JOE CODD: THE ONE AND ONLY

In this, the Orioles 41st Anniversary Season in Baltimore, one member of the front office has been here since the very beginning. He is Joe Codd, who works in the Ticket Office.

OWNERSHIP OF THE ORIOLES

On October 4, '93, American League owners unanimously approved the sale of ownership of the Orioles from principal shareholder Eli S. Jacobs to a group of investors led by Baltimorean Peter G. Angelos officially placing the Orioles in local hands for the first time since 1979, when Jerry Hoffberger, the owner of Baltimore's National Brewing Company, sold the club to prominent Washington attorney Edward Bennett Williams.

PETER ANGELOS MANAGING PARTNER

Peter Angelos, the Principal Owner and Managing Partner of the Baltimore Orioles, has brought dynamic leadership to the ballclub and to the community in the short year and a half since he and his fellow investors restored the team to local ownership. After bringing together 20 of the most respected people in the community to form an ownership group that reflects Maryland's excellence, pride and diversity, his group purchased the club for a record $173 million in August 1993.

Oriole fans who have filled Oriole Park at Camden Yards since its opening have longed for the club to reward their loyalty by signing top-quality talent on the field. With swift and bold action, the Orioles under Angelos acquired four new All-Stars for 1994: Rafael Palmeiro, Lee Smith, Chris Sabo, and Sid Fernandez. Among the additions for 1995 are Manager Phil Regan and a diverse, experienced coaching staff which includes Steve Boros, Chuck Cottier, and former Orioles stars like Mike Flanagan, Lee May, Al Bumbry, and Elrod Hendricks, as well as veteran pitchers Kevin Brown, Doug Jones, and Jesse Orosco.

Mr. Angelos has also taken constructive steps off the field. Fans who were seated in box seats down the left and right field lines had complained since the park's opening because their seats were improperly angled towards center field. More than 3,300 of the seats in question have been adjusted to improve their angle. Fans who felt uncomfortable when being approached near the park by aggressive ticket scalpers received support from the Baltimore City Council in '94 after Angelos sponsored a bill to banish the practice from the areas within 10 blocks of Camden Yards. Many fans whose season tickets were unfairly relocated when the club moved from Memorial Stadium had these injustices rectified at the insistence of Mr. Angelos.

Beyond correcting inherited problems and building a championship club, Mr. Angelos is making substantial contributions to the Maryland community, particularly for children and senior citizens. Determined to pursue what's best for the fans of this region, Mr. Angelos has made intense, sustained efforts to return a National Football League franchise to the people of Baltimore.

Raised in the industrial neighborhood of Highlandtown in East Baltimore, Angelos graduated from Patterson Park High School and from the University of Baltimore, where he was valedictorian for his class at the School of Law. An attorney since 1961, he is the principal of the Law Offices of Peter G. Angelos. He is a member of American Trial Lawyers Association, American Bar Association, State Bar Association, Baltimore City and Baltimore County Bar Association, and New York State Trial Lawyers Association.

Mr. Angelos, known nationally for his success as a plaintiff's attorney, is admitted to practice before the courts of Maryland, District of Columbia, Tennessee, the District of Columbia Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit, United States Supreme Court, and the United States Supreme Tax Court. In addition, Mr. Angelos practices in New York, California, and Pennsylvania, and has practiced before the courts of various other jurisdictions in the country. Mr. Angelos, who once served on the Baltimore City Council, is a member of the University of Baltimore Law School Advisory Committee, the University of Maryland Foundation, the Board of Trustees of Loyola College, the Grant-A-Wish Foundation, the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra, and St. Joseph's Hospital Foundation.

He and his wife, the former Georgia Kousouris, reside in Baltimore. They have two sons, John and Louis.

TOM CLANCY VICE CHAIRMAN OF COMMUNITY PROJECTS AND PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Tom Clancy's story is a publishing fairy tale come true. His first novel, The Hunt For Red October, published by the Naval Institute Press in hardcover in 1984 (which had never before published a work of fiction) sold briskly as a result of rave reviews, then catapulted onto The New York Times bestseller list. The Hunt For Red October ended up selling over 500,000 copies in hardcover and eight million paperbacks (Berkley Books, 1985). The book has been translated into a number of foreign languages, including French, German, Spanish, Italian, Japanese, Chinese, and now Russian.

Mr. Clancy has also written Red Storm Rising, Patriot Games, The Cardinal of the Kremlin, Clear and Present Danger, The Sum of All Fears, Debt of Honor, and most recently Without Remorse. All of Mr. Clancy's books have sold millions and ranked No. 1 on The New York Times bestseller list for both paperback and hardcover novels.

Prior to writing The Hunt for Red October, Clancy's only literary effort was an article on the MX missile published in the Naval Journal Proceedings. Although he had dreamed of writing a novel since college, Clancy, who majored in English at Baltimore's Loyola College, had always made his living as an insurance agent.

Clancy's The Hunt for Red October, Patriot Games, and Clear and Present Danger were made into movies and were blockbuster box office smashes.

The walls of Clancy's office are lined with war games, books on weapons and government-produced maps, all a tribute to the author's lifelong fascination with technology. Although he devoured military books since childhood, severe myopia prevented Clancy from joining the service, although he did serve in the Army ROTC at Loyola.

Clancy's interest in writing fiction resurfaced in 1976 when he read of the attempt of a Soviet frigate's crew to defect to Sweden. The idea, he says, rattled around his head for years. Finally, he imagined the frigate as a submarine and a novel based on the incident began to take shape. The fledgling author completed his first draft in just over three months.

Although Clancy had never been on a submarine in his life, he boned up on technical knowledge with such books as Combat Fleets of the World and Guide to the Soviet Navy. His grasp of the material was such that everyone from critics to military and intelligence experts hailed The Hunt For Red October for its uncanny verisimilitude.

Despite the astounding publicity surrounding all of his novels, Clancy insists the cocktail party circuit is not for him and that his life hasn't changed all that much. At age 48, Clancy, is the father of four.

JOE FOSS

Vice Chairman of Business and Finance

Now in his second season as the Orioles Vice Chairman of Business and Finance, Joe Foss oversees all of the club's business, financial, and administrative operations. During the '94 season, he implemented a plan which maximized the efficiency of the club's business activities, while keeping the club on track to draw a record 3.8 million fans before the pre-mature conclusion of the season. During the off-season, he participated in the interview and evaluation process which resulted in the selection of manager Phil Regan and his coaching staff in addition to the appointment of Syd Thrift as Director of Player Development.

On June 1, 1993, Foss joined Peter Angelos' acquisition team and then supervised the transition between ownerships. Mr. Angelos appointed him to his current position on December 9, 1993.

Foss graduated from St. Thomas College in St. Paul Minnesota in 1970, where he received his BA in Business Administration. In 1972, he received his MBA in Marketing/Finance from the University of Minnesota at Mankato. His extensive educational background led to 17 successful years in the banking industry with the Norwest Corporation in Minneapolis where he held positions from Commercial Banking Officer to Senior Vice President.

Foss continued his career in banking when he relocated to the Washington metropolitan area and accepted the position of President and Chief Operating Officer of First American Bank, N.A., of Washington in December, '89. In April, 1991, he was elected Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer.

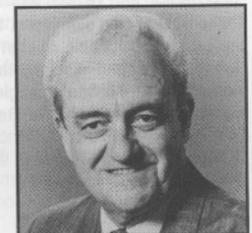

Community involvement is very important to Foss, as evidenced by his active membership as treasurer and trustee of The Green Door, an organization located in Washington, D.C., that is dedicated to working with the mentally ill, helping them to obtain housing and job training. He is also a board member of the Aquarium in Baltimore.

He is a former board member of the Children's Theatre Company of Minneapolis and former president of the Minnesota Aquatennial Association. In 1989, he served as president during the 50th anniversary of the Aquatennial, a 10-day summer festival which features water and land sports, attractions and parades, attracting millions of people.

In addition to his involvement in the community, Foss is a member of several professional and civic organizations including the Economic Club of Washington and the Metropolitan Washington Board of Trade.

Born Dec 27, '48 in Minneapolis, Foss and his wife Dawn have 3 children, Katie (13), Annie (9), and Michael (7). They reside in Cockeysville.

ROLAND HEMOND
GENERAL MANAGER

Roland Hemond, 65, begins his 8th season as general manager. Certainly one of the more active participants in baseball's trade market, Hemond has negotiated 135 trades involving 428 players during his baseball career. He concluded 17 trades in his first 17 months with the Orioles and is now up to 40 (thru March '95) since he was named to succeed Hank Peters as Orioles VP/GM on Nov 10, '87.

ORG/NO/PCY

A 3-time winner of Major League Baseball's Executive of the Year award ('72, '83, '89), he has engineered 4 of the greatest turnarounds in big league history, including the O's 22-game improvement in '92.

He was one of the principal architects of the Orioles 32 1/2 game improvement in '89, the 3rd greatest jump in major league history.

Hemond's '71 White Sox improved 23 games over the previous year, and his '77 team climbed 26 games above the '76 White Sox.

His career dates back some 43 years to '51 when he joined the front office of the Eastern League's Hartford Chiefs following a 4-year tour of duty in the US Coast Guard. At the end of that season he was promoted to the parent Boston Braves where he worked for the late John Mullen...In '53, Hemond accompanied the Braves' franchise to Milwaukee.

In December, '60, former Braves Manager Fred Haney became the first California Angels' general manager and less than a month later Hemond joined him as scouting and farm director.

On Sep 14, '70, he was appointed director of (major league) player personnel for the White Sox who were well on their way to a 56-106 final season record. At the same time, the Sox hired, at his urging, his former Angels' organization colleague, Chuck Tanner, as manager. At their first winter meeting, the 2 newcomers moved 16 players in the first 18 hours of the convention in Los Angeles.

In their first 2 full seasons, the Hemond/Tanner combine brought the Sox in third ('71) and second ('72). The Sox went 87-67 in '72, and Roland won his first executive of the year award.

He became a vice-president in July, '73 in the John Allyn administration, then worked with Bill Veeck from December, '75, when the latter bought the club, until January '81. After Jerry Reinsdorf and Eddie Einhorn purchased the franchise from Veeck, they promoted him to executive vice president for baseball operations.

Hemond earned his second top executive trophy in '83 after his White Sox won the Western Division by a record 20 games (biggest winning margin in either league since the divisional system was adopted in '69).

He was replaced in October, '85 by Ken Harrelson, but remained with the Sox in a consulting capacity...Seven months later in May '86, he joined the commissioner's office and remained there through two baseball seasons before joining the Orioles.

Hemond was born in Central Falls, Rhode Island. His mother was French-Canadian and his father's family is of French descent. In October '91, he was inducted into the Central Falls Hall of Fame...As part of the ceremony, city officials honored him by naming the city's largest athletic complex Roland Hemond Park.

He and his wife, the former Margo Quinn, were married on Nov 8, '58...They have 5 children: Susan (1/3/60), Tere (12/27/61), Robert (4/20/64), Jay (12/11/65), and Ryan (12/11/72)...The Hemonds are truly a baseball family: Margo's father was John Quinn, a major league GM for 28 seasons.

In addition to Margo, John Quinn's children include: Susan, who worked for the Angels and was Roland's secretary for a number of years; Bob, the San Francisco Giants' general manager; and Jack, president of the St. Louis Blues hockey team and former baseball general manager of the Hawaii Islanders and Vancouver Mounties of the Pacific Coast League.

Three of Hemond's children, Susan, Bob and Jay are also associated with professional baseball...Susan is an associate director for some ESPN baseball telecasts and also freelances on other major TV sports events...Bob worked for the Wichita Wranglers in the Texas League, '89-'91, and is now the National Commissioner of Babe Ruth League Baseball located in Vallejo, CA...Jay was with the Frederick Keys as director of special projects in '91 and '92 and is now a member of the Florida Marlins' front office in the Scouting Department.

FRANK ROBINSON ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Frank Robinson, 59, is entering the 42nd year of a distinguished professional baseball career. A member of baseball's Hall of Fame, his career has included 21 years as a player and the equivalent of 9 1/2 seasons as a major league manager. He is in his 19th season with the Orioles, for whom he has been a player, coach, manager, and front office official.

This will be his fifth season as Assistant General Manager, a position he assumed after serving as manager of the Orioles for four seasons ('88-'91). He received Manager of the Year honors in '89 after leading the club to 87 wins, a 32 1/2 game improvement over the previous year and the third largest one-season improvement in modern baseball history. The club finished in second place that year after challenging the Blue Jays for the AL East title until the season's final weekend.

Before being named manager in April, '88, Frank was the Orioles bench/outfield coach for three seasons ('85-'87) and was named special assistant to the president in October, '87. He managed the San Francisco Giants for four seasons ('81-'84), leading them to their first consecutive winning seasons ('81-'82) in a decade. He was relieved of his managerial duties when the club dipped below .500 in Aug, '84 and finished the season as a coach with the Milwaukee Brewers.

Ten years earlier, while still an active player, Robinson was named the first black major league manager in baseball history by the Cleveland Indians on Oct 4, '74. He made a dramatic debut as a playing manager (April 8, '75) when he homered in his first plate appearance of the game, an effort which Cleveland fans voted the most memorable in Tribe history. He managed 2 1/2 seasons with the Indians before completing the '77 campaign as a coach with California. He returned to the Orioles as a coach in '78, but spent most of that season managing in Rochester before moving back to Baltimore as a coach in '79 and '80. In '80, he became the O's batting and first base coach before departing to manage the Giants.

Frank's achievements during his 21 seasons as a player rank him among the top players of all-time in 10 categories. His 586 home runs represent the 4th highest figure in major league history. In addition, he ranks high in the following categories: games-2,808 (14th); at bats-10,006 (18th); runs-1,829 (10th); hits-2,943 (23rd); 2BH-528 (20th); RBI-1812 (13th); total bases-5,373 (8th); walks-1,420 (18th) and hit by pitches-198 (3rd).

He is the only player ever to win the MVP award in both the American ('66) and National League ('61). He appeared in 11 All-Star games as a player (6 with Cincinnati, 4 with the O's, and one with California), capturing MVP honors in '71.

He won the Triple Crown with the O's in '66, becoming one of only 11 players in major league history to do so. Only three players have won the award in the past 46 years (Mantle '56 and Yastrzemski '67).

Frank holds the ML record for hitting home runs in the most different ballparks (33), including both regular and post-season play (he hit 32 in the regular season, tied with Rusty Staub). Former Oriole Eddie Murray has homered in 31 different parks in regular season play (with new Comiskey Park and SkyDome still in sight)...Frank hit 2 or more homers in a game 54 times (5th in ML history) and once hit 3 homers in a game for the Reds at Crosley Field vs. the Cardinals (Aug 22, '59).

He is one of only three players (Jim Gentile, Jim Northrup) to hit grand slam homers in successive plate appearances. In '66, he set an Oriole club mark with 49 homers, his career high. He hit 20 or more homers in 17 of his 19 seasons as a full-time player, including 30 or more in 11 seasons.

Robinson played in five World Series including four with the Orioles ('66, '69, '70, '71) and one with the Reds ('61). He won Series MVP in '66 vs the Dodgers after hitting 2 key homers. The first came in the opening inning of Game 1 at Dodger Stadium with Russ Snyder aboard (Brooks Robinson followed immediately with another and the O's led 3-0 before the Dodgers batted). In Game 4, his 4th inning solo shot provided the only run as the O's completed their sweep behind Dave McNally.

He broke into the majors with the Reds in '56 after spending 3 seasons in their farm system. He won the NL Rookie of the Year award after tying the league record for homers by a rookie (38 set by Wally Berger of the Braves). Frank also set a rookie mark by being hit by pitched balls 20 times. In the Reds World Series year of '61, he recorded a career best .342 average (609 ABs, second highest in his career) and a career high 136 RBIs.

He was traded to Baltimore on Oct 9, '65 for pitchers Milt Pappas, Jack Baldschun and outfielder Dick Simpson. After the trade, Frank proceeded to help lead the O's to 4 AL pennants over the next 6 years. He won the Triple Crown (.316 avg, 49 HRs, 122 RBIs) and MVP awards in the AL and World Series in '66.

Frank was batting .337 in late June '67 when he sustained a serious head injury in a 2nd base collision with the White Sox's Al Weis. He missed a month and suffered double vision for a year and a half afterward. Though he ended with a .311 average that year, he slipped to .286 (with 15 HRs and 52 RBIs) in '68, while still recovering from that injury, an attack of mumps, and muscle tear in his right shoulder. Robinson returned to form the following spring and helped lead the Orioles to 3 straight AL pennants in '69, '70, and '71.

Following his trade to the Dodgers in Dec '71, his uniform No. 20 was retired, the first Oriole to be so honored. In '77, he and Brooks Robinson became the first players to be inducted into the new Orioles Hall of Fame, originated by the Oriole Advocates in cooperation with the Orioles.

Frank played one season with the Dodgers and nearly two years with the Angels ('73-'74) before finishing his playing career with the Indians while managing the club ('75-'76).

He was elected to the Hall of Fame in '82 along with Hank Aaron, after being named on 89 pct of the ballots cast (370 of 415). He is one of only 25 to have been named to the Hall in his first year of eligibility (list also includes Brooks Robinson and Jim Palmer).

Born in Beaumont, Texas (8/31/35), Robinson grew up in Oakland, California. One of 10 children, he graduated from McClymonds High School (Oakland) where he was a basketball teammate of Bill Russell. He and his wife, the former Barbara Ann Cole, have two children, Frank Kevin (9/8/62) and Nichelle (8/24/65), and live in Bel Air, California and Baltimore.

SYD THRIFT

Director of Player Development

Syd Thrift begins his first year as the Orioles Director of Player Development and his 38th year in professional baseball. Thrift, 66, (2/25/29) was appointed October 31, '94. The previous month, he had been honored by The Sporting News as one of the five best teachers in baseball.

The Founding Director of the innovative Kansas City Royals Baseball Academy, Thrift later was "General Manager of the Year" in 1988 after taking the Pittsburgh Pirates from last place in 1985 to contention. Thrift gave Jim Leyland his start as a major league manager in '85.

Thrift also served the Oakland A's as Director of Player Personnel, the New York Yankees as Senior Vice President of Baseball Operations, and most recently, the Chicago Cubs as Assistant General Manager.

Thrift grew up in the Orioles' region on a tributary of the Chesapeake Bay, the Rappahannock River, just south of the Potomac River. A native of Locust Hill,

Virginia, he graduated from high school at age 16, then attended Randolph-Macon College, where he was all-state in baseball at age 17. The southpaw, who also played first base, signed with the New York Yankees, June 13, 1949.

Thrift's first exposure to organized baseball instruction came in 1950, when as a prospect in the New York Yankees system under Farm Director Lee MacPhail (the future Orioles general manager and American League president), Thrift was one of 40 young Yankees to attend the first instructional school in the history of baseball, under the direction of Casey Stengel and his staff.

Thrift has been innovative in several areas of development, including his "visualization program," which focuses attention and study on a player's vision and concentration. The time-measured lead, the study of the aerodynamics of balls in flight, and advanced physical conditioning are among his many contributions.

In addition to growing up around the Chesapeake Bay, Thrift has several other ties to this region. His cousin, James Fleet Thrift (1873-1961) was Baltimore City Comptroller eight years (1911-1919) for Mayor James H. Preston in the early part of this century. Called "The best comptroller the city ever had," by Mayor Preston, Thrift is cited in the book, Distinguished Men of Baltimore and Maryland (published in 1914). Thrift's father, proprietor of a general merchandise store in Locust Hill, frequently brought his son via steamboat to what is now Baltimore's Inner Harbor to purchase goods.

While scouting for the New York Yankees and Pittsburgh Pirates in 1954 and 1955, Thrift taught in Northern Virginia at Mt. Vernon High School in Alexandria.

During an eight-year hiatus from baseball (1977-1984), Thrift worked in the real estate business in Northern Virginia, and in 1981 started his own company, Syd Thrift and Associates, in Vienna, Virginia (Fairfax County).

Thrift and his wife, Dolly, reside in Baltimore. They have two sons, Jim (32) and Mark (29).

GARY NICKELS DIRECTOR/SCOUTING

Gary Nickels, 48, begins his fourth year as the director of scouting for the Orioles. His responsibilities include overseeing the scouting department in addition to hiring and evaluating scouts. Gary is entering his 24th year in professional baseball, his 6th with the Orioles. In three short years as scouting director, Gary has made his mark with his quality draft choices. Six of his draft picks began on the '94 Orioles 40-man roster: RHP Rick Forney, LHP Rick Krivda, OF Alex Ochoa, OF Mark Smith, and OF Jim Wawruck from the '91 draft and OF Jeffrey Hammonds from '92.

Nickels started with the Orioles in 1989 as the Midwest Scouting Supervisor and National Cross-Checker. He handled major league and advance scouting duties for the club, and also aided in the first round selections of Oriole hurlers Ben McDonald in 1989 and Mike Mussina in 1990.

He started his career as a scouting administrative assistant with the Philadelphia Phillies in 1972. After spending 10 years with the Phils, Gary went to the Chicago Cubs for seven years, as an area scout and central region scouting supervisor. With the Cubs, he participated in the drafting and signing of several current major leaguers including Shawon Dunston, Mark Grace, Mike Harkey, and current Oriole Rafael Palmeiro.

A 1968 graduate of Illinois Wesleyan University, Nickels was the captain of the baseball team as a left-handed pitcher. He went on to earn his master's degree in sports administration in 1975 from Ohio University, where he was a graduate assistant for the Bobcats' baseball team.

A native of Naperville, Illinois, Gary and his wife Margie have one daughter, Lora(10/13/79).

ORIOLE PARK AT CAMDEN YARDS

THE HISTORY

Oriole Park at Camden Yards, the beautiful baseball-only facility in downtown Baltimore, became the official home of the Orioles on April 6, 1992. The construction of the park was completed in essentially 33 months from the time razing previous structures on the 85-acre parcel began June 28, '89 in the area known as Camden Yards.

The one-time railroad center is 12 minutes west by foot from the City's Inner Harbor and only 2 blocks from the birthplace of baseball's most legendary hero, George Herman "Babe" Ruth. Ruth's father operated Ruth's Cafe on the ground floor of the family residence located at Conway Street & Little Poca, now center field at Oriole Park. The ballpark seats 48,262 (not including standing room) and the project cost was approximately $110 million. It was designed by the Kansas City architectural firm of Helmuth, Obata & Kassabaum (HOK) with direction and input from the Orioles and the State of Maryland, which owns and operates the facility through its agency, the Maryland Stadium Authority (MSA).

Working under contract to HOK were the urban design firm of RTKL, the landscape architecture firm of Wallace, Roberts and Todd, and the engineering firms of Bliss and Nyitray, Rummel, Klepper and Kahl, and Kidde Consultants, Inc. Working under contract to the Orioles were the interior design firm of Forte Design and the graphic design firm of David Ashton and Associates.

Oriole Park is state-of-the-art yet unique, traditional and intimate in design. It blends with the urban context of downtown Baltimore while taking its image from baseball parks built in the early 20th century. Steel, rather than concrete trusses, an arched brick facade, a sun roof over the gentle slope of the upper deck, an asymmetrical playing field, and natural grass turf are just some of the features that tie it to those magnificent big league ballparks built in the early 1900's. Ebbets Field (Brooklyn), Shibe Park (Philadelphia), Fenway Park (Boston), Crosley Field (Cincinnati), Forbes Field (Pittsburgh), Wrigley Field (Chicago), and The Polo Grounds (New York) were among the ballparks that served as powerful influences in the design of Oriole Park.

THE PLAYING FIELD

The field is 16' below street level and is made up of Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT), a sophisticated irrigation and drainage system below a natural grass turf. It is designed to reduce the frequency of rainouts while shortening the length of baseball's most exasperating feature, the rain delay. The PAT system makes it possible to get the field ready for play within half an hour after the end of a heavy rain storm. It automatically removes as many as 75,000 gallons of rainwater from the field in an hour.

Camden Yards is one of only 8 asymmetrical parks in the major leagues. The park's deepest point is left of dead center (410') just as Fenway Park's (420') is to the right of the center line. Though it is 15 feet shorter from home plate to the right field corner than down the left field line, that difference is compensated by a 25' high wall which extends 100' from the right field line toward center. The fence in the rest of the park is only 7' high.

THE WAREHOUSE

Located beyond right field, the B&O Warehouse is 432 feet from home plate. Detroit catcher Mickey Tettleton has come closest to hitting the building on the fly in a regular season game (his homer, Apr 20, '92 directly down the RF line off Ben McDonald, landed 26 feet short of the warehouse). During the home run hitting contest the day before the '93 All-Star Game, Seattle's Ken Griffey hit the first ball off the warehouse.

Built between 1898-1905, the warehouse is the longest building on the East Coast at 1016' (but only 51' wide). It has been preserved and now provides unique office space for the Orioles as well as home for the banquet facilities, the ballpark's central kitchen and space for ballpark operations. The Orioles' main ticket office operates out of the north end of the Warehouse.

The night just as much belonged to Martinez, the veteran of 19 major league seasons, who began his long career in the Orioles organization as a lonely 18-year-old from a poor Nicaraguan family, unable to speak much if any of the host country's language.

He went the full 10 innings, allowed only 3 hits, and struck out 9 while throwing 130 pitches to gain his first AL victory since 1985. That it happened against his old team in his old town made it that much sweeter.

After a day of rest caused by a day of rain, Ben McDonald became the majors' first 7-game winner May 8, but the day which started beautifully for Mike Devereaux turned suddenly ugly.

OUCH II!: After a home run and a bases loaded triple, Devereaux was hit on the cheek by an accidental pitch from rookie Chad Ogea. Remarkable, he suffered no fracture and played the next day (scoring the tying run) while wearing a special protective flap attached to his helmet.

The O's 16-6 stretch finished with a flourish, a 3-game sweep at home over the defending World Champion Toronto Blue Jays. The Orioles were now 21-10, just a half-game out of first place, a welcome fast start for the Orioles.

TALES OF WOE: After that series, the club plunged into its first slump of the season, losing 7 of 8 and 14 of 21. Although the wins were infrequent in this stretch, they were memorable. A duel between Mike Mussina and Boston's Roger Clemens May 16 lived up to its hype. Cal Ripken broke a 2-2 tie in the 8th with a sacrifice fly, and Lee Smith preserved the win with his 16th save in 17 opportunities.

Disappointed with a pair of losses to the division-leading Yankees, the Birds salvaged an exhausting 10-inning tussle May 22. Despite the club's slump, Rafael Palmeiro that day established a personal record and club record 24-game-hitting streak, the longest in the majors in 1994.

