IN MEMORY

HENRY J. KNOTT, SR.

1906-1995

Orioles investor Henry J. Knott, Sr. was a civic leader of tremendous stature in the Baltimore and Maryland business communities and a noted philanthropist. He started work as a bricklayer with his father's construction company in the 1920's and rose through the ranks of business as a highly respected contractor and real estate developer. Mr. Knott's companies, which included Severn River Construction Company, built thousands of homes and apartments in Baltimore and surrounding areas. Much of the wealth he accumulated in his career he unselfishly gave to Maryland colleges, schools and hospitals.

In 1988, Mr. Knott and his wife of 67 years, Marion Burk Knott, created a 26 million dollar fund to benefit 31 local, educational, health and cultural institutions. While he was a noted contributor to Catholic Charities and education, his philanthropic efforts, totaling nearly $200 million, broadly touched the cultural and civic life of the greater Baltimore area.

He played a critical leadership role along with his close friend of many years, Peter Angelos, in organizing the group of Maryland investors that brought the ownership of the Orioles back to Baltimore.

Mr. Knott and his wife raised 13 children and at the time of his passing he left 51 grandchildren and 55 great-grandchildren.

His leadership, remarkable generosity and wise counsel will forever be remembered.

OWNERSHIP OF THE ORIOLES

On October 4, 1993, American League owners unanimously approved the sale of ownership of the Orioles from then-principal shareholder Eli. S. Jacobs to a group of investors led by Baltimorean Peter Angelos. The sale placed the Orioles in local hands for the first time since 1979, when Jerold C. Hoffberger, representing his family which owned a controlling interest in both the Orioles and the National Brewing Company, sold the franchise to prominent Washington attorney Edward Bennett Williams.

From October 29, 1953, when the transfer of the St. Louis Browns franchise became official until Williams purchased the club late in 1979, the Baltimore Baseball Club, Inc. was publicly held and was operated by a group of Baltimore investors which owned a majority share of the BBCI. Among those who played key roles in the operation of the franchise during that 26-year period were: former chief executives Clarence Miles, who organized the group that secured the St. Louis Browns for Baltimore and who served as the club's first president; James Keelty, Jr.; Joseph A. W. Iglehart; and Jerry Hoffberger, as well as longtime club treasurer Zanvyl Krieger ('58-'79).

◆ PETER ANGELOS ◆
Chairman and CEO

Peter Angelos, the Principal Owner of the Baltimore Orioles, has brought dynamic leadership to the ballclub and to the community since he and his fellow investors restored the team to local ownership. After bringing together 20 of the most respected people in the community to form an ownership group that reflects Maryland's excellence, pride and diversity, his group purchased the club for a record $173 million in August of 1993.

Oriole fans who have filled Oriole Park at Camden Yards since its opening have longed for the club to reward their loyalty by acquiring and developing top quality talent on the field. This past off-season, Mr. Angelos continued to demonstrate his desire to do so by putting together what many consider the finest baseball operations team in baseball by naming Pat Gillick as the club's General Manager and Davey Johnson as the team's field manager and recruiting Kevin Malone as the team's Assistant General Manager and Syd Thrift as Director of Player Development. Gillick then dramatically altered the face of the Orioles with the signing of free agents Roberto Alomar, Randy Myers, Roger McDowell, B.J. Surhoff and Mike Devereaux and trading for starters Kent Mercker and David Wells.

Mr. Angelos has also taken constructive steps off the field. Fans who were seated in box seats down the left and right field lines had complained since the park's opening because their seats were improperly angled toward center field. More than 3,300 seats in question have been adjusted to improve their angle. Fans who felt uncomfortable when being approached near the ballpark by aggressive ticket scalpers received support from the Baltimore City Council in '94 after Mr. Angelos sponsored a bill to banish the practice from the areas within 10 blocks of Camden Yards. Last season a "scalp free zone" was created at the ballpark for fans wishing to purchase tickets or sell tickets to others for face value. In addition, many fans whose season tickets were unfairly relocated when the club moved from Memorial Stadium had these injustices rectified at the insistence of Mr. Angelos.

Beyond correcting inherited problems and building a club that fans can be proud of, Mr. Angelos continues to make substantial contributions to the Maryland community, particularly for children. This past year, the Orioles Charitable Foundation contributed over $300,000 to organizations such as the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, Boy Scouts of America, Parks & People Foundation, The Baltimore Urban League, The College Bound Foundation, Walters Art Gallery, Archdiocese of Baltimore, The Babe Ruth Museum, Sports Boosters, National Aquarium, The Learning Bank, National Multiple Sclerosis Society, The Arthritis Foundation, American Heart Foundation, The Baltimore Zoo, Greater Washington Boys & Girls Clubs, AFRAM and the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra.

During 1995, Mr. Angelos had the vision to add 260 V.I.P. field seats for the historic September 6 game when Cal Ripken would surpass Lou Gehrig's major league record for consecutive games played. After receiving special permission from American League President Dr. Gene A. Budig to add them, he seats were offered for $5,000 each with the funds providing the endowment for the creation of the Cal Ripken/Lou Gehrig Fund for Neuromuscular Research at John Hopkins University. The sale of the seats raised $1.3 million and the Orioles pledged an additional $700,000 to bring the total donation to $2 million to help the fight against the disease that claimed the life of the former Yankee great.

On those historic nights of September 5 & 6, the Orioles organization presented games 2130 and 2131 in a manner which was hailed by the entire country. With the dramatic dropping of the numbers on the B & O Warehouse to the star-studded post-game ceremonies, it was assured that those evenings will go down as two of the most memorable in the game's rich history.

During this past off-season, Mr. Angelos was recognized throughout the local and national scene. In 1995, he received the AFL-CIO Lewis Murray Ruether Award for "Exemplary Leadership in the Pursuit of Social and Economic Justice." He was the recipient of the "Pillar of Sports" award given by the Advertising & Professional Club of Baltimore. The New York Daily News named him the "Sportsman of the Year." In addition, he was recognized as one of the 100 Most Powerful People in Sports by The Sporting News and was one of Baseball America's Top 25 Most Influential people in baseball.

Raised in the industrial neighborhood of Highlandtown in East Baltimore, Mr. Angelos graduated from Patterson Park High School and from the University of Baltimore, where he was valedictorian of his class at the School of Law. An attorney since 1961, he is the principal of the Law Offices of Peter G. Angelos. He is a member of American Trial Lawyers Association, American Bar Association, Baltimore City and Baltimore County Bar Association, Tennessee Bar Association, and New York State Trial Lawyers Association.

Mr. Angelos, known nationally for his success as a plaintiff's attorney, is admitted to practice before the courts of Maryland, District of Columbia Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit, the United States Supreme Court, and the United States Supreme Tax Court. In addition, Mr. Angelos has practiced in New York, Tennessee, Pennsylvania, and has practiced before the courts of various jurisdictions in the country.

Mr. Angelos, who once served on the Baltimore City Council, is a member of the University of Baltimore Law School Advisory Committee, the University of Maryland Foundation, the Board of Trustees of Loyola College, a Trustee of Johns Hopkins University, the Grant-A-Wish Foundation, the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra, and St. Joseph's Hospital Foundation.

He and his wife, the former Georgia Kousouris, reside in Baltimore. They have two sons, John and Louis.

◆ TOM CLANCY ◆
VICE CHAIRMAN OF COMMUNITY PROJECTS AND PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Tom Clancy's story is a publishing fairy tale come true. His first novel, The Hunt For Red October, published by the Naval Institute Press in hardcover in 1984 (which had never before published a work of fiction) sold briskly as a result of rave reviews, then catapulted onto The New York Times bestseller list. The Hunt for Red October ended up selling over 500,000 copies in hardcover and eight million paperbacks (Berkley Books, 1985). The book has been translated into a number of foreign languages, including French, German, Spanish, Italian, Japanese, Chinese, and now Russian.

Mr. Clancy has also written Red Storm Rising, Patriot Games, The Cardinal of the Kremlin, Clear and Present Danger, The Sum of All Fears, Without Remorse, and Debt of Honor. Mr. Clancy is presently working on a new Jack Ryan novel. Ryan is a hero of Mr. Clancy. All of Mr. Clancy's books have sold millions and ranked No. 1 on The New York Times bestseller list for both paperback and hardcover novels.

Prior to writing The Hunt for Red October, Clancy's only literary effort was an article on the MX missile published in the Naval Journal Proceedings. Although he had dreamed of writing a novel since college, Clancy, who majored in English at Baltimore's Loyola College, had always made his living as an insurance agent.

Clancy's The Hunt for Red October, Patriot Games, and Clear and Present Danger were made into movies and were blockbuster box office smashes.

The walls of Clancy's office are lined with war games, books on weapons and government-produced maps, all a tribute to the author's lifelong fascination with technology. Although he devoured military books since childhood, severe myopia prevented Clancy from joining the service, although he did serve in the Army ROTC at Loyola.

Clancy's interest in writing fiction resurfaced in 1976 when he read of the attempt of a Soviet frigate's crew to defect to Sweden. The idea, he says, rattled around his head for years. Finally, he imagined the frigate as a submarine and a novel based on the incident began to take shape. The fledgling author completed his first draft in just over three months.

Although Clancy had never been on a submarine in his life, he boned up on technical knowledge with such books as Combat Fleets of the World and Guide to the Soviet Navy. His grasp of the material was such that everyone from critics to military and intelligence experts hailed The Hunt For Red October for its uncanny verisimilitude.

Despite the astounding publicity surrounding all of his novels, Clancy insists the cocktail party circuit is not for him and that his life hasn't changed all that much. At age 48, Clancy is the father of four.

SENIOR EXECUTIVES

◆ JOE FOSS ◆
Vice Chairman of Business and Finance

Now in his third season as the Orioles Vice Chairman of Business and Finance, Joe Foss oversees all of the club's business, financial, and administrative operations. In 1995, Joe was a part of the interview process that brought General Manager Pat Gillick to Baltimore. In addition, he worked closely with the baseball operations department on free agent contracts and budgets.

Foss has recently been appointed a member of the Major League Management Committee on the player pension plan. He also is a member of the American League Player Personnel Development Committee.

On June 1, 1993, Foss joined Peter Angelos' acquisition team and then supervised the transition between ownerships. Mr. Angelos appointed him to his current position on December 9, 1993.

Foss graduated from St. Thomas College in St. Paul Minnesota in 1970, where he received his BA in Business Administration. In 1972, he received his MBA in Marketing/Finance from the University of Minnesota at Mankato. His extensive educational background led to 17 successful years in the banking industry with the Norwest Corporation in Minneapolis where he held positions from Commercial Banking Officer to Senior Vice President.

Foss continued his career in banking when he relocated to the Washington metropolitan area and accepted the position of President and Chief Operating Officer of First American Bank, N.A., of Washington in December , '89. In April, 1991, he was elected Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer.

Community involvement is very important to Foss, as evidenced by his active membership as treasurer and trustee of The Green Door, an organization located in Washington, D.C., that is dedicated to working with the mentally ill, helping them to obtain housing and job training. He is also a board member of the National Aquarium.

He is a former board member of the Children's Theatre Company of Minneapolis and former president of the Minnesota Aquatennial Association. In 1989, he served as president during the 50th anniversary of the Aquatennial, a 10-day summer festival which features water and land sports, attractions and parades, attracting millions of people.

In addition to his involvement in the community, Foss is a member of several professional and civic organizations including the Economic Club of Washington and the Metropolitan Washington Board of Trade.

Born December 27, 1948 in Minneapolis, Foss and his wife Dawn have three children, Katie (14), Annie (10), and Michael (8). They reside in Cockeysville.

◆ PAT GILLICK ◆
GENERAL MANAGER

"With Pat Gillick joining Davey Johnson, we now have the most formidable baseball operations team in the game. Pat will oversee all aspects of the baseball operation. His abilities and leadership should provide Orioles fans with the championship they so richly deserve. This is an exciting day in Baltimore Orioles history."

— Peter Angelos, Orioles Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, on the hiring of Pat Gillick as the club's General Manager on November 27, 1995

Pat Gillick, 58, was named Orioles General Manager on November 27, 1995. He is in the first year of a three-year contract. A combination of Peter Angelos' determination and Davey Johnson's resilience convinced the two-time Major League Baseball "Executive of the Year" to come out of his self-imposed retirement.

In just 44 days after joining the Orioles, Gillick had altered the face of the ballclub by acquiring second baseman Roberto Alomar, utility player B.J. Surhoff, outfielder Mike Devereaux, relievers Randy Myers and Roger McDowell and starters David Wells and Kent Mercker.

Gillick, born on August 22, 1937 in Chico, California, had been with the Toronto Blue Jays since the beginning of their existence, joining them on August 16, 1976 as the Vice-President of Player Personnel, just prior to their inaugural season. He was responsible for all baseball related activities including, scouting, the farm system and the major league team. Gillick was named Vice-President of Baseball Operations for the Jays on November 24, 1977, and was appointed Executive Vice-President, Baseball on September 24, 1984.

He was voted Canada's "Baseball Man of the Year" by the Toronto and Montreal chapters of the BBWAA in 1983 and 1991, and was honored as UPI's Major League Baseball "Executive of the Year" in 1985 and American League "Executive of the Year" in 1993. Also in '93, Pat was co-winner of The Sporting News "Sportsmen of the Year" along with Toronto Manager Cito Gaston. Pat was honored by the Harvard School of Business in the fall of 1994.

Upon retirement as a player at the age of 26, Pat accepted a job as Assistant Farm Director of the Houston Astros under Eddie Robinson and spent 10 years with Houston, working his way to Regional Scouting Coordinator and then the Director of Scouting. He joined the Yankees in September of 1974 as Coordinator of Player Development and Scouting under Tal Smith.

He graduated in 1954 at the age of 16 from Notre Dame High School in Sherman Oaks, CA where he played baseball and football. He enrolled at the University of Southern California in the fall and graduated in 1958 at the age of 20 with a Bachelor of Science degree in business. Pat pitched at USC under coach Rod Dedeaux and was a member of the NCAA College World Series championship team in '58. He pitched semi-pro ball for Edmonton of the Western Canada League in the summer of 1958.

The left-handed pitcher signed his first professional contract with the Orioles' Mike Catron. He made his pro debut in 1959 at Stockton (C), going 9-5 with a 3.78 ERA. He advanced to Fox Cities (B) in 1960 where he was 11-2 with a 1.91 ERA and he completed that season at AAA Vancouver. Pat spent the next three seasons between Little Rock (AA), Elmira (A) and Rochester (AAA) and compiled 10 wins at Little Rock in 1961. In five seasons in the Orioles organization he compiled a 45-32 record with a 3.42 ERA.

Gillick played under Orioles legendary manager Earl Weaver for three seasons at Fox Cities (1960) and Elmira (1962-63) and in '63 was a teammate of Orioles manager Davey Johnson. He retired in 1963 due to arm problems.

Pat married the former Doris Sander in November of 1968. He and Doris have a daughter, Kimberly (11/24/72). Pat's father, Larry Gillick, was a former star pitcher with Sacramento of the Pacific Coast League and a former sheriff of Butte County, California.

Roland Hemond [November '87-November '95]
Pat Gillick [November '95 -]

◆ KEVIN MALONE ◆
ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Kevin Malone, 38, was named Assistant General Manager of the Orioles by Pat Gillick on December 22, 1995. He was with the Montreal Expos the previous four seasons.

Malone held the position of General Manager of the Montreal Expos the previous two years (1994-95). Kevin was largely responsible for shaping the roster of the 1994 Expos team that had the best record in baseball (74-40) at the time of the players' strike.

Prior to '94, Kevin was Montreal's Director of Scouting, a position he held since November 2, 1991 when he returned to the Expos' organization after a three-year stint as the Minnesota Twins' East Coast Scouting Supervisor (1989-91). In 1991, he served as the Advance Scout assigned to the Braves when Minnesota defeated Atlanta for the World Championship.

In 1988 he was the Expos' scout in Southern California and a coach/hitting instructor at Class A Jamestown in the New York-Penn League. Kevin began his scouting career in 1985 with the California Angels and served as their Southern California scout for three years (1985-87) and he also coached and instructed at the short season level.

Malone was born on August 26, 1957 in San Diego, CA. and he grew up in Louisville, KY. He graduated from Bishop High School and from the University of Louisville in 1980. In '80 he was drafted as a second baseman by the Cleveland organization.

Kevin and his wife, the former Marilyn Perry, have two children, Shannon (9) and Shawn (6).

◆ SYD THRIFT ◆
DIRECTOR, PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Syd Thrift is in his second year as the Orioles Director of Player Development and his 39th year in professional baseball. Thrift was appointed to his current position on October 31, 1994. Just prior to joining the Orioles, he had been honored by The Sporting News as one of the five best teachers in baseball.

Syd was the Founding Director of the innovative Kansas City Royals Baseball Academy. As Director of the Academy from 1970-1972, Syd implemented a system of player procurement and development which was unique in scope and design.

In 1988 with the Pirates, Thrift was honored as "General Manager of the Year" after taking Pittsburgh from last place in '85 to a contender. He gave respected manager Jim Leyland his start as a major league manager in '85. In 1990 the Pirates team that Thrift assembled received a series of honors: Leyland was "Manager of the Year"; Barry Bonds was National League MVP; current Oriole Bobby Bonilla was runner-up and Doug Drabek captured Cy Young honors.

Thrift served the Oakland Athletics as Director of Player Personnel, the New York Yankees as Senior Vice-President of Baseball Operations and the Chicago Cubs as Assistant General Manager.

Though Thrift had an eight-year hiatus from baseball (1977-84), he was an entrepreneur and remained close to the game. In 1976, Thrift entered the real estate business in Fairfax, VA. In 1982 he opened Syd Thrift and Associates, Inc. Realtors. While serving that company as president and chief executive officer, he remained active in baseball.

A native of Locust Hill, VA, Thrift graduated from high school at the age of 16, then attended Randolph-Macon College where he graduated at the age of 20. While there he played baseball, earning all-state honors. Thrift received an honorary doctorate degree from Randolph-Macon in 1990. The left-handed pitcher, who also played first base, signed with the Yankees on June 13, 1949.

In 1990, he wrote, "The Game According to Syd," published by Simon and Shuster and co-written by Barry Shapiro. In 1988 he received the Dapper Dan "Man of the Year" award, the first non-player to be so honored. He was honored in 1987 by the Arthritis Foundation and was Vectors' Man of the Year in Sports.

Syd and his wife Dolly reside in Baltimore and have two sons, Jim (33) and Mark (30). Jim is a coach at Class AAA Indianapolis, the Cincinnati Reds top affiliate.He has three grandchildren: Ryan (4), Audrey (2), and Brandon (1).

◆ GARY NICKELS ◆
DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING

Gary Nickels, 49, begins his sixth year as the director of scouting for the Orioles. His responsibilities include overseeing the scouting department in addition to hiring and evaluating scouts. Gary is entering his 25th year in professional baseball, his eighth with the Orioles. As scouting director, Gary has made his mark with his quality draft choices. Thirteen of the players on the Orioles 40-man roster were either drafted or signed as amateur free agents since Gary became scouting director: LHP Rick Krivda, OF Mark Smith, RHP Calvin Maduro, RHP Billy Percibal, OF Jeffrey Hammonds, RHP Aaron Lane, RHP Brian Sackinsky, INF Juan Bautista, OF Kimera Bartee, RHP Garrett Stephenson, RHP Jimmy Haynes, RHP Armando Benitez, and CA B.J. Waszgis from the '92 draft.

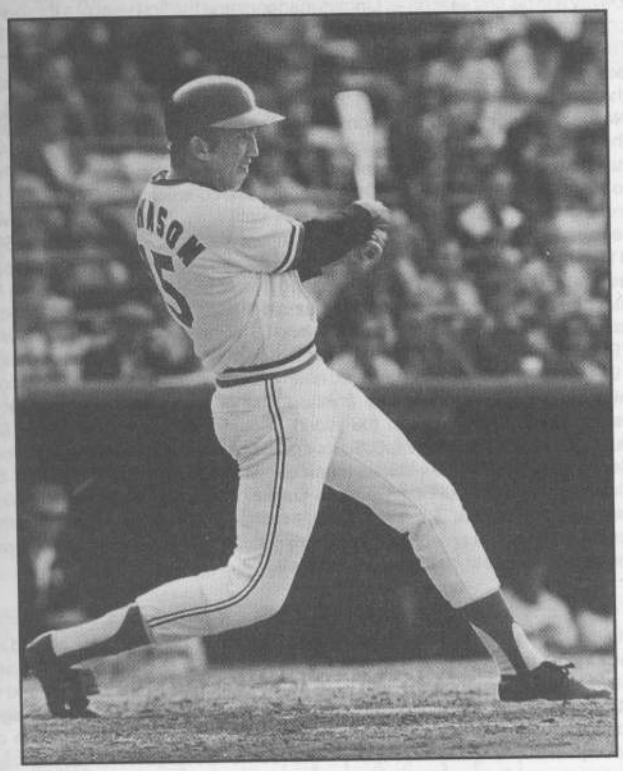

Nickels started with the Orioles in 1989 as the Midwest Scouting Supervisor and National Cross-Checker. He handled major league and advance scouting duties for the club, and also aided in the first round selections of Oriole hurlers Ben McDonald in 1989 and Mike Mussina in 1990.

He started his career as a scouting administrative assistant with the Philadelphia Phillies in 1972. After spending 10 years with the Phils, Gary went to the Chicago Cubs for seven years, as an area scout and central region scouting supervisor. With the Cubs, he participated in the drafting and signing of several current major leaguers including Shawon Dunston, Mark Grace, Mike Harkey, and current Oriole Rafael Palmeiro.

A 1968 graduate of Illinois Wesleyan University, Nickels was the captain of the baseball team as a left-handed pitcher. He went on to earn his master's degree in sports administration in 1975 from Ohio University, where he was a graduate assistant for the Bobcats' baseball team.

A resident of Naperville, Illinois, Gary and his wife Margie have one daughter, Lora(10/13/79).

BEHIND THE SCENES

◆ Richie Bancells — Head Trainer ◆

Born: November 11, 1955

This is Richie's ninth season as the O's head trainer, his 13th with the big league club and his 20th in the Orioles organization. Before coming to Baltimore, he served four years (1980-83) at Rochester as the Red Wings' trainer/road secretary. During that time, he also assisted his predecessor, the late Ralph Salvon, during the Orioles spring training camp in Miami.

Richie joined the Baltimore organization in 1977 as assistant trainer for the Miami Orioles (Class A, Florida State League). He served as head trainer for the Bluefield Orioles (Appalachian Rookie League) in 1978-79 before moving up to Rochester in 1980.

A native of Key West, FL, Richie graduated from Miami's Biscayne College (now St. Thomas University) in 1978 and earned an M.S. degree in physical education from Eastern Kentucky University in Richmond, KY, in 1981. He is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) and currently serves as treasurer for the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society.

He and his wife, Carol, were married 6/10/78. They have three children: Christopher (7/8/80), Andrea (8/19/85) and Timothy (2/8/92). Carol earned a degree in theology and education from Biscayne College. In his spare time, Richie enjoys fishing. The Bancells live in Bel Air, MD.

◆ Jamie Reed — Trainer ◆

Born: June 15, 1959

Jamie is in his eighth full year as an Orioles trainer and his 15th year in the organization. He began his career in the Orioles organization as head trainer for the Bluefield Orioles (Appalachian Rookie League) in 1982 after receiving his degree in sports medicine from East Carolina University in Greenville, NC.

Jamie moved to Hagerstown (Class A, Carolina League) in 1983, to Charlotte (Class AA, Southern League) in 1984 and to Rochester (Class AAA, International League) in 1985 as head trainer/traveling secretary. He remained at Rochester for four years until his promotion to the Orioles in September, 1988.

In addition to his work with the Orioles, Jamie spent four years assisting the US Naval Academy football and basketball teams in the off-season. He also has worked as a trainer in the Venezuelan Winter League. Jamie is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA). He recently was elected to serve as the American League Assistant Trainer representatvie on the executive committee of the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS).

Jamie was born in Baltimore and grew up in Annapolis, MD. He is a 1977 graduate of St. Mary's HS in Annapolis, where he played football and lacrosse. His wife, Jean, is an Annapolis native and also a graduate of St. Mary's and East Carolina University. The Reeds have three children: Zachary (11/10/83), Rebecca (4/16/86) and Rachel (11/29/88). They live in Hampstead, MD.

◆ Tim Bishop — Strength and Conditioning Coach ◆

Born: November 9, 1964

Tim is in his fourth year with the Orioles and his 6th in the organization. Prior to joining the Orioles in 1989, He was an on-field coach and conditioning coach with Frederick (Class A, Carolina League) in 1991 and the O's minor league conditioning coordinator in 1992. He also assisted the Orioles in spring training those two years.

Tim graduated from East Stroudsburg (PA) University in 1986 with a BS degree in exercise physiology. He earned a master's degree from West Chester (PA) University. He played four years of football and baseba at ESU and after graduating, signed a professional football contract with the St. Louis Cardinals as a wide receiver. He was released by the Cardinals bu signed a professional baseball contract with the New York Yankees and played two seasons in their minor league system. In 1987-88, he played outfield at Oneonta, Prince William and Ft. Lauderdale. While at Prince William, he was a teammate of Orioles pitcher Alan Mills. His playing career ended when he was hit by a pitch and broke his arm.

Tim is a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) and was elected a member of the Maryland Council on Physica Fitness. He has been a fitness consultant and personal trainer for the past six off-seasons.

A native of Sellersville, PA, Tim is single and resides in Baltimore.

ORIOLES TRAINERS NAMED TOP STAFF OF '95

Orioles Head Trainer Richie Bancells and Assistant Trainer Jamie Reed were named "Major League Baseball Athletic Training Staff of the Year" for 1995 by the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS). The award has been voted annually by their peers beginning in 1989. Bancells and Reed are in their eighth season together with the Orioles. They were presented the award in December in Los Angeles.

FAMILY AFFAIR

◆ Jim Tyler — Orioles Clubhouse Manager ◆

Born: July 4, 1948

Jim Tyler begins his 35th year working for the Orioles. He became the home team's equipment and clubhouse manager in 1979 after serving 7 years as the visiting clubhouse manager. He began working for the Orioles in 1962 as a clubhouse boy.

Born and raised in Baltimore, he is a graduate of Baltimore City College high school, located across the street from Memorial Stadium. Jim is one of 11 children, including a twin brother, Phil, who also has worked for the Orioles in the past.

In addition to keeping the Orioles clubhouse straight, Jim also runs the Orioles clubhouse during spring training. In past years, he served the club's minor league training bases and winter instructional league teams.

Jim has two children, Lauren (17) and Joshua (16). He and his wife, Bethany, live in Baltimore near Camden Yards.

◆ Fred Tyler — Visiting Clubhouse Manager ◆

Born: September 20, 1960

Fred Tyler has been in charge of the visitors' clubhouse since 1984. He began working around the clubhouse in his teens, working under his brother, Jim. In addition to assisting with the equipment and clubhouse needs during spring training, Fred accompanies the Orioles on some of their road trips during the season in place of his brother.

Fred played baseball at Bel Air (MD) HS, Harford CC and Towson State University. As a senior at Bel Air, his single drove in the winning run to beat an Aberdeen High School pitcher named Cal Ripken Jr. Fred was named All-Harford County shortstop; Ripken was All-Harford County pitcher.

Fred and Debbie Duffy live in Baltimore with their son, Sean Duffy Tyler, 9.

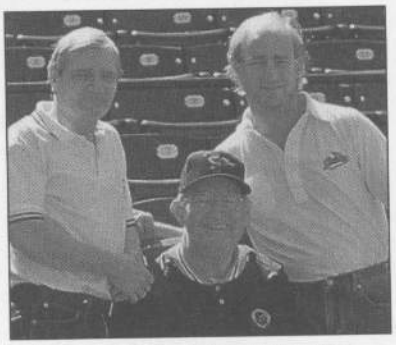

◆ Ernie Tyler — Umpires Attendant ◆

Born: April 30, 1924

Cal Ripken has nothing on Ernie Tyler. The Orioles' longtime umpires attendant and ball man has not missed a home game at Memorial Stadium or Oriole Park since taking his stool on the field next to the backstop on Opening Day, 1960 — a string of 2,832 consecutive regular season games heading into the '96 season.

A graduate of Baltimore's Mt. St. Joseph High School, where he played in the same football backfield with former Oriole and Met General Manager Frank Cashen, Ernie began as a part-time usher at Memorial Stadium during the Orioles' first season in 1954. He became a full-time usher in 1958 before moving into his current position in 1960, assisting the umpires before, during and after the games.

