president for baseball operations.

Hemond earned his second top executive trophy in '83 after his White Sox won the Western Division by a record 20 games (biggest winning margin in either league since the divisional system was adopted in '69).

He was replaced in October, '85 by Ken Harrelson, but remained with the Sox in a consulting capacity...Seven months later in May '86, he joined the commissioner's office and remained there through two baseball seasons before joining the Orioles.

Hemond was born in Central Falls, Rhode Island. His mother was French-Canadian and his father's family is of French descent. In October '91, he was inducted into the Central Falls Hall of Fame...As part of the ceremony, city officials honored him by naming the city's largest athletic complex, Roland Hemond Park.

He and his wife, the former Margo Quinn, were married on Nov 8, '58...They have 5 children: Susan (1/3/60), Tere (12/27/61), Robert (4/20/64), Jay (12/11/65), and Ryan (12/11/72)...The Hemonds are truly a baseball family: Margo's father was John Quinn, a major league GM for 28 seasons.

In addition to Margo, John Quinn's children include: Susan, who worked for the Angels and was Roland's secretary for a number of years; Bob, the San Francisco Giants' general manager; and Jack, president of the St. Louis Blues hockey team and former baseball general manager of the Hawaii Islanders and Vancouver Mounties of the Pacific Coast League.

DOUG MELVIN
ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Doug Melvin, 41, (8/8/52) is a native of Chatham, Ontario (which also produced Hall of Famer and 284-game winner Fergie Jenkins). This is his 23rd year in professional baseball, his 9th with the Orioles.

He was named special assistant to Orioles President Edward Bennett Williams and Executive Vice President Hank Peters on Feb 11, '86. A year and a half later, he became director of player personnel in charge of minor league operations and for the past 6 seasons has served as assistant general manager/director of player personnel.

His pro playing career began in '72 when he was signed by the Pittsburgh Pirates as a righthanded pitcher. Doug pitched in the Bucs' system for 2 years ('72-'73) and spent 4 more in the Yankees' chain ('75-'78) after sitting out 1974 with a leg injury. The Pirates released him after the '73 season, but he was re-signed by then Yankees Scouting Director Pat Gillick (a former Orioles system pitcher and currently GM at Toronto).

In 6 pro seasons, Melvin was 29-19 with a 3.43 ERA (IP-520, ER-198). He was 16-4 combined over his last 2 seasons ('77-'78) at West Haven (Class A Eastern). In '76 at Ft Lauderdale (Class A Florida State), he was 5th in the league in ERA (2.41) despite a losing record (6-7).

After his playing career ended, he pitched batting practice with the Yankees and coordinated advance scouting reports for the major league coaching staff, then spent the next 6 years building a solid reputation in the Yankees baseball organization. He served as scouting director in '85.

There was no baseball at Ontario's Chatham Kent Secondary School, but he played football, basketball and hockey, and was subsequently elected to the school's athletic hall of fame. He still holds the school's basketball record of 55 points in a single game. Among his high school opponents were Mark and Marty Howe, sons of Hockey Hall of Famer Gordie Howe.

He and his wife, Ellen, live in Columbia, MD, and have 2 children: Ashley (4/18/83) and Cory (7/9/86).

MANAGER OF THE YEAR '89: After directing his team to a 32-1/2 game improvement over '88 and matching the '36 Boston Braves for the 3rd biggest one year improvement in modern history, he enjoyed a rare distinction... He won all 4 of the major American League Manager of the Year awards: BBWAA, The Sporting News, AP and UPI...He was the 5th Orioles skipper to have won at least one of the above, but the first to capture the BBWAA trophy which was initiated only in '85.

Other Orioles managers to be honored: Joe Altobelli, Hank Bauer, Johnny Oates, Paul Richards, and Earl Weaver...See "Orioles Award Winners."

ORIOLES: Robinson replaced Cal Ripken on Apr 12 , '88 becoming the Orioles' 8th manager (excluding interim managers Luman Harris in '61 and Ripken-1 game-in '85)...He took over with the club at 0-6 and lost his first 15 games until the O's snapped their record start-of-the-season losing streak at 21 (Apr 29)...His overall record that year was 54-101.

This is his 3rd tour of duty with the O's, his 2nd since he played here ('66 thru '71)...He returned as a coach in '78, but spent most of that season managing in Rochester before moving back to Baltimore again as a coach in '79 and '80...During the pennant winning year ('79), he was credited with helping to improve substantially the quality of the club's defense...In '80, he replaced Jim Frey (who left to manage the KC Royals) as the O's batting and first base coach...Frank himself departed in '80 to manage the San Francisco Giants.

Five years later ('85), he came back to Baltimore after 4 seasons in San Francisco and a short stint ('84) as a coach with the Milwaukee Brewers (Harry Dalton hired him for Milwaukee the day after he was let go by the Giants...He had also worked with Dalton in Baltimore and Anaheim).

For the next 3 seasons he was a bench/outfield coach under 3 managers: Joe Altobelli ('85), Earl Weaver ('85-'86) and Cal Ripken ('87) before his appointment as special assistant to the president in October '87.

SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS: Named manager Jan 14, '81 replacing Dave Bristol (who in turn had followed Joe Altobelli) and led the club to its first winning season since Altobelli did it in '78...The years '81 & '82 were the Giants' first consecutive winning seasons in a decade... In '83 and '84 however, the club dipped below .500 and on Aug 4, '84 Frank was dismissed in favor of interim skipper Danny Ozark.

CLEVELAND INDIANS: Robinson joined the Indians as a player on Sep 12, '74 from California in a trade...Then, 3 weeks later on Oct 4, the day after the season ended, he was named the first black major league manager in baseball history replacing Ken Aspromonte.

He made a dramatic debut as playing manager on Apr 8, '75 before some 55,000 Opening Day fans at Cleveland Stadium...In his first at bat of that first game (he was DH batting 2nd), Frank homered off Doc Medich (later that inning ex-Oriole teammate Boog Powell also homered).

The Indians won the game, 5-3, and Frank's effort was voted most memorable moment in Tribe history by Cleveland fans during baseball's observance of the US bicentennial celebration.

In that first year, the Indians fell to 15 games below .500 by late June but rallied and wound up 4th, just one game under...The next season '76, they finished 3 games over...However, after a slow '77 start, he was released on June 19 and was succeeded by Jeff Torborg...For the rest of that year he coached with the Angels under Manager Dave Garcia who had been his 3rd base coach in Cleveland in '75-'76.

PLAYING CAREER

MAJOR LEAGUE LEADER: He played for 21 major league seasons and is among the top-ranking players of all time in 10 categories. His 586 home runs represent the 4th highest figure in major league history.

In addition, he ranks high in the following: games-2,808 (14th); at bats-10,006 (17th); runs-1829th (10th); hits-2943 (23rd); 2BH-528 (19th); RBI-1812 (12th); total bases -5373 (8th); walks-1420 (18th) and hit by pitches-198 (3rd) behind Don Baylor-267 and Ron Hunt-243.

MVP, BOTH LEAGUES: He is the only player ever to win the BBWAA MVP award in each league...He was the choice in the NL in '61 and the AL winner in '66...He was also the MVP in the '66 World Series and the '71 All-Star game.

TRIPLE CROWN: Is one of only 11 players to have won the Triple Crown (accomplished 13 times, 2 each by Ted Williams and Rogers Hornsby)...He did it in '66 with the O's...He, Mantle ('56) and Carl Yastrzemski ('67) are the only players to have captured the Triple Crown in the past 46 years (since Williams' 2nd in '47).

HOME RUNS: He hit 343 in the NL and 243 in the AL...Hit 388 off righthanders and 198 against lefties.

Among those, Crosley Field in Cincinnati (176) and Memorial Stadium (103) rank one-two in frequency for obvious reasons...There were 4 stadia in which he played, but did not hit a home run: Houston's Astrodome, Montreal's Olympic Stadium, Sicks' Stadium in Seattle ('69 only), and Busch Stadium in St. Louis.

In regular season play, he homered in 32 parks...His 33rd was Pittsburgh's Three Rivers in the '71 World Series.

2 OR MORE/GAME: Hit 2 or more in a game 54 times (ranks 5th in major league history)...Hit 3 in a game for Reds at Crosley Field vs. Cardinals on Aug 22, '59...Had 16 2-homer games for O's.

HRS-ORIOLES: Hit his 500th major league homer in Baltimore in the 2nd game of a twi-night doubleheader against the Tigers' lefthander Fred Scherman Sep 13, '71...At the time, he ranked 11th on the all-time list just behind Harmon Killebrew, who had reached that milestone earlier that year. After leaving Baltimore, Frank moved past Killebrew, Mel Ott, Ernie Banks, Eddie Mathews, Ted Williams, Jimmie Foxx, and Mickey Mantle.

He set a major league record by hitting 10 home runs in the month of Apr '69 but that mark has since been extended to 11 by Willie Stargell, Mike Schmidt, and Graig Nettles...Set a club record with 49 homers in '66...Also set marks that year for most homers by an Oriole against one opponent (11 vs. Det) and most home runs Memorial Stadium (27).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

GARY NICKELS

DIRECTOR/SCOUTING

Gary Nickels, 47, begins his fourth year as the director of scouting for the Orioles. His responsibilities include overseeing the scouting department in addition to hiring and evaluating scouts. Gary is entering his 23rd year in professional baseball, his 6th with the Orioles. In three short years as scouting director, Gary has made his mark with his quality draft choices. Six of his draft picks began on the Orioles '94 40-man roster: RHP Rick Forney, LHP Rick Krivda, OF Alex Ochoa, OF Mark Smith, and OF Jim Wawruck from the '91 draft and OF Jeffrey Hammonds from '92.

Nickels started with the Orioles in 1989 as the Midwest scouting supervisor and National cross-checker. He handled major league and advance scouting duties for the club, and also aided in the first round selections of Oriole hurlers Ben McDonald in 1989 and Mike Mussina in 1990.

He started his career as a scouting administrative assistant with the Philadelphia Phillies in 1972. After spending 10 years with the Phils, Gary went to the Chicago Cubs for seven years, as an area scout and central region scouting supervisor. With the Cubs, he participated in the drafting and signing of several current major leaguers including Shawon Dunston, Mark Grace, Mike Harkey, and current Oriole Rafael Palmeiro.

A 1968 graduate of Illinois Wesleyan University, Nickels was the captain of the baseball team as a left-handed pitcher. He went on to earn his master's degree in sports administration in 1975 from Ohio University, where he was a graduate assistant for the Bobcats' baseball team.

A native of Naperville, Illinois, Gary and his wife Margie have one daughter, Lora(10/13/79).

ORIOLE PARK AT CAMDEN YARDS LEADS BASEBALL INTO A NEW ERA

"...Baltimore feels so much like those wonderful steamy days at Shibe Park and Ebbets Field and the Polo Grounds...Just forget those other places, OK? Don't even think about the many concrete palaces. Domes are totally out. You might sneak in a Wrigley Field or a Fenway Park, but even they don't quite measure up because not a single major league location combines the game and the city, the real city, exactly where you want to be- like Baltimore."

—Bruce Jenkins, San Francisco Chronicle

In 1909, Pittsburgh's Forbes Field and Philadelphia's Shibe Park led what became known as the era of the classic ballpark. Soon, asymmetrical, intimate gems such as League Park (1910), Griffith Stadium (1911), the Polo Grounds (1911), Crosley Field (1912), Fenway Park (1912), Tiger Stadium (1912), Ebbets Field (1913), and Wrigley Field (1914) were all skillfully crafted.

In 1960, the super stadium era had arrived. To help generate revenue, stadia were designed to accommodate various other games and events which led to large facilities surrounding a shape that could host many types of games. In other cases, fans simply demanded more comfortable seats for some events along with other amenities.

As a result, D.C. (now RFK) Stadium (1962), the Astrodome (1965), Busch Stadium (1966), Three Rivers Stadium (1970), Riverfront Stadium (1970) and Veterans Stadium (1971) were stamped out, cookie-cutter style.

In 1992, a new era had officially begun. And it was heralded in Baltimore as Oriole Park at Camden Yards was lovingly woven into the fabric of the harborplace and downtown with its attention to detail, asymmetrical contour, the vista of the downtown Baltimore skyline, and the park's signature piece- the restored B&O Warehouse in right field.

"This place is two years old," said Mark Grace, the first baseman of the Chicago Cubs, "and already it should be considered a shrine."

Nearly a dozen cities are building, or talking about building open-air, natural grass, baseball-only parks that are unique to their city, user friendly, and reminiscent of the classic parks of the earlier era. Parks that will boast much of the same well-planned quirkiness that has made Camden Yards such a hit.

"Camden Yards is becoming the standard for others," says Phillip Bess, a Chicago based architect and ballpark design expert. "I have a great deal of admiration for the Orioles and the care that they took in soliciting fan input- and the results they came up with."

Cleveland and Texas will open ballparks in '94, and Coors Field in Denver is scheduled to open next season. Detroit, New York, Atlanta, and Philadelphia among others are planning or discussing new ballparks. All aspire to match what has happened in downtown Baltimore.

"Oriole Park at Camden Yards", wrote Baltimore Sun columnist Mike Littwin during All-Star Week last July, "may be the most talked about structure in America. The TV cameras have been making love to the place for days. And America's sportswriters, a particularly jaded lot, have been sending home transcripts filled with the sort of lusty descriptives usually reserved for the Sports Illustrated swimsuit issue. Suddenly, for the outside world, the ballpark defines Baltimore. It nearly overwhelms Baltimore...I think you can make the case that Camden Yards, as a monument, says everything we want said about Baltimore."

And all of Baltimore and beyond is enjoying it. Through the first two seasons, more than 7.2 million fans saw the Orioles at Camden Yards and an additional 30,000 took tours of the park. Through a heavy schedule of nationally televised games, millions of others across the nation have fallen in love with Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

Every projection of the ballpark's economic impact on the City of Baltimore was exceeded by a substantial margin. A 1985 report projected total out-of-ballpark spending of $23.1 million for the park's first year, 1992. According to a economic impact study conducted by the city, the actual was $52.8 million, more than twice the original projection.

Last July's All-Star Week surrounding baseball's 64th All-Star Game provided a total stimulus of $31.3 million to the Baltimore area economy.

Neither of these figures include the value of millions of dollars of overwhelmingly favorable publicity received by the city. Reports like Tim Sullivan's from the Cincinnati Enquirer: "What makes the argument for the new construction more compelling is the impact Oriole Park has had on Baltimore. It has made a magnet of a downtown whose development is a model of urban planning. It has cast this blue-collar city in a fancier, favorable light. The place fairly glows with civic pride, and the public pulse is unusually energized."

Philadelphia is one of the cities hoping to achieve that kind of electricity. On the eve of the '93 All-Star Game, Philadelphia Mayor Ed Rendell told Jayson Stark of the Inquirer: "...you don't need an All-Star Game to drive home the impact of this park on this city (Baltimore). In fact, it's better driven home by going to an ordinary regular-season game. I was here last Thursday night. And there were 46,000 people for an Orioles-White Sox game that is not a big rivalry. And all those people came into Baltimore's center city, did something in center city and probably ate dinner in center city. And they had a breathtaking ballpark to sit in after they'd done all that."

ORIOLE PARK AT CAMDEN YARDS

Oriole Park at Camden Yards, the beautiful new baseball-only facility in downtown Baltimore, became the official home of the Orioles on April 6, 1992. The construction of the park was completed in essentially 33 months from the time razing previous structures on the 85-acre parcel began June 28, '89 in the area known as Camden Yards.

The one-time railroad center is 12 minutes west by foot from the City's Inner Harbor and only 2 blocks from the birthplace of baseball's most legendary hero George Herman "Babe" Ruth. Ruth's father operated Ruth's Cafe on the ground floor of the family residence located at Conway Street & Little Paca, now center field at Oriole Park. The ballpark seats 48,262 (not including standing room) and the project cost was approximately $110 million. It was designed by the Kansas City architectural firm of Helmuth, Obata & Kassabaum (HOK) with direction and input from the Orioles and the State of Maryland which owns and operates the facility through its agency, the Maryland Stadium Authority (MSA).

Working under contract to HOK were the urban design firm of RTKL, the landscape architecture firm of Wallace, Roberts and Todd, and the engineering firms of Bliss and Nyitray, Rummel, Klepper and Kahl, and Kidde Consultants, Inc. Working under contract to the Orioles were the interior design firm of Forte Design and the graphic design firm of David Ashton and Associates.

Oriole Park is state-of-the-art yet unique, traditional and intimate in design. It blends with the urban context of downtown Baltimore while taking its image from baseball parks built in the early 20th century. Steel, rather than concrete trusses, an arched brick facade, a sun roof over the gentle slope of the upper deck, an asymmetrical playing field, and natural grass turf are just some of the features that tie it to those magnificent big league ballparks built in the early 1900's. Ebbets Field (Brooklyn), Shibe Park (Philadelphia), Fenway Park (Boston), Crosley Field (Cincinnati), Forbes Field (Pittsburgh), Wrigley Field (Chicago), and The Polo Grounds (New York) were among the ballparks that served as powerful influences in the design of Oriole Park.

PLAYING FIELD

The field is 16' below street level and is made up of Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT), a sophisticated irrigation and drainage system below a natural grass turf. It is designed to reduce the frequency of rainouts while shortening the length of baseball's most exasperating feature, the rain delay. The PAT system makes it possible to get the field ready for play within half an hour after the end of a heavy rain storm. It automatically removes as many as 75,000 gallons of rainwater from the field in an hour.

Camden Yards is one of only 8 asymmetrical parks in the major leagues. The park's deepest point is left of dead center (410') just as Fenway Park's (420') is to the right of the center line. Though it is 15 feet shorter from home plate to the right field corner than down the left field line, that difference is compensated by a 25' high wall which extends 100' from the right field line toward center. The fence in the rest of the park is only 7' high.

THE WAREHOUSE

Located beyond right field, the B&O Warehouse is 432 feet from home plate. Detroit catcher Mickey Tettleton has come closest to hitting the building on the fly in a regular season game (his homer, Apr 20, '92 directly down the RF line off Ben McDonald, landed 26 feet short of the warehouse). During the home run hitting contest the day before the '93 All-Star Game, Seattle's Ken Griffey hit the first ball off the warehouse.

Built between 1898-1905, the warehouse is the longest building on the East Coast at 1016' (but only 51' wide). It has been preserved and now provides unique office space for the Orioles as well as home for the banquet facilities, the ballpark's central kitchen and space for ballpark operations. The Orioles' main ticket office operates out of the north end of the Warehouse (Camden and Eutaw Streets).

Three public facilities- a souvenir shop (The Orioles Baseball Store, open daily), a cafeteria (Pastimes) and a bar/lounge (Bambino's)- are located on the ground floor of the warehouse and on the 7th floor is the exclusive members-only Camden Club. The ballpark and warehouse are separated by a 60' wide promenade, an extension of Eutaw Street. Three balls have been hit out of the park and onto Eutaw Street, all in 1993 and all by the opposition. In addition to Tettleton's blast described above, Kevin Reimer, while with Texas, hit one on May 5 off Jose Mesa that was 28 feet shy of hitting the building and California's Lee Stevens' drive to right-center off Rick Sutcliffe on May 23 was 33 feet short. These spots are marked by brass baseballs embedded in the concrete where the balls landed.

Open daily, Eutaw St. is home to plaques dedicated to players in the Orioles Hall of Fame and the Maryland Athletic Hall of Fame, as well as monuments to the players whose numbers have been retired by the Orioles. Ballpark tours depart regularly from the Baseball Store on Eutaw St. (For more information on ballpark tours, see page 67).

SCOREBOARDS

There are 2 major electronic information centers in the ballpark to enhance enjoyment of the game. Two big boards are located on the main scoreboard in center field: The Sony JumboTRON video board (22'9" by 31'4") and an equally innovative incandescent lamp matrix game in progress board (96' by 272') built by Daktronics, Inc. (Brookings, SD) which is located on top of the JumboTRON.

Mounted on top of the 2 boards is a large double-faced clock built in Maryland by Triangle Signs that can be read from both inside the ballpark and in downtown Baltimore. That main scoreboard system also supports 2 weathervane Oriole birds to show players and fans alike the direction of wind flow.

Embedded in the tall right field wall is another electronic board (also built by Daktronics) that provides a good-ole-days feature missing from most current major league ballparks- continuously posted out-of-town scores. It accommodates 16 games at one time posting up-to-the-minute scores via a direct connection with SportsTicker the computerized service that tracks all big league games inning-by-inning. Above the out-of-town board are flag poles which sport the pennants of each American League team in order of their daily standings in each division. There are additionally 3 auxiliary boards for the convenience of those who do not face the 2 big boards in center field.

SEATING

Every aisle seat in the park bears an extra feature: a reproduction of the 100-year old logo used by the Baltimore Orioles of the 1890's, a National League team that won consecutive pennants in 1894-95-96.

The lower deck comprises some 18,000 box seats between the foul poles. Behind the lower boxes are some 6,800 terrace box seats. Seats in the lower stand are generally closer to the field. From the front row of seats to first and 3rd bases, for example, the distance is 45'. From home plate to the screen measures 57'.

The Club Level (mezzanine) stretches from the right field foul pole to just beyond the left field foul pole and is accessible by escalators, elevators, stairs, and ramps. There is waiter service available at the seats and behind the seating area on the club level concourse is a climate controlled lounge with private dining and bar areas plus many other amenities including the Diamond Club buffet.

At Club Level also are 72 luxury suites each containing 10 to 14 seats. These suites can be leased on a yearly basis for between $55,000 to $95,000. In addition, there are a number of suites that are available for rent on an individual game basis, several which hold 10-18 people, and 3 larger party suites which can accommodate groups of up to 60 people.
The Upper Deck contains 25 rows of seats (the first 12 are boxes, the last 13 reserved seats) and has a gentile slope of 31 degrees (Memorial Stadium, like many parks, was 33 degrees). A sun roof was constructed to cover half of the upper deck seating area.

Some 1700 bleacher seats, among the most popular in the park, are located in right-center field. There are also 275 standing room only locations that go on sale 2 hours before game time. These areas are found on the right field flag court and just above the visitor's bullpen in left field.

More than 400 seats are available to fans with disabilities in the equal access areas (EA) which are located in all price categories throughout the ballpark.

ACCESSIBILITY/PARKING

It is easily reached via rail, bus and subway lines as well as 4 major highways (I-95, I-83, I-70 and the Baltimore-Washington Parkway). The MARC train and light rail trains both have stops directly on site. Over 5,000 parking spaces are located south of the park on-site and over 30,000 spaces are located in garages and lots throughout downtown, all within one mile of the park.

NEW FOR '94 AT THE BALLPARK

It's not the same as putting arms on the Venus de Milo or a face on Winged Victory, but the Orioles under new managing partner, Peter Angelos and the Maryland Stadium Authority continue the fine-tuning of Oriole Park at Camden Yards. First, more than 3,200 seats in parts of 7 sections (5 in left field and 2 in right field) will be reconfigured toward home plate to give the fans a more comfortable view of the field.

The new seats, designed in a 3-year process by the American Seating Company, were first installed in Cleveland's new ballpark. Orioles and MSA officials tested the seats and gave their approval. The new seats are identical to the other seats at Camden Yards, but these have a 10-degree angle toward the infield.

Speaking of new seats, an additional bleacher section (183 seats) was added in center field, directly underneath the JumboTron board and connected to the other 4 bleacher sections.

Other new features are either underway or under consideration, including:

- A star to mark the spot where Ken Griffey Jr hit the warehouse during the All-Star Home Run Hitting Contest, July 12, '93
- Plaques to commemorate the anniversary of the 1894 Orioles (won pennant); 1954 Orioles (returned to Baltimore); 1994 season (Major League Baseball's 125th Anniversary)
- The Brooks Robinson plaque from Memorial Stadium, re-hung at Camden Yards and additional similar plaques of Frank Robinson and Jim Palmer
- Monuments in Maryland Square (SE corner, between the warehouse and Gate A) to commemorate the O's championship 1966, 1970 and 1983 seasons
- A plaque of all the names on the Orioles All-Time roster

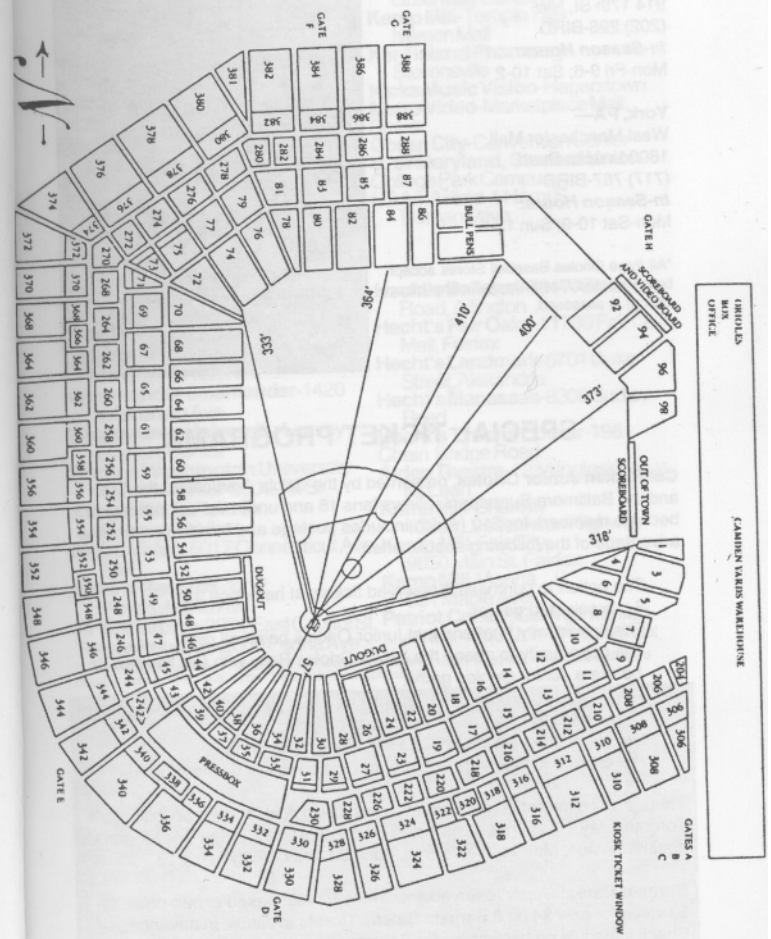

The Orioles are committed to maintaining Camden Yards' reputation as the premier ballpark in the country in terms of beauty, function, and most important, customer service.