The club began to emerge from its slump in early June, starting with the victorious major league debut of a youngster called up from Double-A. Filling in for Ben McDonald, who had made 80 consecutive starts before aggravating a groin pull May 28, 23-year-old Scott Klingle pitched 7 innings June 2, limited Detroit to 3 runs, and snapped the club's 3-game losing streak.

Cal Ripken was the offensive key to the win. He drove in the tie-breaking run in the 3rd, then delivered a 3-run homer in the 4th after Sparky Anderson intentionally walked Palmeiro.

ANOTHER HOT STRETCH BEGINS: The inspiring win led to a hot stretch that began in earnest June 5. The White Sox had gone ahead, 5-1 in the 5th, but red-hot Palmeiro, who had reached base safely 9 straight times, homered. The next batter, Harold Baines, did the same. In the 7th, Cal Ripken put the Orioles ahead to stay while Mark Eichhorn pitched his 15th and 16th straight scoreless innings of a streak that would ultimately reach 22.

The win launched the club's second hot streak, a 22-12 stretch that would bring the Orioles to within a shade of first place at the All-Star break.

SABO IN THE OUTFIELD: With fellow third baseman Leo Gomez on a sustained tear, the outfield was the only place to play the other third baseman with a hot bat. He flourished. On June 9, making his major league debut as an outfielder, Chris Sabo played brilliantly after working extensively in the Fenway outfield before the game. His throw to the plate that nailed Scott Cooper by a mile in the 7th maintained the 6-6 tie. Then his 2-run homer in the 8th off Kevin Ryan put the O's ahead to stay. He also doubled and was hit with a pitch. Stellar relief work by Mike Oquist, Tom Bolton, and Lee Smith enabled the Orioles to win, 10-7.

SUCCESS ON THE ROAD...EVEN AT SKYDOME: The Orioles' road success continued June 24-26 in Toronto, previously a house of horrors. Mark Eichhorn earned two relief wins in two days against his former club, and the Orioles completed their first-ever sweep at SkyDome, and their first in Toronto since 1982.

It would be the club's long visit to SkyDome, giving the Orioles their first undefeated season against an AL rival on artificial turf. (The O's were 2-0 on Cincy's field in the 1970 World Series and 3-0 in Philly in 1983.) The club was 8-8 overall on turf in 1994, the O's best mark since 1986, when they were 14-11.

The next night, Cleveland's Albert Belle uncorked a game-winning homer in the 9th to even the series.

But the Orioles, showing spunk, rebounded when Chris Sabo rewarded brilliant relief pitching (Eichhorn 4.2 ip, 0 er; Smith 1 ip, 0er) with a game-winning single in the 10th.

But the intense series ended in a draw when in game four, with the game on the line, Albert Belle broke a 2-2 tie with a 2-run homer in the 8th to deliver another late-inning win.

HEADED FOR THE BREAK: The Orioles finished the first half with a 10-game homestand against the three West Coast clubs, and it started with a bang July 1. Eleven home runs, six by the Orioles, tied the major league record in the Orioles' season-high, 14-7 rout against California.

Wouldn't you know what happened the next night? A 1-0 nail-biting loss. Ben McDonald, trying for his 11th win, gave up one run and 4 hits and had nothing to show for it. The night before, his mates scored 14 and the day after, they scored 10 (Cal Ripken delivered the club's only grand slam of the year Cal's 3rd lifetime, off southpaw Brian Anderson).

The Orioles continued on a tear with a 3-game sweep of Seattle followed by a dramatic weekend against Oakland. Sat, July 9, Jeffrey Hammonds homered into the left field seats leading off the 9th to produce the Orioles' first "sudden death" win of the year after they had battled back from a 7-2 deficit to tie on Baines' 7th inning single.

The next day, July 10, the Orioles were only three outs away from first place at the All-Star break. They led 4-3, when Mark McGwire crushed a game-winning, 2-run, 9th-inning, homer off Lee Smith. Jamie Moyer had retired the last 17 batters he had faced, but for the 4th time, his lead and his win vanished after his departure.

ALL-STAR GAME: July 12 at Pittsburgh, the NL rallied from a 2-run deficit in the 9th on a 2-run homer by Fred McGriff off the O's Lee Smith that tied it. In the 10th, Moises Alou drove in the winning run off loser Jason Bere with a double that scored Tony Gwynn just ahead of a magnificent relay from Albert Belle to Cal Ripken to Ivan Rodriguez, as bang-bang as you can get. Ripken played the whole game and went 1 for 5. Smith blew his 2nd save opportunity in 3 days (2 appearances).

THE BAD WEST COAST TRIP: It seemed like all was right when the O's won 3 of 4 in Anaheim. But then they went to Seattle and the roof fell in...literally. Before the Kingdome gates opened on July 19, a 25-pound ceiling tile, 32" by 48", fell on the seats below. Fortunately no one was hurt, but the game that day and the next were postponed indefinitely.

After two days of waiting, the Orioles flew to Oakland, where their only win of the 4-game series came on a Friday night when Cal Ripken dove to stop Troy Neel's drive, then threw him out with the tying run on 2nd with 2 outs in the 9th. Ripken, who would bat over .300 (.315) for the 4th time, had an equally excellent season afield. His .985 fielding pct. among shortstops led the major leagues.

Sunday's loss was a heart-crusher. The Orioles led, 6-0 July 24, going to the last of the 7th. That nemesis of '94, Mark McGwire, hit a 2-run homer off starter Jamie Moyer, and again, the hard-luck lefty left the game, only to watch another lead and another win disappear.

DAY-NIGHT, TWI-NIGHT (None of it went right): After the long fight home and another off-day Monday, the Orioles played a make-up, day-night, rain-delayed double header to start a homestand July 26. The separate admission twin-bill was the first at Oriole Park, the fifth at home in club history (the first since 1961). A split against the Indians that day preceded another day of rain, then another double header, this one the more traditional, twi-night variety. But the Birds lost both ends.

The Orioles, out of sync and losing ground to the Yankees, had played only 6 of the last 9 days, with two double headers.

The homestand ended on a high note, even in defeat on that Sun, July 31. Brady Anderson and the Blue Jays' Devon White delivered spectacular plays in center field, but the biggest ovation of the day was reserved for Ripken, the Hall of Fame shortstop whose relentless work ethic brought him to another magical number on his amazing consecutive-games streak: 1999. Little did anyone know that they were watching the last Orioles home game of 1994.

Three public facilities- a souvenir shop (The Orioles Baseball Store, open daily), a cafeteria (Pastimes) and a bar/lounge (Bambino's)- are located on the ground floor of the warehouse and on the 7th floor is the exclusive members-only Camden Club. The ballpark and warehouse are separated by a 60' wide promenade, an extension of Eutaw Street. Four balls have been hit out of the park and onto Eutaw Street—3 in 1992 and one in 1994—and all by the opposition. Kevin Reimer, while with Texas, hit one on May 5 off Jose Mesa that was 28 feet shy of hitting the building and California's Lee Stevens' drive to right-center off Rick Sutcliffe on May 23 was 33 feet short. In addition, Ken Griffey Jr. hit a blast off Brad Pennington on April 24, '94 that went 438 feet. These spots are marked by brass baseballs embedded in the concrete where the balls landed.

Open daily, Eutaw St. is home to plaques dedicated to players in the Orioles Hall of Fame and the Maryland Athletic Hall of Fame, as well as monuments to the players whose numbers have been retired by the Orioles. Ballpark tours depart regularly from the Baseball Store on Eutaw St.

SCOREBOARDS

There are 2 major electronic information centers in the ballpark to enhance enjoyment of the game. Two big boards are located on the main scoreboard in center field: The Sony JumboTRON video board (22'9" by 31'4") and an equally innovative incandescent lamp matrix game in progress board (24' 1/2" by 78' 1/2") built by Daktronics, Inc. (Brookings, SD) which is located on top of the JumboTRON.

Mounted on top of the 2 boards is a large double-faced clock built in Maryland by Triangle Signs that can be read from both inside the ballpark and in downtown Baltimore. That main scoreboard system also supports 2 weathervane Oriole birds to show players and fans alike the direction of wind flow.

Embedded in the tall right field wall is another electronic board (also built by Daktronics) that provides a good-ole-days feature missing from most current major league ballparks- continuously posted out-of-town scores. It accommodates 16 games at one time posting up-to-the-minute scores via a direct connection with SportsTicker the computerized service that tracks all big league games inning-by-inning. Above the out-of-town board are flag poles which sport the pennants of each American League team in order of their daily standings in each division. There are additionally 3 auxiliary boards for the convenience of those who do not face the 2 big boards in center field.

SEATING

Every aisle seat in the park bears an extra feature: a reproduction of the 100-year old logo used by the Baltimore Orioles of the 1890's, a National League team that won consecutive pennants in 1894-95-96.

The lower deck comprises some 18,000 box seats between the foul poles. Behind the lower boxes are some 6,800 terrace box seats. Seats in the lower stand are generally closer to the field. From the front row of seats to first and 3rd bases, for example, the distance is 45'. From home plate to the screen measures 57'.

The Left Field Mezzanine stretches from the right field foul pole to just beyond the left field foul pole and is accessible by escalators, elevators, stairs, and ramps. There is waiter service available at the seats and behind the seating area on the club level concourse is a climate controlled lounge with private dining and bar areas plus many other amenities including the Diamond Club buffet.

At Club Level also are 72 luxury suites each containing 10 to 14 seats. These suites can be leased on a yearly basis from $55,000 to $95,000. In addition, there are a number of suites that are available for rent on an individual game basis, several which hold 10-18 people, and 3 larger party suites which can accommodate groups of up to 60 people.

The Upper Deck contains 25 rows of seats (the first 12 are boxes, the last 13 reserved seats) and has a gentle slope of 31 degrees (Memorial Stadium, like many parks, was 33 degrees). A sun roof was constructed to cover half of the upper deck seating area.

Some 1700 bleacher seats, among the most popular in the park, are located in right-center field. There are also 275 standing room only locations that go on sale 2 hours before game time. These areas are found on the right field flag court and just above the visitor's bullpen in left field.

More than 400 seats are available to fans with disabilities in the equal access areas (EA) which are located in all price categories throughout the ballpark.

ACCESSIBILITY/PARKING

It is easily reached via rail, bus and subway lines as well as 4 major highways (I-95, I-83, I-70 and the Baltimore-Washington Parkway). The MARC train and light rail trains both have stops directly on site. Over 5,000 parking spaces are located south of the park on-site and over 30,000 spaces are located in garages and lots throughout downtown, all within one mile of the park.

WHAT'S NEW AT ORIOLE PARK BY YEAR

New for 1993

- On Eutaw Street, brass baseball plates were embedded into the sidewalk marking the spots where home runs cleared the right field fence wall. These plates contain the home run hitter's name, his team's logo, the distance the ball traveled, and the date the home run was hit.
- The Orioles Hall of Fame, located at the north end of the warehouse on the wall at the base of the scoreboard. The wall holds plaques, similar in appearance to those enshrined in Cooperstown. The plaques feature the Hall of Famer's likeness and a brief description of his accomplishments.
- A new auxiliary scoreboard was added on the facade of the club level near 3rd base to allow more fans access to baseball information.
- Orioles retired numbers...erected at the north end of the warehouse in front of the Orioles ticket windows. These 4-foot monuments honor Frank Robinson, Earl Weaver, Jim Palmer, and Brooks Robinson.
- Also noteworthy, 1993 marked the first time smoking at Orioles home games was designated to specific areas. Smoking was banned from the seating bowl, but permitted on the concourses on all levels.

New for 1994

- The Maryland Athletic Hall of Fame, located at the south end of Eutaw Street...This display honors 3 or 4 native Marylanders and represent 27 different sports. Plaques have been mounted on Eutaw Street in honor of these selected athletes. The selection committee is comprised of 12 Marylanders with extensive sports backgrounds.
- In honor of Cal's historic homer...On July 15, 1993 at Oriole Park, Cal Ripken hit his 278th homer, most ever hit by a major league shortstop, surpassing Ernie Banks's previous major league record of 277. Cal's home run was hit off Minnesota's Scott Erickson in the 6th inning of the Orioles 5-3 win. The home run landed in the lower box seats in left field and the point at which it landed is marked with a red seat.
- As a tribute to Orioles scouts over the years, the Scouts Hall of Fame plaques were mounted on Eutaw Street.
- Pay phones...There were 18% more pay phones at Oriole Park in 1994. Consideration was also taken to install some of these telephones in more remote places, so that the calls were more audible for emergency situations.
- To accommodate more fans, a new section of bleachers—Section 90—was added.

New for 1995

- The right field escalators, which take fans to the Club Level, have been redesigned. Following the repairs, made by manufacturer Montgomery Elevator, the Maryland Department of Licensing and Regulations will run extensive tests to ensure that the escalators meet all safety standards.
- Seats in sections 10, 12, 62, 64, 66, 68, or 70 will experience the benefits of "redirected" seats, a process which will improve the angle of many seats in right and left field. These seats will face more directly toward the pitcher's mound.
- Repainted railings...16 miles of it, all over the ballpark.
- The Orioles dugout's drainage problems have undergone work. Perhaps Ben McDonald will have to search for another fishing pond during the heavy rain delays.

1994 ATTENDANCE NOTES

The Orioles 1994 home attendance (2,535,359) was 4th highest in Major League Baseball behind Colorado (3,281,511), Toronto (2,907,933), and Atlanta (2,539,240). The Orioles averaged 46,951, establishing a new club record, breaking the 1993 average of 45,562 per game. During the strike-shortened 1994 season, the Orioles were on pace to break their 1993 attendance record by 160,000.

In three seasons at Oriole Park, the O's have drawn 9,748,143 fans (an average of 45,442 per game). Continuing on that same pace, the O's will break the 10 million mark by their 6th date in '95, a feat they did not accomplish at Memorial Stadium until their 10th season.

O'S OWN MAJOR LEAGUE RECORD FOR SELLOUTS: The Birds sold out 48 of 55 home games during the '94 shortened season, including 40 straight sellouts from Apr 22 through Jul 10. All told, the Orioles have sold out 186 of 215 dates at Camden Yards (87%), including a major league record 65 straight, May 23, 1992 thru Apr 20, 1993. In fact, the Orioles have hit milestones:

- 3 million      66 home dates ('93)
- 2 million      43 home dates ('94)
- 1 million      22 home dates ('94)

O'S LARGEST, SMALLEST CROWDS: The smallest crowd to see a game at Camden Yards was 22,564 for a make-up game on Apr 22, '93, a date that had been an off-day, but rain the previous night necessitated the make-up...That game also broke the O's string of 65 consecutive sellouts...It is the only date since the ballpark opened that the O's have drawn less than 35,000 for a game and only the 4th time they've drawn less than 40,000...The other occasions were: May 6, 1992 (35,526 vs. Min); May 4, '92 (36,495 vs. Tex), and May 7, '92 (39,231 vs. Min)...The largest crowd to see a game at Camden Yards was 48,147 for baseball's 64th All-Star Game on July 13, 1993...The largest regular season crowd was 47,851 on Memorial Day, May 30, '94, when the Orioles played the Tigers.

In 1994, the Orioles also drew their biggest record crowds. The top 5 were:

NOTE: In his 2 Baltimore seasons, Baines has appeared in 212 games, all as a DH or PH, and has batted .305 [226-for-742], with 34 doubles, 1 triple, 36 home runs, 132 RBI, 87 walks and 101 strikeouts.

1994 SEASON SUMMARY

Despite chronically bad knees [6 operations in 9 years] that required occasional rest, Baines never retreated to the disabled list [he's only been on the DL twice in his career], and turned in another productive season, his 15th in the American League.

He tied Cal Ripken for the club lead in tying/lead runs driven in [24], 5 times in the 7th inning or later [a distinction that tied him with Ripken and Leo Gomez]... Was well on the way to his 9th season with 20 or more homers, but had to settle for 16 when the season ended 7 1/2 weeks early.

His .296 average as a DH ranked 4th among his peers with a minimum 300 at-bats [see more on DHing below under "1994/Career Summary"]...He also went 4-for-10 as a pinch hitter and now has a .314 [17-86] career average in that capacity.

Was 3rd on the club in homers behind Rafael Palmeiro [23] and Chris Hoiles [19], ranked 3rd in slugging percentage [.485] and 4th in RBI [54].

GLOVES OFF: For the 2nd straight season, he didn't appear in a single game defensively...He has played 212 consecutive games without having played in the field since the last day of the '92 regular season with Oakland.

AT ORIOLE PARK: Batted .316 [48-152] in Camden Yards in '94 and has hit .328 [122-372] there since it opened in '92 [went 6-for-23 here for Oakland in '92]... Lifetime in Baltimore at both ballparks, he has a .325 average [197-606].

LONG DRIVE[S]: Hit the longest home run ever by an Oriole at Oriole Park on July 30 against Toronto's Todd Stottlemyre...The drive soared to a stop in the CF bleachers, 442' from home plate.

It was the 3rd longest ball hit at the 3-year-old ballpark, behind the 452' blast by Detroit's Eric Davis off the CF "batters-eye" wall on Sep. 26, '93 against Arthur Rhodes, and Juan Gonzalez's [Tex] 450' smash off Mike Mussina, July 26, '92 into the CF sod farm.

On Oct. 2, '93, he made a bid to become the first Oriole to hit a ball into the Eutaw Street corridor [in front of the warehouse] off Toronto's Paul Hentgen, but the ball hit high up on the RF foul pole and bounced back.

That year he also hit a 449' foot shot into the CF bleachers at Fenway Park, the longest ball of the year in Boston. MULTI-HOMERS: Homered twice off Cleveland's Albie Lopez while going 3-for-4 and driving in 3 runs Aug. 26 in Baltimore...It was his 12th career multi-homer game, his first since he connected 3 times against the Orioles at Oakland on May 7, '91 [off Ben McDonald, Dave Johnson and Jeff Robinson].

FIRST-PITCH HITTER: Batted .310 [18-58] when he connected on the first pitch...Over the last 6 years ['89 thru '94] he has hit .381 [204-for-535] in that situation, second only to Kirby Puckett [.391, 339-for-868] in the majors, and just ahead of Ken Griffey Jr. [.373, 187-for-502].

FAST START: Though April has been his toughest month at the plate traditionally [.259, 244-for-941 lifetime], Harold has batted .327 [35-for-107] during the season's first month in his first 2 Orioles seasons...In '94 he hit safely in 11 of his first 12 games [thru Apr. 19] and finished the month with a .395 average [17-for-43].

FAST FINISH: Went 9-for-27 [.333] during the abbreviated final month of the season...Also finished on a high note in '93 when he batted .359 [42-for-117] in his last 33 games, starting Aug. 20.

AMONG ACTIVES: Ranks 4th [majors] with 1,198 RBI behind: Dave Winfield [1,829], Eddie Murray [1,738] and Andre Dawson [1,540], and just ahead of Cal Jr. [1,179].

His 2,056 games, rank him 11th, 18 games behind Cal Jr. [2,074]...Is 9th in home runs [277] and 13th in hits [2,156].

1994/MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

DESIGNATED HITTER: Has a lifetime average of .288, exactly matching his career figure...Over the last 8 years [starting '87], 912 of his 982 starts [93%] have been as a DH [100% in his 2 years with O's]...His 566 RBI in that capacity over the same span are tops in the A.L.

In '93, he batted .313 as a DH, the 2nd highest average in O's history behind Eddie Murray's .314 in '88...In '93 also, he became only the 4th Oriole DH to hit 20 HR in a season, along with: Lee May-25-'78; Sam Horn-21-'91; and Murray-20-'77...His 78 RBI that season were 5 shy of the club record shared by Tommy Davis ['73-'74] and Ken Singleton ['83].

Was twice selected the A.L.'s top DH ['87 & '88], and was named to The Sporting News All-Star and Silver Slugger teams as a DH in '89.

CAREER HOME RUNS: Is one of only 3 players to have reached double figures in home runs every season since 1980 [15 consecutive years]...The others: Andre Dawson and Eddie Murray...He ranked 9th among active major leaguers at the end of the '94 season with 277.

From the left side only four active major leaguers have hit more lefthanded homers than Baines: Eddie Murray [324, lefthanded only]; Darryl Strawberry [294]; and Kent Hrbek [293].

Has hit 20 or more homers 8 times, 6 times for the White Sox, a club record...His 5 White Sox grand slams are also a franchise standard...Is the White Sox' 2nd all-time home run leader with 186, behind Carlton Fisk's 213.

CLUTCH HITTING: Despite a dip in '94, he has hit better with men on base in 10 of the last 12 seasons...Over the last 11 years, he has batted .310 [711-for-2295] with men aboard...His MOB average in each of those seasons: '84 [.322]; '85 [.337]; '86 [.322]; '87 [.338]; '88 [.288]; '89 [.311]; '90 [.263]; '91 [.314]; '92 [.307]; '93 [.340]; '94 [.270, 43-for-159].

Over the last 10 years, he has hit .298 with runners in scoring position [388-for-1300].

ELITE COMPANY: Only 28 players in major league history have as many home runs [277] and a career batting average as high as Baines [.288]...Among those, 20 are in the Hall of Fame and only one is active, Eddie Murray [.288 avg., 457 homers].

SINCE BREAKING IN: Since his big league debut in '80, he has driven in more runs [1,196] than any other lefthanded hitter in the majors and has more hits [2,156] than any lefty except Wade Boggs [2,392].

RUNS BATTED IN: The strike served to diminish his RBI total in '94 to 54, but from '82 thru '93 [12 years], he averaged 88 RBI per season...Drove in 819 runs for the White Sox, 2nd in club history behind Luke Appling's 1116.

INJURIES: Has had 6 arthroscopic surgeries on his knees [4 on his right and 2 on his left] in 8 years [starting '86], but through it all has been on the DL only twice: once in '87 while still with Chicago and once in May '93 [rib cage injury] with the Orioles...His most recent operation was on Oct. 6, '93.

FIELDING: Last played defensively Oct. 4, '92 [RF] for Oakland, the final game of the regular season...That was the 23rd game he had played in the outfield that year...Prior to his first knee surgery in '86, he had played the outfield in all but 26 White Sox games over a 4-year period ['82 thru '85].

In '86, his last full season as an outfielder, he ranked 4th in the A.L. with 15 assists...The year before, he posted a .994 fielding pct., 3rd best in the AL...He's had 69 career outfield assists, his last one in '91.

Has never played anywhere but the outfield defensively in the majors, but he did play 10 games at 1st base in '78 with Knoxville during his minor league career.

IN UNIFORM

VS. ORIOLES: Hit 13 home runs at Memorial Stadium, a personal high for the park he hasn't called home (see "Favorite Parks" below).

Has reached a number of career milestones against the Orioles:

- 1-In '87, he became the Sox' all-time HR leader with career #155 off the Orioles. Mike Boddicker [at Chi]...He remained #1 until Carlton Fisk passed him in '90.
- 2-In '92, he collected career RBI 1,000 at Oriole Park with a single off Rick Sutcliffe.
- 3-Hit his first major league home run at Memorial Stadium off Jim Palmer on Apr. 19, '80...Chicago won, and former O's & White Sox pitcher Ed Farmer (now a Sox broadcaster) got the victory.
- 4-Played what was probably the best game of his career against the O's on May 7, '91 at Oakland when he hit 3 home runs (one of 3 times he's done that); doubled and walked in 5 appearances; drove in a career-high 7 runs; scored 4 times; and set an Oakland club record with 14 total bases.

ALL-STAR GAMES: In '89 (his only All-Star start) his RBI single off Rick Sutcliffe was the first hit ever by a DH in the All-Star Game...In '91, he drove in a 7th-inning insurance run with a sac fly off Rob Dibble in the AL's 4-2 win (Cal Ripken drove in the AL's other 3 runs)...Had a pinch-hit single off Nolan Ryan in '85.

FAVORITE PARKS: Has batted .319 [84-for-263] lifetime in Minnesota, and .316 [78-for-247] at the HHH Metrodome [went 6-for-16 at old Metropolitan Stadium]...Has career .300 lifetime averages vs. 5 clubs: Milwaukee [.303], Minnesota [.302], Cleveland [.301], Seattle [.301] and Oakland [.300]...For more details, see chart at end of bio.

MARYLAND ORIOLES: Harold is one of 19 native Marylanders to have played for the modern AL Orioles, but only the 2nd from the Eastern Shore (the other was RHP Bruce Howard, born in Salisbury).

All 113 starts were as DH and his 415 at bats were the most by an Orioles DH since Ken Singleton in '83...Among AL DHs with 100 or more at bats, Baines led in avg. [.313], and was 4th in RBI [78].

He improved his average by 60 points over '92...Batted .340 [64-for-188] with men on base, a career high and 5th in the AL...Batted a club-high .333 [37-for-111] with men in scoring position.

Hit .359 in his last 33 games, starting Aug. 18, to raise his average from .294 to .313...Was 19-for-46 [.413] with 4 homers and 9 RBI during the O's 12-3 run, Aug. 29-Sep. 12, that pulled them to within 1.5 games of the lead...Didn't go 2 straight games without a hit until Aug. 1-3.

TIED CLUB RECORD: Reached base safely 13 straight times [8 hits, 5 walks], Apr. 30-May 2, to match Jim Dwyer's club record set in Sep-Oct '82 [also 8H and 5 BB]...His 8 consecutive hits, tied several [including Dwyer] for the 2nd longest string in club history, behind Ken Singleton's 10 in a row, Apr. 26-28, '81...Baines' 8th hit in that stretch gave O's a "sudden death" 4-3 win over KC on May 2.

HOME RUNS: Hit club-high 15 homers after the All-Star break, including 6 in a 12-game span, July 11-30, capped by his 8th career grand slam off the Red Sox' Frank Viola...Nine of his 20 homers tied the game or put the O's ahead, and 7 were to the opposite field...Hit 7 home runs in his last 17 games to reach the 20 plateau for the 8th time.

Didn't hit his first Orioles homer until June 6 at Camden Yards off Seattle's Chris Bosio...In his first 27 games he had no home runs and 10 RBI...After that in 91 games, he homered 20 times and drove in 68 runs.

MISCELLANEOUS: Collected career hit #2000, an infield single at Minnesota off Scott Erickson on July 24, exactly 2 weeks after Cal Ripken had reached that level.

Laid down a sacrifice bunt on Sep. 8 vs. Seattle, his first in a regular season game since '84 [though he did have one each in both the '90 and '93 ALCS for Oakland].

1992: Was the A's primary designated hitter, but did make 19 starts in the outfield, his most since '89...Was 2nd on the Oakland club in games (140), RBI (76), total bases (187) and 3rd in home runs (16). On June 1, he had 2 homers, 14 RBI and a .221 average after 45 games, but from that point on to the end of the season he hit .269 with 14 homers and 62 RBI in 95 games.