Ernie retired from the state's Department of Health and Mental Hygiene in March, 1988. He and his wife, Juliane, who celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary last November, live in Forest Hill, MD. They have raised 11 children — Theresa, Regina, twins Phil and Jimmy, Ernie Jr., Mary, Judy, Michael, Fred, Chris and Michelle. Nine Tylers, including Juliane and seven of the children, have worked for the club at one time or another.

Born: December 19, 1924

The one-time Brooklyn Dodger righthander has been saying "Thank Youuu" to Oriole fans as public address announcer since the early 1970s and has worked for the club in a variety of media and public relations capacities in parts of 4 decades.

Rex Barney pitched for the Dodgers for six seasons (1943 and 1946-50) and was inducted into the Brooklyn Dodgers Hall of Fame in June, 1989. Shortly after he made his major league debut in '43, he was called into the Army and spent much of his time in the European theatre during World War II. Following the war, he returned to the Nationa League and went on to compile a 35-31 record.

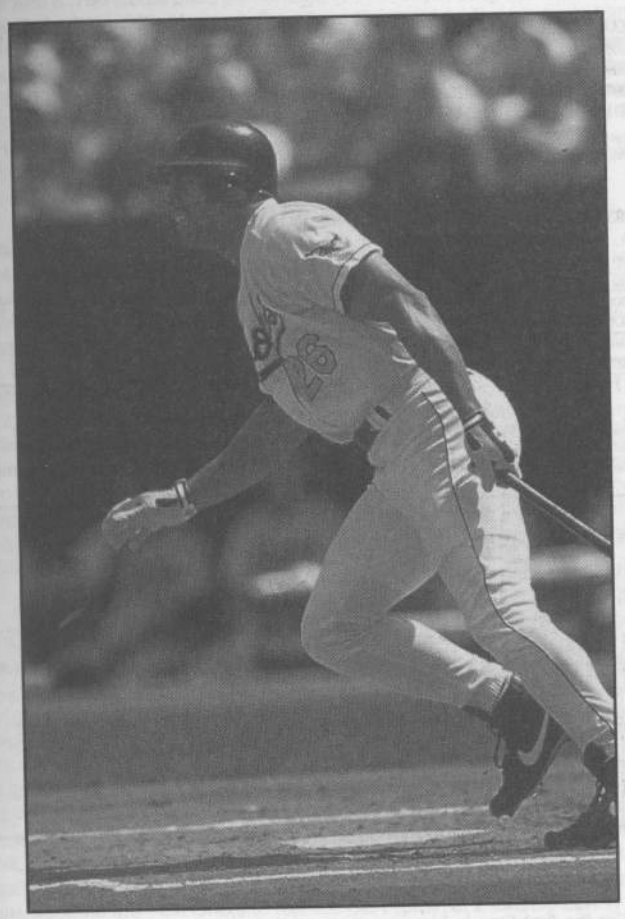

His best season was 1948, when he went 15-13 with a 3.10 ERA in 44 games He completed 12 of 34 starts, pitched 246.2 innings, yielded only 193 hits walked 122 and fanned 138. The highlight of his season came when he pitched a no-hitter against the hated NY Giants at the Polo Grounds on September 9

Rex began his broadcasting career in 1952 in New York. He was a play-by- play announcer for Mutual Radio's Game of the Week from 1955-57 and also did games in the New York area for WOR-TV. He was part of the 1st cable team to do Orioles games in the early '80s and moved over to the Home Team Sports crew when the station began in 1984, remaining with the cable station until 1990.

During the season, Rex is heard on WBAL radio, doing "Orioles Talk," the daily "Rex Barney Baseball Report," and filling in on the station's "Sportsline" talk show in the off-season.

A native of Omaha, NE, Rex has lived in the Baltimore area since 1964.

[1]President George Bush and his grandson, George P. Bush, threw ceremonial first balls on Opening Day, 1992, which was the first regular season game ever played at Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

[2]President and Mrs. Bush brought with them Queen Elizabeth II of England and her husband, Prince Philip, the Duke of Edinburgh.

[3]The Orioles set what is believed to be a major league record when they hosted, not one, but two incumbent presidents, each from a different part of the world—Mr. Bush and Hosni Mubarak of Egypt.

[4]President Bill Clinton and Vice President Al Gore attended Cal Ripken's "2131" game, the first time both a president and vice president attended a game together outside of Washington.

1995 SEASON SUMMARY

• Over the last five seasons, Roberto has a .327 (638-1949) batting average against right-handed pitching...It is the second highest average against righties in baseball over that span, trailing only San Diego's Tony Gwynn (.358).

• Was the only Blue Jay player with an average of .300 or better...It was the 4th straight year in which he hit at least .300.

• Posted third career two home run game on May 3 vs Chi ...Smacked three homers on four consecutive at bats, May 2 & 3.

• Turned a Toronto club record five double plays by a second baseman on May 10 vs the Yankees (11 innings).

• Compiled a 13-game hitting streak, June 5-21 (.400, 22-55) and a career-best 19-game hitting streak, August 5-25 (.380, 30-79)...It was the second longest streak in the AL in '95 trailing only Bobby Bonilla's 20-game streak.

• On June 17 vs Texas, Robbie broke the AL record for consecutive errorless games by a second baseman with his 90th straight error-free game, breaking former Oriole Jerry Adair's record of 89.

• Missed game on June 23 vs the Yankees as he served a one game suspension for an infraction on May 17 with umpire Rich Garcia.

• On June 27 he set the American League record for consecutive errorless chances with 460...Had string snapped on July 4 at California ending streak of 104 straight errorless games and 484 errorless total chances.

• Captured fifth straight Rawlings Gold Glove Award...Paced AL second baseman with a .994 fielding percentage (4 errors, 643 total chances) and led AL second basemen with 272 putouts.

• Was the only Blue Jay to appear in the '95 All-Star Game in Arlington, TX...It was his sixth consecutive All-Star appearance.

• After May 2 his batting average did not fall below .300 for the rest of the year...Was hitting exactly .300 on August 4 and finished the season going hitless in last three games to finish the year at .300.

• In American League, was tied for sixth with seven triples, seventh toughest to fan (12.8 plate appearances per strikeout) and ninth with 30 stolen bases...Had second best stolen base success percentage at 90% (30-for-33) trailing only Seattle's Rich Amaral.

1995 SEASON SUMMARY

• Established career-high in runs (108) and matched career-best with triples...Was among the AL leaders in runs (T6th), triples (3rd), doubles (T8th), walks (87, 9th), at bats (554, T9th), hit by pitch (10, T6th) and gam (143, T8th).

• Brady set the American League record with 34 consecutive stolen bas without being caught on June 12 at Cleveland...Ran string to 36 straight bef being caught on July 3 when he was tossed out by the Twins Matt Walbeck. was the first time he was nabbed since 5/13/94 when he was thrown out Walbeck...His record was eclipsed by Chicago's Tim Raines later in the ye and matched by Toronto's Paul Molitor.

• Finished the year with 183 stolen bases in his Oriole career, second on t Orioles all-time list, trailing only Al Bumbry's franchise record 252...In additio his 41 triples as an Oriole ranks 5th on the O's all-time list.

• Brady was the hardest to double up in the American League, groundi into three double plays on the year and only once every 184.7 at bats.

• Put together a pair of 11-game hitting streaks during the season; April 2 May 10 and August 13-August 23.

• Matched his career-high with five RBI on September 30 vs the Tigers...Fo of the five RBI came on his first career grand slam which he clubbed off Sea Bergman...The five RBI matched the most by an Oriole in a game in '95...Ripke Baines and Barberie also had five RBI efforts.

• Had the fifth two home run game of his career on September 5, the nig Cal Ripken tied Lou Gehrig's consecutive games played record...The home came off of Brian Anderson and Mike Harkey...Led off the first inning with home run three times in '95 and 11 times in his career.

• Had only 38 walks through his first 75 games of the year, however, ov his last 68 games he collected 49 walks.

• In innings 1-6, Brady batted .290 (113-390) and from the seventh innin on he batted at a .195 clip (32-164)...When swinging at the first pitch, Anderso batted .293 (12-41).

◆ 1994 ◆

Led the club in at bats (453), triples (5), stolen bases (31) and hit by pitch (10)...Led AL left fielders with a 1.000 fielding percentage...Hampered by sore knee in '93, rebounded to steal 31 bases in 32 attempts (.969), a major league record for 25 or more steals...The record was held by Max Carey of the '22 Pirates with a .962 percentage (51 of 53)...The previous record for those caught once was by Ken Griffey, Sr. who stole 23 of 24 (.958) for the '8 Reds...Over first 71 games batted .231 with seven home runs and 2 RBI...After that, batted .317 with five home runs and 27 RBI...In final 33 games, hit .307 with 25 runs, 23 RBI and 12 steals...Had a pair of career-high 13-game hitting streaks...Led off two games with home runs, April 14 at Detroit and June 20 vs. Milwaukee...Had 525 plate appearances, third in the majors behind Detroit's Tony Phillips (538) and Travis Fryman (528)...Had a team-high 12 total bases, April 26 vs. Oakland.

◆ 1993 ◆

Despite missing 15 games with the chicken pox, June 23-July 7, and sore knees that plagued him throughout the first half, led AL leadoff hitters in extra base hits (56) and RBI (62)...Made 139 starts, all but four as the O's leadoff hitter and 123 in LF, 13 in CF and three in RF...In '93, ranked fourth among AL outfielders in fielding pct. (TC-305, E-2)...Led the Orioles in eight offensive categories...His 36 doubles were tied for the eighth most in club history, most ever by an O's left-handed hitter...Also led the Orioles in runs (87, tied with Cal Ripken), stolen bases (24), hit by pitches (10), walks (82) and triples (8, tied for sixth in the AL)...Tied for the club lead in extra base hits with Chris Hoiles (57)...Batted .571 (8-14) with the bases loaded, fourth highest in the AL (was 1-for-13 with the sacks full in '92)...Was batting a season-low .211 (47-223) on June 7, but hit .297 (100-337) the final 88 games of the season...Batted .313 (52-166) in his last 42 games starting August 16...Got off to a quick start hitting .355 (22-62) after 15 games...Then between Apr 25 and June 7, he batted .155 (25-161)...Got hot again and went 18-for-53 (.340) over the next 13 games including a career-high 11 game hitting streak...Raised his average from .211 to .236 on June 22, but the next day was stricken with chicken pox...Returned July 8 and batted only .236 the rest of the month, but hit .307 (65-212) the last two months of the season....During the O's 9-1 surge, August 29-September 8, that brought them from fifth place and six GB to 1/2 GB, Brady was 15-for-38 (.395) with seven walks, six RBI and four stolen bases...Hit 11 of his 13 home runs on the road, as many road homers as he had hit in his ML career prior to '93...In a span of 12 at bats, June 13-16, he had three homers, two doubles, a triple, a single and six RBI...Hit 39 points higher on the road than at home (.281 to .242)...Saw 2816 pitches, second in the AL behind Detroit's Tony Phillips (2938).

Became the first player in AL history to reach 20 homers, 50 steals and 75 RBI in one season, the seventh in major league history...Is one of only eight in major league history with 50 steals and 20 homers:

• Made the Orioles staff out of spring training...Was up with the Orioles three different occasions during the 1995 season.

• On May 17 vs the Tigers, Benitez tossed 1.0 shutout inning in the Orioles 7-4 victory to earn his first major league save....On the year he converted two of five save opportunities.

• Appeared in a league high 19 games through June 7 when he was optioned to AAA Rochester on June 8...In his final three outings before the demotion he allowed six earned runs in four innings pitched.

• Was with the Red Wings until June 23 when he was called back to the Orioles...After his return, Armando did not yield a run through his first six appearances (5IP, 3H, 4BB, 8K).

• Earned first major league victory on July 2 at Toronto when he pitched one shutout inning, striking out all three batters he faced, in the Orioles dramatic 9-7 come from behind win.

• Touched up for five earned runs in his last four innings of work before being optioned back to Rochester on July 16...Remained with the Red Wings until being recalled again by Baltimore on August 4.

• After his final recall from AAA until the end of the season, Armando appeared in 15 games, allowing 12 hits and 12 earned runs in 18.0 innings of work...He did not pitch after September 10.

• On August 19 at Oakland he recorded a season-high five strikeouts in 2.1 innings in the Orioles 12-6 triumph...His longest outing of the year came on August 3 in Seattle when he tossed three shutout innings in the Orioles 7-1 win for his second major league save.

• With the Orioles, he limited right-handed batters to a .196 (21-107) batting average and lefties hit just .239 (16-67) against him...Overall opponents hit .213 (37-174) against him.

• With the Orioles he retired 31 of 44 first batters faced...Benitez inherited 45 baserunners, 23 of which were in scoring position, and allowed 16 to score...In addition, he surrendered eight home runs, including grand slams to Oakland's Terry Steinbach and Seattle's Edgar Martinez.

• At Rochester he limited opposing batters to a .153 batting average which would have led the league, however, he fell 8.1 innings short of qualifying.

• Struck out at least one batter in every appearance he made for Rochester and averaged 2.2 strikeouts per outing despite the fact that his average appearance was less than 1.1 innings.

• Following the season, Benitez played for Estrellas of the Dominican Winter League.

1995 SEASON SUMMARY

• As a result of his outstanding season, Rocky was the recipient of the J Palmer Prize, given annually to the top pitcher in the Orioles farm system. addition, Coppinger was named to Baseball America's 1995 Minor League Star Team...Won the organization's triple crown for pitchers, leading system in wins (16), ERA (1.97) and strikeouts (172).

• Spent time at three levels in '95...Started the year at Class A Freder before being promoted to AA Bowie and he finished the year at A Rochester...Combined at the three stops for a 16-3 record and he picked another win in the International League playoffs...The 16 regular season w was the fourth most in the minor leagues...Was also among minor leag leaders in batting average against (2nd, .191), ERA (5th, 1.97), innings pitch (5th, 187.0) and strikeouts (6th, 172).

• Started the year at Frederick where he was 7-1 with a 1.57 ERA in starts...He limited opposing hitters to a .189 average...In his final Class A sta he fanned 15 batters against Winston-Salem on May 29 before being pr moted to AA Bowie on May 31...That effort earned him Carolina Leag "Pitcher of the Week" honors.

• With the Baysox he was 6-2 with a 2.69 ERA in 13 starts, including a pa of complete game shutouts...Held opposing batters to a .188 batting averag against...Tossed a three-hit shutout at Reading in winning his AA debut and two-hit shutout vs Reading on June 24.

• On July 4 he made a spot start for AAA Rochester in Scranton...Allowe an unearned run on three hits over eight innings and left with the lead b settled for a no-decision...Promoted to Rochster from AA for a second time o August 14.

• He allowed two runs or less in all five of his regular season starts for th Red Wings...Gave up one run or fewer four times.

PRO CAREER

Signed with O's just hours before the midnight deadline (May 25) for '93 June draftees...At Bluefield, he ranked seventh in the Appalachian League in ERA (2.45) and his 88 strikeouts (in 73.1 IP) were second to league leader and teammate Carlos Chavez (92)...Was rated seventh best prospect in Appalachian League in Baseball America's end-of-season poll of managers...Averaged 11 strikeouts, six hits allowed and five walks every nine innings...Earned first pro victory on June 24 at Princeton in his second start...Pitched eight shutout innings, his longest one-game effort, on July 29, also against Princeton, and fanned 11 (walked 2)....Struck out nine three other times...His only "relief" effort was really a start... It was a game suspended after one inning on July 20, and he picked up in the second when play resumed the following evening (he took the loss).

PERSONAL/MISCELLANOUS

Single...Nicknamed "Rocky" at birth after Rocky Marciano by his dad who said "he looked all beat up and ugly" right after coming into the world, and it stuck.....Was originally drafted out of Coronado High School, but opted to pitch a year for Hillsboro Junior College where he was 11-1 with a 2.90 ERA while striking out 120 in 99.0 innings..Was named to the National Junior College All-Star Team and was also tapped as an All-Region V pitcher...Was drafted late in 1993 probably because of left knee surgery his junior year in high school and an arm problem that developed while pitching at Hillsboro JC...However, he had been projected as a second round selection in the 1994 draft after showing no effects from the knee or arm injuries, had the Orioles not beaten the deadline to sign him...Named 15th player on the "50 Young Players you should know for 1996" by Baseball Weekly.

1995 SEASON SUMMARY

• One of the Orioles top prospects, Jimmy spent the bulk of the 1995 season at AAA Rochester... Tied teammate Jimmy Williams with a league-high 12 victories and led the International League with 140 strikeouts...He was the first Red Wings pitcher to lead the league in strikeouts since Brad Havens struck out 129 in 1985.

• Ranked fifth in the IL with a 3.29 ERA and 167.0 Innings Pitched and was tied for fourth in the league with a team-high three complete games...Was third among the league's pitchers with 7.54 strikeouts per nine innings pitched.

• Was the International League's only two-time "Pitcher of the Week"...April 23-29 he went 1-0 with a 0.75 ERA in his first two starts for Rochester...August 28-September 3 he was 2-0 with a 0.00 ERA (11.1IP, 6H, 0R, 3BB, 11K).

• Allowed three earned runs or less in 22 of his 25 regular season starts and worked 7.0 or more innings in 14 of his 25 starts, including 12 of his final 18 starts.

• At the conclusion of the International League playoffs, Haynes was recalled to Baltimore on September 10...Made his major league debut on September 13 in Baltimore against Wakefield and the Red Sox...Allowed a home run to Hosey to lead off the game then settled down and allowed just three hits and one earned run over seven innings but suffered the loss as the Orioles were blanked 2-0.

• On September 18, in his second big league start, Jimmy earned his first major league victory, defeating the Tigers in Detroit, 6-2 (7.1IP, 5H, 2ER)...In that game he struck out 11 batters, the most by an Orioles rookie since Mike Boddicker struck out 14 on 10/6/83 in the ALCS and it was the most K's by an Orioles rookie in a regular season game since Boddicker recorded 12 strikeouts on 9/21/83 at Detroit.

• Won his third start, September 23 at Milwaukee in his longest ML outing, besting the Brewers and Bones, 9-3...7.2IP, 3H, 3 ER, 6 BB, 5K.

• Finished the year with a relief appearance on September 30 against the Tigers...Tossed 2.0 hitless innings and did not receive the decision in the Orioles 12-0 victory.

• In his four major league appearances, Jimmy limited opposing batters to a .136 (11-81) batting average...Right-handed hitters: .128 (6-47); left-handed hitters: .147 (5-34).

1995 SEASON SUMMARY

• Started the year at AAA Rochester...Contract was purchased by the Orioles on June 25...Had RBI single in first O's at bat on June 27, his first major league appearance since '93 with Texas...Played second base, third base and shortstop for the Orioles...With Rochester, Jeff appeared in eight games at second base and 54 at shortstop.

• Only homer in the major leagues in '95 came off Milwaukee's Ricky Bones on September 24 at County Stadium...It was Jeff's first major league home run since July 23, 1992 while with the Rangers.

• Made 41 starts for the Birds, 24 at third base and 17 at second base...He didn't go more than nine at bats without a hit with the Orioles.

• On September 30 he became the 10th player to replace Cal Ripken defensively at shortstop since the start of Ripken's consecutive games streak.

• In 55 games in which he played the field, Huson committed just one error in 149 total chances...Only miscue came on September 30 in his only appearance of the year at shortstop.

• Batted .274 (20-73) with runners on base as opposed to a .227 (20-88) average when batting with the bases empty...With runners in scoring position he hit at a .278 (10-36) clip.

PRO CAREER

◆ 1994 ◆

Spent his ninth professional season at AAA Oklahoma City, the Rangers AAA affiliate...Played 43 games at second base, 18 games at third base, four games at shortstop and 13 games in the outfield...Was batting .182 on June 6, then hit .327 the rest of the year...Hit his only home run and collected a season-high four RBI on June 11 vs New Orleans...Batted .325 (78-240) against right-handed pitchers.

◆ 1993 ◆

Was on the disabled list three different times and missed 122 games due to injury (torn right rotator cuff and broken left big toe)...The rotator cuff injury resulted from diving for a ball at Yankee Stadium on 9/4/92 and resulted in surgery in January of '93...Started the year on disabled list and wasn't activated until May 23...On June 4 he broke the toe in a collision with NY's Pat Kelly and had surgery the following day...Returned to action on July 15, however, recurring soreness in the toe put him back on the DL nine days later...Went to AAA Oklahoma City three times on rehabilitation assignments: May 24-28, July 10-15 and July 31-August 20.

◆ 1992 ◆

Batted a major league career-high .261 and set personal highs in doubles (14), home runs (4) and stolen bases with a team-high 18...Started 56 games at shortstop and 33 games at second base.

◆ 1991 ◆

Hit only .213, sixth lowest among AL players with 250 or more at bats...Started 85 games, all at shortstop...Was on disabled list, August 8-31 with a partial tear of a tendon in his left knee.

◆ 1990 ◆

Acquired by Texas from Montreal in the final week of spring training...Started 114 games for Texas, 89 at shortstop...Led AL rookies in steals (12), was second in games (145) and runs (57) and tied for third in hits (95)...Selected to Topps and Baseball Digest Major League Rookie All-Star teams...Hit .337 in his first 30 games but just .214 the rest of the year...Had the most at bats in the majors without a homer (396).

◆ 1989 ◆

Spent most of the year at AAA Indianapolis where he finished second in the American Association in batting (.304) and earned All-Star honors at shortstop...Recalled by Montreal on July 17 and appeared in 22 games for the Expos before returning to AAA on August 12...Rejoined the Expos in September... Nearly turned the second unassisted triple play in the minors since 1927 on September 27 vs the Cubs...With Lloyd McClendon at second and Vance Law at first, Domingo Ramos hit a line drive to Huson at shortstop on a hit and run...He stepped on second for the second out, but, instead of tagging who was standing beside him on the bag, threw to first base to complete triple play.

◆ 1988 ◆

Was the Southern League All-Star shortstop and the league's stolen leader (56) at Jacksonville...Joined Montreal on September 1 and mad major league debut the following night...Had a pinch-hit single off Pittsbu Doug Drabek for his first big league hit September 7...Started 11 games fo Expos.

◆ 1987 ◆

Struck out only once every 17.3 at bats for the fourth best ratio in the Flo State League...Stole 33 bases in 42 attempts.

◆ 1986 ◆

Hit 16 home runs for Burlington of the Midwest League...Had an 84% succe rate in stealing bases (32-for-38)...Reached base safely 210 times for a .3 on-base percentage.

• Missed scheduled start on September 3 vs the Cubs due to a strained left triceps muscle and left the September 13 game at Colorado after reinjuring the same muscle.

• His five RBI represented a career-high...Had a career total of four entering the season. • Matched his career-high with 10 strikeouts in a loss to the Dodgers on June 1 in Atlanta.

• Had a July ERA of 2.17 in five games as he yielded only seven earned in 29.0 innings pitched.

• Set career-high with 143.0 innings pitched...The Braves were 16-10 in 26 starting assignments.

• Had a 3.09 ERA in 12 road games and he limited left-handed batters a .213 batting average (16-75)...Over the last five years, lefties own a .215 353) average against him.

• Appeared in two games in the post-season, one in the Division Series against Colorado and one in the World Series against Cleveland...Combined to pitch two innings, allowing one hit and one earned run.

◆ 1994 ◆

Broke into the Braves starting rotation with a bang, pitching the third no-hitter in Atlanta history as he blanked the Dodgers 6-0 in Los Angeles on April 8...The gem occurred in just his 12th big league start (see box below)...As a result he was honored as National League "Player of the Week" for April 4-10...Set career-highs in most pitching categories including wins (9), innings pitched (112.1) and strikeouts (111)...Went 6-3 with a 2.91 ERA in his last 15 starts... Of the 46 runs scored off Mercker in '94, 16 came in the sixth inning (35%)...Before his start on August 7 against the Reds, he had gone 15 consecutive starts, dating back to August of '93, without allowing a run in the first inning...Mercker was just 1.2 innings short of qualifying for being tied for second in the NL in opponents batting average against (.220)...Ended the season eighth in the senior circuit with a .692 winning percentage...The Braves scored 77 runs in his 17 starts (4.5 runs per start) and just five runs in his four defeats.

MERCKER'S NO-HITTER

On April 8, 1994 at Los Angeles, Kent Mercker tossed the third no-hitter in Atlanta history...The masterpiece came in his 12th big league start...The last NL starter to toss a no-hitter more quickly was Burt Hooton, who did it in his fourth ML start for the Cubs in 1972...It was the second no-hitter that Mercker had been involved in as he combined with Mark Wohlers and Alejandro Pena to no-hit the Padres on 9/11/91...The 4/8/94 no-hitter was Mercker's first career complete game and shutout...Became just the 18th left-handed pitcher in the NL since 1876 to pitch a no-hitter and only the second Braves lefty to accomplish the feat...Warren Spahn pitched no-hitters in 1960 and '61...Mercker retired the last 11 batters he faced and did not walk a batter after the 6th inning...Phil Niekro is the only other Atlanta pitcher to throw an individual no-hitter (8/5/73 vs SD)...It was the 13th individual no-hitter in Braves franchise history.

◆ 1993 ◆

Helped the Braves both out of the bullpen and as a spot fifth starter...Served as a reliever in his first 31 games through July 24, going 2-0 with a 2.5 ERA...Made six starts between July 29 and September 15, including six no-hit innings vs San Diego on September 9...The Braves were 4-2 in his six starts...Lefties batted only .200 (14-70) against him...Allowed only seven of 28 inherited runners to score and retired 28 of 31 first batters faced... Was 0-for-2 in save opportunities...POST SEASON: In the post-season, Kent led the staff by entering five of the six NLCS games out of the bullpen, compiling a 1.3 ERA...Pitched two scoreless innings and struck out two in Game One of the NLCS.

◆ 1992 ◆

Enjoyed longest shutout string by a Braves reliever, working 25.0 scoreless frames over 22 games from May 23 to July 27...Had longest outing by a Braves reliever, four innings pitched, in Atlanta's 4-3, 16-inning loss at Pittsburgh on May 6...Held opponents to a .207 batting average...Sidelined September 10-29 with a sore right ribcage...Allowed nine of 22 inherited runners to score and retired 37 of 44 first batters faced...Was 6-for-10 in save opportunities... POST SEASON: In the post-season he tossed 3.0 scoreless innings in two NLCS games...Sustained a rib injury following Game 7 of the playoffs and was replaced on the World Series roster by David Nied.

◆ 1991 ◆

Appeared in 46 games in relief for Atlanta, posting a 4-3 record with four saves and a 2.50 ERA...Came out of the pen to fill fifth starter's role four times in September...As a starter he won his only decision and had a 2.79 ERA...Entered the history books with Mark Wohlers and Alejandro Pena on September 11 when the three combined for a no-hitter over the Padres...Represented the first combined no-hitter in NL history and the Braves first no-hitter since Phil Niekro over San Diego in '73...Placed on the 15-day disabled list on August 9 with a strained muscle on his right side...After he returned from the DL he did not allow a run in his final five relief appearances of the year...Was 6-for-8 in save opportunities...POST SEASON: In the post-season, Kent suffered the loss in his only NLCS appearance in Game 4...In Game 3 of the World Series he did not allow a run in the 12th inning after inheriting a first and third with one out situation and the score tied 4-4...He struck out the only batter he faced, Kent Hrbek.

◆ 1990 ◆

Started the year at AAA Richmond before being called up by the Braves on June 28... Earned first major league win on July 7 vs the Mets and nailed down first big league save July 17 vs the Phillies...Allowed just six earned runs in his first 28 innings of work for a 1.93 ERA...Reeled off four saves in five appearances, August 22-September 4 and overall was 7-for-10 in save opportunities.

◆ 1989 ◆

Voted second best prospect and top pitcher in the International League after impressive first season at AAA Richmond...Led the IL with 144 strikeouts and allowed only 107 hits in 168.2 innings...Named to AAA All-Star squad...Called up by the Braves on September 6 and made his major league debut on September 22 vs Cincinnati.

◆ 1988 ◆

Shared "Pitcher of the Year" honors in the Carolina League where he was 11-4 with a 2.68 ERA for Class A Durham...Named to the CL All-Star team...His 159 strikeouts were third and his six complete games were T6th in the league...Won the second annual Phil Niekro Award as the outstanding pitcher in the Braves minor league system.

◆ 1987 ◆

Missed most of the season after injuring his elbow in April and undergoing surgery in May...Made just three starts for Durham.