1993 ATTENDANCE NOTES:
O'S SET CLUB ATTENDANCE MARK FOR 4TH TIME IN PAST 5 YEARS

The Orioles' 1993 home attendance was the 7th highest in major league history (3,644,965) and marked the 3rd straight year and 4th time in the past 5 years that the O's have established a new home attendance record...Only 3 franchises have ever drawn more (Toronto, Atlanta and newcomer Colorado)...The Orioles averaged 45,562 per game in 1993 and have averaged 45,080 per game during their 2 seasons at Camden Yards (160 dates)...The O's have drawn 7,212,784 in 2 years there, more than the O's drew in their first 7 seasons at Memorial Stadium, 1954-60.

O'S OWN MAJOR LEAGUE RECORD FOR SELLOUTS: The Birds sold out their last 52 home games of 1993 and 71 out of 80 overall last season...All told, the O's have sold out 138 of 160 dates at Camden Yards (86%), including a major league record 65 straight, May 23, 1992 thru Apr 20, 1993.

O'S LARGEST, SMALLEST CROWDS: The smallest crowd to see a game at Camden Yards was 22,564 for a make-up game on Apr 22, a date that had been an off-day, but rain the previous night necessitated the make-up...That game also broke the O's string of 65 consecutive sellouts...It is the only date in 2 years at Camden Yards that the O's have drawn less than 35,000 for a game and only the 4th time they've drawn less than 40,000...The other occasions were: May 6, 1992 (35,526 vs. Min); May 4, '92 (36,495 vs. Tex),and May 7, '92 (39,231 vs. Min)...The largest crowd to see a game at Camden Yards was 48,147 for baseball's 64th All-Star Game on July 13, 1993...The largest regular season crowd was 46,834 on Aug 2, 1993 to see the O's and Brewers.

MILESTONES: In 1993, the O's reached the 3 million mark on their 66th home date; two million on their 45th date and one million on their 23rd date, all the earliest in club history.

OTHER CLUB RECORDS FALL: There were also 5 other Orioles attendance records set in 1993...The O's and Rangers established a new Oriole benchmark for a 4-date home series when they played before 186,033, Aug 20-23, breaking the old mark of 182,866, July 23-16, 1992, also vs. the Rangers...The 2 clubs also set an Oriole mark for best attended 2-date series when they drew 92,592, Apr 6-8, breaking the previous mark of 81,962 also held by the O's-Rangers, May 4-5, 1992...On September 6, the O's and Mariners played before 46,085, the best attended Labor Day home game in club history...The O's and Blue Jays played before 201,983 at the SkyDome, May 6-9, setting the O's club mark for best attended 4-game road series...The previous high was 201,640 at Toronto, Aug 10-13, 1992...The Orioles also established their highest road attendance mark in club history playing before 2,192,041 breaking last year's mark of 2,188,437...More than 5.8 million people watched Orioles baseball at home and on the road.

MOONLIGHT MADNESS

For the past 2 years, Orioles individual game tickets have gone on sale in early December beginning with an event called "Moonlight Madness" at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. That evening not only means that tickets are on sale, but is also a holiday festival for fans at the ballpark.

The night features autograph sessions with Orioles players, round table forums with front office officials and media, clubhouse tours, Orioles past and present serve as celebrity Santas, and there are a variety of kids activities geared for the holidays. Thousands have shown up for each of the first 2 of these unique events.

PRESIDENTIAL VISITS

Last year's 7-4 loss to the Rangers in front of President Clinton on Opening Day dropped the Orioles record to 4-7 in games when a president has visited Baltimore for a game. The loss kept President Bush as the only chief executive to witness an Oriole win. The O's were 4-2 with Mr. Bush on hand, but are 0-5 when playing before any other presidents: 0-1 for President Clinton, 0-3 for President Reagan and 0-1 for President Carter.

A president has been on hand to throw out the first ball in each of the Opening Days at Camden Yards. On May 15, '91, President Bush brought with him Queen Elizabeth II of England and her husband, Prince Philip, the Duke of Edinburgh. Unfortunately, the O's lost to the Oakland A's, 6-3. The distinguished party met the uniformed personnel from both clubs, waved to the crowd and watched a few innings of the game. On Opening Day '89, the O's set what is believed to be a major league record when they hosted not one, but two incumbent presidents, each from a different part of the world- Mr. Bush and Hosni Mubarak of Egypt.

ORIOLES ON-DECK CIRCLE ESTABLISHED

For the second straight year the Orioles have capped season ticket sales at 27,500 to ensure that a large number of tickets would be available for single game buyers. This year the Orioles established the Orioles "On-Deck Circle," a waiting list for those wishing to purchase either full- or mini- season ticket plans. Fans wishing to join the "On-Deck Circle" may call 410-685-9800.

very common ground with today's club for it was on the very same site of Oriole Park at Camden Yards where Hanlon's champions first celebrated their pennant winning with this incredibly appreciative city.

Six players from that club were inducted into Baseball's Hall of Fame in Cooperstown including a third baseman named John McGraw who went on to legendary status as manager of the New York Giants. Joining him in Cooperstown were catcher Wilbert Robinson, right fielder Willie Keeler, first baseman Dan Brouthers, shortstop Hugh Jennings and left fielder Joe Kelley.

They played what was called "Inside Baseball," the tight, close-to-the-vest brand of ball that relied on a sound sense of the game's early fundamentals, the best fielding in the league and a rowdy style that was later made famous by the '34 Cardinals, who were known as the "Gashouse Gang."

They were generally considered the inventors or perfecters of strategic ploys such as the hit-and-run, the sacrifice bunt, the squeeze play, backing up bases, the double steal, and some other less savory tactics.

They have been called the fiercest team in major league history. It was not uncommon to have the Orioles bait the umpires, sharpen their metal spikes in front of opponents before games, or purposely obstruct runners. Legend has it that McGraw was even guilty of occasionally holding an opposing base runner's belt loop while they were stopped at the hot corner. They were rumored to have hidden extra balls in the outfield grass.

And did they hit. The Orioles batted .343 and stole 343 bases, although runs batted in wasn't an officially kept statistic, it was later determined that no less than seven Orioles drove in at least 100 runs that season.

Despite the obvious wealth of talent and their furious zest for winning, the 1894 Orioles needed a furious finish to capture the flag. By the end of July they trailed first place Boston by 5 games. They won 28 of their last 31, including 18 straight to finish 89-39, 3 games ahead of the New York Giants and 8 ahead of Boston.

It was during a prolonged road trip that the Orioles clinched the pennant with a win at Cleveland on Sep 25. The schedule then took them to Detroit (for an exhibition game) and Chicago before they began the 2-day train ride home on Oct 1.

On the way, they traveled through cities and towns like Martinsburg, WV where hundreds turned out at the train station to watch them go by. The same thing happened at the next stop- Cumberland. According to the Oct 2, 1894 Baltimore American "...even the country people between stations were waiting to see the champions pass and from every farmhouse someone would cheer or wave a handkerchief."

In Washington, DC where the cranks (as fans were called in those days), were frustrated with their own next-to-last Washington Senators, thousands welcomed the train heartily as it passed through.

Baltimoreans, meanwhile, were waiting impatiently at Camden Station for their heroes on the 6:35 pm train from Washington. They had followed the road games by means of an electric play-by-play board set up at Ford's Theatre in downtown Baltimore, and had yet to see their heroes since the clinching.

"A crowd gathered so big," wrote the Baltimore American, "that the police authorities grew apprehensive of danger from the crush, and the detail of police was doubled. The crowd filled the station, packed the sidewalk and street in front of the building and extended for two blocks on either side.

"Enthusiasm knew no bounds, jubilation reached its height. The scene in this city beggars description. Its like has never been seen here- never will be seen here again."

Armed with a new 2-year contract, Johnny Oates moves into his 4th year as Orioles field manager (3rd full season), looking to improve upon his 85-77 record and 3rd place tie with Detroit in '93...Coupled with the O's 3rd-place finish in '92, it marked the first time the team had 2 straight winning seasons since 1984-85 and landed in the first division in back-to-back seasons since 1982-83...Prior to 1992-93, no Oriole manager had completed consecutive winning seasons since Joe Altobelli ('83-'84).

HONORED: After the '93 season was named AL Manager of the Year by the Sporting News. The award is decided by vote of the AL Managers. Oates received 5 votes, followed by NY's Buck Showalter with 3, and Toronto's Cito Gaston and Chicago's Gene Lamont with 2 each. Texas' Kevin Kennedy received one vote. AL All-Star Game manager Cito Gaston selected Oates to his staff at the Mid-Summer Classic played at Oriole Park at Camden Yards last year...Oates served as first base coach in the game.

NEW FACES: Since he was named manager, the Orioles roster has undergone a massive change...Of the 28 players on the active roster (25-man roster plus 3 on the disabled list) on the day he was appointed, only 7 remain: Brady Anderson, Mike Devereaux, Chris Hoiles, Tim Hulett, Ben McDonald, Cal Ripken and David Segui...Since then, 13 players (including 11 home-grown prospects) made their ML debut for Oates and all but one is still on the O's '94 40-man roster.

PLAYER/COACH/MANAGER: Oates is the 2nd person ever to play for, coach and manage the Orioles (Frank Robinson was the first)...He is the only one to play and manage in the O's minor league system as well as play, coach, and manage for the big club league...Even though his ML tenure is 449 games, he already ranks 5th in the league in seniority (with current club), trailing only Detroit's Sparky Anderson ('79), Oakland's Tony LaRussa ('86), Minnesota's Tom Kelly ('86) and Toronto's Cito Gaston ('89)...Known for his organization and thoroughness, Sparky Anderson called him one of the best young managers in the game...Oates admitted beginning preparation for a managerial career while still an active player, serving his apprenticeship by sitting near Tommy Lasorda of the Dodgers and constantly asking questions.

MANAGING/COACHING

1992 ORIOLES: In his first full season as manager, the Orioles posted the ML's best improvement (22 games) over the year before, finishing 89-73 and in 3rd place...It was the team's best record since the '83 squad went 98-64 and won the World Series...Oates received praise and recognition for the O's successful season, placing 3rd in AL Manager of the Year voting behind Oakland's Tony LaRussa and Milwaukee's Phil Garner.

1991 ORIOLES: Upon assuming the post of manager, the O's promptly lost 4 consecutive games (3 games each by a single run) and Oates lost 16 pounds...But, the team rebounded to win 5 of the next 6 games and went 20-19 heading into the All-Star break...That season, the Birds gave valuable major league experience to 14 rookies...The day after the season ended, Oct 7, he signed a 2-year contract to manage the club through the '93 season.

MGR IN MINORS: Oates began his managerial career in the Yankees' farm system, and following a stint as a coach for the Chicago Cubs, he piloted Rochester (AAA) in '88...He owns a 237-188 (.558) record in 3 seasons as manager in the minor leagues...In the Yankees' system, he guided Nashville (AA) to the Southern League championship in '82 with 4-game series wins over Knoxville and Jacksonville...The following season, with Columbus (AAA) in '83, Oates led the team to a regular-season crown, but lost in the playoffs to Tidewater.

EARLY ML DEBUT: His first experience as a major league manager came June 1-3, '90, when he substituted for Frank Robinson who had been suspended for 3 games...The O's played those 3 games at New York and beat the Yankees twice.

MANAGED MANAGERS: Two men who played for Oates on the '83 Columbus Clippers made their major league managerial debuts in '92: Buck Showalter of the New York Yankees and Butch Hobson of the Boston Red Sox...Was teammates with San Francisco manager Dusty Baker in Atlanta ('73-'75) and Los Angeles ('77-'79)...Was teammates with Colorado manager Don Baylor in the O's farm system ('67, '69, '70) and with the Birds ('70, '72).

'88 IL MANAGER OF THE YEAR: After a 16-year absence, Oates returned to the Orioles' organization and was named '88 International League Manager of the Year after the Red Wings captured the Western Division crown, Rochester's first title since '74...The Wings defeated Tidewater to advance to the Triple A Alliance Series...Although Rochester won the first 2 games, they dropped the next 4.

COACHING: From '89 until his promotion to manager, he was the Birds' first base coach...His first coaching in the major leagues came with the Cubs, '84-'87, where he served at various times as dugout, bullpen and 3rd base coach.

PLAYING CAREER

MAJOR LEAGUES: Played with 5 teams during 11 seasons in his major league career...In his first ML at bat, he singled, Sep 17, '70, at RFK Stadium off Washington's Dick Bosman, now the Orioles' pitching coach...He led all AL catchers with a .995 fielding percentage as a rookie with the O's in '72 and had a .992 fielding average for Atlanta in '74.

Had his best season in '75 when he was traded from Atlanta to Philadelphia early in the season...Became a starter for the Phillies, batting .286 in 90 games and was the team's Opening Day catcher in '76...But, on that day, he broke his collarbone in a 9th-inning home-plate collision with Pittsburgh's Dave Parker...Was sidelined until mid-June, long enough for Bob Boone to earn full-time status...Went to the Dodgers for 3 seasons ('77-'79) and played for the '77 and '78 NL Champions...It was there he planted the seeds to become a manager and where Tommy Lasorda called him "one of the most intelligent catchers in the game."

POST SEASON: Was on Phillies team which won NL East in '76 and lost to Cincinnati in the NLCS...Played on Dodgers' pennant-winning teams in '77 and '78 (although he did not appear in either NLCS against his former Philadelphia teammates)...In '78 Series against the Yankees, he appeared only in Game 5 and in 2 plate appearances off Jim Beattie, he walked as a pinch hitter and singled up the middle through Beattie's legs.

Championship Streak: In a 7-season stretch in the majors (his final 6 years as an ML player and his first as an ML coach), he was on 6 title-winning teams: '76 Phillies; '77 and '78 Dodgers; '80 and '81 Yankees and as a coach with the '84 Cubs.

MINOR LEAGUES: Was originally drafted by the White Sox in '66, but he did not sign...Was drafted by the Orioles in '67 and played most of his minor league career under Joe Altobelli and Cal Ripken Sr, except for one season under Harry Malmberg...He credits Ripken's influence for teaching him everything he knows about catching.

PERSONAL: He and his wife, Gloria, have 3 children: Lori (6/25/71), Andy (3/5/76) and Jenny (11/14/78)...Graduated from Virginia Tech with a degree in health and physical education in '68...Played 2 years of college baseball there...Is in 3 Halls of Fame: elected to Virginia Tech's Sports Hall of Fame in '83, inducted into the Virginia High School Sports Hall of Fame in '92 and the Roanoke/Salem, VA Baseball Hall of Fame in '93...Currently involved with the Richmond, VA office of HA-LO Advertising Specialties (home office: Chicago), one of the largest advertising specialty companies in the nation.

ELROD (ELLIE) JEROME HENDRICKS (44)

Born: Dec 22, 1940
Height: 6'1"' Weight: 185
Batted, L; Threw, R
Position: Catcher
Birthplace/Residence: Born and raised in St. Thomas, V.I. . . . Has lived in Baltimore area (Randallstown) since '70
Tenure: Has spent 34 years in professional baseball (thru '92) . . . Had 10 years, 89 days service as a major league player
Signed originally with: Milwaukee Braves

MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

BALTIMORE ORGANIZATION: This year Ellie will celebrate his 26th season opener in an Orioles uniform, most in club history (Brooks Robinson spent 21)...Since '68, Elrod has been with the O's for all but 1-1/2 of 25 seasons.

He played for the Cubs during the last 6 weeks of '72 (Tommy Davis deal) before returning to the O's over the winter...Then he logged 1-1/2 years in the Yankees' organization from June '76 thru the '77 season, before rejoining the Orioles again...Posted a .990 career fielding average.

MANAGERIAL DEBUT '88: Ellie twice substituted for Frank Robinson as manager in '88 when the latter was hospitalized with a bad back...Ellie managed 4 games from May 18-20 (1-3), then took over again for 2 weeks from July 15 thru 28 (3-8)...His cumulative record during Frank's 2 absences was 4-11.

COACHING: This is Ellie's 18th season as the O's bullpen coach since his appointment to that position in '77 during Earl Weaver's first tour of duty.
Player-Coach: Twice during this span he's served as player-coach...In '78 he was activated on May 18, replacing Gary Roenicke who had been sent down and remained on the roster for the balance of the year in the dual capacity.

In 13 games that year he hit .333 (6-18), and, in his one career pitching stint compiled an 0.00 ERA, thus leading the club, in a sense, in both categories (to be fair, he was tied in ERA with Dave Ford who pitched 15 scoreless innings). His pitching career took place on June 26 in Toronto, where the O's were absorbing a 24-10 pasting...He worked 2.1 innings, allowed no runs, one hit and one walk while putting an end to the carnage inflicted upon 4 predecessors (Mike Flanagan, Joe Kerrigan, Tippy Martinez, and outfielder Larry Harlow). Don Stanhouse then pitched the 8th and also held the Jays scoreless.

In '79 he coached exclusively all year until Sep 1 when the roster expanded to 40 players...He made only one appearance, his last in the major leagues at Detroit on Sep 19 and went 0-for-1...He was not eligible for post-season play.

All-Star: He was the AL's batting practice catcher and bullpen coach for the '82 All-Star game in Montreal...He performed the same duties for last year's game at Camden Yards.

YANKEES '76-'77: In '76, he played in 26 games for the Yankees after the June 15 trade from Baltimore and batted .210 (12-57). Spent '77 shuttling between New York and Syracuse. He played in only 10 games for the Yankees and was not eligible for post-season play.

ORIOLES '68-'76: Ellie had been with the O's for nearly 9 full years when he was traded to the Cubs for Tommy Davis in Aug. '72...However, when the season ended he was reacquired by Baltimore.

100 Games/Year: Played in more than 100 games in each of the O's 3 pennant-winning seasons of '69, '70, '71...He and Andy Etchebarren more or less split the regular catching job from '68 thru '71.

Weaver/Lane: Earl Weaver and Frank Lane were instrumental in convincing the O's to draft him from the Angels' AAA Seattle affiliate in Nov. '67...Played for Weaver in Puerto Rico previously and Lane had scouted him in Mexico.

ALCS/WS: He compiled a .273 (18-66) average in 23 post-season games for the O's and Yankees (comprising five league championship series and four World Series).

'70 WS: Hit .364 (4-11) against the Reds with a home run and double and contributed significantly to the O's wins at Cincinnati in Games 1 and 2...In the opener, the Reds jumped out 3-0 but Ellie tied it in the 5th with a home run off Gary Nolan and the O's went on to win on Brooks Robinson's homer in the 7th...There was a play in the Cincinnati 6th in which Ellie was involved that was as important as the home run:

Carbo-Burkhart Incident: One inning after Ellie had tied the game with his home run, the Reds had Bernie Carbo on 3rd representing the lead run, and only one out (Brooks had retired Lee May leading off the inning on a sensational play).

Pinch-Hitter Ty Cline then chopped a high bouncer in front of the plate...As Ellie went out and grabbed it, Carbo headed home...Ellie dove and tagged Carbo a few feet up the line and umpire Ken Burkhart, who had been spun around by the players as they converged so that his back was to the play, called Carbo out...Films later revealed that Ellie had tagged Carbo with one hand while holding the ball in the other, and that Carbo had missed the plate.

EARLY CAREER

PUERTO RICO: Ellie played for Santurce in the Puerto Rican Winter League each year from '60-'77, except in '71 when the O's went to Japan...His 112 homers in that loop rank him 2nd on the all-time list to former St. Louis Browns outfielder Willard Brown (120).

MINORS: He enjoyed his best minor league seasons in Jalisco in the Mexican League (AAA) where he hit 109 homers in 4 years and was known as the Babe Ruth of Mexico...In last season there ('67), he led the league in homers (41) and was 2nd in RBI (112).

He started his career in the Milwaukee Braves' organization ('59-'60), then spent 2 years at Winnipeg in the Cardinals' system ('62-'63) before going to Mexico.

COMMUNITY SERVICE: Was honored at special ceremonies prior to the final game at Memorial Stadium (10/6/91) for all he has done to benefit of both the Orioles and the community...In '92, the Orioles created an award (The Elrod Hendricks award) for organization players whose level of community involvement was worthy of recognition.

Chosen Man of the Year by the Oriole Advocates in '89...Received the first Jack Dunn Memorial Service Award, named after the late Orioles executive and presented by the Maryland Professional Baseball Players Association in January '88 at the 35th Annual Tops in Sports Banquet...The award was presented to him for his many selfless years of service to the community.

He was also selected the first Man of the Year by the Baltimore chapter of the National Conference of Christians and Jews in February '83 and the Special Olympics Man of the Year in '87.

Ellie received Towson State University's Distinguished Black Marylander Award in a ceremony sponsored by the university's Office of Minority Affairs.

PERSONAL: One of the most popular personalities ever to wear an Orioles uniform.....Speaks fluent Spanish...Plays the flute...Has operated two 3-week baseball camps for youngsters the past 12 summers at McDonogh School in Owings Mills.

During the off-season, just after the '92 season, Ellie and former Oriole Lee May, supervised a Little League for 8-12 year-olds in the Virgin Islands.

He and his wife, Merle, were married Jan. 14, '70 and are the parents of two sons: Ryan (8/3/72) and Ian Christopher (11/28/76). They have lived in the Randallstown area, near Baltimore, since the early '70s. Ellie has 4 children by a previous marriage: Abegail (7/13/62) Elrod Jr. (4/7/64) Elroy (10/1/65) and Berecia (8/25/67).

A slow start and finish, coupled with shoulder and heel injuries led to a decrease in virtually every offensive category except one from his '92 totals...Still, became only the 4th Oriole in the last 10 years to crack the 30-double mark (also Cal Ripken, Brady Anderson, Eddie Murray) and for the 2nd straight year, led the club in game-tying or go-ahead RBI (29).

Missed approximately 30 games due to injury...Made 130 starts, all in CF...Batted 53 points higher with men in scoring position than without (.291 to .238)...O's were 36-11 when he drove in a run.

Batted only .182 (12-66) in his first 14 games of the season and .186 (27-145) in last 37 games after August 13 when his average was at a season-high .275...Batted .294 (93-316) in 80 games in between.

Hit only .229 in April then went on the DL on May 3 with a partial separation of his left shoulder (sterno-clavicular joint)...Suffered injury diving for a double by KC's Phil Hiatt on May 2...In his first game back off the DL, his 10th inning single drove in the winning run in O's 4-3 win at NY on May 27.
Had his biggest game of the season Sep 12 when he was 3-for-4 with 5 RBI in the O's 14-5 win over Oakland, but went 5-for-38 (.132) the rest of the season while the O's went 6-13...Bothered by sore right heel the last month of the season and played in only one of the Orioles' last 9 games of '93.

He drove in a run in 7 straight games, Aug 2-8, and the O's won all 7 games as part of an 8-game win streak...Finished the streak with a sac fly vs. Cleveland in the 11th inning giving the O's a "sudden death" 9-8 win on Aug 8.

Broke a 2-for-40 drought with a 2-for-4 game off California's Chuck Finley on Sep 2, including a 2-run homer in O's 4-3 win, completing the O's first sweep in Anaheim since August of 1987.

1993 SEASON SUMMARY

Appeared in a career-high 70 games (T-6th in the American League) and was 4th in the league with 96.1 innings pitched in relief...Has averaged 99.1 innings pitched in relief per season with the Orioles.

WINS AND LOSSES: Tied for the league lead with 13 relief decisions (6-7) with Toronto's Danny Cox (7-6) and Boston's Greg Harris (6-7)...His 6 relief wins were tied for 7th in the AL and his 7 relief losses were tied for the AL lead with Harris.

HOME AND AWAY: He was 6-1 at Camden Yards, losing Apr 7 vs. Texas in the O's 2nd game of the year, then winning his last 6...He is 8-2 in 2 years at the new ballpark and has a 12-3 career mark at Baltimore...However, he was 0-6 on the road last year and has lost 7 consecutive road decisions since picking up the win in a 3-2, 10-inning contest, July 19, '92 at Texas (in the previous 2 games, Mike Mussina one-hit and Ben McDonald 2-hit the Rangers).

Of his 75 inherited runners, 19 scored (25 percent)...Has appeared in 186 of the O's 445 games (42 pct) since he joined the team, May 28, '91...Last year, appeared in 9 games in April, 13 in May, 12 in June, 11 in July, 15 in August and 10 in September/October; the O's were 10-2 in his games in June...His longest outing was 4.1 innings, twice (Apr 20 vs. Chicago and Sep 15 at Boston) and had a 4-inning outing, June 1 at Oakland.