Ten of his home runs tied the score or put the A's ahead (including the one he hit off Jack Morris at Toronto in Game 1 of the ALCS (see above under "Post-Season"). Including the ALCS, had 20 hits in his last 48 at bats of the season...On June 23 vs. Seattle at Oakland, he tied his career high with 7 RBI in a 12-7 win...Saved the seemingly invincible Dennis Eckersley from a loss to KC on Aug 8 when, after Eck had blown his first save of the year in the top of the 9th, Baines followed with a game-winning 3-run homer in the bottom of the 9th...Led the A's with nine 3-hit games.

1991: Received a club-record 22 intentional walks...His .322 road average was 6th in the AL and his .455 pinch-hitting average was 3rd in the league (10 min at bats)...Hit .224 in April with no home runs, but over the final 5 months of the season he batted .306 with 20 home runs.

1990: Acquired by the A's just prior to the playoff deadline...Re-united with Tony LaRussa for the 4th time...LaRussa was Baines' manager at AA Knoxville in '78, AAA Iowa in '79, and for 6-1/2 seasons with the White Sox.

1980-86...Prior to his arrival, the A's had used 16 different DH's...His 5 RBI in the post-season were a club high.

1989: His .309 combined average with Chicago and Texas ranked 8th best in the AL and 2nd among the league's left-handed hitters behind Wade Boggs (.330)...He was also 7th in on-base pct (.395) and 10th in slugging (.465)...Was traded from Chicago to Texas on July 29...At the time of the trade was leading the Sox in batting (.321), doubles (20), homers (13), walks (60) and RBI (56).

1988: Led all DH's with 160 hits and 76 RBI...Tied for 6th in the AL in doubles (39) and led Chicago in games (158), hits (166), total bases (246) and RBI (81).
1987: Due to knee injury (see above under "Injuries"), missed 23 games early but was still named to AL All-Star team for the 3rd straight season...Hit safely in 18 consecutive games, July 3-24.

1986: Became the first White Sox player with 5 straight 20-homer seasons...He hit six 9th-inning home runs, tied for the major league lead...Led the White Sox in hits (169), runs (72), homers (21) and RBI (88).

1985: Led the AL with a .335 road average...His 158 starts led all AL right fielders...Had his 2nd straight year of .300+ and 20+ homers; Don Mattingly was the only other in the AL to do it those 2 seasons ('84-'85)...Named to The Sporting News and UPI All-Star teams after the season...Missed getting 20 hits when he went 0-for-13 in the final series of the season against Seattle...Had 9 homers on Aug 22, but finished with 22.

1984: Led the AL in slugging pct (.541) despite slugging only .205 in the month of April...In 70 games between the end of May and mid-August, he batted .371 with 19 homers, 59 RBI and a .783 slugging average...His 308 total bases are the 4th highest in White Sox history...His home run on May 9 off Milwaukee's Chuck Porter in the 25th inning ended what is still the longest game in major league history (8:06)...He hit the 753rd pitch of the game...The bat he hit the home run with is in the Hall of Fame.

1983: Set a then-ML record for most game-winning RBI (22)...His most important GWRBI came Sep 17 at Comiskey Park when his 9th-inning sacrifice fly drove home Julio Cruz with the run that beat Seattle and clinched the White Sox' AL Western Division championship, the franchise's first title since '59.

1982: At 23, became the youngest player in White Sox history to reach 100 RBI...His 105 RBI were the most by a Sox player since Dick Allen in '72...Had an unbelievable week in early July when he went 11-for-22 with 5 homers, 13 RBI, and 2 grand slams in just 6 games.

MINOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS: Spent just 3 seasons in the minor leagues...His only Triple A season came in '79, when he had a .528 slugging average...Etched his name in the record book that year by belting 2 home runs in the same inning on Aug 4 at Oklahoma City.

HEMOND CONNECTION: First attracted the attention of White Sox owner Bill Veeck as a Little Leaguer on the Eastern Shore when both lived there...Six years later the Sox selected Baines with the number one pick in the '77 free agent draft...Veeck was so determined to sign Baines that he and Roland Hemond (then the White Sox GM) went to Harold's home the night before the draft and signed him...Three days later Harold came to Baltimore to work out with the White Sox, who were playing the Orioles that night at Memorial Stadium...However, Baines was so in awe of his surroundings, that he didn't hit a single ball out of the infield... "Fortunately," says Hemond, "it got better from there."

AMATEUR: Batted .353 with 2 homers in 14 games as a senior at St. Michael's High School in '77...Was a high school All-American that year...Played there under coach Denver Leach...Harold's younger brother, Curtis, is a senior playing there now for Leach.

IN THE COMMUNITY: Has lived on Maryland's Eastern Shore all of his life...Every January 9 is Harold Baines day in his hometown, St. Michael's, Maryland...The Harold Baines Scholarship Fund provides college tuition for deserving local students...Harold's own donations and proceeds from a golf tournament he hosts go toward the scholarship fund.

On June 5, 1993, he hosted the "Harold Baines Baseball Celebration", a baseball card and autograph show to benefit the Kimberly Knopp Pancreas Fund established to help a friend who has diabetes.

PERSONAL: Harold and his wife, the former Marla Henry, have 4 children: Antoinette (3/6/84), Britni (10/31/85), Harold, Jr. (12/18/87), and Courtney (8/2/90).

1994 SEASON

Became a qualifying .300 hitter for the first time...Was batting only .200 [17-for-85] thru his first 25 games [May 4], then batted .331 the rest of the season [85-for-257]...Despite his slow start, he hit 3 of his 5 home runs in the month of Apr.

Batted in the #8 slot primarily [.311, 55-77] but was also used frequently in the #6 position [.256, 20-78]...Raised his average from .200 [17-for-85] to .273 [33-for-117] in a hurry from May 6 thru 15 by going 16-for-32 in a 9-game stretch.

Finished the season with another loud roar...Batted .375 [36-for-96] after the All-Star Break [25 games] from July 14 thru Aug 11 [end of season] to raise his average from .273 to .301.

1994 AND MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

DEFENSE: Played second base exclusively the last 2 years for Florida, and also played 2B only during his first 2 pro seasons...In between ['91-'92] however, he also spent time at the 3 other infield positions, particularly 3rd base where he played 63 games for the Expos in '92.

Last year in 106 games at 2B, he fielded .975 [558 TC, 14 E]. Finished 2nd in the NL in double plays behind Pittsburgh's Carlos Garcia [65 to 80], and was 3rd in total chances...The Mets' Jeff Kent [573] and Houston's Craig Biggio [570] were 1-2 in that category.

Lifetime fielding figures: 2B [979, G-251, PO-474, A-709, E-25]; 3B [941, G-73, PO-48, A-144, E-12]; SS [932, G-20, PO-19, A-50, E-5]; 1B [1,000, G-1, PO-1].

LATE INNINGS: In '94 he matched his season average when hitting from the 7th inning on in close-games [.301, 22-for-73]...Lifetime he has a .290 [71-for-245] average in those situations...Overall, he's batting .254 [69-for-272] with runners in scoring position.

GRASS/TURF: Batted .307 [92-for-300] on real grass and .278 [20-for-72] on artificial turf last season, but lifetime has fared better on the man-made material: Turf-.300 [136-for-454]; Grass-.272 [194-for-714].

1994 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

A spring training injury delayed his O's debut until Apr 17, 13 days into the season...However, in his first five starts from that date thru May 9, he was consistently effective.
 Pitched 3.2 scoreless innings in his first start, at Texas [ND] ...Worked 8.1 innings on Apr 28 at home to gain his first AL decision in his 3rd start, a 4-2 win vs. California in which he pitched 8.1 innings and allowed only 3 hits...Earned his 2nd win with a 7.1 inning, 4-hit, 4-1 victory at home against the Blue Jays on May 9, despite a season-high 6 walks...That was his 100th career victory. During that early stretch he was 2-0 with a 1.95 ERA [IP-32.1, ER-7]... After that he went 4-6 in 14 starts with a 6.40 ERA [IP-93, ER-59].

INJURIES: Went on DL in spring training on Mar 25 with biceps tendinitis...Was restored to the active list on Apr 17 after two rehab assignments [one each for Albany Polecats and Rochester Red Wings].
 A strained rib-cage muscle sustained June 18 while pitching against the Twins sidelined him for 15 days [June 19 thru July 3]...Was 4-4 before that injury and 2-2 after.
 His total lost time during the regular season was 28 days.

ODDS & ENDS: Averaged just over 6 innings per start in '94.

1994 AND CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

ERA: Ranks 12th among active starters in ERA [3.29] with a minimum of 650 innings pitched...Mike Mussina is 11th [3.20].

TOUGH TO HIT: Sid has always been tough to hit, in nearly every situation, and 1994 was no exception as the following figures indicate:

Average Against: His career average against all comers in all situations is a major league-leading .208 [among actives]...Overall, opponents batted .248 [109-for-439] against him last year, but in the '90s his average against is an impressive .212 [519-for-2448], 2nd in the majors to Randy Johnson [.210].
 With runners on base his average against is a major league-leading .215 [182-for-847]...Last year with runners in scoring position, he held batters to a .200 average [17-for-85], 5th in the AL...During the last 5 seasons, with men on 2nd and/or 3rd, opposing hitters have batted only .213 [98-for-461].

Over the last 5 years, also, lefthanders have batted .218 [98-for-449] and righthanders a percentage-violating .211 [83-for-1999].

In the late innings of close games, however, his overall average jumped to .344 [11-for-32] in '94, and to .285 [45-for-158] in the '90s.

Hits Allowed: Leads all actives in fewest hits allowed/9 innings lifetime [6.77] and ranks 2nd all-time behind Nolan Ryan [6.55], among pitchers with at least 1500 IP.

Baserunners: Has 3rd best lifetime ratio of [fewest] baserunners to innings among actives [10.4] behind Bret Saberhagen [10.24] and Roger Clemens [10.38]...In '94 that average was considerably higher [12.25, IP-115.1, BR-157].

HOME RUNS: For the first time in his career he was seriously bugged by the home run virus in '94...His 27 gophers, a career high, averaged out to 2.1 per 9 innings...Going into the season, he had yielded only 138 home runs in 1,706 big league innings, a ratio of 0.78 HR/9 IP.

His highest yield in the NL was 21 in 1989, but he pitched a personal best 219.1 innings that season, so the average was well under one a game.
 Only 2 of the 27 homers yielded in '94 were hit by lefthanders [Robin Ventura and Ruben Sierra]...Over the last 4 years, he has yielded 60 homers, 4 by lefties (add Eric Anthony [Hou] and Larry Walker [Mtl]), both in '93.

WALKS AND Ks: In '94, he walked 3.6 and fanned 7.4 batters per 9 IP...Was 2nd on the staff to Mike Mussina in total strikeouts [95 to 99]... Lifetime, he has walked 3.4 every 9 innings and his 8.19 Ks per 9 IP ranks 6th among actives.

Fanned 8 or more batters 4 times including a season-high 10 in a route-going but losing cause against Cleveland July 28...Didn't walk a batter in that game but threw 3 home run balls in the 5-2 defeat.

During his career, he has fanned 10 or more 32 times ...Twice, he has fanned 10 or more in 3 consecutive games: Apr 19-25-30, '92 and July 24-30-Aug 4, '88...Has ranked among the NL's top-5 in strikeouts 6 times: '85 [5th], '86 [20th], '88 [5th], '89 [3rd], '90 [5th] and '92 [4th].

Holds the Mets' club record for most strikeouts in a game by a lefthander, 16 at Atlanta July 14, '89 in a 3-2 loss...Lost the game when Lonnie Smith homered in the 9th inning...On July 30, '86, he struck out 11 batters in 5 innings and recorded the first 9 out of the game on Ks, but he lost that one, too, to Chicago, 4-3.

Struck out 782 batters in 588.1 minor league innings, an average of 12 per 9 IP [including rehab assignments in '91, '93 and '94].

IN UNIFORM

GRASS & TURF: During his career, he has much preferred pitching on natural grass to artificial turf...He was 0-1 last year on turf [at Min.] and is 26-30 [486] lifetime...On Mother Earth, he's 78-56 [582].

FIRST GAME AT CAMDEN YARDS: Holds the distinction of having pitched in the first game at Oriole Park at Camden Yards...He worked 5.1 innings for the Mets in an exhibition game against the O's on Apr. 3, '92 [3 days before the official opener].

METS' ALL-TIME: Ranks 4th on the Mets all-time list in strikeouts [1464] behind Tom Seaver, Jerry Koosman and Dwight Gooden...Is 4th in starts [250], 5th in wins [98] and IP [1584.2], 8th in ERA [3.14] and tied for 8th in shutouts [9].

POST-SEASON: Posted a 2.84 ERA in 4 post-season games in '86 for the World Champion Mets...Made one start in the NLCS that season and lost Game 4 to Houston, 3-1, at NY...Also made 3 relief appearances in World Series against Boston...Hurled 4 shutout innings in the Mets' 4-2 loss in Game 5 at Fenway.

Also pitched 2.1 shutout innings in the 7th game after relieving Ron Darling in the 4th with the Mets down 3-0...Walked Wade Boggs, then retired the next 7 batters he faced, 4 on strikeouts...Left for a pinch hitter in the Mets' game-tying rally in the 6th...In '88, he lost Game 5 of the NLCS, 7-4, to the Dodgers' Tim Lincecum.

BATTING: In the NL, he batted .192 [95-for-496] with 14 doubles, 2 triples, one home run, and 31 RBI...Ranks 2nd all-time among Mets pitchers in batting [min. 300 AB].

SHEA STADIUM: Was 58-31 lifetime at Shea where he compiled a career 2.52 ERA [IP-82.1, ER-230]...Held opponents to a .182 average [531-for-2911] there.

LONGEST AFFILIATIONS

Only three minor league baseball teams have affiliations with the same parent club continuously since 1961, and two of them are part of the O's farm system. Bluefield, the O's rookie team in the Appalachian League since 1958, has baseball's longest current affiliation. Next, Lakeland (Class A, Florida State League) with Detroit since 1960 and Rochester, the Orioles AAA team in the International League since 1961.

MOST VALUABLE ORIOLES, '54-'94

For the first time in 35 years and only the 2nd time in club history, a catcher was voted the winner of the Louis M. Hatter Most Valuable Oriole Award, presented annually by the Sports Boosters of Maryland, Inc...The 1993 award went to Chris Hoiles in a wide margin over Mark McLemore and Cal Ripken.

Hoiles had 11 first-place votes, one 2nd-place vote and a pair of 3rd-place votes for 60 total points...He easily outdistanced McLemore (2-5-3, 28 points) and Ripken (1-6-5, 28 points)...Also receiving points were LHP Jamie Moyer (0-2-1, 7), DH Harold Baines (0-0-2, 2) and RHP Ben McDonald (0-0-1, 1).

The first Oriole catcher to win the award was Gus Triandos who hit 30 homers and had 78 RBI in 1958...Ironically, Hoiles spent most of the summer chasing those totals which were club records by a backstop...Hoiles eclipsed the RBI mark with 82, but fell one short of matching the home run record despite missing 21 games while on the disabled list in August.

The Sports Boosters initiated the MVO trophy in '54, when the O's returned to Baltimore...Several years ago, they renamed the award in memory of the late Hatter, the distinguished and lovable "dean" of Baltimore baseball writers who spent 27 years writing Orioles baseball for the SUN.

The award-winner is selected in a vote of writers and broadcasters who cover the Orioles on a regular basis...Point values are 5-3-1.

Winners by position: Outfielders-14; first basemen-11; pitchers-8; 3rd basemen-4; shortstops-3; catcher-2 and 2nd baseman-once. No Oriole received MVO honors in 1994.

1993: The '93 winner of the Louis M. Hatter Most Valuable Oriole Award, by vote of writers and broadcasters who cover the club on a regular basis...Received 11 of a possible 14 votes...Also named to UPI's post-season All-Star team. Increased his batting average, home runs and RBI, each for the 5th straight season.

Just missed becoming the first AL catcher ever to hit .300 or better with 30 homers...Hit his 29th on the final day, but singled and flied out in his last 2 at bats...He and NY's Mike Stanley became the 4th and 5th catchers in AL history to hit .300 with 25 or more homers...The others to have done it: Boston's Carlton Fisk ['77], and the Yankees' Yogi Berra ['50] and Bill Dickey ['37-'38].

Led AL catchers in average [.310], runs [80], homers [28], RBI [82, tied with Stanley], slugging [.585] and on-base pct [.416], and was 2nd in hits to the Twins' Brian Harper [130 to 162].

His 29 home runs are the 2nd highest total ever for an Orioles catcher behind Gus Triandos who hit 30 in '58...Set O's record for most RBI by a catcher, 82, surpassing Triandos' old mark [78 in '58].

Was hitting .218 with 3 HR and 6 RBI in his first 26 games thru May 12, then batted .334 [111-for-332] the rest of the season [HR-26, RBI-76] in 100 games.

Was 5th in AL in both slugging and on-base pct...Averaged an RBI every 5.1 at bats, 8th in the league.

Missed 21 games, Aug 3-24, while on the DL with a strained lower left back muscle.

His .310 average was 11th in the league, and the highest by a qualifying AL catcher since California's Brian Downing .326 in '79...Became the 15th Oriole to bat .300 in 39 years, the first catcher...Only 2 O's had hit for a higher average in the last 10 years: Larry Sheets [.316, '87] and Cal Ripken [.323 in '91].

September: Named AL Player of the Month for September... Batted a club-high .364 [32-for-88] with 8 HR and 22 RBI...During first 2 weeks of September while O's were going 10-3, he was 22-for-44 with 7 doubles, 6 homers, 15 RBI and 10 walks.

Other Hot Spells/Honors: Was 25-for-65 [.385] with 7 HR & 16 RBI during the O's 19-3 run, June 2-26.

Between June 20 and 26 he became the 10th Oriole to hit 6 homers in a week, the first since Larry Sheets in August '87; on June 22 hit 2 homers including his 3rd career grand slam [off Kurt Knudsen] and drove in a career-high 6 runs; drew bases loaded walk in bottom of 10th on June 25 to beat New York...Named AL Player of the Week.

Also earned Player of the Week honors, July 5-11 [.435, HR-4, RBI-10]...Had at least one extra-base hit in 6 straight games, Aug 31-Sep 5, during O's 8-game win streak that brought them from 6 GB to 1/2 game out.

1992: Had the AL's 4th best home runs-per-at-bats ratio with a 15.1 mark, behind Oakland's Mark McGwire (11.1), Detroit's Rob Deer (12.3) and Texas' Juan Gonzalez (13.6).

Finished 4th in homers among ML catchers behind Philadelphia's Darren Daulton (27), Detroit's Mickey Tettleton (23, he hit 9 others as a DH) and New York's Matt Nokes (22).

Finished with the fewest RBI (40) in ML history for a player with 20 or more homers...That distinction previously belonged to Kevin Maas of the Yankees in '90 (RBI-41, HR-21).

Was 6th in the AL in home runs (14 in 62 games), and 5th in slugging (.539) and on base pct (.403) when he was struck by a pitch from NY's Tim Lary on June 21 and suffered a fractured right wrist (ulna bone)...Spent the next 2 months on the disabled list missing 51 games...O's played that game under protest after claiming Leary was doctoring the ball...ESPN's cameras appeared to have caught him in the act, and it looked as though it was an illegal pitch which hit Hoiles...However, no action was taken by AL President Dr. Bobby Brown.

Returned to the Orioles on Aug 18 and appeared in 34 games batting .265 (31-117) with 6 home runs and 12 RBI...Didn't play after Sep 26 due to soreness in right wrist...Underwent surgery on Oct 6.

Hit 2nd career grand slam May 4 off Texas' Todd Burns...Hit 7 homers in 16 games, Apr 15-May 4...An 11-for-19 stretch, Apr 15-21, pushed him into the AL lead in hitting with .390 average...First Oriole other than Cal Ripken to be leading the league in hitting at any point of the season since Ray Knight in April, '87.

1991: Started 91 games behind the plate and led AL catchers in fielding percentage (.998, TC-477, E-1)...Was the O's leading hitter in July with a .319 average, but batted .224 (268-60) the rest of the season.

Beginning June 23, with his first career grand slam, a clutch, game-tying blow in the 9th inning off KC closer Jeff Montgomery, he went 38-for-111 (.342) over 31 games...Raised his average from .198 to season-high .272 on Aug 6...Batted .194 (24-124) the rest of the season including a season-ending 1-for-25 slump.

Caught the O's 4-man no-hitter on July 13 at Oakland and drove in the game-winning run in the O's 2-0 triumph with a 5th inning single.

Historic Homer: In an intrasquad game on March 6, he may have become the first player (excluding Senior League and Old Timers games) ever to hit a home run off a pitcher already in the Hall of Fame when he hit a towering, but perhaps wind-aided drive off Jim Palmer at the O's spring training complex at Twin Lakes Park.

1990: Recalled by the Orioles from Rochester on 3 occasions during the season...Started in AAA and was leading the International League in batting (.394, 50-127, G-32, HR-10, RBI-31) when the first recall came, June 3...He appeared in 10 games between June 5-July 5, then was optioned to the Red Wings, July 13.

IN UNIFORM

Spent a month at Rochester, then was recalled, Aug 12...This time he appeared in 8 games prior to being sent back to AAA, Aug 28...When Rochester concluded post-season play, he was called up yet again, Sep 13.

After 3rd recall, started behind the plate in 5 straight games, but in the top of the first inning, Sep 23 vs. Milwaukee, he injured his right shoulder trying to throw out Paul Molitor at 2nd base...Suffered a tear in the muscle behind the shoulder.

Hit his first ML home run June 27 vs. Cleveland in the bottom of the 10th inning, a game-winning, 3-run shot off Sergio Valdez, giving the O's a 6-3 victory.

Rochester: His .348 average at Rochester was bettered by only one other Triple A player with 250 or more plate appearances: Albuquerque's Luis Lopez (.353)...Hit 18 homers in only 247 at bats, one every 13.7 ABs, 3rd best home run frequency in Triple A behind Pawtucket's Phil Plantier (1/13.0), and Las Vegas' Jerald Clark (1/13.4).

Added 2 more homers in post-season, including game-winning, 3-run shot against Omaha in the opening game of the Triple A Alliance Championship...In 27 games at Rochester, between May 15-July 25, he hit 11 homers (26 RBI) in 27 games...On May 19 he was hit in the face by a pitch from Indianapolis' Jim Davins and took 15 stitches above his left eye...Returned May 27...In 3 games before he was hit, and 2 games after, he went 13-for-18 with 4 homers and 8 RBI...Named the DH on Baseball America's Triple A All-Star team.

1989, ML DEBUT: Began season with Rochester, but recalled Apr 22 when Bob Melvin went on the disabled list...Made his ML debut Apr 25 at California in a pinch-hitting role (grounded out against Bob McClure)...Returned to Rochester May 7, but rejoined the Orioles in September... Started behind the plate in the season finale, Oct 1 at Toronto, and picked up his first ML hit, a run-scoring double, off Mauro Gozzo.

1988: Acquired Aug 31 from the Detroit organization along with pitchers Cesar Mejia and Robinson Garces for Fred Lynn...Began the season at Toledo, but was reassigned to Glens Falls on May 17 and remained there the rest of the season.

Topped all Tiger farmhands with 19 homers, including 17 at Glens Falls, tied for the most in the Eastern League...Also led the league in slugging (.500)...Threw out 38 of 105 attempted base stealers (36.2).

1994 SEASON SUMMARY

Set career high with 14 wins and established a club record while becoming the first Oriole ever to win his first 7 starts [thru May 8]...Also became the first in club history to go 5-0 at the beginning of 3 different seasons ['90, '92, '94].

Reached 5 wins [club's 20th game], 6 wins [25th game] and 7 wins [28th game] faster than any Oriole during the club's 40 AL seasons... Went 7-7 the rest of the year.

He and Mike Mussina combined for 30 wins, which made them the winningest pair of teammates in the majors...Led O's staff in complete games [5]; tied Mussina for most starts [24]; was 2nd to Mussina in innings [157.1 to 176.1] and was 3rd behind Mussina and Sid Fernandez in strikeouts [94].

Walked only 2.1 per 9 innings while striking out 4.8, and averaged just under 6.2 innings per start...He allowed 3 or fewer runs in 16 of his 24 starts [67%]. Lifetime, he has fanned 4.6 and walked 3.2 batters every 9 innings... He has worked an average of nearly 6.2 innings in 129 big league starts.

FAST START/SLUMP/FAST FINISH: Was chosen AL Pitcher of the Month for April [5-0, 2.65] in an Orioles sweep of the voting...Lee Smith was 2nd [12 saves] and Mike Mussina 3rd [5-1].

After his 6th win, a 5-hit 9-1 victory at Oakland on May 3, he had a 2.33 ERA [IP-46.1, ER-12]...However, his season began to unravel during his 7th start [May 8]...The O's staked him to an 8-0 lead thru the 4th, but Cleveland jumped him for 6 runs in the middle innings before the bullpen finally put out the fire...Ben escaped with an 8-6 victory though his ERA had jumped from 2.33 to 3.08.

In a month-long, six-start stretch from May 8 [day of his 7th straight win] through June 7, he gave up 32 earned runs in 31 innings, and by the end of June his ERA had reached a season-high 4.97.

From July 2 on [beginning with a 1-0, complete-game loss to the Angels], however, he was his early-season self...In his last 8 starts, he went 4-2 and compiled a 2.54 ERA [IP-56.2, ER-16]...When the strike hit, Ben's August ERA [0.55, IP-16.1, ER-1] was the best in the major leagues.

1994 AND CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

DURABILITY: Has missed only one of his last 94 starting turns dating back to the beginning of '92...Had a string of 80 straight starts snapped on June 2 when he sat out because of a groin pull sustained on May 23 and aggravated May 28 [Scott Klingenberg was called up from Bowie to pitch in Ben's spot and won the game].

Prior to '92, he had opened 2 consecutive seasons on the DL.

HOME/ROAD: Last year Ben was far more successful on the road [9-3, 3.14] than at home [5-4, 5.55]...That was a total reversal from the year before...In '93 Ben had the AL's 4th best ERA in a home park [2.72] and was 10-4 which represented the most wins at home by an Oriole since Scott McGregor won 11 at Memorial Stadium in '84...Conversely in '93, he tied Milwaukee's Cal Eldred for the most losses by an AL pitcher on the road [3-10]...He is 20-16 lifetime at Camden Yards and is tied with Mussina for park record in wins with Mussina [20-9].