◆ 1986 ◆

Started professional career with Bradenton in the Florida State League...Was T2nd on the team with four wins and posted a 2.47 ERA in nine games (8 starts).

ORIOLE ADVOCATES

The Oriole Advocates, Inc is a unique non-profit organization, dedicated to promoting and stimulating interest in the game of baseball at both the amateur and professional levels. Founded in July 1960, the Advocates will celebrate their 36th anniversary this summer.

Membership comprises some 75 men and women, drawn from a broad cross-section in the Baltimore area.

Through the years, the Advocates have made substantial financial donations to worthy causes, primarily to baseball-oriented youth organizations; have played a key role in the restoration of Babe Ruth's birthplace at 216 Emory Street and its conversion into the Babe Ruth/Orioles Museum; and in '77, established the Orioles Hall of Fame.

The organization has also served as an essential right arm to the Orioles' Public Relations and Marketing Departments. In that connection, the Advocates initiated the popular Junior Orioles program (low cost tickets for kids) back in '63, then administered it for 25 years. Membership in that program rose from 75 youngsters the first year to a record 20,000 in '77.

The Oriole Advocates don't get paid for anything they do. They are all volunteers, constantly demonstrating the importance of competence and dedication whenever there is a job to be done.

1996 Officers: President--Robert Blatchley...First Vice President--Blaine Baer...Second Vice President--Charles Bragg...Treasurer--Joseph N. Karey...Secretary--Allan Blumberg...Immediate Past President--Bruce Birkhead...Board Members: J. Thomas Hessenauer, Ray N. Weinstein, and Michael A. Yobbagy.

1995 SEASON SUMMARY

• The Orioles ace tied Greg Maddux for the major league lead with a career-high 19 victories...He was also among the AL Top 5 in shutouts (1st, 4), fewest baserunners per nine innings pitched (T1st, 9.66), innings pitched (2nd, 221.2), opponents batting average against (3rd, .226), starts (T2nd, 32), complete games (T2nd, 7) and ERA (4th, 3.29).

• Left-handed hitters batted just .210 (102-486) against Mussina, the best average against left-handers in the league...In addition, he averaged 3.16 strikeouts for every walk allowed, the second best K/walk ratio in the league, behind Seattle's Randy Johnson and his on-base percentage allowed was .270, second lowest to Johnson's .266.

• Mike enters the '96 season with the highest Winning Percentage among active major leaguers at .703 (71-30)...His percentage tops the Orioles all-time list (min. 50 decisions)...Steve Stone is second at .656 (40-21) and Jim Palmer third at .638 (268-152).

Winning Percentage Among Active Major Leaguers

Mike Mussina	71-30	.703
Roger Clemens	182-98	.650
David Cone	129-78	.623
Jimmy Key	152-93	.620
Greg Maddux	150-93	.617

• In career leaders among active major league pitchers, Mussina is second in baserunners per nine innings pitched (10.21) to St. Louis' Henke (9.93), sixth in walks per nine innings pitched (2.06), eighth in strikeout to walk ratio (2.71) and T11th in ERA (3.22).

• On the year, opposing baserunners stole four bases with Mussina on the hill, but were caught stealing six times...The 40% success rate was the third lowest among AL pitchers...In his career, 58 runners have tried to steal but only 27 have been successful (47%).

• Through his first 11 starts of the year he was 5-5 with a 5.13 ERA (66.2IP, 61H, 38ER) and 15 home runs allowed...Over his final 21 starts he was 14-4 with a 2.50 ERA (155IP, 126H, 43ER) and nine home runs allowed.

• Compiled a career-best eight-game winning streak over nine starts, June 23 through August 2...During that stretch he had a 3.06 ERA (61.2IP, 53H, 21ER, 16BB, 47K)...In the midst of the streak he suffered through the shortest outing of his career but did not receive the decision in the Orioles 9-8 loss vs Kansas City on July 13 when he allowed six earned runs on six hits in 2/3 of an inning.

• Had a string of 24.0 consecutive innings without a walk spanning from the last two innings of his April 26 start through the first three frames of his May 18 start...Did not record a strikeout in three of his 32 starts...In his career, Mike has recorded at least one strikeout in 120 of 125 starts.

• On May 13 he defeated Mark Clark and the Indians 6-1 at Oriole Park with a complete game three-hitter...It was the first complete game of the year in the American League...9.0 IP, 3H, 1ER, 0BB, 5K.

• On July 3, Mike defeated the Twins at Oriole Park and recorded 10 strikeouts in seven innings...It marked the fourth time in his career that he struck out 10 or more in a game...On August 27 at California he tossed a complete game shutout and struck out a season-high 11 batters for his fifth career start with 10+ Ks.

• At Oriole Park at Camden Yards, Mussina was 11-3 with a 3.38 ERA in 17 starts with 4 CG (117IP, 101H, 44ER)...He is the winningest pitcher at Oriole Park at 31-12 with a 3.56 ERA (399.1IP, 158ER).

• Workhorse: Mussina pitched at least five innings in 28 of 32 starts in '95 (88%)...He tossed six or more innings in 26 of 32 starts (81%) and seven or more frames in 22 of 32 assignments (69%)...In 125 major league starts: five or more innings: 115 (92%); six or more innings: 109 (87%); seven or more innings: 87 (70%).

• On the road he went 8-6 in 15 starts with a 3.18 ERA (104.2IP, 86H, 37ER)...Over the last five years he has the sixth best road ERA in baseball at 2.97 (452IP, 149ER) behind Greg Maddux (2.22), Jose Rijo (2.39), Jeff Fassero (2.66), David Cone (2.84) and Roger Clemens (2.86).

• From the seventh inning on, opponents batted just .226 (38-168) against Mike...In his career, the opposition owns a .227 (153-674) average after the sixth inning....With runners in scoring position in '95 he held opponents to a .212 average (31-146) and with runners in scoring position and two out he limited batters to a .208 average (16-77)...With runners on base, his .230 (62-270) average against was 7th best in baseball.

• In August, Mike went just 3-2 despite a 1.15 ERA (47IP, 6ER)...His August

ERA was the lowest in baseball ahead of next best Tom Glavine's 1.45...On August 2 at Oriole Park he threw a four-hit, 1-0 shutout over Toronto...In the game, the Orioles had just one hit, a solo home run by Harold Baines off Paul Menhart...It marked the first time the O's won a game in which they had just one hit since 5/18/83 when Dan Ford's homer beat the White Sox...It was Mussina's first shutout since 5/5/93.

• Put together a string of 26.0 consecutive scoreless innings, September 2 through October 1 as he ended the season with three straight complete game victories...It was the second longest consecutive scoreless innings string in the league behind Kenny Rogers' 39.0.

• Named as the right-handed pitcher on The Sporting News AL All-Star Team and the right-hander on the USA Today Baseball Weekly American League "Best of '95."

• Finished fifth in the American League in the Cy Young balloting behind Randy Johnson, Jose Mesa, Tim Wakefield and David Cone.

◆ 1994 ◆

Finished in a four- way, second-place tie for most wins in the majors (16), behind the Yankees' Jimmy Key (17), along with David Cone, Ken Hill and Greg Maddux...He an McDonald combined for 30 wins in the abbreviated season, most by a pair of major league teammates...Tied the Orioles record for most wins at the All-Star break with 13...Jim Palmer, Dave McNally and Mike Cuellar each did it twice...Palmer was the last to accomplish the feat at the break in '75...Steve Stone, who holds the club record for most wins in a season (25), had 12 at the break that season...Went 7-1 to start the season and 7-1 at the end...Nine of his 16 victories followed Orioles losses...Ranked fourth in the AL in ERA (3.06), fifth in innings pitched (176.1) and had the league's fourth lowest baserunner per nine innings pitched ratio (10.51)...Threw five home run balls on July 1 vs California to join Jim Palmer in the Orioles record book...On the road, Mike was 8-1 with a league best 2.04 ERA...Held batters to a .221 (28-127) average from the seventh inning on...Only seven of 103 baserunners attempting to steal were successful against him...ALL-STAR: Became the first Oriole ever to be chosen for the All-Star team in each of his first three full seasons...Prior to '94 selection, Mussina and O's coach Andy Etchebarren held the distinction of being the only O's ever chosen in their first two full seasons.

◆ 1993 ◆

Reached 36 major league wins in 69 games; only two pitchers have reached 36 wins with the Orioles in less time and neither were original Orioles...Mike Cuellar had 36 wins in his first 63 games with the Birds in '69-'70 after coming over to the Orioles from Houston prior to the '69 season...Steve Stone earned 36 wins in 68 games with the Orioles in '79-'80 after coming over to the Orioles from the White Sox prior to the '79 season...COMPARING NUMBERS: Only six other active pitchers had a better record than Mussina at this point in their career (69 starts)...They are: Dwight Gooden (43-13); Juan Guzman (33-10); Roger Clemens (40-14); David Cone (34-14); Orel Hershiser (33-14) and Ramon Martinez (37-16)...Was one of only three active pitchers to go eight games over .500 in each of his first two full seasons in the majors joining Dwight Gooden and Mike Boddicker...In addition, in his first two full seasons combined Mussina has: thrown a total six shutouts, tied with Roger Clemens for the most in the AL; averaged 2.04 walks per nine innings, second best among AL starters over that period behind Jimmy Key (2.03); allowed 10.39 base runners per nine innings, second best among AL starters behind KC's Kevin Appier (10.11)...Worked five or more innings 48 out of his first 50 major league starts...No one in Orioles history had ever done that...And in fact, the last pitcher we can find in the major leagues who started his career in such a consistent fashion is Fernando Valenzuela, who over '81 and '82 worked five or more innings in his first 60 major league starts...Finished with the seventh best winning percentage in the AL (14-6, .700)...Missed six weeks during the season with a sore right shoulder and lower back pain...Was on the disabled list, June 22-August 19, with the shoulder injury...Still led the club in wins for the second straight year...Returned from DL August 20 and was 3-2 (IP-40.1, H-38, ER-20) in six starts before the return of soreness in his shoulder and back sidelined him in mid-September...K KING: On May 16 at Detroit, he tied a club record with 14 strikeouts, a mark that was last accomplished in a regular season game more than 35 years ago (Connie Johnson, September 2, '57 vs. NY)...Bob Turley (April 21,'54 vs. Cle.) and Mike Boddicker (October 6, '83 vs. Chi. in the ALCS) also have a share of the record...In his 8-2 win at California on August 31 he struck out six straight batters in the fourth and fifth innings, one shy of the club record of seven by Sammy Stewart in '78.

◆ 1992 ◆

Finished fourth in the AL Cy Young voting with 26 points (2 first place votes) behind Dennis Eckersley (107), fellow Stanford alum Jack McDowell (51), and Roger Clemens (48) and just ahead of Jack Morris (10)...It was the most points by an Oriole in the Cy Young voting since Mike Boddicker in '84 (41)...His .783 winning percentage led the majors and was fourth best in club history behind Dave McNally (.808, 21-5 in 1971); Jim Palmer (.800, 16-4, in 1969) and Wally Bunker (.792, 19-5 in 1964)...At 23, became the O's youngest 18-game winner since 19-year-old Wally Bunker won 19 games in 1964...The only other Oriole to win that many games at a younger age are Steve Barber and Chuck Estrada, who both won 18 games as 22-year-olds in 1961 and 1960 respectively...His 2.54 ERA was third best in the AL and the lowest by an Oriole (excluding abbreviated '81 season) since Jim Palmer in 1978 (2.46)...The last time an AL pitcher Mike's age or younger posted an ERA that low was in 1976 when Mark Fidrych (2.34) and Frank Tanana (2.43) did it at 22 and 23 respectively...Led the O's in innings pitched (241.0) and was eighth in the AL...His inning total was more than any Oriole since Mike Boddicker's 261 in '84, despite missing a couple of starts, May 21-June 1, with a flu-like stomach ailment...Pitched into the seventh inning or later in 26 of 31 starts and into the eighth or later 21 times...Allowed two runs or less in 20 of 32 starts and one run or less 14 times...Averaged 7.2 innings per start, fourth best in the AL...Began the season 5-0 and finished the year with a seven-game win streak over his last nine starts (1.88, IP-72, H-60, ER-15)...Tied for second in the AL in shutouts (4) with Seattle's Dave Fleming behind Roger Clemens (5), and the most by an Oriole since Mike Boddicker (4) in 1984..Was seventh in the AL with eight complete games, most by an Oriole since Mike Boddicker (9) in 1985...The O's entire pitching staff had only eight in 1991...Led the AL with three complete games in September, all consecutively, September 11-15 -21, the first Oriole with three straight complete games since Scott McGregor in 1985...In his first start after the All-Star break, July 17 at Texas, pitched the 29th one-hitter in club history, winning 8-0 with 10 strikeouts over 20-game winner Kevin Brown...Kevin Reimer broke up the no-hit bid with a one-out double in the fifth, a ball that landed six inches inside the right field foul line...At 23 years-eight months became the youngest Oriole pitcher to make the All-Star team since Chuck Estrada (22) in '60.

◆ 1991 ◆

Joined the Orioles on July 31 and became the O's most effective starter over the last two months...Finished with the lowest ERA (2.87) among the 29 major league rookies with 10 or more starts...Posted the AL's second best ERA after September 1 (1.66), second only to Oakland's Mike Moore (1.46)... After September 1, Mussina allowed two runs or less in all six starts (1.66, IP-48.2, H-36, ER-9), but was only 2-1...Fanned 10 batters in his first ML win, 10-2, at home over Texas on August 14...On September 16, he beat the Red Sox, 9-2, the O's only complete game at Boston since Mike Boddicker in '86...Lost 1-0 in his ML debut at Chicago on August 4 (IP-7.2, H-4, ER-1, BB-4, SO-1) on a homer by Frank Thomas...On September 22 at Cleveland, he took a 1-0 lead into the ninth inning, but lost 2-1 (IP-8.1, H-7, R/ER-2, BB-0, SO-3)... ROCHESTER: When promoted from AAA Rochester on July 31, was tied for the International League lead in wins (10), second in ERA (2.87) and second in strikeouts (107)...Was the winner of the first Palmer Prize as the top pitcher in the O's minor league system.

NO. 1 PICK: Signed with the Orioles July 2, '90 after he was taken in the first round in the June 4 draft...Made his official debut July 19 for AA Hagerstown vs Canton-Akron (Indians) at Canton's Thurman Munson Memorial Stadium before 6,752...Worked four scoreless innings pitching against Cleveland's

John Farrell, who was on a rehab assignment...Hagerstown-Rochester: In pro starts that season, including two in post-season for Rochester, he allowed more than two earned runs only once...Walked only eight batters in his last 63.1 innings, none in 14.2 post-season innings for Rochester...Earned his first pro win on July 31, when he beat New Britain, 7-0, with seven shutout innings while pitching for Hagerstown...In his last five regular season starts (3 at Hagerstown and two at Rochester), he allowed only three earned runs in 30 innings.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

Single...Spent time this off-season as a basketball coach at his alma mater Montoursville (PA) High School...Earned degree in economics from Stanford in December '90...Finished in only three years...Enjoys Stephen King novels...Signed a national letter of intent to attend Stanford, but O's picked him in the 11th round of the June '87 draft anyway...He did not sign...COLLEGE: In '90, was 14-5 with a 3.35 ERA (G/GS-20, IP-149, SO-111, BB-35), as a junior at Stanford...Tied the school record for most wins in a season, shared with former Oriole Jeff Ballard (won 14 in '85)...Tied for seventh in the nation in wins and sixth in innings pitched...Helped the Cardinal to a 59-12 record and a No. 3 ranking...Finished with a 25-12 career record, tied for the sixth most wins in Stanford history...Worked 328.1 career innings, fifth in school history...Strained tendon in right elbow limited him to only 45.2 innings in '89...Was 9-4 as a freshman in '88 on Stanford's national championship team...All nine of his wins came against nationally ranked teams...Attended Montoursville (PA) High School and was named the '86 and '87 Pennsylvania Baseball Player of the Year, where he compiled a 24-4 career record with a 0.87 ERA...He was 7-0 and batted .416 as a senior and was 8-1 with a .371 batting mark as a junior...Also offered scholarships in football to Penn State after kicking 60-yard field goal in football camp at PSU...Played wide receiver, defensive back and placekicker at Montoursville...Set county career records for field goals (18), extra points (84), and touchdown receptions (14)...Was All-Conference in football as a defensive back, kicker, and punter...Averaged 24 points per game during 3-year career as a point guard.

1995 SEASON SUMMARY

• At AAA Rochester, Jimmy tied for third in the International League with [illegible] appearances, most by a Red Wings pitcher since '93 when Mike Cook made 57 appearances...Over the last six seasons, since he became primarily a reliever, Myers has averaged 57 games per year.

• In his first 13 appearances through May 5, Myers had five saves and a [illegible] ERA (12.1IP, 1ER)...In 42 games the rest of the way he was 0-4 with on[illegible] and a 3.61 ERA (52.1IP, 21ER).

• Did not allow a home run in his first 47 games, but was touched up for a pair of homers in his last eight outings.

• Was called up to the Orioles on June 23, but did not appear in a game before being optioned back to Rochester on June 28...At the time of his recall he was 0-1 with six saves and a 1.44 ERA in 29 games...After returning to the minors he went 0-3 with no saves and a 4.59 ERA in 26 appearances.

• In the International League East Championship Series against Ottawa, Myers made three outings and recorded a save and a 5.40 ERA (3.1IP, 2ER, 1BB, 0K).

1995 SEASON SUMMARY

• Led the National League in saves for the second time in his career (1 53 saves), going 38-for-44 in save situations...Randy was second in the ma in saves behind Cleveland's Jose Mesa (46) and he was 10th in the NL w 47 games finished.

• Myers closed out the season with 243 career saves, 11th most in base history and he enters the '96 season just one save behind Dan Quisenber 10th place on the all-time list...In addition, his save total is third highest amo left-handers behind John Franco (295) and Dave Righetti (252).

• Randy placed second in the Rolaids Relief Man NL standings with points, trailing only St. Louis' Tom Henke who registered 104 points...It marke the fourth straight year that he finished in the top 10 of the NL Rolaid standings.

• In three seasons with the Cubs he earned 112 saves in opportunities...He was one of only three Cubs relievers to notch 100+ save (Lee Smith-180 and Bruce Sutter-133) and Myers reached the century mar in his 148th Cubs appearance while it took Smith until his 305th outing an Sutter until his 224th appearance in a Cubs uniform.

• Randy is one of two major leaguers to enjoy 30-save seasons with fo different clubs (Mets Padres, Reds, Cubs)...Randy did it in '93 with th Cubs...Lee Smith matched the feat in 1995 (California, Baltimore, Cubs Cardinals).

• Was selected to the National League All-Star team for the third time duri his career (1990, 1994)...In the Mid-Summer Classic, played July 11 at The Ballpark in Arlington (TX), he earned the save in the NL's 3-2 win by pitchin a scoreless ninth inning.

• He allowed 10 of 37 inherited runners to score and he retired 40 of 57 fin batters faced...His longest outing of the year was two innings which he reached three times in '95.

• Randy struck out 59 batters in 55.2 innings of work...During his major league career he averaged more than one strikeout for every inning pitched (713 Ks, 709.2 innings)...Over an eight appearance stretch, September 10-27, he struck out 15 batters in 7.2 innings and recorded six saves...On September 19 he celebrated his 33rd birthday by recording four Ks in 1.1 innings and picking up a save.

• On September 1 at Atlanta, Myers went to the plate for the only time in hi and drew a bases loaded walk off Greg McMichael...In his career, he is 11-for-59 while batting (.186) with three doubles and seven RBI.

PRO CAREER

◆ 1994 ◆

For only the second time since his rookie season in '79, failed to record a save...Was 0-for-3 in save situations...Longest outing was 2.2 innings on April 22, with 13 of his 40 appearances lasting less than one inning....Allowed only seven of 33 inherited runners to score (21 percent)...Did not allow any of nine inherited runners to score after All-Star break...Went 2-0 with a 3.00 ERA in nine games after the All-Star break (6 IP, 3 H, 2 R-ER, 3 BB, 5 SO, 0 HR)...From June 28 thru August 2, had a nine-game stretch in which only one of nine inherited runners scored (5.2 IP, 3 H, 2 R, 1 ER, 1 BB, 5 SO, 1 HR)...Opponents hit only .222 off him...That ranked 10th among 51 AL relievers who pitched at least as many innings (39)...Was winning pitcher in Brewers last game before the strike, pitching one inning of 10-5 victory at Detroit...For third year in a row, held right-handed batters in check better than lefties...Right-handers hit only .195 (87-17) off him, while lefties batted .263 (57-15).

Began season as a set-up man and finished as the Brewers closer (57 G, 3-5, 3.18 ERA, 8 Saves)...His eight saves were the most he had since 1988 when he had nine for the Dodgers...Topped the club in appearances (57) and opponents batting average (.224) and ranked second in saves...Had a 28% (11-40) success rate for inherited runners...Averaged one inning per appearance, with his longest outing being three innings vs Oakland on August 24

(game 2)...Pitched more than one inning 15 times (26%) and less than inning 24 times (42 %)... Did an outstanding job on the road (28 G, 3-1, ERA, 3 SV)... Had a 1.29 ERA in 10 August games and a 2.51 ERA in September appearances... After going 0-2 with a 5.18 ERA and one save games before the break, went 3-3 with a 1.67 ERA with seven saves in games after...Was 0-2 with a season high 7.50 ERA in his first 10 games through May 5... Compiled a 1.69 ERA (3 ER in 16 IP) in 17 games from May 8 through June 24... Went 1-0 and did not allow an earned run in eight appearances over seven games from July 11 through August 6...Tied his career high five strikeouts in a game twice in the same week, August 24 vs Oakland and August 27 vs California, both in second games of doubleheaders...Had a inning scoreless streak from August 18 thru September 24 to reach a low 2.68 ERA through 54 games...Went 2-3 with a 2.16 ERA and six saves in nine chances over his final 19 games after August 11.

A key member of the Brewers league-leading bullpen (59 G, 3-1, 3.23 ERA, SV)... Ranked second on club in appearances (59) and inherited runners (22%, 14-64) and third in games finished (14)... Earned his only save on 23 at New York, his first save since May 6, 1990 vs Texas.

◆ 1991 ◆

Ranked third on the Cleveland staff in appearances (47), but fell three games shy of becoming only the third reliever in history with 50 appearances in consecutive seasons, behind Ron Perranoski (1961-1970) and Lee Smith (1982-1991)...Had his lowest season totals since making the big leagues good in 1982...Held foes to a .130 batting average after two strikes.

◆ 1990 ◆

Ranked second on the team in saves, games and gamed finished...Non consecutive season with 50-or-more appearances... Matched his career high for strikeouts in a game (5) on September 21 at Toronto, reaching it for the time since May 15, 1985.

◆ 1989 ◆

Led Cleveland with a career high 69 appearances, sixth in the AL...Topped Tribe relievers with a .198 opponents average and a 2.08 ERA, lowest ERA by an Indians reliever since Vincente Romo (1.62) in 1968...Fanned 79 in 70 innings pitched, including 33 in his last 26 innings...Earned his first AL save May 22 at Detroit...First AL victory came on July 14 vs Detroit.

◆ 1988 ◆

Had lowest save total since 1982 as he shared a stopper role on the World Champion Dodgers with Jay Howell and Alejandro Pena...Signed as a free agent with the Indians on December 6.

◆ 1987 ◆

Saved his 100th game on May 26, becoming the 1st Met in history to reach the figure...Had sixth highest Rolaids Relief Man point total in five-year stretch from 1983-1987.

◆ 1986 ◆

Became Mets all-time save leader, passing Tug McGraw...Both he and Roger McDowell posted 20-plus save seasons, marking first time in Mets history the club had produced two 20-save pitchers in the same year...Tied for ninth in NL with 21 saves...In July 22 game vs Cincinnati, he flip-flopped with McDowell during the last five innings, pitching and playing left and right field, the first time a Mets pitcher took a defensive position in the field... Had one putout in the game...Was 3-0 with 2 saves and a 1.98 ERA in eight post-season games...Became the first pitcher in LCS history to post three wins in a single series, including the pennant clincher in Game 6 at Houston...Also saved Game 7 of World Series.

◆ 1985 ◆

Tied Roger McDowell for club lead with 17 saves, tied for ninth in the NL...Only teammates in majors to have 15 or more each...Had string of six consecutive strikeouts in back-to-back outings April 16-17 at Pittsburgh...Tied career best with five strikeouts, May 15 at Houston.

◆ 1984 ◆

Established Mets record with career high 31 saves in 38 opportunities, finishing third in NL...Tied for second in NL with 10 relief wins...Named to NL All-Star squad for the second straight year...Had a major league high 85 strikeouts in relief.

◆ 1983 ◆

Set career highs in innings (110.0), wins (13), and ERA (1.47)...Named to the All-Star Team...NL "Player of the Month" for August...Finished third in NL Cy Young Award balloting and Rolaids Relief Man of the Year competition...Led NL with 13 relief wins...Tossed career high 27.2 consecutive scoreless innings July 22-August 24...Had a career-high nine-game winning streak July 22 thru September 5, one short of Tom Seaver's 1969 club record.

◆ 1982 ◆

Led Mets staff in games (54) and ERA (2.72 ERA)...Made final two ML starts of his career.

◆ 1981 ◆

Joined the Mets on September 11...Recorded 1st major league save on September 18 vs. St. Louis....Went to the bullpen the final 36 games at AAA Tidewater, going 5-3 with 8 saves and a 0.81 ERA.

◆ 1980 ◆

In 1980 struck out 85 batters in 71 innings at Jackson of the Texas League (AA).

◆ 1979 ◆

Made the jump from rookie ball to the Mets by not allowing a run in six spring exhibitions...Gained first big league win April 22 at Philadelphia, beating Steve Carlton...Assigned to Tidewater of International League on June 17.

◆ 1978 ◆

Signed with Twins and led Appalachian League in games finished and was fourth in saves...Traded after season to Mets with pitcher Greg Field for pitcher Jerry Koosman.

1995 SEASON SUMMARY

• Clubbed a career-high 39 home runs enroute to being named the winner of the 1995 Louis M. Hatter Most Valuable Oriole Award, presented by the Sports Boosters of Maryland and voted on by writers and broadcasters who regularly cover the Orioles...Rafael was the 26th different player to win the award which has been presented annually since 1954.

• Named first baseman on USA Today Baseball Weekly's American League "Best of '95" team, along with teammate Mike Mussina who was the right-handed pitcher on the magazine's squad.

• His 39 home runs is tied for the third most ever by an Oriole and marked the first by a Bird since Frank Robinson set the club record with 49 home runs in 1966...His 21 HR at Oriole Park at Camden Yards set a club record beating Brady Anderson's former Camden Yards record of 15 in 1992.

• His 145 home runs over the last five years is the fourth most among left-handed hitters in the majors trailing Barry Bonds (175), Fred McGriff (164) and Ken Griffey, Jr. (151).

• Homered in a career-high four consecutive games, July 16-19...Had four two home run games on the year giving him 13 in his career...First eight home runs of the year came with men on base, but 21 of his last 31 homers were solo shots.

• Led the Orioles in Home Runs, RBI (104) and Hits (172)...He was among the league leaders in home runs (T4th), RBI (10th), hits (9th), total bases (2nd, 323), slugging percentage (5th, .583), extra base hits (T3rd, 71), at bats (T9th, 554) and games played (T8th, 143)...In addition, Palmeiro had the sixth best home run ratio in the league, clubbing a home run every 14-2 at bats.

• Batted better than .300 for the second straight year and the fifth time in his major league career...His .310 average was tied for ninth highest in Oriole history.

• Compiled a .997 fielding percentage in 142 games at first base, making just four errors in 1304 total chances...Led all AL first basemen with 119 assists.

• Put together an 11-game hitting streak and three nine-game hitting streaks on the year...The 11-game streak came August 22 through September 2...After the All-Star break, Palmeiro hit safely in 62 of 76 games and in the season's second half he hit .334 (97-290) with 24 HR and 57 RBI in 76 games.

• Among active major leaguers, Rafael is T16th with a .300 career average and T24th with a .491 career slugging percentage.

• At Oriole Park at Camden Yards he batted .336 (89-265) with 21 home... and 58 RBI and away from home he hit .287 (83-289) with 18 home runs ... 46 RBI...Preferred playing at night...Under the lights he hit .322 (130-4... 103 games with 33 home runs and 78 RBI...During the day he hit .280 (43-... in 40 games with six home runs and 26 RBI.