HOT STRETCH: Was 4-0 with a 4.64 ERA (IP-33.0, ER-17) over 26 games, June 7-Aug 10...Subtract a 4-game span just before the All-Star break, July 7-11, and his ERA would dip to 2.86 (IP-28.1, ER-9).

1993 AND CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

His pitching style is reminiscent of former relievers like Dan Quisenberry, Kent Tekulve and Dick Hyde...He threw like Quisenberry when he first signed but after being influenced by Tekulve on television he began to throw more submarine than sidearm...Ellie Hendricks, the O's veteran bullpen coach, says Frohwirth reminds him mostly of Hyde.

IRON ARM: Over the past 3 seasons, has pitched an AL-high 298.2 innings in relief...Averages over 63 appearances per year since turning pro in '84 (632 games in 10 seasons).

MISCELLANEOUS: In '91-'92, he mastered California, Cleveland and Texas (5-0 with a 0.19 ERA, IP-48.0, ER-1)...Last year against those teams, he was 1-3, 3.18 (IP-22.2, ER-8)...In '93 against Boston (IP-13.0, R-0), Milwaukee (IP-5.2, R-1) and the 2-time defending World Champion Toronto Blue Jays (IP-5.2, R-1), he was a combined 2-1 with a 0.74 ERA.

PREVIOUS SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

1992: In his first full season with the O's, led the AL in relief innings pitched (106.0) and the Birds in appearances (65)...Was the first Oriole to lead the AL in relief innings since Sammy Stewart in '81...First batters faced hit .328 (58-19) with 5 walks, and 2 sacrifices...The rest of the time opponents batted .234 (334-78) off him.

Had a string of 17.2 scoreless innings over 10 appearances, Aug 21-Sep 15...Also had a stretch, June 26-July 11 in which he didn't allow an earned run over 20 innings...Pitched in 6 games in 10 days, July 3-12, working 18.2 innings...Pitched a season-high 5 innings (ND, H-3, R-0) on July 4 at Minnesota, in O's 15-inning loss...Two days later, he worked 4.2 hitless (and scoreless) innings for a no decision in O's 14-inning win over Chicago.

Worked 3 or more innings 14 times, 11 of those were scoreless...In 10-day span, July 21-31, he allowed 10 hits, 10 runs (9 earned), 2 walks and 2 home runs in 2.2 innings...Take away that ugly stretch and his ERA for the season dropped from 2.46 to 1.74.

Allowed 26 of 64 inherited runners to score (41 pct), 9th worst in the AL among the league's 52 relievers with 30 or more inherited runners...The AL average was 29.5 pct...He posted a 19.29 ERA in 5 games against the Red Sox, who scored more than one-third of the earned runs he allowed (10 of 29)...His ERA against the rest of the AL was 1.69.

1991: Did not join the O's until May 28 but was 2nd on the club in wins (7) and finished 2nd to Cal Ripken in the Most Valuable Oriole vote...Held opponents to a .190 average (337-64) and despite his late arrival, ranked 2nd in the AL in relief innings pitched (96.1), to Toronto's Duane Ward (107.1)...Among AL relievers with 50 or more innings, his 1.87 ERA was runner-up to California's Bryan Harvey (1.60).

Allowed fewer than one baserunner per inning with both Rochester (24 in 24.2 innings) and Baltimore (94 in 96.1 innings)...Pitched at least 3 innings 9 times and didn't allow a run...Saved 3 wins in 5 opportunities...Inherited 18 leads and blew only 2.

O's Debut/Great Start: Made his O's debut the day he arrived (May 28)...Appeared in 8 games his first 12 days with the club...In his first 6 appearances thru June 5, only one of 24 batters faced over 7.2 innings reached base (via strikeout-passed ball)...The first legitimate baserunner allowed was a walk to Toronto's Pat Tabler, the first man he faced in his next outing...Allowed only 7 of 51 first batters (.137) to reach safely, holding them to a .109 average (46-5)...From Aug 13 thru Sep 29, forged an 0.92 ERA in 39 innings over 19 appearances (ER-4).

PHILLIES ORGANIZATION

Spent his entire pro career (7 full seasons) in the Philadelphia organization until the Orioles signed him as a 6-year free agent...Led 4 leagues in saves: '84-Northwest League (11); '85-Carolina League (18); '87-Eastern League (19); and '90-International League (21).

1990: Started the season in Philadelphia, but was assigned to Scranton-Wilkes Barre before the end of April, and did not return to the big leagues...Lost his only decision, to Montreal on Apr 17, and made his final NL appearance on Apr 25 against Cincinnati...Appeared in more games (67) for Scranton than any other AAA pitcher...Won or saved 30 of the Barons' 68 victories (44 pct)...Was named to the IL All-Star team.

1989: Spent all but 6 weeks with the Phillies and put together a 16.1 consecutive scoreless innings streak, longest on the staff...Earned his last NL win, July 18 vs. Cincinnati.

1988: Pitched for the Phillies for about 3 weeks (June 14-July 3) and, in his only decision, earned a win over the Cubs' (and former Oriole) Rick Sutcliffe June 22...Was 4th in the IL in saves (13).

1987/ML DEBUT: Made his big league debut Aug 10 (the same day he reported) and won a 4-2 decision that night over the Cubs' (and now O's) Jamie Moyer...Led the Eastern League in saves that year (19) though he didn't spend anything close to a whole year with Reading...He had a total of 29 saves with Reading and Maine...Won the Paul Owens Award as the Phils' minor league pitcher of the year.

1986: Led 2 different teams in saves: tied for Clearwater club lead (10) and led Reading (12).

MOST VALUABLE ORIOLES, '54-'93

For the first time in 35 years and only the 2nd time in club history, a catcher was voted the winner of the Louis M. Hatter Most Valuable Oriole Award, presented annually by the Sports Boosters of Maryland, Inc...The 1993 award went to Chris Hoiles in a wide margin over Mark McLemore and Cal Ripken.

Hoiles had 11 first-place votes, one 2nd-place vote and a pair of 3rd-place votes for 60 total points...He easily outdistanced McLemore (2-5-3, 28 points) and Ripken (1-6-5, 28 points)...Also receiving points were LHP Jamie Moyer (0-2-1, 7), DH Harold Baines (0-0-2, 2) and RHP Ben McDonald (0-0-1, 1).

The first Oriole catcher to win the award was Gus Triandos who hit 30 homers and had 78 RBI in 1958...Ironically, Hoiles spent most of the summer chasing those totals which were club records by a backstop...Hoiles eclipsed the RBI mark with 82, but fell one short of matching the home run record despite missing 21 games while on the disabled list in August.

The Sports Boosters initiated the MVO trophy in '54, when the O's returned to Baltimore...Several years ago, they renamed the award in memory of the late Hatter, the distinguished and lovable "dean" of Baltimore baseball writers who spent 27 years writing Orioles baseball for the SUN.

The award-winner is selected in a vote of writers and broadcasters who cover the Orioles on a regular basis...Point values are 5-3-1.

Winners by position: Outfielders-14; first basemen-11; pitchers-8; 3rd basemen-4; shortstops-3; catcher-2 and 2nd baseman-once.

Increased his batting average, home runs, and RBI for the 5th straight season.

Just missed becoming the first AL catcher ever to hit .300 or better with 30 homers...Hit 29th on the last day, but singled and flied out in his last 2 at bats.

He and NY's Mike Stanley became the 4th and 5th catchers in AL history to hit .300 or better with 25 or more homers...The others to have done it: Boston's Carlton Fisk ('77), and the Yanks' Yogi Berra ('50), and Bill Dickey ('37-'38).

Led AL catchers in batting average, runs, homers, RBI (tied with Stanley), slugging and on-base pct, and was 2nd in hits to Minnesota's Brian Harper.

His 29 homers are the 2nd highest ever for an Orioles catcher behind Gus Triandos who hit 30 in 1958...Set the Orioles record for most RBI in a season by a catcher with 82, surpassing the old mark of 78 set by Triandos in '58, despite missing 21 games, Aug 3-24, while on the disabled list with a strained lower left back muscle.

Was 5th in the AL in both slugging pct (.585) and on-base pct (.416)...Averaged an RBI every 5.1 at bats, 8th best ratio in the AL.

Had at least one extra base hit in 6 straight games, Aug 31-Sep 5 during O's 8-game win streak that brought them from 6 GB to 1/2 GB...Also named AL Player of the Week, July 5-11 (.435, HR-4, RBI-10).

VS. NEW YORK: Took a measure of revenge against the Yankees in '93 (see below under "1992" for the reason for his retribution)...He hit 6 home runs against the Yankees, most by an Oriole against the Bronx Bombers since Curt Blefary, hit 6 in '65...Hoiles also batted .441 (15-34) with 10 extra-base hits, 10 runs scored and 15 RBI.

Finished 4th in homers among ML catchers behind Philadelphia's Darren Daulton (27), Detroit's Mickey Tettleton (23, he hit 9 others as a DH) and New York's Matt Nokes (22).

Finished with the fewest RBI (40) in ML history for a player with 20 or more homers...That distinction previously belonged to Kevin Maas of the Yankees in '90 (RBI-41, HR-21).

Was 6th in the AL in home runs (14 in 62 games), and 5th in slugging (.539) and on base pct (.403) when he was struck by a pitch from NY's Tim Leary on June 21 and suffered a fractured right wrist (ulna bone)...Spent the next 2 months on the disabled list missing 51 games...O's played that game under protest after claiming Leary was doctoring the ball...ESPN's cameras appeared to have caught him in the act, and it looked as though it was an illegal pitch which hit Hoiles...However, no action was taken by AL President Dr. Bobby Brown.

Returned to the Orioles on Aug 18 and appeared in 34 games batting .265 (31-117) with 6 home runs and 12 RBI...Didn't play after Sep 26 due to soreness in right wrist...Underwent surgery on Oct 6.

Caught the O's 4-man no-hitter on July 13 at Oakland and drove in the game-winning run in the O's 2-0 triumph with a 5th inning single.

Historic Homer: In an intrasquad game on March 6, he may have become the first player (excluding Senior League and Old Timers games) ever to hit a home run off a pitcher already in the Hall of Fame when he hit a towering, but perhaps wind-aided drive off Jim Palmer at the O's spring training complex at Twin Lakes Park.

1990: Recalled by the Orioles from Rochester on 3 occasions during the season...Started in AAA and was leading the International League in batting (.394, 50-127, G-32, HR-10, RBI-31) when the first recall came, June 3...He appeared in 10 games between June 5-July 5, then was optioned to the Red Wings, July 13.

Hit his first ML home run June 27 vs. Cleveland in the bottom of the 10th inning, a game-winning, 3-run shot off Sergio Valdez, giving the O's a 6-3 victory.

Rochester: His .348 average at Rochester was bettered by only one other Triple A player with 250 or more plate appearances: Albuquerque's Luis Lopez (.353)...Hit 18 homers in only 247 at bats, one every 13.7 ABs, 3rd best home run frequency in Triple A behind Pawtucket's Phil Plantier (1/13.0), and Las Vegas' Jerald Clark (1/13.4).

Added 2 more homers in post-season, including game-winning, 3-run shot against Omaha in the opening game of the Triple A Alliance Championship...In 27 games at Rochester, between May 15-July 25, he hit 11 homers (26 RBI) in 27 games...On May 19 he was hit in the face by a pitch from Indianapolis' Jim Davins and took 15 stitches above his left eye...Returned May 27...In 3 games before he was hit, and 2 games after, he went 13-for-18 with 4 homers and 8 RBI...Named the DH on Baseball America's Triple A All-Star team.

1993 SEASON SUMMARY

Led the Orioles with a 3.39 ERA...Since '84 only one Oriole has had a lower ERA with a qualifying number of innings: Mike Mussina's 2.54 ERA in '92...The last Oriole to lose as many games as McDonald with an ERA as low was Dave McNally in '73 who lost 17 games with a 3.21 mark.

Only 2 others in the majors last season had as low an ERA with a losing record: KC's David Cone (11-14, 3.33) and Los Angeles' Tom Candiotti (8-10, 3.12).

Entering the final day of the season he was 4th in the AL in ERA (3.09), but allowed 8 ER in 1.2 innings in an 11-6 loss to Toronto raising his final ERA to 3.39, 12th best in the league.

Allowed only 11.3 base runners per 9 IP, tied with teammate Mike Mussina for 9th best ratio in the AL...Through his first 7 starts had allowed an AL-high 16.5 base runners per 9 IP (68 in 37 innings).

Was 9th in the AL in strikeouts (171), the first Oriole to finish in the Top 10 since Steve Stone in 1980...Struck out career-high 10 batters in 5-1 win at California on Sep 1.

Held opponents to a .228 average (185-812), 4th best in the AL, including only .206 after the All-Star Break...Through his first 7 starts, opponents had hit .318 (151-48), 3rd highest among AL starters.

Was tied for 6th in the AL with 7 complete games, all coming in 16 starts after the All-Star Break...Tied with Chuck Finley for the most in the majors in the 2nd half...Tossed 4 complete games in September, the most in any month by an Oriole since Mike Boddicker had 4 in September of 1984.

IN PALMER'S COMPANY: Ben allowed 3 earned runs or less in 28 of his 34 starts, including 14 straight, May 11-July 20...Jim Palmer was the last Oriole to accomplish either feat...In '82 he had 28 starts of 3 ER or less and in '72 he had 14 straight such starts.

Ben allowed one earned run or less 15 times in 33 starts, including 5 straight starts, June 1-24...Allowed 2 ER or less 20 times, but won only 9 of those games.

LOW-HIT GAMES: On July 20, he pitched the 30th one-hitter in club history, the first of his career, when he beat Kansas City and David Cone, 7-0...Allowed only a single to Gary Gaetti in the 4th...Threw the 3rd 2-hitter of his career on Sep 28 in a 9-1 win over NY...Combined with Mark Williamson and Gregg Olson on a 3-hitter to beat Boston and Roger Clemens, 4-0, on Aug 6...Took a 2-hit shutout into the 9th inning on June 29 against Toronto, but lost 2-1...Threw the 3rd 4-hitter of his career in a 5-1 win at California on Sep 1.

HOME/ROAD: Had the AL's 4th best ERA at home 2.72 ERA (IP-132.1, ER-40) and was 10-4, the most home wins by an Oriole since Scott McGregor won 11 at Memorial Stadium in 1984.(In 1992, had the 2nd highest home ERA in the AL (4.90) and was 5-8). He was 3rd in the AL in home wins behind Milwaukee's Cal Eldred and Seattle's Randy Johnson, 11 each...On the flip side, Ben tied with Eldred for the most road losses in the AL (3-10)...His 15 career wins at Camden Yards are tied with Rick Sutcliffe for the most there.

LACK OF SUPPORT: O's scored 97 runs during the 220.1 innings in which he was on the mound, 3.96 per 9 IP, 4th lowest in the AL...Was the victim of a shutout 5 times and the O's scored 1 or 2 runs for him 8 other times...Six of his losses were by 2-0, 2-1, 1-0, 2-0, 3-2, and 3-2.

JUNE/SEPTEMBER: Had the best ERA in June among AL starters (1.53, IP-29.1, H-26, ER-5) and the league's 3rd best in September (1.66, IP-48.2, H-24, ER-9)...In 23 starts between June 1 and Oct 1, he worked to a 2.41 ERA (IP-171.2, ER-46), but won less than half of those starts (11-8)...And that stretch includes a 15-1 loss at Detroit, Aug 10.

MISCELLANEOUS: Walked a career-high 7 batters in his first start April 9 at Seattle (faced only 12 batters) in a 6-0 loss to Erik Hanson...Walked only 3.2 batters per 9 innings the rest of the season...Lost 1-0 at NY on Aug 15 on a controversial homer by Don Mattingly...Was 4-1 in spring training (3.54), the most wins by an Oriole pitcher in the spring since Jim Palmer was 4-0 in 1975.

1993 SEASON AND MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

DEPENDABLE: Has not missed a starting assignment the last 2 years and has made 69 starts over that span...The last Oriole to make that many starts over back-to-back seasons was Scott McGregor in 1982-83 (71)...In the AL, only one other pitcher- Mike Moore with 72- has made more starts over the past 2 seasons...Minnesota's Kevin Tapani and Texas' Kevin Brown have also made 69 starts.

HOME RUNS: Although he allowed 2 home runs to Toronto's Joe Carter in his last inning of the '93 season on October 3, he allowed only 17 homers in 220.1 innings pitched- the AL's 9th best ratio...In '92, he allowed 32 homers, 2nd most in the majors behind Detroit's Bill Gullickson (35).

FIELDING: Made 2 errors in '93, both coming against Milwaukee in different starts...His fielding error on May 22 was his first since July 31, '90 at Toronto...During his career, has handled 162 chances and made 3 errors (one throwing error).

PREVIOUS SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

1992: Made 35 starts, only 2 pitchers in the majors made more, including teammate Rick Sutcliffe (36)...Had a 6-game win streak and a 6-game losing streak, both career-highs.

Was 8th in the AL with a rate of 6.3 strikeouts per 9 innings...Posted a 3.39 ERA in 16 starts after the All-Star break but was only 5-7...He had gone 8-6 the first half with a 5.00 ERA.

Was 7-2 on June 1, but won only 6 times in last 24 starts (6-11, 4.67, IP-156, ER-81).

Although he had only one win in his last 10 starts (1-6), he worked to a 3.94 ERA (IP-61.2, H-61, ER-27)...During that span he went 6 or more innings and allowed 3 runs or less 7 times, but the O's scored only 29 runs in those 10 starts...His only win during his last 10 starts came Sep 29 at Detroit in a 7-2 decision over Frank Tanana...Had a no-hitter for 5.1 innings before Dave Bergman singled.

Allowed 23 homers in his first 19 starts, but only 9 in his last 16...Yielded 4 homers against the Yankees on June 21, the first Oriole to throw 4 gopher balls in a game since Ken Dixon on Apr 14, 1987.

Threw a pair of 2-hitters: 2-0 in his first start at home over Cleveland on Apr 9 and at Texas on July 18, the day after Mike Mussina pitched a one-hitter against the Rangers...Started the season, 5-0, becoming the only Oriole starter to go 5-0 in 2 different seasons (also went 5-0 in '90).

1991: Originally scheduled to be the O's Opening Day starter, instead opened the season on the disabled list for the 2nd straight year and spent 48 of the season's first 83 days on the DL with a right elbow strain...Activated Apr 19 and made 7 starts (2-3, 6.95) before going on the DL again May 24 with a re-occurrence of the injury.

Made 2 rehab starts at Rochester in June... Returned to O's on July 1 with a 10-2 win over Detroit (IP-8, H-2, R-0) at home...Remained in the rotation until he was scratched from his last start on Sep 13 with soreness in right shoulder...Went 2-0 in his first 3 starts (3.00) after returning, then won only twice in his last 11 starts: 2-5, 4.42, IP-73.1, H-82, ER-36.

Left-handed batters hit only .215 (256-55); but righties hit nearly 100 points better (.313, 227-71)...Opposition batted .318 (88-28) with men in scoring position, 190 points higher than was hit off him the previous year in such situations (.128).

Didn't win back-to-starts all year and only once did he win 2 straight decisions...Lone CG was May 17 vs. California, a 6-hit, 5-1 win...Was winless in his last 7 home starts (0-4).

He and 4 other Oriole pitchers combined on an 8-hit shutout and a 3-0 win at Chicago on Aug 2 setting an O's record for most pitchers used in a shutout...Ben went 5.2 innings and Mike Flanagan, Mark Williamson, Jim Poole and Gregg Olson did the rest.

1990, FIRST SINCE VALENZUELA: Joined the Orioles at mid-season, made 6 relief appearances before moving into the rotation and then became the only Oriole ever to win his first 5 ML starts and first 6 major league decisions...He was the first major leaguer to win his first 5 ML starts since the Dodgers' Fernando Valenzuela, who won his first 8 in 1981.

Among AL pitchers with 100+ innings pitched, McDonald was:
-5th in the AL in ERA (2.43)
-First in fewest base runners per 9 innings (9.33)
-2nd in lowest batting average against (.205) behind Nolan Ryan (.188)
-Held lefthanders to a .181 (216-39) average lowest in the AL

It Seems It Was The Seams: While pitching at Rochester, he developed a series of persistent blisters on the middle finger of his pitching hand...It was believed the higher seams on the International League ball led to the problem...Orioles General Manager Roland Hemond sent a dozen Major League balls to Rochester and McDonald pitched a simuluated game in the bullpen with them....The blister did not appear and he was recalled by the Orioles on July 3.

First ML Start: Became the 4th Oriole ever to throw a shutout in his first ML start when on July 21 he pitched a 4-hitter at home beating Chicago, 2-0...Threw 85 pitches striking out 4 and walking one...Joined Tom Phoebus (Sep 15, '66); Dave McNally (Sep 26, '62) and Charlie Beamon (Sep 26, '56) as the only Orioles to throw shutout in first ML start...Was the youngest Oriole to throw a shutout since Storm Davis (21 years/6 months) in 1983.

1989, ML DEBUT: Was the first player selected in the baseball's free agent draft June 5...First time O's had the top pick...It marked the first time in the history of the draft (since 1965) that a team had the first selection while in first place...Ben received the highest rating ever for a pitcher by the MLB Scouting Bureau...Signed with the Orioles Aug 19.

Four days after signing with the Orioles, he made his pro debut with 3 innings on Aug 23 pitching for the Class A Frederick (MD) Keys at home against Winston-Salem (Cubs) in the Carolina League (IP-3, H-5, R-1, ER-1, BB-0, SO-2).

1993 SEASON SUMMARY

A non-roster invitee last spring, he tied his major league career high with 12 wins, his first winning season in the majors since his rookie year in 1986...Only 4 active pitchers have gone as long between winning seasons: Steve Howe (1982-1991); Danny Darwin (1982-89); Jim Gott (1984-1991) and Bruce Ruffin (1986-1993).

His 12 wins were twice as many as he had won in the major leagues over the 4 previous years ('89-'92) combined...Overall, he was 20 games under .500 in the big leagues before last year.

Began the season at AAA Rochester, but was recalled by O's on May 20 and won the 2nd most games by an O's pitcher who started the season in the minors... Only Mike Boddicker won more, 16 in 1983...Had the most wins in a season by an O's lefty since Jeff Ballard won 18 in 1989.

Was 10 innings shy of qualifying with the AL's 4th best walks-per-9 innings ratio (2.25)...Allowed only 41 of 167 leadoff hitters to reach, 2nd best ratio in the AL behind Kevin Appier (58 of 247).

Allowed 2 ER or less in 17 of his 25 starts, including his last 9 turns (5-4, 2.09, IP-64.2, ER-15)...The last time he allowed more than 2 ER in a game was Aug 8...Including his 8 starts at Rochester, he allowed 2 ER or less in 25 of 33 starts in '93.

Lost his first 3 starts with the Orioles and his last 3, but was 12-3 in between in 19 starts (3.24)...Over that 3-month span, June 10-Sep 12, he won more games than any lefty in the majors...Only Jack McDowell (13), Greg Maddux (13) and Bob Tewksbury (12) won as many games in the majors.

Had a 5.74 ERA after his first 3 starts, but a 3.17 (IP-136.1, ER-48) mark the rest of the season in 22 starts...Between June 10 and July 24, he was 7-1 (2.62, IP-61.2, H-54, ER-18).

First Oriole to win two 1-0 games in a season since Mike Flanagan in 1983 and the first to have started three 1-0 games since Jim Palmer in 1978...Among his 10 wins: beat Jack McDowell, 1-0; Chuck Finley, 1-0; Frank Viola, 2-1.

His win over Viola at Boston on June 10 was his first in the major leagues since, Sep 15, '90 (in relief) and his first as a starter since Aug 3, '90 when he threw a 3-hit CG for Texas over Toronto...Had been 0-11 in his previous 16 major league starts...Like Ben McDonald, lost a 1-0 decision at Yankee Stadium during the season...Moyer lost on May 25 to Bob Wickman on Pat Kelly's 5th-inning homer.

Shut out KC on 4 hits July 6, his first shutout since June 3, 1988 for the Cubs over the Mets (a 3-hitter)...It was his first complete game since Aug 3, 1990 over Toronto.

On Aug 18 at Seattle his 8-1 complete game win broke the O's 8-game losing streak...Fanned season-high 8 batters...Between Aug 18-Aug 29 had a string of 20 consecutive scoreless innings, a career-high...Also had a stretch of 17 straight scoreless innings, July 1-6...He and Fernando Valezuela had a string of 40.2 scoreless innings, June 3-July 10.

Had two 5-game win streaks, matching his career high (also in 1988-89 with the Cubs-Rangers).

AL'S BEST ON THE ROAD: Had the lowest road ERA in the AL (2.44, IP-84.2, ER-23) and was 9-4 in 13 road starts...Only Cincinnati's Jose Rijo was better (2.35).

MISCELLANEOUS: Was 9-2 against the AL West...Was 10 innings shy of qualifying with the AL's 14th best ERA...Lefties hit higher off him than righthanded hitters (.308 to .256)...Was 3-0 in 3 astroturf starts with a 0.74 ERA (IP-24.1, H-19, ER-2)...Named Outstanding New Oriole by the Oriole Advocates.

ROCHESTER: Was leading the International League in wins (6) and ERA (1.67) at the time of his promotion on May 20.