VS. LHB/RHB: In a violation of the so-called percentages, Ben, over the last 5 years, has consistently pitched better against lefthanders [.225, 365-for-1623] than righthanders [.256, 398-for-1556]...Last year was no exception: vs. lefties [.244, 75-for-307], and vs. righthanders [76-for-285].

TWO OF A KIND: McDonald and Mussina not only share the Oriole Park record for most career wins [20], but both: were better on the road than at home in '94; have pitched more effectively against lefties than righthanders over the years; were hot at the beginning and end, but shaky in the middle last season and have been most successful during the month of April [Ben: 9-3; Mussina 11-2].

HOME RUNS: In '92, he allowed 32 home runs [2nd in the majors to Detroit's Bill Gullickson], but that has all changed...Last year he threw only 14 home run balls in 157.1 innings [1/11.2 IP] and his gopher ball record is even better over the last 2 years during which he has gone an average of 12+ innings between home runs.

VS. OPPONENTS: Has never lost to Texas [4-0], and is 8-2, 2.04 vs. the Angels...In '94 he went 3-1 in 4 starts against California while allowing only 16 hits and 3 [earned] runs and no homers in 26 innings [1.03 ERA].

He made up for a heartbreaking 4-hit, 1-0 loss to the Angels' Mark Langston on July 2 at Camden Yards two starts later in Anaheim on July 14...That day he defeated the talented lefthander, 3-2, while allowing only 5 hits in 8 innings with a 9th inning assist from Lee Smith [who saved 6 of his 14 wins]...Ben is 5-0 lifetime at Anaheim Stadium.

He is only 4-7 against both Milwaukee and Toronto...His lifetime ERA vs. the Blue Jays is 6.07 [IP-66.2, ER-45].

Despite his problems with the Brewers, he did pitch his best game of '94 against them...It was his 2nd career one-hitter, on Aug. 5 at County Stadium, during which he fanned a season-high 9 batters while shutting out Milwaukee, 4-0.

Ruben Sierra is only 1-for-27 lifetime against Ben, and both Ron Karkovice [0-for-12] and Brent Gates [0-for-10] are still looking for their first hit.

On the other hand, Joe Carter is a lifetime .440 hitter [11-for-25] with 4 homers and Cecil Fielder is batting .368 [7-for-19] with 3 home runs...Fortunately, he doesn't have to worry about facing current teammate Harold Baines [.462, 6-for-13, 2 HR] anymore.

SUPPORT: Despite his 1-0 loss to Cal on July 2, the O's averaged 6.64 runs per 9 innings on Ben's behalf...It was a far cry from the year before...In '93, the O's averaged only 3.96 runs [97 runs in his 220.1 IP]...In 13 games that year, his teammates scored 2 or fewer runs, and he was shut out 5 times...Six of his losses were by 2-0, 2-1, 1-0, 2-0 and 3-2 twice.

NONE ON, NONE OUT: Has been particularly effective in the '90s in retiring the first batter in an inning...In that situation he's held batters to a .225 average [195-for-862], 3rd best in the majors...With bases empty, regardless of outs, in the same five-season span, hitters have batted only .225 [435-for-2013], 7th best in the big leagues.

PREVIOUS SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

1993: Led the O's with a 3.39 ERA...Since '84 only one [qualifying] Oriole had a lower figure: Mike Mussina, 2.54 in '92.

Entered the final day of the season with the 4th best ERA [3.09] in the AL, but was battered for 8 ER in 1.2 innings by the Blue Jays, which boosted his season-ending figure 30 points [12th in AL].

Allowed only 11.3 baserunners per 9 IP, tied with teammate Mussina for 9th best ratio in AL...Through his first 7 starts he'd allowed an AL-high 16.5 baserunners per 9 IP [68 in 37 IP].

Was 9th in the AL in strikeouts [171], the first Oriole to finish in the Top 10 since Steve Stone in '80...Struck out a career-high 10 in 5-1 win at California Sep. 1.

Held opponents to a .228 average [185-for-812], 4th best in the AL...Opponents batted .318 [48-for-151] against him thru his first 7 starts...After the All-Star break, he held them to a composite .206 average.

Tied for 6th in AL with 7 complete games, all of them after the break...He and Chuck Finley tied for most CGs in the majors in the 2nd half...Tossed 4 complete games in September, most in a single month by an Oriole since Mike Boddicker went the route four times in September of '84.

Fast Company: Allowed 3 or fewer earned runs in 28 of his 34 starts, including 14 straight from May 11-July 10...Jim Palmer was the last Oriole to accomplish either feat...in '82 Palmer had 28 starts in which he yielded 3 or fewer ER and in '72 he had a string of 14 such starts in a row.

Ben allowed one ER or less 15 times in 33 starts, including 5 straight, June 1-24...Allowed 2 or fewer ER 20 times, but won only 9 of those games...In 23 starts between June 1 and Oct 1, he worked to a 2.41 ERA [IP-171.2, ER-46], but won fewer than half those starts [11-8].

His ERA during that 4-month period is all the more noteworthy when you consider that in one start [on Aug. 10 at Detroit] the Tigers pummeled him for 9 runs in 3.2 innings, enroute to a 15-1 victory.

Miscellaneous: Walked a career-high 7 while facing only 12 batters in his first start, Apr. 9 at Seattle, a 6-0 loss to Erik Hanson. Then averaged only 3.2 walks per 9 innings the rest of the way...Lost 1-0 at NY Aug 15 on a controversial homer by Don Mattingly...Was 4-1 in spring training, the most wins by an Orioles pitcher in Florida since Jim Palmer went 4-0 in '75...Had best ERA in June among AL starters [1.53, IP-29.1, ER-5] and leagues's 3rd best September figure [1.66, IP-48.2, ER-9].

1992: Made 35 starts, only 2 pitchers in the majors made more, including teammate Rick Sutcliffe (36)...Had a 6-game win streak and a 6-game losing streak, both career-highs.

Was 8th in the AL with a rate of 6.3 strikeouts per 9 innings...Posted a 3.39 ERA in 16 starts after the All-Star break but was only 5-7...He had gone 8-6 the first half with a 5.00 ERA...Was 7-2 on June 1, but won only 6 times in last 24 starts (6-11, 4.67, IP-156, ER-81).

Although he had only one win in his last 10 starts (1-6), he worked to a 3.94 ERA (IP-61.2, H-61, ER-27)...During that span he went 6 or more innings and allowed 3 runs or less 7 times, but the O's scored only 29 runs in those 10 starts...His only win during his last 10 starts came Sep 29 at Detroit in a 7-2 decision over Frank Tanana...Had a no-hitter for 5.1 innings before Dave Bergman singled.

Allowed 23 homers in his first 19 starts, but only 9 in his last 16...Yielded 4 homers against the Yankees on June 21, the first Oriole to throw 4 gopher balls in a game since Ken Dixon on Apr 14, 1987.

Threw a pair of 2-hitters: 2-0 in his first start at home over Cleveland on Apr 9 and at Texas on July 18, the day after Mike Mussina pitched a one-hitter against the Rangers...Started the season, 5-0, becoming the only Oriole starter to go 5-0 in 2 different seasons (also went 5-0 in '90).

1991: Originally scheduled to be the O's Opening Day starter, instead opened the season on the disabled list for the 2nd straight year and spent 48 of the season's first 83 days on the DL with a right elbow strain...Activated Apr 19 and made 7 starts (2-3, 6.95) before going on the DL again May 24 with a re-occurrence of the injury.

Made 2 rehab starts at Rochester in June... Returned to O's on July 1 with a 10-2 win over Detroit (IP-8, H-2, R-0) at home...Remained in the rotation until he was scratched from his last start on Sep 13 with soreness in right shoulder...Went 2-0 in his first 3 starts (3.00) after returning, then won only twice in his last 11 starts: 2-5, 4.42, IP-73.1, H-82, ER-36.

Left-handed batters hit only .215 (55-256); but righties hit nearly 100 points better (.313, 71-227)...Opposition batted .318 (28-88) with men in scoring position, 190 points higher than was hit off him the previous year in such situations (.128).

Didn't win back-to-starts all year and only once did he win 2 straight decisions...Lone CG was May 17 vs. California, a 6-hit, 5-1 win...Was winless in his last 7 home starts (0-4).

He and 4 other Oriole pitchers combined on an 8-hit shutout and a 3-0 win at Chicago on Aug 2 setting an O's record for most pitchers used in a shutout...Ben went 5.2 innings and Mike Flanagan, Mark Williamson, Jim Poole and Gregg Olson did the rest.

1990, FIRST SINCE VALENZUELA: Joined the Orioles at mid-season, made 6 relief appearances before moving into the rotation and then became the only Oriole ever to win his first 5 ML starts and first 6 major league decisions...He was the first major leaguer to win his first 5 ML starts since the Dodgers' Fernando Valenzuela, who won his first 8 in 1981. Among AL pitchers with 100+ innings pitched, McDonald was: -5th in the AL in ERA (2.43) -First in fewest base runners per 9 innings (9.33) -2nd in lowest batting average against (.205) behind Nolan Ryan (.188) -Held lefthanders to a .181 (216-39) average, lowest in the AL...Led all AL rookies in ERA, tied for first in complete games (3, with KC's Kevin Appier) and was 2nd in winning pct (.615, behind Chicago's Scott Radinsky, .857).

Slow Start: Suffered a pulled left lateral oblique muscle (muscle connecting ribs to pelvis) while trying to field a ground ball in an exhibition game on Apr 5 against Atlanta at Miami Stadium...Went on the disabled list the next day and didn't pitch again until Apr 24 on a rehabilitation assignment at Hagerstown...Continued pitching at Hagerstown and Rochester on his rehab assignment until he was activated and optioned to Rochester on May 22.

It Seems It Was The Seams: While pitching at Rochester, he developed a series of persistent blisters on the middle finger of his pitching hand...It was believed the higher seams on the International League ball led to the problem...Orioles General Manager Roland Hemond sent a dozen Major League balls to Rochester and McDonald pitched a simulated game in the bullpen with them....The blister did not appear and he was recalled by the Orioles on July 3.

First ML Start: Became the 4th Oriole ever to throw a shutout in his first ML start when on July 21 he pitched a 4-hitter at home beating Chicago, 2-0...Threw 85 pitches striking out 4 and walking one...Joined Tom Phoebus (Sep 15, '66); Dave McNally (Sep 26, '62) and Charlie Beamon (Sep 26, '56) as the only Orioles to throw shutout in first ML start...Was the youngest Oriole to throw a shutout since Storm Davis (21 years/6 months) in 1983.

1989, ML DEBUT: Was the first player selected in baseball's free agent draft June 5...First time O's had the top pick...It marked the first time in the history of the draft (since 1965) that a team had the first selection while in first place...Ben received the highest rating ever for a pitcher by the MLB Scouting Bureau...Signed with the Orioles Aug 19.

Four days after signing with the Orioles, he made his pro debut with 3 innings on Aug 23 pitching for the Class A Frederick (MD) Keys at home against Winston-Salem (Cubs) in the Carolina League (IP-3, H-5, R-1, ER-1, BB-0, SO-2).

Approximately 6500 attended his debut at Frederick...His other minor league appearance came Aug 27 at Frederick against Durham (Braves) and he worked 6 innings...Threw 55 pitches (47 strikes/8 balls) including 34 straight strikes at one point.

Recalled by the Orioles on Sep 1...Made his ML debut at home vs. Cleveland on Sep 6 in relief, and on first pitch he got Cory Snyder to hit into a double play.

Earned first ML win last day of season with one scoreless inning at Toronto in O's 7-5 triumph...Allowed his first homer at Texas to Pete Incaviglia on Sep 8.

AMATEUR CAREER

GOLDEN SPIKES AWARD: Was the recipient of amateur baseball's highest individual honor in 1989 the Golden Spikes Award, presented annually by the US Baseball Federation, the governing body for amateur baseball in the United States, to the nation's most outstanding amateur player.

COLLEGE: Grew up 12 miles from Louisiana State University and originally attended LSU on a basketball scholarship...Played basketball and baseball for first 2 years, baseball only in his final year (junior year)...As a junior was Baseball America's College Player of the Year and ESPN's Co-Player of the Year with University of Texas outfielder Scott Bryant...Was 14-4 with 4 saves and a 3.49 ERA...He fanned a school record 202 batters in 152 innings while helping lead LSU to a 52-15 regular season record and a berth in the College World Series.

1994 SEASON SUMMARY

Pitched in a career high 47 games (despite the short season), all in relief, to lead the club and tie for 6th in the AL (with 3 others). Was particularly effective starting May 14:

	G	W	L	ERA	IP	H	R	ER	BB	SO	HR
Thru May 8	14	0	2	16.00	9	15	16	16	7	13	5
Starting May 14	33	3	1	2.48	36.1	28	10	10	14	31	2

League Leader: His 14 holds tied Chi's Paul Assenmacher for the AL lead. A hold is credited when the reliever enters into a save situation, protects the lead, records at least one out, but is removed before getting the save.

Stranded: Led the club by stranding 82.6% of his inherited runners (38 of 46), the 4th best pct. in the AL and 5th best in the majors.

Homers: Allowed just 2 in his last 36 outings starting May 4 after allowing 5 in his first 11. Had 23 straight appearances without a homer starting May 4 thru June 27. Did not allow one in his last 4 games starting July 30.
Opponents' Avg: Opponents hit .251 (43-171), but only .214 (28-131) starting May 14.

Half the innings: His 45.1 ip was less than half the innings pitched in '93 (100.1) and '92 (103.1). Averaged just under one inning per appearance (0.96) after leading the AL in innings per relief appearance in 1993 (2.1) and 1992 (2.2).
Season Highs and Saves: Pitched 3.0 innings twice, May 14 at Min and May 24 at Mil, when he earned the first of two saves. The 2nd came June 11 at Boston after pitching 0.1 innings.

Good ratios: Gave up fewer hits (43) than innings (45.1) for the 7th straight pro season, and 8th of 9. Struck out nearly twice as many as he walked (44-24, 1.83:1), his major league high, and struck out 44 batters in 45.1 innings (0.97:1), also his major league high.

Toughest vs. AL EAST: Was 1-0-1 with a 2.38 era (3 er, 11.1 ip) in 12 games vs. East rivals. Did not allow a run in 8 games vs these foes: Bos (2), NY (5), and Tor (1). The only other club to not score off him was KC (3 g, 2.2 ip).
Vs. Left, Right: Held rbs to a .226 avg (24-106, 7 hr, 14 bb, 28 so). Although lefties hit .292 (19-65, 10 bb, 16 so), none hit a home run.

April Fireman: If the ultimate measure of a reliever is how well he escapes an inherited threat, Mills had dramatic success in April despite sub-par statistics: o Apr 9 home vs. Tex, relieved Mike Mussina in the 6th, one run in, O's ahead, 3-2, two on, none out. Struck out Juan Gonzalez, Jose Canseco, and Dean Palmer—all swinging—to end the threat. Mussina received his 2nd win, Lee Smith his 3rd save in the 7-5 victory. o Apr 14 at Det, relieved Mussina in the 8th, O's ahead, 3-1, men on 1st and 2nd, 2 out. After a wild pitch and walk loaded the bases, struck out Eric Davis, swinging, to end the threat. Mussina won his 3rd, Lee Smith saved his 4th, O's won, 3-1. Also protected 7-2 lead by getting Davis to pop up with 2 outs in the 8th in the opener of that series, Apr 11. o Apr 16 at Tex, after a dramatic 6-run outburst by the Orioles in the 7th and 8th innings to overcome a 0-3 deficit, the Rangers had men on 2nd and 3rd with 2 outs in the last of the 8th. Enter Mills, who struck out Dean Palmer, looking, to end the threat. Ben McDonald won his 3rd and Lee Smith saved his 5th. And even when Gonzalez (HR), Canseco (HR), and Palmer (single) found revenge off Mills the next day in the 9th, the O's still prevailed, 6-5, with Lee Smith saving his 6th. o Apr 25 home vs. Oak, relieved Mussina in the 8th, O's ahead, 8-6, 2 on, 2 out. Ph Rickey Henderson fled to center. Mussina won his 4th, Lee Smith saved his 10th.

1994 AND MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

Starting vs. Relieving: In 3 seasons with the Orioles:

PREVIOUS SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

1993: A non-roster invitee in spring, he tied his major league career high with 12 wins, his first winning season in the majors since his rookie year in 1986...Only 4 active pitchers have gone as long between winning seasons: Steve Howe (1982-1991); Danny Darwin (1982-89); Jim Gott (1984-1991) and Bruce Ruffin (1986-1993).

His 12 wins were twice as many as he had won in the major leagues over the 4 previous years ('89-'92) combined...Overall, he was 20 games under .500 in the big leagues before last year.

Began the season at AAA Rochester, but was recalled by O's on May 20 and won the 2nd most games by an O's pitcher who started the season in the minors... Only Mike Boddicker won more, 16 in 1983...Had the most wins in a season by an O's lefty since Jeff Ballard won 18 in 1989.

Was 10 innings shy of qualifying with the AL's 4th best walks-per-9 innings ratio (2.25)...Allowed only 41 of 167 leadoff hitters to reach, 2nd best ratio in the AL behind Kevin Appier (58 of 247).

Allowed 2 ER or less in 17 of his 25 starts, including his last 9 turns (5-4, 2.09, IP-64.2, ER-15)...The last time he allowed more than 2 ER in a game was Aug 8...Including his 8 starts at Rochester, he allowed 2 ER or less in 25 of 33 starts in '93.

Lost his first 3 starts with the Orioles and his last 3, but was 12-3 in between in 19 starts (3.24)...Over that 3-month span, June 10-Sep 12, he won more games than any lefty in the majors...Only Jack McDowell (13), Greg Maddux (13) and Bob Tewksbury (12) won as many games in the majors.

Had a 5.74 ERA after his first 3 starts, but a 3.17 (IP-136.1, ER-48) mark the rest of the season in 22 starts...Between June 10 and July 24, he was 7-1 (2.62, IP-61.2, H-54, ER-18).

First Oriole to win two 1-0 games in a season since Mike Flanagan in 1983 and the first to have started three 1-0 games since Jim Palmer in 1978...Among his 10 wins: beat Jack McDowell, 1-0; Chuck Finley, 1-0; Frank Viola, 2-1.

His win over Viola at Boston on June 10 was his first in the major leagues since, Sep 15, '90 (in relief) and his first as a starter since Aug 3, '90 when he threw a 3-hit CG for Texas over Toronto...Had been 0-11 in his previous 16 major league starts...Like Ben McDonald, lost a 1-0 decision at Yankee Stadium during the season...Moyer lost on May 25 to Bob Wickman on Pat Kelly's 5th-inning homer.

Shut out KC on 4 hits July 6, his first shutout since June 3, 1988 for the Cubs over the Mets (a 3-hitter)...It was his first complete game since Aug 3, 1990 over Toronto.

On Aug 18 at Seattle his 8-1 complete game win broke the O's 8-game losing streak...Fanned season-high 8 batters...Between Aug 18-Aug 29 had a string of 20 consecutive scoreless innings, a career-high...Also had a stretch of 17 straight scoreless innings, July 1-6...He and Fernando Valenzuela had a string of 40.2 scoreless innings, June 3-July 10.

Had two 5-game win streaks, matching his career high (also in 1988-89 with the Cubs-Rangers).

AL'S BEST ON THE ROAD: Had the lowest road ERA in the AL (2.44, IP-84.2, ER-23) and was 9-4 in 13 road starts...Only Cincinnati's Jose Rijo was better (2.35).

MISCELLANEOUS: Was 9-2 against the AL West...Was 10 innings shy of qualifying with the AL's 14th best ERA...Lefties hit higher off him than righthanded hitters (.308 to .256)...Was 3-0 in 3 astro turf starts with a 0.74 ERA (IP-24.1, H-19, ER-2)...Named Outstanding New Oriole by the Oriole Advocates.

ROCHESTER: Was leading the International League in wins (6) and ERA (1.67) at the time of his promotion on May 20.

1992: Signed a minor league contract with the Cubs on Feb 7, but was released by Chicago on Mar 30...Signed a minor league contract with Detroit's AAA affiliate Toledo on May 24...Was just 2-3 with a 4.55 ERA thru his first 6 games (5 starts), but 8-5 the rest of the way, posting a 2.33 ERA over his last 15 starts...Pitched into the 7th inning in 13 of those 15 starts...Allowed one run or less in 7 of his 20 starts overall.

Won 3 in a row, June 23-July 3, and 6 out of 8, June 23-July 29...Was 4-2 with a 2.09 ERA (IP-43, SO-33) during July...Granted minor league free agency on Dec 8.

STRIKEOUTS: Has fanned 10 or more batters only twice in his career- however both were record setting performances...Holds the record for most strikeouts in a game by a lefthander for 2 different clubs: fanned 13 for the Rangers on Apr 8, 1989 vs. Toronto and struck out 12 for the Cubs vs. Philadelphia on Apr 13, 1987.

GIVE HIM CREDIT: 3 (consecutive) time Cy Young winner Greg Maddux credits Moyer with helping him develop his changeup when the 2 players were together with the Cubs.

IN UNIFORM

1991: Signed with the Cardinals as a free agent on Jan 9 and went to major league camp as a non-roster invitee...Broke north with the Cards and began the year in their rotation...Made 7 starts with the Cards before being optioned to Louisville (AAA) on May 24...Finished the year with the Red Birds...Was released by the Cardinals on Oct 14.

1990: Opened the season in the Rangers rotation and was 0-2 with a 4.41 ERA in 3 starts before move to the pen, Apr 27...Returned to the rotation on July 28 for 7 straight starts...Tossed a complete-game 3-hitter on Aug 3 vs. Toronto, his only win as a starter...The win was his first since Sep 10, '89.

1989: With Texas was 3-0 with a 2.28 ERA over his first 3 starts, thru May 2...Struggled the rest of the way, winning but one of 10 decisions...Missed almost 3 months due to an injury to his left shoulder...Returned to the Rangers in September...Defeated Dave Schmidt and the Orioles 8-1, hurling a complete game Sep 10.

1988: Hurlled 202 innings, most by a Cub lefty since former Oriole Ken Holtzman's 208 in 1970...Received just 3.23 runs per start...Following the season was traded to Texas along with Rafael Palmeiro and Drew Hall in exchange for Mitch Williams, Steve Wilson, Curtis Wilkerson and 2 players to be named later on Dec 5 (Luis Benitez and Pablo Delgado were later sent to the Cubs on Dec 6).

1987: Placed 10th in the National League with 147 strikeouts...Was 2nd on Cubs staff in wins (12), starts (33) and innings (201)...Carried a no-hitter into the 9th on Apr 13 at Philadelphia, but Juan Samuel's lead-off single broke it up...Recorded 12 strikeouts along the way...Set a club record with 7 consecutive strikeouts on July 3 vs. San Francisco.

1986: Started the year in Pittsfield (AA) and was transferred to Iowa (AAA) on May 15...Contract was purchased by the Cubs on June 14...Made his big league debut 2 days later, beating Steve Carlton and the Phillies...Retired the first 19 batters he faced on Aug 16 at Montreal en route to a complete-game 2-hitter.

WINNING PERCENTAGE: At the start of the '95 season, Mussina leads all active major league pitchers in won-lost percentage [.712, 52-21], minimum 50 career victories, just a hair ahead of Toronto's Juan Guzman [.703, 52-22]. On the all-time list, he is second only to Spud Chandler, the former Yankees righthander [.37-.47] whose lifetime percentage was .717 [109-43]. His percentage easily tops the Orioles list [min. 50 decisions]... Steve Stone is 2nd at .656 [40-21] and Jim Palmer 3rd [.638, 268-152].

1994 SEASON SUMMARY

WINNING: Finished in a 4-way, 2nd-place tie for most wins in the majors [16], behind the Yankees' Jimmy Key [17-4], with KC's David Cone, Montreal's Ken Hill and Atlanta's Greg Maddux.

He and Ben McDonald combined for 30 wins in the abbreviated season, most by a pair of major league teammates.

Tied O's record for most wins at the All-Star break [13]...Jim Palmer, Dave McNally, and Mike Cuellar [the 3 biggest winners in Orioles history] each did it twice enroute to 20-win seasons...Palmer was the most recent to reach that level at intermission, in '75... Steve Stone who set the club record for most wins in a season [25 in '80] had won 12 at the break that year.

Went 7-1 at the start of the season and 7-1 at the end...In between [May 22 thru June 16] he was a mortal 2-3, 3.72 [IP-36.1, ER-15]... His ERA during the two 7-1 periods was a combined 2.89 [IP-140, ER-45].

In his 3 full seasons since his rookie year [1991 when he broke in on July 31, '91 and went 4-5, he's gone 48-16 [.750].

Has never lost more than 2 decisions in a row, and has only done that 4 times, once each season...Has only lost consecutive starts twice: his first two major league assignments after being called up in '91 [Aug 4 & 9] and in '94 [May 27 to Chi and June 1 to Det].

Nine of his 16 victories last year followed Orioles losses.

AMONG LEAGUE LEADERS: Ranked 4th in the AL in ERA [3.06], 5th in innings [176.1], and had the league's 4th lowest baserunners/inning ratio [10.51].

ELITE GROUP: Threw 5 home-run balls on July 1 at home vs. the Angels to join Hall-of-Famer Jim Palmer [June 17, '77 vs. Bos. at Bal.] in the Orioles record book.

Gave up 7 runs [earned] in that stint, which bloated his ERA from a league-leading 2.67 to 3.05 in only 5 innings of work.

But, guess what? He won the game, 14-7. The O's hit 6 homers [The two-team total of 11 home runs matched the major league record, last tied on Sep. 14, '87 when the Blue Jays out-homered the O's 10 to 1 at Toronto].

He left with an 8-7 lead and Mark Eichhorn [3 IP] and Jim Poole [1 IP] held the Angels scoreless the rest of the way while the O's padded their advantage with 6 more runs.

The 5 homers [by Tim Salmon-2, Chad Curtis, Chili Davis and Jim Edmonds] represented a massive departure from the norm...The rest of the year, his average home run yield was 1.1 per 9 innings.

Also found a way to win on Apr. 25 at home against Oakland, despite a yield of 6 runs in 7.2 innings...Final score was 8-6.

1994 AND MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

ROAD WARRIOR: Maintained his penchant for pitching particularly well in enemy territory...He was 8-1 and led the AL in ERA [2.04, IP-83.2, ER-19] on the road...At home he was 8-4, 3.98, IP-92.2, ER-41.

During the 1990s, he ranks 5th in the majors with a lifetime road ERA of 2.90 [IP-347.1, ER-112, W-L 29-11]...His career record at home is 23-10, 3.51 [IP-325.1, ER-127].