MOST VALUABLE ORIOLES, '54-'95

First baseman Rafael Palmeiro was voted the winner of the 1995 Louis M. Hatter Most Valuable Oriole Award, presented annually by the Sports Boosters of Maryland, Inc. Palmeiro, in his second year with the club, batted .310 with 104 RBI and a career high 39 home runs. The 39 homers matches the third highest total ever by an Oriole player.

Palmeiro is the 26th different player to win the award, which has been given annually since 1954. He is the fifth different first baseman, joining Jim Gentile, Boog Powell, Lee May, and Eddie Murray.

The Sports Boosters initiated the MVO trophy in '54, when the O's returned to Baltimore...Several years ago, they renamed the award in memory of the late Hatter, the distinguished and lovable "dean" of Baltimore baseball writers who spent 27 years writing Orioles baseball for the Sun.

The award-winner is selected in a vote of writers and broadcasters who cover the Orioles on a regular basis...Point values are 5-3-1.

Winners by position: Outfielders-14; first basemen-12; pitchers-8; 3rd basemen-4; shortstops-3; catcher-2 and 2nd baseman-once.

There was no MVO award in 1994.

1995 SEASON SUMMARY

• Spent most of the season at Class A High Desert of the California League...Was 7-6 in 21 appearances (20 starts) despite a 3.23 ERA, sixth best in the league.

• Promoted to AA Bowie on August 13 and made his AA debut that night against New Haven...Worked seven innings in the Baysox 5-0 victory...Allowed three hits, walked five and struck out four.

• In his second start for Bowie he pitched seven more shutout innings at Canton-Akron, but did not receive the decision...In his 14.0 innings in the Eastern League, Billy allowed only one runner to reach third base and that came as a result of a pair of errors.

• Season ended prematurely when he was placed on the disabled list on August 21 with soreness in his right elbow...On September 19 in Baltimore he underwent surgery to remove bone spurs.

◆ 1994 ◆

In his first full professional season, Billy led Class A Albany in wins (13), starts (28), complete games (3), shutouts (2), innings pitched (169.1) and strikeouts (132)...Averaged better than six innings per start...Pitched seven or more innings 11 times...Hurled two three-hitters, one of which was a nine-inning three-hitter on June 12 vs Macon...Recorded 10 strikeouts and seven walks, both season highs, vs Capital City on April 18...Averaged nearly five walks and just over seven strikeouts per nine innings pitched...Following the season he pitched for Escogido in the Dominican winter league.

◆ 1993 ◆

Despite going 1-0 in his first three starts for Bluefield, he made three solid efforts...His first start came on June 21 vs Martinsville and he struck out 11 batters in five innings...His second outing came on June 26 vs Johnson City and he pitched 1-hit ball for seven innings...His third start was on July 1 against Danville and he struck out 13 batters in a four-hit complete game victory...Won three straight starts, July 11-22.

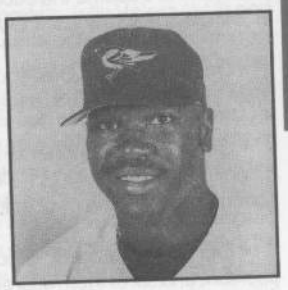

◆ 1992 ◆

Began his professional career with the Gulf Coast League Orioles...In eight games in July he compiled a 2.77 ERA (13.0IP, 4ER).

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

Single...Played Babe Ruth league baseball as a youth in San Pedro de Macoris, DR...Credits his bother Dioni as the person who inspired him the most in his pursuit of a professional baseball career...Prior to embarking on his pitching career, Billy was an outfielder and catcher in the amatuer ranks...Hobbies include music.

1995 SEASON SUMMARY

• Started the season in the Orioles rotation and was the winner in the O's first victory of the season, April 30 at Minnesota...Struck out a then career-high nine batters.

• Over his next four starts he was 0-2 with a 9.42 ERA and on May 26 was optioned to AAA Rochester.

• Made four starts for the Red Wings and was 2-1 with a 2.70 ERA...On May 31 vs Charlotte he fanned 11 batters in seven innings...At AAA he struck out six or more in all four starts before being recalled by the Orioles on June 2.

• As a starter he went 2-3 with a 7.16 ERA in nine starts (44IP, 45H, 35ER) before being moved to the bullpen...As a relief pitcher, Arthur was 0-2 in 10 games with a 4.88 ERA (31.1IP, 23H, 17ER).

• On July 13 vs Kansas City he made his first major league relief appearance after 59 big league starts...In that game he did not receive the decision in the Orioles 9-8 loss but recorded a career-high 10 strikeouts in seven innings pitched...He became the second AL reliever to strikeout 10 or more in a game in '95...Minnesota's Mark Guthrie struck out 12.

• On August 20 at Oakland he recorded 10 strikeouts in only 4.2 innings of relief in Baltimore's 6-3 defeat.

• On the year, opponents batted .239 (68-284) against him...Left-handed hitters batted only .149 (11-74) and righties hit .271 (57-210)...With runners in scoring position, the opposition hit .205 (17-83) against him.

• Out of the bullpen, Rhodes inherited 17 baserunners, 10 in scoring position, and six of them scored...He retired six of 10 first batters faced and was 0-for-1 in converting save chances.

• On August 24 at California, he left the game with a shoulder strain and was placed on the 15-day disabled list the next day...On September 8 he underwent surgery on his left shoulder to repair a tear of the labrum (cartilage in the shoulder joint)...The surgery was performed by Dr. James Andrews in Birmingham, Alabama.

◆ 1994 ◆

Had three stints with the O's in '94, splitting time between Baltimore and AAA Rochester...Started in a total of 25 games, 10 with the O's (3-5, 5.81) and 15 with the Red Wings (7-5, 2.79 ERA)...He tossed six complete games (3 with Baltimore and three with Rochester), most in the O's system in '94...Started the season with the Orioles going 1-5 with a 7.62 ERA in his first five starts before being placed on the 15-day DL with tendinitis in his left knee...Was reinstated from the DL on May 21 and made a start vs the Yankees at NY, lasting just one innings before being optioned to Rochester on May 22...Was recalled from the Red Wings on June 27 and made two starts (June 28 at Cle & July 3 vs Cal), both no-decisions...Was optioned to Rochester on July 4...Recalled July 31 to start the next day in Cal Ripken's 2000th consecutive game in Minnesota...Came up big for the occasion tossing a seven-hit shutout (the O's first of the season and first in 139 games)...Threw a five-hit shutout in his next start, August 6 at Mil, thus becoming the first O's hurler to record back-to-back shutouts since Mike Mussina blanked the Twins in consecutive starts in '93, (before that, Jim Palmer was the last to accomplish the feat in '82)...For his efforts, he was honored as the AL "Pitcher of the Week" for August 1-7...They were his second and third major league shutouts...AT ROCHESTER: Surrendered two earned runs or less in 10 of his 15 Red Wing starts, including nine of his last 12...Allowed more than three earned runs only twice in '94 (but not once in his last 12 starts)...Struck out eight or more in a game six times...Matched Rick Krivda's team season-high by striking out 11 in 7.2 innings of work in a 3-2 loss to Toledo, August 23...In his five losses, the Wings managed a total of eight runs...Tied Krivda for the team lead with three complete games...Limited IL opponents to a .208 avg...Averaged 8.6 K's and only 3.4 walks per 9 innings...Opponents hit only .234 (29-124) off him with runners on base...The Wings went 9-6 in his 15 starts.

◆ 1993 ◆

Began the season as the Orioles No. 4 starter but on May 18 after six starts (1-2, 9.36) went on the disabled list...Underwent arthroscopic surgery that same day on his left knee to remove a loose fragment...Did his rehab at AAA Rochester in July and returned to the Orioles at the end of the month...Was 4-4 with a 5.34 ERA in 11 starts for the O's after coming off the DL...Entered '93 with a streak of 53 consecutive homerless innings, but allowed 16 in 85.2 innings, 1.68 per nine innings, the third highest ratio in the AL (min 10 homers) behind Texas' Craig Lefferts (1.84) and California's John Farrell (1.79)...Allowed 12 home runs in 36.2 innings at Camden Yards...Completed seven innings only twice in 17 starts...His best game was a 4-1 masterpiece at Detroit, August 9 (IP-8, H-3, ER-1, BB-3, SO-8)...Tied his career-high for strikeouts (8)...On September 7, in a 3-2 loss at home to Seattle, he had a no-hitter with two out in the seventh...A two-run homer by Mike Blowers broke up the gem and a scoreless game...The only other hit he allowed that game was a solo homer to Dave Valle.

◆ 1992 ◆

Although he wasn't recalled from AAA Rochester until July 8, finished third among AL rookies with 77 strikeouts behind California's Julio Valera (113) and Seattle's Dave Fleming (112)...Averaged 7.3 strikeouts per nine innings, second among AL rookies trailing only Chicago reliever Roberto Hernandez (8.6, SO-68, IP-71)...Went 4-0 in his first five starts (2.19), then lost four straight starts (9.00)...Finished up strong, going 3-1 in his last six starts, while the O's went 5-1 (2.35, IP-38.1, H-30, ER-10)...In his first start after being recalled from Rochester, he defeated the Twins and Scott Erickson, 4-2, July 9 at Baltimore, the first win by an O's lefty starter in almost a year (Jeff Ballard, July 15, 1991 over California)...In his second start on July 19 at Texas, he took a no-hitter into the sixth, but left trailing 2-0 after 7 (O's rallied to win 3-2)...In his third start, he pitched the first complete game of his career, a rain-shortened, eight-inning win over Texas on July 24 at home...It was the first complete game by an O's lefty since August 21, 1989, when Jeff Ballard beat Milwaukee...Threw a five-hit shutout at New York on July 29, the O's first shutout in Yankee Stadium since Scott McGregor beat Tommy John, 1-0, on September 25, 1981...AT ROCHESTER: Was second in the International League in strikeouts (115) at the time of his recall...Averaged 10.2 strikeouts per nine innings...Struck out 14 batters in eight innings is his last start before recall, an 8-4 win over Pawtucket on July 13.

◆ 1991 ◆

Was the youngest Oriole on the roster in '91 (21)...His contract was purchased from AA Hagerstown on August 21...Made his ML debut August 21 against the Rangers at Arlington...He was not the pitcher of record in a 4-3 O's victory, allowing three earned runs in four innings pitched...AT HAGERSTOWN: Named Eastern League "Pitcher of the Year"...Ranked third in the EL with a 2.70 ERA and with 115 strikeouts...Averaged 9.7 strikeouts per nine innings pitched (IP-106.2, SO-115)...Opposing batters were held to a .194 average (73-for-377).

◆ 1990 ◆

Spent the first half of the season at A Frederick where he had the Carolina League's best strikeouts-to-walks ratio (103 to 21)...Went from Frederick to AA Hagerstown in late July...Allowed one run or less 10 times combined in Class A and AA, but won only four of those games... Twice fanned 16 batters in a game: May 8 (9.0 IP) vs Kinston and May 30 (7.0 IP, faced 28 batters) vs Salem, but didn't win either game...In his first start of the season, he hurled a seven-inning one-hitter with 10 strikeouts over Lynchburg...While with Frederick, he made his Memorial Stadium debut, June 10, in a game against Peninsula as part of a major league-minor league doubleheader...Won, 8-1, with nine strikeouts over seven innings.

◆ 1989 ◆

Was leading the NY-Penn League in strikeouts (45 in 31.0 IP) and was second in ERA (1.16) when promoted to the Carolina League...Struck out 14 in a two-hitter over Elmira...In the Florida Instructional League, he fanned 46 in 32 innings and was 2-0 with a 1.69 ERA.

◆ 1988 ◆

Made his professional debut June 24 at Bluefield (R) and worked the final two innings of the Orioles 3-2, 27-inning victory over Burlington...He struck out Mark Lewis, the third player selected in that year's draft, for the final out of the game...That same season, he pitched two innings for the Orioles in an exhibition at Rochester on July 25.

1995 SEASON SUMMARY

• Spent most of the season at AAA Buffalo, Cleveland's AAA affiliate, where he was named the Bisons' Most Valuable Player...Led the Buffalo club in hits (131) and doubles (34)... His 34 doubles was a professional career-high and was third most in the American Association.

• Was fifthin the league in games played (130)...Made 122 starts a shortstop and four at second base...Led league shortstops and established Buffalo franchise record with a .978 fielding percentage (12 errors in 500 total chances).

• Only three shortstops in American Association league history have posted higher fielding percentages at that position: Mark DeJohn .982 in 198... Michael Kelleher .979 in 1972; and Rudolph Kinard .979 in 1978...Bill paced league shortstops in games (126), assists (388) and double plays (80)...Went 32 straight games without an error at shortstop, May 10-June 9.

• Selected to the AAA All-Star team but did not play in th game due to an ankle injury.

• Hit safely in a season-high nine straight games, April 10-19...Over that span he batted .452 (14-31)...Had extra base hits (eight total) in six consecutive games, May 29-June 2...Had four hits, including a home run and five RBI on July 10 at Oklahoma City.

• Did not play between July 24 and August 2 due to a sprained left shoulder...Batted .336 (38-113) against left-handed pitching.

• In eight post-season games he batted .226 (7-31) with two RBI, including a four-hit game on September 7 at Omaha.

• Contract was purchased by Cleveland on September 15...Hit safely in his first four games with the Indians...He appeared in eight games for the AL champs and smacked two home runs and, defensively, he played second base and third base.

• His home run off Chicago's Jason Bere on September 20 was his first in the majors since 7/29/92 and the Indians 188th of the season, setting a club record for Cleveland.

◆ RIPKEN BROTHERS ◆

Cal and Billy are the fifth set of brothers to form a second base-shortstop combination in major league history...The others were Lou and Dino Chiozza (Philadelphia, NL - 1935); Granny and Garvin Hamner (Philadelphia, NL - 1945); Eddie and Johnny O'Brien (Pittsburgh - 1953, '55, '56); and Milt and Frank Bolling (Detroit - 1958)...In the major leagues the Ripkens have played in 666 games together, starting 634 games...The O'Briens, with roughly 100 games together, have the second most starts for a brother double play combination.

In 1990, the Ripkens accounted for just 11 total errors, the fewest in major league history by a qualifying keystone combination...The next lowest total was 13 in 1990 by Toronto's Tony Fernandez and Manny Lee...Combined to participate in 229 double plays in 1988, the second most by a DP combination in Orioles history (1974-Grich/Belanger-232)...That year the brothers also topped all keystone combinations with 1,546 total chances...Also teamed up for a triple play on June 15, 1989 vs New York...It was the first by the Orioles since 8/8/90.

Both Billy and Cal homered on September 15, 1990 at Toronto, each in the fifth inning off current O's hurler David Wells...Was the 15th time in history that brothers had homered in the same game and the fifth time in the same inning (last by Hank and Tommy Aaron of Milwaukee 7/12/62)...Combined for seven hits (Bill-4, Cal-3) on August 2, 1989 vs Boston, believed to be the second most for a brother duo ever (8 for Pittsburgh's Paul and Lloyd Waner 6/25/32).

PRO CAREER

◆ 1994 ◆

Suffered through an injury plagued season with the Rangers...Was first placed on the disabled list on May 13(retroactive to May 10) with tightness of the left hamstring...Activated on May 25...On the year he appeared in 32 games for the Rangers and batted .309...On July 16 he returned to the disabled list with a bruised left hip...Was activated from the DL on September 20.

◆ 1993 ◆

Spent two stints on the disabled list due to a pulled left hamstring...Appeared in 50 games and batted .189, both career lows...Started 32 games at second base and 14 at shortstop and made just two errors in 205 total chances at second base, third base and shortstop..Batted .194 in 25 games before pulling his hamstring on May 12 at Oakland...Was on the shelf until May 28...Repulled his left hamstring on June 20 at Seattle and was on the DL until September 1...Had a season best three hits on April 21 at Detroit...His .992 fielding percentage at second base was the second best among AL second basemen with 30 or more games...Went a career-high 63 consecutive games without an error at second base over two seasons before a miscue on May 7...Did not make an error in 76 chances and 18 games at shortstop, the most chances without a miscue of any AL shortstop...His start at short on June 5 was his first at that position since '85 at Daytona Beach of the Florida State League.

◆ 1992 ◆

Started 108 games for the Orioles at second base...Tied for the team lead with 10 sacrifice hits...Had a major league best four home runs...Matched his career-high with four hits on July 1 vs the Brewers.

◆ 1991 ◆

Shoulder, back, rib and ankle injuries limited him to 98 starts...On October 7 he underwent surgery to remove a bone chip from his left ankle...Was on the DL with a strained ribcage muscle, July 15-August 16...Hit .216 in 66 games prior to going on the shelf and .216 in 38 games after his return...For the third straight season he led the Orioles with 11 sacrifice bunts...In three seasons, 1989-91, the Orioles laid down 182 sac bunts and Bill accounted for 26% of them (47)...His .986 fielding mark was sixth among major league second basemen...Mishandled only one ground ball in '91 and missed only five grounders in his previous 263 games...Tied career-best with 53 consecutive errorless games, May 20-September 9... In a poll of league managers conducted by Baseball America, Bill ranked as the league's 2nd best defensive second baseman behind Alomar.

◆ 1990 ◆

Led the Orioles in three offensive categories: average (.291), doubles (28, tied with Cal) and sacrifice bunts (17, tied for AL lead with Gallego)...Raised his average 52 points over the previous season...It was the second biggest improvement in the AL behind Alan Trammell (61 points)...Was second in batting among AL second baseman behind Texas' Julio Franco...His 28 doubles were the most by an Orioles second baseman since Rich Dauer's 32 in 1980...On May 1 he was batting .191 (9-47)...From that point on he batted .304 (109-359)...Was on the disabled list, August 5-19 with a stress fracture of the right foot...After July 25 he hit .347 (51-147), third best in the league over that span behind George Brett (.367) and Luis Polonia (.360)...Led the club with a .310 average with runners in scoring position.

Batted .313 in May but just .219 the rest of the season...Logged a career-high four hits on August 2 at Boston to help the Orioles overcome a 6-0 deficit...Brother

Cal had three hit in the same game...Missed the first two weeks of the regular season after sustaining a broken bone in his left hand when he was hit by a pitch on March 25 in an exhibition game...Disabled again, August 23-September 7 with a strained right shoulder which required surgery in November.

◆ 1988 ◆

His .207 batting average ranked last among the 72 players who had qualified with 502 plate appearances...Was beaned by White Sox' John Davis at Comiskey Park on April 29, the night the Orioles snapped their 0-21 start...Suffered a concusion but just missed two games.

◆ 1987 ◆

Was called up to the Orioles on July 11 when Rick Burleson was released...Made his debut that day and went 0-3 in a loss to the Twins...However, the Orioles won their next 11 games with Bill at second base...Just before his recall from Rochester he had nine hits in 10 at bats...Played 58 straight games for the Orioles, July 11-September 15...His season ended at Toronto when he tore the lateral ligament in his right ankle while fielding a ground ball on turf...From the All-Star break through September 15 he ranked third in the AL in hits, tied with Robin Yount and trailing Paul Molitor and Kevin Seitzer...Average reached a high of .323 on August 14...Recorded his first big league hit in his third game, a double at Kansas City on July 16 off Charlie Leibrandt...Hit his first home run three days later, also at KC, on July 19 with two aboard off Bud Black...Enjoyed career-high 5 RBI game on August 22 at Seattle.

◆ 1986 ◆

In his first full season at second base, he was named to the Southern League All-Star team and led the league's second basemen in games (141), total chances (723), putouts (305), assists (395) and double plays (79)...Missed only three games all season while leading the club in games as well as average (.268) and nine other categories.

◆ 1985 ◆

Split the season between Charlotte, Daytona Beach and Hagerstown...Spent the bulk of the year at Daytona Beach where he batted .230 in 67 games.

◆ 1984 ◆

Spent the entire year at Hagerstown...In 150 games he batted .230...Clubbed his first two professional home runs.

◆ 1983 ◆

Was at Bluefield for the second straight season...Batting average dropped 27 points from the previous season...Was successful in seven of nine stolen base attempts.

◆ 1982 ◆

Started professional career at Bluefield of the Appalachain League...Signed with the Orioles after being drafted in the 11th round of the June Draft.

Record Homer Gets Orange Seat for Cal

On July 15, 1993, Cal Ripken hit his 278th home run as a shortstop, most ever hit by a major leaguer at that position, surpassing Hall-of-Famer Ernie Banks' previous record of 277.

Cal's home run was hit off Scott Erickson, then with Minnesota, in the sixth inning of the Orioles' 5-3 win. The home run landed in the lower box seats in left field and is designated by an orange seat.

1995 SEASON SUMMARY

• On September 5th and 6th at Oriole Park at Camden Yards against the California Angels, Cal became baseball's all-time "Iron Man" tying and breaking Lou Gehrig's consecutive games played record of 2,130...Ripken enters the 1996 season having played in 2,153 consecutive games, all starts...The streak began on May 30, 1982.

• In the record tying and record setting games he went a combined 5-for-9 and hit home runs in each of the games....Homered in three straight games, September 4-6, matching career-best.

• A specially designed baseball emblazoned with the "Streak Week" logo was used in the games of September 5 & 6, marking the first time ever that a special ball was used to honor an individual.

• Honors that Ripken received after the 1995 season included: Associated Press and United Press International "Male Athlete of the Year"; Associated Press "Sports Moment of the Year"; Sports Illustrated and The Sporting News "Sportsman of the Year"; one of People magazine's "25 Most Intriguing People"; One of Newsweek magazine's "Newsmakers of '95"; and the "Toast of the Town" by the New York Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America...It marked the first time that a non-New York athlete received the award...Won Espy Awards for "Male Athlete of the Year" and "Showstopper of the Year."

• Enters the 1996 season having not committed an error in 70 consecutive games...Last error came on July 18 at Texas...Already holds the major league record for consecutive errorless games at shortstop, 95 in 1990...This season Cal led all AL shortstops with a .989 fielding percentage, 144 games played and 100 double plays turned.

• Scored two runs on the 4th of July to become the Orioles all-time leader in runs scored, tying and passing Brooks Robinson...Finished year with 1,271 runs scored...On September 3 drew his 890th career base on balls, surpassing Boog Powell to become the Orioles all-time leader...Finished the year with 901 career walks.

• Enters the '96 season needing six home runs to tie Eddie Murray (333) and three extra base hits to tie Brooks Robinson (818) for first on the Orioles all-time lists.

• On the year he left games early only eight times and just 66 times during the consecutive games played streak...Missed just 18 innings in '95 and during the streak has played in 19,427 of the Orioles 19,593 innings (99.2%, all but 166).

• Batted .300 (82-273) with runners on base as opposed to a .224 (62-277) average with the bases empty...At home he owned a .288 (78-271) average with 10 HR and 53 RBI and on the road he batted .237 (66-279) with seven home runs and 35 RBI.

• On July 11 in Arlington, Texas Cal extended his AL record for shortstops with his 13th All-Star appearance (all consecutive)...St. Louis' Ozzie Smith holds the major league mark with 14 All-Star Games...Ripken was the elected starter for the American League squad for the 11th time and seventh straight beginning in 1989...In the Mid-Summer Classic, Ripken was 2-for-3 with singles off Philadelphia's Tommy Greene and Montreal's Carlos Perez.

• Hit .467 (7-15) with the bases loaded with two doubles, one home run and 19 RBI...His fourth career grand slam came on June 3 at Oriole Park vs Oakland's Mike Harkey.

• Had a pair of 4-hit games: May 27 at Seattle and June 19 vs the Yankees...14th career two home run game came on July 31 vs the Blue Jays off Pat Hentgen and Tony Castillo...Was tied for eighth in the AL with 32 doubles.

• After breaking Gehrig's record, Ripken went into an 0-15 slide...After the draught, batted .417 (15-36) in season's final nine games with nine runs scored, three doubles, two homers and 16 RBI.

• Had 5 RBI on September 22 at Milwaukee marking the most he has had in a game since May 24, 1994 when he had six RBI at Milwaukee...Had 40 RBI in last 58 games of the year.

◆ 2131: Passing a Legend ◆

Basic Facts & Figures About Lou Gehrig's Record Streak and Cal's pursuit of it:

• On August 17, 1933, New York Yankees first baseman Lou Gehrig played in his 1,308th straight game to surpass Everett Scott's major league record for consecutive games played. The Iron Horse went on to play in 2,130 straight games before the crippling effects of ALS (amyotrophic lateral sclerosis) ended his once-thought impossible streak. Just over two years later, ALS ended his life.

• Gehrig is tied with Ripken for the major league record for most years leading the league in games (7).

• Gehrig holds the major league record for most home runs by a first baseman (493). Ripken holds the record for most home runs by a shortstop (324).

• Gehrig's longest streak at first base was 885 straight games. He played left field for one game in 1930 while Babe Ruth pitched, and he played right field for one game in 1931 while Ruth played first base.

• Gehrig played every inning of every game one time in his career (1931). Ripken holds what is believed to be the major league record with a streak of 8,243 straight innings, spanning 904 games from 1982 to 1987. The 82 post-season innings Cal played in 1983 are not included in these figures.

• Gehrig missed just two starts during his streak, both in the first year: 1925 (July 5, the 33rd game of the streak and July 19, the 48th game). Both times, Fred Merkle, renowned for a miscue with the Cubs two decades earlier, was the Yankees' starter at first base. Gehrig started the last 2082 games of his streak.

• Gehrig came out early 69 times during his streak. Ripken has exited early 66 times during his streak. Twice during his streak, Gehrig was ailing and listed as the shortstop in the lead-off position. Both times, he singled and was immediately replaced by a pinch runner.

• In the last 100 games of his streak, Gehrig batted .287 (106-369) with runs, 15 doubles, four triples, 16 homers and 82 RBI. In his last 25 games Gehrig batted .350 (36-103) with 23 runs, eight doubles, three triples, homers and 34 RBI.

1988...2 1991...15 1994...6

Twice by Ejection: The earliest Cal has left were the two games from which he was ejected- both in the first inning: September 25, '87 by Tim Welke (vs Yankees) and August 7, '89 by Drew Coble (vs Minnesota)...In both cases he was thrown out after arguing a strike call.

LONGEST O'S STREAKS: The three longest Orioles streaks before Cal's were:

Brooks Robinson	463
Eddie Murray	444
Billy Gardner	361

EVERY GAME OF THE YEAR: Cal is one of five Orioles to have played every game in a season.

Cal Ripken	13 Times	'83 thru '95
Brooks Robinson	4 Times	'61, '62, '64, '68
Eddie Murray	4 Times	'78, '79, '84, '88
Billy Gardner	Once	'57
Bobby Grich	Once	'73

CONSECUTIVE INNINGS STREAK, '82-'87: His streak of 8,243 straight innings (spanning 904 games, '82-'87) is believed to be the longest of its kind in major league history. The 82 post-season innings he played in '83 are NOT included in these figures. Lou Gehrig, incidentally, played every inning of every game only one season ('31) during his streak.

The start: Cal's innings streak began June 5, '82 (6 days and five games after the start of his consecutive games string May 30) at Minnesota The day before (June 4), Jim Dwyer had pinch-hit for him in the ninth inning, also at Minnesota

The finish: The innings streak ended September 14, '87 in Toronto when Orioles manager Cal Ripken Sr. inserted Ron Washington at shortstop in the bottom of the eighth of an 18-3 Toronto walkover. That was the game in which the Blue Jays hit a major league record 10 home runs.

Say the historians: Noted baseball researcher L. Robert Davids determined some years ago that the previous leaders in the consecutive innings category were a couple of former Red Sox who played in the Hub City during the early 1900s: Buck Freeman and Candy LaChance...Freeman, a first baseman, played every inning over some 534 games (7/28/01-6/5/05) and outfielder LaChance did not miss an inning over a span of 424 games (5/23/02 to 4/28/05).

Rip, whose innings streak covered some five seasons, was the first to have played every inning for at least two straight years since Rudy York with the Tigers in '40-'41...In addition to Cal & Freeman, only one other major leaguer has played every inning at least three years (not necessarily consecutive), Mickey Vernon in '42, '47, & '53 with those pesky Nats...The only other Oriole to play every inning in one season was Eddie Murray in '84 (including 3 games as DH).

◆ CLOSE CALLS ◆

April 10, 1985...Game 444...Sprained left ankle at shortstop during a pickoff play in the third inning vs Texas (did not come out of the game)...X-rays taken after the game at Greater Baltimore Medical Center were negative...Didn't play the next day in the club's exhibition game at the US Naval Academy, but was in the lineup the next night vs Toronto.