1989: With Texas was 3-0 with a 2.28 ERA over his first 3 starts, thru May 2...Struggled the rest of the way, winning but one of 10 decisions...Missed almost 3 months due to an injury to his left shoulder...Returned to the Rangers in September...Defeated Dave Schmidt and the Orioles 8-1, hurling a complete game Sep 10.

Finished with the 7th best winning percentage in the AL (14-6, .700) and as a result has the best lifetime winning pct in Orioles history (min 50 decisions) with a .692 mark (36-16)...Also 2nd best among active pitchers behind Toronto's Juan Guzman...For more information see below under "Winning."

Missed 6 weeks during the season with a sore right shoulder and lower back pain...Was on the disabled list, June 22-Aug 19, with the shoulder injury...Still led the club in wins for the 2nd straight year.

Worked to a 3.05 ERA thru his first 13 starts and was tied for the major league lead in wins (9-2) on June 11...However he won only 2 games over the next 10 weeks...Was 2-2 in 6 starts (9.00, IP-30, H-46, ER-30) and spent a month on the DL...Returned Aug 20 and was 3-2 (IP-40.1, H-38, ER-20) in 6 starts before the return of soreness in his shoulder and back sidelined him in mid-September.

On June 7 after 12 starts was 7th in the AL with a 2.86 ERA, but his ERA the rest of the season in 13 starts was 6.37 (IP-91.1, ER-54).

Allowed 11.3 base runners per 9 innings, tied with Ben McDonald for 9th in the AL...Walked 2 or less in 20 of 25 starts and was 6th in the AL with 2.36 walks per 9 IP.

Was the 3rd toughest to steal on in the AL- allowing only 3 of 9 (33%) base stealers to make it...O's scored 114 runs in his 167.2 innings of work, 6.12 runs per game, 3rd best run support in the AL.

STRIKEOUTS: Had the AL's 5th best strikeouts-to-walks ratio (117 to 44)...On May 16 at Detroit, he tied a club record with 14 strikeouts, a mark that was last accomplished in a regular season game more than 35 years ago (Connie Johnson, Sep 2, '57 vs. NY)...Bob Turley (Apr 21,'54 vs. Cle.) and Mike Boddicker (Oct 6, '83 vs. Chi. in the ALCS) also have a share of the record.

In his 8-2 win at California on Aug 31 he struck out 6 straight batters in the 4th and 5th innings, one shy of the club record of 7 by Sammy Stewart in '78.

ALL-STAR: Was the youngest pitcher on the All-Star staff for the 2nd consecutive year...Became one of only 2 Orioles in club history to make the All-Star team in each of his first 2 full seasons in the major leagues (Andy Etchebarren, '66 and '67 is the other).

BACK-TO-BACK SHUTOUTS: Blanked the Twins in back-to-back starts Apr 29 (11-0 home) and May 5 (3-0 at Minn)...Became the first Oriole to throw consecutive complete game shutouts since Jim Palmer in '82...The only other pitcher to whitewash the Twins in 2 uninterrupted starts was Sandy Koufax in the '65 World Series...Became only the 3rd Oriole to blank the same team in back-to-back starts joining Hoyt Wilhelm who did it against the Yankees, May 22-28, '59 and Tom Phoebus, who did it against the Washington Senators, April 13-18, '69.

1993 AND MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

WINNING: Reached 36 major league wins in 69 games; only 2 pitchers have reached 36 wins with the Orioles in less time and neither were original Orioles...Mike Cuellar had 36 wins in his first 63 games with the Birds in '69-'70 after coming over to the Orioles from Houston prior to the '69 season...Steve Stone earned 36 wins in 68 games with the Orioles in '79-'80 after coming over to the Orioles from the White Sox prior to the '79 season.

Only 2 pitchers in club history have had a better record after 52 decisions with the Orioles than Mike's 36-16 mark: Steve Stone and Jim Palmer were both 37-15...Mike Cuellar was also 36-16...Wally Bunker, Storm Davis, and Mike Boddicker were all 34-18 after their first 52 decisions with the Orioles.

Mike lost the first 2 starts of his big league career in '91, but hasn't lost consecutive starts since...Only one other time has he lost 2 straight decisions, June 17-27, '92...Is 21-7 in his past 34 starts.

MISCELLANEOUS: Was 11-3 vs. the AL West for the 2nd straight year...Lefties and righties both hit .256 off him in '93...Lifetime opponents have batted .245 (452-1846)—righthanded hitters (.258, 247-957); lefties (.231, 205-889)...Frank Thomas is 10-for-17 (.588) lifetime off Mike with 3 homers and 5 RBI...Is 6-2 lifetime on astroturf.

His 2.54 ERA was 3rd best in the AL and the lowest by an Oriole (excluding abbreviated '81 season) since Jim Palmer in 1978 (2.46)...The last time an AL pitcher Mike's age or younger posted an ERA that low was in 1976 when Mark Fidrych (2.34) and Frank Tanana (2.43) did it at 22 and 23 respectively.

Led the O's in innings pitched (241.0) and was 8th in the AL...His inning total was more than any Oriole since Mike Boddicker's 261 in '84, despite missing a couple of starts, May 21-June 1, with a flu-like stomach ailment.

In his first start after the All-Star break, July 17 at Texas, pitched the 29th one-hitter in club history, winning 8-0 with 10 strikeouts over 20-game winner Kevin Brown...Kevin Reimer broke up the no-hit bid with a one-out double in the 5th, a ball that landed 6 inches inside the right field foul line.

At 23 years-8 months became the youngest Oriole pitcher to make the All-Star team since Chuck Estrada (22) in '60...Was 11-2 (2.44) on the road, tied with Jack McDowell for the most road wins in the AL.

1993 SEASON SUMMARY

Enjoyed one of his finest seasons to obliterate the memory of his injury-plagued '92 campaign...Opened the season with 12 straight scoreless appearances (IP-10.2, H-6, BB-6, SO-6), Apr 5-May 22 and had a stretch, Apr 5-June 11 in which he had 18 scoreless appearances in 19 games (ERA-1.40, IP-19.1, R-4, ER-3).

STREAKS: Appeared in 12 games between May 24-June 26, all victories by the Orioles...Had a 10-game scoreless streak, Aug 13-Sep 8 (IP-10.0, H-1, BB-4, SO-3) including a 7-game span, Aug 13-Sep 2 in which he retired all 11 batters he faced.

AMONG THE LEADERS: Was 2nd among AL relief pitchers with .167 batting average (15-for-90) against with runners on base to Kansas City's Billy Brewer (.116, 8-for-69)...Was tied for 8th in the AL with 14 "holds" with 3 others including teammate Todd Frohwirth...His highest ERA all year was 2.38...He stranded 51 runners, most in the AL.

He allowed only 50 runners to reach base in 50.1 innings and allowed only 14 of 65 inherited runners to score (21.5 pct); fell just short of ranking in Top 10 among AL relievers (Minnesota's Larry Casian was 9th at 21.3 pct and Detroit's Mike Henneman was 10th at 21.4 pct)...Of his 55 appearances, 33 were hitless and 45 were scoreless.

SAVES: Saved 2 games (entered '93 with one save in 51 ML games)...His save, July 24 at Minnesota (IP-1.2, H-1, R-0, BB-0, SO-0) in the O's 9-2 triumph, was his first since May 18, '91 for Texas vs. Boston...Also earned a save Sep 2 at California.

1993 AND CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

His 3-year record with the Orioles is: 5-3, 2.01 ERA (G-85, SV-3, IP-89.2, H-52, R-31, ER-20, BB-31, SO-66).

PREVIOUS SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

1992: Was placed on the 15-day disabled list Apr 3 with tendinitis in his left shoulder and did not pitch for the O's until Sep 8...During rehab assignment at Hagerstown (AA), made his first professional career start, a no decision, May 25 vs. Albany (IP-2, H-2) after 207 relief appearances...Made 2 subsequent starts for the Suns...Was activated from the DL, June 23 and was optioned to Rochester...Longest outing of the season came Aug 21, at Toledo (IP-4.0, H-1, R/ER-1)

By August 13 (1), had appeared in 8 games and the opposition had gone 3-for-39 (.077) against him with no walks and 13 strikeouts in 11 innings, and had still not given up an earned run...Allowed first run in his 9th appearance of year, August 13 (2) vs Texas, when he gave up a single to Kevin Reimer who later scored on a home run by Juan Gonzalez.

In his 3rd start, he pitched the first complete game of his career (a rain-shortened, 8-inning win over Texas on July 24 at home)...Was the first complete game by an O's lefty since Aug 21, '89, when Jeff Ballard beat Milwaukee.

On Aug 29, he pitched 7.2 innings and combined with Todd Frohwirth and Gregg Olson to shut out Seattle on 4 hits, ending a club record streak for the Mariners which had seen them get 10+ hits in 12 straight games.

Threw a 5-hit shutout at New York on July 29, the O's first shutout in Yankee Stadium since Scott McGregor beat Tommy John, 1-0, on Sep 25, '81.

Rochester: Was 2nd in the International League in strikeouts (115) at the time of his recall...Averaged 10.2 strikeouts per 9 innings...Struck out 14 batters in 8 innings is his last start before recall, an 8-4 win over Pawtucket on July 13.

Twice fanned 16 batters in a game: May 8 (IP-9) vs. Kinston and May 30 (IP-7, faced 28 batters) vs. Salem, but didn't win either game...In his first start of the season, he hurled a 7-inning 1-hitter with 10 strikeouts over Lynchburg.

While with Frederick, he made his Memorial Stadium debut, June 10, in a game against Peninsula as part of a major league-minor league doubleheader...Won, 8-1, with 9 strikeouts over 7 innings.

1989: Was leading the NY-Penn League in strikeouts (45 in 31 innings) and was 2nd in ERA (1.16) when promoted to the Carolina League...Struck out 14 in a 2-hitter over Elmira...In the Florida Instructional League, he fanned 46 in 32 innings and was 2-0 with a 1.69 ERA.

PRO DEBUT: Made his pro debut June 24, '88 at Bluefield (Rookie) and worked the final 2 innings of the O's 3-2, 27-inning victory over Burlington (Indians)...He struck out Mark Lewis, the 3rd player selected in that year's draft, for the final out of the game...That same season, he pitched 2 innings for the Orioles in an exhibition at Rochester July 25.

BROTHER ACT: Played baseball and football at LaVega High School in Waco, TX...As a sophomore, he and older brother, Ricky, a senior right-hander, formed 2/3 of the team's pitching staff.

Ricky was the Yankees' 35th round draft pick in '88...In 5 minor league seasons ('88-'92), he had a 20-26 record.

PERSONAL: He and his wife, the former Kerry Garrett, have 2 children: Trey (11-15-88), Jade Ashlee (12-2-93).

ORIOLES COMMUNITY SERVICES YEAR IN REVIEW

In 1993, the Baltimore Orioles continued the rich commitment to the community through fund-raising events, appearances, youth programs, and charitable contributions. The impact was directed to assist the community in the areas of Health, Education, Social Issues, and Youth Sports.

Through promotions such as Hits for the Homeless Night (Parent's Anonymous) and The Orioles Wives' Cruise for Kids to Benefit the Johns Hopkins Children's Center, the Orioles helped raise or contributed over $500,000 to local charities. These contributions do not include the Orioles Wives Canned Food Drive which collected over five tons of food for the Maryland Food Bank, the 2,000 pieces of equipment donated during the Cardboard to Leather equipment collection, or the 800 children's books from Books to the Ballpark Night, which were distributed through Baltimore's Book Bank Project.

Orioles players were also busy making over 300 appearances, including free clinics throughout the Orioles region in Baltimore City, Baltimore County, Harford County, Montgomery County, York, PA, and Fairfax, VA. Included in the appearances were 60 school appearances promoting reading, a drug-free life-style, setting goals, and youth achievement.

In the tradition of Orioles bullpen coach, "Mr. Community," Elrod Hendricks, many Orioles players excelled in their personal community commitments. The 65 Roses Club members Mike Devereaux, Jim Poole, and Gregg Olson attended Cystic Fibrosis fund-raising events and provided support for the 65 Roses Clubs which raised $50,000.

Other Orioles players such as Cal Ripken Jr., Rick Sutcliffe, Jamie Moyer, and Harold Baines also continued to make significant contributions to the Orioles community.

RECORD HOMER GETS ORANGE SEAT FOR CAL

On July 15, 1993, Cal Ripken hit his 278th home run as a shortstop, most ever hit by a major leaguer at that position surpassing Hall-of-Famer Ernie Banks' previous record of 277.

Cal's home run was hit off Minnesota's Scott Erickson in the sixth inning of the Orioles' 5-3 win. The home run landed in the lower box seats in left field and is designated by an orange seat.

STREAK: Completed his 11th straight season without missing a game as his consecutive games streak reached 1897, all starts, 2nd in major league history to Lou Gehrig's 2130 (2128 starts).

Was the only major leaguer in '93 to start every game...Florida's Jeff Conine was the only other major leaguer not to miss a game in '93, his consecutive games streak of 162 is the 2nd longest current streak in the majors behind Ripken...Cal hasn't been out of the starting lineup since the 2nd game of a doubleheader on May 29, '82. (see "Iron Man", below for more details) Cal has also started the past 10 All-Star Games, the longest current streak in the majors.

1993 SEASON SUMMARY

Led ML shortstops in home runs for the 9th time in the last 11 years and in RBI for the 8th time...Led AL shortstops in assists (495) for 7th time in his career, tying a league record...Also led AL shortstops in total chances (738) for the 5th time.

Became the top home run hitting shortstop in major league history when he collected his 278th as a shortstop off Minnesota's Scott Erickson at Camden Yards on July 15 surpassing mark held by Ernie Banks that had stood since Banks moved from SS to 1B in '62.

Received career-high 19 intentional walks, 6th in the AL, but still led the majors in at-bats (641).

Got off to a slow start with 2 homers and 15 RBI in first 40 games, but hit 21 homers and drove in 65 runs in his next 91 games thru Aug 29...Then hit only one homer in his last 31 games...Despite slow start and finish, still recorded 24 homers and 90 RBI, just below his career average of 25 homers and 94 RBI.

Hit career-high 8 three-run homers...Hit 2 vs. the Indians, both following intentional walks: June 18, off Jose Mesa following intentional walk to Mark McLemore, and Aug 7, off Frank Tavarez following free pass to Harold Baines.

After his first 47 games on May 2, his average was at a season-low .199 (37-186) with 4 homers and 18 RBI...However, the rest of the season he hit .281 (128-455) with 20 homers, and 72 RBI in 115 games.

Batted .302 (94-311) in last 79 games with 14 HR and 48 RBI after average was at .215 (71-330) on July 6...His average was at .228 (97-426) as late as Aug 5, but he hit .317 (68-215) the rest of the way in 54 games.

Batted .310 (9-29) on a 0-2 count, 5th in the AL...Had season-high 10-game hitting streak, July 7-19, (.410, 16-39).

Singled off Chicago's Wilson Alvarez on July 10 at Camden Yards for his 2000th major league hit.

His wife, Kelly, gave birth to the couple's second child, Ryan Calvin Ripken, on July 26, an off-day...Cal's first day back he hit a 3-run homer in the 8th inning off Toronto's Duane Ward to give the O's a 5-3 lead (Toronto scored 3 in the bottom of the inning to win 6-5).

Appeared in his 11th All-Star Game, 10th start, a record for most games by an AL shortstop (for more information see below under "All-Star").

AMONG SHORTSTOPS: In '93, Cal accounted for 22% of all home runs hit by AL shortstops....Had twice as many homers as any AL shortstop. Detroit's Travis Fryman was the closest to him with 11 (homers hit only while playing SS)...Fryman's 55 RBI were also the closest any shortstop had to Ripken's 90..The rest of the ML shortstops averaged 7 homers and 60 RBI.

Won the '93 Silver Slugger Award presented by The Sporting News and Hillerich and Bradsby to the top offensive players at each position...It was the 7th time he's won the award, tying Ryne Sandberg and Wade Boggs for the most times selected to the team.

BEFORE/AFTER ALL-STAR BREAK: Didn't go 2 straight games without a hit after the All-Star Break...Had exactly 12 homers and 45 RBI before and after the break, but hit .292 (84-288) after and .229 (81-353) before.

BATTING MISCELLANEOUS: There have been two 1-0 games in Camden Yards' brief history and a Cal Ripken single has won both of them including a decision over Chuck Finley and California on August 24 (also vs. Toronto on June 5, '92)...Had a pair of 2-homer games giving him 13 2-homer games in his career...Hit 2 at home vs. Cleveland on Aug 7 (Bob Ojeda, Frank Tavarez) and at Texas on Aug 27 (Kenny Rogers, Tom Henke)...Had 16 infield hits, including a 75-footer in the 8th inning on Apr 18 to drive in winning run in O's 4-3 triumph over California.

Batted .200 in May, the 5th worst month of his career ahead of: Aug '81 (.118, his first month in the majors), Apr '82 (.123), Sep '89 (.198) and July '92 (.178).

IRON MAN

Cal's 1897-game streak (all starts) began May 30, '82, the day after Floyd Rayford started in his place at 3rd base in the 2nd game of a doubleheader vs. the Blue Jays at Baltimore...During the consecutive games streak, the Orioles have played 17,271 innings and Cal played in 17,135 of them (99.2 percent). Should the streak continue, Cal would reach 2,000 games in the O's 103rd game of '94, which barring rain would be July 30 at home vs. Toronto...He would tie Lou Gehrig's streak of 2130 in the O's 71st game of the '95 season.

WORLD RECORD: Sachio Kinugasa (Sah-chio Ke-new-ga-sa) played in 2215 consecutive games for the Hiroshima Carp in Japan's Central League from Oct 19, '70 thru Oct 22, '87. A third baseman, Kinugasa batted .270 and hit 504 homers during his career with the Carp. [Editors's note: the regular season in Japan is 130 games.]

DURING THE STREAK: A total of 3072 ML players have gone on the disabled list during Cal's consecutive games streak...While Cal has started the past 1870 games at shortstop, the other 27 major league clubs have used a combined total of 441 starting shortstops (311 different players)... See the complete list that follows.

During his streak at shortstop, Cal has hit 289 home runs, driven in 1066 runs and made 195 errors, while opposing shortstops have 71 homers, 671 RBI, and committed 277 errors.

EARLY OUTS: Cal has come of a game early only 52 times during the streak: '82-1...'87-2...'88-2...'89-4...'90-11...'91-15...'92-9...'93-8...For comparison's sake, Lou Gehrig came out early 69 times during his streak...The earliest Cal has left were the 2 games from which he was ejected- both in the first inning: Sep 25, '87 by Tim Welke (vs. Yankees) and Aug 7, '89 by Drew Coble (vs. Minnesota)...In both cases he was thrown out after arguing a strike call.

Three other times he's come out before the 7th inning, all the final game of a season: '88, '89 and '92...In all 3 cases he left after batting in the 4th inning.

STARTS: Cal has started every game of his streak...Twice during Lou Gehrig's streak the Iron Horse didn't start, both were in the first year: 1925 (July 5, the 33rd game of the streak and July 19, the 48th game)...Both times Fred Merkle, renowned for a miscue with the Cubs two decades earlier, was the Yankees' starter at 1B...Gehrig started the last 2082 games of his streak.

MOST AT ONE POSITION: For the first month of the streak, Cal was primarily a 3rd baseman...The first 27 games of the streak were at 3B...He made his last start there on June 30, '82...Beginning July 1, '82, Cal has played 1870 consecutive games at short, more than anyone has ever played at a single position...Lou Gehrig's longest streak at 1B was 885 straight games (he played LF for one game in '30 while Babe Ruth pitched and he played RF for one game in '31 while Ruth played 1B).

Everett Scott, also a shortstop who played most of his big league career ('14-'26) with the Red Sox and Yankees, held the previous record for most consecutive games at one position (1307)...Scott, incidentally, played 109 games for Jack Dunn's International League O's, and batted .335 with 11 home runs in '27...Note that Scott's streak, surpassed by Cal in '90, remains the 3rd longest all-time regardless of position.

LONGEST O'S STREAKS: The 3 longest streaks previous to Cal's in Orioles history were by Brooks Robinson (463), Eddie Murray (444) and Billy Gardner (361)...Cal, who has played in every Orioles game in each of the last 10 years, is one of 5 Orioles to have played every game in a season at least once: Brooks and Murray-4 times, Gardner and Bobby Grich, once each.

CONSECUTIVE INNINGS RECORD: His streak of 8243 straight innings (spanning 904 games, '82-'87) is believed to be the longest of its kind in ML history...During his streak, Lou Gehrig played every inning of every game only one season ('31)...Cal's innings streak began June 5, '82 (6 days and 5 games after the start of his consecutive games string) at Minnesota...The day before (June 4), Jim Dwyer had pinch-hit for him in the 9th inning, also at Minnesota...The 82 post-season innings he played in '83 are NOT included in these figures...The innings streak ended Sep 14, '87 in Toronto when he didn't take the field for the bottom of the 8th in an 18-3 Toronto walkover (Ron Washington replaced him defensively)...That was the game in which the Jays hit a major league record 10 home runs.

Noted baseball researcher L. Robert Davids determined some years ago that the previous leaders in the consecutive innings category were a couple of former Red Sox who played in the Hub City during the early 1900s: Buck Freeman and Candy LaChance...Freeman, a first baseman, played every inning over some 534 games (7/28/01-6/5/05) and outfielder LaChance missed nary a canto over a span of 424 games (5/23/02 to 4/28/05).

Rip, whose innings streak covered some 5 seasons, was the first to have played every inning for at least 2 straight years since Rudy York with the Tigers in '40-'41...In addition to Cal & Freeman only one other major leaguer has played every inning for at least 3 years (not necessarily consecutive).

That was Mickey Vernon in '42, '47, & '53 with those pesky Nats...The only other Oriole to play every inning in one season was Eddie Murray in '84 (including 3 games as DH).

CLOSE CALLS

Apr 10, 1985...Game 444...Sprained his left ankle at shortstop during a pickoff play in the 3rd inning of a game against Texas (did not come out of the game)...X-rays taken after the game at Greater Baltimore Medical Center were negative...He didn't play the next day in the club's exhibition game at the US Naval Academy, but was in the lineup the next night vs Toronto.

Sep 11, 1992...Game 1713...Suffered a twisted right ankle running out a double against the Brewers (did not come out of the game), and as a precaution the Orioles recalled shortstop Manny Alexander from AAA Rochester...Cal didn't miss so much as an inning for another week.

June 6, 1993... Game 1790...Suffered a twisted right knee when his spikes caught in the infield grass during O's-Mariners melee...Though he didn't come out of the game, the knee was swollen and painful the next day...Still, he didn't even miss infield practice...He said later,"It was the closest I've come to not playing."

1992 AND MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

ALL-TIME HIGHS BY A SHORTSTOP: Of his 297 home runs, 289 have come as a shortstop, most ever by a major league shortstop ahead of Ernie Banks (277) and Vern Stephens (213).

Of his 739 extra-base hits, 710 have come as a shortstop. As near as we can tell, only two shortstops have ever had more extra-base hits in their career, Honus Wagner and Joe Cronin...Although not broken down officially, Wagner had 737 extra-base hits in the years he was primarily a shortstop ('01, '03-'16 with Pittsburgh) and Cronin had 765 in the years he was primarily at shortstop, ('28-'41 with Washington and Boston).

Is one of 4 shortstops in ML history to have hit 30 or more homers in a season, joining Ernie Banks, Vern Stephens and Rico Petrocelli.

His ML-high 85 extra-base hits in '91 have been bettered by only one shortstop in ML history, Robin Yount with 87 in '82...Cal's 368 total bases became the most ever in one season by an AL shortstop and 2nd best all-time behind Banks' 379 in '58...That year, he also became only the 2nd shortstop in ML history to hit .300+ with 30+ homers and 100+ RBI...The only previous shortstop to accomplish that feat was Banks and he did it twice: in '58 and '59.

TALLEST: Is the tallest ever to play shortstop regularly in the majors...Ray Busse (Houston, '71-'74), and former Orioles Enos Cabell and Jamie Quirk, are among 7 others 6'4" tall who have played some shortstop.

SINCE BECOMING A REGULAR: During his 12 full seasons has more extra base hits than any player in the majors (729)...He is 2nd during that span in hits (2082), 2nd in doubles (295), 3rd in RBI (1104), 4th in homers (297), and 5th in runs (1129).

ORIOLES ALL-TIME: Enters the '94 season tied with Mark Belanger with the 2nd most games played in an Orioles uniform (1962) behind Brooks Robinson (2986)...Also ranks 2nd in O's history behind Brooks in ABs (7583), runs (1130), hits (2087), doubles (395), and extra-base hits (729).

IN THE CLUTCH: Batted .262 (39-149) with men in scoring position in '93, 13 points below his career average (.275, 506-1837) in that situation...Was 1-for-11 with the bases loaded in '93 and is now .239 (34-142) with the sacks full...Had 9 GWRBI (the now defunct statistic) in '93 raising his career total to 145, 3rd on the O's all-time list.

ALL-STAR GAMES: Finished 4th in the '93 fan All-Star balloting, with 2,077,482 votes, behind Barry Bonds, Kirby Puckett, and Ken Griffey...It was his 11th All-Star Game, 10th consecutive start, tying Ozzie Smith for most All-Star Game starts by a shortstop...Ozzie had his string of 10 straight starts broken in '93.

Cal's 10 straight starts is a club record...Brooks is 2nd with 5 consecutive starts and still holds the Orioles' standard for most overall starts (10 years, 11 games, 2 in '61)...Cal is the only ML player to start the past 10 All-Star Games.