AT CAMDEN YARDS: Is 20-9 lifetime at Oriole Park with a 3.63 ERA [IP-282.1, ER-114] after going 8-4, 3.98 [IP-92.2, ER-41] in '94...He shares the record for most wins at the 3-year-old facility with McDonald [20-16].

WORKHORSE: Pitched at least 5 innings in all 24 starts in '94, 6 or more 22 times [92%], and went 7 innings or longer on 18 occasions [75%]...His 7.1 innings per start in '94 matches his career record.

His lifetime record for staying power in 93 big league starts:
5 or more innings: 87 [93.5%] 6 or more innings: 83 [89%] 7 or more innings: 65 [70%]

STINGINESS: Yielded 2 or fewer runs 16 times [67%], and 3 or fewer 18 times [75%] in '94...Has allowed no more than 2 runs in 56 of 93 starts lifetime [60%] and 3 or fewer 65 times [70%].

BETTER [LATE] THAN EVER: Held batters to a .221 average [28-for-127] from the 7th inning on in '94...Lifetime, he's been almost as effective in the late innings [.227, 115-for-506]...When the game has been close from the 7th on, his opponents have batted only .228 [56-for-246] lifetime.

"Close" is defined by Stats, Inc as "when the opposing team is one run ahead, the score is tied, or the batting team has the tying run on, at bat or on deck."

FAST STARTER: In each of his 3 full seasons he has jumped out to a fast start: 8-1 [92], 9-2 [93] and 7-1 [94]...Was 5-1, 2.89 [IP-43.2, ER-14] in April '94, and is now 11-2 lifetime during the season's first month with a 2.83 ERA [IP-114.1, ER-36].

From an ERA standpoint, however, September has been his best month [2.36, IP-118.1, ER-31 W-8, L-2] and he has a career winning record in every month of the season.

VS. OPPONENTS: Is 7-1, 2.79 vs. Twins lifetime with 2 of his 5 CG shutouts, and 7-1, 3.33 against the A's...Has winning record against all but 2 clubs: 1-4, 4.75 vs. Chicago, and 1-3, 3.49 against Cleveland...He's 15-3 vs. 3 West

COAST CLUBS: Oak [7-1], Cal [5-2] and Sea [3-0].

Held enemy batters to a .248 average in '94 [163-for-657]...Lifetime his average against is .246.

Three prominent batters have never had a hit off him: Dan Pasqua [0-for-14], Kirk Gibson [0-for-13] and current teammate Harold Baines [0-for-10]...Jose Canseco is 1-for-16 with no home runs.

Frank Thomas, on the other hand, is batting .619 [13-for-21] off Mussina with 4 doubles, 4 homers and 6 RBI.

DON'T EVEN THINK ABOUT IT: Only 7 of 13 attempting to steal were successful [54%] against him in '94...Lifetime, his record against the stolen base is even better: 48 have tried, but only 23 [48%] have reached their destination while he was on the mound...For comparison's sake, the league-wide success percentage by basestealers in '94 was 69%

3-TIME ALL-STAR: Became the first Oriole ever chosen to the American League All-Star team in each of his first 3 full seasons. Pitched one scoreless inning [5th] and allowed one hit in '94 at Pittsburgh.

Prior to his '94 selection, Mussina and Andy Etchebarren had shared the distinction of being the only O's ever chosen in each of their first 2 full seasons. Appeared in '92 and '94 games, both played in NL parks, but didn't see action in the '93 game at Baltimore.

WALKS & STRIKEOUTS: Has averaged only 2 walks per 9 innings throughout his big league career and has fanned an average of 5.25... In only 2 of his 93 starts has he failed to fan a batter [most recently on July 281 vs. Cleveland [H]].

GRASS/TURF: Has won 8 straight decisions on artificial turf since losing at Toronto on Aug. 10, '92...Lifetime, he's 10-2 (.833), 2.81 [IP-105.2, ER-33] on ersatz grass and 42-19 (.689), 3.27 [IP-567, ER-206] on the real thing.

PREVIOUS SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

1993: Finished with the 7th best winning percentage in the AL (14-6, .700)...Missed 6 weeks during the season with a sore right shoulder and lower back pain...Was on the disabled list, June 22-Aug 19, with the shoulder injury...Still led the club in wins for the 2nd straight year.

Worked to a 3.05 ERA thru his first 13 starts and was tied for the major league lead in wins (9-2) on June 11...However he won only 2 games over the next 10 weeks...Was 2-2 in 6 starts (9.00, IP-30, H-46, ER-30) and spent a month on the DL...Returned Aug 20 and was 3-2 (IP-40.1, H-38, ER-20) in 6 starts before the return of soreness in his shoulder and back sidelined him in mid-September.

Allowed 11.3 base runners per 9 innings, tied with Ben McDonald for 9th in the AL...Walked 2 or less in 20 of 25 starts and was 6th in the AL with 2.36 walks per 9 IP.

Was the 3rd toughest to steal on in the AL- allowing only 3 of 9 (33%) base stealers to make it...O's scored 114 runs in his 167.2 innings of work, 6.12 runs per game, 3rd best run support in the AL.

STRIKEOUTS: Had the AL's 5th best strikeouts-to-walks ratio (117 to 44)...On May 16 at Detroit, he tied a club record with 14 strikeouts, a mark that was last accomplished in a regular season game more than 35 years ago (Connie Johnson, Sep 2, '57 vs. NY)...Bob Turley (Apr 21, '54 vs. Cle.) and Mike Boddicker (Oct 6, '83 vs. Chi. in the ALCS) also have a share of the record.

In his 8-2 win at California on Aug 31 he struck out 6 straight batters in the 4th and 5th innings, one shy of the club record of 7 by Sammy Stewart in '78.

ALL-STAR: Was the youngest pitcher on the All-Star staff for the 2nd consecutive year...Became one of only 2 Orioles in club history to make the All-Star team in each of his first 2 full seasons in the major leagues (Andy Etchebarren, '66 and '67 is the other).

At 23, became the O's youngest 18-game winner since 19-year-old Wally Bunker won 19 games in 1964...The only other Orioles to win that many games at a younger age are Steve Barber and Chuck Estrada, who both won 18 games as 22-year-olds in 1961 and 1960 respectively.

His 2.54 ERA was 3rd best in the AL and the lowest by an Oriole (excluding abbreviated '81 season) since Jim Palmer in 1978 (2.46)...The last time an AL pitcher Mike's age or younger posted an ERA that low was in 1976 when Mark Fidrych (2.34) and Frank Tanana (2.43) did it at 22 and 23 respectively.

Was 7th in the AL with 8 complete games, most by an Oriole since Mike Boddicker (9) in 1985...The O's entire pitching staff had only 8 in 1991...Led the AL with 3 complete games in September, all consecutively, Sep 11-15-21, the first Oriole with 3 straight complete games since Scott McGregor in 1985.

In his first start after the All-Star break, July 17 at Texas, pitched the 29th one-hitter in club history, winning 8-0 with 10 strikeouts over 20-game winner Kevin Brown...Kevin Reimer broke up the no-hit bid with a one-out double in the 5th, a ball that landed 6 inches inside the right field foul line.

At 23 years-8 months became the youngest Oriole pitcher to make the All-Star team since Chuck Estrada (22) in '60...Was 11-2 (2.44) on the road, tied with Jack McDowell for the most road wins in the AL.

Fanned 10 batters in his first ML win, 10-2, at home over Texas on Aug 14...On Sep 16, he beat the Red Sox, 9-2, the O's only CG at Boston since Mike Boddicker in '86.

Lost 1-0 in his ML debut at Chicago on Aug 4 (IP-7.2, H-4, ER-1, BB-4, SO-1) on a homer by Frank Thomas...On Sep 22 at Cleveland, he took a 1-0 lead into the 9th inning, but lost 2-1 (IP-8.1, H-7, R/ER-2, BB-0, SO-3).

Rochester: When promoted from AAA Rochester on July 31, was tied for the International League lead in wins (10), 2nd in ERA (2.87) and 2nd in strikeouts (107)...Was the winner of the first Palmer Prize as the top pitcher in the O's minor league system.

1994 SEASON SUMMARY

Began the season 0-1 with a 12.00 ERA in 8 appearances for the O's...In his last appearance with the Birds (April 24 at home vs Sea), came on in the 8th inning with the O's leading 6-3, bases loaded, no outs, and Ken Griffey at the plate. His first pitch was a wild pitch that allowed the runner on 3rd to score, his next pitch to Griffey landed on Eutaw Street for a 3-run homer and a 7-6 Mariners' win.

That 438-foot blast would later be used as centerpiece footage for a Nike commercial...Griffey would go on to hit 35 more homers for a '94 total of 40 (in 111 games), while Brad would spend the rest of '94 at AAA Rochester, as he was optioned to the Red Wings the next day, April 25.

ROCHESTER: Made 26 relief appearances for the Wings, going 2-3 with 3 saves and a 4.17 ERA...Was struck in the temple by a line drive off the bat of Pawtucket's Luis Ortiz, May 5 (was taken to the hospital and released the same evening)...In his next 4 outings, he went 1-0 with a save and a 0.00 ERA...He allowed no runs or hits, walked 8 and struck out 14 in 9.0 innings.

STARTING OFF: After not having started a game since '90, he closed out the season with 9 consecutive starting assignments, going 4-5 with a 6.65 ERA (IP-45.1, ER-33)...Won his first start 5-4 at Richmond, July 18, (IP-5, H-2, R-2, ER-0)...Twice carried no-hitters into the 6th inning...On Aug 13 at Scranton/W-B, he tossed 5.1 no-hit innings before allowing a 6th inning double to Shawn Gilbert in a 12-5 Red Wings victory (IP-7.2, H-2, R/ER-2, BB-6, SO-6)...He tossed 4.1 perfect innings and 5 no-hit innings en route to an 8-4 win over Toledo, Aug 24 (IP-8+, H-4, R-4, ER-2, BB-1, SO-7).

Held IL opponents to a .219 average in '94...Averaged 7.7 walks and 9.3 K's per 9 innings...Finished first on the club and 4th in the IL with 74 walks...Held lead-off batters to a .159 avg (11-69).

ROAD WEARY: Went 3-2 with a 3.58 ERA at Rochester's Silver Stadium and 3-6 with a 7.75 ERA on the road.

PRO CAREER BB AND K'S: Pennington's walk and strikeout ratios are reminiscent of the legendary left-hander Steve Dalkowski in the '50s and '60s...In 6 pro seasons, he has averaged 11.5 strikeouts and 8.7 walks per 9 innings.

RECORD HOMER GETS ORANGE SEAT FOR CAL

On July 15, 1993, Cal Ripken hit his 278th home run as a shortstop, most ever hit by a major leaguer at that position surpassing Hall-of-Famer Ernie Banks' previous record of 277.

Cal's home run was hit off Minnesota's Scott Erickson in the sixth inning of the Orioles' 5-3 win. The home run landed in the lower box seats in left field and is designated by an orange seat.

CONSECUTIVE GAMES STREAK

Played in every Orioles game for the 12th straight year. Has now played in 2,009 straight games, 121 shy of Lou Gehrig's major league record (2,130). The Orioles' 121st game is scheduled for Tue, Sep 5 at Oriole Park at Camden Yards vs California.

The streak—all starts—began May 30, '82, when Cal was still a third baseman. The day before, Floyd Rayford started in his place at 3rd base in the 2nd game of a double header vs. Tor at Bal.

As a shortstop, Cal's streak of consecutive games is 1,982. It started July 1, 1982. He has played more consecutive games at one position than anyone in baseball history.

During the consecutive games streak, Cal has played 18,139 of the Orioles' 18,287 innings (99.2%, all but 148).

World Record: Sachio Kinugasa (Sachio Ke-new-ga-sa) played in 2215 consecutive games for the Hiroshima Carp in Japan's Central League from Oct 19 '70 thru Oct 22 '87. The 3rd baseman batted .270 and hit 504 homers during his career with the Carp. The regular season in Japan is 130 games.

CONINE 2ND AMONG ACTIVES: Florida's Jeff Conine (277) has the 2nd longest active streak in the major leagues.

OTHERS HAVE BEEN DISABLED: A total of 3372 ML players have gone on the disabled list (thru '94) during Cal's consecutive games streak, including 300 (157 AL, 143 NL) in 1994.

ONE VS. 459: The other 27 major league clubs have used a combined total of 459 starting shortstops (321 different players) during Cal's 1,982 straight games at shortstop. A list is available from the Orioles public relations office upon written request.

CAL VS. OPPOSING SHORTSTOPS:

During his streak at shortstop...

	HR	RBI	E
Cal Ripken	302	1,141	202
Opposing SS	76	698	295

EARLY EXITS: Has exited early 58 times during the streak:

1982...1	1989...4	1992...9
1987...2	1990...11	1993...8
1988...2	1991...15	1994...6

Twice by Ejection: The earliest Cal has left were the 2 games from which he was ejected—both in the first inning: Sep 25, '87 by Tim Welke (vs. Yankees) and Aug 7, '89 by Drew Coble (vs. Minnesota)...In both cases he was thrown out after arguing a strike call.

4 Times Before the 7th Inning Stretch: Has exited before the 7th inning 4 times. In 3 cases, the last game of the season in '88, '89, and '92, he left after batting in the 4th inning. In the 4th case, May 14 '94 at Min, he left in the last of the 6th. For comparison's sake, Lou Gehrig came out early 69 times during his streak.

STARTS: Cal has started every game of his streak. Gehrig missed only two starts during his streak, both in the first year: 1925 (July 5, the 33rd game of the streak and July 19, the 48th game)...Both times Fred Merkle, renowned for a miscue with the Cubs two decades earlier, was the Yankees' starter at 1B...Gehrig started the last 2082 games of his streak.

THIRD TO SHORT: For the first month of the streak, Cal primarily played 3rd base. The first 27 games of the streak were at 3B. Made his last start there on June 30, '82. On July 1, 1982, Orioles manager Earl Weaver, despite unanimous disapproval from the critics, moved the rookie to shortstop, where he has played 1982 (ironically) consecutive games, more than anyone has ever played at one position in the history of baseball.

Gehrig's longest streak at 1B was 885 straight games (he played LF for one game in '30 while Babe Ruth pitched, and he played RF for one game in '31 while Ruth played 1B).

Everett Scott, also a shortstop who played most of his big league career ('14-'26) with the Red Sox and Yankees, held the previous record for most consecutive games at one position (1307)...Scott, incidentally, played 109 games for Jack Dunn's International League O's, and batted .335 with 11 home runs in '27...Note that Scott's streak, surpassed by Cal in '90, remains the 3rd longest all-time regardless of position.

LONGEST O'S STREAKS: The 3 longest Orioles streaks before Cal's were:

Brooks Robinson	463
Eddie Murray	444
Billy Gardner	361

EVERY GAME OF THE YEAR: Cal is one of 5 Orioles to have played every game in a season.

Cal Ripken	12 Times	'83 thru '94
Brooks Robinson	4 Times	'61, '62, '64, '68
Eddie Murray	4 Times	'78, '79, '84, '88
Billy Gardner	Once	'57
Bobby Grich	Once	'73

CONSECUTIVE INNINGS STREAK, '82-'87: His streak of 8243 straight innings (spanning 904 games, '82-'87) is believed to be the longest of its kind in major league history. The 82 post-season innings he played in '83 are NOT included in these figures. Lou Gehrig, incidentally, played every inning of every game only one season ('31) during his streak.

The start: Cal's innings streak began June 5, '82 (6 days and 5 games after the start of his consecutive games string May 30) at Min. The day before (June 4), Jim Dwyer had pinch-hit for him in the 9th inning, also at Min.

The finish: The innings streak ended Sep 14, '87 in Tor when Orioles manager Cal Ripken Sr. inserted Ron Washington at SS in the bottom of the 8th of an 18-3 Toronto walkover. That was the game in which the Blue Jays hit a major league record 10 home runs.

Say the historians: Noted baseball researcher L. Robert Davids determined some years ago that the previous leaders in the consecutive innings category were a couple of former Red Sox who played in the Hub City during the early 1900s: Buck Freeman and Candy LaChance...Freeman, a first baseman, played every inning over some 534 games (7/28/01-6/5/05) and outfielder LaChance missed nary a canto over a span of 424 games (5/23/02 to 4/28/05).

Rip, whose innings streak covered some 5 seasons, was the first to have played every inning for at least 2 straight years since Rudy York with the Tigers in '40-'41...In addition to Cal & Freeman, only one other major leaguer has played every inning at least 3 years (not necessarily consecutive), Mickey Vernon in '42, '47, & '53 with those pesky Nats...The only other Oriole to play every inning in one season was Eddie Murray in '84 (including 3 games as DH).

CLOSE CALLS

Apr 10, 1985...Game 444...Sprained left ankle at SS during a pickoff play in the 3rd inning vs Tex (did not come out of the game)...X-rays taken after the game at Greater Baltimore Medical Center were negative...Didn't play the next day in the club's exhibition game at the US Naval Academy, but was in the lineup the next night vs Tor.

Sep 11, 1992...Game 1713...Suffered a twisted right ankle running out a double against the Brewers (did not come out of the game), and as a precaution the Orioles recalled shortstop Manny Alexander from AAA Rochester...Cal didn't miss so much as an inning for another week.

June 6, 1993...Game 1790...Suffered a twisted right knee when his spikes caught in the infield grass during O's-Mariners melee...Though he didn't come out of the game, the knee was swollen and painful the next day...Still, he didn't even miss infield practice...He said later, "It was the closest I've come to not playing."

1994 SEASON SUMMARY

Was enjoying his finest season since his MVP season in 1991. Batted over .300 (.315) for the 4th time and drove in 75 runs, 2nd on the club to Rafael Palmeiro's .319 AVG and 76 RBI. Led major league shortstops in fielding pct., .985.

Among League Leaders: Led the AL with 46 multi-hit games, 2nd in the majors to SD's Tony Gwynn (54). His 140 hits tied Sea's Ken Griffey Jr. for 5th in the AL. His 105 singles ranked 3rd. Batted .364 (44-122) with runners in scoring position, 8th best in the league.

Major League Records:

- Extended his major league record for home runs by a shortstop to 302
- Extended his major league record for most years leading league in games by a shortstop, his 10th.
- Extended his major league record for most consecutive games by a shortstop, 1982.
- Established the major league record for most years leading the league in double plays by a shortstop, 7.

Every game, every start: Was one of 5 major leaguers to play every game in 1994, along with Frank Thomas (113), Mike Bordick (114), Paul Molitor (115), and Jeff Conine (115). Was one of 3 (Bordick and Molitor) to start every game.

Fast Start, Fast Finish: Batted .340 (32-94) with one HR and 19 RBI in April. It was his 3rd best avg. in an April, surpassed by .352 (31-88) in '84 and .341 (28-82) in '87. Batted .369 (58-157) with 4 HR and 25 rbi in his last 39 games.

Batting 4th: Was extraordinary when batting cleanup. Hit .336 with 10 HR and 57 RBI, the 4th best avg in the AL and 6th best in the majors.

	AVG	H	AB	HR	RBI
Batting 4th:	.336	96	286	10	57
Batting 3rd or 5th:	.279	44	158	3	18

Milestones: Hit 300th home run May 24 at Mil.

Has now played more games at shortstop than anyone in Orioles history, 99 more (1997) than Mark Belanger (1898). Only Brooks Robinson (2870 at 3b) has played more games at one position in club history.

Played in his 2000th consecutive game Mon, Aug 1 at Min. Because the event was on the road, Orioles fans paid tribute the day before, celebrating game 1999 Sun, July 31 with a long, emotion-filled ovation in conjunction with a tribute on the video board when he took the field in the top of the 5th inning. Little did anyone know that the game would be the last played at Oriole Park in 1994.

MOST HOME RUNS EVER BY A SHORTSTOP

All-time Leader: Has hit 302 of his 310 homers as a shortstop, most in major league history ahead of Ernie Banks (277) and Vern Stephens (213). Passed

Banks July 15, '93 at Oriole Park when he homered off Min's Scott Erickson. Banks' mark had stood since he moved to 1B from SS in 1962. The seat in left field where the ball landed is now painted orange to commemorate the achievement.

1994 Leader: Led AL shortstops in 1994 with 13 home runs, 2nd in the majors to Mtl's Wil Cordero (15). Led major league shortstops in rbi (75). Has led major league shortstops in homers and rbi 9 times.

30 Homers: Is one of 4 shortstops in major league history to have hit 30 or more homers in a season, joining Ernie Banks, Vern Stephens and Rico Petrocelli.

EXTRA-BASE HITS BY A SHORTSTOP

Honus Wagner and Joe Cronin's Neighborhood: 745 of his 764 extra-base hits have come as a shortstop, the 2nd highest total in baseball history, as near as we can tell. Honus Wagner had 737 in the years he was primarily a shortstop ('01, '03-'16 with Pittsburgh), and Joe Cronin had 765 (20 more than Cal) in the years he was primarily a shortstop, ('28-'41 with Washington and Boston). A precise statistical breakout is not available, however.

Recalling 1991: His ML-high 85 extra-base hits in '91 have been exceeded by only one other shortstop in history, Robin Yount with 87 in '82...Cal's 368 total bases were the most in one season by an AL shortstop and 2nd best all-time behind Banks' 379 in '58...Also became the 2nd shortstop ever (joining Banks in '58 and '59) to hit .300+ with 30+ homers and 100+ RBI.

THE TALLEST SHORTSTOP EVER

Is the tallest ever to play shortstop regularly in the majors. Ray Busse (Houston, '71-'74), and former Orioles Enos Cabell and Jamie Quirk are among 7 others 6'4" who have played some shortstop.

AL HOME RUNS LEADER LAST 13 YEARS; MAJOR LEAGUE LEADER IN EXTRA BASE HITS

Has hit more home runs during his 13 full seasons than any other American Leaguer (see list in Home Runs below). Also leads majors during that time in extra base hits and at bats.

CYCLE: One of only 2 Orioles to ever hit for the cycle. On May 6, '84, was 4-for 5 with 2 RBI. Homered off Dave Tobik in his final at bat. Brooks Robinson hit for the cycle at Chicago, July 15, 1960. Opponents have hit for the cycle 5 times against the Orioles.

GDP: Grounded into 17 double plays for the 2nd straight year to boost his career total to 240, 57 short of Brooks Robinson's club record, 296. Cal does, however, hold the club mark for one season, 32 in '85.

JAPAN TRIPS: Has a cumulative .353 average (24-68) on 2 trips to Japan...Was on O's 14-game trip in '84 and batted .315 (17-54) with 4 homers and 9 RBI as the O's went 8-5-1.

Two years later in '86, was part of US Major League All-Star team that went 6-1 against All-Stars from Japan's Central and Pacific Leagues...Cal led that team in batting (.500, 7-14, 2B-2, HR-2, RBI-6) while splitting shortstop duties with the Cardinals' Ozzie Smith.

ALL-STAR GAMES

12-YEAR ALL-STAR: Ripken's 12 games (all consecutive) extend his AL record for shortstops. Ozzie Smith, named in '94 for the 13th time, is the major league leader. The previous A.L. mark (10) belonged to former Oriole Luis Aparicio. Only Brooks Robinson (AL record 18 games in 15 straight years, '60-'74) has represented the Orioles at more All-Star Games. The only year Ripken did not make the team was his rookie (of the year) season, 1982.

ELECTED: 10 times, 6 consecutive starting in 1989. Was also elected 198 thru '87. Alan Trammell was elected in 1988 (but withdrew due to injury so Cal who finished 2nd in the voting, started in his place). Fellow shortstop Ozzie Smith was elected in '94 for the 11th time.

Since balloting returned to the fans in 1970, 8 different Orioles have been elected to start 22 times in 17 of the 25 years. The last Oriole to be elected besides Ripken was Terry Kennedy in 1987.

STARTER: 11 straight years (starting '84), a major league record for shortstops. Ozzie Smith, not elected in 1993, shares the record with Cal of 11 starts at shortstop (not necessarily consecutive). Smith held the previous record, 10, '83 thru '92.

CLUB RECORD: Cal's 11 straight starts is a club record. Brooks Robinson is 2nd with 5 straight. Cal's 11 starts tie Brooks' club record (10 years, 11 games, 2 in 1961). Cal is the only major league player to start the past 11 All-Star Games.

FAN BALLOTING: In '94, received a career-high 5,127,994 votes, 2nd in major league baseball to Ken Griffey Jr. Received almost 1 1/2 million more votes than the majors' 3rd-place electee, Toronto's Joe Carter (3,683,682, a difference of 1,444,312).

Has led the majors in votes 3 times: '85 (1,398,901), '86 (1,486,806), and '92 (2,699,773), the most votes for a major leaguer since Mon's Gary Carter in 1982 (2,785,407). It was also 265,113 more than any other player (Cubs' Ryne Sandberg was next).

THE GAMES:

1994: Played the entire 10-inning game at Pittsburgh, going 1-for-5. In the bottom of the 10th, relayed Albert Belle's throw to Ivan Rodriguez beautifully, just barely later than Tony Gwynn's arrival at home with the "sudden death" winning run.

1993: In the classic at Camden Yards, Cal was 0-for-3 with 2 groundouts and a strikeout, but received what was probably the loudest ovation in the park's history when he was introduced as the starting shortstop by Chuck Thompson.

1992: Had an RBI single off Atlanta's Tom Glavine in 3 trips at San Diego to help the AL win, 13-6.

MVP 1991: Became the 4th Oriole to win the All-Star Game MVP Award when, on July 9 at Toronto's SkyDome, he hit a 3-run homer off former teammate Dennis Martinez and singled off the ultimate Cy Young Award winner, Tom Glavine, to lead the AL to a 4-2 win.

Other Orioles All-Star MVP's: Billy O'Dell ('58), Brooks ('66) and Frank ('71). Cal became only the 3rd AL shortstop to hit an All-Star Game home run, joining Dick McAuliffe ('65) and Lou Boudreau ('42).

In the home run hitting contest the day before, hit an incredible 12 home runs in 22 swings to lead the AL to a 20-7 pasting of the NL.

Is one of 23 in ML history to win multi-MVP awards, one of 11 in AL history to do it...Only 3 other active major leaguers have done it: Robin Yount ('82 and '89), Barry Bonds ('90, '92, and '93), and Frank Thomas ('93 and '94).

The other multi-MVP award winners: Stan Musial, Joe DiMaggio, Ted Williams, Willie Mays, Mickey Mantle, Frank Robinson, Ernie Banks, Johnny Bench, Mike Schmidt, Yogi Berra, Roger Maris, Roy Campanella, Hank Greenberg, Jimmie Foxx, Hal Newhouser, Carl Hubbell, Dale Murphy, and Joe Morgan.