September 11, 1992...Game 1713...Suffered a twisted right ankle running out a double against the Brewers (did not come out of the game), and as a precaution the Orioles recalled shortstop Manny Alexander from AAA Rochester...Cal didn't miss so much as an inning for another week.

June 6, 1993...Game 1790...Suffered a twisted right knee when his spikes caught in the infield grass during O's-Mariners melee...Though he didn't come out of the game, the knee was swollen and painful the next day...Still, he didn't even miss infield practice...He said later, "It was the closest I've come to not playing."

◆ MOST HOME RUNS EVER BY A SHORTSTOP ◆

All-time Leader: Has hit 319 of his 327 homers as a shortstop, most in major league history ahead of Ernie Banks (277) and Vern Stephens (213). Passed Banks July 15, '93 at Oriole Park when he homered off Minnesota's Scott Erickson. Banks' mark had stood since he moved to first base from shortstop in 1962. The seat in left field where the ball landed is now painted orange to commemorate the achievement.

30 Homers: Is one of four shortstops in major league history to have hit 30 or more homers in a season, joining Ernie Banks, Vern Stephens and Rico Petrocelli.

◆ EXTRA-BASE HITS BY A SHORTSTOP ◆

Honus Wagner and Joe Cronin's Neighborhood: 745 of his 764 extra-base hits have come as a shortstop, the second highest total in baseball history, as near as we can tell. Honus Wagner had 737 in the years he was primarily a shortstop ('01, '03-'16 with Pittsburgh), and Joe Cronin had 765 (20 more than Cal) in the years he was primarily a shortstop, ('28-'41 with Washington and Boston). A precise statistical breakout is not available, however.

Recalling 1991: His ML-high 85 extra-base hits in '91 have been exceeded by only one other shortstop in history, Robin Yount with 87 in '82...Cal's 368 total bases were the most in one season by an AL shortstop and second best all-time behind Banks' 379 in '58...Also became the second shortstop ever (joining Banks in '58 and '59) to hit .300+ with 30+ homers and 100+ RBI.

A RIVER RUNS THROUGH IT: The Susquehanna River meets Maryland's Chesapeake Bay at Havre de Grace, Cal's birthplace. Going upstream, the river passes Williamsport, PA, birthplace of Mike Mussina and home of Little League Baseball, and starts 1/10 of a mile from Baseball's Hall of Fame in baseball's birthplace, Cooperstown, NY.

SPEAKING OF COOPERSTOWN: No Hall of Fame shortstop has a fielding percentage as high as Cal's .979 (Lou Boudreau leads at .973).

FIRST MEMORY: Cal's first memory of Orioles baseball is his presence at Memorial Stadium at age six when Frank Robinson hit his home run in Game 4 of the 1966 World Series, the only run of the game, to give the Orioles their first World Championship, October 9.

FIRST STEAL WAS A STEAL OF HOME: Stole home for his first major league steal on the front end of a double steal May 31, '82 home vs Texas off Jon Matlack. Lenn Sakata stole second on the play. Jim Sundberg was the catcher. Al Bumbry was at bat. Gave O's 4-3 lead in eventual 8-7 win. Murray fouled a ball off his left eye while at bat in the fifth. Cal was 0-4 in those appearances.

AS A PINCH RUNNER: Has pinch run seven times, six in 1981, once in 1982. Ran twice for Ken Singleton, Terry Crowley, and Doug DeCinces, and once for Benny Ayala. The last time was April 18 '82 for Crowley. Only in his first pinch running experience, in his major league debut August 10, '81, did he score (see major league debut below).

THEY PINCH HIT FOR CAL: Has been replaced by pinch hitters 15 times, most recently September 30, '95 by Bret Barberie, the sixth time during the consecutive games streak (also Jim Dwyer June 4 '82 , Tim Hulett April 14, '91, Manny Alexander, June 13, '95, and Bret Barberie, July 5, '95). The rankings: Terry Crowley-six times, Jim Dwyer-four, Bret Barberie-two, Manny Alexander-one, Tim Hulett-one, Damon Buford-one.

THEY PINCH RAN FOR CAL: Five players have run for Cal. The first was Floyd Rayford, May 3, '82 after Cal was hit in the back of the head by a Mike Moore pitch. The next four times were during the consecutive games streak: Tim Hulett August 6, '91 and Steve Scarsone September 22, '92, Bret Barberie, June 25, '95, and Jeff Huson, August 10, '95.

DEFENSIVE REPLACEMENTS: During the consecutive games streak, has been replaced by 10 different players 61 times. The replacements:

Tim Hulett:	22
Juan Bell:	12
Rene Gonzalez:	9
Marty Brown:	3
Jeff McKnight:	2
Manny Alexander:	9
Ron Washington:	1
Pete Stanicek:	1
Steve Scarsone:	1

CYCLE: One of only two Orioles to ever hit for the cycle. On May 6, '84, was 4-for-5 with two RBI. Homered off Dave Tobik in his final at bat. Brooks Robinson hit for the cycle at Chicago, July 15, 1960. Opponents have hit for the cycle five times against the Orioles.

JAPAN TRIPS: Has a cumulative .353 average (24-68) on two trips to Japan...Was on O's 14-game trip in '84 and batted .315 (17-54) with four homers and nine RBI as the O's went 8-5-1.

Two years later in '86, was part of US Major League All-Star team that went 6-1 against All-Stars from Japan's Central and Pacific Leagues...Cal led that team in batting (.500, 7-14, 2B-2, HR-2, RBI-6) while splitting shortstop duties with the Cardinals' Ozzie Smith.

◆ ALL-STAR GAMES ◆

13-YEAR ALL-STAR: Ripken's 13 games (all consecutive) extend his AL record for shortstops. Ozzie Smith, named in '95 for the 14th time, is the major league leader. The previous AL mark (10) belonged to former Oriole Luis Aparicio. Only Brooks Robinson (AL record 18 games in 15 straight years, '60-'74) has represented the Orioles at more All-Star Games. The only year Ripken did not make the team was his rookie (of the year) season, 1982.

ELECTED: 11 times, seven consecutive starting in 1989. Was also elected 1984 thru '87. Alan Trammell was elected in 1988 (but withdrew due to injury so Cal, who finished second in the voting, started in his place). Fellow shortstop Ozzie Smith was elected in '95 for the 12th time.

Since ballotting returned to the fans in 1970, eight different Orioles have been elected to start 23 times in 18 of the 26 years. The last Oriole to be elected besides Ripken was Terry Kennedy in 1987.

STARTER: 12 straight years (starting '84), a major league record for shortstops. Ozzie Smith, not elected in 1993, shares the record with Cal of 12 starts at shortstop (not necessarily consecutive). Smith held the previous record, 10, '83 thru '92.

CLUB RECORD: Cal's 12 straight starts is a club record. Brooks Robinson's second with five straight. Cal's 12 starts breaks Brooks' club record (10 years, 11 games, 2 in 1961). Cal is the only major league player to start the past 12 All-Star Games.

FAN BALLOTTING: Has led the majors in votes four times: '85 (1,398,901), '86 (1,486,806), '92 (2,699,773), and '95 (1,698,524).

◆ THE GAMES ◆

1995: At the Mid-Summer Classic in Arlington, TX, Cal went 2-for-3 with singles off Philadelphia's Tommy Greene and Montreal's Carlos Perez.

1994: Played the entire 10-inning game at Pittsburgh, going 1-for-5. In the bottom of the 10th, relayed Albert Belle's throw to Ivan Rodriguez beautifully just barely later than Tony Gwynn's arrival at home with the "sudden death" winning run.

1993: In the classic at Camden Yards, Cal was 0-for-3 with two groundouts and a strikeout, but received what was probably the loudest ovation in the park's history when he was introduced as the starting shortstop by Chuck Thompson.

1992: Had an RBI single off Atlanta's Tom Glavine in three trips at San Diego to help the AL win, 13-6.

MVP 1991: Became the fourth Oriole to win the All-Star Game MVP Award when, on July 9 at Toronto's SkyDome, he hit a three-run homer off former teammate Dennis Martinez and singled off the ultimate Cy Young Award winner, Tom Glavine, to lead the AL to a 4-2 win.

Other Orioles All-Star MVP's: Billy O'Dell ('58), Brooks ('66) and Frank ('71). Cal became only the third AL shortstop to hit an All-Star Game home run, joining Dick McAuliffe ('65) and Lou Boudreau ('42).

In the home run hitting contest the day before, hit an incredible 12 home runs in 22 swings to lead the AL to a 20-7 pasting of the NL.

GOLD GLOVES: Has won two Gold Gloves ('91 and '92), the only Orioles Gold Gloves the past 11 years.

ERRORS PER CHANCE: During his career has averaged one error for every 47 chances. Mark Belanger had the previous best by an Oriole shortstop, one every 43 chances.

3B TO SS: Played third base and shortstop after first coming up in August '81, but started '82 as O's regular third baseman...In 77 games at third base ('81-6, '82-71), has .970 percentage (tc-232, e-7). Last played there July 8, '82 at Seattle after starting game at shortstop. Started for the last time at third base June 30, '82 in Baltimore vs Cleveland.

Has played with 30 second basemen and 40 third basemen since moving permanently to shortstop in '82.

1990, SET MAJOR LEAGUE RECORDS: Cal established eight ML fielding records in '90 including an all-time mark for highest fielding percentage and fewest errors by a shortstop. Made only three errors in 161 games (680 total chances), a .996 percentage...Set major league marks for consecutive errorless games (95), and consecutive chances without error (431).

After fumbling a ground ball on April 13 in the third game of the season Cal went 95 games and 431 chances before committing his second miscue (ground ball muff also) 3 1/2 months later on July 28 (1st game) at KC.

Cal broke the AL marks by Detroit's Eddie Brinkman (72 straight errorless games and 331 straight errorless chances in '72). Also shattered the major league marks of NY Giants' Buddy Kerr (383 consecutive errorless chances in '46-'47) and the Mets' Kevin Elster, whose 88 games in a row without error in '88 and '89 were downgraded from a major league to an NL record.

1984, ASSISTS RECORD: Set AL record with 583 assists, breaking Roy Smalley's '79 mark of 572. Also led ML shortstops in total chances (906).

His 880 successful chances in '84 were the most by an AL shortstop since the Twins' Leo Cardenas handled the same number in '69.

The only ML shortstop to have handled more errorless chances in one season since World War II is the Cardinals' Ozzie Smith (909 in '80).

◆ AWARDS ◆

TWO MOST VALUABLE PLAYER AWARDS: Is the only Oriole to ever win two AL BBWAA Most Valuable Player Awards ('83 & '91). Is one of 23 in ML history to win multi-MVP awards, one of 11 in AL history to do it...Only three other active major leaguers have done it: Robin Yount ('82 and '89), Barry Bonds ('90, '92, and '93), and Frank Thomas ('93 and '94).

The other multi-MVP award winners: Stan Musial, Joe DiMaggio, Ted Williams, Willie Mays, Mickey Mantle, Frank Robinson, Ernie Banks, Johnny Bench, Mike Schmidt, Yogi Berra, Roger Maris, Roy Campanella, Hank Greenberg, Jimmie Foxx, Hal Newhouser, Carl Hubbell, Dale Murphy, Joe Morgan, and Frank Thomas.

In '91, Cal became the only player in AL history to win the MVP on a sub-.500 team and the third player in major league history, joining a pair of Chicago Cubs, Ernie Banks ('58 and '59) and Andre Dawson ('87)...The Baseball Writers Association of America MVP Award has been awarded for 63 years, beginning in '31...Cal became the first MVP to play on a team with more than 85 losses...The O's were 67-95.

Cal's span of seven seasons between awards is the second longest between MVPs in ML history...Only Willie Mays, who went 10 seasons ('54/'65), has gone longer between MVP awards.

In '91, Cal finished with 318 points, 32 more than runner-up Cecil Fielder of Detroit...In '83, he won by the same margin over teammate Eddie Murray, 322 to 290, as Orioles finished 1-2 in balloting for the first time since 1966, when Frank, Brooks, and Boog were 1-2-3 (and Luis Aparicio was 9th). Cal & Eddie were the only players listed on every '83 ballot.

Became the first to win Rookie and MVP honors in back-to-back years...Fred Lynn, of course, captured both awards in 1975 for Boston.

Was third in '89 in BBWAA balloting with 216 votes behind Robin Yount (256) and Ruben Sierra (228).

ROOKIE OF THE YEAR: Registered 132 points (5-3-1 system) in 1982 to beat out Twins' Kent Hrbek (90 points), the only other player named on all ballots. Wade Boggs was third (10 1/2 points). Rip polled 24 firsts and four seconds, while Hrbek received four firsts, 23 seconds and a third.

Is one of 6 Orioles to have won BBWAA Rookie honors along with: Ron Hansen ('60), Curt Blefary ('63), Al Bumbry ('73), Eddie Murray ('77), and Gregg Olson ('89).

TWO GOLD GLOVE AWARDS: 1991 and 1992.

TWO TSN PLAYER OF THE YEAR AWARDS: Won The Sporting News' Major League Player of the Year award in 83 and '91, the first to win it on a losing club ('91). It was established in 1936. Was 20th to win it twice.

TWO TSN & BASEBALL AMERICA'S AL PLAYER OF THE YEAR AWARDS: Won both honors in 1983 and 1991.

AP MAJOR LEAGUE PLAYER OF THE YEAR AWARD: Was so honored in 1991 by the Associated Press.

ALL-TIME DREAM TEAM: Named to Sports Illustrated's all-time "Dream Team" in October, '92.

EIGHT TSN AL ALL-STAR TEAMS: Was honored 1983-'86, '89, '91,'93, '95.

EIGHT TSN/HILLERICH & BRADSBY SILVER SLUGGER TEAMS: Was honored 1983-'86, '89, '91,'93, '94. Award is given to most productive offensive players at every defensive position.

SIX AP MAJOR LEAGUE ALL-STAR TEAMS: Was honored 1983-'86, '89, '91.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD: In '92, was named the 22nd recipient of the Roberto Clemente Award, presented annually to the player who best exemplifies the game of baseball both on and off the field. Consideration is given to sportsmanship, community involvement and an individual's contribution to his team and baseball.

Was the third Oriole to win the award since its inception in '71, joining Brooks Robinson ('72) and Ken Singleton ('82)...No other major league organization has had three Clemente Award recipients.

LOU GEHRIG AWARD: In '92, was the 38th winner of the annual Lou Gehrig Memorial Award, given by the Phi Delta Theta national collegiate fraternity to the major leaguer who best fits the image and character of their fraternity brother and Hall of Fame first baseman.

BART GIAMATTI CARING AWARD: In '89, was the first winner of this honor created by the Baseball Alumni Team (BAT) in honor of the late Baseball Commissioner who died that year (Sep 1). At the time of the announcement, BAT Chairman Ralph Branca said, "Just as Bart Giamatti was a caring person, so is Cal Ripken Jr. Giamatti's devotion to baseball and education is mirrored in the things that Cal has done."

FOUR MOST VALUABLE ORIOLE AWARDS: Has won four Most Valuable Oriole Awards (1990 and 1991, outright, and co-winner with Eddie Murray in '83 & '88). Has finished second four times ('85, '86, '89, '93) and third three times ('82, '84, '87).

PRO CAREER

◆ 1994 ◆

Played in every Orioles game for the 12th straight year...Enjoyed his finest season since his MVP year in 1991...Batted over .300 (.315) for the fourth time and drove in 75 runs, second on the club to Palmeiro's .3198 average and 76 RBI.

Led major league shortstops with a .985 fielding percentage...Led the AL with 46 multi-hit games, second in the majors to San Diego's Tony Gwynn (54)...Had 140 hits to tie Griffey for 5th in the league...His 105 singles were third most in the loop...Batted .364 (44-122) with runners in scoring position, eighth best in the league.

Was one of five major leaguers to play in every game in '94, along with Frank Thomas, Mike Bordick, Paul Molitor and Jeff Conine...Only he, Conine and Molitor started every game...Batted .340 in April...It was his third best April average, surpassed by .352 in 1984 and .341 in 1987...In his final 39 games of the year he batted .369 with 25 RBI...As a cleanup hitter he batted .336 with 10 homers and 57 RBI, the fourth best cleanup average in the AL and sixth best in the majors.

Hit his 300th career home run on May 24 at Milwaukee...Led AL shortstops with 13 home runs, second in the majors to Montreal's Will Cordero (15)...Led major league shortstops with 75 RBI...11 of his 13 homers came off right-handed pitchers...Hit the club's lone grand slam of '94 off Angels' southpaw Brian Anderson at home on July 3.

Played in his 2000th consecutive game Monday, August 1 at Minnesota. Because the event was on the road, Orioles fans paid tribute the day before the celebrating game 1999 Sunday, July 31 with a long, emotion-filled ovation in conjunction with a tribute on the video board when he took the field in the top of the 5th inning. Little did anyone know that the game would be the last played at Oriole Park in 1994.

◆ 1993 ◆

Led major league shortstops in homers for the ninth time in last 11 years and in RBI for the eighth time. Led AL shortstops in assists (495) for seventh time in his career, tying AL record. Led AL shortstops in total chances (738) for the 5th time.

Led the majors in at bats (641) even though he received a career-high 13 intentional walks, sixth in the AL. Had season-high 10-game hitting streak, July 7-19 (.410, 16-39). Had career-high eight three-run homers. Batted .310 (9-29) on 0-2 counts, fifth in the AL.

Had slow start thru May 2 (.199, 37-186, 4 hr, 18 RBI in 47 games) but hit .281 (128-455) with 20 hr and 72 RBI in 115 games thereafter. Hit .229 (81-353) before the All-Star break and .292 (84-288) after.

Had twice as many homers as any other AL shortstop. Det's Travis Fryman (11) was closest. His 55 RBI were also closest to Ripken's 90.

Won his 7th Silver Slugger Award, tying Ryne Sandberg and Wade Boggs for the most times honored.

Had two 2-homer games, home vs. Cle Aug 7 (Bob Ojeda, Frank Tavarez) and at Texas August 27 (Kenny Rogers, Tom Henke).

◆ 1992 ◆

Went from career highs in homers, RBI and extra-base hits in '91 to career lows in those categories in '92. Failed to become only the sixth player in ML history to hit 20+ homers in each of his first 11 full ML seasons.

Right-hand HR Leader: Became the O's all-time right-handed home run leader when he hit two at Milwaukee June 23, nos. 268 and 269, topping Brooks Robinson's mark (268).

Longest HR drought: Following that game, went a career-high 73 games (291 at bats) without a home run, June 24-September 13...September 14 homered off KC's Rick Reed in a 2-1 O's win.

Player of Week Award: Also singled and doubled that night, not only ending his homer-less stretch, but also snapping a slump that had seen him go 49-for-266 (.181) in his previous 67 games since June 30. Had three hits the next night as well to help the O's to another 2-1 win over the Royals and was named AL Player of the Week, September 13-20 (12-for-24). It was the seventh time he received the honor.

That series started him on a 27-for-81 (.333, HR-4, RBI-12) streak in his last 20 games, raising his average from .239 to season-ending .251.

July Famine: July was his first homerless month since the first two months of his career (August-September of '81). Batted .178, his worst month since those same two months in 1981.

Hitting Streaks: Had a 16-game (.355, 22-62) and a 17-game (.414, 29-70) streak just four days apart starting May 20 thru June 29.

1,000th RBI: Came at Oak August 31 on a two-run single off Kelly Downs.

5-Year Contract: On August 24, his 32nd birthday, signed five-year contract for $30.5 million, extending through the '97 season. The signing was announced to a sellout crowd in a pre-game ceremony minutes before the Orioles-Angels game at Oriole Park that night.

Defense: Made one error for every 62 chances...The rest of the AL handled 30 chances per error. Was second in the AL in successful total chances with 733, 3 behind Calif's Gary DiSarcina. Was third in assists (445)...A poll of Major League managers conducted at mid-season by Baseball America selected him as the best defensive shortstop.

Became second player in major league history to win a league MVP, Major League Player of the Year (The Sporting News, AP and Baseball Digest), All-Star Game MVP, and a Gold Glove in the same season...The only other was Dodgers' shortstop Maury Wills in '62...Finished third in the AL in homers (34), most by a shortstop in 22 years (Bos's Rico Petrocelli, 40 in '69)...Most homers by an Oriole since Ken Singleton hit 35 in '79...Became only the 10th player in AL history to hit more than 30 homers and strike out less than 50 times...The others: Don Mattingly (1985-86); Ted Williams (1941-46-47-49-57) Joe DiMaggio (1937-38-40-48-50); Lou Gehrig (1932-33-34-36-37); Earl Averill (1931-32-34); Hal Trosky (1934); Al Rosen (1953); Al Simmons (1929-30) and Ken Williams (1922). Became first righthanded hitter in the AL to do it since Al Rosen in '53...

Led the major leagues and tied a club mark with 85 extra-base hits...Led the major leagues with club record 368 total bases...Led majors with career-high 73 multi-hit games (2-hit, 55; 3-hit, 15; 4-hit, 3)...Led the majors in road batting average(.358, 120-335)...Was second in the majors with 210 hits, one shy of his own club mark, set in 1983. Was also second in doubles with 46, one shy of his own club record, set in 1983. Was second in slugging percentage (.566, 47 points higher than his previous high, .519 in 1983).

Became one of only five in Orioles' history to hit .300, with 30+ homers and 100+ RBI joining Jim Gentile, Frank Robinson, Boog Powell, and Eddie Murray...Had second highest batting avg (.323) in club history behind Ken Singleton's .328 in 1977.

Led the club in 14 offensive categories, virtually everything except triples, sac bunts and stolen bases...Was the only player in the AL to finish in the top 10 in hits, homers, average, and RBI.

His average dipped below .320 only three days after the second day of the season...Led the league in batting for 47 of 48 days, June 4-July 21.

Finished with career-high 114 RBI, second only to Eddie Murray on O's in last 21 years (124 in 1985 and 116 in 1980).

Was AL Player of the Month in September (.349, HR-8, RBI-27)...Had batted a collective .209 in his previous three Septembers: 1988 (.216), 1989 (.198), and 1990 (.215)...Also shared AL Player of the Week, September 23-30, with Rickey Henderson when he batted .467 (14-30, HR-3, RBI-13).

The Last Out: Was the last player to bat in Memorial Stadium history when he bounced into a 5-4-3 double play off Det's Frank Tanana at 5:07 p.m. on October 6, 1991.

Led AL shortstops in fielding percentage (.986) for the second straight year, in putouts (267) for the fourth time, in assists (529) for the sixth time, total chances (807) for the fourth time, and double plays (114) for the fifth time.

Made one error for every 73.4 chances...The remainder of the AL shortstops made one error every 33.6 chances...He was fourth in the majors in successful total chances per nine innings (5.0) behind Cincinnati's Barry Larkin (5.2), LA's Alfredo Griffin (5.1), and Seattle's Omar Vizquel (5.1).

Committed two errors May 24 vs NY in one game for the first time since June 14, '87.

Created an all-time standard for consistency at shortstop by committing only three errors in 161 games (681 tc) for a percentage of .996...Also crafted streaks of 95 errorless games and 431 errorless chances, both all-time marks for a shortstop...See "Fielding" above.

Even though he hit for his lowest average for a full season in the AL, still led the O's in nine offensive categories including runs (78), hits (150), doubles (28), triples (4), homers (21), RBI (84), walks (82), intentional walks (18), and game-tying or go-ahead RBI (39).

Played his 1308th consecutive game June 12 to move into second place on the all-time list ahead of Everett Scott (Yankees-Red Sox, '18-'25).

◆ 1989 ◆

Hit dramatic three-run homer off Bos's Roger Clemens Opening Day to erase 1-3 deficit and key O's 5-4 win. Led the club in hits (166), doubles (30) and RBI (93) and was second to Mickey Tettleton in homers (26 to 21)...Combined with Brother Bill for seven hits (Cal-3 and Bill-4) on August 2, the night the O's came from a 0-6 deficit at Boston to win after losing 13 of their last 14 games...According to Al Kermisch, the only brother combo to surpass that combined total was the Waners (Paul and Lloyd) who had three and five respectively for the Bucs on June 25, '32.

Went 40 games without a home run from April 10 (Frank Viola) until May 25 (Nolan Ryan). That was the longest homerless streak of his career, until '92.

◆ 1988 ◆

Shared MVO honors with Eddie Murray for the second time. Ranked third in the league with a career-high 102 walks (Wade Boggs-125, Jack Clark-113).

Was 0-for-29 in April, the longest hitless streak of his career...Starting April 19, hit safely in 16 of the next 17 games, .527 (29-55), to raise average from .047 to .316 on May 8.

◆ 1987 ◆

Became the first Oriole other than Eddie Murray to lead the club in RBI during the '80s...Ken Singleton was the last in '79. Concluded Consecutive Innings streak (see above), which began in 1982.

◆ 1986 ◆

Tied for league lead with Don Mattingly in GWRBI with 15...Led AL shortstops for fourth straight year in homers, RBI, runs and slugging (.461)...Was second in fielding percentage to Tony Fernandez at shortstop, .982 to .983.

Led club in runs, hits, doubles, homers, total bases (289) and in tying/go ahead runs driven in (33). Was first other than Eddie Murray to lead club in homers (25) since Ken Singleton in '79...Eddie had led six straight years.

◆ 1985 ◆

Was second in the AL to Rickey Henderson in runs scored (146 to 116), Cal's third straight year with over 100 runs...Hit .282, .321 (53-165) with men in scoring position...Was first or second on the club in 12 offensive categories, and tied Eddie Murray in GWRBI (15).

◆ 1984 ◆

Batted over .300 for second straight year...Set AL record for assists by a shortstop (583). Batted .311 (46-148) with runners in scoring position to lead club...Hit .355 (86-242) over 60 games from June 27 thru September 1.

From September 1, '83 thru May 9, '84, hit .372 (96-258) with 16 homers and 41 RBI over 63 games.

◆ 1983 ◆

Was AL MVP and "The Sporting News" Player of the Year. Played every inning of every game for the first of four straight seasons. Shared MVO laurels with Eddie Murray. Played on AL's first winning All-Star Team since '71, and also played on the winning team in both the ALCS and World Series.

Led majors in hits with a club record 211 and doubles (47); was second with 76 extra-base hits to the Expos' Andre Dawson (78) and was runner-up to major league leader Jim Rice (344) in total bases (343). Led the AL with 121 runs, just one off Frank Robinson's club record set in '66.

No Hall of Fame shortstop has ever had 211 hits in a season. Hughie Jennings and Dave Bancroft are the leaders, each with 209.

Stretch Run: During 44 games from August 13 thru September 25, a period in which the O's went 34-10 to win the Eastern Division Championship, hit .391 (75-192) with 14 doubles, nine homers, 30 RBI and 40 runs scored.

Post-Season: Batted a combined .273 (9-33) in nine post-season games. Drove in O's only run in ninth inning of ALCS Game 1, won by LaMarr Hoyt, 2-1. Made final putout of WS when he caught Garry Maddox's line drive in bottom of ninth, Game 5.

◆ 1982 ◆

Led all major league rookies in doubles, homers, RBI, total bases (284) GWRBI (11, tied with Von Hayes), games (160), at bats (663, led AL) and runs.

Missed only three games all year, none after May 29th (his games streak began the following day). Played 44 straight errorless games at third base from April 24 thru June 14.

Slow Start: After a glittering Opening Day on which he went 3-for-5 with his first big league double, homer (off KC's Dennis Leonard) and RBI, he plunged into a deep slump (4-for-55). Was batting only .117 (7-60) on May 1 after 18 games and his career big league avg over two seasons was at that point .121 (12-99) in 41 games.

Start of Something Big: The next day, May 2, he picked up a pair of scratch hits and was beaned by fellow rookie Mike Moore. Missed only one game after the beaning, however, and batted .281 (151-538) from May 2 to the end of the season.

◆ 1981 ◆

Recalled from Rochester August 8 after the major league player strike was settled. Made big league debut in the first game after the strike, vs KC in Bal August 10 as pinch runner after Ken Singleton led off the 12th with a double. Scored winning run in "sudden death" when, after an intentional walk to Eddie Murray, John Lowenstein singled off RHP Renie Martin to drive him in.

His first hit was a single off Chicago's Dennis Lamp on August 16, also at Memorial Stadium.

Played in 12 games at shortstop (9 starts) and six at third base. After September 11, didn't make a plate appearance, and appeared in only two games.