Cal also established a record for most games by an AL shortstop...Ozzie has the overall mark of 12...Cal shared the old AL mark of 10 with former Oriole Luis Aparicio...Brooks is the only Oriole to appear in more games (an AL record 18).

In '92, was the leading vote getter in the ML All-Star balloting (2,699,773), the most votes for a ML player since Gary Carter then with Montreal in 1982 (2,785,407)...It was also 265,113 more votes than any other player received (Cubs' Ryne Sandberg was next).

Has led the ML in votes 3 times: in '85 (1,398,901), '86 (1,486,806) and '92.

Cal has been the elected starter in 9 of his 10 starts ('84 thru '87 '89-'93)...In '88, Cal finished 2nd in the voting to the Tigers' Alan Trammell, but started anyway when the Detroit star had to withdraw because of injury.

In the '93 classic at Camden Yards, Cal was 0-for-3 with 2 groundouts and a strikeout, but received what was probably the loudest ovation in the park's 2-year history when he was introduced as the starting shortstop.
In '92, had an RBI single off Atlanta's Tom Glavine in 3 trips at San Diego to help the AL to a 13-6 win.
In '91, became the 4th Oriole to win the All-Star Game MVP award when, on July

At the time of the announcement, BAT Chairman Ralph Branca said, "Just as Bart Giamatti was a caring person, so is Cal Ripken Jr. Giamatti's devotion to baseball and education is mirrored in the things that Cal has done." Cal, who has been a major community contributor for many years, had earlier joined with his wife, Kelly, to pledge $250,000 to create an adult learning center in Baltimore (see "In the Community" below).

PREVIOUS HIGHLIGHTS BY YEAR

1992 SEASON: Went from career highs in homers, RBI and extra-base hits in '91 to career lows in those categories in '92...Failed in his bid to become only the 6th player in ML history to hit 20+ homers in each of his first 11 full ML seasons.

Became the O's all-time greatest right-handed home run hitter when he hit 2 at Milwaukee on June 23...Those blasts were career homers No's. 268 and 269 putting him ahead of Brooks Robinson (268) for the club's most homers by a righty.

Following that game, he went a career-high 73 games (291 at bats) without a home run, June 24-Sep 13...Broke the drought with a homer off Kansas City's Rick Reed on Sep 14 in a 2-1 Oriole win...Also singled and doubled that night, not only ending his homer-less stretch, but also snapping a slump that had seen him go 49-for-266 (.181) in his previous 67 games since June 30.

Had 3 hits the next night as well to help the O's to another 2-1 win over the Royals and was named AL Player of the Week, Sep 13-20 (12-for-24)...It was the 7th and most recent time he has received the honor in his career.

That series started him on a 27-for-81 (.333, HR-4, RBI-12) streak in his last 20 games, raising his average from .239 to season-ending .251

Didn't hit a home run in July, his first homerless month since the first 2 months of his career (Aug-Sep of '81) and batted .178, his worst month since those same 2 months in 1981.

Had two of the longest hitting streaks of his career — a 16-game (.355, 22-62) and a 17-game (.414, 29-70) streak just 4 days apart, between May 20 and June 29, but batted .216 (109-505) the rest of the season...Had 7 RBI combined in back-to-back games at Cleveland Oct 2-3, one more RBI than he had in all of September (6).

Collected career RBI 1000 at Oakland on Aug 31 with a 2-run single off Kelly Downs.

Contract: On Aug 24, his 32nd birthday, he signed a 5-year contract for $30.5 million, extending through the '97 season...The signing was announced to a sellout crowd in a pre-game ceremony minutes before the Orioles-Angels game at Oriole Park that night.

1991 SEASON: Became the 2nd player in ML history to win a league MVP, Major League Player of the Year (The Sporting News, AP and Baseball Digest), All-Star Game MVP and a Gold Glove in the same season...The only other player to accomplish the feat was Dodgers' shortstop Maury Wills in '62.

In '92, Cal and Kelly made a donation of $50,000 toward the establishment of the Sam Hulett Fund, in memory of the son of Orioles infielder Tim Hulett, who was struck by a car and killed in July, '92.

In November, '91, Cal and Kelly hosted a Winterfest for Literacy, a baseball memorablilia show in Baltimore featuring a number of past and present major leaguers including Kirby Puckett, Eddie Murray, Glenn Davis, Gregg Olson, brother Bill and Cal, Sr., which raised more than $200,000 for the Learning Center.

In '91, Cal established the Reading, Runs and Ripken Program, in conjunction with Baltimore Reads, Inc., and in 3 years since then nearly $260,000 has been raised for literacy programs in Baltimore via donations based on the number of home runs Cal hit during the season.

Cal is also active on behalf of the University of Maryland Hospital's Shock Trauma Center, the Johns Hopkins Hospital's Children's Center, and the Harford Center, a day-care facility for retarded citizens...The Ripkens also have given a substantial donation to the Baltimore School for the Performing Arts.

He continues to donate tickets for every Orioles' home game to Because We Care, a program he and Eddie Murray initiated in the mid-1980's.

In prior years, he has supported the Harford County Humane Society; has served as honorary chairman of the American Lung Association's anti-smoking drive; The Christmas Seal and March of Dimes campaigns, and the United Way Softball Marathon.

The past 2 winters he has participated in the First National Bank Tennis Festival, held at the Baltimore Arena to benefit eight local children's charities...This past winter, Cal and brother, Bill, joined a field that included tournament host Pam Shriver, Jimmy Connors, and Jim Courier.

CAL BAR/CAL'S CHOICE: In January '93, the "Cal Bar" was introduced by Morley Candymakers East in Millersville, MD and 8 months later in August "Cal's Choice Milk" made its debut...The Cal Bar is described on the wrapper as a "double play of peanuts and caramel in milk chocolate." Cal's Choice is a

2% low-fat milk...Royalties from both go to the Cal and Kelly Ripken Foundation which supports programs and services of non-profit organizations. This past winter, the Foundation donated $10,000 to the Baltimore City Foster Care Program.

CAL LIKE YOU'VE NEVER SEEN HIM: During this past off-season, a 64 feet by 23 feet mural of Cal was painted on a building in downtown Baltimore (on Light Street near Lombard)..The mural is sponsored by Nike Shoes.

PERSONAL: Cal and the former Kelly Geer were married Nov 13, '87...Kelly, from Cockeysville, MD, is a graduate of Dulaney High School and the University of Maryland...The Ripkens have 2 children: Rachel Marie (11/22/89) and Ryan Calvin (7/26/93).

THE RIPKEN FAMILY

Cal played with his brother, Bill, at 2nd base for 5-1/2 seasons (July 11, '87 thru '92)...Also played parts of 12 seasons with his father in an O's uniform as a coach and manager...In '87, Cal Sr became the first father ever to manage 2 sons simultaneously in major league baseball history (regular season).

In addition to younger brother, Bill (28), Cal has another brother, Fred (Nov, 25,'61) and a sister Ellen Leigh (Mar 22, '59).

THREE FROM THE SAME CLAN: Three members of the same family wearing the same uniform at the same time is a rarity matched only 3 times before in baseball history: 1973-Jose, Hector & Tommy Cruz for St. Louis; 1963-Felipe, Matty & Jesus Alou for San Francisco; 1876-George, Sam & Harry Wright for Boston in the National League (Harry, a Hall of Famer, was the manager and pitched briefly; George was an outfielder-70 games in '76; and Sam, a shortstop, appeared in only 2 games that year...We're assuming they were all in uniform together)...We count a total of 17 families with 3 or more representatives in the majors.

FATHER: Cal Sr spent 15 years on the O's coaching staff, 13-1/2 as 3rd base coach...He joined the staff in '76...Has also managed for 14+ seasons in professional baseball, all in the Orioles' organization...His 13+ years as a manager in the Birds' farm system ('61-'74) represent the longest tenure of any minor league skipper in Orioles' history...During that span Cal managed at all levels except rookie league.

Following the '86 season he replaced Earl Weaver to become only the 7th non-interim manager in the club's history...Cal was replaced by Frank Robinson on Apr 12, '88 after the O's lost the first 6 games of the season (a streak that went to 21 before it ended)...His overall record as manager was 68-101, .402.

Rip was a catcher in the O's organization although he also played some 3rd base and outfield and even pitched...He enjoyed his best year under Weaver at Fox Cities (Appleton, WI) in '60... He became a player-manager the following year.

BILL AND CAL: Cal and Bill Ripken were the 5th set of brothers to form a 2nd base-shortstop combination in major league history: Granny and Garvin Hamner of the '45 Phillies; Lou and Dino Chiozza of the '35 Phillies; Milt and Frank Bolling of the '58 Tigers; and Eddie and Johnny O'Brien of the '53-'55-'56 Pirates.

The 2 Rips played in 663 games together; started 634 games and turned 287 double plays...Prior to the Ripkens, the most any brother double play combination had ever played side-by-side in the majors were approximately 100 games by Pittsburgh's O'Brien twins.

In '90, Cal and Bill accounted for a total of only 11 errors...That is the fewest errors in major league history by a qualifying (i.e. each playing 2/3rd of their club's games at their respective positions) keystone combination...The next lowest total is 13 in 1990: Toronto's Tony Fernandez and Manny Lee.

On June 15, '89, vs New York, the 2 Rips teamed up on a triple play against the Yankees, the first by the Orioles in more than 10 years.

On Sep 15, '90 at Toronto, Cal and Bill each homered, the only game in which that happened... They became the first pair of brothers to hit home runs in the same game since Graig (NY) and Jim Nettles (Det) did it Sep 14, '74...Both Bill and Cal homered in the 5th inning off David Wells...It was the 15th time brothers had homered in the same game and the 5th time it had been done in the same inning (first since Hank and Tommy Aaron for the Milwaukee Braves on July 12, '62).

The pair combined for 310 homers in the major leagues (13 by Bill)...That figure ranks 9th all-time among brother combinations.

STREAKIEST ORIOLES TEAM EVER: The Orioles claimed 3 of the AL's six longest win streaks of 1993 with a pair of 8-game streaks and a 10-game...They are the first team in Orioles history to have 3 win streaks of 8 or more games in one season...The Orioles also lost 8 straight, their longest losing streak since 1989...The O's also tied a club record when they won 8 straight series, May 31-June 27.

In August the Orioles won 8 straight games, then immediately lost 8 straight, the first time since 1985 that a major league team had consecutive winning and losing streaks of 8 or more games...That year, the Minnesota Twins lost 9 straight, then won 10 in a row...It was a first in O's history...Between June 2-26, the O's went 19-3, their best stretch of 20 or more games since 1983.

DAYS IN EACH POSITION: First (1, July 20)...Second (7)...Third (43)...Fourth (59)...Fifth (9)...Sixth (32)...Seventh (28).

BY MONTH: APRIL: 8-13...MAY: 13-16...JUNE: 20-7...JULY: 14-12...AUG: 15-14...SEP: 13-14... OCT: 2-1

The O's 8-13 April record was the 6th worst first month in club history.

The Orioles won on the last day of May avoiding their most losses (17) in that month in 35 years...The O's hit only .237 for the month-21 points less than any other month- and scored less than 3-1/2 runs per game...For 20 games (9-11), the O's were without veterans Mike Devereaux and Harold Baines, who were both disabled...The O's were shut out 4 times in May, their most in one month since September, 1989.

The Orioles went 20-7 in June, their best record in any month since June of 1979 (23-6) and their first 20-win month since September of 1983 (20-11)...The 20-7 record tied St.Louis for the best record in the majors...The Orioles didn't reach the .500 mark until their 60th game on June 11...The O's bullpen for the month was 8-0 with 14 saves...David Segui (.402) became the first Oriole regular to hit .400 in a month since Eddie Murray in April 1982 (.441)...Ben McDonald led the AL with a 1.69 ERA for the month as did the O's pitching staff (3.62) and Gregg Olson enjoyed his best month ever with a club record 11 saves.

Fernando Valenzuela was named AL Pitcher of the Month for July thanks to a league low 1.56 ERA...The O's batted .290 for the month, their highest mark for a month since September of 1973 (.291).

After leading the AL in ERA 2 months earlier, the O's had the AL's worst in August (5.58), and their highest mark since April 1988, yet somehow managed to go 15-14...The O's allowed 10 or more runs in 6 games, their most such games ever in a month...Making it even more remarkable was the fact that Mike Mussina, Gregg Olson, Rick Sutcliffe, Chris Hoiles, Leo Gomez and Jeffrey Hammonds were all on the disabled list.

Chris Hoiles was named AL Player of the Month for September (.364, HR-8, RBI-22) and the O's won their first 6 games of the month, but they finished only 13-14, the 9th time in the last 10 years they have failed to have a winning record in September.

O'S HOME RECORD BEST SINCE 1983: The Orioles finished with their best home mark since 1983 (50-31)...The O's 48-33 (.593) home record was tied with Toronto for the 3rd best in the AL...The Orioles won 11 straight home games, June 4-26, one shy of the club record of 12 set in 1969...During that stretch, they swept 3 straight series at home for the first time since 1977...The O's are 91-71 (.562) all-time at Camden Yards.

DISABLED LIST: For the first time since 1981, the Orioles made it thru April without a player on the disabled list, but still eleven players on the O's 25-man Opening Day roster spent time on the disabled list, including 3 of the 5 pitchers in the season-opening rotation...Injuries took their toll on the Orioles in the second half...Over a 2-week span, July 31-Aug 14, the Orioles lost to the disabled list their leading winner (Mike Mussina), their closer (Gregg Olson), their eventual home run leader (Chris Hoiles) and the league's hottest hitting rookie (Jeffrey Hammonds, hitting .323 at the time).

ORIOLES OFFFENSIVELY: The Orioles batted .267, 3rd highest team average in club history behind 1980 (.273) and 1983 (.269)...They were 6th in the AL in batting and hit .260 before the All-Star Break and .275 after...The Orioles hit a club record 287 doubles breaking the old mark of 283 in 1983.

Their home batting average of .278 is the highest in club history besting the old mark of .273 in 1980...The O's hit .282 with men in scoring position, the 2nd highest in club history and the 4th best in the majors behind Toronto (.287), St.Louis (.286) and Colorado (.283)...Only in 1985 (.288) have the O's hit higher with men in scoring position.

The O's hit .318 (48-151) with the bases loaded, 4th in the AL and 33 points above the league average (.285)...The O's hit 10 bases loaded doubles, tied for first in the AL with Boston.

The O's finished with their 5th most runs in club history (786) and most since 1985 (818)...In the first 53 games, they were averaging just 3.8 runs per games, 27th out of 28 ML teams...They scored 5.3 the rest of the season.

Their .346 on-base pct. ranks as the 2nd highest in club history, trailing only '71 (.347)...Their 655 walks were 3rd in the ML and 4th most in club history.

The O's featured 7 players with 60 or more RBI (Cal Ripken, Mike Devereaux, Chris Hoiles, Dave Segui, Mark McLemore, Harold Baines, and Brady Anderson)...No Oriole team has ever had that kind of balance...The last major league to team feature 7 players with 60 or more was the 1987 Brewers.

Rookies Batting: The Orioles employed 6 rookie position players during the season and that group (Hammonds, Voigt, Obando, Mercedes, Buford, and Carey) batted a combined .275 (137-499) with 14 homers and 69 RBI.

Cal Ripken led ML shortstops in home runs for the 9th time in the last 11 years...He accounted for 22% of all home runs hit by AL shortstops this season and had twice as many homers as any AL shortstop...Detroit's Travis Fryman was the closest to him with 11 (hrs hit while only playing SS).

Homer Miscellany: On Sep 26, Detroit's Eric Davis hit the longest home run in Camden Yards' brief history...Davis' blast off Arthur Rhodes traveled 452 feet to center field and was the first ball ever to hit the "batter's eye" wall, excluding of course, the home run hitting contest during All-Star Week...Speaking of the home run hitting contest, Seattle's Ken Griffey Jr became the only player to hit one off the warehouse in rightfield when he struck a ball that went an estimated 445 feet...On Aug 22, Texas' Butch Davis, a former Oriole, hit the first inside-the-park home run at Camden Yards...It was only the 3rd hit by a visiting player in Baltimore and the first in 33 years since 1960 when Washington's Lenny Green hit one on Aug 17 at Memorial Stadium...Texas' Dean Palmer hit 6 at Camden Yards in 1993, most ever by a visiting player in Baltimore...Three players- Rocky Colavito (Detroit in 1959); Tony Perez (Boston in 1980) and Jim Sundberg (Texas in 1980) had hit 5 in one season at Memorial Stadium...Overall, Palmer has hit 7 home runs at Camden Yards, most by an opponent.

DESIGNATED HITTERS: Orioles designated hitters batted .280, 3rd highest in the league, and the 3rd highest in club history behind 1986 (.298) and 1974 (.291)...Harold Baines had 415 of the O's 617 at-bats by designated hitters, the most by an Oriole DH since Ken Singleton in 1983...Among league DHs with 100 or more at bats, Baines was first in average (.313), and slugging pct (.511); tied for 2nd in homers (20); 2nd in on-base pct (.391); 4th in RBI (78) and 5th in at-bats (415)...Among DHs in Orioles' history, Baines' .313 average is 2nd to Eddie Murray's .314 average in 1988; his .511 slugging mark as a DH is 4th highest in club history and his 20 home runs make him one of only 3 Oriole DHs to reach that plateau, joining Lee May-25 in 1978, Sam Horn- 21 in 1991 and Murray-20 in 1977.

PINCH-HITTERS: Orioles pinch-hitters batted only .185 (10-54) with no homers and 10 RBI, despite Jeffrey Hammonds going 2-for-2 with 3 RBI and Harold Baines 2-for-6 with 2 RBI...The .185 mark was the lowest by O's pinch-hitters since 1974 (.184)...It was only the 3rd year in club history that the O's failed to hit a pinch-homer (also 1963 and 1973)...O's last pinch-hit home run was June 16, 1992 by Glenn Davis at Cleveland.

REYNOLDS, TACKETT WIN COMMUNITY SERVICE AWARD

Orioles catcher Jeff Tackett and former second baseman Harold Reynolds were co-winners of the Orioles 1993 Community Services Award. Tackett appeared at over 25 public events in the Orioles region, while also making numerous appearances at the ballpark before Orioles games. He was also the spokesman for Bike Safety and Hits for the Homeless Night, and was always willing to give time to fulfill the many requests from the community. Reynolds came to Baltimore last season and made immediate impact by hosting several events for children. One such program was The Birdland Program which brought about 2,000 Baltimore City Recreation children to Orioles games.

The Orioles were 6-7 against the Red Sox in '93, but are 22-17 against the Sox under Johnny Oates...Before Oates, the O's had gone 30-61 in the previous 91 games and 15-37 in the previous 52...At 344-313 (.524) the Red Sox have the best all-time record against the O's and are one of only 2 teams with a winning record against Baltimore...The Yankees are 336-324 (.509).

The Red Sox have the best record of any visiting team in Baltimore (163-167, .494)...That mark includes a 7-6 record at Camden Yards.

The Orioles batted only .237 last season against the Red Sox, their lowest against an opponent...They batted 32 points higher against the rest of the AL...However, the O's registered season highs in hits (16) and runs in a 16-4 win at Fenway on June 11...The 12 runs was their biggest margin of victory all season...In the other 12 games between these 2 clubs there were 3 shutouts and three 2-1 games...David Segui did his best hitting against the Sox (.366, 15-41) and now has a career average of .382 (13-34) at Fenway Park...The O's team ERA of 3.24 was their best against an AL East opponent.

The O's have enjoyed 3 straight winning seasons at Fenway one shy of their longest string of winning campaigns there...The O's are 12-8 in their last 20 games at Boston, after going 4-22 there from late '86 thru '90...Cal Ripken was 10-for-30 in 1993 at Fenway and now has a .329 (103-313) career mark there.

Roger Clemens may have had an "off-year" by his standards, but he beat the O's 3 times, his most against one team...He struck out 30 Orioles last season, his high against an opponent and the most by an O's rival...On May 12, Clemens set a Camden Yards strikeout record by fanning 13 Orioles in 4-0 win...The next night, Danny Darwin, Greg Harris and Jeff Russell combined on a 2-hitter blanking the O's, 2-0...It was the first time since May 21-22, '83 that the O's were shut out in back-to-back games...Jim Clancy and Dave Stieb did it then for Toronto, 1,609 games earlier...Milwaukee's Cal Eldred and Angel Miranda did it again later in the season against the O's...The Orioles' top 2 hitters against Roger Clemens are Brady Anderson (.412, 7-17) and Cal Ripken (.304, 17-56).

Tim Hulett has batted .357 (25-70) against the Sox in an Orioles uniform...Rookie Paul Carey, a native of Boston, made his first game at Fenway Park on June 12 a memorable one going 3-for-4 with a double and 2 RBI...His RBI double in the 7th tied the game, 1-1, and his bases loaded single in the 9th plated the game-winning run as the O's went on to take a 5-1 decision, running their win streak to a season-high 10 games...Clemens ended the win streak the next day by besting Fernando Valenzuela and the O's, 4-2.

The Orioles have had a losing season against the Angels only once since '78 and that was in '88 when the Angels went 7-5 against an Oriole team that dropped 107 games...During that 15-year period the O's have won 10 season series and tied 4 and are 108-72 (.600)...O's are 19-11 (.633) vs. California under Johnny Oates...O's all-time record of 247-193 (.561) is their 4th best against an opponent...O's are 198-152 (.566) since the franchise moved to Anaheim, not including 3-1 in the '79 ALCS.

The last time the O's had a losing season at home against California was '78, one of only 4 in 33 years...O's are 134-84 (.615), their 3rd best home record against an opponent...O's are 69-38 (.644) in Baltimore since 1976.

In '93, California won 4 of the first 6 games, but the O's won 5 of the last 6 while holding the Angels to a .196 (36-184) team batting mark...Chad Curtis stole 4 bases against the Orioles on Apr 17 tying the club for most steals in a game by an O's opponent...Curtis and AL Rookie of the Year Tim Salmon combined to hit .329 against the O's, but their teammates managed only a .207 mark...Salmon hit 4 homers, all at Anaheim...The Angels were the only team to keep Oriole home run leader Chris Hoiles without one, but Hoiles still hit .349 and upped his lifetime average at Anaheim to .400 (18-45).

On May 28-30, the O's were swept in a 3-game series at Anaheim...It was the first time the Angels swept a series from the O's of any length either home or away since Aug 18-20, '78...The O's got a measure of revenge their 2nd trip to Anaheim when they took all 3 games, their first sweep in Anaheim since Aug 18-20, '87...During that series, the O's beat Chuck Finley, 4-3 on Sep 13, their first win against him in his home park (he had been 5-0).

On Aug 25 at Baltimore, the O's and Jamie Moyer beat Finley, 1-0, although the Orioles managed only 2 hits off the Angels' 6'5" southpaw...It was the fewest hits the O's had in a win since Opening Day '85 when they got 2 hits in a 4-2 win over Texas...The next night, the O's ran into another California lefty...This one, Mark Langston, allowed only one hit thru 8 innings and with relief help from Mike Butcher, got a 2-1 win...It was the fewest hits the O's have had in back-to-back games since June 20-21, '78 when they were shut out on 2 hits by Boston's Rick Wise and Luis Tiant...For the 2 games, the O's were only 3-for-50 off the 2 Angels' southpaws...It was off the Angels' bullpen where O's hitters feasted all season long to the tune of a .337 mark (32-95).

In an Aug 31 win at California, Mike Mussina struck out 6 straight batters in the 4th and 5th innings, one shy of the club record of 7 set by by Sammy Stewart in 1978...Ben McDonald fanned a career-high 10 batters at California the next night while hurling a 4-hitter...He ran his career record to 6-1 (2.47, IP-58.1, ER-16) vs. California.

Between '83 and '87, the Orioles beat the White Sox more than any other team (they were 42-22), but in 6 years since then, the O's haven't had a winning season and have gone 30-41...Chicago has won 10 of the last 14 from the O's and 22 of 36 since the O's swept a 4-game series at Memorial Stadium, July 19-22, '90...The White Sox have gone 41-29 since the O's snapped their major league record 21-game losing streak at old Comiskey on Apr 29, '88.

In '93, the O's scored only 50 runs against the AL ERA champion White Sox, their fewest vs. one team and that included a 15-6 win on July 9...The O's hit only .189 (36-190) at New Comiskey Park, 100 points less than they had hit the first 2 years there(.290, 123-424)...The Orioles are 8-10 all-time at New Comiskey Park...Tim Hulett has batted .394 (15-38) at Chicago since leaving the Windy City just prior to the '88 season...It gets even better at New Comiskey where he has a .429 (12-28) career mark...Cal Ripken had a .303 career mark at Old Comiskey, but at the new one he is hitting only .176 (12-68).

Jack McDowell beat the O's 3 times last season, including 2 at Camden Yards giving him 3 career wins there, the most by a visitor in the O's 2-year-old home...And that doesn't include McDowell's win over the National League in the Baseball's 64th All-Star Game last July 13...Chris Hoiles has a .476 average (10-21) average against McDowell and Hulett a .409 mark (9-22).

Bo Jackson drove in 9 runs against the O's in '93, his high against an opponent...AL MVP Frank Thomas, who had a .400 career average against the O's prior to '93, batted only .195 against Baltimore last season, his lowest average against an opponent...Thomas, did however, walk 11 times (the most off O's pitching), hit 4 homers, and drive in 14 giving him 14 homers and 41 RBI in 35 career games against the O's...Thomas has hit 2 homers in a game 6 times in his major league career- 2 have been at Camden Yards, May 8, 1992 and July 11, 1993.