Cal's span of 7 seasons between awards is the 2nd longest between MVPs in ML history...Only Willie Mays, who went 10 seasons ('54/'65), has gone longer between MVP awards.

In '91, Cal finished with 318 points, 32 more than runner-up Cecil Fielder of Detroit...In '83, he won by the same margin over teammate Eddie Murray, 322 to 290, as Orioles finished 1-2 in balloting for the first time since 1966, when Frank, Brooks, and Boog were 1-2-3 (and Luis Aparicio was 9th). Cal & Eddie were the only players listed on every '83 ballot.

Became the first to win Rookie and MVP honors in back-to-back years...Fred Lynn, of course, captured both awards in 1975 for Boston.

Slow Start: After a glittering Opening Day on which he went 3-for-5 with his first big league double, homer (off KC's Dennis Leonard) and RBI, he plunged into a deep slump (4-for-55). Was batting only .117 (7-60) on May 1 after 18 games and his career big league avg over 2 seasons was at that point .121 (12-99) in 41 games.

Start of Something Big: The next day, May 2, he picked up a pair of scratch hits and was beamed by fellow rookie Mike Moore. Missed only one game after the beaming, however, and batted .281 (151-538) from May 2 to the end of the season.

1981: Recalled from Rochester Aug 8 after the major league player strike was settled. Made big league debut in the first game after the strike, vs KC in Bal Aug 10 as pinch runner after Ken Singleton led off the 12th with a double. Scored winning run in "sudden death" when, after an intentional walk to Eddie Murray, John Lowenstein singled off rhp Renie Martin to drive him in.

His first hit was a single off Chicago's Dennis Lamp on Aug 16, also at Memorial Stadium.

Played in 12 games at SS (9 starts) and 6 at 3B. After Sep 11, didn't make a plate appearance, and appeared in only 2 games.

Rochester: Despite his early recall from Rochester, was voted Rookie of the Year in the International League, and was named to the loop's All-Star team at 3rd base. In survey of IL's managers and coaches, was picked as top major league prospect in the league (Von Hayes was 2nd). Played in 85 games at 3B for Red Wings and 35 at SS (primarily when Bob Bonner was injured).

MINORS: Played mostly shortstop in 1978 in Bluefield. Played in Florida Instructional League after both '78 and '79 seasons. Was Southern League's All-Star 3rd baseman in '80 and tied for league lead in games. One of 2 Charlotte players that year to break club's home run record: Rip had 25 and Drungo Hazewood had 28. Cal had homered only 8 times in his 2 previous pro seasons combined. He also led SL 3rd basemen in fielding (.933, TC-415, E-28).

Helped Caguas win Puerto Rican title after the '80 season (the first of his 2 seasons in Caribbean winter ball).

In '79, he was picked as shortstop on Topps' Class A All-Star team, though he played more games at 3rd (58) than at shortstop (52). Led Florida State League in doubles that year.

SIGNING: Was signed by the late Dick Bowie June 13, '78 after the club drafted him June 4. Orioles Scouting Director Gary Nickels had scouted him at that time for the Chicago Cubs.

AMATEUR BACKGROUND: Pitched and played short at Aberdeen (MD) High (graduated '78). Was 7-2 with an 0.70 ERA as a senior with 100 strikeouts in 60 innings. He also won Harford County bat title (.492) and had 29 RBI in 20 games. Pitched a 2-hitter and fanned 17 to win '78 Maryland Class A Baseball championship game.

Was voted American Amateur Baseball Congress (AABC) Graduate of the Year in '86, an honor won previously by Eddie Murray ('84) and many other prominent major leaguers. Also earned 2 letters in soccer. Was team captain and both an All-County and All-Metro selection. Played Little League, Babe Ruth and Mickey Mantle League baseball. Led Putty Hill, MD team to Mickey Mantle World Series in Sherman, TX (lost in a best-of-3 competition).

IN THE COMMUNITY

Ripken Learning Center: Cal supports the community actively and in a variety of ways. In '89, he and his wife, Kelly, contributed $250,000 to be paid over a 5-year period to the City of Baltimore to establish an adult literacy program facility. It opened at 2435 North Calvert Street in July, '90. The Cal Ripken Jr. Learning Center annually serves 240 students within the City. The program fits nicely into Mayor Kurt L. Schmoke's "The City that Reads" campaign.

Sam Hulett Fund: In '92, Cal and Kelly made a donation of $50,000 toward the establishment of the fund in memory of the son of Orioles infielder Tim Hulett, who was struck by a car and killed in July, '92.

Winterfest: In November, '91, Cal and Kelly hosted a Winterfest for Literacy, a baseball memorabilia show in Baltimore featuring a number of past and present major leaguers including Kirby Puckett, Eddie Murray, Glenn Davis, Gregg Olson, brother Bill, and Cal, Sr., which raised more than $200,000 for the Learning Center.

Reading, Runs, and Ripken: In '91, Cal established the Reading, Runs, and Ripken Program, in conjunction with Baltimore Reads, Inc. Has raised over $260,000 for literacy programs in Baltimore via donations based on the number of home runs Cal hit during the season.

Because We Care: Continues to donate tickets for every Orioles' home game to Because We Care, a program he and Eddie Murray initiated in the mid-1980s.

Hospitals and more: Cal is also active on behalf of the University of Maryland Hospital's Shock Trauma Center, the Johns Hopkins Hospital's Children's Center, and the Harford Center, a day-care facility for retarded citizens. The Ripkens also have given a substantial donation to the Baltimore School for the Performing Arts.

Prior Years: Has supported the Harford County Humane Society; has served as honorary chairman of the American Lung Association's anti-smoking drive; The Christmas Seal and March of Dimes campaigns, and the United Way Softball Marathon.

Participated in the First National Bank Tennis Festival in '92 and '93, held at the Baltimore Arena to benefit eight local children's charities.

Cal Bar/Cal's Choice: In January '93, the "Cal Bar" was introduced by Morley Candymakers East in Millersville, MD, and 8 months later, in August, "Cal's Choice Milk" made its debut. The Cal Bar is described on the wrapper as a "double play of peanuts and caramel in milk chocolate." Cal's Choice is a 2% low-fat milk. Royalties from both go to the Cal and Kelly Ripken Foundation which supports programs and services of non-profit organizations.

They JUST DID IT: During the '93-'94 off-season, Nike Shoes painted a 64 feet by 23 feet mural of Cal on a downtown Baltimore building (Light Street north of Lombard).

PERSONAL

Cal and the former Kelly Geer were married Nov 13, '87. Kelly, from Cockeysville, MD, is a graduate of Dulaney High School and the University of Maryland...The Ripkens have 2 children: Rachel Marie (11/22/89) and Ryan Calvin (7/26/93), born on an Orioles off day.

THE RIPKEN FAMILY: Cal played with his brother Bill at 2nd base for 5-1/2 seasons (July 11, '87 thru '92). Also played parts of 12 seasons with his father in an O's uniform as a coach and manager. all 3 were together in '87, when Cal Sr became the first father ever to manage 2 sons simultaneously in major league baseball history (regular season). In addition to younger brother Bill (29), Cal has another brother, Fred (Nov, 25,'61), and a sister Ellen Leigh (Mar 22, '59).

THREE FROM THE SAME FAMILY: Wearing the same uniform at the same time is a rarity matched only 3 times before in baseball history: 1973-Jose, Hector & Tommy Cruz for St. Louis; 1963-Felipe, Matty & Jesus Alou for San Francisco; 1876-George, Sam & Harry Wright for Boston in the National League (Harry, a Hall of Famer, was the manager and pitched briefly; George was an outfielder-70 games in '76; and Sam, a shortstop, appeared in only 2 games that year...We're assuming they were all in uniform together)...We count a total of 17 families with 3 or more representatives in the majors.

FATHER: Cal Sr. spent 15 years on the O's coaching staff, 13-1/2 as 3rd base coach. He joined the staff in '76. Managed for 14+ seasons in professional baseball, all in the Orioles' organization. His 13+ years as a manager in the Birds' farm system ('61-'74) represent the longest tenure of any minor league skipper in Orioles' history. During that span Cal managed at all levels except rookie league. Earned the reputation as perhaps the best teacher of young players in Orioles history.

Following the '86 season he replaced Earl Weaver to become only the 7th non-interim manager in the club's history. Was replaced by Frank Robinson on Apr 12, '88 after the O's lost the first 6 games of the season (a streak that went to 21 before it ended). His overall record as manager was 68-101, .402.

Rip was a catcher in the O's organization, although he also played some 3rd base and outfield and even pitched. He enjoyed his best year under Weaver at Fox Cities (Appleton, WI) in '60. He became a player-manager the following year.

BILL AND CAL, DP DUO: Cal and Bill Ripken were the 5th set of brothers to form a 2nd base-shortstop duo in major league history: Granny and Garvin Hamner of the '45 Phillies; Lou and Dino Chiozza of the '35 Phillies; Milt and Frank Bolling of the '58 Tigers; and Eddie and Johnny O'Brien of the '53 and '55-'56 Pirates.

Most ever: The 2 Rips played in 663 games together, started 634 games and turned 287 double plays. Prior to the Ripkens, the most any brother double play combination had ever played side by side in the majors were approximately 100 games by Pittsburgh's O'Brien twins.

Only 11 errors combined: In '90, Cal and Bill accounted for a total of only 11 errors, the fewest in major league history by a qualifying (each playing 2/3 of their club's games at their respective positions) keystone combination. Next lowest total is 13 in 1990 by Tor's Tony Fernandez and Manny Lee.

Triple Play: On June 15, '89, vs New York, the 2 Rips teamed up on a triple play against the Yankees, the first by the Orioles in more than 10 years.

Both homered: On Sep 15, '90 at Tor, Cal and Bill each homered, the only game in which that happened. They were the first brothers to homer in the same game since Graig (NY) and Jim Nettles (Det) did it Sep 14, '74. Both Bill and Cal homered in the 5th inning off David Wells, the 15th time brothers had homered in the same game and the 5th time in the same inning (first since Hank and Tommy Aaron for the Milwaukee Braves on July 12, '62).

1994 SEASON SUMMARY

Final Record: 63-49

TOO SHORT: The Orioles season, which started with all the optimism that comes with new ownership, new players, and spring breezes, ended prematurely and abruptly when the players went on strike August 12. The Orioles played only 112 games, 50 shy of a standard 162-game schedule.

The strike canceled 47 scheduled games, and 3 which were postponed but never made up:

Instead, the Orioles played a tense 112, and never found out the ending to the adventurous story which began like a fairy tale...

ONCE UPON A TIME... Peter Angelos, a hometown boy from Highlandtown, assembled some of the area's most proud citizens and brought the beloved Baltimore Orioles back into the hands of local ownership. The attorney had acquired the club in a bankruptcy court auction Aug 2, 1993, for a record $173 million after former majority owner, Eli S. Jacobs of New York, was forced to liquidate his assets.

After assembling his All-Star ownership group, Angelos assembled an All-Star baseball team. Rafael Palmeiro, Chris Sabo, Sid Fernandez, and Lee Smith—all former All-Stars—signed contracts as free agents.

A REWARDING OPENER: Palmeiro, the most celebrated of the Orioles' off-season acquisitions, completed a grand entrance into the hearts of Orioles fans with a 7th-inning home run on Opening Day. The 29-year-old first baseman had homered in his first intrasquad game, his first exhibition game, his first game as an Oriole at Camden Yards (an exhibition vs. Phi Apr 2) and then again on Opening Day.

The season had opened at 3:17 p.m. under sunny skies, just after Michael Harrison of the Baltimore Opera Company had sung the anthem and Governor Schaefer, Peter Angelos, and Tom Clancy had delivered ceremonial first pitches.

Mike Devereaux, the Orioles 2nd batter of the season, homered to break the ice. After KC tied it in the 4th, Chris Hoiles doubled in the bottom half, and Mark McLemore singled him in to give the O's the lead for good.

Mike Mussina tossed a 2-hitter for 8 innings before baseball's all-time saves leader, Lee Smith made his Orioles debut in the 9th with 2 on, 2 out, and the tying run at the plate. Two pitches later, the Orioles had won their 25th Opener in 41 years, 6-3.

A FAST START (Believe it or not): After the Birds alternated wins and losses for 10 days (5-4 record) they burst into their first hot stretch (16-6) of the year Apr 16 at Texas's new ballpark in Arlington. In the 7th inning, the Orioles were down, 3-0, when Palmeiro homered against the club which had broken his heart by letting him go after the 1993 season. Leo Gomez, replacing Chris Sabo who had been ejected, batted for the first time all year and delivered an rbi double to narrow the gap to 3-2. Gomez would go on to hit .340 with 9 home runs and 36 rbi in 46 games through June 18, and would bat .379 this year with runners in scoring position, the 4th best figure in the American League.

In the 8th, Cal Ripken eliminated the deficit with a game-tying single. Then Harold Baines, rested that night for the first time, delivered a pinch-hit, 3-run triple to break the game open and lead the Orioles to a 6-4 win.

Sabo, back in the lineup the next day, became the first to homer to the new park's left field, as Lee Smith earned his 6th save in 6 tries to make a winner of reliever Mark Williamson.

OUCH! : On Sunday, Apr 24, however, facing rookie Brad Pennington, Seattle's Ken Griffey, writing a fairy tale season of his own, blasted the fourth-ever home run to land on the Eutaw Street Corridor, 438 feet from home plate, 25 feet shy of the Warehouse. His homer broke the heart of starter Jamie Moyer, who had left the game with a lead only to have nothing to show for it, a bad luck spell that would befall the left-hander 6 times this season.

BRADY'S DAY: On a gorgeous Tuesday afternoon, Apr 26, the Birds walloped Oakland before the largest regular season crowd ever to that point at Oriole Park at Camden Yards, 47,565. Brady Anderson delivered a pair of homers and a pair of doubles, the 12 total bases falling one shy of the club mark.

Anderson would steal 31 bases in 32 tries in 1994, a .969 pct., the highest in baseball history for those with 25 or more steals. Brady also stole 27 straight bases, breaking the club record set by Luis Aparicio (1963) and tied by Anderson in 1990 and again in 1992. Anderson's streak, still active, is 5 shy of the AL make, 32, held by Willie Wilson (KC, 1980) and Julio Cruz (Sea, 1980-'81).

The 10-run assault that day included Palmeiro's 6th home run. Liking his new home, the lefty slugger with a 5-year deal would ultimately bat .340 at Oriole Park and .422 in afternoon games, the best average in the majors.

THE GOOD WEST COAST TRIP: The Orioles scored 13 the next day in Anaheim to give Ben McDonald a perfect 5-0 for April. McDonald would go on to win his first 7 starts. Under the dome in Seattle, however, rookie Jeffrey Hammonds' season unraveled Apr 30 when he tried to score on a sacrifice fly, crashed into the mask of catcher Bill Haselman, cut his face, received a concussion, and later injured his knee during his recovery. After the season, Hammonds would undergo surgery to reconstruct the anterior cruciate ligament of his right knee.

Enter Jack Voigt. The handy reserve, who for the next 6 weeks would become a regular, went 3 for 5 that day including 2 for 3 with a homer against dangerous Randy Johnson. Voigt's lifetime record against the All-Star southpaw improved to 4 for 7.

Unlike typical Orioles "slow starts," April was a good month. The 15-8 mark was the 3rd best in club history (behind 16-7 marks in 1969 and 1970).

In the road trip finale May 4, the O's and A's were tied, 2-2, with 2 outs in the 9th, when with star reliever Dennis Eckersley on the mound, Chris Sabo homered. With a 3-2 lead and unspoiled Lee Smith (12 for 12 in save situations) on the mound, Orioles fans were confident of victory. Over confident even.

But Smith finally blew his first save, just to remind us that he was human. Nonetheless, the future Hall of Famer captured the win when the Orioles scratched a run in the 10th. Then Mark Williamson became the first reliever other than Smith to save a game for the '94 Orioles, who finished the trip, 5-2.

TWO OLD FRIENDS RETURN (but who needs old friends?): Welcome Home sounded as the Birds returned May 6, but the melody played not only for them. Two former Orioles heroes returned to Baltimore for the first time, both as members of the Cleveland Indians. And both delivered memorable clutch performances.

In the 4th inning, just after Palmeiro had put the O's on the board with his 10th home run, the Orioles all-time home run king, Eddie Murray, countered with a two-run blast off the right field foul pole, the one brought down from Memorial Stadium, scene of so many Eddie Murray heroics. His 248th home run came in his 31st ballpark, one shy of Frank Robinson's and Rusty Staub's major league record.

2000 PLUS OTHER ZEROES: In Minnesota Aug 1, the fans of Minnesota gave Ripken a warm welcome when he came to bat in the tip of the first of his 2,000th consecutive game. That was the night that Arthur Rhodes, on his first day back from his second stint at Rochester, delivered the Orioles' first shutout of the year.

After 102 games without a shutout, the improbable Orioles tossed two in a row, the one Aug 2 a collaborative effort by Mike Mussina, Mark Eichhorn, and Alan Mills.

After a pair of losses, including the 6th in which Jamie Moyer left with a lead, Ben McDonald fired a one-hitter Aug 5 to give the club its 3rd shutout in a week.

Make that 4. Arthur Rhodes threw his second straight Aug 6, lowering the club's ERA on this road trip to 1.75. Despite the recovery, the 2nd place Orioles had fallen a season-high 10 games behind first place New York. Mike Mussina's 16th (and last) win Aug 7 sent the O's to New York for a showdown. The club was now 8 games back.

IS THAT ALL THERE IS? In what proved to be the final series of the aborted season, the Orioles lost the opener in NY in 11 innings, then came back to win the next two. Lee Smith saved a win for Jamie Moyer Aug 9, the 33rd and last save for the big right-hander. His all-time major league saves record increased to 434.

Rafael Palmeiro's 4 hits and 5 rbi in the series (and season) finale not only allowed Ben McDonald to win his career-high 14th (14-7), but boosted his average to .319, the 4th best in club history. Palmeiro led the club in batting, home runs (23), and rbi (76) to win the Orioles' Triple Crown.

The Orioles came home, revitalized after a 7-3 road trip. The pitching was peaking. The Orioles had held the opposition to 0 or 1 run 5 times and had compiled a 2.39 ERA. They had allowed the fewest runs in August (24) in the majors. Orioles pitchers had allowed the fewest walks, fewest runs, and fewest unearned runs in the league. Mussina and McDonald had the most combined wins of any two teammates in the majors.

The Orioles bullpen led the league with a 3.75 ERA and had allowed the fewest runs, earned runs, and walks in the league.

The Orioles defense led the majors, both with the highest fielding pct., .986, and the fewest errors, 57. They didn't commit an error in their last nine games.

But the fear of a work stoppage hung over Baltimore like the August humidity. And the last game scheduled before the strike, against Boston Aug 11, was a rain out which sent everyone home at 11:20 p.m. Everyone hoped it wasn't the end of the season. The Orioles had 50 games to play. But that was all. The Commissioner's office announced Sep 14 that the season was officially over. No pennant race, no new wild card berth, no LCS, and no World Series.

It started like a fairy tale, but no one wrote the ending. We waited and waited for the happily ever after that never came.

Notes on 20-Game Winners

Although the Orioles have not had one in the past 9 years, Baltimore pitchers have produced 23 20-game seasons in the past 26 years (starting '68), substantially more than any other major league club (Oakland is next with 14).

From '68 thru '80, a span of 13 years, at least one Oriole pitcher accumulated 20 or more victories to set a major league record. The old standard was 12 by the New York Giants from '03 to '14, a mark single-handedly assured by Christy Mathewson, who won 20+ in each of those years.

In 1971, four Baltimore pitchers reached the 20-win plateau. The only other foursome in the entire history of major league baseball to have achieved the feat was a quartet from the 1920 White Sox (51 years earlier): Urban "Red" Faber-23, Claude Williams-22, Dickie Kerr-21, and Ed Cicotte-21. Despite that achievement, the White Sox finished second that year, two games behind Cleveland.

The four Orioles all won their 20th games within 6 days: McNally was the first on 9/21; then in a series in Cleveland, the other three joined him: Cuellar (9/24—first game-clinched division title), Dobson (9/24—2nd game), and Palmer (9/26).

Stone was the earliest 20-game winner in club history, winning his 20th game on August 19 en route to a team record 25 victories in '80. Three other Orioles' hurlers have recorded their 20th wins in August: McNally (8/25) and Cuellar (8/27) in '71 and Palmer (8/20) in '75.

The first Oriole to win 20, and the only one in the club's first 14 seasons in Baltimore ('54 thru '67) was lefthander Steve Barber in '63.

BIGGEST LIFETIME WINNERS/LOSERS VS. O'S

WINNERS: Though he has been retired for 26 years ('67), Whitey Ford, the Yankee Hall of Famer, still holds the distinction of having beaten the Orioles more than anyone else. He was 30-16 against the Birds.

Ford was one of 13 pitchers to have posted 20 or more lifetime wins against the O's in 38 Baltimore seasons. The others: "Catfish" Hunter (26-24), Mickey Lolich (25-19), Billy Pierce (23-11), Early Wynn and Frank Sullivan (both 21-8), Jim Kaat (21-21), Earl Wilson (20-9), Luis Tiant (20-22), Jim Perry (20-22), Camilo Pascual (20-23), Bert Blyleven (20-14) and Frank Tanana (21-17).

LOSERS: Hunter, the 2nd biggest winner vs. Baltimore (26), is also the biggest lifetime loser (24)...At one time, "Catfish" had a 23-16 lifetime record vs. the O's but then lost 8 of his last 11 decisions against them from '76 thru '79.

There have been 4 other 20-game losers: Luis Tiant and Jim Perry (22 each), Fritz Peterson (14-21), and Jim Kaat (21)...Other big losers were Mickey Lolich (19), Gaylord Perry (12-19) and Sam McDowell (9-19)...From a percentage standpoint, Jim Colborn, formerly of Brewers, Royals and Mariners, with a .150 (3-17) and Rudy May at .167 (3-15) rank near the bottom of the list.

Others who've had little success against Baltimore include: Goeff Zahn (2-11), Matt Keough (1-8), Milt Wilcox (4-12), Jim Beattie (3-11) and Mike Caldwell (3-9).

Nolan Ryan finished with a 10-17 lifetime record against the Orioles.

GRAND SLAM NOTES

O's lead the Majors since '80: The Orioles have belted 67 grand slams starting with '80, 6 more than any other club (the Tigers are next with 61).

Thru the Years: The O's have "outslammed" their opponents 151-99 over the last 41 years (including a 83-45 advantage at Baltimore, 8-4 at Oriole Park at Camden Yards).

Three in One Game: The Orioles and Texas set a major league record on Aug 6, '86 when the two teams combined to hit three grand slams in Texas' 13-11 win at Memorial Stadium (the record was equaled on June 3, '87, Hou vs. Chi)...Jim Dwyer and Larry Sheets hit grand slams for the O's, both in the 4th inning. It marked only the 5th time in major league history that one club has hit 2 grand slams in a single inning. It was the 4th time the O's had hit 2 grands slams in the same game. Toby Harrah hit Texas' slam.

Two in a Game: Only 7 players have hit two grand slams in one game in baseball history and only 3 have hit them on consecutive at-bats. In both situations, two of them were Orioles: Jim Gentile hit two in a row at Minnesota on May 9, '61 (Metropolitan Stadium off Pete Ramos and Paul Giel), and Frank Robinson did the same on June 26, '70 at RFK Stadium in Washington (off Joe Coleman and Joe Grzenda).

Gentile Hit 5 in '61: Gentile set an American League record and tied the major league standard in '61 when he hit 5 bases loaded home runs. The only prior player to reach that total was the Cubs' Ernie Banks in '55. In '87, Don Mattingly of the Yankees broke that record by hitting 6 grand slams.

Post-Season Slams-Slugging Pitchers: Only two pitchers have ever hit grand slam home runs in post-season play. Both were Orioles at the time, and both did it in 1970. In Game 1 of the '70 ALCS, Mike Cuellar hit one off of the Twins' Jim Perry (at Minny) and in Game 3 of the World Series vs. the Reds, Dave McNally found the range off Wayne Granger (at Baltimore).

The blast by Cuellar was the only ALCS grand slam ever until Don Baylor hit one for the Angels vs. Milwaukee in '82 (off Moose Haas)...Only two bases loaded homers have ever been hit in NLCS play: the Dodgers' Ron Cey and Dusty Baker in '77.

Opponents: During a 3-game massacre at Detroit, Aug 10-12, '93, the O's tied a ML record by allowing grand slams in 3 consecutive games. That mark was set by the 1901 Reds and tied by the 1978 O's. The first 2 slams were hit by Dan Gladden...Eight opponents have hit two career slams each against the O's. Nobody has hit more...Three have hit two at Memorial Stadium: Roy Sievers (Wash), Moose Skowron (NY), Mike Epstein (Wash). There have been 13 alien pitchers to throw up two grand slams each to Baltimore batters.

Orioles "Gophers": Among Orioles pitchers, Milt Pappas was the most generous. He gave up 6 bases loaded homers during his tenure in Baltimore and allowed 9 overall in his major league career, tying Jerry Reuss (1969-90) and Ned Garver (1948-61) for most career slams allowed in the majors. Dave McNally and Scott McGregor, are next in line with 4 apiece. On the other hand, Jim Palmer never allowed a slam in 558 games spanning nearly 4,000 innings.

Notes: Although they consistently rank at or near the top of the league in fielding, the Orioles have only 2 Gold Gloves to show for their efforts over the 10 seasons, both by Cal Ripken (in '91 and '92)...Last year, the O's were the majors with a .986 team fielding average, but, individually, the O's absent when the Gold Gloves were awarded.

Cal's award in '92 extended the Orioles' totals to 50 Gold Gloves, the among AL teams since the award was created in 1957...Only one ML team, Louis, has won more Gold Gloves than the O's.

Winners by club through the years: Cardinals-57 1/2*, ORIOLE Yankees-43, Pirates-42, Reds-41, Tigers-35, Red Sox-34, Phillies & White Sox-32 each, Cubs-29, Dodgers & Twins-27 each, Braves & Giants-23 each, A's-19, Expos-18, Rangers & Royals-16 each, Athletics-14, Blue Jays-13, Astros, Indians & Padres-12 each, Mets 10 1/2*, Marine Batters-9, Original Senators-1.

33 Gold Gloves in 11 Years: During the 11-year period from '69 thru '79 the Orioles won 33 Gold Gloves including 4 each in '69, '71, '73, '74 & '75... Last year, only 2 Orioles have won the award: Eddie Murray, '82-'84 & Cal Ripken, '91-'92.