Rochester: Despite his early recall from Rochester, was voted Rookie of the Year in the International League, and was named to the loop's All-Star team at third base. In survey of IL's managers and coaches, was picked as top major league prospect in the league (Von Hayes was 2nd). Played in 85 games at third base for Red Wings and 35 at shortstop (primarily when Bob Bonner was injured).

MINORS

Played mostly shortstop in 1978 in Bluefield. Played in Florida Instructional League after both '78 and '79 seasons. Was Southern League's All-Star third baseman in '80 and tied for league lead in games. One of 2 Charlotte players that year to break club's home run record: Rip had 25 and Drungo Hazewood had 28. Cal had homered only 8 times in his 2 previous pro seasons combined. He also led SL third basemen in fielding (.933, TC-415, E-28).

Helped Caguas win Puerto Rican title after the '80 season (the first of his two seasons in Caribbean winter ball).

In '79, he was picked as shortstop on Topps' Class A All-Star team, though he played more games at third (58) than at shortstop (52). Led Florida State League in doubles that year.

SIGNING: Was signed by the late Dick Bowie June 13, '78 after the club drafted him June 4. Orioles Scouting Director Gary Nickels had scouted him at that time for the Chicago Cubs.

AMATEUR BACKGROUND

Pitched and played short at Aberdeen (MD) High (graduated '78). Was 7-2 with an 0.70 ERA as a senior with 100 strikeouts in 60 innings. He also won Harford County bat title (.492) and had 29 RBI in 20 games. Pitched a two-hitter and fanned 17 to win '78 Maryland Class A Baseball championship game.

Was voted American Amateur Baseball Congress (AABC) Graduate of the Year in '86, an honor won previously by Eddie Murray ('84) and many other prominent major leaguers. Also earned two letters in soccer. Was team captain and both an All-County and All-Metro selection. Played Little League, Babe Ruth and Mickey Mantle League baseball. Led Putty Hill, MD team to Mickey Mantle World Series in Sherman, TX (lost in a best-of-3 competition).

IN THE COMMUNITY

Cal supports the community actively and in a variety of ways, including the establishment of The Kelly and Cal Ripken, Jr. Foundation, which supports community adult and family literacy; youth recreation; and recreational programs. In 1989, Cal and his wife, Kelly, contributed $250,000 to the City of Baltimore to establish an adult literacy program in conjunction with Baltimore Reads, Inc. The Ripken Learning Center opened in July 1990, and annually serves 240 students within the city. The program is supportive of Mayor Kurt L. Schmoke's "The City That Reads" initiative. In 1994, The Foundation provided Baltimore Reads, Inc./The Ripken Learning Center with a $100,000 challenge grant.

Winterfest: In November, 1991, Cal and Kelly hosted the Winterfest for Literacy, a baseball memorabilia show in Baltimore featuring a number of past and present major leaguers, including Kirby Puckett, Eddie Murray, Jim Palmer, Brooks Robinson, Bill Ripken, and Cal, Sr. The event raised more than $200,000 for The Ripken Learning Center.

Reading, Runs, and Ripken: In 1991, Cal, in conjunction with Baltimore Reads, Inc., established the Reading, Runs, and Ripken program. The program has raised over $260,000 for literacy programs in Baltimore via donations based the number of RBIs Cal had during a season.

Because We Care: Cal continues to donate tickets to every Orioles home game. He and Eddie Murray initiated this program in the mid-1980's.

Sam Hulett Fund: In 1992, Cal and Kelly made a donation of $50,000 to the Johns Hopkins Children's Center toward the establishment of The Sam Hulett Fund in memory of the son of Orioles' infielder Tim Hulett, who was struck by a car and killed in July of that year.

Baltimore School for the Arts: The Ripkens continue to support the Baltimore School for the Arts.

Cal participated in Pam Shriver's Tennis Challenge in 1990, 1993, and 1995. The Challenge benefits the Baltimore Community Foundation.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

Cal and the former Kelly Geer were married November 13, '87. Kelly, from Cockeysville, MD, is a graduate of Dulaney High School and the University of Maryland...The Ripkens have two children: Rachel Marie (11/22/89) and Ryan Calvin (7/26/93), born on an Orioles off day.

THE RIPKEN FAMILY: Cal played with his brother Bill at second base for 5-1/2 seasons (July 11, '87 thru '92) and is reunited in '95. Also played parts of 12 seasons with his father in an O's uniform as a coach and manager. All three were together in '87, when Cal Sr became the first father ever to manage two sons simultaneously in major league baseball history (regular season). In addition to younger brother Bill (30), Cal has another brother, Fred (November, 25,'61), and a sister Ellen Leigh (March 22, '59).

THREE FROM THE SAME FAMILY: Wearing the same uniform at the same time is a rarity matched only three times before in baseball history: 1973-Jose, Hector & Tommy Cruz for St. Louis; 1963-Felipe, Matty & Jesus Alou for San Francisco; 1876-George, Sam & Harry Wright for Boston in the National League (Harry, a Hall of Famer, was the manager and pitched briefly; George was an outfielder-70 games in '76; and Sam, a shortstop, appeared in only two games that year...We're assuming they were all in uniform together)...We count a total of 17 families with three or more representatives in the majors.

FATHER: Cal Sr. spent 15 years on the O's coaching staff, 13-1/2 as 3rd base coach. He joined the staff in '76. Managed for 14+ seasons in professional baseball, all in the Orioles' organization. His 13+ years as a manager in the Birds' farm system ('61-'74) represent the longest tenure of any minor league skipper in Orioles' history. During that span Cal managed at all levels except rookie league. Earned the reputation as perhaps the best teacher of young players in Orioles history.

Following the '86 season he replaced Earl Weaver to become only the seventh non-interim manager in the club's history. Was replaced by Frank Robinson on April 12, '88 after the O's lost the first six games of the season (a streak that went to 21 before it ended). His overall record as manager was 68-101, .402.

Rip was a catcher in the O's organization, although he also played some third base and outfield and even pitched. He enjoyed his best year under Weaver at Fox Cities (Appleton, WI) in '60. He became a player-manager the following year.

BILL AND CAL, DP DUO: Cal and Bill Ripken were the fifth set of brothers to form a second base-shortstop duo in major league history: Granny and Garvin Hamner of the '45 Phillies; Lou and Dino Chiozza of the '35 Phillies; Milt and Frank Bolling of the '58 Tigers; and Eddie and Johnny O'Brien of the '53 and '55-'56 Pirates.

Most ever: The two Rips have played in 663 games together, started 634 games and turned 287 double plays. Prior to the Ripkens, the most any brother double play combination had ever played side by side in the majors were approximately 100 games by Pittsburgh's O'Brien twins.

Only 11 errors combined: In '90, Cal and Bill accounted for a total of only 11 errors, the fewest in major league history by a qualifying (each playing 2/3 of their club's games at their respective positions) keystone combination. Next lowest total is 13 in 1990 by Toronto's Tony Fernandez and Manny Lee.

Triple Play: On June 15, '89, vs New York, the two Rips teamed up on a triple play against the Yankees, the first by the Orioles in more than 10 years .

Both homered: On September 15, '90 at Tor, Cal and Bill each homered, the only game in which that happened. They were the first brothers to homer in the same game since Graig (NY) and Jim Nettles (Det) did it September 14, '74. Both Bill and Cal homered in the fifth inning off David Wells, the 15th time brothers had homered in the same game and the fifth time in the same inning (first since Hank and Tommy Aaron for the Milwaukee Braves on July 12, '62).

1-Selected by Blue Jays in second round of 1982 June Draft
2-Signed by the Tigers as a free agent on 4/3/93
3-Acquired by Reds for P C.J. Nitkowski and P Dave Tuttle on 7/31/95
4-Acquired by the Orioles for OF Curtis Goodwin and minor league OF Trovin Valdez on 12/26/95

1995 SEASON SUMMARY

• Split the season between Detroit and Cincinnati and combined to go 16-8 with a 3.24 ERA (203.0IP, 73ER) in 29 starts...Acquired by the Reds on July 31 from the Tigers in exchange for pitchers C.J. Nitkowski and Dave Tuttle and a player to be named later.

• Led the Reds with three complete games despite being with the club for only two months...Picked up his third complete game as a member of the Reds on September 14 with a four-hitter over the Padres.

• Won 14 of his final 20 starts between Detroit and Cincinnati, including one no decision and a 3.14 ERA (143.1IP, 132H, 50ER) over that stretch...Was a perfect 9-0 in his last 15 starts for the Tigers after beginning the season losing three of his first five starts, despite a 2.86 ERA.

• Tossed consecutive complete games against St. Louis, August 23 at Busch Stadium and August 28 at Riverfront, compiling a 1.50 ERA in 18.0 innings pitched...His 3-1 victory on August 23 marked his first complete game in the National League.

• Suffered his first loss as a member of the Reds on August 13 at Florida, but collected his first major league hit (a single)...It was his first loss since May 18 when he dropped a 3-2 decision to the Orioles.

• In the post-season, David was 1-1 in two starts with a 2.19 ERA (12.1IP, 14H, 3ER, 3BB, 11K)...Defeated Hideo Nomo in Game 3 of the Division Series against the Dodgers...Went 6.1 innings and tied his NL high by striking out eight batters in the 10-1 victory...In Game 3 of the NLCS he allowed the Braves three runs in six innings on a three-run homer to O'Brien in the sixth inning.

PRO CAREER

◆ 1994 ◆

Season was interrupted by arthroscopic surgery to remove bone chips from his left elbow...Placed on the disabled list on April 16 and surgery was performed by Dr. James Andrews on April 20...Rehabbed at Lakeland and recalled from rehabilitation assignment on June 4...Was 1-2 in three starts before surgery and 4-5 after return...Led Tigers starters with a 3.96 ERA...Led the Detroit staff with five complete games, including three in his last five starts... Fired his first major league shutout, a three-hit, 4-0 effort, in his last start on August 10 vs. Milwaukee, including a team-high eight strikeouts...Walked just eight batters in his last eight starts, covering 61.2 innings pitched...During one stretch he faced 156 batters without yielding a walk...Notched Detroit's first win of the year, April 10 at New York and their last win, August 10 vs the Brewers.

◆ 1993 ◆

Signed as a free agent by the Tigers two days before the start of the season...Through June 19 he was 9-1 with a 2.68 ERA...Won nine of his first 15 starts, including first three...Recorded career-highs with 30 starts and 136 strikeouts...Struck out a career-high 11 batters on June 4 vs California...That followed a 10-strikeout performance on May 30 vs the Mariners...Although he did not pitch a complete game, he pitched at least seven innings 14 times... Made 23 straight starts before pitching twice in relief...Suffered inflamed left elbow and was placed on the disabled list on August 10 (retroactive to August 1)...Activated on August 20.

◆ 1992 ◆

◆ ORIOLES 1995 SUMMARY ◆
YEAR IN REVIEW

Team Notes

The Orioles led the American League with a home attendance of 3,098,47 over 72 home dates...It represented the second highest total in major league baseball behind only the Colorado Rockies...1995 marked the third year in club history that the team surpassed the 3 million mark in home attendance (19 & 1993)...The Orioles averaged 43,034 fans per game at Oriole Park a Camden Yards, the highest average in the A.L. and second highest averag in the majors behind Colorado.

On May 12 the Orioles reached the 10 Million mark in attendance at Oriole Par at Camden Yards...It came in the 221st date at Oriole Park...Camden Yard was the second quickest ballpark to reach the 10 million mark in attendanc to Toronto's Skydome which did it in 206 dates.

The Orioles pitching staff paced the American League with 19 complet Games and tied for the league lead with 10 shutouts...The O's staff was tagge with 33 unearned runs, the fewest in the league...In addition, Orioles hurler limited opposing hitters to a league-low .245 batting average, allowed the fewest hits in the league (1165) and threw the fewest wild pitches (30).

Orioles pitchers led the American League with 46 low-run complete Games...Th O's staff tossed 10 shutouts, 10 1-run games and 26 2-run games...Th Yankees were second with 42.

Baltimore tied New York for the best fielding percentage in the American League (.986) and their 72 errors were the fewest in the league. The club fielding percentage of .9864 is a new team record eclipsing the old mark of .9863 set in 1994.

Orioles pinch-hitters compiled a league-best .310 (40-129) batting average and their 9 pinch-doubles paced the league.

On September 5 & 6 at Oriole Park at Camden Yards, Orioles shortstop Cal Ripken, Jr. tied and surpassed the previously thought to be unbreakable record of 2,130 consecutive games held by the Yankees' Lou Gehrig...In the 2-game celebration, the Orioles defeated the Angels 8-0 & 4-2, respectively...In the game of September 5 the Orioles tied club records for most HR in a game in Baltimore with 6 and tied another team mark with 4 HR in an inning when Chris Hoiles, Jeff Manto, Mark Smith and Brady Anderson all went deep in the 2nd inning.

The Orioles closed out the season by going 9-1 in their final 10 games...In addition, the Birds pitching staff matched a league and club record by pitching five consecutive shutouts, four the complete game...The Orioles victories came from CG shutouts from Mike Mussina, Scott Erickson, Kevin Brown and a combined shutout by Ben McDonald, Jimmy Haynes and Jesse Orosco, and Mussina again on the last day of the season...The record that the O's tied to end the year was set September 2-6, 1974 with five straight CG shutouts by Ross Grimsley, Mike Cuellar, Jim Palmer, Dave McNally and Cuellar again.

The Orioles concluded the '95 campaign with 45.0 consecutive shutout innings pitched...The American League and team record for consecutive shutout innings is 54.0 set by the Orioles, September 1 (last inning) through September 7 (first eight innings), 1974.

* Tie Games: In 40 seasons, the Orioles have played 6347 games, including 9 ties, all in Baltimore (one in '82 and 8 others between '55 and '64). Most were Baltimore curfew related. Those curfews, which prohibited starting an inning after 11:59 pm 6 days a week and required the immediate suspension of play at 11:59 pm on Saturdays, are no longer in effect.

The ties were played against Chicago-4, Kansas City A's-2; Milwaukee-1, New York-1, and Oakland-1

Legend: 1-includes Los Angeles, '61-'65; 2-includes Seattle, '69; 3-includes Washington '54-60; 4-includes Philadelphia '54 & Kansas City '55-67; 5-includes Washington, '61-'71.

◆ ORIOLES 1995 MINOR LEAGUE SUMMARY ◆

For only the second time in the last six seasons, the Orioles' farm system did not post a winning record. The Orioles' six minor league affiliates finished with an overall mark of 328-357, a .479 winning percentage. Two clubs did win their division, however, as the Rochester Red Wings took the International League East title and the Bluefield Orioles won the Appalachian League North crown. Rochester lost in the divisional playoffs, while Bluefield lost in the Appalachian League championship series.

In all, 15 players from the farm system advanced to the Orioles' major league roster during the season.

Strong pitching performances dominated the individual accomplishments in the Orioles' farm system. RHP ROCKY COPPINGER started the season at Class A Frederick and advanced to AA Bowie and AAA Rochester by season's end. He was successful at each stop, finishing with an overall 16-3 record and earning another victory in the International League playoffs. The 16 victories was 4th best in all the minor leagues. Coppinger also was 5th in ERA (1.97) and innings pitched (187) and 6th in strikeouts (172) among all minor league players for the season. He was named to Baseball America's 1995 Minor League All-Star Team.

Bowie, Frederick and High Desert all led their leagues in errors and finished last in team fielding.

The Orioles' six participants in the 1995 Arizona Fall League following the season all spent the bulk of their time at AA Bowie: LHR Aaron Lane, RHR Scott Conner, RHP Garrett Stephenson, C B.J. Waszgis, 1B Billy Owens and 3B Scott McClain.

◆ ROCHESTER (AAA) ◆

The Red Wings won the International League's Eastern Division crown with a 73-69 record. It was Rochester's fourth regular season title in the last eight seasons. The Wings lost to eventual champion Ottawa, 3 games to 2, in the division series. It was the 6th time since the divisional format was established 10 years ago that the Red Wings had reached the playoffs, most by any IL club in that time. In their final season in Silver Stadium, the Red Wings drew 402,127 fans, second highest attendance total in franchise history.

- Rochester used 62 players (28 position players and 34 pitchers), most since the Wings became part of the Orioles farm system in 1961, and had a club-record 134 player transactions.

- Rochester pitchers allowed 398 walks, fewest in the IL.

- Of the five IL pitchers who won 11 or more games in '95, four of them hurled for the Red Wings. RHP JIMMY HAYNES and LHP JIMMY WILLIAMS tied for the IL lead with 12 victories apiece, although Williams, acquired from the Mets in the Bobby Bonilla trade, won 11 of his 12 games for Norfolk. RHP JOHN DE SILVA and RHP KEVIN McGEHEE each won 11 games for the Red Wings.

◆ BOWIE (AA) ◆

After starting the season 3-16, the Baysox came back to post a 68-74 record, finishing 3rd in the Eastern League's Southern Division. They finished only 5 games out of first and were not eliminated from playoff contention until the season's final week. Bowie set an Eastern League attendance record, drawing 463,975 fans despite four rainouts.

- The Baysox used 62 different players, tying Rochester for the most ever by an Orioles affiliate. Only one pitcher and three positions players were with the club long enough to qualify for post-season All-Star team honors.

1996p236-237

◆ FREDERICK (A) ◆

The Keys did not contend for the Carolina League's Northern Division title. After finishing 27-41 and in fourth (last) place in the season's first half, they improved to 31-38 and moved up to third place during the second half. The Keys finished third in the league in attendance, drawing 300,968 fans.

• The Keys finished last in the league in batting (.234) and home runs (67). Frederick pitchers led the league in strikeouts with 1,018.

◆ HIGH DESERT (A) ◆

With the league's youngest and most inexperienced team, the Mavericks finished at the bottom of the California League's Southern Division in both the first and second half of the season. They were 22-48 in the first half and were 24-46 in the second half. The Mavericks finished third in attendance in the 10-team league, attracting 146,355 for 70 games.

◆ BLUEFIELD (Rookie) ◆

The Orioles posted a 49-16 record, winning the Appalachian League North Division by 17 games. Their .754 winning percentage was the ninth-best ever posted by a National Association short-season ballclub. Bluefield lost the championship series, 2 games to 1, to Kingsport. The Orioles drew 45,127 fans for 33 home games, third-highest total in the 10-team league.

• The Orioles had the best record in the minors (23-5) in July. They also posted a 16-game winning streak, longest in the minor leagues during the past three years.

• Bluefield led the league with a .293 team batting average. 30 points higher than second-place Elizabethtown and Kingsport. Orioles pitchers also led the league with a 3.22 team ERA.

◆ GULF COAST (Rookie) ◆

The Orioles finished second in the Northwest Division with a 34-25 record, 2.5 games behind the division winning White Sox. The Orioles had the seventh-best record overall among the GCL's 16 teams.

◆ DOMINICAN SUMMER LEAGUE ◆

The Orioles/Chicago White Sox combined team finished fourth with a 30-40 record in the San Pedro de Macoris Division.

Notes on 20-Game Winners

Although the Orioles have not had one in the past 9 years, Baltimore pitchers have produced 23 20-game seasons in the past 26 years (starting '68), substantially more than any other major league club (Oakland is next with 14).

From '68 thru '80, a span of 13 years, at least one Oriole pitcher accumulated 20 or more victories to set a major lealgue record. The old standard was 12 by the New York Giants from '03 to '14, a mark single-handedly assured by Christy Mathewson, who won 20 + in each of those years.

In 1971, four Baltimore pitchers reached the 20-win plateau. The only other foursome in the entire history of major league baseball to have achieved the feat was a quartet from the 1920 White Sox (51 years earlier): Urban "Red" Faber-23, Claude Williams-22, Dickie Kerr-21, and Ed Cicotte-21. Despite that achievement, the White Sox finished second that year, two games behind Cleveland.

The four Orioles all won their 20th games within 6 days: McNally was the first on 9/21; then in a series in Cleveland, the other three joined him: Cuellar (9/24—first game-clinched division title), Dobson (9/24—2nd game), and Palmer (9/26).

Stone was the earliest 20-game winner in club history, winning his 20th game on August 19 en route to a team record 25 victories in '80. Three other Orioles' hurlers have recorded their 20th wins in August: McNally (8/25) and Cuellar (8/27) in '71 and Palmer (8/20) in '75.

The first Oriole to win 20, and the only one in the club's first 14 seasons in Baltimore ('54 thru '67) was lefthander Steve Barber in '63.

BIGGEST LIFETIME WINNERS/LOSERS VS. O'S

WINNERS: Though he has been retired since 1967, Whitey Ford, the Yankee Hall of Famer, still holds the distinction of having beaten the Orioles more than anyone else. He was 30-16 against the Birds.

Ford was one of 13 pitchers to have posted 20 or more lifetime wins against the O's in 38 Baltimore seasons. The others: "Catfish" Hunter (26-24), Mickey Lolich (25-19), Billy Pierce (23-11), Early Wynn and Frank Sullivan (both 21-8), Jim Kaat (21-21), Earl Wilson (20-9), Luis Tiant (20-22), Jim Perry (20-22), Camilo Pascual (20-23), Bert Blyleven (20-14) and Frank Tanana (21-17).

LOSERS: Hunter, the 2nd biggest winner vs. Baltimore (26), is also the biggest lifetime loser (24)...At one time, "Catfish" had a 23-16 lifetime record vs. the O's but then lost 8 of his last 11 decisions against them from '76 thru '79.

There have been 4 other 20-game losers: Luis Tiant and Jim Perry (22 each), Fritz Peterson (14-21), and Jim Kaat (21)...Other big losers were Mickey Lolich (19), Gaylord Perry (12-19) and Sam McDowell (9-19)...From a percentage standpoint, Jim Colborn, formerly of Brewers, Royals and Mariners, with a .150 (3-17) and Rudy May at .167 (3-15) rank near the bottom of the list.

Others who've had little success against Baltimore include: Goeff Zahn (2-11), Matt Keough (1-8), Milt Wilcox (4-12), Jim Beattie (3-11) and Mike Caldwell (3-9).

Nolan Ryan finished with a 10-17 lifetime record against the Orioles.

GRAND SLAM NOTES

O's lead the Majors since '80: The Orioles have belted 73 grand slams starting with '80, 6 more than any other club. The Red Sox are next with 67.

Thru the Years: The O's have "outslammed" their opponents 157-105 over the last 42 years (including an 87-49 advantage at Baltimore,12-8 at Oriole Park at Camden Yards).

Three in One Game: The Orioles and Texas set a major league record on Aug 6, '86 when the two teams combined to hit three grand slams in Texas'13-11 win at Memorial Stadium (the record was equaled on June 3, '87, Hou vs. Chi)...Jim Dwyer and Larry Sheets hit grand slams for the O's, both in the 4th inning. It marked only the 5th time in major league history that one club has hit 2 grand slams in a single inning. It was the 4th time the O's had hit 2 grands slams in the same game. Toby Harrah hit Texas' slam.

Two in a Game: Only 7 players have hit two grand slams in one game in baseball history and only 3 have hit them on consecutive at-bats. In both situations, two of then were Orioles: Jim Gentile hit two in a row at Minnesota onMay 9, '61 (Metropolitan Staduim off Pete Ramos and Paul Giel), and Frank Robinson did the same on June 26, '70 at RFK Staduim in Washington (off Joe Coleman and Joe Grzenda).

Gentile Hit 5 in '61: Gentile set an American League record and tied the major league standard in '61 when he hit 5 bases loaded home runs. The only prior player to reach that total was the Cubs' Ernie Banks in '55. In '87, Don Mattingly of the Yankees broke that record by hitting 6 grand slams.

Post-Season Slams-Slugging Pitchers: Only two pitchers have ever hit grand slam home runs in post-season play. Both were Orioles at the time,and both did it in 1970. In Game 1 of the '70 ALCS, Mike Cuellar hit one off of the Twins' Jim Perry (at Minny) and in Game 3 of the World Series vs. the Reds, Dave McNally found the range off Wayne Granger (at Baltimore).

The blast by Cuellar was the only ALCS grand slam ever until Don Baylor hit one for the Angels vs. Milwaukee in '82 (off Moose Haas)...Only two bases loaded homers have ever been hit in NLCS play: the Dodgers' Ron Cey and Dusty Baker in '77.

Opponents: During a 3-game massacre at Detroit, Aug 10-12, '93, the O's tied a ML record by allowing grand slams in 3 consecutive games. That mark was set by the 1901 Reds and tied by the 1978 O's. The first 2 slams were hit by Dan Gladden...Eight opponents have hit two career slams each against the O's.Nobody has hit more...Three have hit two at Memorial Stadium: Roy Sievers (Wash), Moose Skowron (NY), Mike Epstein (Wash). There have been 13 alien pitchers to throw up two grand slams each to Baltimore batters.

Orioles "Gophers": Among Orioles pitchers, Milt Pappas was the most generous. He gave up 6 bases loaded homers during his tenure in Baltimore and allowed 9 overall in his major league career, tying Jerry Reuss (1969-90) and Ned Garver (1948-61) for most career slams allowed in the majors. DaveMcNally and Scott McGregor, are next in line with 4 apiece. On the other hand , Jim Palmer never allowed a slam in 558 games spanning nearly 4,000 innings.

Notes: Although they consistently rank at or near the top of the league in team fielding, the Orioles have only 2 Gold Gloves to show for their efforts over the past 10 seasons, both by Cal Ripken (in '91 and '92)...Last year, the O's were 2st in the majors with a .986 team fielding average, but, individually, the O's were absent when the Gold Gloves were awarded.

Cal's award in '92 extended the Orioles' totals to 50 Gold Gloves, the most among AL teams since the award was created in 1957...Only one ML team, St. Louis, has won more Gold Gloves than the O's.

Winners by club through the years: Cardinals-57 1/2*, ORIOLES-50, Yankees-44, Pirates & Reds-42 each, Tigers-35, Red Sox-34, Phillies & White Sox-32 each, Cubs-30, Dodgers-29, Twins-27, Braves-24, Giants-23, Angels-21, Expos-18, Rangers-17, Royals-16, Blue Jays-15, Athletics, Indians, & Padres-14 each, Astros, -13, Mariners-11, Mets-10 1/2*, Brewers-9, Marlins-1, Original Senators-1.

33 Gold Gloves in 11 Years: During the 11-year period from '69 thru '79, the Orioles won 33 Gold Gloves including 4 each in '69, '71, '73, '74 & '75...Starting with 1980, only 2 Orioles have won the award: Eddie Murray, '82- '84 and Cal Ripken, '91-'92.

Multiple Winners: A total of 9 Orioles have won multiple Gold Gloves...Leading the list is Brooks Robinson whose 16 awards are matched only by pitcher Jim Kaat for the most won by an individual (Roberto Clemente & Willie Mays are tied for 3rd with 12 each)...Others: Paul Blair & Mark Belanger (8 each); Jim Palmer & Bobby Grich (4 each); Dave Johnson & Eddie Murray (3 each), Cal Ripken (2) and Luis Aparicio (2, total of 9 in his ML career).

Since '57: The Gold Glove Awards were initiated in '57 by the Rawlings Sporting Goods Company in cooperation with The Sporting News to acknowledge individual defensive excellence by a vote of managers and coaches in each league...Selection is based on a player's overall defensive ability, not simply on fielding percentage.

* Keith Hernandez played for both the Cardinals and Mets when he was chosen in '83.

ALL-STAR NOTES

ALL-STAR WEEK 1993: Major League Baseball's 64th All-Star Game was held at Oriole Park at Camden Yards on July 13, '93. The AL's lopsided 9-3 win - their 6th straight- climaxed baseball's first ever "All-Star Week."

Approximately $31.5 million was generated for the Baltimore area and its businesses as a result of All-Star Week, a 5-day celebration in which the entire region immersed itself in a bountiful flood of special events and promotions surrounding the All-Star Game. FanFest, an unparalleled baseball theme park which has accompanied the All-Star Game for the past 3 years, welcomed a record 111,883 visitors during the week.

Perhaps the most lasting memories from All-Star Week came on Monday, July 12, at the annual Gatorade All-Star Workout. Juan Gonzales crushed several of the longest balls ever hit in Baltimore, including a ball off the facing of the 3rd deck in left field, and Ken Griffey Jr. became the first player to hit the B&O Warehouse. Camden Yards proved to be yet another launching pad for Reggie Jackson who banged a home run onto the right field flag court in an impromptu batting practice after the old-timers game and then jogged the bases to the chants of "Reggie-Reggie."

A Camden Yards record crowd of 48,147 attended the All-Star Game, the first in Baltimore since '58, baseball's 25th mid-summer classic.