Thomas is 10-for-17 (.588) lifetime off O's ace Mike Mussina with 3 homers and 5 RBI...On May 16, '92 Thomas hit one of the longest home runs in recent memory against O's pitching when he hit one 466' off Bob Milacki at New Comiskey...While Thomas hit below .200 in '93 against the O's, his teammates batted a combined .290...The White Sox hit 6 homers in 10.2 innings off Alan Mills...Ellis Burks, now with Colorado, was one of 10 regulars in the league to hit .400 or better against the O's as he hit .405 (15-37), Chicago's best against the O's...Burks is a .317 (86-271) career hitter vs. the Orioles.

The Orioles enjoyed their 3rd straight winning season vs. Cleveland, their 4th in the last 5 years...Their 8 wins in '93 were their most against the Indians since '85...The O's are 12-6 since Charles Nagy threw a one-hitter to beat them, 6-0, on Aug 8, '92 at Camden Yards...The O's are 38-30 since the Indians beat the O's 11 straight times between '87-'88.

The O's swept a 3-game series at Camden Yards, Aug 6-8, their first series sweep over Cleveland since Aug 2-4, '88...The O's 8-1 win on Aug 6 put them over .500 all-time vs. the Indians, the first time since '88 the O's could boast a winning overall ledger...Thru the first 3 years of this rivalry ('54-'56), the Indians led 55-11...From that kind of start it took the Orioles a quarter of a century to draw even (in June of '79).

One of the '93 season's most poignant moments occurred on Aug 7 at Camden Yards...Tribe lefty Bobby Ojeda, who suffered a severe head injury in the March 22 boating accident that killed teammates Steve Olin and Tim Crews, made his first appearance of the season that night...As he made his way in from the bullpen to start the bottom of the 4th inning, Orioles fans responded with an unsolicited, spontaneous standing ovation...Ojdea worked 2 innings allowing 4 hits and 2 runs; one on a solo homer by Cal Ripken...A week later, the Orioles public relations office received separate letters from Indians Manager Mike Hargrove and Ojeda thanking Oriole fans for their heartfelt support that evening, a critical step in Ojeda's comeback.

The O's are 8-5 at Camden Yards against the Tribe...Six of those 13 games have been shutouts (O's are 3-3)...The Orioles went 3-3 at Cleveland Stadium to finish 157-173 in the old steel cavern by the lake...Chris Hoiles finished with a .364 (16-44) average at Cleveland Stadium.

Sandy Alomar Jr. batted .556 (10-18) with 2 homers and 7 RBI in 5 games against the Orioles- tops in '93 among Orioles opponents (min. 20 plate appearances)...The Alomar brothers - Sandy and Toronto's Roberto- batted a combined .482 (27-56) against the Orioles...Sandy became the first player to hit a ball into the visiting bullpen at Camden Yards...NY's Danny Tartabull later became the 2nd...The top 2 hitters in the Tribe lineup, Kenny Lofton and Wayne Kirby combined to hit .389 (35-90) with 11 walks...Lofton stole only 2 of his 70 bases against the Orioles.

The Indians hit only 4 homers and Albert Belle hit only one homer against the O's, his fewest against one team...O's rookie Jack Voigt and Sherman Obando were a combined 13-for-22, .591with 8 RBI...The O's hit only .176 (9-51) off former Oriole Jose Mesa...Cal Ripken knocked in 13 runs, his high in '93...Ripken has 25 RBI in his last 23 games against the Tribe.

DETROIT TIGERS

The 1993 Orioles-Tigers series was filled with all kinds of news...First the good:

-The O's swept a 3-game series at home, June 22-24, running their mark vs. Detroit at Camden Yards to 10-0...It was their longest home win streak against an opponent since the Birds won 10 straight at Memorial Stadium over the Yankees, '81-'83...On Sep 24, the Tigers finally broke thru as John Doherty outdueled Jamie Moyer, 2-0...It was the Tigers first win in Baltimore since Oct 6, 1991- the last game played at Memorial Stadium.

-On May 16, Mike Mussina struck out 14 batters in an 8-inning, 141-pitch, 3-2 win at Tiger Stadium... He tied an Orioles club record last accomplished in a regular season game more than 35 years ago (Connie Johnson, Sep 2, '57 vs. NY)...Bob Turley (Apr 21, '54) and Mike Boddicker (Oct 6, '83 in the ALCS) also have a share of the record.

-On June 22 at Baltimore, the O's overcame a 7-1 deficit to win, 12-9...It was only the 14th time in club history the O's have come back to win after trailing by 6 or more runs (although they did it again later in the week vs. NY), the first since Aug 2, '89 at Boston...In the win over the Tigers, the O's scored 8 runs in the 6th inning after the first 2 Orioles were retired...It was one shy of the club record for most runs scored with 2 out and none on and 2 runs short of the AL record...The O's record is 9 runs set on July, 26, '79 (O's over Seattle) and the AL mark is 10 set by Chicago vs Detroit on Sep 2, '59.

The rest of the story however, was all Detroit as the Tigers won the season series, 8 games to 5, their 7th winning season against the O's in the past 9 years:

-In 3 consecutive games, Aug 10-12, the Tigers beat the Orioles 15-1, 15-5, and 17-11...The Tigers collected 48 hits, 20 extra base-hits, 10 home runs, and 3 grand slams...O's starting pitchers worked a combined 5 innings and allowed 21 runs...The 47 runs scored by Detroit in the 3 games are the most ever scored against the O's in 3 consecutive games...The 32 runs scored in the last 2 games are the most the O's have ever yielded in 2 straight games...The O's also tied the club record for the most consecutive games allowing 10 or more runs (last time was '82)...The Tigers hit a grand slam in all 3 games (Dan Gladden-2, Chad Kreuter-1) the 2nd time in club history the O's have allowed a slam in 3 straight games (also '78 vs Milwaukee)...On Aug 10, the Tigers had a grand slam (Gladden), a bases loaded triple (Scott Livingston), a 3-run homer (Alan Trammell) and a 2-run homer (Kreuter)....In the Aug 11 game, Jeff Tackett became the first position player to pitch for the Orioles since Todd Cruz in 1984...On Aug 12, the Tigers collected 20 hits and 9 walks, and the O's committed 4 errors.

-On Sep 26, in the first game of a doubleheader, Eric Davis slugged the longest home run hit in the brief history of Camden Yards...His 452-foot blast to center field off Arthur Rhodes became the first ball to hit off the batter's eye wall (not including the home run hitting contest during the All-Star Week festivities last July).

-On that same date, the Tigers became the first team to sweep a doubleheader against the Orioles since Seattle did it on May 6, '89...The doubleheader sweep also eliminated the Orioles from the AL East race.

The 2 clubs are 26-26 in the '90s...Although the Tigers have posted winning seasons in the 7 of the past 9 years, the O's are 36-29 the past 5 years...In their last 11 games at Tiger Stadium the O's have allowed 80 runs and have suffered 4 horrible defeats: the 3 unspeakable acts last season, Aug 10-12 (see above), and a 15-1 loss on June 13, '92.

The Tigers .292 team batting average was the highest against the O's as were their 133 hits, 89 runs, and 68 walks...Travis Fryman had 23 hits against the O's, the most by an opponent...His .418 average was 6th best against the O's in '93....Scott Livingston's .526 average (10-19) was the 2nd best against the O's in '93.

The O's 6.41 ERA against Detroit was their highest against an opponent since '87...No one got treated worse than Fernando Valenzuela who, in 2 starts against the Tigers, faced 21 batters and allowed 16 to reach and 11 to score...Despite getting knocked out in the 2nd inning at home on June 22, Mike Mussina is 4-0 in 7 lifetime starts vs. Detroit and has allowed only 36 hits and 10 ER in 52.2 IP (1.71) while holding the Tigers to a .203 (37-182) average.

The Orioles won the season series in '93, 7 games to 5, and have now enjoyed back-to-back winning seasons against the Royals for the first time since they had 3 straight, '73-'75.

Since losing 15 straight games to the Royals, Aug 26, '87 thru Apr 11, '89, the O's are 33-24...Speaking of losing streaks, the O's set a ML record in '69-70 for most consecutive wins against an opponent when they beat KC 23 straight times...That streak started immediately after the Royals had beaten the Birds in the first game ever played (5/9/69) between these 2 when Dick Drago downed Dick Hall...The O's are only 135-132 since the 23-game win streak.

The O's are 53-68 (.438) at Royals Stadium, but are 14-10 there the past 4 years...Mike Devereaux has batted .342 (39-114) lifetime at Royals Stadium...Chris Hoiles has batted .341 (15-44) lifetime there with 3 homers and 11 RBI in 12 games...Brady Anderson has a .305 (39-128) average at KC...Harold Reynolds' .337 (60-178) career average is his best in an AL Park.

During the O's 40 years in the AL there have been 4 sweeps of season series (excluding strike-torn '81). The O's have been involved in 3 of them:

1970: Baltimore-12, Kansas City-0
1978: Baltimore-11, Oakland-0
1988: Kansas City-12, Baltimore-0
1990: Oakland-12, New York-0

The Orioles out-hit the Royals, .285 to .246, in '93...Harold Baines hit .459 (17-37)...Baines had 8 straight hits, Apr 30, May 2, all coming against the Royals...The last hit during the streak was a game-winning single off Dennis Rasmussen in the 9th inning giving the O's a 4-3 win in "sudden death" at Camden Yards on May 2...Mark McLemore batted .367 vs. the Royals and has hit .375 (24-64) against KC in 2 years as an Oriole.

George Brett finished his career with a .293 (242-825) average against the Orioles, but hit only .171 (82-14) his last 2 years... Perennial Oriole-killer Mike Macfarlane, who brought a .374 career average against the Orioles into '93, batted only .172 (5-29) last season...He did however, beat the Orioles at Camden Yards on May 1 with a 9th-inning home run off Alan Mills that broke a 3-3 tie.

The Orioles won 8 games from the Brewers in '93, their most since '85...Six of those wins were come-from-behind...Even with last season's success, the O's are 43-61 over the past 8 years...At one time, the O's led this series 154-83 (.650) and their current all-time mark against the Brewers (nee Pilots) is 197-144 (.578), their 2nd best against an opponent behind their 287-161 (.641) record against Texas.

The Orioles concocted a 4-game sweep of the Brewers at Baltimore, Aug 2-5, all come from behind wins, and their first 4-game sweep of Milwaukee since June 13-16, '85.

At one time the O's were 41-16 at County Stadium, but the last time the O's had a winning season there was 1983...It equals the longest stretch in club history that the O's have gone without a winning season in a foreign port...The O's are 23-42 in Milwaukee over those last 10 years.

The 2 teams played a 5-hour, 34-minute game at Camden Yards on May 22, '93, the 2nd longest game (by time) in club history...The O's won the 14-inning game, 5-4 on a sacrifice fly by Harold Reynolds...The only game longer in O's history was a 5-hour, 46-minute game played against the Yankees at Memorial Stadium on June 4, '88.

The Brewers have hit only 11 home runs over the past 2 years against the Orioles in 885 ABs - 5 of those by Greg Vaughn...The O's have hit 28 big flies...Cal Eldred and Angel Miranda, with relief help from Jesse Orosco, threw back-to-back shutouts against the Orioles at Milwaukee, Sep 17-18, the 2nd time it was done against the Orioles in '93 (also by Boston).

Brady Anderson had 10 extra-base hits and 12 RBI in 13 games against the Brewers...Lifetime at County Stadium he is hitting .309 (29-94). at 340.

The Orioles went 8-4 against the Twins in '93, their first winning season against Minnesota since '86 when former O's pitching coach Ray Miller was the Twins' skipper...Prior to last season, the O's had been 28-44 against Tom Kelly's Twins.

The Orioles were 3-3 at the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome and remain with only one winning season at the HHH since it was christened in '82 (5-1 in 1983)...O's are 29-43 (.403) overall there, their 2nd worst record in an AL park ahead of only Toronto's SkyDome (12-20, .375)...The O's won 8 of their first 12 games at the Dome, but are 21-39 (.350) since...Cal Ripken is only 6-for-49 (.122) the last 2 seasons at the Metrodome in '92, but still has a .329 (95-289) average there...Mike Devereaux has a .327 (32-98) average at the HHH and Harold Baines has a .322 (74-230) mark.

In '93, the O's batted .296, their season high against an opponent and 61 points higher than they hit off Twins' pitching in '92...The O's worked to a 3.17 ERA against the Twins, 2nd only to their 3.00 vs. Oakland...O's also had 5 complete games in 12 starts against the Twins...O's had only 3 CGs against the Twins in the previous 3 years ('90-'92)...Mike Mussina shut out Minnesota in back-to-back starts (Apr 29 and May 5) ...The last pitcher to shutout the Twins in the same week was Sandy Koufax in the '65 World Series...In Mussina's 11-0 shutout win at home vs. Minnesota on April 29, the O's celebrated their most lopsided shutout win since Sep 3, '80 when they won at Minnesota 13-0.

Kirby Puckett, a lifetime hitter .318 hitter in the major leagues, has a .200 (10-50) career average at Camden Yards...The Twins' Pat Meares batted .435 against the O's in '93, 5th best overall and tops among AL rookies.

Kent Hrbek hit his 34th homer against the Orioles on July 17 off Rick Sutcliffe moving past Carl Yastrzemski with the 7th most homers hit against the Orioles...Only one left-handed hitter has hit more against the O's: Reggie Jackson (40).

The O's lost 6 of the last 7 games against the Yankees in '93 and finished 6-7, the 10th time in the last 11 years the O's have had a losing season vs. NY (exception '89: 8-5)...Beginning June 22, '83, the O's are 52-90 (.366) and since the beginning of '85, they are 42-75 (.359)...However, despite the lowly mark over the past 11 years the Orioles' 324-336 (.491) record is the best all-time record against the Yankees just ahead of Toronto (105-112, .484) and Milwaukee (163-181, .474)... At Yankee Stadium, where they were 3-4 in '93, the O's have the 2nd best record all-time by a visiting team with a 146-167 (.466) mark...Only Toronto, with a 54-55 (.495) record, has a better winning percentage...The O's were 91-100 (.476) in old Yankee Stadium, and have gone 55-67 in (.451) the renovated facility (starting '76).

Chris Hoiles took a measure of revenge against the Yankees in '93...On June 21, '92, he was struck by a pitch from NY's Tim Leary and suffered a fractured right wrist (ulna bone)...He spent the next 2 months on the disabled list..O's played that game under protest claiming Leary was doctoring the ball...TV replays supported that charge and also the theory that it was an illegal pitch that injured Hoiles...In '93, Chris retaliated with 6 home runs against the Yankees, most by an Oriole against the Bronx Bombers since Curt Blefary, hit 6 in '65...Hoiles also batted .441 (34-15) with 10 extra-base hits, 10 runs scored and 15 RBI.

Yankee righthander Bob Wickman brought an 8-0 record into Camden Yards on June 26, the best season-opening streak by a Yankee starter since Tommy John won his first 9 decisions in '79. The Orioles beat Wickman 12-10 knocking him out after 4.2 innings (H-10, R-7)...Wickman had a 5-2 lead in the 5th, but the O's rallied behind 10 extra-base hits, tying the club record...The night before, the O's trailed the Yankees, 6-0, but came back to win 7-6...It was the 2nd time that week the Birds won after being 6 runs down, the 13th and 14th times in club history.

The O's had not lost a 1-0 game in Yankee Stadium since '69, but lost 2 there in '93: May 25 on a home run by Mike Stanley and Aug 15 on a Don Mattingly homer which was aided by a fan who reached over the right field wall to take it away from Mark McLemore.

The Yankees are 8-5 at Camden Yards, 2nd best record by a visiting team behind Texas (8-4)...On Sep 8, '92, the Yankees set the Camden Yards single game scoring record when they pounded the O's 16-4...That night Danny Tartabull hit 2 home runs and drove in 9, most ever against the O's...Tartabull, a .328 lifetime hitter against the Orioles prior to '93, batted only .125 (5-40, SO-14) last season.

Don Mattingly batted .455 (15-33, HR-3, RBI-10, BB-7) against the O's, the 3rd best by an opponent last season...Wade Boggs has been held to a .264 (37-140) average by Baltimore pitching the last 3 years, a far cry from the .344 mark he owned against the O's in his first 9 years in the league.

The Orioles went 7-5 against Seattle for the 2nd straight season giving them back-to-back winning seasons against the Mariners for the first time since '83-'84...O's are 15-10 since July 31, '91 after losing 17 of the previous 23...O's are 9-3 at Camden Yards, 2nd best to their 10-3 mark against Detroit.

O's were once 28-15 in the Kingdome, but are 25-29 since the beginning of '85...The O's have had only one winning road trip in their last 8 visits there (Aug 28-30, '92)...No game was more of a nightmare than their 6-0 loss on Apr 9, '93 in which they tied an AL record for most runners left on base in a 9-inning shutout (15)...Nine of those left were on either 2nd or 3rd base.

Ken Griffey Jr. became the only player to hit a ball off the warehouse in right field, but it came during the Gatorade All-Star Home Run hitting contest the day before the All-Star Game...His drive carried an estimated 445 feet...During the regular season, Griffey hit 2 at Camden Yards, the only 2 homers he hit against Baltimore out of his 43 for the season.

On June 6 there was another Camden Yards first...and hopefully, but not likely, a last...On that Sunday afternoon, the first full scale fight broke out. In the 7th inning with the Orioles winning 5-1, O's righthander Mike Mussina hit Seattle catcher Bill Haselman with a pitch, and Haselman charged the mound. Both benches and bullpens emptied and 20 minutes later, 7 players and one manager were gone...Ejected were Seattle Manager Lou Piniella, and Mariner players Chris Bosio, Mackey Sasser, Norm Charlton and Haselman along with three Orioles: Rick Sutcliffe, Alan Mills and David Segui...It was a club record for most Mariners ejected in a game and was the most Orioles tossed since July 17, '82 when Earl Weaver, Gary Roenicke, and hitting coach Ralph Rowe were tossed in a game against Seattle for arguing a play at first base...Mussina stayed in the game, finished the inning, and got an out in the 8th before leaving. Jim Poole and Gregg Olson preserved the Orioles' 5-2 win.

Randy Johnson failed to beat the Orioles in '93, and remains with only one win against the O's, his low against an opponent...He did, however, earn his first major league save on Aug 16 at Seattle when he preserved the Mariners' 8-6 win...In his last 6 starts against Baltimore since earning his lone win (2-0 at Seattle on Aug 15, '90), he is 0-3 (ERA-9.32, IP-28, H-32, ER-29, BB-28).

Edgar Martinez got into only 3 games against the Orioles in '93 due to injury...His .490 batting average in '92, was the best by an O's opponent that year and his 24 hits against the Birds that year are the most by an opponent since Boston's Marty Barrett had 27 in '87.

In '93, Mike Devereaux had 4 homers, 12 RBI in 12 games vs Seattle and now has 8 homers, 29 RBI in his last 24 games against the Mariners...Cal Ripken has a. 327 (98-300) lifetime average at the Kingdome.

The Rangers won the season series in '93, 8 games to 4, their first winning season against the Orioles since '86 and only their 2nd winning campaign over the O's in the last 16 years (starting '78)...It was only their 5th winning season since the franchise's first season in Washington in '61...Despite the lack of success in '93, the O's have beaten the Rangers 38 times over the past 5 years, more than any other major league team.

The Orioles all-time record against Texas (152-100, .603) is their best against an active team, their 287-161 (.641) record against Washington-Texas is their best against one franchise.

Texas is 8-4 overall at Camden Yards, the best record by an opponent...In their last 10 years at Memorial Stadium, the Rangers were 17-44...The Rangers have hit 24 homers at Camden Yards, tied with New York for the most by an opponent in the Yards' brief history...The Rangers scored 9 runs in the 2nd inning of a 13-6 win at Camden Yards on Aug 23, the most by a visitor in one inning in Baltimore in more than 5 years (June 5, '88 by New York).

The O's played their final game at Arlington Stadium on Aug 29, and won 6-3, giving them an 81-46 record there, the O's best record in a foreign port...The O's were only 2-4 in Arlington last season losing both series there...Overall though, the O's played 43 series there and won 31, lost 10 and split one.

In '93, Texas out-homered the O's, 24-11...No team has hit more homers in one season vs. the O's since '87 when Toronto hit 31 and Detroit hit 28 in a year the O's gave up a major league record 226...Almost as impressive were the 58 extra-base hits the Rangers hammered out against the O's...Their 31 doubles were also a high against the O's.

Dean Palmer and AL home run champion Juan Gonzalez each hit 7 homers against the Orioles...It had been 11 years since anyone had hit more than 6 homers in a season against the O's (Milwaukee's Robin Yount hit 7 in '82)...While Palmer and Gonzalez feasted on O's pitching, the other member of Texas' terrorizing troika- Rafael Palmeiro, was held to only one homer (his low against a team) and 5 RBI.

The Rangers out-homered the O's 15-5 at Camden Yards...Palmer hit 6 home runs at Oriole Park in '93, most ever by a visiting player in Baltimore...Three players- Rocky Colavito (Detroit in '59); Tony Perez (Boston in '80) and Jim Sundberg (Texas in '80) had hit 5 in one season at Memorial Stadium...Overall, Palmer has hit 7 home runs at Camden Yards, most by an O's guest.

On Aug 28 at Arlington Stadium, Gonzalez became the became the 8th player to hit 3 home runs in one game vs. the Orioles, first since Harold Baines did it on May 7, '91 at Oakland.

On Aug 22, Texas' Butch Davis, a former Oriole, hit the only inside-the-park home run at Camden Yards...It was only the 3rd hit by a visiting player in Baltimore and the first in 33 years since '60 when Washington's Lenny Green hit one on Aug 17 at Memorial Stadium.

Nolan Ryan, who had gone 5-0 over the last 2 years against the Orioles, was 0-1 in 2 starts (IP-7, H-9, R-10, ER-7, BB-7, SO-5)...He lost, 6-5, to Ben McDonald on a cold, rainy night at Texas on Apr 14, and in his last start in Baltimore on Aug 21, he didn't get the decision in the O's 6-5 win. In that game he came out after throwing 2 warm-up pitches in the 4th inning with a pulled muscle in his left rib cage...He received more standing ovations (3) than he had strikeouts (one)...Orioles third baseman Mike Pagliarulo hit a grand slam in the first inning after Nolan Ryan walked the bases loaded...Nolan finished up 10-17 lifetime against the O's.

Kenny Rogers had never beaten the Orioles before last season (0-4), but he won all 3 of his starts in '93...Cal Ripken finished with a .302 (88-291) career average at Arlington Stadium and Brady Anderson had a .314 (22-70) mark.

Toronto was 8-5 against the Orioles in '92, their 8th winning season in the last 10 years and 6th in the last 7 (exception: '89, 7-6)...It was also the 4th straight year the O's have gone 5-8...The Orioles once led this series 62-27, but beginning in '84, they are 49-80 (.380), including 33-58 (.362) since '87...Since the season-ending series of '89, in which the Jays won 2 of 3 to win the AL East crown over the O's, Toronto has beaten the O's 13 times in their last at bat- 10 of those at SkyDome.

The O's are 12-20 (.375) at SkyDome, their worst record in any AL Park (4-12 with the roof closed)...The O's took 2 of 3 games in their first visit to SkyDome July 4-6,'89...Since then, it's been nothing but the CryDome for Orioles fans as the O's have made 9 trips to Toronto and enjoyed only one winning visit, June 14-16, '91 (O's took 2 of 3)...The O's went 1-12 in their last 2 seasons at Exhibition Stadium ('87 and '88)...All-time, the O's are 47-61 (.441), north of the border.

Although Toronto won 8 of 13 games in '93, the stats were quite comparable...The Blue Jays scored 62 runs, the O's 61; Toronto hit .267, the O's .268; and the Jays had a 4.15 ERA, the O's 4.79...The Blue Jays stole 17 bases against the O's in 18 tries.

Fernando Valenzuela was one of only 2 pitchers to shut out the '93 World Champions when he did it at Camden Yards on June 30 allowing only 6 hits and no walks in a 6-0 win...The only other pitcher to do it was Philadelphia's Curt Schilling in the 5th game of the World Series...On October 1, the Orioles finally beat Todd Stottlemyre after the righty had gone 8-0 in 10 starts against them.

On the last day of the '93 season, Oct 3, Joe Carter became the 25th player in major league history to hit 2 home runs in an inning when he hit a pair off Ben McDonald in the 2nd inning of the Blue Jay's 11-6 win. It was the first time it happened against the Orioles...Carter drove in 9 runs against the O's last season and has 34 RBI in 37 games against the O's in his 3 years with the Blue Jays...Carter hit .405 against the O's, his best mark against an opponent in '93.

Roberto Alomar batted .447 (17-38) against the Orioles his high against one team and stole 10 bases without getting caught...Alomar's average was the 4th best against the O's last season.

Damon Buford was 7-for-13 with 2 homers at SkyDome; 11-for-66 (.167) everywhere else...Harold Baines was 5-for-8 with 2 doubles, 2 homers and 5 RBI at SkyDome and now has a .347 (35-101) lifetime average there...Mark McLemore was 11-for-25 at Toronto and is 12-for-31 (.387) lifetime in the Dome.