Multiple Winners: A total of 9 Orioles have won multiple Gold Gloves...Leading the list is Brooks Robinson whose 16 awards are more than any other Oriole...Others: Roberto Clemente & Willie Mays are tied for 3rd with 12 each...Others: Paul Blair & Mark Belanger (8 each); Jim Palmer & Bobby Grich (4 each); Dave Johnson & Eddie Murray (3 each), Cal Ripken (2) and Luis Aparicio (2), total of 9 in his ML career.

Since '57: The Gold Glove Awards were initiated in '57 by the Rawlins Sporting Goods Company in cooperation with The Sporting News to acknowledge individual defensive excellence by a vote of managers and coaches in the league...Selection is based on a player's overall defensive ability, not simply fielding percentage.

* Keith Hernandez played for both the Cardinals and Mets when he was chosen in 1977.

ALL-STAR NOTES

ALL-STAR WEEK 1993: Major League Baseball's 64th All-Star Game was held at Oriole Park at Camden Yards on July 13, '93. The AL's lopsided 9-3 win - their 6th straight- climaxed baseball's first ever "All-Star Week."

Approximately $31.5 million was generated for the Baltimore area and its businesses as a result of All-Star Week, a 5-day celebration in which the entire region immersed itself in a bountiful flood of special events and promotions surrounding the All-Star Game. FanFest, an unparalleled baseball theme park which has accompanied the All-Star Game for the past 3 years, welcomed a record 111,883 visitors during the week.

Perhaps the most lasting memories from All-Star Week came on Monday, July 12, at the annual Gatorade All-Star Workout. Juan Gonzales crushed several of the longest balls ever hit in Baltimore, including a ball off the facing of the 3rd deck in left field, and Ken Griffey Jr. became the first player to hit the B&O Warehouse. Camden Yards proved to be yet another launching pad for Reggie Jackson who banged a home run onto the right field flag court in an impromptu batting practice after the old-timers game and then jogged the bases to the chants of "Reggie-Reggie."

A Camden Yards record crowd of 48,147 attended the All-Star Game, the first in Baltimore since '58, baseball's 25th mid-summer classic.

Cal Ripken was the only Oriole to play in the game and was 0-for-3 with 2 groundouts and a strikeout, but received what was probably the loudest ovation in the park's 2-year history when he was introduced as the starting shortstop. Orioles RHP Mike Mussina warmed-up in the 9th inning, but didn't get in the game much to the displeasure of the partisan crowd.

ALL-STAR STARTS/APPEARANCES: Eight different Orioles have been selected starters in 25 years of fan voting. In addition to Cal and Brooks, Orioles who have been chosen to starting berths are Boog Powell and Frank Robinson (2 each), and Bobby Grich, Ken Singleton, Eddie Murray and Terry Kennedy (once each).

ORIOLES ALL STAR MVPs: The Orioles have had 4 All-Star MVPs, with Cal Ripken in 1991 the most recent...In that game, played at Toronto's SkyDome, Cal was 2-for-3 with a 3-run homer off former teammate Dennis Martinez and a single off Cy Young-winner Tom Glavine to lead the AL to a 4-2 win...Cal became only the 3rd shortstop to hit a home run in an All-Star Game joining Dick McAuliffe ('65) and Lou Boudreau ('42)...In the home run hitting contest the day before the All-Star game, Cal hit an incredible 12 home runs in 22 swings to help the AL to a 20-7 pasting of the NL.

Billy O'Dell hurled 3 perfect innings to save the AL's 4-3 win in Baltimore in 1958.

Brooks Robinson won the trophy in St. Louis in 1966 on the strength of a 3-for-4 effort including a triple and an 8-for-8 performance afield...He was the first player from a losing team to be so honored.

Frank Robinson's 4th-inning homer at Detroit in the 1971 game put the AL ahead to stay and earned him MVP honors...It was the AL's first All-Star victory since 1962 and its last until 1983.

ORIOLES ALL-STAR HOMERS: In '91, Cal became the 4th and most recent Oriole to homer in All-Star play joining Brooks (7/11/67 at Anaheim off Fergie Jenkins, none on); Frank (7/13/71 at Detroit off Dock Ellis, one on) and Ken Singleton (8/9/81 at Cleveland off Tom Seaver, solo).

ORIOLES ENSHRINED AT COOPERSTOWN

Eight modern Orioles have been selected to the Baseball Hall of Fame, 7 in the last 13 years (starting '82). Reggie Jackson, who played with the Orioles for one year ('76, when he led the club in homers with 27), was the latest to be chosen in 1993.

He was also the 4th Oriole, along with Frank and Brooks Robinson and Jim Palmer, to be selected in his first year of eligibility. They are 4 of only 25 first ballot electees among the 213 Hall of Fame members.

Palmer polled 92.6% of the total vote (411 of 444 ballots cast) in '90, the highest percentage ever by an Oriole and 4th among Hall of Fame pitchers behind Tom Seaver (98.8%, 425 of 430), Bob Feller (93.75% in '62) and Steve Carlton (95.8, 436 of 455). Seaver's percentage was the highest ever recorded in a Baseball Hall of Fame election.

Jim, Frank and Brooks are the only three Hall of Famers wearing modern Orioles uniforms in their official busts/portraits. Frank's bio can be found on pages 9...Jim's and Brooks' bios can be found at the end of this section.

Another beloved Oriole was honored by the Hall of Fame last year when veteran O's broadcaster Chuck Thompson became the recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award, presented by the Hall of Fame to a broadcaster for major contributions to the game of baseball.

MODERN ORIOLES IN BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

Robin Roberts ('76, 87%)	Luis Aparicio ('84, 85%)
Frank Robinson ('82, 89%)	Hoyt Wilhelm ('85, 84%)
Brooks Robinson ('83, 92%)	Jim Palmer ('90, 93%)
George Kell ('83, VCS+)	Reggie Jackson ('93, 94%)

+ Veterans' Committee Selection

Fifteen others who played and/or managed for the Orioles during the Orioles' early days of Baltimore's rich baseball heritage are also enshrined in the Hall:

OLD ORIOLES IN BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

Frank (Home Run) Baker (3b)	Hughie Jennings (ss)
Charles (Chief) Bender (rhp)	Wee Willie Keeler (of)
Roger Bresnahan (c)	Joe Kelley (of-if)
Dan Brouthers (1b)	Rube Marquard (1hp)
William Candy Cummings (rhp)	Joe (Iron Man) McGinnity (rhp)
Robert M. (Lefty) Grove (1hp)	John McGraw (mgr, 3b)
Rogers Hornsby (2b)	Wilbert Robinson (mgr, c)
George Herman (Babe) Ruth (of)

3 More: There are 3 additional Hall of Famers to have represented the Orioles, though not as players: George Weiss, who immortalized himself as a general manager of the Yankees, served part of his apprenticeship as an International League Orioles general manager; the late Luke Appling, a legendary hitter/shortstop for the White Sox coached one year under Birds' Manager Billy Hitchcock and the late Burleigh Grimes, the famed spitball pitcher who won 270 games in the majors, scouted for the Orioles from '60 thru '71.

Notes: John McGraw had a .334 lifetime batting average in 16 big league seasons but was elected to the Hall of Fame primarily because of his achievements as a manager. The same is true of his buddy, Wilbert Robinson. Rube Marquard pitched only 30 innings for the Orioles, all in '27.

Baltimore-born Babe Ruth signed his first pro contract with Jack Dunn Sr in '14, and made his professional debut with the IL Orioles that year as a pitcher. Chief Bender was based in Baltimore twice. He pitched both for the '27 Orioles (G-18, W-6 L-3) and the '15 Baltimore Terrapins (W-4, L-16) in the ill-fated Federal League.

Other native Marylanders in the Hall of Fame include "Home Run Baker" (Trappe), Lefty Grove (Lonaconing), and 4 others who never played for the Orioles: Jimmie Foxx (Sudlersville), Judy Johnson (Snow Hill), Al Kaline (Baltimore), and Vic Willis (Elkton), who was elected in March by the Veterans Committee for induction on July 30, 1995.

THE ORIOLES HALL OF FAME

The Orioles Hall of Fame was conceived in '77 by the Oriole Advocates at the suggestion of 2 former presidents, Allen Barrett and Jack Buckley, both of whom have since passed away. The Advocates continue to administer the annual elections, this year under the direction of Hall of Fame Committee chairman Bob Bates, DDS.

There are 2 ways a candidate can enter the Orioles Hall of Fame: the regular Orioles Hall of Fame vote, by a constituency of some 80 people comprising sports writers and announcers, Oriole Advocates and Orioles personnel; and by vote of the veterans committee, a group of 25 senior representatives from the sports media, the Oriole Advocates and the Orioles front office. To be eligible for veteran committee selection, the candidate must have ceased serving in the capacity of consideration for at least 20 years.

The veterans committee was formed in '89 in an effort to offset any injustices inflicted on those who might have been passed over unfairly by younger voters not familiar with the extent of their contributions to the Orioles. Six Orioles have gained admission to the O's Hall of Fame by veterans vote: Stu Miller, Jim Gentile, Hank Bauer and Hal (Skinny) Brown, Gene Woodling and Don Buford.

The procedures in both elections are based on those used by the National Baseball Hall of Fame, requiring mention on 75% of ballots cast. Candidates to be eligible for either selection process, must have served a minimum of 3 full years with the Orioles.

To be eligible for the regular election, a player manager or coach must have ceased serving in the position for which he was nominated for at least one year.

TRIPLE PLAYS

The Orioles have executed 11 triple plays and hit into 15 in 41 seasons...

On Aug 25, '92, at home against California, the Orioles pulled the 11th triple play in club history...With runners on first and 3rd, Gary Gaetti lined out to third baseman Leo Gomez, who stepped on the bag and threw to first to "triple up" Chad Curtis (L-5-5-3).

On Aug 30 at Seattle in the most recent triple play involving the Orioles, Mike Devereaux lined into a 9-4-6-6. With Randy Milligan at 1st and Brady Anderson at 2nd, Devereaux lined out to Mariners' RF Jay Buhner who made a great diving catch. Buhner then threw the ball to 2b, Harold Reynolds, who tossed the ball to ss Omar Vizquel who stepped on 2nd to get Anderson, then tagged out Milligan.

JIM PALMER

PERSONAL: Jim has been an activist on behalf of the Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation for 2 decades, serving much of that time as its national sports chairman...He has been the sports representative for Jockey Underwear since the spring of '80...In '83, he was the sports recipient of the American Image Award, sponsored by the Male Apparel Industry and the Men's Fashion Association of America. Jim and his wife, the former Joni Pearlstone, were married Apr 7, '90 and live in Brooklandville, MD. Born 10/15/45 in New York City, Jim attended both Arizona State and Towson State Universities...He has 2 daughters, Jamie Michelle (11/16/66) and Kelly Christina (6/5/69).

BROADCASTING: For the past two seasons, Jim has worked as an analyst and play-by-play man for HTS. Jim who also did some occasional play-by-play work with HTS in the '80s, had 13 years experience as an analyst on ABC-TV (ending '89) and ESPN ('90)...He was part of the WMAR-TV lineup for 3 seasons ('89-'91)...He was nominated for an ACE award, cable television's reward for excellence after his one season at ESPN.

BASEBALL HALL OF FAME: Jim reached the pinnacle of his baseball career when he was elected to baseball's Hall of Fame on the first ballot in January, '90 and received a higher percentage of votes (411 out of 444 ballots cast or 92.5 per cent) than any pitcher except Bob Feller (93.75 per cent)...Last year, Tom Seaver surpassed them both with a 98.83 percentage (425 of 430) the highest ever recorded by a player regardless of position.

PITCHING DISTINCTIONS: Unquestionably the finest pitcher in the Orioles' 39-year history, Jim is one of 5 whose uniform number (22) has been retired along with Brooks (5) and Frank (20) Robinson, Earl Weaver (4), and Eddie Murray (33). He holds many club records including most wins (268), losses (152), games (558), innings (3948), shutouts (53), complete games (211), strikeouts (2212), and walks (1311).

He won 20 games 8 times, earned 3 Cy Young Awards, started and went the route to win the pennant-clinching game 4 times ('66, '69, '70, '71), and was 8-3 in post-season play while pitching for the O's over a span of 20 years ('65 thru '84).

During his entire career, he never gave up a grand slam home run in regular or post-season play (little known fact: Johnny Bench hit one off him in the International League during Jim's brief stint with Rochester in '67).

LAST HURRAH: Made his final start at Chicago, Apr 23, '84, but did not get a decision. Pitched in his last game as an Oriole in relief at Memorial Stadium on May 12, '84 against Oakland, but again was not a pitcher of record...His final career victory was in Game 3 of the '83 World Series at Philadelphia (see post-season below).

Earned his 268th and last regular season win on Sep 30, '83, a 3-2 win over the Yankees at Baltimore in the 2nd game of a doubleheader.

LIFETIME VICTORIES/20-WIN SEASONS: Jim ranks 29th on the all-time list in victories...He is one of only 3 pitchers in the 91-year history of the AL to have won 20 or more games in 8 or more seasons, along with Lefty Grove (8 last time in '35) and Walter Johnson (12, last time in '25)...The last major leaguer to do it was Warren Spahn (13 times the last in '63).

Only 6 who have worked exclusively in the 20th century have won 20 or more 8 times, and in the entire history of the major leagues, Jim is one of only 16. He put that string together over a 9-year period from '70 thru '78 (was 7-12 in '74)... He was 176-97 with a 2.54 ERA during that 9-season stretch.

EARNED RUN AVERAGE: His 2.8564 ERA is 4th on the all-time list, since ERA became an official statistic ('12 in NL and '13 in AL) among pitchers with 3,000 or more innings, behind: (1) Walter Johnson-2.37; (2) Grover C. Alexander-2.56; and (3) Whitey Ford-2.74. He ranks just ahead of No. 5 Tom Seaver (2.8626)...He twice led the league ('73 & '75) and was in the loop's "Top 5" 10 times.

PENNANT CLINCHERS: Since Jim pitched the O's first 4 pennant clinchers, Scott McGregor ('79) and Tippy Martinez ('83) have added their names to the list.

BROOKS CALBERT ROBINSON JR.

POST-SEASON: His overall record in 17 post-season appearances, including 15 starts, was 8-3 with a 2.61 ERA (IP-124.1 ER-36). In '66, he became the youngest ever to pitch a World Series shutout when at the age of 20 years-11 months-21 days, he blanked the Dodgers' Sandy Koufax, 6-0 on 4 hits (LA made 6 errors) in Game 2 at Dodger Stadium...That was Koufax' final major league appearance.

In '83, Jim became the first (and remains the only) pitcher in history to have won a World Series game in each of 3 decades...In that Game 3 at Philadelphia, he bested Steve Carlton after hurling 2 scoreless inning in relief of Mike Flanagan.

He is tied for 2nd (with 6 others) with 4 LCS victories. Oakland's Dave Stewart took over the lead with his 5th win in '90 and now has 6...Jim holds the record by himself for most LCS complete games (5)...He and Nolan Ryan are tied for most career LCS strikeouts (46), while he and former teammate Mike Cuellar have walked the most in ALCS competition (19).

CY YOUNGS: Jim is one of only 5 to have won as many as 2 Cy Youngs ('73 '75 '76)...Steve Carlton won 4, while Seaver, Koufax and Roger Clemens have earned 3 each...The award has been presented since '56 with individual league awards beginning in '67...Jim, Koufax, Denny McLain, and Clemens are the only ones to have earned the award in consecutive seasons.

PERSONAL: Brooks is active as vice-president of Shapiro Robinson and Associates and as a special assistant with Crown Central Petroleum Company.

A native of Little Rock, AR, Brooks lives with his wife of 32 years, Connie, in Baltimore and Southern California. Brooks and Connie (nee Butcher), a former United Airlines flight attendant, met on an Orioles' charter flight (KC to Boston) in '59...They have four children: Brooks David, Chris, Michael, and Dianne.

BIG LEAGUE CAREER: Brooks officially spent 20 years and 72 days as a player in the American League, spanning 23 seasons.

He played in 2896 major league games, all of them with the Orioles, 8th on the all-time list (Pete Rose leads at 3562). Only Carl Yastrzemski (3308) and Ty Cobb (3033) have played more American League games, and only 3 others in big league history have played more with one franchise: Yastrzemski (3308), Hank Aaron (3076), and Stan Musial (3026).

Durability: Played in 97 pct of all Orioles games from July 9, '59 (when he returned from the minors for the last time) thru May 16, '76 a period of more than 16 -1/2 years...Played at least 153 games in 14 of 15 years from '60 thru '75.

In the Orioles' 39-year history, only 5 other 3rd basemen have played as many as 200 games at that position (Doug DeCinces-792, Craig Worthington-332, Leo Gomez-254, Rich Dauer-242, and Floyd Rayford-203).

Opening Days: Started 20 consecutive opening day games for the Orioles from '57 thru '76 and batted .316 (79-25) with 6 home runs and 17 RBI.

Home Runs/RBI: Led AL in RBI (118) in '64, and also achieved a career high of 28 home runs that year...Hit 17 or more homers nine times, 11 or more 11 times...His 139 homers at Memorial Stadium rank 2nd only to Eddie Murray's 160...Had 6 career grand slams, 4 of them in Baltimore.

Hitting: Hit most home runs (37) and drove in most runs (167) against the Red Sox...Twice put together strings of 8 straight hits: July 10 thru 15, '60 and Aug 21 thru 23, '63.

Holds club records for games, at bats, runs, hits, doubles, triples, total bases, RBI, and extra-base hits...Has one-season mark for games (163, '61 & '64) and at bats (668, '61).

Fielding: Committed only 263 errors in 9,165 chances at 3rd base for a major league record lifetime fielding percentage of .971.

Appeared in a total of 29 games at 2nd base (24) and shortstop (5) and committed only one error in 31 chances...Played exclusively at 3rd base, '63-'77.

Gold Gloves: Brooks won Gold Gloves in 16 consecutive seasons, '60 through '75...The string was snapped by Detroit's Aurelio Rodriguez (who later played for the Orioles) in '76. While Brooks was active, the only other American Leaguers to win the award at the hot corner were Boston's Frank Malzone ('57 through '59) and New York's Graig Nettles ('77).

Brooks shares the record for most Gold Gloves with former pitcher Jim Kaat.

Believe it or Not: On July 28, '71 against Oakland, Brooks shocked everyone by making 3 errors, not only in the game, but in the same inning...Those miscues contributed to 2 unearned runs, and Oakland continued to lead 2-0 into the bottom of the 9th. However, all was quickly forgotten when Frank Robinson belted a 3-run homer off future Hall of Famer Rollie Fingers, lifting the O's to a 3-2 victory.

All-Star Games: Played in 18 consecutive All-Star games from '60 thru '74 (including two per year in '60, '61, '62)...Had lifetime average of .289 (13-for-45).

Selected MVP in '66 at St. Louis when he had 3 hits, including a home run while handling 8 chances in the field...Also homered in '67 game at Anaheim...Was a serious contender for the award in '64 (at Shea Stadium) and '70 (at Cincinnati), when he went 2-for-3, hit a triple, scored a run and drove in two others.

Hit 3 triples in All-Star play and didn't make an error in 43 fielding chances.

Was elected to starting lineup in Gillette-sponsored fan vote 4 times ('71, '72, '73, '74) after selection was returned to fans in '70...Led AL players in votes in '71 (1 110 469)...Started a total of 11 games...Had last hit in '71 game at Detroit.

Post-Season: Played the first 39 post-season games in which the Orioles were involved and batted a composite .303 (44-for-145).348 in 18 ALCS games and .263 in 21 WS games.

WS: Homered in his first WS at bat in first inning against Dodgers (at Dodger Stadium) in '66, immediately following Frank Robinson's 2-run homer (both off Don Drysdale).

Was landslide MVP in '70 vs. Reds...Hit .429 (9-for-21) and was brilliant on defense. His 9 hits tied record for most in 5-game series...He also contributed 6 RBI, 2 doubles, and 2 homers. Erred on first fielding chance, then handled 23 more flawlessly, many of them brilliantly. He stole at least 2 hits each from Johnny Bench and Lee May, and it was then that May gave him the nickname Hoover (as in vacuum cleaners).

ALCS: Had .486 average (18-for-37) after first 3 championship series (O's swept all in 3 straight games)...His lone hit in last LCS in '74 was a Game 1 homer off Oakland's Catfish Hunter.

Major League Lifetime Records, 3B: Highest fielding percentage, 1000 or more games (.971)...Most years, league (23)...Most games (2870)... Most chances accepted, excluding errors (8902)...Most putouts (2697)...Most assists (6205)...Most double plays (618)...Most seasons leading league in games (8)...Most seasons leading league in assists (8)...Most seasons leading league in fielding percentage (11).

American League Lifetime Records: Most seasons leading league in fielding (11)...Most seasons leading league in chances accepted, excluding errors (8 tie)...Most games season (163, '61 & '64).

Major Awards: MVP, American League-'64. He finished 2nd (to Triple Crown winner Frank Robinson) in '66 and 3rd in both '60 and '65...World Series: '70... All-Star Game: '66...Lou M. Hatter Most Valuable Oriole: '60, '62, '64 and co-winner in '71 with Frank Robby...Commissioner's Trophy, now Roberto Clemente Award:(player best exemplifying the game of baseball) '72...Joe Cronin Award: (significant achievement by AL player) '77..."Most Memorable Personality" in Orioles history by vote of fans in '75.

Nothing is Forever: His 268th and last home run provided one of the most emotional experiences in Orioles' history. It was Apr 19, '77 at Memorial Stadium, the O's trailed the Indians, 5-3, in the 10th, with one out and 2 on. Brooks came to the plate as a pinch hitter for Larry Harlow...He ran the count to "3 & 2", fouled off a number of pitches, then hit a home run into the left field stands off reliever Dave LaRoche to win the game, 6-5...There were only 4,826 fans at the ballpark that night, but none of them will ever forget the moment.

Signed for '77 as player-coach, but became coach exclusively on Sunday, Aug 21, when he went on the voluntarily retired list (in Minnesota) to make room on the roster for catcher Rick Dempsey who was returning to duty after 6 weeks on the disabled list.

A crowd of 51,798, then an Orioles' record for a regular season game attended Thanks Brooks Day on Sunday, Sep 18, '77 against the Red Sox to pay tribute to the most important and beloved Oriole of modern times.

INSIDE THE PARK HOME RUNS

On Aug 22, '93, Texas Rangers (and former Orioles) outfielder Butch Davis circled the bases on an inside-the-park home run, off Arthur Rhodes at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. It was the first ever hit in the new park and the first by a visiting player in Baltimore since 1960 when Washington's Lenny Green hit one off Jack Fisher on August 17.

The Orioles haven't had an inside-the-park homer to call their own since June 8, '90 when outfielder Phil Bradley did it at Memorial Stadium...He victimized the Yankees' Greg Cadaret.

Bradley's homer was the 11th and final inside-the-park job at Memorial Stadium (10th by an Oriole) and the first for the O's at home since his childhood baby sitter, Al Bumbry, hit one off the Yankees' Steve Kline, Apr 19, '74.

Bradley's blast remains the only Oriole inside-the-park homer, home or away, since Bumbry did it against Jesse Jefferson of the White Sox at old Comiskey Park, Aug 21, '76.

ORIOLE ADVOCATES

The Oriole Advocates, Inc is a unique non-profit organization, dedicated to promoting and stimulating interest in the game of baseball at both the amateur and professional levels. Founded in July 1960, the Advocates will celebrate their 34rd anniversary this summer.

Membership comprises some 75 men and women, drawn from a broad cross-section in the Baltimore area.

Through the years, the Advocates have made substantial financial donations to worthy causes, primarily to baseball-oriented youth organizations; have played a key role in the restoration of Babe Ruth's birthplace at 216 Emory Street and its conversion into the Babe Ruth/Orioles Museum; and in '77, established the Orioles Hall of Fame.

The organization has also served as an essential right arm to the Orioles' Public Relations and Marketing Departments. In that connection, the Advocates initiated the popular Junior Orioles program (low cost tickets for kids) back in '63, then administered it for 25 years. Membership in that program rose from 75 youngsters the first year to a record 20,000 in '77.

The Oriole Advocates don't get paid for anything they do. They are all volunteers, constantly demonstrating the importance of competence and dedication whenever there is a job to be done.

ORIOLES "DESIGNATED HITTERS"

The Orioles "Designated Hitters," now into their 16th season, are a group of volunteers, business men and women from the Baltimore-Washington areas, who sell Orioles season and group tickets on the club's behalf.

The organization was created late in '79, and in its first 5 years of operation, the Orioles' season ticket sales ballooned by over 700% from 1,623 in '79 to 11,738 in '84. Last season, the Orioles' second at Oriole Park, season sales were capped at 27,500.

To qualify for membership in the "Designated Hitters", candidates must meet demanding sales minimums according to a formula based on a blend of new sales and renewals, and everyone must requalify each year.

All qualifiers are eligible for the annual spring junket to Florida while the Orioles are training.

Patterned after the Kansas City Royals' highly successful "Royal Lancers", the "Designated Hitters" organization was actually founded in September, 1979 by then Baltimore City Mayor William Donald Schaefer and a select group of Baltimoreans working closely with the Orioles' front office.

The concept was to attract people from the business community to serve as the ballclub's principal season ticket sales representatives. The results have been dramatic.

Along with former Mayor William Donald Schaefer, the "founding fathers" of the "Designated Hitters" included: Owen Daly, Bill Beasman and Chris Hartman; and former club Vice Presidents Al Harazin and Bob Aylward.

The "DHs" have their own officers and board of directors, as well as an active social program. The DH Officers include: President--Bill Jones; Secretary--Glen Babcock; Treasurer--Judy Palmisano; other members of the board include: Harry Baumohl, Hal Hackerman, Eamonn McGeady, Doug Murphy, Tim Redmond, and Scott Zimmerman.

The Orioles season ticket sales figures for the past 16 years: '79- 1,623...'80-4,018...'81-5,215...'82-5,430...'83-6,061...'84- 11,738...'85-11,707...'86 - 11,145...'87-10,512...'88-10,082...'89-10,849...'90-15,024...'91-17,500...'92-25,000...'93-27,500...'94-27,500.

ORIOLES 1994 MINOR LEAGUE SUMMARY

For the 4th time in the past 5 seasons (1990, '91, '93), the Orioles six minor league affiliates won more games than they lost, posing a (.515) winning percentage. While only one club, the Bowie Baysox, advanced to the playoffs, three other clubs, the Rochester Red Wings, Frederick Keys and Bluefield Orioles were eliminated from playoff races in their respective league's final week.