Cal Ripken was the only Oriole to play in the game and was 0-for-3 with 2 groundouts and a strikeout, but received what was probably the loudest ovation in the park's 2-year history when he was introduced as the starting shortstop. Orioles RHP Mike Mussina warmed-up in the 9th inning, but didn't get in the game much to the displeasure of the partisan crowd.

ALL-STAR STARTS/APPEARANCES: Eight different Orioles have been selected starters in 25 years of fan voting. In addition to Cal and Brooks, Orioles who have been chosen to starting berths are Boog Powell and Frank Robinson (2 each), and Bobby Grich, Ken Singleton, Eddie Murray and Terry Kennedy (once each).

ORIOLES ALL STAR MVPs: The Orioles have had 4 All-Star MVPs, with Cal Ripken in 1991 the most recent...In that game, played at Toronto's SkyDome, Cal was 2-for-3 with a 3-run homer off former teammate Dennis Martinez and a single off Cy Young-winner Tom Glavine to lead the AL to a 4-2 win...Cal became only the 3rd shortstop to hit a home run in an All-Star Game joining Dick McAuliffe ('65) and Lou Boudreau ('42)...In the home run hitting contest the day before the All-Star game, Cal hit an incredible 12 home runs in 22 swings to help the AL to a 20-7 pasting of the NL.

Billy O'Dell hurled 3 perfect innings to save the AL's 4-3 win in Baltimore in 1958.

Brooks Robinson won the trophy in St. Louis in 1966 on the strength of a 3-for-4 effort including a triple and an 8-for-8 performance afield...He was the first player from a losing team to be so honored.

Frank Robinson's 4th-inning homer at Detroit in the 1971 game put the AL ahead to stay and earned him MVP honors...It was the AL's first All-Star victory since 1962 and its last until 1983.

ORIOLES ALL-STAR HOMERS: In '91, Cal became the 4th and most recent Oriole to homer in All-Star play joining Brooks (7/11/67 at Anaheim off Fergie Jenkins, none on); Frank (7/13/71 at Detroit off Dock Ellis, one on) and Ken Singleton (8/9/81 at Cleveland off Tom Seaver, solo).

ORIOLES POST-SEASON NOTES

ALCS: The Orioles are 18-8 (.692) in ALCS.

The O's won the first 10 ALCS games they played (including the first 9 ever played)...They swept the Twins twice('69-70) and A's ('71) in the first 3 ALCS, then won game #1 against Oakland in '73 before losing the second game that year...The Orioles are 9-4 both at home and on the road.

WORLD SERIES: Baltimore has gone 3-3 in 6 WS, but has a .576 pct in games (19-14)...The Birds are 10-7 at home and 9-7 away.

POST SEASON TOTAL: In 59 post-season games, the O's are 37-22 (.627). They are 19-11 at home and 18-11 away.

ATTENDANCE: In 26 ALCS games, the O's have played to 1,013,997, an average of 39,000. They've played 13 of those at home and have drawn 544,691 (average 41,899).

In 33 World Series games, attendance has totaled 1,769,179 (average 53,611). At home for 17 WS dates, the Birds have pulled 877,518 (average 51,610).

The Orioles' 59 total post-season games have attracted 2,783,176 (average 47,172). At Memorial Stadium, there were 30 post-season events which have drawn a total of 1,422,209 (average 47,407).

The three biggest crowds to watch the O's in a WS were games 5, 4, & 3 (67,604); 66,947, and 65,792) of '83, all at Philadelphia. The largest attendance for a WS game in Baltimore was 54,458 for game #4 (final game) vs. Dodgers in '66.

The biggest house for an Orioles LCS game was 52,787 for game #1 at Baltimore vs. the Angels in '79 (the "Tonight, Let It Be Lowenstein" game).

ORIOLES ENSHRINED AT COOPERSTOWN

Eight modern Orioles have been selected to the Baseball Hall of Fame, 7 in the last 13 years (starting '82). Reggie Jackson, who played with the Orioles for one year ('76, when he led the club in homers with 27), was the latest to be chosen in 1993.

He was also the 4th Oriole, along with Frank and Brooks Robinson and Jim Palmer, to be selected in his first year of eligibility. They are 4 of only 25 first ballot electees among the 213 Hall of Fame members.

Palmer polled 92.6% of the total vote (411 of 444 ballots cast) in '90, the highest percentage ever by an Oriole and 4th among Hall of Fame pitchers behind Tom Seaver (98.8%, 425 of 430), Bob Feller (93.75% in '62) and Steve Carlton (95.8, 436 of 455). Seaver's percentage was the highest ever recorded in a Baseball Hall of Fame election.

Jim, Frank and Brooks are the only three Hall of Famers wearing modern Orioles uniforms in their official busts/portraits. Their biographies and statistics can be found under "Orioles Retired Numbers."

Another beloved Oriole was honored by the Hall of Fame in 1993 when veteran O's broadcaster Chuck Thompson became the recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award, presented by the Hall of Fame to a broadcaster for major contributions to the game of baseball.

MODERN ORIOLES IN BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

- Robin Roberts ('76, 87%)
- Frank Robinson ('82, 89%)
- Brooks Robinson ('83, 92%)

George Kell ('83, VCS+)
+ Veterans' Committee Selection

- Luis Aparicio ('84, 85%)
- Hoyt Wilhelm ('85, 84%)
- Jim Palmer ('90, 93%)
- Reggie Jackson ('93, 94%)

Fifteen others who played and/or managed for the Orioles during the Orioles' early days of Baltimore's rich baseball heritage are also enshrined in the Hall:

John McGraw (mgr, 3b)
Wilbert Robinson (mgr, c)
George Herman (Babe) Ruth (of)

3 More: There are 3 additional Hall of Famers to have represented the Orioles, though not as players: George Weiss, who immortalized himself as a general manager of the Yankees, served part of his apprenticeship as an International League Orioles general manager; the late Luke Appling, a legendary hitter/shortstop for the White Sox coached one year under Birds' Manager Billy Hitchcock and the late Burleigh Grimes, the famed spitball pitcher who won 270 games in the majors, scouted for the Orioles from '60 thru '71.

Notes: John McGraw had a .334 lifetime batting average in 16 big league seasons but was elected to the Hall of Fame primarily because of his achievements as a manager. The same is true of his buddy, Wilbert Robinson. Rube Marquard pitched only 30 innings for the Orioles, all in '27.

Baltimore-born Babe Ruth signed his first pro contract with Jack Dunn Sr in '14, and made his professional debut with the IL Orioles that year as a pitcher. Chief Bender was based in Baltimore twice. He pitched both for the '27 Orioles (G-18, W-6 L-3) and the '15 Baltimore Terrapins (W-4, L-16) in the ill-fated Federal League.

Other native Marylanders in the Hall of Fame include "Home Run Baker" (Trappe), Lefty Grove (Lonaconing), and 4 others who never played for the Orioles: Jimmie Foxx (Sudlersville), Judy Johnson (Snow Hill), Al Kaline (Baltimore), and Vic Willis (Elkton), who was elected in 1995.

THE ORIOLES HALL OF FAME

The Orioles Hall of Fame was conceived in '77 by the Oriole Advocates at the suggestion of 2 former presidents, Allen Barrett and Jack Buckley, both of whom have since passed away. The Advocates continue to administer the annual elections, this year under the direction of Hall of Fame Committee chairman Jack Guthall.

There are 2 ways a candidate can enter the Orioles Hall of Fame: the regular Orioles Hall of Fame vote, by a constituency of some 80 people comprising sports writers and announcers, Oriole Advocates and Orioles personnel; and by vote of the veterans committee, a group of 25 senior representatives from the sports media, the Oriole Advocates and the Orioles front office. To be eligible for veteran committee selection, the candidate must have ceased serving in the capacity of consideration for at least 20 years.

The veterans committee was formed in '89 in an effort to offset any injustices inflicted on those who might have been passed over unfairly by younger voters not familiar with the extent of their contributions to the Orioles. Six Orioles have gained admission to the O's Hall of Fame by veterans vote: Stu Miller, Jim Gentile, Hank Bauer and Hal (Skinny) Brown, Gene Woodling and Don Buford.

The procedures in both elections are based on those used by the National Baseball Hall of Fame, requiring mention on 75% of ballots cast. Candidates to be eligible for either selection process, must have served a minimum of 3 full years with the Orioles.

To be eligible for the regular election, a player manager or coach must have ceased serving in the position for which he was nominated for at least one year.

TRIPLE PLAYS

The Orioles have executed 11 triple plays and hit into 15 in 41 seasons...

On Aug 25, '92, at home against California, the Orioles pulled the 11th triple play in club history...With runners on first and 3rd, Gary Gaetti lined out to third baseman Leo Gomez, who stepped on the bag and threw to first to "triple up" Chad Curtis (L-5-5-3).

On Aug 30 at Seattle in the most recent triple play involving the Orioles, Mike Devereaux lined into a 9-4-6-6. With Randy Milligan at 1st and Brady Anderson at 2nd, Devereaux lined out to Mariners' RF Jay Buhner who made a great diving catch. Buhner then threw the ball to 2b, Harold Reynolds, who tossed the ball to ss Omar Vizquel who stepped on 2nd to get Anderson, then tagged out Milligan.

ORIOLES RETIRED NUMBERS

EARL WEAVER—4

Only 13 managers in the 20th century won more games than Earl's 1,480 victories, all with the Orioles. His .583 winning pct. (1,480-1060) over 17 seasons in Baltimore ranks 7th on the all-time list of those who managed 10 or more years exclusively in this century.

Earl was a minor league 2nd baseman for 13 years, mostly in his hometown St. Louis Cardinals organization. He began his managing career in the minors in 1956 and joined the Orioles organization a year later. He came up to the Orioles as 1st base coach in 1968 and was named manager on July 11 of that year. From 1969 through 1982, he won 6 A.L. East titles, 4 A.L. pennants and 1 World Series, beating the Cincinatti Reds in 1970. Earl's Orioles won 100 games or more 5 times, and he earned Manager of the Year honors 3 times.

He retired following the 1982 season, which ended 1-game shy of another A.L. East title when the Orioles lost to the Milwaukee Brewers on the final day of the season. He came back to manage in mid-1985 for 1 1/2 years before retiring for good. The only time in his year 17 seasons as manager that he posted a losing record was his last, in 1986.

Earl and his wife, Marianna, live in Hialeah, FL. He has a son and 2 daughters from a previous marriage as well as a step-daughter.

BROOKS ROBINSON—5

"Mr. Oriole" spent 23 seasons with the Orioles and started 20 consecutive opening day games. He won the A.L. Most Valuable Player Award in 1964 and shares the record (with former pitcher Jim Kaat) for most Gold Gloves with 16. His election to baseball's Hall of Fame (his 1st year of eligibility in 1983) was cemented with his performance against the Cincinnati Reds in the 1970 World Series, when he was named MVP and earned the nickname "Hoover" (as in vacuum cleaners) for his play in the field.

Brooks played in 18 All-Star games and is the Orioles' all-time leader in games, at bats, hits, doubles, triples, total bases, RBI and extra base hits. In addition to his A.L. MVP Award in "64 and his World Series MVP Award in "70, he was the All-Star Game MVP in 1966 and was voted the Most Valuable Oriole in "60, "62, "64 and co-winner in "71 with Frank Robinson. He also earned the Commissioner's Trophy (now the Roberto Clemente Award) for exemplifying the game of baseball in 1972 and the Joe Cronin Award for significant achievement by an A.L. player in 1977.

Brooks holds 10 major league fielding records and 3 American League records for third basemen, including highest lifetime fielding percentage (.971). He is 8th an the all-time list of games played, 3rd in the A.L. and 4th in games played with one franchise.

A native of Little Rock, AR, Brooks and his wife, Connie, have four children. They split their time living in the northern Baltimore suburbs and in Southern California.

FRANK ROBINSON—20

Frank's achievements during his 21 seasons as a player rank him among the top players of all-time in 10 categories. He hit 586 home runs, 4th on the all-time list.

The trade that brought Frank from Cincinnati to Baltimore turned the Orioles from contenders to World Champions in 1966. He won the Triple Crown (.316 average, 49 homers, 122 RBI) and was both the A.L. and World Series MVP in his 1st season with the Orioles. In all, the Orioles went to the World Series 4 times in his 6 seasons as a player with them. When he was traded to the Dodgers after the '71 season, he became the 1st to have his number retired by the Orioles.

Frank was N.L. Rookie of the Year with the Reds in 1956 and is the only player to win MVP honors in both leagues ('61 N.L., '66 A.L.). He played in 11 All-Star games and was MVP of the 1971 classic. While still an active player, he became the first black manager in major league history with the Cleveland Indians in 1975. He later managed the San Francisco Giants and the Orioles.

He spent 19 seasons with the Orioles as a player, coach ('79-'80 and '85-'87), manager ('88-'91) and assistant general manager ('91-'95).

Elected to baseball's Hall of Fame the 1st year he was eligible in 1982, Frank lives with his wife, Barbara, in Bel Air, CA. They have two children.

JIM PALMER—22

The greatest pitcher in Orioles history, Jim won 268 games in a 19-year career, all of it with Baltimore. He won 3 Cy Young Awards in a 4-year span ('73, '75, '76) and his 2.86 ERA is 4th on the all-time list among pitchers with 3,000 or more innings pitched.

Jim won 20 games in a season 8 times, one of only 6 who pitched exclusively in the 20th century to do that. He put that string together in a 9-year stretch, 1970-78, during which he went 176-97 with a 2.54 ERA.

In 1966, at age 20, he became the youngest pitcher ever to throw a World Series shutout, and in 1983 he became the only hurler to have won a World Series game in each of 3 decades. He was the winning pitcher in the Orioles 1st 4 pennant-clinching games and was 8-3 in 17 post-season appearances. He was a 6-time All-Star and was the A.L.'s starting pitcher 4 times.

Jim was elected to baseball's Hall of Fame on the 1st ballot in January, 1990. He is in his 3rd season as an analyst and play-by-play broadcaster for Home Team Sports, the Orioles' cable broadcast partner, and has also worked for ABC-TV and ESPN.

Jim and his wife, Joni, live in the northern Baltimore County suburb of Brooklandville. He has 2 daughters, Jamie Michelle and Kelly Christina.

EDDIE MURRAY—33

Eddie, now with the Indians and entering his 20th major league season, spent the 1st 12 years of his Hall-of-Fame career with the Orioles. He hit 333 of his 479 homers with the Orioles and still holds the club record (Cal Ripken enters '96 with 327). He had 2,021 of his 3,071 hits with the Orioles. He has been an All-Star 8 times, 7 as an Oriole. He ranks 2nd, 3rd or 4th in virtually every Orioles career offensive category.

Last year, Eddie became the 19th player to reach the 3,000-hit mark. He is 16th on the all-time home run list and 13th in RBI (1,420). He has driven in at least 75 RBI in each of his 19 seasons, a feat unmatched. He has more RBI than any switch-hitter in history. He has batted .300 or better 7 times, including 5 times as an Oriole. He won the team's "triple crown" 5 times, leading the Orioles in average, homers and RBI in the same season.

Eddie broke in as the A.L. Rookie of the Year in 1977. He was named Most Valuable Oriole 7 times (twice sharing the award with Cal). A 3-time Gold Glove winner, he holds the major league record for games played and career assists by a 1st baseman.

Like Frank Robinson before him, Eddie's Oriole number was retired when he was traded to the Los Angeles Dodgers. Now with his 4th big league club, he lives with his wife, Janice, and their daughter, Jordan Alexandra, in his hometown of Los Angeles.

ORIOLE PARK AT CAMDEN YARDS

Eutaw Street
Oriole Park at Camden Yards

1996p360-361

◆ ORIOLE PARK AT CAMDEN YARDS ◆

THE HISTORY

Oriole Park at Camden Yards, the beautiful baseball-only facility in downtown Baltimore, became the official home of the Orioles on April 6, 1992. The construction of the park was completed in essentially 33 months from the time razing previous structures on the 85-acre parcel began June 28, '89 in the area known as Camden Yards.

The one-time railroad center is 12 minutes west by foot from the City's Inner Harbor and only 2 blocks from the birthplace of baseball's most legendary hero, George Herman "Babe" Ruth. Ruth's father operated Ruth's Cafe on the ground floor of the family residence located at Conway Street & Little Paca, now center field at Oriole Park. The ballpark seats 48,188 (not including standing room) and the project cost was approximately $110 million. It was designed by the Kansas City architectural firm of Helmuth, Obata & Kassabaum (HOK) with direction and input from the Orioles and the State of Maryland, which owns and operates the facility through its agency, the Maryland Stadium Authority (MSA).

Working under contract to HOK were the urban design firm of RTKL, the landscape architecture firm of Wallace, Roberts and Todd, and the engineering firms of Bliss and Nyitray, Rummel, Klepper and Kahl, and Kidde Consultants, Inc. Working under contract to the Orioles were the interior design firm of Forte Design and the graphic design firm of David Ashton and Associates.

Oriole Park is state-of-the-art yet unique, traditional and intimate in design. It blends with the urban context of downtown Baltimore while taking its image from baseball parks built in the early 20th century. Steel, rather than concrete trusses, an arched brick facade, a sun roof over the gentle slope of the upper deck, an asymmetrical playing field, and natural grass turf are just some of the features that tie it to those magnificent big league ballparks built in the early 1900's. Ebbets Field (Brooklyn), Shibe Park (Philadelphia), Fenway Park (Boston), Crosley Field (Cincinnati), Forbes Field (Pittsburgh), Wrigley Field (Chicago), and The Polo Grounds (New York) were among the ballparks that served as powerful influences in the design of Oriole Park.

THE PLAYING FIELD

The field is 16' below street level and is made up of Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT), a sophisticated irrigation and drainage system below a natural grass turf. It is designed to reduce the frequency of rainouts while shortening the length of baseball's most exasperating feature, the rain delay. The PAT system makes it possible to get the field ready for play within half an hour after the end of a heavy rain storm. It automatically removes as many as 75,000 gallons of rainwater from the field in an hour.

The park's deepest point is left of dead center (410') just as Fenway Park's (420') is to the right of the center line. Though it is 15 feet shorter from home plate to the right field corner than down the left field line, that difference is compensated by a 25' high wall which extends 100' from the right field line toward center. The fence in the rest of the park is only 7' high.

THE WAREHOUSE

Located beyond right field, the B&O Warehouse is 432 feet from home plate. Detroit catcher Mickey Tettleton has come closest to hitting the building on the fly in a regular season game (his homer, Apr 20, '92 directly down the RF line off Ben McDonald, landed 26 feet short of the warehouse). During the home run hitting contest the day before the '93 All-Star Game, Seattle's Ken Griffey hit the first ball off the warehouse.

Built between 1898-1905, the warehouse is the longest building on the East Coast at 1016' (but only 51' wide). It has been preserved and now provides unique office space for the Orioles as well as home for the banquet facilities, the ballpark's central kitchen and space for ballpark operations. The Orioles' main ticket office operates out of the north end of the Warehouse.

Three public facilities- a souvenir shop (The Orioles Baseball Store, open daily), a cafeteria (Pastimes) and a bar/lounge (Bambino's)- are located on the ground floor of the warehouse and on the 7th floor is the exclusive members-only Camden Club. The ballpark and warehouse are separated by a 60' wide promenade, an extension of Eutaw Street. Five balls have been hit out of the park and onto Eutaw Street—3 in 1992, one in 1994, and one in 1995. Kevin Reimer, while with Texas, hit one on May 5 off Jose Mesa that was 28 feet shy of hitting the building and California's Lee Stevens' drive to right-center off Rick Sutcliffe on May 23 was 33 feet short. In addition, Ken Griffey Jr. hit a blast off Brad Pennington on April 24, '94 that went 438 feet. Kevin Bass is the only Oriole to hit a ball onto Eutaw Street. He accomplished the feat on June 8, '95, when he hit a 409 foot blast off Seattle's Solomon Torres.These spots are marked by brass baseballs embedded in the concrete where the balls landed.

Open daily, Eutaw St. is home to plaques dedicated to members of theOrioles Hall of Fame, the Mid-Atlantic Baseball Scouts Hall of Fame and the Maryland Athletic Hall of Fame, as well as monuments to the players whose numbers have been retired by the Orioles. Ballpark tours depart regularly from the Baseball Store on Eutaw St.

SCOREBOARDS

There are 2 major electronic information centers in the ballpark to enhance enjoyment of the game. Two big boards are located on the main scoreboard in center field: The Sony JumboTRON video board (22'9" by 31'4") and an equally innovative incandescent lamp matrix game in progress board (24' 1/2" by 78' 1/2") built by Daktronics, Inc. (Brookings, SD) which is located on top of the JumboTRON.

Mounted on top of the 2 boards is a large double-faced clock built in Maryland by Triangle Signs that can be read from both inside the ballpark and in downtown Baltimore. That main scoreboard system also supports 2 weathervane Oriole birds to show players and fans alike the direction of wind flow.

Embedded in the tall right field wall is another electronic board (also built by Daktronics) that provides a good-ole-days feature missing from most current major league ballparks- continuously posted out-of-town scores. It accommodates 16 games at one time posting up-to-the-minute scores via a direct connection with SportsTicker the computerized service that tracks all big league games inning-by-inning. Above the out-of-town board are flag poles which sport the pennants of each American League team in order of their daily standings in each division. There are additionally 3 auxiliary boards for the convenience of those who do not face the 2 big boards in center field.

SEATING

Every aisle seat in the park bears an extra feature: a reproduction of the 100-year old logo used by the Baltimore Orioles of the 1890's, a National League team that won consecutive pennants in 1894-95-96.

The lower deck comprises some 18,000 box seats between the foul poles. Behind the lower boxes are some 6,800 terrace box seats. Seats in the lower stand are generally closer to the field. From the front row of seats to first and 3rd bases, for example, the distance is 45'. From home plate to the screen measures 57'.

The Left Field Mezzanine stretches from the right field foul pole to just beyond the left field foul pole and is accessible by escalators, elevators, stairs, and ramps. There is waiter service available at the seats and behind the seating area on the club level concourse is a climate controlled lounge with private dining and bar areas plus many other amenities including the Diamond Club restaurant.

At Club Level also are 72 luxury suites each containing 10 to 14 seats. These suites can be leased on a yearly basis from $65,000 to $110,000. In addition, there are a number of suites that are available for rent on an individual game basis, several which hold 10-18 people, and 3 larger party suites which can accommodate groups of up to 60 people.

The Upper Deck contains 25 rows of seats (the first 12 are boxes, the last 13 reserved seats) and has a gentle slope of 31 degrees (Memorial Stadium, like many parks, was 33 degrees). A sun roof was constructed to cover half of the upper deck seating area.

Some 1850 bleacher seats, among the most popular in the park, are located in right-center field. There are also 275 standing room only locations that go on sale 2 hours before game time. These areas are found on the right field flag court and just above the visitor's bullpen in left field.

More than 400 seats are available to fans with disabilities in the equal access areas (EA) which are located in all price categories throughout the ballpark.

ACCESSIBILITY/PARKING

It is easily reached via rail, bus and subway lines as well as 4 major highways (I-95, I-83, I-70 and the Baltimore-Washington Parkway). The MARC train and light rail trains both have stops directly on site. Over 5,000 parking spaces are located south of the park on-site and over 30,000 spaces are located in garages and lots throughout downtown, all within one mile of the park.

IMPROVEMENTS MADE TO ORIOLE PARK

Since Oriole Park at Camden Yards opened in 1992, a number of exciting improvements have been made to help enhance our fans' experience at the ballpark...

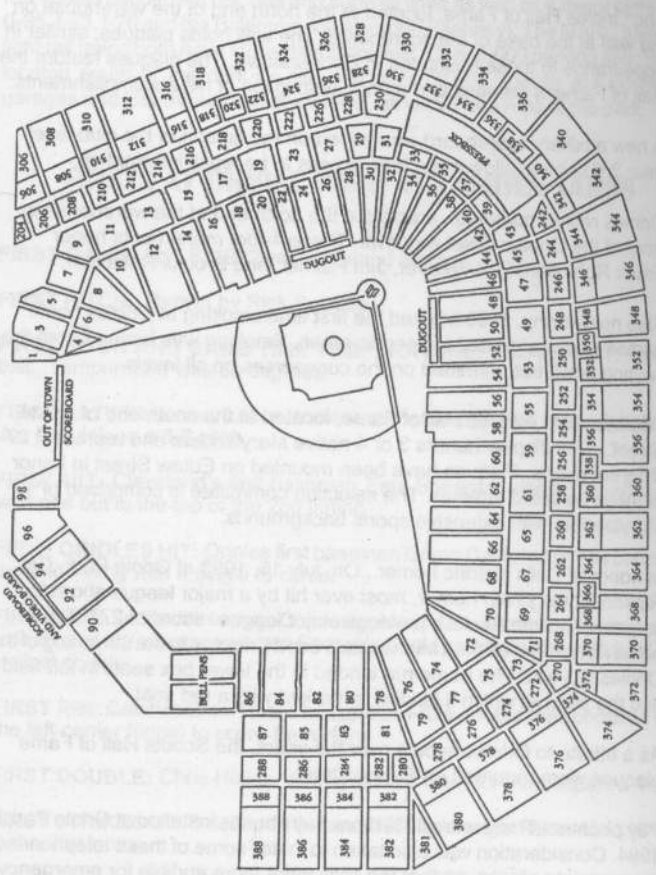

- On Eutaw Street, brass baseball plates were embedded into the sidewalk marking the spots where home runs cleared the right field fence wall. These plates contain the home run hitter's name, his team's logo, the distance the ball traveled, and the date the home run was hit.
- The Orioles Hall of Fame, located at the north end of the warehouse on the wall at the base of the scoreboard. The wall holds plaques, similar in appearance to those enshrined in Cooperstown. The plaques feature the Hall of Famer's likeness and a brief description of his accomplishments.
- A new auxiliary scoreboard was added on the facade of the club level near 3rd base to allow more fans access to baseball information.
- Orioles retired numbers...erected at the north end of the warehouse in front of the Orioles ticket windows. These 4-foot monuments honor Frank Robinson, Earl Weaver, Jim Palmer, and Brooks Robinson.
- Also noteworthy, 1993 marked the first time smoking at Orioles home games was designated to specific areas. Smoking was banned from the seating bowl, but permitted on the concourses on all levels.
- The Maryland Athletic Hall of Fame, located at the south end of Eutaw Street...This display honors 3 or 4 native Marylanders and represent 27 different sports. Plaques have been mounted on Eutaw Street in honor of these selected athletes. The selection committee is comprised of 12 Marylanders with extensive sports backgrounds.
- In honor of Cal's historic homer...On July 15, 1993 at Oriole Park, Cal Ripken hit his 278th homer, most ever hit by a major league shortstop, surpassing Ernie Banks's previous major league record of 277. Cal's home run was hit off then Minnesota's Scott Erickson in the 6th inning of the Orioles 5-3 win. The home run landed in the lower box seats in left field and the point at which it landed is marked with a red seat.
- As a tribute to Orioles scouts over the years, the Scouts Hall of Fame plaques were mounted on Eutaw Street.
- Pay phones...There were 18% more pay phones installed at Oriole Park in 1994. Consideration was also taken to install some of these telephones in more remote places, so that the calls were more audible for emergency situations.
- To accomodate more fans, a new section of bleachers—Section 90—was added.
- The right field escalators, which take fans to the Club Level, have been redesigned. Following the repairs, made by manufacturer Montgomery Elevator, the Maryland Department of Licensing and Regulations will run extensive tests to ensure that the escalators meet all safety standards.
- Seats in sections 10, 12, 62, 64, 66, 68, or 70 will experience the benefits of "redirected" seats, a process which will improve the angle of many seats in right and left field. These seats will face more directly toward the pitcher's mound.
- Repainted railings...16 miles of it, all over the ballpark.
- The Orioles dugout's drainage problems have undergone work.

ATTENDANCE NOTES

LEAGUE LEADERS: The Orioles led the American League in attendance for the first time ever in 1995, drawing 3,098,475 fans for 72 home dates. The Orioles were the only A.L. team to top the 3 million mark and were second in the Major Leagues, behind only the Colorado Rockies (3,390,037). The Orioles averaged 43,034 fans per contest in '95, the lowest figure in the four years that Oriole Park at Camden Yards has been opened.

LET'S NOT REPEAT THIS RECORD: The '95 Orioles also became only the second franchise to draw more than 3 million fans while finishing with a losing record (71-73). The Los Angeles Dodgers are the only other franchise to draw 3 million fans and finish below .500, doing it twice in a full 162-game season. The 1984 Dodgers (79-83) drew 3,134,824 fans and the '86 Dodgers (73-89) drew 3,023,208 fans. The Orioles turned the trick with 9 fewer home games.