Notes on 20-Game Winners

Although the Orioles have not had one in the past 9 years, Baltimore pitchers have produced 23 20-game seasons in the past 26 years (starting '68), substantially more than any other major league club (Oakland is next with 14).

From '68 thru '80, a span of 13 years, at least one Oriole pitcher accumulated 20 or more victories to set a major league record. The old standard was 12 by the New York Giants from '11 to '14, a mark single-handedly assured by Christy Mathewson, who won 20 + in each of those years.

In 1971, four Baltimore pitchers reached the 20-win plateau. The only other foursome in the entire history of major league baseball to have achieved the feat was a quartet from the 1920 White Sox (51 years earlier): Urban "Red" Faber-23, Claude Williams-22, Dickie Kerr-21, and Eddie Cicotte-21. Despite that achievement, the White Sox finished second that year, two games behind Cleveland.

The four Orioles all won their 20th games within 6 days: McNally was the first on 9/21; then in a series in Cleveland, the other three joined him: Cuellar (9/24—first game-clinched division title), Dobson (9/24—2nd game), and Palmer (9/26).

Stone was the earliest 20-game winner in club history, winning his 20th game on August 19 en route to a team record 25 victories in '80. Three other Orioles' hurlers have recorded their 20th wins in August: McNally (8/25) and Cuellar (8/27) in '71 and Palmer (8/20) in '75.

The first Oriole to win 20, and the only one in the club's first 14 seasons in Baltimore ('54 thru '67) was lefthander Steve Barber in '63.

BIGGEST LIFETIME WINNERS/LOSERS VS. O'S

WINNERS: Though he has been retired for 26 years ('67), Whitey Ford, the Yankee Hall of Famer, still holds the distinction of having beaten the Orioles more than anyone else. He was 30-16 against the Birds.

Ford was one of 13 pitchers to have posted 20 or more lifetime wins against the O's in 38 Baltimore seasons. The others: "Catfish" Hunter (26-24), Mickey Lolich (25-19), Billy Pierce (23-11), Early Wynn and Frank Sullivan (both 21-8), Jim Kaat (21-21), Earl Wilson (20-9), Luis Tiant (20-22), Jim Perry (20-22), Camilo Pascual (20-23), Bert Blyleven (20-14) and Frank Tanana (21-17).

LOSERS: Hunter, the 2nd biggest winner vs. Baltimore (26), is also the biggest lifetime loser (24)...At one time, "Catfish" had a 23-16 lifetime record vs. the O's but then lost 8 of his last 11 decisions against them from '76 thru '79.

There have been 4 other 20-game losers: Luis Tiant and Jim Perry (22 each), Fritz Peterson (14-21), and Jim Kaat (21)...Other big losers were Mickey Lolich (19), Gaylord Perry (12-19) and Sam McDowell (9-19)...From a percentage standpoint, Jim Colborn, formerly of Brewers, Royals and Mariners, with a .150 (3-17) and Rudy May at .167 (3-15) rank near the bottom of the list.

Others who've had little success against Baltimore include: Goeff Zahn (2-11), Matt Keough (1-8), Milt Wilcox (4-12), Jim Beattie (3-11) and Mike Caldwell (3-9).

Nolan Ryan finished with a 10-17 lifetime record against the Orioles.

BEST LONG STRETCH

The best record the Orioles have ever compiled in a stretch of 25 or more games is 16-4, between Sep 8 and Oct 15, '70. It included a 19-3 run at the end of the regular season and 7-1 in post season (3-0 in ALCS, and 4-1 in the World Series).

GRAND SLAM NOTES

O's lead the Majors since '80: The Orioles have belted 66 grand slams starting with '80, 9 more than any other club (the Red Sox are next with 57).

Thru the Years: The O's have "outslammed" their opponents 150-98 over the last 40 years (including a 82-44 advantage at Baltimore,7-3 at Oriole Park at Camden Yards).

Three in One Game: The Orioles and Texas set a major league record on Aug 6, '86 when the two teams combined to hit three grand slams in Texas'13-11 win at Memorial Stadium (the record was equaled on June 3, '87, Hou vs. Chi)...Jim Dwyer and Larry Sheets hit grand slams for the O's, both in the 4th inning. It marked only the 5th time in major league history that one club has hit 2 grand slams in a single inning. It was the 4th time the O's had hit 2 grands slams in the same game. Toby Harrah hit Texas' slam.

Two in a Game: Only 7 players have hit two grand slams in one game in baseball history and only 3 have hit them on consecutive at-bats. In both situations, two of then were Orioles: Jim Gentile hit two in a row at Minnesota onMay 9, '61 (Metropolitan Staduim off Pete Ramos and Paul Giel), and Frank Robinson did the same on June 26, '70 at RFK Staduim in Washington (off Joe Coleman and Joe Grzenda).
Gentile Hit 5 in '61: Gentile set an American League record and tied the major league standard in '61 when he hit 5 bases loaded home runs. The only prior player to reach that total was the Cubs' Ernie Banks in '55. In '87, Don Mattingly of the Yankees broke that record by hitting 6 grand slams.

Post-Season Slams-Slugging Pitchers: Only two pitchers have ever hit grand slam home runs in post-season play. Both were Orioles at the time,and both did it in 1970. In Game 1 of the '70 ALCS, Mike Cuellar hit one off of the Twins' Jim Perry (at Minny) and in Game 3 of the World Series vs. the Reds, Dave McNally found the range off Wayne Granger (at Baltimore).

The blast by Cuellar was the only ALCS grand slam ever until Don Baylor hit one for the Angels vs. Milwaukee in '82 (off Moose Haas)...Only two bases loaded homers have ever been hit in NLCS play: the Dodgers' Ron Cey and Dusty Baker in '77.

Opponents: During a 3-game massacre at Detroit, Aug 10-12, '93, the O's tied a ML record by allowing grand slams in 3 consecutive games. That mark was set by the 1901 Reds and tied by the 1978 O's. The first 2 slams were hit by Dan Gladden...Eight opponents have hit two career slams each against the O's.Nobody has hit more...Three have hit two at Memorial Stadium: Roy Sievers (Wash), Moose Skowron (NY), Mike Epstein (Wash). There have been 13 alien pitchers to throw up two grand slams each to Baltimore batters.

Orioles "Gophers": Among Orioles pitchers, Milt Pappas was the most generous. He gave up 6 bases loaded homers during his tenure in Baltimore and allowed 9 overall in his major league career, tying Jerry Reuss (1969-90) and Ned Garver (1948-61) for most career slams allowed in the majors. DaveMcNally and Scott McGregor, are next in line with 4 apiece. On the other hand , Jim Palmer never allowed a slam in 558 games spanning nearly 4,000 innings.

Notes: Although they consistently rank at or near the top of the league in team fielding, the Orioles have only 2 Gold Gloves to show for their efforts over the past 9 seasons, both by Cal Ripken (in '91 and '92)...Last year, the O's were 3rd in the majors with a .984 team fielding average, but, individually, the O's were absent when the Gold Gloves were awarded.

Cal's award in '92 extended the Orioles' totals to 50 Gold Gloves, the most among AL teams since the award was created in 1957...Only one ML team, St. Louis, has won more Gold Gloves than the O's, but the Cardnials were likewise shut out in the '93 honor roll.

Winners by club through the years: Cardinals-57 1/2*, ORIOLES-50, Yankees-43, Pirates-42, Reds-41, Tigers-35, Red Sox-34, Phillies & White Sox-32 each, Cubs-29, Dodgers & Twins-27 each, Braves & Giants-23 each, Angels-19, Expos-18, Rangers & Royals-16 each, Athletics-14, Blue Jays-13, Astros, Indians & Padres-12 each, Mets 10 1/2*, Mariners-10, Brewers-9, Original Senators-1.

33 Gold Gloves in 11 Years: During the 11-year period from '69 thru '79, the Orioles won 33 Gold Gloves including 4 each in '69, '71, '73, '74 & '75...Starting with 1980, only 2 Orioles have won the award: Eddie Murray, '82- '84 and Cal Ripken, '91-'92.

Multiple Winners: A total of 9 Orioles have won multiple Gold Gloves...Leading the list is Brooks Robinson whose 16 awards are matched only by pitcher Jim Kaat for the most won by an individual (Roberto Clemente & Willie Mays are tied for 3rd with 12 each)...Others: Paul Blair & Mark Belanger (8 each); Jim Palmer & Bobby Grich (4 each); Dave Johnson & Eddie Murray (3 each), Cal Ripken (2) and Luis Aparicio (2, total of 9 in his ML career).

Since '57: The Gold Glove Awards were initiated in '57 by the Rawlings Sporting Goods Company in cooperation with The Sporting News to acknowledge individual defensive excellence by a vote of managers and coaches in each league...Selection is based on a player's overall defensive ability, not simply on fielding percentage.

* Keith Hernandez played for both the Cardinals and Mets when he was chosen in '83.

ALL-STAR NOTES

ALL-STAR WEEK 1993: Major Legaue Baseball's 64th All-Star Gam held at Oriole Park at Camden Yards on July 13, '93. The AL's lopsided - their 6th straight- climaxed baseball's first ever "All-Star Week."

Approximately $31.5 million was generated for the Baltimore area businesses as a result of All-Star Week, a 5-day celebration in which the region immersed itself in a bountiful flood of special events and promo surrounding the All-Star Game. FanFest, an unparalleled baseball the which has accompanied the All-Star Game for the past 3 years, welco record 111,883 visitors during the week.

Perhaps the most lasting memories from All-Star Week came on Monda 12, at the annual Gatorade All-Star Workout. Juan Gonzales crushed s of the longest balls ever hit in Baltimore, including a ball off the facing of deck in left field, and Ken Griffey Jr. became the first player to hit the Warehouse. Camden Yards proved to be yet another launching pad for Re Jackson who banged a home run onto the right field flag court in an impro batting practice after the old-timers game and then jogged the bases chants of "Reggie-Reggie."

A Camden Yards record crowd of 48,147 attended the All-Star Game, th in Baltimore since '58, baseball's 25th mid-summer classic.

Cal Ripken was the only Oriole to play in the game and was 0-for-3 wit groundouts and a strikeout, but received what was probably the loudest ov in the park's 2-year history when he was introduced as the starting shorts Orioles RHP Mike Mussina warmed-up in the 9th inning, but didn't get i game much to the displeasure of the partisan crowd.

ALL-STAR STARTS/APPEARANCES: In '93, Cal Ripken appeared in his All-Star Game, 10th consecutive start, tying Ozzie Smith for most All-Game starts by a shortstop...Ozzie had his string of 10 straight starts bro in '93.

Cal's 10 straight starts is a club record...Brooks is 2nd with 5 consecuti starts and still holds the Orioles' standard for most overall starts (10 yea 11 games, 2 in '61)...Cal is the only ML player to start the past 10 All-St Games.

Cal also established a record for most games by an AL shortstop (11)...C has the overall mark of 12...Cal shared the old AL mark of 10 with former Or Luis Aparicio...Brooks is the only Oriole to appear in more games (an record 18, '60-'74, 2 in '60-'62)...Eddie Murray ranks behind Cal wit appearances.

Cal has been the elected starter in 9 of his 10 starts ('84 thru '87 '89-'93). In Cal finished 2nd in the voting to the Tigers' Alan Trammell, but started any when the Detroit star had to withdraw because of injury.

Eight different Orioles have been selected starters in 24 years of fan voting addition to Cal and Brooks, Orioles who have been chosen to starting ber are Boog Powell and Frank Robinson (2 each), and Bobby Grich, Ke Singleton, Eddie Murray and Terry Kennedy (once each).

ORIOLES ALL STAR MVPs: The Orioles have had 4 All-Star MVPs, with C Ripken in 1991 the most recent...In that game, played at Toronto's SkyDom Cal was 2-for-3 with a 3-run homer off former teammate Dennis Martinez a a single off Cy Young-winner Tom Glavine to lead the AL to a 4-2 win...C became only the 3rd shortstop to hit a home run in an All-Star Game joini Dick McAuliffe ('65) and Lou Boudreau ('42)...In the home run hitting comp the day before the All-Star game, Cal hit an incredible 12 home runs in 2 swings to help the AL to a 20-7 pasting of the NL.

Billy O'Dell hurled 3 perfect innings to save the AL's 4-3 win in Baltimore in 1958.

Brooks Robinson won the trophy in St. Louis in 1966 on the strength of 3-for-4 effort including a triple and an 8-for-8 performance afield...He was the first player from a losing team to be so honored.

Frank Robinson's 4th-inning homer at Detroit in the 1971 game put the AL ahead to stay and earned him MVP honors...It was the AL's first All-Sta victory since 1962 and its last until 1983.

ORIOLES ALL-STAR HOMERS: In '91, Cal became the 4th and most recent Oriole to homer in All-Star play joining Brooks (7/11/67 at Anaheim off Fergie Jenkins, none on); Frank (7/13/71 at Detroit off Dock Ellis, one on) and Ken Singleton (8/9/81 at Cleveland off Tom Seaver, solo).

ORIOLES ENSHRINED AT COOPERSTOWN

Eight modern Orioles have been selected to the Baseball Hall of Fame T last 13 years (starting '82). Reggie Jackson, who played with the Orio one year ('76, when he led the club in homers with 27), was the latest chosen in 1993.

He was also the 4th Oriole, along with Frank and Brooks Robinson an Palmer, to be selected in his first year of eligibility. They are 4 of only 2 ballot electees among the 213 Hall of Fame members.

Palmer polled 92.6% of the total vote (411 of 444 ballots cast) in '90, the hi percentage ever by an Oriole and 4th among Hall of Fame pitchers be Tom Seaver (98.8%, 425 of 430), Bob Feller (93.75% in '62) and Carlton (95.8, 436 of 455). Seaver's percentage was the highest ever recor in a Baseball Hall of Fame election.

Jim, Frank and Brooks are the only three Hall of Famers wearing mo Orioles uniforms in their official busts/portraits. Frank's bio can be found pages 11-14...Jim's and Brooks' bios can be found at the end of this sec

Another beloved Oriole was honored by the Hall of Fame last year w veteran O's broadcaster Chuck Thompson became the recipient of the C. Frick Award, presented by the Hall of Fame to a broadcaster for m contributions to the game of baseball.

Notes: John McGraw had a .334 lifetime batting average in 16 big leagu seasons but was elected to the Hall of Fame primarily because of h achievements as a manager. The same is true of his buddy, Wilbe Robinson. Rube Marquard pitched only 30 innings for the Orioles, all in 1

Baltimore-born Babe Ruth signed his first pro contract with Jack Dunn Sr '14, and made his professional debut with the IL Orioles that year as a pitche Chief Bender was based in Baltimore twice. He pitched both for the '27 Orioles (G-18, W-6 L-3) and the '15 Baltimore Terrapins (W-4, L-16) in the ill-fated Federal League.

THE ORIOLES HALL OF FAME

The Orioles Hall of Fame was conceived in '77 by the Oriole Advocates at the suggestion of 2 former presidents, Allen Barrett and Jack Buckley, both of whom have since passed away. The Advocates continue to administer the annual elections, this year under the direction of Hall of Fame Committee chairman Bob Bates, DDS.

There are 2 ways a candidate can enter the Orioles Hall of Fame: the regular Orioles Hall of Fame vote, by a constituency of some 80 people comprising sports writers and announcers, Oriole Advocates and Orioles personnel; and by vote of the veterans committee, a group of 25 senior representatives from the sports media, the Oriole Advocates and the Orioles front office. To be eligible for veteran committee selection, the candidate must have ceased serving in the capacity of consideration for at least 20 years.

The veterans committee was formed in '89 in an effort to offset any injustices inflicted on those who might have been passed over unfairly by younger voters not familiar with the extent of their contributions to the Orioles. Six Orioles have gained admission to the O's Hall of Fame by veterans vote: Stu Miller, Jim Gentile, Hank Bauer and Hal (Skinny) Brown, Gene Woodling and Don Buford.

The procedures in both elections are based on those used by the National Baseball Hall of Fame, requiring mention on 75% of ballots cast. Candidates to be eligible for either selection process, must have served a minimum of 3 full years with the Orioles.

To be eligible for the regular election, a player manager or coach must have ceased serving in the position for which he was nominated for at least one year.

The Orioles have executed 11 triple plays and hit into 15 in 40 seasons...There were no triple plays turned in the AL in 1993 compared to 4 in 1992...In that year, the Birds were involved in 3 of the 4 including 2 on the wrong end, the first time they'd been victimized in 13 seasons...On Aug 7, '92, at home vs. Cleveland, Brady Anderson flied into an 8-2-4-5 triple play...With the bases loaded, Anderson flied to the center fielder (Kenny Lofton) who threw Leo Gomez out at the plate trying to score...Meanwhile, Tim Hulett tried to go from 2nd to 3rd and was thrown out, 2-4-5 (Sandy Alomar to Carlos Baerga to Jim Thome).

On Aug 25, '92, at home against California, the Orioles pulled the 11th triple play in club history...With runners on first and 3rd, Gary Gaetti lined out to third baseman Leo Gomez, who stepped on the bag and threw to first to "triple up" Chad Curtis (L-5-5-3).

On Aug 30 at Seattle in the most recent triple play involving the Orioles, Mike Devereaux lined into a 9-4-6-6. With Randy Milligan at 1st and Brady Anderson at 2nd, Devereaux lined out to Mariners' RF Jay Buhner who made a great diving catch. Buhner then threw the ball to 2b, Harold Reynolds, who tossed the ball to ss Omar Vizquel who stepped on 2nd to get Anderson, then tagged out Milligan.

BROOKS CALBERT ROBINSON JR.

PERSONAL: Brooks is active as vice-president of Shapiro Robinson and Associates and as a special assistant with Crown Central Petroleum Company.

A native of Little Rock, AR, Brooks lives with his wife of 32 years, Connie, in Baltimore and Southern California. Brooks and Connie (nee Butcher), a former United Airlines flight attendant, met on an Orioles' charter flight (KC to Boston) in '59...They have four children: Brooks David, Chris, Michael, and Dianne.

BIG LEAGUE CAREER: Brooks officially spent 20 years and 72 days as a player in the American League, spanning 23 seasons.

He played in 2896 major league games, all of them with the Orioles, 8th on the all-time list (Pete Rose leads at 3562). Only Carl Yastrzemski (3308) and Ty Cobb (3033) have played more American League games, and only 3 others in big league history have played more with one franchise: Yastrzemski (3308), Hank Aaron (3076), and Stan Musial (3026).

Durability: Played in 97 pct of all Orioles games from July 9, '59 (when he returned from the minors for the last time) thru May 16, '76 a period of more than 16 -1/2 years...Played at least 153 games in 14 of 15 years from '60 thru '75.

In the Orioles' 39-year history, only 5 other 3rd basemen have played as many as 200 games at that position (Doug DeCinces-792, Craig Worthington-332, Leo Gomez-254, Rich Dauer-242, and Floyd Rayford-203).

Opening Days: Started 20 consecutive opening day games for the Orioles from '57 thru '76 and batted .316 (79-25) with 6 home runs and 17 RBI.

Home Runs/RBI: Led AL in RBI (118) in '64, and also achieved a career high of 28 home runs that year...Hit 17 or more homers nine times, 11 or more 11 times...His 139 homers at Memorial Stadium rank 2nd only to Eddie Murray's 160...Had 6 career grand slams, 4 of them in Baltimore.

Hitting: Hit most home runs (37) and drove in most runs (l67) against the Red Sox...Twice put together strings of 8 straight hits: July 10 thru 15, '60 and Aug 21 thru 23, '63.

Holds club records for games, at bats, runs, hits, doubles, triples, total bases, RBI, and extra-base hits...Has one-season mark for games (163, '61 & '64) and at bats (668, '61).

Fielding: Committed only 263 errors in 9,165 chances at 3rd base for a major league record lifetime fielding percentage of .971.

Appeared in a total of 29 games at 2nd base (24) and shortstop (5) and committed only one error in 31 chances...Played exclusively at 3rd base, '63-'77.

Gold Gloves: Brooks won Gold Gloves in 16 consecutive seasons, '60 through '75...The string was snapped by Detroit's Aurelio Rodriguez (who later played for the Orioles) in '76. While Brooks was active, the only other American Leaguers to win the award at the hot corner were Boston's Frank Malzone ('57 through '59) and New York's Graig Nettles ('77).

Brooks shares the record for most Gold Gloves with former pitcher Jim Kaat.

Believe it or Not: On July 28, '71 against Oakland, Brooks shocked everyone by making 3 errors, not only in the game, but in the same inning...Those miscues contributed to 2 unearned runs, and Oakland continued to lead 2-0 into the bottom of the 9th. However, all was quickly forgotten when Frank Robinson belted a 3-run homer off future Hall of Famer Rollie Fingers, lifting the O's to a 3-2 victory.

All-Star Games: Played in 18 consecutive All-Star games from '60 thru '74 (including two per year in '60, '61, '62)...Had lifetime average of .289 (13-for-45).

Selected MVP in '66 at St. Louis when he had 3 hits, including a home run while handling 8 chances in the field...Also homered in '67 game at Anaheim...Was a serious contender for the award in '64 (at Shea Stadium) and '70 (at Cincinnati), when he went 2-for-3, hit a triple, scored a run and drove in two others.

Hit 3 triples in All-Star play and didn't make an error in 43 fielding chances.

Was elected to starting lineup in Gillette-sponsored fan vote 4 times ('7l, '72, '73, '74) after selection was returned to fans in '70...Led AL players in votes in '71 (1 110 469)...Started a total of 11 games...Had last hit in '71 game at Detroit.

Post-Season: Played the first 39 post-season games in which the Orioles were involved and batted a composite .303 (44-for-145).348 in 18 ALCS games and .263 in 21 WS games.

WS: Homered in his first WS at bat in first inning against Dodgers (at Dodger Stadium) in '66, immediately following Frank Robinson's 2-run homer (both off Don Drysdale).

Was landslide MVP in '70 vs. Reds...Hit .429 (9-for-21) and was brilliant on defense. His 9 hits tied record for most in 5-game series...He also contributed 6 RBI, 2 doubles, and 2 homers. Erred on first fielding chance, then handled 23 more flawlessly, many of them brilliantly. He stole at least 2 hits each from Johnny Bench and Lee May, and it was then that May gave him the nickname Hoover (as in vacuum cleaners).

ALCS: Had .486 average (18-for-37) after first 3 championship series (O's swept all in 3 straight games)...His lone hit in last LCS in '74 was a Game 1 homer off Oakland's Catfish Hunter.

Major League Lifetime Records, 3B: Highest fielding percentage, 1000 or more games (.971)...Most years, league (23)...Most games (2870)... Most chances accepted, excluding errors (8902)...Most putouts (2697)...Most assists (6205)...Most double plays (618)...Most seasons leading league in games (8)...Most seasons leading league in assists (8)...Most seasons leading league in fielding percentage (11).

American League Lifetime Records: Most seasons leading league in fielding (11)...Most seasons leading league in chances accepted, excluding errors (8 tie)...Most games season (163, '61 & '64).

Major Awards: MVP, American League-'64. He finished 2nd (to Triple Crown winner Frank Robinson) in '66 and 3rd in both '60 and '65...World Series: '70... All-Star Game: '66...Lou M. Hatter Most Valuable Oriole: '60, '62, '64 and co-winner in '71 with Frank Robby...Commissioner's Trophy, now Roberto Clemente Award:(player best exemplifying the game of baseball) '72...Joe Cronin Award: (significant achievement by AL player) '77..."Most Memorable Personality" in Orioles history by vote of fans in '75.

Nothing is Forever: His 268th and last home run provided one of the most emotional experiences in Orioles' history. It was Apr 19, '77 at Memorial Stadium, the O's trailed the Indians, 5-3, in the 10th, with one out and 2 on. Brooks came to the plate as a pinch hitter for Larry Harlow...He ran the count to "3 & 2", fouled off a number of pitches, then hit a home run into the left field stands off reliever Dave LaRoche to win the game, 6-5...There were only 4,826 fans at the ballpark that night, but none of them will ever forget the moment.

Signed for '77 as player-coach, but became coach exclusively on Sunday, Aug 21, when he went on the voluntarily retired list (in Minnesota) to make room on the roster for catcher Rick Dempsey who was returning to duty after 6 weeks on the disabled list.

A crowd of 51,798, then an Orioles' record for a regular season game attended Thanks Brooks Day on Sunday, Sep 18, '77 against the Red Sox to pay tribute to the most important and beloved Oriole of modern times.

INSIDE THE PARK HOME RUNS

Last year on Aug 22, Texas Rangers (and former Orioles) outfielder Butch Davis circled the bases on an inside-the-park home run, off Arthur Rhodes at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. It was the first ever hit in the new park and the first by a visiting player in Baltimore since 1960 when Washington's Lenny Green hit one off Jack Fisher on August 17.

The Orioles haven't had an inside-the-park homer to call their own since June 8, '90 when outfielder Phil Bradley did it at Memorial Stadium...He victimized the Yankees' Greg Cadaret.

Bradley's homer was the 11th and final inside-the-park job at Memorial Stadium (10th by an Oriole) and the first for the O's at home since his childhood baby sitter, Al Bumbry, hit one off the Yankees' Steve Kline, Apr 19, '74.

Bradley's blast remains the only Oriole inside-the-park homer, home or away, since Bumbry did it against Jesse Jefferson of the White Sox at old Comiskey Park, Aug 21, '76.

ORIOLE ADVOCATES

The Oriole Advocates, Inc is a unique non-profit organization, dedicated to promoting and stimulating interest in the game of baseball at both the amateur and professional levels. Founded in July 1960, the Advocates will celebrate their 34rd anniversary this summer.