1994 proved to be yet another year of outstanding individual accomplishment, as well. OF Harry Berrios, who began the season with Class A Albany and finished with AA Bowie, put together perhaps the strongest campaign by an Orioles farmhand in nearly a decade. Berrios became the first Orioles minor leaguer to pass the century mark in runs batted in since 1987 and runs scored since 1986. Berrios just missed, in fact, becoming the first known minor leaguer to ever post 20 home runs, 100 RBI and 50 stolen bases. Along the way, Berrios captured the Carolina League batting crown (.343) by 30 points, thus becoming the first Frederick Key to capture the batting crown since 1989.

Not far behind Berrios was Rochester's Jeff Manto. Acquired from the Mets' AAA affiliate Norfolk in mid-May, Manto captured the International League's MVP award with a .297 average, 31 home runs and 100 RBI. In doing so, Manto became the first Red Wing to lead the IL in home runs and RBI since 1973.

ROCHESTER (AAA)

Despite posting a 67-74 record, just their 3rd season below break-even in the last nine, skipper Bob Miscik's Wings were not eliminated from the playoffs until the final weekend in August. This despite several crucial injuries throughout the season, including injuries to Sherman Obando, Paul Carey, Manny Alexander and T.R. Lewis. The acquisition of Manto proved to be a key stabilizer throughout the Wings' troubled season. In addition to leading the IL in home runs and runs batted in, 3B-1B Manto led the International League in four additional offensive categories, including total bases (240). Manto came within one hit of becoming the first Red Wing since 1949 to have a .300 batting average, 30 homers and 100 RBI. OF Sherman Obando also put together an impressive campaign, placing 2nd behind Manto in league MVP voting. Obando, was, however, a member of the IL's post-season All-Star squad. Obando led IL hitters in slugging percentage (.600) and placed 2nd in batting average (.330) and extra-base hits (62). He also tied for the league lead with 35 doubles. Obando's .330 average was the highest by a Wing since 1977 (Larry Harlow). OF Damon Buford led the IL in runs scored (89), despite playing in just 111 games. Buford also led the league in outfield putouts and assists. OF Jim Wawruck, owner of a .303 lifetime minor league average in 3 seasons entering '94 ranked 9th in the IL with a .300 batting average.

RHP Barry Manuel led Rochester with a career-high 11 wins. LHP Rick Krivda paced the Wings' staff in strikeouts (122), starts (26) and ERA (3.53). Along the way, Krivda posted a 28.1 scoreless-inning streak in June. RHP Tom Wegmann led the Rochester pen with 10 saves.

During the '94 season, the city of Rochester unveiled plans for a new downtown ballpark to be in place in 1996. In celebration, fans flocked to Silver Stadium in record numbers. The 370,050 fans that attended Red Wings games in Rochester was the 3rd highest in franchise history.

BOWIE (AA)

1994 proved to be a most unusual year for the Baysox. As the team patiently awaited the long-anticipated opening of Prince George's County Stadium, the first half saw four temporary facilities called home, including Grove Stadium in Frederick and Shipley Field at the Naval Academy. Yet the Baysox posted a 38-25 record as the bedouins of the Eastern League, despite drawing just 15,323 fans in 27 home dates (an average of 568 fans per game). On June 16, the Baysox travel woes came to an end as Prince George's County Stadium was christened in front of 7,142 fans. The faithful went home happy as the Baysox routed the Binghamton Mets, 14-6. Bowie went on to draw 278,342 fans, an average of 7,523 fans over 37 contests. By season's end, the Baysox, under manager Pete Mackanin, posted a 84-58 record and advancing to the first round of the EL playoffs.

Playing together for the 4th time in four years in the organization the dynamic duo of Alex Ochoa and Curtis Goodwin led the way. Goodwin led the EL in 6 different offensive categories. Goodwin finished with a league-best 105 runs scored, thus becoming the first Orioles minor leaguer, along with OF Harry Berrios to score 100 runs since Pete Stanicek in 1986. Goody also led the league with 59 stolen bases, his second consecutive stolen base crown. In fact, in his four years in the O's organization, Goodwin has finished among his league's top 4 all four seasons ('91, GCL, 4th; '92, MWL, 3rd; '93, CL, 1st). At season's end, Goodwin's efforts landed him a spot among the EL's post-season All-Star team. Ochoa led the Baysox in home runs (14) and RBI (82). His final .301 batting average marked the 3rd time in four pro seasons Ochoa had batted .295-or-better. Ochoa led the EL with 22 outfield assists. IF Edgar Alfonzo contributed with 35 doubles, placing 4th with a .309 batting average.

Pitching proved to be the Baysox strength, as six different pitchers finished with 100-or-more punchouts. Bowie starting pitchers led the way, most notably, the 'Fab Five' (Jimmy Haynes, Brian Sackinsky, Scott Klingenbeck, Rick Forney and Vaughn Eshelman) each had at least 25 starts and 143 innings pitched. In fact, the 'Fab Five' made all but 12 of the Baysox starts. RHP Jimmy Haynes led the way posting 13 wins and a league-best 177 strikeouts. He also placed 2nd with a 2.90 ERA. Haynes also made 3 starts for Rochester in late June and early July. RHP Brian Sackinsky proved to be perhaps the Baysox next consistent starter, posting a 3.36 ERA, 11 wins and 145 strikeouts. RHP Scott Klingenbeck became the best-known member of the group when he made his big league debut for the Orioles against the Tigers, June 2. Klingenbeck started and beat the Tigers 11-5, (7 IP, 6 H, 4 R, 3 ER, 4 BB, 5 SO). Shortly thereafter, Klingenbeck returned to Bowie where he finished the season, posting 7 wins (3.63 ERA, 120 SO), upping his career mark to 24-13. RHP Rick Forney tied Haynes for the team-lead with 13 wins. He also provided the team's best single-game highlight as he hurled a 7-inning, complete game victory July 30 (2), defeating Trenton, 8-0. LHP Vaughn Eshelman with his 11 wins was one of 4 Baysox starters to reach double figures in wins.

The sixth Baysox hurler to record 100 strikeouts was RHP Armando Benitez. Co-winner of the Jim Palmer Prize, the organization's Pitcher of the Year in 1993, Benitez started slowly, but rebounded, capturing the O's Pitcher of the Month award for June. For the season, in two different stints with the Baysox, Benitez placed 4th in the EL with 16 saves and was the lone reliever to notch 100 K's. In between tours of duty with Bowie, Benitez was recalled by the Orioles on July 27 and made his big league debut the next day vs. the Indians in the first game of a DH (2.2 IP, 2 H, 0 R/ER, 3 SO), striking out the first batter he faced, Albert Belle. Benitez made 3 appearances with the O's before returning to Bowie Aug. 11. Joe Borowski also had a fine year for Bowie, recording 14 saves and averaging more than a strikeout per inning. Since June 13, 1993, Borowski has pitched to an ERA of 1.39.

FREDERICK (A)

A tale of two seasons can best sum up the season for Mike O'Berry's Frederick Keys. Frederick finished 4 games under .500 during the first half, but roared back during the 2nd half to post a 44-25 record. Unfortunately for the Keys, the Wilmington Blue Rocks with 46 wins, en route to a 94-44 overall record, bested the Keys in a 3-game weekend finale to capture the 2nd half Northern Division crown. OF Harry Berrios led the Keys hitting (.343), capturing the CL batting crown, despite not joining the club until May 26. Berrios also finished with 42 stolen bases in just 86 games. For the season, playing for Albany, Frederick and Bowie, Berrios finished with a .342 average, 19 homers, 113 runs scored and 56 stolen bases. In addition, Berrios knocked in 107 runs, becoming the first O's farmhand to do so since Leo Gomez and Tom Dodd in 1987. OF Kimera Barteo placed 2nd in the league in hits (150) and tied for 2nd with 44 stolen bases. C B.J. Wazgis also topped the century-RBI mark, finishing with 100.

RHP Chris Lemp led CL relievers with 63 Rolands Relief points and 21 saves. LHP Matt Jarvis led the Keys with 10 wins. 19-year RHP Calvin Maduro, native of Aruba, led the Keys with 133 strikeouts while posting 9 wins.

ALBANY (A)

Weather proved to be the most dominant factor as the rookie skipper Butch Wynegar's Polecats struggled to a 63-74 record. Heavy flooding in southwestern Georgia forced the 'cats to spend nearly a month a road, while they called Chattanooga home during the month of July. In spite of the bad weather, the Polecats still finished 4th in the SAL in attendance with 124,520 fans. C Jim Foster, just one of 4 Polecat position players who played in 100 games, led Albany in home runs (8) and RBI (56), earning a spot on the mid-season Sally League All-Star squad. Foster was joined by teammate OF Brandon Bridgers. Bridgers paced the club in stolen bases (39) and runs scored (64). 3B Tommy Davis, the O's top pick (2nd round) in '94, finished with 10 doubles and 5 home runs in 61 games. OF Sean Hugo, the O's 13th pick in the '94 draft out of Oklahoma State posted a .503 slugging percentage in 59 games with Albany.

20-year-old Dominican RHP Billy Percibal led Polecat moundsmen, tying for 2nd in the SAL with 13 wins, including 2 complete-game shutouts. Although he did not join the rotation until late June, Hut Smith placed 2nd on the staff with 8 wins. RHP Ron Kitchen allowed only one earned run in 38.2 IP while with Albany. LHP Aaron Lane thrived out of the pen recording 11 saves and averaging more than a strikeout per inning until receiving a late season promotion to Frederick.

BLUEFIELD (Rookie)

For the second time in as many seasons, Andy Etchebarren's baby Orioles battled down to the wire for the Appy League's Northern Division championship only to be denied in the season's final weekend. The Orioles finished with 3 of the top 5 in stolen bases, including OF Miguel Mejia, who swiped 33. 3B Rick Short was named to the post-season Appy League All-Star squad, hitting .301 with 35 RBI. Tom D'Aquila finished tied for 2nd in the league with 12 home runs.

RHP John "Rocky" Coppinger led a talented staff, posting a 2.45 ERA while averaging 10.72 strikeouts in 85.2 IP. RHP Carlos Chavez led the team with 7 wins and tossed a no-hit, no-run game, Aug 19, defeating Bristol, 7-0. Five starters in all recorded ERA's below 3.00, including RHP Matt Marengi who won each of his five decisions in August. RHP Alex Pena was the team's MVP, allowing just 4.97 baserunners in 41.2 IP. Pena posted 5 wins and 3 saves and an ERA of 0.65 in 18 games.

GULF COAST (Rookie)

Two 17-year-old Arubans led the GCL Orioles during the '94 campaign. OF Eugene Kingsale led Orioles hitters posting a .310 average with 26 runs scored and 15 stolen bases. RHP Sidney Ponson won 4 games, posted a 2.96 ERA, walking just 17 in 73.0 IP. 18-year-old RHP Chris Fussell recorded 65 strikeouts in 56.1 innings. Radhames Dykhoff, another Aruban, placed 2nd in the league with 67 strikeouts and tied Ponson for the circuit lead in innings pitched (73.0).

For the second year, the Orioles television broadcasts will have a unique arrangement. Group W Broadcasting, which owns and operates Home Team Sports (HTS) and Baltimore's WJZ-TV, has been given exclusive rights to produce, televise, and sell advertising for all O's games excluding those scheduled for national distribution by Major League Baseball. The arrangement is part of a multi-year deal, ensuring that Orioles fans will continue to receive highly-acclaimed award-winning quality telecasts on the following outlets:

HOME TEAM SPORTS (HTS) is available to cable systems in the 6-state Capital Region (all of Maryland, Virginia, Delaware, and DC and parts of North Carolina, West Virginia, and Pennsylvania).

WJZ-TV (Channel 13, CBS) will televise mostly on weekends and Monday nights throughout the season. WJZ's broadcast partner again is WNUV-TV (Channel 54, Paramount), which will carry the remaining games.

In addition to the Baltimore stations, WFTY-TV (Channel 50) in Washington, DC will serve as an O's television outlet.

Therefore, the Orioles TV Network is as follows:

WJZ (13)	Baltimore—Flagship Station
WNUV (54)	Baltimore
WFTY (50)	Washington, D.C.
WKFT (40)	Raleigh, North Carolina
WFVT (55)	Charlotte, North Carolina
WHKY (14)	Hickory, North Carolina
WSPC (Cable 4)	York, Pennsylvania
WPEN (51/68)	Norfolk, Virginia

WBAL-AM is the O's flagship station for the Orioles radio network for the 8th consecutive year. This is also the 30th time in 42 seasons in Baltimore that WBAL has originated the Orioles games (the station first carried the Birds between '57-'78). O's fans in the mid-Atlantic areas will never be out of radio contact with the 2 most powerful 50,000 watt AM stations in the area, WBAL and WTOP-AM (1500) in Washington, DC. In addition, there are 24 stations on the radio network which bring O's baseball into local areas (see box on next page). Also this year on WBAL is a new pre-game show hosted by Josh Lewin. "Countdown to Baseball" begins one hour before the first pitch and will air before every Orioles game.

REX BARNEY

The one-time Dodger righthander has worked with the Orioles in parts of 4 decades. He has served since the early '70s as the club's public address announcer, and in a variety of media and public relations capacities.

During the season, he does Orioles Talk, the daily Rex Barney Baseball Report on WBAL Radio, then fills in on that station's Sportsline show the rest of the year.

He pitched for the Dodgers in Brooklyn for 6 seasons ('43, '46-'50) before they moved west, and was inducted into the Brooklyn Dodgers Hall of Fame in June '89. He made his major league debut in '43 just before being called into military service. After 3 years in the US Army, much of it spent in the European theatre during World War II, he returned to the National League in '46 and went on to compile a 35-31 career record.

In '48, his best season, Barney went 15-13, pitched 246.2 innings, yielded only 193 hits, walked 122 and fanned 138. He had a 3.10 ERA that year, appeared in 44 games, started 34 and completed 12. The highlight of his season was a no-hitter against the hated Giants at the Polo Grounds on Sep 9.

He began his broadcasting career in '52 in New York, was a play-by-play announcer for Mutual Radio's Game of the Day from '55 to '57, and also did games in the New York area for WOR-TV. He was part of Home Team Sports' first Orioles crew that began doing games in '84 and remained with HTS until '90. A native of Omaha, he has lived in the Baltimore area since '64.

TOM DAVIS

Baltimore native Tom Davis has been with Home Team Sports since '84, the station's first season on the air. He hosts the Orioles pre- and post-game shows and provides in-game interviews and score updates as well as "The Orioles Report." When time permits, he munches on a hot dog or two, and any other goodies that friends and fans bring to this well-known gourmand at the ballpark.

He is sports anchor on on WQSR-FM (105.7) Radio's morning show "Rouse and Company." He also serves as a host on HTS talk and interview shows; has done play-by-play of O's games and college basketball and has covered hockey, boxing, and Redskins football.

Davis, 47, has gained national exposure doing NFL radio play-by-play and sideline reporting for NBC Radio and Television, ABC-TV and the Mutual Broadcasting System. Some of his assignments included doing the Gator, Freedom and All-American Bowls.

A sportscaster in Baltimore for more than 24 years, he is a 5-time winner of the Maryland Sportscaster of the Year Award ('78, '84, '85, '89 and '90). He is a Calvert Hall and University of Baltimore graduate and lives in Baltimore County with his wife, Linda, and children Malinda (20) and Tad (19).

JOHN LOWENSTEIN

Former Orioles outfielder John Lowenstein has been doing color on Home Team Sports' baseball broadcasts for the last 11 years. He played his last game for the O's on May 4, '85 and before the month was out, began his television career in the HTS broadcast booth.

His major league career, with the Indians, Rangers, and Orioles, began in '70 at Cleveland and spanned 16 seasons, the final 7 in Baltimore.

"Brother Lo," as he was known affectionately during his playing days, was a key member of the Orioles' left field combine in '82 and '83, along with Gary Roenicke and, to a lesser degree, Benny Ayala.

In '82, O's left fielders combined for a .283 average (608-172), 41 homers and 123 RBI and the following year, the world championship season of '83, they totaled a collective .292 average (612-179), 35 homers and 131 RBI.

His most memorable hit in an Orioles uniform was a game-ending homer (10th inning) in Game 1 of the '79 ALCS off California's John Montague. Lowenstein, 48, was born and grew up in Wolf Point, Montana, but he and his wife, Barbara, now make their permanent home in Las Vegas.

FRED MANFRA

In his 3rd season as radio voice of the Orioles is Baltimore native Fred Manfra. The award-winning sportscaster came back to WBAL Radio after he was heard across the country since 1981 doing 22 shows per weekend on over 500 ABC Radio Information Network stations.

Manfra, 48, moved into the booth full time in '93, but it wasn't the first time he'd been heard doing Orioles games. In '91, he did a series at Memorial Stadium and before that, in the late '70s, he periodically did O's games on WBAL radio.

His baseball experience also included a stint with the Detroit Tigers on a cable television station in '80. But, baseball is only one of the many sports he has announced. His resume includes some of the most prestigious events in the business such as:

- NBA Finals and NBA All-Star Games, 1985-91
- Olympic Games '84, US men's and women's basketball
- Horse Racing's Triple Crown (Kentucky Derby, Preakness at Pimlico and the Belmont Stakes), 1982-92
- NHL Stanley Cup Finals and All-Star Game, 1991
- Olympic Games '88, US hockey

In fact, his Olympics assignments have taken him to Sarajevo, Yugoslavia and Los Angeles (in '84); Calgary, Alberta and Seoul, South Korea (in '88), Albertville, France and Barcelona, Spain (in '92) and Lillehammer, Norway in February, '94, to do among other things, the Opening and Closing Ceremonies, anchoring, play-by-play and hourly updates.

Fred began his radio career in the early '70s with KREL in Corona, CA and moved eastward with stops in Ventura, CA (KBBQ-FM/KBBY-FM); Davenport, Iowa (KSTT-AM); Milwaukee, WI (WRIT-AM) and Detroit (WWJ-AM) in addition to AP Radio Network Sports in Washington, DC before settling in the New York area with ABC Network Radio.

Rounding out his repertoire, he has done college football and basketball for the University of Iowa ('75), the University of Michigan ('79-'80), Madison Square Garden Network ('87-present) as well as USFL and Arena football, New York Knicks basketball, boxing and wrestling. Along the way, he's received awards for his live action and studio reports. He has also done voicework for Madison Square Garden Network and for professional football team highlights films and the Sports Year in Review for ABC Radio Network ('83-present).

It appeared inevitable that his career plans would eventually bring him home. One of his athletic highlights is a double he hit off the left field wall at Memorial Stadium in an American Legion game and under his photo in his high school yearbook (Patterson HS, Class of '64), it said: "Fred's...future plans are in...Radio-T.V. work."

He and his wife, Marlene, are the parents of 2 daughters, both athletes: Michelle (17 in May) who plays tennis and Stephanie (13) who plays AAU basketball. The Manfra's reside in Fallston, MD.

JON MILLER

One of baseball's finest announcers, Miller's voice is synonymous with Orioles broadcasts and for describing the action on ESPN Sunday Night Baseball. This will be his 10th season of regular nationwide exposure (4 years with NBC-TV and 6 seasons, including '95, on ESPN).

His talents are not only entertaining and informative, but worthy of consideration for national and regional awards (he has been nominated for an ACE award, emblematic of cable television excellence, in each of his 4 seasons with ESPN and won the award for his play-by-play work in '90. He was in Los Angeles for the January, '94 ceremony when the area was struck by a devastating earthquake). He was honored in '86 as Baltimore's Best Radio Sportscaster by Baltimore Magazine and Best Play-by-Play Broadcaster by Washington Magazine.

For the 3rd straight year, Miller teams with Fred Manfra on WBAL Radio. On ESPN, his partner is Hall-of-Famer Joe Morgan.

Miller's major league baseball broadcasting career began at the age of 22 with the Oakland A's in '74. After that, he did radio and television for the Texas Rangers ('78-'79) before moving on to Boston where he spent 3 more years in the Red Sox radio booth ('80-'82). He joined the Orioles broadcast team in '83.

Miller, 43, has had an extensive background in basketball, soccer and hockey during his 21 years behind the microphone. He did 10-15 games a season for the NBA's Golden State Warriors ('79-'82) and prior to that, did University of San Francisco basketball for 5 seasons.

He has also done considerable soccer play-by-play for the San Jose Earthquakes and the Washington Diplomats in the North American Soccer League (NASL) for CBS TV ('77).

A renowned impressionist, he convincingly imitates such talented baseball announcers as Harry Caray, Vin Scully, and Chuck Thompson during breaks in the action and on the banquet circuit.

A native of the San Francisco Bay area, he now lives in Cockeysville, MD (northern Baltimore suburbs). He and his wife, Janine, are parents to Michelle (22), Holly (18), Emilie (16), and Alexander (7).

MEL PROCTOR

Mel is in his 23rd year as an announcer and his 11th as the Orioles' play-by-play voice for Home Team Sports.

One of the busiest broadcasters in the business, he handles a variety of on-air assignments for HTS, including play-by-play for the NBA's Washington Bullets. He did the '94 Sugar Bowl for Mutual Radio and has also done college football, pro basketball and boxing for Turner Broadcasting; The Rose Bowl, Fiesta Bowl and NFL Football for NBC television and radio and college basketball for CBS-TV, (including the NCAA tournament '91-'92-'93).

In '93, he was named the Maryland Sportscaster of the Year for the 2nd consecutive year and for the 3rd time in his career (also '88).

In '86, he took a short break from Orioles baseball to do men's basketball play-by-play for TBS from the Goodwill Games in Spain. Four years later, he was part of the crew that covered Goodwill Games boxing in Seattle. He is scheduled to repeat that role in this year's games in St. Petersburg, Russia.

He began his career as sports director at the CBS-TV affiliate in Hawaii (KGMB) from '73 until '78. While there, he worked the microphone for Hawaii

Islanders (AAA) baseball, University of Hawaii football and basketball, and did one season for the Hawaiians of the World Football League.

He came to work in the Nation's Capital for the first time in '78 when he began a 5-year stint as play-by-play announcer for Washington Bullets basketball on flagship station WTOP-AM. During the Bullets' off-seasons, he worked as the television and radio voice of the Texas Rangers in '80 and '81, then he supplemented his work with the Bullets by doing college basketball games for NBC-TV in '82 and '83.

For two seasons ('83-'84 and '84-'85), he served as the play-by-play man for the NBA's New Jersey Nets. It was during that time that he also worked the NFL Game of the Week radio broadcasts for the Mutual Broadcasting System.

A native of Denver, CO, he resides in Ellicott City, MD with his wife, Julie, and their children, Bill (13) and Maile (11).

CHUCK THOMPSON

On Feb 9, '93, the long overdue word came from Cooperstown that Chuck Thompson officially belonged in the Hall of Fame, an honor Orioles fans knew years before. His place was secured when he was named the '93 Ford C. Frick Award winner and with that distinction, took residence in the broadcasters wing alongside the likes of former Orioles announcer Ernie Harwell, Harry Caray, Vin Scully and Jack Buck. He was inducted into the Hall of Fame on Aug 1, '93.

A long-time legend in our town, Orioles fans are thrilled to have him on the radio broadcasts, working with Fred Manfra in the WBAL booth when Jon Miller is on another assignment. His voice has evoked fond memories for nearly 48 years, even though he actually retired from the business back in '88. Fortunately it didn't last. Coaxed back into the booth with a full but abridged workload, another generation of fans will have the pleasure of listening to him ply his craft.

He was a veteran announcer before arriving in Baltimore, having started his career in '39 at WRAW in Reading, PA. From there, he went to Philadelphia's WIBG in '42 to do Temple University football.

During World War II, he served in the Army and saw action in 3 major European campaigns. After the war, he returned to Philadelphia doing radio for the Phillies, Athletics, Warriors, Eagles and Rockets (hockey).

In '49, Thompson came to Baltimore, where he became the voice of the International League Orioles, the All-America Conference Colts, the Bullets and Navy football. In '55, he joined the National Brewing Company's team of announcers and during a 24-year association, he did American League Orioles games in '55-'56 and again from '62-'78. In between, he was the radio voice of the Washington Senators, '57-'61.

For 2 seasons, '59-'60, he was on television doing NBC-TV's Game of the Week. Also in '60, he described the World Series call of Bill Mazeroski's famous Game 7, 9th-inning home run which won the championship for Pittsburgh.

He has been named the outstanding broadcaster in Maryland by the National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association on numerous occasions. Equally acclaimed as the announcer for the Baltimore Colts, he called the classic overtime playoff contest for the NFL title between the Colts and the New York Giants in December, '58; the Colts-Packers overtime playoff game for the NFL's Western Division championship in '65 (for CBS-TV) and the O's World Series games in '66, '69, '70, and '71.

He is a golfing and fishing enthusiast and his wife, Betty, is an outstanding cook. Thompson has 4 children, 11 grandchildren and 3 great grandchildren.

DID YOU KNOW???

. . . that on 22 occasions Twins catchers and pitchers have combined to nab three would-be basestealers in a game, but only once, May 29, 1982, have they ever nabbed four runners. Ken Griffey, Craig Nettles, Bobby Murcer and Willie Randolph were caught by catcher Sal Buzen that day; Nettles and Murcer as part of a Twins' tripleplay.

ERICKSON'S NO-HITTER

On April 27, 1994, Erickson became the third Twin to pitch a 9-inning no-hitter, and just the second (Jack Kralick, August 26, 1962) to throw a scoreless 9 inning game with no hits (Dean Chance blanked the Indians, August 25, 1967, but won 2-1), when he beat Milwaukee 6-0 at the Metrodome . . . he faced 31 batters, retiring 15 on ground balls (1 doubleplay), 5 on fly outs, 5 with strikeouts and 1 on a lineout, while walking 4 and hitting 1 batter . . . his line: 9 ip, 0 h, 0 r, 0 er, 4 bb, 5 k, 1 wp, 1 hb . . . he threw 129 pitches (71 strikes and 58 balls) . . . the 27 years between no-hitters was the longest current gap in major league baseball (although the New York Mets and San Diego Padres have not had a no-hitter in their histories) . . . it was the second of three no-hitters in 1994 (Atlanta's Kent Mercker no-hit the Dodgers, April 8, and Texas' Kenny Rogers pitched a perfect game vs. California, July 28) . . . was the first no-hitter in the 13-year history of the Metrodome and just the second time a pitcher carried a no-hitter into the 9th in the Metrodome (Baltimore's Eric Bell went 8 innings plus a batter in the 9th, May 5, 1987) . . . was the 11th no-hitter in a domed stadium and just the fourth in American League history (two at the Kingdome and one at SkyDome).