MORE THAN 12 MILLION SOLD: In four seasons at Oriole Park, the O's have drawn 12,846,618 fans for 286 home dates (an average of 44,918 per game). On May 12, 1995, Oriole Park at Camden Yards became the second fastest ballpark (behind Toronto's Skydome) to draw 10 million fans. It took nearly 11 seasons (729 dates) for the Orioles to reach 10 million fans at their former home, Memorial Stadium. They reached that mark on Aug. 14, 1964. Total attendance in 38 seasons (2,716 dates) at Memorial Stadium was 49,845,588.

Ballpark	Site	No. of Dates
SkyDome	Toronto	206
Oriole Park at Camden Yards	Baltimore	221

Dodger Stadium	Los Angeles	324

SELLOUTS: The Orioles recorded 29 sellouts in '95, bringing the total number of sellouts to 215 of 286 dates at Camden Yards (75.2%). Included in that total is a major league-record 65 consecutive sellouts, from May 23, 1992 through Apr. 20, 1993. (The Cleveland Indians, who sold out their entire 1996 home season during the winter, will surpass that total this season.)

MILESTONES:

2 million	43 home dates ('94)
1 million	22 home dates ('94)

O'S LARGEST, SMALLEST CROWDS: The smallest crowd to see a game at Camden Yards was 22,564 for a make-up game on Apr. 22, 1993. That date had been an off-day, but rain the previous night necessitated the make-up...That game also broke the O's string of 65 consecutive sellouts...It is the only date since the park opened that the Orioles have drawn fewer than 30,000 for a game...It is one of 4 occasions in which the Orioles have drawn fewer than 35,000, the other three coming last year: May 3 (33,837 vs. Mil), May 4 (30,019 vs. Mil) and June 6 (33,556 vs. Sea)...The Orioles have drawn fewer than 40,000 fans on only 18 dates, 14 of them coming in '95 when early season group sales were slowed by the strike...The largest crowd to see a game at Camden Yards was 48,147 for baseball's 64th All-Star Game on July 13, 1993...The largest regular season crowd was 47,851 on Memorial Day, May 30, 1994, when the Orioles played the Tigers...The Orioles have drawn 47 crowds of 47,000 or more, all of them in the last two seasons (37 dates in '94 and 10 dates in '95).

THE BABE RUTH MUSEUM— EXPANDING INTO CAMDEN STATION

On February 6, 1895, George Herman "Babe" Ruth was born at 216 Emory Street in a Baltimore row house located "just a long fly ball from Oriole Park at Camden Yards." His house is one of the top baseball museums in the country, featuring an extensive collection of Ruthian artifacts and mementos, as well as the official museum of the Baltimore Orioles.

In honor of the 30th anniversary of the Orioles first modern-era World Series win in 1966, the Babe Ruth Museum is exhibiting an array of memorabilia from that landmark season, from World Series rings and uniforms to daily box scores from the Baltimore Sun. The '66 Orioles exhibit will be on display from April 19 throughout the 1996 season.

Striving to exhibit its growing collections, the Museum plans to expand into a second facility: Camden Station, which is adjacent to Oriole Park at Camden Yards. The historic train station will feature many displays on the Orioles and Ruth, a full-size theatre, virtual reality exhibits, and hands-on children's learning areas, including a discovery room, classrooms and much more. The Museum will continue to maintain the current Babe Ruth Birthplace on Emory Street, with shuttle bus service between both sites. The new Babe Ruth Baseball Center at Camden Station is slated to open in 1997.

INSIDE THE PARK HOME RUNS

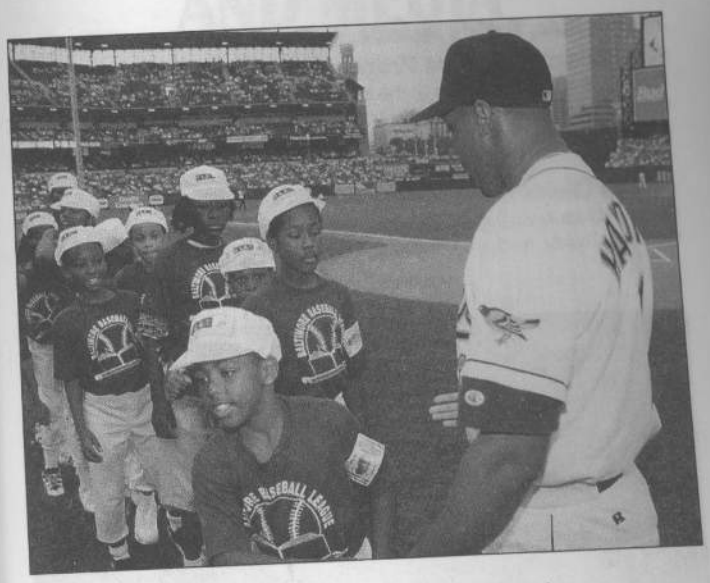

On Aug 22, '93, Texas Rangers (and former Orioles) outfielder Butch Davis circled the bases on an inside-the-park home run, off Arthur Rhodes at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. It was the first ever hit in the new park and the first by a visiting player in Baltimore since 1960 when Washington's Lenny Green hit one off Jack Fisher on August 17.

The Orioles haven't had an inside-the-park homer to call their own since June 8, '90 when outfielder Phil Bradley did it at Memorial Stadium...He victimized the Yankees' Greg Cadaret.

Bradley's homer was the 11th and final inside-the-park job at Memorial Stadium (10th by an Oriole) and the first for the O's at home since his childhood baby sitter, Al Bumbry, hit one off the Yankees' Steve Kline, Apr 19, '74.

Bradley's blast remains the only Oriole inside-the-park homer, home or away, since Bumbry did it against Jesse Jefferson of the White Sox at old Comiskey Park, Aug 21, '76.

BIRDS IN THE COMMUNITY

As active community partners, the Orioles supported many civic and charitable organizations in 1995. Below are just a few of the highlights from last season.

The Cal Ripken Jr./Lou Gehrig Fund for Neuromuscular Research at Johns Hopkins University

Peter Angelos conceived a plan to sell 260 field-level seats at $5000 a piece for Cal Ripken Jr's record-breaking game on September 6. With the help of Pete Manos, Richard McCready and the local business community, the Orioles were able to sell all the seats in two weeks. The Orioles pledged an additional $700,000 during post-game ceremonies on September 6 to raise the fund to the two million mark. The fund is earmarked for research of amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS) also known as "Lou Gehrig's disease" because it claimed the life of the former Yankee great.

The Baltimore Orioles Charitable Foundation

The Baltimore Orioles Charitable Foundation contributed over $300,000 last year to organizations including: The Baltimore Zoo, The Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, Boy Scouts of America, Parks & People Foundation, The Baltimore Urban League, The CollegeBound Foundation, Walters Art Gallery, Archdiocese of Baltimore, The Babe Ruth Museum, SportsBoosters, The National Aquarium, Johns Hopkins Oncology Center, The Learning Bank, National Multiple Sclerosis Society, The Arthritis Foundation, American Heart Foundation, The Greater Washington Boys & Girls Club, AFRAM, and The Baltimore Symphony Orchestra.

The Baltimore Baseball League

The Baltimore Baseball League provides 1000 4th and 5th grade students from Baltimore City schools with the opportunity to play baseball. The league is funded by The Junior League of Baltimore, The Abell Foundation, The Macht Foundation, and The Baltimore Orioles. Each child must show improved scholarship, good attendance and good citizenship. In addition, each child must read 10 books and write a book report on each.

Jesse's Kids, Raffy's Rascals, and Cal's Because We Care Program

Through their special nights at the ballpark, Orioles players Jesse Orosco, Rafael Palmeiro and Cal Ripken Jr. hosted over 2,400 children at Orioles games throughout the season.

Orioles Clinics

Orioles clinics featuring Orioles coaches and players were held in Prince Georges County, northern Virginia and southern Pennsylvania.

Orioles Wives Go To Bat

In June '95, the Orioles Wives collected over 2 tons of food for the Maryland Food Bank during their annual canned food drive at Camden Yards. In July, the Wives Auction raised $50,000 for Johns Hopkins Children Center and the Baltimore Orioles Charitable Foundation. And in August, the Wives' Safe At Home Night raised $31,000 for Parent's Anonymous, a child-abuse prevention organization.

Safety Patrol Night

Safety Patrol students throughout the Maryland region joined the Orioles for the annual Safety Patrol Night in May. In 1996 the Orioles will host 10,000 members of this group at the Orioles exhibition game on March 30, 1996.

Appearances

Orioles players and the Oriole Bird made over 675 appearances throughout the Orioles community.

Other Programs

Other 1995 youth-oriented community programs included the WSBA (York, PA) Buck A Book Program, Cal's Reading, Runs & Ripken Program, and the Orioles Summer Reading Program, as well as the annual Holiday Party for children.

RULES OF INTEREST

TRADING AND WAIVER REGULATIONS: Player assignments may be made to another major league club without waivers at any time except between Aug 1 and the day following the final day of the regular season (5 pm ET).

Waivers are required for assignments to National Association clubs at all times except for optional assignments within 3 years of the date the player first reported to the major leagues...One year shall be deducted from the above 3-year period for each season in which the player may have been charged with an option prior to first reporting to a major league club during a championship season.

FREE AGENCY: Six years major league service required for eligibility. Re-entry draft has been abolished. By Dec 7, player's former club must offer to arbitrate or it becomes ineligible to sign player...By Dec 19, player must accept offer or on Jan 9 former club becomes ineligible to sign the player until May 1.

SALARY ARBITRATION: Three years major league service required for eligibility...Maximum cut rules do not apply if, in immediately preceding year, player won arbitration increase of over 50 pct...In addition, effective since '91, a player with at least 2 but less than 3 years of ML service, shall be eligible for salary arbitration, if:
(a) he has accumulated at least 86 days of service during the immediately preceeding season, and (b) he ranks in the top 17 pct in total service in the class of players who have at least 2 but less than 3 years of ML service, however accumulated, but with at least 86 days of service accumulated during the immediately preceding season

TERMINATION PAY: One full season's pay if player released opening day or later...Thirty days pay for player who is released on the 16th day before opening day or earlier...If player is released after that 16th day prior to opening day, he receives 45 days pay.

SAVE RULE: Credit a pitcher with a save when he is the finishing, but not the winning pitcher, and when he qualifies under one of the following conditions:
(1) He enters the game with a lead of no more than 3 runs and pitches for at least one inning, or, (2) He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat, or on deck, or
(3) He pitches effectively for at least 3 innings regardless of his club's lead

The current rule was adopted in 1975...Saves became official for the first time in '69...The original rule was amended in '73 and revised again in '75.

BATTING/ERA TITLE QUALIFICATIONS: 502 or more plate appearances/162 or more innings pitched.

ROOKIE AWARD QUALIFICATIONS: A player is considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has
(1) exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues, or
(2) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a big league club(s) prior to Sep 1 (time on the disabled list does not count).

CONSECUTIVE-GAME STREAKS: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a walk, hit by pitch, defensive interference, or a sacrifice bunt...The streak shall terminate, however, if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

The player's individual consecutive-game hitting streak shall be determined by the consecutive games in which the player appears and is not determined by his club's games.

SUSPENDED GAME RULE: A game terminated for any of the following reasons will be a suspended game if it has progressed far enough to be an official game (ie 4-1/2 or 5 innings):
(1) A curfew imposed by law
(2) A pre-arranged time limit
(3) Darkness where local law prohibits turing on the lights or where lights are not available

Light failure: A game terminated by light failure or malfunction of a mechanical device under the control of the home club will be a suspended game anytime after it starts.

Inning in Progress (added in '80): If weather forces the termination of a legal game while an inning is in progress, it will become a suspended game if either of the following conditions exists:

(1) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the game, and if the home team has not scored

(2) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead

Note: If a legal game is tied when called because of weather and neither or the above situations prevails, it is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

Procedures for Resumption of Play: Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding that next single game between the 2 clubs on the same ground...If that is not possible, other provisions for resumption are specified in AL Regulation 5.2(c).

CURFEW: The AL curfew provides that no inning may start after 1:00 am, but any inning that begins prior to 1 am may be played to completion...Curfews shall be waived for the final series of the season in each of the parks of the contesting teams...There in no other curfew in the American League.

ORIOLES RADIO & TELEVISION

RADIO

Announcers: Jon Miller, Fred Manfra, Chuck Thompson and Josh Lewin

WBAL (1090 AM) begins its 9th consecutive season as the flagship station for the Orioles radio network. The 1996 season also marks the 31st time since Baltimore returned to the major leagues 43 years ago that WBAL has originated Orioles broadcasts. The station first carried Oriole games in 1957, the club's fourth season. WBAL's coverage begins one hour before every Orioles game with "Countdown to Baseball," hosted by JOSH LEWIN, the station's sports director.

Orioles games are heard on the region's two most powerful 50,000-watt AM stations. In addition to WBAL in Baltimore, WTOP (1500 AM) in Washington, D.C., will once again carry Orioles games this season, meaning O's fans in the mid-Atlantic area will never be out of radio range. In all, there are 25 stations on the Orioles Radio Network, covering seven states and the District of Columbia.

JON MILLER

One of baseball's finest announcers, Jon Miller's voice is synonymous with Orioles broadcasts and for describing the action on ESPN Sunday Night Baseball. This will be his 14th season with the Orioles.

His talents are not only entertaining and informative, but worthy of consideration for national and regional awards. He is in his 7th season with ESPN (after 4 years with NBC-TV) and has been nominated four times for an ACE award, emblematic of cable television excellence, and won the award in 1990 for his play-by-play work. He has been honored by as Baltimore's Best Radio Sportscaster by Baltimore Magazine and as Best Play-By-Play Broadcaster by Washington Magazine.

On WBAL Radio, he will team with Fred Manfra for the 4th season. On ESPN, his partner is Hall of Fame second baseman Joe Morgan.

Miller, 44, grew up in the San Francisco Bay area and began his major league baseball broadcasting career at age 22 with the Oakland A's in 1974. He later did radio and television for the Texas Rangers in 1978-79 before moving on to Boston, where he spent 3 years in the Red Sox radio booth (1980-82). He joined the Orioles broadcast team in 1983.

Miller also had extensive broadcasting background in basketball, soccer and ice hockey during his 22 years behind the microphone. He did 10-15 games a season for the NBA's Golden State Warriors (1979-82) and, prior to that, did University of San Francisco basketball for 5 seasons. He also did soccer play-by-play for the San Jose Earthquakes and the Washington Diplomats of the North American Soccer League (NASL) for CBS-TV in 1977.

A renowned impressionist, he convincingly imitates such talented baseball announcers as Harry Caray, Vin Scully and Chuck Thompson during breaks in the action and on the banquet circuit.

Miller and his wife, Janene, live in Cockeysville, MD (northern Baltimore suburbs). They are parents to three daughters, Michelle (23), Holly (18) and Emilie (17) and a son, Alexander (8).

FRED MANFRA

It appeared inevitable that Fred Manfra's career plans would lead him to broadcasting Orioles games on the radio. One of his athletic highlights is hitting a double off the left field wall at Memorial Stadium in an American Legion game, and under his photo in the Patterson High School (class of '64) yearbook it says, "Fred's...future plans are in...Radio-T.V. work."

The Baltimore native returns for his 4th season as radio voice of the Orioles. The award-winning sportscaster came back to Charm City and WBAL Radio in 1993 after doing 22 sports shows every weekend since 1981 on more than 500 stations for the ABC Readio Information Network.

Manfra continues to do his ABC shows, working them around his baseball schedule, along with a number of other assignments for the network.

When he moved into the Oriole broadcast booth in '93, it wasn't the 1st time he'd been heard doing O's games. In 1991, he did a series at Memorial Stadium and before that, in the late '70s, he periodically filled in on games for WBAL radio. His baseball experience also included a stint with the Detroit Tigers on cable television in 1980.

But baseball is only one of many sports Manfra has announced. His resume inclues some of the most prestigious events in the business, including NBA Finals and NBA All-Star Games (1985-91), the 1984 Olympic men's and women's basketball and 1988 Olympic ice hockey, NHL Stanley Cup Finals and All-Star Game (1991) and horse racing's Triple Crown (Kentucky Derby, Preakness at Pimlico and the Belmont Stakes) from 1982-92.

His Olympic assignments have been varied and have taken him around the globe, including Sarajevo, Yugoslavia and Los Angeles (in 1984), Calgary and Seoul, South Korea (in 1988), Albertville, France and Barcelona, Spain (1992) and Lillehammer, Norway in February, 1994. His assignments have included men's and women's basketball in 1984 and ice hockey in 1988, as well as anchoring the Opening and Closing Ceremonies, other play-by-play and hourly updates.

Fred began his radio career in the early '70s at KREL in Corona, CA. He moved eastward with stops in Ventura, CA (KBBQ-FM/KBBY-FM); Davenport, IA (KSTT-AM); Milwaukee (WRIT-AM) and Detroit (WWJ-AM) in addition to AP Radio Network Sports in Washington, D.C., bewore settling in the New York area with ABC Network Radio.

He has done college football and basketball for the Unviersity of Iowa (1975) and the University of Michigan (1979-80), as well as USFL and Arena football, New York Knicks basketball , boxing and wrestling. He also has done voice work for Madison Square Garden (1987-present) and for professional football team highlights films and the Sports Year in Review for ABC Radio Network (1983-present). Along the way, he's received numorous awards for his live action and studio reports.

Fred and his wife, Marlene, live in Fallston, MD. They have two daughters, Michelle (17), a freshman at Goucher College, and Stephanie (14), a varsity basketball player in her freshman year at Fallston High School.

CHUCK THOMPSON

On Feb. 9, 1993, the long-overdue word came from Cooperstown that Chuck Thompson officially belonged in the Hall of Fame, an honor Orioles fans knew years before. His place was secured when he was named the winner of the 1993 Ford C. Frick Award. With that distinction, he took residence in the broadcaster wing alongside the likes of Harry Caray, Vin Scully, Jack Buck and former Orioles announcer Ernie Harwell, among others. He was inducted into the Hall of Fame on Aug. 1, 1993.

A longtime legend in our town, Chuck was coaxed out of a 3-year retirement and returned to the radio booth in 1991 on a part-time basis, joining Fred Manfra on the air when Jon Miller is on another assignment. Chuck's voice has evoked memories for Baltimore sports fans for nearly half a century, beginning with the International League Orioles in 1949.

He was a veteran announcer before arriving in Baltimore, having started his career in 1939 at WRAW in Reading, Pa. From there, he went to Philadelphia's WIBG in '42 to do Temple University football. He served in the Army during World War II and saw action in 3 major European campaigns. After the war, he returned to Philadelphia, doing radio for the Phillies and Athletics in baseball, the Warriors in basketball, Eagles in football and Rockets in ice hockey.

He came to Baltimore in 1949 and became the voice of the International League Orioles and also did the All-America Conference Colts and Navy football as well as Bullets basketball. In 1955, he joined the National Brewing Company's team of announcers and during a 24-year association, did American League Orioles games in 1955-56 and again from 1962-78. In between, he was the radio voice of the Washington Senators ('57-'61).

In 1959 and 1960, he was on television doing NBC-TV's Game of the Week, including the 1960 World Series call of Bill Mazeroski's famous game-winning, 9th-inning home run which won the 7th and deciding game for Pittsburgh. He later did Orioles World Series games on national television in '66, '69, '70 and '71.

Equally acclaimed as the announcer for Baltimore Colts football, he called the "Greatest Game Ever Played," the classic overtime contest for the 1958 NFL title between the Colts and the New York Giants. He also worked the Colts-Packers overtime contest for the NFL's Western Division title in 1965 for CBS-TV.

He has been named the outstanding broadcaster in Maryland by the National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association on numerous occasions. And in 1995, he was the first non-uniformed inductee into the Orioles Hall of Fame, receiving the Herbert Armstrong Award.

Chuck is a golfing and fishing enthusiast and his wife, Betty, is an outstanding cook. He has 4 children, 11 grandchildren and 3 great-grandchildren. The Thompsons split their time between homes in Timonium, MD, and Bradenton, FL.

FORD C. FRICK WINNERS

Herb Carneal, longtime voice of the Minnesota Twins, is the 4th broadcaster with Oriole connections to win the Ford C. Frick Award and the 3rd in the last 4 years. Carneal ('57-'61) joins Bob Murphy ('60-'61), Ernie Harwell ('54-'59) and Chuck Thompson as one-time Oriole broadcasters who have won the award.

JOSH LEWIN

Josh Lewin has quickly developed a following as he enters his 2nd season as one of the Orioles radio voices. He'll fill in with Chuck Thompson on about 25 games this season when Jon Miller or Fred Manfra is on another assignment.

Josh was named Sports Director at Baltimore's WBAL Radio in September, 1994, doing sports updates and hosting the station's nightly "Sportsline" talk show. He also anchors pre- and post-game coverage on the Orioles radio network and serves as host of WBAL's "Orioles Talk" and "Countdown to Baseball" shows.

Prior to coming to WBAL, Josh spent 5 seasons as the radio and TV voice of the AAA Rochester Red Wings, the Orioles top farm club. Born in Atlanta but raised in Rochester, he made his baseball broadcasting debut with the Red Wings at 16. While a student at Northwestern University, he broadcast Wildcats football and basketball games. He often drove from the Evanston, IL, campus to New York State and back on weekends to broadcast Red Wings games in the spring as well. In 1993, he received the "Sportscaster of the Year" award in Rochester. Josh has also served as the radio voice for both the Richmond Renegades and the Rochester Amerks minor league ice hockey teams.

Josh has broadcast When he's not behind the microphone for WBAL, Josh also does television play-by-play for the AHL Baltimore Bandits ice hockey and is the radio voice of Naval Academy basketball. Last year, he founded "All-Star Kids," a self-esteem program for abused children in the Baltimore area.
A 1990 graduate of Northwestern, Josh and his wife, Dana, live in Ellicott City, MD (western suburbs of Baltimore), with their daughter, Kelsey (1).

TELEVISION

Announcers: Mel Proctor, Mike Flanagan, Jim Palmer and Tom Davis

For the 3rd season, Group W Broadcasting, which owns and operates Home Team Sports (HTS) cable and Baltimore's WJZ-TV, will have exclusive rights to produce, televise and sell advertising for all Orioles games, excluding those carried nationally or regionally through Fox Television or ESPN. HTS, which has telecast Orioles games since 1984, will carry 81 regular season and 9 exhibition games. WJZ-TV will telecast 35 regular season and 2 exhibitions and its broadcast partner, WNUV-TV in Baltimore, will air 35 games.

This unique arrangement allows Orioles fans to receive the same highly-acclaimed, award-winning quality telecasts on each outlet, using the same production and broadcast team on cable and on-air. All 162 of the team's regular season contests will be televised in 1996, including 151 games scheduled for local broadcast. In addition, eight Orioles games are slated for broadcast on Fox Television and three on ESPN.

Home Team Sports (HTS) is available to cable systems in the 6-state Capital Region, which includes all of Maryland, Virginia, Delaware and Washington. D.C., and parts of North Carolina, West Virginia and Pennsylvania.

WJZ-TV (Channel 13, CBS) and WNUV-TV (Channel 54, Paramount) will split the over-the-air broadcasts again this season. In addition, WBDZ-TV (Channel 50), formerly WFTY, will serve as the Orioles television outlet in Washington, D.C., carrying all 70 regular season and 2 exhibition games that WJZ and WNUV will carry.

MEL PROCTOR

One of the busiest broadcasters in the business, Mel Proctor enters his 24th year as a broadcaster and his 12th season doing Orioles television play-by-play, handling the chores for both Home Team Sports and O's TV.

He handles a variety of assignments for HTS but is widely known for his play-by-play of the Orioles and the NBA's Washington Bullets. In addition, he has done the Sugar Bowl for Mutual Radio; college football, pro basketball, boxing and the Goodwill Games for Turner Broadcasting; the Rose Bowl, Fiesta Bowl and NFL football for NBC television and radio; and college basketball for CBS-TV, including the NCAA tournament (1991-93). He is a 3-time winner of the Maryland Sportscaster of the Year award.

Mel began his career as sports director at KGMB-TV (CBS) in Hawaii from 1973-78. While there, he worked the microphone for Hawaii Islanders (AAA) baseball, University of Hawaii football and basketball, and 1 season of the Hawaiians of the World Football League.

He came to work in Washington for the 1st time in '78, serving a 5-year stint as radio play-by-play announcer for Bullets basketball on WTOP-AM. During the off-season, he was the television and radio voice fo the Texas Rangers in '80 and '81. For 2 seasons ('83-'84 and '84-'85) he was play-by-play voice of the NBA's New Jersey Nets.

In addition to his broadcasting work, Mel has a recurring role as reporter Grant Bessor on NBC-TV's "Homicide: Life on the Streets," which is filmed in Baltimore. He appeared in "Hawaii 5-0" while working in the Aloha State. And he is the author of "The Official Fan's Guide to The Fugitive."

A native of Denver, CO, Mel graduated from Colorado College. He resides in Ellicott City, MD, with his wife, Julie, and their children, Bill (14) and Maile (12).

MIKE FLANAGAN

Mike Flanagan will bring his knowledge and wit to the broadcast booth this season as the regular analyst on HTS and O's TV games. He is no stranger to the airwaves, having filled in on HTS broadcasts at times after finishing his playing career in 1992.

The 4th winningest pitcher in Orioles history, Mike retired after 18 big league seasons. He spent all but 3 of them in the Orioles organization, compiling a 141-116 record for the Orioles and a 26-27 record in 3 1/2 seasons with Toronto. In 1979, he went 23-9 and won the A.L. Cy Young Award. He ranks 3rd on the Orioles all-time list in games pitched with 450.

Mike was a starter throughout his career until returning to the Orioles for the 1991-92 seasons, when he moved to the bullpen. In '91, he had the distinction of being the last Oriole to throw a pitch at Memorial Stadium, striking out two batters to end the 9th inning in the last game there on Oct. 6.

Mike was elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame in 1994.

A basketball and baseball player at the University of Massachusetts, where he once played against Julius Erving in a frosh-varsity game, Mike has three daughters, Kerry, Kathryn and Kendall. He and his wife, Alex, live in Cockeysville, MD, north of Baltimore.

JIM PALMER

The winningest pitcher in Orioles history, Hall-of-Famer Jim Palmer returns for his 4th season as an analyst on Orioles television broadcasts and will increase his workload this season. He previously had done some play-by-play and analyst work on Oriole broadcasts on Home Team Sports and on WMAR-TV. Jim's biography and pitching record can be found on page 359.

TOM DAVIS

Baltimore native Tom Davis is celebrating his 25th year as a local sportscaster. Tom has been the host of Oriole telecasts on HTS since the cable station began in 1984. His duties include anchoring "The Orioles Report" 30 minutes before each HTS game, doing in-game score updates, highlights and behind-the scene interviews, as well as post-game interviews. He also fills in doing game play-by-play when the need arises.

Weekday mornings, Tom can be heard doing sports updates on the highly rated "Rouse and Company" show on Good Time Oldies 105.7 WQSR, where he has been sports director since July, 1988. Tom has worked as a morning sports radio anchor for 20 years, including WBAL radio and 2 stints at WCBM, where he covered the Baltimore Colts for their final 9 seasons in Baltimore.

Tom served as weekend sportscaster at WBAL-TV in the early '70s and, in the early '90s, hosted "Tom Davis Sports Beat" and "Notes & Quotes with John Oates" on FOX 45-TV. He also has hosted the TV shows "Boog and the Birds" and "Braase, Donovan and Fans" Sundays at noon on Channel 13 and HTS.

Davis, 48, has gained national exposure with NBC Radio, hosting the 1988 Summer Olympics in Seoul and doing play-by-play on U.S. men's basketball as well as boxing. Other NBC Radio assignments included the '87 Gator Bowl and '87 AFC Playoff game between the Jets and Browns. He also has done college football bowl games for the Mutual Radio Network. He did play-by-play on NFL games for NBC in 1986 and was a sideline reporter for ABC-TV's coverage of the USFL in '83-'84.

Tom has received 19 awards for sportscasting, including 5 Maryland Sportscaster of the Year awards ('78, '84, '85, '90 and '91). A graduate of Calvert Hall College HS, he received a BS degree in marketing from the University of Baltimore in 1971. He is the father of two children, Malinda (21) and Tad (18), and lives in Baltimore County.