Membership comprises some 75 men and women, drawn from a broad cross-section in the Baltimore area.

Through the years, the Advocates have made substantial financial donations to worthy causes, primarily to baseball-oriented youth organizations; have played a key role in the restoration of Babe Ruth's birthplace at 216 Emory Street and its conversion into the Babe Ruth/Orioles Museum; and in '77, established the Orioles Hall of Fame.

The organization has also served as an essential right arm to the Orioles' Public Relations and Marketing Departments. In that connection, the Advocates initiated the popular Junior Orioles program (low cost tickets for kids) back in '63, then administered it for 25 years. Membership in that program rose from 75 youngsters the first year to a record 20,000 in '77.

The "Junior Orioles" Program over the years evolved into the "The Orioles Fantastic Fans Club". In '92 the "Junior Orioles" program returned and the Advocates are involved every step of the way. The Advocates also serve as distributors of Orioles souvenirs on giveaway days at the ballpark, assuring that all eligible fans get the items to which they are entitled.

The Oriole Advocates don't get paid for anything they do. They are all volunteers, constantly demonstrating the importance of competence and dedication whenever there is a job to be done.

1994 Officers: President--Jack W. Guthall...First Vice President--Bruce J. Birkhead...Second Vice President--Robert M. Blatchley...Treasurer--Joseph N. Karey...Secretary--Blaine S. Baer...Immediate Past President--James R. Hedrick...Board of Directors: Chuck Bragg, Harvey Brook, James R. Hedrick, Mary L. Hevey.

ORIOLES "DESIGNATED HITTERS"

The Orioles "Designated Hitters," now into their 15th season, are a group of volunteers, business men and women from the Baltimore-Washington areas, who sell Orioles season and group tickets on the club's behalf.

The organization was created late in '79, and in its first 5 years of operation, the Orioles' season ticket sales ballooned by over 700% from 1,623 in '79 to 11,738 in '84. Last season, the Orioles' second at Oriole Park, season sales were capped at 27,500.

To qualify for membership in the "Designated Hitters", candidates must meet demanding sales minimums according to a formula based on a blend of new sales and renewals, and everyone must requalify each year.

All qualifiers are eligible for the annual spring junket to Florida while the Orioles are training.

Patterned after the Kansas City Royals' highly successful "Royal Lancers", the "Designated Hitters" organization was actually founded in September, 1979 by then Baltimore City Mayor William Donald Schaefer and a select group of Baltimoreans working closely with the Orioles' front office.

The concept was to attract people from the business community to serve as the ballclub's principal season ticket sales representatives. The results have been dramatic.

Along with former Mayor (now Governor) Schaefer, the "founding fathers" of the "Designated Hitters" included: Owen Daly, Bill Beasman and Chris Hartman; Bob Aylward; and former club Vice President Al Harazin.
The "DHs" have their own officers and board of directors , as well as an active social program. The DH Board: President--Tim Redmond; Steve Attman, Jody Palmisano, Eamonn McGeady, Jack Hughes, Hal Hackerman, Howard Weinberg, Harry Baumohl, Doug Murphy, and Scott Zimmerman.

The Orioles season ticket sales figures for the past 15 years: '79- 1,623...'80-4,018...'81-5,215...'82-5,430...'83-6,061...'84- 11,738...'85-11,707 ...'86 - 11,145...'87-10,512...'88-10,082...'89-10,849...'90-15,024 ...'91-17,500...'92-25,000...'93-27,500.

1994 MAJOR LEAGUE DIVISION REALIGNMENT

For the first time in 25 years, Major League Baseball has restructured its regular season and post season formats. The last time it happened, in 1969 when the majors went from two leagues of 10 teams to four divisions of 6, the Orioles won the AL pennant and set a franchise record with 109 wins. This past winter, MLB players and ownership approved a realignment plan which created three divisions in both the American and National Leagues. In addition, a new playoff format was adopted which includes one wild card team from each league to join the six division champions in postseasons play. In all, eight teams will compete in post season action.

Under the new divisional playoff system, the wild card team or lowest seed (2nd place team with the best record in each league) will meet the top seed in the league (division champion with the best record) in a best-of-five-game series. Games 1 & 2 will be held at the home park of the low seed, while the top seed hosts Games 3, 4, & 5, if necessary. The No. 2 & 3 seeds (other division champions) will also play a five-game set in the same format. Note: If the No. 1 & 4 seeds are from the same division, No. 1 will face the No. 3 seed and No. 2 will meet No. 4. Two teams from the same division will not meet in the divisional playoffs. Champions of the divisional playoffs will advance to the League Championship Series.

This season the Orioles will compete in the "New" American League East Division, which features four other teams: Boston, Detroit, New York, and Toronto. The following is a breakdown of the new AL and NL divisions:

AMERICAN LEAGUE

EAST	CENTRAL	WEST
Baltimore	Chicago	California
Boston	Cleveland	Oakland
Detroit	Kansas City	Seattle
New York	Milwaukee	Texas
Toronto	Minnesota

NATIONAL LEAGUE

EAST	CENTRAL	WEST
Atlanta	Chicago	Colorado
Florida	Cincinnati	Los Angeles
Montreal	Houston	San Diego
New York	Pittsburgh	San Francisco

1993 MINOR LEAGUE REVIEW

The Orioles' six minor league affiliates posted a combined .536 winning percentage, their best mark since 1987 as all six clubs finished .500 or better, and three advanced to post-season play. Along the way, the O's farm system produced:

-one league MVP (Bluefield's Bryan Link, Appalachian League);
-two league ERA champions (Rochester's Kevin McGehee, International and John Lombardi, Gulf Coast) and one near miss (Bowie's Jim Dedrick was one inning shy of qualifying with the best ERA in the Eastern League);
-two league stolen base champions (Frederick's Curtis Goodwin, Carolina League and Bluefield's Kimera Bartee, Appalachian);
-two starting pitchers in league all-star games (Rochester's John O'Donoghue and Bowie's Rick Krivda).

The Orioles' top affiliate, Rochester (AAA), led the way, posting a 74-67 mark, and capturing the Northern Division crown for the third time in the last six years. The Red Wings then defeated the Ottawa Lynx, 3 games to 2 in the semifinals, but were defeated by the Charlotte Knights, 3 games to 2 in the Governor's Cup finals.

Bowie (AA) also qualified for the playoffs, finishing with a 72-68 mark, good for 3rd place in the Eastern League. The Baysox went on to lose their best-of-five series to the Canton-Akron Indians, 3 games to 2.

Frederick (A) won the second half Northern Division crown of the Carolina League (43-27). The Keys, however, were defeated 2 games to none in the first round of the Carolina League playoffs by the Wilmington Blue Rocks. Pitching proved to be the key to Frederick's second half crown as four of the club's starters ranked among the league's top 10 in ERA. RHP Rick Forney (14-8, 2.78) led all CL hurlers in wins and finished 4th in the league in ERA. RHP's Scott Klingenbeck (13-4, 2.98), Jimmy Haynes (12-8, 3.03), and Brian Sackinsky (6-8, 3.20) finished 6th, 7th, and 10th in ERA respectively.

At Class A Albany (GA), RHP Garrett Stephenson, co-winner of the Palmer Prize as the O's minor league pitcher of the year, threw the organization's lone no-hitter on June 9, as he blanked Augusta 1-0.

RHP Armando Benitez (5-1, 1.52, 14 saves), who shared the Palmer Prize with Stephenson, hurled the first 4 months with Albany and finished the year in Frederick. For the season, Benitez averaged 15.04 strikeouts per 9 innings while limiting opposing hitters to a .165 batting average.

ORIOLES GET 4TH NEW PARK IN LAST 6 YEARS

The 1994 season will bring yet another new ballpark to the Orioles' organization as the Bowie Baysox move from Memorial Stadium down I-97 some 45 minutes to their new home, located at the intersection of US 50 and MD 301. The yet-to-be named ballpark is to hold 12,000 fans and will be the organization's 4th new ball park (including Camden Yards) since 1989.

THE BABE RUTH MUSEUM

Located at 216 Emory Street in the neighborhood of Ridgely's Delight, the Babe Ruth Birthplace and Baseball Center is "just a long fly ball" (2 blocks) from Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

The house is where George Herman "Babe" Ruth was born on February 6, 1895. The birthplace was officially established in 1971 as an historic landmark and national shrine to commemorate the most famous and popular American athlete of all time. In 1983, the Museum expanded to become the official museum of the Baltimore Orioles, too. The birthplace and three adjoining row homes comprise the second largest baseball museum in the country and sport exhibits on Ruth, the Orioles and Maryland baseball history.

The Babe Ruth Birthplace is open daily: 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. (April through October) and 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. (November through March). On Orioles home game dates, the museum remains open until 7 p.m. For information on group tours, kids' birthday parties, or pre-game parties, call (410) 727-1539.

For the '94 baseball season, the Museum is premiering a new exhibit on the Orioles, "The Unfourgettable Years," which looks at 100 years of Baltimore baseball from 1894 to today's team. The "Sheriff Fowble" exhibit highlights the 46-year coaching career of Sterling "Sheriff Fowble" and his 600 boys he coached in Baltimore junior baseball. Finally, the Museum is giving visitors a sneak peak at plans for next year's celebration of Babe Ruth's 100th birthday.

WHY ORIOLES

In 1883, the Baltimore entry in the American Association was sold to the Von der Horst family. The team not only had a new owner, but a new manager and ballpark, as well. The park was built on the south west corner of York Road and Huntingdon Avenue (now Greenmount and 25th). It was named Oriole Park. According to historian Jim Bready the reasons for the park's name are now uncertain, except that 1883 was the heyday of a crashing annual hoopla worked up by the Order of the Oriole-a sort of northern autumnal mardi-gras. Soon, the team, too, was being called Orioles. Except for 1915, when Baltimore's professional team in the short-lived Federal League was called the Terrapins, all of the city's pro-baseball teams have been called Orioles, including those in the American Association, International League, National League, and American League.

ORIOLES GAMES IN SPANISH ON WILC-AM 90

To better serve the Hispanic Orioles fans, the club again will broadcast home games on WILC-AM 90, a 24-hour Spanish language station in Washington, DC. The Orioles are one of six American League teams to offer games in Spanish (along with the Boston Red Sox, California Angels, Chicago White Sox, Oakland Athletics and Texas Rangers).

This is the 3rd season Orioles games have been broadcast on WILC-AM with Alex Carrasco calling the action, Jose Ramon Rivera providing the analysis, Luis Nieves adding the advertising commentary and Luciano Rodriguez (the station's sports director) supplying the pre- and post-game reports.

As befitting a team with a new look in the front office and on the field, the Orioles also have a new look in the broadcasting department. In a unique arrangement, Group W Broadcasting, which owns and operates Home Team Sports (HTS) and WJZ-TV in Baltimore, was given exclusive rights to produce, televise and sell advertising for all O's games excluding the 14 scheduled for national distribution by Major League Baseball. The multi-year deal ensures Orioles fans will continue to receive highly-acclaimed, award-winning quality telecasts on the following outlets:

HOME TEAM SPORTS is available to cable systems in the 6-state Capital Region (all of Maryland, Virginia, Delaware and DC and parts of North Carolina, West Virginia and Pennsylvania). HTS will televise 90 Orioles games this year including 78 regular season and 12 exhibition games (March 14-15-16-17-18-19-23-25-28-30-31 and Apr 2). HTS is scheduled to televise 47 home games and 31 road games during the regular season.

HTS also televises Capitals hockey, Bullets basketball and many other major professional, collegiate and high school events of both national and regional interest.

WJZ-TV (ABC) returns as the Orioles flagship broadcast television station for the first time since 1978. In the first year of the agreement, WJZ-TV will televise 32 games (including exhibition games, March 20 & 27), mostly on Saturdays (8), Sundays (12) and Mondays (12), plus 2 additional weeknight games (a total of 17 home, 13 road games).

WJZ's broadcast television partner is WNUV-TV (Channel 54) which will carry the remaining 40 games (11 at home, 29 on the road). The 2 Washington DC stations serving as O's outlets are WDCA-TV (Channel 20) and WFTY-TV (Channel 50). Check listing for games on these stations.

Aside from the above-mentioned 4 stations, there are 8 others on the O's TV Network:

Not everything is new, however.

WBAL-AM is the O's flagship station for the Orioles radio network for the 7th consecutive year. This is also the 29th time in 41 seasons in Baltimore that WBAL has originated the Orioles games (the station first carried the Birds between '57-'78). O's fans in the mid-Atlantic areas will never be out of radio contact with the 2 most powerful 50,000 watt AM stations in the area, WBAL and WTOP-AM (1500) in Washington, DC. In addition, there are 18 stations on the radio network which bring O's baseball into local areas:

REX BARNEY

The one-time Dodger righthander has worked with the Orioles in parts of 4 decades. He has served since the early '70s as the club's public address announcer, and in a variety of media and public relations capacities.

During the season, he does Orioles Talk, the daily Rex Barney Baseball Report on WBAL Radio, then fills in on that station's Sportsline show the rest of the year.

He pitched for the Dodgers in Brooklyn for 6 seasons ('43, '46-'50) before they moved west, and was inducted into the Brooklyn Dodgers Hall of Fame in June '89. He made his major league debut in '43 just before being called into military service. After 3 years in the US Army, much of it spent in the European theatre during World War II, he returned to the National League in '46 and went on to compile a 35-31 career record.

In '48, his best season, Barney went 15-13, pitched 246.2 innings, yielded only 193 hits, walked 122 and fanned 138. He had a 3.10 ERA that year, appeared in 44 games, started 34 and completed 12. The highlight of his season was a no-hitter against the hated Giants at the Polo Grounds on Sep 9.

He began his broadcasting career in '52 in New York, was a play-by-play announcer for Mutual Radio's Game of the Day from '55 to '57, and also did games in the New York area for WOR-TV. He was part of Home Team Sports' first Orioles crew that began doing games in '84 and remained with HTS until '90. A native of Omaha, he has lived in the Baltimore area since '64.

TOM DAVIS

Baltimore native Tom Davis has been with Home Team Sports since '84, the station's first season on the air. He hosts the Orioles pre- and post-game shows and provides in-game interviews and score updates as well as "The Orioles Report." When time permits, he munches on a hot dog or two, and any other goodies that friends and fans bring to this well-known gourmand at the ballpark.

Currently, he can be seen on WJZ-TV doing "Boog & the Birds" during baseball season and "Braase/Donovan and Friends" during the football season and "Notes and Quotes with Johnny Oates" on HTS and other cable outlets.

He is sports anchor on on WQSR-FM (105.7) Radio's morning show "Rouse and Company." He also serves as a host on HTS talk and interview shows; has done play-by-play of O's games and college basketball and has covered hockey, boxing, and Redskins football.

Davis, 46, has gained national exposure doing NFL radio play-by-play and sideline reporting for NBC Radio and Television, ABC-TV and the Mutual Broadcasting System. Some of his assignments included doing the Gator, Freedom and All-American Bowls.

A sportscaster in Baltimore for more than 23 years, he is a 5-time winner of the Maryland Sportscaster of the Year Award ('78, '84, '85, '89 and '90). He is a Calvert Hall and University of Baltimore graduate and lives in Baltimore County with his wife, Linda, and children Malinda (19) and Tad (18).

JOHN LOWENSTEIN

Former Orioles outfielder John Lowenstein has been doing color on Home Team Sports' baseball broadcasts for the last 10 years. He played his last game for the O's on May 4, '85 and before the month was out, began his television career in the HTS broadcast booth.

His major league career, with the Indians, Rangers, and Orioles, began in '70 at Cleveland and spanned 16 seasons, the final 7 in Baltimore.

"Brother Lo," as he was known affectionately during his playing days, was a key member of the Orioles' left field combine in '82 and '83, along with Gary Roenicke and, to a lesser degree, Benny Ayala.

In '82, O's left fielders combined for a .283 average (608-172), 41 homers and 123 RBI and the following year, the world championship season of '83, they totaled a collective .292 average (612-179), 35 homers and 131 RBI.

His most memorable hit in an Orioles uniform was a game-ending homer (10th inning) in Game 1 of the '79 ALCS off California's John Montague. Lowenstein, 47, was born and grew up in Wolf Point, Montana, but he and his wife, Barbara, now make their permanent home in Las Vegas.

FRED MANFRA

In his 2nd season as radio voice of the Orioles is a longtime friend and Baltimore native Fred Manfra. The award-winning sportscaster came back to WBAL Radio after he was heard across the country since 1981 doing 22 shows per weekend on over 500 ABC Radio Information Network stations.

Manfra, 47, moved into the booth full time in '93, but it wasn't the first time he'd been heard doing Orioles games. In '91, he did a series at Memorial Stadium and before that, in the late '70s, he periodically did O's games on WBAL radio.

His baseball experience also included a stint with the Detroit Tigers on a cable television station in '80. But, baseball is only one of the many sports he has announced. His resume includes some of the most prestigious events in the business such as:

NBA Finals and NBA All-Star Games, 1985-91
Olympic Games '84, US men's and women's basketball
Horse Racing's Triple Crown (Kentucky Derby, Preakness at Pimlico and the Belmont Stakes), 1982-92
NHL Stanley Cup Finals and All-Star Game, 1991
Olympic Games '88, US hockey

In fact, his Olympics assignments have taken him to Sarajevo, Yugoslavia and Los Angeles (in '84); Calgary, Alberta and Seoul, South Korea (in '88), Albertville, France and Barcelona, Spain (in '92) and Lillehammer, Norway in February, '94, to do among other things, the Opening and Closing Ceremonies, anchoring, play-by-play and hourly updates.

Fred began his radio career in the early '70s with KREL in Corona, CA and moved eastward with stops in Ventura, CA (KBBQ-FM/KBBY-FM); Davenport, Iowa (KSTT-AM); Milwaukee, WI (WRIT-AM) and Detroit (WWJ-AM) in addition to AP Radio Network Sports in Washington, DC before settling in the New York area with ABC Network Radio.

Rounding out his repertoire, he has done college football and basketball for the University of Iowa ('75), the University of Michigan ('79-'80), Madison Square Garden Network ('87-present) as well as USFL and Arena football, New York Knicks basketball, boxing and wrestling. Along the way, he's received awards for his live action and studio reports. He has also done voicework for Madison Square Garden Network and for professional football team highlights films and the Sports Year in Review for ABC Radio Network ('83-present).

It appeared inevitable that his career plans would eventually bring him home. One of his athletic highlights is a double he hit off the left field wall at Memorial Stadium in an American Legion game and under his photo in his high school yearbook (Patterson HS, Class of '64), it said: "Fred's...future plans are in...Radio-T.V. work."

He and his wife, Marlene, are the parents of 2 daughters, both athletes: Michelle (15) who plays tennis and Stephanie (12) who is a first baseman and the only female on her neighborhood Little League team. The Manfra's reside in Fallston, MD.

JON MILLER

One of Baseball's finest announcers, Miller's voice is synonymous with Orioles broadcasts and for describing the action on ESPN Sunday Night Baseball. This will be his 9th season of regular nationwide exposure (4 years with NBC-TV and 5 seasons, including '94, on ESPN).

His talents are not only entertaining and informative, but worthy of consideration for national and regional awards (he has been nominated for an ACE award, emblematic of cable television excellence, in each of his 4 seasons with ESPN and won the award for his play-by-play work in '90. He was in Los Angeles for the January, '94 ceremony when the area was struck by a devastating earthquake). He was honored in '86 as Baltimore's Best Radio Sportscaster by Baltimore Magazine and Best Play-by-Play Broadcaster by Washington Magazine.

For the 2nd straight year, Miller teams with Fred Manfra on WBAL Radio. On ESPN, his partner is Hall-of-Famer Joe Morgan.

Miller's major league baseball broadcasting career began at the age of 22 with the Oakland A's in '74. After that, he did radio and television for the Texas Rangers ('78-'79) before moving on to Boston where he spent 3 more years in the Red Sox radio booth ('80-'82). He joined the Orioles broadcast team in '83.

Miller, 42, has had an extensive background in basketball, soccer and hockey during his 20 years behind the microphone. He did 10-15 games a season for the NBA's Golden State Warriors ('79-'82) and prior to that, did University of San Francisco basketball for 5 seasons.

He has also done considerable soccer play-by-play for the San Jose Earthquakes and the Washington Diplomats in the North American Soccer League (NASL) for CBS TV ('77).

A renowned impressionist, he convincingly imitates such talented baseball announcers as Harry Caray, Vin Scully, and Chuck Thompson during breaks in the action and on the banquet circuit.

Even during the "off-season," he remains busy. This past December, he was part of a special Baltimore Symphony Orchestra program, narrating "Yes, Virginia, There is a Santa Claus." In previous years, he was a moderator in Washington, DC at the Smithsonian's "Campus on the Mall" program and, in the spring of '93, participated in the Smithsonian's "Voices of the Game" program (along with fellow announcers Thompson, Scully, Caray, Mel Allen, Ernie Harwell, all in the Hall-of-Fame as Miller will surely be some day.

A native of the San Francisco Bay area, he now lives in Cockeysville, MD (northern Baltimore suburbs). He and his wife, Janine, are parents to Michelle (21), Holly (17), Emilie (15), and Alexander (6).

MEL PROCTOR

In his 22nd year as an announcer and his 11th as the Orioles' play-by-play voice for Home Team Sports, Mel Proctor took on added duties last year, appearing as a recurring character in 4 episodes of television's critically-acclaimed drama series, Homicide: Life of the Streets, directed by Baltimore native and O's investor Barry Levinson.

One of the busiest broadcasters in the business, he handles a variety of on-air assignments for HTS, including play-by-play for the NBA's Washington Bullets. He did the '94 Sugar Bowl for Mutual Radio and has also done college football, pro basketball and boxing for Turner Broadcasting (last 6 years); The Rose Bowl, Fiesta Bowl and NFL Football for NBC television and radio and college basketball for CBS-TV, (including the NCAA tournament '91-'92-'93).

This past year, he was named the Maryland Sportscaster of the Year for the 2nd consecutive year and for the 3rd time in his career (also '88).

In '86, he took a short break from Orioles baseball to do men's basketball play-by-play for TBS from the Goodwill Games in Spain. Four years later, he was part of the crew that covered Goodwill Games boxing in Seattle. He is scheduled to repeat that role in this year's games in St. Petersburg, Russia.

He began his career as sports director at the CBS-TV affiliate in Hawaii (KGMB) from '73 until '78. While there, he worked the microphone for Hawaii Islanders (AAA) baseball, University of Hawaii football and basketball, and did one season for the Hawaiians of the World Football League.

He came to work in the Nation's Capital for the first time in '78 when he began a 5-year stint as play-by-play announcer for Washington Bullets basketball on flagship station WTOP-AM. During the Bullets' off-seasons, he worked as the television and radio voice of the Texas Rangers in '80 and '81, then he supplemented his work with the Bullets by doing college basketball games for NBC-TV in '82 and '83.

For two seasons ('83-'84 and '84-'85), he served as the play-by-play man for the NBA's NewJersey Nets. It was during that time that he also worked the NFL Game of the Week radio broadcasts for the Mutual Broadcasting System.

CHUCK THOMPSON

On Feb 9, '93, the long overdue word came from Cooperstown that Chuck Thompson officially belonged in the Hall of Fame, an honor Orioles fans knew years before. His place was secured when he was named the '93 Ford C. Frick Award winner and with that distinction, took residence in the broadcasters wing alongside the likes of former Orioles announcer Ernie Harwell, Harry Caray, Vin Scully and Jack Buck. He was inducted into the Hall of Fame on Aug 1, '93.

A long-time legend in our town, Orioles fans are thrilled to have him on the radio broadcasts,working with Fred Manfra in the WBAL booth when Jon Miller is on another assignment. His voice has evoked fond memories for nearly 47 years, even though he actually retired from the business back in '88. Fortunately it didn't last. Coaxed back into the booth with a full but abridged workload, another generation of fans will have the pleasure of listening to him ply his craft.

He was a veteran announcer before arriving in Baltimore, having started his career in '39 at WRAW in Reading, PA. From there, he went to Philadelphia's WIBG in '42 to do Temple University football.

During World War II, he served in the Army and saw action in 3 major European campaigns. After the war, he returned to Philadelphia doing radio for the Phillies, Athletics, Warriors, Eagles and Rockets (hockey).

In '49, Thompson came to Baltimore, where he became the voice of the International League Orioles, the All-America Conference Colts, the Bullets, and Navy football. In '55, he joined the National Brewing Company's team of announcers and during a 24-year association, he did American League Orioles games in '55-'56 and again from '62-'78. In between, he was the radio voice of the Washington Senators, '57-'61.

For 2 seasons, '59-'60, he was on television doing NBC-TV's Game of the Week. Also in '60, he described the World Series call of Bill Mazeroski's famous Game 7, 9th-inning home run which won the championship for Pittsburgh.

He has been named the outstanding broadcaster in Maryland by the National Sportswriters andSportscasters Association on numerous occasions. Equally acclaimed as the announcer for the Baltimore Colts, he called the classic overtime playoff contest for the NFL title between the Colts and the New York Giants in December, '58; the Colts-Packers overtime playoff game for the NFL's Western Division championship in '65 (for CBS-TV) and the O's World Series games in '66, '69, '70, and '71.

He is a golfing and fishing enthusiast and his wife, Betty, is an outstanding cook. Thompson has 3 children, 11 grandchildren and 3 great grandchildren.
